REV. ROSS IS COMMENDED BY C. OF C.

Presbyterian Minister Here for Past Few Years Goes to Eastland; Work While in Hereford
Fully Endorsed by All Classes.

The major portion of the luncheon of the business men at the Presbyterian church Monday was devoted to a farewell eulogy of the Rev. James T. Ross, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who leaves for his new field of endeavor at Eastland on May 1. President T. F. Seligler, in introducing the subject, said a lot of nice things about the Rev. Ross and his work here. G. A. F. Parker then read the resolutions concerning Mr. Ross, which is shown in another column of this paper and which was unanimously adopted. Mr. Parker paid glowing tribute to Rev. Ross as a leader in every phase of community life, calling attention to his activities in charity, chautauqua, Boy Scout, music and other lines of endeavor here. Rev. V. M. Cloyd of the Baptist church, followed with a short address full of feeling concerning Mr. Ross as a pastor and as a citizen. A. W. Gregg also spoke briefly of his admiration for Rev. Ross and his regret at his leaving Hereford. It was announced that the churches of the city would hold a joint meeting Tuesday night of next week in honor of the departing pastor. Rev. Ross acknowledged the tributes paid him in a short address, in which he expressed his keen regret at leaving the city and predicting a rosy and prosperous future for Hereford.

County Judge Earl W. Wilson, upon request, explained the provisions of the state law governing county libraries. He said that a committee of ladies had asked for this information. He stated briefly that if a majority of the tax paying citizens of the county would present a petition to the Court asking that a tax be set aside, not to exceed five cents on the $100, the court had the power to do so. But added that the petition must be in soon, as the tax rate will be set in June. Mrs. G. F. Garrison spoke briefly on the subject and said that the petitions would be prepared and circulated at once. Judge Wilson said that if the measure was passed he thought the five cents the first year would start the library and therefore, the tax rate could be reduced.

Ann Nann Ross, pioneer woman of Deaf Smith county, was introduced and made a hit with a snappy address. She remarked that "if all these business men who gather at these luncheons will get together and stick together, they can turn this town upside down."

President Seligler announced that the Rev. J. H. Beyers, pastor of the Christian church had been appointed chairman of the Charity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to succeed Rev. Ross.

Secretary Arnold was not present Monday, being away with the hotel promoters.

Baseball Season Opened Here Last Sunday

The first regular baseball game of the 1929 season for the Hereford Whitefaces will be played at West Park next Sunday afternoon with the Texico team furnishing the opposition. Hereford's new uniforms have arrived and the boys will be arrayed in all their glory for his first contest.

Manager Charlie Whitehead has had his men out working hard every afternoon and hopes to annex the scalps of the invaders. The probable starting lineup Sunday will be Carmichael, pitcher; Yonng, catcher; Posey, first base; Smith, second base; Glennin, short; McCollum, third; Carroll, left field; Robinson, center; Artis Russell, right field.

It is hoped the fans will turn out in force Sunday and give the boys a good send off for the season.

Last Sunday afternoon most of the Whiteface team went out to Wesley, nine miles north, and played.

Trade Trippers In City Wednesday; Big Reception

One hundred and twenty-five strong, the Wichita, Kansas, Trade Trippers arrived in Hereford Wednesday morning headed by a fine band. The friendly invaders were met at the station by hundreds of people, headed by officials of the Chamber of Commerce, and included the high school band and scores of ladies and girls who adopted the visitors in a joint parade. The Wichita men were highly complimentary of the reception accorded them here, stating that it was the first small town to meet them with a band and a delegation of ladies. Secretary Arnold welcomed them briefly, but there was no regular program of speeches, the Wichita business men confining themselves to the distribution of bills, whistles, advertising novelties of all kinds and visiting among the merchants and townspeople. President John Kirk and Secretary Van Anken of the Wichita Chamber of Commerce, headed the bunch and the Wichita Beacon and Eagle had three men each with the train. John Massey, one of the two men on the train that made the first trip out of Wichita on a similar excursion twenty-five years ago. The Rev. J. Allen Watson, pastor of the Riverside Christian church of Wichita, was one of the most enthusiastic members of the delegation. J. H. Beyers, brother of J. E. Beyers, local Santa Fe agent, was in the party.

