Police answer call at grain elevator

Three Hereford men were treated Saturday for grain dust inhalation after they were pulled from grain silos, where they had dug themselves into the grain.

A member of the Hereford Police Department's Special Reaction Team also was treated for grain dust inhalation.

Hereford police responded early Saturday morning to a call at the Hereford Grain Elevator. The call indicated at least four men were on top of the silos.

The caller also reported hearing gun shots and saw an individual throw something from the building. The object hit a parked pickup causing extensive damage.

Officers arriving at the scene spotted two male subjects running from the area. A short foot chase led to the apprehension of 19-year-old Julian Benevidez. The other subject eluded the police.

Having been told that there were originally at least four intruders, the police surrounded the complex and notified the rescue team, Hereford EMS and Special Reaction Team.

About 8:30 a.m., members of the Special Reaction Team entered the complex and began an extensive search for the remaining subjects.

During a 45-minute search of the silo, Victor Perez, 21; Jessie Tijerina, 19; and Armando Bustamante, 19, were dug out of the grain silos, where they had dug themselves into the grain. The men, as well as a Hereford officer, had inhaled grain dust. The four were taken to Hereford Regional Medical Center for treatment.

No weapon has been recovered.

All four suspects have been charged with burglary of a building.

Members of the Hereford EMS (right) wait Saturday morning for the Hereford Police Department Special Reaction Team to determine if the EMS will be needed at the Hereford Grain Elevator. A pickup truck (below) was damaged by an object tossed from the top of the elevator.

HISD slates hearing

By DIANNA F. DANDRIDGE
Staff Writer

Members of the Hereford Independent School District on Monday set a public hearing on the district's proposed tax rate for the next fiscal year.

During the session, the trustees discussed the proposed tax rate of $1.3931 per $100 assessed valuation, which means a tax increase of about 12 cents per $100 value of property.

Superintendent Jack Patton said about 99 percent of the homeowners in the district will see a decrease in their total tax bill, thanks to the constitutional amendment approved in August by Texas voters. The amendment raised the homestead exemption on property.

The board accepted the proposed tax rate and set a public hearing for 6 p.m. Sept. 18 at the HISD board room.

A fact sheet distributed by Patton shows the average tax rate for Texas school districts during 1996-97 was $1.4681. So, even with the proposed increase to $1.3931, HISD taxes fall well below that level.

The total tax increase will only produce $430,000 in new local income and will affect the operating and maintenance funds of the school budget.

The new school budget has to work in a state-mandated teacher pay raise, which totals nearly $800,000, as well as pay for replacement of leaking roofs at Hereford High, Hereford Junior High and Aikman Primary schools, a project that should cost between $1.2 million and $1.6 million.

Patton said the administrative expenses for Hereford ISD are about a third of the state average.

The public is encouraged to attend the Sept. 18 meeting to express views on the proposed tax rate.

Poor, lame make their way to church to honor Mother Teresa

CALCUTTA, India (AP) - Sanjay Kumar trudged to the church today where Mother Teresa lay in state the only way he could - by using his arms to drag his polio-crippled body to her side.

Kumar said he makes about 40 cents a day begging on Calcutta's streets, but he believed the nun known worldwide for her charity to the poor loved people like him.

The beggar moved painstakingly along the crowded mile-long line to her body to gaze at the woman that he - and many other mourners - considered a "goddess."

Though the body of Mother Teresa, who died Friday at age 87, has been on view at St. Thomas Church since Sunday, the crowds waiting to see her one last time grew today when the incessant rain that had kept many indoors halted.

Three days after the body of the frail nun was placed in a glass case before St. Thomas' altar, there were concerns that the heat and humidity of the monsoon season may be endangering the corpse. Her funeral is scheduled for Saturday.

Technicians fitted two small fans inside her glass coffin Monday night to augment powerful air conditioners in the church chapel. Temperatures have been about 86 degrees with 90 percent humidity.

Saturday's funeral is expected to be attended by top Indian political, military and social leaders as well as foreign dignitaries. Among those who have confirmed they will attend is U.S. First Lady Hillary Clinton, who will lead the American contingent.

The Indian government has granted Mother Teresa a state funeral, with military honors usually reserved for heads of state and government.

On Thursday, Mother Teresa's body will be draped in the Indian flag. Saturday morning, a gun carriage will carry the body from St. Thomas', moving slowly along a two-mile route to an indoor stadium for a public funeral, then retrace its journey back past the church to her former home.

Mother Teresa will be interred in the Calcutta headquarters of the worldwide order she founded, the Missionaries of Charity complex where she lived and died.

The military trappings might clash with the image of the Nobel Peace laureate, but church leaders said Monday it was just the government's way of giving Mother Teresa its most prestigious farewell.

Mother Teresa transformed a few shelters and schools for Calcutta's poor into a worldwide charity before her death last Friday. Many of those whose lives she touched will join high-ranking church and state officials as the casket is moved to the funeral site.

"The procession will include those people that Mother has dedicated her life's work, the sick, handicapped, leprosy afflicted," Bill Canny, a spokesman for her order, said Monday.

Some 12,000 people will be able to attend the funeral, which will be addressed by Sister Nirmala, who took over as head of the Missionaries of Charity earlier this year, and foreign and Indian dignitaries - none as yet named. The pope's envoy, Indian Cardinal D. Simon Lourdasamy, will celebrate the funeral Mass.

Tobacco industry puts off talks while Texas prepares for trial

TEXARKANA, Texas (AP) - The tobacco industry is putting all state settlement talks on hold while it girds itself for trial in a $14 billion lawsuit filed by the state of Texas.

Texas is one of 39 states with lawsuits pending against tobacco companies. The case will go to trial even while Congress considers a nationwide settlement.

