J. F. WARD ENTERED IN MASTER FARMER CONTEST FROM DEAF SMITH COUNTY

J. F. Ward, who operates a farm one mile south of the city, has been entered as Hereford's representative in the Master Farmer contest being conducted by the Progressive Farmer of Dallas in co-operation with the A. & M. College.

To qualify for entry in the Master Farmer contest, a contestant must be one of the leading farmers of the community and have demonstrated his ability in agriculture, farm practice and farm finances.

In deciding upon the qualifications of a farmer candidate for the title of Master Farmer, a scoring committee consisting of the county agent and four representative business or professional men of the community visit the farm of the candidate and inspect it, all farm buildings, all livestock and farm crops and then grade the farmer on each phase of farming.

Photographs of the farmer, his buildings and growing crops are sent with the score cards showing details of every farm operation to the judges of the contest. District agents and specialists of the A. & M. College and representatives of the Progressive Farmer compose a committee which study the scores submitted by the various Extension districts.

The district agents of the A. & M. College then visit the farmer in the district after which the scores are submitted to the State Committee. This committee will be charged with making the final selection of the ten Master Farmers who will each receive a gold medal.

Upon being selected as a Master Farmer, each of the winners and their wives will be guests of the Progressive Farmer at Dallas for the Master Farmers' banquet, which will be given in their honor at the Baker Hotel, Dallas. Property engraved gold medals will be awarded to each of the Master Farmers signifying their achievements in agriculture.

More than 200 farmers throughout Texas were nominated last year to the honor of Master Farmer and fifteen were selected. This year the number will be reduced to only ten selections. The awards will be made late in the fall.

Mr. Ward is a firm believer in diversified farming and his farm yields a satisfactory income from each of a wide variety of farm products. With 75 acres in culture.

Clovis Easy Victim For Whitefaces Last Sunday

Prevented by rain from playing as planned at Clovis, the Hereford Whitefaces and Santa Fe shop baseball teams adjourned to Texico Sunday afternoon where one of the hottest contested games of the season was fought for clovis, innings to end in favor of the Hereford team with a score of 1 to 0. Only two hits were gathered off Carmichael by the Santa Fe shop boys in the first 7 innings. Louder, the Clovis pitcher, retaliated by striking out nine of the Whitefaces.

$4,500 Pledged for Use of Plains Organization

Traveling 1200 miles in five days and visiting seventeen towns and fifteen counties, Dr. O. H. Lloyd of Vega, and W. R. Arnold, secretary of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, secured pledges of nearly $4,500 for the Panhandle-Plains, Inc., which, with other funds contributed by the Board of City Development and some counties yet to be visited, will be used to advertise the opportunities that exist in the vast Panhandle-Plains area for the farmer, homeseeker and investor.

"We believe that a wonderful feeling of understanding and co-operation exists in the communities we visited, with reference to this important work," declare Messrs. Lloyd and Arnold. "A very cordial reception was given our proposition and we were assured of financial aid as well as active personal co-operation by leaders in the various communities."

"Every Panhandle citizen seems to be fully appreciative of the wonderful spirit shown by Amarillo through its Board of City Development, in offering to match every dollar raised outside of the city with $3.00 in carrying on this great work," stated the committeemen.

In a report to the organization the committee shows that funds have been subscribed to the work of the Panhandle-Plains Inc. by the counties of Lamb, Hale, Randall, O'Connell, Deaf Smith, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Donley, Briscoe, Collinsworth, Floyd, Armstrong and Swisher. Several other counties will be visited by the committee within a few days.

Fourth Expected to Be Busy Time in Hereford

Because of the wheat harvest in this vicinity being at its height, with the farmers busy in the fields and merchants and their clerks equally busy in town, no plans for an elaborate celebration of the Fourth have been made here. The youngsters as usual, will derive great joy from fireworks and noise-making devices and will greet the day enthusiastically. Adults who are able to escape from the store or office will journey to nearby points where big celebrations are being staged or, with the automobile well stocked with picnic supplies, will motor out to some favorite picnic grounds and enjoy an all day outing. Many from Hereford will attend the big rodeo at Amarillo on the 4, 5 and 6, and others will go to Clovis for the American Legion celebration held there on the Fourth.

Wheat Enough to Feed the Nation, Says Visitor

"It looks as though the Texas Panhandle had enough wheat to feed the nation," stated E. A. Bare, of Pleasantville, Iowa, on his arrival here Thursday for his first visit to this section since 1918.

"When I first bought my farm here in 1905 my nearest neighbors were seven miles away, but now there seems to be a farmer on every quarter section of land," declared Mr. Bare, in astonishment at the rapid settlement of this section which has taken place in the last five years. "I have been reading in The Brand about these developments taking place in Hereford and in the county, but I did not realize the extent of them until I saw them myself." Mr. Bare has been a subscriber to The Brand since he first came to Deaf Smith county, he states.

