ALL EYES FOCUS ON PRIMARY ELECTION RETURNS

Highway Survey Completed and More Permits Granted

L. Baskin, chairman of the local committee acting to secure right of way permits for the widening of Highway 66 through Hereford to the Castro county line, reports that excellent progress is being made and almost 100 per cent cooperation being given by landowners along the route. In only one case has a property owner definitely refused to give a permit to use the additional land required, and he, a non-resident, is thought to have become more lenient toward donating the use of the needed ground.

There is better understanding being reached among the property owners as to the necessity for a 65-foot strip being added to the present 90-foot right of way. W. H. VanLondon, district engineer, in his statement to the county commissioners, explained that should only 40 feet be added to the present roadway, the middle of the paving would then be directly over what has been the right of the road for many years. This being in a softened condition from the water continuously drained into it for a long period of time, would make a weak foundation and be apt to give away under the paving at a later date. By adding the 25 feet asked for the new improvement, the center of the roadway where the paving will be moved enough to one side that the paving slab will not be over the present right of way, and would rest on a firm foundation. If that condition cannot be met, it may be necessary to move the entire highway away from its present lines and a new, full 100-foot right of way would be required, which is easily recognized as being unnecessary and of greater expense, besides making waste land of the present site of the road.

Press reports during the week have told of the granting of the money for the grading and drainage structures by the highway department of that part of Deaf Smith county between Hereford and the Randall county line, and it is probable that actual construction work will begin within a short while if that is true.

The survey from Hereford toward the east has been completed, blue prints of exact specifications and details are now being prepared, according to Mr. Baskin's report, and it is expected surveying will begin on the west end in this county soon.

GOLF TEAM GOES TO PLAINVIEW NEXT SUNDAY

The Hereford golf team will play a scheduled Wheat Belt league match Sunday when its members go to Plainview to return the game played here several months ago. At that time the Hereford team was successful in winning back the visitors, but its record of late has not been of the best, and grave fears are entertained for the outcome of Sunday's match.

The Hereford club has been making some excellent scores in its league matches, but each time it seems their opponents rise to suggestive heights to conquer the local boys.

New members are joining the club for the last half of the season that would not otherwise have been in, owing to the reduction in fees from $12.50 to $7.50. Twice as many players could use the Hereford course as now do without any extra charge.

Keep, and if enough members are obtained at the lower figure, it is possible the fees will never again reach their former height. It is the desire of the club to secure more of the younger men and women of the city as members, there seeming to be an indifference on their part to the pleasures and privileges of membership. Special prizes have been made for boys and girls of school age, and children whose parents are members, are entitled to play on the course when accompanied by them.

WHEAT HARVEST SETS LOW PRODUCTION RECORD

Combines are still running in a few fields, but by far the larger part of the harvest is over, as the popular saying here is this year "a lot before it got started". The lowest amount of carload shipments for years has been made, only 50 cars to date as compared with over 1,000 at this time last year; the total for 1932 being estimated at 100 cars, to compare with more than 2,000 a year ago.

CALLED TO COMANCHE BY DEATH OF BROTHER

Fred Oberthier, jr., and his mother left Hereford at 5:00 o'clock Monday morning for Comanche, where her brother, J. J. Holmsley, lost his life Sunday night in a rooming house fire.

The house was found on fire about 12:30 a. m., and when the fire was extinguished, the body of Mr. Holmsley was found burned almost beyond recognition. He was rooming in the house at the time.

Mr. Holmsley was a bachelor about 50 years old and had been for several years employed in the State Highway Department.

Funeral services were held at Comanche last Tuesday at 10:00 o'clock a. m. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, in Comanche. Mr. Holmsley was born in Comanche county, where his family has lived for more than 80 years.

Presbyterians In Ceta Canyon for Next Week

Local members of the Presbyterian church are going back and forth or staying at the Methodist encampment grounds in Ceta Canyon this week and next at the Annual Presbyterian Conference, which opened today and lasts until Wednesday of next week.

Rev. E. P. Gieser, local pastor, in addition to serving as one of the directors, is also in charge of the camp kitchen, a considerable responsibility when it is considered there will be an average attendance of 150, which is expected to swell to 500 next Sunday. About 20 young people from Hereford will attend the full week of the conference.

Among them will be Ruth Wolfe, Mary Broadwell, Florence and Herbert Boardman, Patricia and Vera Waterbrook, Charles Ferguson, Roy Hastings, Eugene Harman, Mary Elizabeth Ireland, John Weaver, Mrs. E. S. Ireland (sponsor), Sylvia and Edna Behrends, Mary Ellen Parker, Mosele Grauner, Betty Bruce Jones, Sallie Gilbreath, Carey Estes, Robert Cowan and Loretta Erwin.

Four ladies from here, Mmes. D. H. Alexander, Chas. Donald, G. M. Hudson and Will S. Kerr, will be in charge Saturday and Sunday of coaching conference in ladies church organization work.

There will be no preaching services in the Hereford Presbyterian church next Sunday, either morning or evening, but Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

STATE ISSUES SCHOLASTIC VOUCHERS AND SUBMITS NEW ACCREDIT RULING

Vouchers for another dollar of the per capita apportionment are being prepared for mailing this week, according to Chas. N. Shaver, state superintendent of public instruction and candidate for reelection in the Democratic primary Saturday. One dollar will be paid the schools at this time, making a total of $12 paid this year.

"The classification committee of Texas high schools at its recent meeting liberalized admission requirements for students going from unclassified schools to accredited schools," stated State Superintendent Chas. N. Shaver, candidate for his first elective term as state superintendent of public instruction in the Democratic primary Saturday.

The following is a revised statement of the conditions covering the admission of these students:

That any accredited high school may give any pupil without examination as many as eight units, but not more for the work done in an unaccredited school or schools. All additional credit must be established through written examinations, which examinations may be either those offered by the state department of education for college entrance of those given by the accredited school. It is suggested that wherever practical the examinations administered by accredited schools be given before or immediately after the close of the spring term. Credit for one-unit courses or continuous year courses completed in an unaccredited school may be established either by the pupil's repeating or taking examinations over only the last semester of such courses.

HOT, DRY WEATHER AFFECTING RICE CROPS

The slight indications of rain the past few days keep the farmers hopeful that much needed moisture will fall on the rice crops soon. The heavier precipitation of a month or more ago, followed by the recent hot weather, has caused an abnormal growth of weeds in all crops that have sapped the moisture from the ground, and rain is badly needed.

Temperatures of around 100 have been reported, and each day is about as hot as the ones before.

Twilight League Baseball Games Are Good Ones

The second week of the last half of the city twilight league swung into action Monday with much better games being evidenced for the coming several weeks to the finish.

Friday the Legion team bombarded the Odd Fellows to take an 8 to 3 contest. Monday the Midgets and Lions put up an airtight scrap that the little fellows took in the last half of the seventh inning 3 to 2. Yesterday the Bible Class took its second game of the last half to beat the Legion 7 to 6.

The Firemen and Odd Fellows furnish the sport tomorrow afternoon.

Team	W	L	Pct.
Bible Class	2	0	1.000
Midgets	2	0	1.000
Legion	1	1	.500
Odd Fellows	0	1	.000
Firemen	0	1	.000
Lions	0	2	.000

Junior Band Gives Concert On South Main

Band Director Ralph Smith will have his junior band, better known as the Central School band, on exhibition in an open air concert at the I. & G. Filling Station at First and Main Streets tonight at 8:30.

This aggregation of youngsters number around 25 and their average age is 9 1/2 years. They make some real band music, as is known to those who have heard them. They were the hit of the Health Day rally parade in April and will prove just as popular again when they get started tonight.

YOU NEVER CAN TELL ABOUT ELECTION PROMISES

When the results of next Saturday's elections are finally known there will be many disappointed and disappointed.

Many of the candidates are "Certain" of the outcome of the race in which they are entered. Especially is this true with the beginners. But there are many uncertainties in politics, and the candidate who counts his votes before he gets them is frequently a subject for some good-natured bantering.

It recalls the case of a candidate for justice of the peace in one of the larger Texas counties two years ago. The candidate, who was a preacher, was overwhelmingly defeated. A week or two before the election was held he was around telling his friends that he had enough votes pledged to secure his election. And he was sincere in his claims. A week or two after it was all over with a friend met him and asked what he thought about it.

