Summerfield Leads; Harvest Stops Play

By GRANT FULLER, JR.
Next scheduled game of the Softball League will be played July 15, it was announced this week as play was dropped during the harvest season. Closing play found Summerfield still in the unbeaten class while nearest competitors were rated at .571.

June 24—The Plowboys went wild in their second inning to score six times and thus defeat the K C, 8 to 4. Gould led off with a single in the second followed by consecutive hits by Jones and Foster. Barnett and Higgins were then both thrown out pitcher to first. A single by Hartman, an error, and a double by Bell accounted for the remaining scores. The Plowboys' other tallies were in the fourth and fifth frames.

The K C had nine hits off of Sewell but they could not bunch them effectively. Their four runs came in four separate innings.

Hartman knocked out three of the Plowboys ten hits, while N. Koelzer and Neill had two hits apiece for the K C.

Phillips started ahead with six runs in the first from three hits and four errors. They followed this up with a four-run outburst in the fourth inning to give them a long lead.

Trailing 3 to 10 at the start of the seventh, the High School came to life and scored seven runs to tie the ball game up. The runs came from six hits and three errors. Six of the runs came with two out. In the last half of the seventh, however, the Phillips 66 scored their winning run.

reception of the clubs program of boosting for universal licenses, longer closed season on fishing and regulatory power for the Commission under proper supervision.

It is interesting to note that sports editors throughout the state are apparently also in accord. A questionnaire sent out by the Dallas Anglers and Hunters Association recently produced some interesting results. Of the first thirty returned, 28 sports editors believed Texas should have a universal hunting and fishing license. Twenty-eight voted for regulatory power while only one dissented. Eighteen thought there should be a longer closed season, but eleven voted no. In answer to the question: "Do the sportsmen in your vicinity have the same opinions on these questions?" 21 voted yes and 2 no.

CAT NURSES BABY SQUIRREL

Dame Nature makes odd adjustments some times! J. T. Welch, high school youth of Denison, Texas, has a strange family. It consists of a mother cat, four kittens and a baby squirrel. The young cats and squirrel can be seen scampering together almost any time. Young Welch found the baby squirrel near his home shortly after the kittens were born and added it to the brood of the tabby cat, which promptly accepted it as one of her own. Now the squirrel scrambles with the kittens at meal time and is thriving as rapidly as its adopted sisters and brothers.

SPAWN DESTROYED BY WADERS

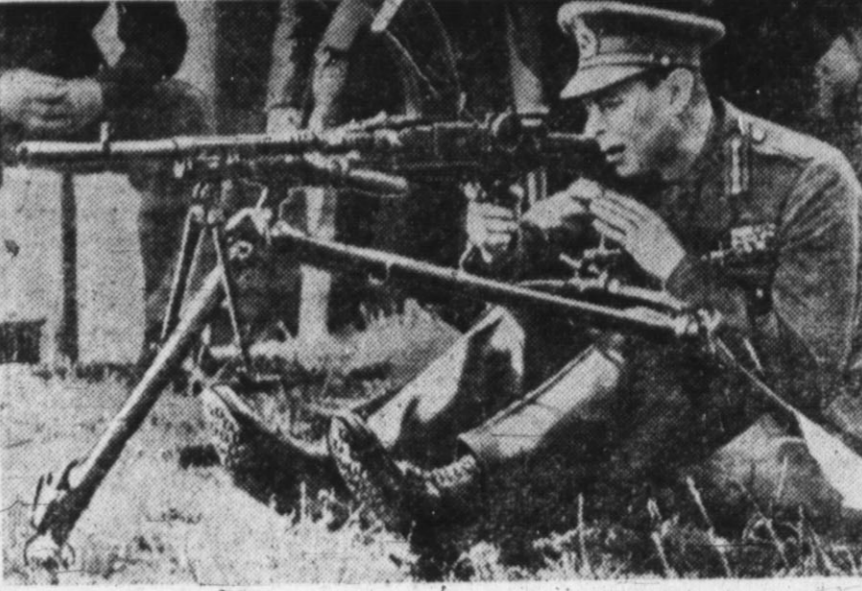

Millions of fish eggs have been destroyed this year by anglers wading around the banks of streams and lakes fishing for crappie, cats, bream, and bass. Uncle Jake's Sports News of Dallas calls attention to this fact in no uncertain words, saying: "The eggs are being torn from their moorings by waders and large lumps of spawn can be found on the surface after the fishermen pass on. It's about the same as CRUSHING A FOOT DOWN ON A NEST OF QUAIL EGGS."

Members of the Dallas Anglers and Hunters Association are planning to ask the city of Dallas to pass regulations for the lakes it controls to prohibit wading by fishermen until June 1 each season.

NETTERS, ESPECIALLY MINNOW NETTERS, ALSO DO A GREAT DEAL OF HARM TO SPAWN.

There is one deer doe still alive in Llano county today due to the thoughtfulness of a train conductor, H. M. Hamilton, it is reported to the State Game Department. Mr. Hamilton stopped the Southern Pacific train running from Austin to Llano recently when a deer was seen entangled in a fence along the right-of-way of the railroad. The crew liberated the doe, which was not badly injured.

DETOURED TRAFFIC FOR QUAIL

A mother quail and her nest of 21 eggs recently caused travelers to do a bit of detouring between Bracketville and Kinney County and Rock Springs in Edwards County.

The state highway department's crew of engineers and construction gang, in building a road between those two communities, located a quail nest of twenty-one eggs. All traffic was detoured around that spot until Mama Quail hatched nineteen of her twenty-one eggs and the little birds were able to leave the nest, it is reported to the State Game Department's executive secretary.

The quail hatch in several sections of North Texas is reported earlier this year than usual. Several hatches in Denton County near Lake Dallas are the earliest ever reported.