The land owned by Mr. Bare is located north of the Harrison Highway and near the New Mexico line, and is leased to W. H. Gilbreath. About 140 acres of the farm are planted to wheat, states Mr. Bare, and 1000 head of sheep and 100 head of Whiteface cattle are kept on the farm, as well as a number of hogs and chickens. Considerable acreage is devoted to row crops to produce feed for the livestock.

Mrs. O. T. Behrends and children went to Hart last week to visit her husband.

Traffic Count Shows Heavy Traffic On State Highway

For the purpose of determining the sum to be allotted by the state to Deaf Smith county for the maintenance during the coming fiscal year of State Highway No. 33 through the county, a traffic count of motor vehicles using the highway was ordered taken early this week by the State Highway Commission.

Commencing at 4:00 o'clock Sunday morning and continuing until midnight Tuesday, E. H. Finch, city manager, and C. R. Boyd city marshal, stationed at a point on the highway one mile east of Hereford, kept a check on the number of vehicles passing the point during that time.

Though not official, estimates of the number of motor vehicles using the highway averaged 1,000 for each 24 hours, which is practically five times the number registered at the last official count taken several years ago.

As a result of the new figures showing such a large increase in traffic on the highway it is expected that the funds allotted to Deaf Smith county for maintenance of State highways will be greatly increased. Constable John Cunningham also assisted with the traffic count.

W. T. C. C. Motorcade To Be Here July 17

Advice received here by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce state that the Fourth Annual Motorcade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will visit Hereford on July 17.

According to B. M. Whitaker, in charge of the caravan, the motorcade will start from Ballinger, Texas, on July 16, visit Carlsbad Cavern, New Mexico, then follow the route of the Santa Fe railroad through Roswell and Clovis, New Mexico, to Hereford and Amarillo. Plans are being worked out here, announce officials of the Chamber of Commerce, to give the visitors a cordial official welcome. Approximately 100 people are expected to be in the caravan.

Boy Scout Troop Organized Here Last Week

Organization was completed here last week of Boy Scout Troop No. 19, the only troop of Boy Scouts in Hereford. R. P. Conaway, of the Hillside Hatchery, was selected as scoutmaster.

E. L. Roberts of Plainview, scout executive for the Central Plains Council, helped to organize the troop, to which ten members have already been admitted. Additional members will be accepted by Scoutmaster Conaway until the total membership reaches 22, the full strength of a complete troop.

Meeting of Scout Troop No. 19 will be held each Tuesday night at the Hillside Hatchery. Boys wishing to join the troop can apply for membership at the meetings of call on Mr. Conaway at any time.

In celebration of organizing the troop Mr. Roberts took the boys on a hiking and swimming expedition. Meeting at the Hillside Hatchery Tuesday afternoon, the troop members hiked to a point on Tierra Blanca Creek two miles west of the city and enjoyed several hours of swimming. Those who did not know how to swim were given instruction by Mr. Roberts.

Troop No. 19 is the 21st troop of Boy Scouts in the district under the jurisdiction of Mr. Roberts, which, in addition to Deaf Smith county, includes Briscoe, Castro, Floyd, Hale, Lamb and Swisher counties. Members who joined the Boy Scouts here are Harold Broadwell, Billie Hawkins, Robert Dunlap Hough, Beaford West, Spalding Bartley, Paul Conaway, Benny Murray, Bill Murray, Walter Seed and Kermit Wilson.

E. B. Black to Meeting in Amarillo On Friday

E. B. Black, president of Panhandle-Plains, Inc., will leave Friday for Amarillo where he will attend a meeting of the organization. Chamber of commerce secretaries, county agents and other representatives of the counties interested in the work of the Panhandle-Plains, Inc., will attend the meeting and aid in determining at which fairs in Middle Western states agricultural products from this territory shall be exhibited.

Girl Has Narrow Escape In Car Accident

Ruth Cokraham, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cokraham, proprietors of the Cordova Hotel, was painfully injured at nine o'clock Friday night when in crossing the street in front of the E. B. Black furniture store she stepped unexpectedly in front of an automobile bound north on Main Street, escaped being hit by it and, confused by the glare of the headlights, stepped into the path of another car bound south, receiving a blow from the bumper of the car that knocked her unconscious to the pavement.

Passing motorists who witnessed the accident started with the injured child and her father, O. D. Cokraham, who had meanwhile arrived at the scene of the accident, for the hospital. Regaining consciousness on the way to the hospital, Ruth begged to be taken home instead and her request was complied with and a doctor called at once.

When first examined by the physician, it was feared that internal injuries had been suffered by the child but symptoms of such failed to develop. Terrific bruises about the face, head and body were received by the child. One especially severe bruise was received over the heart and another on the left cheek and left side of the head. The left knee was badly bruised and wrenched. In spite of all these injuries, however, the injured child was able to leave her bed Tuesday and sit up for several hours.

