Defense Stamp Award In Scrap Iron Drive Here

Around Town

Sights and Faces Seen

Grant Fuller came back from Albuquerque thoroughly convinced that we ought to change the name "Defense Bonds" to "Bomber Bonds."

If the opinion of Main Street is really "the pulse of the nation" the appointment of General MacArthur to supreme command of allied forces in the Pacific is the beginning of a turn for the better. In the progress of the war, "Almost as good as a Victory" was what Hereford people were saying Tuesday afternoon.

David Rodgers says he feels as though he were having a vacation since the big income tax rush is over—just has to work 10 or 12 hours a day now. In fact local income tax experts found last week that Napoleon was right when he said four hours of sleep were all a man needed.

Men registered for selective service are supposed to report any change of address to their local board, but about ten of the boys who left last week believed in carrying the point a little far, according to Frank Givan, who got a letter from them announcing their change of address from Hereford to Ft. Sill. As if he didn't know.

Down-town Hereford looks to be getting a real face lifting with Streu Hardware moving into the old Kelleher Building and the Alderson Variety Store preparing to move into the building vacated by Streu. Alderson will do some redecorating to the interior of the building and plans to enlarge his stock when he gets into the new quarters.

And Paul Jensen is doing a paint job at the fountain and office at Hereford Creamery—getting ready for the ice cream season. We know the ice cream season is here, because we have seen somebody besides J. W. Robinson eating ice-cream cones on the street within the past week.

Kerr Hardware is going back to the bicycle days as far as delivery service is concerned. They have a new cycle truck which is really fancy—everything re-inforced and a basket which will carry 150 pounds.

The Brand had a card this week from the Perry Grahams and Will Wrights of Dimmitt, thanking the driver of a Hereford car which pushed them for several miles on the Hereford-Canyon road Monday night. The Dimmitt people say they really appreciated the push and want the Hereford driver to know it.

The tire shortage, shortage of girdles and bobby pins—it's all predicted in the Bible, according to Imogene Whitehead, who refers doubters to Isaiah 3, starting with the 18th verse. But it won't make you any more cheerful to read it, because not only will we not have "crimping pins," but "instead of well-set hair, baldness." The prophet goes on to say that there will be seven women to one man and that women will do the proposing. To which we can only say that if the ladies are bald-headed they will probably have to do the proposing—Dogpatch style.

A. J. Schneider had a letter this week from his son, John, who was with the group of draftees who left last Thursday for Bill. John probably speaks for the whole group when he says that his arm is sore (from carrying shoes) he doesn't know where he will be sent from Ft. Sill, and he is now being instructed in the intricacies of boot-making.

Who remember World War I are struck by the lack of enthusiasm when the boys left last Thursday morning. Which just about proves the point that this is not a "cheering war."

Meeting Tonight On Food For Victory Theme

If you are interested in doing your part in the Food for Victory campaign, be sure to attend the meeting tonight (Thursday) 8:30 o'clock, War Time, at the courthouse. This meeting is especially planned for those persons living in the city and in North and South Hereford and is part of the series of meetings which started last week with a community gathering at Wyche. A meeting is scheduled for tomorrow night at Dawn, where it will take the place of the regular community meeting.

On the program at the meeting tonight will be talks by County Agent A. R. Bateman, F. S. A. Home Supervisor Mrs. Isora Clark Matthews and Miss Sadie Lee Oliver. B. C. Drinkard, F. S. A. supervisor, will show slides and explain the varieties of vegetables and fruits suitable for this territory.

Every person in the county is urged to attend one of these meetings and it is thought that the one tonight should have a large crowd.

Retailers Organize To Increase Stamp Sales

Hereford retailers organized last week in an effort to get all retail stores to co-operate in selling defense stamps. The meeting took place Friday afternoon in the offices of the Hereford Credit Association in the Courthouse.

Officers chosen were Glenn Weir, chairman; J. M. Gilliland, vice-chairman; H. A. Close, publicity; Carl McCaslin, advertising; and Troy Moore, W. F. Gillis, C. F. Moore and Thelma Christer, sales promotion.

The immediate aim is to increase stamp sales by getting more customers to take their change in defense stamps.

City, County Schools To Be Closed Friday

The public schools of Hereford and Deaf Smith County will be dismissed Friday, city and county school superintendents announced this week, to permit teachers to attend the annual Northwest Conference For Education, which will be held Friday and Saturday in Amarillo.

Registration is expected to be complete by 9:30 Friday morning, and a full program has been arranged for the teacher's meeting.

Hereford teachers who hold executive or committee posts in the conference organization include Glenn Allison, treasurer; Miss Alma Hall, member of the state executive board; H. V. Stanton, president of the Deaf Smith County unit of the Texas State Teacher's Association, and Knox Kinard, member of the credentials committee.

Merchants Sponsor "Woman of the Year" In Ads And Contest

In connection with the showing of "Woman of the Year" at the Star Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, the theatre together with other co-operating merchants, is offering cash prizes as well as free picture show tickets for the best solutions offered to the misspelled word contest described in detail in a full page advertisement in this paper.