"You know," he said, "there's something funny about that. The same people who, before the election, told me they were going to vote for me now tell me they did vote for me. I can't understand it."

The invalid father-in-law of C. G. Huggins, who purchased and lives on the Ira Cochell farm three miles west of Hereford on the Harrison Highway, died there Friday of last week and was taken overland the next day for burial among old home surroundings at Quitaque.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Bove and Miss Edah Park will leave Saturday for the California Coast for Mrs. Bove's health.

Miss Eva Skelton returned last Tuesday from a vacation trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, and other points.

Sterling Rally At Court House, 8:30 Tonight

The Brand is advised that Judge Otis Truelove of Amarillo will be in Hereford tonight to address an audience in the interest of Governor Ross Sterling's candidacy for re-election. The meeting will be held at 8:30 at the court house.

G. A. F. Parker, local chairman, received word late Wednesday from T. E. Johnson of Amarillo, representing the Sterling campaign in the Panhandle, that an important speaker would be here tonight to make an address in Mr. Sterling's behalf.

This morning's announcement of the speaker was made by telephone. Judge Truelove is a forceful speaker and will bring a message of interest to local people who are concerned in the selection of a candidate for Governor.

Frona Youth Killed by Early Morning Blast

G. M. Dunham, 19, of Frona, lost his life as the result of an explosion and fire there early Monday morning of this week. The exact cause of the accident has not been learned. When investigating a small blaze in a blacksmith shop where he slept at night, in the early hours of the morning, apparently a tank of an acetylene welding machine exploded, blowing the frame building to pieces and setting the ruins on fire.

The young man was hurled a distance and buried under debris, and Frona citizens did not find him until after the fire had been burning a considerable while. When he was removed his body, arms and lower limbs had been horribly burned. He was brought to the Deaf Smith county hospital in Hereford at once, but his injuries were too severe and death came just before noon that day. His body was taken overland Tuesday to Duncan, Oklahoma, for burial at his former home.

The entire building, which sat at the rear of the filling station at the junction of South Main Street and Highway 66 at Frona, was entirely demolished, parts of it being hurled forty feet away.

Club Members Prize Winners Off to A. and M.

Miss Lula Mae Martin, county representative, will leave the last of this week for A. & M. College to spend next week in attendance at the Annual Short Course. She will be accompanied by two ladies, and two 4-H club girls of Deaf Smith county who won distinction this year in the demonstration club activities.

Mrs. John Kropff, North Hereford Club, winner of the first prize in the wardrobe contest, will take part in the state contest next week with the prize-winning dress. Mrs. J. W. Brown, also of the North Hereford club, and winner of the cooperative dress contest, will make the trip, and Misses Vivian Bowers and Adeline Koelke, 4-H club girls of the Dawn and Good Workers clubs, will go as representatives for winning the same two above contests in the 4-H club division.

The trip for the demonstration workers was made possible by the Consumers Fuel Company, Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank and First State Bank. There was a small amount lacking to completely finance the trip, according to Miss Martin's report Wednesday, but she was hopeful of receiving the full amount and announced the names of those who would go, at the same time expressing sincere appreciation of the contributing agencies and the cooperation of the many women's and girls' clubs to bring the work to its present standard in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gough are announcing the birth of a 7 1/2 pound son, born at the Deaf Smith county hospital Monday, July 18. He has been named John Lystus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Witherspoon are in Dalhart this week visiting friends and campaigning.

MUNICIPAL BAND PLAYS AT BAPTIST ENCAMPMENT

The Hereford municipal band, under the leadership of Director Ralph Smith, will go to Ceta Canyon next Sunday to play a sacred concert at the annual Baptist encampment in session on their grounds this week.

It is expected a large part of the local Baptist membership will be in attendance at the camp grounds Sunday, to take part in the regular program as well as enjoy the band music of the afternoon.

Lions Accept Challenge of Golf Players

A challenge of defiance was hurled and as promptly accepted yesterday when the Hereford golf club dared the golf-playing members of the Lions club to play a match with the golf club members not belonging to the Lions.

J. M. Posey, president of the golf club, who is a Lion, was given orders to see that full speed ahead was made to bring the contest to an actuality. It is rumored his brother, A. R. Posey, who is secretary of the golf club, is responsible for the challenge, and the two are very apt to work out something interesting enough to make sporting history for the city. It is to be hoped their father will be drawn into the match.

When the memorable occasion arrives, there will probably be an enthusiastic, if not as large, a gallery of spectators and fans following the play of the respective matches.

Expect Approval of Farm Bill By President

There is indicated by the daily news dispatches that President Hoover will sign the Reconstruction Finance Bill over which he and Congress have been wrangling for the past several weeks.

Of immediate interest to Deaf Smith county and other Panhandle farmers is the agriculture loan feature that will permit the use of $135,000,000 left from last spring's appropriation to farmers to prepare and seed land to wheat this fall. None of the particulars of the bill or the details of the distribution can be worked out until the President signs the appropriation.

HEREFORD BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATS TULIA; SCORE 7-3

While local golfers may not be so hot against the sharpshooters from Tulia, the baseball players of Hereford were made of better stuff last Sunday when they went to the Swisher county capital and downed the hitherto undefeated sluggers of that fair city, 7-3.

Pearl Singletery pitched the full route for the locals. "Foxy" White doing a creditable job of receiving and rubbing salt on the smart of defeat for Tulia by smacking out a home run late in the game with Ted Young on the bases ahead of him. Jim Robinson had the misfortune to get critically spiked in his heel tendon while playing second.

Frona will be over here next Sunday to take on the Hereford ball tossers. As has been usual for the past several years, Hereford fans do attend ball games, and the team or how well they play. The admission charge has been lowered to 15 cents for Sunday. Frona has one of the fastest teams going, being at the top of the Parmer County League, and there is promised plenty of action for the spectators. The game will be called at 4:00.

The Winners class of the Methodist Sunday school surprised their teacher, Mrs. J. F. Ward, with a basket dinner Tuesday evening at her home, the occasion being her birthday. The dinner was kept a secret and Mrs. Ward was found busy in her garden. A delightful evening was passed, the young women returning to their homes about 10 o'clock. Mrs. E. E. Robinson and grand daughter, little Miss Gloria, were the guests of honor.

Mrs. Celestia Briggs, 84, wife of E. R. Griggs, and a former resident of Hereford who has been living with her daughter, Mrs. L. R. McBride, in Amarillo, died there Saturday.

Interest Grows This Week As Voting Time Approaches

ALABAMAN TAKES TECH PRESIDENCY

Dr. Bradford Knapp, resigned Monday as the president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute of Auburn, Alabama, to accept the presidency of Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

Dr. Knapp's resignation is effective September 1.

Dr. Knapp's acceptance of the Texas post was sent to officials of that college at the same time as announcement of his resignation of Alabama Poly was made public.

Expressing the highest regard for Auburn in his announcement, Dr. Knapp said a number of his friends in Texas had asked him to accept the presidency of the Texas school.

Dr. Knapp conferred with the Texas school officials recently while on a visit to Oklahoma and Texas. He went to Auburn four years ago from Oklahoma where he was president of Oklahoma A. & M. College at Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Summer Fallow Produces Good Yield of Wheat

Evidence that summer fallowing of wheat land pays big dividends is contained in the report of J. B. McMinn and son, Perry, of the crop on their land one mile north of Summerfield. A number of people who visited the field and were able to compare it with others nearby asked that a report of its yield be printed, and Mr. McMinn brought it in Monday morning.

There were 50 acres in the summer fallowed field and the yield reached 30 to 35 bushels to the acre. No crop was raised on the land last year, but the soil was kept in good condition and stirred after each rain to save the moisture.

Other land just across the fence or in the same field that raised a crop last year and was again put in wheat for this year made such a poor yield that in ordinary years would not have been cut. This year it was done to save enough seed for replanting. Part of it was volunteer wheat last year, was stubble plowed last fall and put in wheat but did not grow enough wheat to cut.

Lewis Jay of Summerfield who combined the crop, cut some of the nearby crops because his machine was set up and running there, otherwise it would not have been done.

