Miss Lula Martin Appointed Home Agent For County

Evidently when the county commissioners on Monday of last week gave Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, district demonstration agent, the responsibility of selecting a home demonstrator for Deaf Smith county, she took them at their word, for before the end of the week she had sent word of the appointment of Miss Lula Mae Martin of Collingsworth county to the work here.

Furthermore, she sent word Miss Martin will be here to begin work March 16. It is expected that Miss Grubbs will be here at that time also to assist in getting the home demonstration work under way in Deaf Smith county.

Spring Football Began Tuesday for Whitefaces

Coach T. E. "Tommy" McCollum called the call for spring football practice this week and Manager B. H. Hopkins issued suits and equipment to those who aspire to team membership in the squad next fall. Light drills and practice will begin the work but before the close of school some hard scrimmaging will be in evidence.

The annual climax of the spring football program is the game between the old players who will graduate or be ineligible next year against the coming rookies. The date of that game will be announced later this spring.

Prospects for as good, if not a better, team than that of 1931 are in evidence. The squad will be tight next fall, but that did not prove a serious handicap for a successful season last year, and should not again when the whistle blows next September.

Two captains will lead the Whitefaces next term, for the first time in the history of the school, and as they were both stars and outstanding players in '31, they should whip up a flashy winning team next year around the nucleus of letter and experienced players left over. Jack Russell in the back field and Brunell Olmer at end will share the honors of being captain. The scoring possibilities and deadly offense of those two players alone make them the dread of all the opponents the team faced last year. What they will do in '32 remains to be seen, but can easily be imagined. It is expected they will go places.

Other letter men eligible for next year's play are Rollin Orr, G. C. Hartman and Berry Orr, while strong young huskies from the Gas-house Gang are scrambling for a chance to try out for the first string against others who got some experience last fall. A list of them reads something like this: Buddy Sowell, E. A. Daniels, Geo. Smith, Richard Baker, Oriand Wilson, Charles Jones, Wilbur Womble, Roger Brumley, Jack Gilliland, H. D. Blythe, Dennis Baker, G. B. Hager, Bill Vaughn, Clifton Ruthford, Leonard Mitcherson, Wayne Farris, Milton Orr, Robert Holland, J. P. Clayton, Walter Seel, J. L. Sparkman, Raymond Pierce, James Garrett, Francis Harris, Carl Howard, Mead Smith, John Schulz, and others who are expected to move in from the rural districts for "high school work, some of whom will take part in the spring practice training.

School Census Will Be Taken During March

Miss Edith Hughes, who for the past several years has taken the scholastic census of the Hereford Independent School District, will begin that important task again this week, according to announcement made Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Hughes has been very successful in getting a complete tabulation of all school children in the district in past year.

Parents are urged to see that their children are enrolled in the census, for it is from their number that is calculated the amount of school money to be sent here from the state. Each pupil's name is worth about $17.50 to the district. If anyone is left out, just that amount of money is kept from the Hereford school next term.

All children living in the district who will be six years old and not over 18 September 1, 1932, should be enrolled in the census. If any parents or guardians for any reason fail to be at home when Mrs. Hughes calls or know their children are not enrolled, they should notify her or school authorities during this month. It is a public duty to see that not an eligible name is left from the list.

J. M. POSEY SETS HOT RECORD FOR GOLF COURSE

J. M. Posey, president of the Hereford golf club, was in the right mood and fettle for playing the ancient Scottish pastime last Sunday afternoon and hung up a record of four under par for 18 holes on the local course. He made the count even in the two rounds, getting a 34 for each of the nine holes. The record breaking score is attested to by J. J. Clark, J. H. Patton, Frank Marrs, Doug Fox and H. L. Rice, the six playing around together that afternoon.

Mr. Posey's score by holes was as follows: Out, 2 (birdie), 4 (birdie), 5 (par), 4 (par), 3 (par), 4 (par), 5 (par), 34; in, 4 (one over), 4 (birdie), 4 (birdie), 5 (one over), 3 (par), 3 (par), 34. Total 68.

There appears to be more interest in the club this spring than has been evident this early for the past several years. While the course is in good condition, much new work is planned for the greens in the immediate future, before spring team competition starts in. A new provision in the rules admits the playing of school children this year.

BRUMLEY AND SON HOLD HOG SALE NEXT TUESDAY

George W. Brumley and son, Bonnie, will conduct one of the largest public auctions of pure bred hogs and dairy cattle in the sales pavilion, corner of Sampson and First, Hereford, next Tuesday, March 8, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

In the sale will be included 217 head of Hampshire gilts, sows and boars, and 40 head of pure bred, non-registered Jersey dairy stock. Col. Ray Barber, auctioneer, will be master of ceremonies. The sale has been the most widely advertised of any through this region for the past year.

County Health Activities

MISS GRACE BUZZELL
County Health Nurse

A county-wide diphtheria immunization and smallpox vaccination campaign is soon to be sponsored by the county health council, and conducted with the cooperation of the physicians of the county. Drs. G. F. LeGrand, T. L. Morgan, E. B. Thomasson and D. K. Robison.

It is planned for it to be possible for all children to have the privilege of diphtheria immunization or smallpox vaccination for a very small fee.

Let us take for our slogan: No Diphtheria or Smallpox in Deaf Smith County. We urge parents to give their children this protection, both diseases can be eradicated if all children are immunized. Babies at six months and all pre-school children are most susceptible to diphtheria, but all children up to 15 years of age may contract it.

The announcement dates of the special clinics will be given later, watch for them.

Five Point Contest.

The cooperating physicians are also giving a splendid service to all school children entered in the Five Point Contest, any of them may go to their family physician here for a free physical check-up.

Parents, help your children to accomplish these five health points and be rewarded with a certificate of a "Bill of Good Health". Much interest is being shown by all the teachers of the county in the children's health program.

H. T. ELLISON BRINGS IN CHAMPION-SIZED EGG

Aroused by the story last week of an enormous egg brought in by W. R. Scheffgen, H. T. Ellison sent the Brand a specimen that can truly be said to have championship proportions. If there is a larger one, it would be necessary to see it to make folks believe.

The egg is from a buff orpington and measures 7 1/2 inches at the smaller circumference, and 9 1/2 inches at the larger. The white leghorn egg mentioned last week measured but 6 1/4 inches by 8 1/4 inches, and was thought to be large.

Rev. Boultinghouse Laid To Rest Here Monday Afternoon

The funeral of Rev. J. W. Boultinghouse was conducted Monday at 4:00 p. m. in the First Christian church, of which he was formerly pastor. For about the past year Rev. Boultinghouse had been pastor of the church at Duncan, Oklahoma, moving there from here early in 1931. He became critically ill about two weeks ago and became gradually worse until death came to him in a hospital at Wichita Falls last Saturday. The funeral services were conducted there Sunday afternoon before bringing the body to Hereford for burial being made in West Park Cemetery, following the services Monday afternoon.

