 DMS cadet must demonstrate outstanding qualities of leadership and aptitude for military service, be in the upper half of the academic class and in the upper 10 per cent of his military science class.

Army ROTC cadets who receive the DMS citation are eligible to apply for Regular Army commissions when they are graduated from Tech.

The cadets are nominated by the Army ROTC commander and the students' academic deans.

Zimmerman, 21, is vice president of the Student Council at Tech; a member of Sigma Chi, social fraternity; a member of Saddle Tramps, a pep organization, and he takes part in college debate team activities. He is also a member of the Lubbock Toastmasters Club.

Col. James B. Carvey, professor of military science and tactics, announced winners of the DMS citation awards last Thursday.

Investigating Highway Patrolman Kenneth Maxwell of Hereford said the car was traveling south toward Harrison Highway when it apparently hit a rough spot on the road and veered into the telephone pole.

Miss Allison was taken to the hospital by private car. Maxwell said damage to the car was considerable.

 water department," McHarg commented. He attributed most of the damage to falling tree limbs and TV antennas. The heavy icing and strong winds contributed to the damage.

Some local lines and all long distance telephone lines were inoperative Tuesday and Wednesday. Frank Farmer, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company office, said only the circuit to Clovis was operating Wednesday morning. The main line between Hereford and Canyon is down, with an estimated 65-100 poles pulled down or snapped off. Farmer said about 20 crews from other areas came in to Hereford Wednesday to help restore service. He estimated that most sometime Wednesday.

With its many miles of line in rural areas, the REA was preparing an all-out assault Wednesday to restore service as soon as possible.

Manager Leo Forrest said mud now was the big problem, as it slowed down or stopped repair crews. He gave the following general picture:

Transmission line to Substation No. 5 is out. This serves areas to the north and northwest. He thought power from this unit would be restored about 2 p. m. Wednesday.

Substation No. 5, serving an area south, southeast and southwest of Hereford, lost power from Southwestern Public Service.

 signed George Mulligan of Borger to win a 150-pound bout.

Hereford's Larry Lopez, entering the ring for his first time Saturday night, defeated Borger's Charles Barber to take another 150-pound match.

Ronnie Fudge was credited with Hereford's other win by winning over Steve Rose of Borger in a 65-pound event.

The regional Golden Gloves Tournament in Amarillo will be held early in February. Entering the district tournament here Jan. 4-5 will be boxers from Hereford, Clovis, Levelland, Plainview, Muleshoe, Canyon, and Petersburg.

ice Company. This area probably will be without service until sometime Thursday.

This area is critical, Forrest said. It includes six dairies, all of which used electric milking machines.

Substation No. 8 is operating with about half the subscribers expected to have power by Wednesday night.

A new line in the vicinity of Dimmitt and Nazareth was ripped down, throwing the town of Nazareth into darkness. It was hoped to have the service in operation by nightfall Wednesday.

"We hope to have all the substations in operation again by Thursday night," Forrest said.

Sitting in the dim REA building, looking at a map of the area, Forrest admitted that the job was going to be slow. At least 400 poles were down and lines are tangled like cooked spaghetti.

In addition to regular employees, the REA has secured crews from South Plains cooperative; Lubbock; Hayes Construction Co.; Lubbock; Lyntegar cooperative; Tahoka; and Taylor County cooperative, Merkel.

Through a relay of amateur radio and telephone, the REA Tuesday ordered more crews and replacement power lines. Three trucks of poles are due Thursday, with others to follow.

Two truckloads, 10,000 pounds, of dry ice have been distributed to REA subscribers to preserve meat and other perishables in freezers and refrigerators.

After substations are put into operation, Forrest said crews would start working to restore power to individual subscribers.

The West Texas Rural Telephone cooperative is out of operation at present. Between 400 and 500 poles are down, scattered all over the area. Managers George Stambaugh said the Dawn, Frio, Westway, Parmer and Hub exchanges are out with most of the damage in the Hereford vicinity. Part of the Tharp and Oklahoma Lane exchange in Parmer County are operating, Stambaugh said.

