WORKERS ACTIVE AS COUNTY ROAD TAX ELECTION DRAWS NEAR

STATE MAN HERE SOON ON BUSINESS

Highway Engineer Here Soon to Make Survey For Proposed Highway Designation in County.

The state highway engineer will visit Hereford and Deaf Smith county soon, according to advices received this week from Austin. His visit here will be in connection with negotiations which have been entered into with commissioners courts of counties north and south of here in an effort to secure a state designated highway running north and south through this city and county.

This will open up a large territory which at this time is served only by local roads, and it is believed, may one day receive Federal designation. A brief will be prepared on the entire routes requested from commissioners courts will be prepared and other data, all of which will be presented to the state highway department by the local organization.

According to highway officials a north and south designated highway crossing No. 33 at Hereford would relieve a through travel difficulty that has existed for years. No such highway now exists between state highway No. 9 and the New Mexico line. A survey recently completed shows that two counties and county seats would be connected by such a route and it would also connect with four Federal and State highways running east and west.

Old Resident Dies Following Illness Sunday

Funeral services Tuesday morning marked the passing of one of the pioneers of this section, a real "old-timer" who helped make Hereford and this county what they are today. He was John T. "Uncle John" Thomas, 82, who died after a short illness at his home here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas was born in Franklin county, Georgia, on April 23, 1846. On November 11, 1870, he was married to Miss Vass Stephenson, and on December 19, 1870, the couple moved to Texas. To this union were born eleven children, of whom six survive.

He is survived by three sons, three girls: A. L. Thomas, Mrs. T. M. McBroom, J. E. Thomas, Mrs. J. T. McClain, Mrs. Jim LeGrand and Luther Thomas.

Last rites were held Sunday at the Methodist church here, with Rev. E. B. Bowen officiating. Burial was made in West Park cemetery.

Crops Again Helped As Heavy Rain Falls

Hereford farms received another welcome drenching Sunday evening when what was estimated at more than half an inch of rain fell in less than an hour. Wheat harvest was delayed somewhat, but crops were greatly benefited by the moisture.

MRS. WEST'S FATHER DIES

Friends of Mrs. Mamie West, now of San Diego, California, but formerly well known resident of Hereford, were apprised by wire Wednesday that Mrs. West's father, Tillman A. White, died suddenly Tuesday about 2:00 p. m. The brief telegram said Mr. White was apparently in the best of health. While at the table his head suddenly fell forward and he was dead when his daughter reached his side.

Both Mrs. West and her father had many friends here who are saddened by the news of his death.

PROGRESS RAPIDLY

Workmen Make Great Strides in Downtown Paving Program. Curb and Gutters in and Brick Ready to Lay on Main Street.

Hard at work on fourteen blocks of Hereford streets to be repaved, workmen of the Jordan Construction Company this week made rapid progress on Main Street, scene of their first activities. Curb and gutters have been laid on the three blocks of lower Main Street and brick is being unloaded preparatory to laying new pavement. The paving program here calls for streets to be widened two feet on each side and brick to be laid over present pavement. City workmen are taking this opportunity to replace old pipe under Main Street with a high grade brass pipe.

PLAN AIRPORT

Air Transport Officials Ready to Make Visit to Look Over Hereford as Prospective Station.

Confirmation of his request that officials of the American Air Transport Company, Dallas, come to Hereford to inspect this city as a possible airport location, was received this week by L. Baskin, air and highway commissioner of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce. In a letter from Gary E. Probenzen, Mr. Baskin was informed that company officials would be here soon to look over the ground here.

American Air Transport Company is the largest in Texas, doing an immense volume of business and handling passengers, freight and express. At present they are contemplating a branch line to take their planes over the northern part of the Panhandle and were requested by Mr. Baskin to consider Hereford as a location for an airport.

Mr. Probenzen declared that he had conferred with government engineers and others interested in aeronautics and was in a position to state that the future of the small town with an airport is bound to be prosperous.

Instead of the sixty acre landing field which has been discussed by Chamber of Commerce officials, the Air Transport Company head suggests that a field of at least 200 and possibly 400 acres be procured. With an airport this large, he pointed out, aviators would sooner stop in Hereford than in Amarillo where a smaller airport was kept.

Kiddies Happy As Chautauqua Comes

Hereford's youngsters—at least several dozen of them—are happy this week. The reason: they have a Chautauqua of their own. Not the big Chautauqua to which Dads and Mothers go in the afternoons and evenings, but a Junior Chautauqua, of, for and by their very own selves.

Miss Gretchen Meyer, University of Nebraska Junior, is the young lady under whose supervision this special department of Chautauqua is conducted every morning. Juniors meet at nine a. m. every day for an hour of games, an hour of stories and an hour of practice on the pageant, "The Court of Childhood," which they will give as part of the regular Chautauqua program next Monday afternoon.

Nearly thirty Hereford kiddies paraded down Main Street Monday evening to advertise Chautauqua. Prizes were awarded to Chilton Foster, most comical boy's costume; Armina Fair, best Chautauqua advertisement; and Terry Ebanks, prettiest girl's costume. In the ticket hunt held in the big tent after the parade, tickets were found by David Bartley, Elizabeth Newman and Elaine Newell.

CLUB HEARS CHAUTAUQUA MAN SPEAK

H. L. Foglemen Delivers Lecture to Special Session Commerce Body. Is Leading Speaker.

E. H. Fogleman, noted Chautauqua speaker and recognized as one of America's greatest lecturers and salesmen, will address a special luncheon session of the Chamber of Commerce at noon Friday, July 6. Special arrangements have been made to take care of an attendance of from 75 to 100 members and guests. Luncheon will be served at the Hereford Hotel.

Mr. Fogleman will lecture on "Salesmanship," and Hereford people will be given an opportunity to hear a man who has been hired at different times to address some of the largest industries in the country.

Famed for presenting clear, logical facts in an entertaining manner, Businessman Fogleman has appeared at luncheon clubs in many a Texas city. Those desiring reservations at the meeting here tomorrow are requested to call or see the Chamber of Commerce office, G. A. F. Parker or D. F. Ashbrook. The luncheon will last exactly one hour.

Little Business At Meeting Of Commerce Club

Featured by little business of any importance was the regular luncheon of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce held Monday noon at the Hereford Hotel. Twenty members and guests were present.

A discussion of Chautauqua occupied the greater part of the business session, with several minutes devoted to speeches by Mrs. E. J. Rankin, advance agent, and the young lady who will have charge of the Junior work in connection with the Chautauqua. Lunchers learned the method by which the institution is financed as well as detailed information about each part of the week-long program.

W. R. Arnold, secretary of the organization, spoke briefly on the need for a larger, more cooperative membership in the Chamber of Commerce. He announced that membership cards have been printed to be placed on exhibition in each business house belonging to the organization.

G. A. F. Parker, president in the absence of President T. E. Solger, Vice-President J. T. Cronin urged immediate action toward financing a municipal band. He will appoint a committee, this week who will look after this matter.

Dr. Erwin Changes to Dr. Heard Office

Announcement was made this morning that Dr. L. F. Erwin, Hereford's newest dentist, will move his equipment into the office of Dr. G. W. Heard over the Corner Drug Store. He is now located in the office formerly occupied by the late Dr. D. E. Turrentine.

This change was made in order that Dr. Erwin may help with Dr. Heard's practice while that dentist is out of town at intervals during the summer. Dr. Heard and Dr. Erwin are life-long friends. While Dr. Erwin was still a dental student in Alabama, he took over the practice of Dr. Heard for three different summers.

E. D. Fox and Mrs. H. K. Fox came in Saturday after a three weeks overland trip to California, where they visited relatives and friends.

Rev. M. M. Beavers of Plainview and Rev. J. O. Haynes of Vernon, both former pastors of the Methodist church, were in Hereford this week visiting acquaintances.

