Mrs. Santa Claus (Lanette Leasure) has already received many requests from local children and the list will get longer as the special holiday approaches. Mr. and Mrs. Claus will make a personal appearance at the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony scheduled at 6:30 p.m. Monday on the south lawn of the courthouse. The event, which is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division, will include decorating the Christmas tree and will feature soloist Gary Morgan.

Soviets planning buildup

By ALISON SMALE
Associated Press Writer

MOSCOW (AP) — President Yuri V. Andropov says the Soviet Union will enlarge its nuclear arsenal at home, in eastern Europe and at sea in response to NATO'S deployment of new U.S. missiles in Western Europe.

Most Western leaders said Andropov's statement, carried Thursday by the official Soviet news agency Tass, was little more than a confirmation of long-standing Soviet plans.

However, it was the first time Andropov publicly had disclosed new plans to bolster Soviet maritime nuclear forces.

Navy sources in Washington have said several Soviet submarines armed with nuclear weapons are assigned to positions several hundred miles off the east and west U.S. coasts.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization plans to deploy 572 new medium-range U.S. cruise and Pershing 2 nuclear missiles in five Western European countries starting next month. Parts of some of the missiles already have arrived in Britain and West Germany.

Andropov indicated that, through an increased sea arsenal, he wanted to keep the direct threat to American soil at the same level as that posed by Western weapons to Soviet territory.

"Since by deploying its missiles in Europe the United States increases the nuclear threat to the Soviet Union, the corresponding Soviet systems will be deployed with due account for this circumstance in ocean areas and seas," he said.

Of land, sea nuclear arsenals in response to NATO deployment

The Soviet Union on Wednesday broke off negotiations in Geneva on limiting medium-range nuclear missiles.

In West Germany and Britain, government spokesmen said Andropov's statement was not a surprise.

"It does not meet our hopes, but also does not contradict our expectations," said West German spokesman Peter Boenisch.

The Soviet short-range missiles "have been ready for deployment for some time. The Soviet Union would probably have wanted to deploy them in Eastern Europe in any case," the British Foreign Office said.

But Prime Minister Andreas Papandreou of Greece, who is NATO's leading critic of new missile deployment, said the United States misestimated the Kremlin reaction.

"I warned that the Soviet response would be to increase its nuclear weapons in Europe, leave the talks and possibly take additional measures," Papandreou said during a visit to Brussels, Belgium.

The West contends its new deployment is needed to counter Soviet SS-20s aimed at Western Europe.

Andropov has not been seen in public since Aug. 18. His statement was read in full on the main Soviet television evening news. But as has been customary since he came to power a year ago, no pictures of Andropov were shown.

He said the Soviet Union was ending a moratorium on deploying new SS-20s in Soviet Europe and accelerating preparations for short-range nuclear missiles in East Germany and Czechoslovakia.

"It goes without saying that other measures, too, will be taken to ensure the security of the U.S.S.R." and its allies," Andropov added without elaboration.

PLO mutineers, loyalists agree

By ROBERT H. REID
Associated Press Writer

TRIPOLI, Lebanon (AP) — PLO mutineers and loyalists reached agreement today on a plan to end their three-week-old battle and evacuate both forces from the Tripoli area within two weeks, the foreign ministers of Saudi Arabia and Syria announced.

There was no immediate confirmation by PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat or his opponents of the announcement, which came shortly after loyalists and Syrian-backed guerilla mutineers clashed with mortars, rocket-propelled grenades and machineguns in this northern Lebanese port.

The agreement was announced at a joint news conference in Damascus by Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Saud al-Faisal and his Syrian counterpart, Abdul-Halim Khaddam.

The accord, read to reporters by Khaddam, calls for a permanent cease-fire in and around Tripoli, a negotiated settlement of the PLO's internal differences and departure of all Palestinian fighters from the Tripoli area.

Prior to the announcement, there was a 90-minute exchange of mortar and machine gun fire between the rival forces in Tripoli which

On plan which would end three-week-old battle, evacuate forces

Arafat's aides described as "probing attacks" by the rebels to test loyalist defenses in the city.

Shells fell in a seaside shantytown and the Azmi commercial district during the exchanges. One or two shells landed in the city center and the harbor.

Arafat had been reported ready to bow to the rebels' demands and leave his last Middle East stronghold to avert a bloodbath, provided he got sufficient guarantees for the safety of loyalists and local militia allies he would leave behind.

In Beirut, 50 miles south of Tripoli, warplanes flew low runs over the city early today as Lebanese troops and Shiite Moslem militiamen battled near the Marine base at the international airport.

Marine spokesman Maj. Robert Jordan said three shots were fired into the Marine base but caused no casualties. He said the shooting stopped when Marines fired a few rounds in return.

Asked whether the incoming rounds were deliberately aimed at the Marines, Jordan said: "They were probably fired in their direction."

Arafat gained the release Thursday by Israel of 4,600 Palestinian and Lebanese prisoners in exchange for six Israeli soldiers captured by PLO fighters in September 1982. But his aides said the exchange was not directly linked to Arafat's predicament in Tripoli.

Thursday also was the first time PLO rebel delegates met with the Saudi mediators in Syria.

Hundreds of people in Tripoli and in two nearby refugee camps have been killed in weeks of warfare between Arafat's forces and the rebels who want to oust him from leadership of the PLO.

Meanwhile, it was announced that President Amin Gemayel will hold talks with President Reagan in Washington on Dec. 1, two days after Reagan's scheduled meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir and Defense Minister Moshe Arens.

Rebels attacked by government

By ANNIE CABRERA

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — Government troops are trying to dislodge leftist rebels from strongholds in eastern El Salvador after one U.S.-trained unit killed 25 guerrillas in a surprise attack.

Military sources in the city of San Vicente, 36 miles east of San Salvador, said Thursday the U.S.-backed government has begun a campaign to oust leftist guerrillas from areas they occupy in the northern part of San Vicente province.

The sources, requesting anonymity for security reasons, said the campaign would last three days.

On Thursday, the military said it staged a surprise attack on guerrillas with troops trained in counterinsurgency by the United States. The heaviest fighting was in the towns of Barilla Negra and Cerro Bahilonia, on the outskirts of Corinto.

It said the attack occurred Wednesday and "high commanders of the People's Revolutionary Army" were among the 50 wounded in fighting 127 miles northeast of the capital.

In another Central American development, Nicaraguan Interior Minister Tomas Borge Martinez said Thursday his country would be willing to get rid of its Cuban military advisers if Honduras and El Salvador get rid of their U.S. military advisers.

