

Funeral Rites Held Yesterday Afternoon For Frank R. Stiver

AROUND TOWN

Sights and Faces Seen

Mrs. Francis Wilson has been appointed as evening chief operator at the telephone company, assuming her duties November 16. She will be assistant Mrs. Marie Sears. Mrs. Wilson plans to go to Colorado Sunday to spend a week or two on vacation with her husband, Dr. Kermit Wilson. Allie Hughes, who was evening chief operator prior to Mrs. Wilson's appointment, has been transferred to Pampa as an operator.

Sheriff Sam Hutson of Lamb County and Frank Cummins, district clerk in Lamb County, visited in Hereford Monday afternoon.

Re-wiring of the courthouse which was started about three months ago is expected to be finished by the end of this week, Ann Witherspoon says. The job includes most of the offices, a new service entrance and a new patrol board.

Mr. Bill Stubbs, FSA supervisor from Canyon visited the FSA offices Tuesday.

Hallowe'en this year must have been a dinger. The Brand has a report that a chair is sitting at the same place where a seat was recently located. The folks who have the chair are anxious that it be returned to its owner, so if you lost your chair Hallowe'en and haven't found it, come by the Brand office and we'll tell you where it is.

Signs of the season was the most unanimous downtown to get bills out yesterday before Thanksgiving. With the end of the month coming directly after a holiday when the business houses would be closed, bookkeepers were trying to get their work a day ahead of time.

Far, Walter G. Shadday, engineer for Parks-Bateson Construction Co., which is building the new postoffice, is the representative of the company to be sent out here. However, this is not his first experience with building post offices, as he has supervised construction of five of them before coming here.

Young Blades Gathered There For Gay Times 40 Years Ago

With wrecking of the old building occupied by Davis-McCracken before new quarters the company were completed another of the old landmarks Hereford is gone. The building was constructed in 1899 and was the second business structure in Hereford. E. Gass having built his store the year before. Smith, Walker and company were the occupants of the building. They ran a grain and general merchandise business and had a wagon yard in connection. That time Geo. Stambaugh a general store in the front where Stambaugh cleaners are now. John McKnight was manager for Smith-Walker Co. The store was popular there for several years thereafter as a gathering place for the young blades of that day. Boxing and wrestling matches took place frequently, and a newcomer to town was sure to be initiated in some undignified manner. C. Ferguson bought out Smith-Walker in 1901 and ran the business until 1906. Mr. Ferguson recalls that he sold grain and groceries over a territory. One time he sold a car of coal which were

Frank R. Stiver died at his home 11 miles northwest of Hereford Monday night at eleven o'clock after an illness of nearly two years. Services were conducted at 2:30 yesterday afternoon from E. B. Black Chapel with Rev. H. M. Redford, pastor of the First Christian Church in charge. Burial was in West Park Cemetery. He is survived by his widow, one son, Ralph; three brothers, Floyd Stiver, Mustang, Okla.; J. R. Stiver, Paterson, Wash.; and M. R. Stiver, Roscoe, Cal.; one sister, Mrs. J. F. Ibbotson; an uncle, T. E. Thornton, Cheyenne, Okla.; and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

Out of town relatives here to attend the funeral were Floyd Stiver, T. E. Thornton, and a niece, Mrs. Frank Frick.

Pallbearers for the funeral were Bill Nafziger, Joe Doerfler, Bill Hutson, Glenn Rutter, Fred Saltzman and Wesley Higgins.

Mr. Stiver was born in Kansas, August 12, 1881. He married Miss Winnie Batson in June, 1911, in Oklahoma. They moved to the Panhandle in 1918 and to Deaf Smith county in 1930.

He made a host of friends who mourn his passing and who join in extending sympathy and encouragement to his surviving relatives.

HEREFORD MEN ARE GUESTS OF AMARILLO CHAMBER COMMERCE

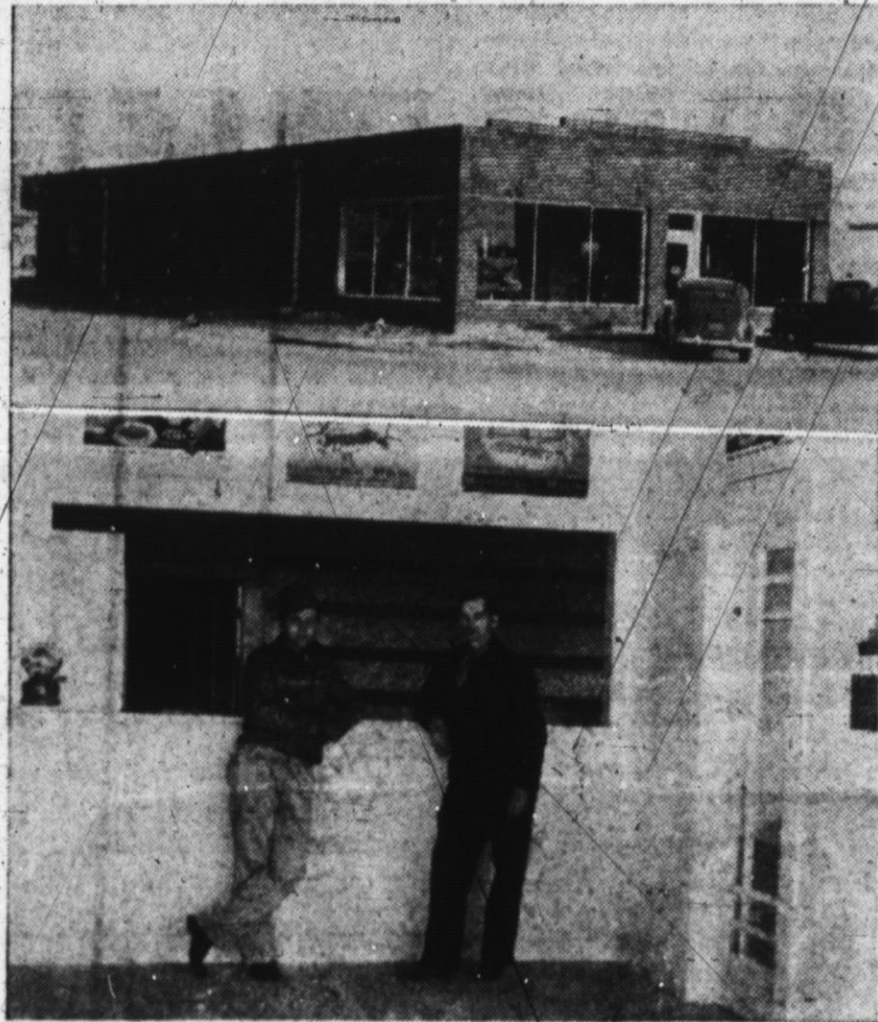

County Judge A. J. Schroeter, E. B. Posey, Chamber of Commerce Secretary, A. H. Streu, Dave Alexander, and George Muse were guests of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce last Friday night. In the discussion it was brought out that no city should be planned today without including airport space.

Myers To Lead Final Chorus Rehearsal

Emil F. Myers of Amarillo, who is to conduct the "Messiah" when it is presented here, will be in attendance at the last rehearsal next Monday night at 7:30. Hereford Civic Chorus will present Handel's famous oratorio at 3 p. m., December 10, at the Methodist Church.

Miss Mattie Mae Swisher says that anyone who has attended previous rehearsals this year and anyone who has sung in previous years is urgently invited to attend the final rehearsal.

New Home of Davis-McCracken

Cold Weather, Damp Winds Strike Hereford

Cold and cloudy weather brought Hereford its first moisture in several weeks yesterday and last night when a slow drizzle started falling. Temperatures skidded downward last Friday and low clouds drifted over Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday with the coldest weather of the week occurring Saturday night and Sunday and Monday. Wind has been blowing from the south most of the time.

Moisture in the form of snow or rain is badly needed over most of this territory, farmers report. While wheat crops have not been particularly damaged as yet, continued dry weather will stop any growth. Dry land wheat, especially, could use a good underground season now.

Finns To Hear About Hereford Potato Growing

A potato section of the Hereford Brand published week before last has been sent to Helsinki, Finland, by E. B. Posey, Chamber of Commerce secretary. He recently received a booklet from the Chamber of Commerce of Helsinki and mailed the potato section in return. The Chamber of Commerce is also in receipt of a letter from Frances Harvey, a former Texan who is now studying in Hereford, England. He requested information on the Hereford cattle industry in the United States. Mr. Posey states that he sent what information he had.

Schroeter Attends Water Authority Meet

Directors of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority said in Amarillo last Friday that Buffalo Lake near UMBERGER has not adversely affected flow of water in Tierra Blanca Creek, reports A. J. Schroeter, county judge, who attended the meeting. The Authority said that all the water caught in Buffalo Lake was stored when dams below the main dam were already full and water in the lake would otherwise have been wasted. The Authority also said that the drying up of springs feeding Tierra Blanca was seasonal.

Eva LeGallienne To Make Amarillo Stage Appearance Saturday

Eva LeGallienne, the world-famous Ibsen interpreter, is bringing an all-New York company to Amarillo next Saturday night, December 2, for a performance of "The Master Builder."

Miss LeGallienne's leading man will be Eric Larrimore, noted particularly for his portrayal of Eugene O'Neill roles on Broadway.

"The Master Builder" is the second of four productions sent on tour under the banner of the Legitimate Theatre Corporation of America. The Ibsen drama will be performed at the Municipal Auditorium with curtain time at 8 o'clock.

Mail orders should be sent to the Tri-State Fair Association, Box 2450, Amarillo. Check or money order and a self-addressed, stamped envelope should be enclosed.

Prices are $2.20 for the first ten rows of the parquet; $1.65 for the remainder of the front parquet and boxes; $1.10 for the rear parquet and loges, and 55 cents in the balcony. These prices include the federal tax.

WYCHE COMMUNITY ENJOYS BIG DINNER

Members of Wyche community enjoyed a lovely turkey dinner with all the trimmings last Thursday at the Hereford club-house. After the dinner various games were played. Eighteen families were represented. Honored guests were Judge and Mrs. A. J. Schroeter and family and Miss Lucille Park.

Davis-McCracken Move From Oldest Building In Hereford To The Newest

Davis-McCracken Implement Company moved from the oldest business house in Hereford to the newest last week and early this week.

"We are mighty glad to be in our new home," the partners said today. "We extend a cordial invitation to anyone interested to come in and inspect the building."

While some work was continuing the first of this week, the company had moved into its new home on the corner of West Second and Miles Avenue. The building the firm wrecked was the oldest standing business house in Hereford and was the second built, having been here 40 years.

In its four years of existence

Herefordites Favor Today As Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving comes but twice a year—if you live in Hereford and work in a bank or in the post office. Otherwise, the occasion is being observed on the traditional "Last Thursday in November" which this year falls on Nov. 30.

Schools, business firms, county and city officials elected to observe Nov. 30, and with exception of drug stores, restaurants and service stations, Hereford will be closed for the day.

In the words of Judge A. J. Schroeter "the courthouse will be closed tighter than a jug." City officials will likewise observe the occasion. However, peace officers of both political divisions will be on the job.

Due to President Roosevelt's proclamation, the Hereford post office closed Thursday, Nov. 23, as a federal subdivision. They will likewise close Nov. 30, since it is a postal regulation that the office may close in observance of any holiday generally observed over the community. Hereford banks were in much the same position and elected to follow the same route.

Like business firms in this community most families in this territory will eat their Thanksgiving turkey today. Very few families observed the "first Thanksgiving," preferring the latter date. Hereford public schools will again convene Monday.

