Powell To Criticize Stories

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) - Jody Powell, the press secretary for President-elect Jimmy Carter, says he plans to let White House reporters know when he thinks their stories are wrong or unfair.

He says if criticism intimidates the reporters, "they're in the wrong business."

Powell, who has never been in the news business, also says he'll use his position as a Carter insider to prevent staff competition from getting out of hand and to assure that Carter receives more than one point of view on controversial issues.

Toll Charges Considered

SEATTLE (AP) - The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. is formulating plans to apply a system of toll charges to all local phone calls nationwide by 1980, a published report said today.

In a copyrighted article, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer said the phone company "has quietly moved through the initial stages" of the plan to eliminate unlimited local calls allowed under the flat-rate system in many areas.

The newspaper reported that "secret" AT&T documents said the flat-rate system would be replaced with a unit-pricing method that would mean a charge for each call, taking into account the length of the call and distance between stations.

Board Called "Cowards"

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Gary Mark Gilmore, calling members of the state pardons board "cowards" and daring them to execute him before a firing squad, says that if they refuse "they should let me go."

Gilmore was to appear before the board today for a review of his sentences for killing a motel clerk.

"I will ask them to simply accept the sentence given to me by the judge, jury and the Supreme Court, and I hope to make this clear to them," Gilmore, 35, told a Salt Lake Tribune reporter in an interview.

One unlucky man and a very happy lady exemplified the high points at the bi-monthly Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce "Fun Breakfast" held this morning in the Hereford High School cafeteria.

The event serves as the only membership meeting for chamber members besides the annual banquet. It commenced with Rev. Dewitt Seago, Kings Manor chaplain, leading the invocation.

THE HAPPY LADY was Marie Griffin, part owner of Carnahan and Griffin Realtors, as she was awarded the honorary Hereford Bull Chip Award by Speedy Nieman, The Hereford Brand publisher. She was honored this year as the Realtor of the Year and has participated in the Hereford Heart Association fund drives among other civic activities.

In presenting the award, Nieman said humorously that Mrs. Griffin represented two groups claiming discrimination in the selection of the award honoree. They include the women's liberation and local real estate professionals, who Nieman said represented a large segment of the population here.

The unlucky individual was Larry Wartes, assistant superintendent of schools, as he missed out on $350 which was the prize of a cash drawing among chamber members present. He was not present and needed to be in order to win the money.

In other drawings at the early morning breakfast, Rev. Seago received $75 in silver dollars and Calvin Jones of Holly Sugar won $25. These drawings were open to anyone present.

AS USUAL, IT WAS FUN and games for those attending as the Hereford Merry Mixers provided square dance entertainment before and during the meal. They were individually introduced by leader Ed McCreary.

Emcees Lynton Allred and Doug Manning treated the 200-plus person crowd to zany monologues as they conducted the ritual games. This time, participants had to eat peanut butter crackers and whistle in one game. In the other game, teams had to race each other by stepping on two pieces of newspaper contestants had to place in front of them as they headed toward the finish line.

Winners received jars of Deaf Smith County Peanut Butter in the first game. In the second game, winners received transistor radios and losers got record albums.

A special recognition was held when Clint Formby of KPAN Radio, the breakfast sponsor, narrated an interview he conducted with Manning, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hereford. It was a tribute to a breakfast emcee. Formby recorded the interview by phone earlier and asked questions such as what Manning thought of dancing, what he felt about the chamber, and how he was received here as a pastor. The answers were characteristically funny and involved poking fun at Manning's emcee partner Allred.

DURING THE BUSINESS announcements, Chamber president Donald Hicks introduced new members and thanked KPAN for sponsoring the event.

Clete Corlis of the Hereford Lions Club said that the annual Coat and Shoe Fund Drive for Girlstown was being sponsored with an initial donation by the club of over $500. Donations are being taken at the following address: Girlstown, P.O. Box 414, Hereford, Texas, 79045. The goal this year is $8,640.

Joe Shollenbarger, the new chamber president, announced that the organization's annual banquet was set for Jan. 13 in the Bull Barn with George McKinney

VDF Auxiliary Ready For Hunters Breakfast

The Hereford Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary will hold its annual Pheasant Hunter's Breakfast from 4:30-7:30 a.m. on the opening day of pheasant season, Saturday, December 11.

A special auxiliary committee is currently ordering the fixings necessary to serve the huge crowd of area hunters who start off their season each year with the pre-dawn breakfast.

According to Mrs. Jay Spain, this year's menu will include scrambled eggs, ham, biscuits and gravy and coffee.

Price of the "stick-to-your-ribs" breakfast will be $2.50 per plate.

The meal will be served in the Hereford High School cafeteria.

All proceeds garnered from the breakfast will be utilized by the auxiliary for the benefit of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department.

"When we first launched this project, it was strictly a fund-raiser, but the breakfast has become quite a tradition with a lot of folks and is a good public-relations project for us now," Mrs. Spain explained. "We serve lots of local folks at the breakfast, but there are also a lot of out-of-town hunters who really enjoy it," she added.

Republicans To Draft Party Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) - At President Ford's suggestion, Republican leaders are drafting plans for a new policy panel to guide the party and speak on the issues after Democrat Jimmy Carter moves into the White House.

A Republican source said Ford has indicated he would take an active role in such an operation, patterned on the party committee that set and spoke policy a decade ago, during another GOP rebuilding effort.

Mary Louise Smith, the resigning national chairman, told Republican governors Monday that she is exploring the possibility of setting up "a policy committee of Republican leaders whose specific task would be to harness ideas and set directions."

That was the concept of the Republican Coordinating Committee, which chartered GOP policy when Lyndon B. Johnson was president.

It included congressional leaders, including Ford, governors, former presidential nominees and other party officials, and spanned GOP ideology from right to left.

That was not the only familiar formula advanced on Monday as GOP governors, only 12 of them surviving, discussed the Republican plight and future. Their two-day meeting winds up today.

The governors and other party leaders spent Monday talking of broadening GOP appeal, shelving ideological disputes and turning to a master organizer to lead rebuilding efforts for the next election.

In similar circumstances 12 years ago, their predecessors settled on much the same prescription.

County Allows $3,000 For Kids Inc. Project

The Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court awarded an even $3,000 to Kids Inc. for its proposed four-diamond baseball-softball recreation park at a special meeting called early Monday.

With all commissioners present, the court agreed to the appropriation after little discussion by four Kids Inc. representatives present. They included Chuck Cosper, president, and board members Jerry Don George, Harold Wheeler, and Rusty Hendricks.

In a meeting last week, the commissioners decided to call a special meeting if the Kids Inc. could not obtain the needed local financing required for its $69,000 park. The organization had until Dec. 1 to receive commitments locally for matching funds which will be provided through a federal grant processed by the State Parks and Wildlife Department in Austin.

The grant will provide half the funds and the other $34,000 has to be committed from local sources. Already, the group has been guaranteed a $10,000 loan, has $8,000 cash, gained $13,127 from the Hereford City Commission and obtained $750 from the Hereford Lions Club.

