Sights and Faces Seen

George Muse showed no signs of rheumatism last Thursday when he started to light from the train after greeting Jim Farley. The train started up and was traveling right along when Mr. Muse, the last man to leave the platform, got off. Mayor C. J. Paddock avows he has a blue place where Mr. Muse kept jabbing him in the back.

Wilson Giles thought so much of the occasion that he sent his tie over to be cleaned and pressed before going down to see Farley.

"You don't even cheat fair!" Billy London remarked when he got back to the Brand office. Billy went down to the train to sell Farley a copy of the paper—and then H. V. Hennen, Chamber of Commerce secretary, gave Farley a paper.

Limping considerably from rheumatism, Ox Emmons was able to be on the streets Monday for the first time since he had his tonils removed. He plans to attend A. & M. this summer and to visit Marlin each week end to get rid of his "miseries".

When Mrs. G. A. Stambaugh predicts rain, it rains. Most anyone will tell you that, and here is the reason: she has a pet goose which goes into a tantrum before each shower. She declares Old Tack and his crew haven't a chance when compared to her goose for accurate predictions.

Little Bobby Posey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Posey, celebrated her third birthday Friday. The young lady has the same birthday as the Dionne quintuplets.

If you want to hear a fish story, contact A. H. Stren, Paul Foster, Glenn Weir, Noah Ewton or Bill Smith. After eating sardines and salmon for three days they returned from New Mexico with some long, tall yarns—but no one saw any fish.

Legion Quarters Being Remodeled

Workmen were this week remodeling the American Legion rooms over the City Hall. Composition board has been placed over the rafters in the ceiling of the rooms and a large portion of the walls have been covered. Baseboards are being placed around the walls.

Cracks in the brick walls are to be filled in and the entire room is to be painted, including the ceiling and brick walls. The kitchen is also being remodeled and will be painted.

All children from the first grade through the seventh grade are invited to meet in the district court room in Hereford Monday morning, June 7, at 10 o'clock for the purpose of making plans for a Story Telling Hour. The story telling hour will be conducted each week by Miss Katherine Kirby and Miss Ruth Conkright. Miss Kirby and Miss Conkright, both instructors in Central School, are giving their services free of charge this summer in sponsoring the special hour.

Two Bridges Washed Out In This Area

Following heavy rains in this section during the past week, 2.27 inches fell here Friday night to send Tierra Blanca Creek on a mad rampage. As flooded lands over this entire section emptied into the stream, the swirling waters wrought havoc to bridges in the Hereford area.

Two Bridges Out.
The first bridge to go out here was the concrete structure which spanned Tierra Blanca at the old highway crossing southwest of town. This bridge washed out Saturday morning. Members of the commissioners' court decided at their meeting Monday that this bridge will not be replaced.

Early Sunday morning the Main Street bridge, which spans the Tierra Blanca just south of town, also went out. Commissioners said that this bridge will be replaced just as soon as a construction crew can be secured.

Approaches to several other bridges were also badly washed, but can be repaired at small cost since the approaches formed the chief damage.

Roads Are Flooded.
Roads were flooded over the entire section, but traffic was directed over new courses. However, many persons were delayed in reaching Muleshoe and other points for several hours. The Frio Draw, also impregnated by heavy rains, was on a rampage, but washed approaches on the new Frio bridge was the extent of damage there.

Hundreds of persons gathered Sunday morning to view the raging waters and Tierra Blanca in places was 200 yards wide. Picture fans kept cameras clicking Saturday and Sunday, recording the swollen stream and the ruined bridges.

Some persons declared Tierra Blanca was higher last year, while others reported higher waters this year. Part of the Park road was under water as the Tierra Blanca spread from its small bed to adjoining lands. Railroad tracks were under water for a short period between here and Friona, while several railway bridges in New Mexico were reported to have gone out.

There will be classes for beginners, primary, junior and intermediate grades for children between the ages of four and 14 years," Rev. Thorns said. "Every boy and girl of the community between these ages is cordially invited to attend the school."

Progress On Rural Power Lines Shown

ENGINEER NOW MAPPING LINE LOCATIONS FOR COUNTY

Rapid progress is being made on Rural Electrification plans and specifications for this area, it was announced today by H. V. Hennen. Carl Cox, project engineer, has been in Hereford this week working on plans and preparing a map in regard to location of lines. Mr. Cox expects to remain here during the next week and to continue his work in locating lines.

"Persons who would like to join the cooperative should do so as soon as possible," Mr. Hennen said. "Lines are going to run where they will serve the greatest number of members and memberships now will determine the location of lines."

As soon as Mr. Cox has concluded his survey and drawn up necessary specifications, the plans will be sent to Washington, following which the construction contract will be let.

Mr. Hennen pointed out that the Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Inc., is a non-profit organization, incorporated under the laws of Texas, and that no individual will be liable except for the actual amount of electricity which he uses. Since it is a non-profit organization, he said that the welfare of members will be considered above all else and that the cheapest possible price will be established.

"As the organization progresses, low interest finance will be available to help individuals purchase equipment, household appliances, such as milkers, feed grinders and other electrical equipment," Mr. Hennen said.

Assembly of God Missionary Will Be Here Friday

Rev. Hugh P. Jeter, returned missionary from Lima, Peru, will conduct a special service at the Assembly of God church Friday night, June 3, at 8 o'clock, according to Rev. W. A. McCann, pastor, today.

McCann said that the public is invited to attend the service at the church located one block north of the high school.

Rev. Hollis Galley, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, will leave Saturday morning with Rev. Jeter. They will stop to conduct services at Portales, Albuquerque and San Bernardino, and will then go to Los Angeles from where they will sail July 15 for Lima, Peru, as missionaries.

Mrs. Bradly has been with the TRC for three years, first working in a clerical capacity and during the past two years as a case worker.

Farmers Eager To Plant Row Crops Following May Rains

Farmers Plan June 8 Meet At Amarillo

S. O. Wilson, Deaf Smith county chairman of the Texas Agricultural Association, today announced a special meeting to be held in Amarillo at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 8, which he urged every farmer in this territory to attend.

Aims of the meeting are to consider a proposed National and Improved Farm Program, Mr. Wilson said. Farm men and farm women are urged to attend and consider the proposed bill, he declared, and listed the following points:

"In a nut shell this act aims to secure and maintain parity prices on agriculture crops," he said; "to maintain a normal supply through the ever-normal granary plan in the interest of the consuming public; to conserve the soil by adjusting production. Co-operating farmers will receive price adjustment payments and soil building payments instead of diversion payments and will also be eligible for loans. These payments will be regulated by the supply and by the market price."

