

Price Formula Change Foreseen For More Grain

Nation Far Behind In Food Shipments To Hungry People

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—With the nation's default in famine relief shipments soaring toward the million-ton mark, the administration was reported today to have decided on a new price formula for getting more grain from livestock feed bins for human food.

Announcement of the new program was expected soon, possibly before nightfall, and officials at the agriculture department said it probably will involve an upward readjustment in the ceiling prices of grain and livestock feeds.

One of the major causes of the current shortage of wheat for food has been heavy use of this grain for livestock feed. Many farmers have reported that they could make more money feeding grain to livestock at present ceiling prices than by selling it as grain.

Agriculture department officials, asking that they not be named, predicted an increase of between 20 and 25 cents a bushel in the ceiling price of corn, 5 to 10 cents a bushel for wheat, and increases of "several cents" for oats, barley and grain sorghums.

A decision to discourage "excessive" feeding of grain to livestock by raising prices was said to have been made after it became apparent that this country may not be able to meet its wheat export goal for the first six months of 1946.

The reported probable increase in the corn ceiling price would be designed particularly to discourage farmers from feeding hogs to heavy weights and from feeding beef cattle to choice grades.

US Troops Parade Silently, Play Ball To Observe V-E Day

FRANKFURT, May 8 (AP)—Four thousand American troops paraded today with two machine guns and a few hundred rifles in this bomb-scarred city in observance of the first anniversary of V-E Day, as shabbily-clad German civilians watched in stony silence.

The parade in the headquarters city of the US occupation zone featured only two armored vehicles, both light patrol cars. German onlookers exchanged amazed whispers. A few doffed their hats when the American flag passed.

White scarves, steel helmeted volunteers of the 508th Parachute Infantry regiment were the only tactical unit in the procession. Several hundred soldiers of the headquarters detachment strode weaponless at the heels of a military police battalion and in front of a company of WACs and jeeps loaded with Red Cross girls.

Except for scattered officers and non-coms, virtually no soldier in the parade had seen real combat action against the Wehrmacht. Two bands sporadically provided martial music, but most of the march took place in silence, broken only by the snuff of rubbering Army rifles on cobblestones. Even the German children were silent.

The biggest item on the V-E Day program to most American soldiers were the scheduled opening of the Army baseball season at a diamond built on a converted Nazi parade field here. After the parade had passed six American fighter planes flew over the I. G. Farben compound in formation, but there was no other aerial display.

Paving Contractors Confer With City

Two paving contractors conferred with city officials Tuesday, and one indicated that his firm may be interested in handling papers and contracting part of the work in the project here, City Manager B. J. McDaniel said.

Although definite arrangements are yet to be made, the contractor made a tentative proposal that the city complete grading, excavation and curbing and negotiate with his company for the topping work. A further study of the plan will be made before a definite decision is reached.

Beginning Monday the city will canvass property owners on probable methods of financing the individual costs. A city department workers will contact the owners on the blocks scheduled for the first project to determine the number planning to enter the program on a cash basis or with negotiable paper. Efforts will be made to start at least 10 or 12 blocks as soon as possible, McDaniel said.

Negro Furnishes Lead On Texarkana Slayer; Sixth Murder Probed

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 8 (AP)—Reports of a confessor to the five mysterious slayings in this area during the last six weeks, had officers from Texas and Arkansas on the alert today for a red-headed, hatless man driving a green Plymouth sedan.

The latest development in the series of slayings which began March 24, came last night, when officers in Kilgore, Tex., flashed the word that a middle-aged negro said he had been robbed by a man claiming to be the assailant of the five slain persons in this area.

The negro, Herbert Thomas, told Police Sgt. Paul Landles in Kilgore last night that he had picked up a young man who had offered him $5 for a ride to near-by Henderson.

After arriving near Henderson, Thomas told the officer that the man stuck a pistol to his side, and threatened to kill him unless the negro continued to Lufkin, a few miles away.

Thomas reported that en route to Lufkin, the man claimed he had killed five people around Texarkana. He specifically named Paul Martin, 17, and Betty Jo Booker, 15, who were found dead near a park here April 14.

The negro said the man then claimed he would return to the Texarkana area, and for Thomas to "keep his mouth shut."

After arriving near Lufkin, the negro said the man took back his $5, robbed Thomas of another $5, and then fled.

At Lufkin, Police Sgt. W. C. Turner said that a man by the name of "Camel" had reported his green Plymouth sedan stolen about the time Thomas claimed the robber fled. Turner said he assumed that the man Thomas picked up in Kilgore was the same man who had made away with the Plymouth.

Meanwhile officers continued to probe the death of a man whose mutilated body was found on a railroad track near Texarkana early yesterday.

Sheriff Jim Sanderson of Little River county said he believed the man was killed by a train.

But Dr. Frank C. Engler, the county coroner, said his jury had returned a decision that the man died at the hands of persons unknown; that a deep cut over the man's temple was sufficient to cause death, and that it was inflicted before his body was on the tracks.

Romania Celebrates Ministers' Session

BUCHAREST, May 8 (AP)—The war crimes trial of former Premier Ion Antonescu and 16 members of his government was interrupted by a spontaneous demonstration today when it was announced in the courtroom that the Big Four foreign ministers had agreed in Paris that Romania should retain Transylvania.

The news spread rapidly through the city, which took on a festive holiday air.

Lewis, Mine Workers Stick To Demand; Soft Coal Supplies Rigidly Rationed

14 Non-Operating Brotherhoods May Take Strike Vote

DENISON, May 8 (AP)—E. Jones, general chairman of the brotherhood of maintenance of way of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad, said here today the 14 non-operating brotherhoods of American railroads would take a strike vote some time between May 20 and June 15.

Jones said the action was decided upon at the Chicago meeting May 2-3 of general chairmen of all brotherhoods over the nation.

He attended the meeting. The strike vote is for a wage increase.

Jones explained that the non-operating brotherhoods recently had asked for a 30-cent wage increase, and that an arbitration board had awarded them 16 cents, which was accepted by the brotherhoods with protest.

The strike vote will be called, he said, to determine whether the approval of 32 temporary living units to be constructed from materials at the Big Spring Army airfield has been granted by the FPHA, according to information received by city officials last night.

The FPFA action was taken on applications submitted more than a month ago requesting allocation of barracks at the airfield for relieving the housing shortage here. The original application asked for 250 temporary living units, but when FPFA subsequently requested another application, the figure was raised to 400.

In a telegram to Mayor G. W. Dabney last night, Congressman George Mahon stated, "I have been advised that 32 family dwelling units will be made available immediately." Similar wires were received from Senators W. Lee O'Daniel and Tom Connally.

City officials had received no additional information this morning, and are awaiting communication from the FPFA.

Convict Faces Trial For Slaying Warden

EDDYVILLE, KY, May 8 (AP)—Earl Tungett, now serving a life term at Eddyville prison, will go on trial May 14 on a charge of willful murder in connection with the slaying last January of Deputy Warden L. R. Gumm.

Tungett's wife, Viola, was to be arraigned today on a charge of being an accessory. Both were indicted yesterday by the Lyon county grand jury.

Tungett, serving a term for murder in Jefferson county, was accused of shooting the deputy warden in an attempted break. His wife is charged with mailing him the gun used in the shooting.

Victory Anniversary Finds No War, But No Peace In The World Either

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER AP Diplomatic Reporter WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—The world observed the first anniversary of victory in Europe today without war anywhere—but also without peace.

The best estimate of diplomatic authorities here is it may be several years before real conditions of peace are restored among nations. The prospects even for this, they say, have been dimmed by the evident failure of the foreign ministers conference in Paris to make progress on European peace settlements.

The situation in Europe is matched in Asia by the dispute between the Chinese communists and the central government; and in the Middle East by the tensions over the war-born Palestine crisis.

Estimates of the condition in which the world finds itself on today's V-E anniversary leave little doubt that the allied powers have made considerable progress toward organizing machinery to preserve peace once they establish it. But it is the process of establishing the peace that presents the toughest going.

Fuller Strains To Bring Union, Owners Together

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers refused to budge an inch today from their original contract demands, forcing even more stringent government controls over the nation's fast-widening soft coal supplies.

Industry was hit harder. Against such a background, federal mediator Paul W. Fuller redoubled efforts to break the negotiations deadlock between Lewis and the mine operators, and the 38-day old stoppage which is keeping 400,000 miners idle.

Fuller met with no success in his first efforts to work out an agreement on the question of $3,000,000 in holiday overtime which the miners insist is due them. However, he kept at it, for this issue is one of the obstacles blocking discussion of major provisions in a new contract for the miners.

On Capitol Hill congressional tempers grew shorter, and support gathered behind demands that strike control legislation get No. 1 priority unless a prompt end to the coal shutdowns is effected.

Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small meanwhile set up an office of emergency controls "to avoid collapse of utilities services essential to public health and safety during the coal strike."

This office will take whatever steps possible to keep all power, gas and water companies in operation, Small said. He named Edward Faick, former director of war utilities for the war production board, to direct the task.

Brownouts and dimouts of lights were imposed by community after community across the country in an effort to conserve fuel stores.

The solid fuels administration reported that even gas and oil, now under heavier demand than ever, are becoming hard to get because of transportation difficulties as railroads slashed services requiring coal-burning locomotives.