The county already purchased a 30-acre tract of land on which the park will be built and commissioners felt earlier that the land buy was the proper amount the county needed to contribute. It cost about $24,000.

Not wanting to let the grant die for a lack of a few thousand dollars, commissioners said the court would appropriate the rest of the needed local revenue if it could not be raised from other sources. Since last week's meeting Kids Inc. gained the Lions Club donation and then came back to the court for support of the remaining funds.

The park will be used for the 1,100 Kids Inc. participants. The county bought the land on the basis that it would be used for community wide groups of varying recreational needs.

Possession Charges Filed

A local man was arrested for possession of marijuana and two juveniles were arrested on theft charges in connection with incidents which occurred here over the weekend.

Eldon Ray Casey, 20, of Hereford, was charged with possession of marijuana Sunday morning at Big Daddy's Truck Stop.

According to a police department spokesman, officers were called to the scene to check out a report of public intoxication and made the drug arrest after checking out a car occupied by Casey and Curtis Barton, 20, also of Hereford.

Barton was charged with public intoxication, and both men were arrested shortly after 3 a.m. Sunday.

Two juveniles were arrested Monday following the report of a theft from the Lil Charro Too cafe here over the weekend.

Paul Abalos told officers that 30 silver dollars and $43 worth of half dollars were taken in the theft, which occurred sometime between Friday night and Sunday.

Choir Performs

The HHS Choir under the direction of Don Moore, entertains at a downtown rally of people observing the official opening of the Christmas season here Monday. Donald Hicks, president of the Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce, dedicated the beginning of the season as the HHS Band joined the choir in entertainment. Santa arrived shortly thereafter on a Hereford Volunteer Fire department truck. Sessions were held also at the Gibson-Safeway Shopping Center and Sugarland Mall.

Santa Arrives

A lone straggler gets his candy from Santa Claus, who arrived in Hereford Monday night for the official opening of the Christmas season here. Many more kids swamped Santa as he arrived at the Sugarland Mall. Donald Hicks, president of the Chamber of Commerce, dedicated the season commencement. The Hereford High School Choir and Band performed for those present.

of Texas Power and Light invited as the guest speaker. The theme is "Staying Free In Century 3."

Mrs. Mary Sledge and Mrs. Wanda Spain announced that the Women's Auxiliary of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department was hosting a breakfast for area pheasant hunters from 4:30 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. Dec. 11. See related story in the issue.

Mrs. Georgia Sparks, president of the Women's Division of the chamber, said that a membership meeting of the group was slated for Jan. 18 at the Hereford Country Club. The Woman of the Year will be named and honored then besides the completion of other business.

Mrs. Lavon Nieman, chairman of the Miss Hereford Pageant, said plans for the event were progressing but that support was needed.

AMONG OTHER announcements, Jeff Morris, local, Boy Scout district executive, said that Scouting here was growing; JoAn Dwyer, executive director of the Hereford Big Brothers-Big Sisters, said the group was an important part of developing youth here; and Mrs. Marie Griffin, Hereford and Vicinity YMCA board member, sought backing for the newly formed organization which has already sponsored several athletic programs since last summer.

Also, it was announced that the Christmas lighting Contest was planned for Dec. 16, the Kiwanis Christmas tree sales project was in progress at the Gibsons-Safeway parking lot, and the HHS basketball program needed support from the community.

The HHS cheerleaders served and led a cheer at the breakfast.

Residents Respond Generously After Family Loses Home

A generous response from local residents made things a little brighter for a local family this week after they lost all of their possessions in a fire here over the weekend.

A fire at the Grand E trailer park destroyed a mobile home owned by the Gary Drerup family Saturday.

All of the family's clothing was destroyed by the fire, and the outlook was dismal for Drerup, his wife, and their two and four year old daughters.

But donations of clothing poured in early this week, and the local Red Cross reported that more than enough clothing had been gathered for the family by Tuesday morning.

New Food Outlets Revealed

Taco Patios -- which have become both a familiar and popular group of Mexican fast-food eating establishments throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex in just the past five years -- soon will be moving west.

Having now acquired the West Texas and East New Mexico franchise for Taco Patio restaurants, 38-year-old L.B. (Barney) Chapman II of Fort Worth -- already the nation's largest private owner-operator of Dairy Queens -- is set to be the Taco Patio "go-west, young-man" mover.

Encompassing 114 counties of West Texas and 13 of East New Mexico, the new Chapman Taco Patio franchise area has a current population of more than two million persons with its now six-year-old 1970-census figure actual total having been 1,943,095. Included are 157 cities and towns of more than 1,000 population for which Chapman now has the exclusive rights to provide them with Taco Patios.

Among these are 30 of 10,000 or more -- Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, Borger, Brownwood, Del Rio, Dumas, Eagle Pass, Gainesville, Hereford, Kerrville, Lamesa, Levelland, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, Pampa, Pecos, Plainview, San Angelo, Snyder, Sweetwater, Uvalde and Wichita Falls in Texas and Carlsbad, Clovis, Hobbs, Las Vega, Portales and Roswell in New Mexico.

To begin his Taco Patio operations, Chapman has organized Taco Patio of West Texas, Inc. He is this company's chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer.

Ann Landers

Measure Yourself

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Several years ago you printed a definition of "class." I cut it out and reread it from time to time, measuring myself (as objectively as I could) to see how I stacked up.

I mislaid the clipping a few months ago and now I feel the need for some self-reassessment. Will you please hunt up that column and run it again? Thank you in advance. -- Measuring Myself In Atherton, Calif.

DEAR ATH: Glad you asked. Perhaps others who see it for the first time will also "measure themselves."

WHAT IS CLASS?

Class never runs scared. It is sure-footed and confident in the knowledge that you can meet life head on and handle whatever comes along.

Jacob had it. Esau didn't. Symbolically, we can look to Jacob's wrestling match with the angel. Those who have class have wrestled with their own personal "angel" and won a victory that marks them thereafter.

Class never makes excuses. It takes its lumps and learns from past mistakes.

Class is considerate of others. It knows that good manners is nothing more than a series of petty sacrifices.

Class bespeaks an aristocracy that has nothing to do with ancestors of money. The most affluent blue-blood can be totally without class while the descendant of a Welsh-mixer may ooze class from every pore.

Class never tries to build itself by tearing others down. Class is ALREADY up and need not strive to look better by making others look worse.

Class can "walk with kings and keep its virtue and talk with crowds and keep the common touch." Everyone is comfortable with the person who has class -- because he is comfortable with himself.

If you have class you don't need much of anything else. If you don't have it, no matter what else you have -- it doesn't make much difference.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I don't know if you are a bridge player but I think you can give me some good advice whether you know the game or not.

Last night my husband Herb and I were playing with my sis and her husband. They are excellent bridge players and usually beat us but we enjoy the challenge nevertheless.