Santa Fe Moves to Keep Down Crossing Deaths

In an effort to reduce the toll of lives paid each year throughout the Nation as a result of accidents occurring at the crossings of highways and railroads, the Santa Fe Railroad is undertaking a safety campaign which will enlist every man in the service of this railroad and extend to every community touched by thousands of miles of rails under the control of the Santa Fe.

Large posters, strikingly picturing the penalties of carelessness or lack of caution in approaching a railroad crossing and driving home the idea of "safety first" to the auto driver, are being posted in every conspicuous place along the total length of the transcontinental system and distributed to stores, post offices and other places in each community where they may be seen by the traveling public.

Every employe of the railroad is being instructed anew in measures and practices that will help to insure safety for the auto driver. J. E. Beyer, local agent for the Santa Fe, is in charge of the "Safety Campaign" here and is giving wide distribution to the "Cautious Driving" posters issued by the Santa Fe railroad.

R. M. Johnson and wife of Dallas, are in Hereford for a three weeks visit. Mr. Johnson owns a farm eight miles from town.

"Your Eye on the Ball—Always" Says C. P. McCollough

"Golf is a great game, if you watch your step," declares C. P. McCollough, abstractor, and ardent devotee of the game. "It is necessary to keep your eye on the ball but you want to look once in a while where you put your foot," he advises since an adventure last Sunday afternoon in which he acquired some painful bruises.

Mr. McCollough was engaged Sunday afternoon in a friendly game of golf with E. B. Posey at the Hereford Golf Links south of the city, and according to his statements of the incident that followed, Mr. Posey had lifted the ball with a hearty blow from the green into the bed of the creek which crosses the field and makes a difficult hazard to pass. In an effort to help Mr. Posey retrieve the lost ball, Mr. McCollough, with one eye on the ball where it nestled at the bottom of the creek, started to cross the stream on the series of iron barrels that act as stepping stones for those wishing to cross and when part way across the creek missed his footing and slipped into the foot of black ooze that forms the bed of the creek at that point. A slight bruise on the right side of the face was sustained by Mr. McCollough as he fell.

Exhibiting the true golf spirit, Mr. McCollough after finding that he was in the creek bed in the vicinity of the lost ball, retrieved the ball before allowing his friends to rescue him. Mr. McCollough is still an ardent advocate of golf.

Through the co-operation of Mayor E. S. Ireland and members of the school board and Superintendent C. H. Dillehay, R. E. Frazier of Franklin, Texas, has been engaged as director of the Hereford Municipal Band and the high school orchestra.

Mr. Frazier is at present director of the Franklin Municipal band which under his supervision won first place in the one-year class at the East Texas Chamber of Commerce convention held last May at Bryan. Prior to going to Franklin Mr. Frazier taught the Breckenridge high school band for a period of five years, which band won first place for four successive years in the high school band divisions at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce conventions.

Mr. Frazier will arrive to assume his duties as director of the Hereford Municipal Band on July 15.

Vocational Teacher Here for New Duties

B. H. Hopkins, of Farwell, arrived Monday to take up his duties as vocational agricultural teacher in the Hereford high school. Though school is not yet in session, Mr. Hopkins is arranging the necessary preliminary work.

Graduated from A. & M. College in 1925, Mr. Hopkins has for four years been vocational agricultural teacher in the Farwell school. Members of the Farwell school board speak very highly of the work accomplished by him there.

Mr. Hopkins was accompanied to Hereford by Mrs. Hopkins, a bride of two weeks.

TRASH PILE FIRE CALLS OUT FIRE DEPARTMENT

Shortly after four o'clock Tuesday afternoon the Hereford fire department was called to the residence of Frank Ball at the corner of Third Street and 25-Mile Avenue. A burning trash pile in the rear of the residence at the end of the lot was the cause of the call and had been nearly extinguished before the arrival of the fire trucks. The chemical tank soon extinguished the remaining embers.

Contract for Gym at Wayland College Let

Contract was let recently in the office of Guy Carlender, architect, for the erection of the Wayland Baptist College gymnasium. The contract was let to the firm of Harrison & Smythe, Plainview.

Work on the gymnasium for the college at Plainview began Monday and is to be completed by September 10.

The gymnasium was made possible by a contribution to the college from Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Nunn of Amarillo. The building will cost approximately $22,000 and with fixtures and equipment will cost around $27,000.

Unusual interest in Wayland College is being shown in the Panhandle, according to President G. W. McDonald, who last week made a trip to White Deer, Groom, Goodnight, Dalhart, Harney, Amarillo and other towns in that territory.

At Berger, in a district workers meeting attended by 350, President McDonald was given the morning hour and spoke on education. "So great was the interest there," he said, "that the morning session was almost turned into a Wayland rally."