The Sandinista government says it already has sent home 1,200 Cuban advisers, mostly civilians. The United States has 55 military advisers in El Salvador and about 200 in Honduras.

Withdrawal of all foreign troops in Central America is a cornerstone of a proposed regional peace treaty drafted by the Contadora group — Venezuela, Mexico, Panama and Colombia.

The offer to reduce the number of Cubans in Nicaragua is one of several recent moves by the Sandinistas which appear to be intended to show an interest in the Contadora proposals.

The Sandinista government said Thursday that a helicopter from Honduras strafed three Nicaraguan border villages, which it said proves neighboring Honduras "openly supports" anti-Sandinista rebels based in its territory.

The Nicaraguan Foreign Ministry sent a protest note to Honduras saying an olive-green helicopter sprayed the villages with machine-gun fire for 40 minutes and returned to Honduras after the attack.

The note did not say how many casualties there were in the helicopter attack, which Nicaragua said took place Tuesday. Nicaragua accuses Honduras of harboring rebels behind its borders.

In another development, the Washington Post, quoting congressional sources, said today that the CIA has concluded U.S.-backed guerrillas in Nicaragua lack the punch to topple the Sandinista government.

The newspaper also said there are indications the Reagan administration is beginning to give some thought to how the war by the anti-government counter-revolutionaries can be wound down.

The CIA says the rebels lack the military capability, financing, training and political support to overthrow the powerful and well-entrenched Sandinista government, the newspaper said.

Breeding, 89, still builds

Working on house now

By KIM THOGMARTIN
Staff Writer

"I need the exercise worse than I need the money." Baty Bryant Breeding, who will be 90 years old on Dec. 12, talks about why he goes to work every day. He is building a house to sell, just a few blocks from the home he built for his family at 511 Avenue K in 1955.

It will take him about a year to complete the structure. So far he has built it by himself except for help with the rafters from his son, Glenn. Now a post office employee, Glenn learned the construction business from his father, who has worked primarily as a bricklayer for the past 60 years.

The elder Breeding does not look his 89 years and he apparently does not feel it either. "I can still lift a 20 foot long 2-by-8, and carry a 70-pound bag of mortar," Breeding said it more with a sense of gratitude than to brag.

Breeding has not always labored for a living. After studying two years at North Texas State Teachers School in Denton he taught school for three years. "I taught country school, the first seven grades, and I mostly did not like it," he said with a grin. "It was too confining, I wanted to be outside." His very first job was out doors, picking cotton for 15 cents a day at the ripe old age of three.

His daughter, Margaret Schultz, who lives with him now, paid tribute to her father in a book of poetry written a few years ago. "Dad, a distinguished Texan and outstanding man of our clan," the poem begins.

"A sharp hobbyist, books reading; A wise optimist, words writing."

On the facing page are quotes from various members of the Breeding family. "The least that we can do is to be nice to people," says the one over his name.

He has outlived two wives, both of whom he met in Amarillo. Lois Margaret, the mother of his three children, died in 1951. His second wife Doma died in June.

In addition to working outdoors five hours a day he rides a bicycle occasionally. "I don't take vitamins, I get all I need from a healthy diet." He raises a garden every year and enjoys the harvest from his fruit trees.

Breeding has never planned to retire, he says working is his greatest pleasure. At home he keeps busy crocheting and working puzzles. His mother taught him to crochet when he was a child and the home is filled with his colorful afghans.

A direct descendant of the Daniel Boone family, Breeding is proud of his family history and the thick volumes of genealogy research compiled by a niece in 1957. "I would like to live to be 106," he said. "Then I would be a man of three centuries." Born in 1893, he still

Reagan keeping response low key

Wants Soviets back at table

By MAUREEN SANTINI
Associated Press Writer

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — President Reagan, dismayed by Moscow's announcement of retaliation against the United States for deploying new missiles in western Europe, is keeping his response low key in an apparent effort to prod the Soviets back to the bargaining table.

The Soviet Union has been threatening since March to respond to the new U.S. missiles in Europe with new deployments of its own close to the United States, but the questions of where and how remained unanswered.

On Thursday, Soviet President Yuri V. Andropov announced that the Soviet Union will increase its nuclear weapons at sea, at home and in Eastern Europe.

Reagan's muted reaction to the decision was made in a written statement issued soon after the Soviet news agency Tass relayed Andropov's statement.

"We can only be dismayed at this Soviet statement," said Reagan, who is spending a five-day vacation out of public view at his ranch in the Santa Ynez Mountains.

He said Andropov's statement was "at sharp variance with the stated wish of the Soviet Union that an agreement be negotiated" to limit

Rotary announces toy drive

Praising the Christmas Stocking Fund, Operation Good Shepherd and other projects which contribute to the needy at Christmas time, John Walch of the Hereford Rotary Club has announced a toy campaign begun this year by Rotarians.

Walch, chairman of the Rotary's community service committee, said the other programs supply primarily food, clothing and reconditioned toys. The Rotary club, he claimed, feels it can provide additional joy for some families by distributing new toys.

The club is asking interested donors to gift-wrap the toys and tag them with the names of the items and if they should go specifically to girls or boys. Walch said an age suggestion would also help.

The collection point is at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, 601 W. Park, from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Distribution is planned for Dec. 17.

Arm gets caught in gin

An employee of the Hereford Farmers Gin escaped with only lacerations and contusions after getting his arm caught in the gin this morning.

Hector Maydon Jr., 22, was trying to clean part of the equipment when his arm was squeezed between two rollers. Hereford Volunteer Firemen were summoned but employees at the gin were able to free him before the rescue squad arrived.

A spokesman at Deaf Smith General Hospital said Maydon was "very lucky, that the rollers were about two inches apart." He said the patient will probably be hospitalized a few days for observation.

Prowler spotted Thursday

Hereford Police reported a prowler was spotted in the 400 block of Avenue J Thursday at approximately 8:15 p.m.

Two diamond rings, worth a combined $9,167, were lost by or stolen almost three months ago from Gary Royal, 139 Center. He was in the process of moving here from Great Bend, Kan., when the rings disappeared. Willis told police he might have accidentally thrown the rings away while getting rid of some garbage. He reported the incident earlier this week for insurance purposes.

Several items, including two radiators, a washer and a dryer, were stolen sometime between Nov. 11 and 19 from the 1200 New York storage area belonging to Glenn Willis, 312 Center. While investigating the theft, police officers found some things taken in a previous burglary, including a saddle.

Among recent arrests were four for driving while intoxicated (DWI) and one apiece for driving while license suspended, burglary and assault.

Striking driver arrested

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — The FBI says it has arrested a striking Greyhound bus driver suspected of shooting at a bus and its driver on an east San Antonio street.

