

Opportunities For Youth Are Emphasized At Graduation As Awards Made To High Students

Around Town

Sights and Faces Seen

Henry Williamson, who has been working at the Miller Auto Store, is now parts man at the Chevrolet Garage, succeeding Troy Stambaugh, who is going to farm.

Woodrow Ireland has received a very attractive desk set--the base finished in marble and a new type pen with an invisible point.

Roy Hastings just home from Tech says that he hardly has time to say "hello" to his family before he gets put to work.

Mary Trefel had a bad case of "bookkeeper's blues" Monday morning. Not only was it Monday, but it was also the first, which makes a big headache bigger.

Miss Mary Turrentine, who last week graduated from Mary Hardin-Baylor College at Belton, is now working in the office of Miss Sadie Lee Oliver.

E. C. Eubanks is the new county auditor, succeeding Charley Cogdell.

A. L. Caviness on Wednesday of last week sold his Standard Oil Service Station on Highway 60 to R. A. Scott, who will continue to feature a complete line of Standard Oil products.

New Operator Takes Job At Beauty Mart

Miss Kitten Smith of Dimmitt is a new operator at the Beauty Mart, Miss Ona Faye Smith, owner, explained this week.

The operator has had several years experience in a beauty shop at Dimmitt and is thoroughly capable in all lines of the work. She takes the place of Mrs. Gladys Carroll.

Mrs. Tom Parker Wins Local Lowe Bros. Contest

Mrs. Tom Parker was winner of the local Lowe Brothers Paint Contest recently held at Kemp Lumber Company, Grant Fuller announced this week.

Mrs. Parker's entry is automatically entered in the national contest in which Lowe Brothers are awarding a total of $1136 in cash prizes.

Emphasizing the preservation of the American Way as the prime requisite for realization of personal ambitions, Wes Izzard of Amarillo, speaker at Hereford High's 36th annual commencement, Friday night, brought out the idea that this country is still the land of opportunity.

With reference to the characteristically high ambitions of high school graduates, Mr. Izzard pointed out that there is no reason why they should not be reached if the graduate keeps his eye on a goal, used his imagination and is not afraid of hard work.

The speaker gave examples of material progress made within the last 40 years and scouted the idea that just as great progress would not be made within the next generation.

But first, Mr. Izzard brought out, we must keep our opportunities, for "Opportunity is the American Way."

A crowd overflowing the high school auditorium, heard the program, which included talks by Miss June Dameron, salutatorian, on "An Unending Quest," and by Miss Wilma Higgins, valedictorian on "Youth Looks To Tomorrow."

Special Awards Made

W. Jesse Stanford, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas to 55 seniors; and G. M. Hudson, high school principal, gave out special scholarship and credit point awards.

Awards were made to Miss Billy Louise Davis, who received scholarships from state schools and from S. M. U., Trinity, College of the Incarnate Word, and Hardin-Simmons University; Bobby Davis, highest grade point winner for boys, was given scholarships to S. M. U., Hardin-Simmons, and Trinity.

On a credit point rating, which is judged on basis of scholarship and participation in school-sponsored activities, Miss June Dameron was high with a total of 224 points for the year. Her name (Continued on Page 10)

Rains This Morning Brings 1.01 Inches

Rain of 1.01 inches early this morning got June off to a good start as far as moisture is concerned. Although reports have not come in from the rural districts, 1.02 inches was reported at Amarillo this morning and the weather forecast for the entire Panhandle was for continued thunder showers for today and tonight.

Total rainfall for May was 8.05 inches and in some rural communities in this territory the figure for the month went as high as 13 inches. This moisture was reported at Bellevue, N. M., where considerable flood damage was suffered.

In most rural communities farmers had this week been able to get into the fields to re-plant row crop which had been washed out by last month's rains; and although rust was reported, no wheat was falling as yet; and none of the destructive black rust had been seen.

Farmers Warned Of Army Worm Menace To Wheat

Plenty of bran and arsenite will be on hand at the county agent's office to combat the army worm plague should it spread to this county, according to A. R. Bateman.

Army worms have been numerous and have done heavy damage in the sections south and southeast of here, and last week the Castro County Agent reported the worms as increasing rapidly there.

So far, Mr. Bateman says, there have been no army worms reported in Deaf Smith County, but he urges farmers to be on the look out for any signs of the worms and to report at once where plenty of poison ingredients will be on hand.

NO GRASSHOPPER MENACE YET

No grasshoppers of the dangerous migratory and Mexican varieties have yet been seen in this county and so far there seems little likelihood of a repetition of the grasshopper damage of 1939 and 1940.

Some native grasshoppers have been breeding on the grasslands in the southwest part of the county, but it is the migratory types which are feared.

If any big increase of grasshoppers is noted, Mr. Bateman says that his office will supply poison; but since the poison is received only in large quantities, and the menace is at present slight, there does not seem to be much likelihood of a distribution of poison this year.

Conoco "Nth" Motor Oil To Be Sold Here

Pitman Service Station was this week handling its first supply of the new Conoco "Nth" Motor Oil, which according to tests recently conducted in Death Valley, more than doubled the mileage averaged by five other oils tested.

The ingredient which Conoco has added to increase the lasting qualities of its new motor oil is a synthetic called Thiakene Inhibitor, which inhibits or checks the effect of destructive left-overs created by normal engine explosions.

In addition to the new inhibitor agent, Conoco Oil will continue to feature "oil plating" by which a lubricant stays plated up to guard against engine wear.

W. C. Pitman, manager of the local Conoco Station, invites all motorists to drive in and try this entirely new motor oil.

Scouts of Troop 2 To Camp Ceta Glen

Boy Scouts of Troop 2 are going on a camping trip to Ceta Glen next Wednesday, to return Sunday, June 15. The camp, first of the season, will be under the direction of Scoutmaster Leo Forrest who will be assisted by A. J. Schroeter, assistant scoutmaster.

Nolan Brady, Billy Gene Masie, Clyde Brock, S. A. Putt, Geo. Weems, Edward Young, L. A. McBrayer, Bobby Tout, S. D. Foster, George Ellis Mixon, George Pace, Wilson Millard and Billy Bob Jackson are scouts who plan to make the trip.

The first technicolor motion picture on rose growing ever produced will be shown here, June 13, at 8:30 o'clock, at the court house.

Sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Garden Club, the showing of the film is open to the public it was announced by Mrs. N. E. Gass, club president.

The film, "Roses in the Home," was produced by the Freeport Sulphur Company as a part of its program to find answers to specific agricultural problems and extend the benefits of successful agricultural research and experimentation. It details the story of a rose from the time of its selection for planting, through its care in the garden and on to its uses as a cut flower for vase or corsage.

