old retired farmer who was never known to have been in a fight before, became infuriated when his elderly wife was treated roughly and was credited today with capturing two desperate escaped convicts who hammered to death a

Huntsville state prison guard.

During the scuffle with the convicts, their own gun went off, fatally wounding one man and critically injuring the second.

The mild-mannered farmer was T. A. Burch, who stands five feet ten and weighs about 140 pounds.

The convicts, identified by highway patrolmen, were Fred Wren, 23, who died in a Rosebud hospital shortly after the fight, and Ralph Dunlap, 26. Hospital attendants said Dunlap

State highway patrolmen arrived at the Burch home just as the second convict was shot. "Have you got them?" an officer shouted.

"I think I've got 'em both," Burch panted. It ended a statewide manhunt that began last night when Wren, serving a two-year burglary sentence from Deaf Smith county, and Dunlap, of Shelby, Ohio, serving a similar sentence from Coryell county, brutally beat to death Ben La Rue of Lovelady, a guard.

The three were alone in an apartment house across from the penitentiary. They had gone to the apartment to repair a telephone.

The manhunt spread to central and southeast Texas. First reports came from the Calvert area. This is how officers reconstruct today's storybook action:

The fugitives had stopped a negro school teacher for a ride. Then they took his car at

But the convicts outdistanced their pursuers. Near Rosebud, their car stuck in heavy mud. They hailed a passing boy and asked him to get a tractor to pull them out. The tractor became stuck, too.

One of the men walked to the Burch home and entered the front door. Burch and his wife were in the room. The elderly farmer looked up in surprise when the convict demanded the keys to his car, which was in the yard outside. "I don't have the keys in my pocket," Burch said mildly. "What does this mean?" The convict, Wren, pulled a gun and ordered Burch to hand over the keys. Mrs. Burch, standing nearby, shoved the gun aside. Wren roughly pushed her and she fell to the floor.

Infuriated, Burch whirled on Wren and pushed him outside the door. He shouted to his wife to go for help.

They were scuffling when the second convict, Dunlap, ran up.

Dunlap shouted to Wren to toss him the gun. Burch grabbed for it and the automatic shotgun went off. The bullet struck Dunlap in the

Drouth Hurts Small Grain

Drouth, the year's agricultural bugaboo, is rearing its head again to threaten prospects for winter grazing on small grain crops.

Reports from over the county indicated that some young wheat, rye, smeltz, barley, etc. was beginning to suffer for lack of moisture. Other fields were holding on well but not making the growth that was originally anticipated in the wake of good rains in Septem-

With around 15,000 acres to small grains, the county's forage prospects for the winter would be enhanced greatly by a slow soaking rain. By the same token, ranges of winter weeds would be greatly alded by moistures. Little damage could result to grass even from a peppering rain, for growth has been short in most areas except where pastures were not grazed extensively during the dry mon-

Little harm would accure to the cotton crop from a rain since probably less than five per cent of the yield remains to be gathered.

Dick L. Trego, contact representative of the Veterans Administration, made the presentation of keys and title papers, and representatives of the American Legion and VFW were on hand.

Trego, pointing out that public law 663, passed last August by mobile to veterans of World War II who suffered the loss of, or the use of, lower limbs, said that the VA had responsibility for the administration of the act. He continued: "As a representative of that organization, it gives me great

Man Seeks Word From His Son

Big Spring police reported Satwhereabouts of George Woodrow Frazier, a local youth, who has not been heard from since Sept. 10.

The boy's father, G. W. Frazier of Pecos, who formerly lived here, said his son has not been heard from since September 10, at which time he was employed by a man who advertised for two employes. According to the father's report, young Frazier answered a classified advertisement in the Herald, requesting young men interested in employment to contact a man named N. F. Riddle at the Crawford hotel.

The boy's father said he underwith magazine sales and that the group would establish headquartevidence of the group operating there. Also, no person registered at the Crawford under the name of N. F. Riddle at that time, officers said. However, they said a porter at the hotel reported that a man was in the lobby during the day interviewing young men.