Rev. Boultinghouse was born at Utopia, Texas, March 9, 1895. He accepted the pastorate of the Hereford church and moved here with his family early in 1929. They made many friends in the city and the warm hand of sympathy and condolence is extended the bereaved wife and little son who survive him. Mr. Boultinghouse's understanding personality made him a favorite with many of the civic organizations of Hereford and he was instrumental in accomplishing much good in charitable measures while here.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were: Rev. J. E. Montgomery, Wichita Falls, who conducted the services, and wife; Rev. Ferrel Fox, of the West Amabilio Christian church; H. A. Shaw, assistant pastor of the First Christian church of Amarillo; Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Byerly of Borger; Dr. and Mrs. Sparks, of Littlefield; Earl Sparks, Amarillo; Ratu Sparks, who is attending Texas Tech, Lubbock; Rupert Sparks, Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. Sears, Borger, who are also attending Tech at Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Borge, Abilene; Mrs. Benington, Olton; Rev. Earl R. Hutson, of the Christian church, Canyon.

C.-C. Luncheon Next Monday at Baptist Church

The monthly luncheon of the chamber of commerce will be held next Monday noon in the basement of the First Baptist church, the ladies of that organization again serving one of their delectable meals.

There is a possibility that facts and figures relative to the paved road program of the county will be given out at Monday's luncheon. P. H. VanLondon, district engineer, who has been working out the exploration of caliche deposits along the proposed highway routes will in all probability have his calculations of the approximate cost of the complete program finished, and may be prevailed upon to discuss the proposition to the assembled members and guests.

W. E. Dameron, president, has been in Austin this week with delegations from various Panhandle communities on matters related to the securing of state designation for the highway leading north and south across Deaf Smith county, and should have some interesting reports to make to the chamber of commerce body.

Press reports from various points over the state express optimism that the state designation of the north and south highway will be granted, and W. E. Dameron, president of the chamber of commerce, who made the trip to Austin with Dr. D. K. Robison to appear before the state highway department, says the prospects look exceedingly good.

H. K. Stanfield Announces For Representative

FORMER POTTER COUNTY ATTORNEY IS CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE.

H. K. Stanfield, former county attorney of Potter County, announces his candidacy for the office of representative in the lower House of the state Legislature for the 123rd district, which is composed of Armstrong, Carson, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Potter and Randall counties.

Mr. Stanfield since April, 1922, has been actively engaged in the practice of law in the Panhandle. He has also engaged in wheat farming and stock raising, which varied activities lead Mr. Stanfield to feel that he knows and understands the difficulties, problems and needs confronting the people of the Panhandle of Texas today. He feels that due to the prevailing and distressing economic conditions of the country today, the Panhandle as never before needs active, aggressive and interested representation in the state Legislature, especially in the lower House of our law making body, for the reason that all tax legislation has its origin there.

Mr. Stanfield states that he is opposed to state, as well as national, intermeddling in local affairs, which he feels should be left to the discretion of each community. Among other measures, as set out in his platform, he favors consolidation of numerous local offices, with the view to economy and efficiency in the administration of our government.

The platform upon which Mr. Stanfield will submit his candidacy

BEST STORY of the Week

W. H. Womack was helped last Sunday to celebrate his birthday which came the next day, when Mrs. Chas. Donald, teacher of the Good Fellowship class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, and a group of friends descended upon the Womacks with well-laden covered dishes, in their home at 1200 25-Mile Avenue. Mrs. Donald furnished the birthday cake with its 14 white and yellow candles to grace the center of the table.

Mr. Womack says he doesn't know whether there should have been 13 or 14 candles on his cake, as 1900 was really not a Leap Year, but birthdays coming four years apart for him anyway, he felt like perhaps he was justified in counting that one to make him have 14 now.

The 35 guests of the occasion were Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Gieser and children, Mrs. Chas. Donald, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Vogele, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lee and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Vera Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. Behrends and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wolfe, with son and daughter, Ralph and Miss Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wright and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Philippi and daughter, with the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Womack.

LIONS TRIM ODD FELLOWS; MEN OUTPLAY THE WOMEN

The long-delayed lean-men versus fat-women basketball game for the high school band charity city championship was duly settled Tuesday evening of this week when the winners of previous contests met for a final decision. The men had it all their own way, despite the best efforts of the women and the two referees. The score was tied at eight apiece at the third quarter, but the men were just fooling and slipped in three field goals to make it 14 to 8 at the finish.

The Lions Club picked on the Odd Fellows for the opening contest of the evening, and thanks to the excellent floor work and goal shooting ability of Coach McCollum and Artis Russell, the lodge players were kept outside the winners column. The score looked something like 42 to 10 at the finish. The Odd Fellows are apt to take offense at that and want a come-back, the results of which remain to be seen.

W. D. Nafzger Makes Fourth Candidate for Precinct No. 3

W. D. Nafzger of Walcott community throws new fuel into Deaf Smith county political fires by announcing as a candidate for the commission of precinct No. 3.

Mr. Nafzger is a tenant farmer who has made his home in the county four years, coming here from the Olton community, 60 miles southeast, in 1928. He has a considerable bit of personal property and has a lease contract on his present farm until 1934. He has been singularly successful raising wheat, and while low market values are ruinous at present, Mr. Nafzger says the commodity is just as staple as anything else and will eventually be as profitable as any other product. In the meantime, he has adapted his farming methods to include row crops and the feeding of his grain to livestock for marketing.

Mr. Nafzger is a young man who has practically raised himself by his own bootstraps, earning his way through his first two years while attending West Texas State Teachers College, and alternating farming in the summer with college work in the winters for the remainder of his college training. He has had two-years experience as a teacher, and is a graduate of W. T. S. T. C.

He strikes a new note in his appeal to the voters: Readjustment of the business of the county in accordance with the condition of the times, for the sake of the taxpayers. Not a few voters have been asking when such an opinion would be voiced by a candidate, that the expense of the county be in keeping with the resources of its taxpayers.

Hopkins, vocational agricultural teacher of Hereford high school, announces the beginning at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday evening of a series of meetings in his class room at the rear of the auditorium, in the interest of the local poultry industry. The work is sponsored and directed by the vocational agricultural work, and is part of the community service given by it each year.

The class will assemble each Tuesday and Thursday evening thereafter for 12 meetings, each one to hold for about one and a half hours. Mr. Hopkins is desirous of as many people who are truly interested being present at the sessions. An endeavor will be made to announce in advance the subjects to be discussed.

Santa Fe Train to Demonstrate Farm Activities

The Santa Fe Railway is operating a farm and home demonstration train this spring over all its lines in Texas, including the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway.

This train is scheduled to be routed to principal towns in West and Northwest Texas, reaching Hereford at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, March 26, for a several hours stay. This train is operated in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, which will present the entire program.

Four cars of exhibits are carried by the train, an up-to-date agricultural and livestock show of interest to every farmer and livestock grower in this territory, carrying a message of greater profit and better living. The exhibits include dairy and beef cattle, hogs, poultry, angora goats and sheep.

The program includes talks by experts from the College on the problems that face the farming and livestock industries in West and Northwest Texas today. The College has in the course of many years developed a practical and broad program for better and safer farming, lower production costs, and a balanced farming system for the entire year.