In addition to the showing of this picture, pictures of the Texas Rose Festival at Tyler, taken by Elmer Patterson, will be exhibited. Mr. Patterson will also show pictures of flowers in Hereford--some of which have not been exhibited here before.

"Because rose season is now on in Hereford, and the roses this year are more beautiful than they have been in several years, both these pictures should be especially interesting to Hereford audiences," says Mrs. Gass.

Order Early For Repairs-Parts For Harvest

Pointing to the fact that farm implements and repairs will likely be short during the harvest season, implement dealers this week encouraged all persons who might want implements or repair parts to place their orders early.

"Already the manufacturers are reporting shortages in many lines," they declared, "and it may be next to impossible to get last minute repairs and farm implements. Too, there is always the chance of a strike or other delay in addition to scarcity of materials and the rush created by demands of the defense program."

In making the statement, the dealers also pointed out that they may not even be able to fill early orders, but said that orders turned in now will have a much better chance of being filled.

"We are going to do our best to handle your needs just as we have in the past," dealers said, "but we are merely passing to you the information which manufacturers have given us."

I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs Have Memorial Service

The local I. O. O. F. and Rebekah Lodge will hold memorial services Sunday at 3:30 o'clock at the lodge hall and will also decorate the grave of each deceased member at West Park Cemetery.

All members are requested to be present and bring any flowers which they have. The public is also invited to the meeting.

Hereford Urged To Help Defense Savings Effort

Sale of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps was still going slowly in Hereford this week, despite the efforts of some regular buyers of bonds and the purchase of stamps by students during the school term.

Hicks Roberson and Daniel Russell are the most regular customers for the defense stamps says Postmaster J. R. Lipscomb, who adds that the boys come in nearly every day to buy a stamp. "What this town needs," goes on Mr. Lipscomb, "is a few more customers like Hicks and Daniel."

A letter received by Mr. Lipscomb this week from Frank Scofield, state administrator of the defense savings staff, calls attention to the fact that to carry out the implications of the President's speech of last Tuesday, we must have all-out purchase of defense bonds and savings stamps.

"We are going to have a big bill to pay," continues Mr. Scofield, "and it will be worth every cent it costs to know that our country and those we love are safe."

The government could have taxed us for this money, says Mr. Scofield, but thought enough of us and our loyalty to let us contribute voluntarily in such a way that we will have something to show for our loyalty besides the protection which we are getting.

In commenting on Mr. Scofield's letter, Postmaster Lipscomb said, "I agree heartily with these statements and think that we here in Hereford should realize that it is really a privilege to be able to contribute voluntarily to the cause of national defense."

Defense bonds and stamps are on sale at the post office and the bonds may also be purchased at either one of the local banks.

Over 200 Mattresses Are Completed As More Cotton Needed

The mattress making project now being carried out at the Hereford Sales Pavilion under the direction of Mrs. A. G. Bell is going forward rapidly with requests for mattresses in excess of current supplies of cotton and ticking.

With the completion of work on present supplies, the project will have made 240 mattresses and 100 comforts; and an order has been made and approved for 5,098 pounds of cotton, 950 yards of ticking and 870 yards of percale. Requests have already been made for enough mattresses and comforts to use up this material, but the county agent's office reported that they were making efforts to get requisitions through for more materials.

Old Landergin Ranch Is Made Game Preserve

E. G. Rall, Fort Worth business man and rancher, has purchased the 34,000 acre Landergin Ranch, located in Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties and plans to turn it into a game preserve, it was learned here this week.

The land, located northwest of Hereford and near Adrian in Oldham County is being turned over to the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission to be used by them for the feeding, restoration and propagation of game birds and animals adaptable to this territory.

Drive By U. S. O. Is On - Hereford's Part Planned

With Hereford's goal set at $350, this city's unit of the United Service Organizations this week got underway the local part in the campaign which is aimed to supply the moral atmosphere and the moral leadership which young soldiers and sailors need during their first hitch away from home.

The U. S. O. is a co-operative enterprise involving the YMCA, National Catholic Community Service, Salvation Army, YWCA, Jewish Welfare Board and National Travelers Aid Association. This corporation with these welfare groups guiding and directing its program, will provide the personnel in charge of the home-atmosphere soldier and sailor centers which will be outside the camps, located in nearby towns.

In the first World War, all the listed organizations worked separately toward the same end, and experience with competition, overlapping of work and some (Continued on Page 10)

Clark and Green New Owners of Andrew's Phillips 66 Station

George Clark and M. O. Green, this week purchased the Phillips 66 Station at the corner of Main and First Street from Noel Andrews. Mr. Clark has for several years been employed by the Hereford Laundry. Mr. Green was formerly a driver for the Packard Milling Company.

Both men will be actively engaged in operation of the business, which will continue to feature a complete line of Phillips 66 products and Lee Tires.

Inviting their friends to visit them in their new business, Green and Clark say that they will give the good service that goes with the high quality Phillips product.

Final Questionnaires Mailed This Week

The final questionnaires, 817 of them, in the list of order numbers for selective service in this county, have been mailed this week.

Clara Wedel, secretary of the selective service board, urges that all men registered with the local board call at the post office if they have not yet received their questionnaires.

Kindness to Calves Pays -- At Least That's Moral of Sail to Buffalo Dam

By HOMER FOX

Last Thursday there was a lot of conversation about an attempted boat ride that Jack Gilliland and Elmo Hicks tried to make and ended in a couple of cotton wood trees. I drove down to the creek Thursday morning and it was about as high as I ever saw it and I knew that these two gobs would be at it again and sure enough about 2 o'clock, I heard that the boys were well on their way. Each one blames it on the other but the truth is that one of them said BOAT and they were looking at the river; so the other one said, lets go. Must have been about 9:30 A. M. they launched the "Merry Bottoms Up" and they were off again to Lake Buffalo with a couple of packages of cigarettes and, scantily clad in a shirt and bathing trunks, they made pretty good time for a couple of plains sailors.

When they bent the corner into Sulphur Park Dam it looked like the Gulf of Mexico, but there wasn't any turning back for those two flat heads; they were on their own and anyway they couldn't turn but one way and that was down, and sure enough old "Bottoms Up" crossed them up by riding cross wise with the current and it wouldn't work. She twisted and turned back and forth until they had torn down about a hundred yards of Egbert Brady's fence, and over she went. The trees were scarce at this particular point and Hicks went under the boat and held on to it and they finally got started again; upside down stuff couldn't stop these two brave seamen.

By voting for wheat marketing quotas in Saturday's election, farmers of the nation virtually assured themselves of a loan of about 98 cents a bushel or 23 cents more than the 1940 loan rate. A telegram received by A. R. Bateman, Wednesday, gave practical assurance of the higher loan.

