23RD YEAR, NO. 83

HEREFORD DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, TUESDAY, NOV. 6, 1923

JUDGE TURNER'S TALK IMPROMPTU

AMARILLO ATTORNEY LOYAL TO HOME IN SNAPPY SPEECH

A POULTRY SHOW

In January Assured When Club Authorizes Officers to Go

Judge Tom Turner of Amarillo, here attending court, wandered in to the dining room of the Cordova Hotel Monday at noon to snatch a little nourishment. Before the bewildered visitor knew what was happening Chairman McDonald of the Chamber of Commerce limed him up before the crowd and demanded he tell the audience "Why I Live in Amarillo Instead of Hereford."

Although cornered and completely surprised the distinguished attorney rose to the occasion, as usual, and blurted out emphatically that "I live in Amarillo because its the best town in the world! I haven't any patience with any man who will not stand up for his home town. When I get to that point I will move!" For which the speaker received a hearty applause. Judge Turner told a string of funny stories, mostly at the expense of East Texas, and lived up to the proceedings considerably.

Treasurer Rockwell gave a financial report of the condition of the club's finances and it was resolved to go after more members and more money. The chair appointed Homer Wilkinson and F. H. Oberthier as a committee to get some more members and revise the budget figures.

A. B. Biggs, representing the executive committee of the Hereford Poultry Association, asked the financial and moral support of the Chamber of Commerce for the coming Poultry Show to be held the first week in January. On motion the club agreed to stand squarely back of the Show and authorized the poultry men to go to it and put on an exhibition that would be a credit to the community.

C. P. Galley spoke of his recent trip to Austin where he testified before the Railroad Commission bearing on grain rates and urged that some local action be taken to acquire some of the seven per cent money for the farmers that is offered through the recent law expanding the powers and functions of the Federal Land banks. He explained that there was a certain prescribed method for obtaining this aid by the organization of a local company. After going into some detail L. Baskin and Ralph Barnett were appointed on a committee with Mr. Galley to study the question and report their recommendations at a later date.

The meeting next Monday will be held at the City Cafe. Those present were: Walter Spradley, Homer Wilkinson, D. F. Ashbrook, L. Baskin, C. P. Galley, C. P. Cockrell, C. C. Rockwell, A. L. Biggs, E. W. Kinney, T. K. Wilson, Ralph Barnett, Captain John Estes, N. C. Voge, D. L. McDonald, Seth B. Holman, F. H. Oberthier, Doug Fox, Mayor Knight, F. B. Tillotson, W. R. Steckman, Judge Tom Turner, N. E. Gess, M. L. Steele.

Mrs. Roloson and Baby Both Doing Splendidly

Friends of Mrs. F. T. Roloson will be delighted to hear that both Mrs. Roloson and her baby daughter are getting along splendidly at the Hereford Sanitarium. The crisis is believed to have been passed with the mother, and she is now said to be practically out of danger.

Boy Scouts Have Honor Starting Red Cross Drive

The Boy Scouts had the honor of inaugurating the first work in the Red Cross drive for the Annual Roll Call Monday. The members of the troop took the window placards and other advertising material supplied by Chairman B. F. Guthrie and put them up all over town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Littrell Leave For Home

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Littrell returned to their home in Sturgeon, Mo., the latter part of last week. Mr. Littrell said they came to Hereford to enjoy the sunny south and the sunshine weather, but we had to make an investment in gum boots and slickers. Mr. and Mrs. Littrell visited in the home of their daughter, Mrs. I. H. Spratt, and family.

4 Whole Days of Beautiful, Nice Sunshine

Four sunny days in a row! Count 'em—Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday! And such a b-e-a-u-t-i-f-u-l sun it is, too. The prettiest sun ever seen around these parts.

Yep, it actually cleared up last Friday night, and the local population is unanimous in its prayer that it stays cleared up for several weeks to come. Sounds funny, but it's a cold fact. The blessed sun has caused a revival all along the line too, in business, in farming, among cattlemen, bouyant spirits. Cotton farmers report some stained staple but the bolls popping open. Row crops are hurt, undoubtedly, but there is lots of feed left and all are eager to get at it. Binders will start right away as the fields are rapidly drying.

The nights are cool and frost is observed on the ground every morning but the days are bright and the sun gets warm in the afternoons.

Yes, sir, that sure is a glittering, and gorgeous and wonderful sun!