Funeral Services Held Tuesday for Cooper Morgan

Funeral services for Walter Cooper Morgan 55, were held from the E. B. Black Funeral Home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 1, conducted by Rev. T. C. Willett, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Mr. Morgan died at 9:15 o'clock Sunday evening, May 30, following a brief illness. He was born December 12, 1882, in Brownwood, Texas, and married Miss Ada Marguerite Sherman December 22, 1903, at Clarendon, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan came to Deaf Smith county May 1, 1918, and he was first engaged as a farmer near Hereford. However, for more than 10 years Mr. Morgan has been in charge of the meat market in the Piggy Wiggy.

Mr. Morgan had numerous friends over the entire county and was probably one of the most widely known men in this immediate section. He was considered as a good neighbor and a reliable citizen by those who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Harold Weyer, Muleshoe; Misses Melva Jean and Mary Jane Morgan, both of Hereford; three sons, James T. Morgan of Amarillo; W. C. Morgan, of Lubbock, and Sherman F. Morgan of Hereford; three sisters, Mrs. Lloyd Blackwell of Amarillo; Mrs. Claudia Thompson of Fort Worth, and Mrs. W. A. Strange of Texarkana, Texas; two brothers, James S. Morgan of Clarendon, and Gordon S. Morgan of Seagraves, Texas; also two grandchildren.

The services included a special hymn sung by Mrs. Carl Moutz. Pall bearers were A. A. Foster, W. W. Bennett, H. L. Rice, H. L. Benefield, Frank Givans and Frank A. Gyles.

Interment was made in West Park Cemetery.

Twenty-two new caps for members of the Hereford Fire Department arrived this week. The new caps have a white waterproofed top, and are trimmed in blue. Metal shields on each of the caps designate the hose company to which the member belongs, and carry the name Hereford.

Boosts REA

To Congressman Marvin Jones is given much credit in having secured 115 miles of rural power lines for the Deaf Smith and Castro Counties project. The project here is reported as the only one of its kind in the United States and is being rushed to completion.

Union Revival Continues To Hold Interest

With only a few days remaining of the Cooperative Evangelistic Revival being conducted here by five Hereford churches, members of the Pastor's Association today reported that greater interest is being shown in the meeting than at any time since it started May 23. Crowds have thronged the Methodist church auditorium for each service and the crowd was so large Sunday night that some had to be turned away.

In connection with special numbers which are presented at each of the services, the Merry Mary Quartet was present Sunday night.

The revival meeting is being conducted by Rev. H. M. Redford of the First Christian church, Rev. J. C. Thorns, First Presbyterian church; Rev. W. A. McCann, Assembly of God church, and Rev. T. C. Willett, First Methodist church. Although the Baptist church has no pastor at the present time, the congregation is cooperating in the revival.

"We invite and urge every person to attend the meeting each time possible," pastors stated. "Services will be held Thursday night, Friday night and Sunday night, when the meeting will close."

The pastors stated that they would continue their policy of not announcing the preacher who will deliver the sermon until the time of each meeting.

Wilson Return Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson and daughter, Marian Jo, returned Saturday from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they have been for the past month. Mr. Wilson Monday resumed his duties in the Bosson Implement Company. He reported that he was feeling greatly improved.

Town Band To Be Organized Here Tuesday At Meeting In City Hall

Ralph Smith today stated that a town band will be organized here this summer and set the first meeting date for Tuesday night, June 8, in the American Legion rooms over the City Hall. The meeting will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

"Anyone who is interested is invited to attend the meeting and to join the band," Mr. Smith said. "We expect to have one of the best town bands in this section and want as many instru-

TIMELY MOISTURE ALSO BELIEVED TO HAVE BOOSTED WHEAT

Farmers and stockmen in this area were today eagerly awaiting for the lands to dry out sufficiently to plant row crops as prospects for one of the largest row crops in recent years dawned for this section. Wheat prospects were also reported to have been greatly bolstered by the rainfall and provided too many hot days do not follow, considerable success wheat is expected to produce.

May Rains 7.01.
Climaxed by a 2.75 inch rain Friday night, the total rainfall for the month of May was 7.01 inches in Hereford. Surrounding communities reported slight variations, but the moisture was general over the county. The following table itemizes May rainfall as recorded in Hereford:

May 3	0.10
May 6	0.19
May 10	0.52
May 11	0.17
May 19	0.17
May 20	0.31
May 23	0.27
May 24	1.52
May 25	0.37
May 27	0.88
May 28	0.24
May 29	2.27
Total	7.01

Tuesday morning, June 1, showed a rainfall of .42 of an inch, which was followed by .73 of an inch Tuesday night, giving a total of 1.15 for the first two days in June. When combined with the May rains this brings the total to 8.16 for May and the first two days in June.

Some little amount of row crops were said to have been planted, but the bulk of this crop remains yet to be planted. Farmers are signifying their intention of putting in a large row crop, and plan to feed out more steers during the coming months than the county has seen recently. Since this section is well adapted to cattle breeding and raising this step is expected to result in a satisfactory income for many farmers of this area. Much interest is also being manifested in dairy herds, chickens and hogs with bright row crop prospects.

Adrian Wheat Outlook

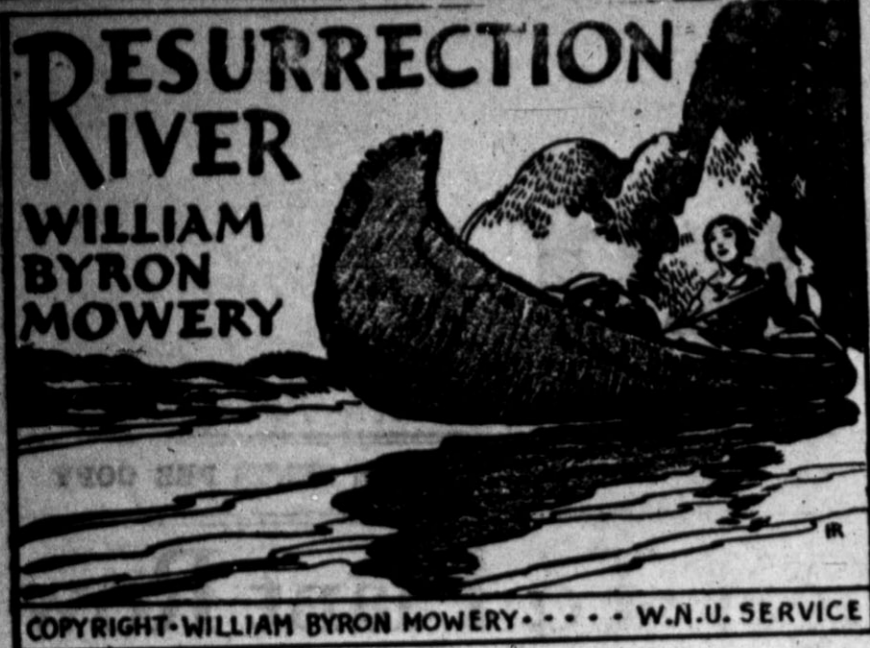

Some unusually good wheat prospects were reported in the Adrian community. Johnny Kemp has some unusually good wheat and on his four sections is expecting an average yield of 10 bushels. Some of the wheat is expected to run as high as 20 bushels. Floyd Brown has four sections of wheat which sheep grazed for 90 days and which he believes will run for 10 to 15 bushels an acre. Will Brown has 400 acres which it is believed will make from five to ten bushels to the acre.