Herb has a habit of overbidding his hand and I have to watch him. Last night he made a reckless bid of six spades. All I said was, "Either you are crazy or I'm blind." He gave me a nasty look and snarled, "Why don't you just keep your mouth shut and play the hand?" We didn't make it and he was furious.

After my sis and her husband left, Herb said, "That dumb remark of yours cost us the game. I don't want to play cards with you ever again."

I believe I'M the one who should be angry -- not him. What do you think, Ann Landers? -- Grandly Slammed

DEAR GRANDLY: Card fights can produce a dandy climate for all sorts of battles -- unrelated to the game. I see 52 good reasons why you should never play cards with your husband. Throw in the deck -- permanently. ***

A no-nonsense approach to how to deal with life's most difficult and most rewarding arrangement. Ann Landers' booklet, "Marriage -- What to Expect," will prepare you for better of for worse. Send your request to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 1400, Elgin, Ill. 60120, enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Invitation Extended To View Pageant Film

A special invitation is being extended to possible Miss Hereford Pageant entrants to view films of last year's pageant at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday in Hereford High School library.

Sarah Clark, chairman of pageant entries, will be present to sign contracts with prospective entrants and will offer additional information to those with questions. There is no obligation to enter the pageant by attending Wednesday's film.

Wynelle Robinson, pageant director, stated that now is the time for any young woman in Deaf Smith County who qualifies to decide if she wants to enter the March 12 pageant.

She announced that a $500 scholarship will go to Miss Hereford 1977 with a $300 scholarship allotted for the first runner-up and a $100 scholarship for the second runner-up. A $50 school grant is planned for the talent winner in the Miss Hereford division.

To qualify, a woman must be between the ages of 17 and 28 as of Labor Day and must never have been married. Applications are available at the Chamber of Commerce office and individual women must submit their own names as entries.

Talent is the main criteria to be considered by pageant judges and each contestant should possess some quality of talent, either trained or potential. Mrs. Robinson stressed that no young woman must necessarily be trained in any specific field.

Talent, personality, poise and beauty are the major requirements in entering the pageant. Each contestant will be judged in private interviews and "On Stage" personality, in swimsuit and talent.

In urging civic and social organizations to sponsor candidates, Mrs. Robinson said each member of the organization should consider young women they know personally and encourage these acquaintances to enter the upcoming pageant.

YANKTON, S.D. (AP) -- Three dozen cookies and a loaf of banana bread brought Alice Kingsbury back home.

Recently, Dr. Kingsbury's portrait disappeared from the hall that bears her name on the Yankton College campus. On the desk below was a note: "Please deposit three dozen cookies and one loaf of banana bread on Observatory Hill this evening and the picture will be returned."

House Mother Alice Johnson followed the instructions and the hungry kidnapers kept their word. Mrs. Johnson says the portrait will be hung a little more securely, but as a precaution she is doing a little extra baking.

At Wit's End

By Erma Bombeck

We have one child who is misunderstood... literally. From the day he uttered his first word, "bweaba" (meaning there's a rainbow around my diaper) to present day, no one seems to know what he's talking about.

I don't know why, but I'm the only one in the family who can translate. When he was a toddler, he stood for hours at his father's elbow shouting, "me no, na, noo noo" and his father would shrug and say, "What's he want?"

"Well, what do you think he wants?" I'd say irritably. "He's either telling us the dog hates cold spaghetti, he hates the encyclopedia we bought for him, or he just swallowed his pacifier."

"He is trying to tell you he dropped his cookie down his drawers. I mean, how dense can a father be?"

As he got older, things got worse.

"That kid had to have his mouth fixed," said my husband. "What now?"

"He just told me he has to know all of his bowels by tomorrow because the teacher is having an English elimination."

"He's always had trouble with his V's," I said. "That isn't all he has trouble with. If he goes around talking like that, they're going to put him in a class where he makes recipe holders out of wooden blocks and clothespins all day."

"All he's ever tried to do," I sighed, "is imitate the rest of the family and he doesn't know how to pronounce the words yet."

"I'll say," said his brother. "He told the whole bus the other morning that you were a syndicated Communist."

"And he told everyone his teacher had hubcaps put on her teeth so they would look better," said his sister. "And he told a client of mine on the phone the other night that I couldn't come to the phone because I was unapproachable. Really, something has to be done. At a football game the other night he yelled out, 'All we need now is one perversion and we win the game.'"

"What's the matter with that?" I snapped. "I told him myself one player had a mutilated separation in his shoulder and another was having trouble with his nymph gland and with the quarterback having a sensuous shoulder, we needed all the perversions we could get!"

You should have seen my family sit up and look at me. I guess it's because I don't lose my temper too often.

Herd Squads Test Levelland Tonight

The Hereford Whitefaces will meet Levelland tonight at La Plata gym as they warm up for the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Invitational Basketball Tournament which will begin here Thursday.

The Herd owns a 2-1 record coming into tonight's game, having beaten Amarillo and Dumas, while being beaten by Canyon by a single point.

James Mays has opened the season with a hot hand and is leading the team in scoring with a 21.7 average for the three games. Kelly Kitchens is currently second in scoring with a 14.3 average.

Backup help has come from Kenneth Mercer (9.0), Mike O'Rand (8.7), Jim Lawson (7.0), and David Schumacher (6.7).

David Arney (4.3), Larry Ritter (2.7), and Mike Oglesby (1.3) round out the team's scoring punch.

One thing that has pleased coach Barry Arnwine thus far this season has been the rebounding of the team. Mays, Mercer, Schumacher and Oglesby have been tough on the boards through the first three encounters.

The team's last scheduled game (Perryton) was postponed Saturday night due to heavy snowfall in the Panhandle, and may not be made up.

The junior varsity and sophomore teams will also see action tonight against Levelland, and both sport unbeaten records.

The JV has beaten Amarillo, Canyon, and Dumas, while the sophomores have won their only game of the season thus far against Canyon.

Action tips off tonight at 4 p.m. with the sophomore encounter. The JV contest will begin around 5:45 with the varsity game scheduled for 7:30.

NEW YORK (AP)—Pittsburgh, the nation's top-ranked football team, has been named winner of the Lambert Trophy and the East Indies Cup in recognition of its 11-0 regular season record.

Rutgers, also 11-0, finished second to Pittsburgh in the voting Monday for the Lambert, which goes to the top Eastern college football team.

"We wanted to run at them and that's what we did. We ran it straight up the middle," said Williams, who totaled 153 yards despite sitting out most of the last period with a sprained ankle.

"Our plan was to run the ball and to pass as little as possible, to keep the pressure off Scott," added Williams who, with 1,012 yards for the season, is within 37 yards of Joe Perry's team record of 1,049 yards, which has stood since 1954.

"The line doing the job it did made things easy," said Jackson, whose 30 rushes netted 156 yards.

Bull, in his first NFL start, passed only eight times and completed three for 32 yards. He appraised his performance as "good, considering the game plan."