1500 Attend REA Show Held Near Texaco

Despite raw, cold weather which cut down attendance below expectations the REA show held at the Rupert Paul farm west of Texaco, Monday and Tuesday was a success and an inspiration to people using electricity or about to get electricity, said Project Manager H. V. Hennen, yesterday.

An estimated 1500 persons attended the show, with 1000 persons the most at the show at any one time.

"Talks by REA economists were instructive and every person who attended got some useful information," Mr. Hennen said.

Dealers in the area had demonstrations and booths at the show.

Brand News Items On KGKO Program

Special news bulletins about Hereford and Deaf Smith county will be heard over Station KGKO, Fort Worth at 9:45 on Sunday and Thursday mornings on the "Suburban Editor" program. News items will be read from The Hereford Brand. Tune in 570 Kilocycles.

Aikman Funeral Services Held From Methodist Church Monday

"Hoof It" Is Order To Hunters; Don't Shoot Birds From Car

Pointing out that it is illegal to hunt ducks and geese from automobiles or other moving vehicles, Wallace Cox, deputy sheriff today warned hunters of using cars in hunting. He also said that guns should be plugged so that they will not hold more than three shells.

Simultaneous with the warning came a declaration on the part of Deaf Smith County, declaring that it is illegal to hunt any kind of game in the Hereford State Park. Sportsmen were asked to cooperate with this warning in order to avoid serious consequences.

Due to the scarcity of lakes in this area, hunters were reporting small amounts of game this season. Meanwhile farmers in several sections complained that ducks and geese are damaging their feed. Umbarger Lake, a federal game preserve, was said to be literally covered with game, and most sportsmen were bagging the bulk of their birds from those which left the lake to feed in fields.

Teachers To State Meet At San Antonio

Supt. of Schools, Knox Kinard, left Tuesday morning for Austin where he will be in conference with other school men and Gov. Lee O'Daniel on Wednesday before attending the Texas State Teachers Association meet being held in San Antonio this week. He was accompanied as far as San Angelo by Mrs. Kinard who will join her sister, Miss Aileen Walker, there. They will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Arlington with their father, Rev. R. A. Walker, retired Methodist minister.

Miss Stacia Irene Crawford and Miss Neville, Wrenn left Tuesday morning to attend the State Teacher's convention in San Antonio, and Miss Lois McCaslin left Tuesday night. Miss Wrenn is a member of the executive board of the association.

Rural Teachers Met Saturday

County Rural teachers met at the courthouse last Saturday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. Miss Bernadine Phillips gave two readings and there was a discussion of Interscholastic League business. It was decided that the schools would enter as rural schools instead of Ward schools. Tandy Legg, president, presided.

Teachers will not meet in December. The next meeting will be the last Saturday in January.

Funeral services for Lee H. Aikman, 78, were held from the Methodist Church Monday afternoon with Rev. Marvin Norwood in charge. Mr. Aikman died early last Sunday morning after an illness of two weeks. Burial was in West Park Cemetery.

He is survived by a son, R. L. Aikman of Oilton, a daughter, Miss Ella Aikman, teacher in Hereford Public Schools; a brother, Ira Aikman of Los Angeles, Calif. Relatives from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters, and Mr. James Peters of Tishomingo, Okla.; Mrs. A. E. Tucker, Temple, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. DeArmond, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peters, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crawford and John Crawford, Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. LaRoe, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gist, Sam LaRoe, all of Happy; Mrs. J. E. Peters, Canyon; and Miss Eula Peters, Forrest, N. M.

Mr. Aikman was born at Pinhook, Meggs county, Tennessee, January 11, 1869. He came to Texas in 1884 and lived at St. Joe until 1888 when he went to the Cherokee nation with a herd of cattle. Later he went to Indian Territory and made the run in Cheyenne and Rappahoe counties. From there he went to Greer county, Okla., where he lived for ten years. He came to Hereford in 1923 and resided here until his death.

Mr. Aikman married Miss Mary Matilda Peters in 1896. She preceded him in death nine years. Four children were born to them, two being twin boys, Edwin and Edgar, who died in infancy.

Pallbearers were Jack Ross, Carl Williams, Glenn Boardman, Bonnie Brumley, Marion Easter, and Louie LeGrand. Flower girls were lady teachers of Hereford schools. Schools were dismissed for the funeral.

A host of friends overflowed the church as they gathered to pay respects to their friend and neighbor, and to convey their sympathy to his bereaved relatives.

LOCAL OFFICERS TO ATTEND FSA MEETING IN AMARILLO

Jim Williams, Farm Security Administration supervisor, and Mrs. Ozora Matthews of the FSA will attend a meeting of all field employees of Region 12 which convenes in Amarillo, December 5-7.

Region 12 covers 42 Texas counties, all of New Mexico, southwestern Kansas, Southeastern Colorado and the Panhandle of Oklahoma. Mr. Williams said.

Biennial Mission Begins Sunday At St. Anthony's Church

Biennial Mission will be observed at St. Anthony's Church from December 5-10, opening with 10:30 Mass Sunday morning. The Mission is to be preached by Philip Kvasnica, C. S. S. R., of San Antonio. Father Kvasnica is well known for his inspiring and effective preaching.

Members of the parish are being urged to attend these services as a fitting preparation for the Christmas Festival. Non-practicing Catholics are offered the opportunity to straighten out their spiritual difficulties, and an invitation is extended to any and all who care to attend the services. Evening services will be at 7:30 o'clock.

Friona News

MRS. H. L. SETTLE

The REA work in Farmer county is rapidly drawing to a close and indications are that they will be ready for electric service by the first of December or a short while later. Workmen have been busy getting the homes wired to receive the current. The poles have already been erected and the wires are hung. This is a grand thing for the farmers throughout this section and they are very proud of the fact that they will have electricity in their homes.

The third annual homecoming banquet will be on December 28. This will be the social highlight of the vacation period.

A Christmas program is being prepared for Dec. 17 at the Baptist Church. The program proclaims the Christmas Message.

A Sunday School band has been organized thru the efforts of Mrs. C. C. Maurer at the Congregational Church. Those who are in the band at the present time are Bobbie Blackwell, Roy Hart, cornet; Virginia, Guyer, Carl Maurer, violin; Jean Crawford, June Maurer, flute; Chick Schilinker, sax; Dale Treider, trombone; and Dot Mayfield, clarinet.

Miss Doris Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watson, and Eugene Boggess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boggess, both of Friona, were united in marriage, Nov. 18, at the Central Church of Christ in Clovis, N. M. They are both graduates of Friona, and after a brief trip they will be at home near Friona.

The Band Boosters, a new band club for mothers, sponsored a pie supper Friday night, Nov. 24 at the Grade School. A musical program was presented. Proceeds of the pie supper will be used to further support the band, which is rapidly becoming the pride of Friona.

The Methodist Young People presented the following program at their regular Epworth League meeting. The leader was Miss Juanita Crow. Special music was given by Naqmi Rector. Mrs. Thelma Ford led the prayer service. Miss Wynona Hill gave a talk. Charles Jones also delivered a talk, as did Forrest Osburn.

Carl Maurer and Mrs. L. F. Lillard and son, Howard, have recently returned from a visit in Loudenville, Ohio. "Grandma Maurer" who also went there with them, remained to be with an ailing sister. They reported a grand visit but seemed to be quite glad to get back to Friona.

Thanksgiving is being celebrated by Friona people on November 30 as usual according to Mayor Reeve. He said the same old day was o. k. with him, and went further to say that if the president could designate one day for Thanksgiving, the Governor, another, why shouldn't he, the local mayor designate still another—just make it the next Thursday and every one celebrate all over again. This might be a good idea if there are any turkeys by that time. In all seriousness, Mayor Reeve said, "Let the people of Friona be thankful on what-ever day they see fit."

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn York of Friona and Mrs. Veryl Crawford and children, Burton and Myra, of Colony, Okla., Chester Brumley of Ada, Okla., and Miss Molly Jo Roberson of Hereford were guests.

E. B. Thomas of Los Angeles, Calif., is now visiting in the home of his father, C. B. Thomas.

A Y. W. A. has been organized in the Summerfield community. The club met Sunday afternoon and elected officers: Miss Ruth Atchley, president; Miss Shirley Ruth Thomas, vice-president; Miss Edith Nell, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Louise Suttle, reporter. The Y. W. A. elected Mrs. Jim Clark as councillor.

The Summerfield School will begin work on their Christmas program directly after Thanksgiving, November 30th.

More than 45 percent of the 500,000 farms in Texas have no hogs to help keep the family food, according to the 1935 farm census.

In 1930 the average American farmer, after providing for himself, three persons in his family and a hired laborer, furnished food and fiber for 12 Americans living elsewhere than on farms and two more persons in foreign countries.

New building construction in 12 leading Texas cities in 1939 was nearly five times the amount for 1933. During the same period annual Texas farm income increased nearly $200,000,000.

Times and conditions have changed since that First Thanksgiving 315 years ago. Perhaps we of the streamlined twentieth century come by our comforts too easily; perhaps we fail, at times to evaluate our ease of self-provision. But the "pilgrims" of 1939 are likened to those of 1621 — all consummately appreciative of past blessings — all surpassingly confident of their hopes in the future.

Work of Club Reporter Discussed

"Anyone who can read and write can be trained to be a club reporter," said Miss Laura Lane, Assistant Editor of the "Extensioner," farm extension publication of the A. and M. College, who discussed news writing and photography at a reporter's meeting in Hereford Thursday afternoon. The speaker was introduced by Miss Sadie Lee Oliver CHDA.

"The functions of a reporter's work is to take responsibility off the CHDA, it adds to the bulk of home demonstration publicity, it reaches people the agent can't reach and develops a clubwoman. There should be an assistant reporter. Any courtesy possible should be given to the paper, such as reporting other activities. The most important thing in photography is the selection of the camera and the proper use of it. A few precautions are to always use fresh films, keep lens clean and be sure that aperture, distance and light are adjusted correctly. In taking pictures one should be sure to fill up the camera with the object, take picture of people doing things. Backgrounds should be plain and simple. The most valuable pictures are the ones that show a demonstration."

Those present were Mesdames E. Dyer, Ford; Paul Rudd, Westway; Carl Wimberley, Misses Inez Funderburg, Lane and Oliver.

Hosiery Studied By North Hereford Demonstration Club

"Nothing less than a four thread silk hose should be worn with oxfords and five or six threads is better," quoted Miss Oliver from Vogue Magazine, at the meeting of the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club, which met with Mrs. Fred Saltzman, November 21.

Miss Oliver also brought some knit and gingham stuffed animal toys which were very clever and make inexpensive toys. The afternoon was spent in discussion of general topics of interest such as kitchen conveniences, clothing yard improvement, etc.