DELIVERY DELAYED

Free City Mail Service Held Up When Canvass Falls to Secure Enough Names. Inauguration Expected Within Two Weeks.

Because only fifty per cent of Hereford's residents want free mail delivery within the city limits instead of the necessary eighty-five per cent which must request the services before it can be installed, such delivery will begin here at least fifteen days later than July 1, originally planned date. Postmaster E. L. Donner said this morning that a survey had been made last week in which little more than half the citizens had asked for the delivery.

According to Mr. Donner, the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations here have taken up the move and are trying to get the required number of signers in order to start delivery about the middle of this month.

Marvin Jones Scheduled for Hereford Talk

Seeking re-election to the office of U. S. Representative of the 18th Texas District, Congressman Marvin Jones, Amarillo, will be in Hereford Wednesday, July 11, to address voters of this section.

Congressman Jones is personally acquainted with many residents of Deaf Smith county and a large crowd is expected at the meeting.

MARVIN JONES

He will speak at 3:00 p. m. at the county court house.

From Hereford, Marvin Jones will go to Farwell where he is scheduled for an address at eight o'clock that evening. He is accompanied on his tour of the Panhandle by several friends and his secretary, L. A. Van Huss.

Rev. Hornbeak Speaks At Presbyterian Church

Rev. J. J. Hornbeak of Hereford will occupy the pulpit at morning and evening services at the First Presbyterian church, it was announced this morning by the pulpit committee, H. R. Fritts and Judge C. E. Kerr. He will supply for the Rev. J. T. Ross, vacationing in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

A forceful speaker, Rev. Hornbeak has occupied local pulpits on several occasions. He moved here from Dallas about six months ago. Christian Endeavor program for this Sunday will be the same as for last week, it was further announced by the committee.

Arrangements Complete for Big Dimmitt Event

Everything is in readiness for the largest real estate auction sale seen in these parts for some time, it was declared today by Col. Ray Barber, sales manager of the gigantic land sale to be held at Dimmitt Tuesday, July 10.

"People of Dimmitt are enthusiastic since the arrival of a railroad last Thursday," Col. Barber said, "and we expect to put over a celebration which will be in keeping with this important event."

The big celebration at Dimmitt begins at 10:30 a. m., lasting all day and ending with a dance, music for which will be furnished by the Hereford orchestra. Church women of Dimmitt will serve lunch at noon.

OFFICES OF COMMERCE CLUB MOVE

Officials Plan Shift of Quarters to New Location in City Hall. Commission Agrees to Move.

That offices of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce will be moved soon to new quarters in the city hall was announced this morning by W. R. Arnold, new secretary-manager of the organization. Mr. Arnold met with the city commission Monday night and reports that that body favored the change.

As soon as the new quarters are occupied, probably no Chamber of Commerce in this section of the Panhandle will have more desirable equipment. It was pointed out to commissioners that with the extended scope of work to be undertaken by the chamber, the city hall, a tax-built institution, would probably help to secure a more unanimous support of the organization.

Work has already begun on a canvass of the entire community in which it is hoped to get the support of all business interests in the city. Membership in the chamber of commerce is expected to double within the next month.

"As soon as our finances have been definitely determined we will arrange our budget," Mr. Arnold stated. "The organization is going to be placed on a sound financial basis and with all the interests of the city represented there should be no trouble in procuring sufficient assistance to handle all the needs of the organization."

Auto Company Makes Change in Personnel

General reorganization of the Brumley-Chevrolet Motor Company was effected July 1, according to announcement made this week. G. W. Brumley, owner, has sold some stock, retaining the presidency of the company, but will now be left free to devote a part of his time to his hog business and other investments.

E. C. Everett, who for the past four years has been a stock holder and sales manager of the Plains-Chevrolet Company at Amarillo, becomes vice president and general manager of the Brumley-Chevrolet Company. As sales manager at Amarillo, Mr. Everett has compiled an enviable record of achievement, the business developing from ten to forty-two men while he had charge. Mr. Everett moved his family here Saturday occupying the Baskin duplex house near the Mother's Park.

V. T. Downs, who was with the Brumley-Chevrolet Company about a year ago, moving to Quitaque, has returned, in charge of the office work and as manager of the parts department. W. Frank Ball, recently connected with the company as salesman, has purchased stock, and will hold the office of secretary-treasurer and manager of the used car department.

The new organization enters the local field with pep and enthusiasm. They announce they expect to develop a sales and service standard second to none, will handle all standard lines of gas, oils, tires, etc., with the business motto, "Service With a Smile."

E. W. HARRISON ILL.

E. W. Harrison, pioneer citizen and elevator man of Hereford, lies critically ill in the Deaf Smith county hospital, following an emergency operation for appendicitis Monday night.

There is no man in Hereford more loved or respected than E. W. Harrison, and the entire community is praying for his speedy recovery.

Jack Mobley of Houston arrived Saturday for a visit in the D. L. McDonald home.

REVIVAL TO START

Christian Church Arranges Series of Revival Meetings to Begin July 15. Noted Evangelist and Singer in Charge of Services.

Rev. J. W. Boutinghouse, evangelist of note in this section, will conduct a two weeks series of revival meetings at the First Christian church here, it was learned this morning. First meeting of the series will be held Sunday, July 15.

Assisting Rev. Boutinghouse will be Earl Sparks, Snyder, who will have charge of the singing and musical features of the revival. According to F. M. Kester, chairman of the publicity committee, both these men have had wide experience in meetings of this sort and will bring to Hereford a message of interest to the entire community.

AWARD TRIPS

Club Boys From Three Communities Awarded Short Course Trips by Judges in Charge.

With only three communities judged, county club members are becoming enthused over prospects for the free trip to the A. & M. College of Texas which will be awarded winner of most points in club work from each community. County Agent R. O. Dunkle, in company with a committee of authorities is judging club prospects this week.

Hereford, Summerfield and Frio are the three communities in which clubbers have been judged by the committee. From Hereford Billy Hawkins was selected as the winner; from Summerfield, Hollis Walser, and from Frio, Elmer Jones. Projects graded for the trip included pigs, calves, crops and similar work. Winners from other communities will be announced later.

D. L. McDonald Family Leaves For Amarillo

The entire family of D. L. McDonald, with the exception of one son, David, left Hereford Monday for Amarillo, where a new home has been purchased. David will remain here at the McDonald home and manage the farm and cattle interests of his father. Big vans arrived Monday morning and transported all furniture and personal effects to Amarillo.

It is with the deepest regret that the citizens of Hereford lose these excellent citizens. For several years now Mr. McDonald has maintained his headquarters in Amarillo, where he has built up a highly successful water contracting business. So rapidly has this lucrative business developed that he feels it imperative for him to remain in Amarillo as the center of his field activities. D. L. McDonald has been a pioneer-developer here, the man who established the shallow water irrigation field, served his community in many ways for many years, and his absence will be severely felt. All the members of his family have been closely identified with the social and civic life of the community, and their loss is a distinct blow. They go with the very best wishes and highest hopes for their happiness and success from the entire citizenship of Hereford.

Many Changes Are Announced On Timetable

Changes in schedule of all trains on the Santa Fe running into and out of Amarillo were announced to go into effect Sunday, July 1. Reduced running time between Amarillo, Fort Worth and Dallas and operation of through sleepers from Amarillo to Independence, Tulsa and Bartlesville are principal changes made by the new schedule.

Elevators Start Work As Wheat Harvest Opens

Slowly wheat harvest in the Hereford territory is getting under way. Day by day the line of grain trucks from combine to elevator is getting a little longer as Deaf Smith county sets out once more to shatter wheat production records for all time.

Elevator reports indicate that the harvest has barely started and that little more than one-fourth of the wheat farmers have begun to cut. By Wednesday night, Harrison had bought approximately 40,000 bushels and the Great West elevator had purchased between 15,000 and 20,000 bushels at the Hereford elevator and nearly 10,000 bushels at Dawn.

