Sights and Faces Seen
NATURE NOTES: Five daffodils and one dwarf purple iris blooming in Mrs. Alet Thompson's yard last Saturday—dandelions (the unofficial and not so popular city flower) in bloom at the Bob Wilson place—maple trees beginning to bud at Dr. Heard's and a few Chinese and American elms getting ready to bud all over town. Which all adds up to the fact that the ancient and honorable order of mammals are not the only ones of old Dame Nature's children who have the habit of building themselves up for an awful let-down.

Scout Leadership Subject Of Meeting

Plans for a Scout leadership training course were made Tuesday night when a group of Hereford Scouters met with W. Maurice Teague, Scout field executive, at the pastor's study in the First Christian Church.

Attending the meeting were Rev. H. M. Redford, H. V. Williamson, T. E. Seigler, A. Peterson, John Robinson, Jim Kirby, Hall Beavers, D. C. Kinsey and Mr. Teague and plans were completed for the first meeting of the Scout leadership course to be held in the basement of the First Methodist Church, Tuesday, March 2, at 8:30 p. m. Subsequent meetings will be held each Tuesday night during the month of March.

Trained leadership is one of the chief needs of the scouting program in Hereford and men who will be called upon to attend the Scout leadership training course are urged now to give the matter their serious thought. A little consideration will convince most men of the need for cooperation with the worthwhile scouting program.

February 28 Deadline For Tire Inspections Of Commercial Vehicles

February 28 is the deadline for inspection of tires on commercial vehicles, according to an announcement made today by N. F. Nelson of the district ODT office.

Holders of B and C ration books also must have first tire inspections by this date.

Those who have not had their tires inspected should do so at once. Delay will be particularly costly to operators whose vehicles or tires need some minor repair or adjustment.

The certificate of war necessity should be presented to the inspector for his endorsement on the back, in the space provided, at the time of inspection.

New Cafeteria Program Outlined To County Representatives Tuesday Nite

Representatives of the Hereford, Dawn, Summerfield, Westway and Walcott cafeterias met Tuesday night to hear discussions of the new government program of aid to school cafeterias which will go into effect March 1 to take the place of W. F. A. aid.

The new program, similar to the school milk program now in effect at the Hereford cafeteria, will operate under the supervision of the State Department of Education, with financial aid on a sliding scale, depending upon the type lunch served and the needs of the school.

Deputy State Superintendent Carl G. Clift, in describing the new cafeteria program, pointed out that its main advantage seemed to be in putting more responsibility on local schools and removing outside supervision. Hereafter, the deputy superintendent will inspect cafeterias when he makes regular school inspections and his recommendations with regard to the cafeteria program will be followed.

Reaction to the program seemed favorable and it is thought that cafeterias in the county will take advantage of the assistance offer.

Sign-Up On Farm Plan Sheets To Start In County, March 1st

Army's 'Roy Gun'

Research engineer L. F. Ehrke of the Westinghouse laboratory examines one of the new 300,000 volt X-ray tubes the Army will use to photograph bullets penetrating armor plate—in 1,000,000th of a second.

Stating that the new farm plan sheet for maximum war production may be expected not only to give the production goals of farmers in 1943 but that it will also have a direct bearing upon the selective service classification of the farmers, N. E. Gass, chairman of the Deaf Smith County USDA War Board, urged farmers today to prepare for the sign up of farm plan sheets, expected to start in Deaf Smith County on March 1.

Other information on the production sheet will furnish the basis for locating and helping farmers who need special assistance in carrying out their war production programs for 1943, assisting the county War Board in determining eligibility for rationed supplies and locating farms on which there is labor and machinery which might be used on other farms.

Also listed on the farm plan sheets will be approved production practices for increasing soil fertility.

Referring to draft classifications, Mr. Gass points out that farmers and farm workers producing as many as 16 war units during 1943 will be eligible for deferment under selective service rules if they are not already deferred for other reasons. Explaining that final action in all selective service cases is taken by the local draft board, the USDA chairman points out that war units, defined as "a measure of production of essential farm" (Continued on Page 12)

USO Approved In Regional Office

Official notification of the approval of the Hereford U. S. O. project came this week to Robert L. Thompson, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, from the regional USO representative, W. W. Jackson of San Antonio, who wrote that the Hereford extension club would be operated under the supervision of the USO Club in Amarillo.

Exact details on operation are pending the clearing of the project by the USO national headquarters in New York, but according to statements made by a federal representative here last week it is thought that the USO aid will amount to about $1,000 to get the project started and $150 a month maintenance.

In the meantime Mr. Thompson and other civic workers are going forward with the appointment of committees which will work in conjunction with the USO in organizing a soldier recreation program here. Committees will be named in the near future, Mr. Thompson stated today, pointing out that the help of all citizens will be required in the launching of a successful program.

Army Wants Your Old Shotgun For War

Owners of good, used 12-gauge shotguns are being asked to sell the guns to the United States Army, it was announced today by J. C. Ricketts, commander of the Hereford American Legion Post, who revealed the following details of the plan:

"Types desired are hammerless double barrels, hammerless pumps and automatics and most of the guns will be used in training soldiers and sailors in wing shooting. Some of the guns will be used for guarding purposes. Each gun so used will release a rifle for combat use.

The guns may be turned in, in Hereford at the Streu Hardware Company and if the owner knows the price he wants for his gun, he may designate this price on the name tag and if the gun grades up to such a price, a check will be forwarded immediately. If that price cannot be paid, a card will be forwarded the owner giving the government's price and the owner will then have the option of either accepting such price or requesting the return of his gun. If the owner wishes to submit his gun without price attached he can be assured that it will be carefully appraised and he will be advised of the price offered. No broken guns, double barrel hammer type, Damascus or twisted steel guns, obsolete guns, attachments nor accessories should be sent.

This procurement is being handled by the Army Ordnance Department and fair prices are being paid for used shotguns, with the average price to date being about $36.

Smothers, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps recruiting officer, will be in the northern part of the Panhandle district from Monday, March 1, through Friday, March 12 and will be in Hereford from 1 until 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon, March 1, at the offices of the Southwestern Public Service Company, where she is eager to meet all women interested in joining the WAAC.

Lieutenant Smothers will give mental alertness tests, complete preliminary steps toward enrollment and issue transportation to Lubbock where applicants will complete enrollment. Applicants will receive transportation to and from Lubbock, hotel accommodations and meals.

Women are urgently needed to take over soldiers' jobs in order to release able-bodied soldiers for front-line duties.

PROCLAMATION DESIGNATING FEBRUARY 28 THROUGH MARCH 7 AS TEXAS WEEK

WHEREAS, the approach of Texas Independence Day and Alamo Day herald a week of deep significance and profound meaning in the minds and hearts of Texans; and

WHEREAS, I am prompted by the actions of state officials in urging recognition of this significant time in Texas history and by my own feelings of love, loyalty and patriotism toward my state;

NOW THEREFORE, I, C. J. Paddock, Mayor of the City of Hereford, Texas, do hereby proclaim the week of February 28 through March 7, 1943 as Texas Week.