The train is conveniently located at the Santa Fe Railway station. After the speaking program the people have the opportunity to pass through the train and inspect the varied exhibits provided by the College. Representatives from the College will also be at every exhibit booth to answer questions.

The program will have something for everyone, including the women and the boys and girls. All are welcome. The Santa Fe is glad to be able to bring this school on wheels to the communities along its lines in West and Northwest Texas.

The junior band of the school will start the entertainment by playing "America" before the curtain rises. Bill (negro boy guard) and Rene (negro man) will furnish the fun of the thing. Indians in costume will, an idea of frontier days, with dances and songs. The Minuet and Virginia Reel are the beauty scenes of the pageant.

Those assisting in the direction of the production are Mmes. Voline Downs, Jack Rose, R. A. Walls, Misses Gladys Seigler, Martha Duncan, Edith Shields and Carey Estes. Ralph Smith, bandmaster, has charge of the colonial music that plays an important part with violins, Indian tom-toms, flutes, etc.

Various characters and symbolic parts are portrayed by the following persons, beside the regular speaking roles:

George Washington, Martin Gilliland; Martha Washington, Marie Seed; Her children, Nellie Custis, Jimmie Clark; Jackie Custis, Freddie Close; Patsy Custis, June Dameron; Posterity, Edith Jackson; History, Marie Luak; Fame, Bill McLean; Adventure, Spaulding Bartley; Home, Elsie Parrish.

It cannot be stressed too much just how necessary it is to see that every child of school age is enrolled in the annual census to be taken this month. That applies to rural schools as well as to independent districts. The apportionment of state school money to the individual districts is reckoned upon the exact number of children between the ages of 6 and 18, and every name is worth something like $17.50 in helping pay the expenses of conducting the school. If any child's name is missed its school loses just that much money next year. Let's not miss a one, anywhere.

Violets blooming along Harry Fritz's and Walter Pickett's lawns make a very pretty sight these days, and one can see tulip leaves sticking up around numberless houses over town. That surely looks like spring is coming. Dandelions, of course, aren't a bit timid and can bloom quick enough to get back under cover should a cold snap come. Several lawns have been plowed up in an effort to get rid of dandelions. Lilac bushes and American and Chinese elms are bursting their leaf buds and a faint tinge of green shows through their tops. The black locusts, trees that have survived years of Panhandle weather, are more cautious and evidently are waiting until more positive assurance warm temperatures will continue. More gardens are being spaded or plowed up every day, and flower beds are being prepared at nearly every residence in town.

Frosts may nip, and freezes may set back plant life, but nature has a way of causing things to grow when conditions are right, and we know that summer time will eventually follow. Hence we prepare for it, knowing that the better the preparation is made, the more joyous will be the pleasures we will receive from the beauties of flowers, trees, shrubbery and green grass in their season.

I don't know whether I ought to tell this or not, but the boys are said to be hooking some fish down in the Tierra Blanca. I have not seen any strings being brought in yet, but those youngsters sitting along the banks with pole and line look good to me. It's a fine place for boys to be, and the training they receive to become good fishermen will be useful, to them in many ways as they grow older.

Twenty-One Years Ago In Hereford

(From the Files of The Brand of March 3, 1912.)

Rain, snow and sleet during the preceding month had put ample moisture in the ground to assure a good start to row crops when planting time came.

The Brand carried a notice of the approaching aldermanic election, the time being before the present commissioner form of city government was put into practice in Hereford.

Mrs. A. M. Jones had been hostess to the Bay View club.

J. L. Fuqua and Carl Gilliland had been transacting business in Kansas City that week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Elliston were leaving that week to attend a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

A paper named the Sentinel was being printed at Friona, and the Brand quoted a number of items of interest to local citizens.

The youth of the city had been enjoying sleighing, coasting and skating as the result of the preceding cold weather.

Fire had destroyed the broom factory near the old laundry that week. It was a new business for the city and had been in operation but a few months.

A column length story on the front page told of the death of Quannah Parker, nationally famous Indian chieftan. Several reminiscences of the great character's life were recalled, they being at the time some of the most interesting comments of the day. Few of the younger generation know that such an Indian ever lived, or have learned of the historical background of his life.

Mr. Davis and family have moved to the Simpson place one mile south of Flagg. They are from Oltan.

Newt Arms and family were in Oltan Saturday evening.

Everybody is invited to Sunday school Sunday.

I feel sorry for the person who never got to fish enough to learn to enjoy the pastime.

Just talking about having gardens, trees, flowers and lawns won't put them out for you. The season is at hand when it is best to be putting out rose bushes, trees and shrubbery, and the ground can be put in condition for other things to be sown later.

Deaf Smith county is going to do things this year that are a great deal more important than holding elections. The coming of a home demonstrator is going to result in more beneficial things for the people here than anything else.

Of course, there are going to be those who will howl about the expense of it in spending the people's money, but I can tell you the people's money is being spent in lots of ways that those same howlers don't say a word about, although it doesn't accomplish any good at all in comparison with the demonstration work.

A. H. Streu ought to be feeling fine as the result of his advertising essay contest. He at least got to feel what folks think about him and his business. I had the privilege of reading the stories submitted to him in response to the query, "Why I Like to Trade at Streu Hardware," and I want to tell you they paid a fine tribute to good merchandising. Almost every one of them complimented Mr. Streu for the wide variety of selection afforded, the attractiveness of display, the high grade of merchandise and courtesy and consideration given each customer, big or little, who came into the store. Very few said anything derogatory of any other business, organization or person—they spent their time expressing appreciation of a man and what they felt his business responsibility had accomplished for the community in the way of service.

Despite the publicity given about it several weeks ago there seems a lethargy on the part of people to keep up or dispose of stray dogs. They are a nuisance and need sudden elimination. This is a time of year when, as I remember the circumstances, rabies break out, and it was no unusual thing for a mad dog scare to galvanize the country into immediate and drastic action. Should such a condition break out in Hereford, one case of hydrophobia would easily infect half a hundred stray dogs before the animal could be

City Charities Commission Solicits Aid

Food, produce, canned vegetables, bedding, cash donations or discarded but serviceable clothing are being collected by the City Charities Commission, to be used in assisting the unfortunate of Hereford.

Contributions may be left with J. E. Cockrell, caretaker, or with any county employee at the court house. Articles will be called for, if notice is given to County Judge Earl W. Wilson, Sheriff John B. Miller, any pastor in the city, or the Hereford Brand. Someone greatly needs what you have to spare!

TELEPHONE CALL BRINGS AID!

Those who find themselves in dire need may apply to the City Charities Commission, phone 590, confident that there will be no embarrassment and that relief will be given.

While it may be foolish to imagine things that may not happen, the only way to make sure against them is to remove the possibility. There is no earthly need of the cur dogs running wild and loose about the city—they are a nuisance and a menace to the public health.

Today's Working Man Enjoys Life Better Than Yesterday's Millionaire

Fifty years ago only a rich man could afford to burn 25 candles to read by, and, if he burned them, he got no more light than the man of modest means gets from one ordinary electric lamp today.

