Installers Strike Results in Telephone Service Cut

Telephone service in Hereford has been partially interrupted since 7 a.m. Monday when a number of operators walked off their job to honor a picket line established by 40 Western Electric telephone equipment installers.

The installers, who with 23,000 other Western Electric employees began a nationwide strike for a new contract, had been installing crossbar dialing equipment in the recently completed Emerson Building at Fourth and Miles. They have maintained a quiet picket line, generally composed of only two men, since the strike began.

Not all of the telephone operators, who are not personally involved in the contract dispute, have honored the picket line.

A SOUTHWESTERN BELL official here refused to estimate the number of women operators still working their shifts, but Bill Leavy, manager, said that operators and supervisory personnel together have been filling about one-half of the normal operating positions on the local switchboard.

"They have been able to handle about three-fourths of the calls offered," Leavy said. He added that the strike may delay the company's plans to cut-over on Dec. 15 from operator to dial telephone service for Hereford telephone users.

"NORMALLY, there are no Western Electric employees at the Hereford exchange," Leavy pointed-out. "Had it not been for the new dial system work now in progress, the city probably would not have had any operator walkout. There has been no walkout in Canyon, for example."

Installers, who have talked freely with newspapermen, declared they are hopeful that the contract negotiations between their union, the Communication Workers of America, and Western Electric Co. will soon be completed.

"We do not feel our demands are too severe," one said.

Western Electric is the manufacturing, installation and maintenance branch of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

THE CWA's national director Joseph E. Dunne told the Associated Press Monday that "It will be a long strike unless the company meets our just demands. The situation (Continued on Page 6)

Around Town

A. N. Hopson brought in the first bale of cotton of the season in the Hereford area on Tuesday afternoon. Ginned at Ward Gin, barely a mile from his farm just south of town, the cotton produced a 620 pound bale which should net about 50 cents a pound, according to J. Ward, gin owner. Hopson is continuing pulling in his field, brought in a second bale shortly after the first and may get four or five bales within the next few days. His field was planted with Paymaster 54-B seed.

Chief of Police Henry Aycock is reported doing well and "in good spirits" after a minor operation Tuesday at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo. Police Capt. Morris Brown visited Aycock Tuesday night and said the chief expects to be back home next Tuesday.

J. T. Boynton, local grocer, announced this week that he plans to continue operation of his store at 1308 Park Ave., in addition to Moore's Grocery on Highway 60 at 25 Mile Ave. Boynton purchased the Moore store last week.

The United Council of Churchwomen will meet at 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 23, at the First Christian Church.

About 240 people attended the Shirley Grade School P-TA meeting Tuesday evening. The sixth graders served as a hospitality committee, and guests joined in a basket dinner. Mrs. Bynum's first grade room won the prize, a bowl of turtles, for the best percentage of parents present.

Oct. 28 Will Mark Start of UF Drive

Deaf Smith County's first United Fund Drive will begin Oct. 28 and is scheduled to last a week. Goal for the drive is $21,975.

The date and figure were set Tuesday night at a U. F. board meeting at the Hereford State Bank. The goal was upped by $700 over the recommendations of the budget and admissions committee when the Heart Fund asked to be admitted.

The Heart Fund decided not to hold a drive of its own in order to participate in the United Fund. The board of directors also studied and adopted the by-laws for the group.

One by-law permits persons making donations to designate a particular organization or agency to receive the donation. Otherwise donations will go into the general fund and be disbursed as allowed in the budget. In other action Mrs. Paul Harvey was named as chairman of the campaign committee to replace Hub Hother who has moved to Pampa.

The activity of the UF will now be in the hands of the campaign committee which will be in charge of raising the funds. Woody Wilson is the general campaign chairman.

Medics To Get First Flu Shots

A shipment of Asian flu vaccine is expected in Hereford about Oct. 1, according to T. E. Seigler, manager of Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Seigler said the first shipment will be used to inoculate doctors and members of the hospital staff and all vaccine thereafter will be distributed among the public.

All shots will be given at the Hereford Clinic, Seigler said. Each shot of vaccine itself will cost about $1, Seigler said.

Dear Mr. Motorist:

What Was Your Hurry?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A letter addressed to "Dear Mr. Motorist" arrived at the Mirror-News.

"I am not writing this to you to remind you all over again," the letter said, "but to all motorists because school again begins."

"I want to prevent the tragedy that we have shared together — a mother and you, Mr. Motorist."

"That day three sun-tanned little faces smiled as they waved me a happy goodbye and so importantly went on their way to school. I wanted to call them back to tell them how lonesome it would be."

"MR. MOTORIST, I wanted to kiss them once more. Then I saw you take that corner — tires screaming, car out of control."

"What was your hurry? Were you late for work? Were you angry at someone. . . Surely not my three. I am sure you would not want to run your screaming tires over their happy faces intentionally, erasing forever the smiles they had for me."

"But, Mr. Motorist, children are very forgiving in life and — I'm sure — in death. They would if they could, pat your hand and feel sad that because of one tragic moment you are left to live over and over again how your love of speed took three lives."

"I DON'T HATE you any more. I feel sorry for you. I can still see those smiling little faces as they wave me goodbye."

The letter was signed. Under the signature this postscript: "Another year. And once again your flowers arrive. They are beautiful. Thank you."

The newspaper sent reporter Charles Neiswender to investigate. He talked with a close friend of the letter writer. She told him the letter was written four years ago on the first anniversary of the tragedy. It was written but never intended to be mailed to the man who was driving the car. The friend sent the letter to the paper, which printed it yesterday.

HE STILL SENDS the mother flowers on each anniversary of the children's death.

And the mother? She couldn't write a letter now. For in her mind she still waves goodbye to the smiling faces of her children. The tragedy was too much. She is in a mental hospital, hopelessly insane.

2 Local Women Are Injured in Wreck at Dawn

Two Hereford women were injured, one seriously, in a two-car collision in Dawn about 7 p.m. Tuesday. Both women are being treated at Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Mrs. Orpha Nickerson, 58, 229 Lee, suffered a broken right leg, bruises and cuts and Mrs. Ovedia Miller, 35, 606 Knight, suffered bruises and shock. Mrs. Nickerson is in serious condition and hospital attendants said Mrs. Miller is in good condition.

Mrs. Miller was driving and was accompanied by Mrs. Nickerson when her car rammed into a car driven by Della Ruth Dow, 20, of Dawn.

Highway Patrolman Kenneth Maxwell, who is investigating the accident, said Miss Dow was almost stopped and was starting to make a left-hand turn. There were five other people in the car with Miss Dow but none were injured, Maxwell said.

Maxwell said both cars were going east on U. S. Highway 60 when the mishap occurred.

Gilliland Ambulance Service brought Mrs. Nickerson and Mrs. Miller to Hereford.

Car Hits Pump; Driver Billed

Pedro Avila, 24, of the Labor Camp was given tickets for collision with a fixed object, driving without a license and driving a car without an inspection sticker Sunday after his car hit a gas pump at Moore Service Station at the intersection of Highways 60 and 51.

Avila's 1946 model car rammed into a pump, knocked it over and started a fire which was soon extinguished. The mishap occurred at 6:45 p.m.

Saturday at 8:10 p.m. Mrs. Ina Parrack, 34, was slightly injured when the car in which she was riding struck a curb on Highway 60 just east of Main. Her husband, Robert, 31, was driving the car. Mrs. Parrack was treated and released at Deaf Smith County Hospital. Damage to the car was estimated at $160.

Duck Stamps Are To Sell for $2

Season on geese runs through Dec. 30 and ducks will be legal until Jan. 14. A stamp to hunt migratory fowl costs $2.

Whitefaces Meet Fast Team Friday

Seeking their first win of the season, the Hereford Whitefaces go to Dimmitt Friday night to meet the fast and experienced Dimmitt Bobcats of District 1-AA.

"Dimmitt has better than average speed and they're a senior ball club," Hereford coach Jack Harris said.

The Bobcats have played two games this year, smashing Springlake, 44-0, and in turn being smashed by Lockney, 32-0, last Friday.