Virtually complete returns on Tuesday gave the vote as 397-559 votes for and 96,223 against quotas. This was slightly over 80 per cent and far in excess of the two-thirds majority necessary to carry.

LOCAL RETURNS

Local returns showed a total vote of 466 for quotas, 5 against. At Ford, the vote was 49 for, 1 against; at Dawn, 42 for, none against; at Bippus, 15 for, none against and at Hereford, 360 for and 5 against. This vote was out of a total of 1250 qualified operators in this county. However, County Agent, A. R. Bateman, explains that the vote may not necessarily be a low percentage or show any lack of interest. Since operators have only one vote, no matter how many farms they may have, many of the non-voters in this county may be absentee owners who voted in other districts.

85 Per Cent Parity

By approving quotas, wheat farmers have been virtually assured of a government wheat loan of 85 per cent of parity--or about 97 cents a bushel--(Continued on Page 10)

Dues To Be Paid Now For 1941 Golfing Season

The Hereford Golf Course will soon be in excellent condition following a large amount of repairs and reconditioning work which is now in progress, says Buddy Posey, who further points out that there will be an opportunity this year for a number of good tournaments and inter-city matches.

Dues this year are $15 and may be paid to Buddy Posey or to G. L. Woods, caretaker and manager of the course.

Mr. Woods has arranged payments so that golfers may pay $5 now, and the balance within a month and hopes that this payment system will result in an even larger membership list than last year's.

Posey and Woods are trying to call on all prospective members, but urge all golfers, whether or not they are called on, to pay the dues and start the Hereford Club off to its most successful year.

Census Figures Reveal Farming Changes

Changes in Deaf Smith County agriculture over the past decade have been doubling in land under cultivation, rise in the size of farms and development of new crops according to the 1940 census figures just released in a bulletin on Texas agriculture.

Farm Acreage and Operation

The number of farms in the county in 1930 was 630; in 1940, the figure had reached 854 which a total of 224,000 acres as compared with 443,225 acres in 1930. Also, the average size of farms in 1940 was 1,093.6, or 690.1 acre more than the average size in 1930.

The average value of farms, a figure which includes buildings and other stationary equipment, had not increased as greatly in proportion as had the size of farms and acreage devoted to farming; but the 1940 figure, $16,987, was $3,337 more than the value listed in 1930.

Proportion of tenancy has increased slightly. In 1930 only 33.2 per cent of the farms in this county were tenant operated; and in 1940, the figure had risen to 36.9 per cent. This figure, however, is well below the national average and much lower than the figures for some Texas counties, high for which is Kaufman County, where farms are 75 per cent tenant-operated.

Changes in Livestock

In the livestock industry, the county has seen an increase of nearly 6,000 in the number of cattle and calves reported on farms and ranches for the period; and the number of hogs and pigs has increased nearly 5,500--in direct contrast to the national situation, where hog production has been slumping heavily. The greatest proportional increase in livestock has been in the raising of sheep and lambs. Deaf Smith County in 1930 reported 775 sheep and lambs, and in 1940 the total was 9,114, an increase of more than 107 per cent. Wool shorn had increased 42,728 pounds.

New Crop Developments

Perhaps most notable change in crops grown was the tendency to increased production of small grains, sorghums, hay and root crops. In 1934, 880 bushels of oats were produced in this county; in 1939 there were 33,339 bushels harvested. Barley production was up from 838 in 1934 to 5,331 in 1939. Production of winter wheat also had increased, from 295,145 bushels in 1934 to 3,927,325 bushels in 1939. Production of alfalfa was up from 705 tons in 1934 to 2,063 tons in 1939.

The now thriving potato industry has increased production from 4,063 bushels in 1934 to 46,698 in 1939.

The whole picture of Deaf Smith County farming is one of increased diversification, with new developments coming in rapidly in the past ten years.

Buffalo Lake To Offer Good Fishing

CANYON—Water poured over the spillway of Buffalo lake for the first time in its history this week as heavy rains on its great watershed filled the Panhandle's largest reservoir.

The lake, located 12 miles southwest of here, covers more than 1800 surface acres. It is a mecca for boating enthusiasts and is headquarters for the Panhandle Boat Club. Boating facilities provided by the government are adequate. A bathing beach, clubhouse, and cottages are located nearby.

Buffalo lake and the Tierra Blanca creek already are becoming famed for fishing. The take in catfish following the first of recent rains was especially heavy. Sportsmen have estimated that more than five tons of fish were caught. In some instances the fish left the dam to go up stream during the rise in the creek. When the water went down, the fish were left in the deeper holes of the stream, where fishermen caught the limit quickly.

Flood waters in the Friona vicinity flow into Buffalo lake, preventing flood conditions downstream. With the lake standing nearly full, however, any considerable rise now will go over the spillway.

Buffalo lake was completed two years ago when an earthen dam, rock faced, was thrown across a small canyon through which the Tierra Blanca flows. The lake is about 1-2 miles south of Umberger. An improved road, topped with caliche, recently was complete from Umberger to the dam by Randall county commissioners.

America Speeds Building Of 'Arsenal of Democracy'

Composite picture shows a worker at the Springfield, Mass., Armory, where thousands of the army's new Garand automatic rifles are being made. The plant's capacity nears 1000 rifles daily.

BY DAVID STEIN

RUNNING 24 hours a day, seven days a week, government-owned arsenals are speeding to supply the army's needs.

Large numbers of weapons of all kinds from pistols to huge guns and tanks, and tremendous amounts of ammunition are needed for the army.

The Ordnance Department is working constantly to improve old weapons and to develop new ones. More than 2500 separate items, for which more than 250,000 different parts are needed, are provided through this department.

Some of the main items produced by America's arsenals are: pistols, semi-automatic rifles, machine guns, trench mortars, hand grenades, anti-aircraft guns, cannons of all sizes, tanks, armored cars, scout cars, combat cars, instruments for controlling and directing the fire of weapons, ammunition, pyrotechnics for signalling purposes, and bombs.

SIX leading government manufacturing arsenals are: Watertown Arsenal at Watertown, Mass.; Picatinny Arsenal at Dover, N. J.; Watervliet Arsenal, at Watervliet, N. Y.; Frankford Arsenal, at Philadelphia, Pa.; Rock Island Arsenal, at Rock Island, Ill., and Springfield Armory, at Springfield, Mass. In addition, the government is rushing new arsenals to completion, chiefly in the midwest states west of the Alleghenies and east of the Mississippi.

Only 10 per cent of the nation's war needs, however, can be made in government arsenals. The rest must come from commercial manufacturers. The industrial mobilization program, now well under way, is being carried on through 14 procurement centers, each headed by a district chief thoroughly familiar with industrial capacity of his district.

