Shrub-Care is Garden Club Theme

"Continuous Bloom in the Shrub Border" was the subject discussed by Mrs. O. H. Culpepper for members of the Hereford Garden Club at the meeting held Friday afternoon in the club rooms.

Stressing the fact that now is the time to give shrubs special attention and to prepare soils for fall planting, Mrs. Culpepper said that now is also the time to prepare border mulches and read a list of practical shrubs, giving the probable time of blooming for each listed shrub.

Mrs. F. G. Collier told of "The Summer Care of Shrubs" advocating the practice of checking on the depth of moisture when watering is completed, pointing out that the moisture should reach all roots. She suggested in periods of extreme heat, such as has been prevailing for the past several weeks, that a mulch of lawn clippings be placed around the shrub to hold the moisture.

Mrs. J. P. Slaton gave timely tips on watering chrysanthemums making the statement that "The chrysanthemum is the pig of the garden and will eat all the fertilizer they can get." She recommended putting well matured manure around chrysanthemum plants now.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. W. C. Hromas and Mrs. Jim Lipscomb who used gladiolus in decorations stressing line arrangements in varied colors.

Members attending the meeting were Mesdames D. H. Alexander, Lyle Blanton, Homer Brumley, O. L. Clink, F. G. Collier, C. C. Cox, O. H. Culpepper, W. S. Fluit, E. E. Fridley, N. E. Gass, E. W. Harrison, O. G. Hill, W. C. Hromas, John Jacobsen Jr., Jim Lipscomb, A. L. Manjeot, N. E. Milburn, Lan Shore, J. P. Slaton, E. Ramey, A. O. Thompson, Robert Wagoner, H. V. Williamson and Miss Sadie Lee Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Rosson and daughter Jo Anne of Kerrville who have been looking after business interests here for the past month left Tuesday for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hastings, Mrs. C. P. Cockrell, Mrs. E. W. Harrison and Mrs. G. A. F. Parker went to Plainview Sunday afternoon to attend funeral services held there for Roy Stocking, former Hereford resident.

Morning Party

An informal morning party entertained members of the Cotterie Club Friday with Mrs. Knox Kinard as hostess.

Gladiolus and zinnias in coral and white were combined decorations for the party. Special guests included Miss Aline Walker, sister of Mrs. Kinard who has been spending the summer here, and Mrs. R. R. Willis. Mrs. Jas. W. Witherspoon played high in contact games for the defense stamp award.

Members attending were Mesdames F. L. Lucas, Grant Fuller, Jas. W. Witherspoon, Howard Gault, C. F. Moore, Lee Benefield and the hostess.

Katherine Hicks of Little Rock, Ark., has returned from Garden City, Kans., where she visited her grandmother, Mrs. W. E. Hicks. She has been spending the summer here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beyer.

Dee Owen and son Alton Halle Owen of Duncan, Okla., visited his sisters, Mrs. Reber Howton, Mrs. Jack Roberson and Mrs. J. B. Harlin and other relatives here last week. Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Keester are vacationing in the mountains of New Mexico this week.

Relatives who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perrin and Jim Perrin and other relatives left Friday for their respective homes. They included their mother, Mrs. Henrietta Perrin and two sisters, Mrs. Ollie Freeman and Mrs. Irene Ballard of Haskell and another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barton of Wichita Falls.

Richard Baker who has spent the past two years in Ireland with the Lockheed Aircraft Company, and his mother, Mrs. Omar Baker of Sunday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mont Baker Saturday. He is being transferred from the Aircraft plant in Ireland to the Lockheed plant in Los Angeles, Calif.

Carl Oldham who is employed with the Santa Fe Railroad, was home for the past weekend visiting his family. He has been working in Oklahoma, Kansas and parts of Texas for the past six months and has recently been transferred to Amarillo.

There is much truth in this old adage.

Suppose you should inherit $5,000.00 today. Where will that money be seven years from now?

Statistics show that if you are like nine out of ten people who inherit money the $5,000.00 will be ENTIRELY GONE in seven years.

THIS WEEK... AT THE USO

Puzzle—Who brought in the delicious cake on Saturday night, Aug. 5? The men enjoyed it immensely and we hope to learn the name of the donor someday so that we can thank her.

Monday night we had a short Quiz contest followed by a skating party. We didn't discover any geniuses but several of the men were richer by a few cents, at the end of the contest. Katherine Davis won the quarter by reciting the Preamble to the Constitution.

Private Buck, who has charge of the day room at Camp, has suggested that the USO send out a group of girls together with an older person to the day room one or two nights a week. They could go out on the 7 o'clock bus and back on the 10. There are some men who never do come to town who would appreciate a little femininity in the day room. If any one is interested in such a plan will you please talk it over with Mrs. Olson. Wednesday night would probably be the night chosen for this activity.

