Reagan shuns bailout of ailing FCS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan is declining, at least for now, to go along with a proposed federal bailout of the ailing Farm Credit System, demanding that Congress first show willingness to provide tougher regulation of the nation's largest farm lender.

White House spokesman Bill Hart said Thursday night that Reagan had accepted most of the recommendations of a Cabinet group that had been studying the farm credit problem.

But Reagan apparently declined to go along with the group's proposal for some guarantee of federal financial aid, which administration sources had said would be helpful in restoring the confidence of investors in Farm Credit bonds.

The group's recommendations accepted by Reagan, Hart said, call for legislation that would permit the system to use its $5.5 billion in reserve funds to shore up member banks, and grant the Farm Credit Administration greater regulatory powers, including the authority to manage bad loans.

"We are assessing the need for federal financial assistance but only if Congress is willing to legislate the accompanying restructuring," Hart said.

Frank Naylor, undersecretary of agriculture for credit matters, brought incredulous reactions from House Agriculture Committee members earlier when he contended the system is "one of the strongest financial institutions in the country."

Naylor's remark came just a day after committee members had heard pleas for a federal bailout of up to $6 billion for the cooperatively owned, 37-bank system.

Agriculture Secretary John Block emphasized to reporters that "the president hasn't closed the door on anything. ... We're not going to leave them high and dry."

