Board of Equalization In Session This Week

Since Monday of this week the city council has been in session as a board of equalization and engaged in reviewing the valuations on property within the city limits which is subject to taxation. Many newly constructed residences and improvements to other buildings are expected to add materially to the property assessment in Hereford this year. Another meeting of the board of equalization will be held in about two weeks at which time those who desire a change in the valuation set on their property may appear before the board and voice their protest.

Each boy attending the encampment is advised by Scoutmaster Conway that he must take the following equipment with him:
Two blankets, pillow if desired, complete change of clothing, comb, brush, tooth brush, scout handbook, mess kit, knife, fork, spoon, cup, bathing suit and two towels (for dishes). The following will not be absolutely necessary but are recommended:

Improvements are being made this week on two of Hereford's hardware establishments. The Kerr-Anthony Hardware Co. have nearly completed the painting of the front and the interior of their building in a black and orange combination. New show windows have been installed, and the wooden awning in front of the building has been removed. The Streu Hardware Co. is remodeling and re-decorating the front of their building. Show windows are being re-arranged and the wooden awning over the sidewalk is being repaired and given a new coat of paint.

Marking the first of what is to be an annual affair, a number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kibbe gathered Sunday at the Kibbe home for a picnic dinner. An elaborate feast, to which all contributed, was spread on large tables under the beautiful shade trees in the yard.

Flour Shipment to Orphans Delayed

Though many of those who promised gifts of wheat to Buckner's Orphan Home at Dallas have delivered the amount they promised at Harrison's elevator, there are some, states Rev. C. E. Saxon, who is in charge of the collection of the grain, who may have been unable yet to bring their wheat to Hereford. For this reason, states Rev. Saxon, the shipment of the carload of wheat will be delayed for some time and those who still wish to give some wheat for shipment to the Home are requested to bring it to Harrison's elevator in the near future.

Through the suggestion of Rev. C. E. Saxon of Hereford, general missionary for the Tierra Blanca Baptist Association, many of the farmers of Deaf Smith and adjoining counties as well as numerous residents of the communities in those counties, have given a portion of the bountiful wheat crop they have recently harvested, or its equivalent in cash, to Buckner's Orphan Home at Dallas. The wheat is being assembled at Harrison's elevator here and when the car is loaded will be shipped to the Great West mill at Amarillo where it will be converted into flour, free of charge. The flour will then be shipped free by the Santa Fe railroad to Buckner's Home at Dallas.

Emmett Hales Now City Traffic Officer

Mayor E. S. Ireland announced this week the appointment of Emmett Hales to the city police force. Mr. Hales has had considerable experience in police work and served for several years in the sheriff's force of Ellis county. Mr. Hales will devote much of his time to traffic regulation.

Hardware Stores Dress Up Places of Business

Improvements are being made this week on two of Hereford's hardware establishments. The Kerr-Anthony Hardware Co. have nearly completed the painting of the front and the interior of their building in a black and orange combination. New show windows have been installed, and the wooden awning in front of the building has been removed. The Streu Hardware Co. is remodeling and re-decorating the front of their building. Show windows are being re-arranged and the wooden awning over the sidewalk is being repaired and given a new coat of paint.

Daniel, Bob Hough, Billie Ross Phillip, Arthur Pratt and Wilbur Wombie. A. E. Each boy attending the encampment is advised by Scoutmaster Conway that he must take the following equipment with him:
Two blankets, pillow if desired, complete change of clothing, comb, brush, tooth brush, scout handbook, mess kit, knife, fork, spoon, cup, bathing suit and two towels (for dishes). The following will not be absolutely necessary but are recommended:

McCollough, was driving west on Fifth Street in a sedan, Mrs. Mathis, accompanied by her two children, Elmer, Jr., and Doris Jean, Mrs. Lou McCarnack and Inez Mosley of Floydada, in another sedan was driving south on Lee Avenue. Due to the rain obscuring the vision of both drivers, it is believed the cars collided before they could be halted. Though painful, none of the injuries, it is reported, were dangerous and after being treated at the Deaf Smith County Hospital all of the victims of the accident were able to be taken to their homes. Mrs. Carnack and Doris Jean Mathis escaped from the wreck without injury. Both cars were reported badly damaged.

Rain in the third inning halted the baseball game Sunday between Hart and Hereford which was played here. On next Sunday the Hereford team will play the first Amarillo City All Stars from Amarillo. The game will be played here and will begin promptly at 3:00 o'clock. Owing to the reputation of the Amarillo team and the consistent ability to win exhibited this season by the Hereford boys, a large crowd is expected at Sunday's game.

J. L. Sparks, formerly owner and manager of the Westside Filling Station, sold the station and camp grounds on West Second street to J. H. Maryman of Dimmitt last Thursday. Pat Murphy has leased the station and has taken charge of the business.

Mrs. E. B. Childree is visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. E. Mayhew, of Hamlin, Texas.

Mrs. H. V. Hennes and children of Brownwood, who have been visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. John Jacobson, left Monday morning. They expect to visit relatives in Lubbock and Big Spring before returning home.