The Westway, Parmer and Hub exchanges will be out indefinitely, but for local and toll service. He said that part of the Dawn and Frio exchanges might be operative this week end.

With more rain falling Wednesday morning, the outlook was dim for speedy repairs as crews spend as much as half their time trying to move vehicles and equipment from one location to another.

 now they are just adding to rather lengthy lists, which will be serviced as soon as the weather clears.

Although your yard may look like a shambles now, with pieces of tree limb and odd parts of TV antennas littered up the landscape, don't neglect to enter the city-wide Christmas lighting contest. Deadline for entering with the Chamber of Commerce is 5 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 17. If you live on a paved road within a three-mile radius, you're also eligible. Prizes are $100, $50, and $25 in each of the two categories: religious and Christmas spirit.

 while it was traveling south on its regular route. Maxwell said the driver lost control of the vehicle after the tie rod dropped from its socket. The tie rod apparently dropped after the bus hit a rough spot on the road, Maxwell said.

Driver of the bus was Henry Duane Janssen, 25, a regular bus driver and teacher at Stanton Junior High School.

The accident occurred six miles west on the Harrison Highway and two miles south of the highway on a county dirt road at 8:10 a. m. Maxwell said damage to the bus was considerable. The bus did not overturn.

The three children were taken to the hospital by private car. The other children were shaken but not injured.

Card. You take the money ordinarily spent for local Christmas cards and give it to the Project, which is sponsored by the Hereford Medical Auxiliary. Funds this year will be given to the Community Center. Your name, or your family's, will be included in a full-page greeting ad in the Christmas issue of the Brand. You may make your contribution at either bank or the grocery stores.

Hereford basketball players braved the weather Tuesday night to journey to Amarillo. They lost to the Palo Duro Dons, 65-50. This is the third Don victory over the Whitefaces this year. Friday, Dec. 18, the Herd will play the Friona Chiefs in Friona.

With Hereford and area schools closed Tuesday and Wednesday, mothers had a problem. In many cases the TV antenna was doubled over and the children were confined to the house. No wonder most men are anxious to go to work. Mothers have a real chore keeping the small ones, and large ones, occupied for hours on end.

Bad weather caused postponement of the drawing for two bikes last Tuesday. The final drawing on Tuesday, Dec. 22, will include two bikes, the pony and trappings. It happens at 8 p. m. in the 300 block of Main Street.

After-school youth recreation will be chaperoned by the hostess, but other activities will be chaperoned by parents or other adults, Bayne explained.

Other plans include keeping the building open until about 11 p. m. on Friday and Saturday nights for planned activities. On Saturday mornings, the building will be open for special activities of groups or organizations.

By JIMMIE GILLENTE
The calendar turned back five or six years for a lot of people Tuesday when TV antennas started snapping off like match sticks and a lot of kids, for the first time, found out what the "good old days" were like. It was rough on the mamas, though; with school turned out and no TV to entertain the kids a lot of homes were turned topsy-turvy.

No real hardship cases seem to have occurred, although several of these "gentlemen-type farmers" found things a bit difficult as REA lines went down, cutting off power. In many cases this meant lights, heat and water. J. W. Robinson was one of the first to knuckle - under; he moved his folks in Monday evening. Jack Gilliland had to drive down to a restaurant for coffee Tuesday morning and says it was a mite chilly, but he was sticking it out. Gaylord Newell built up a big fire in his fireplace, then flopped down in front and went to sleep. He woke up around 3:30 Tuesday morning and went to bed. I saw Pick Harman going down the street with a gas hot plate, which indicated that he was going to stick it out, come what may.

Lack of water presented the biggest problem, while those with gas furnaces lost their heat source, due to electrical thermostat controls. Very few of us realize how dependent we are on civilization until something like this comes along.

Robert Veigel, Casey Gilbreath, Paul Mathers and I were talking about the big ice storm in 1940, which practically wiped out the REA - and left the town without power for three or four days. The entire North Plains was paralyzed from this storm. I remember riding a special train to the Phillips game a week or so later, and lines were down on past Panhandle. This one was really a lulu, probably because it was more widespread and lasted so much longer.

