

A. H. Belo, known by this writer in 1857 or 8, just entering with Willard Richardson, as office manager for the Galveston News, is said to be now a millionaire. The paper was then pulled off with a one-blind-horse tread-power. Some people think what one can do, another can do. Let them watch the Amarillo News forty-three years from now, and verify.

One day's special term of the Commissioners court held yesterday appropriated $15 to W. H. Pipkin for repairing roof of court house. Judge Marrs and Commissioners Haden and Britain were appointed to confer with school trustees precinct No. 1, to ascertain at what price one or more rooms of the old school building could be obtained—looking to the feasibility of removing and locating as a permanent pest house. A considerate action.

The city council has extended the time for Mr. Poole to begin his work on the water and light plant to the 1st of April. The stand pipe is to be 20 feet wide and 80 feet high.

Mr. J. B. Sisk, the promoter and owner of the city telephone plant has sold out to Mr. B. G. Stegman of Carlsbad, who takes charge April 1st. Terms private.

Paul Smith, the cleaner and dyer, is at Clarendon in charge of the steam laundry there.

Evangelist Needham has been preaching in the Baptist church twice a day since Friday night. On Sunday the congregation overflowed. Last night (Monday) the congregation was large and the sermon was from Titus, II-2. "That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience." Services were closed with a solo by Miss Mary Potter. "A Sinner Like me," which was well rendered and well received. The meeting will continue, probably all the week. So far there are but few penitents, but many may be expected further on.

The report is that there are several cases of small-pox at Twist, the prospective town up the Denver.

Carpenter T. J. Warren has sold the old shack off his lot on Filmore street and is finishing up a nice four-room cottage for his wife and babies.

Our former townsman, L. A. Gaines, now living at Coldwater, Ga. is expected to pay Amarillo a visit in May next.

Mrs. Dave Morgan gone to Marlow, I. T. to recruit her health and visit relatives. May be gone a month.

J. H. Nail of Sherman bought this week, of Matthews & Blanton of Albany, about ninety sections of the Monroe Cattle Company's ranch, embracing what is known as the north and south middle strip and Collins pasture. It is understood that the consideration was over $100,000.

John Mahan, who has been the efficient bookkeeper for the Waples, Painter Lumber Yard in Gainesville the past ten years, has resigned his position and will in a few days leave for Amarillo to make that place his future home. He contemplates engaging in the cattle business and has established a ranch near that place. Mr. Mahan is a most perfect gentleman and the best wishes of the citizens of Gainesville go with him to his future home. He also has a family who is highly esteemed by our people and many regrets are expressed at their departure. Few, if any men ever lived in Gainesville that were more universally esteemed than John Mahan, and the citizens of Amarillo will find him to be a thorough gentleman in every sense the word implies.—Gainesville Evening Register.

Several copies of Senator Bucklin's report to the Colorado Senate, a feast of reason, inaugurating the most important reform ever started in the U. S. have been bought and received by the Evening News to send to such as feel interested "getting out of the ashes." Call and get a copy—and go to shouting.

Messrs. J. C. Haskew and S. E. Lanier from Stonewall were here last week visiting kintolks.

H. B. Sanborn arrived from Kansas City Sunday night, and will be here several days.

Dell Harrington of Clarendon has been in the city a week, in the interest of insurance.

Pottinger & Clark the meat market men, have suspended, at least temporarily, by too generous crediting and too meager collections. Meat is hard to get this season of the year, in the Panhandle most of it having to be brought from Kansas City—and it takes money to get it.

JOE.

Today the big State Cattlemen's association meets at San Antonio.

Rains, accompanied by high winds are reported in middle Texas.

The Amarillo Weekly News and the Dallas twice a week News for $1.50. A hundred subscribers ought to be obtained in Potter Co. right along at these figures.

There was great exultation on the part of our citizens, especially those engaged in the live stock business, when word was received that Hereford would receive the same rate as Amarillo. In other words our cattlemen can ship beef or stock cattle to all market points as well as to the northwest grazing fields as cheaply as they can be shipped from Amarillo, notwithstanding the fact that Amarillo is nearly fifty miles nearer to those points than is Hereford.—Hereford Reporter.

The above probably needs confirmation. But if correct, Amarillo has no reason to kick because Hereford gets rates as cheap as may be, while on the other hand she has great reason to complain if her superior location goes for nothing. The question is clearly, not that Hereford gets off too lightly, but that Amarillo is unjustly discriminated against.

HOUSTON MOVING UP AND TEXAS MOVING UP.