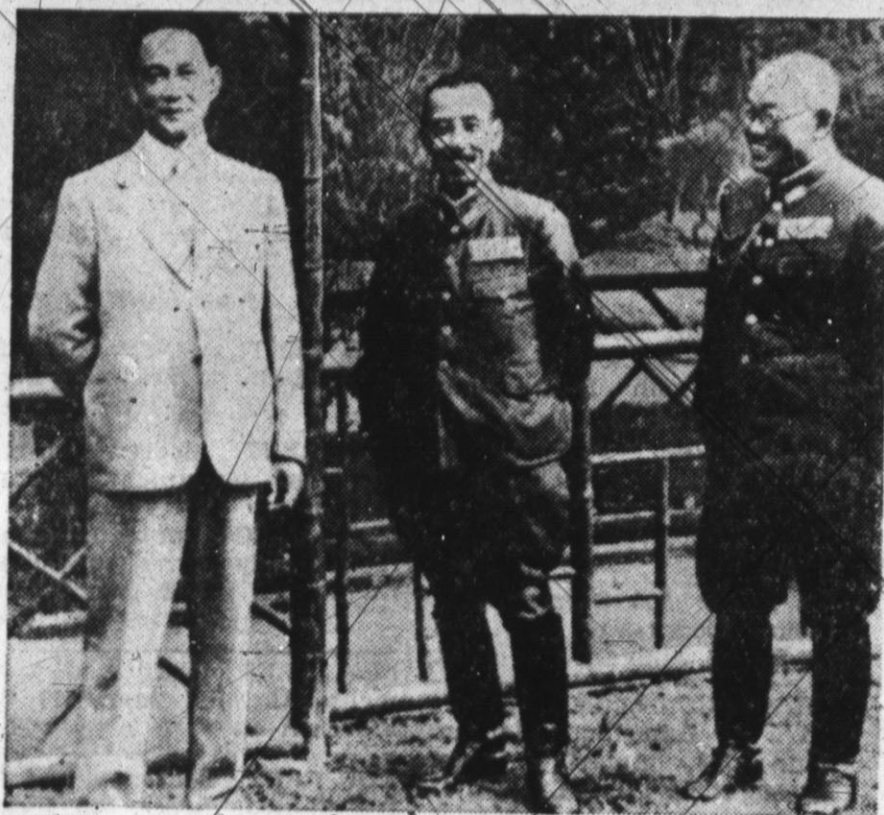

A handkerchief shower was given Miss Oliver in honor of her birthday.

After the program dainty refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames W. H. Miller, L. M. Rhodes, Frank Wilde, S. H. Browning, John Cropp, Oscar Vaughn, Geo. Parker, C. G. Robbins and the guests.

Mesdames W. H. Russell, R. L. Carroll, F. S. Smith, and Miss Oliver were welcomed as visitors.

The next meeting will be the club's Christmas party with Mrs. Frank Wilde, Dec. 15. Each member is urged to be present and bring a gift.

Chinese Puppet Meets Jap Puppeteers

Wang Ching Wei, left, latest Chinese puppet with whom the Japanese are attempting to establish a new Chinese government, jokes with two officers of the friendly Japanese staff. Wang has been branded a traitor by countrymen loyal to Chiang Kai-shek, and his life is forfeit should he fall into Chiang's hands.

November 23. Mr. Jim Williams, until recently, president of the class, served as toastmaster. Seventy-five members and guests were present to enjoy the sumptuous meal and the unique "Television Program." Mr. J. W. McVay is the new President, and the class is experiencing a rapid growth under his leadership.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR HAS PARTY NIGHT

Last Friday night was Party night for all Christian Endeavorers at the Christian Church. The young people joined the Presbyterian Endeavorers in a party. The Seniors climaxed their recent membership and attendance contest with a scavenger hunt, and the Junior Endeavorers entertained themselves at the Christian Parsonage. A large number of young people were in attendance at each place.

Evening Worship 7:30-8:30
Our Bible School moved higher up the ladder of attendance last Lord's Day with the best record we have had during the fall. Let us grow in attendance as well as in enthusiasm, as we approach the Christmas season. Next Lord's Day is observed annually as "Women's Day" in the Churches of our Brotherhood. The service will be in keeping with the spirit of this day, and a special missionary offering will be taken at the close of the morning worship. The congregation will worship with our Methodist friends next Sunday evening at the Methodist Church. This will be an expression of our welcome to the new minister of that Church.

afternoon here will be entertainers for young and old. St. Anthony's Guild is sponsoring a dance in the evening with Chuch Morse's Serenaders providing the music. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend our Thanksgiving festival.

Father Nathaniel and Father Aloysius spent Nov. 23 at Muenster, where the Golden Jubilee of that parish was being observed.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Sunday was Volunteer Pledge Day for our 1940 budget and we were grateful for the response from our people. We hope and should be able to have our budget fully subscribed by next Sunday night. If you have not turned in your card, pray about your financial obligation to the Lord's causes and give us an expression next Sunday.

Our church attendance was lighter Sunday, but there were four additions to the church by letter and we had a good day.

Our Stewardship week was a success. There was a total of 101 who attended two or more periods of Study and there were thirty-three who were eligible for credit on the Sunday School Course as a result. Tuesday and Wednesday nights were heaviest in attendance. The girls and young women of the Y. W. A. under the leadership of Mrs. Jack Roberson gave a splendid play Wednesday night. Many questions about stewardship were answered in a convincing way. These young women are doing splendid work in the church.

We especially invite all Baptists who are not members of our church to attend our services and unsaved people also.

Impersonator

Possessed of a burning desire to see Hollywood, Anthony Mell, 16-year-old Lawrence, Mass., schoolboy, dressed as a girl, appropriated $1,000 from his father, and flew to the cinema city. When arrested he had $185, which he spent for male attire "before Papa gets here."

Fight Fire With Sand Is A. & M. Advice

With cold weather in prospect, rural families would do well to adopt measures which protect farm houses from fires. The major portion of farm house losses are caused by faulty stove pipes and chimneys or by blazes started on roofs.

M. R. Bentley, agricultural engineer for the A. and M. College Extension Service, suggests inspection and repair of old chimneys on the farm and replacement of faulty stove pipes. Roof fires can be prevented by keeping out of stoves material which is so light that it can be carried out of the chimney before it is wholly burned; chimney screens will catch sparks.

Other hazards, include the danger of spontaneous combustion in paper or rags soaked in linseed or soybean oil. Piles of paper near the stove may be ignited by sparks which fly out unnoticed when the doors are opened. Tractors and automobiles may start barn fires, for flame from the exhaust sometimes ignites litter on the barn floor or hay and dry feed stored in mows. Buckets of sandy soil are very helpful in extinguishing tractor fires.

As precautions, the agricultural engineer suggest piles of sand in or near buildings or chemical extinguishers for use in fighting fires caused by oil or gasoline. Buckets placed conveniently and kept filled with water will help extinguish small blazes if there is not sufficient water supply or fire fighting apparatus on the farm.

Worship with us next Sunday. W. E. Barnes, Pastor

Garden Club Closes Successful Season

The final meeting of the season for the Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Kester Friday afternoon. Preliminary to the regular program Mrs. Ralph McCullough conducted a garden quiz with Mrs. J. P. Slaton and Mrs. C. H. Dyar tying for the high score prize, which was later presented to the president of the club, Mrs. Homer Brumley.

An interesting discussion - demonstration of "The corsage as a part of the costume" was presented by Mrs. J. R. Daniels, who said in part: An appropriate corsage when worn properly can change the appearance of the most simple dress and there are styles in corsages just as there are in clothes. Flowers that are in good taste for evening clothes are not appropriate for street clothes, with the exception of the rose which is accepted any where, if the color is in harmony with the gown. Chrysanthemums are well suited to all types of tailored clothes and just now flowers in the hair are the thing. The style of the dress determines where the corsage should be worn and great care should be taken to choose the right colors, especially if the costume is green. This color is difficult to harmonize with any type of flower and a safe rule is to select one of four colors to go with it; pink, lavender, orchid or white. More and more flowers are becoming part of every costume and for beauty's sake flowers are being worn more and more.

Mrs. C. H. Dyar told of seeing "The Gardens On Parade" while on a recent trip to New York City. After the program a discussion in detail, was held concerning next year's work. Programs and regular meetings are scheduled to be resumed the fourth Friday in February.

The club which has developed from a small group to an important civic organization in the space of two years, hopes to have a larger active membership enrolled next year. Last year the club became affiliated with the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs and is working with other organizations for the promotion of gardening, protection of trees, plants and shrubs and for the beautification of city parks and other civic plots as well as the scenic beauty of the homeground. Outstanding event of the year was the Fall Flower Show held late in September.

Officers of the club for the past year were Mrs. Homer Brumley, president; Mrs. N. E. Gass, vice-president and Mrs. Ralph White, secretary-treasurer.

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Dinner Party

Wecocantewaste Camp Fire Girls enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner party Thursday evening at the Camp Fire Hut.

Each girl brought a covered dish for the spread and place-cards carried out a traditional turkey-day theme with each girl's Indian name printed on tiny hatchets tucked under a colorful turkey wing.

After the dinner a regular program was given when plans were made for the annual Christmas party. Plans were also discussed concerning the sale of Christmas cards, sponsored by the group.

Those attending were Mary Nicks, Mary Ellen Henslee, Mary Anna Thompson, Tillie Williams, Marian Plummer, Jessie Ann Buckner, Betty Ann Dunlap, Jo Ann Rosson, and Mrs. Urlin Streu, guardian.

Medical Association Pays Obligations In Full For September

The Farmer-Deaf Smith Medical Association paid off its obligations 100 percent for the month of September, Jim Williams, FSA supervisor reports. Under the plan each FSA family paying the association pays $26 a year and is assured medical care for his family. Bills for medical or surgical care are turned in by doctors, hospitals and others and they are paid from the general fund of the group.

May Pay Million Bushels Insurance

With 5,317 applications for wheat crop insurance covering production of 3,248,782 bushels already audited, E. R. Duke, state crop insurance supervisor, estimates approximately 10,000 Texas wheat farmers will insure their 1940 crops.

Final deadline for applying for 1940 all-risk wheat crop insurance was September 30 in the Panhandle and October 15 in other sections of the state.

Expecting premium payments to pass the million-bushel mark, Duke said that on October 13, when about one-half of the applications had been audited, Texas farmers had paid 697,822 bushels in premiums, the equivalent of $425,777. The coverage is on 521,782 acres.

Completion of auditing work will probably show insurance coverage has been taken on more than 5,000,000 bushels, the production of more than 1,000,000 acres of Texas wheat farms, Duke predicted.

Last year only 3,700 policies were taken out in Texas, the supervisor explained, while nearly three times that number are expected for this year. Nearly all insurance is on 75 percent of the crop, the maximum offered, with only a few taking out 50 percent insurance coverage, Duke said.

Meanwhile, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation forecasts that more than 300,000 insurance contracts on the 1940 wheat crop will be in force in the United States in the second year of the corporation's operation. Only 170,000 contracts were in force last year.

For Safety, Observe Signs

AUSTIN, Texas.—The State Highway Engineer today appealed to the traveling public to observe the "Caution—Road Repairs" signs along State highways as a measure of safety to Highway Department employees and the traveling public. In the past several months, 23 workmen on State highways have been injured by motor vehicles drivers; most of these injuries have been of a serious nature.

"It is essential to the service of the traveling public that these maintenance operations continue uninterrupted, and all we ask of those who use the highways is that they slow down and drive carefully when they come upon a "Caution—Road Repairs" sign. "After all, it is just good, common sense to obey these signs. A motorist proceeding at too fast a pace through a repair zone might hit a large road roller instead of a highway workman. And we don't want that, either."

Pioneer Club Hears Youth Problems Discussed

"Social Patterns" proved a subject of unusual interest at the Pioneer Study Club meeting held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Kester Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Noah Ewton was assistant hostess.

A unique situation arose at the opening of the program when the roll call on "What Would You Like For This Community To Do For Its Young People" was answered, every member gave the same answer. The entire membership felt that a swimming pool would be of greater benefit to the young people of Hereford than any other one thing.