The summer fallowing was done by two methods, part of it by lister and the other part with a one-way plow, the latter making slightly the better yield.

Mr. McMinn says the summer-fallowed land is the only way to raise wheat, he is persuaded, and he is preparing other wheat land by summer fallowing this year. Even in good crop years the summer-tilled wheat makes more than the usual plant crop.

CANDIDATE PIE SUPPER AT WESTWAY TOMORROW

A candidate's pie supper is to be given at Westway school house Friday night, July 22, at 8:15. All candidates of the county are urged to be present. Each candidate will be given an opportunity to speak.

The proceeds will be used for improving the school house.

Mrs. J. E. Beyer, who has been visiting since last week with her daughter and family in Fort Worth, returned Tuesday morning, accompanied by her little granddaughter, Catherine Ione Hicks. Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, are driving through and will arrive here some time this week. He was issued his degree recently at the close of the summer session of the Baptist Theological Seminary.

Francis Hoyt, son of Leon L. Hoyt of Amarillo, was in Hereford on business Tuesday and was a guest in the home of Mrs. Beatrice Parker.

The North Hereford Demonstration club will meet with Mrs. Everett Paine, four miles north on 25-Mile Avenue, Tuesday, July 26. Miss Martin will meet with the club.

Election boards that will hold the Democratic Primary in Deaf Smith county next Saturday are making preparations to count the heaviest vote ever polled here. The greatest number of poll taxes on record were paid, 1771, and the exemptions and those over and under age at poll tax paying time last spring are expected to swell the total to more than 2,000 ballots.

The number of tax receipts at the several voting places in the county is given as follows, and may be of value to those who wish to check the full voting strength of the boxes after the election is over:

Hereford No. 1	401
Hereford No. 2	944
Roe, No. 3	81
Sims, No. 4	52
Union, No. 5	72
Ford, No. 6	53
Dawn, No. 7	45
Syndicate, No. 8	90
Bippus, No. 9	21
Daniel, No. 10	32

The polls will open at 8:00 and close at 7:00. Election judges are desirous that votes be cast as early as possible in the day, as the task of counting exceeds that of any year before, and the earlier the balloting is done, the sooner will the results of the election be determined. In the larger boxes, such as the two here in Hereford, both of which will be in the court house, a sufficient number of clerks will be used that counting can be done each hour, thus saving time at the end of the day and the larger part of the counting being finished when the polls close. Results of the count during the day will not be available, however, and can only be given out when the entire votes in the box have been counted.

Election results will be received at the Corner Drug Store, as announced in its advertisement this week. A large bulletin board will be erected facing Third Street on the south wall of the building, on which the counts for the various candidates will be posted as they are received. A loud speaker radio will be tuned in with Dallas to receive the announcements of state returns as they are broadcast.

The City Drug Store will also have a bulletin board and announcement service to give results as the various boxes are heard from.

It is given to the Brand to announce that those who have moved from one precinct to another in the county since securing their poll tax receipts last spring must return to their former precincts to vote. The only requirement of residence is given as one year in the state and six months in the county, length of residence in the voting precinct not being mentioned, and it is the opinion of the Hereford election judges that those who have moved since February 1 must go back to their former precinct voting places to cast their ballot.

The judges at each voting place will have the names of each registered voter eligible to vote, and if the person has a poll tax receipt issued for that precinct it will not be necessary to have the receipt to cast a ballot, the list of names furnished the election judges being sufficient guarantee of the authenticity of the vote.

Beside those who have paid poll taxes, there are many others entitled to vote by reason of reaching 21 years of age since January 1, 1931, or of being 60 or more years of age since January 1, 1931, the only requirement being to show that they have lived in the state one year and in the county six months. Also people 21 years of age or over who have moved into the state since January 1, 1931, have lived in this county six months and were qualified voters in the state from which they moved, are entitled to vote, upon making proper affidavit to the facts in the case.

Any person permanently disabled by being blind, deaf or dumb, or having suffered the loss of one hand or one foot, are entitled to vote if 21 years of age or over and have lived the proper length of time in the state and county.

Miss Grace Lucas of St. Jo was visiting her many friends in Hereford Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Wiltshire spent the week end in Clovis visiting his sister, Mrs. J. A. Neill.

M. M. Hardin of Clovis visited S. P. Rosson in Hereford Monday.

The luscious grass that has been growing on vacant lots over town since the rains of May and June, has caused a number of residents to stake out their cows, which is commendable and praiseworthy for several reasons; but the grazing season has lasted so long that some of the ropes have worn too thin and bossy has ranged at random among flower beds, over lawns and through shrubbery of other residents of the city, which is not so agreeable.

The trouble will get worse if it is not corrected, for what one person does another feels privileged to do, so the better way out is to get new ropes or keep the milk cows at home in their lots.

Raising a garden and canning surplus fruits and vegetables may seem like a foolish task at the present time with the prices of canned goods as cheap as they are, many people are contending that canned goods may be purchased cheaper than stuff can be grown and put up. The fallacy of such argument is that the price will be higher next winter when they would go to buy it to eat, and by that time it might be still harder to get the actual cash to make the purchase. Right now folks have a lot of time that isn't worth much of anything and it can be used to the very best advantage in caring for food for the coming cold weather. There are going to be folks to be fed next winter, and idle time right now can be turned into healthy food for their need.

Those who are growing and preserving things to eat for a day of need are responding nobly to the welfare workers call to them to grow some extra plants to can for charity, but it is a job for all of us to consider, and help in every way we can.

It isn't too late to sow some things for fall canning.

The mayor's proclamation of last week citing us to clean up our city was timely and justifiable. Did you ever see so many flies in the Panhandle in all your life? Every place we visit the same condition seems to exist. Nobody but

If we don't keep the premises of our homes cleaned up better we are laying ourselves open to a worse infestation of flies, along with the danger of contagious disease carried and propagated by them and the conditions in which they thrive. Cleaning up means a great deal more than removing unsightly weeds and rubbish—it means sanitary living conditions that promote health, vitality and happiness.

Cow lots, pig pens, chicken yards and rubbish heaps are needful of careful attention during hot weather more than any other time of the year, from a health standpoint. We know it—this is just a reminder. Let's get busy and show our mayor and commissioners we will put over a clean-up program to make the town spotless and healthy.

Some one has kindly been sending the Brand to Pa Hinkle of the Amarillo radio station KGRS and he adds to his usual morning stories those from us. We used to send the Brand to Pa, but he

A LONG TIME AGO IN HEREFORD

(From Files of the Reporter of July 19, 1901)

Efforts to have a Christian College were progressing, mass meetings were being held and committees appointed. Rev. Randolph Clark had stated that the health-giving properties of this dry atmosphere, the excellence of our water, growth of our trees, garden produce and grain caused him to note the superior advantages of Hereford as a college town. The beautiful lake also came in for its share of praise.

A report of the wedding of W. T. Womble and Miss Eula McAteer, on Sunday, July 8, 1901, at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, which occurred at 8:30, Rev. F. T. Denson officiating.

Chas. C. Ferguson, one of Hereford's prominent young gentlemen, was in town over Sunday, the guest of his brother, Judge Ferguson.

W. B. Farmer of Granite, Oklahoma, had bought the Tom Cox ranch property about 10 miles east of town for a consideration of $2,700.

D. R. Gass & Son were advertising several nice jobs in Grade-A buggies they would sell for less than their value.

Sam Dunn had placed a new boat in the Tierra Blanco and was prepared to entertain his friends on fishing excursions.

W. B. Dameron of Castro county had let the contract for a six room residence. This was one of the finest residences in Hereford when completed, and Mr. Dameron was to move his family here to make their home.

A party of Hereford's elite unexpectedly swooped down upon the inmates of the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Farmer. Notwithstanding the fact that company was unexpected, the host and hostess proved themselves equal to the emergency and entertained their guests royally.

(From the Files of The Brand of July 18, 1913.)

Captain Luke J. Carraway of Weatherford was here on his annual visit. He came to the "Rooftop Garden of Texas" once a year, and always chose the season when the climate of the Plains was worth 100 cents on the dollar.

Mrs. J. E. Garrison had attended the Baptist Women Mission Society annual meeting in Plainview.