Looking around, Patricia spotted the singer, at one of the tents over near the river bank. Sitting on a box labeled DYNAMITE, he was plucking away at an old guitar and singing endlessly.

It suddenly occurred to Patricia that it was this man's singing which had awakened her a little while ago, before she was ready to wake up. If he sang like that every morning, when his tent was so close—

"Hullo, over there!" she called. The noise broke off. The man arose looked around, saw her. "You call me, hein?" "Nobody but you! Come over here!"

The man came, carrying his guitar tenderly beneath his arm. As he drew near, Patricia saw by his features that though he was nometis (half-breed) he did have a tinge of Indian blood in him. A stalwart big fellow, thirty years old, he was strong and powerful as a bull moose, but he trod with the light step of a Cree woodsrunner.

"What'll you take for that thing?" she demanded, pointing at the cheap battered guitar. "For dis gee-tar, you mean? My goo'ness. Mees, I not sell her, neva! She fine-dandy gee-tar; and me, I've carry her 'roun wit' me all over de Nor', from Labrador to Nascapue to Alaska Porcupine. But I tell you w'at, Mees—I'll len' her to you w'enever you wan' to play her."

Patricia laughed and her anger fled. "You don't get the point, but no matter." She eyed the big fellow up and won with amused curiosity. "I say, who are you, anyway?" "Me? I'm Poleon."

"Poleon what?" "Napoleon Auguste Cesar de la Salle St. Jacques."

"Good gracious, it's a wonder you aren't stoop-shouldered! What are you, a prospector?" "Oh, I got wan or two claim stake' down, back in dere,"—he gestured up Resurrection river—"but I don't care a whole pile 'bout prospecting. A feller wit' a string of claims, he's got to work on 'em so much dat 'stead of beem having dem stake' down, dey got beem stake' down; and me, I don't lak dat."

"What do you do, then?" "Oh, I hunt wolf, trap, roam." Patricia offered him a cigarette. lit one herself—to his great astonishment; and sat down on a mossy rock for a chat with this Poleon fellow. He was so buoyant, so kind and sunny-hearted, that she liked him instantly. Naive as a child in some ways, he was sensitive and intelligent in many others; and she found him to be a mine of information about Dynamite Bay.

The main prospecting field, he told her, lay up Resurrection, beginning at those sawtooth hills and extending northeast into the Pity the Man at the End!

Imagine the feelings of the man at the end of this recumbent line of members of the Royal Signal corps if the trick motorcycleist underestimates the length of the jump. It's the end man that's ridden over roughshod. Everything turned out all right, however, in this test made near London.

ions in the past when Wellington, Parkes & Lovett had interested the gullible public in the worthless field and then "got out from under"—at huge profit to themselves.

After Poleon had left her, she lit a second cigarette and gazed thoughtfully up Resurrection at those blue hills. Just then the mystery hanging over the field seemed of little importance to her. She was too stirred and gripped by the elemental wildness of the country. A queer formidable land. Even the air, in spite of the bright sun, had a strange sharp bite to it which she had never experienced under any other sky.

Again that uneasiness and misgiving crept over her, and she felt afraid.

CHAPTER II

Late that afternoon, bored by half a day of idling around camp, Patricia ordered three of the Chitwaughimi half-breeds to pitch her a hammock and mosquito canopy at the woods edge; and she made herself comfortable there, with a book, to pass the dull hours.

She hated idleness like the plague; yet idleness seemed the thing that she had the most of, in her life. Wherever she went, at home, abroad, idleness dogged her; and now it had followed her even to the remote North.

She had expected to plunge in and help Warren with his work, whatever it was; but he had politely refused to let her help him or to tell her a single word about his business there on Resurrection.

It wounded Patricia very deeply to discover that Warren was holding out on her. He and she, had been together almost a solid week, on the long trip, yet she knew no more about his secret mission than she had known in Chicago. She had tried earnestly to break down that sense of strangeness between them, but so far she had miserably failed.

She cared little about his mission itself; she only wanted him to be open and warm and honest with her. But she did want that, dreadfully; and his evasive silence hurt.

Instead of reading, she lay in the hammock in a reverie mood, staring up at the apple-green Arctic sky. Down at Chicago she had thought about Resurrection River, and now on Resurrection she was thinking about Chicago, brooding about it and her life there.

Toward six o'clock, she slid out of the hammock and wandered down to the bank of Resurrection, to find Poleon, St. Jacques and have him take her on a little "slumming expedition."

"If you can spare a couple of hours, Poleon," she said, "I'd like for you to take me across the river. I'll pay you for the trouble, of course."

"Why, you don't need pay me nut'ing, Mees Pal. I take you over dere as a fren', jus' lak if sometim I come to Cheecago you tage me 'round as a fren'."

Poleon set a near-by canoe to water, handed her in; and with a heave and a cheery "Alions!" he sent the craft dancing out upon Resurrection.

Mary Dwight (Bette Davis), working as hostess in a cabaret, shares an apartment with four of her colleagues. Except for a charge of murder, when the nightclub owner, Johnny Vanning (Eduardo Cinnelli), has a customer killed for not paying his check, her existence rolls along smoothly enough until her little sister, down from school for a weekend, comes to pay a visit. At a Vanning party, Mary's little sister is murdered for resisting rape. From this point on, MARKED WOMAN is concerned with the rebellion of the hostesses against their boss; the efforts of a young district attorney (Humphrey Bogart) to make them testify; and the trial in which Vanning gets his approximate deserts.

Bette Davis has been the screen's ablest specialist in unhealthy roles. To her portrayal of its neurotic heroine and to Eduardo Cinnelli's of its hard-boiled Latin villain is due most of MARKED WOMAN'S effectiveness. Good shot: "The last—Mary saying good-bye to the district attorney after the trial, then going off with friends."

How entrance was gained to the office is still a problem, because no door locks were broken and no windows were forced. It is presumed that the thieves might have entered the building and hidden Sunday afternoon, taking the money after the garage was closed.