Fifty years ago the best entertainment available to rich men could not remotely compare with the Electric "Movies" and the Electric Radio which practically all can afford today.

Fifty years ago Electricity was just an experiment. Today it is the biggest single convenience in life. In fact, Electricity is so wide spread in its application today that without it the wheels of the world would actually stop.

Now comes the question: Are you letting Electricity do for you what it is ready and willing to do? Considering what it can accomplish, Electricity is one of the cheapest commodities on the market today!

LET US PUT THIS SERVANT TO WORK FOR YOU TODAY!

Golf Directors' Humor
 At a golf club on the North Shore two professionals are employed, one to look after the course and one to teach. The latter is a veteran Sgt. of independent character and fearless tongue. Some time back, a writer in the Boston Globe recalls, he said something to a new member of the board of directors which seemed to that individual to be disrespectful. He complained at a meeting of the board and succeeded in having old Willie discharged.
 Afterward the other directors felt sorry. Finally the head professional was told to inform him that if he would appear before a meeting of the directors and make an explanation his job would be restored to him.
 When, in due course, Willie appeared, the president addressed him benevolently.
 "Well, Willie," he said, "tell us what you have to say for yourself; but make it short, for we're in a hurry."
 "Oh, I'll make it short," said Willie, in a loud, clear voice. "What I've got to say is, that you can all go to h—!"
 For a moment the directors sat in stunned silence. Then, including the one who had made the complaint, they broke into choking laughter. The president was first to regain his composure.
 "All right, Willie," he said, "we accept your apology. You can return to work tomorrow."

Upholsterer Word That

Has Changed in Meaning
 We all understand the "upholsterer" to refer to the person who prepares covers for furniture and who is also an expert at stuffing it. But this meaning is a long leap from its early significance, to which, however, it bears a figurative relationship.
 Originally the "holster" was a hiding place or a covering, as in the holster used for a pistol, for instance. And it was from this connection that the words "holster" and "holstering" gradually came to be employed to describe the process of measuring furniture for covers, preparing the covers, stuffing the furniture and therefore hiding it so to speak, that is, hiding its real self.
 Add to this the fact that the man who stuffed and covered the furniture frequently held it "up" for sale, and we have a logical evolution of the modern word "upholsterer" in the sense in which it is used today.—Kansas City Times.

Sauce for the Gander
 There was a tired business man, a member of that busy clan that shields itself from prying eye behind that good old alibi.
 In conference.
 He rested in his office chair and ducked a lot of toll and care, and smoked cigars in sweet content and thus his busy hours were spent.
 In conference.
 Came anxious strangers by the score to camp outside his office door, and angrily they went their way for he was busy all the day.
 In conference.
 And so he died, and at the gate an angel bade him stand and wait, and said to him with frowning brow, "St. Peter's mighty busy now."
 "In conference."
 —Birmingham Age-Herald.

Defense of Hobbies
 It was "Tristram Shandy" that made Lawrence Sterne famous, but he had other hobbies than writing novels, many of them, books, shooting, painting and fiddling. His excuse for indulging in so many hobbies was framed in words like these: "Have not the wisest men in all ages, not excepting Solomon himself, had their hobby horses, their sunning horses, their coins and their cockle shells, their drums and their trumpets, their idoles and their butterflies? And so long as a man rides his hobby-horse peaceably and quietly along the king's highway, and neither compels you nor me to get up behind him, pray sir, what have you or I to do with it?"

Cross Stone of Virginia
 The "fairy cross" of the Virginia Blue Ridge, a reddish-brown formation taking the shape of a perfect cross, is said to be found only in Patrick county, Virginia. Travelers in the West and Southwest may recall that these curious pieces of stone are frequently offered for sale as "Mexican Holy Crosses" at shops at or near Indian reservations, sometimes for only a nickel apiece. The United States geological survey, however, confirms the claim that the "sauriolite," or "Cross Stone," an iron-aluminum silicate, is found only in Virginia.

Divorce in Old Egypt
 A study made by W. F. Edgerton and published by the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago shows that Egyptian marriages could be dissolved at the will of either the husband or the wife. Furthermore, provision was sometimes made for "trial" marriages that lasted for a definite period.

A Matter Of Mileage

You buy Natural Gas for a purpose, for heat. How much gas does it take in your home to run the things that only gas will run?

Do you get out of the gas you buy the full value of the heat there is in it? If you don't, you're wasting gas and money, that's wrong.

There is only one way to get full mileage out of any fuel: That is to burn it in a clean properly regulated appliance. Fuel is fuel, whether you use it to run an engine or a home.

NO DEFINITE INFORMATION ON FARM LOAN PROGRAM

Messrs. G. A. F. Parker, E. B. Black and J. F. Ward, designated several weeks ago as a committee to pass upon prospective loans to farmers coming under the recent federal appropriation for that purpose, are being swamped with inquiries about the loan and the conditions pertaining to the making of application for loans.

To date these gentlemen have no information relative to the conducting of the office to which they have been appointed, and all inquiries are just so much confusion for them. However, they have been notified that a government representative will be in Amarillo Thursday of next week, March 10, to give the particulars of the loan possibilities, and they hope to be able to give out information within a day or two following that meeting.

BAD WEATHER REPORTED FOR TODAY AND FRIDAY

That the balmy weather of the past week or more has been deceiving is evidenced by the receipt by the Brand today of special telegraph weather bureau service announcing the coming of rain or snow with colder temperatures to be expected this evening and tomorrow.

Some times the weather man goes wrong with his predictions, and it may be that last night's freezing temperature will be all the cold snap will amount to.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF DEAF SMITH.

By virtue of an order of sale issued out of the Honorable 108th Judicial District Court of Potter County, Texas, on the 27th day of February, A. D., 1932, by the clerk thereof, in the case of H. P. ### TRADE EXTENSION EVENT BRINGS MANY SHOPPERS

The cooperative advertising effort of 23 Merit Merchants of Hereford who combined their bargains to make them of community-wide appeal in last week's issue of the Brand resulted in one of the best days of trade last Saturday the city has experienced for a long time.

The possibilities of cooperative sales were well illustrated last Saturday. Merchants were pleased with the volume of trade they received, shoppers were pleased with the values they found here in supplies they needed to purchase. The local business people are going to be pleased again because they sold high grade merchandise to folks who will find it dependable and will come back to them to trade again.

Nobody bought any prizes to give away, charging the cost to expense, and nobody bought any extra merchandise, spending money they needed for other things, thinking they might win a prize, and being disappointed and feeling they have been cheated.

The Trade Extension plan as carried in the Brand is a simple statement of worthwhile everyday needs presented in an understandable way through the people's own choice of circulation, and promotes a mutual confidence between buyer and seller no other means can approach.

And didn't they take advantage of the Brand's subscriptions for $1.00?

MRS. J. W. HARDING BURIED LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Harding was born December 13, 1881, and died February 26, 1932.