With their running success, the 49ers made their record 7-5, and at least postponed their elimination from the National Football Conference West race. The NFC Central champion Vikings are 9-2-1, no longer claiming the best record in the conference.

49ers Kick Vikes

BY ERIC PREWITT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers' Delvin Williams and Wilbur Jackson pierced Minnesota's proud defensive unit for 309 yards, leaving some of the Vikings speechless.

"What can I say? Anything would sound like sour grapes," All-Pro tackle Alan Page said, the sour taste of a 20-16 loss to the 49ers still in his mouth after Monday night's nationally televised National Football League game.

"We got our backsides kicked," said the more talkative Frank Tarkenton. "We've been getting our backsides kicked the last six weeks, even though we've been winning."

The 49ers took a four-game losing streak against the play-off-bound Vikings, and rookie Scott Bull was at quarterback in place of injured Jim Plunkett to direct the offense which totaled a mere 88 yards a week earlier against Los Angeles.

Simons closed out the 13-week series of predictions with a record of 230-108 (.680 per cent), two better than Nieman's 128-110 mark (.675 percentage).

McKinster sports editor Bob Nigh claimed third place in his first year on the panel. Nigh finished at 218-120, or .645 per cent.

BRAND editor Bobby Templeton overcame almost impossible odds (with the help of Irene McKinster) to scramble into fourth place in the final week.

Templeton posted a 214-124 mark (.633) to finish two picks better than McKinster's 112-126 (.627). McKinster, showing her benevolent character, helped Templeton out by missing a total of 26 games in the final two weeks.

Templeton helped his own cause in the final week, however, by missing only five of the 26 games. Simons and Nieman closed out with a good week at 20-6 each, Nigh went 19-7, and McKinster closed out the year with an 18-8 record for the week.

Simons held the lead among the panel for the final four weeks after claiming a share of the leadership with Nieman drive, ending with Jackson's two-yard blast into the end zone, was accomplished on eight running plays. A 24-yard run by Jackson set up Steve Mike-Mayer's 45-yard field goal which made the score 10-0.

"But we got the pass when we needed it," former Arkansas star Bull noted, referring to his 16 yard completion to Gene Washington on a 83-yard drive late in the second period.

Tarkenton's second-quarter touchdown passes of 18 yards to Sammy White and eight yards to Ahmad Rashad had given the Vikings a 13-10 lead. The 49ers went ahead to stay when Bull leaned into the end zone 41 seconds before the half.

The only second half scoring game on field goals by Minnesota's Fred Cox and the 49ers' Mike-Mayer. The Vikings' Chuck Foreman, whose 93 yards put him at 1,035 for the year, was stopped on a fourth-and-one situation at the 49ers' 15-yard line with two minutes left, and the game ended when Tarkenton overthrew Rashad in the end zone on a 33-yard pass.

Nieman Unseated By 'Honest' Tom

The king is dead...Long live the king.

"Honest" Tom Simons, the "Golden Throat" of Hereford, has unseated BRAND publisher Speedy Nieman as the top dog on the "Fearless Forecasters" panel.

Simons closed out the 13-week series of predictions with a record of 230-108 (.680 per cent), two better than Nieman's 128-110 mark (.675 percentage).

McKinster sports editor Bob Nigh claimed third place in his first year on the panel. Nigh finished at 218-120, or .645 per cent.

Simons held the lead among the panel for the final four weeks after claiming a share of the leadership with Nieman after the ninth week.

After the eleventh week Simons had a three-pick lead over the defending champ, and he lost only one pick of that lead over the last two weeks.

Simons and Nieman each posted a 22-4 mark once during the year to represent the best week by any panelist. Simons chartered 21-5 marks twice during the year, while Nigh and Templeton each matched that mark once.

McKinster took the 'honor' for the worst week on the year with her 8-18 mark in the next to last week. Templeton's 13-13 mark in the sixth week was the second-worst record recorded.

Frogs Hire Tulsa's Dry

BY DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

FORT WORTH (AP)—Texas Christian takes another shot at bigtime football today with the hiring of former Tulsa Coach F.A. Dry, who operates a wide-open pro-set offense.

The 45-year-old Dry flew into Fort Worth Monday night after resigning his Tulsa job effective Dec. 15, two days after the Independence Bowl game. Dry checked into a motel near the university where a 10 a.m. press conference was on tap.

Dry was credited with saving the football program at Tulsa where he compiled a 31-16-1 record. He stepped in when the school had internal problems and financial difficulties.

TCU will present quite a challenge. The Horned Frogs went 0-11 this year under the resigned Jim Shofner and had a 2-31 record in three years of the Shofner regime.

Dry had been athletic director of Tulsa six years before taking over as coach Oct. 27, 1972. Tulsa either won or shared the Missouri Valley Conference title the four years Dry was the head coach.

He was offensive line coach for the Houston Oilers of the National Football League in 1966-70.

The University of Pittsburgh finished the regular college football season as the No. 1 team in The Associated Press poll today, but the Panthers must get past fifth-ranked Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to nail down their first national championship in 39 years.

Pitt defeated arch-rival Penn State 24-7 and wound up with an 11-0 record. The Panthers celebrated their fourth consecutive week at the top of the ratings by polling 45 first-place votes and 1,128 of a possible 1,160 points from a nationwide panel of 58 sports writers and broadcasters.

The national championship will be released Jan. 4, following the postseason bowl games.

Behind Pitt, runner-up Michigan widened its lead over third-place Southern California while unbeaten Maryland slipped past Georgia into fourth place and Houston inched ahead of UCLA for the sixth spot.

Michigan, which finished its regular season a week ago, received eight first-place votes and 998 points while Southern Cal, a 17-13 winner over Notre Dame, earned three first-place ballots and 931 points. Last week's spread among Pitt, Michigan and Southern Cal with 62 voters participating was 1,172-1,050-1,046 in points and 39-13-7 in first-places. Michigan and Southern Cal will meet in the Rose Bowl.

Meanwhile, Maryland, which finished 11-0 a week ago, received the remaining two first-place votes and climbed from fifth to fourth with 749 points. The Terrapins nosed past Georgia, which slipped from fourth to fifth with 747 points after needing a last-minute field goal to turn back Georgia Tech 13-10.

Houston clinched the host spot in the Cotton Bowl - the Cougars will meet Maryland - with a 42-20 rout of Rice and rose from seventh place to sixth with 526 points. Idle UCLA dropped from sixth to seventh with 510 points.

Oklahoma remained eighth after a 20-17 triumph over Nebraska and Texas Tech held onto ninth by crushing Arkansas 30-7, but Nebraska fell from 10th to 13th. Replacing the Cornhuskers in 10th place was streaking Texas A&M, a 27-3 winner over Texas.

The Second Ten consists of Ohio State, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma State, Notre Dame, Alabama, Rutgers, Baylor and North Carolina, with Mississippi State and Penn State tied for 20th.