The trial likely will last into 1998, said Texas Attorney General Dan Morales.

"I know there's been a good deal of discussion about an out-of-court settlement. The odds of that are essentially zero," Morales said. "Suffice it to say, we anticipate jury selection to begin the 29th of September."

"The tobacco companies are either going to get the global resolution or we'll go to trial one state at a time, starting in Texas. This case is a mainstream case that needs to go to trial," said Dan Webb, the lead attorney representing the tobacco industry.

On Monday, U.S. District Judge David Folsom ruled that eight tobacco industry documents used in a Florida lawsuit are still considered privileged in the Texas case.

The state still may be able to use information contained in the documents, a state spokesman said.

John O'Quinn and John Eddie Williams, private lawyers hired by the state, asked the court Monday to order the release of the eight documents, which the industry has considered confidential. The documents were in the Liggett Group's possession and were part of that cigarette maker's national settlement with plaintiffs.

Folsom also ruled to dismiss some of the states claims, including violation of federal and state antitrust laws, the Texas Deception Trade Practices Act and the Consumer Protection Act.

Earlier Monday, Folsom rejected a state request for 30 extra days to obtain additional information.

Morales filed the suit in an attempt to recover money spent treating smoking-related illnesses for Medicaid patients in Texas. The state claims the companies broke state and federal laws, including those prohibiting deceptive trade and fraud.

The lawsuit names American Tobacco, R.J. Reynolds, Brown and Williamson, B.A.T. Industries, Philip Morris, Liggett Group, Lorillard, United States Tobacco, Hill & Knowlton, the Council for Tobacco Research-USA and the Tobacco Institute.

Tobacco interests opted to settle similar lawsuits in Mississippi and Florida. Mississippi settled its suit for nearly $3.6 billion in July, and Florida reached an $11.3 billion settlement last month. Any national tobacco deal would supersede those state agreements.

Morales filed suit in federal court because Texas alleges violations of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations and the Sherman antitrust acts, said his spokeswoman, Sonya Sanchez.

The hearing will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 15 in the commission chambers at Hereford City Hall, 224 N. Lee.

The proposed tax rate for the next year is 42 cents per $100 assessed valuation, unchanged from last year.

MOTHER TERESA PRAYER IS A PRIZE

HOUSTON (AP) - Autograph collector Anthony Pizzitola was just looking for Mother Teresa's signature two years ago during one of her visits to the Bronx.

Instead, he received much more than the humanitarian nun's name scrawled on 11-by-14-inch cardboard he had sent her.

"Keep the joy of loving Jesus in your heart and share this joy with all you meet especially your family. Always pray together. God bless you," the cardboard piece reads, with Mother Teresa's name signed at the bottom.

"I started reading it and I actually started trembling," Pizzitola said. Pizzitola said the prayer is indicative of the spirit of Mother Teresa, the Nobel Peace Prize laureate and Roman Catholic nun who dedicated her life to helping the poor of Calcutta, India. She died Friday night of a heart attack.

TELEVANGELIST CLAIMS TAPES SHOW ABUSE

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Missouri prison officials call the contents of three videotapes recorded in March at a prison in Gregg County, Texas "use of necessary force to regain order." The Rev. Larry Rice calls it "tremendous abuse."

Last month, Missouri canceled its contracts to house overflow state inmates in Texas after officials learned of a videotape showing inmates being abused in Brazoria County's privately managed jail near Houston.

Now, Rice, a televangelist who advises many Missouri inmates and their relatives, says he has obtained videotapes revealing abuse of Missouri prisoners in the Gregg County Detention Center at Longview in East Texas.

The Missouri prisoners in both counties were handled by employees of Capital Correctional Resources Inc., a private jail management company. The company did not return a phone call Monday evening from The Associated Press.

POLICE CHECK TOOLS FOR CLUES

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - After analyzing bone fragments dug up from a San Antonio back yard, police will begin examining other artifacts unearthed in the search for bodies at Leonard and Monika Rizzo's home.

In a document filed with state District Judge Raymond Angelini on Friday, police listed dozens of items collected from the yard at the house on the city's southeast side.

Among the artifacts are six T-shirts from the Bandido motorcycle gang, a backyard barbecue pit where finger-like bones were found, and assorted knives and gardening tools, the San Antonio Express-News reported in today's editions.

The items were among the more than 140 police gathered in their search. Besides human remains, police looked for anything that could be used to "inflict death or serious bodily injury" or to cut or saw bones.

Carpet samples from the master bedroom, vanity area and hallway and several stained items are being tested for evidence of human blood. Among the stained items are men's briefs, a plywood board and pallet and a seat cover.

SOME PICK COMPUTERS OVER CAFFEINE

AUSTIN (AP) - Growing numbers of savvy personal computer buyers know what they want, how to use it and are so enamored of the technology that three in four would give up caffeine or the VCR before abandoning their PCs.

Call them the "TechKnow Generation," says Dell Computer Corp., which reported the findings in a survey released today.

TAES veteran named district director

Jett V. Major, a veteran county agent, who has served agricultural producers on the High Plains for two decades, has been named as South Plains District Director for Agriculture by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Major, currently extension agent for agriculture in Hockley County, will begin his new duties Sept. 15.

"We are extremely pleased to have Jett assume the position of District extension director for agriculture for the South Plains region," said Dr. Zerle L. Carpenter, state Extension director, in announcing the appointment.

"Jett has a solid record of performance as a county agent, including seven outstanding years in Hockley County where he gave leadership to a diversified agriculture program," Carpenter said.

"His leadership and partnering skills will be keys to a continued strong Extension program in the South Plains as he teams with Dr. Kathy Volanty, district Extension director for family and consumer sciences."