Three phases of "The Prevention of Delinquency" were discussed. Mrs. Carl Frye told of the Federal Government aid, stressing the aid given by the N. Y. A., the C. C. C. and the F. B. I. She showed the value of employment given the youth in the United States through these agencies.

Mrs. P. H. Gilliland spoke of "Opportunity Schools" using education for Democracy as a central theme.

The local agencies in the prevention of delinquency were described by Mrs. C. T. Guseman. After a general survey of the local situation and interviews with leaders of young people in Hereford, Mrs. Guseman stressed the need for wholesome entertainment and the need for more adults to become interested in the social activities of the young people.

Mrs. Jack Rose gave as a reading a cutting from Shakespeare's "Hamlet."

During the business session plans were made for the annual Christmas party when husbands will be entertained. The annual affair will be held at the home of Mrs. T. E. Siegler on Monday, December 11.

Members voted to adopt a family for which to prepare a Thanksgiving basket and a Christmas box.

Those present at the meeting included Mesdames Al Werner, Frank Terrell, T. E. Siegler, Jack Rose, H. D. Reed, Wirt Phillips, Ray Johnson, J. B. Jones, Allen Bell, J. E. Beyer, Burl France, Carl Frye, N. E. Gass, J. M. Gilliland, P. H. Gilliland, Cecil Guseman, Bob Higgins, O. G. Hill, and E. S. Ireland.

DINNER GUESTS
Out-of-town dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Platt of Frederick, Okla. Mrs. Platt is the former Miss Flossie Bowman, formerly of Hereford. Others present were Chris Jacobsen, Louise Jacobsen and Virginia Bowman.

Frio Club Observes Achievement Day
Achievement Day was observed by The Frio Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon.

Kitchens at the T. L. Sparkman Sr. and T. L. Sparkman Jr. homes were inspected and the pantry of Mrs. Albert Springer was observed.

The group met at the T. L. Sparkman Jr. home and Mrs. Sparkman demonstrated the modern kitchen, showing the improvements made and giving cost estimates. From there the group went to the home of Mrs. Sparkman Sr. and there she explained the improvements she had made and their advantages. The home food supply shelf was demonstrated in Mrs. Albert Springer's pantry equipment. There members of the club saw enough canned food to supply a family of five for a year. The systematic arrangement of labels and types of food was an interesting feature.

Guests included members of other Demonstration Clubs in the county.

Those present were Mesdames R. L. Stephens, Clem Gilliam, M. L. Simpson, E. S. Parks, Ullman Hunter, L. F. Tennison, John Johnson, Pauline Stephenson, B. L. Cox, Talton Loring, Chas. S. King, Elmer Jones, T. L. Sparkman Sr., T. L. Sparkman Jr., J. M. Dixon, Haskell Robbins, Earl Springer, A. C. Grant, B. F. Bruton, Haskell Benson, J. B. Cocanougher, Albert Springer, Owen Andrews, Malcolm Cassels, Miss Alma Andrews and Miss Katherine Couch, CHDA of Castro County.

Miss Miriam Coleman of Paris and Miss Hattilu White of Amarillo were guest speakers at the Business and Professional Women's meeting held at the court house Monday night.

The regular business session was held and a clever interpretation of "The Eyes of Texas" was presented by Mrs. P. H. Gilliland, reader, and Miss Louise Jacobsen at the piano.

Miss Coleman, who is executive secretary of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and Miss White, who is corresponding secretary of the organization, talked on the State and National program which centers around "Business Women in a Democracy," and explained the routine duties of the various officers and chairmen in the organization.

Those attending the meeting were Ethel Robinson, Cecil Williams, Viola Gyles, Mattie K. ## Her Brother's Keeper, and Good One!

Charged with being the alleged lookout for two other boys involved in a store robbery, 17-year-old Patrick Lynch of New York was placed in legal custody of his 13-year-old sister, Nora, while awaiting sentence. Two months later Nora delivered such a well-disciplined brother to the court that Pat got a suspended sentence.

Miss Elliston Is Married To Mr. Barnard

An impressive candlelight ceremony on Thanksgiving Day, November 23, united in marriage Miss Ruth Elliston and Mr. H. P. Barnard Jr. of White Deer.

The nuptial vows were spoken at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Elliston, with the Rev. H. M. Redford, pastor of the First Christian Church, reading the solemn, sacred words of the double ring marriage rites.

An attractive arrangement of white chrysanthemums and tall lighted candles furnished the background for the ceremony as the couple stood beneath an arch decorated with two silver and white wedding bells tied with a large silver bow.

The bride wore a dull-blue floor length dress with lace blouse and corded tulle skirt made with bustle back and high neckline. For something borrowed she wore a gold necklace, belonging in the family and her something old was a dainty lace handkerchief, a childhood gift.

She carried an old-fashioned shower bouquet made of a single shell-pink chrysanthemum, encircled with blue sweet peas to match her gown, baby breath and fern.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Refreshments were served from a table laid with an embroidered Cuban cloth, brought by the bride's brother from South America, and centered with an arrangement of three tall white candles rising from a mound of pink pom poms and fern.

The three tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the bride and Mrs. Joe Bailey Elliston of Long Beach, Calif., presided at the punch bowl. Tiny silver wedding

Former Hereford Girl Marries Castro County Man

Miss Willa Freddie Rutherford, daughter of Mrs. Effa Rutherford of Amarillo, became the bride of Phillip Jones of near Spring Lake Friday afternoon at the Methodist Church parsonage with the Rev. C. C. Grimes, pastor of the Polk Street Methodist Church officiating.

The bride wore a wine velvet dress with cream lace yoke and cuffs and black accessories.

Mrs. Jones was reared in Hereford and attended Hereford High School. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Hattie Rutherford of this city.

Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones of Spring Lake. He is associated with his father in the farming business and after a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home near Spring Lake.

Olen Neal, grandson of W. E. Neal, father of Mrs. J. C. Ricketts has been visiting here the past week. He came from Lawrenceville, Ill., with Mr. Neal about two weeks ago.

Wedding guest included friends and relatives.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Pat Elliston and son of South America and Mrs. Joe Bailey Elliston of Long Beach, Calif.

The young couple left immediately after the reception for a short wedding trip to points in Oklahoma.

Masons-O. E. S. Enjoy Thanksgiving Banquet

Good food and a good time under the direction of A. O. Thompson, master of ceremonies characterized the annual Masonic-Eastern Star Thanksgiving banquet held at the Masonic Hall Thursday night.

In keeping with the spirit of the season the "U" shaped table was decorated with autumn leaves, autumn flowers, varicolored fruit and pumpkins. Yellow candles provided a festive note.

Thanksgiving and happiness formed the keynote of the affair, with the entire group of approximately 85 men and women evincing thankfulness in their benefits and happiness in the gathering of old friends.

After the banquet A. O. Thompson took charge of the program for the evening. Group singing of old-time hymns with Mrs. A. O. Thompson leading and Mrs. H. D. Reed at the piano, was enjoyed. Wes Brady, district deputy of the Grand Lodge, was introduced and he in turn, presented J. W. Witherspoon, the principal speaker who gave an address suitable to the occasion. Musical entertainment consisted of clarinet duets furnished by Mattie Louise Lawton and Ruth Temple Hastings. Talks were made by Mrs. Clara Shore, worthy matron of the Order of Eastern Star and Dr. F. M. Kester, worthy patron of O. E. S. and worshipful master of the Masonic Lodge.

TO OUR FRIENDS, in Dawn and Black Territories:

Amongst many things that we are thankful for at this Thanksgiving time is the fact that we have received from you the last 11 years a very liberal patronage for our elevators. You have been the ones who have kept us in business and we are grateful to you for it. Our elevators are owned and managed by your neighbors and we are desirous of being considered as neighbors interested in anything that will benefit our people. May we continue to serve you? That is our most ardent wish.

Hoping that you may enjoy this Thanksgiving Day to the limit, we are,

Your friends and neighbors,

One Chambers County landowner, following the recommendations of Game Department game managers, is flooding 20,000 acres of marshland by means of wells he has drilled and plans to make more money from his leasing of the land to duck hunters than he will through all other means of his other land holdings. He planted $200 worth of seed to produce plants for duck food last spring and the Game Department is watching the experiment with considerable interest. Last year, without the aid of additional plantings, the owner cleared $2,000 the first two days of the duck hunting season. Dry

H-D Council Makes Study of Butchering

"Only one housewife out of eleven has a sharp butcher knife," stated Mr. Alex Bateman, county agent in discussing the butchering demonstrations which are being given in each community in January, at the meeting of the Home Demonstration Council in Hereford Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Louie Olson, chairman, presided.

"The first thing we teach is how to sharpen knives. We use only knives and saws in butchering and take out practically all the bones. An eight-three-three cure is used for each 100 pounds of meat to be cured. Corn cobs and mesquite are the only things available here to make good-flavored smoked meat. The second day of butchering is to be given to canning. In one day 1 calf, 4 pigs, 1 lamb, 1 chevron, 1 hen and 1 turkey can be butchered provided there is proper equipment, vat, 2 trace chains, 2 joints of stovepipe and a platform."

Farm Lands In Greater Demand

Recent rises in prices of crops and livestock and an increasing demand for farms and ranches sound an optimistic note for agriculture in most sections of Texas, according to C. O. Stone, district supervisor for The Federal Land Bank of Houston. Mr. Stone has just returned from a three day conference in Houston with A. C. Williams, president, and other officials of The Federal Land Bank.

With the strengthening of the farmers' and stockman's financial position, Mr. Stone said, it is anticipated that a corresponding improvement will be shown in the collections of National Farm Loan Associations. There are 320 of these local associations making long term land mortgage loans in Texas.

The increasing demand for farm lands is reflected in the larger number of farm sales being made by The Federal Land Bank which is putting bank-owned farms back into private hands just as rapidly as possible. So far in 1939, the bank has returned more than 450 farms to private ownership, representing transactions totaling more than one million dollars.

Mouth Health Is Child Need

Austin, Texas—Children brought up according to the three "R's" of mouth health have a very good chance to escape the discomforts and accompanying ill-health that comes from dental disorders, according to the Texas State Department of Health.

This season of the year, when the children are getting adjusted to school routine, is a particularly appropriate time to give special thought to the physical as well as the mental aspects of a child's development. The child who is physically fit makes much better progress in school, than does the boy or girl who is below par. Parents can help to keep their children fit by carefully following the rules of mouth health in bringing up their children.

The three "R's" of course, are not "Reading, Riting, and Rithmetic, but are "Right foods, Real cleansing, and Regular office visits, which are as important to mouth health as the old three "R's" are to mental development.

The teeth and other mouth tissues depend for their original structural strength and their continued resistance to ill-health on the quality and quantity of building materials made available in the food one eats. The first set (baby or foundation) of teeth obtain their materials from the mother before a child's birth. The permanent set may depend on the diet of both the mother and the child itself. Consequently, the diets of both should be rich in calcium, phosphorus, and in those vitamins that seem to affect mouth tissues, with special emphasis on vitamin "D" which is found principally in sunshine, codliver oil, and fish. That is, there must be the "right" food in the diet for strong, decay-resisting teeth.

Real cleansing means twice-a-day thorough brushing of the teeth with effort to reach every tooth surface, and finally, the equally thorough flushing of the mouth with some mild antiseptic liquid or saline solution. The germs that play the part of tooth and gum destroyers in the diseases known as dental decay and pyorrhea are more active in unclean mouths. Real cleansing will help to prevent their activity.

