AROUND A TOWN

Sights and Faces Seen

The end of a beautiful friendship is going to be spelled between John Estes and Elizabeth Womble if Liz doesn't eliminate that red "beanie." John just plain doesn't like the beanie and has stated as much on numerous occasions, but particularly he objects to Elizabeth's style of wearing it—he has even gone so far as to give a demonstration of how beanies should be worn, but with no results.

A new idea on what to do with Hitler after the war is over has been expressed by John Olson, who thinks that Herr Schickelgruber should be put in a padded cell and made to paste gasoline coupons on gummed sheets for the rest of his natural existence. Just to add variety to Hitler's fate, the cell should be provided with some Panhandle breezes, and the gummed sheets should be only partially gummed.

Only complaint heard about the Hereford-Wellington game: Coach Swanton's remark that he hoped they would "murder them." But the coach admitted that the hope was impossible with an opponent as good as those Wellington boys.

Personally, we have never believed Ruth Houser's tales about her cooking; but we know she is going to turn into a regular "Betty Crocker" now that she has her new Brand cookbook, and Cotton can qualify as a human guinea pig after getting a new dish for each of nearly 200 meals.

Confidentially, now that the bus and car over gas rationing is dying down, has anybody noticed a great decrease in the number of cars in town? And according to the county correspondents, people are still visiting just about as much as ever.

The turnips continue to get bigger and better. This week we have one from J. A. Dickson, who lives nine miles north of Hereford. The turnip weighs five pounds and is 2 3/4 inches around—and this is the first crop raised by Mr. Dickson.

Volunteering Still Permitted For Short Time

In clarification of a recent order stopping all volunteer enlistments of men between the ages of 18 and 35, the Deaf Smith County Selective Service Board this week received notice from national headquarters that men in the stated age brackets may continue to enlist in the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard until about Feb. 1, 1943.

The continuing of volunteer enlistments, it is explained, is to allow time for a procedure to be worked out by which the calls from all branches of the service will be answered through selective service channels.

Men 18 to 35 who desire to enlist in Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard may take application to their local board by completing an Application for Voluntary Induction (Form 165) providing they have not previously been ordered to report for induction.

Complete details on the procedure for volunteering may be obtained at the office of the local board.

Son Of Hereford Man Killed on Guadalcanal

Lt. A. C. Potts, Jr., was killed in action last week—probably on Guadalcanal, according to a brief War Department notice received this week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Potts of Hereford.

Details were available on how Lieutenant Potts lost his life, but he had been on duty in the South Pacific for some time.

Mr. Potts, Sr. is a former man for the Santa Fe at Hereford.

Throttle Out On Production In AAA Plans

Maximum production from America's wartime agricultural plant is the basis of the 1943 AAA program announced this week.

The program places emphasis on the production of war crops and provides stiff payment deductions on farms failing to meet war production goals, AAA Administrator Joe Ellis points out.

Payments are designed to get full production of the kinds and in the amounts needed, and all crop payments are to be contingent on the degree to which the farmer meets his goal, the AAA administrator emphasizes. Deductions will be made from the farm's maximum production allotment payments for failure to meet specified goals, both of allotment crops and special war crops. In general all payments are lower than they were in 1942, and several crops, including potatoes, have been taken off the allotment list in order to achieve maximum production.

Every farmer in the country co-operating with the program must sign a farm plan outlining his part in wartime production. In the plan, the farmer will list the wartime crop adjustments he will make in meeting production goals and the conservation practices he will undertake to help get increased yields in 1943.

Failure to plant at least 90 per cent of special crop allotments for wheat will result in payment deductions at the rate of five times the compliance rate, which means that a farmer's crop payment could be wiped out entirely if he should plant only 70 per cent of his allotment. Under certain conditions, farmers will be allowed to substitute special war crops or designated feed crops for their allotment crops and still remain in compliance.

Failure to achieve 90 per cent of war crop goals for a farm will incur crop payment deductions at the rate of $15 per acre.

actually need, while others have perhaps been granted less. Those who find that it is impossible to perform their necessary work on the preferred mileage granted may take the matter up with the Board for adjustment. Many, in their applications, have specified mileage for "going to the doctor for treatment," and trips to outside points. Trips of this kind are to be taken care of by granting "Special Mileage Coupons" for use for the special purpose only, and upon separate applications. Those desiring to make trips to doctors for treatment, should get statement from the doctor, showing probable number of treatments that will be necessary, and the length of time required, and special mileage can be granted at one time to take care of applicant's needs. Outside trips on business must be for "preferred purposes," and can then be granted only in case no other adequate transportation is available.

The purpose of this Gas Rationing Program is to CONSERVE RUBBER, which is one of the most essential commodities needed to WIN THIS WAR. All loyal citizens are interested in that, and we appeal to you to confine your driving to necessary things, thereby making it easier for us to help you in getting your job done.

Weevils Damage Wheat Stored In Farm Grain Bins

Reporting that damage to farm stored wheat is fairly heavy throughout the county, Joe Ellis, AAA administrator, this week requested all farmers having wheat in storage in bins on the farm, to examine the grain thoroughly to find the extent of damage by weevils and to take immediate steps to treat the wheat. A good fumigant, used in the proportion of about four or five gallons to every 1,000 bushels of wheat, will check damage by weevils, Ellis states.

There are 750 bins in the county and it will be impossible for the AAA examiner to check all of them soon enough to find all cases of weevil damage while there is still time to check the damage. Therefore, all farmers are asked to check their own bins and treat the grain immediately.

The AAA administrator points out that it is the farmer's responsibility, under government loan regulations, to deliver wheat of the same quality and quantity on which the loan was made; and that if wheat deteriorates in storage, the farmer will have to pay the difference in the value of the loan and the value of the wheat.

Valentine's Condition Reported As Improved

Condition of W. I. (Wink) Valentine, pioneer cattleman who was injured last Friday morning when he was knocked down by a car as he was crossing the street in the first block on Main, was reported this morning as considerably improved, and members of his family and friends expressed satisfaction over his progress.

Mr. Valentine suffered no broken bones but his left knee cap was pulled apart and the injury was at first thought to be dangerous. Within a few weeks the knee will be put in a cast and will have to remain in the cast for about five weeks to allow the torn ligaments to heal.

Mr. Valentine is in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Paved Road To Be Built To Enemy Alien Camp

Plans are being completed for construction of a paved road to the enemy alien internment camp, County Judge A. J. Schroeter announced this week, stating that the road will be built south from Highway 50, beginning at the Schelhaugen place and turning east to the camp entrance.

Construction is under supervision of the State Highway Department, the Public Roads Administration and the War Department.

Mrs. Francis B. Elliston and daughter, Frances Sue of El Paso, arrived yesterday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elliston. Sergeant Elliston will arrive within the next few days to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents here.

Down School Students Throw Axis Bond Curve

Hats off to the students and teachers of Dawn School who bought $711.80 worth of stamps and bonds on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, to send a really fitting remembrance to Hitler and Hirohito.

With an enrollment of 42 students, the Dawn school set an example which, if it were followed by every citizen of the county, could raise the local quota in four months.

Mrs. Hazel Atchley and Miss Genevieve Olsen are teachers at Dawn.