SECOND CAR BUTTER TO BE SHIPPED

Having shipped a car of butter to Chicago on August 1, the Farmers' Creamery Association, Inc. will ship another carload of butter to Chicago the latter part of this week.

Returns received from the first carload of butter shipped were very satisfactory, stated N. O. Bendickson, manager of the creamery. Inspection and grading by a government inspector showed, by the certificates sent to Mr. Bendickson that the butter from the Farmers' Creamery was awarded a very good grade by the inspector. The grading of each procedure in the process of manufacturing the butter, the report showed, was up to standard specifications. The only reduction in grade was caused by the flavor which, stated the report, showed that in several churning the cream had been too old or stale, and had prevented the flavor from being rated as perfect.

Farmers are urged, stated Mr. Bendickson, to bring their cream to the creamery before it becomes sour because then the creamery will be able to manufacture a better grade of butter and the farmer will receive more money for his cream because when it is fresh it tests higher in butter fat. Mr. Bendickson urges the farmers not to hold the cream until they get a full can but to bring in whatever they have on hand when they come to town.

The report from the government inspector shows that the creamery is meeting the government standards in every branch of its manufacture, stated Mr. Bendickson, "and wholly overcome all of the flavor of old or stale cream."

Cream brought to the creamery since last week, said Mr. Bendickson, has mostly been fresh cream and the carload of butter that is to be shipped this week, he said, will show considerable improvement over the first shipment.

Deliveries of cream to the creamery are increasing each week, according to the reports from Mr. Bendickson. Last Saturday a total of 115 farmers brought in cream which was an increase of nearly 25 per cent over the previous Saturday.

Mr. Bendickson, in a statement issued this week said that a report had reached him that many farmers believed that if they did not own stock in the creamery they would not receive as high prices for their cream as their neighbors who did own stock in the organization. This idea is wrong, states Mr. Bendickson, because, he says, the Farmers' Creamery Association pays the same price for cream to a farmer who does not own stock in the creamery as is paid to those farmers who do own stock in it.

"Fashion Dress Shop" Established In Hereford

Announcement is made in another column of The Brand of the opening today of the Fashion Dress Shop, a new business institution in Hereford, which will be operated by Mrs. W. F. Gillis. The new shop is located in the Vogel Millinery Parlor and a complete line of up to date and ready to wear dresses in all of the season's popular colors is now being displayed.

Mrs. Gillis is a former resident of Denton, Texas, and has had much experience in merchandising ladies' ready to wear apparel. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis are owners of three sections of land northeast of Hereford and Mr. Gillis will devote his time to developing the property.

Bentley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, visit Carlsbad Caverns today and expect to arrive home the latter part of the week.

Paving Certificates, Says Mayor Ireland, to Be Paid One-Tenth Each Year

According to a statement of E. S. Ireland, mayor of Hereford, some people owning paving certificates on Hereford property have gained the impression that the entire amount of the paving certificates is now due. This is a mistake, states Mayor Ireland, as all liens issued in the city of Hereford are payable one-tenth each year, bearing seven per cent interest, and it is optional with the property owner as to whether he pays more than one-tenth annual payment plus accrued interest.

Good Team In Prospect, Says B. H. Hopkins

With the opening of school near at hand, football is the talk of every sport enthusiast. Hereford football fans have a pleasant surprise in store for them this year, states B. H. Hopkins, school athletic director. The old field which was sodded down early in the summer with Bermuda grass, promises to be practically sold by the beginning of the season and will present a much more attractive and faster field than the White Faces have heretofore enjoyed. Full credit for the new field, states Mr. Hopkins, goes to Mr. Humble and the boys whose untiring efforts made it possible.

Prospects for the coming season, according to Mr. Hopkins, are equally as good if not better than they were at the beginning of the season last year. With the return of eight letter men and about 20 squad members of last year, with prospects of several new boys entering school and with youngsters coming up from the grades, Coach McCollough will have a fine array of material from which to develop a winning team this fall.

After considerable delay, funds authorized by a bond issue last spring are now available for the construction of a new school building at Big Square, located 45 miles southeast of Hereford. Harry R. Guterson of Amarillo, designed the building which will be erected at a cost of $15,000. J. T. Walkup of Lubbock has been awarded the contract for its construction.

The building, which will be located one and one-half miles east of the site of the old school house, is to be a one story brick and steel structure and will contain four class rooms, a library, teachers study and a spacious auditorium. It will be furnished with its own heating and lighting plants.

Wes Anthony Family Visit Famous Caverns

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Anthony and young daughter, Helen, were visitors this week at Carlsbad Cavern, leaving Hereford Tuesday and returning Thursday. Approximately 900 people went through the caverns on the day that they visited them, stated Mrs. Anthony, some of whom were elderly people and others just babies in arms that had to be carried by their parents. In spite of the long distance through the cavern, Helen, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony insisted on walking all the way, they said, and was deeply impressed with the grandeur of the caves when lighted with myriads of electric lights.