Finally, one thing led to another, and Veigel got to telling us about one time when he went to bed and, in the middle of the night, discovered a water dog in his bedding. It was colder than a piece of ice, Veigel said, who added that they did not stay with it very long. About then, I noticed a gleam in Casey's eye, so I decided to leave before the stories got really wild.

There are bigger things than money. Bills, for instance.

Ivan Block gave his kids a cow each and they have been selling the calves. This year, however, they butchered 13-year-old Dave's calf. Dave didn't think at first that he could eat it, but everyone else was, so Dave reluctantly joined the crowd. This used to be one of the big family problems back when the farmers lived on the farms. I remember once when we fed a calf on a bottle and later butchered it. My mother never would eat a bite of the meat. She insisted that it was outright cannibalism. I guess a lot of people can remember similar incidents.

Meanwhile, this is the kind of weather it takes to make wheat crops. Also, this is what I was talking about back there in September when I said, "Don't let your wife put your overcoat in a rummage sale!" We are going to have a cold winter - and the worst is yet to come.

People like to dream about the impossible. This week, while the ground was covered with snow and ice, I ran into Dub Hair and Blue Turpen - and they were talking about fishing. In all of Hereford, there is probably no one less likely to go fishing than these two accountants. (Continued on page 5) ants. In addition to the weather, they are already launched on a sea of income tax reports, and probably won't be going anywhere for the next two or three months.

Most retail stores have been doing a thriving business. Some say better than last year, others a mite less. Most, they seem to be a bit up, despite the bad weather. Stocks are still in good shape, however, and things will really hum during the next few days.

Contrary to many predictions, President Eisenhower's current visit into the Far East seems to be accomplishing much in the way of friendship and goodwill. The same was true concerning his recent trip to Europe. Pretty well without precedent, these tours have created much conversation. All in all, they seem to fill a definite need. A product of changing times, you might say.

Mrs. Bill Hutson, veteran school bus driver, was a little bit unhappy because KPAN was off the air Tuesday. She had picked up several students before one of them told her that school had been called off for the day. She allowed, however, that worse things have happened.

FARMERS NOTICE!
The Board of Directors of the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau met in regular session last Thursday in the Farm Bureau Office. Concern was expressed over the announcements in the paper and over radio and TV stating that ALL trailers over 4000 pounds must be titled.
After studying the Legislative report of the Texas Farm Bureau, the board noted that the bill had been named to exempt farm trailers. Steve Clements and Roy Botkin were selected to contact the local tax office and take other steps to clarify Farm Trailer exemptions. After contacting the Tax Office and examining the law it was found that Farm trailers WERE exempt.
The Tax Office, in explaining the ads and news releases said that "they were prepared by the state and sent to the papers for publication but were not clear on this point. It should be made clear however that a section of this law does exempt Farm Trailers."

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Widely-Publicized Hearings To Continue In Washington

To the people of the 18th District: This newsletter is being written after my arrival in Washington for a continuation of the Goldfine hearings. You will recall that Mr. Goldfine is the man who was under investigation last year because of alleged questionable practices in the operation of several businesses in purported violation of Federal laws. His activities in these businesses brought into the public limelight a number of public figures, including Sherman Adams, the Assistant President of the United States.

You will also recall that shortly after the revelations uncovered by these hearings Mr. Adams ceased his connection at the White House as Assistant President. Mr. Goldfine's re-appearance was to permit him to answer eighteen questions which he had refused to answer at the previous hearings.

His refusal to answer the questions resulted in his being indicted, tried, and convicted of contempt of Congress. The court gave Mr. Goldfine a jail sentence and a fine, but suspended the same on the condition that Mr. Goldfine answer the eighteen questions.

In other words, if Mr. Goldfine had refused to answer the ques-

LOUIS BLACKBURN, formerly of Hereford, is shown as he milks one of the registered Holstein cows at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch near Amarillo. Louis has been especially interested in livestock and animal husbandry ever since he has lived at Boys Ranch and part of his job at the ranch is the feeding and care of the beef cattle the boys raise and butcher, as well as milking twice a day. It takes about two heaves a week to supply all the meat the boys consume and Louis and his buddies are kept busy in keeping enough cattle fattened up to supply the need. Louis enjoys his work with livestock and is thinking that he might want to follow farming and ranching after he leaves the Ranch.

