A Hereford school crossing guard was injured this morning when she was struck by a motorist in the crosswalk in front of Northwest Primary School on Moreman Street in Hereford.

Bridget Williams, 33, of Hereford, was treated at Deaf Smith General Hospital for a broken leg, broken collar bone and neck injuries. She was then transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for further treatment.

Police indicated the driver, a 16-year-old, was driving east on Moreman and was apparently blinded by the sun as she approached the crossing area. Williams had just escorted some children across the street and was going back to the south side of the street when she was struck by the motorist.

Police said late this morning that no charges had been filed but that the accident was still under investigation.

Pierce refuses testimony

WASHINGTON (AP) - Former Housing Secretary Samuel Pierce's abrupt cancellation of plans to testify today in the House investigation of his scandal-plagued agency shows "he's got something to hide," one Republican says.

Pierce said late Thursday he has not had time to prepare his testimony, and accused the subcommittee of unfairly denying his request for an extension.

"I will not voluntarily appear," Pierce said in a statement. "I have fully and completely cooperated with the subcommittee right up until today, but its refusal to allow me an additional two weeks preparation time, when numerous other witnesses have been granted even longer postponements, simply is unfair." He said he would be willing to appear at a later time.

The panel's chairman, Rep. Thomas Lantos, D-Calif., said he would hold the hearing nonetheless and seek to subpoena Pierce if he failed to show.

"Should he not appear, I will consider his failure to do so a breach of faith with the subcommittee and a deceitful and misleading act," said Lantos. The panel is investigating alleged fraud, influence-peddling and mismanagement during the eight years Pierce headed the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

A Republican member, Rep. Christopher Shays of Connecticut, said Pierce's announcement was "outrageous" because he previously had been granted a month's extension.

"It tells me he's got something to hide," Shays said in a telephone interview. "If he doesn't show up we are going to subpoena Mr. Pierce for a series of hearings. We obviously can't trust him."

Pierce's attorney, Paul Perito, said in an interview, "Mr. Pierce wants to tell his entire story. However, he needs to be adequately prepared to do so."

Pierce's announcement was the latest twist in an investigation that already has seen two former top Pierce aides at HUD assert their Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination and refuse to testify before the subcommittee.

The panel is investigating allegations that prominent Republicans and former HUD officials won favored treatment from the agency during Pierce's eight years as secretary and that poor management left HUD unable to account for hundreds of millions of dollars.

Pierce appeared voluntarily in May and said he took no direct role in HUD funding decisions. But his sworn testimony was challenged by a former HUD official who said Pierce personally ordered her to fund a $15 million Durham, N.C., project that was opposed by several agency experts.

The project was supported by Charles Markham, then the city's mayor and a former law partner of Pierce's. The developer also hired as a consultant Lou Kitchen, who was southeastern political director of the Reagan and Bush presidential campaigns.

Pierce also has been criticized for lifting restrictions on a HUD lender whose portfolio now includes more than $538 million in defaults.

Officials say Texas border is drug money laundering haven

AUSTIN (AP) - Federal authorities say drug money makes up a significant part of the $7.3 billion in bank deposits near the Texas-Mexico border, it was reported.

Officials in the U.S. Justice Department, Customs Service and Internal Revenue Service say traffickers who smuggle drugs across the border are stashing illegal profits in financial institutions along the Rio Grande, the Austin American-Statesman reported.

The IRS is working on about 40 money-laundering cases along the Rio Grande, from El Paso to Brownsville, the newspaper reported Thursday.

Such investigations are expected to intensify under the anti-drug plan announced last week by President Bush, who has vowed to find and seize narcotics dealers' profits.

The border is "where most of the narcotics initiate and where most of the transactions take place," said Mike Grubich, chief of criminal investigation for the Austin IRS district.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Charles Lewis, assigned to a special drug task force in Houston, recently prosecuted a bank in the Rio Grande Valley for accepting $1.7 million in cash from drug dealers without reporting the transactions to the IRS.

By law, banks must report to federal authorities all cash transactions of more than $10,000.

"There's no question in my mind that banks along the Mexican border and in major cities are handling huge amounts of drug money," Lewis said. "And sometimes they don't know about it."

South Texas bankers bristle at insinuations that more money laundering occurs along the border than elsewhere.

"Why in the world would we want to taint our business with drug money?" asked Dennis Nixon, president of the International Bank of Commerce in Laredo. He says, and federal officials agree, that laundering happens in other Texas cities.

Gary Jacobs, Laredo National Bank president, told the American-Statesman, "These government officials keep trying to blame financial institutions for the failures of the courts and the judicial system, for the failure of the family and for the failures of law enforcement."

Federal officials say banks along the border routinely take in much more money than they give out, producing a large cash surplus in the San Antonio branch of the Federal Reserve Bank.

The Federal Reserve each week provides banks with currency for handling transactions. The banks, in turn, return the surplus to the Federal Reserve.

The surplus in the San Antonio vault of the Federal Reserve rose from $900 million in 1986 to $1.6 billion in 1988. Only the Federal Reserve Banks in Miami, Los Angeles and Jacksonville, Fla., have larger cash surpluses.

In 1987, the Customs Service estimated 88 percent of the San Antonio surplus came from banks within 15 miles of the Mexican border.

"We believe a high percentage of those dollars are narcotics profits and narcotics operating accounts," said Neal Lageman, head of the district customs office in San Antonio.

Grubich, of the IRS, said he is not accusing bankers of complicity.