Town Sorrows in Loss of Pastor; Lipscomb Moved

Consternation reigned in the ranks of the local Methodists this week, following the news from the Plainview conference that the Rev. L. N. Lipscomb has been transferred to Plainview for the coming year. There had been a feeling here that the popular pastor would not be disturbed this time, as he has served in Hereford but one year. The news was a distinct shock not only to his own congregation but to his numerous friends outside his church in this community.

Hereford has had many Methodist pastors over the years, but it is doubtful if any of them have left here with more friends, more good will from all the people, more genuine good wishes for the future. A dandy good pupil man, an easy "mixer," with a pleasing personality, Rev. Lipscomb has endeared himself in the hearts of Hereford's people as have few before him.

Rev. Lipscomb is endeavoring to arrange his affairs so that he can leave for his new post of duty Thursday and expects to occupy the Plainview pulpit next Sunday.

His successor here will be the Rev. W. P. Garvin of Vernon, former presiding elder of that district. He will begin his pastorate here with the regular services, both morning and night, next Sunday. Rev. Garvin comes to Hereford with the very best kind of endorsements as a splendid man and preacher. The assignment announced for Methodist churches in this (Plainview) district for the coming year are as follows:

G. S. Hardy, presiding elder; Bovina, J. R. Blevins; Canyon, M. M. Beavers; Dimmitt, I. E. Walker; Floydada station, J. L. Henson; Floydada circuit, R. L. Jameson; Happy, H. W. Carter; Hale Center, G. T. Palmer; Hereford, W. P. Garvin; supernumerary, J. W. Hawkins, Kress, J. W. Baughman; Lockney circuit, T. B. Hillburn; Olton, R. R. Gilbreath; Petersburg, Preston Florence; Plainview, L. N. Lipscomb; supernumerary, John F. Neal; Silverton, A. O. Grayson; Tulla, C. E. Fike; Vigo Park, J. N. Griffin; professors S. M. U., J. H. Hicks and Q. C. Canyon; Matador, John E. Eldridge; Roaring Springs, J. R. Oden; Turkey, Z. B. Pirtle; conference Sunday school superintendent, R. H. Terry.

Cresap and Brother Are Shipping Cattle to Iowa

S. R. Cresap left for Dalhart Tuesday evening at which place he will join his brother, Price Cresap of Tucumcari, who is shipping twelve cars of cattle to Burlington, Iowa, for feeding purposes. Mr. Cresap said that to date his brother and himself have shipped about thirty cars of cattle to Iowa this fall.

Poultry Shows Planned At Amarillo and Canyon

A letter from F. W. Duffel, superintendent of the Randall County Poultry Association, states that the Randall county show will be held beginning November 29 and closing December 1. The Amarillo Tri-State Poultry show will be held in Amarillo December 6 to 10 in the Coliseum.

Rev. J. R. Sharp Leaves For Meeting at Amarillo

Rev. J. R. Sharp left for Amarillo Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of the Executive Commission of the Amarillo Presbytery to be held at the Amarillo Hotel Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Sharp is secretary of the Presbytery.

Compulsory School Attendance is To Begin in Hereford Schools on Monday, Nov. 12th. Take Notice!

The compulsory school attendance term for the Hereford schools will begin on Monday, November 12. All children who live in the Hereford Independent School District must attend school for one hundred consecutive school days beginning on the above date, provided they are eight years of age and not over fourteen years of age. Requests for exemption from the provisions of the law, if any, should be made to the county superintendent, who is authorized by law to make such exemptions as are provided by law.

Requests for excuses for temporary absence should be made to the teacher in whose room the child is enrolled, the law providing that such excuses must be in writing. The excuses acceptable under the law are as follows: personal sickness, sickness or death in family, storms which render the ordinary methods of travel impossible or dangerous, and such other unusual conditions as the local authorities may accept as excuses for absence.

Spelling Tests

Last week standard spelling tests were given to the grades from the fourth to the seventh inclusive. The test was taken from the Ayres Spelling Scale which is used as a standard for the country. The words selected were simple words in every day use on which a seventh grade child should have made 98, sixth 94, fifth 88, fourth 79. The averages for grades for the Hereford school were as follows: seventh grade, section one 93.4; section two 94; sixth grade, section one 92, section two 90; fifth grade, section one 89.7, section two 84.7; fourth grade, section one 80.8, section two 72.5.