The committee on Legislation and Taxation of the Houston Manufacturer's Association offered the following report with resolutions, viz:

Whereas, the Hon. L. S. Schluter, of Marion county has introduced a bill in the Legislature, now assembled, providing for an amendment to the state constitution as follows: Bill amending the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto Article 11a, so as to allow incorporated cities and towns by vote of the taxpayers thereof to exempt for a term of years from local taxation certain species of property:

Article 11a. Section 1. Any incorporated city or town, by ordinance duly passed, may, for a term not exceeding twenty years, exempt from the payment of all local taxes levied by such city or town, any species of property which would otherwise be subject to the payment of such taxes; provided, however, that such ordinance, before taking effect, shall first be ratified by a vote of the taxpayers of such city or town at a special election called for that purpose; and provided further, that nothing contained in this amendment shall be construed to affect in any manner the levying and collection of taxes for State and county purposes.

Section 2. In the event of any city or town adopting an ordinance of the character above provided for, all property of any description whatsoever which would otherwise be subject to payment of such taxes levied by such city or town, shall nevertheless be listed and appraised and placed upon the assessment rolls in order that the total value of the property in such city or town may be ascertained; and during the period of exemption, such city or town may levy taxes for local purposes sufficient to produce a revenue equal to but not in excess of the amount which could be realized under existing constitutional provision, limiting the rate of taxation of cities or towns, but for such exemptions.

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas on the first Tuesday in June, A. D. 1901.

And whereas the laying of sidewalks and paving of streets enhances the value of the vacant lot to the same extent as the lot by its side which is improved, yet under the present constitution the burden of taxation for street improvements often falls with double weight upon the improved lot as compared with the adjoining unimproved one.

And whereas said proposed amendment will enable cities and towns to build sidewalks and pave streets by a more equitable system of taxation than is possible under existing conditions.

And whereas it will also enable cities and towns to encourage manufacturing enterprises and in fact all enterprises giving employment to labor, without invidious distinctions in the nature of class legislation, since by the vote of a majority of its taxpayers any city can relieve all capital actively used in the employment of labor, including that invested in buildings, from the burden of local taxation.

Therefore, believing as we do that no legislative act would be more conducive to the general prosperity, be it resolved that the Houston Manufacturers Association, at this, its regular monthly meeting, does most heartily indorse Mr. Schluter's bill, and earnestly recommends its passage.

Be it further resolved that the chairman of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of this Association be and he is hereby directed to forward copies of this resolution to the members of the legislature, and especially to urge the members from this legislative and senatorial district to support and work for the passage of said bill.

The same was unanimously adopted.

Blge O'Neal, an expert asked for an item, gives the following housekeeping hint. How to dust a room: Take 2 gal. of dust, toss it about the room with a duster. Twice a week will be sufficient.

The business men of Amarillo manages to dust the whole town every day, by simply taking a broom, without sprinkling, and sweeping their filthy floors into the faces of passers-by. These are the boys our legislature ought to disfranchise, instead of the poor devil who doesn't have $2.50 to pay his poll tax.

Mr. Beard the surveyor for the Choctaw railroad is in the city, conferring with our rifut-of-way committee, Messrs. Miller, Evans and Wills.

TWO BIG RANCH DEALS.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 9.—Two large ranch deals are reported here, one being the largest deal made in the Panhandle for years. A ranch comprising about 55,000 acres in Lamar County, and known as the Northwest Capital, was sold to Messrs. Joseph and John Rhea of New Mexico, by the Capital Freehold Land and Investment Company. The eighty-six sections of land are valued at $110,000.

San Antonio, Tex., March 8.—At a meeting of San Antonio's Building Trade Assembly tonight a resolution was adopted against compulsory arbitration and requesting members of the Legislature from Bexar County to use all legitimate means to defeat any such measure now pending in that body. A telegram was sent to Representative Little, advising him of the assembly's action.

Galveston Storm.

Illustrated and realistic stories, written by Mr. G. M. Bailey and Dr. S. O. Young, of Galveston, who watched the havoc wrought by the most fearful hurricane ever known in America.

No fiction, but realistic, accurate and thrilling accounts of the experiences of these gentlemen and others who witnessed the horrors of the stricken city. A book containing over fifty pages, closely written, and illustrated with half-tone engravings, reproduced from actual photographs taken during and immediately after the death dealing winds and waters had laid low the once beautiful city, leaving in its path the bodies of more than six thousand dead, whose names are contained in "Souvenir of the Galveston Storm," together with a carefully prepared map of Galveston, showing the devastated district and all points of interest, now ready and on sale by all newsdealers, book stores and news agents. Price, only 25 cents. Send 25 cents for agent's outfit and samples, to J. J. Pastoriza Printing and Lithographing Co., 304 Main Street, Houston, Texas.