I urge all citizens of this municipality and of Texas to observe Texas Week in an appropriate manner. No one of us will fail to cherish the rich heritage which our founders and forefathers prepared for us of this generation.

During this week let us make much of the spiritual values of our history and of our traditions. Let us dedicate our lives afresh to the ideals of statesmanship, character, leadership and service. Let us make it possible, as did our forebears, for our own and future generations to enjoy liberty of conscience, of speech, of the press, of worship, of public assembly and of all the other liberties which we cherish.

In this critical hour when democracy, even civilization itself, is at stake, it is more than ever fitting to commemorate the glorious deeds of those who laid the cornerstone of the Texas Empire. Let us prove ourselves not unworthy of the incomparable heritage left us by pioneers and martyrs.

What they fought for in the past we are determined to hold. Remember Goliad, Remember the Alamo, Remember Pearl Harbor.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed by name officially and caused the seal of my office to be impressed hereon at Hereford, Texas, this 25th day of February, A. D., 1943.

C. J. PADDOCK, Mayor of Hereford, Texas.

ON THE HOME FRONT, Russian workers in the Caucasus oil fields are not idle. Every spare moment is devoted to the study of defense tactics. No Ration Certificates Necessary For Re-Caps

Tire recapping jobs no longer require a certificate from the local war price and rationing board, government spokesmen stated this week, pointing out that car owners are being urged to take advantage of the new regulation to have old tires recapped and avoid buying new casings wherever possible.

Ration board certificates are still necessary for new tires of any grade.

The new recapping order, originally scheduled to go into effect March 1, has been made retroactive to Feb. 20, according to the local War Price and Ration Board.

Music Club To Bring Concert Program Here

The first Victory entertainment for U. S. soldiers stationed in Hereford will be sponsored by the Music Study Club sometime in April. The entertainment, which will have a two-fold purpose—that of furnishing entertainment for the soldiers and of providing funds for an entertainment project sponsored by the club—will feature Miss Mary Louise Beltz, latest of young American artists to win the coveted National Federation of Music Clubs prize at its Biennial Convention in 1941.

Miss Beltz, who has a rich mezzo-soprano voice, received her training at the Juillard Graduate School of Music in New York and besides teaching has done much concert work. At present she is making a concert tour of Texas and sometime in April will appear (Continued on Page 12)

New Car Tags On Sale At Tax Collector's Office

New car license tags now on sale are miniature in size, but the same price rates in effect last year still go for the small tags, whose size has been cut to save metal. The tags will screw on your old license plate.

New tags cannot be put on cars until Monday, March 1, but must be on all vehicles by April 1. Motorists are advised that a ruling by the state highway department prohibits the issuing of special license numbers this year and also that they must present a certificate of title when applying for the new tag.

Car owners are urged to buy licenses now and avoid the last-minute rush. The tax collector's office is not allowed to take checks in payment for car licenses.

Roy A. (Billy) Wederbrook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wederbrook, was reported officially Monday to have died in the Philippine Islands, "date and cause of death not given."

The message from U. S. Marine Corps Commandant Thomas Holcomb was the first word which the Wederbrooks had heard from their son since he was reported missing in action last May 6th; and, though the inference is that young Wederbrook died in a Japanese prison, no official statement to that effect is made in General Holcomb's telegram, quoted as follows:

"Deeply regret to inform you cablegram from International Red Cross, Tokyo, Japan, reports that your son, Private First Class Roy A. Wederbrook, United States Marine Corps, who has been carried on the records of this headquarters, as missing in action is now reported to have died in the Philippine Islands, date and cause not given. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. Letter follows.

Sales Of Feed Wheat End For Time Being

Sales of feed wheat at sub parity prices have been stopped, it was announced this week by N. E. Gass, chairman of the Deaf Smith County USDA War Board, who stated that the 125 million bushel stock of Commodity Credit wheat, originally marked for sale as feed, had been exhausted.

No more wheat will be available for feed unless Congress authorizes further sale of Commodity Credit Corporation stocks.

Campaign For WAVE Enlistment Continues

Mrs. Grace Hodge of Amarillo, district recruiter for the WAVES, in Hereford Monday night as a guest of the B and F W club stated that the WAVE recruiting campaign in the Panhandle is rapidly gaining momentum and urged that women interested in joining a branch of the service investigate the many advantages offered by the WAVES and SPARS (Coast Guard).

"First, you'll train at a leading college," Mrs. Hodge states in detailing WAVE advantages. "You'll follow an interesting schedule during the training period, after which you will step into an important shore job at full Navy pay."

Literature on the WAVES and SPARS may be secured in Hereford from Mrs. Cecil Williams and Mrs. Beth B. Holman.

Registration For War Ration Book 2 Starts At High School

Still Punchin'

Registration started at Hereford High School this morning at 8 o'clock for War Ration Book II, as consumers were still talking about the high point value of canned and processed foods and were definitely aware that the period of "can opener nutrition" is over for the duration. Registration here will continue through Saturday, Feb. 28.

Consumers are again reminded of the points to remember in registering for the new ration book as it was pointed out that the big registration job will go off much more smoothly if consumers are educated for their part in the undertaking.

Declare Excess Foods

First, be sure to fill out a consumer declaration sheet for your family before going to the high school to register. This will not be done at the school, and the declaration form must be filled out (except for the signature of the family representative) before the registration. Only excess of coffee (amount over one pound for each person over 14 years of age on hand Nov. 28, 1942) and of canned goods (amount over five pounds per person on hand on Feb. 21, 1943) must be declared. If you had no excess, simply write "None" in the space provided. The declaration form was printed in last week's Brand. Bring Book No. 1

Second, be sure to bring War Ration Book No. 1 belonging to each person whose name appears on the Consumers Declaration Sheet.

One adult member of the family unit should apply on one declaration for all members of the family except those who will be away from the household for more than thirty days. "Family Unit" includes all persons related by blood, marriage or adoption who regularly reside in the same household. Employees should not be included in the family.

A person not a member of a family unit should apply for himself on a separate declaration unless he is under 18 years of age, in which case his guardian or some responsible adult should apply for him.

If a person is unable to appear (Continued on Back Page)

Canning Plant Locates Here

Definitely announcing that he will have a modern canning plant in operation in Hereford this summer, Ashley Mixon, this week took a lease on the Broadwell Building, across north from the City Hall, and sent out an S. O. S. call for producers in this area to plant a large acreage of tomatoes.

"The canning plant will likely go into operation around August 20, and will continue operation into November," Mr. Mixon told Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday night. From 75 to 200 persons will be employed in the canning plant during operation.

Market For Potatoes Because of heavy government demand, only tomatoes will be canned here for the duration, but Mr. Mixon states his intention of processing a large variety of Deaf Smith County foods after the war. After the potato season is underway, a buyer will remain in Hereford to contract for potatoes and other products to be processed at Plainview.