The 53-year-old man was being held in the Bexar County Jail after his arrest Thursday, said Bill Dalseg, special agent in charge of the San Antonio FBI office.

Federal authorities planned to file charges against the man today in a federal complaint alleging destruction of an interstate motor vehicle, Dalseg said.

Shots were fired at a Greyhound bus and its driver in San Antonio Wednesday evening, Dalseg said, but the driver was not injured.

The driver told police that two men in a car drove ahead of the bus when it left the downtown station en route to a maintenance garage just after 6 p.m. The driver said that when he neared an underpass on the city's east side, one man in the car shined a spotlight on the bus windshield and moments later a bullet struck the right top side of the windshield.

The driver, whom police did not identify, said he recognized the men as union members who previously had threatened him.

Dump trucks block entrances

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a move that appeared to be designed to foil any Beirut-style bombing, the Secret Service tightened security around the White House during the Thanksgiving holiday by parking seven sand-laden dump trucks at five metal-gate entrances.

White House press secretary Larry Speakes said the move was "not in response to a specific threat," but security also was tightened at the State Department six blocks away, where spokeswoman Anita Stockman said authorities were reacting to "possible bomb threats."

President Reagan and his family were at Reagan's ranch in Santa Barbara, Calif., for a five-day Thanksgiving vacation, ending Sunday.

At the State Department, five entrances were blocked by cars or vans and police cars blocked part of a street that leads to a sixth. Ms. Stockman said "extra security has been taken and will be in effect until we can evaluate this possible or potential threat." The State Department security measures were implemented Wednesday, while the trucks were moved around the White House on Thursday.

Man jailed, children reunited

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — A man sought in Texas since Oct. 29 for allegedly spiriting his two daughters away from their mother has been jailed following an eight-hour standoff with police who feared he might kill his 2½-year-old child.

The girl and her 11-year-old sister were reunited Thursday with their mother in Anaheim and returned to Texas Thursday morning, Sgt. Richard Zschoche said.

James Gordon Clark, 29, of the Dallas suburb of Garland, was booked in Anaheim in Orange County for assault with a deadly weapon, his pickup truck, on a police officer. He was also booked for resisting arrest and failing to yield to a police officer, Sgt. Jack Parra said.

"No one has inquired about him yet" to help post his $50,000 bail, Parra said late Thursday.

Clark was also held on a Texas warrant for investigation of child stealing, Parra said, adding that he believed the California charges would be handled before extradition proceedings would begin.

Children told of Hooper's death

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly a year after the fact, young viewers of "Sesame Street" have been told about the death of "Mr. Hooper," the kindly candy store proprietor on the educational television program.

Will Lee, who played the character since the show's inception in 1969, died last December, halfway through its 14th season. He was 74.

Viewers got the news on the Thanksgiving program because "it's a family day," said Donna Williams of the Public Broadcasting System, distributor of the program. "Parents would be there with their kids to answer questions."

In a four-minute segment, players on the program explained to Big Bird, an animal character, about the death. "Why did it happen?" asked Big Bird, who gets birdseed milkshakes from the store.

"Just because," he was told. A human character, David, said he had taken over the store and would be providing Big Bird's beverages.

Mexico to suffer inflation

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico (AP) — President Miguel de la Madrid says the country will suffer from inflation in 1984, but that price increases next year will not be as drastic as they have been in the past.

"We will continue to adjust prices ... to make them consistent with the inflation that we will still suffer in 1984," de la Madrid said Thursday, speaking to a group of businessmen here.

"But there will no longer be increases as drastic, as abrupt, as those we have had to make during 1983 or during the beginning of my administration in December, 1982."

Mexico has been suffering from runaway inflation that has affected manufacturers and consumers alike. Last year, inflation was 100 percent. This year, inflation is running at an annual rate of about 76 percent.

Small families not a must VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican says parents should not be forced to have small families and suggests they be paid to stay home and raise their children.

In a charter of family rights issued Thursday, the Vatican also urged rich nations not make birth-control programs a condition for aid to poor countries and said parents have the right to supervise their children's sex education.

Archbishop Edouard Gagnon, acting president of the Pontifical Council for the Family, said a special study group worked three years to prepare the document.

It was the first time the Holy See had "addressed itself to the international community with a document of this type," Gagnon said, adding it was not intended to impose the Roman Catholic church's views on anyone.

Baty Breeding, otherwise known as "B.B." does not often sit still, but when he does it is in his favorite chair with one of the afghans he crochets in his spare time. At 89, Mr. Breeding still builds houses "just for the exercise."

Thanksgiving dinner served to cities' senior citizens

Pope John Paul II sent his blessing, volunteers donated food and time and Raul Jimenez Sr., more accustomed to serving Mexican food than Thanksgiving fare, served nearly 500 turkeys to 18,000 senior citizens in Fort Worth and San Antonio.

"The loneliest days for senior citizens are normally the holidays, and it shouldn't be that way," Jimenez said Thursday. "We try to make Thanksgiving a day they'll never forget."

He's been trying for 12 years now. Jimenez' free repast has been an annual tradition ever since the first gathering 11 years ago in Fort Worth, where the food magnate grew up after being born in Dallas during the Depression.

Jimenez, whose growing food company bears his name, said he picked up the tab for the feast because he didn't want senior citizens to be lonely during the holiday.

"It started small and then just grew and grew," he said. "The senior citizens tell me they look forward to it all year. They dance and enjoy themselves and just really have a ball."

Word of the annual Jimenez tradition reached as far as the Vatican, where Pope John Paul II had prepared a certificate of blessing. Archbishop Patrick Flores presented the Jimenez family with the Pope's gift as the event got under way in San Antonio.

"When the archbishop was in Rome the pope asked him what people over here were doing for the poor. The archbishop mentioned our family among several others, so the pope told him he wanted him to make this presentation," Jimenez explained.

Preparation for the dinner for 10,000 in San Antonio called for a shopping list that included 350 turkeys, 200 pounds of giblets, 10,000 packages of cranberry sauce, 1,000 pumpkin pies and 375 whole yams.

"We've had the biggest turnout ever today," said San Antonio coordinator Alice Trevino. "We're not even half way through the day and every chair in the house is filled."

In Dallas, 896 people were served free meals at the Salvation Army. Demand for free meals, which skyrocketed when unemployed workers migrated to Dallas in 1981 and 1982, "has begun to level off with the inflation rate slowing down and the stabilization of the economy," said Carol Frank, director of social services for the agency.

The Fort Worth gathering of 8,000 was moved this year to Billy Bob's, a giant Western honky tonk in the stockyards district.