The crippling effects of the strike seemed to be building up relentlessly to the big crisis which some government labor officials privately believe Lewis has been waiting for to strengthen the bargaining position of his miners in the negotiations with the operators.

But on the surface, Lewis's position seemed stronger than ever, as for as the backing of his miners is concerned. He presented a report yesterday to APMWA's policy committee at a special session here, and the 250 strike leaders who make it up shouted their approval of his strategy.

Ford In Shutdown, Other Plants Hit By Coal Shortage

DETROIT, May 8 (AP)—The Ford Motor Company, hit hard by the nationwide coal strike, today announced a virtual shutdown of all its operations starting tonight, affecting 110,000 workers.

Chrysler Corp. said its assembly lines and body plant operations may be suspended early next week because of the coal emergency, and General Motors Corp., announcing shutdown of its La Grange, Ill., unit, said other work may be affected "within a very short time."

Spokesmen for the auto industry's "Big Three" said curtailment of their operations was dependent on the government's general freight embargo, effective at midnight Thursday, under which auto parts are not eligible for transportation by rail.

The industry's assembly plants already have been described as more than four months behind schedule, with production at about 50 per cent of capacity. About 800,000 cars and trucks have been produced since last July 1, in contrast to the 2,500,000 originally scheduled.

The Ford shutdown, described by officials as "indefinite," follows several previous curtailments of the company's operations since the first of the year. Most of them lasted only a few days and were laid to strikes and material shortages.

Government May Pay To Transport Goods Overseas

Legislation has been introduced in Congress to authorize all ranks and grades of the overseas military whose families are joining them to transport household goods at government expense, according to information received here by Mrs. Moore Sawtell, American Red Cross director.

At present, the law permits this transportation only for officers and enlisted men of the first four grades.

Personal baggage limitations which may be checked aboard ships have the same limitation for all dependents regardless of rank or grade of the applicant: One piece of hand luggage and one footlocker or steamer trunk for each passenger for stateroom use, plus 250 pounds for adults and 175 pounds for each child under 12 to be stored in the hold.

The pending legislation also would authorize transportation at government expense of all dependents of all grades and ranks from their homes to their overseas destinations. As the law now stands, the dependents of the lower four grades have to pay their own way to the port of embarkation.

Aboard ship, the only charges for the dependents of officers and men of all grades will be for meals. The rates are a uniform $1.50 a day for adults, 75 cents a day for children from three to eight years of age and 35 cents a day for children less than three years of age.

Military personnel, who, of course, must obtain the permission of their theater commander before sending for their dependents, will be furnished quarters for their families.

Several Major Items On Trustees' Agenda

Several major items will occupy the attention of the Big Spring Independent School district board of trustees in their regular monthly meeting at 8 p. m. today in the school administration office.

Among items on the agenda are election of teachers, report from the special survey committee, plans for commencement schedules, interview with the chamber of commerce tax committee. Board members have issued a standing invitation for any person interested to sit in on the meetings.

Shipment Prolongs Typhus Control Work

Prospects of halting typhus control operations temporarily in Big Spring were precluded today when a small shipment of sheet metal was received.

US 87 Delegates Plan More Active Support

Delegates to the state meeting of the US 87 Highway association Tuesday laid plans for a more aggressive support of the route, named two Texas directors and looked toward the national meeting in Denver, Colo., on June 14-15.

Floyd Elliott, Dohart, and Dean Chinoweth, San Angelo, were elected as Texas directors in the national association, and J. H. Greene, Big Spring, national association vice-president, named Mrs. Louise McCall, Lamesa, R. L. Johns, Plainview, Wiley Curry, Big Spring, Joe Ogden, Brady, W. E. Cantrell, Dohart, Howell Jones, San Antonio, and Milo Roth, San Angelo, as an attendance committee for the June meeting.

Reporting on activities of the association, A. B. Davis, Lubbock, general manager, pointed to the need of a more militant campaign in support of the route; told of possible alterations in designations; of competitive routes; and indicated that the association may be internationalized to include Canadian, Alaskan and Mexican points.

Gromyko Warns Fate Of Germany Awaits Aggressor Nations

NEW YORK, May 8. (AP)—Andre A. Gromyko, Russian delegate to the UN Security Council, says that any nation or group of nations which tries to impose its will on the rest of the world will meet the same fate as Germany.

Gromyko spoke at a dinner last night at the American-Russian Institute at which the first annual award of the institute was conferred posthumously upon President Franklin D. Roosevelt as the man who had done most to improve relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The Philippines were ceded to the United States by Spain in 1899.

King Terms Jewish Report As Betrayal Of Arabs By Allies

RIYADH, Saudi Arabia, May 8. (AP)—King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia, terming the British-American inquiry committee report on Palestine a "betrayal," declared today "I can not advise Arabs longer to keep quiet."

The six-foot, four-inch monarch, who is regarded as the foremost leader of the Arab world because of his position as protector of the cities of Mecca and Medina, told the Associated Press in an exclusive interview:

"We still hope the American and British governments won't put these recommendations into effect because then the betrayal will be complete.

"I have been doing my best to convince Arabs to work hand in hand with the Allies because I was certain that one day justice would be done," he continued. "But now we feel these recommendations are a betrayal."

The king said he "recognized that something must be done to help the Jews in Europe" but indicated he felt it was a problem in the solution of which the entire world should participate.

Bank Tellers Await Embezzling Hearing

SAN ANTONIO, May 8. (AP)—Two former San Antonio bank tellers today awaited the hearing of sentences on charges of embezzling.

The pair yesterday pleaded guilty before Judge Ben H. Rise, Jr., in federal court.

Judge Rise said the men, Charles Beauchamp and Emil Alfred Breatuitgam, are scheduled to be sentenced next Monday.

Beauchamp was charged with converting approximately $2,000 in bank funds to his own use, and Breatuitgam was accused with embezzling more than $4,000.

Navy Packs Heaven No. 6 Away In Mothballs

U.S.S. SANCTUARY'S hospital equipment being protected for peacetime storage. Here Navy men are covering an operating chair in the eye, ear, nose and throat clinic of the ship.

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Heaven No. 6 is being packed away in mothballs at the Philadelphia Naval Base.

"Heaven No. 6" is the nickname for the USS Sanctuary, a navy hospital ship, and "mothballs" the common term for placing a wartime ship in peacetime storage.

Approximately 40 per cent of the work is complete, but some 35,000 items of surgical instruments and supplies alone, valued at $318,000, remain to be inventoried, coated with protective solution and stowed away.

Gleaming stainless steel equipment—operating tables, dental chairs, the huge lights designed to illuminate surgery in four spotless operating rooms—all must be coated and placed in time-proof storage. As a final step each compartment is sealed airtight except for air conditioning vents that help keep rigid control over temperature and moisture.

Equipment for a City Hospital ships carry within their steel hulls equipment sufficient to provide medical care for a city of 25,000 persons. The Sanctuary, one of 10 commissioned by the Navy before the end of the war, has beds for 786 patients.

Her equipment, says Capt. J. G. Jones, of Portage, Wis., is equal or superior to any hospital in the world.

When the task is complete a skeleton crew of five officers and 74 men under Commander D. C. Hahnkratt, of Colorado Springs, Colo., the present executive officer, will remain aboard.

At wartime strength the Sanctuary, and other ships like her, carried 25 medical officers, five dental officers, 16 hospital corps officers, 30 navy nurses and 253 enlisted hospital corpsmen, plus an operating crew of 19 commissioned and warrant officers and 276 enlisted men.

There were no gunners, and no guns.

Yet the hospital ships were in the heart of every action, especially in the Pacific. Alone and undefended they steamed into battle torn beachheads to receive the wounded. Brightly lighted at night they often sailed within sight of raging battles.

Off Okinawa the USS Comfort was blasted by a Japanese suicide plane that crashed into an operating room, causing many casualties.

Origin of Nickname Commissioned June 20, 1945.

Allies Invited To Atom Tests

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP)—The United States put an end today to a lot of speculation about "Operation Crossroads" by inviting 11 nations to send official representatives and news correspondents to the coming atomic bomb tests in the Pacific.

For some weeks there has been considerable conjecture whether foreign observers would be permitted to witness the experiments, and Capitol Hill has heard some lawmakers assert the tests were certain to divulge valuable military information.

Uncertainty on the question ended when acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson announced last night that President Truman had authorized invitations for all countries having membership on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission.

In addition to the United States, these countries are Russia, Britain, France, China, Canada, Australia, Brazil, Egypt, Poland, The Netherlands and Mexico.

Under terms of the Big Three agreement at Moscow, the UN Atomic Energy Commission is composed of the governments on the Security Council plus Canada.

AAF Trailer Coming Here For Recruiting

A trailer from the Clovis (N.M.) Army Air Field will be here on May 24 in interest of stimulating AAF recruiting.

Many devices employed by the air corps will be displayed on the trailer, which will be located near the postoffice from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Included will be varied life-saving devices, bombsights, bomb bay door mechanism, electrical generating device, etc.

While here, the party in charge of the display, plans to talk with young men interested in AAF enlistment.