Big Answer May Come In 1960

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN—As the year draws to an end, it appears Texas' big political question of the moment will not be answered until next year.

That is the question of whether the Legislature will be called into special session to raise teacher salaries.

Gov. Price Daniel has said that if he does call a session, it will not begin until after Feb. 1, filing deadline for the primaries. Next few weeks are to be spent in study and conferences with legislative leaders on possible methods of financing.

Governor Daniel said that in answer to his poll a majority of lawmakers (77 House members and 20 Senators) had written him they favored teacher raises. Many of these, however, attached "ifs" and "buts" that left considerably less than a majority in favor of plunging right into the task in a special session.

Fifty-four Representatives did not send answers to the governor, and it is generally assumed they do not favor a session.

Besides teacher pay, the governor said a special session would also be asked to raise money to pay for medical aid for people on the state welfare rolls.

He will not call a session, said the governor, unless he feels reasonably sure its tasks can be accomplished in the 30 days. But he isn't giving it up, he added, as long as it seems possible "with some hard work to get it over."

Among those with doubts about the probable success of a special session is House Speaker Waggoner Carr.

In his answer to the governor's poll, Carr said he felt education was too important a subject "to be legislated upon under the extreme pressures of a... 30-day limitation."

Carr also called on the governor to spell out well in advance of any session the tax proposals he would submit so legislators would have time to talk them over with their constituents.

Governor Daniel shot back that he would submit for one the abandoned property bill which would allow the state to take over unclaimed funds held by banks, insurance companies and other firms. This bill was repeatedly voted down in the House earlier this year.

Though his political future is not settled, Governor Daniel has definitely ruled out the possibility that he might become a state or federal judge. There had been some speculation that Daniel, who already has held a raft of high offices, might succeed retiring Chief Justice of the Supreme Court John E. Hickman or the late Jimmy Alfred as a federal district judge.

Daniel said he had great respect for the judiciary, but whether as public official or private citizen, he wouldn't want to be sidetrained from the fight for "progress, good government and fair taxation."

He would not say that he would not run for governor or lieutenant governor.

"For years Texas law against selling liquor by the drink has been no hindrance to the thousands who belong to 'bottle clubs,'"

Serving of mixed drinks to members and guest of private clubs was assumed to be the same as serving liquor in the home.

But the thing has gotten out of hand, says Liquor Control Board Chairman Coke Stevenson Jr. He said there are many clubs selling mixed drinks that are not private, non-profit clubs but are operated like business concerns to make money.

Stevenson and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson have announced a statewide drive to close up the illegal clubs. Proposed new laws are also being drafted to define clearly what sort of club is legal. Present law neither bans nor recognizes "bottle clubs."

Private bars got started in the swank country clubs, then sprang up over the state in business and professional clubs. Individuals then started their own social clubs. It is the latter—the public "clubs"—which are charged with violating the law.

State Supreme Courts has made final its ruling in a case that some say may cause uncertainties in the legal procedure for adoption of babies of unwed mothers.

It upheld the decision of a lower court in returning to its natural mother a child she had previously agreed to have adopted.

State Department of Public Welfare had requested a rehearing in the case, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, representing the department, said the ruling might result in more "black marketing" of babies.

As more people become eligible for social security, the number of Texans seeking state old age pension is decreasing.

Joe Kerbel Has Big Plans As New Head Of WTSC Buffaloes

Canyon — Joe Kerbel, builder of outstanding high school teams—in Oklahoma and Texas and assistant coach at Texas Tech the past two seasons, is the new West Texas State, football coach.

He succeeds Clark Jarnagin, whose contract was not renewed after winning only two of 20 games the past two years.

The announcement was made last week by President James P. Cornette in San Antonio after approval by the Board of Regents of Texas State Teachers' Colleges.