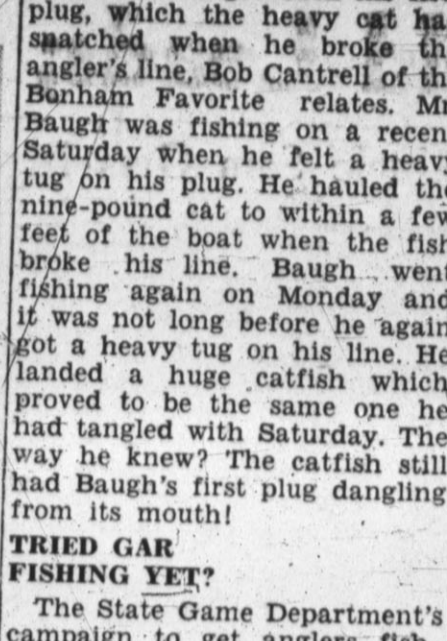

While the rains which have been general throughout Texas will do much to aid the game crop in Texas this year, early hatchings of eggs of quail, turkey and prairie chickens in some areas have been washed out by exceedingly heavy rains. However, should the rains cease soon it will not be too late for some species of game to lay second or even third hatchings of eggs.

TEXAS OUT DOORS

WILD LIFE VALUED AT $94,350,394

Texas continues to lead the nation in the value of its wildlife resources, according to figures assembled after surveys made by the federal government and forwarded to the Executive Secretary of the State Game Commission. Not only does Texas lead the nation, but its wildlife resources are worth approximately three times as much as those of the second leading state.

Wildlife resources in Texas are valued at $94,350,394 by federal experts. This takes into consideration the value of insectivorous birds to the farmer, of game and the amount of money spent by hunters it brings the land owner, hotel owners, stores and tourist camps; the value of the fur crop in the state and a myriad of other ways in which game is of actual monetary value to the Lone Star State.

Texas has nearly one-fourth of all the producing oil wells in the United States.

Giving further substantiation to the belief that simplicity is synonymous with good design, this home has many excellent features uncommon in its price field. The $31.62 monthly payments on this house under the FHA plan compare favorably with local rent levels. Federal Housing Administration appraisers valued the property at $5,200 and the FHA insured a mortgage on it for $4,200.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Austin.—With tens of thousands of fishermen on lakes and streams in Texas, the Executive Secretary of the State Game Department today outlined a few simple rules for the protection of the angler from accidents, and at the same time outlined practices in the handling and treatment of fish and minnows that should be followed if Texas waters are to be as productive of these species as every angler expects them to be.

For your own safety and for the producing of better fishing, check these rules and see if you're living up to them:

At a glance one can usually tell whether or not he has caught a fish that must be returned to the water. Catch the fish in the lower lip with your thumb and fore finger, remove the hook and release him easily to the water. If it is necessary to catch the fish with your hands, wet your hand first to prevent the disturbance of the protective slime that covers the fish. Be sure you have a legal fish before it goes on the string. This oversight might make a fishing trip an unhappy one. Check your tackle box for a ruler before you leave home or mark off the lengths on your boat or tackle box. Remember bass must be eleven inches long and crappie seven inches. Don't waste fish. Take only those that can be used, and use those that you take.

Seining bait may prove to be more expensive buying it from a bait dealer, if care is not taken. Be sure that you do not

They are also valuable fish food. It is illegal to injure small fish or leave them on the bank to die.

Never use a boat that is unsafe and always have life preservers for every member of the crew. Boats with rotten boards should never be used. In case your boat does turn over, never get excited. Most wooden boats will support three or four people even if turned over or filled with water. Wait for help and never try to swim a great distance to shore. Many a good swimmer has lost his life trying this stunt. If it is necessary to swim, never try to swim with your clothes on. Remove your shoes first and then other clothes. It is better to lose your clothes than your life. Never wade unknown waters with hip boots, because if you go into water over your head with hip boots on, it is nearly impossible to remove them. Holes or rock jump-offs will cause one to lose balance and here is where the trouble comes.

Every fisherman should have some first-aid equipment in his fishing outfit. Scratches and bruises should be treated immediately to prevent infection. Never try to get a complete sun tan on a single fishing trip. The pain from sun burns is a poor trade for a sun tan. Every fisherman should have a kit to treat poison snake bites.

Practice safety first and maybe you will not have to use first-aid.

Fly Control Formula Given

A method of controlling house flies often asked for at this season is the one using a combination of milk and formaldehyde. This method is given in a farmer's bulletin and is as follows:

"One of the best solutions for attracting and killing flies is a dilute mixture of formaldehyde (40 per cent) with water and milk. A tablespoonful in a pint of equal parts of water and milk will attract the flies and kill large numbers of them. The mixture should be poured into shallow dishes, soap plates for instance, and a crust of bread dropped into the middle of the dish for the flies to light upon and to facilitate their feeding. If the shades of all the windows in a room but one are pulled down and a plate of this mixture set in the light, the flies will be attracted and killed. We have cleared a dining-room of every fly in an afternoon in this way."

"Formaldehyde will not prove so effective in dining rooms or kitchens where there is food, water or milk to which the flies have access. It will be most successful where it is the only liquid they can get to drink. Formaldehyde is not a virulent poison and little risk is run in using it."

The first request for this formula this season came from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allmon of Westway.

What with the war and all I had forgotten the Wheat Estimating Contest. However, some 15 or 20 persons have reminded me of the contest, so here goes. The deadline is Saturday, July 6, and no entries will be accepted after that date.

As last year, the contest will include wheat put through the elevators at Hereford, Dawn, Black and Umbarger. The idea is to guess at how much wheat will be handled through these points; figures will also be checked with the county agent's office. I am appointing three secret judges—and their decision will be final. Duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties. The prizes:

- First Place$2.50 Cash. The Hereford Brand
 - Second Place1 year Subscription.
 - Third Place$1 Knife
 - Next 5 places1 ticket each to Star Theatre
- It is also possible that others may want to get into this and give prizes. If any merchants are interested, we will be glad to put their prizes in the list.