Midget-Car Owner Forgot The Anchor

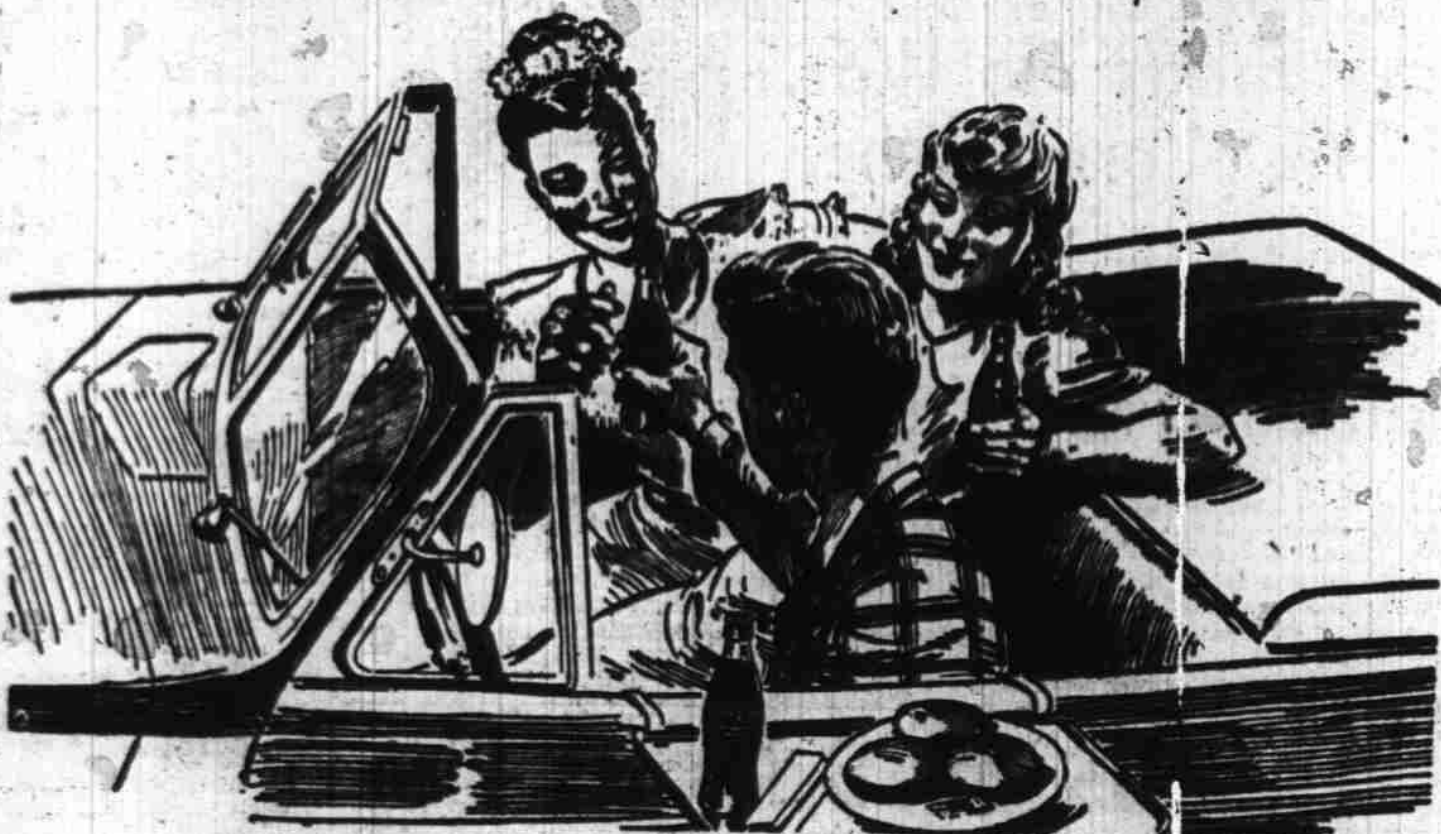

PHOENIX, Ariz.—It cost Harold Leuba, Lamson Business College instructor, $4 to learn that there is hazard as well as convenience in parking one of those new hantam automobiles.

Leuba parked his new two-cylinder car legally in downtown Phoenix, congratulating himself that the space he had found wouldn't have accommodated a model T Ford.

But along came a group of boys who, just for the fun of it, lifted it bodily, reparking it on the sidewalk. And then along came a policeman, who ordered it towed to the police garage.

The towing charge was $4.

Production of new electric refrigerators is still far behind the tremendous demand. Dealers are trying to see that war veterans, families with children and others who have no automatic refrigeration get the first call on new electric refrigerators.

Until you can have one of these fine new electric refrigerators delivered into your home to replace the refrigerator which has served so faithfully, take good care of the one you have. In the meantime, keep in touch with your electric refrigerator dealer. He'll help you get better service from your present refrigerator and keep you posted as to when you can get a new electric refrigerator with the many improvements.

Helpful Hints for Better Refrigeration

- Don't place hot foods in your refrigerator. Let them cool first.
- Don't open the refrigerator door more often than necessary.
- Defrost frequently, at least once a week. Thick frost lowers efficiency.
- Leave space between refrigerator and wall to allow air to circulate.

The new low electric rates mean that you can operate your electric refrigerator at still lower cost, right at a time when the cost of living is going up.

Huffman Victor In Ohio Primary; Other Returns In

By the Associated Press
 Nearly complete returns gave Senator James W. Huffman victory over three opponents for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Tuesday's Ohio primaries, including a CIO-PAC endorsed candidate who finished third.

In the Alabama Democratic primary, second testing ground of the union group's political influence, two CIO-PAC choices led their fields and a third trailed.

With few exceptions, incumbent congressmen were renominated in the four states voting—Ohio, Alabama, Indiana and Florida.

Huffman had a margin of more than 23,000 votes over his nearest opponent, former Rep. Stephen M. Young, with about 90 per cent of Ohio's precincts counted. Another 16,000-back came Marvin C. Harrison, attorney supported by the CIO-PAC.

Huffman's rival in the November election will be former governor John W. Bricker, Republican vice presidential nominee in 1944, who was unopposed for his party's Senate nomination.

In the other senatorial primary—Florida's—former governor Spessard L. Holland polled a majority over the combined vote for three opponents and won the Democratic nomination, assuring him of election in the fall.

In one of the two gubernatorial primaries, James E. (Big Jim) Folsom, war veteran supported by the CIO-PAC, led Alabama's Lieut. Gov. Handy Ellis, but neither was close to a majority in the five man field. They will engage in a run-off June 4.

Ohio's Democratic governor, Frank J. Lausche, piled up a landslide re-election victory over Joseph Torok, Jr., politically unknown grocery worker of Youngstown.

Rep. Luther Patrick of the Birmingham, Ala., district, endorsed by the CIO-PAC, trailed Laurie Battle, war veteran and political newcomer.

Rep. Pat Cannon of Miami was snubbed under by George A. Smathers, 32-year-old ex-Marine, as Florida nominated four other congressional incumbents.

Six Republican congressmen from Indiana who had opposition were renominated, including Rep. Charles Halleck, chairman of the House Republican Campaign committee.

Negroes voted on a statewide basis for the first time in the hitherto "white primaries" of Alabama and Florida, but there were no reports of instances where their numbers were decisive.

Luzon Guerrillas To Stop Fighting When Assured Of Law

MANILA, May 8 (AP)—Luis Taruc, Hukbalahap leader, told the Associated Press today his guerrilla organization would stop fighting in central Luzon when it was "assured of the government's ability to control irresponsible elements attacking us in the name of law and order."

Taruc outlined the objectives of his guerrilla peasant organization preceding a closed meeting of some 20 Hukbalahap and government officials called by Defense Minister Alfredo Montelibano.

More than 50 deaths in central Luzon in the past three weeks have been blamed on disorders involving the Huks and Filipino military police.

McCONNELL INJURED—Edward (Slow) McConnell, F1/c, is now a patient in the fleet hospital in San Francisco, awaiting transfer to a naval hospital nearest his home. McConnell was in an accident a few days before his scheduled sailing for the states and as a result he sustained a broken leg. He spent 20 months in the Pacific and participated in the invasion of Okinawa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Huxen.

Fort Worth Stockyards Corral 100,000,000th

FORT WORTH—The 100,000,000th animal has gone through the Fort Worth stockyards, setting another mark for the Southwest's leading livestock market.

Arriving at the same time were a load of cattle owned by Lyle Currie of Ballinger and a load of sheep owned by Randolph Wilson of Ledy. So stockyards officials let the honor of having the historic animal go to both men.

Stockyards General Manager W. L. Pier estimated that the 100,000,000 animals have been worth an estimated $2,854,000,000.

Cattle lead the total of animals received, with 35,160,802 received in the 45-year history of the stockyards.

Yard records show 12,986,217 calves, 21,547,852 sheep and 1,622,345 horses and mules received.

During the last several years Fort Worth has come to the front as the nation's leading sheep market, outdistancing Denver, which had held that position. Biggest sheep day was June, 19, 1944, when 56,420 were received. Some 181,784 sheep were received in the week ending June 1, 1945.

Here 'n There

Another Big Springer, 5-Sgt. Berino G. Mancha, received his honorable discharge from the Army this week. He was cleared through the Personnel Center at Fort Sam Houston.