The Ordnance Department, with its large staff of technical experts, co-operates closely with the fighting forces to provide them with the best and most powerful tools of war. America is speeding its efforts vigorously to become "The Arsenal of Democracy."

NEXT WEEK: The Infantry.

Friona News

MRS. H. L. SETTLE

The Friona Consumers Company who lost severely in the swift current of the Frio flood last week, are moving to higher ground, where they will be safe from the next flood, if and whenever it might come.

Among others who are moving to higher ground are: Harold Schlinker and W. A. Tinney, who moved to the Joel Dwight home in Friona; and if the water ever gets up into that house—Friona had better move as a whole.

Many things from tractors to refrigerators, were seen floating down the draw. Many crops were badly damaged. In a tour of the surrounding country near Friona, Monday, it was noticed that the weeds are taking a lot of the fields and that before the farmers can possibly plow or plant these fields, the weeds will have taken a strong hold.

The Homemakers Class of the Baptist Church is meeting in the home of Mrs. Roy Mann Friday afternoon for a social and business meeting.

Mrs. Kay Thornton and daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nichols of Walters, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Settle were in Farwell, Monday, on business. Misses Eva Settle, Lloyd Brewer, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLain attended the Bankers Convention in Amarillo Tuesday, June 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeve Guyer and A. V. Warren are motoring thru parts of Colorado. Mr. Guyer is returning to his work in the mines near Cripple Creek.

The Friona Lions Club met Tuesday at noon in the Federated Club house with the Muleshoe Club as special guests. The visiting club also furnished the program as sort of a model for the newly organized local club.

An addition to the Friona

Wheat Growers Elevator with a grain capacity of 10,000 bushels will give a total storage capacity of 100,000 bushels. This new structure is nearing completion and will be ready for use by the time the new wheat crop is being harvested. It has an underground channel for conveying the grain from the storage bins to the elevators, also an overhead channel for the moving of grain.

Misses Jo Ann, Janice and Mary Beth Dwight are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sy Patton, in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muerhill of Kansas are here looking after their farming interests. They own land west of Friona, joining that of V. M. Settle and Roy Slagle.

Beatrice Buchanan, Paul Spring and Noel Bengier are graduating from Texas Tech at Lubbock this spring.

the ROAD AHEAD

Old Man Texas is today looking ahead and planning.

Beside the great farming and ranching country which Texans have built, he sees a new industrial empire here.

Already the start has been made. Some industries, such as petroleum, are now showing what can be done to utilize Texas' vast natural resources. Today this industry refines with Texas labor over four-fifths as much oil as the State produces. Its products make up nearly one-half of all Texas manufacturing. Altogether petroleum provides the living for almost one-sixth of our people.

But this is only a beginning.

Texas has many other raw materials, unexcelled by any other State. Texas has in oil and gas the cheap and dependable fuel supply essential to industry. Texas is the gateway to Latin America, our new foreign market.

Each new industry means more jobs. It makes added tax values for our State and local governments, bigger payrolls for our workers, and greater prosperity for you and every other Texan.

Kindness to Calves Pays -- At Least That's Moral of Sail to Buffalo Dam

By HOMER FOX

Last Thursday there was a lot of conversation about an attempted boat ride that Jack Gilliland and Elmo Hicks tried to make and ended in a couple of cotton wood trees. I drove down to the creek Thursday morning and it was about as high as I ever saw it and I knew that these two gobs would be at it again and sure enough about 2 o'clock I heard that the boys were well on their way. Each one blames it on the other but the truth is that one of them said BOAT and they were looking at the river; so the other one said, lets go. Must have been about 9:30 A. M. they launched the "Merry Bottoms Up" and they were off again to Lake Buffalo with a couple of packages of cigarettes and, scantily clad in a shirt and bathing trunks, they made pretty good time for a couple of plains sailors.

Spill in Gulf of Mexico

When they bent the corner into Sulphur Park Dam it looked like the Gulf of Mexico, but there wasn't any turning back for those two flat heads; they were on their own and anyway they couldn't turn but one way and that was down, and sure enough old "Bottoms Up" crossed them up by riding cross wise with the current and it wouldn't work. She twisted and turned back and forth until they had torn down about a hundred yards of Egbert Bradley's fence, and over she went. The trees were scarce at this particular point and Hicks went under the boat and held on to it and they finally got started again; upside down stuff couldn't stop these two brave seamen.

Sailor, Save That Calf

They got even with where the Frio was coming into the Tierra Blanca and spotted a day old calf that was stranded from its mother and across the river they went, tied the calf's feet and rowed it back to dry land and saved--next they made it to Jack Frost's and were awarded for their kind deed to Eg Bradley's calf and besides which kept Eggie off their necks for tearing down his fence. Frost had some men building a fence across the river before the rise and they were caught over there without any food. He propositioned the sailors to take him and the food across and the would all eat but these two old tars weren't going to be city-slicked--Frost had to show them that he had enough food to feed a company of men, cause these old boys were really hungry by this time. They filled the boat, loaded in Frost and started out; but old Bottoms Up started bucking again, got her head down and over they went, but they saved the food, bailed out the boat and made it across. Both boys agreed that it was the wettest bread they ever ate, but the best.

"Bottoms Up" Come Thru

With full stomachs they started out again, still headed for Buffalo Lake or else, when they finally bent her around the corner at Big Springs down at Tom Ivey's, both sailors had to sorter swallow their hearts. Boy, it didn't look like the Gulf--it looked like the Pacific; there is a grove of trees below the Spring that, look perfectly okay when the water is not up, but not today, brother. There was only two tree tops that they could go through or rather between and they knew they couldn't do it, the water was running faster than any they had been in--in fact way faster--and the nearer they came to the trees the faster the water ran and the space between those two trees got smaller and smaller, finally Doc yelled, "Pick you out a tree, Elmo, she's going over." Then old "Bottoms Up" did her stuff and sailed across, through or under those trees like a champion saddle horse doing his stuff on parade. The sailors have no idea how they made it there; but I figure that maybe it could have been one of those big black bass from Egg Bradley's place that was a special friend of the mother of this little calf they rescued, and through appreciation, he followed the boys to these trees and swam under the boat and carried them across.