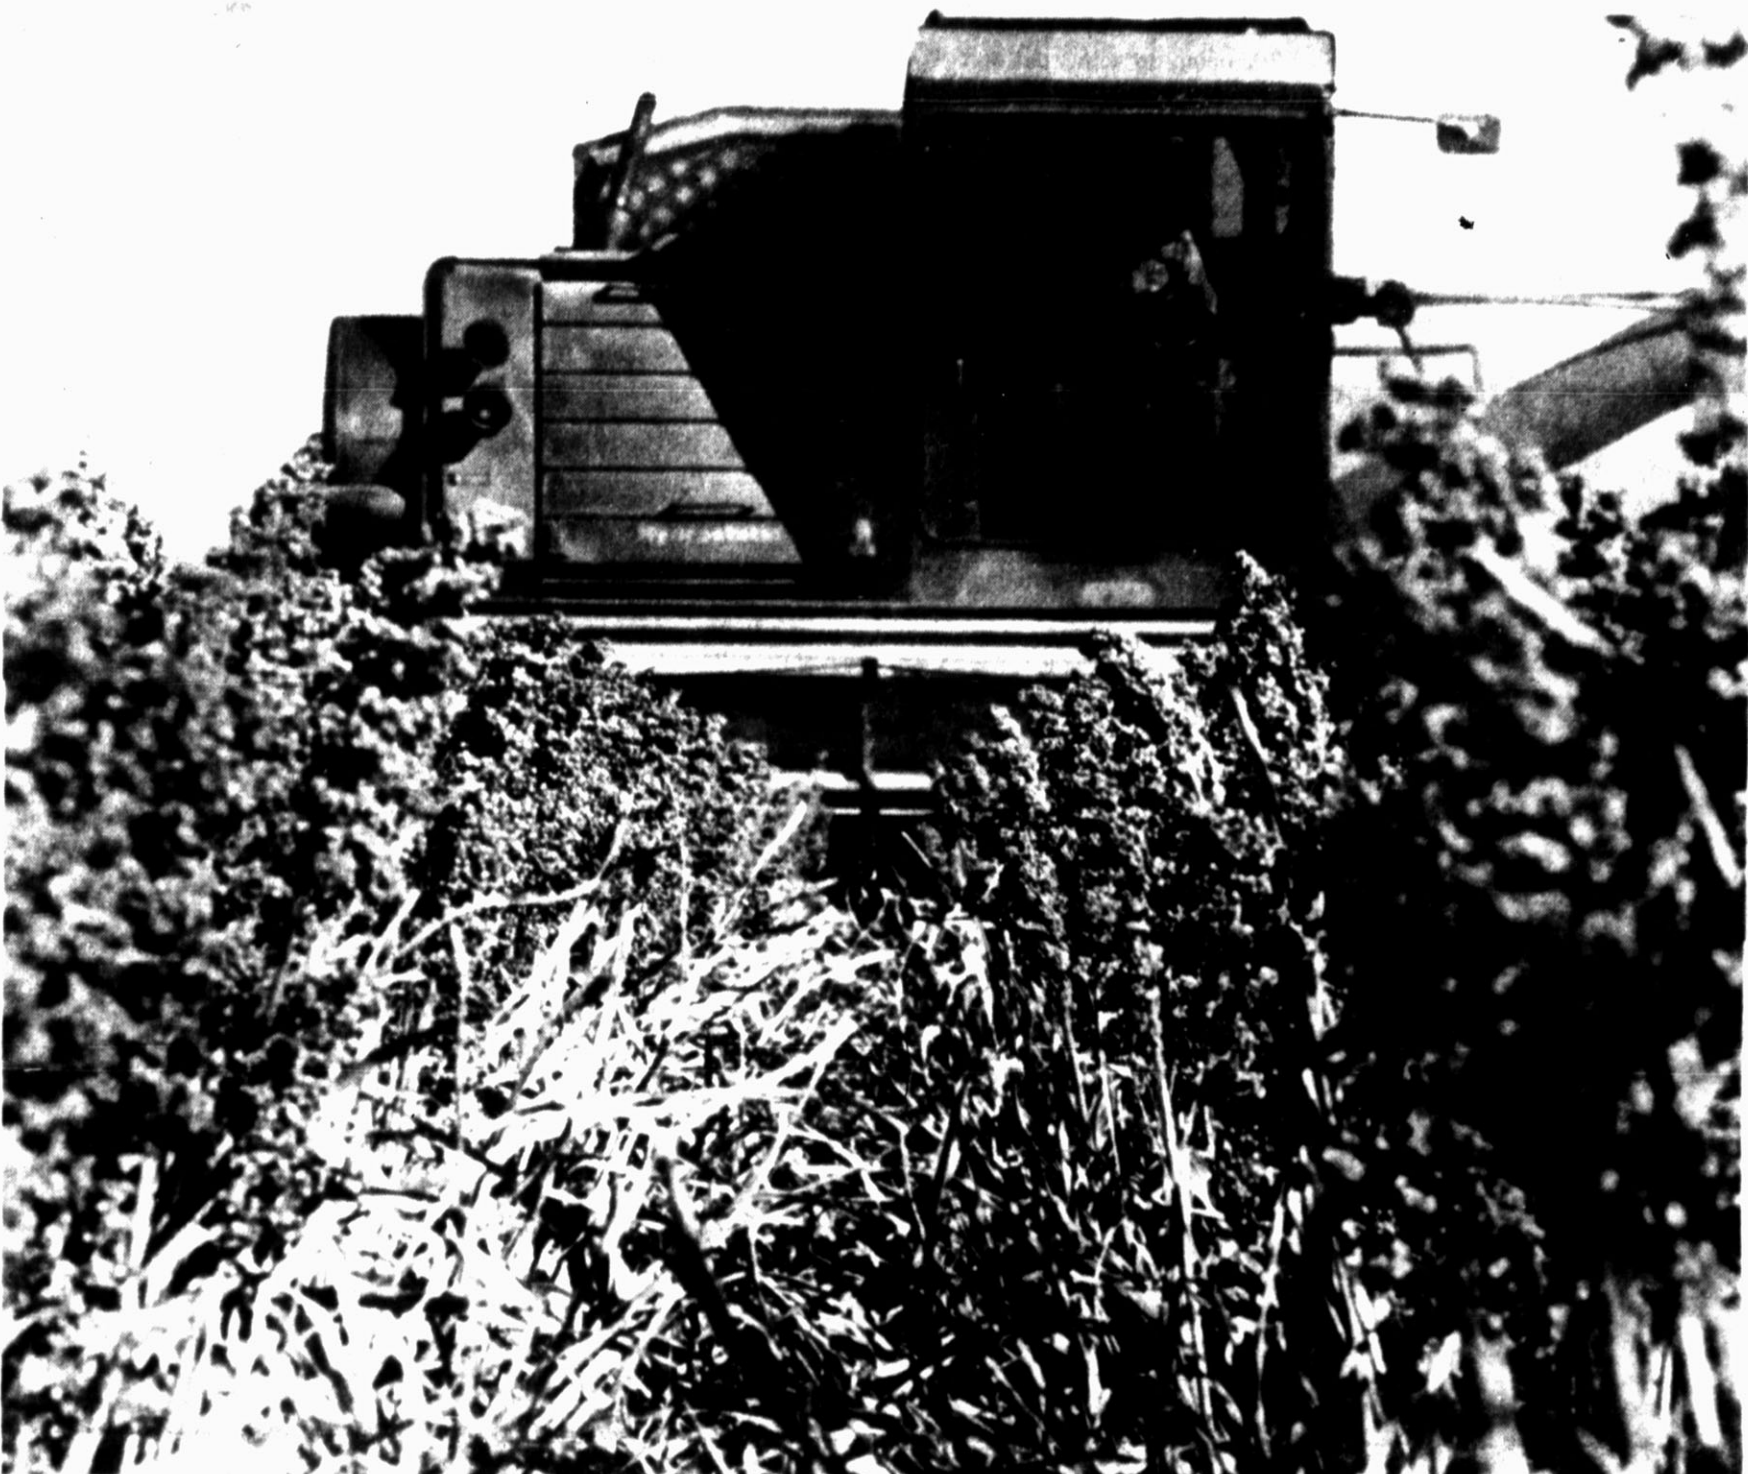

Naylor told the committee he did not intend to minimize the system's problems, which he said are "substantial and serious." But he said Farm Credit's $5.5 billion in reserves was more than enough to weather anticipated losses based on "reasonably prudent economic assumptions."

Rep. Dan Glickman, D-Kan., called Naylor's comments "a pretty namby-pamby statement."

"If we need legislation to strengthen this system, we need to move now, not December 20," Glickman said. "I don't think you ought to keep stringing us along," he told Naylor.

Rep. Lindsay Thomas, D-Ga., added, "Absolutely nobody I've talked to agrees with your assessment of how sound the Land Banks are."

But Rep. Edward Madigan, R-Ill., the senior committee Republican, said Naylor's statement "opened the door for some kind of federal participation in financial assistance" for the system.

House poised to vote on budget plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House was poised to vote on competing versions of a balanced-budget plan in hopes of heading off a White House threat to refill the Treasury's empty coffers with Social Security trust funds.

The House showdown could climax weeks of wrangling over whether Congress should force itself to eliminate deficits by 1991 — and give the president the power to do it if the lawmakers fail.