Major replaces Dr. Bob Robinson, South Plains District director for the past 12 years, who has transferred to the Panhandle District in Amarillo.

"Jett is an excellent choice," said Robinson. "He has been an outstanding agent and will provide strong support and guidance for the agents and educational programs in this district."

As district director, Major will supervise the agricultural agents in 20 counties surrounding Lubbock.

Major, 43, was born in Amarillo and grew up on a grain and livestock farm near Groom.

He holds an Associate of Science degree in agriculture business from Clarendon College, a bachelor of science from Texas A&M and a master of education from Texas Tech. He joined the Extension Service in 1977 as an assistant agent and 4-H coordinator in Lubbock County.

In 1979 he was named Extension program leader and trainer agent in Floyd County. In 1982, Major moved to Lamb County as ag program leader and trainer agent. He has served in Hockley County since 1990.

"I have always enjoyed working with people on a county level and keeping them current with changes in agricultural technology and policy," Major said. "It will be even more challenging to coordinate this effort on a district basis."

"These 20 counties are consistently among the top agricultural producers in Texas, with some of the nation's most progressive farmers and ranchers. We have an outstanding Extension faculty of county agricultural agents, integrated pest management agents and subject matter specialists. My goal is to continue to strengthen the district's reputation for service to the producers and the families of this area."

Schools and drugs

NEW YORK (AP) - Schools are no safe haven from drugs since more teen-agers see drug deals at school than in their neighborhoods, a new survey found.

Forty-one percent of high schoolers said they witnessed drug deals on school grounds, while 25 percent claimed they saw them in their neighborhoods, according to a study released Monday by the National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University.

School officials saw much less - only 12 percent of the 789 high school teachers questioned witnessed drug deals at school.

The summer survey of 1,115 students from urban, suburban and rural schools across the country had a margin of error of 2.9 percentage points. The margin of error was 5 percentage points for teachers because fewer teachers were surveyed.

Rates were lower for middle schoolers - 18 percent had witnessed drug deals at school, compared to 12 percent in their neighborhood.

Thirty-five percent of teens cite drugs as the most important problem they face, slightly up from 32 percent in 1995 and 31 percent in 1996.

Major has been active in community affairs in each of the counties he has served, in numerous regional, state and national groups. He is active in the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association, National Association of County Agricultural Agents, Epsilon Sigma Phi national honorary Extension Fraternity, Texas Agricultural Irrigation Association, Levelland Area Chamber of Commerce and Hockley County Farm Bureau.

Among his awards as an agent are the A&M Vice Chancellor's Award in Excellence, Distinguished Service Award of the Hockley County Soil and Water Conservation District community Service Award of the Levelland Chamber of Commerce, two Superior Service Awards from Extension, two Outstanding Young Men of America awards, Outstanding County Extension Agent Award of the Texas Plant Food Industry and Distinguished Service Awards of both TCAA and NACAA.

Major is married to the former Lynette Bichsel and has two daughters, Carey, 17 and Casey, 13. The Extension Service is an off-campus educational arm of the Texas A&M University System.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I was upset by your response to the letter about the diabetic driver who accidentally caused the death of a young woman. He had not been monitoring his blood sugar and had been drinking the night before the accident occurred. You said there should be laws to protect people from drivers like this.

Passing a law against diabetic drivers would not solve the problem of accidents caused by non-compliant people. I am an R.N. in an emergency room, and I take care of many such individuals. Not long ago, I had an 18-year-old male brought in for the second time in a week because he suffered a seizure. This time, he was driving and ran into a tree. He was lucky he didn't kill himself.

While the young man's sister was standing by, I asked him why he hadn't taken his anti-seizure medication. He said, "I didn't feel like it." I told him he was likely to have his driver's license revoked. His sister replied, "He doesn't have one."

No law restricting his driving would have made any difference to this man. He doesn't care about himself or anyone else. The same goes for drunk drivers who stay on the road despite having had their licenses revoked. Laws are no deterrent to people who have no respect for authority. So what's the solution, Ann? -- Clovis, Calif.

Dear Clovis: The lawbreakers should be dealt with promptly in a no-nonsense manner. For repeat offenders, jail time should be meted out. Lots of radio, TV and newspaper publicity may also help keep the offenders in line. Shame and public disgrace can be strong deterrents. I'm for using whatever works.

Realignment wanted

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball fans support realignment by a 2-to-1 margin, even though many have reservations about losing a century of tradition that distinguished the American and National leagues, a nationwide Associated Press poll shows.

Fifty-four percent of those polled favored the plan that would switch as many as 15 major league teams between the AL and NL, with 27 percent opposed to reshuffling the leagues geographically.

Yet, 48 percent said ending the traditional distinction between NL and AL teams makes them like the plan less. And just 12 percent said blurring the AL/NL distinction is one of the reasons they favor the plan, which owners will consider when they meet in Atlanta from Sept. 16-18.

Owners say geographic realignment would eliminate most games in which teams play out of their time zones, which creates late-night broadcasts on the East Coast and early-evening telecasts on the West Coast. But most fans said they don't care when they see games on television.

Spurrier gets $2M

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — While giving a preview last month of Florida's 1997 prospects, coach Steve Spurrier noted the departure of Ike Hilliard, who caught three touchdown passes in the Sugar Bowl and became a first-round draft pick.

"That game made Ike a bunch of money," Spurrier said. Spurrier didn't make out too badly himself.

A year after leading the Gators to their first national championship, Florida awarded Spurrier a contract that makes him the first $2 million coach in college football.

The six-year contract, finalized Monday, is worth about $11.8 million, not including a variety of bonuses.

Boys, girls golf teams win at Pampa

By BOB VARMETTE
Staff writer

PAMPA — Once is good, but twice is very nice.