The sophomore edition of The Brand, Hardin-Simmons university student newspaper, was adjudged third place winner in the annual class edition contest. Its editor was Jeanne Dickerson of Big Spring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickerson.

A business visitor in Big Spring Wednesday was Roland S. Bond of Dallas, head of the Bond Oil corporation, and associated with L. B. Harrison in West Texas production operations. Bond, with his pilot, flew here in his Beechcraft plane, and, with Harrison and Sam Goldman, made a flight to Ft. Stockton and back during the day. This was Bond's first visit to West Texas since his release from the Army, in which he served about three and a half years. Formerly, he had frequently been in this area on business missions.

Postage stamps were issued for the first time in 1840 in Great Britain.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dozing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when it gets blocked it fails to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is not soda or an alkalizer—but something to "unblock" your intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take them as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits your food to move along normally. Nature's own digestive juices can then reach it. You get genuine relief that makes you feel really good again.

Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore—25¢. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.

Teacher Shortage

DENVER, (UP)—Dr. E. T. McSwain of the Northwestern University told a Colorado educators meeting here that "the great tragedy" of the day is the shortage of teachers in the American school system. And, he added, not enough future teachers are being trained to replace those dropping out.

'Most Hated Thief'

PLYMOUTH, Ind (UP)—The most hated thief in Plymouth is the man who broke into a desk in the Evangelical Reformed Church and stole 11 banks with the entire contribution raised for relief work in Europe. Approximately $50 was taken. Nothing else in the church was disturbed.

Harvest Ready For Workers

One dominant theme ran through the state meeting of US 87 Highway association here Tuesday—that there is going to be a tremendous volume of tourist traffic starting this year and continuing for many seasons.

Those who have made a study of the problem are agreed that the tourist dollar is one of the most stimulating that can come into a community. It is fresh money—plus money. To some extent, it represents income without the necessity of basic capital that other crops require and industries require.

Regardless of what we do locally, there will be a large volume of traffic course over the two federal highways which have intersection here. But what we realize from this traffic is something entirely different.

The harvest is ripening and is plentiful, but the grain won't just fall into the bins. There needs to be promotion of the city up and down the lines so that the maximum number will make their plans to stop in Big Spring.

Even more important than this is the need for educational programs to inform service station workers, cafe and hotel employees, clerks and others of the necessity of giving courteous service, of being informed about the community and of routes and distances to other points, of attractions and facilities locally.

These same people, if pleased by the type of service and attention they are given here, more than likely will make it a stopping point on the return trip. They may even come this way again another year, but better still, they may tell many friends that here is a good place to stop.

Potentially, there is conservatively a half million dollar harvest awaiting us this summer—it could easily be more than that. Are we willing to work for it?

Prison System Reform

(First of a series of three) By PAUL BOLTON

AUSTIN—A preliminary report on the Texas Prison System by an expert in the field of penology points out vast shortcomings in the system and makes strong recommendations for improvements to safeguard Texans from a prison system which apparently causes more crime by its faults.

The report, made by Austin H. McCormick of the Osborne Association, Inc., for the Texas Prison Board, has been completed and turned over to the Board and to Gov. Coke Stevenson. It could be the basis for wide prison reforms in coming sessions of the legislature.

McCormick's investigations were made with the full cooperation of the Texas Prison System. His report breaks naturally into three sections, to be discussed in this series: The first is the Texas Prison System as McCormick found it.

In the category of what's wrong with the system, McCormick finds very little that isn't. Disciplinary problems are due largely to the way the prison is run, built and financed. He lists seven basic reasons for the large number of escapes, the frequent cases of self-mutilation, and the general disciplinary worries:

1. Employment of too large a proportion of the prisoners on prison farms. Teaching them trades which they could use when their time is up would keep non-farmers happier.

2. Housing of too large a proportion of prisoners in open dormitories, especially the "tanks" on the farms. Pre-war figures show that 78 per cent were housed in dormitories, where the free mingling of prisoners of all types leads to "brawling," plots to escape, trouble-making fights, and lowered morale. And escape from dormitories is always easier, because the responsibility for partly sawed bars cannot be fixed.

3. Inadequacy of personnel, both in numbers and quality. The McCormick report described the system as "very seriously undermanned." As to quality of guard personnel, he notes that "a farm man cannot count on his guards reporting for work or finishing out the week. Some prove to be heavy drinkers, others are too inexperienced or incompetent to handle prisoners, and others are brutal and use methods that bring on a wave of disciplinary problems." Low salaries, lack of personnel director, inadequate appropriations are the basic causes of the personnel situation, McCormick points out.

4. Inadequacy of the program of activities which have the rehabilitation of the prisoner as their aim, and which not only increase the likelihood of making good after release, but also improve morale and discipline, education, vocational training and religion.

5. Inability under the limitations of facilities and personnel to carry on the individualized training program which the classification department is capable of planning.

In addition to these five criticisms of the prison system itself, McCormick points out two other basic faults in the Texas system which lead to "huge disciplinary problems at the prison:

1. The wide disparity in sentences imposed by courts throughout the state, and the excessive sentences frequently imposed.

2. The lack of well-regulated, consistent, and even-handed release procedures, and of a strong, well-staffed parole system with a board having authority within the law to make final and independent decisions with respect to releases, and a staff of parole officers adequate in numbers and quality to supervise paroled prisoners. Washington Merry-Go-Round—Draw Pearson

US Sick With Hitlerian Diseases

WASHINGTON. — Today, one year from the day Germany surrendered, it may be appropriate to take stock of the things we should have learned from Hitler, but haven't.

Most students of the war will agree that if Hitler had been satisfied after acquiring the two German-speaking areas of the Rhineland and Austria, he could have escaped a war and might today be politically and economically dominating Europe. But his greed, his lust for territory carried him too far and proved his undoing.

Likewise had Hitler been more tolerant toward religion, had he not pillaged Jewish shops, and waged unmerciful war against this one religious group, he might not have aroused the rest of the world against him.

Today, in the USA, we have to some extent become contaminated by the disease of the vanquished. Greed, the fatal mistake of Hitler, has insidiously crept into American life. You see it on Capitol Hill where certain senators use their privileged position to speculate on the commodity market. You see it among the hordes of business lobbyists who throng the capital demanding this or that concession for their group. And you see it among black marketeers and manufacturers who withhold their products hoping to ruin OPA.

Finally, you see it among certain labor leaders, who regard the public interest, are determined to squeeze out the very last penny, even if in doing so they paralyze their country. (If the shoe fits, John L. Lewis, put it on.)

Intolerance, the other great mistake of Hitler, also has increased to a shocking degree. Witness, for instance, the Ku Klux Klan. Discredited, and with its leaders in jail before the war, it has now sprung to life again. So far its activities are scattered and feeble but significantly growing stronger.

To illustrate, here is a secret survey of KKK activities in the South which shows how intolerance, the poison which helped bring the downfall of Hitler, is creeping into our national bloodstream.

The post-war revival of the Klan began on October 10 when a fiery cross was burned on Stone Mountain just outside of Atlanta, Ga., which once again has become the KKK national headquarters. Since then five Klan chapters have been meeting regularly in Atlanta. Chapter No. 1 has a weekly attendance of 150, and several city policemen, city officials and substantial citizens have joined in the last few weeks.

In Knoxville, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala., Key West, Fla., and Maryville, Tenn., Klan chapters meet regularly. In Miami, Fla., several crosses have been burned since V-J Day, but a vigorous expose by the Miami Herald has resulted in Klan condemnations.

President Roosevelt issued an executive order in 1943 that the ministers should receive time and a half for holiday work. However, with the war over, Truman rescinded this order as of Aug. 21, 1945, and Lewis wants to collect for the four holidays which have transpired since.

The operators adjourned briefly to think this over, then returned to the conference table and contended that the rescinding of the Roosevelt executive order by President Truman relieved them of the obligation to pay time-and-a-half for the four holidays since V-J Day. But, following a long debate they finally agreed to submit the issue to government arbitration.

"This is a minor issue," declared former US Senator Ed Burke, chief spokesman for the operators. "We will agree to let Secretary Schwelienbach name an arbitrator, who should be able to reach a decision within 24 hours. Then we can continue our negotiations."

But Lewis stubbornly rejected the offer. "Arbitration!" he exclaimed. "Indeed I will not arbitrate about money that belongs to my men. Either you gentlemen pay this debt, or we may as well end this meeting right now."

Lewis was on the verge of grabbing his hat and walking out, as he has done twice before during the mine negotiations, when McGrady persuaded both factions to resume the conference on Monday. However, McGrady had to call on all his persuasive powers to prevent another Lewis walkout. "It was my original intention to request all you gentlemen to sit all day Sunday in order to reach a common ground of agreement for the settlement of this very serious strike," McGrady told Lewis and the operators.

"However, tomorrow is the Sabbath day," he continued, "and from the way things look now more can be accomplished in church than at this meeting table."

"Therefore, I am going to ask every man in this room to go to church tomorrow and pray to God to give you guidance to reach a quick settlement on this serious strike."

That is how John L. Lewis, like certain other unpopular figures in current history, breaks the camel's back. (Copyright, 1946, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

John L. Lewis's Greed Perhaps, like a certain German gentleman, John L. Lewis never seems to know when he has demanded too much. An illustration occurred last Saturday when Lewis, sitting with the coal operators and able US negotiator Ed McGrady, demanded that the operators pay time and a half for four past holidays — Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's.