A House-Senate conference committee broke up Thursday night hopelessly deadlocked in its quest for a compromise balanced-budget plan that also would raise the government's borrowing authority. As a result, House leaders planned votes today on Republican and Democratic alternatives, with the winner to be sent back to the Senate.

Without at least a short-term hike in the national debt, the Treasury says it can't cover checks being sent today to 36 million Social Security recipients without redeeming some of the trust funds' investments.

Leaders in the Republican-controlled Senate, meanwhile, insisted their version alone would clear the way for a much-needed increase in the government's borrowing authority. The Senate approved the plan last month as an amendment to legislation raising the national debt above $2 trillion.

House Majority Whip Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., told reporters that House leaders would push for passage of a simple, one-week boost in the debt ceiling to head off divestment of the trust funds, as a safety-valve in case there was a snag in final passage of the long-term extension and its budget-balancing language.

He predicted the House would pass one of the versions. "I always predict the Democratic version will pass," he said, conceding he couldn't be sure.

The Senate-passed plan would set statutory limits on annual deficits, beginning with about $180 billion in the current fiscal year and dropping incrementally until budgets are balanced by fiscal 1991.

If Congress and the president failed to approve spending plans to meet the deficit targets, the president would be required to cut federal spending to the target levels. About half the government's nearly $1 trillion budget would be exempted from the cutbacks, including Social Security, interest on the national debt and the government's prior-year contracts.

The Democrats proposed to follow that framework but add poverty programs, about 4 percent of the budget, to the exemption list. Their proposal also would make the deficit targets

Reagan makes new arms proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan, in an unusually conciliatory pre-summit mood, is asking the Soviet Union to extend the current round of arms talks in Geneva to allow Moscow to consider a new U.S. proposal aimed at reducing nuclear weapons.

Reagan's announcement Thursday highlighted a day marked by repeated indications of U.S. interest in creating a positive climate for the president's Nov. 19-20 meeting with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

Reagan's nationally televised statement was devoid of anti-Soviet polemics as was a supplementary statement on Soviet-American relations issued an hour later by Secretary of State George Shultz.

It also was a day when Reagan became the first president in 25 years to grant an interview to Soviet journalists.

"I appreciate very much the opportunity to speak, in a sense, to the people of your country," Reagan told the journalists. "I've always believed that a lot of the ills of the world would disappear if people talked more to each other."

Describing his new arms proposal, Reagan said the offer "builds upon the very concrete reductions proposals which our negotiators had tabled earlier as well as the recent Soviet counterproposal.

"It is my hope that our new proposal will enable both of our nations to start moving away from ever-larger arsenals of offensive forces."

Auto insurance rates cut

AUSTIN (AP) — Auto insurance rates have been cut 5.1 percent for 1986 with the expectation that Texas motorists who "buckle up" will have fewer traffic accidents.

The $137.7 million decrease in present insurance premiums was ordered 3-0 by the State Board of Insurance, with Gov. Mark White as a spectator.

"This is exactly what we planned," White told reporters. "If we gain a reduction in traffic deaths and injury due to buckling up we intend to pass the savings on to consumers."

White said he really wanted a larger reduction in rates and if the 1986 reduction proves successful "we will consider further reductions from the impact of this legislation."

The mandatory seat belt law, passed by the 1985 Legislature, became effective Sept. 1 and fines will be levied for violators after Dec. 1. All front seat occupants of passenger cars and most pickup trucks must wear a lap belt while the vehicle is moving.

Insurance Board Chairman Lyndon Olson made the motion for a 5.1 percent reduction, based on an estimated 65 percent compliance with the law. He said it was obvious to the three-member board that the estimate of 50 percent compliance with the seat belt law by the board's staff and 40 percent by the industry were too low.

The staff had recommended on Sept. 19 a 1.3 percent premium decrease while the industry wanted a 10.6 percent increase.

"This decrease in premiums will be a real incentive for compliance with the law," Olson said. "The people of Texas are entitled to benefit from obeying the seat belt law."

Board members David Thornton and Carole Rylander voted with Olson.

Earlier, a motion by Mrs. Rylander for an 8.4 percent decrease was defeated 2-1. She said testimony at previous hearings convinced her there would be at least 70 percent compliance.

"We will sell Texans short if we adopt anything less than an 8.4 percent decrease," she said.

Attorney General Jim Mattox, who earlier recommended a 5.6 percent decrease, said the adopted decrease was a "good common-sense approach to the anticipated effects of Texas' new seat belt law."

Mattox said if 60 percent of Texas motorists use their seat belts it likely will reduce the number of yearly deaths by 460, injuries by 13,900 and insurance company costs by $282 million a year.

"I think they sent a real strong signal to consumers that safety really does save, not just lives and injuries but it actually saves dollars," said Carol Berger, regional director for the Sonsumers Union.

"We respectfully disagree," said Rick Gentry, a spokesman for the insurance industry. "This is all related

Texas unemployment surpasses national rate

DALLAS (AP) — In marked contrast to the national unemployment rate of 7.1 percent, Texas statistics reflected a turn for the worse in October as the jobless rate climbed to 8.1 percent.

The state unemployment rate increased one percent from September's rate of 7.1 and jumped 2.4 percentage points from the October 1984 rate, said Bryan Richey, regional commissioner for the Bureau of Labor Statistics in Dallas.

Richey said the depressed energy industry, the devaluation of the Mexican Peso and downturns in manufacturing, especially in electronics and related industries, have contributed to unemployment problems in Texas.