Jimenez, the son of a neighborhood grocer, shut down production in his Mexican food factory last week and replaced the preparation of tamales and tortilla chips with turkey and mince meat.

He said he doesn't care how much the lapse in production cost him.

"The Good Lord has been so good to me and my family and I want to pay it back," he said. "My main objective is that we get the job done and done right, and it takes shutting down the plant to do that."

Mary Karges, 75, of Fort Worth attended the dinner using a walker. She said her only child lives in Virginia, so there was no reason to fix a big dinner.

Salvadoran death squads denounced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration is escalating its criticism of rightist terrorists in El Salvador, calling them "fascists who serve the communist cause" and threaten to destroy that country's democracy.

The administration has become increasingly concerned over an upsurge in death squad activity in recent months and that sentiment was being underscored today in a speech by the U.S. ambassador to El Salvador, Thomas Pickering, to the American Chamber of Commerce in San Salvador.

A senior U.S. official provided excerpts of the speech on the condition he not be identified.

Pickering's speech, which was cleared by the White House, cites some hopeful signs in El Salvador's political, economic and military development but adds that "terror can undo all the progress that has been made. It can destroy democracy in El Salvador," according to the official.

Pickering, who assumed his duties in El Salvador during the summer, was described by the official as being especially frustrated by the inability of Salvadoran authorities to crack down on the death squads even though the identity of their membership is widely known.

More than 35,000 Salvadorans have been killed during four years of civil war and many are believed to be victims of death squads who operate in hitman style and have killed students, union leaders, university professors and others with philosophies they oppose.

Critics of U.S. policy in El Salvador have accused the administration of not being forceful enough in confronting the death squad problem, contending that efforts by lower level officials to address the issue were thwarted by the White House.

In recent weeks, however, the administration has repeatedly criticized the death squads, and Pickering's speech represents the most outspoken statement to date.

The death squads, which include such groups as the Secret Anti-Communist Army, the White Hand and the Maximiliano Hernandez Martinez Brigade, are believed to be funded by wealthy Salvadoran exiles operating mostly from Miami and Guatemala.

The Reagan administration is considering a series of actions against the Miami-based exiles, including revoking their visas and investigating their financial dealings. One official has even recommended "unleashing the CIA" against the death squads, according to one informant.

One official said about two dozen Salvadorans are believed involved in directing death squad activities. The chief of security for the Salvadoran Constituent Assembly, identified only as Regalado, is regarded here as a prime death squad chief-tain.

Of particular concern to officials has been a recent increase in death threats against union leaders and others who support the Salvadoran government's reform program.

Another official linked the increased death squad activities to the declining fortunes of rightist forces in the Salvadoran Constituent Assembly. The right failed to elect its preferred candidate, Roberto d'Aubuisson, as Salvadoran president a year and a half ago and its representatives in the assembly also have been unable to reverse the land reform program.

To retain his credibility with the Salvadoran oligarchs, d'Aubuisson has been sponsoring a campaign of intimidation, the official said.

"He knows he's got to do something (to please) his benefactors and what you've got is a reliance on fear. He's really a scary guy," the official said.

The provisional president of El Salvador, Alvaro Mijang, is viewed here as a moderate but he lacks the authority to crack down on the terrorist groups, the official said.

"He's trying to do what he can but that doesn't amount to much," he added.

REAGAN

medium range nuclear weapons in Europe.

"While we are dismayed, we are determined to renew our efforts to entirely do away with the land-based intermediate range nuclear missile systems," said the president. "We continue to seek negotiations in good faith."

Reagan was informed of Andropov's statement in a telephone call from his national security adviser, Robert C. McFarlane, according to deputy White House press secretary Marlin Fitzwater.

Andropov said the Soviet Union considers it impossible to continue negotiating with the United States in Geneva because of NATO's decision to deploy U.S. Pershing 2 and cruise missiles in western Europe.

In confining his response to a two-paragraph written statement, Reagan seemed determined to play down Andropov's dramatic statement.

Nor would aides traveling with the president speak more freely about what they see as the long-term implications of Andropov's announcement.

However, it did not appear to mar the president's Thanksgiving holiday. Reagan and his wife, Nancy, entertained several family members at a traditional dinner of turkey with all the trimmings.

The guests included Reagan's brother, Neil, and his wife, Bess; the president's daughters, Patti Davis and Maureen Reagan and Maureen's husband, Dennis Revell.

Before his guests arrived, the president spent some time on what was described as routine paperwork. A persistent rain forced him to cancel his plans to go horseback riding.

A native of Gordonville in Grayson County, Breeding said there are a lot of happy childhood memories. He especially remembers going to the fair in Dallas in 1908 and riding in the first automobile he had ever seen. "At that time, about one-fourth of the vehicles in Dallas were autos," he recalled.

Asked if he is a happy person, he replied contentedly, "I wouldn't change places with anyone I know of." What are his plans for his birthday? "Nothing special," he shrugged, "I will probably just go to work."

Naylor shares travel experiences with guild

Mrs. Carmen Angel and Mrs. Jean Reinauer served as hostesses to members of the Hereford Art Guild Tuesday afternoon at the Community Center.

Following the business meeting, conducted by President Carrie Mae Doak, Mrs.

Lucille Naylor presented a travelogue of her extensive travels through England, Scotland and Wales during the past summer. Joe Williams assisted in the presentation of color slides.

Fourteen members and guests were in attendance.

Shower honors resident

A baby shower was given for Mrs. Richard Schlabs recently in the home of Mrs. Frank Ford.

Special guests included Mrs. Schlabs' mother, Mrs. Gerald Martin; her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Schlabs; and her grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Knabe.

The refreshment table was decorated in yellow and white with a stork theme. The gift table was covered with an antique handmade quilt in pastel colors and held a yellow and white floral centerpiece.

Hostesses for the shower were Cindy Skypala, Karen Martin, Chris Alexander, Belinda Godwin, Trish Chambers, Pam Louder, Emma Lupton, Brenda Yosten, Jana Duggan, and Novelle Solomon.

New Arrivals

Stacy and Debbie Hacker of Nacogdoches are the parents of a daughter, Amber Nicole, born Nov. 10. She weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces.

Grandparents from Hereford are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hacker.

Very few things tend to disappoint more than anticipation.

Cowboys count blessings after 35-17 victory over Cardinals

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer
IRVING, Texas (AP) — Thanksgiving Day has become the Dallas Cowboys' favorite holiday, serving once again as a springboard into the National Football League playoffs.

The Cowboys rolled over the St. Louis Cardinals 35-17 Thursday and counted the following blessings:

—An 11-2 record, their fastest start since 1977.