Last week's Second Ten was Texas A&M, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Colorado and Oklahoma

State tied for 14th, Penn State, Rutgers and Alabama, with Mississippi State and North Carolina tied for 19th.

No team dropped out of the Top Twenty but Baylor moved in with a 24-19 victory over Texas Christian that raised its record to 7-2-1.

Abney Claims Contest Prize

Temple Abney of 227 Centre claimed first prize in the final edition of the Brand's Football Contest this week, missing only three games on the final list.

Abney joined three others in missing only three games in the final contest, and claimed the $15 first prize on the tie-breaker.

Others who missed just three games last week were Darrell Dirks, Kathy Digby, and L.V. Watts. On the basis of Oakland's 49-16 win over Tampa Bay the tie-breaker score was 65.

Abney's guess of 55 earned him the first prize, while Dirks claimed second with a guess of 52, and Digby took third on a guess of 49. Watts' guess of 47 was just shy of finishing in the money.

The final week must have been an easy one for most entrants as nine other entrants missed just four games, and ten were wrong just five times.

The announcement of the season winners will be made in Wednesday's issue of the Brand following a re-check of all entrants' totals.

Pokes Soured In Lemons' Debut

Abey Lemons' debut couldn't have been sweeter.

Castigating his team as a bunch which "doesn't seem to care," the former Oklahoma City University and Pan American coach shamed his Texas Longhorns into a 74-73 overtime basketball upset of Oklahoma State Monday night.

"I didn't think they were going to show up—they pulled an ole Indian trick on me," Lemons quipped in the lockerroom after the game.

Lemons was incensed over fouls called on Gary Goodner and said: "I don't see how the whole crowd can see something and one man can't. It makes no difference—the refs have the whistles. That's how the Vietnam War ended—they sent two referees over there to blow the whistles and it was over."

"I have to make some adjustments in the offense. We need to have some strong driving from the guards."

He added "We did some things tonight that I didn't think we were ready to do."

It was another good night for the Southwest Conference in intersectional play, following a 4-0 start last week.

Texas Tech ripped South Dakota 87-56, Baylor bombed Pan American 90-70, Texas A&M tripped Texas Lutheran 70-61, Rice blasted Wayland Baptist 81-62, Arkansas thrashed California Hayward 89-49 and Southern Methodist blew an 11-point lead midway of the final period to lose 77-75 to Tulane. Goodner led Texas with 19 points and freshman Jon Baxter of Los Angeles added 18 as the Longhorns took advantage of a goal-tending call to down the Cowboys.

Mike Russell scored 26 points to pace Texas Tech to its opening victory.

Texas A&M's 6-foot-8 sophomore Wally Swanson poured in 16 points to pace the Aggies but Coach Shelby Metcalf wasn't overjoyed.

"We've got so much work to do I don't know where to start," said Metcalf.

The SWC is now 10-1 against outside competition - the most gaudy start against non-conference foes in recent memory.

Harvey Martin Facing Suit

DALLAS (AP) - Dallas Cowboys defensive end Harvey Martin has been sued by the U.S. government for allegedly failing to pay back nearly $2,000 in student loans assumed while attending East Texas State University.

The suit, filed Monday by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, states Martin borrowed $674 from Texas Bank & Trust Co. for tuition and made only one payment, in May 1974.

The suit also claims the pro football star borrowed $1,000 from the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund in 1972 and 1973 without making any payments. The petition contends that Martin, in his fourth year with the National Football League team, borrowed a total of $1,675 and paid back $30, leaving a balance, including interest, of $1,924.21.

HEW officials, in the suit, said five letters were sent to Martin seeking repayment and he was contacted unsuccessfully several times by phone.

Martin said Monday evening it was the first he had heard of the matter.

"There's got to be a reason why I haven't really even been contacted. There's nothing really I can say about it anyway," he said. "If they filed a suit I have to take care of it. If they say I owe them, then I must owe them."

Martin said he remembered being contacted about three years ago and said he sent a payment at that time. He doesn't remember getting any letters, he said, but added he has changed addresses since then.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) - Tailback Tim Whelan of Tufts University has been named winner of the Harry Agganis Award as this season's football player in New England.

Whelan is the first player from the college division to win the award in the 11 years it has been given.

Whelan holds season and career rushing marks at Tufts.

Last year, he became the first Tufts player to rush for more than 1,000 yards, reaching 1,016. He topped this year with 1,023 yards and 10 touchdowns, helping Tufts to a 6-2 record and its first winning season in seven years.

Jackson Joins Yanks

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - In the end, it was Owner George Steinbrenner's salesmanship and the lure of playing in the media capital of the world that led Reggie Jackson to the New York Yankees.

"The reason I'm a Yankee is that George Steinbrenner out-hustled everybody else," said Jackson, who reportedly accepted a $3 million, five-year deal Monday to join the American League champions.

"Steinbrenner's like me," said Jackson, "a little bit crazy and a hustler."

And because the Yankee owner has a good deal of charm to boot, Jackson settled for less money from the Yankees than he could have had elsewhere.

"Four clubs offered more money than the Yankees" said Gary Walker, Jackson's agent.

But none of those teams had Steinbrenner doing the offering. The Jackson agreement came 10 days after the Yankees paid a reported $2 million for a six-year contract with another free agent, pitcher Don Gullett.

That $5 million investment rivaled the amount spent by the California Angels as top dollar in the free agent sweepstakes. But the Angels came away with three players for their money - outfielders Joe Rudi and Don Baylor and infielder Bobby Grich.

Originally, Grich had been one of the Yankees' high priorities in this auction of some of baseball's top talent. President Gabe Paul wanted him to solve the Yankees' shortstop problem.

But Steinbrenner preferred Jackson, a home run slugger with charisma. And Jackson, as it turned out, preferred New York.

"Other clubs offered more money," said Jackson. "But I think certain things are a lot more meaningful than money."

There were other factors, of course. The Yankees are defending AL champions, a proven winning team with the Most Valuable Player, Thurman Munson, heading a solid lineup. They would seem to have a good chance to be back near the top next year and Jackson enjoys the spotlight that follows a winning team. He could not have had that with the two other main contenders for his services, the Montreal Expos and San Diego Padres.

"I was envious watching the World Series last October," said the slugger, who served as a television commentator during the Series. "I should still have been playing. I think I can alleviate that feeling playing for the Yankees, riding on Munson's shirt-tails."

Munson, who attended the Jackson announcement along with outfielder Roy White and Yankee Coaches Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, flashed a wide grin at the remark.

"It will be exciting playing in Yankee Stadium," said Jackson. "I can't imagine what it will be like to put on pinstripes. It will be exciting hitting home runs in Yankee Stadium as a Yankee."

Jackson has hit them there before. His 281 career homers are third best among active American League players, behind only Carl Yastrzemski and Boog Powell. He needs just 19 more homers to become the 38th player in baseball history to reach 300.