PLAN NEW OIL TEST

LaMance Sets a 9,500-Foot Exploration

Drilling operations on a wildcat oil test eight miles southwest of Hereford in Deaf Smith County are expected to begin within the next week, according to a spokesman for LaMance Drilling Co., Ltd., Midland. The permit for the 9,500-foot test was approved Monday in Austin. The well will be located on land owned by Western Realty Co., Lubbock.

THE BLOCK of leases in which the test is located has been assembled by the Lease and Royalty Corp. of America, Lubbock. Humble Oil and Refining Co. reportedly holds a large block of mineral leases adjoining the test lease area.

LaMance Drilling Co., the spokesman said, is the contractor and operator and has been joined in financing the test by the Lease and Royalty Corp. and Skyline Oil Co., Salt Lake City, Utah. Financial arrangements were completed Monday morning.

The test is expected to cost about $100,000. It is located midway between two previous deep tests that were reported to have some "show" of oil, but not enough to warrant development.

THE LAMANCE spokesman said that "the geology for the test has been worked out by good geologists and we think there is a good prospect for development of a well."

The two previous tests were the Honolulu No. 1 Ponder, drilled in 1950 about four miles northwest of the new location, and the Gulf No. 1 Kettlehor, which was drilled more recently about three miles southwest.

The drilling permit listed the location as 660 feet from north and west lines of labor 12, league 1, Gregg County School Land.

WHILE THE Frankfort Oil Co. test in northeast Deaf Smith County failed to hit oil, the second and third oil wells have just been completed by Shell Oil Co. in Oldham County.

The company's No. 1-B Alamosa Ranch, section 13, block H-3, Capitol Land, was completed for 612 barrels of 43.5 gravity oil per day through one-inch choke and perforations at 7,122 to 7,143 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 334-1. Flow was natural and potential was based on an actual (Continued On Page 2)

LETTUCE LOOKS GOOD—As the Hereford lettuce harvest scene began to show increased activity this week, initial shipments were reported moving at $2.75 plus cooling charges per 48-head carton. Jim Beasley, above, of Phoenix, Ariz., here to help his brother Howard in the marketing operation, said first cutting yields on their first field were very good, 150 to 175 cartons per acre. Trautmann Bros. shipped 800 cartons Monday. Beasley shipped one carload Tuesday. (Staff Photo)

Improvements Are Planned for Airport, Sewage Plant

Approval of plans for two eight-plane hangars, expansion of the police department from six to seven patrolmen, and advertising for sale of $100,000 in bonds to finance improvements at the city sewage disposal plant were highlights of the city commission's meeting Monday evening.

The city board also heard a report on the recent state fire insurance inspection of Hereford that indicated fire insurance premiums will be $10,000 higher during the coming year than the possible minimum for property in the city limits. Lowering the insurance rate would be a lengthy and very expensive process, observed City Manager Dudley Bayne.

Contractors' bids on construction of the proposed hangars for Municipal Airport are to be opened in City Hall at 2 p.m. Oct. 7. The buildings are expected to cost about $35,000, and costs are expected to be returned by rental charges.

BIDS WILL be opened on the same date for a central air conditioning and heating unit to serve the police, corporation court and engineering offices on the second floor of the City Hall.

Tornado Warning System Studied

A tornado warning system, with two sirens to supplement the present one atop City Hall, is expected to be ready for use in Hereford by next spring.

City Manager Dudley Bayne recommended their purchase to members of the city commission Monday night. No action is expected, however, pending a study of siren types and costs, which Bayne estimates will range from $1,500 to $6,000 for each instrument.

The federal Civil Defense organization will pay one-half of the expense of purchasing warning sirens, according to the city manager.

The City Hall improvements, described as needed to replace four open type gas heaters by Bayne, will mark a new step in a program that has resulted in gradual but continual improvements of the building. First floor offices, the jail compartments and police offices have all been redecorated during the past year.

The commission approved expansion of the police staff from six to seven patrolmen after Bayne reported on a continued increase in the duties required of their department. The city manager said that while working hours for patrolmen had previously been cut from 70 to 53 hours per week, the task of patrolling areas frequented by migratory workers and increasing trouble with bootleggers has resulted in much overtime for the men now on the force.

Fire Protection Recommendations Look Expensive

The state insurance commission has recommended the employment of eight full-time firemen by the City of Hereford. The cost to the city would be $24,000 per year. The commission also advises the purchase of a new fire truck and a hook and ladder truck. Cost, $20,000 and $40,000, respectively. And it feels that a 100 foot high, 250,000 gallon capacity overhead water tank would also be advisable in Hereford.

These, plus other recommendations of the state board were considered Monday by city commissioners.

If all of the items recommended were purchased, and no fires occurred here during the next five years, the insurance commission might reduce total fire insurance premium rates, estimated at $70,000, in the city by $10,000, the commissioners noted. Items that would result in savings:

ADVERTISING for sale of $100,000 in bonds, the remaining portion of the issue approved last year for water and sewer improvements, was approved upon the request of Bayne. The funds are to be used in expanding the sewage disposal plant, a project under consideration for several months by the commissioners.

No date for soliciting or opening of bids was set, pending the completion of legal details connected with the bond sale by City Attorney Earnest Langley. In discussing the hangar construction project, the commissioners noted that plans prepared by (Continued On Page 2)

Concert Tickets To Be Available on Season Basis

Ticket prices for Hereford's first Community-School Concert Series were set Monday night in a meeting of the concert group. Sale of tickets will begin Friday.

It was also decided that any excess money after expenses would be turned over to the Hereford High band and choir for participating in the series.

Season tickets for adults will cost $3 and $1.50 for students. Holders of season tickets will be entitled to attend one concert by the Amarillo Symphony in Amarillo in addition to the Symphony's appearance here in November.

A minimum of three programs will be given in Hereford, with the Amarillo Symphony and the high school choir to present a combination (Continued On Page 2)

New Homes---New All Over

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If your new home doesn't look different from your neighbor's, then it is your own fault. New treatments of walls, ceilings, windows and floors now are available so that with a little planning your home can become a conversation piece.

Plastic is now at home with elegance, and is offering all the advantages of utilitarian living in a smart atmosphere. Take formica, for instance. It was successful in kitchens as counter tops for long years, but has now moved on throughout the house, including the stair well.

It is being used on walls and may be installed on the job for the first time, applied to concrete, masonite, plaster. Heretofore it had to be molded and cemented to other materials, measured exactly to the space planned for it and the job done in a factory.

One of the most effective treatments is done in inter-random planking with wood grains. A choice of 17 colors may be used in block form as in a nursery. In a new house the material may be put right over half-inch plywood nailed to the studs.

A dramatic foyer treatment shown recently involves using a vinyl flooring in a bold design of beige and black, and then matching this treatment to a formica door also done in beige, black and cocoa. Walls are in pale birch formica. The plastic travels from the walls right up the stair well, as it may be molded with no seams showing to mar the appearance of the walls.

The effects to be had are limitless in this and other plastics. Custom designs permit silk screening on the formica with special ink. The surface remains impervious to scratching and staining and maintains its easy cleanability.

Wood tones and effects present the newest look in home decor. If one does not have true wood paneling, the idea is presented in another way—with wood-toned wall papers, plastic paneling or plastic-coated hardboard.

Color schemes that seem to take particularly well to the laminated plastic include one shown in a handsome living room—fruitwood plastic room divider with white, citron and black furnishings and accessories. A kitchen combines bronze-hued cabinets with yellow laminated plastic and white vinyl tile floor. Another com-ination of colors used in a living room involves a painted brick floor in blue tones from cerulean to larkspur punctuated with strong green.

Pinks and reds are used in a nursery with walls a combination of both in laminated plastic.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What is a good, helpful exercise for my hips and buttocks?

A. Lie on side, legs straight out. Raise head and shoulders, bracing yourself with your arms. Lift legs about eight inches from floor, so that all weight is centered on hip and thigh. Now, perform a vigorous scissors movement, moving one leg forward as far as possible while the other goes backward as far as possible. Be sure the flesh pads you want to work on are massaged against the floor. Repeat on other side.

Q. How can I mix myself a good skin bleach and softener?

A. By combining one tablespoon of peroxide with one of milk, sponging the face with this for several minutes, then removing with a soft cloth dipped in milk.