All advertisements on the page feature the theme of each housewife being a "woman of the year" in her own home and each merchant has suggestions for carrying out this idea.

The contest deadline is Tuesday, Mar. 24.

The picture, which stars Katherine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy, is rated one of the best of the season and is being shown in Hereford earlier than in most of the large cities of the southwest.

One boy or girl in each school district in the Hereford territory will be eligible for prize awards of $5.00 in Defense Stamps in the drive to collect scrap iron. It was today announced by S. P. Rosson, chairman. However, all boys and girls who compete must bring in more than 200 pounds of scrap metal before Wednesday, April 8.

"All persons are asked to bring in scrap metals to be used in National Defense," Mr. Rosson said. "The metal may be weighed at Pitman Grain Co., Backard Milling Co., and Fraser Milling Co., then dumped on the lot across south from the Methodist Church, where a sign has been posted. After the metal is dumped the owner should weigh back his empty truck and keep his scale tickets as a basis of payments."

When the drive closes April 8, buyers will make sealed bids on the scrap, which will go to the highest bidder—and all persons who bring in scrap metals will be paid on the exact basis which the metal brings. Mr. Rosson continued. No profit or expense money is to be deducted by merchants or committeemen, who are putting up the prizes and advertising the movement as a patriotic duty.

"So far, no scrap has been brought in," he continued. "The Hereford Brand has offered a one year subscription on the first load weighing more than 200 pounds which is brought in, weighed and reported at the Brand office. The goal for this area has been set at 50 tons of scrap."

Girls May Train For Defense Job

As part of the national program to train women for work in war industries the National Youth Administration is starting a resident school for girls at Waco, probably by Apr. 5, and announces that the school will offer training in radio, sheet metal, machine shop and power sewing. J. C. Kollam, state administrator, made the announcement this week, stating that work experience and training in all units will qualify assigned youth for later transfer to a resident school at Corpus Christi for further training preparatory to job placement with civil service status at the U. S. Naval Air Station there.

Marvin Dabbs, area counselor for the N. Y. A., stated that tentative selections would start immediately. Applicants must be high school graduates between the ages of 19 and 24 and be able to secure a birth certificate. If applicant is under 21, she must secure a minority release. All young women desiring to be interviewed for this defense school should see Mrs. Dyalhia Brady, county welfare administrator, or should write immediately to the National Youth Administration, Box 1466, Lubbock, Tex.

Junior Music Festival Meets Here, March 28

A large number of junior music students will gather in Hereford Saturday, Mar. 28, for the annual Seventh District, Competitive Festival of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

The District Festival has been announced to meet in Amarillo on that date but in order to conserve rubber the district has been divided into several sections and the North Plains section will convene in Hereford, which is the most central location for that group.

Sessions will open at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mar. 28, at the Methodist Church and contest numbers will include both voice and piano solos and double and group selections.

Ireland To Be Magnolia Wholesale Agent Here

Woodrow Ireland this week took over duties as the Magnolia Wholesale dealer in the Hereford territory and announced that orders could be left either at the Magnolia warehouse or at Ireland Motor Company on Highway 60.

Mayor And City Commissioners Ask Re-election

In reply to the requests of many Hereford citizens, Charles J. Paddock, mayor, and Verne Witherspoon and Nester Gass, commissioners, this week authorized The Brand to announce their candidacy for re-election in the city election scheduled for Apr. 7, 1942.

In making their announcement, members of the present city administration stated their belief that city expenses should be kept at the minimum consistent with good government and pledged themselves to continue the policy of reduction of the city debt, which has been on a steady decrease for several years.

The policy of careful handling of city finances is especially desirable at this time, the mayor and commissioners state, pointing out that with state and national taxes on the rise it is desirable to keep local expenses at a minimum. Also in line with national policy was the reduction in the city water rate announced last week to encourage the growth of "Victory Gardens" as urged by the national government.

The mayor and city commissioners pledge a continuance of their present policies if re-elected to office.

Local Delegates Attend San Antonio Meeting

Hereford people who left Saturday to attend the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs held in San Antonio, Monday and Tuesday were Mrs. E. E. Fridley, Mrs. John Jacobsen, Jr., Mrs. Clifford Cox, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conklin.

Mrs. Cox was a delegate from the Hereford Rebekah lodge and Mrs. Jacobsen will be installed on the Grand Officer's staff. Mr. Conklin was a delegate from the local I. O. O. F. lodge. He and Mrs. Conklin also visited a son, Merlin Conklin, who is a flying cadet at Kelly Field.

Demand For Proper Flag Etiquette Follows Last Week's Farewell Service

After the farewell ceremonies for Deaf Smith County's large group of draftees last Thursday morning a good deal of controversy developed over who was saluting the flag in the proper way, and if the salutes were wrong, just what is the method prescribed by flag etiquette.

The following quotations from the flag handbook and library reference books ought to settle the matter. "During the ceremony of lowering the flag or when the flag is passing in a parade or in a review, all persons present should stand and face the flag and salute."

Those men present not in uniform should remove their hats with the right hand and hold it at the left shoulder, hand over heart.