Enough Gas For Vital Needs Aim Of Ration Board

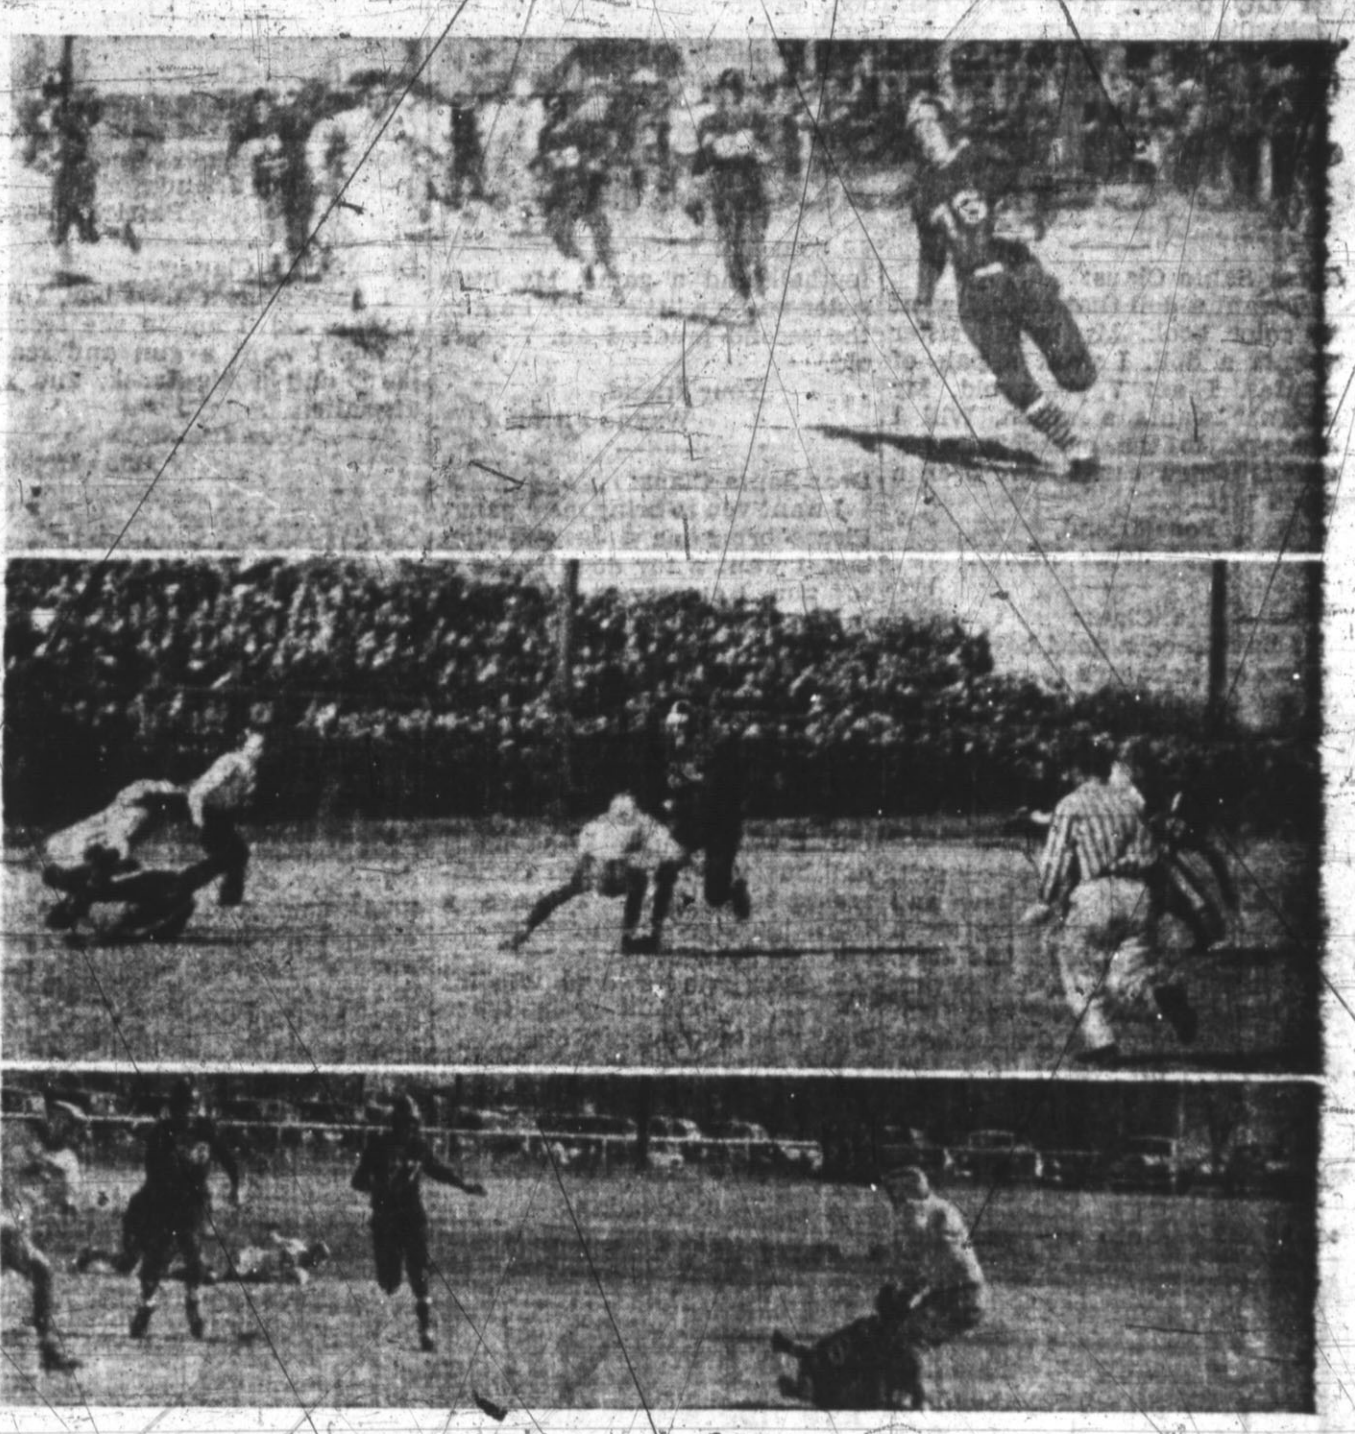

In a statement of their conception of their duties and the manner in which they are trying to carry out board business, Frank A. Gyles, Henry Hastings and E. S. Ireland of the county gas ration panel this week made the following statement which the Board believes should clarify some of the misconceptions regarding gas rationing and which shows the reasonable and co-operative attitude of the men who will administer the program locally.

The undersigned, the members of the Gas Rationing Board who have had the task of passing out applications for supplemental mileage ration, desire to make this statement to those who have been granted supplemental mileage under their applications.

Before entering upon our duties, we had no idea of the size of the task that was before us, nor were we familiar with the regulations governing the granting of additional mileage, and in trying to complete this work with as much speed as possible, we know that errors have been made.

After familiarizing ourselves with the rules and regulations as best we could, we have reached this understanding: (1) That County Boards have the power and are expected to grant to applicants requiring more than the basic mileage of 340 miles per month, up to 470 miles per month if the additional mileage is necessary in carrying on their usual occupations, which is the business or occupation comes within what is termed "preferred mileage"; and (2) To those entitled to "preferred mileage" (Farmers and Stockmen coming within this class) we understand that we have the power, and that it is our duty to grant whatever mileage is absolutely necessary to enable them to carry on; but we wish to emphasize the fact that supplemental mileage granted is to be used only for the purposes for which it has been granted, and all unused coupons are to be returned to the Board at the expiration of the time for which they were granted.

We wish to say further that we are sure some have been granted more than they will

Santa Keeps Big Date With Hereford Kids

Plans are complete for the annual Santa Claus Parade to be held in Hereford tomorrow afternoon and last minute communications with old Santa himself reveal that the jolly old gentelman has his dates arranged with a good sized slice of valuable time to devote to the kiddies of the Hereford territory.

Children of Central School and St. Anthony's School will march in the parade which forms at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon at the corner by the Methodist and Baptist Churches. The parade will be led by the Junior Band and the High School Band will also march.

The route of the parade, according to Parade Marshal Robert Thompson, is south down Main Street to the corner of Second and Main, opposite the First State Bank, where the marchers will make a "U" turn and come back the street to the intersection of Main and Third where Santa Claus will distribute the treats.

City Marshal Ed Curtisinger announced today that all cars must be cleared off Main Street by noon tomorrow to give plenty of room for the Santa Claus Parade. Cars may be parked in side streets and alleys, Curtisinger states.

Because of strict rulings on the use of school buses for any but the most necessary school business, it will be impossible this year for the children from rural schools to attend in a group as they have in the past. However, some communities are trying to arrange for enough cars to take the school children to the parade, and it is thought that a large number of the rural students will attend.

Carol C. Hunter Funeral Rites Held Friday P. M.

Carol C. Hunter, veteran of World War I and prominent farmer of the Jumbo Community, died in the Dimmitt Hospital last Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 9, after a long illness.

Mr. Hunter, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunter of Hereford, was born in Sydney, Ark., in 1896. He was nearly 47 years old at the time of his death. Coming to Hereford with his parents in 1916 he served 11 months in France with the 36th Division during the first World War and had lived in the Jumbo Community ever since his return from army duty.

Mr. Hunter was married in 1920 to Miss Annie Wilkerson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilkerson of Jumbo, and in addition to his wife, he is survived by two children, C. C. Jr. and Barbara Ann.

Rev. J. E. Sharp of Canyon, an old friend of Mr. Hunter, said of him during the funeral rites, "He was a quiet, unassuming and home-loving person," and to friends and neighbors of the Hunter family this seemed a good summation of his character. He was a charter member of the Jumbo Presbyterian Church and of the Dimmitt Legion Post.