JUNIOR PIONEER CLUB ENTERTAINS MOTHERS

Members of the Junior Pioneer club entertained their mothers and members of the Pioneer Study club Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Louis Woodford, with Mrs. Homer Brumley as co-hostess. Pastel garden flowers were used throughout in decorating, low bowls of fragrant roses and honeysuckle formed a pleasing contrast for tall vases of stately larkspur. Refreshments carried out the same pastel color motif.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Bessie Patterson, who explained the course of study pursued by the club the past year, and introduced the evening's program as a culmination to that study of Home Making in West Texas. She gave a clever reading, Failure in Marriage. Mrs. Elizabeth Brumley discussed a recent article in Scribner's Magazine, The New Woman Goes Home, in which she advocated the old fashioned type of woman whose place was within the home. She touched on the economic and social problems of the home maker.

Mrs. Alton Miller gave the answer to that article in Scribner's with an article from the same magazine on Bread Winners or Bread Makers. She pointed out the fact that the majority of women who worked did not do so from choice but from necessity, and stressed the thought that a success could be made of both if the right methods were used.

Mrs. O. G. Hill introduced the Pioneer Study club members. Each member of the club introduced her guest and the new officers were introduced. Guests present were Misses Wirt Phillips, A. O. Thompson, O. T. Williams, J. A. Schroeter, Artie Daniels, Matt Gilliland, Julia Sowell, O. G. Hill, Ray Johnson, F. W. Montfort, J. H. Miller, Pink Gilliland, Edgar Johnson, Glenn Weir, M. D. SUNDAY SCHOOL, JUNIOR C. E. HAVE PICNIC PARTY

Members of the Junior-Intermediate Sunday school departments and Junior Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church were entertained with a picnic-party Wednesday afternoon of last week at the Christian parsonage.

Games of baseball on a nearby vacant lot were enjoyed before the group was entertained with roasting weiners for the picnic supper in the spacious back yard at the parsonage.

Later plans were discussed for a Bible contest sponsored by the Christian Endeavor which was begun last Sunday.

Those present were Nadie Newell, Ruth Temple Hastings, Eleanor Wilson, Rue Wilson, Edith Standifer, Rachel Ireland, Nona Dean Rose, Mattie Louise Lawson, Gertrude London, Lillie London, Dorothy Coombes, June Dameron, Ann Cockrell, Nora Jean Russell, Mary Virginia Whitehead, Erna Faye Robinson, Eleanor McKinley, Nola Margaret Blue, A. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson of Stratford visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gilbreath and with other relatives here over the week end.

SHOWER HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Bettie Rose Kerr, bride-elect of Mr. Robert H. Birchfield of Wellington, is being honored with lovely pre-nuptial parties. The Klun club and members of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church entertained with a miscellaneous-shower at the home of Mrs. E. S. Ireland Friday afternoon.

A galaxy of spring blossoms furnished the floral decorations. The centerpiece for the attractively appointed table was a large punch bowl encircled with delicate sprays of old Spanish moss and velvet scarlet roses. Misses P. R. Walker and Boone Whitaker presided at the punch bowl.

An appropriate program was given. Mrs. Clay Ridgway entertained with three piano numbers, The Breathing Rose, by Orth; What the Old Oak Said, by Orth; and The Love Poem, by Grieg.

An essay on husbands was presented by Mrs. J. C. Thorns. Mrs. John Olson gave A Toast to the Bride, and Mrs. G. M. Hudson read Sister's Wedding Gifts.

The shower was introduced when the local express agent appeared with a large package labeled A Bundle of Happiness. The receipt for the package, which was signed by the honoree, told that the package had been sent from Loveland by Dan Cupid. Its weight had been marked Love, and its total sum was one of Honor and Obedy.

The guest list included Misses Vern Witherspoon, D. H. Alexander, J. H. Olson, Henry Hastings, W. M. Rigler, H. J. Henden, Roy Haberer, W. M. Cogdell, Ezra Norton, Lillian Bell, M. S. Hornbeak, J. E. Gyles, J. T. Gilbreath, Jr., C. C. Ferguson, Lee Conklin, H. H. Boardman, C. J. Paddock, Mack Beach, Otto Olson, T. M. Palmer, P. R. Walker, John C. Thorns, G. M. Hudson, W. B. Whitaker, F. B. Craddock, Will S. Kerr, Arch Conklin, Clay Ridgway, Matt Gilliland, C. F. Kerr, the honor guest and the hostess.

Visitors in Brazil Home.

Visiting Mrs. R. P. Brazil on Memorial Day were her brother, Will Humphries, and son, Marlin, of Llano; a son, O. J. Brazil and his wife and daughter, Vera, of Borger, and another son, R. L. Brazil and wife of Oklahoma City. All the visitors returned to their respective homes Monday except Miss Vera Brazil, who remained in Hereford for a week's visit with her grandmother.

Savage Sells Laundry.

Following the sale of the laundry to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Savage left Thursday morning for Littlefield, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. H. W. Gigsby and family. Mr. and Mrs. Savage have operated the laundry here for the past two and one-half years. At the present time they have not definitely decided where they will locate, but are considering Lubbock as their future home.

John Gregory Dies May 26 In California

John H. Gregory, early resident of Deaf Smith county, died at his home in San Bernardino, California, May 26.

Mr. Gregory had many friends in this section, especially among old timers. In 1906 he purchased a place in the Kelso community, including the old Kelso townsite. He operated the place and was known as one of the leading stockmen in this section.

In 1910 he was elected to the office of county commissioner and continued to serve the county in that capacity until 1916, when he sold his place to J. H. Kemp. Mr. Gregory moved to Amarillo from here, and later went to California.

Carl Spratt arrived Saturday from Yancey, Texas, where he has been employed as band director and teacher in the public schools. He plans to be in Hereford a part of the summer.

BY MRS. J. N. MESSENGER
About seven inches of rain fell here in five days last week. Four inches was the estimated fall last Thursday night. This will result in wheat and grass improvement.

The draw south of the George Messenger home was so high it covered the county bridge. The bridge held and was being used first of the week.

Drifting weeds caused the loss of fences out during the rains, and cattle are crossing into other pastures, and will result in many mixups unless looked after at once.

No new cases of measles have developed here, and those so afflicted are improving.

McCullum Predicts Light, Fast Squad

SPRING PRACTICE SHOWS AVERAGE OF 155- POUND TEAM

Listing the 1937 football schedule and likely candidates for the Hereford squad next season, Coach Tommy McCullum this week said that five lettermen would return from the 1936 team.

R. C. Ashlock and Jasper Vaughn have been selected as co-captains for the Whiteface Eleven. Returning lettermen will include Jasper Vaughn, Jarrell Rutherford, Paul Foster, Howard West and E. B. Posey, Jr.

In addition to the returning lettermen, the following list of candidates is expected to turn out for the team next season: R. C. Ashlock, Wayne Haun, Robert Peterson, J. C. Vaughn, C. H. Parker, Leo Rogers, Ernest Schumacher, and Bud Wilkins, all for backfield posts. Those who will be out for line positions are Frank Vaughn, Ray Nunn, Bartley Dowell, Harvey Nunn, Dean Dunlap, Ferrell Miles, Walter London, Erwin Herr, Stanley White, Bill Boyer and Bud Bradley.