The Water Carnival had been a great success, with visitors from many states and Texas towns present. They saw the wonders of irrigation. It was estimated that about 2,000 people saw the big wells in operation.

The Brand was giving free copies of the Carnival and Irrigation Edition, and urged each visitor to get all he wanted.

"Doug" Fox of Mangum, Oklahoma, had been attracted back to Hereford on account of the Water Carnival and its many visitors.

Hereford Electric Light and Power Company ran an ad for their customers to take notice that the current would be on Tuesday and Friday mornings.

Thelma Tynes entertained 22 of her little friends. Ice cream and cake were served. Red carnations were given as favors.

A number of the members of the Christian church had gone to work and put in most of the windows of their new church building.

kept talking so much about local controversies and expressing his opinion of our affairs down here that such a turmoil was raised about people outside our community discussing publicly things of local importance, I have not sent the paper to Pa for a long time.

Everyone enjoys his kindly philosophy and his loveable disposition as he recounts happenings that occur over the Panhandle and in the daily press dispatches. Our readers are advised there is no connection whatsoever between the Brand and the radio broadcast, Pa Hinkle just reads from our paper as he does from all others and his quaint philosophical comments are strictly his own. Sometimes I agree with him and sometimes I do not—just as he does with what he reads, from the Brand.

I received a warm letter from a good friend of mine over my prohibition comments of several weeks ago, taking me to task for publishing such an erroneous presentation of prohibition enforcement as it is practiced far and wide over the country. The letter came from a long way off, but the writer was familiar with local conditions.

In answer to that and many other criticisms I encounter, I can truthfully say that what I write is an attempt to see and bring to pass an outlook for the cleanest, finest and most upright things life can offer those about me, and when I cease to do that I am not fit to be here. I accept as my task while in my present work to stand foursquare and decent for whatever will lead to better conditions in moral, spiritual and physical living conditions and I cannot excuse for one moment a selfish, radical viewpoint that can see but one thing, no matter what detriment it may be to the lives of others.

I had the good fortune during the past two week ends to visit on the North Plains, and I found there a great appreciation of the candidacy of Jimmy Witherspoon in his race for district attorney. Old friends I have known in years gone by came to me and expressed their opinion and asked if I agreed with mine, which I was glad to confirm. With indications as they are up there and the support he will receive in this end of the district, it surely looks like Jimmy will be our next district attorney. Let's all turn out and do the job right.

You never saw before an opportunity to get a subscription to the Hereford Brand absolutely free, but it is explained elsewhere in the paper this week. Every merchant who has an advertisement in the paper enables you to get a free subscription to the Brand when you trade with him.

Now you won't have to wait till your grain is threshed or your row crop harvested. When you buy groceries, hardware, dry goods, drugs or machinery, you will be entitled to receive the Brand six months for $5.00 in trade or a full year free for $10.00 in trade, by buying from your merchant during the week he advertises in the Brand.

Look for the placard in his place of business.

Well, things will steady down some in politics after Saturday and in several races the contention will just begin to get well started. The hardest work of all will be done these last few days and the "foxy" ones will proceed to get in their licks with last minute stories of what is wrong with their opponents, which they blithely tell as the truth to gullible listeners. The opponent, not knowing the story and with no chance to refute it, feels the impact of the terrific blow when the votes are counted, but it is too late then.

Beware of the last minute electioneering, gossip. Vote your own vote, it is yours, you violate right as an American citizen, and as such it is only just that you spend it for the best interests of your government, whether precinct, county, district or state.

According to press dispatches, 527 candidates are seeking state and district offices, subject to the will of the voters next Saturday. Added to this, of course, are the thousands who are in the races for local offices in the 254 Texas counties. The campaign is figured to be one of the most extensive ever held in Texas.

One of the amusing things incident to the elections is the manner in which some of the candidates hope to get elected. Every conceivable device is being worked to sway the voters. Attempts have been made to create issues where there are no issues. The depression has served as an excuse for a volume of oratory that is meaningless and has no bearing on the duties of the office being sought after.

For instance, a candidate for some county office may speak at length about the iniquities of Wall Street bankers, the soldier's bonus currency inflation, or whatnot; where as, if he were so inclined and so equipped, he might give a concrete plan for reducing expenses of the office he seeks, or perhaps outline a comprehensive plan for improving the efficiency of the office.

Many candidates running for state offices are emphasizing their stand on national prohibition. Yet national prohibition has no connection with the duties of a state office. If any change is made in the Eighteenth Amendment it must originate in the Congress and pass that body by a two-thirds vote of both houses before further action can be taken. Then it must be submitted to the state legislature or state conventions for a three-fourths majority vote before it can be ratified. Many people prefer the convention method, which is looked upon favorably by congressmen. If Congress decides to submit the question of repeal to the states, the chances are that conventions will pass on the proposition. In that event not even the state legislatures will have a hand in settling the prohibition question.

In the elections next Saturday a way has been provided for Democrats to express their attitude on prohibition. While the result can hardly be called an accurate test, it is nevertheless desirable that all qualified voters, where possible, go to the polls and declare themselves on this most perplexing problem.

In the meantime let us hope hungry office seekers and thirsty politicians will quit trying to befuddle the public mind with false issues that befog and make complicated the orderly processes of government.

John Lucas and family were over from Plainview Sunday visiting in the home of his brother, F. L. Lucas. Mr. Lucas is Santa Fe agent at Plainview.

Mrs. H. R. Frita and two daughters, Nina Lee and Henrietta, returned Sunday from St. Louis, where they have been for the past several weeks visiting in the home of her mother.

A Closing Statement

As the campaign draws to a close, I wish to thank the people for their many kindly expressions of interest and co-operation. My campaign has been conducted entirely above personalities, no word of criticism for my opponent having fallen from my lips, but on the other hand, I have held him up to the people as "A Fine Young Man". Some rather bitter criticism of me has been put out in various parts of the district, but I believe the people whom I know, and with whom I have worked will interpret these matters in the light of a heated campaign. The rumor persists, however, that some "last minute dope" will be put out, too late to be answered. I am sure the people believe that every man should have the opportunity to defend himself, and let it be said now, that any such political dope could be fully and satisfactorily answered if the opportunity were afforded.

I have endeavored to give to the people of this district, a program of sane, fair, economical but vigorous law-enforcement, and I have every reason to believe that the people will put their approval upon such a program in the elections of next Saturday.

With the most kindly feeling to all, I am pleased to remain,

Sincerely,

A CITY-WIDE

DOLLAR DAY

FOR TWO BIG DAYS

Friday and Saturday, July 29 and 30

Hereford merchants will combine with the Brand in giving this community the most comprehensive DOLLAR DAYS of its history. Bargains galore in every line of merchandise for sale in Hereford will be sold at the lowest prices ever known. A visit to the respective stores will convince you.

YOUR DOLLARS COME BACK—Every dollar spent in Hereford comes back to the spender with interest, figuratively speaking. There is no wiser use of money. In the first place, we are assured of getting the best goods and service. In the next place, we are making an investment with the same cash.

Buying from Hereford stores, we are helping to build up Hereford. This means larger stores, larger assortments of stock and better services to the community. Visitors usually judge a town by the size and appearance of its business district. The storekeepers' ability to make a good impression in this respect depends on the local patronage accorded.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Deaf Smith County, Texas, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon R. C. Sellars, whose residence is unknown, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, to be held at the court house thereof, in the City of Hereford, on the first Monday in August, 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 29th day of June, 1932, the file number of which is 1909, and in which said suit Mamie Sellars is plaintiff and R. C. Sellars is defendant; and the cause of action alleged in said petition is for divorce, and the allegations thereof are in substance as follows:

That said plaintiff and said defendant were duly and legally married in Dickens County, Texas, on January 25th, 1911, and lived together as husband and wife until June 21st, 1929, at which time defendant voluntarily left and abandoned plaintiff at Spur, Texas, with the intention of finally separating and living apart from her, and has continued to do so since said date, and that plaintiff in no way caused defendant to so abandon and desert her, and in no way consented to the same, and plaintiff has not seen or heard of the whereabouts of defendant since the said 21st day of June, 1929, and has been forced to support herself since said date.

That plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident, inhabitant and citizen of the State of Texas and of Deaf Smith County for a period of 12 months next preceding the filing of said petition for divorce, and because of the abandonment which has endured over three years, plaintiff prays for a divorce and judgment dissolving the marriage between plaintiff and defendant.
 You are commanded to so summon such defendant and to serve this citation by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return date hereof in some newspaper published in your county; but, if there be no newspaper published in said county, then in any newspaper published in the nearest County where a newspaper is published.
 Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the first day of the next regular term of said court, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed same.
 Witness L. H. Foster, Clerk of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas.

 Given under my hand and seal of said Court in the City of Hereford, Deaf Smith County, Texas, on this the 20th day of June, 1932.
 (Seal) L. H. FOSTER, Clerk, District Court, Deaf Smith County, Texas.
 By Effie Rutherford, Deputy.
 Issued on this the 29th day of June, 1932, by L. H. FOSTER, Clerk of District Court, Deaf Smith County, Texas.
 By Effie Rutherford, Deputy. 25-4

Seen On the Screen at the Star

Departing from his regular schedule of show days of the week, Manager J. C. Parker presents tonight and tomorrow an extremely fast comedy, "Is My Face Red?", that features a galaxy of the best stars of the funny characterizations.
 Saturday's matinee and night performances will bring an old favorite in a thrill-packed western mystery story, "Range Feud," with Buck Jones in the leading role, supported by John Wayne, hero of "The Big Train," and Susan Fleming.
 Sunday afternoon's matinees at 2:00 and 4:00 will be the only presentations of the comedy, "Impatient Maiden", to which every one, old and young, big and little will be admitted for 10 cents. The picture will be shown on that day only, Lew Ayres and Mays Clarke having the principal parts.

 Monday and Tuesday evening will bring a dramatic story played here under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society, its title being "Forgotten Commandments", glorified episodes from the epic story The Ten Commandments.
 The one-cent special feature for next week will come Wednesday and Thursday, as usual, and will be played by Robert Montgomery in "But the Flesh Is Weak."

LIME AND SODA ASH DEPOSITS REMOVED FROM CITY BY SANTA FE

A big steam shovel is being used this week by the Santa Fe railroad to remove lime and soda deposits from the pit near its water tower. This is an accumulation of material extracted from the water to prevent injury to the engine boilers. The deposit is excellent for use as fertilizer, but no one has asked for it, the Santa Fe is hauling the material out of town and dumping it along the right of way hills west of Hereford.

VOTE FOR MACK BEACH FOR Tax Assessor

To My Friends and Voters of Deaf Smith County:

I will go into the Primary without an opponent, but just the same I am anxious to receive a representative vote of the citizens of Deaf Smith County.

I want every voter to know his vote will be just as much appreciated as if my race were a spirited contest.

I have sincerely tried to serve the people to the best of my ability. I will appreciate your vote as an expression of confidence, and shall continue to be faithful to the trust imposed in me by the citizens of Deaf Smith County.

MACK BEACH Tax Assessor Deaf Smith County

To The Voters

OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY

I am employed as a City Officer, and my hours for work are from 5:00 in the afternoon until 5:00 in the morning, and after I am off duty I must find a little time for sleep. I have been handicapped in this way, which has made it impossible to make a complete canvass of the county in behalf of my candidacy for Sheriff and Tax Collector.

I think that I have had enough experience as a peace officer to fully qualify me to hold this position for which I ask. It is my ambition to serve you in such capacity for the next two years. I will not be over-zealous nor backward in the discharge of my duties as such officer, and if elected will do my very best to properly discharge the duties of the office.

I am using this method of appealing to you, and will greatly appreciate your consideration, vote and support.

I am, very truly,

A. B. MARTIN

The Man For the Place

MR. MARTIN of Plainview, is offering himself as a candidate for the position of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, located at Amarillo; which position he now holds by appointment without opposition.

This court has appellate jurisdiction of all civil cases appealed from practically all of the Panhandle, including Deaf Smith County; and it is important that we have the best men obtainable for judges.

MR. MARTIN is an educated man. He had 25 years experience in the practice of law in West Texas, and has been for more than three years on the appellate bench at Austin.

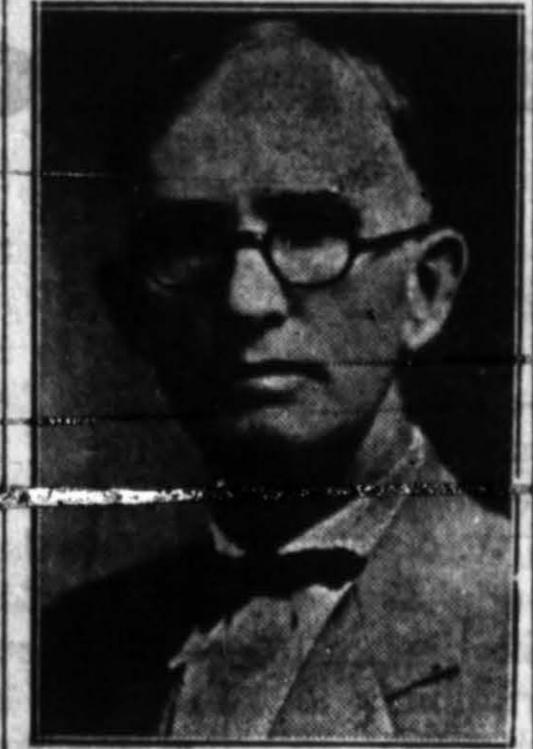

He has a Judicial temperament; and realizes the importance of the office he seeks.

For this position a man should be qualified by education and training; and above all willing to do the hard work on, and give careful consideration to all cases coming before the court. Mr. Martin has these qualifications, and especially do we believe that he will do the work and give the cases the consideration to the highest degree necessary that they may be decided according to the justice and law applicable to the case.

We, the undersigned citizens of Deaf Smith County and Hereford, do not hesitate to recommend Mr. Martin for this office. Many of us have known him personally and intimately for years, and we believe that there are few men, in age, fitness and experience so well qualified for the place as he.

Respectfully,

Call for Republican County Convention of Deaf Smith County, Texas, July 30, 1932.

Hereford, Texas, July 12, 1932 To the Republican Voters of Deaf Smith County, Texas:

Pursuant to law, in compliance with the instructions of the Republican State Executive Committee of and for the State of Texas, including the call for the Republican State Convention of August 9, 1932, and by instruction of the Republican Executive Committee of Deaf Smith County, a delegated convention of the Republican voters of Deaf Smith county is hereby called to meet in the city of Hereford, in said county, at 3:00 p. m. on the 30th day of July, A. D. 1932, at the following described location: Deaf Smith County court room, Hereford, Texas.

The purposes of this convention are:

(1) To elect the number of delegates to the Republican State Convention to be held in Dallas, Texas, August 9, 1932 (which convention nominates a state ticket, adopts a platform and elects a State Chairman and 31 members of the State Executive Committee), to which this county is entitled under the terms of the Call for said State Convention.

(2) To elect the same number of delegates and alternate delegates to the Republican District Convention of each District of which this County is a part.

(3) To nominate Republican candidates for County Offices.

(4) To canvass the votes cast in the various precincts of this county for Republican County Chairman and to ratify and declare the election of the person elected.

(5) To transact such other business as may properly come before said County Convention.

Each voting precinct shall be entitled in the convention hereby called to one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate for each twenty-five (25) votes, or major fractions thereof, cast in said precinct for the Republican candidate for Governor, in said precinct, in the general election of November 4, 1930, provided that each precinct in which a legal precinct convention is held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1932, shall be entitled to at least one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate in the county convention.

All citizens who are qualified voters as aforesaid, regardless of past political affiliations, who believe in the principles of the Republican party and who will support its nominees in good faith, are eligible and cordially invited to participate in the Republican precinct conventions.

The following chairmen are hereby authorized to give reports of their respective voting precincts: Voting Precinct No. 1, Clay Bowsher, Hereford, Texas; No. 2, N. C. Vogeles, Hereford, Texas; No. 3, Bennie Fulkerson, Hereford, Texas.

Precinct Chairmen will be notified by letter of any changes, errors or omissions in the foregoing list and corrections thereto will be published before the day on which said precinct conventions are to be held.