Dr. J. E. Nunn of Amarillo, also spoke at this session. Mr. Nunn was at Plainview Friday and with officials of the school, selected the site for the new gymnasium building. It will be erected on the southwest corner of the campus, one block from Highway No. 25, which is soon to be paved. The building will be of brick construction and will face east, a west opening being nearest the athletic field.

More than 200,000 bushels of wheat have been shipped from this section within the past four days and the food of grain is pouring in steadily increasing volume into the local elevators. Though several showers over the territory Sunday slowed up operations, 17 carloads of wheat were shipped Monday from Hereford, six from Summerfield, eight from Dawn and six from Black. A total of 167 cars of wheat have been shipped from these points since Thursday of last week, putting more than $180,000 into circulation in Hereford and its trade territory.

E. B. Black, Hereford, president of the E. B. Black Grain Co., at Black, 15 miles west of here, states that the rain in that section Sunday slowed the harvest, but that from Thursday morning to Saturday night 25 cars of grain were loaded into the elevator and shipped the following day. Work on the new elevator being erected here for the S. E. Cone Grain and Seed Co., of Lubbock is progressing rapidly. With the exception of some interior finishing and the installation of hoisting machinery the plant is completed. The spur track being constructed by the Santa Fe to the new elevator was ready for use Tuesday though the elevator machinery is not in place, states Horace Bentley, manager of the Cone Grain Co., he has commenced buying grain and is shoveling it into the grain cars.

In addition to the 157 cars of wheat reported shipped from Hereford, Summerfield, Dawn and Black up to Saturday night, there were 38 cars shipped from Hereford during Monday and Tuesday; eight cars each from Dawn and Summerfield in the same period and 11 cars from Black. These 79 cars added to the 157 cars shipped the latter part of last week make a total of 236 cars shipped from Hereford and vicinity in a period of less than seven days. Shipments are averaging now 25 cars from Hereford and eight each from Dawn and Summerfield. J. E. Beyer, local agent for the Santa Fe, Wednesday morning there were 40 empty grain cars in the local yard and more were expected during the day. The Santa Fe is making every effort to keep a sufficient supply of grain cars here to meet every need, states Mr. Beyer.

Shortage of Cars Thing of Past; 110 Arrive

With the arrival here early Monday morning of 110 grain cars and a switch engine to spot and move them, a threatened shortage of cars that loomed here the latter part of the week was averted.

Discovering Saturday that the supply of grain cars allotted to Hereford by the Santa Fe railroad was fast nearing exhaustion, T. E. Seigler, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, immediately got in touch with division headquarters of the railroad at Amarillo and explained the urgent need for more grain cars here at once in order to avoid the loss of thousands of dollars by farmers of the county through being forced to accept a lower price for grain, which, if no cars were available, would have to be dumped on the ground before re-loading into the elevator or cars.

After strenuous insistence by long distance telephone that Hereford's need was imperative, Mr. Seigler was assured by Santa Fe officials that plenty of grain cars would be sent here immediately. The 110 cars arriving Monday, stated the railroad officials, were only a portion of the cars that would be available for Hereford if the need developed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biggs are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter at their home, born June 24. Shirley Ann is the name that has been selected for the young lady.

Miss Avis Thompson of Tulsa arrived here Monday to accept a position in the office of C. P. McCollough, abstractor. Miss Thompson has been employed in an abstract office in Tulsa and is experienced in this work.

Norton is plaintiff and all of the above named and indicated parties, their unknown heirs, their heirs and legal representatives, successors and assigns, are defendants; the nature of the plaintiff's demand being substantially as follows, to-wit:

A suit in trespass to try title, plaintiff alleging that he is the owner in fee simple of Section No. Thirty-four (34), in Block K-7, Certificate No. 1-420, Original Grantee B. S. & F., situated in Deaf Smith County, Texas, by virtue of mesne conveyances reaching back to the sovereignty of the soil. That said land was public free school land; that it was originally awarded to J. T. Rutherford on December 1, 1899, as additional land to Section 32, same Block, and that proper proof of occupancy was made. That said Section 34 was sold and conveyed by J. T. Rutherford and wife Hattie Rutherford to Larkin H. Spurgeon and Samuel J. Spurgeon on May 23, 1906. That on September 28, 1908, Larkin H. Spurgeon executed a deed of trust on his one-half interest therein to secure the payment to the Bank of Independence, Independence, Missouri, of a promissory note for $900.00; that said note was duly paid, and said bank undertook to release said deed-of-trust lien, but that, through error and inadvertence, the certificate of acknowledgment on said release was defectively drawn, and said bank is made a party for the purpose of removing the cloud thereby cast on plaintiff's title. That on or about May 29, 1907, Samuel J. Spurgeon died; that he left no will; that no administration was ever had on his estate in Texas; that his only heirs were and are, Larkin H. Spurgeon, a brother; Spurgeon B. Campbell, a nephew, and Mary E. Campbell and Jennie Ruth Campbell, nieces. That on March 9, 1929, said Section 34 was patented by the State of Texas to Samuel J. Spurgeon and Larkin H. Spurgeon, their heirs and assigns. That Larkin H. Spurgeon, Mary E.