Although, in line with Board policy, Kerbel's contract was approved officially for only one year, it is understood by both the Board and Kerbel that his service as head football coach will continue for at least a three-year period. Assistant coaches who will make up his staff are under consideration, according to Kerbel, and their assignments will be made public as definite arrangements are completed.

The fiery, 38-year-old Oklahoma graduate has one of the winning records in Southwest high school circles. During head coaching stints at Cleveland, Okla., Breckenridge, and Amarillo High School, Kerbel carved out a composite record of 76 wins, 15 defeats and two ties.

He probably is best remembered for his rebuilding job at Amarillo High School. After breaking even in 10 games his first year there, in 1955, Kerbel

Rodriguez And Funk Take Bouts

PePe Rodriguez and Dory Funk won events at the Hereford Lions Club Wrestling Matches in the county Bull Barn Saturday night.

Tony Morelli won the first fall from Rodriguez in 14 minutes with a body press while holding on to the ropes. Rodriguez then won the second fall in nine minutes with a cobra twist and took the deciding fall when Morelli was disqualified for not breaking a choke hold on the count of four.

In the second event, Funk took the first fall from Gory Guerrero in 12 minutes with a spinning toe hold, and Guerrero countered by taking the second fall in 30 seconds. Funk won the third fall by beating Guerrero to the ring at the count of 19 after the two fought outside the ring.

For Dec. 19, a return match has been scheduled between Dory Funk and Guerrero. Big Bob Orton will go against Gordo Chihauhua in a two-out-of-three fall or one hour time limit match. Rodriguez will be referee.

Saturday night, Dec. 19, will be the last match until Jan. 9. The Bull Barn will be closed Dec. 26 to Jan. 2 for Christmas and New Year's holidays.

ALL-GIRLS CHOIR of Hereford High School, under direction of Don Moore, presented a Christmas vocal program at the noon meeting of Hereford Kiwanis Club Thursday. The group sang "Let There Be Music," "When Jesus Was A Little Child," "No Man Is An Island," and "Angels We Have Heard On High." Wade Thomas was a guest at the meeting. (Staff Photo)

Jones Receives Ribbon Of Merit

Cadet Cary D. Jones, son of George T. Jones of Hereford, has been awarded the blue and gold merit ribbon for the first nine weeks of the current semester at Oklahoma Military Academy, Claremore.

The merit ribbon is awarded each nine weeks period to those cadets who have received a greater number of merits for general work and conduct than demerits.

directed the Sandies to two consecutive district titles in '56 and '57, compiling a 20 - 3 record in the process. His success at Amarillo brought him an assistant coaching job at Texas Tech, where he was in charge of the offense.

Kerbel plans to install a combination split-T and pro-type attack at West Texas, giving the Buffaloes a wide-open offense.

"The football situation at West Texas is a great challenge and a great opportunity," said the heavy-set, black-haired new Buff boss.

"We are faced with a very difficult schedule. However, you don't benefit unless you play good teams, and I know that our players and coaches would prefer to participate against the finest clubs. I'm sure it will take some time to bring the kind of football to West Texas that will make us all proud of the Buffaloes."

Kerbel continued: "There is a tremendous amount of football talent in our area and we hope to be able to attract some of the finest players. We will try to make every contact possible and let everyone know we're interested in bringing the finest football players to West Texas."

The new Buffalo coach emphasized the importance of area support. "We are going to need a tremendous amount of help from alumni and people in our area to help secure the type of players we need at West Texas. Area support has made the building of the Buffs' hardest-earned new stadium possible, and with their help, we can find the kind of football team they want."

Athletic Director Frank Kimbrough said Kerbel was the choice of the majority of the people he talked to in the area. "I found there was a lot of interest in regards to the hiring of a new football coach, and Joe Kerbel was the choice of a vast majority."

know. Joe is a good coach and a hard worker, and expects the same from his staff and players. To have a good football team it takes all of that, plus a lot of interest from the people. I feel we are fortunate in getting Joe and wish him the very best of luck . . . for luck plays a big role in close games."

