AROUND TOWN

Sights and Faces Seen

Allen Fowelson is admittedly the "hard luck" citizen of the past week. When he walked into the county clerk's office the other day to cast his absentee vote before leaving on a vacation trip, he was served immediately with a court subpoena.

Gaston Baer, when questioned about the vacation trip he started Monday afternoon, said: "Just say that I and my children are going north to cool off."

Installation of a new plate glass show window at Ireland's attracted considerable attention Monday.

Forest Minton is wearing a house shoe as a result of having stuck a nail in his foot.

A sign on a local door reads: "Gone to the mountains for air. Closed for the week." And this is election week, too!

Have you any old furniture that is of no particular value to you, which you would like to put to a worthy cause? Mrs. C. A. Skelton is desirous of securing some furniture for a needy family, one that is living in a home virtually without furnishings. A bedstead and chairs are especially needed. If you desire to contribute these articles, notify the relief office. The furniture will be picked up.

Prentiss Rossen and John Patton absolutely and unconditionally refuse to talk of their fishing trip. They won't even say where they went.

Bruce Plummer was in Mal Stewart's office Tuesday bragging on his tomatoes and promising to bring Mrs. some garden products soon.

A group of school children drove up to a local drug store in a school bus and requested—and received—curb service on drinks.

The county library was closed Monday morning because the floors had been varnished.

Perhaps the court house bunch is not as bad about borrowing matches as the Brand boys, or else just don't know about it, but a box of matches remains in the county judge's desk, left there by C. W. Humble.

Mrs. A. C. Barnhart and Ralph Smith traded houses last week.

One District Court Judgment

Only one judgment was returned last week in 60th district court in this area. The judgment was for plaintiff in the case of "The Wanda" vs. C. T. Kibbe et al. Activities were slow this week, awaiting another session of the grand jury Monday.

Juries commenced for next week, the fourth in the present term, are C. A. Hobbs, James Lovell, Cliff Johnson, Ernest Medford, R. L. Cavanaugh, J. J. Boring, H. C. Venable, G. D. Thomas, M. E. Bagwell, J. L. Light, Grant Fulmer, Arthur Edd, W. R. Rotay, Charles Williamson, Oscar Eastley, A. A. Foyler, H. R. Morrison, W. W. Bennett, Woodrow Ireland, Ray Barbee, E. L. Wilson, Glen Whitworth, T. J. Carter, E. D. Minsley, J. B. Sawyer, J. B. Stewart, Orlan Carroll, H. D. Reed, Wilson Oyles, Johnnie Biggs, W. A. DeWalt, E. H. Fitch, F. I. Morrison, W. E. Coffey and Geo. Ledford.

What Is Notable Here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hupp and son of Long Beach, California, and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Stark and son of O'Donnell, spent last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McGehee. Mrs. Hupp and Mrs. Stark are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McGehee. Mr. Hupp is an accountant for the Los Angeles City Building and Dry Dock Company, and Mr. Stark is the son-in-law of O'Donnell.

OFFICIAL WEATHER RECORDER READY

Friday was the hottest day in the history of the U. S. weather bureau here—not only the hottest, but it also was the first. The cooperative weather station atop the Brand office started functioning that day, and the mercury climbed to 105 degrees. It dropped to 64 degrees that night.

Actually, however, Thursday was the hottest day of the summer, the thermometer registering 107.5 at the West Texas Gas Company. Official records had not been started and that mark will not appear on the permanent file.

Rites Held For Mildred Turner

DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. L. M. TURNER DIES IN AMARILLO

Miss Mildred Turner, 25-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Turner of Hereford, passed away in an Amarillo hospital at 12:05 o'clock Sunday morning, following an illness that had extended over the past five months.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church, of which she was a member, at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. B. N. Shepherd, pastor. Interment was in West Park Cemetery.

Miss Turner was born on June 9, 1911, in Jack county, Texas. The family later removed to Floyd county, from where they came to Deaf Smith county in 1925.

Survivors include the parents, a brother, Henry, and three sisters, Catherine, Lodie and Emera.

Work Given Approval.

Local school authorities have added their statement of satisfaction to the expression of approval by the architects. Aside from the solid structural improvements, the building has been dressed up in outward appearance. New doors have been put in the front entrance, and exterior trimmings in masonry and woodwork have been planned to add to the beauty of the building. Plans for campus beautification are already mature, so that Central School is about to take its place among the better modern secondary schools in this section.