In connection with the coming season, Coach McCullum made the following summary:

"In spring practice these boys came out and showed plenty of fight and willingness to learn. We will have more speed on the whole team than ever before. There will not be a boy playing who is not fast enough to really pull out and run interference. We lose all but two regulars and most of our weight.

"E. B. Posey and Harvey Nunn were each awarded a gold football for being the best blockers in spring practice. Several others were about as good, and it was hard to make the choice. No one stood out above the rest of the squad, but there seems to be plenty of possibilities. One boy, Bob Green, failed to pass enough work to play next fall. His parents moved to California just before Christmas and then moved back; this caused Bob to miss a lot of school and he was unable to make up. He played regularly last year and his place will be hard to fill.

"It looks like the team will weigh about 155 pounds per man. Most of the boys weigh about the same. Fall practice will start August 30, one week before school opens."

The complete 1937 schedule will be found on page six of this issue.

Cover Crops On Damaged Lands In This County

Planting of cover crops on acres which are being damaged through soil erosion will be resumed as soon as land has dried out sufficiently, it was announced this week by soil erosion leaders of the county.

Judge Bratton Mentioned For Supreme Court

HEREFORD GRADUATE HAS ENVIABLE RECORD IN COURTS

Judge Sam Gilbert Bratton, former Hereford resident, now is being mentioned as a probable Roosevelt appointee for the Supreme Court.

Judge Bratton lived with his aunt, Mrs. W. B. Parmer, in Hereford from 1901 to 1909, and graduated from the Hereford schools with the first class in 1906. From childhood Judge Bratton lived with the Parmer family, and although Buford Parmer of this city is his cousin, the two grew up together, and are more like brothers than cousins.

Came Here In 1901.

Born August 19, 1888, in Limestone county, Judge Bratton went to the Indian Territory—now Greer county, Oklahoma—with the Parmers at an early age. They left the Territory in 1901 and came to Deaf Smith county in a covered wagon.

"What Sam Bratton is and ever does is due to his own brilliance, to hard work, and to diligent study," Buford Parmer, says. He recalls that his father sent Sam to Clarendon College for a summer term of six weeks after the youth had completed his high school education.

"Sam came back and said he wanted to study law," Buford said. "He didn't have money to buy books, but Judge John Slaton allowed him to use his law books."

Bratton studied tirelessly and in 1909 was admitted to the bar. He began practicing at Farwell, and in 1915 moved to Clovis, New Mexico.

He was nominated for the judgeship of the fifth judicial district of New Mexico state courts before he had reached the eligible age to serve.

He became 30, the eligible age, almost the same time he was elected to the judgeship for a six-year term. The youthful jurist served only four years before he resigned to become a candidate for the Supreme Court of the state.

To U. S. Senate.

Again he was elected, but served only 18 months before resigning in September, 1924, to become a candidate for the United States Senate, a position he attained at the age of 36.

Judge Bratton was re-elected for a second six-year term in 1931, but resigned on June 29, 1933, to accept an appointment to the bench of the tenth circuit court of appeals of the United States.