The band gave a concert on Main Street and a fine quartette sang some songs. The few minutes spent here by the Kansas men were thoroughly enjoyed by the citizens and apparently also by the visitors.

Dallas Parties Here On Business Anent Hotel

A. E. Hofus and Mrs. Daisy Adams of Dallas, and Rufus Wright of Sweetwater have been in the city for the past two days working out details of the Hotel Hereford with the hotel committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Committee members state that plans are going forward for the beginning of the hotel at an early date, and that Adams left Thursday morning for Oklahoma City where they state final financial arrangements will be completed.

In talking to the hotel committee Wednesday Mr. Wright, who is a pioneer of the hotel game in West Texas, stated: "There is not another town in West Texas that offers a better opportunity for an investment in a first class modern hotel, and you people will make a mistake if you do not erect just such a building as you now have outlined. Second rate hotels are not an asset to a town, but modern hotels in the smaller cities are filled to overflowing all over West Texas. My one concern for the plan you have is, that inside of two years you will have to add to it. You should build so that this can be done."

A last call for subscriptions to the $20,000 bonus will be made according to the committee, within the next week, and they feel that Hereford will put this over the top in a handy manner.

Revival Resulted In Additions to Church

The revival services at the Methodist church closed Sunday night after what local members declare to have been the most successful campaign of its kind ever conducted here. A total of sixty-three additions to the church were announced. The splendid work of the Rev. Ed Morgan, evangelist of Texarkana, and Harry Hankin, the song leader and young people's worker, was greatly appreciated. The services were well attended throughout and the local pastor and his congregation express themselves as well pleased in every way.

Stone Chain Store Opened Friday Evening and Good Crowds Attend the Event

The C. E. Stone Chain Dry Goods Company store in Hereford was formally opened for public inspection last Friday night, April 19, in a blaze of lights, with a big crowd which seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion. Flower souvenirs were given and the local high school orchestra provided the music.

District Manager W. W. Richardson and Local Manager Claud Richardson were in charge. The modern window displays especially caught the attention of the big crowds. The interior fixtures and displays are beautiful in design, brand new and tastefully arranged. Many favorable comments were heard and the occasion was stamped with the approval of the majority of the crowd.

City to Put Man On Job To Keep Streets Clean

The City Manager is preparing to put a man on the job of cleaning up paper, trash and everything else undesirable from the streets and alleys of the business section of Hereford at an early date. An agreement is being circulated and signed by the merchants to pay the salary of this man. Manager Finch says the new city employee's first duty will be to clean the main streets, then the alleys, and if any time is left to put it in on the residential streets and alleys.

No papers or trash will be allowed to be burned in the alleys back of business houses after this man goes to work, says Mr. Finch, in order to avoid the danger of fire and also to prevent partly burned papers to blow all over town.

Installation of this new public service will result in a cleaner, healthier and more sightly Hereford, it is believed.

Brumley Opens Market for Hogs at Dimmitt

Since the coming of the railroad to Dimmitt Mr. Brumley feels that the hog men of Castro county should not have to haul their product so far and is keeping abreast of the times as he has always done. Mr. Brumley expects to be at Dimmitt each Thursday in future to personally handle the hogs received. CITY BUILDING CONTINUES ACTIVE Business Houses and Homes Continue to Pop Up Here and There and 1929 is Expected to Set New Record for Activities Here.

Messrs. Kirby and Doughty, owners of the new brick building finished at the corner of Third and Main Streets, have been here several days inspecting the building and arranging for the rent of the three new stores provided and the remodeling of the two old buildings which will comprise a part of the partnership holdings and which are now occupied by Hale's barber shop and the Copeland shoe shop.