Plans for the machinery of the actual beginning of school are not entirely complete. Although no announcement of the faculty has been given, it is certain that it will be virtually the same as last year. The specific procedure of enrollment has not yet been made official, but instructions to students and parents will be issued soon. According to C. H. Dillehay, superintendent, a large enrollment is expected this year.

WORK NEARING FINISH PRAISED BY SCHOOL HEADS, ARCHITECTS

When the local schools officially open Monday, September 7, the new east wing and the entire old building space of Central School will be ready to accommodate students. The west wing will be completed shortly afterward. When it is finished, eight new class rooms will have been added to the old building and the entire structure renovated.

The new Central School is a completely modern brick and tile semi-fireproof building. Perhaps the major improvement over the old building is the elimination of fire hazards. The old auditorium, which has always been looked upon as a possible source of serious trouble in case of fire, has been torn down and the attic space it occupied eliminated by flattening the roof. A new roof of tar and gravel has been put on the entire building. New hardwood floors have been laid in the old portion, and the wings have concrete floors. The assembly room is now in the basement on a concrete floor.

Heating, Lighting Systems.

In addition to these improvements, heating and lighting systems have been installed. Heating will be by steam, and lighting efficiency has been doubled. All walls throughout the structure have been reconditioned and painted in a light cream. The corridors are light cream with a light brown wainscoting topped by a dark brown stripe. The inside trim in all classrooms and offices is in golden oak woodwork. On the first floor of the wings new metal lockers have been installed in the corridors, and new wooden ones on the second floor. The corridors have new balustrades, and every flight of stairs is of concrete. The walls have been studied in an attempt to get the maximum amount of lighting through the correct placement of light and the right color of paint. Windows have been changed and added in order to insure proper ventilation and natural lighting. A new clock and bell system also has been installed.

Rural Schools Open Sept. 7

EITHER 13 OR 14 WILL OPERATE IN COUNTY, USING 24 TEACHERS

Either 13 or 14 rural schools of Deaf Smith county will open for the 1936-37 term Monday, September 7. It has not been definitely decided if school will be conducted at Bippus or the pupils transferred to Walcott, in the same district.

Plans for the annual teachers' meeting at the county superintendent's office have not been completed. The session probably will be held on Tuesday, September 8, the day following registration of students, with regular school work getting under way Wednesday.

Only 14 teachers' contracts have been turned in to the county superintendent's office. Twenty-four teachers probably will be employed in the county. Others either have not been selected or have been chosen within the past week and their contracts not turned in. Messenger, Walcott, Wyche, and Ward are the only schools reporting full teacher strength.

The schools, teachers employed and number to be used are as follows: Messenger, Gullford Miller, Mary Louise Loyd and Edith Brookfield; Summerfield, Tandy Legg and one other; Walcott, Oline Ramsey and Mrs. W. B. Nafzgar; Dawn, Homer E. Barnes, Ruth Wolfe and one other; Wyche, Ethel Womble and Lucille Park; Ward, Agnes Bryant and Ellen Smith; Westway, F. W. Dodson and two others (Westway is reducing its staff from four teachers to three); Progressive, Ralph Early Arceneaux and one other; Daniel, 1; Fairview, 1; Ford, 1; Dean, 1; Heiselman, 1 and Bippus 1.

Attend Drouth Meeting Monday

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE TO PRESIDENT'S COMMITTEE FOR SECTION

County Judge Mal Stewart and Superintendent of Schools C. H. Dillehay attended the meeting of representatives of five southwestern states with President Roosevelt's drouth investigators in Amarillo. Judge Stewart attended a breakfast given in the visitors' honor.

The committee was gathering information for a long range drouth program, but was able to give out no definite information, Stewart said. However, he said the reports were assured that nobody in Washington is arguing on moving the people out of this country. "We hope to help make it profitable to live on the high plains," was the expression of the committee spokesman.

The Panhandle is wanting diversified farming in place of the one crop method, and is seeking financial aid from the Government to put diversification into practice. It is also possible that the Government might lease land that is left idle in order to protect nearby farms.

Two-Day Session To Be Held Here

The Tierra Blanca Missionary Baptist Association, comprising three counties, will meet at the First Baptist church here Thursday and Friday, August 27 and 28. Rev. E. M. Shepherd, pastor of the local church, announced yesterday.

Although figures were not available, it was believed a large number of visitors will be here for the two-day session. Besides the regular meetings at the church, lunch and dinner will be served there.