Local officers said they would welcome an opportunity to confer with any other local persons who may have applied in answer to the same advertisement, or anyone who may be able to assist in locating young Frazier.

REGISTERED HEREFORD SALE

On Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 12 noon, we will sell 25 head of registered Hereford cows and two registered Hereford herd bulls at the West Texas Livestock Auction Company.

Fifteen of these cows are from the I. B. Cauble & Son herd, the balance from the Pearl Cauble herd. All cows have been bred by us, carrying calves by the service of our top herd bulls.

This is an excellent opportunity for breeders to buy cows which will produce good herd bulls and foundation stock.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 23. (P)— Miguel Aleman, lawyer and politician, will be Mexico's first civilian president when he takes office Dec. 1 in the marble Palacio de Bellas Artes, showplace of Mexico built by an art-loving president, Gen. Porfirio Diaz.

Aleman was elected July 7 in what many Mexicans described as the first "honest election" ever held in this country, where more often than not pistols have ruled the ballot boxes.

President Manual Avila Camecho, who ends his six-year term Sunday, kept good his promise for an equal opportunity for every voter at the polls. There were many charges of fraud, of stuffed ballot boxes and of coercion, but the supreme court found no reason to dispute the results of the Aleman landslide.

Many observers believe Aleman. because of his support by the powerful government party (PRI), could have won the election without making a campaign speech or leaving his swivel chair.

However, from the start of the campaign Aleman was on the stump speaking in every state of the union. He came in contact with as many people as possible, supplementing his speaking tour with round table discussions in various parts of the country on nearly every phase of national life. '

It was upon information gathered during the round table talks that he built his six-year program which calls for expanded industrialization of this essentially agrarian country, better farming practices, with more machinery to produce bigger crops, a sound labormanagement plan to give the industrialization impetus, a vast farm-to-market highway program and better rail facilities to improve the nation's agricultural economy, and an efficient, honest government.

Lut to you straight, the story's this:

No car made today is coming to you fast as its makers would like.

It stands to reason that the car most wanted is not going to be the easiest to get.

But that car will have what you're aiming for.

Style that's no mere one-year wonder - but smart and clean and right in a way that lasts.

Power - plenty of it - a big bonnet-

Auto registration records for the week show seven passenger zars, one station wagon and one truck licensed in the county tax assessor-collector's office.

The city's November building ligures continued to move upward gradually during the week, with 20 permits issued by the engineering department. Only three were for new construction, however, with others issued chiefly for repair work. The new totals: for the week, $18,520; for the month, $54,925; for the year, $1,119,846.

Local auction concerns handled approximately 2,750 head of cattle and a few hogs in regular auction sales Tuesday and Wednesday. Buyers represented a wide area, with the market for butcher animals remaining steady. Stocker prices were off considerably, however.

Final Services Held For Stanton Woman

STANTON, Nov. 23.-Last rites lor Mrs. Mary Harmon were held at 3 p. m. Friday at the Stanton Baptist church.

Mrs. Harmon, a long time Stanion resident, died suddenly Wednesday. She was born Mary Isabel Sparks near Cleburne on Feb. 23, 1873 and was married to J. C. Harmon in 1892. He died in February 1938.

The family lived at Cleburne and Midland, then in Coke and Howard counties before going to Stanton in 1914.

Surviving are eight children. Bites were in charge of the Rev. T. R. Hawkins, pastor of the church in which Mrs. Harmon had been an active member. Arrangements were in charge of Eberley Funeral home and interment was in the Evergreen cemetery.

Coahoma Church Has New Pastor

COAHOMA, Nov. 23.—Rev. R. H. Harthcock, formerly pastor at the First Baptist church in Wells, Texas, has accepted the call to be pastor of the Baptist church here. He and Mrs. Harthcock and two small sons, Paul and David, moved into the parsonage Wednesday.

ACC-W'Texas Game Monday Evening Climaxes Course

Coaches from the four corners of Texas will converge on Big Spring Sunday, Dec. 1, for Clarence Fox's first anhual basketball school, which will proffer a variety of entertainment as well as a thorough orientation in the cage game.