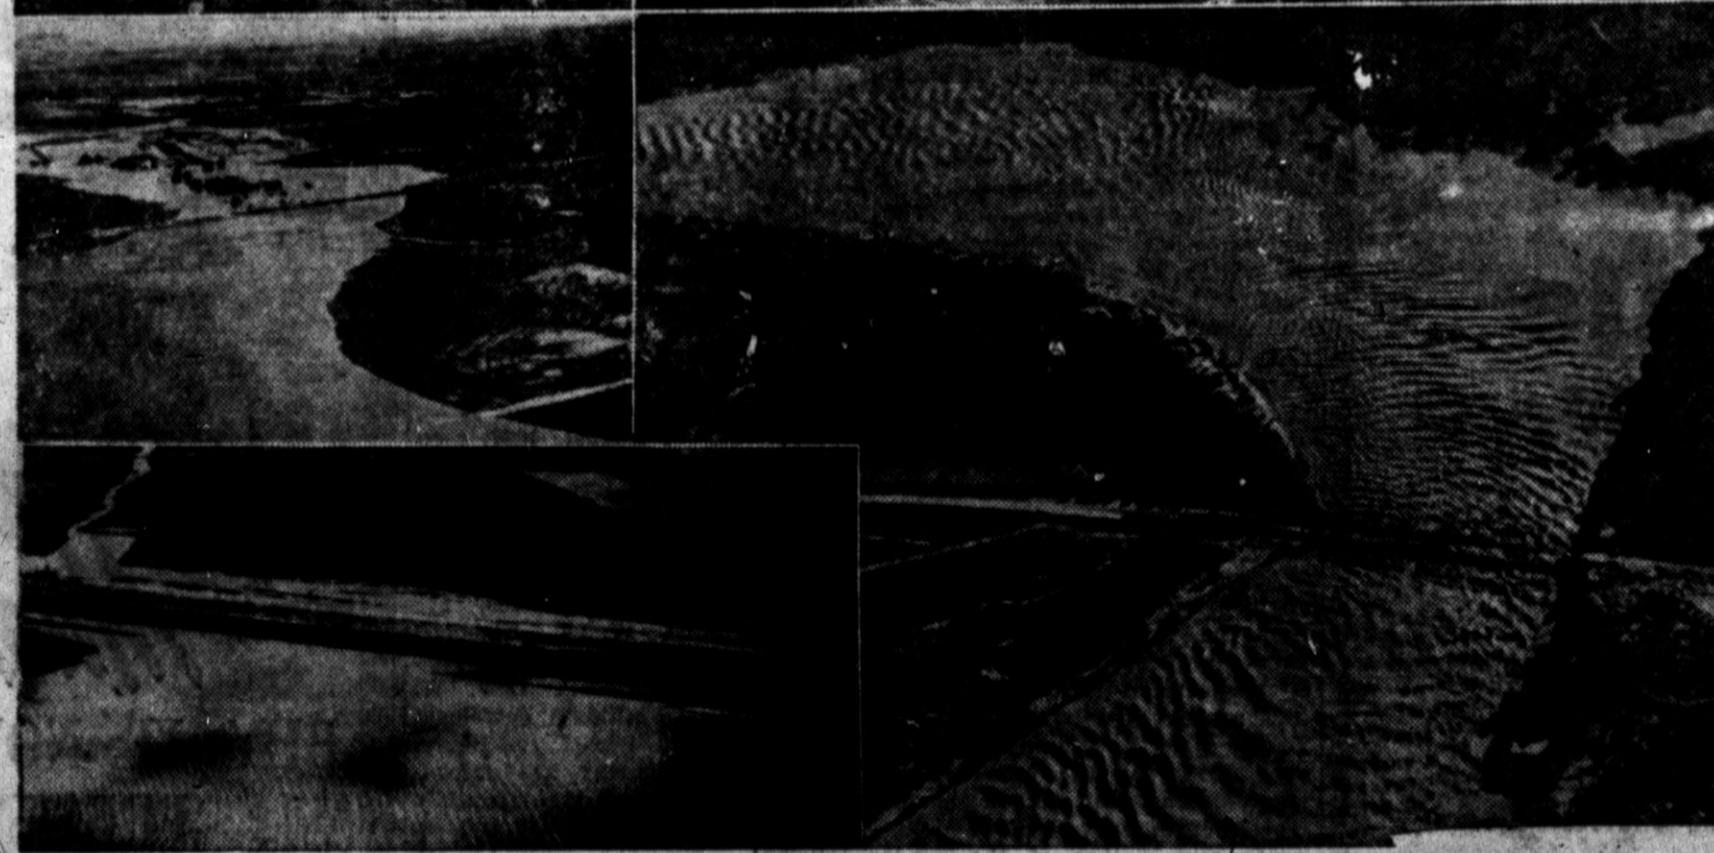

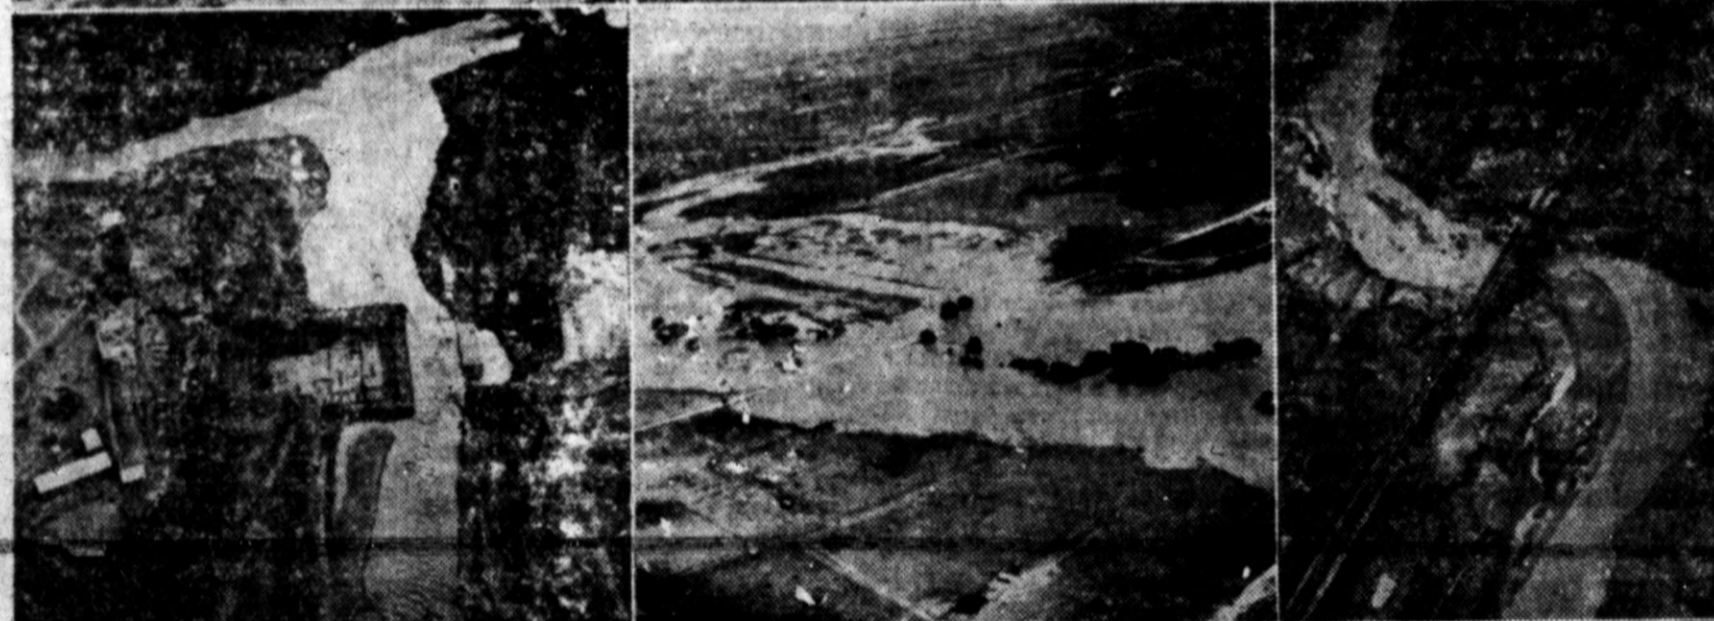

As a liberal minded jurist he supported the New Deal legislation during the memorable days of the special session of Congress convened by President Roosevelt immediately after his inauguration.

Roosevelt Advocate.

Once Judge Bratton was nominated for governor of New Mexico, but declined to run for the office. When President Roosevelt ran for president the first time, Judge Bratton left his home in Albuquerque and went to California, where he "stumped" the state in behalf of Roosevelt's candidacy. Needless to say, Roosevelt carried the state, and has always shown respect for Judge Bratton's opinions. Immediately following the President's election he called a conference in Warm Springs, Georgia. He called Judge Bratton to the conference, and since that time Judge Bratton had continued to stand high in the regards of the President.

Two Million Bushels Here Top Estimate

BRAND OFFERS $5 PRIZE IN WHEAT CONTEST FOR COUNTY

Wheat estimates zoomed over the Panhandle following beneficial rains during the past week, and although the crop was not expected to be normal it is now expected to be better than in recent years.

Through the contest now being sponsored by The Brand, the estimates for Deaf Smith county varied from two million bushels down as low as a quarter of a million bushels.

For information of persons who expect to enter the Hereford Brand contest, Alex R. Bateman, county agent, today estimated that between 160,000 and 180,000 acres in this county will produce wheat this year. His estimate on the crop was 1,520,000 bushels, but Dick Coffee and Bill Mitchell, other employees in the office, placed their estimates higher. Coffee estimated $1,600,000 bushels, and Mitchell estimated 2,000,000 bushels.

J. A. Pitman also estimates that the county will produce more than two million bushels.

Other estimates are: William Ohlig, 550,000; H. D. Robbins, 250,000; Louis Woodford, 800,000; Wilson Gyles, 1,100,000; H. V. Hennen, 1,333,000; Dr. B. M. Wiltshire, 1,200,000; Frank Cogdell, 1,700,000; H. E. Danforth, 1,400,000; John A. Coffee, 930,000; J. M. Dixon, 500,000.