First place last year went to Mrs. C. B. Miles with a guess of 2,997,500 bushels; second place to W. L. Alexander 2,655,000; third place, Col. W. S. Williams 2,525,000. W. T. Leachman, Mrs. John Kropff, Worth Covington, F. L. Lucas and F. Adamson were next in line to receive prizes.

It don't cost a thing. Folks. It's lots of fun and you might win a nice prize, so let's get busy and do some forecasting. Personally, I am guessing 1,865,724 bushels—but my guess don't count. Everyone is eligible to enter except the three judges and members of The Brand staff. Remember your entry must be brought to The Brand office or post-marked not later than Saturday, July 6.

Tuesday we did something at The Brand office that a lot of folks should do. We bought a new flag. Our old flag was torn and dirty and with things what they are, we wanted everyone to know that we are proud of our flag. Furthermore, we bought it from the American Legion boys. They will be glad to get your order for a new flag and the cost is small, $2.00 I believe for our new one. Folks, let's get some flags we will be proud to show.

Everyone seems to like the new post office, especially the employees. Cecil Williams feels that it looks a lot better since all of the fixtures (including employees) have been installed. A few persons like Cliff Acker, Dudley Green, and Ike Crosthwait, Harry Seed and Frank Barber will have to get used to coming up town for their mail—but it sure suits The Brand office and Fullwood's outfit, except we can't ever find a place to park. Someone asked why the new office wasn't air conditioned. Relaying the question to Jim Lipscomb, we found that it was seriously considered. The air conditioning idea was abandoned because officials felt that employees who worked in the office several hours, then left on city routes or rural routes might suffer in health.

Free samples always get me. I can't resist taking them, not even liver pills.

Here's an interesting item. Dr. William H. Vial of Newark, N. J., advocated a diet of "the four browns"—broken whole-wheat bread, Boston baked beans, brown sugar and brown eggs, plus pure raw milk. Most of us have heard arguments for all except the brown eggs, and most of us have heard at least some discussion regarding brown eggs. In fact a lot of people won't eat brown eggs, preferring to market them. Mr. Vial, who is now in his ninety-fourth year, says that brown eggs come from stronger hens.

History repeats itself. The and the land owner in another. Each may do so provided there is a separate loan agreement on each storehouse.

The only case where a farmer must put his loan wheat in one storehouse is where he has only one loan agreement on his wheat.

Due to differences in rail rates, farmers living in Deaf Smith county, who get their wheat loans in this county, will receive one cent per bushel more than in Oldham county. This is for wheat in storage on farms or in approved country warehouses.

Loan rates for Castro, Parme and Randall counties is the same as in Deaf Smith.

Loan rate for Deaf Smith county is 62 cents at Hereford for No. 1 wheat. Starting with 13 point protein, the loan will increase one cent per point up to 17 point protein.

County Agent A. R. Bateman has announced that it is very important that all producers keep account of bushels of wheat raised under separate work sheets. All the land under one worksheet is considered as one farm. Each farm must carry its own loan and number of bushels.

The wheat from each contract must be stored in separate bins. One or more loans may had for any one farm contract. All loans must be liquidated at the same time. If a person has 10,000 bushels under loan, he must sell it all. A part of a loan cannot be liquidated.

E. F. Connell, age 77 former Texas Ranger and law enforcement officer, passed away at a Corpus Christi hospital June 19, at 9:20 p. m. following an illness of about a month's duration.

Funeral services were held June 20 at 10 a. m. at the First Baptist church of Robstown, with Rev. Claude Wingo, pastor of the First Christian Church of Kingsville, officiating, assisted by Rev. A. F. Mr. Connell was born in Milam County, Texas, May 17, 1865 and moved to Williamson County in 1870. He lived there until 1893 when he moved to Amarillo, and joined the Texas Ranger company under Captain W. J. McDonald and was stationed on the large Capitol Syndicate Ranch, known as the XIT. His job was that of special ranger and he worked with Ira Aten. At that time cattle rustlers were plaguing the XIT. C. E. Smith who then worked for the XIT, recalls that Mr. Connell was absolutely without fear in dealing with cow thieves. He was first appointed Sheriff of Deaf Smith County and in 1896 was elected as Sheriff and Tax Collector of the then frontier county. He was later elected to the same office for several terms; in his later years he served as Deputy Sheriff of both Deaf Smith and Nueces Counties and at the time of his death was a card deputy.

Mr. Connell was married at Bartlett, December 3, 1896, to Miss Sophia Stockton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stockton of Bartlett, who survives him. County Agent Urges Farmers To Look For Hoppers

During the past few days a number of places in the county have been examined where grasshoppers are numerous and are threatening crops and grassland. These hoppers are beginning to reach the adult stage at which time they acquire their wings and scatter at a very rapid rate.

Fence rows, old wheat stubble, and other weedy places should be examined and if found infested should be poisoned immediately. Poison may be obtained free of charge at the Bull barn in the afternoon. Each person should determine the approximate number of acres to be poisoned so there will be no unused bait left to form a hazard to livestock.

When spread uniformly, twenty pounds of wet bait per acre is sufficient to kill all the hoppers on a given area. This bait should be spread when the temperatures are between 70 and 90 degrees F.

Established In 1899; Montgomery First Postmaster

When the Hereford postoffice employees moved into their new home last week end it was exactly forty-one years, five months and 29 days since it was first established on December 23, 1898. With Lyman A. Montgomery as postmaster, the first office began under Fourth Class designation.

Saturday the post office climaxed its 41-year history when for the first time it moved into its own building, on its own ground and dedicate that building to the future of Hereford.

Showing a contrast with those of today were the receipts of the office at that time. The amount for the quarter ending December 31, 1898, was $11.44; the following quarter, ending March 31, 1899, was $134.77. In contrast, the quarter ending December 31, 1939, showed receipts of $5,449.91.