'Horns Expecting Campbell's Return

By ROBERT HEARD
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) - There is a good chance Texas junior fullback Earl Campbell will play against Arkansas in the Longhorns' last chance to avoid the school's first losing season in the 20 years Darrell Royal has been coach.

"I think there's a real good chance that he'll play," Royal said Monday.

Campbell has been running three-quarter speed in practice and will not be asked to go all out until Thursday, Royal said.

Campbell, hobbled most of the year with a pulled right hamstring muscle, injured a muscle in his left leg against Texas Tech Oct. 30. It is the muscle between the back of his thigh and the buttocks that controls sideways movements of the leg.

Royal said it takes about a month to recover from such an injury.

Not since he was a junior in high school in 1941 has Royal had a losing season as a player or coach. But he is 4-5-1 this year and needs a victory over Arkansas to be dead even for the season.

Asked how much it meant to him personally to avoid a losing season, even if only by one game, Royal said:

"It'd mean a whole lot to me. I'd have to be honest with that. I'd be less than truthful if I didn't say that it's a big factor. "Again, that might be on the selfish side, but I think it's also important to the University of Texas because regardless of how bad the season has been and how disappointing it's been, it's always better to end on a positive note than on a negative one, for recruiting, for everything."

Royal denied a report he is considering resigning. "I don't know how these reports keep coming out because I can definitely say that no official step has been taken or decided on."

Arkansas is having some of the same kind of problems Texas is with injuries, he said, but their running backs have stayed healthier than Texas'. And their defensive unit is "one of the better defensive teams Arkansas has had."

Asked if repeated speculation that the Wishbone-T might be dead and that whether true or not this would hurt recruiting, Royal said he has made no promises to stay with the Wishbone.

He declined to say what he might switch to. "Man, I don't know. Let me get off and think about it," he said.

Assistant coach David McWilliams has said a study of films of the top high school option quarterbacks in Texas over the past two years (this would include Oklahoma's Thomas Lott) showed Mark McBeth to be the best. Royal was asked about not starting McBeth earlier.

"I can't say I saw anything at that time fall workouts that would cause me to..." He paused. "I wish we'd gone to him earlier, too," he said.

On the long-range solution to Campbell's leg problems, Royal said, "I think possibly we're going to put him on a more specialized program in the off-season. I think maybe his legs might possibly be too muscular and be built up too much. I think he really tried to build them up thinking that by making them more muscular, they'd be stronger."

Campbell's thighs, last reported to be 28 1/2 in circumference, now are 31 inches, Royal said. "That's a whole lot of leg," he said.

Reports that Campbell is overweight are untrue, he said. Campbell told Royal he weighed 237 for the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl. He weighs 230 now.

YMCA To Hold Cage Meeting

The Hereford area YMCA will conduct a meeting for representatives of all local civic groups, organizations, churches, or individuals who are interested in forming teams to play in a men's basketball league.

The meeting will be held Tuesday evening, November 30 at 7:15 p.m. in the Shirley School Library.

"At this meeting we will discuss eligibility, classification of team for particular divisions of play, nights of play, and league rules," Y director Claude Huard said in making the announcement.

Huard went on to say that the meeting is strictly an informational one, and does not commit any organization or individual.

"The success of any league depends on the interest and participation of the local citizenry," Huard added. "Please call the Y office if you are planning to attend the meeting."

Three answers to corn head smut.

- 1. UC 9451
This heavy-yielding, tall, robust, full-season hybrid scored 96% freedom from corn head smut infestation in the Texas A&M studies near Dimmit this summer. First report, 1976 yield: 150.00 bushels of #2 corn, Castro County.*
- 2. UC 6601
This short-stalked, medium-maturity hybrid rated 98% freedom from corn head smut. First report, 1976 yield: 169.64 bushels of #2 corn, Hale County.*
- 3. UC 8801
Scored 93% freedom from corn head smut infestation. Our biggest seller, this hybrid is well adapted to the High Plains. First report, 1976 yield: 178.57 bushels of #2 corn, Floyd County.*

Get the facts!
Corn head smut can slash profits because each diseased plant yields virtually nothing. The ACCO SEED hybrids listed here showed excellent freedom from this new soil-borne disease. Each is adapted to High Plains growing conditions. But the most popular competitive hybrid tested in the same field, showed corn head smut damage in more than half of its plants! There is a difference! We urge you to get all the facts before you buy seed corn for 1977 planting.

*Names and addresses of yield reports available on request.

More Families Included In Upper Income Brackets Within County

According to a nationwide study of income and its distribution, Deaf Smith County has more of its families in the middle and upper brackets and fewer in the lower ranges than ever before.

Locally, there has been a progressive movement upward, with many families advancing from their former levels to the next higher ones.

Some of them, who had been in the $8,000 to $10,000 group a year or two ago, are now located in the $10,000 to $15,000 spot. Their former positions, in turn, have been taken over by families who had been earning less than $8,000 previously.

The findings are detailed in a report released by the Standard Rate and Data Service, governing communities in all sections of the country.

The purpose was to obtain a better financial picture of each area than is possible through the "average income" figure that is usually given.

Does that average apply to a large segment of the population or does it represent a small proportion of high-income families offsetting a large proportion with smaller incomes?

The report shows that 68.2 percent of the households in Deaf Smith County had $8,000 or more left to them as spendable income in the past year after payment of their personal taxes.

The proportion, by way of comparison, was higher than in many sections of the country. It was 67.1 percent, on average, in the West South Central States.

Since the figures refer to cash income only, they understate somewhat the situation in farm areas where, in lieu of cash, there are special advantages in the form of lower living costs.

Just what portion of Deaf Smith County's population fell within each income bracket in the past year is indicated in the report.

Some 16.0 per cent of the local households had net earnings of $5,000 to $8,000.

Another 11.0 per cent were in the $8,000 to $10,000 category. In the $10,000 to $15,000 bracket were 21.8 per cent and, above that level, 35.4 per cent. The others had $5,000 or less left after taxes.

In general, however, despite the income gains, most families were no better off at the end of the year than at the beginning, thanks to inflation.

Scottsboro Boy Receives Pardon

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The last known surviving "Scottsboro Boy," Clarence Norris, flew to Montgomery Monday and was handed the pardon which ended his 30 years as a fugitive.

Norris, now 64 and a laborer employed by the City of New York, was granted the pardon by the state Pardon and Parole Board five weeks ago. Instead of receiving it by mail, he chose to pick it up in person in the city where he served 15 years in prison.

Norris was one of nine young black men charged with raping two white women aboard a freight train near Scottsboro, Ala., in 1931. All nine were sentenced to death but their sentences were reduced to life imprisonment.

Norris served 15 years at Kilby Prison, which has since been torn down. He fled from Alabama after a parole in 1946 and was listed as a fugitive for 30 years until he applied for a pardon earlier this year and disclosed his whereabouts.

TV Dialogue

CIRCUS TIME -- Didn't Chill Wills and Doug McClure star in a series in the early '60s? Was it called Frontier Circus? Jan Eastwood, Paso Robles, Calif.