Q. Please tell me what I can do about pimples on my face.

A. You must keep your skin more scrupulously clean than ever. Try leaving thick coats of soapsuds on the skin until they dry, then rinsing off. Calamine is very drying to pimples. Drink lots of water, avoid sweets, eat fresh foods, and get extra doses of fresh air and exercise.

Q. How can I, with my make-up, avoid accentuating a nose that is too short?

A. By powdering the nose first with powder that is a shade or so lighter than that used on the remainder of the face.

Q. What can I do about skin on my arms, which seems to have become quite rough?

A. Wash the arms with warm water and soap, scrubbing them with a small brush or coarse washcloth. This should remove the dead surface skin. Dry carefully, and apply a softening cream to the arms.

Q. What can I do about the almost constant swelling of my feet and ankles?

A. You can aid this condition a lot by propping your feet up on every possible occasion, or by wrapping them in wet towels for five minutes or so a day. If the swelling persists, consult your doctor, since it may be a sign of some internal disorder.

Q. What do you consider as the big difference between "amateur" and "professional" looking make-up?

A. Largely a matter of how the foundation and powder are put on. A perfectly smooth foundation—whether it's cream, liquid or cake—can give you the "great beauty" look. It must have no streaks, no spottiness, no visible stopping places around hairline or chin. See that the color is the most radiant-looking you can find. And use the powder that was designed to go with the foundation you are wearing.

Q. What is a good way to soften hard water for easier bathing?

A. Add a teaspoon of borax to two-thirds quart of the water.

Q. How can I give dry, brittle, overbleached hair a much-needed egg shampoo?

A. Two or three or more eggs are needed, according to thickness and length of the hair. Separate the yolks, and whip well, adding a very little water. Beat the whites to a froth, then blend with the yolks. Wet the hair with tepid water, removing excess moisture with the hands. Dip the hand into the egg mixture and apply with your hand cup-shaped, rotating on the head. When half the mixture is used, rinse with tepid water, and repeat the procedure, using the balance. Rinse with tepid or cool water so that the eggs will not congeal.

Fire...

because the city has buildings higher than two stories (the Jim Hill Hotel and the courthouse), would result in a key rate saving of $700 a year.

Eight full-time firemen would save $3,500 a year. Their salaries would cost at least $24,000, city officials estimate. The cost of these and other items, it was observed, represent some major inconsistencies in spending and saving benefits. Two arson warning signs posted in City Hall save twice as much, $1,400, as the hook and ladder truck would afford.

Paid for out of petty cash, the two signs are also as important on the state's rating scale as a $20,000 pumper, Bayne found in studying the state report.

HE SAID that if the pumping capacity of one of the city's present fire trucks can be raised just 17 gallons a minute, the margin by which it failed to meet state requirements, the city will meet the equipment recommendations laid down by the insurance board for pumps.

Adoption of a recommended building code could result in some savings, estimated at $1,400 to $4,200 per year, but would require the employment of a full-time building inspector. This recommendation is to be considered further by the commission. A survey of wooden roof houses is to be conducted in the near future, which may result in a savings in the key rate.

Meanwhile, Mayor Ray Godwin declared, "Our volunteer firemen are doing a wonderful job in giving us fire protection."

COMMISSIONER Neil Cooper observed, "Our insurance situation is not nearly so bad as some people would lead you to believe. Would we put out more fires (if all of the state recommendations were adopted)? It's inconceivable to me."

Bayne said that a comparison of Hereford's fire insurance key rate, now 23 but expected to rise next year to 29, with that of other cities in the region shows the city is well ahead of "places with comparable population. He cited Dumas with 33, Dalhart with 37 and Dimmitt with 34 as examples.

Booming 'Scared Cow' Population Straining Delhi's Cattle Pounds

By SAM JOHNSON
NEW DELHI (AP) — This city's population of sacred cows is booming.

Poorly fed at home, they break out of their pens and amble around the streets looking for garbage, grassy parks or someone's shrubs. The skinny, hump-backed cows have a strange love for paved streets after meals.

They stroll along, using whichever side of the street pleases them. Cars, bicycles and huge buses come to a screeching halt.

No one wants to hit a sacred cow. That could start a riot.

The scabby, lopsided animals hunch down in the middle of the street for a siesta after a garbage meal. Buses squeeze around them. Traffic becomes jammed for blocks.

City officials in New Delhi and the old, walled city of Delhi estimate the bovine population at 12,000 — including the "sacred cow," the not-so-sacred bullock, and the water buffalo, not sacred at all. This is one animal for every 10 persons.

The bovine population multiplied four times in the nine years since 1948. The housing problem in severe for humans and even worse for cattle.

Many of the cattle just wander away from their pens. Others are true orphans, catching a meal where they can find it. And some are runaways from the dry, dusty countryside, outside New Delhi, who amble into the city.

City officials continually round up strays and put them in "cow pounds," similar to "dog pounds" of other countries. The pounds handled 9,000 animals last year, so it seems almost every cow, bullock or water buffalo gets caught once a year.

In the pounds, the cows get food of a sort without scrounging for it. Life isn't pleasant, though. A veterinarian said recently, after a tour, that the affair in the cattle pounds is appalling.

Hindu religious law forbids killing a cow, but harsh treatment is overlooked. Many bullocks pulling carts through city streets have crooked tails, broken by drivers who twisted them to get more speed.

After a cow is put in the pound, the owner has the problem of getting it back. He has to pay a fine for permitting the animal to escape and for the food supplied by the pound.

Some owners can't find this kind of money, and so their cows stay in the pound. Officials, from time to time, drive the cattle into the countryside. Most seem to return to the city.

City officials have a longrange plan to place all the city's milk-giving cows and water buffalo on a dairy farm outside New Delhi.

Bombay did the same thing. It turned out to be one of the biggest cattle roundups in Indian history — 10,000 animals were pushed out of metropolitan Bombay.

SHORT JOURNEY HOME
HONOLULU (AP) — Noel K. Kaai has found a fool-proof method for getting into jail — where he says he feels at home.

The 56-year-old unemployed laborer was released from a one-month term for refusing to pay for a meal he ate at a restaurant.

Kaai walked straight to the Star Cafe and ordered freely from the menu. When the bill arrived, he announced he had no money.

The proprietor offered to accept his hat for security while he went to get some money. Kaai firmly declined, and added he wouldn't move until the proprietor called for a police officer.

Kaai drew 60 days.

FLEA INVASION
WACO, Tex. (AP) — Recent warm, humid weather brought another discomfort — fleas.

Texas A&M College experts advised use of malathion dust or spray. The fleas have built up an immunity to once-effective DDT.

YOUNG MODERNS
Beauty Alone Does Not Win Queen Titles

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Times have changed in the beauty contest world, and you need not worry about wolves if you become a contestant, says lovely tall, slim, brown-eyed 19-year-old Imogene Allen, who is Miss Mississippi in 1949.

"I guess it used to pose a problem," she says. "I've heard that parents worried about their daughters being in beauty contests, and that it just wasn't considered dignified. But it isn't that way any more. You must have talent and intelligence in addition to beauty in order to win a contest today, so you really do not owe thanks to anybody else if you win."

Since most of the girls are chaperoned and intelligent, there aren't any wolves to cope with, but if there were, they'd know how to handle them.

Imogene hasn't seen one to date, she says. Not the kind that plague the girls in beauty pageants in days gone by, anyway.

"I get a few post cards, of course, from soldiers and other young men admirers," she says. "But that is all normal correspondence. They're just from young men who enjoy being pen pals."

Imogene's chaperone in New York where she has been seeing the signs in connection with the big Miss America contest at Atlantic City is Catherine O'Carin, who was Miss Mississippi in 1949.

A chic soap-and-water type (although she uses a little liquid cream) occasionally, she brushes and sets her hair every night, wears it in a page boy or bun hairdo which she considers lady-like styles. She loves orange juice, garden vegetables and fruits, although she goes on an eating binge occasionally for those Southern specialties — hot biscuits, corn bread and pecan pie.