Next Monday night there will be a USO Bingo and Watermelon party at the Conaway home. There will be the usual Bingo prizes and a real treat is in store. We must know approximately how many will be there so that we can buy plenty of watermelons so sign up with Pvt. Buck at the day room or with Mrs. Olson at the USO before Sat. night.

We received letters and cards this week from S-Sgt. Hanna, Cpl. Ross Ator, and Sgt. Phillip Mack. Phillip is on furlough and the card was a picture of a lighthouse on the rock bound coast of Portland, Me. He intimated that he was enjoying himself.

Agnes Albracht got a real thrill the other night when she received a long distance call from Grenada, Miss. She talked to six of the boys about 3 minutes each and they all wished they were back in good old Hereford.

District Tire Panel In Emergency Job

In an effort to make fair distribution of the greatly reduced quota of large truck tires for the Lubbock District of the Office of Price Administration, an emergency truck tire panel is meeting in Lubbock each week Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday to pass on applications sent in from Local Boards.

Members of this special panel are from War Price and Rationing Boards throughout the District. These Board members who have volunteered to help in this emergency plan will serve in rotation, according to Ely Fonville, District OPA Rationing Executive.

At the first meeting of the tire panel, board members came from Cochran, Garza, Hockley, Lynn and Lubbock Counties to help in issuing tires to the most essential truck and bus operators. At the second meeting, representatives came from Local Boards in Mitchell, Garza, Hockley, Lubbock, Winkler and Motley Counties.

These Board Members who make up the revolving emergency truck tire panel will check applications forwarded from Local Boards and will issue all certificates for truck tires 8.25 and larger. "All Boards are urged to send us the names of volunteers who are willing to help in this important work," Fonville stated.

News of the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District

More interest is being shown in irrigated legume grass pastures in Deaf Smith County. Cecil Gunter and C. R. Hughes plan to plant pastures the last of August or first of September. Since it is difficult to obtain the grass seed farmers and ranchers interested in irrigated pastures should be making special effort to secure the seed.

Tomorrow is Soil Conservation Day! Governor Coke R. Stevenson has proclaimed August 18 as Soil Conservation Day in Texas.

On this day Deaf Smith County farmers and ranchers should take inventory of the good results achieved by soil and moisture conservation. In Deaf Smith County 122 farmers and 22 ranchmen are receiving assistance from the Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District. These 144 cooperators are practicing soil conservation methods on 223,028 acres of land. Many other farmers and ranchmen are practicing measures to curtail water and wind erosion.

The Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District Supervisors—W. M. Stewart, T. W. Roberson, Phillip Miller, Bert Kinsey and Gus E. Thiele—urge all county farmers and ranchers to emphasize the need of soil conservation for Deaf Smith County. Conservation Day should be a good time to make special plans for improving and protecting our soil for the future.

R. R. Lindsey, Bruce Burney, G. H. Parker, Cecil Gunter, Carl Wimberly and W. H. Johnson received Deaf Smith County Wind Erosion District assistance this week in improved methods of irrigation and water application.

Mrs. Clark Lane and daughter Betty of Morehead, Ky., are guests in the home of Mrs. A. T. Frye at Dawn.

HEREFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Report of Post-War Planning . . . to the People of Hereford and Deaf Smith County

CITIZENS:

Your Hereford Chamber of Commerce has the honor and privilege to submit the following report on post-war planning as gathered from letters, questionnaires and recent Chamber of Commerce "What To Do and How to Do It" contest. In submitting this report the Chamber of Commerce recognizes the fact that it cannot do the work necessary for community progress without having a well-informed citizenship as well as local civic clubs and other organizations in any post-war activities.

This study is concerned only with the area in and around Hereford and Deaf Smith County. This municipality is geographically located in a natural center which has attracted the attention of the entire nation to its possibilities for future development in agriculture and industry.

Hereford and Deaf Smith County are located in the very heart of a natural mineral rich soils terrace which is approximately 50 miles in diameter and it is within this diameter where we find the soils and other elements which have already given Hereford its remarkable reputation for excellent health among its people.

Within this radius we find more acres of those wonderful soils than we find in a similar circle centered any other place on the plains. Our soils are rich in calcium, phosphorus and other necessary elements for the building of healthy, strong bodies.

Our shallow water area is considered the largest, finest and purest of all underground water resources in America, and with the end of the war when additional irrigation equipment, pumps, etc., are available—instead of 60,000 acres under irrigation—there will be available 150,000 acres producing diversified crops. Climate conditions throughout the greater part of the year are excellent—for health and the growing of all commercial crops.