Campbell, and Jennie Ruth Campbell (all being more than twenty-one years old and never having been married) conveyed their interest in said Section 34 to Spurgeon B. Campbell. That on April 4, 1929, Spurgeon B. Campbell and wife Nelle F. Campbell conveyed said Section 34 to plaintiff. Plaintiff prays for judgment for title and possession of said Section 34 and cancelling all claims, rights, titles, or interest, if any, of defendants therein, removing cloud from plaintiff's title and quieting for costs of suit, and for general and special relief.

Herein said not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of next term this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, Texas, this 25th day of June, A. D. 1929.

Huge Demand for Sargon Smashing World's Records

If anyone told you that one single medicine had relieved tens of thousands of suffering men and women in all walks of life of their health troubles and that it had put thousands of other men and women unable to find relief back to work, it would sound impossible, wouldn't it?

But that is just exactly what is happening right here in this state. Not only has it brought them new-found health and strength but it has given them new energy, new vitality and a new lease on life itself. In many cases the results have been so remarkable that many people have bought it and sent it to friends in other states, while other thousands have written grateful letters of praise.

The wonderful success that Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills have achieved in only one year's time simply staggers the imagination.

In the state of California alone where it was introduced on April 16 of this year, it has required the astonishing total of nine solid carloads—or more than 200,000 bottles—to supply the demand. Kansas City retailers and wholesalers have sold and distributed over 300,000 bottles in the states of Kansas and Missouri. Minneapolis and St. Paul dealers have required nine entire carloads in five months. The demand in practically every state and section where Sargon has been introduced has been correspondingly large. When natural distribution has been completed it will require millions upon millions of bottles to supply the ever-increasing demand for this celebrated medicine.

Back of Sargon's triumph in the drug stores is Sargon's triumph in the homes. Everywhere it has been introduced it has become a household word and it is unquestionably the most widely talked-of medicine in the world today.

When Sargon was first given to the world just one year ago, it was hailed as a triumph in the field of modern medicine. Many well known authorities who watched its development freely predicted that it would become the one great outstanding, health-giving remedy of the age. But the men of science who labored for years to perfect it little dreamed it would become such a great boon to humanity in so short a time.

Sargon may be had in Hereford at the Clark Drug Store.

Carter are Defendants, and said petition alleging that plaintiff was on January 8th, 1926, lawfully seized and possessed of the South east quarter of section No. 24, township 5 North, range 3 East in Deaf Smith County, Texas; that on said day J. M. Seitz unlawfully entered said premises, ejected plaintiff and unlawfully withheld possession of same to plaintiff's damage; that the annual rental value of said premises is $480, that said T. J. ## Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

July 3, 1929.

General Topic THE STORY OF EZEKIEL

Scripture Lesson
Ezekiel 3:4-11; 25-15-18

Golden Text. As I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live.—Ezekiel 33:11.

Introduction.

That the Jehovah faith of the people of Israel survived the ruin and the captivity is one of the marvels of history and that it came out of that ordeal a purer, stronger faith is even more surprising. The man whom God especially used in bringing about these results is the Prophet Ezekiel, whom we are to study in the three beginning lessons of this quarter. His stern admonitions kept the Jehovah faith from being swamped in the materialism and idolatry of Babylon; his inimitable belief in a future for Israel preserved the national spirit intact through the years of exile, and had not a little to do with inspiring, at a later time, Zerubbabel, Ezra and Nehemiah courageously to attempt a revival of the Jewish state and church. Ezekiel is thus a connecting link between the old and the new.

The Prophet's Opening Vision.

Ezekiel's call to be a prophet came to him, as so many of his revelations came, in the form of a vision. He saw the heavens opened, and such glorious sights burst upon his enraptured gaze that he called them "visions of God." He had a clear sense that the visions were personal to himself, that they came "expressly" to him, inaugurating a new life for him. He realized with a solemn joy that "the hand of Jehovah was there upon him." This is an expression which comes up repeatedly in the writings of Ezekiel, signifying an ecstatic sense of God's presence and power. It must have been closely akin to the feeling of St. Paul when he said (1 Cor. 9:16) "Woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel."

Ezekiel's Title, "Son of Man."

Ezekiel, overawed by the vision of the Divine Majesty, fell on his face; but Jehovah spoke and bade him rise and receive God's message. The Lord addressed Ezekiel as "son of man," an expression used in this prophecy nearly 100 times, and seldom elsewhere in the Old Testament, though it was Christ's most frequently used designation for himself. In Ezekiel the term "expresses the contrast between the prophet, as one of mankind, and the majesty of God, whose glory he had just seen."

The Book of Ezekiel.