"They do what they can to monitor this, but it's impossible to know if it's legitimate receipts or drug profits," he said.

Exxon wraps up Alaska cleanup

VALDEZ, Alaska (AP) - Cleanup workers and state officials say there's still plenty of oil fouling the shores of Prince William Sound, but Exxon insists the beaches are nearly free of oil as a summer-long effort ends.

Exxon officials pronounced the 1,100 miles of oil-tainted shoreline "environmentally stable" Thursday and proclaimed their 25-week cleanup of the nation's worst oil spill a job well done.

Exxon Corp. Chairman Lawrence Rawl said in Juneau that the affected shores of the sound and Gulf of Alaska farther south "are certainly what most people would call clean."

But Dennis Kelso, the state's environmental commissioner, was not pleased with what he saw when he toured shorelines on two islands south of Valdez on Thursday.

"This beach is not environmentally stable," he said as he poked a stick into thickly oiled rocks on Knight Island. "If we had wildlife here, they'd be pretty heavily oiled."

Exxon officials said they expect to declare the summer cleanup complete today, 25 weeks after the tanker Exxon Valdez cracked open on a reef and spilled nearly 11 million gallons of crude oil.

State officials are pressuring Exxon to commit to a greater research effort over the winter to determine the best way to resume the cleanup next spring.

"The point isn't that Exxon has done a terrible job," Kelso said. "There's just more to be done. We don't need to wait until spring to get the preparations going."

Exxon officials said the company will continue to monitor the spill and respond to major problems. About 300 cleanup workers will remain in Alaska, down from about 10,000 at the height of the effort.

Otto Harrison, general manager of Exxon's Valdez operations, said that while oil remained in some areas, it wasn't enough to harm wildlife.

"What you've seen is a coastline almost free of oil," Harrison said.

"You're seeing the steady recovery of Prince William Sound."

State officials agreed Exxon's efforts had resulted in some cleaner shorelines, but disputed the company's rosy portrayal of an environmental rebound.

On his tour of the Knight Island shoreline, Kelso noted there were few signs of wildlife on what once was a shore rich with the sounds of life.

Kelso said a chemical fertilizer recently sprayed on the rocks showed signs of breaking down the oil in some areas.

In other spots, however, it appeared the cleanup was rushed to meet Exxon's self-imposed deadline, Kelso said.

On Green Island, Kelso used a pocket knife to scrape sun-baked oil off blackened rocks.

"It looks and feels like tar - the way an asphalt driveway feels," he said.

Cleanup workers returned to Valdez by the hundreds Thursday on their way home. Many echoed the sentiments of Roger Consiel, who was on the first crew of 48 workers dispatched to the oiled beaches after the March 24 grounding of the oil tanker.

"I think we did some good," he said. "But the oil's going to be there for a while, that's for sure."

"I think Exxon should come back next year. There's a lot left to be done."

G-T "test" answers

Well, let's see how you did on our little "test" that we ran in Wednesday's Brand. You'll find the test is very, well, punny. That which Noah built was an arc. An article for serving ice cream was a cone. What a bloodhound does in chasing a woman is center (scent her). An expression to represent the loss of a parrot is polygon. An appropriate title for a knight named Koll is circle (Sir Koll). A sunbaked man is a tangent. A tall pot perking is a hypotenuse (high pot in use). What one does when it rains is coincide (go inside). What a little acorn says when he grows up is geometry (Gee, I'm a tree). And what you do if you have yarn and needles is knit (you knit). Hope you did well on your test.

Man kills seven, self, wounds 13 in Louisville

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - A printing plant worker who shot 20 co-workers had pledged to get even after being let go for mental disability last year, but his warnings went unheeded, employees at the plant say.

Joseph T. Wesbecker, armed with several semiautomatic weapons, went from floor to floor shooting former co-workers at the Standard Gravure Corp., killing seven and wounding 13 before taking his own life Thursday morning.

Wesbecker, a 47-year-old pressman, was placed on permanent disability leave last year because of mental illness, police said.

"He carried a big grudge because of that," said George Oswine, a former co-worker. "He said before he left he would get even. I remember that."

Oswine said Wesbecker had begun collecting guns since his leave.

Another former co-worker, pressman Joe White, said Wesbecker's talk centered on guns and Soldier of Fortune magazine. White, whose brother Lloyd was killed in the rampage, said Wesbecker thought of himself as a soldier.

"This guy's been talking about this for a year," White said. "I guess nobody believed him."

said Dan Frazier, president of the union local.

Frazier said Wesbecker had become more upset recently because he thought his disability benefits were about to be cut off.

Relatives told police that Wesbecker was a manic depressive who had attempted suicide three times. Wesbecker also had voluntarily spent time in mental institutions, said Lt. Jeff Moody, commander of the police homicide division.

Wesbecker entered the building at 8:30 a.m. EDT and took the elevator to the third floor.

"He just came off the elevator shooting," said Kathy Wilkins, an assistant buyer. "The elevator doors opened and he started firing."

Two receptionists apparently were the first to be hit. Both were wounded; one later died.

Police found four other victims on the third floor, where the executive offices and bindery are located. Wesbecker went from there down to the basement, where five victims were found, then up to the ground floor, where six victims and the gunman were discovered.

Wesbecker was face down in a pool of blood on the floor of a pressroom.

Two other wounded people had been removed by medics before police arrived, and another victim was on the street outside.