The total number of Texans out of work in October totaled 645,000, compared to 568,000 in September. A total of 7.35 million workers were employed in Texas in October, Richey said.

In October 1985, 451,000 Texans were jobless. The record of unemployed in Texas was set in September 1983, when 647,000 residents were unemployed and the jobless rate was 8.3 percent, Richey said.

"I think that the weakness in unemployment is very real and seems to be spreading more and more to industry and becoming more significant, and that's just in recent months," he said.

Bullock forecasts needs of $3 billion

AUSTIN (AP) — State Comptroller Bob Bullock says the next Legislature must raise "about $3 billion" in new revenue just to keep up with inflation and population increases in 1988-89.

Bullock's projection Thursday was part of a presentation to the Select Committee on Higher Education, which also heard from Dr. Victor Arnold, director of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

Bullock said, "Our revenue base isn't keeping up with what our level of spending is today." He said the 1987 Legislature would "have just about enough money to take of the automatic spending increases Texas has today, and no more."

"If you want to keep up with inflation and population increases, it's going to cost about $3 billion in additional revenue to do it," Bullock said. "And if you're planning on expanding any new programs ... or improve some of them, then you're going to have to find the money to pay for whatever the cost of the new program or expansion of the old one is. And that could be billions."

Stowaway Ethiopians granted parole

PORT ARTHUR, Texas (AP) — Blatoh Mula Gitahon and Ayalow Tilahun Dista left their Ethiopian homeland more than three months ago, illegally boarding a ship in Sudan in hopes of finding a better way of life.

After spending more than 50 days in isolation at a Port Arthur motel, the two 20-year-old stowaways were granted parole status by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

"They have been paroled for six months, mainly because they weren't able to get travel documents to send them back to Sudan," said Nancy Falgout, an immigration counselor with the YMCA International Society in Houston.

Gitahon and Dista were transferred to Houston on Wednesday into the protective custody of the YMCA society, a refugee resettlement organization.

"Right now, our case workers are going to find a place for them to stay with Ethiopians who live here, and we're going to try to help them to find a job," she said.

Judge clears way for Gramm audit

DALLAS (AP) — A federal judge has cleared the way for the Federal Election Commission to audit Texas Sen. Phil Gramm's campaign records, but attorneys for the FEC say the process could take months.

U.S. District Judge Robert W. Porter of Dallas said Thursday that the Friends of Phil Gramm, the freshman senator's campaign committee, will have to submit most of the records requested in an FEC subpoena.

FEC staff members have questioned whether Gramm's campaign accepted donations above the $1,000 limit for individual contributors set by campaign finance laws and failed to itemize some campaign debts, according to court documents.

Gramm's reports show he spent $9.8 million in the Senate race last year.

Friends of Phil Gramm had filed a lawsuit in June seeking to block the FEC request for an audit.

Reagan to have routine cancer exam

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan, who announced six weeks ago that his recovery from cancer surgery was "100 percent complete," was to return to Bethesda Naval Hospital for what the White House called "another routine post-operative visit."

The White House press office said the president's examination would "include an abdominal examination, X-ray and blood tests." The statement, issued Wednesday, gave no further details of the exam, which was scheduled for today before Reagan flew to Camp David in the Maryland mountains for the weekend.

Frequent follow-up examinations to catch any recurrence of cancer are recommended by most specialists in the field.

The White House has refused to discuss details of Reagan's health since he returned from the military hospital outside Washington after a malignant tumor and two-foot section of his colon were removed July 13.

Border patrol ignored asylum hints

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Border Patrol agents in Louisiana who returned Soviet seaman Miroslav Medvid to his ship ignored indications he wanted to defect, says a Ukrainian interpreter who initially interviewed the sailor.

"When I asked him why he jumped ship, he said, 'Because I want to live in an honest country,'" interpreter Irene Padoch told The Associated Press on Thursday. "I related that" to the agents, but Medvid was taken back to the ship anyway, she said.

Mrs. Padoch's statements raised new questions about Medvid's handling by the Border Patrol and the Immigration and Naturalization Service, its parent agency, which initially handles asylum cases.

Medvid twice jumped off the freighter Marshal Koniev last week as it lay at anchor in the Mississippi River near New Orleans. He was returned to the vessel each time by Border Patrol agents who thought he was a stowaway.

Marcos under pressure from U.S.

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos, who has enjoyed strong support through five U.S. administrations, is facing mounting pressures from his closest ally as well as his own people.

While leftist Filipino demonstrators protest the "U.S.-Marcos dictatorship" and the U.S. Congress holds hearings on how to deal with Marcos' government, the Reagan administration is showing increasing impatience with the Philippine military's failure to stop a growing communist rebellion.

Marcos, who has said he considers President Reagan a close friend, has shown signs of irritation at U.S. pressure, but has laughed at suggestions his 20-year-old regime could fall to the guerrillas of the New People's Army.

On Thursday, U.S. Ambassador Stephen W. Bosworth criticized alleged human rights abuses in the Philippines, including the killing of 23 demonstrators in recent weeks.

Without giving names or many details, Bosworth also said 15 Americans had been killed in the Philippines in the past two years, and that four had died "allegedly at the hands of security forces."

"Frankly, my countrymen find it hard to understand how these killings could occur and pass unpunished in an allied country," Bosworth said.

City panels can bar press

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas has had an Open Meetings Act since 1967, but a city planning commission still can shut its doors and meet in private if it so desires.