Well, you've got it two-thirds right. Chill Wills was one of the costars of the 1961 series Frontier Circus. The other stars were Richard Jaeckel and John Derek. McClure was not in the cast.

OF THE AVENGERS Mrs. Peel (Diana Rigg) was my favorite all-time TV character. Could you please tell me where to write to her now? Buddy Kersey, Clinton, Iowa.

Can't tell you where Emma Peel is these days, but you can write to Diana Rigg in care of the Phil Gersh Agency, 222 N. Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90210.

FERVANT FAN -- Being originally from Brooklyn, I've always been a fan of Connie Stevens, who was born there. Could you tell me how old she is now and how old she was when Hawaiian Eye first started. Also, the same info for Robert Conrad? Terry Lyon, New Hope, Pa.

Hawaiian Eye first aired in 1959, when Conrad was a mere 24 and Connie Stevens was an even younger 21. If you add it up, he's now 41 and she's 38 years old.

IN DISGUISE -- Is the guy on Family who played Meredith Baxter Birney's professor boyfriend the same actor that starred in Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea? They look similar, but it's hard to tell with the beard. Harry Weatherington, Seagoville, Tex.

Behind that beard lurks David Hedison, who played the dauntless captain of the Seaview on Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea.

night I saw an old movie of "Robin Hood" that Alan Hale was in. Alan Hale was also in Gilligan's Island. How could it be the same actor, since he'd be ancient by now? Jeremy Kendra, Troy, N.Y.

It couldn't be and isn't the same actor. The Alan Hale you're familiar with from Gilligan's Island is actually Alan Hale, Jr. His father was the one you saw in "Robin Hood." Alan Hale, Sr. died in 1950.

dustry at the time, as a result of the '50s blacklist. Later, when the play was finally brought to television in 1966, Lee J. Cobb again performed the title role. I'll leave it to all of you to decide who's really right.

TRUE BUDDY -- I really like Kristy McNichol, who plays Buddy on Family. Could you print her picture, so I can cut it out? B.J. Provo, Utah. Sure.

Common Market Countries Wait On Economic Problems

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands (AP) - The leaders of the European Common Market agree that they cannot deal with many of their pressing economic problems until Jimmy Carter is inaugurated and the oil-exporting countries decide how much they are going to raise the price of crude oil.

Because of this, the nine Common Market countries generally agree that the so-called North-South conference between the industrial and developing countries, scheduled to open Dec. 15 in Paris, should be postponed. Foreign Minister Garrett Fitzgerald of Ireland told reporters Monday after the first day of a two-day meeting of Common Market presidents and prime ministers.

The participants in the Paris talks are the United States, seven other industrialized countries and 19 developing nations. The Third World nations hope to obtain help with their foreign debt burden and guaranteed prices for their raw materials as the first step toward a new world economic system. But a year of technical-level negotiations has made no progress.

"It makes no sense to push ahead with U.S. policies may be after Jan. 20, West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt said at a news conference.

Fitzgerald said the European leaders favor a delay until February or March.

There have been rumors that the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) might delay its price-raising meeting scheduled for Dec. 15 until after the start of the North-South conference to see of the industrialized world offered the poor countries any concessions. But the pressure from Iran, Iraq, Venezuela and some other oil countries is so great that a long delay seems unlikely.

The Middle East Economic Survey said the "reshuffling of dates is a reflection of the intricate poker game now being played between the industrialized nations and the OPEC-Third World grouping, neither of which wants to show its cards until it has seen the other's hand."

OPEC is expected to raise prices of crude oil between five and 15 per cent. The present basic price is $11.51 per barrel.

The Common Market conference was told Monday that Western Europe's economy has been stagnating for several months and that the situation will probably get worse when the price of oil goes up. A 10 per cent increase would cost the Common Market $4.9 billion next year.

Aged Cowboy Hats For Real Rednecks

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—Wear a brand-spankin' new cowboy hat and folks will know you're puttin' on the redneck chic.

But put on one of the Charlie Tweddle's hats with your faded blue jeans and scuffed-up boots, and you'll be welcome in the meanest barrooms of San Antonio.

Tweddle can't keep up with orders for the hats that he "ages" to look like they just came off the sweaty head of cowboy back from a three-month cattle drive.

"Shoot," Charlie says, looking around at the googaws and doodads that go onto the hats, "these things sell real good. Right now I'm like a prospector sittin' on a gold mine with nothin' but a pick and shovel to get it out."

Tweddle pronounced Tweddle got into the business after an old Mexican fellow gave him a battered Stetson in a bar just outside his hometown of San Antonio, Tex.

Charlie loved that hat and set about to recreate it after it got lost somewhere in Arizona. After experimenting with various methods to make new hats look as tired as the one he lost, he took a mess of 'em to a shop in Fairfax, Calif.

In a few days, the entire batch was sold.

Four years and several thousand hats later, Tweddle, 39, has perfected his method of turning clean straw hats and crisp, white good 'buy models made of wool into something out of a grade-B western.

He even admits what looks like a genuine sweat stain around the headband.

"Ever' one of them looks a hundred years old," he says proudly.

"I've heard of all kinds of famous people wearin' 'em," he says. "Even that girl who played 'Deep Throat.' What's her name? Linda Lovelace, that's right. She bought one."

Rock star Stephen Stills owns several, Charlie says, and even Engelbert Humperdinck is a customer.

No two hats are exactly alike, decorated with feathers or furs or rattler skins or the face of a skinned tree squirrel.

Working alone in the garage of his San Rafael home, Tweddle turns out about 60 hats a month that sell for $60 to $300 each in 50 shops around the country.

SOVIET DOCTORS NEW YORK (AP) — Most doctors in the Soviet Union earn low pay and have little prestige, according to Medical World News.

The publication says about 70 per cent of the doctors who care for the health needs of the average Soviet citizen are women who earn about $150 a month.

"Skilled factory workers earn more money, are more likely to see their pictures on the front pages of Pravda and are more likely to find a niche in the Communist party, which brings perquisites not enjoyed by the non-party person," adds the magazine.

Wharton Calls For Emphasis On Program Of Famine Prevention

HOUSTON (AP)—The president of Michigan State University said Monday the Carter administration's foreign policy should place strong emphasis on worldwide famine prevention.

Dr. Clifton R. Wharton Jr., who also is chairman of the Board of International Food and Agricultural Development, said such an emphasis would represent a dramatic shift in foreign policy.

"It would signal to the poorest of the poor in the developing world that the United States believes freedom from hunger is a more important international goal than the sale of arms," he said.

"It would link our foreign policy with the self-help and humanitarianism of mainstream American values. And above all it would marshal the necessary resources and human talent that could, once and for all, end the scourges of malnutrition, hunger, famine and death by starvation."

Wharton made the keynote speech at 3,000 agronomists and crop and soil scientists attending the annual meeting of the American Society of Agronomy and allied organizations.