The office did not long remain a fourth class one but was advanced to Third Class in 1902, then raised to Second Class on July 1, 1917—a rating it has retained since that time.

When furniture, records and materials were moved into the new building last week end it will be the fourth such move the post office has made since its beginning, and will be in its fifth location. The first post office was located about where Flowers Grocery now stands. Later it was moved into the building back of the First National Bank. On July 27, 1922, it was moved to the Farmer building, now occupied by Furr Food, and on December 8, 1927, it was moved to its present quarters next door to Kerr Hardware.

During its 41 years here, postmasters and acting postmasters have changed an average of once every three years. Ten postmasters have served, while four acting postmasters have guided the office here. Those who served after Mr. Montgomery, the first one, were W. J. (Bill) Walters, Clarence Smith, Ralph Barnett, J. A. Stegall, Annie Anthony (acting postmaster), Mrs. Delphia N. Cox, J. A. Wear, E. L. Donner, Mrs. Mina D. Jones (acting postmaster), Walter L. Pickett, Mrs. Jessie W. Pickett (acting postmaster), Mrs. Cecil Williams (acting postmaster) and James R. Lipscomb, present postmaster.

Four rural delivery routes are operated out of the Hereford post office. R. F. D. No. 1 was established August 2, 1909, and was 30 miles in length; it now covers 35.2 miles. Originally the route was served by horse-drawn carriages and offered tri-weekly service. Incidentally, it is the only route established in the horse and buggy days.

Route "A" established October 15, 1924, was also a tri-weekly route in the beginning and was 52 miles in length; it now covers 54 miles and was made a daily route on December 16, 1930. Route "B" was started April 1, 1925, and was 54.5 miles long with tri-weekly delivery; it now covers 64.9 miles and is still tri-weekly. Four years later, on April 1, 1929, Routes A and B were changed to Routes 3 and 4.

Route 2 was established on February 16, 1929, with a length of 55.7 miles which is now 53.7 miles. It too, remains a tri-weekly route.

First rural carrier to work out of the Hereford office was Chas. Howell. He served on Route 1 from the time it was started in 1909, until the time of his death, June 28, 1931. Others carrying mail on the rural routes since include C. O. Lee, who died August 30, 1934. He served on Routes 3 and 4. E. Ramey, who began work on September 8, 1931, Owen Slagter, who began April 28, 1931, and A. Petersen, who began March 1, 1935, are now regular rural carriers.

Hereford has one Star Route which serves patrons from Hereford to Springlake. Back in the days when a horse-drawn hack was used this route went only to Dimmitt. George Harrington is the present carrier, beginning work July 1, 1938. The route (Continued on Page 3, Sec. 2)

Marvin Jones In Farewell Message Announces Retirement From Congress

Jimmie Allred Wins $50 Phillips Prize For Sales Increase

Announcing his retirement from congress and reviewing some of the accomplishments he has made, Marvin Jones made the following statement in a message to the Brand:

As is generally known, I am retiring from Congress at the end of the present term to accept a place on the United States Court of Claims.

It will not be easy to leave the work in which I have been engaged so many years, but sooner or later changes must be made, and the decision must be made at this time.

The work of the Committee on Agriculture has been of great importance, not only to our section of the country, but to the nation. Hundreds of bills are referred to this committee each year. There are five subcommittees.

The preparation of these bills, the answering of numerous inquiries, as well as personal requests, have made the last few years very busy ones.

When I became chairman of the Committee on Agriculture in 1931 the Farm Board was the only agricultural legislation on the statute books, and the country was face to face with a panic.

Since that time provision has been made for soil and water conservation, research, the lowest farm credit interest rates in our history, the distribution of surpluses, tenant home purchases and other basic acts.

The ground work is done. That a national farm program is essential to the welfare of the entire country is now an accepted fact. While improvements will be made from time to time, the basic provisions have been enacted, and a solid foundation for a permanent program.

The people of the Panhandle have been very generous to me. It has been a pleasure to work for them.