The plant will have a capacity of 150,000 No. 2 cans a day, according to plans, and the owners desire to contract a minimum of 100 acres of tomatoes (Continued on Page 12)

Epidemic of Forgeries Of Government Checks

Urging merchants to "know their endorsers", City Marshal Ed Curtisinger this week stated that the treasury department advises him of the forging of many government checks.

Persons who receive Army or Navy allotment checks are urged to cooperate with the post office department by reporting immediately any changes of address, by posting their names on mail boxes, to endorse checks only at the time they are cashed, to always supply themselves with positive means of identification and to try to cash checks regularly in the same place.

Merchants also can do much to cut down the number of government check forgeries Mr. Curtisinger points out, by insisting on absolute and positive identification when cashing checks for strangers; by requiring all persons presenting checks to endorse them in the merchant's presence; by requiring all checks to be initialed by the clerk accepting them, and by asking themselves the question: "If this check should be returned, can I find the person who presented it to me?"

Merchants who accept government checks without proper safeguards are unwittingly contributing to the hardships of soldiers' and sailors' dependents whose allotment checks are stolen or forged.

Farm Mechanics Course Starts Monday, Mar. 1

A farm mechanics school, similar to the one held here in January, 1942, will be held at the high school agriculture rooms, starting March 1, it was announced today by H. T. Cardwell, agriculture teacher, who states that farmers who want to learn more about the care and repair of their machinery should plan now to attend the course.

Classes will be held three nights a week, from 8 until 11 o'clock and a local mechanic will teach the course, to which farmers can bring their machinery for repair. Nights on which the classes will meet will be determined Monday.

As in the course last year, the subject will be all types of gasoline motors and farmers will get training in the care and repair of trucks, combines, tractors and automobiles.

Mother of Hereford Man Dies in Houston

C. C. Rockwell returned Saturday from Houston, where he attended funeral services for his mother, Mrs. Sarah W. Rockwell, who died Tuesday.

Mrs. Rockwell, a native of Mississippi, had lived in Houston since 1898 and in former years used to make frequent trips to Hereford with her husband, the late J. M. Rockwell, who had many business interests in this section of the panhandle. Mrs. Rockwell had many friends among the pioneers of Hereford.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Lillian Rockwell of Amarillo, E. C., and by her sons, James W. and Henry C. Rockwell of Houston, and C. C. Rockwell of Hereford.

When, Where, And How Taxes Are To Be Paid

Taxes due on a return filed for the calendar year 1942 may be paid in full at the time for the filing of the return on or before March 15, 1943. The tax may, at the option of the taxpayer, be paid in four equal installments instead of in a single payment, in which case the first installment is to be paid on or before March 15, the second on or before June 15, the third on or before September 15, and the fourth on or before December 15, 1943. If the taxpayer elects to pay his tax in four installments, each of the four installments must be equal in amount, but any installment may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the time prescribed for its payment. If an installment is not paid in full on or before the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax remaining unpaid is required to be paid upon notice and demand from the collector.

The tax must be paid to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer's return is required to be filed—that is, to the collector for the district in which is located the taxpayer's legal residence or principal place of business, or if he has no legal residence or principal place of business in the United States, then to the collector of internal revenue at Baltimore, Maryland.

In the payment of taxes a fractional part of a cent is to be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

The tax due, if any, should be paid in cash at the collector's office, or by check or money order payable to "Collector of Internal Revenue." In the case

Contemporary Composers Are Studied By Members Of Music Study Club

The third of a series of four programs dealing with Contemporary Composers, was presented at the Music Study Club meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Beyer.

Mrs. Ellis Coombes was leader of the lesson and in preparation for musical selections on the program she told something of the lives of composers to be represented and gave criticisms of their works.

The first number was a vocal solo "Courage" (Bruno Huhn) sung by Mrs. A. O. Thompson with piano accompaniment by Mrs. A. J. Schroeter. Mrs. W. J. Stanford played "Bon bons" (H. K. Hadley) and Mrs. H. K. Fox sang "A Song for Lovers" by Deems Taylor with accompaniment by Mrs. J. C. McCracken. "The Green River" (Jno. Alden Carpenter) sung by Mrs. McCracken was especially appreciated, both for the very modernistic type of the music itself and for the effective manner in which she gave her own accompaniment. To conclude the program Mrs. Coombes played "Ballet Episode" by E. S. Kelly.

A short business session was held when members voted to sponsor a Victory Concert for entertainment of soldiers stationed here, sometime in April.

Members present for the meeting were Mesdames Jeff Gilbreath, H. K. Fox, C. C. Ferguson, C. H. Dyer, W. E. Dameron, R. P. Coneway, Ellis Coombes, H. L. Broadwell, C. C. Acker, J. B. Jones, J. C. McCracken, G. A. F. Parker, T. W. Roberson, S. P. Rossion, A. J. Schroeter, Glenn Snyder, C. R. Smith, W. J. Stanford, A. C. Thompson, A. O. Thompson, Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, Miss Eloyse Pitman and the hostess, Mrs. Troys Carmichael of Hobart, a former member of the club, was a guest.

Mrs. F. M. Faulkner is here to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bob Wilson, and family for several days.