HOME MAKERS CLASS OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Members of the Home Makers class of the Baptist church pleasantly surprised their teacher last Thursday morning, each bringing a covered dish.
 The afternoon was spent piecing a quilt for a bazaar the class plans to hold this fall. The following enjoyed the occasion: Misses G. LeGrand, G. W. Clark, John Renfro, Guilbert Hooper, Ray Thompson, Jeff Robertson, B. E. Parrish, E. Speegle, R. E. McCullough, Edgar Sowell, W. L. Alexander, Louise Olson, Lovelady, and Miss Odie Matthews.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Nation were down from Amarillo to spend the week end with his sister, Mrs. J. Wallace Robinson and family. Mr. Nation is Post Commander of the Amarillo Legion and is interested in working in united programs.

RURAL SCHOOL TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Judge and Mrs. Earl W. Wilson entertained rural teachers and their friends at a get-together party at the Baptist church Saturday evening, with about 45 present. The pedagogues laid aside their dignity and seriousness and entered into the fun with a wholeheartedness that was good to see. A quartet composed of Messrs. Speegle, Biggs, Young and Robertson gave some splendid music, responding very generously to the encores.
 A list of 20 "brain teasers" seemed to indicate that along with the dignity that was laid aside went some of the keenness too, as but few made more than a passing grade in the five minutes time given to answer the questions—a fact that will likely rejoice the hearts of their pupils.
 Mr. Morris of Dawn, Mr. Edlmon of Summerfield, and Miss Chambers of Dawn assisted the Judge in engineering the "stunts" which proved very enjoyable to all.
 It truly was a happy meeting and was much appreciated by those who attended.

Seen On the Screen at the Star

Those who saw "Hell Divers" with its stirring war spirit the first of this week are still talking about it. While not new in any of its conceptions, the setting of the story and the popularity of its personnel made it one of the most attractive features Manager J. C. Parker has brought recently.
 The hilarious-minded are advised to see "The Passionate Plumber" in its last presentation tonight. Its chief charm is in showing off Buster Keaton, Jimmie "Schnozzle" Durante, Polly Moran and Irene Purcell, whose antics in humor are too well known to be commented upon. It is a strong cast for the purpose, and the characters do justice to their parts.
 The popular Richard Dix is the central figure in the play for Friday and Saturday's matinee and evening show, he appearing in "Secret Service," with Shirley Gray and Nance O'Neil. It is a story of the Civil War days dealing with the activities of a spy from the Northern army operating within the Confederate lines.
 Saving the best till the last, as usual, Sunday's 2:00 and 4:00 o'clock matinees will bring to Hereford the inimitable Will Rogers in one of his characteristic political gestures with its customary side-splitting humorous background. It will also show Monday. The name of the picture is "Ambassador Bill."

WEST TEXAS FEED AND SEED COMPANY BEGINS MIXING NEW FEEDS

In accordance with the announcement made in a news item last week, the West Texas Feed and Seed Company has this week put in operation a big mixer that scientifically compounds the ingredients of various poultry and stock feeding rations, using local grain products as the basis for them.
 The trade-marked name of the new feeds is "Just Right". The proportionate parts of the various feeds have been determined by experimental tests conducted over several years time and have proved successful for the purpose intended.

March 6
Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

John 13:1-15

1. Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own that were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2. And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him.
3. Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and goeth unto God.
4. Riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and girded himself.
5. Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
7. Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter.
8. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
9. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
10. Jesus saith unto him, He that is bathed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and ye are clean, but not all.
11. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
12. So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
13. Yet call me Teacher, and Lord; and ye say well; for so I am.
14. If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15. For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you.
Golden Text: The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Matt. 20:28.
Time: The triumphal entry, Sunday, April 3. Controversy and teaching, Tuesday, April 4. Retirement in Bethany, Wednesday, April 5. The last supper, Thursday, April 6.
Place: Bethany and Jerusalem.
Introduction: Six days before the passover Jesus returned to Bethany, the home of Lazarus and his sisters. It is now the beginning of the last week of his ministry. John, after telling of the Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem on Sunday and the coming of the Greeks on Monday, with the discourse that followed, hastens on to the events and the teachings in the upper room on Thursday evening before the crucifixion on Friday. The events of our lesson occurred soon after they entered that sacred room.

As John looked back over the long years to that never-to-be-forgotten night the one thing that hung like a halo over all that Jesus said and did, was his love. "Having loved his own he loved them unto the end." He loved them, in spite of their dullness and their spiritual failures.
The Upper Room in Jerusalem. The upper room had been prepared for the coming of Jesus and his disciples. There was the table about which the couches were arranged; there was the little table with the lamp; and over near the door the basin, a pitcher of water and a towel, put there for the washing of the feet of the group which would come in from the dusty streets. But there was no servant, and one of the disciples would have to perform the lowly duty of foot washing. We do not doubt that often one of them had thus served his Master and brethren. On this evening, however, none volunteered. As they entered every man went to his place, waiting only, perhaps, until the Master himself had reclined. None was in a mood for being a servant, since they had been disputing about who was greatest.
The Self-Seeking Disciples. Luke tells us that even in this last evening there was a contention among them as to which of them was greatest. "And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest."—Luke 22:24. A most lamentable and discouraging fact, but he loved them just the same. His own mind and heart were burdened by the knowledge that "his hour had come," he saw clearly the sufferings which lay just ahead of him, but he was not too burdened to teach and comfort those whom the Father had given him. They were on the brink of the darkest valley they would ever pass through; and he gave them his love's best gifts. So it was all through his ministry—just when they needed him most he was near. And so it has been all through the ages.
Jesus' Act of Humility. "Riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments." The immediate cause of our Lord's act of humility and service was undoubtedly the unworthy strife among the disciples—not the first that had occurred—as to which of them should have precedence in the kingdom of which Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and his popularity since had given them renewed hope (Luke 22:24-27). Very likely this strife was brought to a head by some foolish struggle for the chief seats at the table, those on the right and the left of Jesus. "And he took a towel, and girded himself." With the towel for a girdle, he fastened up his long robe out of the way. He waited till it was clear that no one else would do it, and then he did it himself.