In order to carry out the original intent of this report—to determine the post-war work pile—the Chamber of Commerce has had to make certain assumptions from our survey as follows:

1. That the future development of Hereford and Deaf Smith County will depend a great deal upon its civic improvement development, i. e. the trend will continue to be residential increase as well as smaller farms and more of them.
2. That the general characteristics of the population will remain similar to that of the present i. e. the population will contain a large percentage of young and middle age people who desire the same civic improvements as other areas of less opportunities.

3. That the district is suitable for the development of large industries and that the general policy of the district will be favorable to such development.

4. That there will be a demand for better recreational opportunities, improvement of parks, ample playgrounds, picnic areas, sanitary improvements, street improvements and others which will be listed later in this report.

5. That the tendency will be to increase dairy production, diversified farming and the growing of commercial vegetable crops on a large scale and an increased production of high grade beef.

6. That the farmers will demand better farm-to-market roads and maintenance, as well as state highways.

7. That the businessmen should make every effort to join together in a spirit of closer cooperation and in addition be willing to give a part of their time to assist and promote the future welfare of our city and community.

8. That the Hereford Independent School District be enlarged, buildings improved and expanded to meet the need of the city and community which it now serves.

9. That the County Government and the City Government cooperate in every way possible to promote such improvements desired.

10. That Taxes be increased if necessary to carry out such necessary improvements deemed essential throughout the city and county.

The assumptions are fully supported by letters, meetings, questionnaires and expressions from individuals and organizations. The following specific problems are here presented separately with suggested possible procedure.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS

There comes a time in the life of each municipality when civic improvements must be anticipated and provided for. Unless property is secured and the rights of way obtained while available at a reasonable cost, the growth and systematic development of the area will be slow and expensive. Any municipality which fails to recognize the rights of its citizens to live in pleasant surroundings and with adequate recreational facilities will just become another main street. There is a moral obligation to recognize many improvement facts, and to preserve the unique natural advantages of the district.

Appearance Laws Rewrite or perfect laws and ordinances dealing with "Appearance" of main thoroughfares preventing unsightly business establishments on same. Remove bulletin boards and signs along highway 60 and 51 in city limits.	City	A stop and go electric signal system should be installed at Second and Main; Third and Main; Fourth and Main; Fifth and Main. Also at intersection of Highways 60 and 51 southwest. At intersection of Harrison Highway and 51 at Borden Corner. At intersection of east Third Street and Highway 60	State, City and County

It is suggested that suitable landing strips in length and width running parallel with pavement on Highway 60 or 51, within a reasonable short distance from city, would make an ideal location for emergency landings. Schools

A recent map release by NEA Service "BOOM-TOWN, U. S. A.: After the War" shows probable post-war population trends in 137 metropolitan areas. Hereford and Deaf Smith County are located in the heart of the section in the Panhandle of Texas, where a probable trend of population can be expected.

It is suggested that a broad school building program might be easily financed if the Independent School District were enlarged to take in the large territory which is already served by Hereford Schools. It is pointed out that class rooms are overcrowded at Ward School Building—so much that a child can receive almost no individual attention.

Project: Ward School. Erection of more buildings or add wings to present buildings to provide additional class rooms, etc. Enlarge cafeteria facilities. Provide band quarters. Enlarge curriculum study to include Civic Pride. Children of today are Hereford citizens of tomorrow. Hereford Independent School District

High School
Additional improvements to provide quarters for the following: Home Economics. Band quarters. Hereford Independent School District

Streets
It is suggested that building to meet the acute housing situation and need might be remedied if more of the outlying streets of the town were given a topping of caliche or blacktop, as some of the streets, which were recently finished.

Project: Re-letter and replenish street markers on all streets and avenues plainly. Correct and assign numbers to all resident and business houses. City and Privately

Safety Pedestrian Lanes
At all school intersections. Each block on Main Street.

Transportation

Transportation is sorely in need of transportation facilities to the south and east.

Project: Establish a Bus Route south and east to include Dimmitt, Tulla, Plainview and other points south and east. Privately

Zoning
Stringent zoning regulations maintain property values. City

All of the above mentioned projects are the outcome of surveys made by your local Chamber of Commerce through meetings, letters, questionnaires, individuals and organizations. We give the people of Hereford area this report so that every one will know what is generally thought and talked by its citizens, in doing so we hope that everyone will give some of these matters deep consideration and that a part of this program will materialize.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY DISTRICT
The financial condition of the district is excellent. It is believed that the total bonded indebtedness of both the City and County does not exceed one-half of one percent of the actual value of the land and improvements within the district.