Former co-worker John Tingle said he greeted Wesbecker as he saw him coming around a corner in the basement carrying an AK-47 assault rifle.

He quoted Wesbecker as saying, "I told them I'd be back. Get away from me."

Tingle obliged and, Wesbecker proceeded up the stairs to the first floor.

"He didn't fire at me, I guess because he liked me," Tingle said. But "the guys he had shot in the pressroom were friends too."

Three of the wounded were in critical condition Thursday night with multiple gunshot wounds, said officials at Humana Hospital-University of Louisville, where more than 100 doctors were called in to help treat them.

Wesbecker's weapons included the AK-47, two MAC-11 semiautomatic machine pistols, a .38-caliber handgun, a 9mm automatic pistol and a bayonet, said Police Chief Richard Dotson. He carried a duffel bag full of ammunition.

Wesbecker reportedly had made threats against the company, which prints newspaper inserts and Sunday newspaper supplements, but Standard Gravure President Michael Shea said he did not know of any threats.

A woman who answered the telephone at a house where Wesbecker's mother was staying said the family did not want to comment.

"We're just in shock like everybody else. We had to find out over the television. No one called us," said the woman, who did not identify herself. "I guess he was just a sick person. That's all."

US will double Poland food aid

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush is doubling food aid to Poland to $100 million next year "to support the process of change" there, but the Democratic author of a rival plan calls it a merely a stopgap effort.

Sen. Patrick Leahy, D-Vt., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said Bush's plan does not go nearly far enough to help Poland meet its long-term needs.

Bush announced the food aid increase for fiscal 1990 on Thursday, just hours after Leahy unveiled his own $2.5 billion "food for peace" package.

The president's plan calls for shipments to Poland of beef, pork, corn, butter, butter oil, sunflower oil, cotton and rice. The new $50 million infusion was in addition to $50 million in food Bush announced in early August for the new fiscal year that begins Oct. 1.

It is on top of $8.4 million in emergency food assistance Bush ordered for the current fiscal year.

Most of the food shipments will come from U.S. surpluses.

Poland has been affected by severe food shortages and increasing prices.

Bush had been under mounting pressure from Congress to do more to aid Poland's new Solidarity-led government, not only from Democrats but from Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole of Kansas.

Dole called Bush's decision Thursday "a good investment in democracy and political reform for Poland."

"The president's original proposal was made at a time when Poland, while taking some important steps in political reform, still had a communist-dominated government," Dole said.

"It seemed important to me to signal our intent to do more for a democratic government than we had for a communist regime," said Dole, who visited Poland last month with his wife, Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Dole.

Church News

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A time capsule will be buried at the close of the annual Fall Roundup Dinner in First United Methodist Church Sunday evening. It will hold church history and information about various church organizations to be opened in 10 years when First UMC celebrates its 100th anniversary.

The church was organized in 1899 in Hereford's early days. The time capsule is being prepared under the direction of a committee headed by Helen Langley with Bill Bookout, Dee Anne Trotter, Troyce Hanna and Jo Linker assisting.

The Roundup Dinner marks the start of fall activities after summer vacation in the church. It will be a covered dish meal for all members including youth who will not hold their usual Sunday evening meetings.

Dinner will begin at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall.

A service of dedication for teachers and other workers in the Sunday School will be held during the morning worship service at First UMC beginning at 10:55 a.m. Plans are being made and directed by Jo Linker, director of Christian education.

Teachers in children's, youth and adult divisions will all take part in this annual ceremony. The sermon will be given by Dr. Steve McElroy, pastor.

French cafe setting of study club meeting

The home of Margaret Zinser served as the French cafe setting for the opening meeting of the Valeda Study Club.

As the members arrived in format attire they were served wine or pink lemonade. Pink floral menus printed in French were beside each table setting for the members to use in making their dinner selections. The yearbook committee members, Zinser, Della Hutchins and DeAnn Sisson were the hostesses for the gala evening.

Norma Walden, president, opened the meeting by leading the members in reading the club collect. Roll call was answered with a summer highlight of each member. The minutes of the May meeting were read and approved.

Zinser gave a review of the coming programs and activities of the 1989-90 year. This year's theme "First Class" evolved to follow last year's theme of "Climb Every Mountain". This year's programs are planned to represent life from the top of the mountain after the upward climb of last year.

Members enjoying the "Welcome Back Evening" were Marcella Brady, Juanita Brown, Ruth Fish, Betty Gilbert, Hutchins, Sessions, Walden and Margaret Zinser.

Hints from Heloise

INSTANT INTERCOM SYSTEM

Dear Heloise: I recently bought an intercom system used to monitor babies when you are out of the room, even though our "baby" is almost 28 years old and no longer lives with us.

I put the transmitter in the utility room/kitchen area and have the receiver in my home office while I am working at my computer. Now when the washer or dryer turns off, I can hear it, which prevents fewer clothes left to wrinkle. Also when I am baking, I can hear the timer easily.

My original idea was to have the receiver with me while I was working in the yard so I would be able to hear the washer, dryer, stove timer, telephone or doorbell. It serves my purpose well and is a practical alternative to an expensive intercom system. — Ruthann Sumpter, Marion, Ind.

CHOPSTICKS

Dear Heloise: My husband and I go to our favorite Chinese restaurant at least once a month. We have found a great recycling hint for the disposable wooden chopsticks.