Recent rulings by state judges and the state attorney general's office have held that committees and commissions below the governing body of a city, county or school district are not required to hold open, public meetings.

"When you find public officials finding loopholes (in the Open Meetings Act) and using them, then you have to close the loopholes so they can't abuse the public right," said John C. Henry, an Austin newspaper editor and spokesman for the Society of Professional Journalists-Sigma Delta Chi.

These "loopholes" in the public's right to know what their public officials are doing have become of prime interest to print and broadcast news media throughout Texas.

The Open Meeting Act basically requires public, policy-making bodies to conduct business in public. It calls on them to post notice of those meetings and to admit the public to the discussions.

Efforts to close the loopholes failed in the 1985 Legislature.

Representatives of SDX, the Texas Daily Newspaper Association, Texas Press Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters, Texas Associated Press Managing Editors Association, Texas Press Women and the Freedom of Information Foundation will meet in Austin Nov. 19.

"This will be an exploratory meeting to see if all these various media groups can work together effectively and sufficiently relate our efforts," said Ben Hansen, Beaumont Enterprise editor and chairman of the Texas APME Freedom of Information Committee.

If the meeting is successful, Hansen says, they will begin looking at possible efforts to strengthen the freedom of information laws when the Legislature next convenes, in 1987.

"We are going to look toward drafting a proposal to extend the open meetings law to cover committees and commissions of local government," Henry said. "To close a meeting just because the members of the body do not want to be hassled by the public is ludicrous."

Other elements of freedom of report happenings at meetings of public officials also will be discussed.

Television cameras are not covered by the present Open Meetings Act and can be tossed out of public meetings, Attorney General Jim Mattox ruled in September about a Titus County commissioners meeting. He said audio tape recording, but not videotapes, was authorized by the law.

Many editors and reporters also are disturbed by a ruling of a San Angelo judge and the attorney general that commissions and committees of local government are not the "governing body" and therefore not subject to the Open Meetings Act.

When the San Angelo City Planning Commission began drafting a controversial sign ordinance in August, it closed its meetings to the public and press.

The San Angelo Standard-Times

filed suit, seeking to open the meetings and arguing that closure violated the Open Meetings Act.

But State District Judge Royal Hart ruled the planning commission meetings could remain closed because their deliberations were not covered by the Open Meetings Act. He said the open-doors statute applies only to rule-making or quasi-judicial bodies that hold hearings and make judgments.

The Standard-Times based its challenge on a 1974 legal opinion by a former state attorney general, now Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice John Hill.

Publisher Kevin J. Barry said later in a column that Hill's opinion "seemed to support very clearly our position as to meeting of committees and states that the law should be interpreted to reflect the intent of the Legislature."

On Aug. 14, Mattox issued a similar legal judgment when asked about two reporters for the school newspaper of the Alamo Community College District being kicked out of hearing by a grievance committee at the request of a discharged employee.

"The definition of governmental body (in the Open Records Act) does not include committees subordinate to the governing body of a school district or junior college district such as the grievance committee," Mattox said.

Since the grievance committee meeting was not subject to the act "student reporters had to night under that act to attend," Mattox's opinion said.

INSURANCE

to 65 percent compliance with the seat belt law and we just don't think it will be that much," Gentry told reporters. "There is no reliable way to make any judgment until we have experience with the seat belt law and we don't have that yet."

Olson's motion also would allow only 4 percent credit to insurance companies for pre-judgment interest on payments of damages. Under a recent court decision insurance companies must start paying interest on damage awards before the judgment becomes final. The staff had recommended a 10 percent credit.

Olson stressed that if there is not 65 percent compliance with the seat belt law, the insurance board next year will consider making adjustment in the premium rates.

Canyon man gets 4 1/2 years for child's death

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — Charles Richard Wilkins, 36, of Canyon has been fined $5,000 and sentenced to 4½ years in prison after being convicted of reckless injury to a child.

Wilkins was originally indicted for involuntary manslaughter in connection with a March 31 accident in which a bicyclist, Philip Alan Teichmann, died after being hit by Wilkins' truck. That charge was dropped, however, after a grand jury returned an indictment of injury to a child.

"He knew he was drunk — he knew he was driving too fast all over the road, and the only way to save himself was to ditch the evidence," Assistant District Attorney Lonnie Markley told jurors Wednesday.

Markley noted that beer cans, vodka bottles and mouthwash containers were found in Wilkins' vehicle after the incident.

But Wilkins' attorney, Dean Roper, said four eyewitnesses testified they did not think Wilkins was drunk when they saw him before or after the accident in northeast Amarillo.

Domestic automakers raise sales with cut rate financing

AUSTIN — Special interest rates offered by three domestic manufacturers boosted August new car and truck registrations 21 percent over August 1984 and new import registrations continued to climb.

According to figures released by the Texas Automobile Dealers Association, Texas car and truck buyers took advantage of the cut-rate financing by domestic automakers trying to move inventory before the 1986 models were delivered. The General Motors Corp. sparked the battle for customers when it offered a fixed 7.7 percent interest rate on leftover 1985 models. The Ford Motor Co. matched the lowered rate and also offered rebates. The Chrysler Corp. also offered rebates and cut its interest rate to 7.5 percent.

New car and truck registrations during the eighth month of this year totaled 116,383, which was 21.9 percent greater than the 95,434 registered during August 1984. New car and truck registrations year-to-date total 736,999 as compared to the 690,797 registered during the first eight months of last year.