"You gentlemen owe us this overtime pay and until you agree to reimburse the miners there is no purpose in my negotiating further with you," boomed the burly mine leader.

He was referring to the fact that President Roosevelt issued an executive order in 1943 that the miners should receive time and a half for holiday work. However, with the war over, Truman rescinded this order as of Aug. 21, 1945, and Lewis wants to collect for the four holidays which have transpired since.

The operators adjourned briefly to think this over, then returned to the conference table and contended that the rescinding of the Roosevelt executive order by President Truman relieved them of the obligation to pay time-and-a-half for the four holidays since V-J Day. But, following a long debate they finally agreed to submit the issue to government arbitration.

Good Refuge From Inflation

Reports of increases in US saving bond purchases is one of the few bright signs of effective means of combatting not-so-creeping inflation.

Practicing of individual thrift and savings is a good practical and personal way to relieve the immediate demand for consumer goods. Although these issues may be cashed at will, the fact remains that the average person is reluctant to surrender his bonds except in case of last resort. Thus money put out of sight is not the active bidder that money in hand is.

The fact that more are buying and fewer are cashing means that people are seeking, in increasing numbers, some refuge from an inflated economy. The fact that they are putting their funds back is all the more reason for these same people to cooperate in sound practices against inflation, for if the situation gets totally out of control, they would be obliged to cash them at the moment when their value would be the least. Thus every bond holder, along with every person who has a bank account, an insurance policy, etc. has a stake in helping to curb inflation.

Prague Making Cultural Comeback

By JAMES DEVLIN (For Hal Boyle)

PRAGUE, (CP)—This picturesque capital of Czechoslovakia is making a spirited bid to succeed Vienna as the focal point of eastern Europe.

An old world city of towers and statues, Prague is working hard to become a center of commerce, culture, air travel, tourists, recreation and sports.

Prague came out of the war with much less physical damage than was suffered by the shell-torn Austrian city 125 miles to the south.

Culturally, Prague lost no time in returning to prewar standards. The opera "season" lasts the whole year—round side tickets must be purchased weeks in advance. Museums, escaping war damage for the most part, are back in operation. Bookstores, magazines and newspapers flourish.

Despite shortages of food, housing and clothing, life is gay in Prague. Scarcely a night passes that there is not a ball in one or another of the city's hotels.

Night clubs, though legal, usually are located in hideaway spots down dark side streets with inconspicuous doorways in the style of American speakeasies of a bygone era.

To the tourist, Prague offers scenery ranging from impressive Hradcany castle and towering St. Vit cathedral, overlooking the Vltava river and statue-lined Charles bridge, to crooked little streets in the "old city."

Within a few hours drive of Prague are both winter and summer resorts—but the tourist may have difficulty in recognizing their names for the Czechs with fervid nationalism, erased German words from their part of the map.

The world-renowned spas of Karlovy and Marienbad, for instance, now are Karlovy Vary and Marianske Lazne.

In the midst of these interests the Czechoslovaks are devoting their chief attention to postwar recovery and nationalization of their industry.

Leaders at Prague, with guarded optimism, have reported that food supplies seem secure until the next harvest, that during the winter the nation's exports began to exceed imports, that coal production has surpassed the prewar average.

The report, made by Austin H. McCormick of the Osborne Association, Inc., for the Texas Prison Board, has been completed and turned over to the Board and to Gov. Coke Stevenson. It could be the basis for wide prison reforms in coming sessions of the legislature.

The rest of the department—which altogether employs 16,000 people—divided up into five main sections, with an assistant secretary of state heading each. They are:

To the tourist, Prague offers scenery ranging from impressive Hradcany castle and towering St. Vit cathedral, overlooking the Vltava river and statue-lined Charles bridge, to crooked little streets in the "old city."

Within a few hours drive of Prague are both winter and summer resorts—but the tourist may have difficulty in recognizing their names for the Czechs with fervid nationalism, erased German words from their part of the map.

The world-renowned spas of Karlovy and Marienbad, for instance, now are Karlovy Vary and Marianske Lazne.

In the midst of these interests the Czechoslovaks are devoting their chief attention to postwar recovery and nationalization of their industry.

Leaders at Prague, with guarded optimism, have reported that food supplies seem secure until the next harvest, that during the winter the nation's exports began to exceed imports, that coal production has surpassed the prewar average.

The report, made by Austin H. McCormick of the Osborne Association, Inc., for the Texas Prison Board, has been completed and turned over to the Board and to Gov. Coke Stevenson. It could be the basis for wide prison reforms in coming sessions of the legislature.

McCormick's investigations were made with the full cooperation of the Texas Prison System. His report breaks naturally into three sections, to be discussed in this series: The first is the Texas Prison System as McCormick found it.

In the category of what's wrong with the system, McCormick finds very little that isn't. Disciplinary problems are due largely to the way the prison is run, built and financed. He lists seven basic reasons for the large number of escapes, the frequent cases of self-mutilation, and the general disciplinary worries:

1. Employment of too large a proportion of the prisoners on prison farms. Teaching them trades which they could use when their time is up would keep non-farmers happier.

2. Housing of too large a proportion of prisoners in open dormitories, especially the "tanks" on the farms. Pre-war figures show that 78 per cent were housed in dormitories, where the free mingling of prisoners of all types leads to "brawling," plots to escape, trouble-making fights, and lowered morale. And escape from dormitories is always easier, because the responsibility for partly sawed bars cannot be fixed.

3. Inadequacy of personnel, both in numbers and quality. The McCormick report described the system as "very seriously undermanned." As to quality of guard personnel, he notes that "a farm man cannot count on his guards reporting for work or finishing out the week. Some prove to be heavy drinkers, others are too inexperienced or incompetent to handle prisoners, and others are brutal and use methods that bring on a wave of disciplinary problems." Low salaries, lack of personnel director, inadequate appropriations are the basic causes of the personnel situation, McCormick points out.

In addition to these five criticisms of the prison system itself, McCormick points out two other basic faults in the Texas system which lead to "huge disciplinary problems at the prison:

1. The wide disparity in sentences imposed by courts throughout the state, and the excessive sentences frequently imposed.

2. The lack of well-regulated, consistent, and even-handed release procedures, and of a strong, well-staffed parole system with a board having authority within the law to make final and independent decisions with respect to releases, and a staff of parole officers adequate in numbers and quality to supervise paroled prisoners. (Tomorrow: What Could Be Done About It Now.)

The rest of the department—which altogether employs 16,000 people—divided up into five main sections, with an assistant secretary of state heading each. They are:

1. Donald S. Russell, in charge of the department's inside business, like personnel, communications and so on.

2. William Benton, in charge of public relations and international information.

3. William L. Clayton, in charge of the department's economics, like foreign trade.

4. Spruille Braden, in charge of American republic affairs, which means dealings with Latin American countries.

5. James C. Dunn, in charge of dealings with all countries outside those handled by Braden, which means outside the Western Hemisphere.

CONSTIPATION
MUCH SUFFERING

Constipation may cause no symptoms for a long time, but unless corrected will finally impair the health. Symptoms associated with advancing constipation are loss of appetite, heavily coated tongue, tired feeling and mental depression. Headache, dizziness, nervousness, and skin disturbances such as acne, are commonly experienced. In severe cases, neuralgia and joint pains occur. Indigestion, with gas formation, and colic, and piles and fissures frequently add to the discomforts of severe chronic constipation.

No matter how many other medicines you may have tried for constipation, we urge you to try B-L PREPARATION with the understanding that B-L PREPARATION must bring you satisfactory results or your money back. Caution: Use only as directed.

Carpenters Granted Wage Rate Increase

A wage rate increase for carpenters in the Big Spring area from $1.12 1-2 per hour to $1.37 1-2 has been announced by H. H. Rutherford, secretary of local No. 1034 (AFL).

Approval of the boost has been granted by the WSB, effective May 6, Rutherford said. At the same time, new scales for other carpenters' workers were established. The new rate for first year apprentice is 65 cents per hour; second year apprentice, 80 cents per hour; third year apprentice, $1 per hour; and fourth year apprentice, $1.15 per hour.

The increases were granted after application was made late in March asking for a $1.50 per hour rate for carpenters.

Several days ago bricklayers in the area were allowed an increase from $1.72 per hour to $1.93 3-4.

"Business As Usual" On Truman's Birthday

WASHINGTON, May 8. (AP) — President Truman observed his 62nd birthday today by posting a "business as usual" notice at the White House.

If the family planned any party, Mr. Truman hadn't been told about it. Neither had White House officials.

Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman told him it would be "like any other day, only more so," and that if there was to be a birthday cake it was being kept secret from him.

A year ago, Mr. Truman announced on his birthday the end of the war against Germany. Today he started a homefront campaign for more safety on streets and highways. The occasion was the opening of a highway safety conference attended by governors and many state and local leaders from all over the country.

Good Government Parents' Responsibility, Says Woods

"It is the parents' responsibility to see that the government is continually developed through education of their children," Dr. L. A. Woods, superintendent of public instruction, reminded members of the high school Parent-Teacher association Tuesday.