They make great sturdy plant stakes for indoor potted plants that need a lift or a little support. — J.G., Dallas, Texas

I do the very same thing! — Heloise

Send a money- or time-saving hint to Heloise, P.O. Box 795000, San Antonio, TX 78279 or fax it to 512-HELOISE. I can't answer your letter personally but will use the best hints received in my column.

Bobola to speak Saturday

ROBERT BOBOLA

Robert Bobola, manager for the Development for the NASA Space Station Program, will be the guest speaker at the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship meeting and dinner at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Hereford Community Center.

The meal will be catered by Caison House. The public is invited to attend.

Bobola has appeared on CBN "700 Club", Canada's "100 Huntley Street" and the FGBMFI "Good News." He speaks to Christian organizations, churches and FGBMFI chapters throughout the United States and Canada.

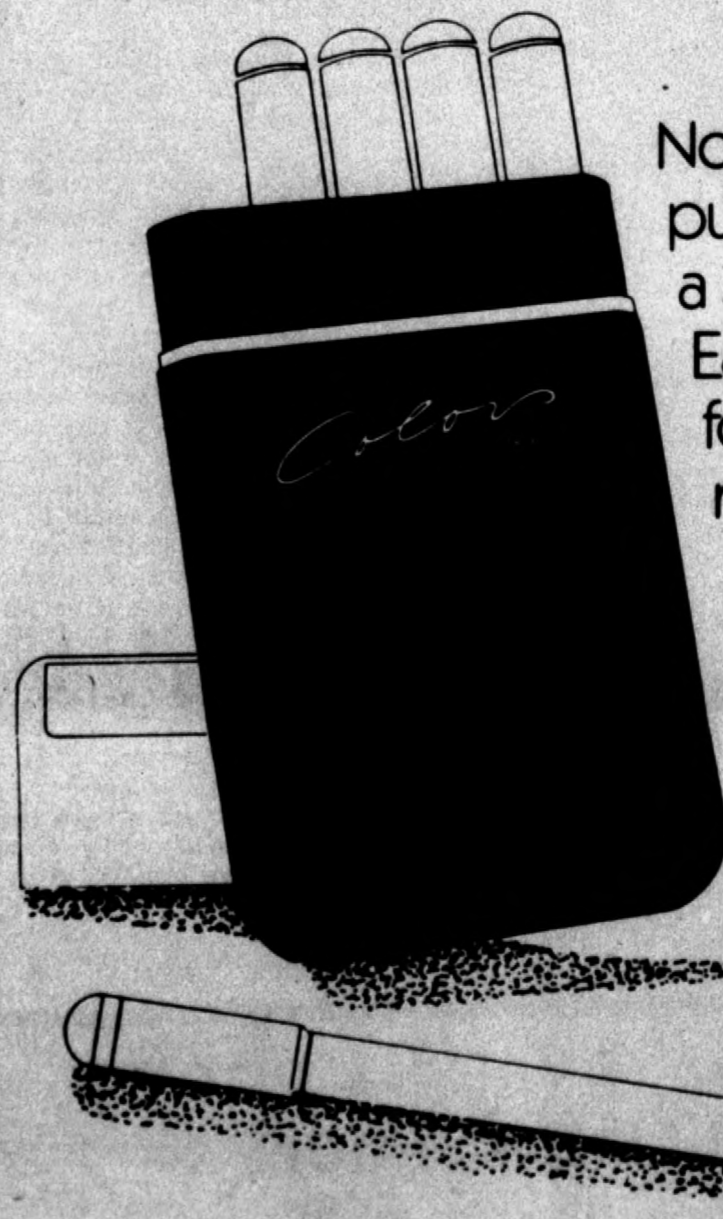

Bobola has also participated in FGBMFI airlifts to Central America, South America and the Caribbean. His testimony has been featured in "Voice" and "La Voz" magazines.

The speaker is a FGBMFI field representative and a vice president of the Houston Space Center FGBMFI Chapter.

Herd ready to challenge third-ranked Palo Duro

By SAM W. WALLER
Sports Editor

The Hereford Whitefaces will have their hands full Saturday when they take on the Palo Duro Dons at 2 p.m. at Dick Bivins Stadium.

The Dons, fresh off a 31-7 win at Odessa High in their season opener, enter the contest as a 19-point favorite and ranked third in the state in Class 5A, according to the Harris Ratings.

"You can't help but be pleased anytime you win the first game of the season," PD Coach Doug James said. "There were some things we didn't do as well as we would have liked, but we got through it."

The Dons rolled up 228 yards of offense against the Bronchos, including 192 rushing. Shawn Jones led with 80 yards on 18 carries and scored on runs of 5 and 1 yards.

Defensively, Palo Duro allowed only 92 yards and the lone Odessa touchdown came after a blocked punt was recovered at the Don 6-yard line.

The Dons had better luck with the punting game early on, recovering two fumbled returns to set up scores.

James said he expects a tough challenge from the Herd.

"When you prepare for Hereford you've got to prepare for everything," the Dons' coach said. "They do a lot of different things very well."

Coach Don Cumpton of the Whitefaces said Palo Duro will offer several variations of both offense and defense Saturday.

"On defense they give you lots of different looks," Cumpton said. "They run some 5-2 and they also give an eight-man front with a 5-3 and a 6-2 defense so you have to prepare for a seven-man front and an eight-man front."

"They stunt a lot. What they try to is force you to have a bad play. They've done that for years."