In addition to his wife and children, Mr. Hunter is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hunter of Hereford; five brothers, Finis, Sam, Addison and Ullman Hunter, all of Jumbo; and K. R. Hunter of Hereford; and a sister, Mrs. M. L. Simpson, of Jumbo.

Funeral rites, in charge of Rev. J. R. Sharp, were held at the Hereford Presbyterian Church and burial was in West Park Cemetery with the Hereford Legion Post in charge.

Persons from out-of-town who attended the funeral were Mrs. C. C. Hunter's sisters, Mrs. Fannie Parker of Big Springs and Mrs. Kirkland of Slaton; and Mrs. W. A. Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Stone, Mrs. Goodwin Miller, Mrs. Fuller, and Mrs. G. (Continued on Page 12)

Riding to their first regional championship by a 14-0 defeat of the Wellington Skyrockets Friday afternoon the Whitefaces of Hereford High School showed just about everything in the bag of tricks which has piled up the highest scoring record reported for Class A football in Texas this year.

Scored In First
The Whitefaces scratched their first score out of a Wellington threat midway in the first quarter when Quarterback Red Merrill snagged a Wellington pass and raced 90 yards for the Whiteface tally. On an end-run play which has accounted for plenty of Whiteface extra points this year, Danny Russell ran up the extra point and the game settled down to a see-saw punting duel which continued throughout the second and third quarters and which showed the Skyrockets to have a slight edge in the kicking game. Quarterback James Melton, a standout man for the Rockets all afternoon, showed a persistent ability to boot the ball into the Whiteface coffin corner, and despite the Herd's big edge on first downs, they were not able to pull over a score during the two periods.

Merrill Scores Again
Merrill again scored for Hereford in the fourth quarter after Wellington had been forced to kick to the Whitefaces, who started play on the Hereford 45-yard line. After a slight gain by Worley on the first Whiteface try, Merrill sprinted 50 yards for the score on the second down, and the extra point came on a pass from Russell to Worley.

Wellington started an end-run touchdown drive in the last period, only to have the attempt thwarted by Worley's interception of one of Melton's passes, and the March and White was in position for a scoring threat when the game ended.

Substitutions were light on both sides—with Roberson playing at right half for Weems for Hereford and Forbes for Hester, center, and Burns for Hester, tackle, for Wellington.

Clean Game
Clean play was a marked characteristic of both teams, neither of which drew a penalty during the entire game. For the Whitefaces, the rushing game (Continued on Page 12)

Roll Call Report Shows Outstanding Record Made By Local Scout Troop

Annual roll call conducted last week for Scout Troop 1 (50) and Troop 2 (50) by District Chairman John McLean, reveals many commendable factors concerning the local scouting set-up according to a report by Maurice Teague, field scout executive. The roll call program was inaugurated three years ago by Assistant Scout Executive to provide accurate measurement of strength of the scout organization and its ability to render aid in an emergency. The roll call report, summarized, contains the following information on the local organization:

Adults registered with Troop 1 (50) which is sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club, are as follows: Urllin Streib, scoutmaster; John McLean, troop committee chairman and W. E. Dameron, V. Williamson and R. H. Beavers, troop committeemen. Scouts now serving in the armed forces are Bobby Davis, assistant scoutmaster and assistant cubmaster, U. S. Army Air Corps; Karl W. Shirley, Jr., assistant scoutmaster, U. S. Army Air Corps; and Wm. R. Phillips, assistant scoutmaster, U. S. Army Air Corps. Troop 1 has 34 active scouts with an attendance of 97 percent of the total membership present at each meeting. Of the 34 active scouts, 32 are in full uniform with all badges and insignia worn in the proper place on the uniform. Members of Troop 1 have spent a total of 20 days and nights in camp in the past year, and Executive Teague points out that they are doing their part as members of Uncle Sam's team in all phases of the war effort. Scouts of Troop 1 serving in the armed forces are Bobby Davis, Karl Shirley and Donald Conklin. Scouts and scouters going directly into the armed forces are carried on rolls as associate members and the national office pays their membership dues as long as they serve in the armed forces.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

An investiture ceremony was conducted for new Scouts Dickie Kendall, Glen Manning and David Sowell, and concerning the investiture ceremony the district field executive states that Scoutmaster Streib and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster David N. Beavers; Thurman Williamson and Billy Dameron, have perfected "one of the most outstanding investiture boards to be found in any scout troop in the United States."

In a series of national war services, Troop 1 has collected a total of 50,000 pounds of paper and has also made large collections of rubber and scrap metal.

All Gas Stickers Must Be Displayed

Notes from the Regional Office of Defense Transportation this week gave the following information to motorists and gasoline dealers:

A survey reveals that many motorists are not displaying appropriate stickers for gasoline rations. Any person using class A, B, C or T book must display sticker, and gasoline dealers are requested to take note of any omissions and act in accordance with the rules.

Use of emergency receipt R-555 to care for truck, fleet, official and non-highway users of gasoline who have not received their ration book is to be discontinued, midnight, Dec. 15. Continued use of Form R-555 will be permitted for consumers after Dec. 15 only to meet an emergency involving serious threat to life, health or valuable property as provided in Ration Order 5C, Section 1349.8156, Paragraph B.

The local board adds, however, that the above does not discount the permission of the Board to issue temporary transportation rations to applicants who have applied for and have not received or have been refused certificate of war necessity of Office of Defense Transportation.

Miss Clara Wedel Hostess To Annual B&PW Christmas Party Monday Night

Miss Clara Wedel was hostess to members and guests of the Hereford B & P.W. Club Monday night at the annual Christmas Party of the organization. The Wedel home was attractively decorated in the Christmas scheme, with decorations centering around a brightly decorated tree about which were arranged the gifts which were exchanged later in the evening.

Upon their arrival, guests were greeted by announcers who used a loudspeaker arrangement to welcome the member and introduce her to the assembled group. The program for the evening consisted of a talk on the true spirit of Christmas by Mrs. Velma Hodges and of two vocal solos—a Bach "Easter Hymn" and "White Christmas," sung by Miss Mary Tiefel, accompanied by Mrs. Ellis Coombes at the piano.

Later, entertainment was furnished by a quiz program and a game of truth or consequences, conducted by Mrs. Cecil Williams.

Following the distribution of "club pal" gifts, refreshments were served by the hostess to Mesdames Viola Gyles, Ann Holman, Cecil Williams, Mattie K. Robinson, Ethel Robinson, Lois Moore, Gladys Skelton, Bessie Smith, Velma Hodges, Dyalithia Brady, Barbara Roles, Evelyn Stelzer, Ursalee Jacobsen, Misses Ruth Bowsher, Erma Faye Robinson, Virginia Bowman, and Mary Kate Brotherton, members, and to Miss Mary Tiefel and Mrs. Ellis Coombes, guests.

Common expression on Main Street: Do you intend to join the army, or are you going to do without sugar and gasoline like the rest of us?

A bunch of high school girls just swarmed in wanting some more publicity on their caroling Dec. 22. The group will meet at 6:45 at the corner by the Methodist Church and will carol until about 8:00 o'clock, following which an old fashioned get-together will be held at the high school. They didn't say what there would be to eat, but it will likely be sandwiches and cocoa—because this is what is generally served at such affairs and it tastes mighty fine after a strenuous evening of caroling, especially if we have a White Christmas like all of the folks are singing about.

All of which goes to show the resourcefulness of the American youth. Instead of becoming hypochondriacs over the loss of gasoline, they step back a few centuries and revive one of the world's most beautiful customs—and if you think this is moving fast, you should see one of those new jitterbug dances.

Just about the time I figured the boys in the armed service were all set to flood me with jokes and stories each week, they stopped rolling in—and I have to go back to work. Anyway, the judges got together, did a bunch of figuring and came up with the winner for November. He was none other than Nick Koelzer. They have also decided the winner for December. Unless someone tops him, it will be Walter Kuper. If you boys only knew how these stories are helping keep up public morale, I am sure you would send more of them. Remember, meat rationing starts pretty soon and the folks will hit another low ebb. Let's have some more stories.

Food Administrator Claude Wickard is talking like there will be no plow-up of volunteer wheat; he has already announced that there will be no allotment on spuds. He sure has a lot of old-fashioned ideas, and they sound swell to me. In fact, it's the best news out of Washington since they killed all of those cattle and hogs back in 1934-35.