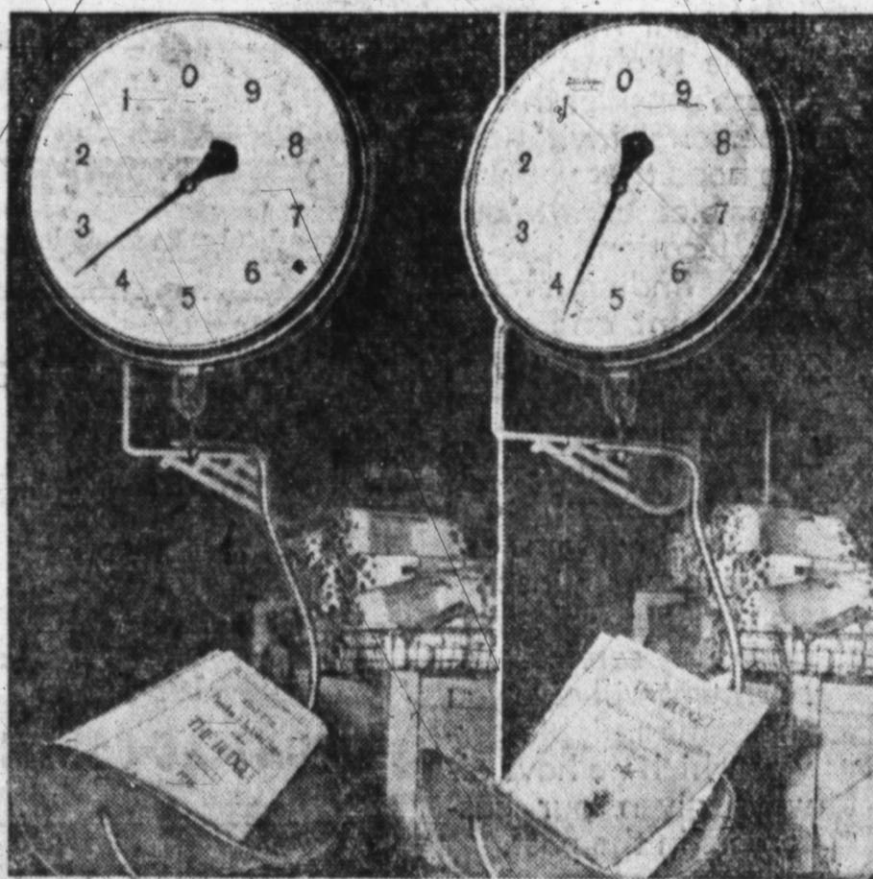

I have not sought publicity, but I have sought to do a workmanlike job. All around may be seen the evidences of that work. I have never made a speech nor cast a vote in which I did not thoroughly believe—and I have never dodged a vote.

To the people of every county in the district, to the newspapermen who have always been generous, to the businessmen, to the farmers who produce our basic wealth, to the stockmen, to the railway boys on whose brave shoulders rests the commerce of our country, to the carpenters who build, and to the women and men in every walk of life in the town and in the country, I owe a debt of gratitude that I can never repay.

The work has been a labor of love for the finest and most loyal people I have ever known.

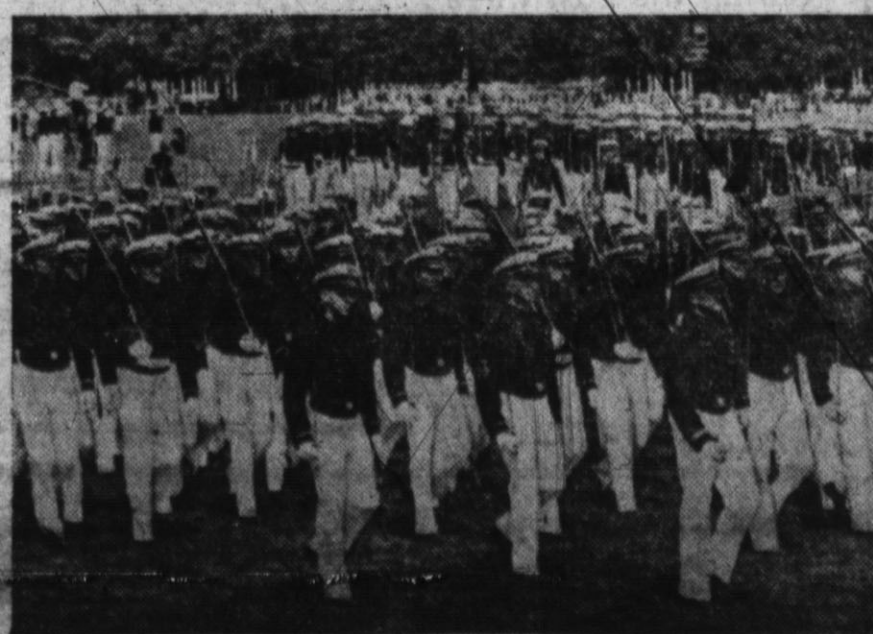

I shall continue to make the Panhandle my home. The people of the Plains shall always be my people, and their interests my interests.

$230,769,230 Per Ounce!

Between 1925 and 1940 federal expenditures have increased by $2,000,000,000, and the budget has gained 13 ounces in weight. This means that every time the budget becomes an ounce heavier the spending increases, on an average, by $230,769,230. The picture was prepared by the National Small Business Men's association with headquarters in Chicago.

Demonstration On Canning Is Well Attended

A total of 54 interested women and girls attended the food preservation demonstration at the club house in the State Park on the afternoon of June 18. This demonstration was given by Miss Grace I. Neely, Food Preservation Specialist of the Extension Service of A. & M. College. Statements made by Miss Neely included:

1. When green beans contain seed the size of a pin head they are as high in vitamin content as leafy vegetables when both are raw. If they have been grown quickly they are richer in Vitamin C than are greens when either are cooked or canned.

2. Older green beans contain more minerals and less vitamins and should be served as OTHER VEGETABLES and not as GREEN VEGETABLES. See Texas Food Standard.

3. Vegetables are pre-cooked to drive out air which will make enzymes less active and so preserve vitamins. During pre-cooking beans are covered that steam may replace air above the beans in the container to preserve vitamin content. Older beans lose color when so covered but retain vitamins.

4. Two types of steam gauges are used on pressure cookers. The spring type sells for 50 cents to $1.00, the gear gauge sells for $1.50 and will last much longer. A gear gauge purchased on a cooker in 1918 was tested at the meeting and registered accurately. Very few pressure cooker owners have found their gauges accurate when tested. Such tests should be made before each canning season to avoid possible loss of valuable canned food.

Miss Neely stated that when home canning was practiced fifty years ago a housekeeper was satisfied when products kept. About 25 years ago during the last World War we learned that canned foods should be safe and pressure cookers came into common use for non-acid vegetables and meats. Botulism is the usual food poisoning which may develop in the Dust Bowl and is usually fatal. Today emphasis is canning is on the control of enzymes which may destroy vitamins and on the keeping of the vitamin content of foods when canned.

Raising Cats Is Hobby Of Fred Goodnow

While most grain and elevator companies in Hereford encourage cats around the warehouses and granaries, it remained for Fred Goodnow, watchman at Packard Milling Co., to make pets of the cats there until now his felines are a full-grown hobby.

He can tell you the names of all his "mammy" cats, give the ages of most of them, and knows when their kittens were born. And keeping up with them is no cinch because there are no less than six mammy cats with a total of 24 kittens (maybe more by the time this is read) varying in age from those barely with their eyes open to those nearly grown.