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet. "Then he poureth water into the basin." A pitcher of water was ready as part of the arrangements of the room made in advance by Peter and John, and the usual large copper basin lay beside it. "And began to wash the disciples' feet." He began to wash them as they reclined on their couches at the low table, their bare feet stretched outward, away from the tables. "And to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded." How plainly do all these details mark the narrative as that of an eye-witness!
"We have a principle laid down; the same that the Romans referred to in the proverb, 'Service est regnare.' To serve is indeed to reign. Where will you find a nobler legend than that on the escutcheon of the Prince of Wales? 'I serve!'—Rev. David James Burrell, D. D.
"Christ had full knowledge of his glory and dignity, and in spite of that—nay, because of that—he emptied himself of his glory and took upon himself the form of a servant. What is the meaning of this to us? It means that here we have a sample of the divine life, and therefore a standard for all human life."—Prof. Hugh Black. "Service—that is the keyword for life, for Christ, and for all his followers. And mark, further, that it is service in order to cleanse."—Alexander MacLaren.
Peter's Protest. "So he cometh to Simon Peter." Something notable always happens when the narrative reaches this forthright apostle! "He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?" "The two pronouns, thou, my, stand together at the beginning of the sentence in emphatic contrast: 'Do thou of me wash the feet?'"—Prof. Marvin R. Vincent. It was characteristic of Peter to be the first to protest against Christ's act—and doubtless to be proud that he was the first to protest! This deed of Christ's gives us "The full substance of the gospel concentrated into a single lesson, the whole of practical Christianity in a single symbolic act."—Rev. George Whitefield Fisher.
"Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet." The negative is very strong, and is translated by Weymouth, Never while the world lasts shall you wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.
"Simon Peter saith unto him." He speaks with the impetuosity that marks all his appearances in the first three Gospels also. "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head." "To have no part with Christ—that was more than he could bear. It is as though he would say, 'A great part in thee! First of all, he had wished to differ from the others in not being washed at all. Now that he must be washed, he would be washed most of all. Ah, the subtle danger of wanting to be first, even in goodness!'—Prof. W. G. Kilmalle.

The Example of Jesus. Our Lord's words, verse 14:15, might be paraphrased: If I, whom you regard as your Leader and Teacher, am willing to be your servant, and in lowly ways, why, it follows that you, if you are to be my true disciples, must imitate me in humble paths of service, and especially in the path of self-sacrifice.
"For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you." "We should never lose sight of the fact that Christ is our pattern. We are called to imitate him. Some one has said, 'If you would become a painter, take the pencil and study Raphael; if you would become a sculptor, take the chisel and study Phidias; if you would become a poet, take the pen and study Homer; but if you would become a Christian, take the New Testament and study Christ.'
He gives us an example, and binds us down to that, only that by the closeness of our servitude our souls may expand."—Henry W. Clark.
"At the battle of Waterloo, Lord Hill pointed to a bursting shell and said to the Duke of Wellington,

"What are your instructions, and what orders do you leave us, if you are killed? 'Do as I am doing,' quietly responded the great commander."
Special Lesson. The Italians have a proverb: "There is only one way that goes upward, and it goes downward." "My Master's example teaches me to be willing to lay aside every thought of personal superiority, if I can do the humblest of my brethren good. If my brother needs it, I am, even literally, to wash his feet; but whether it be by washing his feet, or filling his hand, or drying his tears, or covering his infirmities, or forgiving his faults, or praying for his soul, I am to imitate my Lord's perfect loveliness and perfect love."
Methodist Church. Ernest E. Robinson, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 o'clock, subject, "Purpose", a sermon to young men. Preaching at 7:30 by Presiding Elder, Dr. L. N. Lipscomb. Special music at both hours. Young people's services at 6:30. Public cordially invited.

A Correction.

The general feeling pervading in our school today is that of sympathy and consideration for the different clubs and organizations. They are always being helped in one way or another. That is all very well. In fact, it is the only proper spirit. Have a number of individuals in the school who need help and sympathy been receiving it? On the contrary, no. Then let us give some of our attention to those people in lieu of so much to the same ones all the term.

LUETA BORDEN.

Junior-Senior Banquet.

The annual banquet given by the seniors in honor of the seniors was a crowning success this year.

The first impression on being ushered into the hall was that of a red and white fairyland containing brilliant lights, spotless tables, silverware and beautiful flowers.

The seniors had a merry time finding their places which were marked with placards bearing a small likeness of them in childhood days. On the opposite end of each placard was a small drawing in red ink of a senior. Other table decorations and utilities were tall red candles in crystal holders, big bouquets of red and white carnations at different intervals on the long tables, gleaming silverware, cute little red cups containing after-dinner mints, and a program. Mural and ceiling decoration and other bouquets of flowers about the room further carried out the senior colors of red and white.

During the delightful meal the program was given. Act 1 of the little drama pictured the seniors as they were 12 years ago at Central school. A very delightful effect was obtained by having a certain number of the little first graders parade around among the desks and then having Mr. Wilson announce the names of seniors they were supposed to represent. Act two was a talk on the present seniors four years ago in Hereford high school. Act three was the same body of students in more recent years. Act four was a talk, full of jokes, depicting the Juniors of 1931 and the place as anywhere. The epilogue followed the last act. In between times there was no act of the drama being presented or Mr. Hudson, the toastmaster was not talking. Heien

Griggs entertained with some delightful compositions on the piano. The three courses were served by efficient, unobtrusive sophomore girls who were dressed in little white and red aprons and caps. After the enjoyable repast had come to a close the seniors were given carnations of their preferred color. The exact number who were present is not known, but from all calculations there were 140 students and teachers served, not counting the junior mothers, who prepared the food, or the serving girls.

Install Odd Fellows Officers.

Visiting Hereford members assisting in an installation of officers at the Vega Odd Fellows Lodge Wednesday of last week were Cliff Hicks, Charlie Paddock, Frank Givan, Arthur Rogers, Jerry Keenan, Judge Earl W. Wilson, John H. Patton, E. E. Fridley, Dr. C. T. Kibbe, Harry Kibbe and Ira Wilkerson.

Code of Ethics.

Did any of you see that code of ethics for the occupational class in the Roundup last week?

You will have to admit that the code was splendid. Furthermore this school needs something of the sort. Well, don't you see the connection? What more is there to say? The code was fitting; we need the code. Answer: Let's do something about it.

Senior Play Chosen.

The committee for selection of the senior play is proud to announce its choice of "Meet Uncle Sally". The play books are now ordered and soon selection of the characters and practice will begin. Twelve characters, six boys and six girls, are needed for the production. It is with pride that we can say 30 members of the class signified their desire and willingness to participate in the play. Of course, not all can be used, but such cooperation is certainly appreciated.

Junior-Senior Banquet.

(From the Viewpoint of a Senior)
What a night! And what a banquet! Undoubtedly, every moment was enjoyed by the seniors, in whose honor the banquet was held. Good management, delicious food and superb entertainment reigned supreme. In fact, everything was perfect. The seniors appreciate to the fullest extent what the juniors, Mr. Wilson, their sponsor, the juniors' mothers and the sophomore girls, who served the banquet, did for them Friday night.

Glee Club Performance.

So the operetta went off with a bang! We probably made plenty of noise over it before last Friday night, but why shouldn't we? The cast and director feel well satisfied with their labors, both from a pecuniary and artistic standpoint, and it is hoped the spectators feel the same satisfaction from the performance. Here's for many and more frequent operettas!

Just Wait!

Perhaps most of you have heard of this football game that is going to be played this spring between the seniors and next year's squad. Nothing has been said about this yet, but just wait. The next year's team will look like a chicken dinner after the hungry hobo had finished it. After the game this spring. Considering the way that the coach has been talking he must think that he can defeat the seniors. O. K., Coach, talk as you may, you've plenty of competition. O. K., Next year's fans, get behind your team. We're 100 per cent behind ours. O. K., next year's team, get in there and play ball—you'll have to to hold our team.

THE SPORTS EDITOR.

Band News.