It is one of the longest in the Bible. Lacking the beauties of language and figure of Isaiah, Hosea and Micah, it is nevertheless clear and vigorous in style and well arranged. The prophecies are in chronological order. Not so much of the book is in poetic form as in the case with the three prophecies just named. There are four divisions:

1. Prophecies delivered before the destruction of Jerusalem: 1-24.
2. Prophecies against foreign nations: 25-32.
3. Prophecies of restoration, 33-39.
4. Visions of restored Israel, temple, priesthood, sacrifices, etc., 40-48.

Ezekiel was essentially a literary prophet.

"The omnipotence of the living God—that is the idea which predominates in the whole history of Ezekiel. It was that which was demanded by the condition of a people in whom the sense of their weakness was in danger of becoming an overwhelming discouragement."—F. Godet.

The Teaching of Sorrow.

"Also the word of Jehovah came unto me." Ezekiel saw in all events the working of Jehovah's will. Whether joy or deepest grief it was all of God and to be received with reverent submission. "Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke." "The desire of his eyes" was the prophet's deeply beloved wife, removed from him with the stroke of some suddenly fatal disease. But it was God who gave the stroke, the loving Father whom Ezekiel had served so faithfully, and the prophet still trusted God.—"Yea, thou shalt neither mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down." "In ordinary circumstances such a calamity as the sudden death of a beloved wife would naturally have called forth, and would also have justified the most affecting demonstrations of grief—doleful cries and lamentations, mourning attire and eating the bread of sorrow. But not one of those things was the prophet permitted to do." Of this verse Rev. Dinsdale T. Young says: "There is no more remarkable verse in the Old Testament than that."

Ezekiel's Bereavement.

"And at even my wife died." What a depth of anguish is in these simple words. "And I did in the morning (after her death) as I was commanded." The prophet's strange silence and failure to mourn with outward demonstrations was noted by the people, who, well knowing that there was significance in it, came to ask him to explain. He told them that it was a token of trials to come, the profaning of their sanctuary, the death of their sons and daughters by the sword. Like the prophet, they are not to mourn in their sorrow, but are to endure their misfortune in silence, not complaining, for they are suffering under punishments imposed by a just God."

"Ezekiel a Sign."

"Ezekiel shall be unto you a sign (v. 24). He is significant of the quiet, courageous bearing of the sorrows which God sends. Ezekiel is to us a sign that we are required and may be called to sustain our daily ills and our occasional troubles with an unrepining heart, with a submissive spirit, without shunning of charging Gog with folly. Ezekiel is to us a sign that we may be strengthened to carry every grief with what Bishop Stubbs of Oxford termed "the patience of silence." "There is a worse thing—Ezekiel is here set to teach us—than a man's own suffering. There is a worse thing than any suffering, and that is sin."

Success in Failure.

"Measured by the common standards of success, Ezekiel's ministry was to be a ministry marked by failure from the beginning. Is such a ministry a failure? On the first consideration we are inclined to say that it is. But when we go into it more deeply we discover one of the sublimest of life's paradoxes—success in failure." The thought of success in failure is one of Browning's favorite doctrines. His heroes never quite reach their ideal. They always approach it with a determined effort to attain it. But as they advance so does their ideal. Therefore, the ideal is always yonder like the legendary pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow. Any ideal that is attainable is unworthy of the name. The ideal should be so high and so lofty and so perfect that it will be a constant challenge to the best that is within us. A life guided by such an ideal is the truly successful life—a life successful in that it fails to reach its ideal.

Hopefulness in Adversity.

Every cloud has a silver lining. Behind the cloud the sun is shining. Just turn the dark cloud inside out. And see the silver lining.

KYRLE BELLEW WINS FAME BY BREAKING MOTE BANK

Kyrle Bellew, noted character actor of stage and screen, who plays in "Strange Cargo" filmed for Pathe under the direction of Benjamin Glaster, admits to one unique bid for fame. Bellew is one of the distinctly few individuals who succeeded in "breaking the bank" at Monte Carlo. This smile from the gods of chance took place in 1906 when the actor was spending a vacation in Monaco after his first season on the London stage.

According to Bellew, breaking the bank should not be given a literal interpretation, as it is done by most folk. The term really means "breaking" the particular table of the gambling casino at which one is playing.

In "Strange Cargo, which comes to the Star Theatre Monday and Tuesday next, Bellew is one of the distinguished cast of stage and screen artists which includes Lee Patrick, June Nash, George Barraud, Russell Gleason, Frank Reichler, Claude King, Ned Sparks,

More per Gallon but LESS per Trip

That's the economy of CONOCO-ETHYL GASOLINE

DURING the summer, when long motor trips are in order, a most important cost factor is wear and tear.

Every time the motor knocks, it is undergoing unnecessary strain. Its life is being shortened—its resale value reduced.