Brownie is the oldest cat. She is part Persian. At the mill are four of her grown daughters, 10 granddaughters and six great-grand children. Brownie now has four kittens, two of which Mr. Goodnow has given away.

Then there is Pinto, with four kittens. She is a Felts to the rat in Weir's and Felts Red and White Store. Patsy Ann, a granddaughter of Brownie, has six kittens. Fuzzy and Nellie, both daughters of Brownie, has six and three kittens, respectively. Shorty, a stray cat which came to the mill, has three kittens.

Mr. Goodnow's cats receive more than ordinary care. Besides the rats and mice, and rabbits they kill, they are fed every afternoon around 4:30. Even before that time, the front door of the room where he lives is almost blocked with hungry cats. Mr. Goodnow lives alone in a room in one of the company buildings. He has been watchman for the Mill for six years, working previously for Pitman Grain Co. He came to Hereford in 1920 from Fort Worth and worked at various jobs on ranches, farms and in elevators for several years.

Pitman Grain Co. keeps several cats. A pint of milk is taken daily especially for these mousers.

WHITLOW EXPERIENCED
J. B. Whitlow at Kimball Elevators, figures he is an experienced man with cats. Two or three years ago he made definite efforts to encourage the felines to make the elevators their home. On cat he had a hard time with was given to him by the Brand. This cat, who had her family on a stack of Pioneer editions, refused to consider herself moved.

"I brought her down here from the Brand," J. B. relates, "made her a nice bed, even brought her milk. And what did she do? She carried her kittens all the way back to the Brand. I went up there and brought her down again. And again she toted them back. Finally, I gave up. Another time Mack Womble

Firemen, Lions, High School And Summerfield Are Winners

BY GRANT FULLER, JR.
June 12—Clayton's long hit to center in which he scored when it went through the center fielder broke the tie and gave the Firemen an eight-inning victory over the Plowboys 9 to 8. The hit came with one out in the last of the eighth.

The Plowboys started out ahead with one run in the first but the Fireboys took the lead with two scores in the second from three hits. Two runs from two hits tied the game for the Firemen in the third, but then the Firemen went three runs ahead when they scored from three hits. Again the Plowboys tied the score in the fourth when Bell homered with one on and then went three ahead in the fifth. The Fireboys came back to tie the score in the fifth and sixth innings setting the stage for Clayton's blow in the eighth.

Score by innings: R H E Plowboys 102 230 0 8 9 6 Firemen 023 021 1 9 11 5 Batteries—Plowboys, Sewell and Hartman. Firemen, Young and Clayton.

June 13—The Lions banged out twenty-two hits as they took a wild slugfest from the K. C. 24 to 14. The Lions tallied in every inning but the fourth, scoring seven in the first and ten in the third for their two big innings.

The K. C. knocked out sixteen hits themselves but they could not catch the rampaging Lions.

The Lions had fifteen extra base hits with home runs by Wills and Simms. Wills and Simms also had four hits apiece to lead the Lion hitters. V. Stelzer and Neill had three hits gave Mr. Whitlow a cat which was due to increase her family soon. Determined to take no chances on this cat, he locked her in a bin until the kittens were born. Then he turned her out. She was run over and killed by a train.

"Now," says J. B., "I just let the cats alone. There are three or four wild ones here now. They're the best cats in town."

He went on to say that he positively did not need any more, that he had plenty, but Fred Goodnow, taking care of 30, would probably tell him he had only one-tenth enough.

June 17—The High School let loose a barrage of runs in the first, third, and fifth frames to massacre the Dawn team 32 to 7. The High School scored in every inning but the second to hang up their fourth victory of the year. They collected a total of twenty-two hits, with J. Vaughn having five of them and Knox four.

Dawn had seven hits for their seven runs with six bases on balls issued them. Dawn was caught in two double plays and a third was on the way when the High School first baseman dropped the ball. Score by innings: R H E Dawn 301 110 1 7 7 19 High School 807 112 4 32 22 9 Batteries—Dawn, May, and O. Caraway. High School, Brock and J. Vaughn.

June 18—Summerfield won their sixth straight victory without defeat when they defeated Phillips 66 eight to five. Starting out behind as the score was 2 to 1 against them at the end of the first, Summerfield tallied in each of the first four innings and then put the game on ice with a three run attack in the sixth inning. Welty led off in the sixth with a single. D. Baize singled, J. Clark walked and the Story's double scored the three runs.

Phillips had only six hits, but they bunched them for two runs in the first inning and three runs in a last effort in the seventh.

Storey and D. Baize had three hits apiece for Summerfield, while no Phillips man could collect two hits. Score by innings: R H E Phillips 66 200 000 3 5 6 9 Summerfield 111 203 0 8 9 5 Batteries—Phillips, Farmer and Terry. Summerfield, H. Baize and Robertson.

Daughter Is All Right; Cooks and Sews

Hereford Girls Begin Summer Projects

What's the matter with daughter? Why, she's all right! She can cook and she can sew and—

Daughter (and that includes about thirty-five local girls enrolled in high school home economics courses) can cook and she can sew. She can do a lot of other things too for which grownups sometimes fail to give her credit. To the fundamentals of home-making that her mother may or may not have taught her already, she has added those extra bits of knowledge gained in the course at school. Her real test as a future homemaker lies, of course, in the practical application of what she has learned.

As many a mother knows, "It is much easier and far less bother to go ahead and do it myself" but that isn't so good for Daughter and the homes of tomorrow. She has got to be ready to take over in the kitchen, the garden and elsewhere whenever she is needed. That is one reason that she and that still refers to about thirty-five Hereford girls) is trying her hand this summer at being responsible for definite projects around her home. Not only is she doing something worthwhile but she is also getting credit for the work she does.

During the summer month, these Future Homemakers will spend approximately one hundred hours each on individual home project work, the equivalent of time that would be spent in regular class work. For their labor, and it is labor sometimes if they must finish the cooking or sewing or painting while the gang goes on to the tennis courts, they will receive one-half credit on their record at school.