Small Farmers Aid Increased Food Production

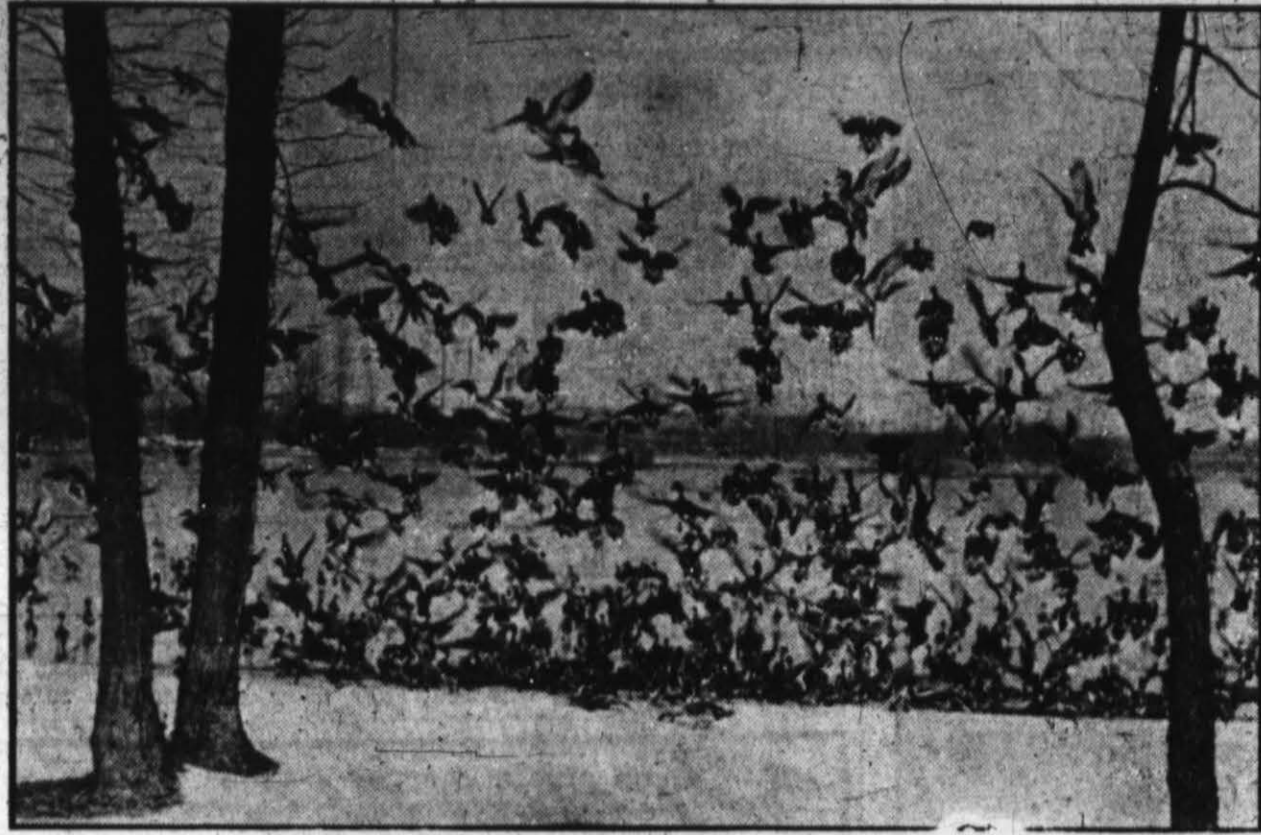

More than a third of the nation's increase in milk production in 1942 came from 463,941 farms of Farm Security Administration borrowers, the Department of Agriculture reported today.

In terms of the nation's total increase, milk topped the list of production by these borrowers, according to results of a survey of their production. Farm Security Administration, on the basis of its survey, reported that these families, constituting 7.8 percent of the 6,097,000 farm operators listed by the 1940 census, increased their milk production by 1,419,000,000 pounds or 36 per cent of the total increase for the nation. This was a 20 per cent increase over their 1941 production, compared to a three per cent increase made by all farmers. All of this increase may not have been, of course, a net increase since some of the cows purchased in 1942 by FSA borrowers would have been milked by their original owners.

Significant increases by Farm Security borrowers also were shown for other war-needed food crops. In terms of their own production the year before, these 1942 increases ranged from 20 to 106 per cent. In terms of the Nation's total increase, they also contributed 27 per cent of the Nation's increase in dry beans and 10 per cent of the total increase in eggs, chickens and peanuts.

These families were from the small farm group unable to get adequate credit from other sources. They operated with Farm Security Administration credit and supervision. Early in 1942, following January revision of the Nation's war food goals as a result of the attack on Pearl Harbor, the families revised their

On Monday the vote in the recent incorporation election was canvassed and return thereupon made to the county judge. The order for the election of a mayor, alderman and a marshal will be issued in a few days. Twenty days must then elapse before the election can take place. In thirty days at the most, the incorporated town of Hereford will be fully organized and ready to enter upon its municipal existence.

The blizzard which struck Hereford Saturday night and continued with unremitting fury all day Sunday is said to have been the worst that has been known here since the extreme cold wave which swept the state four years ago. The snow fell all night and almost without pause throughout Sunday—and the temperature, it is said, fell as low as eight degrees below zero.

Notwithstanding the uninviting weather, a goodly number of young people assembled at the college Saturday night for a Valentine party. The cold wind cast no shadow of gloom upon the cheer inside and for several hours merry youths and maidens indulged in old-fashioned games and pleasant pastimes. Joe Murphy of Dalhart was in town Monday. While here he sold to W. G. Ross his half interest in the local telephone exchange.

FT. WORTH—Miss Lois Agnes Gilbreath and Miss June Dameron of Hereford are two of 253 Texas Christian University coeds who have signed up for volunteer war work.

Under the new plan adopted at T. C. U., the girls, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Murphy, devote three hours weekly to an organized program of physical training and a minimum of two hours weekly to war work of some sort.

The girls have signed up with 17 war-time service agencies. Red Cross first aid study has attracted the most girls with 66 studying.

U. S. O. work has 33; bandage rolling has 25; typists for the O. C. D. and Red Cross Office has 14.

Others are nurses aids, enrolled in the Texas Guardettes, caring for children in organized social centers, etc.

Take Care OF YOUR WATER HEATER

To conserve vital materials, the War Production Board has ruled that you cannot obtain a new household appliance except under special conditions. That's why you must take extra care of your gas appliances. It may be a long time before you can replace them.

Put your appliances in tip-top operating condition, keep them clean, take care of them and they will help take care of you.

HERE ARE SOME SUGGESTIONS ON THE CARE OF YOUR WATER HEATER:

1. Keep burner adjusted properly.
2. Do not let pilot light burn too high.
3. Be sure vents are unobstructed.
4. Drain water from bottom of tank once a month.
5. Keep water heater thermostat below 140 degrees.

The Hereford BRAND JOB PRINTING
 Since 1901

"I had no shoes and complained—until I met a man who had no feet."

Every time I think about point rationing, I somehow recall the above words which R. A. Tynes clipped from a magazine and hung on his prescription case. Point rationing threw a lot of folks a curve. Most people in this community figured there would be plenty "and some to spare" as has been the case with sugar and coffee rationing. Food rationing will be hard on all of us, but not half so hard out here as it will be in New York, Chicago and other congested areas. Fortunately, no one is likely to starve in this section—because cities will see actual hunger and starvation in 1943, especially in case of transportation difficulties which are already acute. Another point worthy of consideration is the large number of housewives who are now engaged in defense work. Naturally, these women will have little time to prepare meals from raw foods.

Many people are planting gardens this year. It sure is fine if you can get your wife to do the work. Ike Crosthwait and I had this worked out to a fine point last year. Mrs. Crosthwait is our official advisor and if you hit any snags I will recommend her advise.

Along this line comes an anonymous letter signed "A Worried Farm Woman." This lady says she bought one of the Hereford Brand Cook Books and wants it revised. For example, she says the recipes should read: "Put four points of dried red beans in a pot with two points of cured ham." or "To six points of canned peaches add three points of canned pineapple; mix with one-half point of orange juice, etc." Maybe she's got something, or maybe she had better talk her husband into planting a garden.

Celling price on Coffee: The top price your grocer could charge you if he had any coffee

Right now the Brand office is more interested in finding a printer's devil than anything else. This is a pretty good proposition for some boy who is naturally inclined toward machinery. If you know a young fellow who is interested in learning a good trade send him down to see us. The job would be after school and on Saturdays and during the summer months. A boy could work this way for three or four years and then have a good trade for life. I know of several who have worked their way through college by means of learning the printing trade while in high school. However, they have to be interested and industrious. We sure have a nice set-up for the right boy, and we will be glad to talk with any boy who really wants to work and learn a good trade.

Ole T. Larson recently contributed an article with some good thought. Mr. Larson says some people are fussing because of the comforts in our prison camps. He says "let's fix the prison government because of the information which they carry to dealers, who in turn pass this information to customers.