Imogene is a good cook and loves to whip up those male favorites — lemon ice box pie, fried chicken and corn bread. And she doesn't depend on a packaged mix, either. She tries to keep her weight to 120 with dieting and exercise. She can draw and would like to be a fashion illustrator. She works with tempera and water colors and has done a number of landscapes.

One of her reasons for entering the Miss America contest was to try to win the scholarship money so that she could attend a good art school. She's already had one year at Mississippi State College for Women where she is majoring in art.

Foibles - - Fancy and Plain

By KENT SNARE

Here we're face to fact with the 1957 Footballer kick off time, college type, makes one feel his age when he realizes how long it's been since he had unwound his stomach after that getaway boot. Another infallible sign of creeping on age is that morning-after feeling when there has been no night before.

Below are some guesses, immediately after the teams is listed last year's score, if the teams did not play last lap it will be indicated by dnp. Next is annotated the observers consensus pick. You readily understand that there is no guarantee, expressed or implied, either on the consensus pick or on any butter fingered abstainer that the writer might implant.

Colorado at Washington. dnp. Washington.

Oklahoma State vs Arkansas at Little Rock. 7-19. Arkansas. A toughie.

Villanova at Baylor. dnp. Baylor. SMU at California. dnp. California. SMU is starting over after Woodard with Meek.

Brigham Young at Arizona. dnp. Arizona. A demurrer here. BYU. Kentucky at Georgia Tech. 6-14. Kentucky. Not me, I'll stick with the Wrecks.

Texas vs Georgia at Grant Field. Atlanta. dnp. Texas. Georgia's starting center is a Texas Tech transplant, Dave Lloyd, and Tech could use him.

Miami at Houston. dnp. Miami. Altho the Hurricanes do not have a starter returning they are highly rated nationally. Houston could surprise em like they did Texas A&M last year.

Denver at Iowa State. 10-13. Denver. I'll go against that pick, Iowa S.

Rice at LSU. 23-14. Rice. Altho Rice has lost 9 straight to the Tigers in Baton Rouge, not having beaten them there since 1935.

Wash. State at Nebraska. dnp. Wash. State. A low precinct count vote here for Newbraskie. N. C. State at North Carolina. 26-6. North Carolina. A rouser type upset last year, not likely to happen again here. Tatum has some hand picks working for him now. USC at Oregon State. 21-13. Ore. State. This was one of the two regular season games that OS dropped last year but USC is sans their seniors by default & that includes C. R. Roberts.

Okla at Pitt. dnp. Oklahoma. The Sooners don't Jell quick and without an experienced qb they'll be handicapped, course Pitt lost their qb too but don't be too surprised if it happens.

Duke at South Carolina. 0-7. Duke. One of the larger type upending last lap but the tobacco out of Durham will be all bluestem if it occurs.

Maryland vs Texas A&M at Cotton Bowl. dnp. Texas A&M. Did you know Bryant coached at Maryland in 1945 and Mont won't be there long if he doesn't get back on the mainline, which he is fixing to do.

Kansas at TUC. 0-32. TCU. But closer, and if they don't come up with a center they could drop it. West Texas at Texas Tech. 34-14. Texas Tech. I don't think the observers counted the Globe-News vote.

North Texas at Texas Western. 13-6. Texas West. The only regular season tilt the Miners dropped in '56 and they could do it again. N. Texas will have to beef up to play in the MVC.

Hardin-Simmons at Tulsa. 0-27. Tulsa. Altho Tulsa has 10 out of the first 22 sidelined with flu and injuries. Dobbs says they will be hog-fat even if on their feet at game time.

Missouri at Vanderbilt. dnp. Vanderbilt. One dissenter here. Miz-zou.

Arizona State at Wichita. 37-9. Ariz. St.

Kansas State at Wyoming. 15-27. K. State. The Wildcats is well, not having hit the tape yet, they are thin beyond the first 11 but tough thru that number. Wyoming lost Dickens to Indiana who in turn lost him to Tug Wilson and a years penalty.

Virginia Tech at Tulane. 14-21. Tulane. The Gobblers wuz tough last year and likely will carry their own axe this trip. I'm gone go with em even tho Tulane still has Mr. Newton.

The Stanton Junior High 7th graders defeated Muleshoe, 19-0, here Tuesday, but the Muleshoe 8th graders downed Stanton's 8th graders, 13-12, the same day in the opening games of the Golden Spread Junior High Football Conference.

The 7th graders got off to an early lead in the first quarter when Gerald Fowler dashed 50 yards on a reverse to make the score 6-0. In the fourth quarter Wayne Hastings intercepted a Muleshoe pass and ran 15 yards for another touchdown. A plunge added the point after. Jim Grubbs ran around right end for 25 yards and another TD in the closing minutes.

Muleshoe's 8th graders ground out two scores in the first period to take a 13-0 lead. Hereford rallied in the second quarter with Darrell Lee running 30 yards on a left-end sweep and end Danny McDowell catching a pass for 15 yards. Hereford's try for extra points failed.

Seven Dallas Men Visit Farm Here

Seven Dallas businessmen, directors for the two-section Upland Farms in the Westway community, visited here last weekend.

Upland Farms, which was one of the first Texas Veteran Land sales, is owned by 32 veterans, most of whom live and reside in Dallas and East Texas. Bill Messick, Hereford, now farms the irrigated property. A. B. Wright Jr., executive vice president of the American Bank & Trust Co., Dallas, is president of the owners group.

Wright was accompanied here by Edward L. Francis, attorney; Miles C. Taylor, cotton merchant; John A. Majors Jr., book publisher; Robert G. Whittington, president of Dallas Foundry; John M. Seay, insurance, and Hobby H. McCall, attorney.

The visitors from Dallas met with a group sponsored by Messick, including V. O. Hennen, Townsend Douglas, Charles Shelton, J. D. Pitman, Ed Line, R. G. Peeler and James W. Witherpoon. After lunch at the Jim Hill Hotel, Messick took them out to the farm to hunt doves and inspect the area.

A member of the host party said that while "none of the Upland Farms owners are farmers, they are interested in Hereford and its future. They desire to become better acquainted with the people and with conditions here and although they live and own their businesses in Dallas, they want to feel that they have a real interest in this community and help wherever they can."

tion at the moment is bleak." Federal mediators later entered the negotiation sessions.

There have been no reports of disorder in the first nationwide installers' strike since 1954. Wages, travel allowances and whether a new contract should run for one year or two are the issues involved in the strike.

Installers' wage rates ranged from $1.39 to $2.80 per hour under their contract that expired Aug. 25. The CWA sought a 15 cents an hour boost in wages, plus five cents in travel pay and other fringe benefits, condensed into a one-year contract. Western Electric offered six to 12 cents an hour in wages, plus improved fringe benefits and sought a two year contract with a wage reopening clause after one year.

WT, H-SU B Teams Here Tonight

HAROLD STEPHENS
H-SU Signalcaller

RICKY MANTOOTH
West Texas Quarterback

Game Starts at 8 p.m. in Local Stadium

A football rivalry dating back to 1921 will be carried on in a minor scale here when the West Texas State and Hardin-Simmons University B teams collide at 8 p.m. in Whiteface Stadium.

It will be the opening game for both B squads and the contest is sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club. This is the second year for ford. It defeated Abilene Christian College, 12-7 last year.

ADMISSION to the game will be $1 for general admission and 50 cents for students. There are no reserved seats.

Hardin-Simmons is coached by Carlos Berry, an outstanding end for the Cowboys last year. The H-SU Buttons are expected to be paced by Harold (Hayseed) Stephens, quarterback, and halfbacks Morris Light and John Bradshaw.

The tentative starting line-up for H-SU averages 200 pounds in the line and 164 in the backfield.

West Texas State, coached by Hatcher Brown, will feature speedy Don Blair at left half and Ricky Mantooth at quarterback. The WT lineup is mixed with six freshmen and five sophomores. Stephens played high school ball at Abilene and quarter-backed the Eagles to three straight state AAAA championships.

EMPHASIS ON PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Four girls spiritedly skip rope, above, in one of their exercises at Stanton Junior High School. Mrs. Charles Duval and Mrs. Faust Collier this term are instructing 180 girls in physical education and health classes, following the school's adoption of state requirements for increased emphasis on the building of sound bodies. Buffs Are Gunning for Two Straight Over Texas Tech

CANYON, — West Texas State will attempt a feat Saturday it has accomplished only once in football warfare — defeat Texas Tech two years in a row.