Women present should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. Men in uniform should, of course, give the military salute. The salute to the flag in a moving column is rendered as the flag passes.

Concerning response to the playing of the national anthem, the correct etiquette is as follows:

"When the National Anthem is played, those present in uniform should salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining this position until the last note of the anthem. Men not in uniform should remove the headgear and hold it as in the salute to the flag. Women should render the salute as to the flag. When there is no flag displayed, all should stand facing toward the music."

Ireland takes the place of G. T. Higgins, who sold his business in order to go into government work.

The new Magnolia dealer invites farmers to see him for all of their oil and gas needs, pointing out that he will give the best possible service to all orders and that the Magnolia line is known for its high quality.

Celebrate Farm Salvage Drive

Joining the nation-wide campaign to collect scrap from farms, St. Peters, Mo., declared a half-holiday and made a community celebration of their drive. Farmers and farm boys and girls brought in 50 tons of scrap in one afternoon. Biggest single piece of scrap was this old-time steam engine from the era of stationary threshing.

Bond Sales Go Down in March

Reporting a sharp decline in the sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps in Deaf Smith County for the first 15 days in March, J. C. Ricketts, county chairman, today appealed for resumption of scheduled bond purchases.

With a quota of approximately $12,000 in bond sales each month, the county showed purchases totaling only $7,101 during the first 15 days of this month, Mr. Ricketts said. This leaves the county under its quota by a margin of $4,899.

Mr. Ricketts expressed hope that the sales during the remainder of March might boost the average and regain a portion of the volume lost during the first half.

Bond sales from Jan. 1, 1942, through March 15, totaled $60,566.65; the county quota for the same period is $62,500.00, leaving the community short of its quota by $1,933.35 for the present year.

H. S. Students Rank High, Speech Festival

Hereford students ranked well in the Panhandle Speech Festival held Saturday in Amarillo, with nine representatives from Hereford High School taking part in the dramatic reading and declamation divisions of the contests.

In dramatic readings (girls, 14-16) Helen Acker rated excellent; Kathryn Jane Acker, good, and Lee Etta Hopson, good. In the declamation division (boys, 16 and over) F. L. Lucas was graded excellent; Richard Petersen, average; Leo S. Rudd, good. In girls' declamations (16 and over) Clotell Pace was graded average; Mildred Bowsher, good; while in girls' declamations (14-16) Lillye London was rated good.

Dr. Conrad Freed and Prof. James H. Butler of West Texas State College were judges of the contest.

Jim Gilliland Called To Active Army Duty

James C. Gilliland left Monday for Albuquerque, N. M., where he will take his army physical examination preparatory to active duty in the Air Corps at Lowry Field, Colo.

Gilliland has held a reserve commission as First Lieutenant since graduating from Virginia Military Institute, but had not been called to active duty until this week.

He has been county attorney of Deaf Smith County for several terms. Lieut. Gilliland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gilliland.

Monday, Mar. 23, has been proclaimed "Clean-Up Day" for the City of Hereford and Mayor C. J. Paddock urges that all citizens co-operate and pile trash in alleys or in some other place convenient for city employees to gather it up.

City trucks will start on their rounds early Monday morning and it will make the work go much faster if householders already have piled tin cans and other debris piled so that the city employees can pick it up easily.

The annual spring "Clean-Up Day" is part of the city's policy of encouraging home and yard beautification in Hereford, and the city also encourages the planting of flowers, shrubbery, trees, etc.

If you have been wanting to get out and start work in the yard and thought the weather was still a little uncertain for planting operations, now is your chance to get started on your work for the summer, the mayor says.

So remember the date, Monday, Mar. 23, and have your premises cleaned up and the trash stacked in some convenient spot for city employees to pick it up.

Rationing May Be Extended

Courthouse and school store-rooms throughout the Southwest began filling up with packages of forms and War Ration Books during the last week as concrete evidence that the War has arrived in the Consumer's household—if that evidence wasn't felt previously.

Ration boards and school teachers studied plans for registration so they would be ready when "R-Day" for the start of rationing comes within the next few weeks.

During the week, the Consumer realized that when issued, War Ration Book No. One may be for other things than sugar, for which the Ration books were originally planned. After conferences with officials in the Dallas Region Office of Price Administration, State ration administrators held conferences of their own, to explain how the ration books might be used for rationing any commodity or material where rationing is ordered.

The State administrators also spent much time in trying to persuade sugar hoarders to resell their excess supplies back to their retail grocer at the daily shelf price. Reason: Anyone holding more than a "normal supply"—perhaps two pounds per person—will have stamps torn from the ration book; and (Continued on page 12)

Three Boxes of Books Given Victory Drive

Three boxes of books were sent to Amarillo last week as Hereford's contribution to the Victory Book Campaign—U. S. O. sponsored drive to collect books for men in the armed forces.

Local collection center was the Deaf Smith County Library, and Mrs. Clara McLean, librarian, was in charge of the local campaign.

Mrs. McLean this week expressed appreciation to the Boy Scouts for helping to collect the books for the local publicity given the drive and to Jack Grady, who took the books to the Amarillo collection center free of charge.