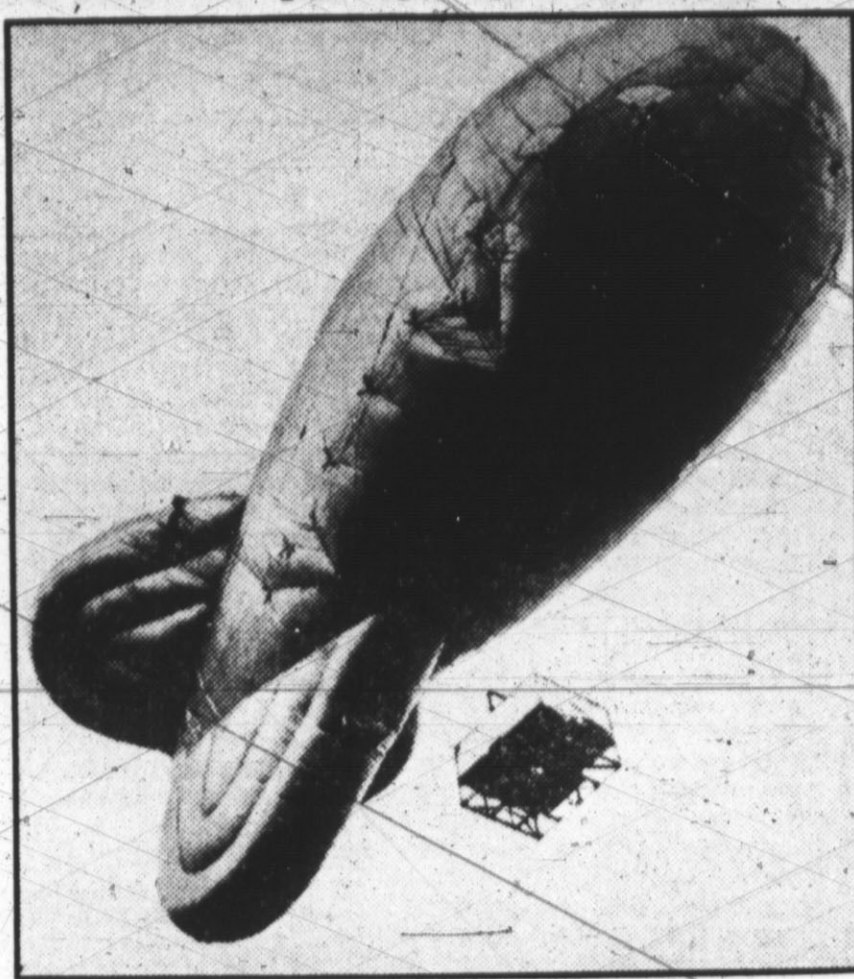

About 7 o'clock they entered Buffalo Lake. The boys reached down and patted old "Bottoms Up" as she reached the quiet waters. She had done what no boat had ever done and these two dyed-in-the-wool gobs had done what no man had ever done. A motor boat on the lake towed them to the dock at 8 P. M., flat; and two tired but happy old boys crawled in the car and headed for home and mother.

Warning to Sailors

Some flat heads may do the same thing but these lads will always be the first ones and besides if some one does do it, these two husky seamen will probably launch old "Bottoms Up" in Buffalo Lake and row her up stream to Hereford, but you can bet your shirt that this one, Doc Jack, won't be out there paddling any boat without some pants on. His legs are not cooked just medium; boy, they are charred--and he has lost one natural thing forever; every freckle he ever had is burned off. The moral to this story and this boat ride--well, there ain't any, but it does prove that if you are kind to the cattle on the Tierra Blanca, the fish will be kind to you.

During the last half of March the U. S. Department of Agriculture bought about $10,000,000 worth of surplus food products, including fresh oranges and grapefruit, canned grapefruit and grapefruit juices.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

STOCKING NEW LAKES

Austin.—New lakes, of which Texas is getting many, are being given special attention by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission without the Game Department neglecting its usual stocking and work on the older bodies of water. The lakes are being stocked heavily with small fish and some of spawning size. Results to date have been excellent, but more comprehensive tests will be made this year due to a larger number of lakes being given special attention.

It is admitted that the Texas regulations on the size and number of fish allowed each day are wrong. The size limits should be larger and the creel limit smaller. Wherever the Department has been able to get special regulations for the fish population has been increased tremendously.

For example, Lake Austin, was closed for slightly more than a year. The Game Department stocked the lake heavily and scientifically. More than 500,000 black bass fry were placed in the lake, but no large bass were used for stocking purposes because bass are very cannibalistic and larger ones would have eaten many of the smaller fish. However, crappie, bream and white bass of spawning size were planted. As they grew their offspring were of approximately the same size as the bass fry planted and thus cannibalism was cut to a minimum. As a result Lake Austin is probably the heaviest populated lake in the state at the present time.

Among the large new lakes which are being treated similarly this year are Possum Kingdom the W. Miller home in Canyon this week.

Joe Nichols of Littlefield was a Sunday afternoon caller in the W. R. Moore home.

in Palo Pinto County and Lake Travis in Travis and Burnet counties. Almost 1,000,000 bass, bream and crappie fry have already been placed in Possum Kingdom and it is likely the total will reach 1,500,000. More than 200,000 fry have been planted in Lake Travis and a million and a half is the total planned for it.

The Game Department, according to the executive secretary, is attempting to obtain special regulations for these bodies of water. If they are obtained and the Department is able to carry on sufficient improvement work both those lakes should be fishermen's paradises next year.

MAKES PET OF NESTING

QUAIL

Don Corral, seven-year-old son of City Officer, C. D. Corral of Fort Worth used considerable patience to make a temporary pet of a nesting quail.

Young Corral found a quail setting on thirteen eggs near his home. Don went out daily to see how the bird was getting along. He approached a bit closer each day until he was finally able to reach down and pet the Bobwhite. He stroked the bird several days. She finally hatched eleven of its thirteen eggs and mother quail and her brood disappeared.

MOTHER DUCK MEETS EMERGENCY

A mother mottled duck didn't let a "little" thing like high water destroy her nest, it is reported to the Game Department by the Colorado County state game warden. The warden and Mr. Ed Koy, owner of the land upon which the nest was located, found the bird pushing grass and weeds under its nest. They watched until the bird had elevated the nest eight inches. A heavy rain destroyed many prairie chicken, quail and duck nests, but this mother duck was, at last reported, sitting pretty on a good dry nest.

BIRD CROP IS HIT

Many quail, prairie chickens and other ground birds lost their nests during recent high waters throughout many parts of Texas, according to reports from game managers and wardens reaching the executive secretary of the Department here. Especially hard hit was the Abilene prairie chicken of south central Texas. Many quail and some other species of birds were re-nest.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

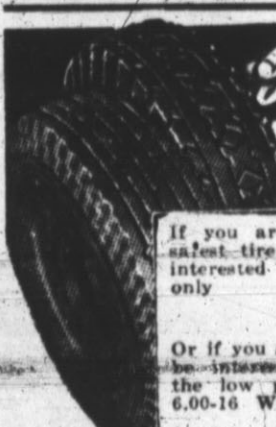

There is an atmosphere of dignity and permanence to this two-story stone and brick home. Well planned and well located, it represents the type of home most American families some day hope to own. One unusual feature of the plan is that the kitchen, entrance hall, and stairwell are located in front, leaving the dining room and living room opening onto the rear where they may overlook a garden and at the same time are located away from street noises.