The clinic, which has A. C. "Bugs" Morris of Abilene Christian college and Gus Miller, West Texas State sthletic director listed as instructors, officially gets underway at the high school gymnasium at 2 p.m. Sunday and will be climaxed Monday night by a regulation basketball contest between the ACC and West Texas

Tickets for the game - Big Spring's first such classic in many years-will be sold to the coaches and fans alike for $1 a throw. Proceeds over and above expenses go to the Big Spring Athletic association, which is helping Fox and his sporting goods concern, the Wilson Walz company of El Paso,

The delegates wil be entertained by a western style barbecue at 8 o'clock at the Settles hotel, general headquarters for the clinic. A series of motion picture shorts, devoted exclusively to sports, will be shown the coaches and general public alive in the Settles ballroom at 9 p.m. Sunday. The films will deal with collegiate basketball as seen in Madison Square garden, professional football (in color) and another on baseball.

At 9:30 o'clock Monday morning the classes will be resumed at the school gymnasium. That particular phase of the program will continue until 11:30 a.m. The afternoon course starts at 2 and. winds up at 5 p.m. Then comes the basketball game.

North Texans Win A Chance For Bowl Bid

Eagles of North Texas State College twisted the tail of the East Texas State Lions until it hurt in their annual gridiron battle today. The final score in a mild surprise was North Texas 47, East Texas 7.

The victory not only gave North Texas the championship in the post-war renewal of the Lone Star Conference, but earned the Lions a bid to the Optmist Bowl game in Houston next December 21.

Long runs featured the game and kept a home-coming crowd of nine thousand entranced. North Texas actually sewed up the game in the first period, with two touchdowns. They added three in the second and two more in the third.

The Daily Herald's 1946 All-District Ten six-man football team is unique for two reasons. First, every player who rated a position on the first team was a unanimous choice—the six persons who participated in the poll all voted for the same men. Second, the varsity's sextet features five backs, only one lineman. However, the men who cast ballots for the mythical team were of the opinion the abbreviated

New Paving Is All Completed

Last of the pavement on a 16block project was shot Friday evening and traffic was opened on all the streets Saturday.

Workers toiled after dark to omplete the topping. Largest single stretch is on Runnels from Eleventh Place to 18th, and other sections are on E. 15th, E 16th, on Eleventh Place and Runnels completing the square around high school, and a block on W 10th between Scurry and Gregg. When city commissioners meet Wednesday (the commission will convene Tuesday and adjourn until 3:30 p.m. Wednesday), one of the matters up for consideration will be the acceptance of the pavement in order that payments now in escrow may be transferred to the general fund. The total is approximately $30,000.

Here, there and everywhere, Hudson style and stamina are making new conquests-taking thousands of hearts

This preference for the new Hudson is phenomenal, even in a year when car demand is far above normal. You ought to know the reasons for it.

Women's hearts-men's, too-have been captured by the smartness of new exterior styling, and the luxury of new interiors upholstered in a leather-fabric combination found in only one other 1946 car (one of the highest priced).

Present Hudson owners-and thousands of "habit buyers" of other makes as well-also know what a mountain of evidence Hudson piled up during the war years for smooth performance, reliability, endurance and economy.

There's another reason . . . the splendid Protective Service offered by 3,000 authorized Hudson dealers from coast to coast-with expert mechanics, modern equipment and genuine Hudson parts.

We are here to serve you-promptly, courteously, at moderate cost. Visit us today. You will find this Hudson organization, too, is "the perfect team"-backing fine cars with expert service, for your satisfaction.

C-C Endorsement On Subscription Deal Is Denied

Reports that representatives of service publication were soliciting subscriptions with "endorsement of the chamber of commerce" Friday brought a denial from chamber authorities that any endorsement had been given. The agents were given a letter, upon a check of credentials, to the effect they were representing the publication, Service News, but the "letter specifically stated that it did not constitute an endorsement or recommendation," said Joe Pickle, chamber president.

"We have received reports that solicitors have claimed chamber endorsement. This is not correct. The chamber has given no endorsement. Moreover, we also have received reports of rudeness, something we certainly cannot countenance."