"We have really had splendid co-operation," says Mrs. McLean, "and I am sure we can know that many boys will enjoy these books."

"Body Disappears" Is Laugh Chiller

Horror is funny—at least that's the way it turns out when Jeffrey Lynn, Jane Wyman and Edward Everett Horton get together in "The Body Disappears" at the Texas Theatre Saturday and Sunday. Peter DeHaven, played by Jeffrey Lynn, passes out at a party given for him the night before he is to be married. One of his pals gets the brilliant idea of taking him over to the college dissecting room and leaving him on a slab. The complications start when Professor Shotesbury, played by Edward Everett Horton, comes in to carry out some experiments in reviving the dead. It all comes to a hilarious climax.

er table centerpiece both accentuated the March 17 colors. Sweet peas were the flowers used.

Mrs. Ralph McCullough took charge of the program and read a paper on Texas Shrubs prepared by Mrs. F. M. Kester. The writer advocated considering the year round effect in shrub planting rather than just the great burst of growth and flowering in the early part of the season. She suggested a study of form, foliage and fruiting values as well as floral display, and also suggested that an attempt to secure brilliant pictures with fall coloring is well worth the effort. She listed a surprising number of wild shrubs native to the state. They included crown of thorns, mesquite, agarita, goat bush, white milk wort, cat claw, Mexican buckeye, horse bean, creosote bush, dewberry, hackberry, mulberry, Dutchman's breeches, mountain locust, wild rose, yucca, chaparral, calico bush, salvia, willow, plum and currants. Mrs. D. H. Alexander discussed Texas wild flowers, saying, "Today nearly five thousand species of flowering plants have been reported in Texas. They have been so abundant that only recently has it been thought necessary to protect them. In 1933 a law was passed forbidding the picking of flowers or the injury to trees and shrubs."

A poem by a Texas author, "March"—by Lila Tord O'Neill of Port Arthur, was read by Mrs. Robert Wagoner.

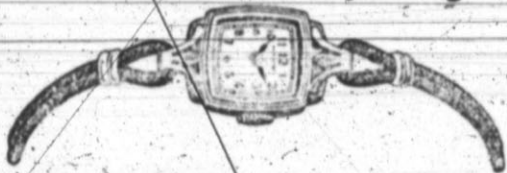

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames W. N. Lemmon, C. R. Smith, C. H. Dyar, D. H. Alexander, C. C. Cox, N. E. Gass, E. T. Brooks, E. Ramey, Lyle Blanton, Liston Wilson, J. P. Slanton, F. H. Oberthier, Ralph McCullough, Robert Wagoner, Earl Springer, A. L. Manjeot, W. C. Hromas, Miss Sadie Lee Oliver and the hostess.

Let's Cook Something

A good recipe, like a secret, is too good to keep or else it isn't worth keeping. These two recipes provided by Mrs. P. H. Gilliland are really too good to keep in just one kitchen, and you'll find them very much worth keeping and using.

While traveling abroad, a friend of Mrs. Gilliland's uncovered them and sent them to her. The first comes from Spain.

GREEK WHAT NOTS

- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup cornstarch
- 1-4 lb. butter

Sift flour and cornstarch together 3 times. Melt butter and mix thoroughly. Add enough hot water to make a soft dough. Flatten out to 1-8 inch thickness on dough board. Spread with finely crushed walnuts and fold over once. Cut in small portions, curl edges and drop in hot fat and fry like doughnuts until golden brown. When ready to serve sprinkle powdered sugar over them and serve at once.

CALLA LILIES FOR EASTER

- 3 eggs
- 1 level cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat eggs slightly and add sugar, flour and baking powder which have been sifted together three times. Add water and beat three minutes. Drop by tablespoons on a greased and floured cookie sheet and bake in 350 degree oven until a very light brown. While still hot, roll into cornucopia shapes and allow to become cold. Fill with sweetened and flavored whipped cream (stiff). Add powdered sugar to one egg yolk (enough to make it stiff) and blend thoroughly. Form tiny stamens from the sugar and egg mixture and arrange on the altogether lovely lilies. These are pretty, dainty and good.

Hereford Visitor Is Honored With Series Of Informal Parties

Mrs. Wilbur Kramer of Frankling, La., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Woodrow Ireland and Mrs. Travis Dameron, has been complimented with various social affairs. The past three weeks have seen intimate luncheons, informal buffet suppers and bridge parties given to honor and enhance the pleasure of the visitor.

Kinard Party
Added to the many parties already given was the informal three table affair when Mrs. Knox Kinard entertained Thursday afternoon. In keeping with the season St. Patrick's Day decorations were featured in appointments and in refreshments served after the contract games. Sweet peas gave the floral note to the party. Defense stamps were presented to Mrs. Woodrow Ireland, high player and a gift was presented to the honoree.

Invited guests included Mesdames Kramer, J. T. Glibreath, Jr., George V. Stambaugh, Grant Fuller, W. J. Stanford, Travis Dameron, Woodrow Ireland, Ernest Medkief, Henry Sears, N. E. Milburn, James R. Allison and W. M. Emmons.