Meanwhile, people still retain their sense of humor in these changing times. I got a real laugh while reading The Brand the other night. We have been running some ads which read: "Regular Brand Ads Bring Home the Bacon." Stansell Scott was evidently impressed in recent weeks with the shortage of bacon, so he added a line which read "Not being any bacon, we'll have to call it results."

State President, Amarillo B&PW Members, Visit With Hereford Club

With Miss Hattilu White, president of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and other members of the Amarillo B and P W as guests, the Hereford B and P W met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ursalee Jacobsen to hear program suggestions and a report on the recent state board meeting held in Austin.

Mrs. Clifford Caroline Dunn, president of the Amarillo Club, outlined the general war program being followed by the Amarillo business women, laying special stress on the success of their project at the soldier's recreation center. Mrs. Dolly Pendleton, vice-president and chairman of the Amarillo B and P W, reviewed an article from the January "Independent Woman," which she stated was a good summation of the goals of the federation war program for efficient participation of women in winning the war and the peace which is to follow. Mrs. Pendleton pointed to the duty of business and professional women in leading community thought toward intelligent solution of war problems.

Miss White, reporting on the state board meeting, summarized the problems which the board has endorsed, pointing out that the amendment on jury service for women is now before the house and urged that B and P W members support the submission of this amendment to the people. The state federation has also voted to support the recruiting of women for the armed services and is continuing its program of equal rights for women in war work and all occupations.

Speaking directly to the Hereford club, the state president pointed out that a membership problem is really a problem of leadership and urged that each member take up the responsibilities of leadership in her club.

Other visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Grace Hodge, who spoke briefly on the WAVE recruiting campaign, Mrs. Reed, secretary of the Amarillo club, and Mrs. Ruby Carmichael of Houston, former member of the Hereford Club.

THE CHURCH WORLD

First Methodist Church
Marvin L. Boyd, Pastor

All services at this church and all meetings of departments and organizations of the church during the coming week will be devoted to observance of the Week of Dedication which is a nation-wide observance. Members of the Methodist Church everywhere are being asked to pledge a "new dedication of self, service, and substance" in meeting the challenges and needs of the war-torn world.

All local Methodists are called to attend the services on the next two Sundays in order to make personal commitments. It is the purpose of this observance to bring church people to a full and unqualified loyalty to the Christian ideals for which lives are being given every day on the battle fields of the world.

The special observance will culminate in the service on Sunday March 7, when personal commitments will be made and a voluntary offering will be taken for war-time emergency needs of the church. These emergency needs include spiritual services for men in the armed forces, religious work among families in industrial defense areas, relief for war refugees, aid to chaplains in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, expansion of missionary work in Latin America in keeping with our national policy, evacuating and re-establishing the missionaries withdrawn from Japan and territory occupied by Japan, and building churches and temporary places of worship in defense areas.

Various groups of the men, women, youth, and children of the Hereford church will meet a specified times next week for prayer, discussion, and the dedication of "self, service, and substance."

The subject of the pastor's sermon this Sunday will be "The Master's Call to You."

First Christian Church News
Hours for the morning worship services remain the same, but hereafter the evening worship program will start at 7 o'clock with the Young People's Meeting, which will last from 7 until 8.

The regular evening worship hour will be from 8 until 9 and this Sunday night will feature a play, "Standing Cane," presented by young people of the church.

We extend a cordial invitation to people of the community and to soldiers at the Internment Camp to attend any of these services.

H. M. Redford, minister.

Presbyterian Church News
The Sunday School hour begins at ten o'clock. There are classes for all ages of children and adults and a cordial invitation is extended to all who so desire to be present with us in this hour of Bible study.

The Morning Worship Service begins at eleven o'clock. The sermon subject is: "Following Afar Off." A special invitation is extended to all service men at the Camp to worship with us in this service.

The Young People meet at seven o'clock. All of the young people are urged to be present for this service.

The Evening Worship Service begins at eight o'clock. We will consider together a religious teaching about which there is doubt in our minds.

The mid-week prayer service is held every Wednesday evening at seven-for-five P. M. This service is a brief period of Bible study and prayer. Everyone is invited to study and pray with us at this hour.

Karo-Apple Pie
5 medium sized apples
1-4 cup sugar
1-2 cup dark Karo
nutmeg, cinnamon and butter

Line a pie plate with pastry and fill with apples sliced thin. Sprinkle sugar over the apples and pour the Karo over the apples and sugar. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon and nutmeg. Cover with strips of pastry and bake in moderate oven until crust is brown.

Old-fashioned apple pie rates as the No. 1 prize dessert with the men in the family. Here is a new model of the same old thing and it fits in at the end of a meal or at casual snack affairs when the dessert is the main part of the food. Mrs. Mont Baker has good luck with this recipe for apple pie. It is simple to make, goes easy on the sugar and tastes just right even without the proverbial whipped cream topping.

ized are asked to phone Mrs. Bob Wilson at once in order that the course may be started. Up to now, only ten have signified their intention of taking the course and that is just half the number required to enroll before the course can be begun.

Mrs. Wilson said that the Home Nursing work is of primary importance and that women are being urged to enroll, not only to learn how to care for their own families more intelligently, but that they may be of service to their communities as well.

CHDA NOTES

by Sadie Lee Oliver

With regard to the garden story published in last week's Brand, one correction should be made. Planting date for corn in this territory should not be until after frost—usually about April 15. Honey June is the variety usually most successful, and if this seed is not available, try Sure cropper Sugar.

You may have tried to grow egg plant and had a hard time finding a variety which will grow here. Recommended is the New Hampshire, which is listed in many seed catalogs.

A cold and exceedingly windy February day was on the calendar when the Fairview Club met with Mrs. Robert Campbell two weeks ago. But in spite of the weather, Mrs. Campbell pointed out that she is serving fresh spinach in salads to her family. The spinach is grown in a small hotbed under glass.

An apple which really grows well here, according to Mrs. Albert Springer of Frio, is the Anoka. The Springers planted a tree one year and the next year picked eight apples from the small tree. The year after that, they picked 25 apples.

And Mrs. W. S. Littrel of Frio planted lettuce last August and discovered she had a very nice, heading variety. It is New York No. 12.

Many inquiries continue to come in about chicken raising and we received last week ten copies of a blue print of a "North Plains Poultry House." The design is by W. H. Upchurch, county agent of Randall County, and the poultry house is suited to the weather conditions of the panhandle.

Also on hand are bulletins on Homemade Electric Brooders and Homemade Lamp Brooders. The last is especially good if you plan to raise a few fryers in a small space.

Other bulletins for which we are having a demand at this time:

Vegetable Seed Treatments, Bulletin No. 1938 (U. S. D. A. Frame Gardens).

Culture and Diseases of Delphiniums—U. S. D. A. No. 1827 Killing and Cutting Lamb (A and M bulletin).

Closets and Storage Space, U. S. D. A. No. 1865.

A. B. C's of Mending, U. S. D. A. No. 1925.

Honey and some of its uses, U. S. D. A. Leaflet No. 113.