Jim Black brought me the following clipping from the Opelika News, published by a friend of theirs in Opelika, Alabama. Incidentally, I have been corresponding recently with W. C. Wear, publisher of The News. He wanted to know all about prison camps; they are building one at Opelika, just as the one here. Naturally, I didn't give him much information regarding prison camps, but did enjoy his letter. Here's the clipping:

TOMORROW'S SUN
(Author Unknown)

Tired of reading and hearing so much about the war? Well, go are we.
This story of a tramp printer comes to our desk and we had a good laugh out of it, hoping you will also, we pass it on, for—
The wisest men you ever knew

Century-Old Vet Plays Or...

Robert G. Summers, New York, who celebrated his 100th birthday recently, enjoys playing his old-fashioned pedal organ. Last surviving member of the U. S. Grant Post of the G. A. R., he proudly wears his Civil War uniform.

Have never dreamed it treason To rest a bit—and jest a bit, And balance up their reason: To laugh a bit—and guff a bit, And joke a bit in season."

A tramp printer blew into a small town and got a job on the weekly paper. A few days later he became exceedingly drunk, during which period he essayed to set an item from two sheets of "copy" badly fretted by a breeze glowing from a window. One was an account of a wedding turned in by the editor's spouse. The other was an advertising notice for an auction sale. Again and again the breeze carried one or the other sheets floorward, to be recovered by the inebriate, who persisted in sticking his type from the one temporarily on top. Dumping his stick finally in the nearby forms, the unsuspecting proprietor locked up and ran off the following:

"William Smith, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Smith and Miss Lucy Anderson of Lone Valley were disposed of at public auction on my farm, one mile east of the fairgrounds, Thursday morning at 9:30 rain or shine, in the presence of seventy five guests, including several mules and twelve head of cattle.
The Rev. Jonah Jackson tied the nuptial knots for the parties, the prize Holstein bull weighing 1,250 lbs. on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bridegroom's parents was decorated for the occasion by one Century mowing machine, one sulky rake, one feed grinder, and two sets of work harness—all nearly new, and a matched pair of Percheron horses playing the wedding march from the family organ hidden behind a bank of dahlias in the library. The bride's maids were Miss Mary Short of Thomasville, Miss Helen Simms of West Pine Street, and one Jersey cow due to calve in April. Best man was James Fenton, who was a world war soldier in the same company with the bridegroom and saw service with him in two sows, a pung sled, a full equipment of sugaring utensils, and 755 Wyandotte hens, all good layers. The Williams twins made charming flower girls, scattering pink rosebuds, six bedsteads, full dining room set, and one kitchen range on the march from upper front hall to living room where the bride was given away by her uncle who had arrived from Boston for the occasion and whose wedding present was one Daisy cultivator, one Star pest-sprayer for fruit trees, one New Model corn shucker requiring but one man to operate, and milking equipment with bride's roses in her hand, fifty barrels of Baldwin apples and one light spring wagon recently painted.

The bride wore three stacks of hair a Potter & Blitz grindstone, and about 1,000 feet of recently sawed pine lumber practically without knots. Her veil was four rag carpets and one Axminster rug.
Following the ceremony, the bridegroom's mother served a wedding lunch of seventy-five head of sheep, fifty bushels prime oats, and thirty bundles cedar shingles. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was one motor driven churn, variable speeds, and after a short honeymoon, the happy pair will be at home to friends at Cliff's Ridge, where the groom has employment with one manure spreader, all to be disposed of to highest bidder, cash only accepted.

Hereford High Again Member Of Southern Assoc.
 Hereford High School, for the 16th consecutive year, has been elected to membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, according to a letter received this week from the organization by Supt. Knox Kinard.
 Hereford High was chosen for the honor without a single adverse criticism, the letter states, adding that the Hereford record is outstanding and gives emphasis to the constructive educational program and the leadership in local schools.
 Membership in the Southern Association is decided on the association's reaction to a report submitted each fall by the local high school, and schools gaining the coveted honor must pass rigid tests with regard to physical plant, academic standards, teacher, equipment, library service, student activities, the record of graduates of the school as freshman college students, etc.

Censors Use Black Pencil On Lt. Fullwood's Letter

Lt. Fullwood indulges in a little self-censoring in the letter received by the Brand this week, but he evidently did not do the job quite thoroughly enough because the War Department added one "blackout" of its own on Lieutenant Fullwood's V-Mail letter, which follows:
Dear Editor:

Believe it or not, one of your papers found its way to somewhere in the (censored) recently and was greatly appreciated. Seems like the old home town is pretty well thinned out. At least you can say that Hereford is well represented on all fronts and doing our share. Seems like you people are not exactly sitting on your (censored), by Fullwood, who adds, "military secret". Give my regards to all of the gang. Tell the boys in A & M to carry on the Hereford Herd. The states would be in one helluva fix if it were not for Texans to fight the war. Looks like we have our Nipponese friends on the down hill grade from where I sit. Just keep up the good work at home and we'll be seeing you next summer, I hope.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Now is the time for all good and patriotic homemakers to come to the aid of the nation's meat supply. The voluntary two and a half pounds per person won't hurt us very much if we use our heads in planning.

Of course meat is a "main dish" in America, but we can stretch it and we can substitute an alternate dish a time or two during the week. Meat supplies five main food values in goodly amounts: protein of good quality, iron, and three vitamins of the B family. So you want these things in your "alternate dish". Poultry, fish, eggs, cheese, beans, and nuts are foods to keep in mind. And you can build up a meal's values in B vitamins and iron by stressing whole-grain or enriched grain products and dark green leafy vegetables and potatoes.

Learn to use meat stretchers. A small amount of meat combined with enriched bread dressing or with biscuit topping, as in meat pie, will give you the needed vitamins and satisfy the

What? No Pictures!

That's right. Our ad-man decided it would take several pages in this newspaper to tell in words and pictures all the suitable items we have in stock for Christmas giving.

Our stocks are rapidly becoming depleted, however, we can still furnish gifts for any member of the family — gifts that will fit any pocketbook — gifts that will be long remembered by the person receiving them — because gifts from Streu's are always Quality Gifts.

appetite. Flour proteins are plant proteins, and as such are "biologically incomplete". But flour is never used alone. When enriched flour and milk are combined to make bread or biscuit, the result is an excellent, efficient combination. It also adds flavor and variety to the meal. And a pound of meat will go much farther dressed up.

Farmer's bulletin no. 1908 "Meat for Thrifty Meals" is full of information on meat. Grades of meat, cuts to use, and the cooking and serving of them are explained and illustrated. It would pay each housewife to have one if she would keep her family healthy, happy, and yet not spend too much of her food budget on meat.

Try Something Different
Most families have old favorites among what we will now be calling alternate main dishes. And there is good reason now to branch out and try something different, some favorite of other families. Here are some ways to use cheese, eggs, beans and nuts, suggested by home economists of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Scalloped cheese, spaghetti and cabbage makes a hearty dish. Make alternate layers of shredded raw cabbage, cooked spaghetti, and cheese sauce in a greased baking dish. Top with bread crumbs and bake until the crumbs brown. Keep the heat moderate always when cooking cheese, and that is best for egg dishes, too.

Tomato Rarebit, gay cousin to the Welsh rarebit, is a quickie dish for supper. Melt 2 tablespoons of fat in a skillet. Add 1/2 cup chopped celery, one-half of a green pepper chopped, one-half of a small onion chopped. Cook a few minutes, stirring often. Sprinkle on this 2 tablespoons flour and pour in 1 pint of cooked or canned tomatoes. Add one-half pound cheese shaved thin and one teaspoon salt. Cook over low heat, stirring until the mixture thickens and cheese melts. Pour some of the mixture into 2 well-beaten eggs and pour all back into the skillet and continue cooking until thickened and creamy. Serve hot on crisp toast or crackers. (About 6 servings)

Cheese fondue draws its protein from milk-egg-cheese, three of the foods on the meat alternate list. Beat 4 eggs well. Mix 2 cups hot milk, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, one-fourth pound cheese sliced thin (about 1 cup), 1 tablespoon fat, and salt to taste. Stir this mixture into the eggs. Pour into a greased shallow pan and bake at a moderate heat about 25 minutes or until set and slightly browned.

Polenta is the Italian version of cornmeal mush. For this fry mush slices and pour on them a slightly thickened tomato sauce. Sprinkle grated cheese liberally on top, or mix cheese with mush when you make it.

Bean "Sausages" are another cheap and hearty dish. Mash 3 cups of cooked beans and mix well with one-half cup bread crumbs, 2 beaten eggs, 1 teaspoon sage, if desired, and salt and pepper to taste. Shape into sausages, dip in raw eggs beaten with a little water. Moisten with milk. Roll in bread crumbs and brown in a little melted fat.