—A 12-3-1 record on Thanksgiving Day.

—The return of the NFL's worst pass defense from the grave, including a season-high seven sacks of St. Louis quarterback Neil Lomax.

—Tony Dorsett's inspired running which placed him eighth on the all-time list. Dorsett had touchdown runs of 5 and 55 yards, and tallied 102 yards on 17 carries.

—It was Dorsett's 38th 100-yard game. Dallas has won 36 of them.

The Cowboys, who have already clinched a playoff berth, moved a half game

Star golfer Ray Floyd wanted to be a professional baseball player before he turned to golf. He still is a hot baseball fan.

Golfing pro Any Bean had a great background for the game. When he was 15 his father bought a golf course.

ahead of Washington in the torrid National Conference Eastern Division race.

They don't play again for 10 days, traveling to Seattle Dec. 4. Dallas has won 14 of 15 games in its history the game AFTER Thanksgiving.

Dallas Coach Tom Landry, who has developed a hardline attitude toward his players this year, was most pleased.

"The players went about this game in a very businesslike manner, and because they did, I'm going to give them three days off," Landry said. "They've played well the last two games and the break will do them good."

Dallas gave up a 71-yard Lomax to Roy Green touchdown pass in the first period then built a 35-10 lead and coasted.

"We had a good game on defense and that's what we needed," said Landry.

Lomax had a six-yard touchdown pass to Ottis Anderson in the final seconds against a prevent defense as St. Louis dropped to 5-7-1.

Dorsett passed Larry Csonka on the all-time list with 8,153 yards.

Quarterback Danny White had an exceptional outing. He passed 15-yards to Butch Johnson for a touchdown, ran four yards for a score, and connected on 24 of 31 passes for 237 yards.

"We're in control of our own destiny now," said Dorsett. "The last two games we've come out and taken control and that's what we want going into the playoffs."

"It's just executing, simple blocking and tackling. When we do it right, we're as good or better than the rest. When we do it, we're awesome."

St. Louis Coach Jim Hanifan said, "Dorsett does a helluva job. He just pops out of there and goes 55 yards and that's the game."

Asked who he thought would win when Washington and Dallas tangle here Dec. 11, Hanifan said, "It's going to be a whale of a game. Right now I think the Redskins are the best team but I think Dallas has the necessary personnel to cause the Redskins a helluva lot of problems."

Lomax added, "Dallas is always good. They did a lot of things to keep me off balance. I think they have a pretty darn tough defensive team."

White said the short work week favored Dallas over St. Louis.

"We had a simple game plan," he said. "We didn't have time to outthink ourselves."

White's 24 completions gave him 270 for the season, breaking Roger Staubach's club record of 268 in 1979.

Sims sparks Detroit past Steelers in 45-3 drubbing

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — As long as tailback Billy Sims continues to run like a man looking for a five-year contract, Coach Monte Clark feels his Detroit Lions have a reasonable shot at the National Football League playoffs.

"Billy is just playing like Billy Sims played for us a couple years ago," Clark said following the Lions 45-3 drubbing of the Pittsburgh Steelers on Thanksgiving. "It's super. I'm glad to see it, because he's the guy we need down the stretch."

Sims, going over 100 yards for the third successive game, gained 106 on 26 carries and scored two touchdowns as the Lions improved their record to 7-6, one-half game behind the first-place Minnesota Vikings in the NFC's Central Division.

It was the sixth victory in the past eight games for the Lions, playing catchup since stumbling to a 1-4 start this season.

"I don't know where this team has been," Sims said. "I've kind of been looking for it, myself."

The defeat left Pittsburgh 9-4 and narrowed the Steelers' lead to 1½ games over the Cleveland Browns in the AFC Central.

"Detroit played magnificent football today," Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll said. "They beat us in every phase of the game — kicking, blocking, tackling ... everything. Billy Sims is one of the outstanding players in the NFL today."

Noll, who watched as the Lions' defense picked off five Steelers' passes and sacked quarterback Cliff Stoudt twice, called Pittsburgh "a beat-up football team" that needed rest. "The injuries have been piling up on us," he said. "I think I'm going to lobby to outlaw Thursday games on the grounds of player safety."

Stoudt, who had taken every snap this season in the absence of Terry Bradshaw, completed only nine of 25 passes for 83 yards before being lifted for Mark Malone in the fourth quarter.

The Steelers' defense sacked Detroit quarterback Eric Hipple four times, but Hipple still managed to complete 10 of 18 passes for 153 yards and two touchdowns without an interception.

"I think our ability to go down and be able to put on a sustained drive was a key," Hipple said. "This is a good time to be peaking — coming into the stretch — that's for sure."

Pittsburgh running back Franco Harris, pursuing Jim Brown's NFL career rushing record of 12,312 yards, carried the ball only five times, gaining 16 yards. He is 539 shy of the record.

In all, Detroit had 25 first downs to Pittsburgh's 10, gained 328 yards to Pittsburgh's 218 and controlled the ball for 38 minutes, 21 seconds to Pittsburgh's 21:19.

Nebraska, Texas coaches wary; LSU, Memphis St. win Thursday

By HERSCHEL NISSENON
AP Sports Writer

The Orange and Cotton Bowls, which boast the only two unbeaten major-college teams as their Jan. 2 hosts, are hoping to keep egg off their faces Saturday.

Top-rated 11-0 Nebraska, the Orange Bowl's Big Eight representative against fifth-ranked Miami, winds up its regular season at 7-3 Oklahoma, which can tie the Cornhuskers for conference honors. That would cool some of the national championship Orange Bowl talk which has been emanating from southern Florida.

And runnerup Texas, 10-0 but having survived five scares in a row, visits Texas A&M. The Aggies are 5-4-1, but 4-1-1 since inserting freshman Kevin Murray at quarterback, and the one loss in that stretch was by three points to Southern Methodist.

Meanwhile, seventh-ranked Georgia, 8-1-1 and Texas' Cotton Bowl opponent, winds up on the road at 3-7 Georgia Tech.

Naturally, the coaches with something to lose are all wary.

Tom Osborne, Nebraska: "Before the season, many people felt Oklahoma would be the favorite or the second-place team in the conference, and at one point they were even rated second in the nation."

Fred Akers, Texas: "Texas A&M is not only one of our great traditional rivals, but

Stanton girls lose three

Earlier this week, girl basketball teams from Stanton Junior High School dropped three games to Clovis-Gaddis.

The Stanton seventh graders fell 24-15 despite six points apiece by Wendy Connally and Melissa LaFuerde. Cindy Tice also hit for half a dozen tallies as her eighth graders were downed 32-18. Bernice Ross paced the local ninth grade squad with 10 points during a 41-29 defeat.