"On offense they're not real fancy," Cumpton said. "They do a good job at what they do. They run the fullback up inside. They run the option, especially when they have Shanklin in the game. He's a good runner at quarterback and they like for him to run with it on the option."

"I think the key to their offense is just containing their speed. (Michael) Westmoreland is a great player. He's a three-year starter."

Cumpton said the Dons will break their wishbone much of the time.

"Now, they didn't do that last year," he said. That's the difference in their football team this year. They've opened it up. They're running basically the same stuff but they're spreading you out all over the field with the different formations. They're more of a power team than they are a finesse team."

Cumpton said the Herd will have a few new wrinkles in this week's game plan, but there will be no drastic changes.

"We've got some stuff we're going to do just to look at," he said, "and we think it will help us (later in the season)."

"It's not anything new; we've been doing it all year. What we try to do is go over everything during two-a-days that we might want to do. Then we pull from that each week. We use some of it and some of it we don't."

Cumpton added that while the Herd is preparing for the district race which begins next week, the team's focus is on beating PD.

"No. 1 is we're going to try to win the game," he said. "No. 2 is we're looking to improve. We need to play four quarters."

"Last week we came out a little slow," he said of the Herd's 35-17 comeback win over Tascosa. "We need to come out of the chute ready to go this week. We've got to learn that you've got to play all four quarters."

Both coaches said the expected 85-degree temperatures could affect play, especially with two-way players.

"It just depends on how the game goes and how the weather is, Cumpton said. "I would think that this early it could make a difference."

"We'll start three or four both ways," James said. "But if it's one of those hot, still humid days we won't keep them out there as long."

Get back here!

Steelers' woes continue

By BARRY WILNER
AP Sports Writer

So you think things can't get much worse for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Look again.

The Steelers were handed their most embarrassing loss ever on opening day, a 51-0 rout at home against Cleveland. Now Pittsburgh gets to go on the road, to Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati, dubbed "The Jungle," where the visiting Bengals await.

Pittsburgh is just 2-7 at Riverfront since 1979 and lost there 42-7 last Nov. 6.

"I'll tell you, it's going to be a big crisis if we don't snap out of what we're doing and get it done," Coach Chuck Noll said. "It's not as though we haven't got the ability to do it. We have that. We've got to go out and do it, though."

The Bengals, who won all 10 of their home games last year on the way to the AFC championship, are not happy after an opening 17-14 loss at Chicago - a game they felt they should have won.

"It boiled down to everybody having a play or two they can improve on," Coach Sam Wyche said.

The Steelers are a far cry from the team that dominated football in the 1970s. They have rookies, three of them starters, and 12 first-year starters.

"When you get beat 51-0, it's hard to find anything good to come out of it," defensive back Dwayne Woodruff said. "The good thing is we can come back and play good against Cincinnati."

"This was just our first game and we have 15 games to go, so I don't think this is going to hurt our confidence. We're a confident team."

So, obviously, is Cleveland, which faces the New York Jets on Sunday. Browns coach Bud Carson was the Jets' defensive coordinator before landing his first NFL head coaching job at the age of 58.

Carson dismisses last week's romp, although the mention of the 21 points produced by his defense makes him smile.

"It was a feeling of disbelief and I was afraid it would all fall apart," he said. "We had a lot of fantastic luck. It was the type of thing that happens once in a lifetime."

The Jets better hope so. Their offense is undermanned at receiver and their unproven line must cope with the blitzing and stunting that marks Carson's defensive plans.

"Bud will have plenty for us to think about," quarterback Ken O'Brien said. "We'll have to be ready for just about anything."

Elsewhere Sunday, it is Indianapolis at the Los Angeles Rams, Dallas at Atlanta, the Los Angeles Raiders at Kansas City, Miami at New England, New Orleans at Green Bay, Philadelphia at Washington, San Francisco at Tampa Bay, Detroit at the New York Giants, Minnesota at Chicago, Phoenix at Seattle and Houston at San Diego.

The Monday night game has Denver at Buffalo.

Eric Dickerson returns to the scene of so many of his big games as the Colts play at Anaheim Stadium. The Rams traded Dickerson just after the 1987 players' strike.

"I'm not going to play any differently," Dickerson said. "They'll probably make a bigger deal out of it than I will. I just want to win the game."

And rush for more than 100 yards, of course.

"I think he would like to have an outstanding day," Coach Ron Meyer said. "But Eric Dickerson has never not cranked it up."

Hogs open with Tulsa

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

The defending Southwest Conference champion Arkansas Razorbacks finally get to play a game.

The Razorbacks become the last SWC team to open the season when they host dangerous Tulsa in Fayetteville on Saturday.

Arkansas has won the last 12 meetings, including a 30-26 victory last year.

The ninth-ranked Hogs were rated 13-point favorites over the 2-0 Hurricane.

In other games involving SWC teams, Texas A&M and Texas Christian open the league campaign with the Aggies 11-point favorites for the 7:30 p.m. road game at Amon Carter Stadium; Texas Tech was a 23-point favorite over New Mexico at Lubbock in a noon (Raycom TV) game; Georgia was an 11-point favorite over Baylor in a noon nationally televised (TBS) matchup from Athens, Ga., and there was no line on the Connecticut-Southern Methodist 7:30 p.m.

game in Ownby Stadium.

"Tulsa is at a real advantage having played two games," said Arkansas coach Ken Hatfield. "They will know who their best people are and will have had two weeks to make corrections. They'll be more seasoned and calmer."