A few years ago a home of this kind could be bought by only families of considerable means, but today, through the Federal Housing Administration plan, the range of potential owners has been considerably broadened by means of lower interest rates and a sound single-term mortgage system.

Located in the East, this property was valued at $8,250 and was financed with an FHA-insured mortgage of $7,000. Average monthly payments on a 20-year mortgage of this amount, exclusive of taxes and hazard insurance, total approximately $44. Price of the property may vary in other localities.

Extensive Planting At Higgins Home Thriving

"Beginners' Luck" is an apt term to use in describing the plantings made at the new home of the newly-wed Howard Higgins in Progressive. Their windmill will soon be in use, but extensive plantings have grown well on local rain fall to date.

The lawn is of native grass which we hope will prove to be Buffalo, not Gramma. They keep the weeds pulled. Flowers and shrubs planted include Roses, Lilacs, Iris, Shasta Daisy, Fall Daisy or Perennial Aster, Gladiolus, Dahlias, and Bouncing Bet.

Food producing plants include four rubarb, 200 strawberries, 12 grapes, 12 Hansen Bush Cherries, and 15 plum trees dug at Mrs. Kate Caldwell's.

TEXAS OUT-O-DOORS

Increases of from 200 to 400 per cent as a result of the planting of turkeys in managed areas by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission are noted in reports of game managers to the executive secretary of the Commission here. As reported recently, an area in Robertson county produced more than 300 wild turkeys from a planting of sixty-one gobblers and hens. Other interesting figures, which prove that providing proper food and cover, game can be brought back, are reaching the Game Department office.

The Department has set up a score of turkey and deer restoration areas throughout the state by supplementing Commission funds with federal aid money. An area in Wharton and Colorado counties was stocked with a total of fifty birds, seven males, and forty-three females. Eight months later a census of the area disclosed that there were at least 147 turkeys on the land. That is an increase approaching 200 per cent, and it is certain that all of the turkeys on the area could not be seen while the count was in progress. The area contained 8,225 acres.

From a stock of six males and forty-seven females placed on an area in Goliad County has come a crop of 250 birds, an increase of nearly 400 per cent.

An original stock of five males and forty-six females released on the Lorraine turkey restoration project in Jackson County produced more than 150 birds, a count eight months later disclosed.

All the areas are new projects of the Texas Game Department and are now little more than a year old. Birds to be used for restocking areas are trapped by Department employees and transported all over the state to sections where the birds once thrived, but from which they have been shot out.

THINK YOU ARE A GOOD SHOT
Maybe you are better than the average when it comes to hunting ducks and geese, but if you are just an average hunter, your ducks are costing you considerable in ammunition alone. A survey made by a Game Department biologist of 308 hunters during last season showed that they fired 10,705 shells in bagging 2,205 ducks. That is an average of 4.4 shots per duck. A total of 196 goose hunters fired 1,119 times to bring down 124 geese for an average of 9.6 shots per goose. Maybe you're not so chesty now. We're not!

Farmers Prepare Land Use For Nat'l. Defense

College Station.—Texas farm families are learning through 252 county land use planning committees how they can contribute to the national food-and-feed-for-defense program.

Here are some highlights of county reports compiled by the food and feed committee of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Community land use planning committees in Wise County got a head start in April and held community nutrition and national defense meetings with a total attendance of 1,007. The meeting at Greenwood community in that county drew 210 people. Fisher County reported attendance of 675 at six community meetings.

In Dallam County the Mayor of Dalhart proclaimed May 17 to 25 as Nutrition Week and pastors of churches in that city were asked to emphasize the relationship between physical and spiritual well-being at services on Sunday, May 18. Childress County has planned a series of "Feeding schools for cows and people" during June.

Families working at mattress centers in McLennan County are taking part in educational sessions of food, feed and national defense. Other counties are awarding buttons, window and windshield stickers to families who follow recommended food and feed practices.

der of Plainview will supply both services.

Preparation is being made for the Vacation Bible School for June 16-27. There will be a faculty meeting next Sunday afternoon at 3:00.

Final plans have been made for the R. A. Camp at Ceta Glen for next week. The group that will go will leave the church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. All will bring their bedding and food to the church Monday.

Teams composed of a farm man, a farm woman, and a professional home economist, and a professional agricultural worker are conducting demonstrations for Anderson County families. Movies on nutrition are being shown at the same series of meetings. Collingsworth home economics and agricultural workers recently conducted nutrition training schools for land use planning committee members and for local grocers.

Trinity County held a pasture Short Course on May 6 while a sub-committee in Cherokee County is working to obtain a county health unit. Sherman County is also planning a free health clinic where all school children may be examined prior to September 1. Hutchinson County is working on plans for a cooperative hospital, and Parmer County is forming a veterinary cooperative association to rid food-producing animals of infectious diseases.

J. A. Scofield, chairman of the committee, says other activities of county land use planning committees include promotion of freezer lockers, expansion of the school hot lunch program, surveys on health and nutrition situations in the various counties, spread of nutrition information through radio programs and newspaper articles, purchase of community or home-operated grist mills for increasing the use of whole grain products, and arrangement of nutrition exhibits in store windows.

GOSSIP

From Here and There
Nearly 4,000,000 children are transported by bus to school each day by more than 90,000 busses.

Prior to the national defense program one out of every 20 trucks operating on the public highways was owned by the federal, state and local governments. Military equipment has increased the ratio of publicly-owned vehicles.

Twenty-five per cent of all the revenue of the 48 states is obtained from levies on gasoline.

Two-thirds of all motor fuels consumed in the United States is used in connection with earning a livelihood, studies of the federal government indicate.

The federal and state governments now are collecting gasoline taxes at the rate of $1,250,000 annually. That amount is more than what was collected by the federal, state and local governments in all taxes during the horse and buggy days.

Motor vehicle owners now pay at current rates nearly $500,000,000 annually in gasoline and other automotive levies to the federal government.

When a motorist spends $1 for gasoline, he must pay an average additional 47c in state and federal taxes.

The average motor vehicle owner in the United States contributes approximately $30 in taxes each year over and above the amount regarded by experts of the federal government as his "fair share" of road costs.