Stanton girls are to play again in a tournament here Thursday, Dec. 1.

the Aggies are a much improved football team from the beginning of the season. Kevin Murray has given them the extra firepower they needed and their defense has been outstanding all year. Texas A&M has as much talent as anyone in the country."

And Vince Dooley, Georgia: "Georgia Tech has certainly come of age in recent weeks. They've won their last two games and in those games are averaging 40 points. They are now realizing their potential. They always seem to peak when it comes time to play Georgia. We will catch Tech at a time when they are on a roll. They can knock off a bowl-bound team."

In games Thursday night, Memphis State crushed Louisville 45-7 and Louisiana State beat Tulane 20-7.

James "Punkin" Williams rushed for two touchdowns, one a 63-yarder, to lead Memphis State and tailbacks Dalton Hilliard and Garry James each rushed for a third-quarter touchdown to lead LSU in the intra-state rivalry.

In the weekend's only other games involving the Associated Press Top Twenty, sixth-ranked SMU meets Houston in the Mirage Bowl in Tokyo, while No. 13 Alabama played at No. 15 Boston College today. SMU will meet Alabama in the Sun Bowl, while Boston College faces Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl.

In another key game, Tennessee, which meets Maryland in the Florida Citrus Bowl, entertains Vanderbilt.

And, the traditional Army-Navy game was played today in a new setting, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

Nebraska will try to wrap up a third consecutive Big Eight crown and, if they beat Oklahoma, the Cornhuskers will become the first team to go unbeaten and untied three straight years in conference play since Oklahoma's six-year string from 1953-58. The Huskers also own the nation's longest winning streak at 21 games.

"There is not much more to say about Nebraska," says Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer. "Most of it has been said already. They are a great team with superb personnel."

In Texas' 24-21 victory over Baylor a week ago, the Longhorns allowed the losers to pick up a whopping 29 first downs — that and Baylor's 96 offensive plays were the most ever against Texas — and pass for 320 yards.

Writer picks Rams, Raiders to win, favors Tampa Bay over Houston

By BRUCE LOWITT AP Sports Writer

weekend with both Los Angeles teams, the Raiders and Rams, rushing toward the playoffs and the San Diego Chargers heading for oblivion. The Raiders hold a two-game lead in the American Conference's Western Division. It won't shrink. The Rams are tied for first in the National Conference West. They'll still be deadlocked next Sunday night.

The Chargers, conversely, are last in the AFC West. The best they can hope for is to finish at .500. They haven't had a losing season since 1976. They'll have one this year — but they'll put it off for a week.

The New York Giants' defense performed admirably last Sunday — against Philadelphia. The Raiders, whose giveaways allowed Buffalo to catch them briefly last Sunday, won't have to worry about giving anything away this week.

That generally is New York's forte. Take the RAIDERS minus 10 over the GIANTS.

Eric Dickerson ran into Washington's rushing defense last week. It's one of the best. Buffalo's is one of the worst. So the Rams' sensational runner should resume in earnest his pursuit of George Rogers' rookie rushing record. And LA should continue its pursuit of the NFC West title. Take the RAMS minus 3½ over Buffalo.

The Chargers lost last Sunday because a fistful of turnovers allowed their game against St. Louis to get quickly and irretrievably out of hand. Denver was the recipient of early Seattle gifts that led to an upset of the Seahawks. Things should even out this weekend. Take SAN DIEGO minus 2½ over Denver.

In other games (home teams capitalized), take: WASHINGTON minus 15 over Philadelphia CLEVELAND minus 6 over Baltimore MIAMI minus 5½ over Cincinnati San Francisco minus 4 over CHICAGO SEATTLE minus 3½ over Kansas City TAMPA BAY minus 2 over Houston New England plus 2 over N.Y. JETS Minnesota plus 2 over NEW ORLEANS Green Bay plus 2½ over ATLANTA

Four golfing greats to compete in 18-hole, $360,000 'Skins Game'

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — They call it "the Skins Game," this unique meeting of four the greatest players golf has produced — Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Tom Watson.

It comes from a gambling term used in weekend matches common to country clubs and municipal courses all over the country.

A "skin" is a unit, a pre-established unit, maybe $5, maybe $10. The player who wins a hole wins a skin.

In this case, in the 18 holes that will be played Saturday and Sunday, the skins are established at $10,000, $20,000 and $30,000 with a total of $360,000 to be distributed.

"Most people enjoy a good foursome on the weekend. This will be fun to play with my friends for some very good money," said Watson, at 33 the junior of the foursome by 10 years.

Nicklaus is 43, Player 48 and Palmer 54. The premier foursome in golf has accounted for 41 major professional titles — including 14 Masters, 7 United States Opens, 13 British Opens and 7 PGAs. They've won more than 320 tournaments around the world.

This one, however, is not a tournament. The 9- or 18-hole score does not count; only the score on each individual hole.

The prize money is broken down this way: $10,000 for the first six holes, $20,000 for the next six, $30,000 for the last six.

If no player wins a hole, the prize money is carried over to the next hole, with all four players eligible for the enriched prize on that hole. For example, suppose Nicklaus and Watson each make birdie-3 on the first hole, Palmer has a 4 and Player makes bogey-5. Nicklaus and Watson halve the hole. There is no winner. So the second hole is worth $20,000, with all four players eligible.

The sponsors, Trans World International, said no guarantees have been made to the players. It is possible that one or more of the foursome will fail to win a hole, and thus will fail to win a check. It is possible — improbable, but possible—that the entire $360,000 could be riding on the final hole.

"I know these guys very well. I know we are going to be playing as much for pride as for the money involved," Palmer said.

Nine holes will be played Saturday and nine more Sunday.

Enjoying Luncheon

A luncheon was held Saturday during the District 13 VFW Convention for VFW and Auxiliary members. Honored guests at the meal were Sallie Glass, VFW Auxiliary state president, and Andy Stelzer, VFW state commander. A luncheon Sunday concluded convention activities. The next District 13 convention is slated Feb. 18-19 in Dimmitt.

District 13 Convention held

The District 13 VFW Convention was held recently in Hereford with Sallie Glass, VFW Auxiliary state president, and Andy Stelzer, VFW state commander, present.

Also present from outside District 13 were Allan and Brenda Grice of Amarillo; Tommy and Dee Bratton, Pete Guerra an Frances Clark, auxiliary president, all from Abilene; Frances Harrel of Texarkana; Rosemary Stelzer of Post, and D.E. and Merline Livingood of Haskell. A luncheon honoring Ms.