Hatfield said he is worried about the Hogs' young secondary.

"We couldn't have picked an opener that would better test our areas of weakness," he said. "Tulsa runs and throws the ball so well, it will be a real test for a young defense. It will be a real test for our offense, too. Tulsa tackles well and they are very sound on defense."

Texas A&M (1-1) has won 16 consecutive games against the Horned Frogs and leads the series 48-29-7. TCU's last win was 13-10 in College Station in 1972.

TCU won 14-3 in 1971 in Fort Worth.

"We have a great deal of respect for TCU," said A&M coach R.C. Slocum. "They moved the ball well against Missouri (a 14-10 loss) and played tough defense. They will be very tough at home."

TCU's triple shoot offense ran and passed for 487 yards and 23 first downs against Missouri but could only cross the goal once.

The Frogs will be without their top running back, Tony Darthard, who underwent knee surgery this week.

Although it's a heavy favorite, Tech will face a big test against New Mexico to see if the Raiders have a mental letdown after upsetting 20th ranked Arizona 24-14.

"We beat a good team last Saturday but the worst thing we can start doing is thinking we are better than we are," said Tech coach Spike Dykes.

After losing 33-7 to Oklahoma, Baylor coach Grant Teaff said he had better see more of an effort this week against the Bulldogs.

"I expect to see a much better effort both mentally and physically this week or we're going to be in trouble," Teaff said.

Sophs, frosh sweep Thursday play

Leo Brown rushed for more than 200 yards with two touchdowns Thursday as the Hereford Whiteface sophomores drubbed the Friona Chieftan junior varsity, 28-6, at the South Field.

In two other games Thursday, the freshman White squad downed Plainview Blue, 38-8, at the Junior High Field, and the freshman Maroon posted their second straight road win, 42-0, at Friona.

Hereford opened the scoring when quarterback Ben Perry hit Sean Smith for a 35-yard touchdown after the Herd recovered a fumble at the Friona 40.

Brown got things going for the Herd when he set sail on a 51-yard jaunt on the last play of the first quarter to up the score to 12-0.

The Herd tailback added another score mid-way through the second stanza, going over from the 8-yard line. Matthew Reiter took a pass from Perry for the conversion.

The sophs, now 1-1 on the year, threatened in the third quarter after Brown raced 50 yards to the Friona 20 but a fumble halted the drive. Brown, who finished with 220 yards on 11 carries, also had a 45-yard touchdown called back because of offsetting penalties.

Hereford's final score came when Rolando Ramirez returned an interception 85 yards with 6:59 left in the game. Cody High ran for the conversion.

The Herd defense kept Friona shut down until the 34 seconds. A 30-yard pass completion and a personal foul put the visitors at the 9-yard line to set up the score.

Frosh White 38, Plainview Blue 8
Pety Colvin rushed for 208 yards and three touchdowns and Chad Sandoval passed for 125 yards in the freshman White's second win of the season.

Fullback Shama Hernandez put the home team on the board with a 2-yard dive and Colvin ran the conversion in.

Colvin gained his first tally of the day three minutes later from the 2. Noah Garcia took Sandoval's pass for the extra points.

Colvin put the only second-quarter touchdown on the board on a 6-yard run with Hernandez getting the conversion.

Plainview's only score came in the third quarter when Steven Enriquez returned a punt 45 yards. Cedric Coleman hooked up with Michael Zapata to convert the touchdown.

Colvin finished his afternoon with a 43-yard scoring burst early in the final period. Sandoval passed to Steven Paetzold for the two points.

Lupe Mendez added the final six points on a 5-yard run with 3:12 left in the game.

Frosh Maroon 42, Friona 0
Hereford scored in all four quarters as they upped their record to 2-0 with a 42-0 win at Friona.

Quarterback Richard Sanderson put the first marker on the board when he kept on the option for 40 yards. Shawn Fogo added another first-quarter touchdown on a 5-yard sweep. Sanderson ran for the extra points to give Hereford a 14-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Quincy Curtis bulled over from the 2 and Sanderson ran the bootleg for the conversion.

Third quarter scores came when Joe DeLeon set sail for 70 yards and Vince Castillo tallied from the 5-yard line. Sanderson added his third conversion of the day after DeLeon's run.

Steven Drake became the sixth Whiteface to score a touchdown when he broke loose for a 40-yard run. Drake had gained 20 yards on the previous play to set up the score.

Breaking away
Tailback Leo Brown of the Whiteface sophomores gets loose on a 51-yard touchdown run Thursday as the sophs beat Friona JV, 28-6.

Padres' chances slim after loss

By The Associated Press
Twenty-four hours earlier, the San Diego Padres were probably thinking of putting some worry into the San Francisco Giants.

But all that has changed. The Padres, who beat Atlanta 3-2 Wednesday night, got late word that Cincinnati held a 7-5 lead over San Francisco. The streaking Padres were looking at only a four-game deficit in the National League West race, and with the same teams playing again Thursday, why, it wasn't inconceivable that the margin would be down to three a day later. And then San Diego and San Francisco would play a crucial series at Candlestick Park.

Well, the series does open tonight, and it is critical - but only for the Padres.

The Giants, you see, came back to win that Wednesday night game 8-7 by scoring three times in the bottom of the 13th. On Thursday, the Giants went 12 innings in beating the Reds 4-3 while last-place Atlanta battered the Padres 13-4.

Instead of trailing by four games, or even three, the Padres head to San Francisco six back and probably in need of a sweep to keep alive hopes of catching the Giants.