Both the boys and girls golf teams from Hereford High School were winners Saturday in triangular meets at Hidden Hills Golf Course and Pampa Country Club.

The girls outdistanced Plainview and Amarillo Tascosa with a 384. Plainview shot a 396 and Tascosa was third with a 427 on the 5,225-yard par-72 layout at Pampa Country Club.

The boys edged out Canyon Randall 329-332 on the 6,463-yard par-72 Hidden Hills Golf Course. Amarillo Palo Duro took third with a 378.

"I was really happy with both teams," said Herford golf coach Stacy Bixler. "The courses gave us a lot of different things to look at."

Two Hereford players were the medalists in their respective triangulars. Senior Amy Killingsworth won the girls' side with an 89 and senior Cody Sargeant shot a 77 to win the boys' side.

Bixler said both courses provided challenges for the players they don't normally see on the course they play.

"It's not as flat. Pampa Country Club was a typical country-club layout, lots of trees, rolling hills, that type of thing," said Bixler.

"The slope and the speed of the greens up there made it challenging on chipping and putting," Bixler said. "They were fast greens, real fast."

Senior Jacque Bezner shot a 92 for second among the Lady Whitefaces. The other senior on the squad, Lindsay Ward, broke 100 with a 99.

Sophomore Michelle Bixler came in with a 104 and freshman Kristin Huffaker shot a 137 for the Lady Whitefaces.

On the boys' side, senior Heath Henderson shot a seven-over-par 79. Freshman Payton Ward shot an 85.

The Whitefaces' other freshman, Thomas Maldonado, carded an 88 and senior Dustin Whitaker shot an 89.

Both boys' and girls' teams will be idle this week. Both squads will play next at the Lubbock Invitational September 19-20.

Whitefaces tired of 'moral victories'

By BOB VARMETTE
Staff writer

Hereford head football coach Craig Yenzler knows what it's like to come close, and he doesn't like it.

"It really gets kind of old with just these moral victories," said Yenzler. The Whitefaces came up on the short end again Friday night as Amarillo Tascosa edged Hereford 6-0 at Whiteface Stadium.

"We need to get a win, experience the thrill of victory," he said. After reviewing the film of Friday night's loss to the Rebels, Yenzler said several areas will receive attention in practice this week.

"One thing that we'll have to get corrected is that six or seven times we were one block away from breaking (a play) for the distance," he said. "These are correctable mistakes. (And) the penalties, those are flat out mental lapses."

Yenzler said he and the coaching staff will try to simulate game pressure during practices this week to help alleviate some of those problems.

Yenzler said this early in the season

a certain amount of difficulty in executing the offense is to be expected. "Early on, the offense will look a little rough," he said.

Yenzler said the players understand the offense; it's just a matter of execution.

"We're not getting the big play off of it," he said. "We're a blue-collar team. Our linemen understand we have to block every play."

"As we progress and get ready for district, we'll see these things get worked out," Yenzler said.

One area that has been disappointing, according to Yenzler, is the receivers.

"(Our passing game) was spotty. Some of our receivers' routes weren't the correct depth or what we needed at times. We're going to have to have a flanker step up . . . Sometimes it was protection," he said.

Turning to the ground attack, Yenzler said Hereford had trouble fully executing the option, a significant part of their offense.

"We didn't adjust nicely to their receivers. Please see WHITEFACES, page 5

Tennis teams lose to Snyder, Lubbock High

Hereford won a pair of matches in the girls' doubles, but only one match each in the boys' and girls' singles.

In girls' doubles, the duo of Tamara Diller and Diana Detten also won in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3. Holly Weishaar and Amanda Kriehauser needed three sets to close out Laura Gonzales and Vicki Vargas of the Tigers, 1-6, 6-1, 7-6.

Hereford third at Seminole Canyon next up for defending 4A volleyball champs

From staff reports
SEMINOLE — The Hereford Lady Whitefaces won third place at the Seminole volleyball tournament Friday and Saturday.

Hereford defeated Midland High 15-5, 15-3 to win the consolation championship. Julie Rampley led the Lady Whitefaces with 14 kills in the match against Midland High.

The Lady Whitefaces began with pool play Friday, defeating Midland High 15-9, 15-3. Catie Betzen led Hereford with eight kills; Meredith Tabor recorded seven digs for Hereford.

Hereford won its next two matches in pool play, defeating Lubbock Estacado 15-5, 15-6 and Kermit, 15-6, 15-7.

In the Estacado match, Rampley had five kills and Betzen added four. Against Kermit, Tori Walker had four kills. Rampley contributed three digs.

The three wins gave the Lady Whitefaces first place in their pool and advanced them into the quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinal match, Lubbock Coronado defeated the Lady Whitefaces 15-13, 5-15, 15-11.

Betzen led Hereford with 15 kills and nine digs. Rampley had 11 kills and five digs.

The loss sent Hereford to the consolation semi-finals against Midland Greenwood where the Lady Whitefaces won 15-0, 15-13. Rampley had 13 kills and seven digs to lead Hereford. Betzen had nine kills and Meredith Tabor had seven kills.

The Lady Whitefaces will begin their District 1-4A schedule today at Canyon. Junior varsity and varsity squads will be in action. Play will begin at 6 p.m.

Tigers maul Texas

DETROIT (AP) — Willie Blair wasn't going to let a little back trouble end his chance for a 20-win season.

Blair earned his 16th win and Damion Easley hit a two-run homer Monday night as the Detroit Tigers handed the Texas Rangers their fourth straight loss, 6-2.

Blair (16-6) won his third straight start and fourth in his last five. He has won 12 of his last 14 outings, and the Tigers are 13-2 in his last 15 appearances.

If he wins his next three starts, he would pitch on a day's less rest than normal and go for his 20th win in the season finale Sept. 28 against New York.