But it is unwise to place complete dependence for dental health on the first two "R's". So "Regular" dental office visits should be made if only to assure one's self that the mouth is healthy. These visits permit your family dentist to discover defects when they are small and to correct them before much damage is done. Naturally these corrections are much more easily made than those which have gone unattended.

Children of two and a-half years of age are not too young to start dental office visits. From then on "Regular" visits, combined with the other two "R's" will be good insurance of continued dental health.

Smallpox Costly To Parents And Texas Schools

Since 1930, smallpox has cost the people of Texas many thousands of dollars, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

During the nine-year period 1930-38 smallpox cases totaling 10,764 were reported; undoubtedly additional cases occurred which did not receive medical care and were not reported. Failure to vaccinate is the chief reason for the occurrence of the disease.

For "budgetary as well as humanitarian" reasons, the State Health Department urges parents to have their children vaccinated now, early in the school term.

Considering the time lost, the long period of sickness and isolation, the inconvenience, the danger of complications or permanent scars resulting from the disease as compared with the little inconvenience of vaccination, one can readily see that prevention of smallpox is a good investment in good health.

Smallpox is highly communicable and spreads rapidly from the infected person to others who are susceptible. On the other hand, persons with evidence of successful vaccination or revaccination, performed in recent years, need have no fear of either the mild or virulent form of the disease.

Because of the infectiousness and rapidity of spread, smallpox can reach the epidemic stage and endanger whole schools and parts of communities. Prevention of such epidemics is time-consuming, costly, and sometimes disastrous for the individual, the family and the community simultaneously benefit.

End of Tiger Grid Star's Playing Career

Don Herring, ins-t, 21-year-old football and track star at Princeton university, is carried off the field after receiving an injury that resulted in the loss of his left leg. The youth, who aided in a 26 to 12 victory over Brown, was injured in the first quarter of the game. Examination revealed that ligaments below the knee were torn and three main arteries had been severed. The amputation was made necessary because of the danger of gangrene becoming acute.

No Lives Lost Because Parachute Failed to Open

No man has ever lost his life in the history of the United States Army Air Corps because of the failure of a parachute to open. And of 5,000 tests made at Randolph Field, the West Point of the Air, in San Antonio, Texas by throwing dummies attached to parachutes overboard at an altitude of only 200 feet, not one parachute failure was recorded.

An army parachute must be opened, hung up for drying in a room specially built for that purpose, and repacked every six months. This bespeaks the efficiency of the trained Army Air Corps man. A high degree of skill is required in properly packing and caring for a parachute. The Air Corps maintains a service school at Chanute

Field, Illinois to which qualified men are sent for special courses in this interesting field of aviation. Graduates of that school attain an air mechanic's rating, coupled with a handsome increase in pay.

Of particular interest to those desiring an Air Corps training is the opportunity presented to the individual for advanced education. Those who demonstrate by aptitude and interest that they are desirous of receiving its full benefits are given extensive schooling in mathematics and English so they can qualify for entrance to the Air Corps technical schools located at Chanute Field, Ill., and Lowery Field, Colo. Here they receive the type of technical training in which each man is most interested. Some prefer air photography, while still others find a consuming interest in Radio Range Procedure, that interesting art of guiding planes safely through a storm on to the landing field by means of an invisible radio beam.

Men trained in the Army Air Corps are widely sought by private aviation. They command good positions and high salaries because they are so thoroughly trained and educated.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

A Texas Game Department warden recently arrived upon the scene of one of those terrific battles nature's children sometimes engage in just in time to rescue one deer, but the other had not survived a struggle to death which, persons who have witnessed such battles declare are as thrilling as any plot ever conceived by an author.

The warden arrived on a flat on the Herbert Ranch in the Hill country to find a pair of seven and eight point bucks with their horns locked and signs of a terrific struggle having taken place. One buck was dead, but the warden worked with the other, the eight-pointer, got him loose and watched the deer literally stagger off into thick cover. Buck fights frequently, but it is not so often that their horns become locked. However, if that occurs and no outside help is available, both deer are generally victims of the battle.

White-winged doves, considered much better sport than mourning doves, generally remain in Texas' Rio Grande Valley. Large numbers are found in several counties there, but this year, and the reason is not known by Game Department biologists, the birds have come much farther north than usual. Flights of several hundred each have been seen in Medina county and a good many sportsmen of that section have gotten their limits of white-wings without having to make the usual trek to the Valley. Infrequent reports of white-wings nesting as far North as Nedina county have also been received by the Game Department.

An Abilene fisherman recently lost $30 in prizes because he had not spent $1.10 for a fishing license. Abilene merchants marked a dozen fish and released them in Lake Abilene. The largest one carried notification of a prize of $50 for the person catching it PROVIDED HE HAD A FISHING LICENSE. Smaller fish were marked for prizes of less amounts. Only one sportsman has caught any of the marked fish according to latest reports. However, he did hook the $50 fish, but was unable to collect because he did not have a fishing license. He remedied that situation with a $1.10 purchase, and believe it or not, returned to the lake to catch another fish which had been marked. However, the second catch was worth only $20 in prizes and the fisherman was "out" $30. Other sportsmen of that section are still trying to catch the remainder of the marked members of the finny tribe in Lake Abilene.

Ducks have almost as many names in different parts of the United States as there are states and to aid hunters in identifying the more common species of the migratory birds, the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey has issued the following list of local names:

Blue-winged teal: Bluewing, teal duck, teal.

Bufflehead: Butterball, butter duck, dipper, dipper duck.

Canvasback: Can, canvas, whiteback.

Cinnamon teal: Teal, teal duck.

Gadwall: Gray duck, redwing, creek duck.

Greater scaup: Big bluebill, bay broadbill, scaup, blackhead.

Lesser scaup: Bluebill, blackhead, scaup, little bluebill, broadbill, little broadbill.

Greenwinged teal: Greenwing, common, teal duck.

Redhead: Ringbill, blackpack, blackhead.

Ruddy duck: Stifftail, butterball, ruddy, boby, greaser.

Shoveler: Spoonbill, spoony, shovelbill.

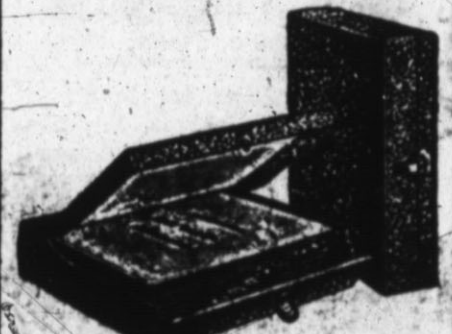

Wood duck: Summer duck, woody, squealer.

THANKSGIVING

It is right and proper that Thanksgiving should be America's own great "home and fireside" holiday. Never before have we Americans had so much to be thankful for as we have today. WE HAVE PEACE. Peace founded firmly on a respect for others no less abiding than the respect we hold for ourselves. Peace that rests on the full understanding that war can settle nothing, that no one wins a modern war, and that quiet deliberate effort is the only means of solving any dispute that is worthy of grown-up intelligent men and women. WE HAVE PLENTY. A means to distribute our great national wealth more equitably must perhaps still be found; but only time, co-operation and work are needed. The wealth is there. WE HAVE OPPORTUNITY . . . the right of individual "self-determination," a hundredfold happier, richer and more meaningful than the "group self-determination" of other lands. In Our America any little boy may still some day be president. We take pride that the fruits of American idealism belong to all of us, of every national origin, race or creed. IT is with full and glowing hearts that we give thanks this last Thursday in November

Tea-Shower Given To Compliment Mrs. J. I. Willoughby, Recent Bride

Attractive in detail were appointments for the miscellaneous tea and shower given by close friends of the honoree Thursday afternoon when Mesdames Hall Beavers, H. G. Conkright, J. B. Jones, J. M. Gilliland, C. R. Smith, Altus Higgins, Noah Ewton, A. M. Jones and E. S. Ireland entertained at the home of Mrs. A. M. Jones to compliment Mrs. John I. Willoughby, a recent bride.

Seasonal flowers and Autumn leaves were arranged in tall baskets and bouquets about the house, establishing a color theme of orange and green for the gift affair.

A "horn-of-plenty" in orange overflowing with ruddy-toned fruit and lighted by the glow of green tapers formed the center piece for the tea table. Tea dainties repeated the color motif. Mrs. C. R. Smith poured.

An informal program was given. Mrs. H. D. Reed gave a toast to the bride and an humorous reading was presented by Bernadine Phillips; a girls quartette composed of Ann Cockrell, Ruth Temple Hastings, Rachel Ireland and Wanda Jean Reed, entertained with clarinet selections.

A lovely array of gifts was displayed.

Those attending were Mesdames H. H. Hawkins, J. O. Easley, C. T. Guseman, John Patton, Lee Curry, Guy Walser, John Jacobsen Jr., Alton Fraser, J. W. Spradley, W. E. Dameron, Allen Powelson, A. O. Thompson, Ida Ricketts, Louie LeGrand, Homer Brumley, G. W. Brumley, Louis Woodford, Glenn Weir, Frank Gyles, Knox Kinard, W. M. Emmons, Tom McCollum, Bub Newell, B. R. Clark, George Muse, Nona Jowell, T. E. Siegler, D. H. Alexander, A. G. Bell, J. W. Robinson, C. C. Ferguson, Artis Daniels, H. D. Reed, J. I. Willoughby, J. O. Newell, Misses Frances Dameron, Inez Clark, Bernadine Phillips, Wanda Jean Reed, Ruth Temple Hastings, Rachel Ireland, Ann Cockrell and the honoree.

Many sent gifts who were unable to come.

Mrs. J. M. Posey Is Club Hostess

Mrs. J. M. Posey was hostess at an informal afternoon party for club members last week when the London Bridge Club met at her home.

Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon was a special guest. High score award was presented to Mrs. Sherman Morgan and second high to Mrs. Ernest Medkief.

Others playing included Mesdames Ralph Roden, Frank Cogdell, N. E. Milburn, Meade Halle, J. T. Gilbreath Jr. and the hostess.

Mrs. R. R. Wills and son are in Los Angeles, Calif., visiting relatives for two or three weeks. While in California Mrs. Wills will attend the wedding of Miss Katherine Slimp, who has visited in Hereford on several occasions.

Annual Thanksgiving Banquet Is Given By Junior Club

A Thanksgiving theme was carried out with "harvest-time" suggestions at the banquet given by the Junior Pioneer Club Wednesday night, November 22.

The annual affair which complimented husbands and escorts of members was given at the American Legion Hall with seasonal-leaves and colorful fruits predominating in decorations.

The large table from which the banquet was served was centered with a turquoise blue fiesta ware placque filled with fruit and encircled with vari-colored autumn leaves. Candles, matching the blue of the placque, lighted the table at each end. Places were laid at small tables centered with a round mound of Autumn leaves from which lacy-leaf-branches extended to mark places for four.

Mrs. Homer Brumley gave the invocation followed by a welcome to the guests given by Mrs. Alton Miller. Urlin Streu gave the response.

After the banquet, games of "Bingo" furnished fun for the evening with Mrs. Meade Halle and Homer Brumley playing high for prizes. The traveling prizes went to Mrs. Louis Woodford and Elmer Patterson.

Official hostesses were Mesdames Willis Edelman, Ralph Roden and S. J. Jones.