Director Frazier Wants More Members In Band

R. E. Frazier, newly appointed band master of the Hereford City Band, accompanied by his family, returned Monday from Fort Worth where they have been for several days. Mr. Frazier stated that while at Fort Worth he had obtained a quantity of late popular music for use by the band. Increased interest is being shown here in the city band, states Mr. Frazier, who reports that he has nine new pupils now learning various band instruments, and wants 40 more pupils at once. No charge is made for lessons given by Mr. Frazier to those who wish to learn to play any band instrument. All that is necessary to do, Mr. Frazier said, is to call at the City Hall at any time and arrange for the lessons. Anyone who has any desire to play in the Hereford City Band is urged to join the organization at once. Regular band practice is being held at the City Hall every Monday and Thursday night. At present, states Mr. Frazier, from 25 to 30 members are taking part each meeting. While in Fort Worth Mr. Frazier purchased a number of new instruments for the City Band. Arrangements can be made for purchase of instruments on easy terms by those who desire to do so, Mr. Frazier announced.

"Money may seem important but it can never take the place of friends. I had rather have a lot of friends than a million dollars," declared Alger Jones, managing editor of The Brand at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon held Monday noon at the First Christian church. That he had accomplished his wish and had made many friends here during his four months residence in Hereford as the guiding spirit of The Brand was indicated by the fact that the Chamber of Commerce banquet developed into a testimonial banquet to Mr. Jones who on Wednesday was transferred by the Nunn-Warren Publishing Co. from Hereford to Childress, Texas, where he became managing editor of the Childress Index, a daily paper published in that city by the Nunn-Warren Company, publishers of The Hereford Brand.

G. A. F. Parker, president of the Western National Bank, acting as chairman of the meeting, expressed the appreciation of the organization to Mr. Jones for his loyal support of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce and of every project for the betterment of the city and county which has arisen during his management of The Brand. Chairman Parker assumed Mr. Jones of the continued friendship of the citizens of Hereford wherever his duties might call him.

Acknowledging the expressions of friendship tendered him, Mr. Jones expressed sincerely the deep impression that the genuine neighborliness, friendship and co-operation of the people of Hereford had made upon him and his family and stressed especially the high quality and 100 per cent Americanism of the citizenship of the city and county and the splendid schools and churches of Hereford. "No city in my experience," stated Mr. Jones, "can equal in clean, moral conditions those that exist in Hereford."

"At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Jones introduced to the assembly his successor, R. E. Kessie, formerly business and advertising manager of the Evening News-Journal of Clovis, New Mexico, who on Wednesday assumed the duties of managing editor of The Hereford Brand.

Mr. Kessie in his talk assured those present of his hearty co-operation in the upbuilding of the city and county.

Rev. J. W. Boutinghouse, pastor of the First Christian church, brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce members the situation concerning the lack of funds for handling charity cases. Mr. Parker, chairman of the meeting, appointed Mr. Boutinghouse as head of a committee to solicit funds for future charity needs. E. B. Black volunteered to assist Rev. Boutinghouse in this work and the two will make a canvass of the city this week.

Rev. E. P. Gieser, newly appointed pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was introduced to the members by Mr. Parker and expressed his pleasure at becoming a citizen of Hereford. L. A. Hough, formerly a resident of Hereford and who after an absence for years has returned to the city to engage in the real estate business was welcomed home. Drs. Robison and Wills who have recently engaged in the medical profession here, and Dr. Wiltshire, dentist, who has joined Dr. Heard, were introduced by Mr. Parker.

Fried chicken, candied sweet potatoes and a delicious frozen dessert were served by the ladies of the Christian church to about 50 members and guests.

"I FEEL LIKE I HAVE A NEW LIFE BEFORE ME," SAYS LOCAL WOMEN

Mrs. Taylor Says She Suffered 30 Years When She Began Taking Orgatone, Now Feels Better In Every Way.

"I am simply feeling so improved as far as my health is concerned, that I feel like I have a new life before me since taking Orgatone," said Mrs. A. E. Taylor, residing at 1904 Jackson St., Amarillo, Texas, in her statement to the Orgatone representative.

"Yes, sir, I am feeling like a different woman and I want everybody to know it," continued Mrs. Taylor. "I have suffered with a badly disordered stomach and constipation for thirty years and one bottle of Orgatone has done more real genuine good than anything else I have ever tried. I guess I ought to know real medicine when I have tried it, as I certainly have taken enough of it in my years of illness."

"I had been suffering for so many years with a very bad stomach and other troubles and my condition had become wretched. After meals I would vomit and I felt so miserable and dizzy, at times I could hardly stand on my feet. I lost all desire for food of any kind and the time I did eat caused me constant misery in my stomach and I lost energy and all interest in everything."

"I tried most every kind of medicine and did everything I know how to do trying to get relief, but I kept getting worse all the time."

"Orgatone has completely changed life around for me and I just can't find words to express my gratitude for it. I have been relieved of those terrible bloating spells and those sickening, bilious attacks have left me as well as my constipation. My appetite is better now and I can eat as much as I ever could and I relish my meals. I wish I could thank the maker of Orgatone for placing this wonderful medicine in the hands of suffering people."

Genuine Orgatone is manufactured by one of the world's largest laboratories and is not a so-called secret or patent remedy, but a new scientific bile treatment and is sold in Hereford by the City Drug Store.