The band is to participate in the contests in Amarillo two weeks from Thursday. Mr. Smith is working hard to get the band in shape. We are going up there to win and hope to bring back the honors. The members of the band have been working hard to pass this six weeks because it was understood that they had to pass before they would be able to go to Amarillo. This morning Mr. Smith announced that it was not necessary to pass. It looks as if there is a nigger in the woodpile.

The band will be entered in class B. The first and second place winners are given a bronze tablet with the name of the band and the place won. The band is also thinking about entering the contest for a loving cup to be given by last year's judge, De Lucas, a one time baritone player with Sousa. He is considered the world's finest baritone player. The cup will be given to the band which plays best one of the numbers that De Lucas has written. After the contests on Friday there will be a mass band concert given. The massed band will be composed of all the bands entered in the contests. There will be a few from Hereford enter in the solo contests. They also hope to be victorious.

HOMER HENSLEE, Jr.

Right or Wrong?

Am I right, or am I wrong about this popularity contest. The seniors surely have a big cluck on winning, for I'd like to ask you if there is anyone in school more popular than W. B.? Any sane person wouldn't think so, and why is he popular? Here are five good reasons: He has a good word for everyone; he always does his best on anything he is asked to do; he never gets sore without a good reason; he isn't "stuck up" and he has a grin that just naturally makes you like him.

And then there's Lueta, the senior girl representative. I'd like to ask you something about her also: Did you ever pass her down town, at school, on the streets, or just anywhere when she didn't wave and smile? If you did, she must not have seen you. And, another thing, have you ever noticed that Lueta is popular with all the teachers as well as the students? Undoubtedly she is the most popular girl in the race. Come on, everyone, let's vote for the seniors.

New Captain.

The basketball girls met Friday afternoon for the purpose of electing a new captain for next year's team. Theda Lou Wilson was elected by a majority vote.

Theda Lou has played one year, is forward, and it is felt that she will be a better player next year than she was this year.

Everyone, as well as the team, feels that she will be capable of making a good captain and will lead her team to victory.

Appreciation.

Somebody is due a word of thanks. For the last three senior parties the town authorities have been generous enough to contribute the use of the band room in the city hall. The seniors surely do appreciate this kindness and take this means of expressing their acknowledgment of the favor.

Rev. Boutinghouse Passes Away.

Students of Hereford high school feel keenly the loss of their friend and pastor, Rev. Boutinghouse. While not living here at the time of his death, the beloved man had many friends and admirers among the student body, so it is with deep regret that the news was received.

'Hey! Hey!'

Whatever happened to that Girl Reserve movement? It was believed one was desired. Well, where's that spontaneity, initiative, enthusiasm, or what have you? Let's get busy! It is too late to organize one this year, but there's next year, and the next, and so on. You surely have to start things going this year so they will materialize by the next.

Pep Club.

The pep club met last Friday and elected new officers. They are: Mary E. Stanford, president; Theda Lou Wilson, vice president; Ruth Smith, secretary-treasurer; Nora Alice Daniel, reporter; Violet Marrs and Peggy Mitchell, co-captains.

Organization in the spring facilitates better work next school term. This practice is becoming very popular in high schools of the state and it is in keeping with the practice of the pep squad's customary policy of progressiveness. The club is also following the general trend of such organizations in preparing a constitution which will be placed on file.

Junior Health Club.

February 22 the Junior Health Club met. Our lesson was on Cleanliness of the Clothes and body. We try to meet every Monday, but sometimes it is not possible.

DONT CRY

By Pu-Kuky.
Mr. Wilson surely did get Mr. Dillehay's coat stuffed full of old paper, shoes, etc. at the banquet Thursday night.

Juniors, that banquet was a "dilly".

We wonder if Percy Harris had feather in his hair Thursday night.

We also wonder where Johnnie Womble got the gout.

We have been told that Mr. Wilson wasn't a gentleman. What?

Who said a tennis court couldn't be used for something besides tennis?

Pee Wee and Butch West have gone into the plumbing business. Call them to fix "it" at dial 132C.

It has been suggested that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Dillehay put their own names on their coats.

Wanted: A new theme song—
W. J. Fellers.

Why were so many gas lines, distributors, heads, head lights, etc., not working the night of the twenty-fifth?

Johnnie W. has got the "gout".

W. J. Fellers: "I'm going to get somebody told. How's this for an insult?" Y

Pee Wee: that ought to hold her for ever."

Jack Russell: "I'd sure like to know who?"

Some of the women of the town, town gossip, etc., would like to know some of the dates the banquet. Some examples are: Dogs, Marrs, Jim Allred-Mary Posey, Cartwright-Dixey, Milton (somebody, I don't know her name), Sherman-(That Foster girl), etc.

Why and who dropped two pies when the two Jacks, Climer and Piebus, ate at Pansy's?

As Cloyd said: "Cow had good manners at the banquet Thursday night, thanks to the book of etiquette from the library."

Miss Crawford: "Where are those bulletins that I issued the debaters?" Kellar: I think Sherman has one.

Ardelle: He must have; he hasn't anything else.

Ask Gaylord Newell where that loaf of bread and those milk bottles came from that were in front of the school house Monday.

Christene Fincher: What would you call it if you hit your dad on the head with a hammer?

Lucretia Wilson: A chip off the old block.

Old Man: What is worse than to be old and bent?
Harold: Young and broke.

Burl A. (a city boy, seeing a windmill): What do you use that for?
Elwin H.: To fan the cows.

They laughed when I sat down at the piano, but when I picked it up they fainted.

Louise Jowell: At the age of 17 I was left an orphan,
Lorean: Have you still got it?

Mr. Hudson: What is a hot dog?
Jones: A sausage in tights.

Customer: What have you in the shape of bananas?
Grocer: Cucumbers.
Customer: What's butter.
Grocer: Butter's butter.
Customer: I'm glad to hear that. I got some here last week that was all grease.

The girl friend, probably Dorothy Smith: What is a genius?
Rex Tynes: A guy who can pass Trig.

Twenty years from now. Lilburn: If a man steals, no matter what, he will live to regret it.
Mrs. Ray (sweetly): You used to steal kisses before we were married.
Lilburn: Well, you heard what I said.

We often wondered just where some mothers found out all the things they tell their daughters not to do.

Virginia Line: Can you tell me why it is that there are so many more automobile than there are railroad accidents?
Nancy C.: Sure, it's because the engineer of the train isn't always hugging the fireman.

The place was a church. The occasion was a wedding. The couple started down the aisle. The orchestra played, "Forward to the Battle." The ceremony was over. The orchestra played, "The Fight Is On."

Mr. Hudson: What did men use before the days of light?
Bud J. A lantern.

One night a man came home drunk and his wife wouldn't let him in, so he slept on the lawn. The next morning he awakened to find his wife glaring down at him from an open window: Shut that beastly window, he said, I'll catch my death of cold.

June A: Early to bed and early to rise, keeps your room mate from wearing your ties.

Pee Wee B.: Not drunk is he who from the floor can rise alone and still drink more. But drunk is he who prostrate lies, without the power to drink or rise.