The group has organized with the following officers in charge: President, Nancy Olson; vice-president, Kathryn Henderson; secretary-treasurer, Gloria Cress. There will be four club meetings of one hour each during the summer.

As a forerunner of the summer's work, the girls enjoyed a two-day outing at Ceta Glen,

Love on the Range

In "Gaucho Serenade" the screen favorites who were so popular in "South of the Border" return to the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday. Above are June Storey and Gene Autry, Smiley Burnett will be another favorite in this picture.

June 12-13. They planned their meals, bought the food and cooked it over the camp fire. Now they are ready to try their hand at home.

Under the direction of Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan, homemaking instructor in Hereford High School, each girl has chosen the project or combination of projects which she desires to complete during the summer. Miss Sullivan has remained on duty through June in order to get the work started. She has visited in each girl's home, conferring with the mother and securing her cooperation in letting the girl have a chance to show what she really can do.

The projects are varied in type. Some girls select a single one while others may carry out a combination of types. For example, a girl may need to give all of her time to a gardening project because she must plan the garden, plant it and care for it and then can the vegetables that she grows. On the other hand, another girl may divide her time, using part of it in sewing for herself or others and part in doing her share of the cooking.

One girl has chosen child care as her project. She will keep a friend's small child for four days of the week. If that sounds like a snap, consider the fact that she is going about the job in earnest, following the child's regular schedule, preparing and serving its meals and learning ways of entertaining it.

Another full-sized project is that of raising chickens to buy glasses before school begins in the fall. The job includes building coops! The money earned will be budgeted.

The improvement of bedrooms and living rooms will take the time of some of the girls. That will include a number of things, such as making dressing tables and bookcases out of orange crates and scrap lumber; making sheets and pillowcases, scarfs and bedspreads; and hooking rag rugs.

Along this line is the work undertaken by a girl who is remodeling her brother's bedroom. As he has always wanted a room decorated with ships, that is the decorative theme which she has chosen. She is making the curtains out of a cotton material, printed in a ship design. A solid color window shade will be used. She will paper the room, using a salmon color background. In July, she plans to remodel a chair and make a dresser out of orange crates. In August, she will make a bedspread.

Completion of sewing projects should see a large number of new dresses, play suits, pajamas, smocks, blouses and children's clothes. Through such projects the girls can apply what they have learned of good taste, design, suitability of pattern and material to figure and personality of wearer of garments, etc.

In some cases, Mother will take a furlough from the kitchen while Daughter takes over. After smelling the appetizing aromas that issued from the Home Ec. laboratory during the school term, it is safe to predict that Daughter can handle the job of meal planning, preparation and serving efficiently. That includes the marketing too.

The development of hobbies comes in for a share in this project business. The girl who thinks it will be fun to keep the cookie jar full for her little brothers may look at it that way but our humble opinion is that she has a mammoth job on her hands.

And, shades of our pioneer homemakers! Some of these girls are getting ready for winter by making quilts. On the whole, the future looks good with such a demonstration of dependability by these homemakers of tomorrow.

So, whatever it be—making cookies for hungry little boys, embroidering monograms on pillowcases or persuading babies to eat their carrots—it looks as if Daughter (all thirty-five of her) will be spending her time profitably this summer.

What's the matter with Daughter? Why, she's all right!

Wyche Club Studies Salads

Good health, salads and salad dressings were the topics of study at the meeting of the Wyche 4-H club on June 20 at the home of Georgia Mae Reeves. There wasn't any business, so booklets and slips were passed out and studied on Good Health, food, salads and dressings and styles, patterns and garments to be made this year. Miss Oliver made different kinds of salads and dressings, but the best liked was the Candle Salad and French Dressing. The recipe for French Dressing is: 1 can tomato soup, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar-scent; $\frac{1}{2}$ cup vinegar, 1 tsp. salt; 1 tsp. paprika; 1 grated onion and 1 cup oil. Stir all together and chill. If desired, add $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. gelatine dissolved in cold water to thicken.

After the meeting all went over to Mrs. Nola Elliston's for a picnic supper and swim. Those enjoying the affair were Nancy Olson, Mrs. Olson, Barbara Robertson, Wilma Jo Robertson, Mrs. Robertson, Ina Mae Hewitt, Marjorie Edwards, Miss Oliver, Elizabeth Ann Oliver, Ben Oliver, Geo. Olson, Georgia Mae Reeves, Betty Jo and Florella Boeskin, Helen Reinart, Betty Lea Valentine, Wilma Jean Roberson, Margaret and Dorothy Johnson, Patsy Harris, Mildred and Geraldine Henry, Mazelle Adams and Jerine Joiner.

Ralph says,
Golf's my Game

Fishing may be alright for fellows like Doc Wills, Barney Hicks, C. F. Moore, Monte Baker, and Joe Bishop—but I guess I haven't got enough imagination. A 7 inch fish was the biggest thing I caught—and for the life of me, I can't tell folks that it measured 24 inches or that it weighed 2 pounds.

Therefore, I solemnly resolve to stay with Golf—a game which is not entirely played by mouth. So come around the store, Folks. You can depend upon the fact that I won't be telling a bunch of fish stories—Fact is, that I don't even like to think about fishing.

SOCIETY

MRS. JOHN McLEAN, Society Editor Phone 181

All men eat and love good food, no matter how much they differ on other points. Here is a savory "hot weather" dessert that will meet with universal approval. Its name is misleading for it's called "Mock Cheese Cake" and it isn't a cake and there isn't any cheese in it. Mrs. Gaston Baer who likes to cook and experiment with unusual recipes sends it in. She adapted and worked it over from one of her mother's (Mrs. Lena Goldberg of Tulsa, Okla.) This is the kind of recipe that makes you wonder what's in it and makes you wish your hostess will serve it again when she entertains. Try it sometime, if just for the family.