When asked concerning the occupants of the various store compartments of the building, Mr. Doughty stated that Hale's barber shop will get the first space east on Third Street and Copeland's shoe shop the other new store building. The larger front building, opening on Main street, has not yet been leased, although the owners designed it for a drug store. The two old buildings will be thoroughly remodeled, modernized and made to fit into the architectural scheme of the new building.

The new building presents something new in construction here. It is fashioned after the remodeled U. S. Cigar Stores in Fort Worth, giving it an almost solid glass north front. The front ten foot opening consists of four folding doors, where one or all can be used or folded back completely and out of the way. The floors are of three inch grain pine. The building will have a blue and white tile enamel front, worked in small design.

Fire Wipes Out Huge Grain Piles at Friona

The huge ricks of heads which have attracted wide attention at Friona this year went up in smoke last Saturday, with an estimated loss of not less than $12,000, and no insurance. For months this huge exhibit of what the Friona country can do in the way of raising feed has been the center of all eyes and has been widely advertised and photographed. Threshing was in progress last week when a blaze suddenly started from nowhere in particular and in a few minutes the great grain piles were smoking ruins. The Santa Fe lost a small bridge nearby during the mixup.

The loss of all this grain is a severe one, the fire being described as the most severe one, from a financial standpoint, that Friona has ever sustained.

Seats for Baptist Church Here; Installed Soon

The auditorium seats and pulpit furniture for the new First Baptist church have arrived and the pulpit furniture has already been installed. Experts from the factory are expected within a few days to install the auditorium seats. Detailed plans for the formal opening of the new church on May 19, are proceeding smoothly.

New Gas Pumps Picked Hereford As Location

A new combination law, land and insurance firm has been established here, with offices in the Newell building on Main Street. The partnership consists of John A. and William R. Coffee, young men who came here from Albany, Texas, and are just starting up in business on their own account. Both are college men, John A. Coffee being from Baylor, and William R. from Texas Tech. They are occupying the old offices of Dr. W. F. Gabbert.

Both these young men express their confidence in the future of the Hereford country and have decided to cast their lot here and make this their permanent home. The Brand welcomes the new firm and wishes them every success in their new venture.

Brunk's Comedians In Hereford Next Week

Fred G. Brunk's Comedians will be back in Hereford all week, starting Monday, April 29, with the largest company in their history. The opening play will be one of the best comedies ever presented by the popular company, "Tommy" is the name of the play and is by Bert Robinson and had a year's run at the Cort Theatre in New York. Jerry Barnes and his orchestra which has been increased to eleven pieces, will furnish the musical part of the program, so all of those who attend are assured a real musical treat, for they play all classes of music, including all of the late popular hits. Some real good vaudeville will be presented between acts. Bill Florer, dancing specialist, Gilbert Lamb, singing some of the new songs, Chas. Barnette, novelty circus acts, and others worthy of a place on any vaudeville stage.

The play for feature night will be "The Cat and the Canary," the greatest mystery play ever written. Some of the smaller tent shows have advertised the play but have never produced it, and when the Brunk's Comedians present the play to Hereford it will positively be the first time this bill has ever been played here. Brunk's carry special scenery for this play and it will be presented here just as played by the original New York company for two years. Other plays that will be seen at Brunk's this season are "Mary's Other Husband," "The Alarm Clock," "The Spell of the Island," and other royalty plays. It is possible to see plays of this calibre at Brunk's only, this being made possible by Brunk's buying power in the play market, buying plays for several of the Brunk's companies. The tent will be located on the usual lot next to the city hall. Doors open each evening at 7:30, followed by a concert by Jerry Barnes and his orchestra at 8:30, and the curtain will be raised promptly at 8:20.

Construction Work On Creamery Under Way

Work is going forward rapidly on the Deaf Smith Co-Operative Creamery, according to N. O. Bendickson, who is superintending the erection of the building for the creamery directors.