HEAVY EXHIBITS TO BE SEEN AT TRI-STATE FAIR

Amarillo.—With 5,000 catalogs sent out over the Panhandle and Tri-State territory, several prospective exhibitors at the Tri-State Fair, September 23-29, have signified their intention to enter one or more exhibits at the fair. Wilbur C. Hawk, president, announced recently.

According to Mr. Hawk, present indications point to the greatest fair in the history of the exposition. It is believed that there will be nearly one-fourth gain as many exhibitors displaying at the fair as showed products last year.

Considerable interest has been shown from all sections of the territory, Mr. Hawk said, and the free gate, mammoth Hagenbeck-Wallace circus and other attractions are expected to help in breaking all attendance records.

Farmers, stockmen and others who intend to show at the fair this year and have not already received catalogs are urged to write at once to Wilbur C. Hawk, president, Tri-State Fair Association, Amarillo. Any information about the exposition will be furnished free immediately upon request.

BABY BEEF SHOW AND SALE AT STATE FAIR

Creating a new market for the West Texas rancher, and encouraging the feeding of beef cattle on black land farms of Texas, the State Fair will hold its first "Feeder Show" and auction sale during the 1929 Exposition. It has been announced by Frank P. Holland, director in charge.

More than 1000 prize calves from West Texas ranches will be shown at the State Fair and will be sold to black land farmers and others to be fed for market.

The feeder show will not only open a new market for feeder stock in Texas, but is expected to encourage the growing of grain and feedstuffs on impoverished cotton lands of the state.

World-Famous, Three-Fuel Hart-Parr 18-36
In official tests, conducted by nationally known engineers, who used cheap distillate for fuel, the great Hart-Parr 18-36 registered a drawbar pull of 5,535 pounds at two miles an hour, and 4,075 pounds at three miles an hour. On the job it easily pulled the amazing load of 43 horsepower. The Hart-Parr is a three-fuel tractor, burning gasoline, kerosene or distillate equally well. It is the one tractor that develops its power from the cheapest, low-grade fuels. Hart-Parrs are made for small, medium or large farms and have three forward speeds to speed up hauling and field work. Drive one yourself and experience the thrill of controlling tremendous power.

Gains 25 Pounds by Taking Sargon

"Before I started taking Sargon I was down in weight to 140 pounds and was badly run down after years of suffering. Since taking Sargon I have gained 25 pounds and am back to my normal weight, which is 165 pounds.

"Up to a few years ago I had been in ill health, then I commenced to be troubled with indigestion. It just looked like I couldn't digest anything. I put myself on such a tight diet I became badly undernourished and lost weight rapidly. I lost my strength and energy and it was all I could do to stay on my job.

"Almost as soon as I began taking Sargon I started eating again and took on weight rapidly. I tell you it's fine to sit down at the table and eat a meal again. I am as full of strength and energy as I ever was and can do more work in one day now than I could do in two before.

"The Sargon pills toned up my liver and I no longer suffer from biliousness and constipation."

"After gaining 25 pounds I am feeling like my old self again and I think that is enough to convince everybody the Sargon treatment is wonderful."—Joe N. Canisard, 348 Washington Boulevard, Beaumont, Texas.

COWPUNCHERS GET READY FOR BIG ROUND-UP MEET

Seventy-seven Old-Time Trill Waddies who were turning cows in these parts before the beginning of the year 1896 have sent in their $2 to the treasury with assurances to John Arnot, president, that they will be in for the annual Old-Time Cowpunchers Round-Up on the T-Anchor ranch near Canyon on August 22. Arnot warns the Old Waddies to hurry in their tickets, because arrangements may have to be made for more "chuck." First plans were to barbecue two young heaves and two mutton; John Sulder, of course doing the work.

Many of the old-timers will gather at Canyon on the night before the big round-up and live again in stories told around the camp fire the days of long ago.

Old Trill Waddies names and money coming in during the past week are: H. I. Mitchell, E. P. Bonnet, Ed Dawson, J. O. Whittington, N. E. Hord, W. J. Atterbury, R. N. Muir, Matthew Hooks (Bones), W. R. McDonnell, W. S.

Sargon is now called "The Medicine with a Million Friends." Its marvelous record of achievement is probably without parallel in the history of the drug trade of this country.

The area comprises the counties of Deaf Smith, Castro, Swisher, Bricoco, Motley, Floyd, Hale and the upper portion of Lamb county. Each troop will have a scoutmaster or some older man in charge of the representatives.

In describing the camp site and telling of the plans for the scout encampment, Executive Roberts writes as follows:

"Camp Nobles as the campsite is called is so named because of the generosity of H. A. and M. C. Nobles of Amarillo who own the land and have given us permission to use it as our camping site. This site is located just off the main highway between Silverton and Quitaque and is the best that could be found of the several places inspected. The widest part of the whole Palo Duro Canyon lies just beyond this land and is the place for adventure. Birds and small animal life is here in abundance and is a wonderful opportunity for the boys to study nature at close range.