COUNTY SET FOR VOTING ON NEW TAX

Organizations Working to Put Over Measure To Insure Better Roads in County. Election Nears.

But one week remains until Saturday, July 14, date set by the county commissioners for an election in Deaf Smith county on the question of a proposed road tax of 15c. With that prospect before them, civic leaders were hard at work this week on an educational campaign by which they hope to present the tax situation to a body which will be acceptable to every resident in the Hereford territory.

Excellent returns, say those in charge, have been obtained from circular letters and similar publicity measures. Sustaining interest of voters until election date is the chief problem confronting those favoring the measure.

In order not to conflict with harvest season, the date was postponed an entire week that every voter in the county might be able to come out to the polls.

County commissioners refuse to commit themselves on the question. "We are for the move," they say, "but want the people of the county to sponsor it of their own will."

"Go to the polls and vote," is the slogan which local organizations are trying to broadcast. No one seems able to forecast the result of the election. Another week of suspense and Deaf Smith county will know for certain whether to expect a system of rural roads equal to any county in the Panhandle or be content with present inadequate funds for proper road building.

Big Attendance Marks Sessions Of Chautauqua

Playing to large, appreciative audiences, Redpath-Horger Chautauqua opened in Hereford Tuesday afternoon for a six-day run in their big tent located at the corner of Fourth and Main Streets.

The program of Premier attractions this year brings to Hereford one of the outstanding groups of Chautauqua artists seen here in some time. Night features for the remainder of Chautauqua's stay include an address by H. L. Fogleman, noted lecturer; a play, "The Shepherd of the Hills," Saturday night, and the golden ensemble, "A Gypsy Caravan," Monday night.

Many Changes Are Announced On Timetable

Changes in schedule of all trains on the Santa Fe running into and out of Amarillo were announced to go into effect Sunday, July 1. Reduced running time between Amarillo, Fort Worth and Dallas and operation of through sleepers from Amarillo to Independence, Tulsa and Bartlesville are principal changes made by the new schedule.

Less important were changes on the southern branch of the Chicago-California line. Train 21 will arrive in Hereford at 6:35 instead of 6:50 a. m. It reaches Los Angeles the following evening at 5:50.

No. 1 westbound will arrive in Hereford at 7:30 p. m. instead of 7:35. No. 22 eastbound, will leave here at 11:55 a. m. instead of 12:09 p. m. There will be no change in the time of Train 10, which leaves at 11:55 p. m.

Arthur Brooks spent Friday and Saturday in Pampa and Panhandle on business.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JULY 8, 1928.

SUBJECT OF LESSON: Saul and Stephen.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."—Revelations 2:10.

LESSON REFERENCES: Acts 7:54-8:3; 22:3, 4, 10, 20; 26:4, 5-11 and Galatians 1:13-14.

We studied in last Sunday's lesson the early childhood and Life of Saul of Tarsus. We have him presented in public life in this lesson. It is a dramatic incident which brings him before us. Judaism is putting forth its utmost effort to stamp out Christianity. It has crucified Jesus, but that has failed to extinguish Christianity. Pentecost with the mighty baptism of the Spirit witnesses the embarking of the new religion on a world program.

The Great Commission had been given. The disciples had been commanded to wait the promise of the Father at Jerusalem, which was the bestowal of the Spirit, three thousand people of almost a score of nations had accepted Christianity at one service and two thousand more had believed during the day.

Days of witnessing and of growing adherence to Christianity had followed this first day. Christianity was assuming great proportions in Jerusalem. Seven deacons had been chosen to administer relief to the poor and to overlook the temporal affairs of the church at Jerusalem. While the Apostles relieved of this burden continued to preach with convincing earnestness, the Spirit of power came upon Stephen, one of the seven deacons, and so mightily did he preach that he became the center of persecution.

For Sheriff and Tax Collector:
BILL BURNAM.

bered that he could not possibly criticize him more severely than he, himself, when later he became a Christian and Apostle.

But whether as zealous Pharisee or as devoted Apostle, there run two large consistencies through the life of Saul the Jew and Paul the Apostle. The first of these is his obedience to conscience. He accepted at all perils his conscience. Cowardly, venomous partisans might seek to hide their crimes by laying the garments of their victim at the feet of a young man; Saul would not evade the implications of his convictions. This scrupulous following of conviction was a matter of great profit to the persecutors of Christianity when aligned with them. It became a tremendous disadvantage to them when aligned against them.

The courage and enthusiasm likewise of Saul the Persecutor became a mighty thorn in the side of the ecclesiastical partisans when it followed the conscience of Paul the Apostle into the service of Christianity. Thus, wherever Saul of Tarsus was aligned he was noble in his purpose and daring in his deeds. We can not but admire the conscience, courage and enthusiasm of the young Saul, which much overwrought and sadly mistaken in its alignments, nevertheless, was held in the most remarkable self devotion and self sacrifice.

We have no man of the half-way-house in Saul of Tarsus. What he thought was right, he accepted and lived for at any cost. This type of man, in spite of his conscience, may be the farthest wrong of any. For conscience is not a safe guide unless guided by right principles.

But it is of this type of man that great saints are made. They who are too cowardly to face squarely the conscience within them are of small worth wherever they may be placed in life. Paul, the transformed Apostle and servant of Jesus Christ, becomes the invincible, irresistible champion of Christianity, however far wrong Saul of Tarsus, the prejudiced Pharisee might have been.

There is hope for the man who will keep faith with conscience. He may be wrong today because of his incorrectness of judgment, he will be right tomorrow if someone will be the good messenger of righteousness to him. These men of conscience are dangerous men very frequently. It cost the life of Stephen to attempt to set Saul of Tarsus right.

Before the mighty force of the Pauline conscience Stephen had to go down in martyrdom. But that conscience had in it some open doors through which the light could find its way. A conscience without an open window for the light may lead one wrong and keep him wrong. It was the characteristic, the redeeming grace, of the Pauline conscience that it could be reasoned with and led to the right. Without this open conscience there could never have been a devoted apostle and self-crucified servant of Jesus Christ called Paul.

Cigar Swindle Works Again.

NEWARK, N. J.—Frank Roberts has been swindled out of $2,000, his life's savings, he reports, by two strangers he met in Lincoln Park. One told Roberts he had received a $7,000 legacy and suggested they pool their resources.

All three put money into a cigar box. It was given to Roberts to hold. It contained scraps of pretty paper.

Too Much Tonic—Job Gone.

NEWARK.—Thomas R. Bailey, a prohibition agent, was discharged after being brought to court for driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Dr. E. U. Hellstein testified that when Bailey was discharged he had prescribed a tonic for the dry agent, which was highly alcoholic and Bailey had taken an overdose.

Natural.

"This," hehauled the village drunk, as he fizzled through the old home brew, "is shertainly a (hic) town."

Some Reward.

CHELMSFORD, ENG.—A junk dealer picked up $500 in the street here, returned it to the owner and was rewarded with eight cents.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Deaf Smith County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon Ella Whitson by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, Texas, on the 5th Monday in July A. D. 1928, the same being the 30th day of July A. D. 1928, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 27th day of December A. D. 1927, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1663, wherein W. A. Whitson is Plaintiff, and Ella Whitson is Defendant, and said petition alleging that the plaintiff is now and has been for more than twelve months a bona fide resident and inhabitant of the State of Texas, and has resided in Deaf Smith County, Texas, for more than six months next preceeding the filing of this petition; that plaintiff and defendant in 1923 were legally married to each other in Bosque County, Texas, that plaintiff and defendant continued to live together as husband and wife for about five months after their marriage, at which time the defendant without cause or provocation voluntarily left the bed and board of the plaintiff, and refused to return and live with plaintiff, who at all times treated defendant with consideration and forbearance. That said abandonment has been for more than three years before filing of petition and was made with the intention of finally abandoning the plaintiff and with no intention of returning to him.

Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving their marriage relations, for a complete divorce from the defendant, and for special and general relief.

Herein fall not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, Texas, this 5th day of June A. D. 1928.
 (SEAL) L. H. FOSTER,
 Clerk, District Court, Deaf Smith County.

July 5th, 1928.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Before I went to work here at Orr's Tailor Shop I thought cleaning and pressing was something of a luxury. But I'm convinced now that I was wrong.

Mr. Orr remarked yesterday that a suit would give twice the service when cleaned and pressed once in a while, than if it never saw the cleaner. Come to think about it, he's probably right.

And, gosh, what a difference in good cleaning and pressing makes in the appearance of a suit. A gray suit came in yesterday that looked like it had been in the lake. And last night when they hung it on the "finished" rack it looked like it had just come from the tailor.

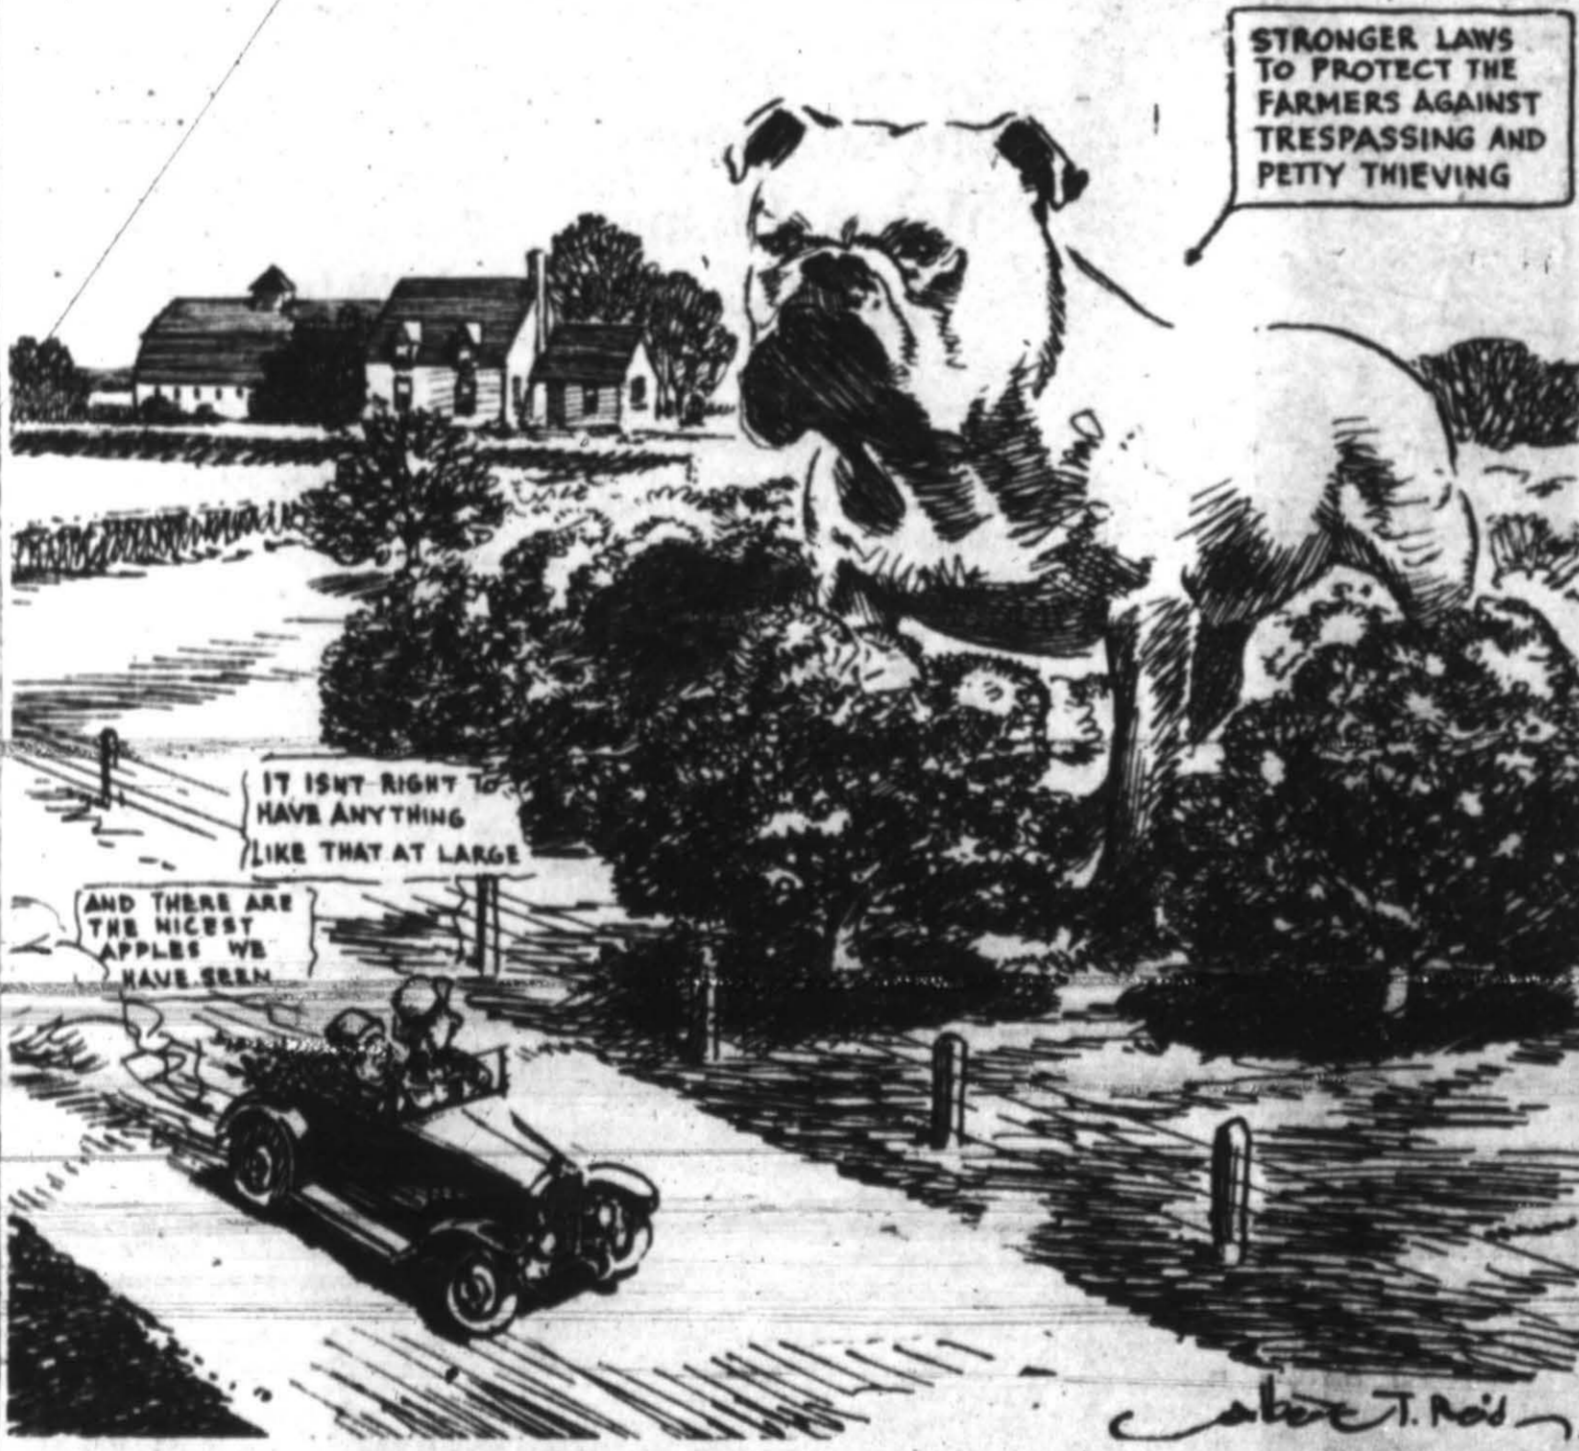

Yes, sir, it pays to have 'em cleaned. Phone 16.