Dwarf Fruits, Leaflet No. 178.

People are so well pleased with the evergreens recently received from the Lubbock Experiment Station that a new order is being made up and will be shipped soon. Leave your orders at the C. H. D. A. office.

Thanks,

Folks!
For several weeks we've been asking your help in reducing fuse service calls and appliance trouble trips. You are helping... recent reports show a substantial reduction in service calls of this nature. By replacing your own fuses and double-checking your appliances, you are helping conserve tires, gasoline and manpower so urgently needed to win the war.
So again, "Thanks, folks," to all of you who have responded to this wartime request!

KEEP EXTRA FUSES HANDY
Come in, the next time you're down town. Let us help you make sure you have the right size fuses. We'll gladly show you how to replace "blown" fuses, too.

The foundation of your tire is the side walls!

The foundation of your side walls is the fabric in them. When this gives away, the foundation is of little use to the balance of the tire.

Hickey's Rubber Rejuvenator strengthens the rubber between the fabric, giving extra life to the tire by providing a real foundation for recapping.

"FOOD FOR FREEDOM"

We are opening a Canning Plant in Hereford. We have already leased the old Broadwell Building, across north from the City Hall, and will remodel it completely before installing equipment for our modern Canning Plant, which will have a capacity of 150,000 cans daily. In addition, we will serve this area with a daily cash market for products to be used in our Dehydration Plant at Plainview.

This offers the people of the Hereford Territory an opportunity to establish a New Industry and at the same time to do their part in the nation-wide "Food for Freedom" program which Uncle Sam is demanding!

Cash Market

TO PRODUCERS IN THIS IRRIGATED AREA

Mr. Farmer:

MR. FARMER! This is your opportunity to help in the war effort by producing MORE FOOD for FREEDOM! Should one question the value of growing vegetables on a daily cash market we ask you to talk to anyone who has lived for several years in territories where canneries are operating. Such towns are Muleshoe, Brownwood and Portales, N. M.

We Want From 100 to 500 ACRES of TOMATOES

HERE . . . in 1943 . . .

BECAUSE THE GOVERNMENT WILL GIVE US An unlimited supply of cans for Tomatoes, the Hereford plant will pack tomatoes for "the duration" . . . following the war we will pack other commodities.

We MUST have a minimum of 100 acres in TOMATOES in 1943 — and we would like to have 500 acres. Tomato Seed should be planted around April 1st. We will furnish information, and seed, and will have a plant setter available to transplant your slips through the month of May. Your tomatoes can be worked with standard potato equipment. It will cost around $25.00 an acre to bring your tomatoes to the Harvest Period — some farmers in Plainview, Lockney, Muleshoe, and other Plains towns netted as high as $200.00 to the acre on tomatoes in 1942—and prices are higher this year.

See A. E. BATEMAN, County Agent, or MISS SADIE LEE OLIVER, Home Demonstration Agent, for complete details NOW! Contracts will be available around March 1, 1943.

RUTGER'S TOMATOES

We have registered the following Trade Names under which we will pack FOODS in this area:

"DEAF SMITH COUNTY FOODS"

Hereford, Texas—On the Plains—The Town Without a Toothache

"HEREFORD FOOD PRODUCTS"

Hereford, Texas—On the Plains—The Town Without a Toothache

"DR. HEARD FOODS"

Hereford, Texas—On the Plains—The Town Without a Toothache

What About Planting?

It is true that Canning and Dehydration require certain varieties of Good Products: RUTGER Tomatoes, IRISH COBBLER Potatoes, RED CORE CHANTENAY Carrots, MARYLAND SWEETS or PUERTO RICAN Sweet Potatoes! Upon request we shall be glad to assist you in getting seed and to offer any information which you need as to varieties, etc. NOW is the time to act on the tomato deal if you plant your own seed; we will also grow plants here for resale in this area—and will have a plant setter available for tomato plants you may grow yourself.

What About Farm Labor?

The vegetable season here opens following that in the Rio Grande Valley. Labor from that section will be transferred to the Plains to harvest local crops. The vegetable season will be over before Cotton Picking begins on the South Plains. We feel sure that sufficient labor will be available. REMEMBER, our fighting men and our country needs "Food for Victory!"

What About Prices?

The government has guaranteed a price of $22.00 per ton on tomatoes this year ($5.00 more than in 1942), and many growers netted $300 an acre on the Plains last year through our canning plants at Plainview and Lovington, N. M. Likewise, we know the government will be fair about prices on Irish Potatoes, Carrots, and Sweet Potatoes! Crops like these make greater returns on your irrigated farms — and they furnish "Food for Freedom"!

Mrs. J. R. Allison reviewed Maxwell Anderson's new play, "The Eve of St. Mark," for Calliopian Club members Thursday evening at the meeting held at the home of Miss Mary Kate Brotherton.

In discussing the book Mrs. Allison said in part, "This new play is the story of one American boy in the war. A story that begins with the farm where he was born and the girl whom he loved, and takes him through the training camp, with its discipline and temptations, to a Pacific convoy and a courageous stand on a little rock among the Philippines. The Eve of St. Mark, according to an old legend, is the eve when a girl may see

The Whiteface Round-Up

Will Your Name Be on the HONOR ROLL?

Prince Hereford
Hello, people! How is every little thing moving along with you today? Everytime I get started on a nice long article, Homer rushes in telling me some gossip, so I'll just have to fit this together as it comes in.

Would somebody please tell me who Robina Culpepper's heart-beat is? She got a very special Valentine from somebody and has been going around starry-eyed ever since.

It seems as if letting one's tongue slip is getting to be a habit. At the Tri-Hi-Y teacher's social last week, Margaret Olson made the remark in her welcome "that we wish more of the teacher's couldn't have come." Miss Easter and Miss Hancock looked up rather quickly, but Margaret hastily changed her sentence and made everyone feel more comfortable.

Do you know what a "ration-bug" is? It is a new kind of bug which has in its species all the faculty and students who are helping with the rationing of food. The only pain they inflict is that of fear-fear, that thin people will not receive enough to eat and fear that fat people will not receive enough.

Has everybody seen the new football trophy? It even has a place in which to put the boys' picture. If you haven't seen it, you might glance into Mr. Kinnard's office. (Confidentially, I hope it is placed in the trophy case in the front hall, I could gaze at it for hours.)

When Homer returned from a jaunt several minutes ago, he brought back a rumor to the effect that—and have been nearing the breaking point; however, things are all O. K. according to the last report. Anytime a story appears in this column concerning the love-affairs of the high-school gang, you had better check first with the kids themselves because the way everyone is changing boyfriends or girlfriends here lately, not even H. V. Kaitenborn could keep up with them.

It just seems a little bit early to be having spring fever, but Lee Roy Burges evidently got an early start. Notice him sometime in study hall; while resting his head on his hands, he gets the most distant expressions in his eyes.

Don't you think that everyone should be patriotic this spring and go bare-footed? I think it is a wonderful idea. Just think how Herman Buse, Harold Harvey, C. W. Reeves and a few others would look minus their shoes.