Cottonwood and cedar abound in this canyon, giving campers an abundance of shade during the heat of the day as well as opportunity to do a little rustic pioneering. Several cool springs are found within a short distance of the campsite supplying the camp with a wonderful flow into swimming pool and guarantee an ever changing supply in the pool.

"Camp Nobles" leadership will be of the very highest type. The scoutmaster who has been leading the boys all year at home will most all be with their boys at camp continuing with the ideas started at home. Additional men who are experienced in their particular hobby will be there as instructors. Men of character, expert in their leadership of boys and knowledge of the out of doors will see that each day is made one of joy and growth to the camper. Boys will be continually under care of one or more of these men and will not be left to roam the canyons at will. A doctor will be a daily visitor to camp so the health of the campers will be looked after.

The boys will be sheltered in big rainproof tents, but probably these will be used only for sleeping as activities of the day will give little time to spend in the tent. Daily tent inspection will be in themselves a sufficient stimulant for the boys to pride themselves on the appearance of their tent.

The food will be prepared by two regular cooks who understand how to cook for large groups and supply all essential nutrients for growing boys.

The program is a continuous one from reveille in the morning until taps at night. Boys interested in Indian lore will have opportunity to make bows and arrows. Bowditch and Indian costume. One group has already made an Indian tepee and will sleep in it at camp.

Handicrafts of all kinds will be taught by men who know how, such as taxidermy, plaster casting, woodwork and leatherworking. Tools will be supplied for these activities. Nature lore will come in for its part in the program through tree and plant identification study contests.

Twice each day an hour will be devoted to swimming and to life saving instruction. The instructor promises to teach each boy to swim who will wet his ears. The buddy plan of water safety will be used throughout the camp. Two senior Red Cross life guards will be on duty each day during swimming hour. The pool will be the best in any camp in the Panhandle—150 yards of swimming water ranging from 3 to 8 in depth. A continuous flow of water into and out of the pool guarantees it being safe at all times.

Following the afternoon swim each boy will be expected to dress up, that is put on a clean uniform ready for the retreat ceremony of lowering the flag. A personal inspection will also be held to decide on the honor camper of the day.

Following supper there will be horseshoe pitching, baseball, croquet and games until time for camp fire, then more stunts, ceremonies and songs until taps.

A silver loving cup will be presented the troop that during camp has demonstrated the best troop and scout spirit, passes the most tests and fulfills several other camp requirements.

The last day of camp will be turned over to the late-trip and

ly. There will be contests in fire by friction, by flint and steel, water boiling, signaling, first aid, archery, string burning, etc. The winning troop will be presented a large American flag.

Visitors and parents are not only invited but urged to come any evening and see the boys in action. We ask the cooperation of parents and friends in that they do not bring or send foods or sweets to the boys, but should anyone wish to send enough fruit or candy to supply the whole camp then get in touch with the camp director first. Sunday is to be designated as visitors day and a special program will be arranged in the afternoon for their entertainment.

Youngsters Enjoy Party On Monday Afternoon

Sunshine, flowers and happy-hearted children combined to create a scene of most appealing loveliness Monday afternoon when a merry company of little folks were entertained from four to six thirty in celebration of the birthdays of the little Misses Gloria Yvonne Handley and Phyllis Gene Radovich, winsome three year old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Handley and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Radovich respectively.

Anticipating the happy event, gayly decorated invitations cleverly inscribed with appropriate Mother Goose rhymes had been issued to a large number of little friends of the honorees for an afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Handley.

Stretches of green lawn added their welcome to that of the small hostesses who as they greeted their guests, presented each a brightly colored paper cap and a glittering shield and sword. As the children scattered over the lawn they were given vari-colored balloons and other toys in vivid coloring until the scene might well have represented a garden of bright hued butterflies. Games that all children love, outdoor games and those indoors as well, filled to brimming the all too fleeting hours and at their close came the climax of the afternoon's pleasure, ice cream cones in pink and green, the predominating colors of the afternoon, with animal cookies, Gummy, life-like bears, ice in chocolate, spotted ponies and white horses, proud roosters flaunting plumage of brilliant red and pink eared rabbits in white and gray and brown mingled in the jolly menagerie. The party was enjoyed by 36 children. Those present were Margaret Barber, George L. LeGrand, John Douglas Pittman, Rene Rae Benfro, Jack London, La Nell Farmer, Billie Charlotte Connell, Hayden Connell, Mary Ann Acker, Catherine Jane Acker, Barbara Frances Higgins, Betty Jean Higgins, Wanda Jean Smith, Billy Orr, Wendell LeGrand, Ruth Temple Hastings, Pauline Dixon, Mary Ann Thompson, Lela Jane Orr, Bettie Lou Bell, Francis Ball, Voline T. Downs, Jr., Bobbie Claire Floyd, Oliver Foster, Martha Ann Hill, Betty Joe Hale, Elizabeth Ann Dunlap, Nolan Grady, Virginia Cursinger, Alyce Joyce Meeks, Lois Agnes GIBbreath, Joyce Meeks, Monte Lee Hill, Phyllis Gene Radovich, Gloria Yvonne Handley.