The building, which is being erected on East Third Street just south of the court house, will be forty-four feet wide by 100 feet long and will be a very modern creamery plant, according to Mr. Bendickson. The building will be completed within the next forty-five days, and orders for the machinery and equipment are being placed this week. Several machinery and ice-manufacturing concerns have been in Hereford, this week going over details.

The creamery will install its own ice making machinery and will also furnish its own water, a well having been drilled before the foundation was poured. The plant will have a capacity of one-half million pounds of butter annually.

Glider Experiments Get Foreign Notice

Glider airplane experimenters in other parts of the United States have been using strong rubber belts to spring the gliders into the air at the start, according to John W. Kropp, local glider enthusiast and builder. But the method recently used here by Mr. Kropp of pressing a Ford into service for the glider start. Mr. Kropp sent in his idea and the results of his recent test to the national headquarters of the Glider airplane people and they congratulated him on his idea and are now using it in their own operations.

CLOVIS GOLF TEAM TAKES WHIPPING

Out of Seventeen Lively Matches, Clovis Takes Four; Too Much Water In Sight for New Members; First Match of Season.

Twenty-five enthusiastic golfers from Clovis invaded Hereford last Sunday and had the local golf officials searching the prairies for talent with which to match such an army. Seventeen Hereford men were dug up in the emergency and the battle was on. When the dust rolled away it was found that the invaders could show but four victories out of the seventeen matches. The sporty character of the local course, including four water holes, seemed to bother the men from Clovis. Over there their course is all prairie and they were unused to the mental hazards of water holes. As a consequence several dozen balls now repose on the bottom of the Tierra Blanca.

It was the first game of the season for the local team and the contest was greatly enjoyed. Friona sent over three members of the Hereford Golf Club to take part in the contest, Messrs. Roden, Lange and Wilkinson. The match was for eighteen holes. One nine hole contest between Dr. W. F. Gabbert of Hereford and Dr. Smith of Clovis was declared a draw. The remarkable numerous low scores for the day was commented on by all concerned, as the Hereford men have had little or no practice this year. The score of 92 hung up by V. T. Downs who has been playing for a few days, was considered extraordinary.

The results of the matches:
Pipkin, Clovis, in 43, out 41, total 84; Clark in 40, out 39, total 79, 4 up.
Baird, Clovis, in 45, out 34, total 79, 4 up; Posey, J. M., in 46, out 40, total 80.

Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at a general election, shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this

When this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualifications of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate."

"Article V, Section 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as hereinafter specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law, the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a Statute of the State is held void, and shall extend to such other questions as may be within the Court's Appellate Jurisdiction under the Statutes of the State in force when this amendment takes effect. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by Law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by Law, the said Court and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warrantum and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court.

The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the Minutes of said Court, who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide."

Sec. 2. Said proposed Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of qualified electors of this State as a special election to be held throughout the State on Tuesday, July 16, 1929, at which election each voter opposing said proposed amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with a pen or pencil the following words printed on said ballot: "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for a continuous session of that Court", and each voter favoring said proposed amendment shall scratch off the ballot in the same manner the following words printed on said ballot: "Against the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published and said election held as provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expense of said publication and election.

A HARD LIFE

This bachelor works while others sleep;
His life is filled with care;
He tries to clean and press and keep
His clothing in repair!

I think the saddest sight I know is that strange circumstance wherein a fellow tries to sew a button on his trousers. Another vision of despair reveals the gink who reaches the point where he must mend a tear in his best pair of breeches.

'Tis sad to see the guys repair 'em;
'Tis sadder, tho, to see 'em wear 'em!

BRIDGE PARTY

Mmes. P. W. Price and B. S. Arnold of Amarillo were the inspiration for a lovely afternoon party Saturday afternoon when Meses. Carl Cockrell and George Garrison entertained with eight tables of bridge at the latter's home. The receiving rooms were decorated with early garden flowers and the afternoon was happily spent at bridge and visiting with these popular visitors, both having formerly lived in Hereford.