All credentials of delegates from precincts must be in writing and must be placed in the hands of the Republican County Chairman of this county on or before the 29th day of July, A. D. 1932, by the precinct chairman.

A meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee of Deaf Smith county will be held, and is hereby called to meet at 10 a. m. on the 30th day of July, A. D. 1932, at the same place at which the County Convention is called to meet at a later hour. The purposes of said meeting are:

1. To hear any and all contests for seats in county convention that may be properly filed.
2. To prepare the Temporary Roll of said convention.
3. To choose persons to be recommended to said convention for temporary officers.
4. To canvass the votes cast in the various precincts for Republican County Chairman.
5. To transact any such other

Church of Christ Calls Pastor of Recent Revival

Closing with baptismal services Monday forenoon of this week, the series of meetings of the Church of Christ, under the leadership of Evangelist E. O. McKinzie, in the district court room, resulted in the addition of a liberal number of persons to the membership.

Attendance increased throughout the 12 days of the meetings, and approximate capacity audiences were present Sunday afternoon and evening. Elder Roy Clark, singing evangelist, was in the leadership of the song service and did much personal work while in Hereford.

Special call was issued by the eldership for a meeting Sunday afternoon at the close of which Evangelist McKinzie was invited to come to Hereford as the minister of the Church of Christ for the ensuing year, beginning at the close of his present schedule of revival meetings. The minister was called in and informed of the action of the congregation, and graciously thanked the officers and membership for the endorsement implied by the unanimous call to the local pulpit. He informed those present that within a limited time he will give definite answer on their proposition.

Monday afternoon, accompanied by a party of Hereford friends, Mr. McKinzie went to Clovis responsive to an invitation from the officers of the Church of Christ and delivered an address. He has been asked to consider the leadership of the Clovis church. Tuesday evening the minister stopped in Canyon for a visit with the officers of the Church of Christ, having been invited to consider the work at that point. Immediately following the close of the meeting at Canyon, Mr. McKinzie and his family left for their home at Tyler.

Evangelist Clark and family left Tuesday morning for Littlefield where they will be guests of relatives and friends before continuing the work in the field. Both the ministers and their families have made many friends in Hereford and surrounding territory during their stay and labors in this community.

Again demonstrating its ability to give its people more and better service as a news agency and advertising medium it is now possible for its readers to obtain

The Hereford Brand Free!

Read Every Word

There is not and never has been in Deaf Smith County, a more satisfactory, unbiased and fearless advocate of community welfare than The Hereford Brand, working in the interest of those who live here and are responsible for the good measures of public improvements we all enjoy—churches, schools, highways, parks, extension service, library, health service, clean athletics, amusements—all looking toward the benefits of those who make their homes here. The Brand is the most unselfish agency attempting to bring to pass those better things civilization has been striving for since the beginning of time.

Paper, Reader, Merchant Plan—

By a three-way plan it has been made possible for those who do not now receive the Brand regularly in their homes, to have it every week. By trading with the merchants who advertise in the Brand on the weeks their advertising appears, readers may secure free paid-up subscriptions by virtue of the merchant's assistance. By trading $5.00 worth with Brand advertisers the reader will, upon having the account verified, be given a six-months free subscription, and for trading $10.00, a full year's subscription will be given. The merchant will, when asked, give proper identification, which when brought to the Brand, will immediately be credited for the amount of subscription. No one may receive more than one year's subscription, for the plan is not permanent; nor may present readers renew their subscriptions by trading privileges until their time is out, although they may do so afterwards.

The family treasure house of the news and happenings of Deaf Smith and adjoining counties, with all their intermediate schools and communities' affairs, are thus brought to the doors of citizens of Hereford's trade territory. Inasmuch as the plan is devised to benefit local surroundings, to which The Brand has always devoted its most unselfish interest, the Merchandising Subscriptions will not be credited to people living more than 50 miles from Hereford.

Placards will be placed in the store of each merchant entitled to participate in the plan—where you see it, take advantage of it.

GOVERNOR ROSS STERLING ENDORSES W. T. C. C. PLAN OF BUDGET EXPENDITURES

Strong and unqualified endorsement of its tax reduction program has been received by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from Governor Ross Sterling. In his letter to officials of the organization the Governor says:

"Please allow me to congratulate you and as Governor of this state, to thank you for the unselfish, effective and badly needed work you are doing to bring about reduction of public expenditures, and ultimately through such a program, reduction in the burden of taxation."

"On numerous occasions I have been in contact with the work of the W. T. C. C. and the various committees relative to the reduction of public expenditures. The Sweetwater convention I am impressed with the construction of your plans, and in two public meetings held recently I believe you contribute much to the economical government in the State of Texas. Frankly, I am impressed with your program because it is based upon interest of the citizens of Texas in the methods, the procedures and the expenditures of government rather than in politics."

"I approve heartily your three objectives, namely, budgeting, administrative reorganization of the state, and home rule counties. Nothing would give me more pleasure as Governor of the State than to see during my administration a complete reorganization of the State administrative and judicial functions. There is no doubt that we have let grow in our state a vast number of separate boards, bureaus, etc., many of which can be consolidated and eliminated, but which cannot be done unless the organic law of the state is changed. A thorough going reorganization of the state administrative and judicial functions should save the tax payers several millions annually, while at the same time improve our administrative machinery. In my opinion, even greater savings to the tax payers can be brought about by some sort of a home rule measure for counties, permitting counties to have more latitude in deciding for themselves the officers to be elected, salaries to be paid, consolidation of city and county government, etc."

"These progressive and beneficial changes, of course, cannot be brought about unless there is a public sentiment for them sufficient to change the organic law of the state. It is for this reason that I commend the work of the West Texas committees and pledge myself to assist in every way possible to develop a public sentiment sufficiently strong to make effective this constructive program."

Commenting on the Governor's letter Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the W. T. C. C., said:

"It is gratifying to know that the state's chief executive appreciates the fact that our organization is endeavoring to get the matter down to brass tacks in the matter of state, school and municipal taxes. By lending 100 per cent cooperation, as he has offered, it looks like our program should go through overwhelmingly. I am delighted at the Governor's attitude, and feel that his support means a huge stride forward toward real economy."

Home Demonstration News

LULA MAE MARTIN, AGENT.

Saturday closed the wardrobe work for girls for this year. Two demonstrators and 14 cooperators entered the pajama contest. Most of the pajamas were of good quality of workmanship and very nice color combinations. Two kinds of seams were used, French seams on the blouse and flat-felled on the trousers.

The winners in the demonstrators contest were Vivian Bowers, of Dawn, first; Inez Miller, Dawn, second. In the cooperators contest, Adeline Koelzer won first, Gertrude Koelzer, second, both of the Good Workers club; Lily Moy Sikes, Westway, third place, and Avis Mathews, Good Workers club, honorable mention.

Vivian Bowers and Adeline Koelzer, first place winners, were awarded trips to the Short Course at College Station, July 25-29.

The County Home Demonstration Council met Saturday in its regular meeting at 3 o'clock. Business was discussed until 3:30, and at that time Miss Hostetter gave a very interesting talk on marketing.

Tuesday the agent goes to Ford for a meeting on marketing. The club meets with Mrs. Wiseman.

Friday the West Hereford club has its regular meeting.

Saturday the agent will be in the office.

From July 24-31 the agent will be attending the Short Course.

School Plaque Honors Highest Point Student

By SUPT. C. H. DILLEHAY

This week there is on exhibition in the show window of the Streun Hardware Company the honor shield and one of the medals awarded at the close of school to the highest five per cent of the high school students.

Points are awarded on scholarship and on participation in the various student activities, such as debating, Interscholastic League work, athletics, music, library work, school club work, etc. For example, an "A" on a semester average in any subject counts 15 points, while a football letter man may receive up to 20 points, depending upon his attitude, cooperation, etc. The maximum number permitted for each student activity is provided by faculty regulation, the exact number being determined by the recommendation of the teacher in charge.

During the past year provision was made for awarding medals to the five per cent of the students making the highest number of points, while the student making the highest of all had his name placed on the honor shield. The next five per cent are entitled to honorable mention.