Dimmitt News

(This Week's Letter)
 Donald Duree is driving a new automobile.
 The W. M. U. met Monday with twelve members and one visitor. The members are studying "Arm of Ara" and are very much interested in the study. We see what great amount of good can be accomplished when a Christian sees duty clearly pointed out and then with God's help overcome all obstacles that interfere with the accomplishment of that duty.
 Mrs. Jim Maynard was called to Floydada Saturday on account of the serious illness of her father, who died Sunday after an illness of only one week of paralysis. She has the sympathy of the entire Dimmitt community.
 Dick Oxford of Plainview was a business visitor in Dimmitt on Tuesday.
 W. P. Boyd who has lived in the Dimmitt community for a number of years and has recently moved to Plainview, was a Dimmitt visitor Tuesday.
 Master Jackie Boren is spending the week in Lubbock visiting relatives.
 Ray Barber of Hereford was in Dimmitt Monday making arrangements for an auction sale of town lots to be held July 10.
 E. B. Boren who is working in the employ of the railroad at Panhandle is visiting this week with some folks in Dimmitt.
 Mr. Rathie of Canyon was in Dimmitt one day last week and has bought six day lots here and plans to put in a planing mill.
 Mr. Callison of California was in Dimmitt Tuesday with a view of putting in a drug store.
 Mr. Austin of Electra was here Wednesday talking trade.
 Mr. Lillas, a former citizen but now of Wichita Falls, has moved his family back to Dimmitt.
 The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mauldin who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported better at this writing.
 The Priscilla Art Club met with Mrs. D. F. Parker Wednesday. Owing to warm weather, a number of the members planning vacation trips, it was voted to disband the club until the first Wednesday in September. The month social will be continued.
 The names of the "Big Sisters" were disclosed at this meeting and as the reports were given in about gifts received and kindnesses bestowed during the six weeks it was found that each member had the best big sister ever known. Refreshments of cake and sherbet were served to Meses. Boren, Webb, Stalcup, Duree, Allen, White, Wilson, Trimble, Crane and Woodlee, and Mrs. Shelly, a visitor.
 J. A. Johnson has been in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dow Duree, suffering with rheumatism. He plans to visit Hot Springs, N. M., to see if it will benefit him.
 Mr. and Mrs. Burns were in Lubbock Sunday. One of the girls who had been visiting there returned home with them. Another of the children remained in Lubbock to study violin.
 Mrs. Ellison of Hubbard City and Mr. Rummely and daughter of Prairie Hill, sister and brother of Mrs. Bessie Gill are in Dimmitt for a few days visit. Mrs. Gill and son will accompany them to Waco where a family reunion will be held.
 Meses. Stalcup, Webb, Trimble and Miss Luella Thomas were in Plainview Saturday.
 Revs. Noteboom and Shields will hold a tent revival here. They are non-denominational, but will preach the gospel.
 Bro. Saxon, wife and daughter were here Thursday in interest of the Daily Vacation Bible Study to begin here Monday morning. Parents are urged to see that their children attend this school.
 The Ladies Union Aid met with Mrs. Birdwell Thursday but because of hot weather attendance is falling off. Refreshments were served during the social hour.
 The whistle of the train was heard in Dimmitt last Thursday, and all day cars could be seen, filled with eager people watching the work as it progressed. It was interesting to those who had never seen such work and doubly interesting because it was the culmination of an event long looked forward to by Dimmitt citizens.

 Mr. Duggitt of the Duggitt Grain Co. Dallas, recently bought three business lots here for the purpose of building an elevator.
 Mrs. A. L. Stringer and children are in Ardmore, Okla., having been called there by the illness of her father.
 Jay Hastings has accepted a position with the Barnett-Hastings garage.
 Mrs. E. Wright of Hereford is a visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hastings.
 E. W. Harrison has his scales up and is buying grain here, to be shipped over the new railroad this week.
 C. C. Burns was elected secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at a recent meeting to succeed C. E. Reynolds. Miss Joe Parks will be his assistant.
 Mrs. E. B. Wright, A. M. Brownlee and L. P. White who were appointed a committee from the M. E. missionary society, and B. A. Fuller, Edwin Ramey and B. D. Woodlee, from the Baptist W. M. U., met Thursday in the Brownlee home and perfected arrangements for the ladies of the societies to sell lunch, drinks and ice cream during the lot sale July 10.
 Mrs. H. F. Hastings received a box of cherries from Idaho from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Baxter, who are there on a pleasure trip. The writer thanks Mrs. Hunter for a sample of this delicious fruit.
 Mrs. L. T. White and children were Hereford visitors Friday.
 Maxine Brownlee is spending a week in Friona with Mrs. Glachler, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Brownlee.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gollehon are now living in their beautiful new home.
 Fifteen Camp Fire Girls enjoyed a wicker roast and swimming party Friday afternoon at the J. R. Gollehon place south of town. They returned about dark, tired but happy.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Barnett had as their guests two days this week Mrs. Lula Summons of Lubbock. She is a sister of Mr. Barnett and widow of Mrs. Barnett's brother.

Here and There.

Most of the farmers were glad to see the rain which fell in this community Sunday evening. It measured about three-quarters of an inch. Harvest is getting under way in fine shape and the row crops are coming along in fine shape. It doesn't take but just a little rain to drive away a bad case of the blues.
 Mrs. Earl Lance spent several days last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carl. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Hutson.
 Misses Gladys and Marie Wolfington spent Sunday with Nettie Lee Green.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and family and Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and family spent Sunday at the C. M. Bell home.
 Mrs. G. F. Springer and Miss Tina Lee spent Saturday night and Sunday at the T. L. Sparkman home.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mobley, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harlen, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kincaid spent Sunday at the Henry Allman home.
 Mrs. Clarence and Mrs. A. Beauford called on Mrs. J. W. Berry Thursday afternoon.
 Fred and Wilford Axe entertained the young men from their Sunday school class Sunday.
 Rev. and Mrs. Jack Brownlee and the Misses West of Plainview were supper guests at the Harlen home Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allman and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berry enjoyed ice cream at the Bell home Saturday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wood Vaughn of Amarillo spent Monday afternoon at the Earl Lance home.
 Mrs. Gleeves Owens and children, Mrs. Pink Gilliland and children, Mrs. Art Manjeot and baby, and Mrs. Jack Robinson and children went out to Mrs. J. B. Harlen's early Saturday morning and reminded her that the day was her birthday. Needless to say the day was enjoyed by all.
 Friday as Mr. Wiles was helping combine his wheat, he ran into a piece on the machine and cut a severe gash on his forehead. He was rushed to a doctor at once who dressed the wound and he was able to be at his farm Sunday.