Bean Salads are substantial enough to be more than side dishes. Cooked beans take kindly to mixture with the something sour and the something raw that every good salad needs. Examples: Beans with raw sliced apple slices with skin on, served on lettuce or other salad greens with dressing. Beans with choppickled or relish and chopped cooked beets, served on lettuce or dandelion greens. Beans with left over meat or fish, hard cooked egg, or cheese.

Bean and peanut croquettes make a main dish that is "different." For this mix bean pulp with chopped peanuts and as a binder use a thick sauce. Roll croquettes in beaten egg and then in bread crumbs, and fry in deep fat, at a moderate heat until crumbs are brown.

Pecan and rice loaf features pecans, one of the Victory Food Special nuts, this November. This loaf is a mixture of cooked rice, vegetable seasoning, chopped nuts, bread crumbs, and beaten egg, baked in a moderate oven for an hour.

Nut and potato cakes are easy to make and tasty. Use left-over potatoes, sweet or white. Mash betts. Brown the cakes on both chopped pecans, almonds, or fil-and season, and add one cup of sides in a little fat. Try white potato and nut cakes with a tomato and cheese sauce.

Soy Beans Of County Have High Oil Content

Soy bean tests recently conducted on beans from about 20 Deaf Smith County farms revealed sufficiently high oil content for local farmers to be entitled to the 10 cents per bushel premium earned by high oil content beans, it was announced this week.

Farmers who have taken their beans to the Littlefield Oil Mill since Nov. 25 are entitled to this bonus, AAA officials announce, pointing out that even though the beans were delivered earlier if payment was not made till after Nov. 25, the bonus may be collected.
Approximately half of the estimated 40,000 bushel soy bean crop in the county has now been delivered to the mill and soy beans are fast being recognized as the "war crop" of the Hereford territory, with price for the high oil content product set at $1.60 a bushel and demands from food processing and industrial plants exceeding the soy bean supply.

Pack Boxes For Soldiers
The Ladies Bible Class of the Church of Christ met Tuesday to pack cookie boxes for about ten Hereford soldiers.

Schroeter Extends Thanks To Citizens

TO THE PEOPLE OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY
January 1 will be the end of four pleasant years of service as county judge in the office which you so kindly entrusted to me. During this time, errors have been made—through bad judgment or ignorance of facts—but despite these a few accomplishments have been achieved with your co-operation. I hope you will show the same good spirit toward my successor.

I am deeply grateful to you and though I am leaving this job, I hope our friendship may be continued through the years.
Yours sincerely,
A. J. Schroeter

The Real Spirit

Since Christmas is only a week and a few days off and everyone is thinking of what they will get Mom or Dad for Christmas, we will express our opinion about Christmas shopping.

Of course, as most of you know, there are so many gifts you would like to get that are so high that you can't possibly get it. So we are going to have to learn to make the best of what we can get and be contented. This Christmas we are going to have to give less expensive gifts. There is the old but nevertheless true saying "It is not the number of gifts that matters, it is the spirit in which the gifts are given." So let us remember this and have a true Christmas spirit this year, for after all we are fighting this war so that we can keep on having Christmas.

Juniors Ask Santa For Tires And "Sweeties"

"Hey, everybody, listen! We're going to write letters to Santa Claus!" Mary Ruth Russell asked the class to get a sheet of paper and a pencil. Everyone was puzzled at the request until she told them what it was all about; then you should have seen the bright smiles on the faces. Everything was asked for, but some of the more common were: some gasoline, five new tires, a "sweetie," and some good grades. Santa Claus will really have to hustle if he gets around to us all. At the business meeting, Bobby Jennings read a "thank you" from Fred Higgins, who has been ill for several weeks.

Jonesome in the holidays, but now I won't because I expect everyone to come and see me. I just must get to sleep. I want to have plenty of energy for our party. I'll be seeing you December 22.

I vaguely remember a football game that we played last week. Do you?

Club Discusses True Democracy

"Democracy is not an easy form of government or society, but one of the most fragile of all forms. It is easily destroyed if the people do not play their part in helping to carry it on." This is one of the things brought out by Betty Dunlap on December 8, when the Tri-Hi-Y girls met to study "The True Meaning of Democracy."

The program opened by Margaret Barrett's reading of the meaning of democracy from Webster's dictionary followed by the singing of all four stanzas of "America." Arlene Millard read John 17: 19-26 after which she led the girls in prayer followed by the "Lord's Prayer." Frances Gollehon talked on the subject "Is There True Democracy," which was taken from the article by Dorothy Thompson. This is the definition which Dorothy Thompson gave for American democracy: "American democracy means specifically government by popular will, subject at periodic intervals to popular change. It means freedom for the individual to pursue his personal ambitions inside the law and the welfare of society, and it means a philosophy that conceives that the object of all good societies to create the greatest possible number of happy creative, self-reliant people."

The girls then gave their ideas of democracy. Each one had a different idea which gave the other girls a wider definition of democracy. After these discussions, the girls sang "America, the Beautiful," and the Tri-Hi-Y benediction closed the meeting.

F. H. T. Plans To Have A Xmas Party Tonight

The F. H. T. met Wednesday, December 9, in the music room. A party was planned for Thursday, December 17. The girls are to bring some humorous gift to exchange with each other. The refreshments are going to be hot chocolate and cookies. After the party the girls attending are going Christmas caroling.

The program following the business meeting was led by Kathryn Acker, the theme being "She Can Who Thinks She Can." Discussions followed with "Posture" by La Vone Lindsey; "Looks" by Patsy Sanders; "Clothes" by Betty Jane Robinson; "Etiquette" by Kathryn Acker, and "Ed Rather" by Carlisle Rae Frye.

Those attending were Kathryn Acker, Helen Acker, Rosella Albracht, Carlisle Rae Frye, Beverly Fraser, Wanda Lee Lloyd, La Vone Lindsey, Patsy Sanders, Betty Jane Robinson, and the sponsor, Miss Davies.

Seniors To Be Honored

Tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock the Senior class will be the guests of their mothers at a Christmas dinner at the First Baptist Church.

The menu, the most distinctive feature of the evening to all boys, consists of turkey, dressing, gravy, green beans, creamed sweet potatoes, cranberries, hot rolls, tea tomato cocktail, and frozen custard.

The dinner room will be decorated with Christmas items; and the group will sing Christmas carols.

Junior Enters School

Last week J. W. Robinson came rushing into the chemistry laboratory with an oblong box. He presented this box and its contents to Miss Hancock, who was certainly amazed when she opened the box.

Someone called him Junior, and the name traveled from class to class. He is now known to most of the chemistry and biology students as Junior.

You may wonder what I am referring to; so to get you out of the dark, in this box was an ugly little alligator about eight or nine inches long. He now resides in the chemistry laboratory and if anyone wishes to see Junior, I am sure Miss Hancock will let you see him.

While Mr. Smith was drilling a bunch of band students, he saw that James Barnard was marching out of step. Going up to James Barnard, he said sarcastically, "Do you know they are all out of step except you?" "Well," was the retort, "you tell 'em. You're the boss."

H. H. S. Students To Go Caroling Tues. Nite, Dec. 22

The dinkle of sleigh bells, the soft glow of candle-light, cherry red ribbon and crisp green holly—these are signs of the Christmas season, the happiest, gayest, most enjoyable holiday of all. We want to keep it that way; we want to keep alive the true Christmas spirit, the spirit of giving and sharing.

As American young people, we have so much we can give and share. We have a leading role this year in keeping alive the real spirit of Christmas, and we can partially accomplish this by keeping up old traditions. One of the oldest, most beautiful of these is caroling.

What could be more fun than old-fashioned Christmas caroling? It combines the fun of being with the crowd with the fun of spreading the spirit of Christmas and sharing it with everyone. This year you have the opportunity of participating in one.

All students of high school age are invited to meet at the court house at 7:00, Tuesday, December 22. Beginning from there the group will go to various places over town and sing. After the caroling there will be an all-school party in the high school gym. Come; you are invited to have a good time to enjoy Christmas 1942 in the old-fashioned way.

National Honor Society Plans Spelling Bee

The Hereford Chapter of the National Honor Society held its monthly meeting in the library Tuesday, December 8, at 5:10.

The meeting took the spotlight. A committee, consisting of Nona Deen Rose, Marie Compton, and Vera Rea, was appointed to compile a brief history of this Chapter of the Honor Society.