The old rivals will square off in the 22nd renewal of their series Saturday night in Lubbock's Jones Stadium.

Coach Frank Kimbrough's Buffs scored a decisive 34-14 win in 1956 and a victory Saturday would give the West Texans a record book rarity. The only other time West Texas put wins over Tech back-to-back was in 1929 and '30. On both occasions, the Buffs blanked the Red Raiders, 20-0 and 6-0.

Last year's triumph was only the fifth over Texas Tech in 21 meetings. The 34 points last fall were the most recorded against the Lubbock school by West Texas teams and the 20-point margin of victory tied another record.

Two boys who scored four of West Texas' five touchdowns against Tech in '56 will be back in harness Saturday. Charlie Sanders, 185-pound All-Border Conference fullback who led the league in scoring last year, tallied three touchdowns against the Raiders and Ron Mills, 175-pound White Deer flash, counted another. The other score — a scintillating 67-yard run — was registered by gra-

Some Notes on Tri-State Fair

By ARGEN DRAPER

The agents spent Sept. 14 in Amarillo helping with the judging of exhibits at the Tri-State Fair. There are 18 girls who entered butter cake and dinner rolls in district competition. Nancy Browning, from the Jolly Girls 4-H Club sent the cake and rolls for the competition. Nancy's products were very pretty and looked awfully good. The record book secure counts one-third in the district competition. Nancy has always had a good record book. She is one of the younger members of the club, but her sister, Peggy, and Ann Dyer Porter did a good job in getting Nancy started right on her record book.

The winners of the District Baking contest will be announced Saturday at the Youth Day Program. The program will be held at the Gouley Sales Arena on the Tri-State Fair grounds and will start promptly at 9:30 a.m. We think that a very interesting program will be presented. The program will be group singing, music by the Matador FFA Band, the Treble Airs from Friona and The Quail FFA chorus. Soloists will be given by Kay Lawson of Carson County, Joe Bill Brown of Hartley County and a pantomime from Deaf Smith County. This will be given by Pat Dawson and Martha Logan. The crowning of the Wheat King and Baking Queen will be next.

The 4-H girls have a good exhibit in the Agricultural Building. It is by the west door on the north side. Be sure to see this as it is a good educational exhibit. This exhibit shows the baking winner from each county along with the number of girls that were trained in the county. Saturday we learned that 1,161 girls in the Panhandle have been trained in food pre-

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Foreign Policy of U. S. Lags Behind

The foreign policy of this country is fast becoming a No. 1 issue. Until recent years there was no great need for this country to worry too much about foreign policy matters. Of course, there has always been a need in the world picture for all countries to be concerned with foreign problems and the solutions thereof. This has been a primary matter in all European countries for many hundreds of years. Needless to say, those countries have become most skillful artisans in that particular political area.

The United States being one of the youngest countries in the world, as well as the richest, and having progressed much faster than any other country in world history, occupied a rather enviable position insofar as foreign affairs were concerned. We not only had the resources and raw materials to make us self-sustaining, we also had the know-how to develop them.

This is all well and good, but as civilization continues to progress, new discoveries and new developments gradually reduce the size of the world. Air transportation has moved forward beyond the most fantastic dreams of most people. The development of the intercontinental missile has everyone frightened. These and many other developments increase the great need for international understanding and for peoples of different nationalities to be able to live together and get along together in the world. All of this means that this country, as the leader in world progress, must assume its responsibility to its own citizens in being adequately capable in world affairs.

In order to meet this responsibility it will be necessary to give much attention to our diplomatic service. Many feel that we presently have a very inadequate and ill-equipped diplomatic service. Some feel this is due to the appointment of people-to-ambassadorial posts simply because they make substantial contributions to political parties. To say that such a practice has not existed is to refuse to acknowledge the truth. The truth is that many men have been appointed to ambassadorial posts in both Democratic and Republican Administrations who were not equipped by education or temper-

Deadline for Gas Refund Is Near

COLLEGE STATION. — Farmers and ranchmen are reminded by C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, that Sept. 30 is the deadline for submitting applications for a refund of the federal tax on gasoline used for farming purposes since July 1, 1956.

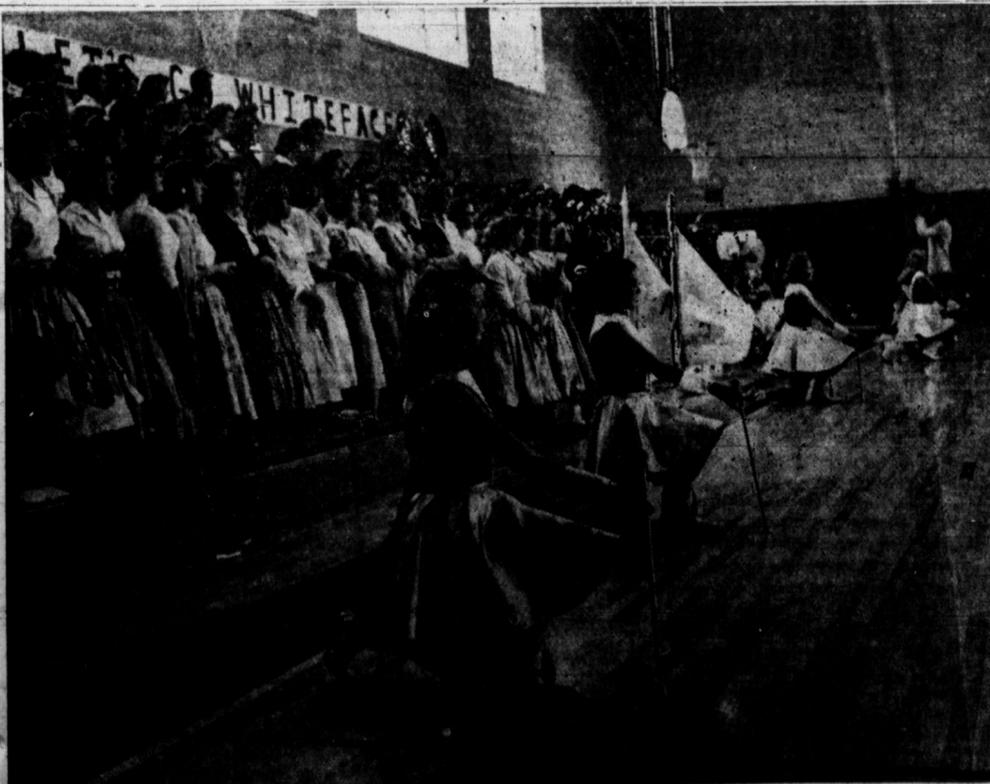

Farm operators who have not filed a claim may obtain Form 2240 — the reporting form — from local county agricultural agents or Internal Revenue Service offices. Bates points out that claims will be checked for accuracy and claimants, therefore, should be certain that figures are correct. Sufficient records should also be kept to verify the claim, he adds. Claims should be submitted to the same district Internal Revenue office to which income tax returns are sent. The legislation which makes possible the refund was passed by Congress in the spring of 1956.

ament to serve the best interests of this country. This practice is well known to foreign countries, and you may be assured they have taken advantage of these circumstances when dealing with this government.

Some people feel that our diplomatic service is not of the caliber it should be due to the fact that it is extremely difficult for young people to get into that service. There has been no concerted effort on the part of our government to train personnel for this service. It is most difficult to obtain information from any source, including the State Department, as to how one may enter such service.

People in government have complained to me that these foreign service posts are filled many times by the relatives and personal friends of those in the service. Complaints have reached me that many, who are supposed to be representing this country in foreign countries, have been in those countries and in other foreign countries so long that they inadvertently represent the interests of the country in which they are stationed, rather than the interests of this country. In any event, we do know there is a great deal of room for improvement and that something should be done about it.