Kerbel played football at Seminole, Okla., High School and University of Oklahoma. A guard, he entered Oklahoma in 1940 and was graduated in 1947, following World War II duty with the Marines. He served two years in the South Pacific and China and still holds the rank of captain in the inactive Marine Reserve. His first coaching job was at old age pensioners dropped by 1,416 in the past fiscal year. Number of Texans receiving aid through the Welfare Department was 224,113, only about two-thirds of the 368,418 getting social security checks.

Total monthly welfare payments for the state were some $11,685,333, compared with $29,622,190 a month in social security.

Texas' fast-growing cities seem to be surging ahead in crime faster than in almost any other area.

Houston had in the first nine months of the year 89 murders, same number as Los Angeles, four times as large a city.

Figures released by the Federal Bureau of Investigation showed these murder figures for Texas' ten top cities: Houston, 89; Dallas, 67; Fort Worth, 40; San Antonio, 37; El Paso, 15; Beaumont, 11; Lubbock, 10; Austin, 6; Corpus Christi, 5; Waco, 4.

Nineteen candidates will campaign through the holiday season in hopes of winning places in the Legislature Jan. 9. Four posts were vacated by resignations. Special elections usually attract many candidates, since the high man wins without a runoff.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has estimated the 1959 Texas cotton crop at 4,500,000 bales. This is lower than previous estimates, but better than the 4,308,000 bales ginned in the state last year. Average yield per acre will be about 337 pounds. One-eighth, or six of the 48 persons executed for crimes in the U. S. last year, were executed in Texas. California, Georgia and Ohio also had six executions each. So far this year Texas has had only three executions.

corporations in question were not being operated in compliance with the laws with which other corporations are required to comply. They also proved to me that these activities had extended over a number of years.

This of course gives rise to the further question of why such activities were permitted and who was interceding in high government circles to permit Goldfine to so operate. We attempted to get more information on this subject from Mr. Goldfine by trying to get him to tell us the names of the real parties in interest in the ownership of a valuable piece of business property in Boston. Mr. Goldfine refused to answer this question on the constitutional grounds that the answer thereto may tend to incriminate him.

In other words, he pleaded the Fifth Amendment. In my opinion, there were a great many activities relating to the operation of these corporations and others operated through Mr. Goldfine and his associates which have not yet come to light. Under the circumstances, Kerbel went to Amarillo High School the following season when Sandie football was its lowest in many years. After a 5-5 record in '55, he guided the Sandies to a 9-3 mark the following year and a 11-1 record in '57.

Kerbel is married to the former Frances Davis, a former high school classmate at Seminole, and they have four children - Joe, 12; Sharon, 10; Sammy, 5; and Paula, 3.

West Texas State's 1960 schedule, called the strongest in the history of the school, opens with Texas Tech at Lubbock. Thus, Kerbel's first assignment as Buffalo head coach will be playing his former boss, DeWitt Weaver, and it also will be Tech's first game as a full-fledged Southwest Conference member. It also will be Tech's first game in its enlarged 46,000 seat stadium.

After Tech, the Buffs will play Border Conference champion Arizona State, Mississippi Southern, Texas Western, North Texas, Hadin-Simmons, Arizona, Trinity, New Mexico State, and Wichita on successive week ends. The games with Arizona State, Texas Western, North Texas, Trinity and New Mexico State will be home attractions in the Buffs' modern 20,000-seat stadium.

LIFE OF THE PARTY
PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP) - A Phoenix truck driver got his choice of serving 60 days in jail or paying a $50 fine for trying to live up to his last name.

Ronald Pester, 34, set off a firecracker on a crowded dance floor.

I think it is highly important that full information on this subject matter be revealed. One of the most serious challenges that this country has faced in many years, and one that is equally as serious as Communism, is the decay in the moral standards that were so long the bedrock of our form of government. If Mr. Goldfine was allowed to exercise powers in high government places which were denied to others, no one can deny that such practice was immoral. Certainly moral decay found in high government places could do more to destroy our way of life than anything else. It must be fully aired and cleaned up.