Mrs. Medkief Has Party
A small party for eight was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Ernest Medkief at her home on North Main Street. Contract was the entertainment and a gift was presented to Mrs. Kramer, the honor guest. Defense stamps went to Mrs. Knox Kinard who was high player.

The eight guests included Mesdames George V. Stambaugh, J. T. Glibreath, Jr., James R. Allison, Knox Kinard, Woodrow Ireland, Henry Sears, Travis Dameron, and the honoree.

Mrs. Oberthier Entertains
Mrs. F. H. Oberthier complimented the Louisiana visitor with a dinner party for eight Monday evening.

The motif for the quartet tables was of white sweet peas and fernery, carrying out the St. Patrick's Day colors.

Those seated were Mrs. Kramer and Mesdames Ernest Medkief, Knox Kinard, Woodrow Ireland, Travis Dameron, Jim Lipscomb, A. M. Jones and Clara McLean.

Contract games provided the entertainment for the remainder of the evening with high score award going to Mrs. Dameron and the honor guest being presented with a courtesy gift.

Nutrition in Defense

By Hereford Home Economics Unit

Prepared by the Consumer Interest Committee of the Texas Home Economics Association FROM THE TEXAS FOOD STANDARD

For a good diet I need to include cereals and cereal products.

Daily: 1 serving whole grain products. Other cereals and bread as desired. For 1 week: 3-4 to 1 1-2 lbs. whole grain products, 1 1/2 to 3 lbs. other cereals and bread.

When buying cereal products I should remember to: Buy refined flour in large quantities if storage space permits.

Buy flour in smaller amounts in warm than in cold weather. Buy whole grain flour and cereals in amounts that can be used in a short time.

Try to buy them freshly ground. Store flour and meal in closely covered tin containers in a cool place.

Learn how to use one brand of flour because flours vary in hardness.

Use cereals that need to be cooked if income is limited, because they are cheaper.

Include washed and dried wheat, stored in cellophane bags and ground fresh, either at the store or at home. It gives an excellent fresh, whole-grain product. Home ground cereals may be even cheaper.

Watch the surplus commodity list. Items on it are apt to be inexpensive.

Check weight as well as price of packaged flour and cereals.

Use day-old bread sometimes if it is available. It costs less than fresh bread.

Store bread in a dry, well-ventilated tin container. Try to visit the bakery from which bread comes to check on its sanitation.

Check price with quality and nutritive value. The highest price does not always mean the best quality.

Buy some cereal products that are sold in bulk. They are cheaper than packaged products.

Use at least as many whole-grain cereals as refined; they contain more minerals, vitamins, and bulk.

Use some yellow and some white meal. Yellow meal contains more vitamin A than white meal; white meal has more thiamin (Vit. B-1).

Try meal from sorghum grains in bread if these grains are produced at home.

Use yeast breads frequently. They contain more thiamin (Vit. B-1) than those made with soda. Make yeast bread at home as a means of economy. Use milk rather than water for greater nutritive value and better keeping qualities.

Use grits and cornmeal in equal amounts in cornbread sometimes. Grits should be soaked about 15 minutes before adding to the mixture.

Use whole grain flour and meal in cookies, puddings, and meat loaves as well as in bread.

Freshen stale bread by sprinkling with water and heating it in the oven for a few minutes.

Freshen ready-to-eat cereals that are not crisp by heating in the oven for a few minutes.

Vary cereals by serving with fruit, nuts, or syrup.

Serve cereals with fruit juice to persons who are allergic to milk.

Soak rice 1 to 2 hours before cooking in order to lessen the cooking time and save fuel.

Add 1 t. lemon juice per 1 qt. of water if rice is cooked in hard water. This keeps the rice white.

Cook more rice than is needed for one serving. Use it for puddings, croquettes, casserole dishes, etc.

Cook more meal than is needed for one serving. Use it as sauteed cornmeal mush. Avoid stirring cereals while they are cooking. Stirring makes them sticky. Use left-over muffins or biscuits in puddings. They are also very good toasted.

Let's explore the possibilities

IN TIMES OF PEACE the choice was yours. You could decide whether you wanted to trade-in your car every year or two... or whether to give it the kind of care which would make it last for many years. That choice exists no longer. Every patriotic citizen must make his car last longer. Since no car can ever be any younger than its motor, you must explore every possible way of saving wear and tear. So keep the following facts in mind when you are deciding which oil to use:

Phillips refines many oils, because car owners' requirements vary as much as their cars and their pocketbooks. But if you want our best oil, you need have no doubt, because Phillips frankly tells you that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

Replacing winter-worn lubricant? Making the regular 1,000-mile change? Specify Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

L. R. Brady and Rat Jowell of Hereford, together with R. A. Campbell, Alex Edwards and Geo. Black of Canyon and T. C. D. De Graffenried of Ceta were planning a Hereford sale at Canyon in April.

Three-hundred invitations were issued to a "select social ball and reception" to be given by the young people of Hereford on Mar. 25. The program was to include dancing at the new store building of the Hereford Dry Goods and Clothing Company and supper at the Hereford Hotel. James D. Tucker was president of the group and Wm. R. Evans was vice-president.