Glass and Stelzer was held Saturday and members from other posts in the district were welcomed as special guests.

Saturday afternoon, a celebration was held for Cal and Mary Stephens of Canyon honoring their 50th wedding anniversary. They have both served as district officers. He is past district commander and his wife is past district president. Their children were recognized as guests at the event.

Later in the afternoon, a Marine ROTC drill team from Amarillo Caprock High School performed for the group.

Informative schools of instruction were held with Livingood teaching the VFW and Florene Leinen, District 13 president, and Ms. Glass providing instruction for the auxiliary.

Dinner Saturday evening was furnished by the VFW Auxiliary and a dance followed with the public invited.

Activities Sunday morning began with donuts and coffee being served and then a joint meeting was scheduled. Mayor Wes Fisher gave the welcome address and Ms. Glass and Stelzer were guest speakers. The colors were then presented and retired by the Auxiliary color bearers.

Separate meetings were held to conduct the business and then were adjourned to be reopened at the next

District 13 Convention slated Feb. 18-19 in Dimmitt.

Luncheon Sunday was served by Jim Shaw and several prizes were given away. Mildred Huseman of Nazareth won the basket of groceries and Ms. Glass of Maud won $50.

Convention hosts included C.T. Goheen, district commander; Rose Goheen, Auxiliary president; and Bob Vaughn, post commander.

Culinary program given at recent club meeting

Chris Shaddle entertained members of L'Allegria Study Club with her culinary talents at a recent meeting in the home of Carolyn Hays.

With the aid of her Cuisinart food processor, Ms. Shaddle showed members how to make several appetizers for any occasion. After the demonstration, the group was invited to sample the cheese wafers with sesame seeds, a highly decorated cheese ball, chick pea dip, and liver pate.

During a brief business meeting, presided over by President Betty Martin, club members decided to host a spring art show in conjunction with geranium sales in lieu of the regular plant sale. Members also expressed interest in painting house numbers on curbs during Hereford's "paint up, fix up week."

Those present were Lynne Carlile, Margaret Carnahan, Janice Carr, Jeanette Caviness, Kay Lynn Caviness, Janice Conkwright, Kitty Gault, Ms. Hays, Barbara Kerr.

Also, Mary Kay McQuigg, Mary McWhorter, Susie Manschreck, Ms. Martin, Selsey Metz, Donna Parris, Karen Payne, Hilda Perales, Susan Perrin, Linda Reinauer, Jody Skiles, and Ella Marie Veigel.

The word "mach" is used to describe supersonic speed. It derives from Ernst Mach, a Czech-born German physicist who contributed to the study of sound. When a plane moves at the speed of sound it is Mach 1.

Former resident's firm receives award

Sink-Combs and Associates, a Denver architectural firm owned by former Hereford resident, Richard L. Combs, and Charles S. Sink, recently received the Western Mountain Region's Architectural Firm of the Year award.

The award was presented at the 1983 Regional Conference of the American Institute of Architects.

After solicitations from AIA members whose firms have been in business in Colorado longer than 10 years, Sink-Combs was selected to represent Colorado in the awards program. Letters of support from AIA members in the Colorado and Denver chapters accompanied the nomination.

The firm presented an im-

Local residents place at bazaar

Several local residents were winners in the bazaar competition at the Lazbuddie Young Homemakers' third annual arts and crafts Christmas bazaar held recently at the Lazbuddie School.

Bobby Edwards received second and third place ribbons for antique dolls in the ceramics division, while Melba and Zelma Dillard received fourth place for handwork.

There were 28 booths featuring a wide variety of arts and crafts. Over 200 people, from as far away as Albuquerque, N.M., toured the bazaar.

pressive portfolio of work including McNichols Sports Arena, SOCO Plaza and the RTD Platte Bus Maintenance facility, all located in Denver, along with the University of Nevada Las Vegas Sports Arena and the multi-purpose sports arena in Hamilton, Ontario. Sink-Combs has also designed several award-winning residences and other structures.

Charles Sink and Associates was founded in 1962 and Combs joined the firm in 1971. In 1979 it was restructured and the name was changed to Sink-Combs and Associates.

Combs is the son of Mrs. L.W. Combs of Hereford and the late Leslie W. Combs. He is a graduate of Hereford High School and Texas Tech University, and resides in Denver with his wife, Peggy, and their three children.

We all have times when things go wrong,
And Fortune's in reverse;
Yet we're expected to be strong,
Though things could not get worse...
A strength of which the Scriptures name
Examples plain to see:
Like Job, whose faith remained the same
Throughout adversity.
So why not go to Church this week,
Whichever one you choose,
And listen to the Bible speak;
There's not a thing to lose!
Then, what those passages command
You'll follow to the letter;
And let God take your life in hand,
To change it for the better! —Gloria Nowak

Across the west

New storm trails dying system

A "good strong cold front" sped toward the Rocky Mountains today after knocking out power to more than 100,000 people, as the death toll rose to 27 from an earlier storm that dumped up to 2 feet of snow on the Great Plains before lumbering into Canada.

Nearly 4 inches of rain soaked the San Francisco Bay area Thursday, unleashing a mudslide that blocked U.S. 50 near Placerville for several hours. The moisture turned to snow as winds gusted to 70 mph in the mountains, causing blizzard conditions at Alpine Meadows ski resort and dropping half a foot of snow at Norden, 45 miles northwest of Lake Tahoe.

About 130,000 people in western Washington — many with half-roasted Thanksgiving turkeys still in the oven — lost power Thursday morning as the new storm blew in and drenched the West as far inland as Idaho, where visibility was down to 100 feet in mixed rain and snow.

Electricity was restored within several hours to 63,000 people in the Seattle area, but 57,000 others were still without power early today. A spokesman for the Snohomish Public Utility District, where 10,000 outages were reported, said "it could be a couple of days before this is taken care of."

While the new storm "doesn't have quite as big a windup" as the system that howled out of the Rockies last Sunday, "it's still a good strong cold front that will bring snow and wind to the Plateau and Rockies today," said meteorologist Nolan Duke at the National Weather Service's Severe Storm

Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Duke said it was expected to spread from Montana to northern Arizona, covering territory still digging out from the earlier storm blamed for the deaths of 15 people on roads, 10 in small planes and two elderly Minnesota men who died Wednesday and Thursday shovelling snow.

The snow in Minnesota tapered off to flurries early Thursday, after dumping a record 19.7 inches on Duluth and 11.4 inches on Minneapolis and St. Paul. There were "hundreds of cars in ditches," said a Minnesota State Patrol information officer. A 93-year-old man died after the car he was riding in was struck by a livestock tractor-trailer that spun on icy Minnesota Highway 22.