"I figured it out today," Detroit manager Buddy Bell said. "If he gets close, he'd pitch the last day. We would skip somebody."

Blair had back spasms when he arrived at the ballpark Monday but was ready to go after a session with trainer Russ Miller.

"I knew I was going to pitch," Blair said. "I just didn't know how comfortable I'd be."

He allowed two runs on five hits, walked two and matched his season high with seven strikeouts in seven innings. His key inning was the third, when he struck out Juan Gonzalez on three straight sliders with the bases loaded and two out.

"I threw the first one close enough to see if he'd swing at it and he did," Blair said. "Then each one I threw a little farther away. It was one time I made perfect pitches and was able to get out of it."

Blair had a 5-0 lead when he gave up a two-run homer to Ivan Rodriguez in the fifth for the Rangers' only scoring. Doug Brocail and Dan Miceli each threw a perfect inning to close out the win.

Texas, which faced Pat Hentgen, Roger Clemens and Blair the past three days, has scored just four runs during its current losing streak.

"I think it's obvious that we're not swinging the bat very well, but the last three guys we've faced I think have won a total of 52 ballgames," Rangers manager Johnny Oates said. "The pitching has something to do with it, but we're not helping our cause."

At 67-77, the Rangers are 10 games under .500 for the first time since they were 52-62 at the end of the strike-shortened 1994 season.

adjustments to our option game," he said. "I was a little disappointed with that."

But senior quarterback Jeremy Urbanczyk played well, said Yenzler, even though the Whitefaces totaled 217 yards of total offense.

"He's got a lot of talent," Yenzler said. "He reads his keys well and he does a nice job of getting up the field. He really presents a threat."

The Hereford ground game picked up 157 yards on 40 attempts against Tascosa. Mark Rodriguez led the Whitefaces with 67 yards on 10 carries.

"I'm just tickled with him," said Yenzler. "He's really beginning to excel. A lot of it is his hard work in the off-season."

Yenzler said several other players have made very positive impressions.

"Jory McKibben has really done a fine job. His improvement is unbelievable. McKibben is a 270-pound senior offensive tackle. "Jeremy Scott is another player who's playing well," said Yenzler. "I'm real pleased with his performances each week." Scott is a 175-pound senior.

Yenzler added that center Zach Wall, a 200-pound senior, is providing excellent leadership in the offensive line.

Defensively, despite surrendering only 198 total yards to the Rebels, Yenzler said he saw some areas in the film session in which the Whiteface defense will need to improve.

"We should've held them to 80 yards total," said Yenzler. "They were mostly key problems, reaction mistakes."

He said both are areas that can be addressed during the course of the week in practice. "We still have work to do," Yenzler said.

But he said there were also areas where he was very pleased with how the Whitefaces played. "We had good play at our defensive ends," said Yenzler. "And Tranquilino Garza, I was real pleased with what he did."

One of the players that most impressed Yenzler was senior Roger Gaitan. "He sprained his ankle and he still made a huge impact on our defense," he said.

"Anthony Lopez at corner(back) also gave us some excellent play (in the defensive backfield)," Yenzler added.

Yenzler also said the special teams played very well and that he was pleased with the improvement in the punting game.

"We're getting there," said Yenzler. "We just have to be patient. Things will open up for us."

Hereford (0-2) will play Amarillo Palo Duro (0-1) at Whiteface Stadium 7:30 p.m. Friday.

outlasted Zack Briseno of Snyder 3-6, 7-5, 6-3. Kriegshauser won for the Lady Whitefaces in straight sets 6-3, 6-2 over Natalie Alexander of the Tigers.

Lubbock High took their matches with the Whitefaces, 11-7.

The Lady Whitefaces took three of four matches with Lubbock in the girls' doubles category.

Weishaar and Kriegshauser decided Marianne Montgomery and Lindsay Williamson in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4. Diller and Detten were also winners for the Lady Whitefaces, 7-5, 7-5 over Laura Barnes and Heather Milam.

Wieshaar and Kreighauser also won singles matches. Wieshaar defeated Montgomery 6-4, 6-7 (7-9), 6-2 and Detten beat C.C. Cardenas of Lubbock, 6-2, 6-1.

On the boys side, Riley Hall won the only singles match against the Westerners. He defeated Matt Gunn, 6-1, 6-4.

The Whitefaces duo of Beville and Dustin Lewis prevailed over Lubbock's Brian Oller and Jay Hegde, 6-0, 6-4.

The Whitefaces and Lady Whitefaces will both begin their District 1-4A schedules with matches at 4 p.m. today at Hereford High School.

Texas

Bobby Witt (11-10) fell to 1-6 in his last 11 starts, allowing five earned runs on six hits in 6 1-3 innings. He is 0-3 this year and 5-13 in his career against Detroit, including 3-7 and a 5.88 ERA in Tiger Stadium.

Witt trailed 5-0 after two innings. He has not won since Aug. 12 at Boston, his only victory since the All-Star break.

"I wanted the second half to go like the first half, but it hasn't happened," Witt said. "I feel like I've been throwing just as well, but when things are going good you get on a roll and the same thing happens when it's not going well."

Easley was 3-for-3 with three RBIs. His 20th homer made him just the fourth Tiger with at least 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases in a season. Kirk Gibson did it three times, Alan Trammell twice and Chad Curtis once.

Oakland

The Chiefs got the ball at their own 20 following a punt with 61 seconds left in the game. Grbac got the drive going with a 21-yard completion to Lake Dawson and followed that with a 20-yard completion to Brett Perriman.

With 11 seconds remaining on the clock, Grbac faded back and found Rison in the end zone for the touchdown. Rison was mobbed by his teammates after making the winning catch.