A delicious salad course was served at the close of the games and prizes were given to both the honorees and to Mrs. Glenn Snyder for high score among the guests.

We stand behind every Used Car bearing the Red Tag with an OK that counts!

1927 Ford Roadster. Here's a bargain in a dandy little car. Almost new tires and new paint.

Two 1926 Ford Tourings, new paint, and priced real cheap. Would trade for cows or mules.

1925 Chevrolet Truck. Overhauled, good 36 x 6 tires on rear; grain bed with steel covered floor.

1925 Ford Sedan, a good family car. Has new paint and seat covers and is a real bargain at the price we are asking.

Three Ford Trucks, priced cheap enough to use around your tractor and combine for an oil and gas wagon, and good enough to haul 60 bushels of wheat to the trip. Almost new tires on each truck.

OUR used car department is operated under the famous Chevrolet Red O. K. Tag system. Under this plan, we attach the Chevrolet Red O. K. Tag to the radiator cap of every reconditioned car—showing exactly what vital units of the car have been checked or reconditioned by our expert mechanics.

We believe that no fairer system of used car merchandising has ever been worked out—for it assures the customer honest value.

Due to the great popularity of the new Chevrolet Six, we have on hand at this time a wide selection of "O. K.'d" used cars taken in trade on new cars. Come in and look them over. You are sure to find exactly the car you want at a price that will amaze you. Terms are exceptionally easy.

JINGLE BELLS

There was no full length mirror in my room, so I could not get the entire effect but it looked all right as far as I could see. It was easy to make up my face all white and put on a white wig which was provided for me. I slipped on my overcoat over the costume to step up on the stage.

The curtain was down between the acts. I took my place on the pedestal, slightly nervous but determined to get through some how if the seams of the rights did their part. The stage was dimly lighted with blue moonlight. Just before the curtain rose I dropped the overcoat behind me.

I stood motionless during the introductory music. There was a flutter of surprise among the members of the club who were not on the stage at that moment and had stepped out into the auditorium to steal a look from the other side of the footlights. It must have been beautiful. I know I was conscious of looking well in that pose and lighting. I flexed my muscles to make them stand out better.

Galatea entered. She was dressed in a gold trimmed robe. On her neck was a single strand of beautiful pearls. I recognized them as Mrs. Hemmingway's. Maryella had borrowed them because their owner couldn't wear them for the performance as she was playing the part of a boy.

Galatea's eyes were on the floor, pensive. She came slowly to the pedestal on which I stood. She knelt. She looked up at me.

She held her pose for a long time, without saying a word—without expressing even a whispered wish that I would come to life. Maryella was wordless.

"What's the trouble?" inquired the coach, who stood back in hand, just over the foot lights. "Miss Waite, your line is 'My dearest wish'—"

"No," she stopped him impatiently. "I know my lines. It's the statue."

Her tone was full of vexation. "What's the matter?" I inquired without abandoning my attitude.

"This is the same pose I've been taking every night at rehearsal ever since we began."

"It isn't that. You are bow-legged."

She spoke accusingly, as if I had made a blunder of some sort on purpose.

"Oh!"

"That was a sensitive subject with me."

"I didn't know there was anything criminal is being slightly curved. It really comes from strength. Lots of men are."

"But no one ever saw a bow-legged statue before," she argued petulantly. "I don't care personally. I suppose that lots of really estimable men have personal peculiarities; but can you imagine a sculptor creating a statue intentionally bow-legged? Why didn't you tell me?"

"Well," I temporized, "I didn't think I knew you well enough for that."

"The play is ruined!" she declared.

"Not at all," I said with as much injured dignity as I could command in white tights. "You can easily get some one else to play this part. If you look around the club you can doubtless find someone with legs like bean-poles."

She knew whom I meant without my explaining more particularly.