The Society is going to try to have a "School of Assistance" for those desiring help in their work. Robina Culpepper, Hardy Benson and Ruth Tucker are to plan this activity.

A school-wide Spelling "Bee" is to be conducted under the supervision of Mary Ann Acker, Kathryn Acker, Marcella Koelzer, Margaret Barrett, and Felix Pyka.

Felix Pyka gave a discussion of the purposes and standards of the Honor Society. This concluded the meeting.

Central Chatter

Mrs. Beavers substituted for Miss Burkett last Friday.

GB is glad to have Maxine Kennedy from Michigan. Edward Holden who came to our school a short time ago has moved away.

Room 8A has started decorating for Christmas. One person from each row was selected to decorate it. Those selected were: Beverley Barkley, Cornelia Ann Bateman, James Ellis Higgins, Betty Jean McBrayer and Charles Layman.

The thief at Central School is not Yehudi. It is Blackie, the Crow. Blackie has kept things at Central in an uproar lately. If you don't believe it, ask any pupil at Central.

Here are some of the things Blackie has done. He flew into GB, left a dirty stick and took a rope off the radiator in 8A too and dropped it on the ground outside. Miss Wheat sent Jack Brumley after it. When Mrs. Beavers asked him where he had been, he told her and she said, "Well, how does he get around so fast. He was around on the other side of the building only a little while ago. We chased him out of a room over there three times!"

One day Blackie took an inkwell, a ruler, a penstaff and several pencils from 7A. Another time at recess a boy was eating some peanuts. Blackie flew down and took them away from him. He took the sack up to a ledge near the roof, ate a peanut and dropped the sack.

Blackie must have a sense of rhythm because one day he visited 6A's music class. He sat on the window sill and patted his foot in time to the music.

Mr. Danforth: You must think automobiles come from trees.
Kathryn: Of course not, everyone knows they come from plants.

Whitefaces Take Title Of Regional Championship

Yes, we won the game, and the Whitefaces of 1942 are Regional Champs. This is the first time since 1929 that the Whitefaces have won the Regional Championship game.

Red Merrill made a spectacular play in the first quarter by running 90 yards for a touchdown. Daniel Russell and Luther Worley made the extra points.

In this same quarter, Wellington's passing began to click, and the Skyrockets were moving dangerously into Whiteface territory. Luther Worley intercepted a pass and again the ball was started toward the Whiteface's goal. The whole team played well and displayed their ability as good ball players.

It was a grand game and I'm sure everyone will join me in saying "Good game, boys; we're proud of you."

Boys Set New Record In Club

An unusual record was set Tuesday night, December 8, when sixteen members of the Boys Hi-Y met for the regular program, because there are only seven members in the club. G. P. Owen, Jr., led the discussion on "True Thankfulness." Various members gave their ideas on what they as individuals can do to help the war effort and on what the club itself can do.

The club has postponed its party until after Christmas. Other items of business were: each member who is absent or tardy must buy one war stamp from the treasurer; each member must show that he has bought at least one dollar's worth of war stamps by the first meeting in January.

Charles Sanders and John Douglas Pitman were elected as members of the club. George Weems was appointed sergeant-at-arms. Foster Hill and Bill Dameron volunteered to operate the candy box for one week. The meeting was adjourned by the official Hi-Y benediction.

Dorothy Dishman and Lyle Muitt were sitting out in the moonlight. "I want to ask you something," he said earnestly. "Yes, yes," she replied eagerly. "Can't we move over a little; I'm sitting on a cactus."

Santa Gets Fan Mail From Kiddies

Dearest Santa, I have tried very hard to be a good girl, but I don't think I have succeeded very well.

For Christmas, I would like a tennis racket and Clark Gable, some nuts, oranges and lots of candy. Please bring Mary Ann Acker—a southern boy to go with that accent of hers, and bring Phyllis Radovich a muffler or at least something to slow her talking down enough so that people can understand her. Bring Mr. Emmons a loud speaker so all of fourth period study hall can understand what he says. I think Bruce Beene would like to have a passing grade in chemistry. Paul Dishman hasn't the nerve to write you, but he wants a kiddy car and Betty Grable. Please bring Kathryn Acker a rubber dolly and Clyde Brock.

Well, dear Santa, I guess I'll close now.

Lotions of love,
Jo Ann Rossen

Dear Santa Claus, I am just a small boy and a very nice one at that (when I am asleep and not having bad dreams). I don't know what I want so you just give me what you think I need. But I ask you to give me one thing and that is a girl, so don't forget her.

Thanks,
Eugene Sparks

Dear Santa: Please do not forget me this Christmas, because I have tried to be a good girl. You must have forgotten to bring me a doll last Christmas, so try to think of it this time. You remember that boy-friend you brought me last Christmas? Well, he is getting rather old, so I wish you would bring me another one. There are a million things I could ask you to bring me, but I will leave them for some other little girl (and be sure and don't forget the little boy.)

Thank you Santa,
Jewell Clark

P. S. Santa, if you have any to spare I'd just love to have a good English 4 grade.

Dear Old Saint Nick, Dear Pal, you are my pal, ain't you? I hope so, on account of I forgot to be nice and good until yesterday. I might as well make a list of the things I don't want this Christmas, because it would be much simpler. Well, let's see, I'd like a couple of sodas, a new dress, and a man if you can find one. On second thought, let's forget the whole thing, because I don't want to be good, anyway.

Goodbye,
Marguerite Wylie

Attention of Mr. Santa Claus North Pole, Planet Earth Dear Sir:

Whereas the autumn season is terminated and the season of winter begun, and

Whereas the feast called "Christmas" is rapidly approaching, and

Whereas, for a Senior, I've done pretty good, and

Whereas, I need two themes written by Friday, December 18, then

Be It Resolved that you be so amiable as to procure two themes for me on said date.

Yours trustingly,
Felix Pyka
Locker 177, Hereford (The Tooth Decay) Texas.

Dear Santa Claus, It's almost nearly Christmas so I thought I'd let you know what I want. That's so you can be thinking about it.

I don't want much just a kiddie car. People say I'm not tall enough to ride a tricycle so maybe please give me something I can ride. (With wood wheels, 'cause I are a paterotic little girl.)

I guess that's about all I want. I will move the stove away from the fireplace on Christmas Eve so you won't fall and get yourself hurt like I did once.

I have to get my English now; by the way, please bring me a good English 111 grade this semester.

As ever,
Margaret Barber
P. S. While you are giving presents to all good people you can throw in a big slice of "Victory Pie" for a certain Uncle of mine. Remember Sam?

Ana Beth Carter and Dora Mae Hagans were discussing their future lives when Dora Mae asked, "What are you going to do?"

Ana Beth, "I'm going to marry an engineer," was the reply.
Dora Mae, "What kind, a civil engineer?"
Ana Beth, "Oh, just any kind, I'll soon make him civil."

Soy Beans Of County Have High Oil Content

Soy bean tests recently conducted on beans from Deaf Smith County have revealed sufficiently high content for local farmers to be en-itled to the 10 cents per bushel premium earned by high oil content beans. It was announced this week by Farmers who have taken their beans to the Littlefield Oil Mill since Nov. 25 are entitled to this bonus. AAA officials announce, pointing out that even though the beans were delivered earlier, if payment was not made till after Nov. 25, the bonus may be collected. Approximately half of the estimated 40,000 bushel soy bean crop in the county has now been delivered to the mill and soy beans are fast being recognized as the "war crop" of the Hereford territory, with price for the high oil content product set at $1.60 a bushel and demands from food processing and industrial plants exceeding the soy bean supply.

Pack Boxes For Soldiers

The Ladies Bible Class of the Church of Christ met Tuesday to pack cookie boxes for about ten Hereford soldiers.

Schroeter Extends Thanks To Citizens

County Judge A. J. Schroeter, who will leave office in January, this week prepared the following statement of appreciation to citizens of Deaf Smith County for their assistance to him in the work of his office:

TO THE PEOPLE OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY

January 1 will be the end of four pleasant years of service as county judge in the office which you so kindly entrusted to me. During this time, errors have been made—through bad judgment or ignorance of facts—but despite these a few accomplishments have been achieved with your co-operation. I hope you will show the same good spirit toward my successor. I am deeply grateful to you and though I am leaving this job, I hope our friendship may be continued through the years.

Yours sincerely,
 A. J. Schroeter

Prince Hereford

Whew! Homer says it was a close pinch. John L. Lookingbill was almost, but not quite, convicted of illegally selling tires. The jury, (the Freshman Civics class) "went easy", so I heard. A descendant of a monkey or just a lover of football? Don't say "monkey" around Donald Robinson, because he was the one up in the tree with the football.