 Mrs. Lavernell Goad is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Tice.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walton attended Sunday school at Frio Sunday morning.
 Last Wednesday evening the losers in the contest entertained the winners at the school house and the entire Sunday school was on hand to enjoy the good things spread out to eat. Games of various kinds were enjoyed until a late hour when all departed, feeling that another pleasant evening had been spent. The contest proved so popular that the young people's class challenged the married people for a six weeks contest and the challenge was accepted. So in six weeks someone else will enjoy a treat.
 Those who missed singing at Frio Sunday afternoon were losers. A good many visitors were there, including Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kimball of Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Gollehon, Noel and Nola of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gollehon of Dimmitt, the Roberson boys of Hereford, Mr. Garrett of Progressive and several others. Lloyd Roberson reported on the Plateau convention at Roswell. It was decided to organize about three counties into a district convention at an early date so those who are interested please watch for the date and place to be announced in the Brand. Near the close of the program Prof. W. W. Woods, of Snyder, noted composer and pianist, came and played several of his compositions, which was a treat to those present and we hope he may be with us again.
 Rev. Cottrell is expected to preach morning and evening at Frio.
 Miss Georgia Sparkman entertained her Sunday school class with a wicker roast and marshmallow toast Saturday night when about twenty-five were present, and all were sorry to see the hand on the clock point to 12 for it meant time to go home.
 Miss Virginia Mosely is visiting her grandmother several days this week.
 A Spring Onion Tip.
 It is said that a cup of strong coffee will remove the odor of onions from the breath.

Arney News Items

Miss Athler Tipton, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Miss Edmondson and Miss Thompson of Plainview spent the week end visiting in the J. E. Tipton home.

 Mrs. Gertie Mae Boyd who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Childress for the past week returned home Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bratcher and family returned home from Knox county where they spent a week visiting relatives and old friends. Mrs. Bratcher's brother Mr. Huse of Plainview returned with them to spend a few days.
 Hot winds of the past few days are thought to be damaging the wheat. Some complaints of the grain shattering and falling and much anxiety is felt by wheat growers as to the outcome of the present crop.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell visited in the Woody Campbell home near Wayside Friday and

Arney News Items

Mrs. Campbell, mother of Ross and Woodie, and their sister returned home with them to visit a few days.
 A large crowd attended singing Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burks.
 When one hears a rap on the door these days you would be pretty safe in guessing it to be either a peddler of a candidate for they are plentiful just at present.
 Mr. and Mrs. Spraws and family of Tulla spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hammond.
 A light shower fell in this vicinity Saturday night and it is hoped we will get more moisture soon.

Arney News Items

Mrs. Bessie Nix and children of Shamrock are visiting relatives here.
 High winds recently have caused much damage to windmills. Several in our neighborhood contemplate going to Dimmitt to see the first train.
 Miss Beulah Cox returned home Sunday from Amarillo where she has been visiting relatives.
 Several combines have been bought by farmers here. Some started harvest Monday of last week while others will begin in the next few days.

QUAKER STATE TRACTOR OIL

Cuts repair bills
Eliminates breakdowns
GIVES FULL SEASON EFFICIENCY

Why?
Because Quaker State is derived exclusively from Pennsylvania Crude—the highest-grade crude oil in the world. And the quality of the crude is all-important in lubricating efficiency.

Poor oil means poor lubrication, disaster and expense. Specify Quaker State. Costs a little more, but it's worth it.

Quaker State Tractor Oil is made for especially for tractors. It forms a perfect film which no heat or wear can dissipate and maintains an even viscosity (very important) through a wide range of temperature.

King Ken and Marion Douglas in 'The Island Riders'

King Ken in a Western racing story that has ten times the thrills and spills of any race track picture you've ever seen; and a love story as beautiful and thrilling as a Western sunset.

Abigail of Hillside, Jersey Farm, Shelburne Falls, Mass., the world champion Jersey. In 365 days she produced 1197.51 lbs. of butterfat and 23,677 lbs. of milk. This is the highest Jersey record for all time and a record for all breeds on three times a day milking. The owners, shown with Abigail, are J. T. Carpenter and Junior and Raymond Carpenter. This cow weighs about 1050 lbs.

COUNTRY WEEKLIES VITAL SCHOOL FOR PARENTS. THE PYGMIES LEARN HOW. FIJI ISLANDERS.

H. Z. Mitchell's "Sentinel" at Bemidji, Minn., wins the prize as best weekly in the National Editorial contest. This is a good time to remind the public in general, and national advertisers in particular that country weekly newspapers are the most important organs of public opinion and protectors of public welfare.

And their advertising value, per mill line, is not excelled by any publication of any kind.

The reader of a country weekly buys everything from shingles on the roof to cement in the cellar floor and every advertiser has in him a possible customer.

What is the matter with our children? Not much, but a great deal is the matter with some parents.

The police are hunting for a little girl, ten years old, invited to go to a party by a plausible man, fifty-eight years old. The child did not know the man, the parents did not know him. But the parents said, "Certainly." Off she went in the stranger's car, and that is the last seen of her.

Every public school should have an annex with the sign over the door:

"Primary Common Sense for Parents."

Miss O'Brien, adventurous young explorer, returns to St. Paul, Minn., disappointed in the African pygmies. She shot all kinds of game, endured all kinds of hardship, and says Africa is all right for a woman, but a little too rough for a man.

"The Pygmies are darling little creatures," she says, "but I had to teach them to act wild." She wanted moving pictures of them.

Many American girls could teach any pygmy to act wild, and do so.

Fiji Islanders, bushy-haired, active, gave a warm welcome to the monoplane Southern Cross, landed at Suva.

Those Fijians once had an annoying habit of eating white men. This time they only cheered them.

The fliers have beaten all records, including Lindbergh's long distance flight over water. It is 5,538 miles of ocean from Oakland, California, to Suva, Fiji Islands, via Hawaii.

The next hop, 1700 miles, will take the fliers to Brisbane, Australia, on the way to Sydney. The world is really flying.

The 250 Fiji Islands, about eighty of them are inhabited, belong to old grandmother Britannia. She rarely overlooks anything.

When young people that now read this column get their around-the-world flying machine they may find chances to grow up with the country on some of those uninhabited, unexplored Fiji Islands.

Crops in the corn belt have taken an upward turn. The Arkansas River Valley reports, "Wheat will make thirty-five bushels to the acre."

All that is cheerful for the Republican candidates.

Nothing melts irritation on the farms like good rains, good crops, good prices.

George Bernard Shaw, becoming less important and less accurate after seventy, declares that accumulated money is the root of all evil.

Without accumulated money, Niagara Falls wouldn't be harnessed, the Panama Canal, which helps Britain as much as it does us, wouldn't be dug; automobile production wouldn't be on a quantity basis, and this country would have perhaps 240,000 expensive automobiles instead of 24,000,000 inexpensive automobiles.

Great accumulation of capital, like great accumulation of water going down hill, represents power.

Eliminate accumulated capital, and you would eliminate possibilities of higher civilization.

If the people haven't brains enough to watch and control accumulated capital, they wouldn't have enough to control small capital.

Felstead, with betting 33 to 1 against him, won the Derby. Horses, more fortunate than men can inherit a father's qualities. Felstead's father, Spion Kop, also won the Derby.

Rich fathers, ask yourselves what would have happened had Spion Kop left his winnings to his son to squander as he chose. Would Felstead have won any race?

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., tells Fisk University students that merely going to college doesn't necessarily mean getting an education. It may mean only "forming habits of indolence, acquiring an unwarranted sense of superiority, or becoming dissatisfied with circumstances and environment in which one's lot is cast."

Mr. Rockefeller's definition of what education ought NOT to do should be posted up in every college. It ought not to cram the mind with dates, facts, figures, produce shrewd money seeking lawyers, turn out doctors that reckon success in dollars, or "fit man for a business life that is sharp, slick, shady."

The mechanical man, or "talking Babot," has been financed $25,000,000 worth.

Manufactured in thousands, he will be used as a salesman, mechanically uttering certain words, handing out cigarettes, etc.

You may say, "But he cannot think, how can he be a salesman?"

He can be THAT kind of a salesman, and it's a numerous kind.

In Ohio fifty years ago an earnest young clerk named Phipps worked all day in a hardware store then walked eight miles and back to keep books for a blacksmith. Phipps, the blacksmith and young Andrew Carnegie went into the iron business.