For the 31-day period, 68,448 new cars were registered while 59,932 new cars were registered during the same month-long period in 1984.

New truck registrations in August totaled 47,935. According to figures compiled by Detroit-based R.L. Polk Co., 35,502 trucks were registered in August 1984.

Meanwhile, imported trucks and cars saw a significant increase. Registrations of new imported trucks increased 55 percent to 7079 when comparing August 1985 to August 1984. New import car registrations in August were up 6422 to 20,939 from the 14,517 registered in August 1984.

The registrations of new imported cars and trucks represented one-third of the total new vehicle registrations in August.

The registration of new Chryslers and General Motors cars in August increased while Ford saw a slight drop from the number recorded in August last year.

New Chrysler registrations in August were 21 percent greater - up 1066 - than the number registered during the same 31-day period last year. The registration of new Chrysler cars for the first eight months of this year was up 10,472, 33 percent, from the number registered during the same period in 1984.

The registration of new GM cars increased 5.8 percent when comparing August 1985 to August 1984, and the registration of new GM cars during the first eight months of this year was up 3.9 percent.

The registration of new Ford cars declined 2 percent but the second largest domestic manufacturer had a 2 percent increase in year-to-date registration figures.

ARMS

Reagan and his top advisers had been highly critical of the recent proposal by Gorbachev for a 50 percent cut in nuclear strategic missiles, contending it would give Moscow a huge lead in strategic, land-based systems. The Kremlin leader also has been demanding the United States scrap its proposed shield against nuclear missiles — the "Star Wars" program.

At one point several weeks ago, national security adviser Robert McFarlane ridiculed the Soviet position. "Mr. Gorbachev is telling us, 'If you will get rid of your defense, I will get rid of your offense,'" McFarlane said then.

On Thursday, however, Reagan said the Soviet offer, coupled with the new U.S. proposals, were "important milestones in moving these negotiations forward."

While the Soviet proposal "unfortunately fell considerably short" in certain areas, it did contain positive "seeds" that could serve as a basis for negotiation, Reagan said.

The U.S. proposal would limit both sides to 6,000 strategic — or long-range — warheads each, according to officials who spoke only on condition of anonymity. Of this total, 4,500 could be on ballistic missiles and 1,500 on cruise missiles. Each side now has about 10,000 strategic warheads apiece, including missiles on land, in submarines and on aircraft.

No more than 3,000 warheads could be on land-based systems, in line with a U.S. effort to force cutbacks in the Soviets' 1,398 heavy, globe-girdling intercontinental ballistic missiles that carry about 6,400 warheads. The United States has 1,000 land-based ICBMs carrying 2,125 warheads.

The U.S. plan also would hold each side to 1,800 ICBMs, the officials said.

At a news conference Thursday, Shultz appeared to be at pains to avoid offending the Soviets.

Repeating a theme Reagan adopted a week ago in a United Nations speech, Shultz said, "We want countries to stop trying to expand their influence through armed intervention and subversion." But, unlike Reagan, Shultz declined to mention the Soviets by name.

Shultz, who will travel to Moscow this weekend for pre-summit consultations, also said the United States wants to promote and defend human rights everywhere. His target was the Soviets — but again he made no direct reference to Moscow.

The Soviets also appear intent on meeting the U.S. halfway, at least on some issues. And the upbeat mood in recent days has been reinforced by indications from U.S. officials that Moscow and Washington, even as they prepare for the meeting in Geneva, are discussing the possibility of a follow-up summit.

After their meeting with Reagan on Thursday, Soviet journalists said there were no surprises. They found, as expected, that "We look at things differently."

"He (Reagan) tried to be polite, but of course we had many disagreements in our positions," said Stanislav Kondrashov, a reporter for the government newspaper Izvestia.

As he posed for pictures prior to the interview, Reagan said of the Geneva summit, "I'm hopeful, optimistic that maybe we can make some concrete achievements there."

Blood donor

DEAR ANN LANDERS: While donating blood recently, I saw this published by the American Red Cross. I hope you can print it. It might persuade somebody to give blood. Also, it may remind them that "The life you save could be your own." Thanks.—B.R. IN CT.

Only sterile materials are used. The American Red Cross blood donor program has suffered because of this misconception. Help them out, folks.

WHAT GOOD IS A BLOOD DONOR?

A blood donor is good for people who go through windshields and red lights...For somebody with leukemia...For people being operated on...For barefoot kids who aren't careful....

For victims of violence...For hemophiliacs so they can live as normally as possible...For daredevils...For someone undergoing dialysis while waiting for a kidney transplant...For people who fool around with guns...For little kids who manage to uncap a bottle of something poisonous...For people who are badly burned..

For new mothers needing transfusions...For a new baby who needs a complete change of blood supply...For someone having heart surgery...For cancer patients...For someone with a severe case of hepatitis...For kids who fall out of trees or anywhere else...For anybody any age with bleeding ulcers...For people in the wrong place at the wrong time...For the very tired with severe anemia...For people who run into things...For all the people who are in a lot worse shape than most people you know.

A blood donor is good for life.

Placed Fourth Out Of 177

Kevin Hansen of Hereford finished in the top four of a tennis tournament sponsored by USTA and TTT in Abilene last Saturday. Hansen's placing qualifies him for championship divisions of tournaments to be held next spring in Corpus Christi and Dallas.