The plan was begun during the first semester last year and will probably undergo some changes from time to time. More interest is expected each year. It is hoped that it will induce some students to endeavor to get a proper balance between attention to their studies and worth while extracurricular activities as the intention is to foster a well rounded program for each boy or girl.

Conduct is also a factor to be considered since points are given for good school citizenship and are day nights. Tickets may be bought at the City Drug Store.

THE DELIVERANCE AT THE RED SEA

Exodus 14:10-16, 21, 22.

Ex. 14:10. And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were sore afraid; and the children of Israel cried out unto Jehovah.

11. And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefrom hast thou dealt thus with us, to bring us forth out of Egypt?

12. Is not this the word that we spake unto thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians? For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.

13. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will work for you today:

for the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them no more for ever.

14. Jehovah will fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15. And Jehovah said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward.

16. And lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground.

21. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and Jehovah caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

22. And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

Golden Text: Jehovah is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation.—Exodus 15:2.

Time: B. C. 1488.
Place: Smooth, in northeastern Egypt. The northern extension of the Gulf of Suez to the Bitter Lakes.

Introduction.
"The most importance of the Exodus in the history of Israel can hardly be exaggerated. . . The prophets made the obligation to worship Jehovah, and to serve no other god, to depend upon the fact that he delivered his people from Egypt. It was for this reason Israel believed itself to be a chosen people, separated by Divine interposition from all nations of the earth. The Exodus is, in short, the pivot on which the whole history of Israel turns."

Last Sunday we studied the first chapter in that great experience, the consent of Pharaoh that Israel might depart from Egypt. We also saw with what solemnity, reverence and faith the Israelites prepared for the journey. For the rest of this quarter we shall follow them as they make their way toward the promised land, studying their journey which brought them across the Red Sea.

Disappointment and Fear.
In all probability when the Israelites started on their march they visualized on their march the journey along the short route to their promised land. And when they were getting well on their way, orders were given that they turn toward the south and El-hahiroth they were greatly disappointed. Their spirits would be revived by the presence of the pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night, assuring them of the presence of Jehovah. But after they had encamped by the sea and saw the Egyptian army coming in the distance, hope died and they were sore afraid, for they were hemmed in on every side. The army came "approaching from the north, eastward was the sea; to the west and south rose mountains" (Eldersheim). Destruction seemed inevitable. "They were brought to a place where there is no conceivable way of deliverance but by the power of God. If Israel had gone the other way, which was so simple and natural, it would have given room for the belief that their deliverance was chiefly by the power of their own will and courage rather than by the outstretched arm of the Almighty."

Faith and Obedience.
On his part Moses saw the difficulty, but he also believed in God. He said to the people, "Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will work for you today." That was not a perfect faith, nor a perfect understanding of the will of God, but it was genuine. Moses seems also to have been greatly perplexed concerning the way out. He cried unto God. We do not know his words, but we do know the Lord's answer. He said, "Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward." It sounds like a rebuke of the perturbation of Moses; his faith seemed unsteady and uncertain. He had said to the Israelites, "Fear ye not;" God in turn said to him, "Why criest thou?" He had said to Israel, "Stand still and see the salvation of Jehovah;" God said to him, "Command the children of Israel, that they go forward." It was not a perfect faith, but it led to God and depended on God to show where he could not see; it was ready to obey. Therein was the strength of Moses' leadership and of ours—the reference of all difficulties to God and the willingness to follow his guidance.

Why the Long Route from Goshen to Canaan.
A mere glance at any map of the ancient East prompts this question. It is such a short journey—and was even in that day of slow journeying—from the land of Goshen, or from the Nile, across the Isthmus of Suez to Southern Palestine, and travel along the coast by the ordinary route was simple, that from the earliest times Bible readers have been perplexed at the drag and circuitousness of the pilgrimage to Canaan.

God's reasons and ways and man's are rather frequently not identical. It is important to remember this. By the overthrow of the Egyptians in the Red Sea God would get to himself honor; that is, he would use the intervention to vindicate his honor (14:4). But beyond that he saw that the Hebrews must be prepared for the difficult winning of the land he had promised them and for the life that he would have them lead there; toughened in body and spirit and trained in religious practices. The years of bondage had enervated and abated these Hebrew folks—they needed "bracing up."

The Pillar of Cloud and of Fire.
Cloud and fire are common biblical symbols of the divine presence. Moses had even received his call from out the flame of a blazing bush (cp. Isa. 4:5; 19:1; Neh. 9:12; Ps. 99:7; 105:39). From a study of the various passages where this figure is used we see that the fiery cloud represents not only the guiding, but also the protecting and speaking presence of God.

We have here likewise a picture of God's leading of us, in that the beacon was dim only a pillar of smoke in the daytime; but in the dark a bar of fire. For in the night hour of trouble and sorrow we have the greater need of his Presence going on before. Two of our most prized Christian hymns have received their inspiration from this moving beacon of the Exodus: "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The Sea Becomes Dry Land.
The opening stage of the miracle of deliverance was the removal of the mysterious pillar of cloud and fire from before the Israelites, where it had been leading them, to the rear of the Hebrew camp, where it stood as a protection between them and their foes. To the Egyptians, it was a pillar of darkness, hiding the Hebrews; to the latter, it shone as a pillar of light, illuminating their camp and filling it with a sense of cheer and of God's presence and protection.

"And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground." Their act in face of the possibility of the return of the waters at any time, was a manifestation of faith such as nearly equalled the faith of Moses, who was God's agent in working the miracle. "And the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left." Those that rely solely on natural means, the strong wind, for the accomplishment of the wonder, regard "wall" here as signifying merely "protection"; but the sacred writer seems to report perpendicular walls of water, "The floods stood upright as a heap" (Ex. 15:8). Granting the miracle, there is no need to lessen it by gratuitous assumptions.

Egyptians Are Overwhelmed.
"And now comes in irresistible force the hour of vengeance. The Israelites being safe on the Arabian shore, the Egyptians press on in furious haste. Whether or not they were aware that they were entering the sea until it was too late for retreat we know not. The pillar of cloud envelops their foremost ranks, and they rush on, as it were, blindfolded. They are expecting to overtake the fugitives, but though they urge on their horses with lash and spur, they do not come up with them. The darkness grows more intense, only broken by lightnings from the pillar of cloud. The flashes reveal to them the oozy bottom of the sea and monstrous hills of water threatening to overwhelm them. Fear seizes hearts hitherto so stout and reckless, and they begin to feel that it is a desperate venture which they have made. Their consternation is heightened by terrific manifestations. Tempest, lightning and thunder, the rushing hurricane and the roaring sea, whatever is most appalling in elemental strife, combine to dismay the pursuers. They turn to flee. But it is too late. Their doom has been spoken. Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea . . . and the waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh. There remained not so much as one of them!"—Bishop Alfred Lee.

Gaston Baer, owner of the Popular Store, spent Sunday with his family in making a trip to Sayre, Oklahoma, where they met relatives, who returned to Hereford with them, Mrs. Sam Bravo and son of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. L. Goldberg, mother of Mrs. Baer, who has been visiting them there.

Man Lost 26 Pounds Looks 100% Better

Feels Stronger Than Ever
Just to prove to any doubtful man or woman that Kruschen Salts is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mr. F. J. Fritz of Cincinnati, Ohio, recently received.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the results from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100 per cent better."

Bear in mind, you fat man, that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at City Drug Store or any drug-store in the world. —adv

MELLOWED SINCLAIR MOTOR OILS . . . From Mid-continent's oldest crude or Pennsylvania's costliest crude . . .

WE don't presume to tell you which motor oil gives you best results—Mid-continent or Pennsylvania. But we can prove to you that in these two classes Sinclair Motor Oils are the finest that Nature and science together have produced.

Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil is refined from crude oils, mellowed and filtered for at least 80 million years; it is a blend of the very oldest Mid-continent crudes, including the famous Cambro-Ordovician crude taken from a mile and a quarter below the surface in Oklahoma.

Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil is a product of the Devonian Age of a hundred million years ago. Sinclair Pennsylvania is refined 100% from Bradford-Alleghany crude oil—a crude so rich in lubricating quality that every barrel commands an extra price. (See crude oil prices in any petroleum journal.)