Wharton said the international board he heads supervises implementation of the Title XII "Famine Prevention and Freedom from Hunger" amendment to the 1975 Foreign Assistance Act.

"The central intent of Title XII is to promote an expanded role for U.S. agricultural colleges and universities in helping to solve the critical food problems of the developing world," he said.

"The legislation is based upon the belief much of U.S. agriculture's success is due to the combined approach of teaching, research, and extension in our agricultural colleges and universities."

Wharton said much could be achieved if just $1 billion could be committed to Title XII for institutional strengthening over a 10-year period.

"It is imperative that this nation, at this time, pledge the resources that must be committed to this task," he said. "It is in our own national interest to do so; that is, if we see the alleviation of human suffering as a national goal."

Wharton said the world population is increasing by 70 million a year, including about 60 million in the less-developed areas.

"There is little doubt that the issue of food will be a major challenge facing the world the next 25 to 50 years," he said.

Wharton said the average farmer in the United States produced enough food and fiber for about five people in 1870, 10 people in 1930, and 20 people in 1955. "Today, the same farmer has again more than doubled his output, producing enough to feed himself and 51 other people," he said.

"The challenge for the next 25 years is to assure similar growths in agricultural productivity, both at home and abroad" he said.

Scientist Claims Life On Other Worlds Is Inevitable

DALLAS (AP)—Life on other worlds is not only likely, it is inevitable, Bob Edelson of Jet Propulsion Laboratory said Monday.

Edelson, from Pasadena, Calif., is one of several engineers and deep space scientists who will begin listening for possible communications from other worlds in the fall of 1978. Considering that a message could come from anywhere in the galaxy, the search is not for the pessimistic.

"You have to be a bit presumptuous in this field," Edelson admitted. "But we have to assume that any signals we pick up were sent for detection."

Edelson was one of several speakers who addressed delegates at the National Telecommunications Conference in Dallas. The annual winter gathering is for the communications branch of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers.

During his presentations, Edelson said today's technology is capable of sending messages into deep space but a reply, should one be sent, could take 24,000 years. Therefore, the decision by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is to keep quiet and listen.

"It is likely that communication between different species exists today," said Edelson, pointing out that "lifesights," or stars suspected of harboring the elements necessary to sustain life, have existed for some 5 billion years before our sun was born.

The space probes will be conducted by Ames Research Center in Mountainview, Calif. and Edelson's employer, in Pasadena, Calif. Edelson said the search will not include Earth's solar system, which scientists have concluded is almost surely void of human life as we know it.

As for life in deep space, the engineer quipped, "About all you can say for sure is you won't find a race of dolphins out there. They have to be able to at least build the right kinds of tools to transmit earthbound messages."

The field of space probing is near-virgin territory. Edelson said the most comprehensive search he knows of involved listening for transmissions from 700 stars.

The probes will last five years. If no messages have been received by then, Edelson said the program will be reassessed. He added that past probes have yielded nothing.

Asked why he believes the search should continue, Edelson said "Because it's inconceivable to me that of the 7 trillion or more stars in the galaxy, that we're the only ones here."

Kissinger Attends

Swearing-In

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Secretary of State Henry Kissinger arrived here Monday night to attend this week's inauguration of Mexican President-elect Jose Lopez Portillo.

Kissinger flew to Mexico City from Acapulco, on Mexico's west coast, where he had been vacationing with his wife Nancy.

Kissinger was greeted at the International Airport by Mexican Foreign Secretary Alfonso Garcia Robles.

The U.S. Embassy distributed the text of Kissinger's comments at the airport, expressing confidence that the two new presidential administrations of Jimmy Carter and Lopez Portillo would strengthen the bonds between Mexico and the United States.

"I am very happy to be here on what is probably my last official visit to Mexico on this occasion that will symbolize the transfer of power in both of our countries under peaceful conditions..." he said.

Holiday Deaths Are Fewer Than Predicted

By The Associated Press Traffic accidents claimed 467 lives during the long Thanksgiving weekend, considerably fewer deaths than would be expected during a nonholiday weekend at this time of year.

The National Safety Council said its statisticians figure about 530 persons are killed during a four-day nonholiday period.

Before the holiday, the Safety Council estimated fatalities could total between 450 and 550 from 6 p.m. last Wednesday to midnight Sunday.

Plane Searches Held In New Mexico

By The Associated Press Search planes combed a New Mexico area southeast of Farmington Monday for an airplane that disappeared with an Aztec couple aboard, but a hunt for another downed plane in the Las Vegas area remained suspended.

The Aztec couple, the Rev. and Mrs. Lee Corey, were last heard from about Friday evening, when Corey radioed Farmington that he was flying above dense cloud cover and had lost his way.

The other plane was carrying an Amarillo, Tex., minister, Jack Mackey, 58, and his wife Edna. They were last heard from Nov. 19 near Las Vegas, but weren't reported missing until four days later when they did not show up for a church meeting.

Civil Air Patrol spokesman Don Cooper in Farmington said Monday's search concentrated on the Largo Canyon area northeast of Farmington, about 10 miles east of the area combed by searchers earlier.

The plane went down before a winter storm dumped several inches of snow in the area, and a spokesman said that "since it's a white plane it's going to be difficult locating until the snow goes away."

Paul Harvey News

Many To Blame

--Greedy people. --The increasingly impersonal doctor-patient relationship.

Who could imagine suing the old-time friend-of-the-family doctor?

And there is another factor. Powerful new drugs and sophisticated new surgical techniques are often tried on patients who formerly had to be given up on.

And when the techniques fail--and most do fail--the tendency is to assume it's the doctor's fault.

The average American family now makes 12 trips a year to the doctor. The cost, in fees, drugs and tests, is more than $400 a year. Two-thirds of those trips to the doctor are unnecessary, each family could save $300 a year.

Probably 3 million surgical operations are performed each year--unnecessarily.

A Cornell study confirms that fully 13 per cent of patients who are advised by their physicians to have surgery--don't need it.

Then why all this additional--and more-expensive--medical treatment? Your doctor is intimidated. He is afraid NOT to operate.

There is another voice whispering in his ear--the voice of the insurance man--telling him that if he does NOT give all those additional (and frequently superfluous) tests...

If he does NOT recommend an operation--and any symptom shows up later--the doctor may be sued for malpractice.

So the frightened doctor adds and charges you for much additional testing and treatment--including X rays--because he is afraid not to.

Doctors last year ordered 67 per cent more X rays (with the potential to do more harm than good), 66 per cent more lab tests, 51 per cent more specialist consultations--and you paid for these unnecessarily expanded medical services.

Understand, malpractice lawsuits are not paid by your doctor.

The doctor merely adds enough additional to what he charges for his services to pay for malpractice insurance.

So it's the patients who pay. Last year every trip you made to the doctor he had to charge you an additional $1.24 to pay his insurance premium.

And the American Medical Assn. says you'll be paying an ever greater "penalty" this year.