I wonder what it would feel like to have a bath in champagne? I heard the world history class saying that maybe the Roman people took baths in olive oil as we do in champagne. They said it wasn't much different from setting hair with beer. Notice to Mr. Hudson! Tell Santa to watch Myers' behavior. Notice to Myers: Be good till after Christmas.

Watch out and protect Homer. He was lost in the candy wrappers thrown down in the halls and auditorium by students, but he did get back in time to tell me about the baby alligator and the baby white rats that are in the science room. I heard Christine Smith playing a baritone horn. She plays baritone as well as she plays her own trombone.

The Pep Club is storing up Pep (plug for the breakfast food?) in hope of another football season. Evertime I see that the candy box is empty, I think of the war and hope you are all buying war stamps. It seems like old times, having Wanda Almon back in school after her long illness. Mr. Emmons told Nancy Bostick not to let a certain Senior see her during classes because she excited him so that he couldn't study.

The Christmas party that is being planned for the school is really exciting. I always get so

Those in the Freshman Class are: boys: Bobby Carnahan (2), Wayne Newsum, Virgil Young, J. B. Sowell; girls: Madelle Beavers, Helen Ann Pitman, Alyeene Malm, Barbara Smith, Jo Ella Hussey.

The Real Spirit

Since Christmas is only a week and a few days off and everyone is thinking of what they will get Mom or Dad for Christmas we will express our opinion about Christmas shopping.

Of course, as most of you know, there are so many gifts you would like to get that are frozen or the price has soared so high that you can't possibly get it. So we are going to have to learn to make the best of what we can get and be contented. This Christmas we are going to have to give less expensive gifts. There is the old, but nevertheless true, saying "It is not the number of gifts that matters; it is the spirit in which the gifts are given." So let us remember this and have a true Christmas spirit this year, for, after all, we are fighting this war so that we can keep on having Christmas.

Juniors Ask Santa For Tires And "Sweeties"

"Hey, everybody, listen! We're going to write letters to Santa Claus!" Mary Ruth Russell asked the class to get a sheet of paper and a pencil. Everyone was puzzled at the request until she told them what it was all about. They would have seen the bright smiles on the faces of the juniors if they had seen some of the letters that were written. "Santa Claus will really have to hustle if he gets around to us all. At the business meeting, Bobby Jennings read a "thank you" from Fred Higgins, who has been ill for several weeks.

Loneliness in the holidays, but now I won't because I expect everyone to come and see me. I just must get to sleep. I want to have plenty of energy for our party. I'll be seeing you December 22. I vaguely remember a football game that we played last week. Do you?

Someone called him Junior, and the name traveled from class to class. He is now known to most of the chemistry and biology students as Junior.

You may wonder what I am referring to; so to get you out of the dark, in this box was an ugly little alligator about eight or nine inches long. He now resides in the chemistry laboratory and if anyone wishes to see Junior, I am sure Miss Hancock will get you see him.

While Mr. Smith was drilling a bunch of band students, he saw that James Barnard was marching out of step. Going up to James Barnard, he said sarcastically, "Do you know they are all out of step except you?" "Well," was the retort, "you tell 'em. You're the boss."

Miss Kirby: "This book will do half your work for you." David Phillips: "Good, I'll take two."

Club Discusses True Democracy

"Democracy is not an easy form of government or society, but one of the most fragile of all forms. It is easily destroyed if the people do not play their part in helping to carry it on." This is one of the things brought out by Betty Dunlap on December 8, when the Tri-Hi-Y girls met to study "The True Meaning of Democracy."

The program opened by Margaret Barrett's reading the meaning of democracy from Webster's dictionary followed by the singing of all four stanzas of "America." Arline Millard read John 17: 19-26 after which she led the girls in prayer followed by the "Lord's Prayer."

Frances Gollehon talked on the subject "Is There True Democracy," which was taken from the article by Dorothy Thompson. This is the definition which Dorothy Thompson gave for American democracy: "American democracy means specifically government by popular will, subject at periodic intervals to popular change. It means freedom for the individual to pursue his personal ambitions inside the law and the welfare of society, and it means a philosophy that conceives that the object of all good societies to create the greatest possible number of happy creative, self-reliant people."

The girls then gave their ideas of democracy. Each one had a different idea which gave the other girls a wider definition of democracy. After these discussions, the girls sang "America, the Beautiful," and the Tri-Hi-Y benediction closed the meeting.

F. H. T. Plans To Have A Xmas Party Tonight

The F. H. T. met Wednesday, December 9, in the music room. A party was planned for Thursday, December 17. The girls are to bring some humorous gift to exchange with each other. The refreshments are going to be hot chocolate and cookies. After the party the girls attending are going Christmas caroling.

The program following the business meeting was led by Kathryn Acker, the theme being "She Can Who Thinks She Can." Discussions followed with "Posture" by Ia Vone Lindsey; "Looks" by Paisy Sanders; "Clothes" by Betty Jane Robinson; "Etiquette" by Kathryn Acker, and "Td Rather" by Carlie Rae Frye.

Those attending were Kathryn Acker, Helen Acker, Rosella Albracht, Carlie Rae Frye, Beverly Fraser, Wanda Lee Lloyd, Ia Vone Lindsey, Paisy Sanders, Betty Jane Robinson, and Carlie Rae Frye.

Seniors To Be Hosts

Tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock the Senior class will be the guests of their mothers at a Christmas dinner at the First Baptist Church.

The menu, the most distinctive feature of the evening to all boys, consists of turkey, dressing, gravy, green beans, creamed sweet potatoes, cranberries, hot rolls, tea-tomato cocktail, and frozen custard.

The dinner room will be decorated with Christmas items, and the group will sing Christmas carols.

'Junior' Enters School

Last week J. W. Robinson came rushing into the chemistry laboratory with an oblong box. He presented this box and its contents to Miss Hancock, who was certainly amazed when she opened the box.

Someone called him Junior, and the name traveled from class to class. He is now known to most of the chemistry and biology students as Junior.

You may wonder what I am referring to; so to get you out of the dark, in this box was an ugly little alligator about eight or nine inches long. He now resides in the chemistry laboratory and if anyone wishes to see Junior, I am sure Miss Hancock will get you see him.

Miss Kirby: "This book will do half your work for you." David Phillips: "Good, I'll take two."

H. H. S. Students To Go Caroling Tues. Nite, Dec. 22

The tinkle of sleigh bells, the soft glow of candle-light, cherry red ribbon and crisp green holly—these are signs of the Christmas season, the happiest, gayest, most enjoyable holiday of all. We want to keep it that way; we want to keep alive the true Christmas spirit, the spirit of giving and sharing.

As American young people, we have so much we can give and share. We have a leading role this year in keeping alive the real spirit of Christmas, and we can partially accomplish this by keeping up old traditions. One of the oldest, most beautiful of these is caroling.

What could be more fun than old-fashioned Christmas caroling? It combines the fun of being with the crowd with the fun of spreading the spirit of Christmas and sharing it with everyone. This year you have the opportunity of participating in one.

All students of high school age are invited to meet at the court house at 7:00, Tuesday, December 22. Beginning from there the group will go to various places over town and sing. After the caroling there will be an all-school party in the high school gym. Come; you are invited to have a good time, to enjoy Christmas 1942 in the old-fashioned way.

National Honor Society Plans Spelling Bee

The Hereford Chapter of the National Honor Society held its monthly meeting in the library Tuesday, December 8, at 5:10.

The meeting took the spotlight. A committee, consisting of Nona Deen Rose, Marie Compton, and Vera Rea, was appointed to compile a brief history of this Chapter of the Honor Society.

The Society is going to try to have a "School of Assistance" for those desiring help in their work. Robina Culpepper, Hardy Benson and Ruth Tucker are to plan this activity.

A school-wide Spelling Bee" is to be conducted under the supervision of Mary Arin Acker, Kathryn Acker, Marcella Koelzer, Margaret Barrett, and Felix Pyka.

Felix Pyka gave a discussion of the purposes and standards of the Honor Society. This concluded the meeting.

Central Chatter

GB is glad to have Maxine Kennedy from Michigan. Edward Holden who came to our school a short time ago has moved away.

Room 8A has started decorating for Christmas. One person from each row was selected to decorate it. Those selected were: Beverly Barkley, Cornelia Ann Bateman, James Ellis Higgins, Betty Jean McBrayer and Charles Layman.