Those enjoying the delightful occasion were Messers and Mesdames Homer Brumley, Troys Carmichael, Willia Edelman, Meade Halle, Frank Huckert, S. J. Jones, Alton Miller, Troy Moore, Elmer Patterson, Liburn Ray, Elvin Ridding, A. J. Schroeder, Urlin Streu, J. B. Whitlow, Louis Woodford, Mrs. Ralph Roden, Mrs. O. H. Culpepper and Miss Edna Daughtee.

Baptist Women Hold Sessions

Group sessions of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church were led at the church yesterday afternoon.

The Young Matron's Group answered roll call with current mission topics followed by a devotional on Thanksgiving given by the chairman, Mrs. Owen Stagner. "Within The War Zone in China" was described by Mrs. Lilburn Ray. "A Thanksgiving in China" was described by Mrs. E. W. Young and Mrs. Aubrey Daniels told of the Lottie Moon Offering.

The Ray Buster Group studied the 100th Psalm for a devotional and special music was furnished by Molly Jo Roberson and Dorothy Nell Adams. "Personal Service" was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. H. G. Conkright with the concluding number given by Mrs. Jack Roberson, who talked on "Who Ministered Unto Him."

Highlights of the Baptist General Convention were given at the Nelson Group meeting by Mrs. A. O. Thompson who attended the convention in San Antonio last week. Mrs. Art Manjoet read a message from Mrs. Clem Hardy, missionary in Brazil. An interesting picture of the Jews in Berlin was presented by Mrs. Wirt Phillips.

Lillie Hundley Group studied the periodicals of the church with Mrs. W. J. Hacker giving the devotional. Mrs. Allen Powelson also discussed publications of the church.

Luncheon Club Is Entertained

Contrasting with the deep burgundy and gold of azelea chrysanthemums which formed the centerpiece, lighted green tapers in crystal holders added attraction to the table and carried out the color scheme when backyards and home playgrounds was described by Mrs. John Robinson.

"How Children May Be Guided in Play" was told by Mrs. Mac Bainum who discussed ways of teaching children good sportsmanship and fair play through play.

During the business session a committee was appointed to make plans for a Christmas party to be given in December. Those to serve are Mesdames Gordon Witherspoon, Claude Longbottom and Mac Bainum.

Members present included Mesdames Cecil Lady, J. B. Whitlow, Elvin Ridding, Gordon Witherspoon, Mac Bainum, George McConnell, C. P. Grimes, Ellis Wilson, Claude Longbottom, John Robinson, R. P. Coneway and the hostess.

Mrs. W. M. Emmons entertained members of the Wednesday Luncheon Club at her home last week.

The luncheon was served buffet style at foursome tables. Bridge accessories for the games carried out the green and white motif with prize wrappings in green and white, decorated with gold turkeys.

Award in the games went to Mrs. Travis Dameron.

Those present included Mesdames W. L. Davis, Alton Fraser, J. C. McCracken, C. C. Rockwell, Jack Wayland, A. R. Bateman, Travis Dameron, Knox Kinard and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Godwin returned Friday from a month's visit spent with relatives in Brownwood, Comanche, San Angelo and Hamlin.

Mrs. J. M. Posey accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirby to their home in Albuquerque, N. M., last week and remained for a short visit.

Mrs. B. M. Wiltshire and daughter, Patsy, left last week for Mineral Wells to spend several days with her mother, Mrs. M. L. Steele before accompanying her home.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

With the hunting season in full swing in Texas, the Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission has issued an appeal to every sportsman to treat every gun as if it were loaded, and has set out series of rules, which, if observed, would do much to lessen the tragedies of accidents in fields and woods.

"It is the 'unloaded' gun which does the most damage," the game chief pointed out. "And if the following rules are observed here will be more sportsmen to take the fields another day."

Carry only empty guns, taken down or with the actions open to your automobile, camp or home.

Always be sure the barrel and action are clear of obstructions. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.

Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.

Never leave a loaded gun unattended.

Never climb a tree or fence with a loaded gun.

Never shoot at a flat, hard surface, or at the surface of water.

Always remember alcohol and gunpowder should not be mixed.

Texas sportsmen are becoming more sportsmanlike, in the opinion of the Executive of the Game Department, who has received numerous reports from any of his game wardens since the dove season opened detailing fewer violations this year than at any time in the history of the department.

There was a time when the sportsman, if a covey of quail was up in front of him, wasn't the slightest bit reluctant about firing into the birds. However, law enforcement and the education of sportsmen to the needs of proper observance of game laws has brought about the change, the game department believes.

Few wardens have found it necessary this fall to file cases against sportsmen for hunting all out of season, the Executive Secretary said. The quail season does not open until December

Pollution of Texas Streams, which destroys as many fish as sportsmen take has been fought by the State Game Department for years and its campaign apparently is bearing fruit. More and more oil companies are taking steps to properly dispose of their salt water. For example, a company recently completed a huge pit near Mexia which will hold 1,000,000 barrels of water. The largest holding pit in the State is located near Luling. It will hold 8,000,000 barrels. The Department's recently-filed suit against fifty-nine companies for alleged pollution of the Neches-Angelina River system is being watched with much interest by sportsmen who know the damage wrought by the pollution of streams.

Officials of a Norwegian tanker, The Leisten, recently paid a fine of $535 for pollution of water at Port Arthur.

Thousands of Texans, knowing the early fall and winter months are better for fishing than the summertime, are haunting their favorite lakes and streams and to these, in answer to many inquiries, the Game Department's chief aquatic biologist has been sending word that no parasites which live in fishes found in Texas waters are harmful to human beings if the fish are well cooked. Even the dreaded tapeworm is killed by cooking, but the biologist is stressing the fact that all fish should be Well Cooked.

Within a stone's throw, wild antelope, doves, and quail foraging without restraint.

But in the camp of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission's antelope trapping crew on the T. G. Brennand ranch near Sterling City last weekend, there wasn't an ounce of fresh meat in Cook Leiva's chuck box.

A cowboy broke up the noon-day meal to call the crew out to look at a bunch of antelope grazing within 20 yards of the camp. Doves winged over in twos and threes. Bobwhites whistled in the distance.

"We're going to get a goat and have some chevron barbecue," said Tom Redford, game warden and drive leader.

What self-control—Grady Hill in San Angelo Standard-Times.

SQUIRREL PLUNGES TO DEATH

Here's the answer to the question asked many times as to whether squirrels ever miss in their flying leaps and plunge to their death? Three of the little nut-eaters were recently playing on top of a bridge over the Bosque River. One attempted to jump to a brace rod, missed and somersaulted to his death, bashing its head on the bridge floor.

SIGNS DO NOT SAY NO HUNTING

A misconception of the meaning of the Game Preserve Demonstration signs which so generously dot the countryside in Texas these days has grown up in the minds of the majority of sportsmen seeking places to hunt. Those signs do not necessarily mean that no hunting is allowed on the land posted with them, extension department officials of A. and M. College, under whose jurisdiction the program is being carried on, pointed out recently.

Landowners who are members of the game organizations using the signs do, however, insist that permission be obtained before hunters enter their land.

Some of the posted areas are closed to hunting because there is not sufficient game on them to make it safe for shooting and still have seed stock with which to raise more game. So, if you are looking for a place to hunt and see those signs, inquire as to whether the land is open to shooting. It may be that there is sport awaiting you beyond those signs.

GREAT WHITE-WINGED SEASON

Texas recently closed its greatest white-wing dove season in a decade. It is estimated by State Game Department officials in the Rio Grande Valley that more than 350,000 of the sporty white-wings were carried into camp or home by hunters and that from 30 to 50 per cent more than that were killed, but were lost in the brush and cactus.

Mourning dove hunting was generally good over the state and reports of excellent shooting were received by the Game Department even from some areas surrounding cities of sizeable proportions.

RAVENS TORE UP COTTON

Ravens, cantankerous, mischievous and generally regarded by landowners as destructive, were recently caught by Carl Clark of near Rochester, (Haskell county) tearing cotton from the burs and throwing it to the ground. There were so many ravens indulging in this destruction that the ground of the field was almost white with cotton. Mr. Clark and a neighbor reported to the State Game Department Warden of that region. Mr. Clark had no idea as to what caused the ravens to strip his cotton plants. He had never seen it done before.

Teaching Your Children Fear

College Station.—Protecting a child by teaching him to be afraid of or to avoid certain situations means trouble later. It is much better that the small child understand his environment and how to adapt himself to it.

That's the advice to parents given by Dosca Hale, Extension Service specialist in parent education and child development. Once they are afraid, children cannot be forced to overcome their fears, the specialist says, but they can be forewarned by having dangers explained to them ahead of time.

Adults frequently help children to learn most of the fears they develop as they grow up. In this regard Miss Hale says, "If we threaten Jack with the sheriff or policeman in order to get him to do something we want him to do, we need not be surprised if he develops a fear and a dislike for law instead of thinking of it as a protection for those who wish to do the right thing."

Sometimes adults surround children with fears in trying to get them to be cautious. "She lists some examples as 'Don't go near the water; you'll fall in.' 'Stay away from the cow. It'll hook you.' or 'That dog may bite you.'"

Usually these things never happen, but such threats may cause children to develop many fears that will make them unhappy.

After discovering the dead deer. The following morning a huge male cat was found in one trap and there was evidence that another had pulled loose from another of the traps.

—mild to your OIL-PLATED engine that goes into this Germ Processed oil to effect the close union or bond between the oil and the engine parts. Like chrome-plating on the bumpers, OIL-PLATING in the engine can't drain down every time the car stands, and therefore OIL-PLATING isn't waiting to be restored "from scratch" every time you start up again. How different from oils that can only flow fast! Surely OIL-PLATING must beat them to it. In advance of any flow, it's there! This drain-proof slippy

OIL-PLATING lets the starter turn easy, the engine turn fast, and you're safely away. The only wait is a good long one before you'll ever need to add another quart of Germ Processed oil. From Your Mileage Merchant only. OIL-PLATE today. Continental Oil Company

5 to 8 minutes isn't "such a much" unless your cold engine is straining that long without prompt lubrication. And how much worse when you figure that less than a dozen cold starts a day threaten all of an hour's lubrication delay. In the course of the Winter that could exceed 90 hours of risky slow-motion oiling... that's what—90 hours!

Let's be sensible and not just hope blindly that 90 hours or even half that won't hurt. The way to avoid the worst chance of harm is to change today to OIL-PLATING.

Automatically your engine becomes OIL-PLATED as you drive from Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station with a fill of his Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented. The basic patents cover the use of a rare man-made substance

Twelve Scouts Attend Rally In Canyon, Nov. 21

Twelve boy scouts including the scout master, attended the first annual Scout Day at Canyon, Saturday, November 21. Those attending were John Estes, Wayne Phillips, Jack London, David Neal Beavers, BBilly B. Jackson, Donald McCullough, Pete Davis, Darrell Blanton, Thurman Williamson, Douglas Walker, Leonard Burleson and Urlin Streu, the Scout Master. Approximately 575 scouts from all over the Panhandle attended. After their arrival they went to the Buffalo Courts and registered. Every group was given a guide and were shown points of interest on the West Texas State Campus. At 11 o'clock in the main auditorium they assembled to hear Dr. J. A. Hill, who gave a talk on scouting. This was followed by a dinner at the Methodist Church. After marching around the square, led by the G.I.'s Drum Corps of Canyon, they attended the South Dakota-West Texas game. After enjoying a delightful day, they returned home.

Editorial

There is nothing we enjoy more and get less of than banquets, and the subject of banquets brings to the mind those who make all banquets possible, our mothers. We certainly do owe a lot to our mothers for making possible the banquets that are given us. Right now, the mothers of the Pep Club members are planning a banquet for Friday, December 9. Here's a toast to the Pep Club mothers; we know they'll prepare an excellent banquet.