Miss Dora Rambo of Quanah was a guest in the home of Mrs. F. M. Avis.

The merger of The Hereford Reporter and The Hereford Brand was effective with the Mar. 21 issue. B. P. Stone was editor of The Brand and F. L. Vanderburg was publisher.

The personnel of the Hereford Orchestra included W. F. West, C. H. Turk, B. H. Bounds, Jr., Homer Innon, S. C. Wilson and John Boyd.

Mar. 21, 1932
The Brand was asking for recipes for corn lightbread. It was thought that this old-fashioned delicacy would be better than some of the improvised—and inedible—substitutes for white bread being tried.

J. E. Crouch resigned as city clerk to take a job at the First State Bank.

Preparations were going forward for the third Liberty Loan, which would start Apr. 6.

The boys of the Triangle Class of the Christian Church were hosts to girls of Class 8 at the home of Mrs. A. C. Elliott. Present at the party were Baker Womble, Davis Elliott, Bernice Walker, John and Britain Robinson, Bruce and Gwynne Guthrie, Aubrey Cox, Julia Roberts, Floyd Wilson and Lucille Megert.

J. J. Ward and daughter, Alice, were making an automobile trip to San Antonio. They had taken camping equipment and planned to spend the nights "wherever dark... overtook them."

Total bond purchases in the high school had reached the sum of $1,124.50.

John P. Slaton had made a business trip to Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Kye Higgins was visiting relatives in White Deer.

Mar. 17, 1932
Interest was high in the city election set for April. There were three sets of candidates—E. B. Black (for mayor) and J. A. Pitman and J. D. Buchanan (commissioners) in one group; N. M. Bartley (mayor), G. R. Smith and N. E. Gass (commissioners) in Group No. 2, and John P. Slaton (mayor) and C. M. Hicks and N. E. Gass (commissioners) in Group No. 3.

Mrs. Lee Curry of Summerfield had been elected president of the county home demonstration council.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lambert were visiting in Tulla.

Woodrow Ireland of W. T. S. T. C. Canyon, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ireland, over the week end.

Mrs. John L. Wilson had returned from Ft. Sumner, N. M., where she had visited her daughter, Mrs. Sam Steele.

Spring Is In The Air

Southern Great Plains Field Station, Woodward, Oklahoma during the last six years and in five of these years has made the highest yields.

During the period from 1938 to 1941, the Porter has been grown by nearly 400 farmer-cooperators in the Southern Great Plains area. This area includes western Texas and Oklahoma, Eastern New Mexico, Southeastern Colorado and Southwestern Kansas. These cooperators were requested to grow other varieties with the Porter, giving all the same treatment. During the past three years over 70 varieties have been grown by these cooperators.

The two most frequently grown varieties are the Earliana and Marglobe. The latter, though a good tomato in other regions, was dropped from variety tests at this station years ago because of poor fruit setting and yielding ability. From 1935 to 1941 when Porter and Earliana were both included in station tests, the average yield of the Porter was more than double that of the Earliana. In the year of lowest yields the yield of Porter was five times that of the Earliana.

The Porter is elliptical in shape, deep pink to almost red in color, small in size, though somewhat larger than the commonly known pear tomatoes. It is excellent for juice, preserves, salads, canning whole, high in quality for eating out of hand or for table use, and in a few cases special markets for it have been developed. It produces heavily but because of the small size is tedious to pick. It was not popular with people who want tomatoes that will produce two and one-half to four inch slices, but some seasons and during parts of most seasons, they can have plenty of Porter when no large varieties are available at all. With average care it will produce any year, and often when other varieties are failures or near failures, will furnish plenty of tomatoes for home use over a long period. While other varieties should also be planted, the Porter because of its many desirable qualities should be included in all Victory Gardens where tomatoes are grown in the Southern Great Plains area.

From twelve Porter Tomato plants given to a friend by Mrs. H. V. Hennen last year, 98 containers were canned and fresh ones used from July 10 to December 25.

Tomato juice from Porter plants is milder, sweeter in flavor, of thick consistency and red in color.

Porter growers can expect to conserve 30-containers per person in their family. This is the quota needed for 180 non-productive days in this area.

In the Southern Great Plains area during favorable years, almost any variety of tomato will produce some fruit. In bad years, with high temperatures and hot winds, almost none of the ordinary commercial varieties will make profitable yields and many of them sometimes will mature no fruit at all, even if plentifully irrigated. The Porter tomato has been grown in the tomato variety tests at the

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL

CURDS thickening up milk don't half give you a picture of the blobs of muck that can foul your oil—and your engine. For muck and "stickum" from oil that fails under present-day strain can't improve lubrication, nor add to safe mileage per quart. But now that you must change oil for Spring—really a law in every Car Instruction Book—you can easily switch to Conoco Nth motor oil. And in patented Conoco Nth oil you get Thiathene inhibitor... man-made... the modern synthetic invented to restrain stickiness—sluggishness—"simmering down thick."