Sheriff's Race In Election Spotlight

ONE COMMISSIONER TO BE SELECTED SATURDAY IN 2nd PRIMARY

Approximately 1,600 Deaf Smith county voters will return to the polls Saturday to decide one county and one precinct race and to add their voice in two state contests in the second Democratic primary. One thousand, eight hundred and eighty-five votes were cast in the first primary.

The most interesting race for local people will be that of J. O. Newell, deputy, and J. C. Allred for the office of sheriff, tax assessor and collector. In the first primary, Allred led by five votes, with 397 votes going to a third candidate.

For the voters of Precinct 1 will be the decision of county commissioner, resting between P. J. (Jack) Rose, office holder, and S. O. Wilson. In the first primary, Rose led by eight votes, with 192 going to a third candidate.

Apparently neither of the state races will be close in this county. Ernest O. Thompson, state railroad commissioner, led four opponents by almost six to one in the first primary, and probably will hold such a margin over his run-off opponent, Frank S. Morris of Dallas. In fact, he needed only one per cent of the entire vote throughout the state to receive a clear majority in the first election.

With the exception of Cliff Day of Plainview, who received the heaviest local backing of any candidate for commissioner of agriculture, George B. Terrell was the favorite of local voters in the first primary. His run-off opponent is J. E. McDonald.

NEW PERMANENT WAVING MACHINE IS INSTALLED

A new permanent waving machine of the Jo-Van method has been installed in the Charm-Aid Studio and is meeting with approval of patrons, Miss Verna Culpepper, operator, has announced. The machine is used only to heat small metal clamps which are detached from the heater and placed on the head, Miss Culpepper explained. After a felt clamp and other accessories are placed on the head, the hair is put on rollers and the preheated fixing clamp is slipped on over the roll, to remain in position for one minute, she stated.

This method, Miss Culpepper said, reduces the time required to give a permanent wave by more than half.

TRI-STATE FAIR WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 21

With increased cash premiums, more exhibit space, better amusement features and added departments, the Tri-State Fair will open its 14th annual exposition September 21.

More than 4,000 catalogs, carrying a list of premiums amounting to approximately $30,000 and all guaranteed for payment in full, have been mailed. Since the first catalogs were issued there has been a heavy demand for premium lists. Copies may be obtained by writing to the Tri-State Fair.

FORMER TEACHERS HERE EMPLOYED IN OTHER SCHOOLS

Miss Edith Shields, former principal of Central School, has been elected principal of elementary grades in Carlisbad, New Mexico. It has been learned here.

Miss Ruth Houston, former home economics teacher in the high school, is to teach the same subject in Portales, New Mexico, high school.

AMARILLO WOMAN TO FILL PULPIT OF LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. McCann and daughter, Helen Leota, left Sunday night after church for Marion, Kansas. They will be gone for one month, during which time they will also visit in Sepulpa, Oklahoma, and Rev. McCann will conduct a revival meeting at Ponca City.

Sister Opal Wiley of Amarillo is to fill the pulpit at the Assembly of God church on Sunday during their absence.

Youth Drowns In Stock Tank

FALL INTO WATER FATAL TO LAD OF 18 MONTHS AT HOME TUESDAY

Little Roy Richard Hudgous, 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hudgous, drowned in a stock tank at the family home 30 miles west of Hereford early Tuesday morning.

He was rushed to the Deaf Smith county hospital where Dr. G. F. LeGrand applied artificial respiration for more than half an hour without results. The body was taken to Black's funeral home.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Assembly of God church, with interment in West Park Cemetery.

The youngster had followed his father to the barn, where Mr. Hudgous had gone to milk about 8 o'clock. In 10 or 15 minutes, as he started to return to the house, the father noticed the absence of his son, and discovered his body in the tank.

Another son ran a mile to notify neighbors, after the body had been recovered. Emergency treatment at the home failed, and the lad was rushed to the local hospital. Grief stricken, the parents were unable to give an account of what had happened.

Survivors include the parents and several brothers and sisters. The family came here from Wise county. Roy Richard was born here on May 18, 1935.

50 Books Added To Library List

Approximately 50 new books have been added to the Deaf Smith county library in recent days. Included in the group of several non-fiction works, 30 new western and mystery stories and 15 children's stories.

Heading the list are: Brand, Hunted Elders; Mitchell, Gone With the Wind; Fodrick, Pilgrimage to Palestine; Hitchcock, Manual of the Grasses in the United States; Miller, New Testament Church and Its Teaching, and Wiseman, Popularity.