"Come, people," interrupted the coach pleasantly. "We mustn't waste time. Remember there is a lot to do before we leave here this evening."

"Don't be silly," she replied. "No one else could learn the part in time."

"Why not try standing sideways to the audience all the time," suggested Jim Cooper, who with his nose glasses on and a cigarette in his mouth was the beau ideal of a Greek warrior.

"I know what to do."

"Mrs. Hemmingway came to the rescue with a practical suggestion. 'You can buy a pair of those things that chorus girls wear sometimes—symmetricals, I think they are called.'"

"Oh!" said several of the ladies at once, looking pointedly at Mrs. Hemmingway's shapely substructure.

"No, I don't wear them myself," she assured them in response to the unspoken question, "but I've heard that there are such things."

"All right," said the coach. "Go on with the dialogue."

The balance of the act was ploughed through somehow. I had to play several love scenes with Maryella, but I was so acutely conscious of her criticism that I did them very badly.

The only scene that I played with any enthusiasm was one in which I was supposed to wrestle with Jim Cooper in the role of the Greek warrior. Even that turned out ill for me because it made his head ache where I bumped it on the stage, and Maryella hovered over him like a hen with chickens all during the intermission while they were setting the stage for the third act.

I got tired of listening to her sympathizing with him and went out in the auditorium by myself. I did not care to talk to any one. To criticize my acting was one thing, but to make personal remarks about the shape of my legs was going to far.

I made up my mind to withdraw from the Sheridan Dramatic Club as soon as the performance of "Pygmalion and Galatea" was over. I would not leave them in the lurch now as I might do and wreck the entire performance, but soon as it would not be conspicuous I would assert my dignity and resign on the ground that it took too much of my time. I admired Maryella but she could hardly expect me to stand for being fun of before Jim Cooper.

"I think it's an awfully funny play; don't you?" inquired a voice behind me.

I looked around. In the aisle stood Mrs. Hemmingway, a plump sylph in the half-light of the auditorium. She apparently wanted to sit down, so I made room for her beside me.

"You think it quite funny?" I repeated interrogatively.

"Yes. I didn't realize it so much until I saw the costumes. I didn't know you were going to be a clown."

She pointed to my white face. I suppose she would have laughed herself sick at the Venus de Milo. Mrs. Hemmingway is a movie fan and her sense of humor must have been curdled by this comic-fall stuff. Here I was gotten up to represent a beautiful work of the sculptor's art, and she had missed the idea entirely, and thought I was meant to be funny!

"The best scene," she went on innocently endeavoring to flatter me, "is where you tell Maryella you love her, there in the garden. I was better than Charlie Chaplin."

And that scene was pure poetry. I wrote it myself, so I was sure of it.

"Thank you very much for your appreciation," I said, wishing she were a man so that I could say what I really thought. "You've no idea how your praise makes me feel."

"I'm glad. I thought you were sort of blue over here by yourself, so I decided to cheer you up."

Then she added hastily for fear she had ruined the effect of her praise:

"I really meant what I said though about your being funny." The dear little featherhead was trying to make me feel good. She was promptly by the instinct which makes one woman try to heal the hurts inflicted by another. I was a bear not to accept her tribute in the spirit in which it was offered.

"Thanks ever so much," I assured her, and reaching over carelessly I patted her hand which lay idly on her knee.

Mr. Ashbrook's old home, for burial. Mr. Ashbrook is survived by his wife and two sons, Leland Ashbrook, who was with him at the time of his death, and Roy Ashbrook, who is in business at Spickard. His wife and sons accompanied the remains to Missouri.

Mr. Ashbrook came to Hereford in January of this year at the time of the death of his brother, D. F. Ashbrook. He was the administrator of the estate of his brother and remained here winding up the affairs until his sudden death. He was in ill health throughout his stay here and had been under the constant care of a physician. While his short residence here and health has prevented a wide acquaintance, he and his excellent family had made many warm friends who are grieving over his passing.