The president said that arrangements had been perfected to clear all veterans' matters with heads of local service organizations in the future.

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouple at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate (formerly called Barcel Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juics to fill the bottle. Then take twe tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't the simple, easy way to lose the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

SANTA WILL HAVE TO KEEP CLEAN

NEWARK, N.J., Nov. 23. (P)-The 1946 Santa Claus received his orders today. He must:

Pass a Wasserman-test, a skin test and a chest X-ray; wear white gloves at all times and avoid the temptation to use them to "wipe his nose;" keep his beard dry and free of tobacco stains and head lice: keep his face, hands and clothing clean; meet the same standards demanded of a food handler. Santa Claus last year had the option of submitting to the physical examination. It's obligatory this time. In fact, said Health Officer Charles V. Craster, there will be daily checks by city health department inspectors.

munity has much for which to be thankful. It is true that conditions are not as flush at the moment as in some other parts, yet to assume a defeatist attitude in the face of this would be, in a sense, ungrateful of the fact that things have been clicking along at break-neck tempo for the past four and a half years. During that period of time, the extent of merchandising possibilities were limited only by the ability to get merchandise. In many cases, this is still the case.

During the year, however, we have been through a major drouth. It is inevitable that our community, with its economy still leaning heavily upon agri-

Now that we are beginning to discover that the culture, should feel the effects of this. Had there been a big crop and big prices, the amount of buying power here would have staggered local immaginations.

But it did not turn out that way. Instead, there may be slackening of business activity to some extent, but it will have the benefit of impressing merchandisers and others with the fact that the time is at hand to hustle for business. This means that service and courtesy must be stressed even more than in the pre-war days. It means that the person or firm that gets ahead must be aggressive, must ex-

Greatest Of These--The Beginners

By FRANK GRIMES Herald Special Writer

Dr. Enrico Fermi, who fled from Mussolini's Italy in 1938 because fascism put a chain on men's minds, is one of the great scientists of all time. Scientists say that he more than any single individual made the Atomic Age possible. He won the Nobel prize in physics, played an indispensable part in the research and experimentation into nuclear energy, and as aforesaid masterminded the atomic

Today at 45, what do you suppose Dr. Fermi is doing? The New York Herald Tribune set reporter to find out. He found the scientist "who usually thinks like Einstein" teaching a beginners' class in elementary physics at the University of Chicago. And in this day of so many complaints about "teacher loads" it is interesting to note that Dr. Fermi's class numbers 192 boys and girls, most of them 16 and 17 years old, and only a smidgen of veterans.

This man who might be teaching teachers, or addressing classes made up of the world's great physcists and chemists, deliberately chose instead to teach youngsters in a subject that, to him, offers no intellectual stimulus at all, since he knews it as well as he knows the back of his own hand. His reason? The Herald-Tribune quotes him:

"I am convinced that one has to work with people to give them a reasonably good foundation and to impress upon them the need for taking these elementary courses seriously. It is only proper that schools place some emphasis on these courses, and one way of doing so is to persuade the older and better known members of the faculty to give the

Dr. Fermi told the Herald-Tribune reporter that he is "having the time of his life" with his young students. His greatest difficulty is not taking too much for granted from them. He often has to revise his remarks and his formulas so as to be comprehensible to his youngsters, and this he finds stimulating rather than boring. In watching them grow and expand and catch on, he gets his greatest thrill.

Which isn't surprising, after all; for greatness lies close to simplicity, and contact with the mass Broadway-Jack O'Brian mind of mankind can be both enlightening and inspiring. What was it a great Teacher once said about )

That Teacher, too, had an atomic effect on the human species. His method of instruction was simplicity, directness and guilelessness. Most of the wise men and scholars of His day ignored Him or denounced Him, but the people heard and heeded. We imagine the great Dr. Fermi does indeed enjoy contact with the budding minds of the 192 teen-age pupils. There is a great joy and satisfaction in teaching others to think for themselves, in seeing their latent abilities unfold, in charting the progress of their emergence from ignorance into light. One has to have this feeling to be a good teacher,