New Store Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Smith of Slaton came to Hereford last week end to replace J. D. Saunders as manager of the S & E Variety store. Mr. Saunders accepted a position with the Kerr Paper Company of Amarillo.

W. M. EMMONS ATTENDING AGRICULTURAL CONFERENCE

W. M. Emmons, high school vocational agricultural instructor, left early this week for Lubbock to attend the Vocational Agricultural Conference for Area 1, which is in session throughout the week at Texas Technological College.

The regular conference work was to be completed in two days, with the remainder of the time given over to the Soil Conservation Service for a study of conservation practices and methods.

DUCK HUNTERS TO HAVE ONLY 30-DAY SEASON

Duck hunters will have a 30-day season this fall under what the Department of Agriculture announced as "rigid and drastic" restrictions, according to an Associated Press dispatch to member papers from Washington. Regulations will "continue stringent restrictions on the hunting of water fowl in order to cut down the annual kill."

Three zones were established for this season. Dates for the zones are: Northern, October 30 to November 3; Intermediate, November 1 to 30; Southern, November 26 to December 25. Texas is included in the southern zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hughes and daughters, Lucille and Allene, returned recently from a two week vacation trip in South Texas. While there they visited the Centennial and attended a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. A. P. Northern, in Irena, Texas.

S. J. R. NO. 3-a
A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an Amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas by striking out Section 20 thereof; providing for local option on the question of the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes; providing that spirituous liquors, or liquors composed in whole or in part of the products of distillation shall not be sold for private profit, except to the State; providing that the Legislature shall pass laws relative to the sale, possession, transportation and manufacture of such spirituous liquors; providing for the establishment of State dispensaries; providing for the manufacture, sale, transportation, and possession of all liquors which are exclusively products of the fermentation process; providing that intoxicating liquors shall not be manufactured, sold, bartered, or exchanged for beverage purposes in any county or political subdivision wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, until a majority of the qualified voters of such county or political subdivision shall determine such to be lawful at an election held for that purpose; providing for an election on the question of the adoption or rejection of such amendment and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and prescribing the form of ballot.

Be It Resolved By the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by striking out Section 20 thereof and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "Article XVI, Section 20:

"(a) It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State that the open saloon shall not be re-established. The sale of spirituous liquors, manufactured in whole or in part by means of the process of distillation and/or liquors compounded and/or composed in part of such spirituous distilled liquors, for private profit, is prohibited within this State except when such sale is made to the State. The State of Texas shall have the exclusive right to purchase at wholesale and to sell at retail such distilled spirituous liquors. Such sale shall be made only in unbroken packages and no such liquors shall be consumed on the premises where sold.

The Legislature shall pass laws to prescribe regulations relative to the manufacture, sale, transportation, and possession of such spirituous liquors and relative to the establishment of State dispensaries; provided, however, the Legislature shall have the power to regulate the sale for private profit and possession of distilled liquors for medicinal, scientific and mechanical purposes.
"The manufacture, sale, transportation, and possession of all liquors, the alcoholic content of which is entirely and exclusively the result of the fermentation process is hereby authorized under such restrictions as may be authorized by law.
"(b) The Legislature shall enact a law or laws whereby the qualified voters of any county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, may, by a majority vote of those voting, determine from time to time whether the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits; and such laws shall contain provisions for voting on the sale of intoxicating liquors of various types and various alcoholic content.
"(c) In all counties, justice's precincts or incorporated towns or cities wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication or any other intoxicants whatsoever, for beverage purposes, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in such county or political subdivision thereof voting in an election held for such purpose shall determine such to be lawful; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions thereof in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature."

1. I favor the establishment of a state utility commission to make possible the strict regulation of all public utilities.
2. I favor immediate payment of old age assistance with no further qualifications for applicants than those set out in the amendment, payment to be made from tax sources other than an additional tax on land or a sales tax.
3. I favor immediate ratification of the child labor amendment to the Federal Constitution.
4. I favor legislation forcing every public official to file a sworn statement stating his income and where he gets it.
5. I favor a severance tax on natural resources, an income tax on the higher incomes, and a tax on inheritances as future sources of revenue for the state. I am opposed to any further taxes on land. I am opposed to a general sales tax.

1. I am bitterly opposed to Panhandle people being forced to pay twice as much for natural gas as Chicago people pay for the same Panhandle gas.
2. I am absolutely opposed to our Old Age Pensions being handled by a mob of political hirelings who give one man $5 per month and give another $50 per month.
3. Abuse of child labor can only be stopped by federal law.
4. A public official should not be afraid to reveal any outside source of income.
5. Tax those most able to pay; tax huge incomes and inheritances; abolish taxes on homesteads.