"It's been an uphill battle for a month. We've gone from 12 games back to five games back," San Diego manager Jack McKeon said. "You've got to give those guys out there credit for battling back."

But with only 15 games remaining, San Diego will soon face the "magic number" countdown unless the Padres can cut into the San Francisco lead this weekend.

"I don't believe we have to sweep," McKeon said. "We're just thinking about tomorrow night."

In other games Thursday, Houston trounced Los Angeles 11-3 and Pittsburgh downed St. Louis 4-3.

Giants 4, Reds 3
Will Clark, who had three hits, scored the winning run in the bottom of the 12th inning on Bob Brenly's single.

Clark, who tripled, doubled and singled, reached base on third baseman Luis Quinones' error to start the 12th. He stole second as Kevin Mitchell struck out and, after an intentional walk, scored on Brenly's looper to right.

Ernie Camacho, 3-0, went one inning as the Giants' fifth pitcher. Norm Charlton, 6-2, took the loss despite striking out 10 in 4 1-3 innings.

Astros 11, Dodgers 3

Mike Scott became baseball's first 20-game winner and Craig Biggio drove in six runs with two homers, including a grand slam.

Scott, 20-8, gave up two runs on five hits in seven innings to reach his 11-win mark for the first time in his 11-year career.

John Wetteland, 4-8, lost his fifth straight decision.

Biggio hit his first major-league slam during a six-run second inning.

Pirates 4, Cardinals 3
The smallest crowd in Busch Stadium history saw Pittsburgh complete a three-game sweep that sent St. Louis to its fifth straight loss.

Only 1,519 fans attended the afternoon game. It was a makeup of Wednesday night's rainout, and the rescheduling was not announced until after midnight. The previous low crowd in St. Louis was 3,380 on Sept. 27, 1972.

Albert Hall, Jay Bell and Andy Van Slyke hit consecutive RBI doubles in the seventh inning.

Bob Patterson, 2-2, got the win and Ken Dayley, 3-4, the loss.

Texas pounds KC, 10-4

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - Mike Jeffcoat seems to be pitching himself into the Texas Rangers' future while Tom Gordon pitches himself right out of rookie of the year contention.

Jeffcoat, a journeyman left-hander who was called up from Class AAA Oklahoma City at the end of May, went eight strong innings against Kansas City Thursday night as the Texas Rangers denied the Royals' division title hopes with a 10-3 rout.

The 30-year-old Jeffcoat, 8-5, has established himself as an integral part of the Rangers' rotation.

Gordon, meanwhile, is wondering where his sharp curveball went. A month ago, he was 16-4 with a breaking pitch people were comparing to Bert Blyleven's. But the 21-year-old right-hander took his fourth consecutive loss, dropping his record to 16-8 and his level of confidence is way below .500.

The loss was only the second in 10 games for the Royals, but it dropped them 3 1/2 games behind idle Oakland in the American League West. In other games, Minnesota beat Toronto 2-0 and Cleveland defeated Detroit 4-0.

In what has become a familiar pattern of late for Gordon, the Rangers got to him early, scoring three runs in the first and then knocking him out in a four-run third.

"I would have to say I'm very pleased," Jeffcoat said. "Hopefully, I'll finish on a strong note."

Gordon's breaking pitch, the talk of the league at mid-season, seems to have flattened out. With four losses and a no-decision in his last five starts, he has been rendered ineffective at the worst possible time for the Royals. Meanwhile, Baltimore reliever Greg Olson, with 25 saves, has jumped into the thick of the race for rookie honors.

"We've analyzed him on film, and can't see anything different," Royals manager John Wathan said of Gordon. "He's not locating his curveball or the fastball very well."

"I pitched good for five months," Gordon said. "Tonight I felt real good. I'm trying to figure out what's the problem with my curve. It's not breaking as sharp as usual."

Fred Manrique, Rafael Palmiero, Julio Franco, Pete Incaviglia, Mike Stanley and Juan Gonzalez each had two hits for the Rangers, who tagged six Kansas City pitchers for 16 hits.

Twins 2, Blue Jays 0

Mark Guthrie pitched five-hit ball for 7 1-3 innings.

Guthrie, 2-1, got help from Jeff Reardon, who got his 30th save, making him the first reliever with five straight 30-save seasons.

Mike Flanagan, 8-10, gave up one run on seven hits in six innings.

Indians 4, Tigers 0
Rod Nichols struck out 10 in 7 2-3 innings and Joe Carter hit his 32nd home run.

Nichols, 4-4, gave up five hits and Jesse Orosco finished for his third save. Kevin Ritz, 4-4, was the loser.

An error by third baseman Doug Strange led to two runs in the first inning. Carter tied his career high for homers with a two-run shot in the eighth.

★ JOBS ★ U.S. POSTAL SERVICE

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT...AMARILLO, HEREFORD, AND ALL AREA POST OFFICES HAVE JUST RECEIVED AUTHORIZATION TO ACCEPT APPLICATIONS FOR THE CLERK-CARRIER EXAM IN OCTOBER.