MISS LOIS CONE HONORED
Several couples were entertained by Misses Beth and Mae Millard in their home on Third St., last Friday night. Miss Lois Cone was honor guest. Bridge and music were the entertainments of the evening. Sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served to the merry group at a late hour.

TRACTOR POWER PAYS WITH MAXIMUM LOAD

Power unused, in a sense, is power wasted. At least it can be said that when the farm power available is not utilized to the fullest extent, it is not being given an opportunity to produce the greatest possible returns.

No man would think of hitching four horses to a one-row cultivator when only two are needed to pull it and when the same four head could handle a two-row without trouble and do twice the amount of work. Using the tractor to pull equipment which requires only one-half to two-thirds of its rated power, by the same line of reasoning, is just as uneconomical.

The man who has a tractor capable of pulling a three-bottom plow but who uses a plow of only two bottoms is not taking full advantage of the power he has available. With a three-bottom plow he could do 50 per cent more work in the same amount of time and with no more labor. His cost of plowing three acres with the three-bottom outfit would be little more than for plowing two acres with two bottoms because his investment in equipment would be only slightly greater and his fuel requirement not much more.

The same tractor with power enough to pull a tandem disc and harrow, or a pulverizer, single disc and drag, is not doing the work it should when used to pull only a single disc. This same thought might be applied to other types of field equipment as well as to belt power equipment, such as feed grinders. Exception must be made of course when some piece of equipment is used for only a small amount to justify the purchase of larger equipment to utilize the maximum power of the tractor.

Ample farm power yields greatest returns when efficiently used. One way to promote efficiency is maintain a proper and logical proportion or ratio between the equipment to be operated and the belt and drawing power available.

AD PROMOTER EARNS $2.00 IN DAYS VISIT

"Thirty-nine dollars is too high for that job," said a transient advertising peddler who called at the office of The Shamrock Texan recently to find out the price for printing a piece of advertising which he intended to sell to Shamrock merchants. The price quoted him was taken from the Franklin Printing Catalog, which is standard the world over. The man admitted he would sell the advertising for $100 and that he could sell it in half a day. He said he could save $7 or $8 on the printing, however, by sending it to a company which

Complaints are being received at the state highway offices from motorists that there is a growing tendency on the part of some drivers to cling to the left side of the road. Many accidents are chalked up as a result of this practice, says the road official.

Truck drivers are offending in some instances by "hogging" the center of the road and refusing to move over when motorists coming up from behind sound their horns. In other cases motorists drive far to the left to avoid dust or to pass a string of cars. "Courtesy to other drivers on the road is one of the greatest selling points a state may make to tourists," says the Department.

Accidents which occur when one driver is on the wrong side of the road put him in the position of receiving unequivocal blame, the road department points out. Head on collisions usually result in one or more fatalities. The worst of this is that the drivers usually escape while the other persons in the car suffer the consequences.

LOTS TO LEARN ABOUT PURE SEED PRODUCTION

College Station.—It is very necessary that a farmer understand the fundamentals and economics of small grain production before he can expect to make the greatest profit in producing pure seed. P. R. Dunkle, superintendent of Substation 5, Denton, pointed out in a discussion before the farm crop section at the Farmers Short Course, His subject was "Why It Pays to Plant Pedigreed Strains of Small Grain."

"Just for the small increase in production that will come naturally from the inherited superiority of the pure strains of small grain the use of pure seed without proper land preparation and rotation will hardly be worth while to the farmer," he continued. "On the other hand, pure seed grown under the most favorable conditions are able to exert their full inherited power and thus make the increased production as to the acre so much greater that the farmer's acre cost of production is lessened considerably."

"Assuming for convenience, that the acre cost of producing a crop of wheat is $10 and the difference in yield between poor seed and good seed is three bushels, which is a very conservative increase to be expected, and the price a bushel is $1, there may be expected a $3 greater profit from the good seed. Of this $3 say $1 or perhaps $1.50 may have been spent for the better seed. Therefore we will consider the $1.50 as the gain per acre in planting more wheat. On the average North Texas black land farm there are usually from forty to fifty acres planted in wheat. So the average farmer ought to clear from $60 to $75 more on his good seed than on ordinary. If the same thing is applied to other field crops, particularly corn, cotton and oats it is readily seen that the average farmer's income could easily be increased from $200 to $500 a year. Considering the difference in yield between poor seed and good seed is three bushels, which is a very conservative increase to be expected, and the price a bushel is $1, there may be expected

GENERALS DO K. P. DUTY FOR PRIVATES AT "FEED"

San Diego, Calif.—Few cities of the United States has as many retired generals of the Army and Navy Corps and admirals of the Navy as does San Diego. Virtually all of these distinguished officers belong to San Diego Post No. 6, American Legion.

In fact so well do the generals and "buck privates" of the Legion get along that the privates recently ordered the generals to do "K. P." duty while they, the privates, enjoyed a feed of hot dogs, coffee and many other viands. Those on the serving line were Maj. General Joseph E. Pendleton, U. S. M. C., retired, and past commander of post No. 6; Maj. General Joseph E. Kuhn, U. S. A., retired, and Maj. General Frederick Strong, U. S. A., retired and former commander of the 40th division. A raft of lesser officers, such as majors, etc., were ordered to assist the generals. But the "big fellows" actually served the chow and seemed to enjoy it.