Grbac, who was 21-of-35 for 312 yards, also threw a 5-yard scoring pass to Kimble Anders.

Cowboys analyze loss to Cardinals

IRVING (AP) -- The Dallas Cowboys broke down like an old race horse against the Phoenix Cardinals. They're not sure why. "It's not just the offensive line, it was everybody," quarterback Troy Aikman said during Monday's post-mortem. "I know there were some things I didn't read."

The Cardinals blitzed the Cowboys dizzy as they rallied from a 15-point deficit to win 25-22 in overtime Sunday night. Aikman was sacked three times for 24 yards in losses.

"When you lose like that it's frustrating," Aikman said. "Arizona did a nice job of mixing things up... We'll have to look at the films to determine exactly what happened."

The heat seemed to bother the Cowboys -- nevermind training camp under a blazing Austin sun -- much more than it did Arizona. Running back Emmitt Smith, who suffered bruised ribs but still rushed for 132 yards, said the Cowboys weren't drinking enough water.

"It's not about how we trained in Austin. It was about fluids in the body," Smith said. "The offensive line got tired and it was the first time I've ever seen Michael Irvin start cramping up."

Three Cowboys had intravenous transfusions during the game, including defensive lineman Chad Hennings, who scored a touchdown on a fumble return but later got dizzy. Defensive back Charlie Williams and tight end Eric Bjornson also had IVs during the game.

Wide receiver Anthony Miller played only two downs before a hamstring tightened. He suffered the same problem at practice on Thursday. The Dallas offense missed his ability to stretch the defense like he did in the 37-7 opening win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

"It hurt us to have Anthony out," Aikman said. "Our offense is still going to be much better than it was last year. We have a much better group."

Smith was still irritated that he couldn't get his ribs X-rayed in the fourth quarter so he could get back into the game.

"We waited down there 10 or 15 minutes for somebody to come with a key," Smith said. "We waited, waited, waited and waited for somebody to unlock the door. Finally, we just told them to forget it. In our stadium we always have somebody around to unlock the doors."

Smith rushed to the sidelines in overtime but was never used. His understudy, Sherman Williams, lost a fumble that Arizona converted into the winning field goal. X-rays taken of Smith's ribs after the game were negative.

"My ribs are bruised and we'll have to see how it goes the next few days," Smith said.

Smith said he felt fine about the way he was able to run the ball.

"It's been a long time since we've gotten offensive chunks of yardage like that," Smith said. "We're going to have a much better offense than last year. Last year is last year. All the mistakes we made can be corrected."

Smith was irritated that he got called for an unsportsmanlike penalty for taking his helmet off after a Dallas touchdown was called back for a holding penalty.

"I thought you had to be the individual who scored a touchdown for that rule to count," Smith said. "It's crazy. That rule can be interpreted in so many ways. It's a ridiculous rule."

Dallas coach Barry Switzer said the Cowboys got what they deserved.

"We beat ourselves," Switzer said. "They tried to give the game to us and we wouldn't take it. Now, we have to do like Green Bay is doing this week and file the game away."

Rangers plan Holtz services

ARLINGTON (AP) -- At the ballpark and in church, memorial services for former Texas Rangers announcer Mark Holtz will give friends, relatives and fans opportunities to remember the team's longtime voice.

The Rangers plan a public service at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Diamond Club of The Ballpark at Arlington for Holtz, who died Sunday at a Dallas hospital of complications from a bone marrow transplant for treatment of leukemia.

Another memorial service was scheduled at 4 p.m. Wednesday for relatives and friends at Trinity United Methodist Church in Arlington.

Holtz, 51, teamed with Eric Nadel as the team's radio announcing team in 1981-94. Holtz moved to the television both in 1995.

Nadel remains the team's lead play-by-play announcer.

The team will wear a black patch on its uniform in Holtz's memory for the rest of the season.

Family members have requested that, in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to either the National Marrow Donor Program at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas or Texas Rangers Charities' Mark Holtz Fund in Arlington.

Brown may miss UCLA game with ankle injury

AUSTIN (AP) -- Texas coach John Mackovic says this week's game against UCLA is important, but not important enough to aggravate quarterback James Brown's severely bruised left ankle.

"This game, as big as it is, and as much meaning as it has, it's not the end of the road," Mackovic said Monday, when asked if Brown would be encouraged onto the field if still hampered by the injury.

Brown twisted his ankle late in the second quarter of Texas' 48-14 victory over Rutgers Saturday when he was sacked for a 24-yard loss.

Mackovic said if Brown misses significant practice time this week, the likely starter will be Richard Walton, who subbed well for Brown against Rutgers, leading the team to 28 third-quarter points after Texas clung to a mere 13-7 lead at halftime.

"I don't ever like to see James go down, but I always prepare as if I'm the starter, and this week won't be any different," Walton said Monday. "I'll try and make the most of any opportunity I'm given."

Mackovic said he has confidence in Walton, who was 7-of-12 for 111 yards with one touchdown pass and one interception against Rutgers.

"It makes it much easier to send him (Walton) in there when you know he can go in and give us a winning performance," Mackovic said.

Mackovic said if Brown is cleared to practice or play, "I probably wouldn't make a decision (on who starts) until game day."

Lindros and Flyers close to $60M deal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) -- A framework is in place for the richest deal in hockey history between the Philadelphia Flyers and superstar center Eric Lindros, sources said Monday night.

Although Flyers spokesman Joe Kluge said late Monday night that no deal was in place, people familiar with the negotiations who declined to be identified said that all that remains is minor fine-tuning on details which is expected to take place on Tuesday.

The new seven-year deal will pay Lindros $60 million. The contract will replace the six-year, $22 million contract he signed when he joined the Flyers in 1991.