That's why we say, that in the long run, Conoco Ethyl Gasoline will cost you less per trip. Conoco Ethyl absolutely eliminates knocks. It delivers full power with every stroke of the piston. It gives lightning pick-up in traffic driving. In short, it provides a surge of power—up the hills or on the level—which keeps your motor gliding along with practically no effort. That's economy! Give Conoco Ethyl a trial. See how cool it keeps your engine, and experience the real satisfaction of having your car run as the manufacturer intended it should. You'll find a convenient Conoco Ethyl pump ready to supply you.

Conoco Ethyl is a proper admixture of Conoco, the extra-miles motor fuel, and Ethyl Fluid, developed by General Motors. All Ethyl Gasoline is not Conoco Ethyl. To be sure you are getting Conoco Ethyl, fill only at those pumps which display the Conoco Ethyl sign.

The sixtieth, thirty-fifth and seventh wedding anniversaries of members of the D. R. Gass family were celebrated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Gass Sunday, June 30, with a four-course dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gass were married July 1, 1869, in Rockwall, Texas, and their eldest son, Chas. L. Gass, of Palacios, was married July 1, 1894, at Haskell. Their Gass were seated at one end of the table, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Gass at the other, and Mr. and Mrs. Ware at the side center. Dr. Evelyn Powers of Amarillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Gass, acted as toastmistress.

Following the first course, each couple related incidents and customs pertaining to their wedding days. After the last course, gifts were presented to each couple by little Luvina Fraedy, of Palacios, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Gass.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gass are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gass, Palacios; Mr. and Mrs. Claud L. Gass, Ringgold, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Gass, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. ## RALPH SMITH WRITES APPRECIATION

The Brand is in receipt of a letter from Ralph Smith, former instructor of music here. Mr. Smith expresses his appreciation for the kindness and support given him while here, and also sends in his subscription to The Brand.

The letter of appreciation is as follows: "To the people of Hereford: I want to take this means of thanking all the good people of Hereford for their splendid co-operation while I was director of their bands and orchestra and want them to know that I really appreciate all the things they did for me. I want to thank every member of the bands and orchestra for their splendid work and it was a great pleasure for me to work with such a fine group of young folks. I also want to thank them for the farewell party given in honor of Mrs. Smith and me, also for the beautiful music satchel that the members of the high school band and orchestra presented me with. I also want the people to know that I did not leave Hereford because of dissatisfaction, but because Plainview could offer me a larger salary. RALPH SMITH."

Baptists Try to Wipe Out Wayland Debt

Practically every Baptist church in the Panhandle Plains section made special mention Sunday of Wayland Baptist College and called attention to the deficit of $4,000 which exists and collections were taken in many churches to apply on this deficit.

"If it is up to Panhandle Baptists to keep Wayland open and going," declared E. D. Morgan and R. E. Bost of the budget control committee. "Wayland's position on the Plains and her constant contribution of trained lives to the work of the world and Kingdom make her worthy of an extra offering in time of need," they asserted.

MASTER FARMER

tivation in his home farm, out of a total of 1700 acres, Mr. Ward produces corn that over a period of years yields an average of 25 bushels per acre; wheat that has averaged 18 bushels; grain sorghums, 25 bushels, besides considerable acreage planted to sweet sorghums, sudan grass, alfalfa and cow peas for grazing. A home garden produces many varieties of vegetables that are canned for winter use.

Two outstanding features of the Ward farm are the masses of roses that are every where visible around the place, and the large orchard. Heavy yields of plums, peaches and cherries are gathered each year and the surplus above home needs finds ready buyers in Hereford. Roses seem to grow in every nook and corner of the yard surrounding the modern farm home occupied by Mr. Ward and his family. Even in the barnyard and chicken yards masses of red roses are in bloom. Many extra dollars are added to the farm income from the sale of rose bushes and cut flowers.

In addition to the five room modern stucco bungalow, well furnished and equipped with most of the labor saving devices found in any city home, the Ward farm has a large, well constructed barn, commodious chicken and brooder houses, hog houses and a garage. A large overhead tank supplies running water to residence, barn, chicken and hog houses and provides drinking troughs for cows and hogs in the yard and pasture.

Steady income producers on the farm are several Jersey dairy cows, a number of Poland China hogs and 350 White Leghorn hens. An average income of $50 a month is received from the sale of poultry and eggs. Hogs and dairy products add a satisfactory sum to the total annual income.

Through the results obtained by Mr. Ward during the past few years, his farm has become one

Pearl Drake Dies From Effects of Gun Shot

Pearl Drake, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Drake of Friona, who three weeks ago was shot in the abdomen with a 22-calibre bullet when a rifle in the hands of her brother was accidentally discharged, died Thursday night at the Deaf Smith County Hospital at Hereford.

Immediately after the accident three weeks ago the injured girl was rushed to the county hospital where an operation was performed. Though the bullet was located then in the flesh of the right hip it was not extracted because of the weakened condition of the patient.

After the operation a marked improvement was shown in the girl's condition and it was believed that she had a good chance of recovery. A few days ago her condition again became serious and death occurred Thursday night.