First Thanksgiving Celebrated By Camp Fire Girls With Dinner

The Camp Fire Girls celebrated the first Thanksgiving of the year with a dinner at the Hut. The menu consisted of meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, buttered beets, apple salad, cranberry sauce, celery, and pumpkin pie with whipped cream. Mary Ellen Henslee, Marian Plummer, and Jessie Ann Buckner were in charge of arrangements. Other members present were Mary Anna Thompson, Tilly Williams, Betty Ann Dunlap, Jo Anne Rosson, Mary Nicks, and Mrs. Urlin Streu, guardian.

English IV Students Turn Architects To Construct Theatres

The English IV classes have been doing constructive work in connection with a study of Shakespeare. English students have made model theatres typical of those during the Elizabethan Age. Many different types have been represented, including the "wagon-stages" and the theatres similar to the world famous "Globe Theatre." Miss Irene Crawford plans to make pictures of these theatres and possibly present them in educational meetings that pertain to such work. The instructor stated that the theatres of this year were, in general, very good.

Hudsons Entertain Friends With Turkey Dinner Thursday Night

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hudson entertained with a turkey dinner last November 23. The dinner consisted of turkey, dressing, gravy, English peas, sweet potatoes, fruit salad, hot rolls, pumpkin pie with whip cream, and coffee. The table was covered with a lace cloth with tapers on each end of the table, and a turkey gobbler made of gumdrops for a centerpiece.

After dinner, "42" was played. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCollum, Misses Neville Wrenn, Frances Fullingim, Thelma McMinn, Irene Crawford, Decima Ramey, Mr. Vance Stallcup and Mr. Ray Oldham.

Heiselman News

MRS. HOMER STEWART
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fowler of Tascosa visited in the N. W. Livesay home several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stewart and sons were Hereford shoppers Saturday. A family reunion was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Livesay on Thanksgiving day. A delicious turkey dinner was served. Those attending were Mr. Livesay's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barber and Mrs. Floyd Barber, Jr., and sons from Lockney, Mrs. Grace Byars and daughter from Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hart and son of Hart. Grandma Hobbs has been ill a few days this week. Earl Hare was in Hereford Saturday. Mike and Louis Hooker of Summerfield have been helping Heiselman's haul wheat to Vega this week. Homer Stewart, R. W. Hobbs and E. Barclay attended the farm meeting at Ford School house Wednesday. E. Barclay's mother and father have been visiting them this week. A. W. Gardner helped Mrs. McGowan brand her calves on her ranch north of Bushland Saturday. Miss Norma Fay Livesay and Mrs. H. Hooten visited Mrs. E. A. Reagal in Amarillo Saturday. Son Kempsey is working for N. W. Livesay this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stark were in Hereford Saturday. Mrs. Viva May Upton and Miss Lucille Park spent the week end at their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. B. A. West were in Hereford Friday. The still weather has caused much water hauling and windmill work.

Kinard Receives Appointment By Gov. O'Daniel

Mr. Knox Kinard has been appointed by Governor Lee O'Daniel to the Statewide Committee of School People. This committee was appointed for the purpose of making a study of the general conditions surrounding our public school system and to make recommendations for the improvement of this system; the work of this committee is of utmost importance and great responsibility is undertaken by its members.

Mr. Kinard will leave next week for a trip to Austin and San Antonio. He has two purposes in his trip next week. Wednesday he will be in Austin meeting with a committee on education.

Mr. Kinard stated that his principle interests will be in the superintendent's meeting, but that he would attend as many different meetings as possible.

The remainder of the week he will spend in San Antonio for the State Teacher's Convention. The theme will be Inter-American Unity.

Spradley Appoints Program Committee; Other Officers Elected

Nell Spradley, president of the Junior Class, appointed the following Juniors to serve on a program committee: Dorothy Lee Graves, June Dameron, and Calvin Brumley. They will plan an assembly program for December 8.

The Junior Class elected Kenneth Linsenbee, parliamentarian; Duane Baize and Marthalea Montfort were elected as sergeants-at-arms.

Anyone who is seen talking who has not been recognized by the chair will be fined. The fines are supposed to be limited to the amount of disturbance made.

Coterie Club Meets With Mrs. Hedrick

Coterie Club members were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. B. Hedrick on West Fifth Street Friday afternoon.

Decorations included yellow chrysanthemums and other autumn suggestions.

After bridge games a salad course, carrying out the colors used in decorations, was served to Mesdames F. L. Lucas, J. W. Witherspoon, A. F. Bateman, E. B. Hicks, Grant Fuller, Colby Conkright, C. F. Moore and the hostess.

Mrs. E. B. Hicks received high score award.

Tribute to The Whitefaces

By Polly Anna Crawford and Paul Lyons

We, the members of Hereford High School, feel that the football team should be given due praise for their having defeated our rival, Canyon. Therefore, we wish to dedicate to them this tribute of praise.

Here's to the girls who are pretty;
Here's to the boys who can woo;
Here's to the teachers with their knowledge;
Here's to the mascots, too.

Here's to the school we all love;
To our neighbors as well as the kin;

But as for the dear old Whitefaces,
Here's to the team that can win.

Confidentially Yours

All this week I have just listened to the little private conversation and have caught all kinds of "don't you tell anybody" morsels.

We all know that Wanda Jean Reed has her Ernie, Rena Rae Renfro has her Richard, etc. but did you know that Vivian had her Bill? If you doubt my word, just ask her.

Another thing that is rich is that Vesta Mae Landers is being called for by O. G. Hill. Some going! Eh what?

If any of you have wondered why Bernadine Phillips looks sad and bewildered at times, it is because Tim Sterner has not written her in the last two days, so I hear. Maybe romances last longer than some people think.

I noticed that Grady Wilson, Jr. and Mary Anna Thompson were cutting it off rather lively last week. Another romance, no doubt.

Have you observed the gathering of certain people to decide the future for Mozelle Shreve? It seems that she is doomed to be a movie star with that figure and "Oh, boy!" what a figure that girl does have.

Nancy Olson with her blonde hair is sure to be a house wife. In fact, she belongs to the F. H. T. In other words she is in training now.

Oh, yes, some more blond hair and this glamor girl Coetlell Page does have it. In fact, due to it she is climbing very high

Reverend Noel Bryant Speaks To Hi-Y At Thanksgiving Program

The Boy's Hi-Y gave a Thanksgiving program on Nov. 21. The devotional was given by Donald Henslee.

The main program was given by Rev. Noel Bryant, an ex-Hi-Y president. Mr. Bryant told how much the Hi-Y Club had helped him in the years following his membership.

The members voted to accept Jack Allmon and Roger Hartman into the Club.

The members voted to send five dollars to Mrs. Dyalitha Bradley for a Thanksgiving fund. The absent members were: F. L. Lucas, Clifford Estes, Harold Close, and Richard Ireland.

Ex-Student News

In 1926, the band had prophesied for itself a big year. An expert from The White Face for October 5, 1926 tells more about it.

"With the opening of the school term this fall, the band and orchestra were organized. Edgar Ireland was elected president and Ab Posey, secretary-treasurer.

"There are thirty members in the orchestra and twenty-two members in the band. This is quite an increase over last year's membership, although some of the members were lost by graduation.

"There have been added to the orchestra eight violins, one viola, one cello, two flutes, two cornets, and one xylophone. Although handicapped last year by the lack of stringed instruments, the orchestra came within twelve points of winning the contest held at Amarillo.

"This year, with the increased number of the band and orchestra, we hope both organizations may make much better showings."

upon the social register.

Another thing, it is very nice that some people do have brothers. I think that this is proven by the affairs of Helen Plummer. There is no doubt but that her brother established a place for her in life. Eh, what? Luck and more luck!

Here is a question that has long puzzled lots of people. Why does Louise Cress talk so much? If anyone knows, will he please see some teacher and enlighten her on the situation.

If any of you girls wonder why you can't get Daniel Turrentine to come your way it is because he has a girl in Ardmore, Okla.

Band Commended Highly On Radio Program At Fair

The Hereford High School band has been noted for its fine playing during the broadcast of the radio this fall at the State Fair.

Some one wrote a card to Smith which read as follows:

"Ever since I heard your play over the radio at the Fair I felt I wanted to speak a few words of praise and thank for it. I enjoyed it to the fullest extent. I think our best instructors should be encouraged in their work by every one. There is not any thing more lighting to the child's mind than music. I think it is the greatest profession there is. Harm in music is a foretaste of heaven.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mae Higginson

Wildlife Crop For Landowners

College Station, Texas landowners are thinking about another crop these days; wildlife which essentially a crop of the land. Many of those who operate Texas' one hundred and seventy million acres are adding this to their program of diversified farming.

R. E. Sallender, specialist in game management for the A. and M. College Extension Service supports this opinion by saying that more than 25,000 Texas farmers and ranchers have entered into agreements with their neighbors to form game management units in approximately 200 counties. More than twenty five million acres are involved in the agreement which is designed to conserve and increase all desirable wildlife species of game birds and non-game birds, game animals and fur bearing animals, and adapted fishes.

In the early days Texas had an abundant supply of wildlife, but the game management specialist believes it has decreased in about the same proportion that land-use operations have advanced. "Perhaps we have prospered only to the extent that we have robbed our natural resources and consumed them," he suggests.

Because of the great depletion in the game supply, farmers are beginning to realize that they are custodians of wildlife while it is on their land and that the trespass law is their only means of custody control. Long time closed seasons, are being discouraged and the regulated game harvest is regarded as a better means of conservation.

Under the game management program farmers and ranchmen are going to try to produce an abundant supply of game for themselves and their friends, and they are not confronted with the possibility of overproduction," Callender adds.

Texas has four species of poisonous snakes, but three of them have a variety of sub-species. Largest number of sub-poisonous species is boasted of the rattle snake family. There are ten, namely pigmy or ground rattler, Willard's, Prairie, Western diamond back, green velvet, diamond rock, mountain, black tail, and cane brake. There are two varieties of Copperheads and three of coral snakes, but there is only one member of the moccasin family which is poisonous. It is the cotton mouth.

Proper Care Of Colds Essential

Austin, Texas.—Potential victims of pneumonia and families concerned, hold one of the keys to reduction of the death rate from this disease, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is estimated that each year 25,000 Texans suffer an attack of pneumonia. As a means of prevention, people should guard against the common cold, neglect of which often leads to pneumonia as a complication. Persons who develop pneumonia will have the best chance for recovery by knowing the symptoms of the disease and placing themselves under treatment promptly after onset of illness.

CHDA NOTES By Sadie Lee Oliver

In answer to the seasonal list of questions three large charts showing how to stuff and cook turkey and duck have been posted in the office of the CHDA. These charts have been prepared by the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. D. A.

Recent research has changed the methods of roasting fowl quite radically. The following method from "The Market Basket" of November 15, 1939 was discussed with Mrs. F. D. Ferguson before she baked the turkeys for the Wyehe Home Demonstration club dinner in the Hereford State park.

"In three brief sentences, the method for roasting plump young turkeys is: Keep the oven temperature moderate all the time the turkey is roasting. Use an open pan with a rack. Add no water.

With pan drippings, melted butter, or other fat baste the turkey at regular intervals, turning it each time. Start turkey breast down, then turn it from side to side and occasionally on its back. Baste and turn small or medium sized turkeys every half hour. Turn larger turkeys, cooked in a slower oven, about every hour.