According to the number of people who've been in the halls today, folks around here live to eat rather than eat to live. I surely haven't had time to get lonesome, but I really did miss you school kids.

"Attack! Attack!"

They aren't so very new, but I'll bet you have never seen them. They are war posters. Yes, you know that a few are tacked around school, but have you really ever seen them? When going up the east stairs, which one do you see? "Buy War Bonds," it says. Attack! Attack! Our men are advancing and our men are dying.

This is what the poster shows, and we need to be reminded of the fact that our money in the form of war bonds or stamps can save the life of some American boy or girl. Oh, I know you get tired of hearing, "Buy War Bonds." That is an old story; but do you listen and really pay attention? You can't really forget to buy a stamp each day because there is another poster in the study hall that says "Buy War Bonds."

These posters that are hardly noticed are of great importance to us because they ask us to buy War Bonds, not to sacrifice for nothing in return. Be Americans! Buy War Bonds!

Are You This Monster?

What sloppy creature roams the halls of Hereford High between 1:00 and 2:00? It must be a monster who eats lots of candy, chews lots of gum, and goes around pulling scrap papers out of lockers. "Why must it have these characteristics?" you ask. Because after the noon hour each day, there are always crumpled papers, chewing gum wrappers, etc. scattered up and down the halls.

These bits of paper certainly detract from the attractiveness of our school. Wouldn't you like to walk down the hall and not see a single scrap of paper?

I know it is tempting to rake stray sheets of paper on the hall floor, and, of course, it takes a little time to hunt a waste basket for candy papers, but there are waste baskets in each classroom; so why not use them? We have scrap drives of all kinds for his or that. Let's each of us carry on an individual drive to keep the halls of Hereford High School clean!

In Other Words . . .

"Reading makes a full man," said Bacon. Rationing makes a skinny man, says I.

Way to win the war—Hitler, Nip the Nipones, and Muss-up Mussolini.

Then there was the naive lady who bought so many cans of this, so many cans of that and so many cans of the other just before rationing rolled around. Said she to the grocery clerk by way of explanation—"I want to sock up a little before the hoarders get busy."

Snickerbockers are the pants to a zoot suit—you call them that because they're so silly you snicker at them.

Senior Personalities

Another of those red-headed Senior boys is Bruce Smith. He was born on January 17, 1925, at Leonard, Texas, and one of his greatest ambitions is to pass English IV. Bruce is 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighs 140 pounds. He has brown eyes and, of course, red hair.

Among Bruce's favorites are: food: banana pudding; sport: football; subject: typing; and song: "The Army Air Corps Song."

His hobby is making model air planes. As a jockey, Bruce was the manager of the Whiteface football team, and as a Senior, he is the manager of both the basketball and football teams. Perhaps some of the success of these teams is due to Bruce's work as their manager.

Bruce does not plan to attend college, but he does plan to take up some occupation after his school year, if he is not drafted.

On October 15, 1925, in the city of Happy, Texas, Harold Harvey first opened his "little grey eyes. Harold is 6 feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. He has brown hair, and his ambition is to pilot a plane. Harold's favorite sport is football. His favorite food is pumpkin pie and whipped cream, and he claims his favorite saying is not printable.

Harold has attended Hereford Schools since 1938; prior to that time he attended school at Arney. While in high school, he was a member of the Future Farmers of America for two years. Harold is still undecided as to whether or not he will attend college, if he does not attend college, he either plans to farm or join the Army.

Miami, Texas, is the place of birth of Marie Compton, who was born there on April 15, 1926. At present, she is 5 feet, 8 inches tall, and weighs 143 pounds.

Marie's ambition is to be an English teacher, and her favorite subject is English. Her hobbies are music and reading.

"Aw" is her favorite saying. Aw, now, Marie. Ice Cream is her favorite food and "Beyond the Blue Horizon" her favorite song. Her favorite sport is football.

This brown-eyed, brown-haired miss has been a member of the Junior Red Cross for 2 years, Band 2 years, Orchestra 1 year, Honor Society, 3 years, and Tri-Hi-Y, 1 year. In her Junior year, she was Secretary of the Honor Society, and Historian of the Youth Council. This year she is president of the Orchestra and of the Junior Red Cross. Marie plans to attend college at Hardin-Simmons.

It seems that Edna Mae Wilhelm is very proud of horses. She says that her favorite sport is horseback riding. She is small blue-eyed girl weighing 110 lbs. Her height is 5 feet, 6 inches and her hair is a light brown. She was born April 27, 1927.

Edna has attended the school at New Mexico three and one half years; Nazareth, Texas, three years; and Jumbo one year. She plans to attend the Amarillo Junior college after she graduates.

Eddie's hobby is collecting photographs. Her favorite food is chocolate pie; her song is, "White Christmas." She has a favorite subject, too, which is bookkeeping. Eddie's ambition is to become a nurse.

George L. Olson was born April 28, 1926 in Hereford. He is now five feet and eight inches tall and weighs 145 pounds. He has black hair and blue eyes. George has determined to remember one thing from his Senior year. That one thing, which he is always saying, is: "To be or no, to be that is the question."

He is usually heard whistling, singing or humming that tune, "Deep in the Heart of Texas." His hobby is horseback riding, and his favorite food is fried chicken and apple pie. His sport is football.

George has enjoyed going to school at Hereford High very much and he is sure he will always remember his school days. He does not yet know whether he will attend college, but if he does it will be at A. and M. If he doesn't, he will help his father on the farm; his ambition is to graduate from H. H. S., then become a good farmer.

George is a reporter and vice-president of the B. S. P. Club, which is his favorite subject.

An up and coming young man of the Senior Class of '43 is Billy Dameron, who was born in Hereford on April 9, 1926. Billy is a blue-eyed blonde, is five feet nine inches tall and weighs 180

We Americans!

America is noted for her possession of great things! One of her outstanding possessions is that of great men—men of yesterday and today.

The Star Engraving Company, Houston, Texas, has supplied us with posters of these men and nearly every room in the building has at least one poster. Let us all pay particular attention to what each poster says. In this way perhaps, we can understand why America is what it is. Lincoln, Lee, Washington, Patrick Henry, Woodrow Wilson, and MacArthur are but a few who have contributed to the history of our country and who have left some worthy word of speech.

"I give to the people of the Philippines my solemn pledge that their freedom will be re-deemed and their independence established and protected. The entire resources, in men and material, of the United States stand behind that pledge."

No less thought of is this pledge given recently by General MacArthur than the following by Abraham Lincoln: "With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right; let us strive on to finish the work we are in."

Each of us is striving to do our part in this war. Is there any better way to do this than to let the standards of these men be examples?

Reporter's Lament

I always wanted to be a president
Of some such club or other,
But now the time has gone and went
And the job's held by ano. her.

I do confess that I can write
News articles and things,
But don't you think that I might
Be capable of other things?

The only thing I ever do
Is write and think and write.
How I wish I led a club;
How I wish I might.