Since a few low grades lower the average for the room it might be interesting to know that twenty-five out of fifty three in the seventh grades spelled as well as the standard, twenty-six out of forty-seven in the sixth grade were up to standard, thirty-five out of fifty-four in the fifth grade did fifth grade spelling or better, twenty-seven out of forty-nine in the fourth grades spelled as well as the standard for their grade. The above figures show that there is need of improvement in spelling in the grades of the Hereford schools. Other tests will be given in the near future to see if there has been any improvement.

Superintendent's Report

The report of the superintendent to the School Board for the second month of school showed a total of 317 cases of tardiness in the two schools for the month. This figure seems high in spite of the fact that we have had so much bad weather. It is hoped that we can reduce the number of tardies very materially during the next month.

The report also showed a total of 651 days absent during the month and this also seems high. The number of days lost through absence would give a room of thirty-two pupils one month of school.

Report Cards

Report cards for the second period will be issued from both schools Wednesday of this week. Parents are urged to examine them and return them to the teachers on the following day if possible. It is easier for the child to think to return the card at that time than at any other time. Members of the faculty are hoping that there will be fewer failures this month than were made last month and that more names will be on the honor roll which will be published the last of this week. Doubtless there will be far too many failures at best, some of which may be due to the fact that the children are not studying at home as they should. High school students should study at least two hours at home every school day and some who are behind with their work will possibly have to study more than two hours. If the child has studied the required amount at home and then fails, it might be well for the parents to confer with the teachers concerning the work of the child. The work may be too difficult or some other cause may be found the removal of which will help the child.

The best schools are none too good for the children of Hereford. Let the faculty and the home work together to make the Hereford schools the best possible. —Contributed.

Oil Stove Caused Fire Department Run Last Monday

The fire whistle roused out the fire company Monday afternoon about four o'clock and a quick run was made to the home of E. S. Ireland. A balky oil stove was the cause of the excitement but the flames were extinguished about the time the boys had the connection made from the new plug in that neighborhood. It is understood that small damage was caused, and that mostly from smoke.

Mother of Mrs. J. E. Garrison Passed to Reward

Mrs. J. H. Boyd of Amarillo, mother of Mrs. J. E. Garrison, formerly of this city, passed away last Saturday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Lovelady. The remains were shipped to Hereford Monday morning for interment in the city cemetery. The relatives, Mrs. T. J. Lovelady, a daughter of Amarillo, Moss Boyd, a son of Amarillo, Mrs. Curtis Boyd, a daughter of Clovis; a brother T. J. Boyd of Tulla, and Mrs. Stella Farrell a daughter of Sweetwater, and W. A. Stewart of Amarillo, an old friend of the Boyds were here Monday. Mrs. J. E. Garrison of Chicago was unable to be present on account of illness.

Saw Street Car

Charlotte Thompson, American girl, born and raised in the great inland stretches of Alaska, saw her first street car when her boat docked at Los Angeles the other day—also her first "shelk." At home her street car is a fast dog team and sled—which she herself drives.

Canyon High Was Too Strong; the Score Was 29 - 0

Hereford High's scrappy little football team was eliminated from the interscholastic league race for state honors last Saturday afternoon by the aggregation from Canyon High. The score was 29 to 0, but does not indicate the real fight the local boys put up. It was simply a case of a hard fighting but individual eleven pitted against a well drilled and well trained team. The Canyon line opened holes for their backs when called upon to do so and also broke through and hurried the Hereford plays so that the local quartette could never get started right. Canyon could do little with plays around the ends, however, and their passes were also broken up consistently until the last quarter. It was their slashing off-tackle plays that brought home the bacon. Hereford's punting and interference were woefully weak and while the team individually fought to the last whistle they showed a lack of teamwork that beat them.

Taylor Thurmond and Onals Carroll in the back field and J. M. Posey at end perhaps showed the best work of the day for the locals, although there were few stars and all worked as hard as they possibly could. The enemy was evidently "laying" for Captain Buck Hines and rushed him so closely when he had the ball that he could never seem to get started in his plunging work.