It was with this thought in mind that 10 members of the House of Representatives, including myself, from states all over the nation, introduced a joint resolution to study the problem and to report to the Congress on ways and means of expanding and modernizing the Foreign Service of the United States. We shall continue (Continued On Page 4)

Tag Team Match Slated

Two Turks will tangle with Dory Funk and a huge wrestler by the name of Country Boy in the main event at the Bull Barn here Friday night. All Pasha and All Bey are the Turkish grapplers and they have said they intend to whip every tag team combination in Texas. Country Boy weighs in at 525 pounds. The bout is set for two out of three falls with a one-hour time limit. Last Saturday more than 1,300 fans took in the matches at the Bull Barn. Part of the attraction was a match between two mid-girt girls, Doll Falge and Gypsy Bone. Miss Falge took the one-fall battle in eight minutes. Danoo O'Shocker and Iron Mike DiBisce split two falls for a draw.

In the main event, Funk took the first and third falls from John Tolos. Funk used his spinning toe hold for both falls. Two preliminary bouts this Saturday will pit Country Boy against All Bey for one fall or 20 minutes and Funk and Pasha will stage a similar bout. Both Bey and Pasha hail from Istanbul, Turkey.

ON THE HOUSE

MRS. AMERICA and her four children stroll six-room, split-level brick house on the lawn of their Arlington, Va., home, a

By JOHN O. B. WALLACE
AP Newsfeatures

THE DESIGN of a house, and especially its room arrangements, is a more important consideration than price or location, according to one group of American housewives — the 49 finalists in the 1957 "Mrs. America" contest.

If you can assume that they represent a cross section of American housewives, then you may have a clue as to what kind of a home the American housewife wants.

The finalists came from all 48 states and the District of Columbia. All but one live in their own homes; one lives in an apartment. They were polled on present-day American homes and their advantages and disadvantages. Here are some of the results:

More than a third said the design and floor plan of the house was the deciding factor. Four combined price with design and floor plan in their answers. One said price and location were the main reasons behind the selection of her home. The others listed various reasons, convenience to the husband's job; choice "made out of necessity"; and nine said they had "no other choice."

Who selected their home? A majority said the decision was made jointly by husband and wife. One said she, alone, chose the house. Three said the husband, alone, made the selection. A few said the house was selected by the entire family, children included.

IN STYLE, ranch houses represented the largest single preference. Other style preferences included split levels, ramblers, Cape Cod, Spanish type, Colonial, and brick and framed cottages.

Where are their homes located? All but 16 live in suburban homes; 12 live in urban areas and four in farm areas.

How much did their homes cost? Nearly half spent more than $10,000 but under $20,000; six spent less than $10,000. An even 10 spent more than $20,000 but less than $30,000; five spent more than $30,000. (Some of the finalists did not answer this question).

The poll also produced this scattered information:

A preponderant majority of these women do their own housework, their own washing and their own ironing.

Most said they had adequate work space but eight said they needed more space, particularly in the kitchen.

MOST WERE HAPPY with the amount of storage space in their homes. Seven said they needed more kitchen cabinets and one said she needed more bedroom closets.

Nearly two-thirds of the women said children should have their own living areas in the home. Nearly the same number, by turning this question around, said adults should have separate areas set aside for their own activities. Separate family living areas were popular with nearly all.

What about Mrs. America, herself?

Mrs. Linwood Findley, a 32-year-old mother of four children, lives in a six-room, split-level brick house in Arlington, Va. She represented the District of Columbia. Her husband, Harry, is an Air Force lieutenant colonel, stationed at Ft. McNair Industrial College, Washington, D. C.

Their home has three bedrooms, a living room, dining room and kitchen. It has three baths and a den. The basement includes a recreation room and a work room. They bought the house a year and a half ago and did all interior painting and wall-papering, themselves.

THERE IS a woodburning fireplace in the living room and a large picture window. The backyard includes a rock garden, the pride and joy of Mrs. Findley; she made it herself. She also constructed flagstone steps in some areas around the house.

Her living room is finished in dark woods; her furniture is traditional English. Gardening is her chief hobby. Under the picture window in the front of the house are huge window boxes with petunias. She also planted a rose garden in front of the house.

Mrs. Findley and her husband set tile in the basement and built a flagstone patio. On the sub-

Madam... Are You Out of Order?

By HERB THOMPSON

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — The Ladies Auxiliary of the Sheriff's Mounted Posse in a Western state was in a parliamentary dither.

It was electing new officers and couldn't decide whether the "passing out" officers had the right to vote in the secret ballot to choose their successors.

Not finding an immediate answer in Robert's Rules of Order, one of the members wrote to the leading authority on the book, Mrs. Henry M. Robert Jr. of Annapolis.

"We've had quite a debate..." she said. "Please advise us clear."

The trustee of Robert's Rules stated the principle of parliamentary law that an elected officer has the same voting rights as other members of the organization and received a reply she still treasures.

"The questions were answered so clear that I am sure it will be sufficient to clear up a few minds that have been thinking wrong," the woman wrote.

Sarah Corbin Robert uses the correspondence to illustrate the universal appeal Robert's Rules of Order has enjoyed since it was published by her father-in-law, an Army officer, 81 years ago.

Since the death of her husband in 1937, Mrs. Robert has had sole charge of keeping the book up to date and answering queries concerning it.

The pocket-sized book on parliamentary procedure, written as a reference book for the orderly conduct of organizational and public meetings, has sold close to two million copies since it was published in 1876. It stays on the list of "hidden" best sellers with an annual sales volume of more than 60,000 copies.

Serving as its trustee is only a part-time activity for Mrs. Robert, who is a professional parliamentarian. She is adviser on parliamentary matters to five national organizations and one state group and assists numerous others from time to time. She also travels, lectures and teaches classes in parliamentary law.

Robert's Rules, a standard reference book on parliamentary procedure, was written and published in 1876 by Lt. Henry M. Robert, a 26-year-old West Point graduate.

MRS. HENRY M. ROBERT, JR.

Robert, who retired in 1901 as a brigadier general and chief of the Army Engineers, followed his book through nearly 50 years. He kept in close touch with organizations which used it and revised it completely in 1915. On his death in 1923, his son, Henry Jr., a professor, at the U. S. Naval Academy here and himself an expert on parliamentary law, became trustee of the book. He died 14 years later. Mrs. Robert has been trustee of the book for the past 20 years.

ject of homemaking, Mrs. Findley says:

"Everybody in our family feels that our home belongs to all of us, and it's our job to take care of it together. We all had a hand in refinishing our furniture, even including the children."

The family, she says, has an earn-and-save plan, whereby the boys, Harry Jr., nearly 12, and David, nearly 10, cut the grass and get paid for it.

One of the girls, Lynette, 6, helps with the dishes. The other girl, Lane, not quite 4, "is still too young to help," the mother says.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION

ABC

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other facts that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. Hereford Garden Club Holds Dedication for Rose Garden

The Memorial Peace-Rose Garden honoring the memory of Hereford High School students who lost their lives in World War II, was dedicated Friday morning in a special service sponsored by the Hereford Garden Club, sponsors of the rose garden.

Gold Star mothers were special guests. They included Mesdames G. H. Whitaker, Ralph McCullough, Grady Parsons, Elmer Mathies, J. W. Spradley, A. R. Rogers, Wood Vaughn, Ida Vaughn, F. S. Smith and Leonard Davis.

Mrs. M. T. Rutter introduced the program followed by the presentation of the colors by Ralph Smith and Arch Dobbins, representing the local American Legion Post. Mrs. Norman Moore, club president, led the pledge of allegiance.

The Rev. Russell Wingert gave the prayer and Mrs. Cecil Parker led "The National Anthem" with Phyllis Ann Sumner at the piano. Mrs. Tom Draper told of the three-fold purposes of the rose garden: To serve as a memorial of enjoyment, to stimulate the promotion of peace and to express appreciation of sacrifices made.

In conclusion Charles Bell sounded the bugle taps.

The Garden Club held its opening session of the season in the home of Mrs. Norman Moore following the dedicatory service. New yearbooks were distributed. Programs for the year will be built around the course of study: "Design in Flower Arrangement."

Two new members: Mrs. G. W. Newsom and Mrs. L. E. Taylor, were welcomed and Mrs. E. M. Hicks of Wellington was a special guest. It was decided that growing African violets will be the home project for the year.