Highly Infectious
 "Trench Mouth," known scientifically as "Vincent's Infection" of the mouth, is a germ disease and highly infectious. It became so common during the World War and incapacitated so many soldiers as to have earned the name of "Trench Mouth."
 "This disease is transmitted in the same manner as a cold; that is, by direct contact with the mouth of an infected person or indirectly through the use of insufficiently cleaned eating utensils, dishes, glasses and other articles that have been used by persons who have the disease," said Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.
 "While trench mouth may occur as a mild infection, it can, and often does, develop into serious illness. Neglect of the hygiene of the mouth and teeth makes the mucous membrane of the gums and throat a favorite breeding ground for the organisms carrying this disease. It can be prevented by keeping the mouth and teeth clean and in a healthy condition and avoiding the use of articles that may carry the disease germs.
 "The early symptoms of trench mouth usually include dryness and burning of the gums and throat. Later symptoms include bleeding and sore gums, bad breath and mouth ulcers. As any of these conditions may be due to some other cause, a dentist or the family physician should be consulted promptly. If diagnosis is made and treatment started early, it is possible to check this infection before it develops into a severe form."

DIPHTHERIA TOXOID SAVES CHILD LIFE
 Education of the public to the value of diphtheria immunization has resulted in lowering the incidence of this dread disease, but Texas still loses over 400 of its future citizens each year from this preventable disease, according to records in the Texas State Department of Health.
 "It is a generally accepted fact among public health authorities," Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer said, "that any community may control its death rate from diphtheria. Immunization has been proved a safe and effective preventive measure. Wherever immunizing treatment has been extensively used, diphtheria has steadily decreased.
 "The most forceful weapon in the control of diphtheria is prevention through immunization, rather than cure of the disease after it has developed. Children may be protected against diphtheria by the use of what is known as toxoid. Young children are particularly susceptible to the disease. Accordingly, as soon as a baby is six months old, the parents are advised to take it to the family physician and have it immunized—protected, by the use of toxoid. Older children in the family who have not had the protective treatment, should be immunized, too, and this should be attended to now before the school season begins. This immunizing agent is absolutely safe to administer; there is only a slight local reaction, and practically no constitutional or troublesome after effects. It confers a life time immunity in the majority of cases. To be certain that immunization is complete, however, the child should be taken back to the physician six months after the toxoid was administered and given the Schick Test.
 "It is within the power of parents of this State, cooperating with their physicians and public health departments, to eliminate diphtheria from Texas," Dr. Brown concluded.

JOINT RESOLUTION
 H. J. R. No. 9
 A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an Amendment to Section 26 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas, by adding thereto Section 26a, providing that under no apportionment shall any county be entitled to more than seven (7) Representatives unless the population of such county shall exceed seven hundred thousand (700,000) people; providing for the apportionment in counties of more than seven hundred thousand (700,000) people; providing for its submission to the voters as required by the Constitution and making an appropriation therefor.
 Be It Resolved By the Legislature of the State of Texas:
 Section 1. That Section 26, of Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended by adding thereto Section 26a, as follows:
 "Section 26a. Provided, however, that any county shall have a population of more than seven hundred thousand (700,000) people as ascertained by the most recent United States Census, in which event such county shall be entitled to one additional Representative for each one hundred thousand (100,000) population in excess of seven hundred thousand (700,000) population as shown by the latest United States Census; nor shall any district be created which would permit any county to have more than seven (7) Representatives except under the conditions set forth above."
 Sec. 2.  As the second primary approaches I am again asking for your support. We have experienced hard depression years together and we are still in an economic condition which will continue to bring critical years. I feel that my experience and familiarity with Government and County programs should be of more value now than before. Also, I would like to have the opportunity of completing a rural road program already planned.
 My personal business is so arranged that I can give 100 per cent of my time to the work of commissioner, if elected.
 Your Consideration Will Be Appreciated.

He shall, whenever sufficient cause exists, seek a judicial forfeiture of such charters, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, and give legal advice in writing to the Governor and other executive officers, when requested by them, and perform such other duties as may be required by law. "Sec. 21. There shall be a Secretary of State, who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall continue in office during the term of service of the Governor. He shall authenticate the publication of the laws, and keep a fair register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor, and shall, when required, lay the same and all papers, minutes and vouchers relative thereto, before the Legislature, or either House thereof, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law. ### AN IDEA WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION

A reader of the Brand made a suggestion the other day. The more we think and talk about it, the greater looms its importance. It certainly is worthy of consideration.