In every club I'm in, it seems,
At least I think it does
That everybody always dreams
Of me as nothing else than as reporter.

Of course, I really do not mind,
Being a reporter;
But I do wish someone would find,
Some other kid some time.

I guess I'll have to be content
Even if I'm not President;
For I finally do see,
Not everyone can a Prexy be.

Show Your Locker More Consideration

Ah! Please don't put that bottle of ink in me! I am actually stuffed—can't hold another thing. See all over the floor where I have spilled over?

I am your locker, don't you want to show me any consideration? I may not be human, but I do have feelings. I am miserable when you stuff me, just throw things in me and never shut my door.

About that fountain pen you threw at me the other day! You went away leaving my door open, and I just could not keep the pen from sliding out.

Some good friend came by and picked it up of course, you knew someone took it from me.

pounds. His favorite food is watermelon and he likes to swim and ride horses. Bill wants to become a cattleman and pilot a pursuit plane.

Billy has been very active in club work since he entered high school. He was president and pep leader of the Freshman Class, pep leader of Sophomore class, president of Youth Council his Sophomore and Junior year, Treasurer of Hi-Y Club this year, State vice-president of the F. H. T. and is now president of the Honor Society. He has been in the Hi-Y three years, Boys Glee Club two years, Honor Society one year, Hereford Whitefaces (Football and basketball) two years, Boy Scouts four years, (he is now Junior Assistant Scoutmaster), F. H. T. two years, and Pep Club two years.

Billy plans to attend college at Texas A. and M. and if he doesn't go to college he wants to join the Naval Air Corps. Billy's favorite sport is football and he likes civics very much.

Abe Lincoln Featured In Speech Program

Lincoln, as one of the greatest Americans, was the theme of the assembly program given by the speech class on Feb. 18. The program was announced by Robert Elliston and then Marcella Koelzer gave "Lincoln, The Man of the People." Felix Pyka was the narrator who depicted the Lincoln Memorial as is seen at Washington, D. C. At this time the curtain was raised showing Danny Russell as Lincoln.

The thoughts of Lincoln at different stages of his life were presented in the form of readings and poems. Nona Dean Rose gave "The Soul of Ann Rutledge" which is a dramatic reading telling of Lincoln's love for Ann, who died soon after their engagement. Juanita Kelley read a copy of the letter which Lincoln wrote to Mrs. Bixby after her five sons had been killed in the Civil War. Phyllis Radovich gave a reading, "February 12, 1863." This reading described Lincoln's thoughts and feelings during the trying months of the Civil War. The program was closed when Margaret Olson led the group in singing "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Will Somebody?

Tell Barbara Robertson not to make faces when she hears that the speech class has the assembly programs? (Their programs aren't so dull this year.)

Find out who started the "boot epidemic" in high school?

Tell Luther Worley not to be so good-looking? He is knocking all the girls google-eyed?

Please ask Jane Harris where she gets all her cute clothes?

Please ask Carl Hennington why he never gets anything done in fourth period study hall?

Keep the assignments in economics so everyone else can borrow them?

"Please" pass English IV this semester?
Help James Lee spend his idle moments of which he always seems to have an ample supply?
See that the teachers are in a good mood when they make out the six-weeks grades?
Thank somebody for food rationing that enables us to get out of school two days?

Groceryman—"Is there anything else I can send you? What would you say to a piece of cheese?"

Edna Wilhelm—"I wouldn't care to say anything to it. It might answer me back."

'Murder of Lidice' Given By Kirby

"The Murder of Lidice," by Edna St. Vincent Millay was read by Miss Katherine Kirby at the Senior class meeting last Wednesday, Feb. 17, when the Seniors met in Room 30.

The reason for the writing of the poem makes a story in itself. Lidice is, or was, a small little village in Czechoslovakia. The German government sent Heydrich, a Gestapo officer, mysteriously disappeared while in Lidice, and as a consequence, all the inhabitants of Lidice had to pay the penalty for his death. All the male inhabitants were shot. The women and children were sent to concentration camps in Germany. The entire city was completely destroyed.

The Czechs in America felt the destruction of Lidice very deeply, for many of them had relatives there. In memory of Lidice, Czechoslovakia, a small town in Illinois was renamed Lidice.

The poem tells very vividly of the destruction of the city and concludes by warning Americans not to let Lidice, Illinois share the fate of Lidice, Czechoslovakia.

Orchestra Elects Officers

Officers were elected for the orchestra last Friday, February 19. Marie Compton was elected president.

Other officers elected were Florence Wilhelm, vice-president and Nettie Hood, reporter.

The orchestra now boasts an almost complete instrumentation. There are three first violins, three second violins, one viola, two cellos, one bass violin, one piano, one drum, one trombone, two clarinets, two trumpets, one saxophone, and one flute.

Entertainment Is Held For Faculty

"The purpose of our club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." This was one of the subjects spoken on at the Tri-Hi-Y meeting last Tuesday night. Members of the faculty were guests of the girls.

Margaret Olson cordially welcomed the guests. Billy Sexton then opened the program, "The Origin and Purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y," giving the background of the Y. M. C. A. and Hi-Y. George Williams, who went to London to act as an apprentice to a drapery man, saw the need of young men for a club with high ideals and purposes; therefore, in 1844 he started the Y. M. C. A. In 1899, the boy's Hi-Y club was organized in a small town in Kansas. It was on the Y. M. C. A. organization. Finally, the girls realized their need for such a club; so in 1930 L. A. Pickett appointed Lillian B. Firestone to help in the organization of the girl's Tri-Hi-Y club.

Arline Millard told "The Purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y" and "The History of the Pin." She read the boy's story of how and why he made and designed the pin as he did.

Following the songs which the group sang, refreshments of punch and cookies were served. The Tri-Hi-Y Benediction closed the program.

Guests included Misses Pauline Hancock, Decima Ramey, Alma Hall, Katherine Kirby, and Katherine Easter.

F. F. A. Holds Initiation

Maybe you're wondering why all those boys were running about the halls last Friday with their shirts on backward and their hands painted green. Well, they happened to be the new F. F. A. members who were initiated Thursday night. Most of the old members were there, and about half of the new ones were on hand for the meeting and the initiation that followed. After the meeting refreshments were served, and everyone seemed to enjoy himself thoroughly. The boys who were initiated were Alfred Hoffman, James Edmonson, Vernon Wilson, Joe Brorman, David Sowell, Weldon Stephen, Wendell Robertson, E. H. Little, and Paul Orr.

NOW WE SERVE ON A NEW "WAR FRONT"

"Ration Banking" Starts This Month

By arrangement with the OPA, we are taking over the book-keeping details which the ration boards are not so well equipped to do.

Under "Ration Banking" retailers, wholesalers, and others will open sugar or gasoline ration accounts. But instead of dollars, all figuring will be in pounds or gallons.

The dealer's Sugar Purchase Order from his ration board will be his "deposit." The coupons from customers will be the "checks" against his account. Therefore, his "sugar balance" in the bank will show how much he is entitled to order again.

We are proud to serve on this new "war front."