The next meeting will be held on Oct. 11 in the home of Mrs. E. W. Young.

DANIEL ON SAM HOUSTON'S PORCH—Gov. Price Daniel is shown speaking from the porch of the home where Sam Houston once lived in Huntsville. The speech is regarded by some political pros as his first bid for re-election as governor. On the front row are Mrs. Daniel, Buddy Wakefield, Gov. Daniel, Judge Amos Gates and Jim Lindsey. Others are unidentified. Daniel set Oct. 14 for a special session of the Legislature to pass laws curbing lobbyists. (AP Photo)

SUMMONED BY HORN

MILLIS, Mass. (AP)—Sometimes it pays to blow your own horn. John F. Powers was in an accident early one morning and was pinned in his overturned car.

His cries for help went unheard at 1 a.m. so he leaned on the horn steadily until a nearby resident came to his assistance.

HOME BUILDING BOOM

BROWNSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The early briches get the bird. Danny Demunbrun washed his trousers and hung them on the line early in one morning.

That evening he found a fast-working catbird had built a nest inside a pocket. And in the nest was an egg.

Behind the year's biggest sales success
The year's biggest engineering success

The '57 Ford was redesigned from the ground up... with a completely redesigned frame—new suspensions, front and rear—and a new built-for-keeps body. And at the heart of this new "Inner Ford," you can have the Thunderbird's own V-8 engine!

Long, lean and lovely! Not only does the '57 Ford act like a fine car... it looks the part, too—with over 17 feet of big-car beauty in all Fairlane models.

With a low, low price that's an old Ford custom! It's a new kind of Ford... for the old kind of money. Model for model, Ford's actually the lowest priced car of the low-price three.* Any wonder the '57 Ford outsells 'em all?

DON'T LOOK NOW, BUT . . .

Confederate Generals Recapture South

By DAVID SWIT

ATLANTA (AP) — Nearly 100 years ago Union Gen. W. T. Sherman made quite a name for himself marching through Georgia. But time changes all things, and now Confederate generals have the Southern strongholds well in hand. Sherman's successors at Third Army headquarters here recently did a little reconnaissance work in the seven-state area which the Federals conquered in the War between the States.

A quick count showed that four of the nine posts in the area are named for Southern Civil War generals, but only two of the posts are reminders of victorious Union commanders. Two of the Confederate leaders probably would base their greatest claim to fame on the fact that posts of the U. S. Army — which they once fought — are named in their honor.

For example, how long has it been since you heard someone talk about Gen. Edmund Winchester Rucker, who fought for the "Lost Cause?" His name lives on at Ft. Rucker, Ala. Although the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy no longer fly over Columbus, Ga., Ft. Benning there was named in honor of a man who fought for the South at Gettysburg, Chickamauga and Petersburg. He was Brig. Gen. Henry L. Benning, a Columbus native who also was noted as a state supreme court justice.

JOHN BROWN GORDON, who was a Georgia senator and governor as well as a Confederate lieutenant general, also was on the losing side in the war. But his name is perpetuated at Ft. Gordon near Augusta, Ga.

And in his native North Carolina, Ft. Bragg was designated in honor of Gen. Braxton Bragg, a commander of the Army of Tennessee. Bragg defended the honor of the Confederacy at the battles of Shiloh and Murfreesboro and in battles around Chattanooga.

On the opposing side at Chattanooga was young James Birdseye McPherson, a Federal major general who later died in the Battle of Atlanta. His name was given to Ft. McPherson, the present site of Third Army headquarters in Atlanta.

The other Union commander whose name was given to a post in the deep South was Gen. George B. McClellan — commander of the Army of the Potomac and Lincoln's Democratic opponent in 1864. Ft. McClellan near Anniston, Ala., was named in his honor.

Ft. Campbell, Ky., might be counted in the Northern camp because it was named for W. B. Campbell, who held the rank of brigadier general in the Union army very briefly during the Civil War. But Campbell gained most of his fame as governor of Tennessee and as a Mexican War commander.

The two other posts in the Third Army area honor commanders in earlier wars. Ft. Jackson, S. C., is named for President Andrew Jackson, a hero of the War of 1812; and Ft. Stewart at Hinesville, Ga., honors Gen. I. Daniel Stewart, a Revolutionary War leader.

Enterprising Asparagus Farmer Develops Mechanical Harvester

CANBY, Ore. (AP) — mechanized asparagus harvester with which one man can do the work of eight has been developed by Stanley Allison, an enterprising farmer here.

Allison says his operating costs got so high a couple of years ago he wasn't making a profit on his 30-acre asparagus crop. At the time, he hired more than two dozen workers to trudge through the fields, cutting the stalks.

A farm gadgeteer, Allison, who already had perfected an improved asparagus cultivator, turned his attention to a harvester.

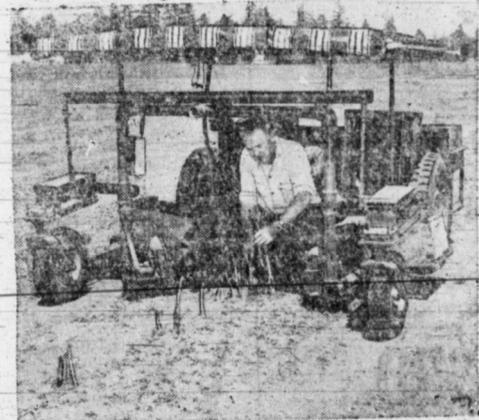

The first thing he did was attach a wooden platform just above the ground to the front of a farm tractor. With this he determined that a man would ride and cut asparagus at the same time.

Allison then began work on a machine which a workman could operate with his feet while cutting asparagus with his hands.

The farmer-inventor came up with a low-shing, four-wheeled device, driven by an eight-horse-power gasoline engine. The operator sits spraddle-legged, controlling the speed with his left foot and steering with his right foot. With his hands he cuts the asparagus in front of him and puts it in boxes on the rig, which straddles the row.

Allison now has three of the machines in operation. He hires an additional four men to trim, grade and pack the crop.

Cost of the first machine was relatively high, but he built the other two for about $750 each. Allison holds patents and says he may manufacture the machines if there's enough demand.

HARVEST HELPER: Stanley Allison demonstrates operation of the machine he designed to put asparagus harvesting on wheels. It enables one man to do the work of eight.

Some of the ones we saw in Amarillo Saturday working on the exhibit were Donna Guseman, Margaret Boomer, Sandra Tobin, Mrs. Bert Boomer, Mrs. George Paetzold, Mrs. Jimmy Durham, Mrs. Don Guseman and Sylvia Feliza. I believe no one was having as good a time as Sylvia. She had met the exchange student who is attending Amarillo High School. They were talking constantly and comparing notes from their home country of Italy. Sank Ramey, Earl and Pete Plank were working with Hugh Clearman in putting up the agricultural booth for Deaf Smith

Technical Report on Marilyn STILLWATER, Okla., Okla. - Oklahoma State University speech professor Dr. Paul Heinberg, who does research in phonetics, agrees Marilyn Monroe's voice is "sexy."

"But," adds the prof, "it's not because she is low-pitched. It's because she is breathy."

His research shows Miss Monroe's vocal cords part and come together in a rather regular cycle, producing a simple tone of low intensity.

Miss Monroe, Heinberg said, uses more lung power to speak in her "breathy" voice than do ordinary persons, because a greater amount of air is needed to hold the vocal folds open.

He further defined her voice: "It's a pure tone plus a sort of hiss."

WHEAT AND SMALL GRAINS NEED NITROGEN!

For the nitrogen your crops need, apply Phillips 66 Ammonium Nitrate. The nitrogen and other plant foods removed by last year's crops must be replenished to maintain higher yields and profits per acre. Wheat and other small grains respond quickly to nitrogen to help stimulate early growth... produce and support bigger heads per plant and more plants per acre.

For fall-seeded small grains, apply nitrogen this spring before plants reach the jointing stage. For spring-seeded small grains, apply nitrogen before seeding or as a top dressing early in the season.