Tennis player finishes in top 4 of tournament

A Hereford tennis player placed in the top four out of 177 participants last Saturday and Sunday in a tournament in Abilene that was organized by the USTA (United States Tennis Association) and the TTA (Texas Tennis Association).
Kevin Hansen scored five match wins to place in the top four of the Coca Cola Designated Tennis Tournament.
Hansen, by finishing in the top four, qualified for the championship division of tournaments to be scheduled next March in Corpus Christi and Dallas.

A sophomore at Hereford High School, Hansen defeated Rob Madry of Corpus Christi in his first match, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Hansen then defeated Wade Beasley of San Angelo, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4; beat Ara Simonian of Houston, 6-2, 6-3; and won over Mark Limmerman of Dallas, 6-4, 6-0.

La Plata 9th graders shut out Yucca, 18-0

La Plata Junior High School split a pair of football games played Tuesday in Clovis against Yucca Junior High School.
The La Plata ninth grade team scored an 18-0 shutout victory, and the La Plata eighth grade team was shut out by Yucca 22-0.
Season records for these La Plata teams are 4-3-1 for the ninth grade and 2-4 for the eighth grade.
Quarterback Jason Scott played a part in all three scoring plays for the La Plata ninth graders in their 18-0 win. Scott threw a pair of touchdown passes, both to Frankie Murillo, and also rushed for a touchdown.
Murillo caught a 33-yard touchdown pass from Scott in the first quarter to give La Plata a 6-0 lead.
In the third quarter, Scott and Murillo teamed up to produce a 64-yard scoring play.
Scott rushed five yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter, giving La Plata what was its final margin of the game, 18-0.
"Our defensive line and linebackers played great," said La Plata Coach Ed Copen. Those players are Kevin Paetzold, Bryan Watts, Chad Maupin, Roger McCracken, Brad Smith, Jerry Jimenez, and Joe Medrano.
"Jason Scott, Frankie Murillo and Clint Cotten played well on offense," Copen said.
Yucca scored a touchdown and two-point conversion in each of the first two quarters of Thursday's eighth grade contest enroute to a 22-0 win over La Plata.
Yucca's other touchdown came in the third quarter.
"We received the opening kickoff and fumbled and they scored quick. Wed got several hurt but hope they will be ready for Stanton," said La Plata eighth grade Coach Tommy Bowling.
All three La Plata football teams close out the 1985 season on Tuesday when they battle Stanton Junior High School.
The schedule for Tuesday's games is: seventh grade game at 4:15 p.m., and then the eighth and ninth grade games.

Buckeyes are ranked No. 8

Top-ranked Iowa plays at Ohio State

By RUSTY MILLER
AP Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans still talk about the last time a No. 1-ranked team played at Ohio State.

"That was a long time ago," said Ohio State Coach Earle Bruce, who was an Ohio State assistant at the time. "I think they came in here averaging something like 41 points a game. I do remember it was a great game."

The year was 1968 and the opponent was Purdue, featuring running back Leroy Keyes and quarterback Mike Phipps. The Boilermakers came to town as the No. 1 team in the land, but left smarting from a 13-0 shocker.

That Woody Hayes-coached Ohio State team would eventually take the national championship, the last one for a Buckeye football team.

When top-ranked Iowa invades Ohio Stadium Saturday to play the No. 8 Buckeyes, it again figures to be a game that will be talked about for years.

Iowa comes into the game with a 7-0 record, including a 4-0 mark to lead the Big Ten, and boasts a chorus line of statistical leaders.

Quarterback Chuck Long leads the nation in passing efficiency and is fifth in total offense. He has completed 151 of 223 passes for 1,984 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Running back Ronnie Harmon is fifth in all-purpose yardage and 17th in rushing. Harmon has 706 yards on 136 carries with five touchdowns.

Place-kicker Rob Houghtlin is fifth in the nation in scoring with 69 points.

Iowa leads the country in scoring, ranks third in passing offense and total defense, fifth in total offense, eighth in rushing defense and 10th in scoring defense.

"It all speaks for itself," Bruce said.

Ohio State comes in at 6-1, its only setback a last-second, 31-28 loss to Illinois.

Sports briefs

By The Associated Press
COLLEGE FOOTBALL

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — The No. 1-ranked Iowa football team will wear helmet decals in Saturday's nationally televised game at Ohio State to symbolize the plight of America's financially strapped farmers.

Iowa Coach Hayden Fry said the decals will be put on prior to the game and the Hawkeyes will wear them for the rest of the season.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Owners of the three-year-old United States Football League sat through a briefing by their attorneys and emerged confident that they will win their $1.32 billion antitrust lawsuit against the National Football League.

The lawsuit charges that the rival NFL has an illegal monopoly on stadiums, players, officials and television. It is the television rights and accompanying revenue that is most important.

Other topics during the two-day meetings figure to include league realignment, rules changes, a television contract and scheduling of a player draft.

Olympic boxers, unlike the professionals, wear vests which cover the chest and back. This is designed to prevent the gloves of the fighters from becoming wet with perspiration.

Illinois.

The Buckeyes have done it with a balanced offense that features the passing of quarterback Jim Karsatos — and without the services of tailback Keith Byars.

Byars, who led the nation in scoring and rushing a year ago, has played only six quarters this season after suffering a broken bone in his foot in the preseason. The ankle was injured during last week's 23-19 defeat of Minnesota and he is listed as doubtful for the Iowa game due to soreness.

soreness.

The contest is in Columbus, where Ohio State has the nation's longest home winning streak (19 games) and where it has not lost to Iowa since 1959.