Hereford Town Nearly Beat Hereford Its Name Some Fifty Years Ago

One Campbell Russell, Oklahoma rancher, had had his way for 50 years ago, there would have been a town called Hereford in Muskogee County, Oklahoma. Mr. Russell had 32,000 head of cattle on the range at the time and he thought some should be done to commemorate the fact.

These details are part of the story received this week by Postmaster Jim Lipscomb from Secretary E. Emmons, a retired post office inspector, of Georgetown, who wrote to Mr. Lipscomb a month ago wanting to know the origin of the name of Smith County.

Concerning the proposed name "Hereford," Oklahoma, Mr. Emmons, whose hobby is evidently the name, said that the name was filed the petition to change the name of the city, that a counter petition was to keep the name as "Ward" and since that name was never and perhaps hallowed by the western tradition, the name was not changed.

GAME WARDENS AS RIVER COWBOYS

An East Texas farmer has a cow and a calf grazing in his pasture now which would have been a loss had it not been for a couple of State Game Wardens. Two wardens, while on patrol duty saw a cow stranded in a river with only its head sticking out. After much pulling, pushing and tugging by the wardens the cow was rescued. The cow was heavy with calf and had evidently gotten so deep in mud and water it was unable to extricate itself. Patrol duty was continued after the rescue.

Station KGNC, Amarillo, and KRIS, Corpus Christi, recently carried a national Extension Service radio program devoted to the cotton mattress demonstration program in Alabama.

RATTLERS CAN KILL QUICKLY

That rattlesnakes can be deadly and that their poison can act very quickly is reaffirmed by a report of a Texas Game Warden. While patrolling near Pearsall recently the warden saw a large calf reach down to take a bite of grass, jump and then run toward him. The calf dropped within ten feet of the warden after running seventy-two paces and was dead within five minutes. Two cowboys nearer the calf than the warden when it was struck found a six and a half foot black diamond rattler which had fourteen rattlers. The warden killed it.

The snake evidently had not struck at anything for some time and its poison sacks were filled with venom.

The warden's report concluded: "It is not because boots are pretty that the southwest Texas game warden wants to wear them while patrolling."

Casserole Cooking
Savory dishes at small expense can be prepared with a casserole. The true casserole dish is of meat cooked in a well seasoned sauce for a long time at a moderate temperature. It originated in warm countries where one-dish meals are prepared over small charcoal burners instead of on kitchen ranges. One reason for the popularity of the casserole dish is that the combined seasonings achieve such delicious flavor with no one ingredient seeming too prominent. Here is an interesting combination of common everyday foods that comes from down Mexico way. No one seems to know just who first used this recipe in Hereford but several have requested to have it printed. Here it is:

Let's Cook Something

Casserole of Beef

- 1 tablespoon parsley
- 6 tablespoons dry bread crumbs
- 4 tablesp. 3 grated cheese
- 1 tablespoons parsley
- 1 egg

Beat the egg well and thoroughly mix with the above ingredients, salt and pepper to taste and form into balls about the size of a large walnut. Melt two tablespoons of fat in a heavy skillet and fry the meat balls quickly to a golden brown on all sides. Pour off most of the fat and add 1 cupful of boiling water and 1 1-2 cupfuls of tomato juice. Add a very small onion which has been chopped and browned in a little butter. Place all in a casserole, cover tightly and cook in oven slowly 2 hours. Remove from oven and add 1-2 cup (measured before cooking) broken spaghetti which has been boiled in salted water and drained. Sprinkle lightly with chili powder, return to oven and bake in moderate oven for 30 minutes.

A green salad or hearts of lettuce with French dressing, a simple desert, and coffee or iced tea, and dinner, is ready.

Approaching Marriage Is Announced At Breakfast Friday

The weekend was marked by the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Belle Harris and Mr. W. C. Hromas at a breakfast given by Mrs. J. P. Slaton and Miss Eunice Rutherford at the Slaton home, Friday morning.

The couple will be married at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris, in Bluffdale, on June 18. Matching the colors predominating in the Slaton dining room a blue and white theme was carried out in decorations and appointments for the early morning affair. Forming a beautiful table arrangement, mock orange blossoms and blue cornflower were laid flat on the table to fashion three large rings, which were placed in the center of the long, white, damask covered table. In the center ring was a hand-painted bowl in blue and white with touches of gold filled with cornflowers and orange blossoms. On the outer edge of the table corsages of blue cornflowers tied with white, marked each guest's place.

News of the forthcoming marriage was inscribed on tiny white parchment scrolls tied with white ribbon, which were distributed to the guests with the serving of the cocktail. On the buffet were white tapers and flowers in the same colors used for the table were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

The breakfast was served to members of the Central School faculty, of which Miss Harris has been a member for the past few years. Guests included Misses Frances Fullingim, Katherine Kirby, Thelma McMinn, Ethel Wombie, Madelyn Bell, Ruth Conkwright, Imogene Cotton, Mary Bradley, Ella Aikman, Eloyse Pitman, Edna Daugheter, Eunice Rutherford, Verna Harris, sister of the bride-elect, and the honoree.

CHDA NOTES

By Sadie Lee Oliver

In the windbreak planting at the G. C. Hartman home in Westway there is a thriving specimen plant of Caragana arborecens, the Siberian Pea-shrub. It produces small pea-shaped yellow flowers borne singly.

The plant, usually called Caraga-na, is used as an accent plant, as a tall hedge and in windbreak. It may grow to 20 feet in height.

The plants prefer sun, will grow in any soil and flower when young. They may be grown from seed soaked 48 hours before planting, or from root cuttings, and they layer readily.

The largest planting seen to date of the hardy garden Pinks, Dianthus plumarius or Grass Pink, is at the home of Mrs. Orville Houser in Westway where dozens of clumps perfume the entire lawn.

"These shrubs thrive in adversity and are more at home in dry soils than in wet soils," Alfred C. Hottes says of Colutea arborescens, usually called Kalluta-a. They are 10-12 feet tall and bear yellow pea-shaped flowers in 6 to 8 flowered clusters (racemes). The flowers open over a long period. "The fruit is an inflated pod brings red in color which youngsters and the author like to pop," says Hottes.

They grow from seeds soaked before planting and from cuttings which root readily.

Well grown plants can be seen at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Thiele in Wyche and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Barnnard in Ford.

Mrs. Merlin Kaul requests the County Chorus to meet from 2 o'clock until 3 o'clock on Saturday, June 14, in the County Courtroom.

The Training School for two delegates from each home demonstration club will meet as scheduled at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday, June 14, at the residence of the County Home Demonstration Agent.

The CHDA has recently received a very interesting and informative bulletin on "Peanuts as Food" from the John Tarleton Agricultural College. Besides telling of the nutritional values of peanuts, the bulletin has a number of unusual recipes.