An unfortunate fumble of a punt soon after the first quarter gave Canyon the ball on Hereford's five yard line. The Hereford line stiffened and held two desperate plunges, but finally gave way on the third plunge and the visitors crossed the line and kicked goal. Score Canyon 7, Hereford 0. A little later in the quarter, after a series of punts and plunges, the visitors carried the ball across again on a forward pass, but were stopped because the runner had stepped out of bounds on the ten yard line. On the new play they fumbled and Hereford recovered. The punt out of danger was caught by the high wind and dropped back across the goal line into a Hereford man's arms who was downed for a safety and two more points for the visitors. Score, Canyon 9, Hereford 0.

There was no scoring in the second quarter but Hereford braced and smashed the visitors line hard for many gains, although not quite enough to be effective. In the third quarter the visitors put over another touch down and goal and in the fourth two more touchdowns and one goal.

JUDGE TATUM RECOGNIZES DIRE NEED ON THE FARMS

NEW JURY LISTS

Are Announced for Coming Weeks. Civil Cases on the Docket Now

The petit jury panel called for this week's opening term of district court was almost entirely dismissed Monday by Judge Reese Tatum, owing to the fact that the majority of the jurors were farmers and this open weather is calling them to their fields. Instead Sheriff Purcell was instructed to get busy and secure another bunch from among the town folks who were not faced with such tasks, and he had both hands full filling the order.

The grand jury is still grinding steadily, with little news leaking out, while Judge Tatum Tuesday took up the case of C. C. Huffines vs. W. S. Bourland, specific performance of contract, which is being tried before a jury. Cases disposed of to date, according to the docket, are as follows:

Muddy Days Showed Value of Good Sidewalks Here

"I wonder if the citizens of Hereford realized during the wet weather the great convenience of sidewalks," said Mayor W. M. Knight. "It is a fact, come to think about it, that every church both the Central and High Schools can be reached by concrete walks."

It has been some time since we were able to get any items in—owing partly to the recent rains making travel almost impossible, so we remained at home, and most everyone else did the same, so there were no items to write except about the weather, and everyone knew about that as they were having the same.

However, the full lake south of the Askren school house afforded the boys of the neighborhood a swimming place during the warm weather, and still affords them pleasure as they built them a boat and can be seen often enjoying a boat ride. The boat is also helpful in hunting ducks as one can get nearer the ducks in the boat.

Our teachers, Miss Hazel Green and Mrs. M. O. Meeks, prepared a nice program for Friday night, but owing to the inclement weather it was not given. We hope they will give it in the near future, even if Hallowe'en is past. I think we will all enjoy it just as much.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Conklin and family spent the day Sunday in town with his brother and family.

The Irad West family are moving to town. We understand Mr. West is to have charge of the Raleigh products. We are sorry to lose them from our neighborhood and the children from our school.

The ladies of the neighborhood were planning for a surprise party on Mrs. West's birthday, and they moved one day too soon and spoiled the plans. We wish Mr. West success in his new undertaking.

The J. L. Park family entertained the Roy Hershey family Sunday evening.

Miss Hazel Green spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Lee Conklin.

Our Sunday School voted to observe Thanksgiving again this year, as usual weather permitting. If the men are too busy in the fields to stop for the day the program will be in the school house at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hershey spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Galley. As long as the men can't work in the fields they might do a little visiting as it is the first time in years they have had such an opportunity.

Robs Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs".

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectional qualities which have heretofore limited its uses.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family packages; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. ad

PROGRESSIVE

A monster Halloween party for the young people was to have been staged at the school house Wednesday night but owing to the incessant rains the affair was postponed until Thursday evening.

Mesdames Massie and Richard, assisted by Misses Walker and Wilson, were hostesses to the guests.

The guests masqued and dressed in attractive costumes represented every class of people ranging from the southern colored wash woman to the first lady of our land—Martha Washington.

The clowns added much to the fun. One especially was adapted to his walk in life, having the manners and appearance of an aborigine from the south sea islands fairly made ones flesh creep.

Many lively games were played. The jollity resulting bespoke highly of much forethought and careful planning on the part of those who had in charge the evening's entertainment. Attractive decoration of black and yellow crepe paper, fringed cats, and glistening orange pumpkins were the most impressive of the season. At a late hour pumpkin pies and coffee were served.

The bride was attired in a white satin dress she also wore a wreath and veil. Following the ceremony a reception was given at which about twenty-seven families were present, at the bride's home. A big wedding dance was given in the evening in the hall at which a big crowd was present. The evening was enjoyed by all. Mr. Kern is the manager of the Home Merc. Co. Store.