Colorado's Joe Sakic is to make the most money this season in the NHL with a $17 million salary that includes a $15 million signing bonus.

Carl Lindros, the players' father-agent and Flyers general manager Bob Clarke are expected to finalize the deal Tuesday as the Flyers open training camp in suburban Voorhees, N.J.

The two sides negotiated for five hours on Monday. Flyers spokesman Zach Hill said Monday night that no deal had been reached but that "talks are ongoing."

Neither Carl Lindros nor Clarke could be reached for comment, but the elder Lindros had said Sunday that he felt he was close to a deal that would make Lindros the highest paid player in hockey.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) -- A framework is in place for the richest deal in hockey history between the Philadelphia Flyers and superstar center Eric Lindros, sources said Monday night.

Although Flyers spokesman Joe Kluge said late Monday night that no deal was in place, people familiar with the negotiations who declined to be identified said that all that remains is minor fine-tuning on details which is expected to take place on Tuesday.

The new seven-year deal will pay Lindros $60 million. The contract will replace the six-year, $22 million contract he signed when he joined the Flyers in 1991.

Colorado's Joe Sakic is to make the most money this season in the NHL with a $17 million salary that includes a $15 million signing bonus.

Carl Lindros, the players' father-agent and Flyers general manager Bob Clarke are expected to finalize the deal Tuesday as the Flyers open training camp in suburban Voorhees, N.J.

The two sides negotiated for five hours on Monday. Flyers spokesman Zach Hill said Monday night that no deal had been reached but that "talks are ongoing."

Neither Carl Lindros nor Clarke could be reached for comment, but the elder Lindros had said Sunday that he felt he was close to a deal that would make Lindros the highest paid player in hockey.

Writing Want Ads that really sell!

Unsure how to write a Classified Ad that will get results? Follow these pointers and you'll soon have an empty space in your storage room and cash in your pocket.

For starters, look at ads which offer the same item/products. Get a sense of going rates and ideas for how to make your ad stand out. Once you're ready to write, begin with exactly what you're selling: "Dining room set, maple, six chairs." Then, remember these hints:

--Give the price. A newspaper consultant says 70 percent of classified readers won't respond to an ad with no price.

--Use key words to describe what you're selling. The key words for a car are make, model, year, body style, color, mileage and price. If it's a house, key words are location, type of construction, number of bedrooms and baths, and condition.

--Don't use abbreviations. It's tempting to abbreviate and save money if ads are billed by the line. Brand ads are billed by the words, so spell them out so readers won't be confused trying to figure out abbreviations.

--Don't be misleading. Think accurate and factual when you write. Be sure to include a phone number and the best times to reach you.

STUDY: PEANUTS GOOD FOR THE HEART

LAS VEGAS (AP) - When you sip that glass of red wine, don't forget to grab a handful of peanuts. Those, too, are healthy for the heart, according to a new study by scientists at the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Peanuts, a crunchy snack that's high in fat, may contain the heart-healthy compound resveratrol. "Frequent consumption of peanuts and/or nuts result in reduced cardiovascular disease and lowered total cholesterol," said Dr. Timothy Sanders, a researcher for the USDA's Raleigh, N.C., Agricultural Research Center.

Sanders, whose research was funded by the Peanut Institute of Albany, Ga., presented his findings Monday at the national meeting of the American Chemical Society, the world's largest scientific society. The meeting ends Thursday. Research on red wine has associated resveratrol with what's commonly called the "French paradox" - that is, despite a high-fat, high-cholesterol diet, the French population has a surprisingly low rate of heart disease. Sanders and his research group found that the compound was also present in Spanish, runner and Virginia-type (ball park) peanuts. Research on resveratrol in the 1970s and 1980s indicated the compound was only found in peanuts that had been inoculated and incubated with microorganisms, making them inedible.

GRAMMY AWARDS GO TO NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) - And the Grammy goes to... drum roll, please... New York City.

The Big Apple will play host to the Grammy Awards in 1998 for the second straight year - a victory for New York over Los Angeles in the annual rivalry. "We have such great friends in this town," Michael Greene, president of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, said Monday. "And these great friends have really solidified something that Los Angeles has a very hard time doing." Since 1978, the show has been held at either the 6,300-seat Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles or in New York. Last year, the awards were presented at 20,000-seat Madison Square Garden but it's moving back to the more intimate Radio City Music Hall, which seats 6,000.

Greene said the academy would continue to consider each year where to hold the show, but praised New York's business, entertainment and political sectors for their support for related educational, cultural and charitable events. He said there would be "a new expanded commitment from the academy to New York" next year, but didn't elaborate. "We love New York," said Barry Gibb of the Bee Gees, who attended the announcement ceremony with brothers Robin and Maurice. Other stars on hand included country crooner Tim McGraw and singer Erykah Badu. A host has not yet been selected for the 1998 show, which will be broadcast by CBS. Noelia Rodriguez, a spokeswoman for Los Angeles Mayor Richard Riordan, said the city would begin its push now to win the 1999 ceremony.

REPORT: DIANA CHOSE RING

LONDON (AP) - Princess Diana chose the diamond-encrusted ring that Dodi Fayed gave her over dinner at the Ritz Hotel in Paris the night before they died, The Times of London reported today. But the newspaper quoted Monte Carlo jeweler Alberto Repossi as saying he did not know if Fayed intended it as an engagement ring. "These are the sort of intimate things of which one does not speak" with customers, it quoted him as saying. Repossi said Diana picked out the ring at his premises in Monte Carlo and he sent it to Fayed to give to her over dinner on Aug. 30, according to the paper. The jeweler has a shop opposite the Ritz. The Times said the ring, which British news reports have said was found in the wrecked car after the crash that killed the couple and their driver, was part of a line of engagement jewelry named "Dis-moi oui" - tell me yes. A spokeswoman for Repossi jewelers said Monday that the ring had been used in commercials for months before Fayed bought it. She said color photographs of it appeared in ads in several glossy French magazines earlier this year.