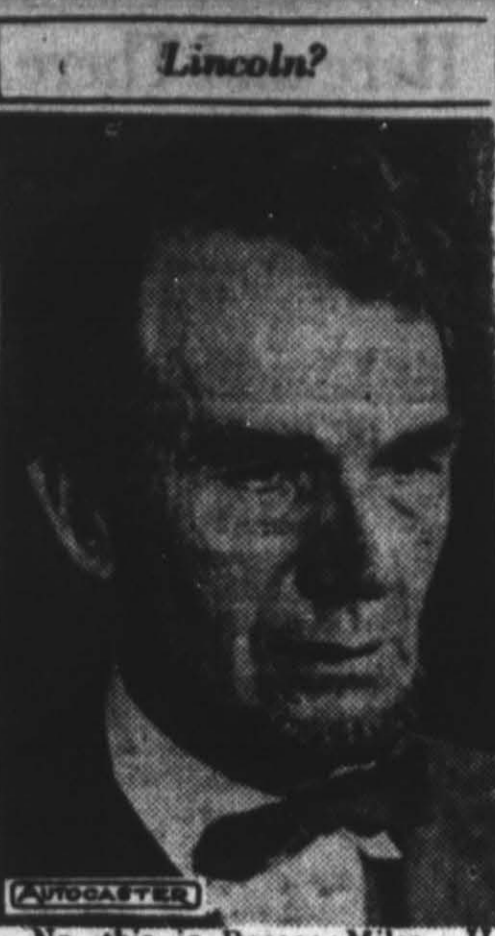

Some farmers think they need a low tariff, but don't. Tariff protection makes possible high wages, and high wages make it possible for American workers to buy farm products.

This country produces ninety billion dollars worth of new wealth every year, thirteen billion from the soil, six billions from mines, sixty-three billions from industry. Cripple that industry with foolish tariff tinkers and everybody will have trouble.

Survey by the Illinois Association for Criminal Justice, partly financed by the Carnegie Foundation, says gambling, thoroughly organized for many years, plays a great part in Chicago's crime problem.

Gambling is literally the worst of vices, most dangerous to those who practice it, and to the community on whom they prey.

Those that promoted a revival of Chicago's race tracks are re-responsible, whether they know it or not, for much of Chicago's crime.

No, this is Roscoe Miles. He lives in Los Angeles and is a wonderful double of the great president. And he is not in the movies!

It is hard to escape the crime wave these days. In one case bandits kidnapped a doctor, ordered him to treat one of them who was wounded, then beat him cruelly and finally killed him.

Six active bandits in New York City rounded up four taxi drivers among their victims.

Taxis are associated with banditry in the public mind. The policeman "meaning it all for the best," shot down two of the innocent taxi men, killing one, knocked a third unconscious with his club.

Old China changes slowly. Chang Tso-lin fled from Peking to Mukden, his stronghold, on the advice of magicians and astrologers. Two astrologers, one called "Prince Benevolence," seventy-seven years old, another "Iron Mouth," have predicted things that convinced him.

The Mongolians like magicians. Jenghis Khan was ruled by one of them nearly 700 years ago. Ultimately and wisely, he had the magician's back broken by a strong wrestler.

Hints for the Home

When you go visiting on your vacation keep in mind these simple suggestions for the parting gift to your hostess—they will save you much time and speculation when it comes to shopping.

A set of pretty boudoir boxes for her dresser drawers, a pair of spun glass swans in colored glass for salt and pepper holders, a quaint old print or mezzotint to brighten some dull spot on the wall, one of the new standing mirrors in photograph size for the occasional table, a luncheon set in colored damask, a pair of quilted pillow tops in shades in harmony with the guest room or the hostess' room.

Packed attractively, with a well-chosen greeting card enclosed, any one of these gifts will express your appreciation of the visit in a most acceptable way. And none is expensive.

A Delicious Ice-Box Cake.

Soak a tablespoon of gelatin in ¼ cup cold water and dissolve in ½ cup boiling water. Let stand until it thickens. Beat with rotary beater until frothy. Stir together 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1-3 cups sweetened condensed milk, and add 1½ cups crushed strawberries. Fold this mixture into beaten gelatine; return to ice box until it begins to set. Line mold with split lady-fingers; fill with strawberry mixture; set on ice for several hours. Turn out on plate and serve with or without whipped cream.

Varying Summer Drinks.
Instead of serving iced tea, coffee or lemonade all during the season, try apricot punch, orange mint cup, Raspberry shrub or peach punch for a change. A very tempting mocha beverage can be made with rich milk and eight teaspoons of strong cereal beverage to the glass. Iced cocoa made with rich milk is also wholesome and beloved by children.

For Meatless Summer Meals.
With the vegetable menu, it is nice to serve one starchy dish such as baked cheese rice, hominy fritters or macaroni croquette, made with chopped cold macaroni, cheese and white sauce, molded into croquettes and fried crisp in butter or margarine. These "substantial" give body to the meatless meal and make it quite satisfying.

Keeps Cut Flowers.
Drooping flowers revive quickly and last several days longer if an aspirin tablet is added to the water in which they stand.

Bottle Messages Flots Year.

GREENWICH, Conn.—More than a year ago Thorwald Kroger of this city threw overboard from transatlantic liner a message in a bottle.

Hereford Wins Easy Victory In Vega Game

Two months ago Hereford's baseball team engaged in its first two games of the season, both with Vega. They lost both games. "We were inexperienced and unorganized," local players alibied. To prove that there must have been at least a grain of truth in these allegations, the Whitefaces made another trip to Vega Sunday to engage the team there in a one-sided nine innings which resulted in a Hereford win by a score of 9-0.

Little of the usual or eventful was seen in the Sunday contest. Johnny Royal was allowed to pitch the entire game and again came through with a fine performance, without unduly exerting himself.

Hereford runs were credited to Captain Smith, 2; Jess Russell, Murphy, Ardis Russell, Jim Robinson, Carroll, Posey and Royal. These men played in their usual diamond positions. Young caught, as usual. Hereford line-up was as follows:

Player	R	H	E
Smith ss	2	0	1
J. Russell 2	1	3	2
Murphy 3	1	0	0
A. Russell rf	1	2	0
Young c	0	1	0
Robinson cf	1	1	0
Carroll lf	1	1	0

Adrian Sims Notes

Harvest will soon be starting in this community.

Row crops are growing fast and with an occasional shower will produce wonderful crops.

George McLain was a Vega visitor Sunday.

Left last week for Dallas for an extended trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lige Elliston and son Glenn returned to Crosbyton Friday of last week.

Rev. Hester of Vega preached at Sims school house Sunday afternoon and announces that he will preach there regularly each first Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook of Borger were out at their farm over the week-end.

J. M. Chapman and son Wilbur were in Vega Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Inman and children visited Sunday afternoon with the J. M. Chapman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCaskey and children recently moved into our community.

Wesley Collier returned to Crosbyton Friday.

Mrs. J. M. Chapman and children were in Hereford Tuesday.

In the second inning. Errors were divided evenly between the two teams, Hereford four, Vega four.

Eagerly looked forward to is the game next Sunday afternoon when Harley Sadler, whose show troupe is now playing Clovis, will bring over his famed nine for a game. Sadler's squad is known as one of the best in this section of the country and has already piled up many a win to its credit this year.

Figures Show Good Records In Test Work

Interesting to dairymen in this and other sections of West Texas were results of the first month's cow testing work of the Randall-Potter-Deaf Smith counties testing association just made public by County Agent R. O. Dunkle, Karl Marsh, official tester, finished his work on the first round, and began on the second last week.

Deaf Smith dairymen, of whom six belong to the tri-county organization, made reputable showings in every branch of the testing, Mr. Marsh reported.