Both of these splendid motor oils undergo a special treatment in the Sinclair refineries. Sinclair Opaline and Sinclair Pennsylvania are not only de-waxed—they are also freed from heavy, sluggish, non-lubricating petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero. Containing no petroleum jelly, the lubricating body of Sinclair Motor Oils is absolutely genuine and will not thin out in engine heat.

Experience will tell you quickly why Sinclair Opaline and Sinclair Pennsylvania are the finest in their respective classes. Note how these oils stand up in hard, fast driving. Note especially at draining time how little oil has been used up—positive, visible proof of protection for the last mile as well as the first!

To the Voters of Deaf Smith County I have tried to see you all personally. If I have overlooked anyone it was not intentional. I certainly will appreciate every vote you give me. I am doing my best to get enough votes to put me in the second primary, and I want your help. I want to be your next sheriff as bad, or worse, than I did when the race started. HERE'S HOPING J. 10 Cents A Day If someone came to you and said: "For ten cents a day I will postpone old age, give you better health and more leisure," what would you say? "Yes," of course. Or, if you were inclined to be more skeptical, "rot," or something equally expressive. But we are prepared to promise that. Unnecessary manual work means fatigue. Continued over a period of time, it means impairment of health, which in turn, brings old age long before its time. If the end of the day finds you too tired to entertain, to read or do the things you wish to do, ask yourself, "What have I done today that electrical appliances could have done for me, or could have helped me to do?" There are many efficient electrical helpers for the home which not only lessen the physical effort required for almost every task, but cut down on the amount of time to do the work "in the old way". JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE! The primary election is rapidly approaching, and at this time we are thinking in terms of retrospection rather than anticipation. Most of us have made our little speeches, handed out our cards, pencils and other reminders, stressing the fact that we all want the offices to which a large number are aspiring. We all realize that Saturday's nightfall will reveal a long list of casualties. Our morale, however, during the closing days, has been kept up by the occasional words of cheer from our various friends. I feel that I have just cause, and do now, say to the people of Deaf Smith County, that I am truly grateful for the many, many favors extended me during the past, and in the event that this is my "swan song", I still shall have no reason to feel that you have broken faith with me, and will content myself with believing that, in your judgment, I had had the office long enough, or possibly that some of my opponents needed it more than I. Aside from striving to render a public service in an efficient manner, I am also trying to hold a job—the job that any of my opponents have the same right to ask for. I also realize that these are distressing times; that jobs are not as easily found as they once were, and I feel justified in making the effort to retain the position you have honored me with during the past five and one-half years. Without boasting, but with a reasonable degree of pride, I feel that, for the benefit of those who do not know me, the following bit of history will not be amiss right here: For thirteen years I have been working in the court house in Hereford in some capacity or another, and from the standpoint of time, at least, feel somewhat of a veteran. These years to me have been pleasant ones—the entire thirteen have passed, it seems, with greater rapidity than did the two years of horror and sacrifice just preceding them. Even before my uniform was laid aside I was given employment in the Tax Collector's office, and for those thirteen years were spent in the capacity of a deputy in that office. When "Uncle Joe" Ward, then County Treasurer, passed to his reward, his wife was appointed to fill out the unexpired term and I took care of that office for one year. In 1926 I was elected County and District Clerk, and on January 1, 1927, and thus, from May, 1915, down to the present time I have been dealing with the public in various ways. In referring to my service during the dark days of '17 and '18, it is not done with the intention of getting one single vote. In times of peril as in time of peace, we owe our country the best that we can give. We are not unmindful that many served, even though they did not wear a uniform, nor did they carry a gun. Our gratitude from the conflict was that a small service had been rendered humanity, and as proof that I at least did my best. I have my Honorable Discharge recorded in the records of this county, while the indelible recollections of all the unpleasantness that the soldier endures are stored away in the archives of memory as an undeveloped film in a camera that has been laid aside all covered with dust and other accumulations of time. What I am trying to say is this: I have every reason to be doubly thankful inasmuch as I stepped from a state of chaos and grim experience into an environment that has mellowed and softened those memories of the yesteryear. I ask your earnest consideration in the race for reelection to the office of County and District Clerk, first, on my qualifications; and, second, the problem of bread and shelter for human souls, confronts me as gravely as it does any of my opponents. L. H. FOSTER Candidate for re-election to the office of County and District Clerk, Deaf Smith County.

THE WHEAT WIREWORM AND CONTROL MEASURES

(By R. O. DUNKLE, County Agent)

The wheat wireworm (false wireworm) in recent years has caused much loss to wheat growers in the Panhandle. These insects, especially during the dry falls, eating the wheat kernels before they germinate, thus causing a very thin stand or even complete failure. By the cooperation of S. E. Jones, entomologist of the State Agricultural Experiment Station, through field investigation in Deaf Smith county for the past three years, some facts have been brought to light regarding the feeding habits of the worms and the per cent of damage. One of the best methods of preventing injury is not to plant wheat in dry soil. Wheat planted in moist soil, however, is more subject to smut damage and should always be treated with copper carbonate dust, each grain of wheat should be covered with a light film of the dust.

The damage of the worms is likely to be greatest in those fields cropped to wheat year after year. Since the worms migrate very slowly, damage can be greatly reduced by growing wheat in rotation with row crops and summer fallow. Early spring plowing or listing, which destroy the hibernating pupa, is advisable for wheat fields that have been blown out or killed.

Attends Short Course to Study Feeder Types

Despite the discontinuance of the office of the county agent in Deaf Smith by the commissioners court, Rockwell Bros. & Co. think enough of only one phase of the work to pay the expenses of John Olson, lumber yard manager here, to the Short Course at A. & M. College next week to study the construction of self feeders as they will be demonstrated at that time. The construction of self feeders and their adaptation to the needs of hogs, calves and sheep is very important knowledge to farmers and stockmen, according to Mr. Olson, and his visit to the A. & M. Short Course will give him an opportunity to study and familiarize himself with the various types and their uses that he may have a working knowledge of the feeders and be better able to advise farmers who come to him for assistance in building them.

R. O. Dunkle, county agent, whose period of service in Deaf Smith county ends July 30, emphasizes the use of the self feeders as the economical method of preparing stock for market. Tests and experiments at the college and on farms where they have been demonstrated, show that the feeders which permit the animals to feed at will and select the materials their instincts tell them are most needed, produce better gains in less time and at less expense than the hand feeding method. Ninety-five per cent of the hand labor is estimated to be eliminated by the self feeder method.

Mr. Dunkle, Mr. Olson and Minard Koelzer will leave the last of this week for College Station to attend the annual Short Course during next week. ROTATING CROPS WILL STOP FOOT ROT AND ELIMINATE WIRE DORM. R. O. Dunkle, county agent, is advocating a crop rotation plan for Deaf Smith county farming that will prevent or check some of the prevalent troubles of wheat and row crop production, and at the same time allow a period of fallowing the land for the preservation of moisture. The plan would have a different crop on the same piece of ground succeeding years, which would check the foot rot in wheat and the wire worm losses in row crops, as the chief difficulty experienced from either of them seems to come from a succession of the same crop. Mr. Dunkle suggests that land that grew wheat this year be plowed and kept tilled until row crop planting time next year, then in the fall of 1933, after the row crop is gathered, to keep it tilled until wheat planting time in the fall of 1934. In this way a rotation of crops would be effected, tending to prevent maladies destructive to best production and allowed time to conserve moisture between crops. The yield per acre made by wheat this year on land that was summer fallowed before planting last year, as compared with the almost total failure on land that raised a crop last year, has convinced more and more farmers that summer fallowing pays big dividends. Last year when all wheat crops were excellent, it was noted that the summer fallowed fields nearly doubled in production the fields farmed in the ordinary way, demonstrating that

Bessie L. Smith for

Although I do not have an opponent in the coming election, I want to express my appreciation of the many courtesies extended me by the voters of Deaf Smith county, and assure them I have and will labor as faithfully in their interest as I would have had I an opponent.

I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to be of service to the citizens of the county, and assure them I will do my best to make a capable and efficient officer should I be elected the coming term.

I will appreciate receiving the consideration and vote of everyone just as much as I would had there been some one running against me.

Very truly yours,

Bessie L. Smith

COUNTY TREASURER