The new storm was raising wind speeds in the canyons of Utah, making travel dangerous for light aircraft, campers and vehicles towing trailers, said Duke.

Avalanches were a threat in Utah's mountains, where up to 2 feet of snow fell earlier this week. Two cross-country skiers were briefly buried at the Alta Ski Resort on Thursday before friends located them via signals from their emergency electronic beepers.

As the new storm blew in from the Pacific, the Coast Guard station at Charleston, Ore., reported gusts up to 80 mph.

After the power outages Thursday, some residents on Bainbridge Island in Puget Sound loaded turkeys and Thanksgiving trimmings on ferries and traveled to the homes of friends in Seattle who still had power.

Liquids for elders

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am concerned about my 99-year-old aunt. She lives alone in another state. I was told it was impossible to secure a urine specimen because of dehydration. I advised her to drink more water and fruit juices. She replied very firmly that since she had had Bright's disease, she was to limit her intake of fluids. But that was at least 20 or 30 years ago.

I don't know what kind of nephritis she had, but isn't it advisable to drink plenty of fluids? She is stubborn and her hearing and eyesight are poor, but she's mentally alert and refuses to visit a doctor's office because she "gets tired of waiting."

Was I wrong to advise more fluids?
DEAR READER — No, you were right. If your aunt did have nephritis 30 years ago, she certainly has survived it in a remarkable fashion. We usually do not restrict fluids for nephritis, anyway.

Your letter reminded me of the importance of liquids in older people. Dehydration can cause the very same symptoms as senility. The mind becomes confused and doesn't work as well. Dehydration and disturbances of salt and water balance are important causes of symptoms of senility. If the real problem is not recognized, the older person may simply be labeled as "senile" and may not get the proper treatment.

It is very important to see that older persons get enough fluids. Those who

Public Notice

In order to implement the Modified Final Judgement entered in United States v. American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Plan of Reorganization which was approved by the United States District Court on August 5, 1983, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., have jointly filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas an Application for and Notification of the Transfer of Facilities and Voting Stock.

This application affects the provision of interLATA service throughout the State of Texas. Effective with the implementation of this transfer of facilities, which is expected to be on January 1, 1984, Southwestern Bell will offer telephone service only within certain geographical areas defined as LATAs (intraLATA) in Texas. Concurrently, interLATA communication service presently provided by Southwestern Bell will be provided by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc.

For purposes of this application, AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., has filed a Tariff with the PUC containing rates applicable to all of its services in Texas at the same level as Southwestern Bell's current Tariffs. Certain adjustments necessary to implement divestiture have been made to the structure of the Tariffs.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Aviso al Publico

A fin de cumplir la Decisión Final Modificada registrada en el caso de los United States v. American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (Compañía Americana de Telefonos y Telegrafos) asi como el Plan de Reorganización que fue aprobado por la Corte de Distrito de los Estados Unidos el día 5 de Agosto de 1983, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. y AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., han presentado en forma conjunta ante la Public Utility Commission of Texas (Comisión de Servicios Públicos: PUC) una Solicitud y Notificación de la Transferencia de Instalaciones y Acciones Votantes.

Esta solicitud afecta la suministración de los servicios interLATA en todo el estado de Texas. Con vigencia desde el cumplimiento de esta transferencia de instalaciones, presuntamente el 1° de Enero de 1984, Southwestern Bell solamente proveerá servicios telefónicos dentro de ciertas áreas geográficas, denominadas LATAs (es decir, servicio intraLATA) en Texas. Concurrentemente, los servicios de comunicación interLATA que actualmente provee Southwestern Bell serán provistos por AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc.

Para el propósito de esta solicitud, AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc., ha registrado un Arancel ante la PUC (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) que incluye las tarifas aplicables a todos sus servicios en Texas, al mismo nivel que el Arancel actual de Southwestern Bell. Se han realizado algunos ajustes en la estructura arancelaria, por ser necesarios para llevar a cabo el desdosoamiento.

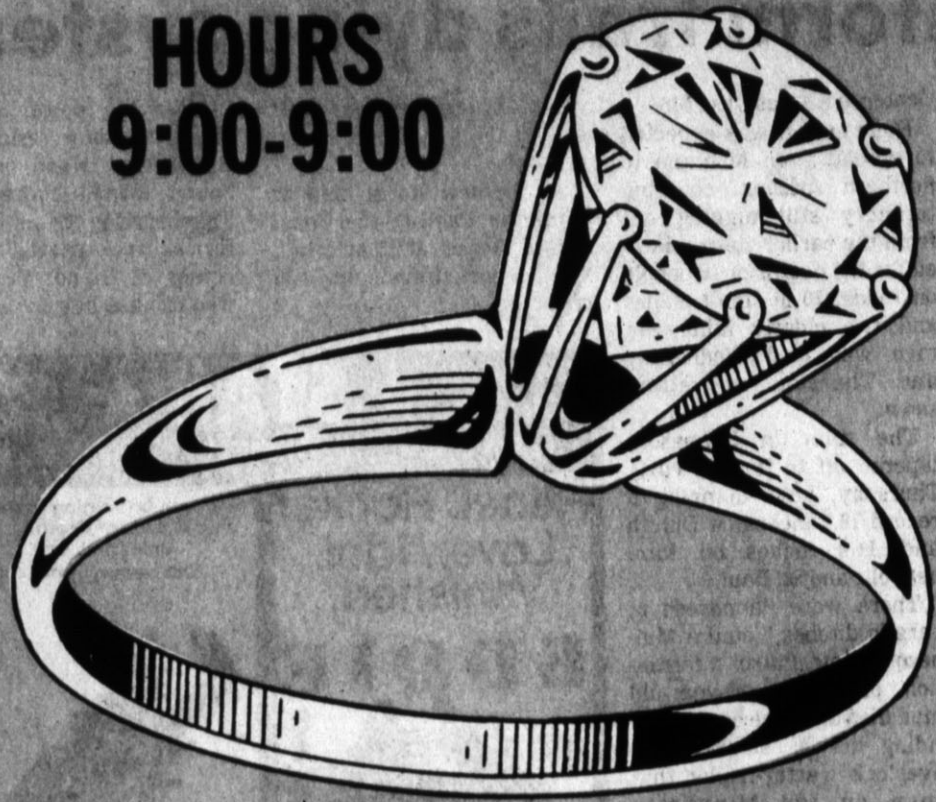

Toda persona que desee intervenir en el proceso o comentar la demanda debe dirigirse a Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757, o llamar a Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division, (512) 458-0223 o (512) 458-0227, o al (512) 458-0221 si requiere teletipo para sordos.