Lest We Forget: Let it be our earnest concern to be and remain members of the invisible Church of Christ, the Body of Christ. Remain steadfast in the faith, for he that believes in Christ, and only he, shall be saved. Let it also be our earnest concern that the pure Word of God is preached, the Gospel, which is the power of God unto Salvation. Pray and work with all diligence for the Church that it be maintained and extended.

A most cordial welcome to you.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are making religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Judas, the traitorous, perfidious, faithless Apostle who, under the semblance of friendship, betrayed Christ. How many good, sound, fair appearing persons do you have on your friendship list who are not friends at all but are worthless, deceptive characters... not to be trusted. How many Judases do you know?

What a chance this man had for greatness! What an opportunity for service to a world in urgent need! One of twelve to walk with the Son of God along life's pathway! What would we not give for his opportunity to do and to be! But Judas "blacked out." He failed and wrote his own name in "DEEP BLACK" across the pages of history for all time. He preferred thirty pieces of silver to the fellowship and blessing of Jesus; he failed to appreciate beauty and goodness and gracious companionship with the highest. His "sights" were low... his interests selfish.

Other men counted it an honor to carry a cross for the Master; JUDAS sent Him to Calvary to die in shameful agony. JUDAS might have followed Christ to the end and shared a martyr's death; but he preferred a disgraceful grave in the field of the nameless or shameless dead.

We have but one life to live, and that one life is too precious to be wasted. "What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his life?" What is it to lose? What is it to gain? Jesus was thought to have lost, but in that self-sacrifice He saved a world of dying men. This man Judas gloated over his gain, but generations have wept for him as a lost soul. Are you and I really winning, or are we losing? Truly we have but one life to give... shall we not write it credibly on the pages of history for ourselves and for humanity? Shall we not hold it high for the service of men and for the worship of God? Attend your church; be faithful. Don't be a JUDAS.

SITTER CORPORATION

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — A group of mothers in suburban Milwood have solved the babysitting problem by setting up an informal "corporation" to pool their own time.

The corporation issues paper money in two denominations. One calls for a half hour's service and the other for a full hour. Each mother starts out with the same amount of "money."

When a mother needs a babysitter, she calls on any available member of Mothers, Inc., and pays her in the money of the corporation. If she runs short, she stays home long enough to "balance" her accounts. If she accumulates a surplus, she speeds up her demands on fellow members.

BACK TO THE LAUNDRY

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — George Crawford, 45, wanted to hop a train and wasn't particular about the direction.

Before depot employees arrived to work, Crawford pulled stop signals for trains going north and south.

Soon a fast passenger train screeched to an unscheduled stop, but Crawford didn't have time to climb aboard. He was arrested by a railroad detective.

"Guess I'll go back to my old job now," sighed Crawford. He'd been released a few months ago from prison, where he worked in the laundry.

WELFARE STATE?

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The U. S. attorney's office here, trying to the end of fiscal 1956, wound up in a familiar government position — in the red.

The chief clerk reported no cash collected while one bus token was doled out to a needy debtor with no means to get home.

TOO TAME

NANAIMO, B. C. (AP) — Nanaimo old-age pensioners have asked for more active sports at their annual picnics to replace bingo. The next picnic will include various types of racing and a spot waltz.

Hereford Has Day at Tri-State Fair

By SANDRA GLENN

Monday was Hereford Day at the Tri-State Fair and true to fashion the Herefordites invaded Amarillo. After talking to Bill Stanford, high school principal, we discovered that at least one-third of his students had taken advantage of the proposition. From this group there was only one organized group, the Whiteface Band, which marched in the annual parade. A few of the FFA and FFA students went to watch over their exhibits this year.

Jeannie Brown seemed to believe that the fair was bigger and better this year and the rides were even more thrilling. Kenneth Clearman said he enjoyed the fair even if they still had the hoodwink booths along the mid-way.

Among the students that Kenneth and Jeannie remembered seeing were Lovilla Finley, Margaret and Cecilia Burrus, Robert Diller, Jackie Blanton, Dean Hudson, Betty Hagger, Sue Channer, Ella Marie Williams, Joanne Folks, Lynda Phillips, Pat Robbins and Ray Bolinger. They both insisted that this was only a few but how could they be expected to remember more after a day of thrills, spills and cotton candy.

The younger students were not to be outdone, however. Cynthia and Bill McMinn spent the afternoon at the fair under the supervision of their aunt, Thelma McMinn. Cynthia insisted she liked the rabbits most because some of them looked like skunks. Bill said he liked the "live" tractors.

Ruth Massie, student at West Texas, visited with Marsha and Nancy Cokrell this weekend. Nancy was home from McMurry to see the West Texas-McMurry football game played in Canyon.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cantrell Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown of Glenrio, New Mexico.

Weekend guests of Homer Brumley were Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Childers of Fort Worth. Mrs. Childers is the aunt of Mrs. Homer Brumley.

Colline Brown, daughter of Mrs. C. O. Brown, has accepted a position as educational assistant at the First Methodist Church in Dumas.

John Gilliland reports to his classmates in high school that he held an executive position working over 500 people. "I was mowing the cemetery," he explains.

Too Much Oil

Should you allow too much oil polish to collect on the furniture, mix one-fourth cup of vinegar with one-half cup of water. Dip a soft cloth into this, wring out, and rub over the furniture. Dry immediately with another soft cloth.

Rust

To remove rust from steel, rub it with linseed oil and allow it to soak for several days. Wipe off, then polish with powdered, unslacked lime until the rust is loosened.

Prevent Cracking

To prevent the wall paper from cracking when driving a nail into it, first dip the nail in real hot water for a minute or two before driving it.

Moths

When moths are in a rug try covering with a wet towel, then applying a hot iron until the towel is dry. This will kill both the moths and the eggs. Then sprinkle with salt every week before sweeping.

Jelly and Preserves

When filling the jelly and preserve jars, try using the gravy boat. The long nose will fit into any size fruit jar and can be held by the handle.

Removing Scorch

When a garment has been scorched, dampen a cloth with hydrogen peroxide and then steam press the scorched place. This seldom fails to remove it.

New Concrete

New concrete can be laid successfully on top of an old concrete surface, but you must be sure first to get the old surface perfectly clean with soap and water and have it thoroughly wet when the new concrete is laid.

Shoe Polish on Rug

Shoe polish on a rug can be removed sometimes with cleaning fluid. Follow this with a regular washing with soap and water and a little ammonia.

Table Decoration

Always keep a small fern growing in a low, attractive bowl, and it will serve as a table decoration when there are no cut flowers.

Sliding Rugs

Prevent the sliding of your small throw rugs by attaching several jar rubbers to the under side or by shellacking the reverse side.

Although it is sometimes called the "prairie wolf," the coyote is much smaller than the true wolf and more closely resembles the jackal.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

With an abundance of rain giving a fine fall season there is no reason why a good acreage of wheat should not be planted. The large wheat acreage and the fine yields all over the Panhandle this year, especially in the northern countries have shown that the soil and climate of the Plains is adapted to wheat. If it has been too dry in the past two or three years, there can be no lack of moisture at this time.

The Rev. J. M. Sherman, pastor of the Methodist Church, returned Sunday night from a 10 days' trip through the North Plains where, in company of Dr. Boaz of Southern Methodist University and Elder O. P. Kiker, he made a tour of that section in the interest of the new school. He reports that they met with fine success and received a satisfactory support for the university.

25 Years Ago

Roy Diveney, who for the past several years has been operator at the Star Theater, left this week with his family for Crosbyton, where he has purchased the Queen Theater. He will be succeeded in his work here by Charles Donnell of Canyon, who has been an employee here.

The vocational agriculture class trained by B. H. Hopkins at the high school won more honors than any other single group at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair this week.

The Hereford boys took prizes in all three divisions, ranking first in dairy cattle judging and an educational exhibit, and third in poultry judging. In addition to the team prizes, Dean Story was high point man in dairy judging and John McGowan was second in poultry judging.

Members of the dairy team were Dean Story, George Smith and G. R. Hartman, with Roger Brumley, James Garrett and Harvey Lindsey serving as alternates. The poultry team included John McGowan, Frank Barber and Freddie Harman, with Roy Hastings, Morris Sowell and Weidon Linafey as alternates.