San Diego post has about all the officials of the city in the legion, including the Mayor, Harry C. Clark. Several high ranking naval officers, both active and retired, are members of the San Diego Legion organization.

CLERKS TO MEET IN AMARILLO AUGUST 16

problems confronted by clerks in their regular duties. Mrs. E. B. Boren, Dimmitt, is secretary of the association.

L. H. Foster, county clerk of Deaf Smith county, will attend the convention at Amarillo.

PRACTICAL CO-OPERATION SEEN IN WESTERN CO-OPS

Practical cooperation was put into effect recently between a group of leading California growers' co-operative marketing organizations when the Sun-Maid Raisin Growers of California sent out a personal letter to every member of the association urging them to purchase by brand name the of other co-operatives. Such a request not only creates an immediate demand for the creatively produced articles listed in the letter, but it furnishes a powerful sales argument able for use in persuading grocery outlets doing business in the territory where the goods are produced to stock each of the creatively packed and sold

A new INNER TUBE

Let the extra miles in CONOCO gasoline buy it for you . . . .

If you keep an accurate record of gasoline costs, you know that every extra mile you get from a gallon is so much profit. In the aggregate these extra miles represent a handsome saving—enough to pay for those greatly desired accessories you've had in mind; perhaps a pair of new inner tubes or an extra set of spark plugs. That's why it will pay you well to fill only at the Conoco sign—the red triangle—the symbol of extra miles. Conoco gasoline is refined to produce maximum mileage without in any way sacrificing those other essentials of a good motor fuel—quick starting and rapid acceleration. It functions efficiently at every step in the driving operation with special emphasis on power and mileage.

Look for the new Conoco Red Triangle. Fill 'er up. Then speed away for extra miles.

RETURN FROM CAPTIVITY

Ezra 1:1-6; Ps. 126:1-6.

Text: Jehovah hath done things for us, whereof we had not—Ps. 126:1-6.

Introduction.

The great central events in Old Testament history are the migration of Abraham to Canaan, the nation of Jacob to Egypt, the exodus from Egypt, the conquest of Canaan, the establishment of the monarchy, the division of the kingdom, the fall of the Northern Kingdom, the fall of the Southern Kingdom, and the return from exile. These nine most important events come now to the last, and we will study it in prophecy, in history, in song.—Wells.

Commerce, society, civic advancement and comfort have made the world a strange place. But the finger of providence has pointed from the magnificent city of Babylon to the ruined city of Jerusalem. Ideals beckon us over the difficult path. But it is the path of duty and glory.—Hight Moore.

Out of the pit of Babylon came a purified and disciplined people who were thereby prepared for their great mission in the world.—J. H. Snowden.

Jeremiah's Prophecy.

Jeremiah makes a definite statement that "after seventy years are accomplished for Babylon (that is, after the Babylonian empire has enjoyed its preeminence for seventy years) Jehovah will keep his promise and cause his people to return to their own land. The seventy year period of the exile is capable of a very exact interpretation: "The period assigned by Jeremiah for the duration of the Jewish exile in Babylon (Jer. 25:11, 12, 29:10) is 70 years. If the period be reckoned from the date of the first deportation in the fourth year of Jehoiachin (2 Kings 24:1) i. e., B. C. 598, till the decree of Cyrus, B. C. 538, the prediction was fulfilled to a year.—International Standard Bible Encyclopaedia.

This great promise was certified by Jeremiah by gracious assurances of God's love for his people. "Ye shall seek me," he says through his prophet, "and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart." That search for God was wrought about by the exile. They sought Jehovah with all their hearts, truly repented of their sins, and were accepted by their God. They never again fell into idol worship.

Cyrus Fulfills Prophecy.
That faith of Cyrus. He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure, even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the people, Thou shalt have a foundation. Thou shalt be built.—Isa. 44:28. "In the course of two years Darius (The Mede) died, and Cyrus succeeded to the magnificent Medo-Persian empire. It is hardly a stretch of fancy to imagine an interview between him and the venerable Hebrew prophet, who had risen so high in the councils of the Babylonian kings. We may easily suppose Daniel, after being presented to Cyrus, opening the book of the prophet Isaiah, and reading to the king the first few verses of the forty-fifth chapter and the last verse of the forty-fourth chapter. Great must have been the astonishment of Cyrus to find himself mentioned by name in that old Hebrew document—described as breaking to pieces "the brazen gates" of Babylon; as receiving from God "the hidden riches" of Croesus and other wealthy kings; and as God's appointed instrument for setting his people free.

Proclamation of Cyrus.
"Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath Jehovah, the God of heaven, given me." "All the kingdoms of the earth" reproduces the grandiloquent language of Cyrus' own inscriptions; for instance, on the "Cyrus-Cylinder" he refers to himself thus: "I, Cyrus, am king of the world, the great king, the mighty king." Humility was not a royal attribute in those days. But here Cyrus does humbly acknowledge that he owes all his greatness to Jehovah, the God of the Jews, who is also the heavenly sovereign. "And he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah." Cyrus does not speak of rebuilding the ruined temple of Solomon; he would prefer to have the new temple appear to be of his own originating. So obscure was Jerusalem in its ruins that it was thought necessary to state, for the information of many to whom the edict would go, in just what province of his far-flung empire it was situated.