Every week from one to several persons from other sections come here to investigate irrigation farming in Deaf Smith county. We boast of our future in irrigation, and indeed this county has marvelous opportunities. To back these claims, we should have more concrete information. When the interested parties arrive, they should know where to get this information.

It was suggested that a survey be made of the irrigation plants in the county, the farms being shown on a map, along with roads, schools, possible future power and gas lines and present lines. In addition, a pamphlet prepared on the wells in operation, giving operating costs, etc., and estimates on yields as compared with results in general over the Panhandle.

The purchase of land for the purpose of establishing an irrigated farm should not be left to "shot in the dark" methods. It is too important. Prospects are prone usually to look upon the advice of real estate dealers as "sales talk" and often are not sufficiently impressed. Actual facts in black and white, gathered by an agency interested in the shallow water belt as a whole and not in particular tracts, would be far more effective.

Irrigation wells dot the belt. Such a survey would tend to more or less centralize new plants and more rapidly fill in the gaps between irrigated farms. With a long range viewpoint looking into the years when the area would be so thickly populated that the farmers could be served with electric power and natural gas, there are advantages to centralization.

We offer this idea to the chamber of commerce for consideration—as an opportunity to greater serve Deaf Smith county and irrigation!

RELIEF COMMISSION NOT IN CHARGE

The Texas Relief Commission, while handling referrals to WPA, is not in charge of actual certification or placement of workers. It is acting as a sort of case worker to obtain data on the actual need of those making application for WPA labor. Whether the referral is accepted or rejected, the TRC has nothing to do with the actual placing of applicants on WPA jobs—the TRC wants that plainly understood, probably because it doesn't relish the criticism that goes with failure of applicants to get work.

Apparently there will be considerable opportunity for such criticism. Texas' WPA quota is 81,000 persons, while there are 135,000 now certified, and it is anticipated that an additional 50,000 will be accepted under modified ruling, which says the only basis upon which eligibility is regulated is the basis of need. In addition, much concern is being expressed about the future of more than 400 WPA projects in Texas, for which no allotment was made. Allotments went to states listed as "doubtful" in the November election. There is no doubt about Texas. That is politics. It is the same whether it comes under the head of Democratic, Republican, Townsendsm, or what have you.

NOT ENOUGH MONEY

Statisticians have figured every angle of the Townsend Plan of paying all aged persons $200 a month. There is only one answer they could find. There is not enough money in the land to finance $200-a-month pensions. They also have decided that the ultimate cost of an ordinary suit of clothes under the transaction-tax system offered by the Townsend Planners would amount to considerably more than the monthly pension.

Plans for obtaining adequate state aid for Texas public libraries formed the topic of major consideration at a recent session of officials of the Texas Library Association. It was decided to call upon Democrats of Texas at their forthcoming convention September 6 to adopt a resolution urging state aid for Texas public libraries. It is distressing that 66 per cent of the population of Texas is entirely without public library service, that 147 counties and 34 towns with more than 5,000 population are without libraries, and that there are only 58 tax-supported free libraries in the whole of Texas.—Tulsa Herald.

OUR CENTENNIAL LETTER

The letters of Mrs. G. M. Hudson are being printed in series in the Brand because of the interesting highlights they give on the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas.

Dear Mid:

This city is swarming with people, most of them headed for the Centennial. You have no idea of the immensity of this affair.

Street cars are jammed. They are slow transportation, but save bent fenders and ruffled tempers in getting to the Exposition.

After we had traipsed over the grounds awhile, we found the first thing we should have done was to go to the Conoco hospitality house for information. There we could have secured a systematic plan for seeing everything to the best advantage. This house is located to the left of the entrance and east of the administration building. It is a white and green Colonial type building that radiates the graciousness and hospitality of the South. You may rest out doors on verandas or inside where it is air-cooled and cozy, with rest rooms and lounges. There is a free travel service bureau where they help you plan automobile trips, working out details like where you will sleep and how much it will cost.

Mid, you've heard a lot about the Esplanade of State. Well, we got a grand view of it. As you stand at the west end of the promenade that surrounds the pool, and look toward the Texas Hall of State, the magnitude of this thing they call an Empire on Parade surely does impress itself upon you. You can look at the massive stately along the Esplanade and be sure that Texas does things in grand style when she celebrates.