The chief at Central School is not Yehudi. It is Blackie, the Crow. Blackie has kept things at Central in an uproar lately. If you don't believe it, ask any pupil at Central.

Here are some of the things Blackie has done: He flew into 8B, left a dirty sock and took a rope off the radiator in 8A-100 and dropped it on the ground outside. Miss Wheat sent Jack Brumley after it. When Mrs. Beavers asked him where he had been, he told her and she said, "Well, how does he get around so fast? He was around on the other side of the building only a little while ago. We chased him out of a room over there three times!"

One day Blackie took an inkwell, a ruler, a penknife and several pencils from 7A. Another time at recess a boy was eating some peanuts. Blackie flew down and took them away from him. He took the sack up to a ledge near the roof, ate a peanut and dropped the sack.

Blackie must have a sense of rhythm because one day he visited 8A's music class. He sat on the windowsill and patted his foot in time to the music.

Mr. Danforth: You must think automobiles come from trees. Kathryn: Of course not, everyone knows they come from plants.

Whitefaces Take Title Of Regional Championship

Yes, we won the game, and the Whitefaces of 1942 are Regional Champs. This is the first time since 1929 that the Whitefaces have won the Regional Championship game.

Red Merrill made a spectacular play in the first quarter by running 90 yards for a touchdown. Daniel Russell and Luther Worley made the extra points.

In this same quarter, Wellington's passing began to click, and the Skyrockets were moving dangerously into Whiteface territory. Luther Worley intercepted a pass and again the ball was started toward the Whiteface's goal. The whole team played well and displayed their ability as good ball players.

It was a grand game and I'm sure everyone will join me in saying "Good game, boys; we're proud of you."

Boys Set New Record In Club

An unusual record was set Tuesday night, December 8, when sixteen members of the Boys Hi-Y met for the regular program, because there are only seventeen members in the club. G. P. Owen, Jr., led the discussion on "True Thankfulness."

Various members gave their ideas on what they as individuals can do to help the war effort and on what the club itself can do.

The club has postponed its party until after Christmas. Other items of business were: each member who is absent or tardy must buy one war stamp from the treasurer; each member must show that he has bought at least one dollar's worth of war stamps by the first meeting in January.

Charles Sanders and John Douglas Pittman were elected as members of the club. George Weems was appointed sergeant-at-arms. Foster Hill and Bill Dameron volunteered to operate the candy box for one week. The meeting was adjourned by the official Hi-Y benediction.

Dorothy Dishman and Lyle Fluit were sitting out in the moonlight. "I want to ask you something," he said earnestly. "Yes, yes," she replied eagerly. "Can't we move over a little; I'm sitting on a cactus."

Santa Gets Fan Mail From Kiddies

Dearest Santa, I have tried very hard to be a good girl, but I don't think I have succeeded very well.

For Christmas, I would like a tennis racket and Clark Gable, some nuts, oranges and lots of candy. Please bring Mary Ann Acker a southern boy to go with that accent of hers, and bring Phyllis Radovich a muffler or at least something to slow her talking down enough so that people can understand her. Bring Mr. Emmons a loud speaker so all of fourth period study hall can understand what he says. I think Bruce Beene would like to have a passing grade in chemistry. Paul Dishman hasn't the nerve to write you, but he wants a kiddy car and Betty Grable. Please bring Kathryn Acker a rubber dolly and Clyde Brock.

Well, dear Santa, I guess I'll close now. Lots of love, Jo Ann Rosson

Dear Santa Claus, I am just a small boy and a very nice one at that (when I am asleep and not having bad dreams). I don't know what I want so you just give me what you think I need. But I ask you to give me one thing and that is a girl, so don't forget her.

Thanks, Eugene Sparks

Dear Santa: Please do not forget me this Christmas, because I have tried to be a good girl. You must have forgotten to bring me a doll last Christmas, so try to think of it this time. You remember that boy-friend you brought me last Christmas? Well, he is getting rather old, so I wish you would bring me another one. There are a million things I could ask you to bring me, but I will ask them for some other little girl (and be sure and don't forget the little boy).

Thank you Santa, Jewell Clark

P. S. Santa, if you have any to spare I'd just love to have a good English 111 grade this semester.

As ever, Margaret Barber

P. S. While you are giving presents to all good people you can throw in a big slice of "Victory pie" for a certain Uncle of mine. Remember Sam?

Ana Beth Carter and Dora Mae Hagans were discussing their future lives when Dora Mae asked, "What are you going to do?" Ana Beth, "I'm going to marry an engineer," was the reply. Dora Mae, "What kind, a civil engineer?" Ana Beth, "Oh, just any kind, I'll soon make him civil."

Attention of Mr. Santa Claus North Pole, Planet Earth Dear Sir: Whereas the autumn season is terminated and the season of winter begun, and Whereas the feast called "Christmas" is rapidly approaching, and Whereas, for a Senior, I've done something pretty good, and Whereas, I need two themes written by Friday, December 18, then Be it Resolved that you be so amiable as to procure two themes for me on said date. Yours trustingly, Felix Pyka Locker 177, Hereford (The Tooth Decay) Texas.

Dear Santa Claws, It's almost nearly Christmas so I thought I'd let you know what I want. That's so you can be thinking about it. I don't want much just a kiddy car. People say I'm not tall enough to ride a tricycle so maybe please give me something I can ride. (With wood wheels, cause I are a paterotic little girl.)

I guess that's about all I want. I will move the stove away from the fireplace on Christmas Eve so you won't fall and get yourself hurtled like I did once. I have to get my English now; by the way, please bring me a good English 111 grade this semester.

As ever, Margaret Barber

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION

The Rev. W. David Owl, Cherokee Indian, missionary and community worker among the Iroquois in New York State has been awarded the 1942 Indian Achievement Medal, presented annually by the Indian Council of Chicago. For 15 years Mr. Owl has represented Baptists and Presbyterians among six Nations of the historic Iroquois Confederacy in New York State. Mr. Owl is a former director of religious education activities among the Pima Indians of Arizona and at Haskell Institute, the largest government vocational high school for Indians. He is actively identified with the Buffalo Council of Social Agencies, the Boy Scouts of America, the Federal Council of Churches, and the National Council of Christian Leadership.

Because it finds juvenile delinquency on the rise, facing not only danger and death in battle but also facing temptations and baffling problems at home, the International Council of Religious Education, which has a constituency of 25,000,000 people, has undertaken an extended war-time program of service. It plans to give increased service to children in defense and adjacent areas, to young men and young women who are the reserves of tomorrow's ministry, and to men and women at home who not only need spiritual insight and power for the experiences of the war and the post-war period, but who ought also to be enlisted and trained for Christian leadership during emergency.

"One of the war aims of our nation should be the strengthening of the religious spirit among the people and the increased support of religious institutions, according to Dr. Israel Goldstein, president of the Synagogue Council of America. "When a nation fights for its very existence, spiritual stamina is a priority need. America needs the soil power which religion qualifies. We need the faith in the victor of the right which religion embues. We also need the universal outlook for the building of a just peace after victory comes. Religious institutions, churches and the synagogues which are the carriers of the religious message and program, have a priority claim upon the allegiance and support of the American people."

Word reaching the United States from Norway indicates that Bishop Eivind Joseph Berggrav, head of the Norwegian Church who has been imprisoned by the Nazis, has begun the translations of the New Testament into modern Norwegian while he is in prison. Due to efforts to replace several dialects of the country by a Norwegian tongue, a new translation has become a matter of importance during recent years. Bishop Berggrav is assisted by translators and the Epistles written by St. Paul while a prisoner in Rome.

demonstrated again the smooth team work which carried them through district and bi-district competition with only seven points scored against them. No single star was outstanding and the entire team took a starring spotlight to stack up as one of the best aggregations ever to play in regional competition.

Superior Coaching Job
The smooth-working plays, the high morale of the team, and the clicking of every man in his own position, both in the Wellington game and throughout the season, is a stand-out tribute to Coach H. V. Stanton who has been ably assisted by Ox Emmmons. Stanton, who served two years as Whiteface line coach, had much to do with the success of the teams which won district championships in 1940 and 1941, and most of the boys on the Hereford first team have worked with the coach for the past two years.

The fate of interscholastic football next year is still a matter of guess, with many sports followers and government officials declaring that transportation difficulties will spell the end of the gridiron sport for the duration. But if football is "out" next year, Hereford fans can treasure the memory of one of the best teams in the history of the school—the first regional champions—who leave a record at which future Whitefaces can aim but hardly hope to better.