MRS. J. W. JOHNSON

Mrs. J. W. Johnson, mother of Edgar Johnson, Sr., of Hereford, died at her home in Glen Rio, New Mexico, Thursday, April 18. The body was brought here for burial Friday. Funeral services were held from the Church of Christ at 2:00 p. m., conducted by the Rev. Robert James of Amarillo, assisted by the Rev. V. M. Cloyd. Mrs. Johnson was seventy-six years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, Edgar Johnson, Hereford; Albert Johnson, Amarillo; Ira Johnson, Borger, and W. Johnson, Glen Rio, New Mexico; and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, of Hale Center. Other surviving relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sullivan, Hale Center; Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Clovis; a grand daughter and two sisters, Mrs. Sanders of Stanton, Texas, and Mrs. Busbee, of Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bruce of Amarillo, old friends of Mrs. Johnson, also attended the funeral services here.

MRS. FRENCH THURMOND

One of the saddest deaths in years in Hereford occurred Tuesday when Mrs. Vera Thurmond, wife of French Thurmond, and mother of ten children, passed away at her home here. Mrs. Thurmond was conscious up to the last and made a gallant fight for her life, but medical skill and her own determination were without avail.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, April 25, the Rev. V. M. Cloyd officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Boultinghouse, of the Christian church. The body was laid to rest in the Hereford cemetery.

Mrs. Thurmond's maiden name was Vera Hill and she was born in Tennessee in July, 1885. She was married to Mr. Thurmond at Frisco, Collin county, Texas, February 8, 1905. They afterwards moved to Friona and came to Hereford to make their home in 1918. Besides her husband she is survived by ten children, Mrs. Leah Manjeot, Los Angeles; Mrs. Frank Carl, Hereford; Taylor, Tulliver, W. F. Jr., Misses Willie, Margie and Leita, and twin babies, Wendell, a boy, and Lyndell, a girl, all at home. In addition, Mrs. Thurmond leaves four brothers, O. G. T. A. J. B. and A. O. Hill, all of Hereford, except A. O. Hill, who lives in Los Angeles; two nephews, Earl Porter, Memphis, Tenn., and Lem Porter, Hereford, and one niece, Mrs. Maxie Armer of Houston. Mrs. Manjeot of Los Angeles arrived in Hereford Wednesday night.

Mrs. Thurmond was converted and joined the Baptist church at the age of thirteen, but after moving to Hereford became a member of the Christian denomination. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family in their great loss.

Mr. C. F. Redlich, the successful expert says:

The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief, contract the opening in a remarkably short time and strengthen the weak tissues (the real cause of rupture) so that they frequently recover their previous natural retaining power, needing no further outside support. Stomach trouble, backache and constipation often caused by Rupture promptly disappear. Truly remarkable and prompt results have been obtained not only with recent and not fully developed ruptures, but also with old, long neglected ones.

Ingenious, recently perfected devices are now holding ruptures firmly which heretofore never had been retained.

No elastic belts, no filthy leg-straps are used. I guarantee the durability of my absolutely sweat and moisture proof, sanitary appliances.

75 percent of ruptured children recover completely through expert mechanical treatment, according to statistics.

Do not waste your money on widely advertised mail order contraptions. You cannot fit yourself. C. F. Redlich, Rupture Appliance Expert, Home office, 535 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

THE SUFFERING SERVANT OF JEHOVAH

Isaiah 53:1-12

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

Fulfillment of prophecy is one of the strongest evidences of the authenticity of Scripture. The fact that exact statements of future events could be made hundreds of years in advance, and later developments would be in perfect accord, argues mightily for the inspiration that believers in the Word claim for it. In no instance is the problem of fulfillment made any greater than in this lesson study in which these varied Messianic statements are made.