Farmers and business men of this county may now come to The Brand and register their estimates on the crop in this county. First prize will be $5.00 in cash; the next five winners will each receive a one year subscription to The Brand; seventh place will receive a three week pass to the Star Theatre, eighth place a two week pass, and the last eight will each receive one pass each. The contest includes Deaf Smith county only and all winners will be determined by the government report.

Anyone in this county may place their estimate by merely coming to The Brand office, and farmers are especially urged to place their guesses.

Artists To Use Natural Clays From Palo Duro

Clay deposits in Palo Duro State Park may prove of great value, according to Gene H. Brock, pottery and craftswork instructor in the Palo Duro Art School this summer.

In a recent letter to Miss Isabel Robinson, director of the school, Mr. Brock wrote: "I have just completed the tests on the clay and find them very interesting. The mauve clay will be fine for coloring—it is as fine as I have found. I am hoping that the many colored clays in the canyon have permanent colors. I have found that the yellow clay will be very good with the addition of a small amount of feldspar."

A kiln for firing pottery will be part of the equipment of the art colony which will open on June 2, and continue through six weeks.

Tent cottages are being erected by the park service for use of art students. Art classes will be held in Coronado Lodge as they were last year.

Panhandle artists who will be on the faculty of the school include Mrs. Amy Jackson, Amarillo; Harold Hughes, Clarendon; Carroll Kilbreth, Pampa; Marjorie Miller and Miss Isabel Robinson, Canyon.

Mrs. Audrey Galloway and small daughter, Barbara, were Amarillo visitors last Friday.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Deaf Smith County, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon W. F. Nicholas, Elda Nicholas, Minnie Law and her husband, Law, and W. G. Harrell to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, at the courthouse thereof in Hereford Texas, on the first Monday in August, 1937, the same being the 2nd day of August, 1937, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 29th day of May, 1937, the file number of which is 2348, in which suit John V. Farwell, Arthur L. Farwell and Farwell Winston, as Trustees, are plaintiffs, and W. F. Nicholas, Elda Nicholas, Minnie Law and her husband, Law, W. G. Harrell, Phillips Petroleum Company and Oliver Farm Equipment Sales Company are defendants, the nature of plaintiffs' cause of action being alleged as follows:
The plaintiffs are Trustees under a Declaration of Trust dated November 1, 1933, recorded in the Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, and are the assignees of the vendors under the contract hereinafter mentioned, which vendors were John V. Farwell, Arthur L. Farwell and Francis C. Farwell.

That heretofore, by written contract dated May 27, 1929, recorded in the Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, Volume 75, page 584, and in Volume 64, page 140, the said John V. Farwell, Arthur L. Farwell and Francis C. Farwell contracted to sell to W. F. Nicholas the following land in Deaf Smith County, Texas, to-wit: the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section No. 21, of Township 3 North, Range 1 East, of a Capitol Syndicate Subdivision, as shown by plat of such subdivision of record in the Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas.

That said contract provides that the purchase price of said land is $3,200.00, payable on or before six years from November 1, 1929; that the vendee shall each year at the proper season sow at least 80 per cent of the land described in the contract to wheat; that the vendee shall, beginning with the year 1930, pay the taxes on the tract of land described in the contract before they become delinquent; that failure of the vendee to perform the covenants imposed upon him by such contract shall nullify the same and all payments made and all improvements placed on the land shall be kept by the vendors; that such contract is assignable. That plaintiffs have performed all of the covenants imposed upon them by the terms of such contract.

That no payments have been made on the purchase price of said lands and the same was not sowed to wheat in the proper season in 1936, and taxes on the same for the years 1935 and 1936 were not paid by the defendants. That on account of the defendants' default in the payment of the purchase price of said land, and in the tilling of said land, and in the payment of said taxes as provided in said contract, the plaintiffs have declared the contract for the sale of said land at an end and are entitled to recover the title to and possession of said land from the defendants and each of them.

That the defendants, Elda Nicholas, Minnie Law and her husband, Law, W. G. Harrell, Phillips Petroleum Company and Oliver Farm Equipment Sales Company, are claiming some interest in and to said land, the exact nature of which is not known by the plaintiffs, but whatever right, title or interest said defendants have in the land was acquired by virtue of the contract above mentioned, and is subordinate and inferior to plaintiffs' title and claim to the land.

Plaintiffs pray that defendants be cited to appear and answer their petition, and that the plaintiffs recover title to and possession of the land and improvements; that the contract for the sale of said land be declared at an end, and for general relief.

You are hereby commanded to summon the defendants W. F. Nicholas, Elda Nicholas, Minnie Law and her husband, Law, and W. G. Harrell, and to serve this citation by making publication of this citation once each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, but if there be no newspaper published in said county, then in any newspaper published in the nearest county in which a newspaper is published.

Herein fall not, but have you before said Court on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court at my office in the City of Hereford, Texas, this the 29th day of May, 1937.

GRAIN SORGHUMS STOP BLOWING PAY NICE DIVIDENDS TO FARMERS

Grain Sorghums New Way To Combat Erosion

COUNTY AND SCS URGE GRAIN SORGHUMS FOR SECTION

With recent rains giving ample moisture to the soil at sorghum planting time, farmers of the wind erosion area of the Texas Panhandle are being advised by the Soil Conservation Service to make every effort to get a cover crop on their blowing fields.