Odella F.: Have you a yellow spool of thread on any of the machines?
Miss Parker: Yes; and do you know what that means?

Odella: No.
Miss P.: Three demerits, Miss Hicks: What would a whole spool mean?

Imp: Climer says the only time he ever gets crossways is when a certain person eats him out for having something to do with another? And when this happens a few times, and he gets tired of it and says something to this person about someone else, and then this person goes and tells what he said, but of course never tells about them doing the same. He says this sometimes causes friction.

Orr and Copeland seemed to like the faculty after the banquet.

Miss Crawford thinks Bud should be reported, or deported, to Paris to be a grand opera singer.

Milton: What is the coldest thing you can think of?
Copeland: Gandhi in a rumble seat.

Have you heard that the Austin cars are being made taller? Ask Butcher West why.

We wonder why Percy likes pie, especially the Pansy flavor, so well.
Question: Where was J. C. Mc. Saturday night. Answer: Censored by the press.

We noticed Gaylord N. has gone on a diet—bread and milk.
From the looks of the way those senior girls were trying to get dates for the leap year party, they adopted the motto, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."
Miss Westbrook announces that the search for her skirt need go no farther, for she has no time for wearing it.

Junior-Senior Banquet.

As the Juniors look at it: Since this banquet was the first to be attended by the juniors, we were anxious to go. Even if we did not know as much about etiquette as the seniors, we feel sure that we have all the important points that we will need next year. We really thought the seniors were dignified, but when the grapefruit was served they were tested beyond their endurance. We, who were not in Hereford high school when the seniors started to school hardly recognized them "as they were" they had improved so much. We also wonder whether they recognized their baby pictures or just did not want to do so. The juniors really enjoyed the banquet and enjoyed giving it.

There is only one thing that we would like to know: How did some of the juniors get carnations after the banquet?

Pie Supper.

Did you know there is going to be a pie supper soon? Well, you should start thinking about this right suddenly, and go to making plans to that effect. All you boys start going on a diet so that you can eat lots of pie that night, and you girls start hunting a recipe to tempt these boys' appetites and bank roll. The maximum price will be about $1, ranging from 25c to that price, so all you tight-wads don't be afraid of spending too much. The Athletic Association is sponsoring this event, and the money is to be used to buy football and basketball sweaters.

Let's join Hoover's organization and drag out that hoarded money to buy a pie. The Athletic Association needs the money and the U. S. wants it in circulation.

P. B. and another boy were having a fight; that is, the other boy was having the fight and P. B. was receiving the benefit. The other boy was beating P. B. up pretty hard and P. B. was making no effort to fight back. He was just standing there not even moving from his tracks. I naturally wondered why, and later I discovered that P. B. had been standing on a dime.

The entire high school extends its sympathy to Ruth Harding in her bereavement occasioned by the death of her mother last Friday evening.

Science Club.

Under sponsorship of Miss Wrenn, a new type of club has been organized, at present called the Science Club: La Verna Womble, secretary; James Cloyd, president; and J. C. McCollough, vice president, together with selected committees, have labored diligently until the club is well organized, its constitution and by-laws made, etc. Its maximum membership is enrolled and a social planned.

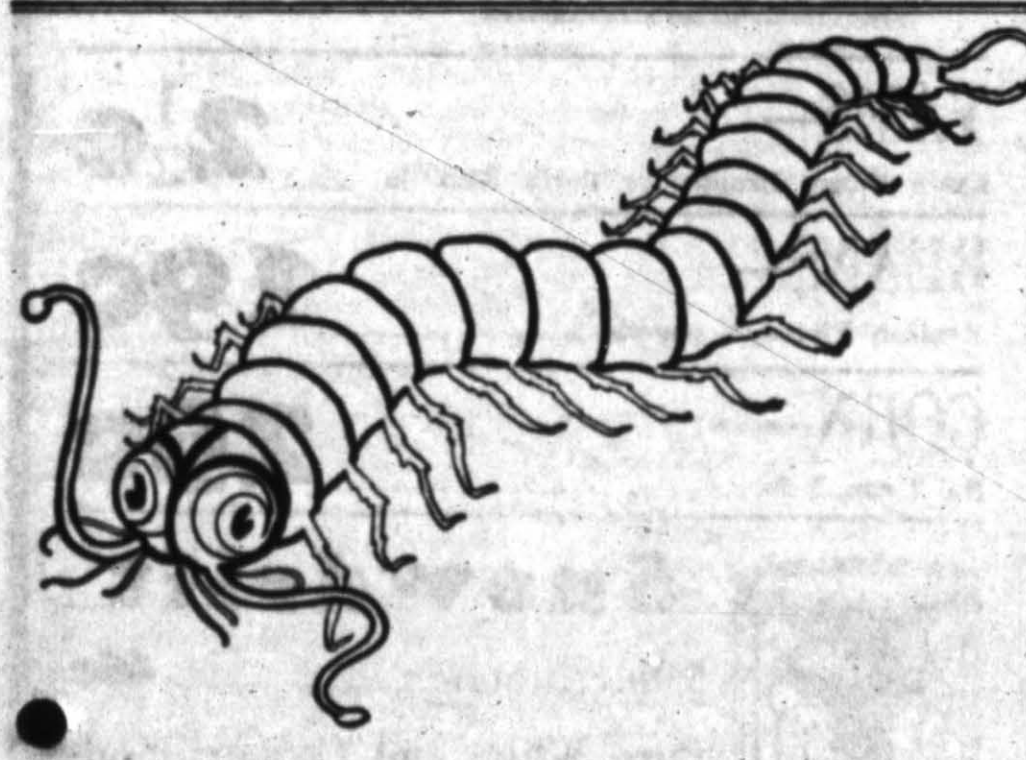

The purpose of the club is to develop further a scientific influence in the school and to increase the knowledge of those interested in science, in all scientific fields. In this way valuable and interesting scientific matter, which in the class period cannot be discussed may be obtained. Because the club is new, it is as yet difficult to determine its outcome, but every member is willing to work and eager to learn, and this combination will surely result in success.

MRS. MCCLENDON'S ESSAY

"Why I Like to Trade at Streu Hardware"

We young housewives strive for newness, quality and economy and these are all to be found when you visit the Streu Hardware.

The newness in the selection at Streu's will give any home-maker a delightful thrill. We each want a variety from which to choose, also to be sure that our choice is within the keeping of the times.

Quality is what every merchandise is based upon and we younger and less experienced women rely somewhat on our merchant's integrity. This is a safe way in which to purchase at Streu's. As a merchant of long experience, Mr. Streu has realized that his reputation is due to his knowledge of quality in merchandise.

Economy is a virtue these days as we have heard and we get a 100 per cent in return for every dollar spent at the Streu Hardware.

The personal interest they take in every customer and courteous manner of showing and selling makes Streu Hardware a pleasant and most pleasurable place to trade.

Watch For Mrs. Roberson's Essay Next Week.

We thank all contestants for their essays. All entries had many merits, but two disinterested judges selected these two for first and second awards.