Funeral services for the young girl were held at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church at Friona, Rev. C. C. Porter, pastor of the church officiating. Burial will be at Friona.

Surviving Pearl Drake are her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Drake, and her brother.

GREAT CHEYENNE RODEO FILMED IN SCREEN PLAY

A thoroughly modern, up-to-the-minute western photoplay is "Cheyenne", Ken Maynard's latest First National thriller, which comes to the Star Theatre on Saturday. "Cheyenne" is a story of the round-up and prize rodeos with the famous Frontier Days open air show of Cheyenne, Wyoming, as back ground for the entire picture. This show, by the way, is recognized as the best of its kind. It offers the highest prizes and incidentally the hardest competition. To be recognized as the champion of the Cheyenne show is praise indeed. The greatest riders, ropers and daredevil stunters are to be seen in the motion picture version of "Cheyenne" for the show was photographed in all its glory. There are twenty thousand people from all over the United States in the grandstand at all times. They lent themselves to the spirit of the occasion and became motion picture actors for the length of time necessary.

Ken, a former follower of the rodeos and one of the big prize winners of former years, as an all-around champion, entered several of the contests and is photographed in actual competition. It is the most thrilling production Ken has ever made. Everyone has heard of the rodeos of Cheyenne, and to get the actual thing on celluloid is indeed a feat. The audience in the Star Theatre has a grandstand seat and at all times right into the field of contest.

A romantic love story has been woven into thrills that have been carefully blended by Albert Rogell director of "Cheyenne." In the cast are Gladys McConnell, Les Bates, James Bradbury, Jr., Charles Whittaker, Billy Franey and, of course, Tarzan, the wonder horse. For the thrill of your life don't miss "Cheyenne."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Deaf Smith County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon Addie Higgins by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in the City of Hereford, on the last Monday in July A. D. 1929, the same being the 29th day of July A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 24th day of June A. D. 1929, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1731, wherein J. R. Higgins is plaintiff, and Addie Higgins is defendant, said petition alleging in substance that: On November 4, 1927, plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married to each other in the City of Clovis, State of New Mexico, and continuously resided together at the plaintiff's home about ten miles northwest of Hereford, in Deaf Smith County, Texas, until on or about the 11th day of February, 1923, at which time the defendant, without any cause or justification on the part of plaintiff, abandoned and left plaintiff, and since said time plaintiff and the defendant have not lived together as husband and wife.

That, for a period of about six months after said marriage plaintiff and the defendant lived happily together, or apparently so, on the part of the defendant; but that after the plaintiff and the defendant had been married for about six months, the defendant, wholly disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vow to treat plaintiff with kindness and attention, although plaintiff was ever kind and dutiful toward her as her husband, provided for her in keeping with plaintiff's financial ability, and the social status of plaintiff and the defendant, the defendant commenced and followed a course of unkind, harsh and cruel treatment and conduct toward plaintiff, and constantly continued said treatment and conduct until the same became unbearable with plaintiff, and until the defendant finally, as above alleged, without any cause on plaintiff's part, abandoned and left plaintiff.

That, after plaintiff and the defendant had been so married for said period of about six months the defendant commenced to, and continuously during the time she and plaintiff lived together, thereafter, nag at and abuse plaintiff by applying to plaintiff opprobrious and vile epithets and names and threats of personal violence, and accusing and charging plaintiff with dishonest, often and repeatedly calling plaintiff many vile names, all without any provocation or justification, but with kindness, forbearance and indulgence on plaintiff's part, plaintiff being at all times mindful of his conjugal duties toward defendant, always kind to her, and as indulgent and considerate of her, as was humanly possible under such circumstances.

That during said time Plaintiff was in a bad state of health, from which he has not fully recovered, and the said abusive conduct of the defendant toward him was not conducive to the improvement of his said health but that owing to the natural condition of his said health, as well as his finer sensibilities and nature, such conduct tended to, in a measure, undermine plaintiff's said health, to make their living together insupportable.

Plaintiff prays for divorce, dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and the defendant.

Herein fall not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in the City of Hereford, on this the 25th day of June A. D. 1929.

CHEAP INSURANCE FOR COSTLY CALVES
Immunity Protects Profits by Preventing Losses

—Every cattleman knows the risk of Blackleg!
—There's just one way to be safe.
—Vaccinate every calf—and do it early.
—Those who know the facts insist on using Dr. O. M. Franklin's make of vaccine, because it possesses uniform dependability that means life immunity for every calf with one dose.
—Franklin's Vaccine is powerfully potent, yet harmless to the calf.
—It is made by a new process of chemical sterilization that eliminates all toxins as well as all germ life.

—This process was worked out by Dr. Franklin over a four-year period during which field tests were conducted on 50,000 head of calves. The millions of doses sold since have made so nearly a perfect record of immunity as to be little less than marvelous.