Conoco Nth gets every chance to stay smoothly fluid; full of life. And still another great Conoco synthetic—same as ever—makes Conoco Nth give you an OIL-PLATED engine, with lubricant "plated" you'd say—or seemingly "magnetized"—direct to inner engine parts. Then OIL-PLATING isn't all draining down fast during parking—or even overnight. Instead, OIL-PLATING can stay up high, to help out your engine at every start, before any oil-pump raises up its full stream.

That's how to foil a lot of wear, and not have your engine soon over-eating 'oil.

Talk about a strict economy diet!... Down in Death Valley's record high heat, battling five other big-name oils—impartially—this same Conoco Nth oil was still up above half when all others tested had burned up their engines and their full 5-quart fills!

That's a certified sample. It makes you realize why you can change to Conoco Nth and keep away from adding quart after quart. Get rid of hazardous Winter oil now, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Get economy to the Nth degree. Continental Oil Company

HEREFORD

BULL

By Jimmie Gillentine

The other day I was talking with the committee and they said that the people just simply must start taking an interest in this scrap iron business. They say this is something just as important as bonds, guns, and armies; they say our country has to have more steel and iron. Already the folks at Friona have brought in around 40 tons of scrap, according to reports. Here's what to do. Bring your load of scrap to Hittman Elevator, Fraser Elevator, or Packard Elevator and have it weighed—absolutely free of charge. Then take your scale ticket and drive to the vacant lots across south from the Methodist Church. Here you will see a sign telling you where to dump your iron. Then weigh back your truck—and keep the scale ticket.

On April 8, sealed bids will be submitted by interested buyers—and persons bringing in the iron will be paid on the basis which the pile brings. The committee thinks this territory should bring in at least 50 tons of scrap. Besides, they are giving some real prizes. They want someone to break the ice with the first load, so for the first load of 200 pounds or more which the driver dumps and reports in to this office, I will personally give a year's subscription to The Brand. Remember, it's to the first one who delivers a load and reports it in The Brand office.

A 2,000-lb Aerial Bomb requires 500 lbs. of scrap metals.

A 50-calibre machine gun requires 50 pounds of scrap metals.

A 75-mm Howitzer requires half a ton of scrap metals.

A 16-inch naval shell requires half a ton of scrap metal.

A medium 27-ton tank requires 18 tons of scrap metals.

A 35,000-ton battleship requires 9,000 tons of scrap metals.

A 3-in. anti-aircraft gun requires 3 tons of scrap metals.

If this community can rake up 50 tons of scrap metals it stands to reason that considerable help will have been rendered toward victory. Besides, there are some nice prizes for the boys and girls, and if the scrap brings $8 to $10 a ton the proceeds would mean around $150.00.

Here's a poem, which Mrs. Merlin Kaul of Westway brought by the office. As the poem indicates, Mrs. Kaul is a very understanding woman, at least in my opinion. Here's the verse: The editor stood at the pearly gate,

His face was worn and old; He meekly asked of the man of fate,

Admission to the fold. "What have you done?" St. Peter "To seek admission here?"

asked, "Oh, I ran a country printing plant On earth for many a year." The gate swung open sharply As Peter touched the bell. "Come in," he said, "and take a harp; You've had enough of-er- trouble."

These Rule the Fish

We Freshmen are proud to present as our president, Billy London. Billy has brown hair and brown eyes.

Londine Martin is our vice-president. She collects figures in soap. She dislikes sandstorms.

Helen Acker keeps the minutes and money for the freshman class. She collects foreign dolls.

Stand By!

Be sure to notice the new posters on the Senior play which have been placed in school and downtown.

Freshmen Sponsors, 1941-1942

The Freshman Class dedicates this paper to the sponsors, Miss McCaslin and Mr. H. V. Stanton.

Miss McCaslin is a resident of Canyon, where her mother lives. She graduated from West Texas State.

Mr. Stanton sponsors the Honor Society and is assistant football coach. He teaches General Math and Algebra I.

Miss McCaslin is a member of the National Fraternity of English Teachers and of the Delta Kappa Gamma.

Tri-Hi-Y Entertains Faculty With Social

The Tri-Hi-Y Girls entertained the high school faculty members at a social on March 10. The group gathered in Miss Crawford's room.

After the program the group played games. Mrs. Charles Reeve entertained by playing the piano, and Miss Kirby gave a reading.

Ball Team Organized

The boys of the Freshman class have organized a baseball team. They elected Clyde Brock and Billy London captains.

These boys have played two games and have won them both. They played the eighth grade of Central School.

The boys that make up the team are: catcher, Robert Jackson; pitcher, Eugene Sparks; first base, Clyde Brock; second base, Billy London; third base, Wallace Huff; right field, Chas. Skelton and Edward Roberson; short field, Le Roy Boyer; center field, V. C. Hopson; left field, J. W. Robinson, and short stop, Lloyd Manjeot.

Billy London may not be big in size, but he can really swat that ball. He has made nine hits out of ten up at bat.