Assistance for Returning Exiles.
"And whosoever is left, in any place where he sojourneth." This is, "Whatever survivors of the Jewish captivity may be so sojourning anywhere throughout the empire." "Let the men of his place help him." His non-Jewish neighbors are to give him aid as he sets out on his long and difficult journey back to his fatherland. "With silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts." The returning exiles, many of whom would be poor, would need money to buy the necessities of life on their way back, household goods to set up their homes in Palestine, and beasts for the journey and also to work their fields.

on their return. "Besides the freewill offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem." Cyrus has in mind the establishment of services in the new temple which is to be erected in Jerusalem; much work will be needed for that purpose, and it is to be furnished by Jews who do not take part in the return, as well as by their heathen neighbors if they really wish to have a hand in the work of reconstruction.

Freewill Offering of Cyrus.
Cyrus himself had a freewill offering to make to the temple of Jehovah, nothing less than the sacred vessels of gold and silver which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple about sixty years before, and had stored up as trophies in his heathen temples, the very vessels which Belsazzar had impudently used in his drunken feast on the night that Babylon was captured. The account of the taking of these vessels is in 2 Kings 24:13. There were 5400 of the gold and silver vessels and utensils in all. All these vessels were made under the superintendence of Solomon and had remained so long in the holy enclosure of the temple, being employed in the most sacred uses, Cyrus' gift, aside from its intrinsic value, was the most gracious present he could have made to the Jewish people.

The Returning Exiles.
"The permission given by Cyrus for the return of the Jews to their own land was not at first accepted by any very large number. No more than 42,800 Israelites, together with 7,337 slaves, quitted Babylonia under Zerubbabel. By far the greater number, especially those of the wealthier classes, preferred to remain behind to hold the property which they had acquired, and pursue the avocations to which they were accustomed on a foreign but now friendly soil. It has been calculated that those who returned stood in the proportion of one to six."—George Rawlinson.

Joy of Returning Exiles.
"Great was the joy of those who first got back. They remembered it afterward as something almost delirious. The rough roads, the dangers and fatigues of travel—these were not the things which they recalled, but the contagious, even hysterical joy with which they celebrated their return. It is hard to read with dry eyes the charming little poem that records these facts. It begins with a recollection of this first period of intoxicating happiness. It passes with a more sustained note to the impression which this providence has made upon the heathen, who said, "Jehovah hath done great things for them."

Gathering up into a single sentence the mission of the exile, whose fruitage is now apparent, it closes with a noble word of hope.—Rev. William E. Barton, D. D.

"Sow in Tears, Reap in Joy."
"They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." "I never saw people sowing in tears exactly, but have often known them to do it in fear and distress sufficient to draw them from any eye. In seasons of great scarcity, the poor peasants part in sorrow with every measure of precious seed cast into the ground. It is like taking bread out of the mouths of their children; and in such times many bitter tears are actually shed over it. The distress is frequently so great that government is obliged to furnish seed, or none would be sown."—W. M. Thomson. "Sorrow is our sowing, rejoicing shall be our reaping. Here is one of the Lord's shalls and wills; it is freely given both to workers, waiters, and reapers, and they shall rest assured that it will not fail: 'In due season they shall reap'."—C. H. Spurgeon.

Seedtime and Harvest.
"Faith, then, must open the furrow. And hope, too, must drop in her seed. Love, then, shall gather her harvest. Go forth in earnest—take heed, 'For they that sow in tears shall reap in joy!'"

"HOLD YOUR WHEAT."

Lincoln, Neb.—Wheat growers are making a mistake by overcrowding the market, Samuel R. McKelvie, recently appointed to the federal farm board to study the grain situation, warned recently in a statement.

The statement, he said, was not to be construed as an expression of the federal farm board.

"There is a disparity of from 12 to 13 cents between cash wheat and wheat contracted for delivery December 1," he said. "This grain can be carried on the farm at a cost of from 3 to 4 cents a bushel until December 1, so it is readily seen that the farmer is paying around 10 cents a bushel than he should for handling grain over the period in question.

The farmers have sufficient facilities to store wheat on farm, McKelvie said, and should not depend on terminal facilities to handle grain immediately.

He quoted figures showing the forecasts of August 1, 800,000,000 bushels of winter wheat, and 207,000,000 bushels of all wheat in the United States this year. This is in comparison with 902,000,000 bushels of wheat in the United States year, and a five year average of 810,000,000 bushels.

They Do Not Say that "the Modern Girl Can't Bake Bread—But She Makes the Dough"

Modern industry demands increasing employment of women.

Whether employed in the home, the office, or in the factory, women are the careful dispensers of the family income.

We have long enjoyed the confidence of the women of Hereford in financial matters and our officers are glad to be helpful to them.