The children of Texas should be given proper instruction in order that they can fit truth from false and use their information for good," the educator declared.

Dr. Woods gave five reasons for children's receiving an education as to enable them to face facts with an unwarped mind, to open the child's eyes to beauty, to respect the abilities of others, to give information and teach the child to discover things for himself, and to guide, but not coerce, the child into the work which would make him happiest.

The educator concluded by challenging the parents and teachers to consecrate themselves to instructing their children and pupils to perfect democratic life.

Lina Jane Wolfe opened the meeting with two accordion solos. Mrs. Ray Clark presided at the business session at which members agreed to contribute $25 to the tri-school lunchroom. It was announced that installation of new P-TA officers will be held on May 17, and guests at the meeting will be the state vice-president from Midland. The room count was won by the freshman class.

Attending the meeting were Ola Karsteter, Mrs. W. W. McCormick, Lina Jane Wolfe, Arab Phillips, Anna Smith, Elizabeth Akers, Ruth Beasley, Clara R. Pool, Agnes Currie, Clara Secrest, Leta Amerson, George B. Missell Jr., Mrs. Bernice Abele, Mrs. H. C. Carter, Mrs. Earl Brownrigg, Mrs. W. C. Blankenship, Mrs. Vada Eggleston, Mrs. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. R. G. Burnett, W. L. Reed, Mrs. Buel Fox, Mrs. Boone Horne, Ione McAllister, Marguerite K. Greene Tells B&PW What Community Needs; Gladys Smith Named President

"No house is stronger than the weakest part placed in it, and no community is stronger than the weakest organization," J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce secretary, told members of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday evening.

If citizens want a better community they can have it, Greene told the women, but they cannot get it simply by wishing for it. A community develops a personality much as a person does and its citizens are responsible for the type of personality it has.

"There are many needs which the service club can work to fulfill," the chamber of commerce man declared, "and not the least is in the educational system. As long as Texas is 38th in standing there is something to be done."

People must be trained, yet the schools are overcrowded. During nine months of the year the buildings are packed, Greene stated, but during three months they stand idle.

There is something wrong with the industrial system as long as there are people going hungry when there are food surpluses in some localities, the speaker continued, and declared that domestic life must be improved since it is the homes that form the lives of men and women.

Religion must be livened up and the church made more attractive to bring more to the church, and to get all of these things done, Greene concluded, there must be better, though not necessarily more, service clubs.

During a business session Gladys Smith was elected as president for the ensuing year, and her corps of officers includes, Mary Watson Jones, first vice-president; Moore Sawtelle, second vice-president; Elizabeth Stanford, treasurer; Pat Hubbard, recording secretary; and Ina Mae Bradley, corresponding secretary.

Delegates chosen for the state convention were Gladys Smith, June Matson, Ollie Eubanks and Ina Mae Bradley. Alternate delegates were Mary Jones, Mamie Mayfield, Jessie Morgan and Elizabeth Stanford.

Attending were Ruth Griffin, Frances Newsome, Nancy Johnson, Mary Watson Jones, Mamie Mayfield, Ina McGowan, Jessie Morgan, Ina Deason, Lillian Hurt, Mary E. Cantrell, Mary Gilmour, Ollie Eubanks, Elizabeth Stanford, Betty Glenn, Helen Duley, Grace Davis, Karen White, Bobbie Goad, Beth Kay, Elizabeth Canning, a guest, Edith Gay, Gladys Smith, Ruby Billings, Ina Mae Bradley, Moore Sawtelle, Beth Leudecke, Florence Moseley, Pyle Perry, Tot Sullivan, Glyn Jordan and Faye Calthorp.

MUSIC WEEK HIGH LIGHT — On Thursday evening the Harmony Girls and the Violin Sextette under the direction of Miss Wilda Drago, will present a concert of popular classical and semi-classical music. The program is to begin at 8:15 p. m. in the municipal auditorium. The girls are students of the Drago Studio from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger. They have appeared in a number of Texas cities, and are now on tour. They will perform under the sponsorship of the Music Study club.

Choral Club Sings Varied Program

Another program in those featuring junior musicians during annual Music Week was given in the municipal hall Tuesday by the eighth grade choral club before an audience of approximately 300.

Miss Kathryn Malloy directed the group in both a Capella and accompanied numbers. The program was opened in the singing of a theme of Sibelius "Finlandia" Brahms "Valse in A Flat," and "Hark, Hark the Lark," by Schubert.

The second group of selections included more popular melodies of "All Through the Night" and "Song of the Islands." Outstanding was the presentation of Strauss' "Beautiful Blue Danube," which demonstrated variety in tone and rhythm.

The ensemble group of the chorus presented "Always," "Just a Wearyin' for You," and "Rustles of Spring." To the vocal background of "Mother Catcher," sung by the ensemble, Omar Filman, Jr., read a Mother's Day poem.

The concluding group of songs were of a religious type, including "Fair Lord Jesus," "Praise and Adore." The program was brought to a close with "The Lord's Prayer."

First Baptist Circles Have Mission, Bible Studies

East Central and Mary Willis circles of the First Baptist church WBS met Monday afternoon in the church for Bible study led by Mrs. M. E. Harlan and Mrs. Lina Lewellen.

During a short business session for the Mary Willis circle Mrs. J. E. Hardesty was elected circle treasurer to fill the vacancy left when Mrs. Della K. Agnell resigned. The class voted to contribute to Buckner's orphan's home and to the hospital fund. Members decided to dispense with refreshments at the meeting for the next three months and donate the funds to buying food to be sent to Europe.

Attending were Mrs. Theo Andrus, Mrs. W. B. Buchanan, Mrs. K. B. Beckett, Mrs. R. D. Urey, Mrs. J. H. Greene, Mrs. Beulah Bryant, Mrs. M. E. Harlan, Mrs. Frank Gary, Mrs. J. L. Haines, Mrs. R. C. Hatch, Mrs. J. P. Dodge, Mrs. Lewellen, Mrs. R. V. Jones, Miss Minnie Moore, and Mrs. R. V. Hart.

"How Many Foreign Missionaries Will We Send?" was the topic for study at the meeting of the Christine Coffee circle in the home of Mrs. H. D. Choate. Prayers were given by Mrs. Choate and Mrs. Viola Bowles.

Refreshment plates were served to Mrs. W. J. Alexander, Mrs. Bowles, Mrs. W. R. Douglass, Mrs. E. B. Kimberlin, Mrs. S. Hancock, Mrs. G. B. Antley, Mrs. Ina Mon-

Eastern Star Has Special Mother's Day Program Tuesday

A Mother's Day program was featured at the meeting of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall.

Mrs. Camille Patterson gave a reading about Mother's Day, and Edith and Allen Christian played four violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. S. H. Gibson.

Following the program and regular meeting refreshments were served from a lace laid table. The punch bowl centered the table, and the bowl was banked with spring flowers. Placed on the table was a picture of Mrs. Susie Musgrove, an Eastern Star mother.

Mrs. Willie Mae Dabney was chairman of the program committee and serving with her were Mrs. Tot Sullivan, Mrs. Pyle Perry, Mrs. Alice Cain and Mrs. Ethel Lees.

Approximately 40 were there.

Mrs. Julia Brown, San Francisco, Calif., is expected here today to visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Ezzell. She has been visiting in Houston with a niece, Mrs. Sam Peak.

The smallest known flowering plant in the world is the watermeal, measuring about one thirty-second of an inch in diameter.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Back from the European Theater of Operations with a barracks bag full of memories is Hal Battle, Big Spring high school's scrappy little guard of the late 30's.

Hal's a big boy now. He weighs something like 180 pounds and should add another 15 pounds or so on "home cooking" before September, at which time he'll enroll at either SMU or Hardin-Simmons university and turn his attentions again to football.

Battle played ten games last season for the 508th Paratrooper Division, which headquartered at Frankfurt, Germany, and met the best eleven in European service football. His club once excursioned as far south as Nice, France, for a bout.

One of the first things Hal did upon returning to this country—after being processed out of the service at Fort Dix, N. J.—was descend upon the Yankee Stadium to see his favorite baseball club, the New York Yankees, play. That happened to be the afternoon Bobby Feller pitched his now famous no-hitter against the Bombers. Hal died a thousand deaths for his heroes that day.

Taking them down the line, Hal says the Yankees, man for man, looked potent, even in defeat. Phil Rizzuto, the leadoff man? Outside of Marty Marion, he's the best short stop in the majors. George Stinewiss? A credit to the club. Joe DiMaggio? He was one of the few Feller didn't strike out. Joe Gordon? Cream of the crop.

Before heading home, Battle was privileged to see the Giants and Braves tangle in the Polo Grounds. When he reached St. Louis, he stopped off to watch the St. Louis Cardinals and Braves tie up in Sportsman Park.

The Cardinals, with good pitching, good fielding, a great offense. The best ball player? Johnny Hopp, of the Braves. "That boy can do everything well. He's fast, is a good fielder and can hit. I'll take him over anyone I say," says Hal.

The local radio station, KBST, won't handle Saturday's broadcast of the annual Southwest conference track and field meet but local fans might be pleased to learn that at least half a dozen stations will air the classics.