A recent issue of Newsweek magazine noted that the average Postal worker earns $27,500 in salary and benefits. Men and women, regardless of age or experience are eligible to apply. Courses to help you prepare for the above exams will be offered by Postal Exam Workshops. Instructors Doug Alexander and Bill Harrel are considered by many to be the most qualified on how to gain employment with the Postal Service. These exams do not test general knowledge. Proper preparation is the key to getting hired, because people are hired for these positions based on their exam scores. The easy-to-learn techniques taught in these courses were designed by Dr. Howard. He is a former Postal employee, the author of three postal exam guides, and has repeatedly scored 100% on Postal tests.
3 HOUR WORKSHOP: SCORE 95-100%

GUARANTEE: The time-saving and accuracy-increasing methods taught in this course are so powerful that we will enter into a written agreement.
*You will score 85% or higher or your money will be refunded.
*If you do not receive a job application/interview within 90 days of your score, your money will be refunded.

WORKSHOP TUITION IS $30 and includes the guaranteed workshop, workbook, interview hints, study guide with 25 complete take-home exams, follow-up consultation privileges with free information phone number, home study program kit, personal notification of future application dates, and more...WANT TO RELOCATE? We offer the Postal Alert Bulletin giving you postal exam dates nationwide. You are invited to bring your tape recorder to record the workshop for personal review.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Have you lost your mind? I couldn't believe it when you asked your readers to be considerate of telephone marketing creeps because they are "trying to make a living."

I pay for my telephone. It is in my home for my convenience. Why should I be at the mercy of anyone who wants to make a sales pitch? These people are intruders and do not deserve to be treated with courtesy. --New Brunswick, N.J.

DEAR NEW BRUNSWICK: A great many more readers sided with you than me. I did not expect so many hostile responses. Read on:

Columbus, Ohio: You once told a reader, "You are a few bricks short of a full load." Your recent defense of telemarketers suggests that perhaps you may have the same problem. Please tell me, what right does a phone salesperson have to wake people up out of a sound sleep, get them out of the shower, off a ladder, up from the basement or down from the attic and make them listen to a sales pitch?

Washington, D.C.: Why aren't those telephone sales pests informed about the hearing-impaired, who have a device that flashes a written message on a small screen. It is a common complaint among deaf people that they run to the phone when they see the light and then get a voice call which, of course, they are unable to hear. When they hang up the pest calls again and again which is terribly frustrating. This has happened to my elderly father and it makes him furious.

Detroit: Selling products on the phone is bad enough, but now they are marketing political candidates. Some jerk called me at 10:30 p.m. to ask whom I was going to vote for. When I replied, "Herbert Hoover," he let loose with a string of four-letter words that would have made a sailor's parrot blush. Please tell me why I should be "considerate" of such a person.

Lexington, Ky.: My wife has been fighting cancer for three years. Last week she received a call from a woman selling cemetery plots. It shook her up and made me angry.

And you say we should be polite to these creeps.

Evanston, Ill.: Who are you to give advice on how to treat telephone solicitors? You with your battery of secretaries and I'll bet plenty of help at home who screen your phone calls. Stick to what you know.

This is Ann again: I surrender, folks. You readers have made a good case, but I still say it costs nothing to say, "Sorry, not interested." Thanks to all who wrote.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been living with "Scott" for six years. We have an 18-month-old son. Six months ago a woman telephoned to say that she also has a son by Scott. He is six months older than mine. I never knew about this woman and was truly hurt.

It turns out that this woman named her son Scott Jr. also. Should I change my son's name? Even though this is a big city there might be a lot of confusion later. --Double Dealing in Alabama

DEAR ALABAMA: Sounds like there's a lot of confusion NOW. You have bigger problems than your child's name. You need to get your relationship with the baby's father sorted out. Why are you settling for half a man? Insist that he level with you or see a lawyer about separate maintenance and child support.

Feeling pressured to have sex? How will-informed are you. Write for Ann Landers' booklet "Sex and the Teenager." Send a self-addressed, envelope and a check or money order for $3.65 (this includes postage and handling) to: Teens, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562. (In Canada send $4.45.)

Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: Last winter, my son was in his first year of life and had lots of upper respiratory infections, ear infections and bronchitis. He was given antibiotics, mostly Amoxicillin. My pediatrician said there is no problem with the frequency of taking antibiotics. Some people claim antibiotics will thin the blood or will make your resistance low or you will become dependent upon them. Do you think antibiotics should be limited to let a child's natural immunity develop?

DEAR READER: The effects of antibiotics depend upon which antibiotic is used. Amoxicillin is a synthetic penicillin that is effective when taken by mouth. Each antibiotic is effective against certain groups of bacteria, but not all bacteria. They have no effect on viruses, but do prevent secondary bacterial infection.

They do not thin your blood. They do not interfere with the development of natural resistance or immunity to infections. You do not become dependent upon them. They can be life saving and cure serious bacterial infections. They can also be abused. Prolonged use may cause diarrhea. Improper use, particularly by the patient not following instructions, can cause strains of bacteria to develop that are resistant to antibiotics. That happens when a patient feels better and does not continue the medications long enough. And some people are allergic to various antibiotics. But antibiotics are one of the really important advances in medicine over the last 50 years.

Bazaar plans underway

Westway Extension Homemakers Club will have their annual "Arts and Craft Country Christmas Bazaar" on Saturday, Nov. 11 at the Community Center. To obtain an entry form or for more information contact Carolyn Evers at 364-4739.

There are 26 Amendments to our Constitution. Three are directly concerned with insuring the right of citizens to vote. This is evidence that the Constitution is a working basis for government, not just a static document. The Daughters of the American Revolution urges you to celebrate Constitution Week (Sept. 17-23) by resolving to be a citizen who votes responsibly.