Nicknames

- Lloyd Manjeot - Kitty Mac; Pete Davis - Pavis; Beverly Fraser - Razorfreskw; Delmo Williams - Dool; Charles Skelton - Chooly Chart; Juanita Beauford - Porky; Edward Roberson - Zudy Zway; Wanda Allmon - Fadie Linger; Nolle Elliston - Colnus; Wallace Huff - Le Hocia; Ragsdale Bailey - Patsy; Charles Cooper - Coop; Wanda Lee Terry - Tibburn; Emmett Saxon - Saxopian; Karl Hutcheson - Husk; Cutch Leroy Foster - Braw

Fish and Their Folk

Fish! fish! fish! fish! There are ninety-five of us in this year's class—forty-three boys and forty-two girls.

The girls are a little younger than the boys. The exact cause is not known, but probably it is that boys had rather fish than go to school.

It is surprising to know what each Freshman's father does. Farmers top the list with thirty-seven.

Some mothers also work, and this adds some different occupations. Among mothers, there are housewives, County Treasurer, a stenographer and a seamstress.

Should the Freshmen of this class continue in school the way students do the country over, about 85 of us will be Sophomores in 1942-43.

Will the Freshman class of 1941-42 follow in their parents' footsteps? If they do it should not be hard to find a competent painter, farmer, or what have you.

WHAT IF... Doris were a Silverton instead of a Goldston? Perry Lee were a Dime instead of a Nichol?

Mr. Ware and Mr. Stanton didn't wear their football jackets to school everyday? Harold Conklin were short and fat and had something to say?

Myers Hudson didn't have a nickname for anyone? Pearl were a Harbor instead of an Edwards?

Charles were a Skeleton instead of a Skelton? Sam Lisenbe and Nolle Elliston weighted 200 pounds?

Carroll Lisenbe was as fat as J. W. Robinson? The Whiteface Round-up had some new jokes?

Junior Burges had black hair? Betty June Euler were caught flirting with Kenneth Rea? Camella Otts were a pair of oxfords to school?

Gala Occasion Is Here

South of the border down Mexico way! That's where the Juniors and Seniors are going tonight on a mythical trip for a fiesta.

The Juniors have been working all year for this occasion, and at last it is here. The big moment has arrived.

The "gals" are all trying to outdo one another in wearing the prettiest dress. The fellows are all trying to outdo one another in taking the prettiest gal or giving the largest corsage.

This is the most gala occasion of the year, and all the Juniors and Seniors are really looking forward to going tonight.

C. W. Reeves: "Why didn't you answer my letter?" Verla F.: "I didn't get it, and besides I didn't like what it said."

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

By The Snooper Hi, Folks. Have you noticed lately how a certain group of Freshmen girls have been getting along?

Well, for instance Rosella Albracht with Billy Massie, Wanda Jean Smith with Clyde Brock, Theresa Heiselman and Claude Williams?

Have you heard about the boy Marcella was out with one Friday night? (Including certain other couples.) Marcella, where was Billy?

Betty Jo Anderson is taking after her sister. She can really draw women. Can you feature Sammy Lisenbe not trying to get some girl to invite him someplace?

Rosemary Phillips has a liking for a certain Junior boy. Wonder who? Betty Jane Robinson is doing rather well with five Junior boys, so I have heard.

I think the Junior girls had better start looking out because I know of several other Freshman girls who are doing very well with the Junior boys.

Barbara LeGrand certainly is interested in a boy in Central School. Barbara, if you don't give some of the Freshman boys a chance, what are they going to do? David Phillips wants a certain girl to teach him the tune "Chattanooga Chu Chu."

Have you ever noticed how conceited people dislike conceited people? Strange, isn't it? Were you among the group who read the note from an Edwards boy to a very pretty, red headed girl?

Did you ever notice where Beverly Fraser wears that shiny diamond? Wonder who the lucky one is? Snootily yours, THE SNOOPER

"These Young Folk"

"Hear the swing band playin'. It makes you wanta dance. The older folks are swayin'. But how the jitterbugs do prance. They kick their feet and shake their legs."

And take up all the floor After one night of that I couldn't take any more. They sound like a herd of cattle As they go hopping across the way.

They look like the last rose of summer The morning of the next day. They just can't understand Why old folks dance so slow. The older folks can't understand How jitterbugs keep on the go. The way they run and cut a rug

They make a lot of noise And old time dancing involves So much more grace and poise; It sets your mind to wondering What the world is coming to. When you see the kind of tactics All the younger folk can do. I wonder if the young folks Would like to change their style. For how would they like it If their Mother and Dad ran wild?"

TO THE VOTERS OF HEREFORD

Because of the insistence of local citizens, we the present city administration of the City of Hereford, have decided to offer our services for re-election to the offices of mayor and city commissioners in the city election of Apr. 7, 1942.

We have done our best to give Hereford an efficient and economical city government without denying it the advantages it should have and that we were in a position to provide.

We have set as one of our aims the continued reduction of city indebtedness, believing that in a time when war costs cause other government expenses to rise, it is our special duty to keep city indebtedness at a minimum.

If you see fit to return us to these offices, we shall carry out the program we have followed in the past.