They are KPRC, Houston; WOAI, San Antonio; WFAA, WBAP, Dallas-Fort Worth; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Weslaco, and WTAW, College Station.

The program, which will be handled by Kern Tips, Ves Box and Charlie Jordan, will begin at 1:45 p. m., emanating from College Station.

Elias Gamboa's Big Spring baseball Tigers blossomed out in purple-and-yellow suits in their game with Mesquite last Sunday. Gamboa has been out this week trying to sell advertising to raise the money for payment of the loggery.

Something like 1,346 fans turned out to welcome the Mesquite baseball club home Monday night when it played and lost to the Abilene Blue Sox.

Two of the boys who took part in last year's Esquire All-American baseball game staged in the Polo Grounds are now in the professional ranks.

They are Dave Williams, a Dallas product who is now shortstop for the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association, and Red Drakes, a Tulsa third sacker, at present New York Giant property.

Coahoma Swamps Vincent, 14-0

Coahoma's Stanolind softball Oilers swamped the Vincent-Independents, 14-0, in a tuesday game played in Coahoma Tuesday afternoon.

E. G. Grantham, who assumed pitching chores for the winners in the last two innings, pitched out a three-run homer and collected two other blows in four tries.

L. Bynum worked the first four rounds for the winners, giving up four hits. Cates and Daylong divided time on the rubber for the losers.

Cosden Defeats Phillips Nine, Lees Swamped

Faced by Carlton King's long home run in the third round, which came with the hassocks populated, the Cosden Pipeliners got away to a running start in Foran softball league play by repulsing the Phillips Gassers, 6-1, Tuesday night in a game played on the Foran diamond.

King also clouted out a circuit play in the second round.

Continental launched its season successfully, turning back Lees (core, 15-6, in the evening's second game.

Nine hits resounded off the Pipeliner bats while the Phillips range was limited to a scattered four by Long, George Green accounted for the Gassers' only run in the fifth inning.

Continental's winning attack was spearheaded by B. Griffith, Lefty McCabe and O. Griffith, all of whom had home runs.

O. Griffith scattered nine Lees hits while his mates were getting to Chester Bowden for 11.

First game:
Cosden015 00-6 9
Phillips000 01-1 4
Long and King; J. Green and Elliott.

Second game:

Bopton goes after a new team win record today in a game with Chicago. No Red Sox team ever has won more than 15 in succession.

The triumph boosted the Red Sox first place margin to 3 1/2 games over the idle New York Yankees whose series finale with the White Sox was postponed because of threatening weather.

The St. Louis Cardinals took undisputed possession of first place in the National, trimming the Boston Braves, 6-4, Brooklyn, which started the day with the Red Birds, was kept idle by cold weather in Pittsburgh.

Catcher Ray Mueller's consecutive game streak was snapped at 233 games when Manager Bill McKechnie benched him for Ray Lamano in Cincinnati's 2-1 edge over New York.

Detroit provided some excitement by downing Philadelphia, 7-2, on Dixie Trout's nine-hit effort. Hank Greenberg's fourth homer helped 'em cause.

Washington eked out a 2-1 verdict over Cleveland in 10 innings after third baseman Sherry Royer had robbed Mickey Hager of a skunk in regulation time by his two-base error on an infield fly.

The Baylor sprint relay team has done 41 flat this year, which is four-tenths of a second under the conference record held by five of 1938 and Texas of 1941.

August Erffurth of Rice has run the high hurdle in 14 flat—a tenth of a second over the record set by Fred Wilcott of Rice in 1940. John Robertson of Texas had jumped 24 feet 8 inches, an inch and three-quarters under the conference record set in 1932 by Mike Hale of Rice.

Indians Upset Missions, 3-2

By The Associated Press
Oklahoma City finally broke into the win column today.

The Indians scored victory No. 3 last night when they took the favored San Antonio Padres, 3-2. But the tribe still rested not-comfortable in the Texas league cellar.

At the top of the ladder, Dallas took a firm grip on the lead by racking up its fourth consecutive victory in 2 to 0 win over the Shreveport Sports. It was the second straight for the Rebels.

In Beaumont, the Fort Worth Citys evened the Texas league series with the Beaumont Exporters by winning a 7 to 1 duel. The win for the Citys enabled them to stay in the loop's No. 2 spot.

First baseman Earl York banged out a pair of triples and a homer for the Tulsa Oilers as they took Houston, 11-4 last night in the fourth league contest.

Today's schedule:
Dallas at Shreveport, night game.
Fort Worth at Beaumont, day game.

Oklahoma City, at San Antonio, night game.
Tulsa at Houston, night game.

Herd Game Moved Up To Friday Nite

Coach John Dibrell will bring his spring football training at Big Spring high school to a close Friday night with an intra-squad game at Steer stadium. Kickoff time will be around 6:15 o'clock and the public is, of course, entitled to look in on the proceedings.

The bout was originally set for either Monday or Tuesday of next week but moved up due to other school activities.

With all the coaches looking on the Bovines went through a stiff scrimmage Tuesday afternoon with Gerald Harris and Bobo Hardy, who did not partake of the work during the first three weeks due to track commitments, figuring prominently in the milling.

Hardy, particularly, looked to advantage at crashing the line. Dibrell, who had a record turnout of some 80 boys when the workouts began three weeks ago, has managed to keep the athletes interested in what was going on. Apparently most of the hopefuls will be asking for equipment when the Longhorns begin anew in September.

Fans who are hungry for football can get their fill if they care to call at the stadium Friday afternoon. What Dibrell refers to as the "C" and "D" squads, the teams that will be varsity material in a year or two, are going to play a complete game at 3:30 o'clock.

Michigan Threatened With Phone Tie-Up

DETROIT, May 8. (AP)—A tieup of Michigan's telephone service was threatened today with announcement that 3,000 Detroit operators and clerical workers would be called off their jobs tomorrow unless there is an unexpected development in contract negotiations.

Mrs. Frances Smith, president of the Michigan Telephone Employees Association (Ind.) said the workers were "displeased" with progress of contract negotiations with the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

She declared the company "has not been bargaining in good faith" during negotiations which have been in progress since March 7.

A company spokesman expressed surprise at the announcement, and said a negotiating session was scheduled today with union officials.

Local Team Booked

Forsan's Eighth grade softball team and the Junior high aggregation of Big Spring will clash in an exhibition on the Foran diamond at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The two teams will probably meet again in Big Spring next week.

Legionnaires Win Over Y Lasses, Baptists Cop

Away to a four run lead in the initial inning, the American Legion girls went on to best the YWCA fens, 9-5, in the feature of three softball games played at the city park Tuesday evening.

The Y contingent exploded for three runs at the expense of Lefty Todd in the third round but were never able to catch up.

The evening's first bout saw Airport Baptist church romp on First Methodist, 8-4. The Methodists scored six tallies in the fourth and fifth stanzas after being blanked through the first three rounds. Sam Thurman almost turned the tide for the losers with two bingles.

In the last of the night's three tilts, the YMCA boys scored early and often to rout the Salvation Army club, 17-1, as Jones hand-cuffed the opposition with five scattered blows.

The Salvation Army aggregation got their only tally in the third stanza when Brunson crossed play dirt.

John Hooper scored four tallies for the Y brigade.

Central Troupe Adds Two Wins

Central Ward added its ninth victory in as many starts by turning back North Ward in a Grade school softball league game played Tuesday on the Central diamond.

The tally was 20-2.

West Ward lost ground in its fight for second place by losing to College Heights, 11-6, on the West Side diamond. The Waddies also lost to East Ward last Friday, 10-3.

South Ward and East Ward were originally scheduled to play yesterday but moved the game up to this afternoon due to conflict with another program.

Other results last Friday saw Central outscore South Ward, 14-12, without using its seventh graders. College Heights routed North Ward, 26-3.

The season comes to a close Friday.

Forsan-Bottler Tilt Moved Up

Forsan's Murry softball league game with Coca-Cola, originally scheduled to be played at Forsan tonight, has been moved up to Thursday evening. Game time will be 8 o'clock.

Tonight's double header at the park pits the ABC club against Big Spring Hardware in the 7:30 opener and Coahoma against Manhattan in the afterpiece.

Managers of the circuit met with Dewey Colburn, league president, last night at the Settles hotel and out of that session came the decision to limit the first games on the evening programs to five innings.

Umpires have been alerted to start the first game promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

PAL HOLLOW GROUND

There are few subjects men talk about more than shaving—and so blades that have so much "word-of-mouth" advertising as Pal Hollow Ground.
Ordinary safety razor blades are ground like a pocket knife. Pal Blades are different—they're Leather Stripped and Hollow Ground just like a barber's razor.
Retail: Pal Blades are available in your razor—follow facial contours effortlessly. Your shave is cool, quick, no "tearing down." And delicate edges last longer, too. That's why millions call it the Pal.

New Jersey Farmers Out To Break Black Markets In Butter

PHILADELPHIA, May 8. (AP)—More than six tons of butter, enough to supply 12,600 persons with one pound each, goes on sale today at the Reading terminal here. And housewives will be able to buy it at the selling price of 55 cents per pound. The sellers will be farmers, members of the New Jersey Federated Egg Producers' Co-operative Association of Toms River, N. J., affiliated with the National Farmers' Union. "We're out to break the black market in butter," said Irwin Kramer, cooperative sales manager. Kramer said the 250 members of the cooperative obtained the butter from farmers in the Great Lakes dairy belt. And, he adds, they'll get a carload of butter—64,000 pounds—each week.