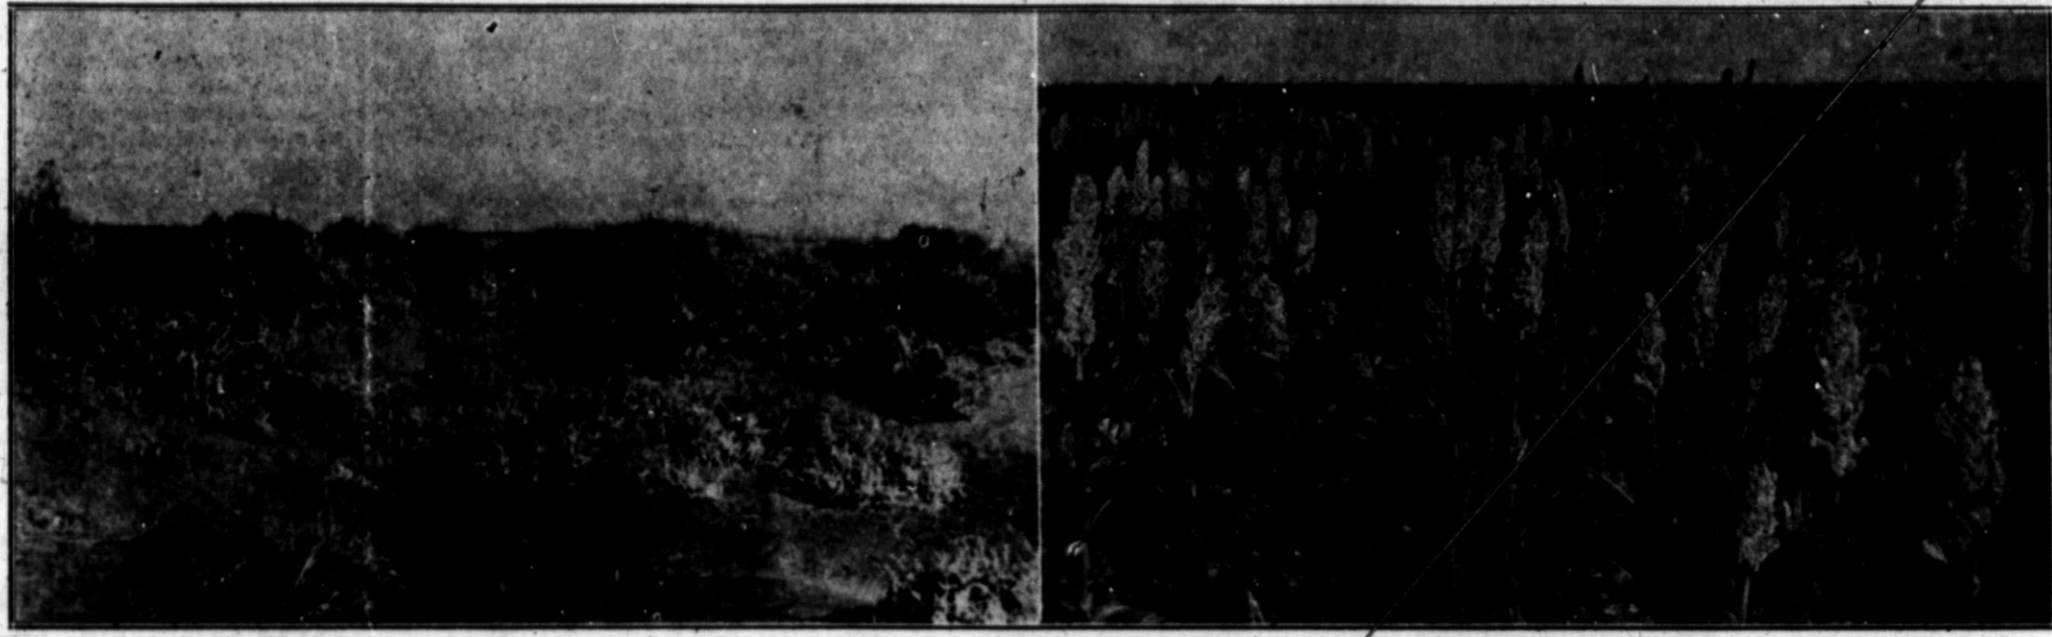

The immediate problem in the elimination of wind erosion is to re-establish a residue in the soil by growing a cover crop that will retain moisture, replace lost organic matter, and resist blowing, according to O. T. Williams, manager of the Soil Conservation Service project at Hereford.

"Where fields have been blown out and have failed to produce a crop for the last year or more, the planting of grain sorghums such as milo, begari, kafir, sudan and broomcorn, and sweet sorghums, where adapted, is being recommended. It is suggested that the sorghums be planted solid in 40 or 42 inch rows, and on the contour, regardless of whether the field is terraced," Mr. Williams said.

On blown-out wheat fields it is recommended that the planting of wheat be omitted this fall, Mr. Williams points out the the planting of sorghums offers the best possibility of stabilizing the field. If the stubble left at the harvest is not overgrazed the field may be returned to wheat within a year or two under favorable conditions, he says.

Through this method, Mr. Williams points out, the farmer will be reclaiming and stabilizing his land and has an opportunity to produce a crop of sorghum.

An example of what may be done toward stabilizing a blowing field by the growing of grain sorghum is found on the farm of Joe Armstrong, 13 miles northeast of Channing. Mr. Armstrong's 160-acre field was blown out in 1932, and was abandoned. The corn stubble, with a rooting system that fails to bind the soil, had not been sufficient to resist wind erosion. By the time soil and water conservation methods were applied to Mr. Armstrong's land in March,

The field of Joe Armstrong, 13 miles northeast of Channing, is shown at the left as it appeared early in 1936 after having been abandoned since 1932. Under the soil conservation program, the hummocks were leveled out and the field was listed and planted on the contour to grain sorghums. The same field is shown at the right at harvest time in 1936, an average of 250 bundles per acre being produced. Mr. Armstrong not only stabilized his blowing field, but received $7 an acre. Good results were also reported by Joe Evans, near Hereford. Mr. Evans planted 450 hummocked acres to milo and produced one and one-fourth tons to the acre. He sold 120 tons at $5 a ton, and fed the remainder to 540 steers. After deducting the expense of supplementary feed, help, etc., he reported a profit amounting to $10.40 a ton on the milo fed them.

1936, the field was cluttered with soil drifts from one to three feet high. After these hummocks were leveled, the field was listed and planted on the contour to kafir and begari.

Mr. Armstrong harvested an average yield of 250 bundles per acre. This brought a return of $7 an acre. An eight-inch stubble was left on the field, and the close fibrous roots of the grain sorghums have prevented any appreciable damage from wind erosion this season. The field was blank listed in March, and now, with sufficient moisture being held on the field during the recent rains Mr. Armstrong will plant row crops.

Hummocks have been leveled on several farms in the Hereford area during the winter and spring and these fields have been terraced and contour listed. With plenty of moisture available now fields will be planted to grain sorghums. These sorghums are equally adapted to resist wind and drought, Mr. Williams points out. They can be grown with a minimum of moisture and the close fibrous roots hold the soil tightly and prevent blowing. Mr. Williams stated that the planting of grain sorghums on hummocked lands will play an important part in the Soil Conservation District this year. Dear

Smith County Wind Erosion District has also designated that much land under its supervision will be planted to grain sorghums in an effort to stop blowing.

Funeral services for Mary Carol Jesko, three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jesko of Muleshoe, were held from St. Anthony's church in Hereford at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, May 29, conducted by Father Matthias, S. A.

On June 4 the baby would have been four months of age. She died in an Amarillo hospital Friday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

In addition to her parents, the child is survived by a brother, Donald Robert, and a sister, Billie Gene; her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Jesko, of Friona, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz, of Canyon.

Interment was made in West Park Cemetery.

Stripes On Furniture

It is rather nice to have colorful stripes on the light painted furniture and perhaps the easiest way for the amateur painter to accomplish this successfully is to draw the stripes on the light paint with a colored crayon. After the stripes have been lined on, give the furniture a coat of white shellac all over. The shellac will keep the stripes intact and protect the paint as well.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. E. W. Harrison over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Simpson and son of Amarillo. Mrs. Simpson is the former Miss Mattie Lou Harrison. Here Tuesday for a brief visit were her son, David, and his wife from Farwell.