The Esplanade, rectangular in shape, is 500 feet wide and 1000 feet long. In the center is a reflecting basin 70 feet wide and 700 feet long, fed by fountains at each end. The cool blue-green of the pool offers a temptation to children to go wading. What couldn't the kids of Hereford do with a pool like that! It is pretty, even in the day time, but at night it is gorgeous. Then its surface glows with changing lights of many colors which play from pool to buildings and back. The source of light is concealed and that makes the sight much more beautiful.

Flanking the Esplanade are several of the finest exhibit halls of the Exposition. They are expressive of the architecture of Texas and the Southwest. At the east end of the promenade stands the Texas Hall of State. On the left, running the length of the Esplanade, is the Hall of Travel and Transportation. It is several buildings, designed to appear as one. On the right is its complement, the Hall of Varied Industries, Electricity and Communications. Each building has two deep bays, dedicated to the four sections of the state, in which are growing plants common to each section. There are three porticoes on each side. Each has a center niche 50 feet high containing a stative symbol of one of the six phases of Texas history.

Everything was so overwhelming to us from the wide, open spaces we got mixed up and saw what we wanted to when we wanted to. The Hall of Varied Industries offered a retreat from the heat, so we went in. At the top of the hall, we went in. At the top of the hall, we went in. At the top of the hall, we went in.

resistance. The Czech-Slovakians had a counter as well as an exhibit. I couldn't read their ancient Bibles and papers, but I take off my hat to their ability as wood carvers. They had a case of tiny wooden plows and other tools showing the development of farm machinery. In a curtained alcove life-sized wax figures modeled the native Czech costume.

I must have looked embarrassed when I tried to get a drink at the fountain in the Electric building. There are several fountains that have no gadgets to squeeze when you want a drink. They are controlled by obscure little pedals near the floor. I fiddled around trying to find them, when all of a sudden I bent over enough for one of those new-fangled electric eyes to get a good look at me and I certainly got the drink!

Yours, MADGE.

Miss Ruth Conkwright returned home last Saturday night after an absence of six weeks. She has been in Chicago visiting relatives and studying music. Before coming back to Texas, she made a short visit to Kentucky.

Weed Growths Health Menace

Texas has been fortunate this year in having beneficial rains in many parts of the state during the summer months. The rains, however, have made the weeds grow faster and left water standing in secluded places and has created an unsightly and insanitary condition in many places.

"While many places are well kept, there are some individuals who do not realize the necessity of keeping the weeds down and eliminating the standing water so that mosquitoes cannot breed," said Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer. "An appeal to the civic pride of the citizens in a community will often result in a clean-up campaign with astonishing results. Each individual can help by inspecting his premises to see that all nuisances are eliminated. "The inspection for conditions which might need correction should include weeds and long grass which spring up almost overnight this time of year; cans and other rubbish which might furnish a sufficient amount of water for mosquitoes to breed; inspection of fish

Undergoes Operation

It has been learned that J. Cronin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cronin, formerly of Hereford, underwent an operation in an Amarillo hospital recently.

A blade of grass was removed from his throat. His condition was reported fair, although it was possible another operation might be necessary.

Mrs. Ezra Norton and Mrs. Vera Witherspoon were Amarillo visitors Monday.

CAUGHT IN THE WILD

ROBERT JAMES BENNET

The millionaire frowned. "Don't call that murderous hound a friend of mine. His shooting you is understandable. My wounding was of course what he claimed—sheer accident. But for the scoundrel to abandon a helpless girl to starvation! If he was too cowardly to dare her frenzied threats and forcibly take her and me with him in the canoe he could at least have had the plane come for us."

"If you care for my guess," Garth said, "he was more interested in your daughter as an heiress than as a woman."

"No guess about it. A cold-blooded rascal who would have murdered you for your claim! I'll run him down and make him pay in full for deserting Lilith and me, if it costs a million."

"His punishment will cost you nothing, Mr. Ramill. He has been trapped by his own greed."

"Trapped?"

"Before we came aboard, word was received by radio that a man named Huxby had recorded a platinum placer claim at Fort Smith; that he had bought a large airplane, and flown north with three miners."

Mr. Ramill looked his doubts. "I've heard nothing of it."

"Because I thought best for you not to."

"You! Do you mean to tell me that everyone on this steamer kept mum because you, a mere prospector—? The millionaire paused. "Have I been blind? You are not a common prospector! There's something about you... in spite of your vagabonding about this North country!"

Garth said: "We are talking about Huxby. I've radioed for a Northwest policeman to meet me at Simpson with a plane. The charges are robbery and assault to murder."