Working a brisk membership campaign to meet quotas in advance of the Denver meeting.

Mrs. McCall recalled that the 1940 tourist crop in Texas amounted to $300,000,000, that the US Department of Commerce estimated the 1946 total for the nation would be 10 billion dollars and that by 1950 the national figure might reach 100 billions.

"We can't tell these people where to go," she said, "but we can do a lot toward shaping how they go." She recommended work toward securing expenditures from the state highway department on the route; preparation within the cities for serving tourist traffic; for implementing the association's program of work.

Howell Jones, San Antonio, said his city realized between 30 and 65 million dollars a year from people who came to and through there. W. M. Wiley, Dumas, saw possibilities of development of the route as a key military road. Greene felt there was a training job to do in the towns to obtain more courteous and effective service for tourists. Alf Carpenter, Lamesa, predicted that raising money would be relatively simple when individuals are shown a definite program. Others who spoke briefly were Roth, Gordon Kenley, San Angelo; Cliff Wiley and Jake Douglass, Big Spring; C. E. Whitehead and Aubrey Townsend, Brady; Maj. A. E. Dittion, Fort Collins, Colo.; Ernest Tibbitt, Plainview; H. H. Vineyard, Abernathy; Henry A. Tuck, Dumas, and W. E. Contrell, Dalhart.

Approximately 50 persons attended, including 10 from Plainview, Lubbock 3, San Angelo 4, Lamesa 5, Brady 3, Abernathy 4, Dumas 2, Dalhart 3, Big Spring 14, and Fort Collins, Colo., 1.

Banner Awards Made At Scout Court Of Honor

Awards of banners won at the annual Round-Up featured a court of honor held by Big Spring Boy Scouts Tuesday night in the high school gymnasium.

C. S. Blomshield, camping and activities chairman, presented the banners to troops 2, 4, 5 and 19.

Troop 4 won the Shick awards. Individual advancement awards were received by the following: Charles Seydler, troop five, Eagle silver palm; Tommy Porter, troop 5, star; Jimmy Jennings, troop five, first class; and A. J. Cain, troop 4, second class.

Bill Birdwell and Arlye Morin of troop 19 received special awards for 100 hours of civic service.

Winning merit badges from troop 2 was John R. Coffee, blacksmithing and sheetmetal. From troop five, Carl McDonald, Eddie Kehaneck and James Roy Odum, carpentry; Russell Green, dog care; Jimmy Black, cooking; Charles Seydler, painting; Johnny Hamrick, safety, physical development, leather, craft and painting; Charles Burley, dog care. Harold Cain of troop 4 received a badge for music.

Regan camping awards for 1945 were issued to troops 2, 4 and 5, and others who were not represented will receive them later. Doyal Dunbar was due to receive his Eagle award, but since he is now in service it will be issued when he is on leave.

First and second class star and life awards were made by W. C. Blankenship; merit badges, by Iva Huneycutt; court of honor, adult attendance, and Schick awards, by George Melear; and the Eagle palm, by Rev. P. D. O'Brien.

Two films were projected by J. C. Webb.

Taylor In Town On His Campaign For Legislature

R. E. Taylor, San Angelo, getting started on his campaign for representative from the 91st legislative district, visited here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Although he is seeking a first term in public office, Taylor pointed out he is no newcomer to public affairs, for he appeared before the legislature in private capacities for 14 consecutive terms, "not as a paid lobbyist, but in the interest of the people's business."

In addition, he was given credit by C. B. Hudspeth, who used to represent the jumbo 19th congressional district, for putting over a good job in promoting a wool tariff act in 1919 and 1922. Taylor helped to organize and headed a protective association to combat sheep thefts in Sutton county and was instrumental in getting the state experiment station established at Sonora, and in getting adequate appropriations for it.

Taylor, father of four sons and one daughter in the service, said he favored legislation to better the condition of returning GI's; more liberal interpretation of old age pensions; conservation measures; harnessing waters; fair compensation for labor; adequate return for commodities; and re-districting of the state.

Texas Pension Unit Schedules Conference Here

"One of a series of regional conferences sponsored by the Texas Pension association will be held here Saturday at 3 p. m. in the district courtroom.

Arrangements for the meeting, to which all persons interested in "aid to the aged people, dependent children and blind" are invited, were completed here Tuesday by Mrs. Lula Mae Jenkins, D.A.S., corresponding secretary-treasurer of the association.

Mrs. Jenkins said that a chartered bus would bring officials of the organization from Dallas to the meeting, including Judge Edgar P. Haney, Dallas, state president.

The association is conducting a statewide campaign to secure increases in old age pensions. Objectives are removal of constitutional ceilings affecting pensions; legislative appropriations to pay in full $40 to every needy person over 65 and to give hospital and medical care; give adequate care for needy blind and dependent children; reduce number of state welfare employees; elect no man to office who opposes these "progressive steps in social security," or the further advancement of the education of our people or the majority rule of democracy.

During the day meetings are scheduled at Ranger, Eastland, Cisco, Baird, Abilene, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans and Pecos. Sunday officials, whom Mrs. Jenkins said served without pay, "will visit the Carlsbad Caverns at their own expense."

Moore Arrives Here To Arrange Courses

Plasco Moore, representing the University of Texas distributive extension training department, arrived in Big Spring Tuesday afternoon to begin arrangements for conducting courses for interested mechanics.

Mary Jean Redmon, supervisor of the department, who conducted similar courses here two years ago, notified school officials and the chamber of commerce that Thelma Boone, specialist in retail trading, would be available for courses beginning on May 13.

Britain's Labor Meets In Confidence Vote

LONDON, May 8 (AP)—Britain's labor government, accused by Winston Churchill of presiding at the destruction of the British empire, won a vote of confidence 327 to 158, from the house of commons last night after heated debate on a government proposal to withdraw all British forces from Egyptian territory.

The vote, culminating an argument which marked the conservative party minority's first open split with the labor majority on foreign policy, came after Herbert Morrison, laborite floor leader, declared that the alternative to pulling the British military establishment out of Egypt was "almost certain disturbance, riot and possibly even revolution."

Wildcat Reports Slight Oil Stains

Slight oil stains have been reported in the Ray Albaugh No. 1 J. T. Middleton, northern Dawson county wildcat, C N E NE 69-8, EL&RR.

Stains were reported below the top, reported unofficially at 3,980 feet. Bottom of hole is 4,210 feet.

C. T. McLaughlin No. 1 Shell-Neal, scheduled 3,800-foot test in northeastern Glasscock county, set 15-inch string at 356 and drilled to 520 in shale. This is on a new location, staked after the first hole fouled with tools. Location is in section 34-33-3s, T&P.

In southern Midland county, Humble No. 1 Pio Crespi, about three-quarters of a mile northwest of the company's No. 1 Buchanan, the county's discovery well in the Strawn, recovered 150 feet of about 50 gravity distillate and 1,650 feet of drilling mud cut with distillate when drill stem was broken from 11,428 to 11,478, according to unofficial reports, which indicated another stem test is being prepared.

Some quarters believed the formation to be the Devonian, entered around 11,400 feet. Present depth is 11,483. Location is C NE NW 19238-2s, T&P.

Truman Still Sees Peace Opportunities

WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—President Truman said today that a year after V-E day the opportunities "to build a just, secure and peaceful world are still with us."

The men and women whose sacrifices made victory possible, Mr. Truman said in a statement on the first anniversary of Germany's surrender, "gave us not justice, but the opportunity to achieve it, not security, but the opportunity to win it, not peace, but the opportunity to make it."

Many Submit Ideas To Herald Family Contest

More people submitted their ideas Wednesday as to what the responsibilities of the family are, or what the family should be.

The Herald is interested in as many people submitting suggestions, in 50 words or less, as possible. Prizes of $10, $5 and $3 will be presented by the Herald to authors of the three ideas selected by judges as the best of those submitted.

Here are some of the latest entries:

"I feel the responsibility of the family today is: 1. Create Love and Christianity in the home; 2) to promulgate kindness and unselfish attitudes to their neighbors; 3) to be a loyal citizen to their community."—Mrs. C. D. Herrick.

"The American family (should promote) cooperation and understanding between adults and children, working together to help their fellowmen, to live in a better world, physically, morally, mentally and spiritually."—Helen Wolcott.

"The responsibility of a family is to establish a home where God reigns supreme, where parents are honored and respected, where there's unity, sympathy and understanding for each member, and it's one for all and all for one, both in joy and sorrow, and where there are no secrets."—Mrs. David Waldo Jones.

"The American family should be a close, loyal unit, composed of true Americans, who adhere closely to the laws of God and man. It is the obligation of parents to instill in the minds of their children the desire to grow up to be honest, capable and worthwhile citizens; with a full knowledge of their responsibilities to their Creator, to each other, to their country and fellowman."—Mrs. R. B. Tally.

Responsibility is "to establish a home where there is a feeling of security, love and relaxation, where no member is afraid to ask God's help in making a decision, where troubles as well as joys can be discussed and shared and there's respect for each other's opinion."—D. W. Jones.