DRILLING OK'D IN NATIONAL MONUMENT

WASHINGTON (AP) - An oil company has won permission to drill an exploratory well in the nation's newest national monument. Conoco, the oil unit of DuPont Co., owns drilling leases in the newly designated Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument in Utah and was granted a permit for a single exploratory well in the Kaiparowits Plateau. Stephanie Hanna, an Interior Department spokeswoman, said Monday the application was approved after officials reviewed hundreds of public comments. "It went through the normal process, complying with the national environmental policy acts," she said. "When President Clinton created the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, it was with the understanding that valid existing rights would be considered." Clinton established the 1.7 million-acre monument last September during his re-election campaign, blocking development of one of America's largest known coal reserves. He made the declaration by invoking the 1906 Antiquities Act. The action stunned Utah officials - including the governor and congressional delegation - who complained they were never consulted.

AIR FARES GO UP, THEN DROP

ATLANTA (AP) - Airlines took travelers on a dizzying ride as they chased each other on a roller coaster of fare hikes and cutbacks. "Fares are volatile in the airline industry," said Joe Hopkins, spokesman for United Airlines. "Fare changes are made at lightning speed. That's the nature of this very competitive business." Northwest Airlines raised its full-fare, unrestricted tickets by 5 percent last week, and other airlines followed with across-the-board increases. On Monday, carriers began dropping back to the old fares, though some travelers were already ruffled. "We have withdrawn our increases to remain competitive," said Bill Berry, a spokesman for Delta Air Lines, which had waited until late Friday before joining other carriers in boosting fares. "They needed to," said Sal DePace, president of Golden Jet Travel Service in Marietta, Ga. "This morning, I was almost knocked off my chair when I looked at the fares." A customer Monday morning paid $1,104 for a round-trip ticket on Delta from Atlanta to New York, much more than he expected to pay, DePace said.

STRIKE CREATES HEADACHES FOR COMMUTERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Felicia Clayborn watched two packed buses pass by before one finally stopped. It would be more than three hours before she would get from Oakland to her sales job in downtown San Francisco, a ride that normally takes 50 minutes. And there was still the ride home for Clayborn and tens of thousands of others who usually rely on Bay Area Rapid Transit, the 93-mile rail system shut down by a strike. Clayborn left work an hour early Monday to catch a ferry across San Francisco Bay, but ran into long lines anyway. "I'm losing money to deal with BART strikers and commuter traffic, which is ridiculous," she said. "I'm not happy at all." The strike began with a walkout Sunday by 2,600 union workers in a pay dispute. More talks were scheduled for today. With 275,000 daily riders left to find another way around, the strike made a mess of the commute. There was gridlock across area highways, with a 15-mile backup reported on Interstate 80: It took up to 40 minutes to get through the toll plaza at the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, the main route into San Francisco from eastern suburbs. And when they finally arrived, there was little or no parking. Fifteen-minute BART commutes turned into hours-long nightmares as the commuter crush swamped buses. It took hours to get on ferries.

GORE'S POLI. RATING HIGHS

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP) - Questions about Vice President Gore's fund-raising for the 1996 campaign do not seem to be seriously hurting his standing with the American public, according to a USA Today/CNN/Gallup Poll. The vice president's overall approval rating is 55 percent, compared to 57 percent in June and 61 percent a year ago. A weekend survey found 64 percent believe Gore is honest and trustworthy, 25 percent think he is not and 11 percent have no opinion. By comparison, only 53 percent believe President Clinton is honest and trustworthy and 42 percent believe he is not. The new poll found 39 percent saying Gore did something unethical but not illegal with his fund raising, 25 percent said he did not do anything seriously wrong and 12 percent said he did something illegal. Twenty-four percent were not familiar with the issue or had no opinion. The Sept. 6-7 telephone survey of 1,002 has a margin of error of plus or minus 3 percentage points.

Good-bye Diana

Students of Bluebonnet Elementary School joined millions of mourners world wide last week and sent a note of condolence to the royal family as the world's most publicized funeral got under way.

ANN

hazard. I bet you could eliminate quite a lot of accidents by getting us off the road. And while you're at it, Ann, why not pass laws to withhold licenses from the stupid, the rubberneckers, the animal lovers who drive with pets in the front seat, the elderly, the day dreamers, people who use cellular phones, women who put on makeup while driving and those who eat their breakfast or lunch while driving? And, hey -- how about the idiots who try to read your column while sitting in traffic?

Give people with diabetes some credit. Sure, there are jerks out there, but just because someone has a hypoglycemic episode doesn't mean we need another law. The majority of people with diabetes are well aware of their blood glucose levels and are very responsible.

Vernon, Conn.: My daughter and I were very disappointed in your response about the diabetic driver who accidentally killed a young woman. I hope you aren't advocating different laws for diabetics than for the rest of the population.

My daughter has been a diabetic for eight years and will be driving soon. She is in excellent control of her diabetes. Like most diabetics, she can tell when her blood sugar is low and keeps a ready supply of sugar at hand. Diabetics are faced with many challenges, but they can do anything as well as a non-diabetic, including drive.

The problem with the driver in your column was not his diabetes but his irresponsible behavior. That driver was well aware of the steps he needed to take to prevent an insulin reaction, but he did not follow them. He was a menace to himself and others on the road. I say crack down on ALL irresponsible drivers.

Please don't make life any more difficult for my daughter by making special laws targeting diabetics.

Dear Vernon and all who wrote: Message received and noted. Thanks for the well-deserved clomp in the chops.