The many revelations of moral corruption that seems to be running rampant throughout our country is most frightening. The rigged T. V. quiz shows are a good example of what is happening in many areas of our country. The impact of what was uncovered in these hearings may serve as warning to the American people of what can happen right before your eyes. One of the disturbing factors to me in this whole sordid mess is the attitude of some of the people who have been writing syndicated articles on the subject.

This country was not founded on that sort of thinking, nor will it survive on such. No one can deny that our moral standards have suffered measurably in the last two decades, as is evidenced by the many scandals which have come to light in recent years, including the most recent New York meat scandals, fraudulent advertising procedures, gross misrepresentation of the value of products, the strenuous efforts on the part of some to flood the mails with salacious literature, the increasing crime rate, the juvenile delinquency problem, the questionable practices of government contractors and government individuals dealing with those contractors. These are only a few of the things which can be mentioned. It is much better that we be realistic about the whole situation and face up to it now, than to sweep it under the rug and permit it to continue to eat at the vital structure of our government.

These are only a few of the things which can be mentioned. It is much better that we be realistic about the whole situation and face up to it now, than to sweep it under the rug and permit it to continue to eat at the vital structure of our government.

Carol Singing

... the time of year when spirits are gay and when voices blend in adoration for an event nearly 2000 years old... the birthday of our Lord. The warmth of Christmas Carols rolling out over hill and dale quickens the spirits of men as no other season of singing does. Then sing your Carols. Give out with your Noels. Of course it is Hallelujah time, but on His Natal Day may we celebrate with joyful reverence. We may sing our Carols, but may we also be serious in our jubilation.

Palo Duro, Dimmitt Winners In Double-Header Saturday

Palo Duro and Dimmitt came through with convincing victories Saturday night to climax the Hereford double-header. The Dons pounced on Hereford miscues and made few of their own in winning 65-43, while the Bobcats proved stronger than Canyon in the first game, taking a 77-45 decision.

Hereford took an early lead but was unable to hold it, as the Dons edged out front 19-16 at the quarter and then turned on the heat to run up a 39-29 margin at halftime. Against a strong defense, Hereford was able to muster just six points in the third period, which ended with Palo Duro in front 56-35. Hereford got eight more in the final period, while Don reserves preserved the victory and scored nine points.

Ronnie Botkin's outside shooting, as he tallied 16 points, was one of the few highlights for Hereford. Dennis Hodges, a sophomore, was moved up from the B squad to a starting role primarily because of his defensive ability. Hodges also is expected to be a strong scoring threat after a few more varsity games.

Steve Carter garnered 20 points for the Dons, playing just briefly in the final period. David Dearing was second high with 17.

In the early game, Dimmitt was hot and Canyon was icy-cold as the Bobcats romped to an easy win. Hal Ratcliff poured in 30 points and Junior Coffman contributed 12 for the winners. Jerry Richardson led the Eagles with 17. Dimmitt led 19-14, 41-23 and 65-35 at the rest stops. Reserves finished out the game for Dimmitt.

Swim Program Graduates 303

A total of 303 residents who participated in the Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter's Water Safety Program here last summer passed swimming and lifesaving courses and are eligible to receive certificates. It was disclosed this week.

Certificates will be distributed in the sporting department of Streu Hardware, where pins and badges will also be on sale to those who have passed certificate requirements.

Water safety instructor Dr. H. A. Cavness said that total enrollment in classes, which were held from June 22 to Aug. 29, was 744 and of that number only 143 failed in various divisions. "Incompletes" totaled 169, and most of that number was due to adverse weather conditions during the first term of the summer program, Dr. Cavness said.

Completing requirements in the adult classes were 27 beginners, 22 intermediates and 12 swimmers.

Children completing requirements included 136 beginners, 69 intermediates and 17 swimmers.

Eleven students 16 years of age or older passed senior life saving, and nine students 18 years or older passed water safety instructor requirements. Dr. Cavness said that 1086 volunteer instructor hours were logged by the 31 instructors and instructor aides during the summer program.

He added that if anybody in the past three years passed certificate requirements during the annual programs, certificates are available in the County Red Cross Chapter office in County Courthouse.