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa.—An Ellwood City youth, called in the draft, eyed his wardrobe with a calculating gleam and then acted.

Before leaving for the induction station he spent considerable time painting several signs which he fastened to all his clothes. The signs—for the benefit of two younger brothers—read:

"Keep away from these clothes. I am only going away for a year."

Life Stories Of Famous Persons In New Book

True life stories of more than 1000 famous international and national leaders in all professions are now compiled in "Current Biography 1940," a new book just received at the Deaf Smith County Library, Mrs. Clara McLean, librarian, announced today.

Detailed biographical facts of 1002 modern famous men and women and their personality quirks make "Current Biography" interesting reading for library patrons who like to know "who's news and why," Mrs. McLean declared. The book contains 928 pages and over 650 photographs of persons who have been most significant in the news of 1940.

Little known items taken at random from the biographies by the librarian include: Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon General of the United States, once milked a cow on a city street to boost milk consumption; Leon Blum, former premier of France, did not abandon journalism and law for politics until the murder of a political friend; Al Jolson, comedian, is the son of a rabbi, and Erskine Caldwell, author of "Tobacco Road," is the son of a minister.

The editor's use of 96 current magazines and 12 daily newspapers for the past year, plus first-hand information whenever possible, assure the newsworthiness of each "headline" in the annual, the librar-

6 CARS DIED IN OVERHEATED DEATH VALLEY TO PROVE THAT YOURS CAN LIVE LONG

New Oil a Life-Giver. 5-quart fill—None Added—Lasted 13,398 Miles. More than Twice the mileage averaged by 5 other big-name oils in fiendish Destruction Test... Impartial... CERTIFIED THIRST killed gold-feverish Forty-Niners in Death Valley. You can stand there today on our Hemisphere's bottom, 279 feet below sea level. And some of the worst heat on U.S. Weather Bureau records will be drying you up.

... America's hotspot!... where 6 identical everyday cars scorched along, testing 6 different motor oils, till 6 new engines were junk. Every condition was the same for all. Qualified authorities eyed every move. Speed: 57 miles an hour for all. The Referee had bought 5 of the oils right off the market; millions know their names well. The other oil was decidedly new. And this new oil that authentically delivered more than twice the mileage averaged by the others is named

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL — Now on Sale here for Your Car. How could one fill of this popular-priced Conoco Nth oil keep lasting—without one added drop—for an official total of 13,398.8 miles? How could IMPARTIAL The 6 new cars were broken-in alike, after engines had been taken apart for the Referee, to check uniformity. All cars tuned alike. Same desert route for all. Handling evened up by alternating drivers. One 5-quart fill per car and no more... engines under lock.

Conoco Nth oil outlast them all by 5,683 miles or more, even outlasting one "rival" by 8,268 miles!... Certified. New SYNTHETIC in Conoco Nth. You know of vitamin synthetics... man-made... replacing Nature's life-givers sacrificed in some modern food processing. Similarly, the latest refining methods steal life-giving elements from motor oils. But more than making up for that today—in popular-priced Conoco Nth oil—is Thialkene inhibitor... man-made. (Conoco Patent 2,218,132.) It inhibits or checks the effect of foul leftovers created by the normal engine explosions. Thus Conoco Nth stays more like its own good self... helps the engine keep fit—good way to save quarts. A triumph matching Conoco OIL-PLATING. Another wondrous synthetic—long in use under the famed Germ Processed oil patent—still makes Nth oil give your engine OIL-PLATING... lubricant that can't all quickly drain down from inner parts. Instead, it's able to stay plated up... on guard against wear in advance, while you're using Conoco Nth oil. In addition you get the latest life-giving aid that foiled Death Valley... that eclipsed other oils tested... that made one 5-quart fill of new Conoco Nth oil last 13,398 miles. Certified. That's like a mad extreme—beyond the utmost allowed by authorities on the subject. You'd never make your own car stand such proving-ground torture. But you want as wide a margin of engine protection and oil economy as your money will buy this Summer, and Conoco Nth has nailed up plain evidence. Ask today for Conoco Nth at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Battering America's oil with Synthetics

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated. H. M. Jackson Consulting Engineer, who during the Academic year is Professor of Automotive Engineering, Purdue University

POTATO GROWING

By Joe Ballinger

Insects

According to the writer's knowledge, psyllid yellow has always been observed in the Texas Panhandle. The insects which cause the greatest losses are the potato psyllid, the flea beetle, the leaf hopper, the blister beetle and a few more which are less important.

Psyllid Yellow

Probably the most destructive insect is the potato psyllid, which causes the psyllid yellow. There is no other potato disease which spreads so rapidly and uniformly nor any which causes as great a loss as the psyllid yellow. As far as the writer knows, this has been reported in almost all of the western states. The first symptoms of psyllid yellow are noted from the upward cupping or rolling toward the top of the plant. This rolling is usually accompanied by a yellowing of the top leaves, and the first symptoms usually appear about the time the plant comes into bloom. These plants set an extremely large number of tubers, as many as 50 on Irish Cobblers or Bliss Triumphs. These tubers seldom achieve marketable size and often sprout in the soil before digging time. In other cases, they sprout soon after being put into storage.

For control of this insect use one gallon of 32 baum test liquid lime sulphur mixed with 40 gallons of water. A high pressure sprayer is necessary to apply this mixture. There should be at least 300 pounds of pressure and 400 pounds is better. There should be three nozzles to the row—one on each side to spray under the leaves, and one spraying down on top of the plants. The first application must be made when the plant is eight or ten inches high and spraying should be repeated within ten days or two weeks and again at the end of about the same length of time. Potatoes should be sprayed at least three times here in the Panhandle, and four or five times would probably be beneficial. Some growers have the idea that potatoes do not need spraying if they appear to be healthy; but spraying is more of a preventative measure than a cure.

Tubers affected with psyllid yellow should not be held for seed as a large proportion of these affected potatoes have weak haywire sprouts, while healthy tubers, on the other hand, have large sprouts and stay dormant longer.

Flea Beetle and Blister Beetle
The flea beetle is another destructive insect. It feeds from the under side of the leaf and eats small holes through the leaf, which finally dies, and the infection spreads to the stem. This insect can be somewhat controlled by keeping the soil damp by irrigating.

The blister beetle is also very destructive. It is found mostly on small spots in the field and is not present every year.

For control of the flea beetle and blister beetle use two pounds of zinc arsenite to 50 gallons of water.
To know the right time to spray, the grower would almost need to be an entomologist; and for that reason, spraying at regular and fairly frequent intervals is usually a fairly safe rule. For information on potato insects and how to control them, the grower can get bulletins, at very little cost, from his county agent.