Let's Cook Something

MOCK CHEESE CAKE

Melt 1/4 pound of butter. Roll 1/2 pound graham crackers fine and mix. Line bottom and sides of greased casserole, reserving 1/4 cup of crumbs for the top. Mix together:
4 eggs
1 cup unsweetened apple sauce
1 can Borden's sweetened condensed milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 lemon, juice and rind
pinch of salt

Beat the egg yolks, combine with the apple sauce and add milk, vanilla, lemon and salt. Beat whites of eggs stiff and fold in this mixture. Pour in already lined casserole, sprinkle remaining crumbs on top and dot with nutmeg and cinnamon. Bake 45 to 60 minutes in moderate oven. And now comes the important part: when done, turn off the heat and let stay in oven until set and cooled. Cut in triangles (like pie) and serve cold.

Pinto Beans Do Well For Mrs. Earl DeHart

After the adult beetles of the false wire worm had destroyed all her garden in June and July of 1939, Mrs. Earl De Hart of the North Hereford Club decided to make a large planting of pinto beans. She inoculated four pounds of seed with Nit-ragin and was delighted with the vigorous growth of the plants and the generous yield.

She used twenty-five bushels green and had a harvest of 300 pounds of dried beans.

She also inoculated and planted two pounds of black eyed peas which produced enough to fill one hundred No. 2 cans besides ten to fifteen bushels which were used fresh and were given to neighbors to can. Inoculating six pounds of seed costs only ten cents.

Grasshopper poison was fed to the beetles in 1939 and few beetles were present in 1940. They were also trapped in large tin cans sunk at intervals along the garden rows. There is only one brood per year.

SEEDS of ADVICE from The Garden Club

Insect control is of first interest to garden lovers at this season. The nature of the injury done the plants determines the control measures to be used. This may vary according to the body type of the insect as:

1. A soft bodied sucking insect (plant lice, aphids or aphids) can be controlled by a contact insecticide as nicotine sulphate (Blackleaf 40). It sticks to the foliage better when combined with soap. A fish oil soap combination can be bought in tubes from several local dealers for 35c.
2. A hard bodied sucking insect such as squash bug or stink bug is not so readily controlled. See Farmers Bulletin 1371.
3. Soft bodied biting insects can be controlled as in paragraph 1 above, or by the use of stomach poisons. These usually are some form of arsenic, as Paris Green, London Purple, Calcium Arsenate or lead arsenate. White arsenate was used for grasshoppers.
4. Hard bodied biting insects can be fed arsenic on the folage of the plants or in special baits as was used for grass hoppers. The "grasshopper poison" can be used for cutworms in March and April, and for the adult false wireworm beetles so common right now. Both the large shiny black beetles and the smaller grey-black ones are false wireworms. They can be trapped in cans sunk in the ground. These can be best located in furrows.

The humming bird moth, so plentiful now is laying eggs which develop into the large green tomato hornworm. These worms can be controlled by contact sprays or by stomach poisons, since they have soft bodies and biting mouths.

Convenient and efficient equipment can be purchased locally in many types and sizes and materials for varying prices. Have you seen the spray gun which screws onto the garden hose? A cartridge for loading it sells for 30 or 35c. The cartridge may be non-poisonous for vegetables or arsenicals for non-edible plants.

with his children at Prownwood, Robstown, Bishop and Corpus Christi. Following a broken hip he received in a fall at Hereford in 1935, he has probably sold as much Panhandle property as any other man that has operated a land commission business in that section and a short time before his last illness he closed a real estate deal at Hereford.

Mr. Connell had considerable ranch interests at one time in the western part of Deaf Smith county. He saw the country there change from an open range to the now large wheat farms and small irrigated stock farms.

Mr. Connell was a member of the First Christian church of Hereford and the Bishop Masonic Lodge.

covers 88.6 miles. City delivery was started in Hereford on October 1, 1928, with E. W. Young as carrier. He was later assisted by Coleman Wright and today Lee J. Caldwell is Sub City Carrier, beginning work as substitute clerk, April 29, 1929. One man kept the first Hereford post office. Today there are 10 regular employees. Mrs. Cecll Williams, clerk holds the record of longest service having begun May 24, 1920. Postmaster James R. Lipscomb has served less than a year. He was appointed August 16, 1939. Elmer Patterson began March 11, 1923; and George Millard on January 14, 1926.

Newest employees are Arthur H. Davis, Fireman-laborer, and Jesse E. Ford, charman. And so after 41 years of steady and consistent growth, the Hereford Post office found itself Saturday in the roomiest, most comfortable and finest quarters it has ever known, still striding forward with a growing Hereford—and rendering finer service to a modern town.

"Let me tell you how I chose my second refrigerator!"

All refrigerators looked alike to the newlyweds. "Give us the low-down," they asked friends. "Why did you replace yours with the one that freezes with NO MOVING PARTS?"

1 "You never hear a thing..." said Bill Jones. "Just listen ... silent, isn't it? And you see, as one who's had experience, that's reason enough to buy a Servel. And no noise also means no wear, too!"

2 "Only a tiny gas flame ..." Ted Walsh points out. "That's all it takes to do the work. Servel hasn't a single moving part in its freezing system. That's why you can depend on it to stay quiet, efficient and economical."

3 "My bills are lower ..." said Mrs. Smith. "Food keeps much longer. And with no moving, wearing parts to run up the cost, Servel's operating cost will stay low always."

4 "And such conveniences ... You can store what you want, where you want it, keep it as you like it. You can have moist cold or dry cold, whichever you prefer. And there are lots of other features you'll love!"

5 "Make yours a Servel!" That was every body's advice, and—since the newlyweds took it—it's their tip to you. Why not run down to your Servel dealer's right now ... and see the beautiful new 1940 models they have on the floor.