Following is a table giving time and temperature for turkeys in four different weight groups. These figures have been arrived at after the roasting of hundreds of experimental turkeys in kitchens of the Federal Bureau of Home Economics.

For a small turkey, 6 to 9 pounds, allow from 2 1/2 to 3 hrs. in an oven about 325 degrees.

For 10-13 pound turkeys, allow 3 to 4 hours in an oven 300 degrees.

For 14 to 17 pound turkeys, allow 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours in an oven 275 degrees.

And for the giants, turkeys, 18 to 25 pounds, keep the oven from 250 degrees to 275 degrees for 6 to 8 hours. When the turkey is tender in breast and thigh and the juice does not show a red tinge the turkey is ready to carve.

Rabbit Hunters Warned About Tularemia

"The season for the unusual prevalence of tularemia is again at hand," warns Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Reports show that this disease, commonly known as rabbit fever, is increasing at this time, due in large part to direct exposure to wild rabbits in the hunting or dressing of the animals.

"Invariably, tularemia cases are reported frequently during the hunting season than at any other time. While the disease is caused by a germ found in various kinds of infected rodents, and can be acquired, among other ways, through bites made known his plans as yet. Mr. and Mrs. James Plott and son of Fredrick, Okla., called on Mrs. C. P. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brookes and F. D. Perkins Sunday afternoon. They also took supper Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., in Hereford.

of ticks, deer flies, stable flies, and squirrels, it is most frequently transmitted to man in this section of the United States by infected wild rabbits, hence the name 'rabbit fever'.

"The common method of transmission is through wounds or small abrasions, some times minute, on the hands of those cleaning or otherwise handling rabbit carcasses; in this manner the germs reach the human blood stream, symptoms developing in from one to ten days. The victim suddenly complains of headache, has body pains, chills, fever, and vomits. The fever, which may run high, usually lasts two or three weeks. Convalescence is slow. Death occurs in approximately 5 per cent of the cases.

"The above facts indicate that hunters should not kill slow-moving rabbits. Healthy wild rabbits do not carry. Also, for those who dress rabbits, it is advisable to use rubber gloves. The suggestion applies equally to hunters and housewives. It is the one safe defense against acquiring tularemia from this source.

"There is no desire to imply that most wild rabbits harbor the tularemia germ. Compared to the total rabbit population, the infected rabbit decidedly is in the minority. On the other hand, the number of infected animals is sufficiently large in the aggregate not to take any undue chances.

"Incidentally, it may be added that thoroughly cooked rabbit meat, even though the animal had been infected from tularemia is harmless and perfectly safe food. Consequently, those who enjoy this game need have no qualms about consuming it."

Department Store Sales Higher This Year Than For 1938

Austin, Tex.—Dollar sales of Texas department stores during October passed the September total by 2.8 per cent and that of October, 1938, by 3.6 per cent, according to reports of 97 establishments to the University of Texas business research bureau.

Business during 1939 has bested that of 1938 by only 1 per cent, total sales for January-October for the two years show.

Women's specialty shops reported the most active business, increasing October sales 9 per cent above those of October, 1938, but topping September's sales by only 2.3 per cent. Men's clothing stores reversed this ratio, boosting sales 9.4 per cent over September but only 4 per cent over October of last year.

College Station.—Moth balls which have served their time among the woollens stored for the summer may see additional service in a flower bed. Tulip lovers who want to protect their bulbs from rats and moles can place two or three moth balls close to each bulb or spread a tablespoon of moth flakes (paradichlorobenzene) about an inch from the bulb, according to J. F. Rosborough, horticulturist for the A. and M. College Extension Service. Poison bait can be used for mice and gophers, but moles are carnivorous, he explains.

Centipede And Millipede Are Harmless; Live Toad Worth $20, Says Professor

Lubbock, Tex.—A scorpion's sting is no worse than a bee's, a small house centipede and a millipede are absolutely harmless, according to Dr. R. A. Studhalter, head professor of biology, botany, and zoology at Texas Technological college. Several birds and reptiles looked upon as enemies of mankind are beneficial, he said, in discussing common fallacies about animal life on Texas plains.

"A live toad in your garden is worth $20, U. S. Department of Agriculture figures show, based on the number of insects a toad eats in his lifetime. The box turtle also eats insects and should be left alone. A crow can eat a hundred grasshoppers in a meal—and it eats several times a day."

Unless one is absolutely certain of the species, all hawks had better be protected, because most of them do more good than harm eating rats, mice, prairie dogs and other rodents, he declared. The eagle, also, now being hunted on the North Plains in automobiles for sport, is more beneficial than harmful and should be protected.

"In spite of the general fear of snakes, it has been proved that a child has no instinctive fear of them," Studhalter said. "The food of snakes is largely mice, prairie dogs, and other rodents harmful to the farmer, and all of them should be protection except those definitely poisonous." Listed among poisonous snakes found in West Texas were the rattler, copperhead, water moccasin, coral and harlequin snake.

The black widow spider is sometimes dangerous, but rarely ever bites. A child or person of low resistance might have serious trouble from a black widow bite, but three or four days in bed would probably be the extent of such illness.

"Large centipedes have poisonous organs, but the old superstition that they 'rot the flesh to the bone' is unfounded," he declared. A centipede might affect the skin as so many pin pricks would but it is no more poisonous than a bee."

"The tarantula is a fine, clean pet," he added. He rarely ever bites. This is especially true of those imported in banana shipments. They are tropical, cold-blooded, and in our climate it is about all they can do to move."

"Water dogs, especially feared in the larval stage when they have queer-looking external gills just back of the head, are harmless in both stages. The much-dreaded mountain boomer can do no more harm than nip one's finger with fairly powerful jaws. Also much feared but quite harmless are the child-of-the-earth, praying mantis, walking stick insect, and whip scorpion.

Mourning doves were also plentiful throughout most of the state and were remaining in the northern portions of Texas later than usual, reports to the Game Department indicate.

War Expected To Help Sheep Men

It looks like a period of relatively good times are ahead of the sheep rancher. Since the outbreak of the European war in early September, a substantial advance in domestic prices has occurred. Domestic demand for wool has been increased by prospects of improvement in business activity and consumer incomes and may be increased because of reduced imports and larger purchases of wool goods for military purposes by foreign countries.

These facts are reflected in a review prepared by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Department of Agriculture. Wool producers will recall that prices were fairly low at the beginning of the World War in 1914, but after 1915 prices went up in both domestic and foreign markets. In the United States, wool prices in 1918 were about three times as high as in 1914, but by 1921 they were about half the 1918 level.

United States production of wool is now about 50 percent greater than in 1914, while population is only about 30 percent larger. That means imports of foreign wool have been largely replaced by domestic production.

Production of staple rayon fiber in lengths similar to wool and suitable for mixture with wool and for spinning on woolen machinery has increased greatly in the United States in the past decade. In 1930, U. S. production of this rayon was less than a million pounds; in 1938, 30 million pounds were produced here and an additional 23 million pounds imported. World production of staple rayon fiber was estimated at 982 million pounds in 1938, with 90 percent of this amount produced by Germany, Italy, and Japan. An advance in wool prices will further stimulate the production of substitutes.

In November 1914 the British government regulated exports of wool from her dominions, and in 1917 took over the Australian and New Zealand wool clips. This time—in October, 1939—Britain has already taken over the wool clips from these countries and has a close working agreement with South Africa.

These clips total about one and a half million pounds, and Great Britain and France normally use about a billion pounds of wool a year. Even with war needs, this means that the British Government will have to sell some wool to neutral countries. Since medium wools are best for war purposes, and since the Australian and New Zealand production is of fine wool, it is probable that the British govern-

In Other Words—'Don't Disturb the Pilot'

Il popolo italiano sa che non bisogna turbare il pilota, specie quando è impegnato in una avvincente navigazione, né chiedergli ad ogni istante notizie sulla rotta.

This poster, distributed in Italy, shows Premier Mussolini at the controls of his bombing plane, which bears the inscription: "The Italian people know that they must not disturb the pilot, especially when he is engaged in tempestuous navigation; nor ask notice of the route at every turn." The inscription, of course, applies to Italy's stand on the international situation. Italy's diplomatic course is not to be questioned by its people.

after signal victories to the land and naval forces," President Lincoln recommended to the people of the United States that thanks be given at their next weekly assemblages in their accustomed place of public worship. President Lincoln also proclaimed Thanksgiving days for Thursday, August 6, 1863, the last Thursday of November, 1863, and the last Thursday of November 1864.

The holiday really began to jog along in an established order in 1866 when President Johnson began naming the last Thursday of November for that and the succeeding years he was in office. Beginning with the proclamation of 1870 that date became generally accepted as the official Thanksgiving. Two days were set apart in 1876, the centennial year, July 4, and November 30. There was also an extra Thanksgiving, April 30, 1889, the day marking the one-hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington.

Snakes need not spoil the fun of a hunt or a tramp through the woods, Game Department officials point out, but warn sportsmen to be on the alert. A good pair of boots is the best protection. Thanksgiving Day Has Roamed Over Calendar Since Beginning

Not all Thanksgivings have fallen on Thursday, as many have supposed, and the first one was not named by Governor Bradford in 1621.

Records at the library of congress concerning the big day at pumpkin pies and turkeys reveal enlightening facts, concerning the origin and erratic leaping about the calendar of this old holiday which is popularly supposed to have been as stable as the sun.

Its origin can literally be traced to the land of Canaan, for the book of Judges tells of the harvest celebration in "the house of God," and this later appeared among the Hebrews as the "feast of tabernacles."

After the Pilgrims came to America they established a time of thanksgiving and rejoicing for their first harvest which had yielded well. In October, 1621, Governor Bradford ordered a three-day feast and celebration to which Chief Massasoit and other Indian friends were invited. Many believed this to be the first Thanksgiving from which the modern celebration dates, but the records at the library of congress do not show that there was any special religious service during the period of feasting.

The first Thanksgiving day after the United States became a nation was Thursday, November 26, 1789, and was proclaimed by George Washington. The next Thanksgiving day was Thursday, February 19, 1795. From that time on the day followed an erratic course, hurdling over three years until President John Adams in 1798 decided to appoint Wednesday, May 9, as the time for national Thanksgiving.

May must have been a little too warm for turkey and pie, for the next year President Adams set April 25. President Madison proclaimed a Thanksgiving day in each of the four years he was ment will buy large amounts of medium and coarse South American wools and offer some of her fine wool at the world market. In regard to mutton, it appears that a stronger consumer demand for meats will mean somewhat higher prices all along the line. With pork expected to go up, it is probable that many consumers will shift some of their purchases to beef and mutton.

In the opinion of W. R. Nisbet, sheep and goat specialist of Texas A. and M. Extension Service, the extra play given coarse and medium wools will tend to give an unbalanced situation in the production of wool and mutton at the close of the war period.

This country is already producing mutton to meet domestic demand. An abnormal demand for coarse and medium wools which are produced on the mutton type breeds of sheep will tend to increase mutton production at a more rapid pace than would an increase in fine wool. Too, the medium and coarse wool sheep are produced very largely on the farms. Farm Sheep production could receive more encouragement than the range type. A poor balance as well as over production could be the result of war-time demand.

in office, and his was a consistent Thursday day, but selected a different month for each one: the third Thursday in August, 1812; the second Thursday in September, 1813; Thursday, January 12, 1814, and the second Thursday in April 1815. No more Thanksgiving proclamations were issued for forty-seven years. Then, April 10, 1862,