Records for the month, with number of cows tested in each herd, type of cow which tested highest and month's production of milk and butter fat, are as follows: Lester Galley, 13 tested, grade Holstein highest cow, 1,818 pounds milk, 57.2 pounds butterfat; Louis Smith, 19, grade Jersey, 972 pounds milk and 53.4 pounds butter fat Dr. W. G. Heard, 13, grade Holstein, 831 pounds milk, 36.6 pounds fat.

W. P. Caraway, 12, grade Jersey, 687 pounds milk, 44 pounds butterfat; J. R. Lipcomb, 3, pure bred Jersey, 729 pounds milk, 35.7 pounds fat; Morton & Hawkins, 30, grade Jersey, 453 pounds milk, 30.8 pounds fat; S. O. Wilson, 23, grade Jersey, 1080 pounds milk, 48.6 pounds fat.

To date Lester Galley has the highest milk producing cow in the association, while S. O. Wilson owns the animal which has been given the highest test. J. L. Lookingbill is producing the cheapest butterfat, at a cost of little more than one-tenth of a cent per pound, and the cheapest milk at the cost of approximately half cent a pound.

THE TIGER TRAIL

By Edison Marshall

Vilas turned to me with an oath. The girl slipped fainting to the floor. I answered him without restraint and lifted the girl into my arms. I crossed with her to the little sofa at the side of the room where the two had evidently been sitting. Then turned to meet the man. He had followed me across the room and not six feet was between us.

"I think, Dr. Long," Vilas cried, "that you're altogether too officious—you had better keep out of this." I am not sure just what I answered him. But primal passions had wakened in me, too, and the words were straight. He leaped at me, and I met him with a blow. He recoiled, then caught at the table. And his hand reached for the slaken bag on the table.

I knew that the girl was screaming. The sound rose above the noise of the storm. I leaped for him but he whirled about the table before I could reach him. He tore the pistol from the bag. It glittered in his hand.

I had no delusions about what he would do with it. The drawn face, the smouldering eyes told all too plainly. He was too far for me to leap at him. So I struck out the candle.

The dark fell over us. The sound of the storm obliterated his loud breathing. It was the truce of darkness—a truce remembered from primal days.

I don't know how long it had continued when Hayward and Southley came. Their forms suddenly appeared in the open door, and each of them carried a candle.

Vilas still held the pistol, and it gleamed in the candlelight.

"Vilas," his father called. "Put down that thing!"

He hastened about the table and my aged host leaped in front of me. I tried to push him away, and his answer was a laugh—one grim syllable of laughter, ironical.

"He won't kill me," he said. "I am the goose, that lays the golden eggs. He won't kill me."

Vilas screamed at us. The murder madness was on him yet.

"He struck me," he cried. "The devil struck me. He's got to apologize. He found me with Josephine, and he struck me as if I were a dog."

His father took the pistol from his hands and put it in his pocket. Southley sighed a little and placed his candle on the table. The girl rose up behind us, and I was amazed at her self control. It had all come back.

"He struck me," Vilas said again and again. "What are you going to do about it, Southley? You've got just ten minutes to turn him out of this house—or else I'll go instead."

"Let's forget it," the old man answered with utter weariness.

"Forget nothing, Southley!" he exclaimed. "We've got to get to the bottom of this. If my son was struck, he's got to have satisfaction. I lived long enough on the continent to know that, and so has he. And so have you. It is not the way it's done over there. If a man's struck, the other pays."

"Your son is sufficiently able to take care of himself, I hope," I suggested.

"If he'd taken care of himself, you'd be laying under this table now—with your blood spilling a good Oriental rug," the older Hayward answered with startling malice. "I'm not sure but that he'd ought to have done it. I believe it's up to you, Long, to give a satisfactory explanation."

"I have nothing to explain," Then I turned my back upon him and faced the broken old figure that was my host. "Sir, if there is any explanation to be made it will have to come from your daughter."

It was a curious expression that came to the old man's face. There was hopelessness in it, and above all things else, hopeless, utter impotency.

It seemed to me that the girl spoke. But before the words came the elder Hayward had answered for him.

"What has this young pup to do with the relations between Josephine and my son?" he asked, querulously. "They have already been settled. If that is the issue it only makes it more certain what course remains. They can't go on living here, guests in the same house, with this between them. Tell him, Southley, that he has two choices. One is to apologize. The other is to leave the house."

"Is that the truth?" I asked my host.

"Tell him it is the truth," Hayward's indomitable words went on. The tone was of a threat, ominous, determined. The eyes of the two elder men met.

"She has nothing to explain," Southley told me falteringly. I looked at the girl and no man can measure or describe the anguish that was in her eyes. But she did not look straight at me. First she glanced at the strong, bull-dog figure of the elder Hayward. Then she searched for her father's time-dimmed eyes and here she found her answer.

"He's right, Dr. Long," she told me. "You must make your own explanations."

"It seems the odds are against me," I told them simply. "Mr. Southley, I have only done what any American man would have to do, and I can't and won't apologize to anyone. I have carried out the obligations of a guest to his host in the way my instincts told me. Nothing will make me believe that I did wrong. It is evident that you uphold what these other men say, and your daughter upholds them, too. And if you will have my bag brought to me I will go at once."

The girl clasped her father's hands. A world of appeal was in her dark eyes.

"He can't go in this storm," she told him. "The road along the levee isn't safe. Tell him he can't go till the storm is over."

The elder Hayward chortled from beyond the table.

"A good wetting might teach him manners," he suggested. "What about it, Southley?"

The tone was insistent and perhaps it had a scornful quality too.

"Of course he can't go until the rain is done. I won't send out my cars on a night like this."

The girl whirled to me. Appeal was all over her.

"You won't go till tomorrow?" she pleaded. "Tell me, doctor. You won't go till the storm is over?"

"I can't very well if your father won't let his cars go out," I tried to speak bitterly, but even after her betrayal the very look of her softened me.

I found young Southley sitting before a little fire in the library, and he called to me as I passed. In spite of the warmth of the night, the little flame looked hospitable and kindly.

"Heavens, what a night!" he exclaimed. "I suppose you've heard about—the tiger?"

"Of course, I know the legend. Anything new?"

"Hasn't old Hayward told you? He and my father have been out talking to the servants, just a little while ago. He's quite an old beast, you know. Well, the colored people say he is waiting again tonight."

"Nice little thing to think about as I drop to sleep," I suggested.

"Isn't it? We have an old gardener that we call Mose. Mose was in town today and he came back riding a horse about 11 o'clock. Rather it was somewhat before eleven, because you and the older Hayward were out on the golf green for your late evening walk."

"Go on," I urged. "Mose was riding home. I suppose he saw the ghost-tiger floating through the air, or riding a broomstick."

"Nothing quite so bizarre as that I'm sorry to say. Maybe I talk lightly, but I'm feeling rather serious, Long. If our tiger had done nothing except ride a broom, or fly, or something like that, it would have been a good legend to tell our children—and toast to in good vintage. But unfortunately, our tiger took other ways of manifesting himself. All he did was frighten Mose's horse—and leave his track in the earth."

The man spoke wholly without emotion. He smiled a little too—a rather wan, hopeless smile that was singularly upsetting to the spirit.

"His track?" I echoed. "You don't mean that?"

(To Be Continued.)

Shouldn't Have.

Oh, who broke your window, Karl? Mother, but it was father's fault—he ducked.

Turn In Your Toes—Live Long.

OKLAHOMA CITY.—Dr. W. Lee Austin, attending the Southern Convention of Chiropractors, says persons who walk pigeon-toed may live to be centenarians. This is the way he explains it:

"One step in six is saved in walking slightly pigeon-toed because one rises higher on his feet and consequently takes longer strides. Pointing the toes outward causes the body to be thrown out of alignment, thus infecting the hip bone and the spine.

"Spinal trouble means worry and disruption of the nervous system, and upset nerves lead to indigestion."