(less than one-tenth of 1 percent)

City Indebtedness (Net)	158,500.00
Percentage of indebtedness against city land value	1.6%

CONCLUSIONS:
FIRST—The first and most important conclusion is, "That after the war that Hereford will provide and have sufficient employment for all of our returning soldiers and for our permanent residents through a period of two to five years."
SECOND—That this employment can be accomplished with the promotion of many of the needed public improvements.

THIRD—That Hereford is a good place to live the year through and that business could be increased with individual investment, such as Hotels, Auto and Motor Courts, Housing Projects, Nutrition establishments and other needed enterprises.

FOURTH—That the district should be made attractive to all classes of residents by better than average schools, recreational advantages for children and young people, public parks planned, and maintained, fountains, swimming pools, wading pools, and by encouraging planting of more trees and shrubbery in an attractive way.

FIFTH—That an increase in taxes are not necessary to obtain many of the improvements needed, but should be increased if necessary to obtain the kind of town and community in which we want to live.

SIXTH—That our financial structure is such that a great many of the proposed projects can be planned and carried through as post-war works pile and that a very large majority of our citizenship will approve a good and well-planned program.

Your Chamber of Commerce recommends that a committee be appointed by City, County and other organizations to make a study of the following: Civic improvements; schools and recreational areas for children and young people; Parks and plazas; landscaping and planting of trees and shrubbery, city sanitary clean-up, and housing.

Respectfully,
HEREFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
By H. A. CLOSE, President

COMMUNITY STEWARDSHIP

When Johnny comes marching home again—will he settle down to a job or business and become a productive citizen of Hereford and Deaf Smith County or will he look over the old home town, and move on to a more progressive community? That is the immediate post-war problem of Hereford and Deaf Smith County, because if Johnny—in large numbers—decides that this community is "not for him," the community will be the loser; and in the long run businesses ranging from farming to retail trade and all civic, educational and religious institutions of the community will suffer by the loss of a whole productive generation.

The answer to the problem is planning NOW for jobs and a better community to which Johnny may return. The problem of the civilian in Hereford and Deaf Smith County is one of stewardship—we are holding a trust for the men who are fighting our battles; and we have faltered in our trust if we buy our bonds, pay our taxes, support the Red Cross—and think we have done our duty for now and the future. Ours is a trust, and unless this trust is brought home to the people, and action is taken before the end of the war, we have failed in our stewardship. We will deserve the lot which our community will suffer if our returning servicemen do not return to stay.

Factories, homes, farms, stores—all depend on me for a convenient, continuous, ample supply of electric power. And think what I mean to them! Without me most of the factories doing essential war work in this region would have to stop operating. As for your home as well as countless others—can you imagine them without electric lights and appliances? Farms have been depending on me more and more since so many of the boys went into service. On my

Even though I'm helping you win the war in the factories, I have always been right on hand when you wanted me anywhere else. Electric power in our territory has never been rationed, has never been too little or too late.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church in Plainview Sunday afternoon. Interment was in a Lubbock cemetery.

Besides his wife he leaves two children, Mrs. H. E. Gipson of Lubbock and Jerome T. Stocking of Amarillo. A brother, Dr. F. F. Stocking of Milica, Minn., and six half brothers and sisters.

According to the report of one law enforcement officer, the tunnel had already been dug to a length of 140 feet and was nearly ready to come out, outside the camp wires and somewhere near the road. This tunnel had been equipped with electric lights, and a systematic engineering record was being kept on progress of the work.

NORVAL JONES and TRUDY KOCKENLOCKER (or maybe you know them better as Eddie Bracken and Betty Hutton) but anyway you will remember them long in roles they created in "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek," a comedy show with an entirely new angle. It's uproarious and it has that thread of pathos which weaves into all great comedy. "The Miracle," soon to the Star Theatre next week-end.

The question of what to do with the dirt from the tunnel was solved by the Italians by piling it on tennis and volleyball courts and using it to terrace their gardens. The fact that the dirt was red caliche and entirely different in appearance from the darker topsoil did not at first cause any suspicion; but discovery of the tunnel and succeeding escape breaks have revealed other details of the systematic escape plans of the prisoners.

Prisoners Had Maps
According to the report here, detailed maps of this territory—handdrawn with colored ink—were found in the prisoner's quarters; and considerable sums of money, some of it in American currency, were also found there; although prisoners are not supposed to have money.

Though a few of the escaped men speak some French, they do not speak English or German. They are all believed to have been wearing khaki or blue denims marked PW on the back.