"Radioed? The skipper told me his transmitter was out of order."

"By my request, sir. I thought it as well to keep you out of the affair. It is possible Miss Ramill may have recovered from her resentment against him. I'll ask you to pardon my going to see if there are any more reports on Huxby's movements."

Though by no means curt, the dismissal was abrupt. Mr. Ramill stood pondering for several moments before he returned to his cabin and went to the door of the stateroom that the Fort Norman missionary's wife shared with Lilith.

Some time before the steamer nosed in to the landing, Garth made out that the pontooned plane afloat at the waterfront was too small to be one of the regular Ballanca transports. It had no cabin, and only three seats. Foremost of the passengers ashore, he at once climbed the bluff to the post.

As he expected, a red-coated constable of the Northwest police was lounging in the old trading post storeroom with one of the Airway pilots. The latter sprang to meet him.

"Hullo, 'Lan—you d-d lame duck! Helluva note, you squattering in the wet. Could've cruised your frozen hell a hundred times in any old crate."

Garth gripped hands with him. "Lo, Kiwi! I didn't happen to be after airpockets. There are things you have to rub your nose against to see."

Garth sobered to business. "What news?"

"Your man set his bus down here three days ago. Hopped off PDQ with all she could heave up under—gas and oil."

The constable had stood at attention. He met Garth's glance with a salute. "All right, sir!"

"Good work, Dillon. One question—those three miners?"

Broke prospectors, sir. Records, far as known, not savory. But none of the bunch is wanted, and they are not newcomers from across the border. They'll know enough not to interfere when I take my prisoner."

The post factor came hastening in to shake hands. "Pardon my absence, Mr. Garth. Was up to Llard. It's a great pleasure to have you stop off with us. If you plan to take in dogs, I have a picked team that I'd be honored—"

"Thank you, no," Garth cut in. "But I would like a rifle, rabbit undersuit, winter moccasins, gloves and three pairs of webs."

He went into a bunkroom to put on the rabbit-fur suit under his buckskins. When he came out, a girl in a plain, ill-fitting gown stood talking to the pilot. The pilot glanced towards him. The girl turned quickly. He found himself face to face with Lilith Ramill.

Yet it was not the grease-and-pitch marked face of his canoe companion. Nor was it that deep-lined rouged and powdered face with scarlet-smear lips that had sneered at him on Tobin's wharf. It was a face smooth and firm, vivid with life and vitality. Only the blue eyes were hard.

"Alan Garth," she said. "I've learned all about it. You're going back there—after him!"

"Sorry, Miss Ramill. It's not revenge, if that's what you think. I tried to spare you. But if you must have it, he's a thief."

The girl's eyes flashed. "Worse! He's a cowardly murderer. That is why I too am going to see him taken prisoner."

"You?"

"Yes. I'm going to see him cringe, the sneaky beast! Do you think I've forgotten how he crept up and shot you when you were not looking? And what if he did not intend to shoot Dad? He left him to die. If that's not enough, must I tell you how he taunted me?"

"Yet that's no reason why you—"

"It is! If you refuse I'll tag after you in another plane."

Garth studied her gravely. She stared back at him, hotly defiant. He pretended to accept her reasons for wanting to go:

"You most certainly are a good hater, Miss Ramill. One thing, though. The valley is about to freeze up. It will not be the summer paradise we left. We may land in a blizzard."

She looked around the store. "Where are those Eskimo suits you told me about?"

At that he smiled a bit grimly. "This is Indian country. You shall have rabbit and buckskins." He turned to the factor: "Add the lady's outfit to my account." To the pilot: "Kiwi, this is where you are to fit your name. You're going to be a wingless ground bird."

"Oh, have a heart, 'Lan!"

EMERGENCIES part of the day's work

A telephone operator in a small Southwestern town did these things on a recent busy day:

She called a doctor for a distracted mother whose baby was ill. She helped locate a barge so a farmer could save 37 head of cattle on an island about to be flooded. She handled a call that rushed workmen to strengthen a crumbling levee. And she told an anxious motorist that the highway to the west was still above water.

To her, this was all in the day's work.

Some other things that are "all in the day's work" in the Bell System are the staff work of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., the researches of Bell Laboratories, the skillful manufacturing and buying of Western Electric.

You seldom think of these organizations. Yet without the help they give to the men and women who furnish telephone service here, it would be difficult to make that service as fast, as clear, as far-reaching, and as low in cost as you have learned to expect.