Much discussion has centered about the implications in "The Servant of Jehovah," which theme is found in repeated portions of Isaiah, such as 41:8-20, 42:1-7, 49:1-6, 53:1-12. Many claim that the "Suffering Servant" refers only to the Jewish nation. This conservative interpretation is that, while it has a direct implication to the Chosen People, it refers primarily to the promised Messiah and is a glorious description of Jesus Christ in His divine office work. There are many other prophecies concerning Him in the Old Testament. Compare the record of this life as recorded in the Gospels and note how each prediction was performed, and there will be both added and intense reverence for the Holy Bible. Read this particular lesson text at least three times.

A wonderful Person is being portrayed. Multitudes still fail to believe the message and hence lose much in their lives. We continue to objectify a spirit in terms of human form such as "the arm of the Lord."

Constantly through the years of His public ministry "He was despised and rejected." No one can ever know the extent of his sorrows. He was more sensitive than any other in all the history of the world. We know of His agony and bloody sweat in the Garden of Gethsemane. Only the angels could appreciate his worth as they looked on in pity.

His physical sufferings and heart aches were only incidents compared with the mediatorial work. He was perfecting His acts vicariously as He took the law place of the sinners of the world. His bruise of heart as well as of body, together with the chastisement of the Pilate-commanded stripes were for our healing.

Man's indifference to such love is worse than pathetic. The picture is of sheep purposely going astray while the shepherd is tenderly calling them to safety and the fullest provision.

Throughout His earthly life He was silent under every form of abuse and oppression. Pilate was amazed at His quiet demeanor. Others under similar circumstances of injustice would rail at their accusers. The lovers of this Messiah rejoice that after He had been crucified between two thieves, there was a royal-like tomb for that body through the graciousness of Joseph of Arimathea. This One suggests to all of us that great souls do not peddle personal miseries. Archbishop Trench, speaking of our debt of sin, said "It was contracted in the currency of earth. He paid it in the currency of heaven."

What Satisfied Users Say

Walter Fly, of Vega and Amarillo—a Prominent Phillips User

Scene on Fly's Farm South of Vega, Showing 5 Tractors which Use Phillips Products 100%

The following are excerpts from bona-fide letters on file at Phillips Petroleum office, written by satisfied customers. They tell their own story!

Vega, Tex., March 20, 1929

Phillips Petroleum Company,
Amarillo, Texas.

Gentlemen:

I started to use Phillips oil last July 1, and find it superior to all oils I ever used. I had the first tractor used successfully in the Panhandle in 1913. I think I have used about all kinds of oil made.

Anyone can't go wrong in buying Phillips oil.

Yours truly,
Herchel Cramer

Hereford, Texas, March 21, 1929

Phillips Petroleum Company,
Amarillo, Texas.

Dear Sirs:

I have obtained complete satisfaction from the use of Phillips motor oils and Phillips 66. Before using them, my oil was costing me much more money. Now I am getting exactly as good service from Phillips oils and will continue to use them in both my tractors and my automobiles.

Your service is excellent.

Yours very truly,
J. L. Hutson

Hereford, Tex., March 21, 1929

Phillips Petroleum Company,
Amarillo, Texas.

Gentlemen:

I want to tell you of the extra fine service I have obtained from the use of your Phillips oils and motor fuel. Recently we overhauled a tractor that had completed about 3500 acres of plowing. We found a very small amount of carbon which showed us that the lubricating oil was doing a correct job. We also found that there was practically no wear on any part of the motor.

I am convinced there is no economy in buying bargain oils. Phillips motor and tractor oils meet my demands and I have never found as complete satisfaction in any other oil.

Yours very truly,
F. W. Brunson

Hereford, Texas, March 21, 1929

Phillips Petroleum Company,
Amarillo, Texas.

I am an Oakland and Pontiac dealer and am very much interested in lubricating oils. I have made a number of endurance tests and operating tests and find Phillips motor oils are far superior to any I can obtain. Therefore, I am using them exclusively and am glad to recommend them to my customers.

Yours respectfully,
Dixon Motor Co.