Also Saturday, No. 2 Florida has a crucial Southeastern Conference battle at No. 6 Auburn; No. 3 Penn State hosts Boston College; No. 4 Michigan is at Illinois in another key Big Ten game; fifth-ranked Nebraska visits Kansas State; Air Force, ranked seventh, hosts San Diego State; No. 9

Oklahoma entertains Kansas, and No. 10 Florida State is at home to No. 11 Miami, Fla.

In the Second Ten, No. 12 Oklahoma State is at Colorado; No. 14 Arkansas plays at Mississippi at Jackson, Miss.; No. 17 Brigham Young hosts Wyoming; Georgia, 18th-ranked, is at home to Tulane; Rutgers is at No. 19 Tennessee, and No. 20 Southern Methodist visits Texas A&M.

No. 13 Baylor and No. 15 UCLA are idle.

Other matchups include Syracuse at Pitt; Mississippi State at Alabama; Wake Forest at Clemson; Georgia Tech at Duke; North Carolina at Maryland; North Carolina State at South Carolina; West Virginia at Virginia; Memphis State at Virginia Tech; Missouri at Iowa State; Minnesota at Michigan State; Navy at Notre Dame; Northwestern at Purdue; Indiana at Wisconsin; Texas Tech at Texas; Houston at Texas Christian; Arizona State at California; Colorado State at Hawaii; San Jose State at Oregon; Arizona at Oregon State; Washington State at Southern California; Utah State at Utah, and Stanford at Washington.

HHS junior varsity football team edges Coronado, 7-6

An extra point was the difference in a junior varsity football contest played Thursday night as the Hereford High School junior varsity edged Lubbock Coronado 7-6.

The Hereford junior varsity was a combined team of the Maroon and White junior varsity squads, since the last three games for the White junior varsity had been canceled because of ineligibilities at other schools.

Thursday night's game, played at Whiteface Stadium in Hereford, was a scoreless duel for three quarters.

Hereford's touchdown was scored when quarterback Raymond Romo carried in a one-yard scoring play.

Paul Maes was successful in his extra-point kick, giving Hereford the point it needed to win the ballgame.

The last junior varsity game of the season for Hereford High School is scheduled next Thursday at home against Plainview. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. at Whiteface Stadium.

Reds ink Pete Rose to new 3-year contract

By JOHN NOLAN
Associated Press Writer
CINCINNATI (AP) — As Pete Rose clowned with a bottle of champagne, Cincinnati Reds owner Marge Schott announced the signing of the player-manager to a new, three-year contract worth at least $1 million.

Schott brought out the champagne for Thursday's news conference and invited reporters to toast Rose, who as manager guided the Reds to a second-place finish in the National League West and as a player broke Ty Cobb's major-league career hit record of 4,191 in 1985.

Rose, 44, seized the champagne just before the Riverfront Stadium news conference and pretended to empty over the owner's head. Schott smiled and said, "Next year," an apparent reference to her hopes of having a champagne-drenched championship celebration at the end of the 1986 season.

HHS volleyball teams to play season finales

The season finales for the Hereford High School volleyball teams are scheduled Saturday afternoon at the HHS gym.

Hereford hosts Lubbock Monterey in District 3-5A matches. The junior varsity match starts at 2 p.m. and the varsity match begins 20 minutes after the junior varsity match ends.

The Hereford High varsity has an 0-13 district record and an 0-22 season record. Lubbock Monterey is in sixth place in the district with a 3-10 record. Overall, the Monterey varsity is 8-17.

The Hereford junior varsity has an 0-18 season record.

Ferguson, the Reds' vice president for publicity, said he didn't know the contract amount. Rose's old $225,000 contract expired Thursday.

The Reds distributed pencils proclaiming, in red letters: "Pete Rose — One in a Million."

Schott said the contract amount is intended "not so much as salary, but to reward him for what he has done."

Rose said his new contract doesn't depend on the number of fans the Reds draw, and does not require him to play any certain number of games.

Some critics, including a few Reds players, have suggested that because Rose is comparatively old and lacks power at the plate, he should bench himself in favor of using younger players regularly.

Rose noted, however, that the Reds were 64-46 in games he started. "It didn't seem like I was hurting the team."

"I'll play whenever I think I can help the ballclub. How long do I intend on playing? As long as I can do the job. The thing that helps me as a manager is my ability to get along with people, to communicate."

Last season, Rose collected 107 hits in setting a major-league career record of 4,204. Rose, who began his major league career with Cincinnati in 1963, batted .264 in 119 games in 1985. He platooned at first base with veteran Tony Perez and said he plans to continue that arrangement.

In his first full season as Reds player-manager, he directed the club to a 1985 season record of 89-72, 5½ games behind Los Angeles in the National League West. The 19-game improvement — the Reds were 70-92 in 1984 — was the best in the major leagues.

"I'm more excited about 1986 than I was about 1985, and you all know how excited I was about 1985," Rose said. "We got the thing going in the right direction, both on the field and off the field."

Four junior high school tennis players from Hereford placed in a tournament last Saturday in Lubbock. In the photo at the left are T.J. Head, left, who placed first in the seventh grade boys' "A" division singles, and Zack Farr, right, who was third in the seventh grade boys' "B" division singles. In the other photo, at the right, is Kristie Allison who finished in third place in eighth grade girls' "A" division singles. Not pictured is Brenna Reinauer, a first place finisher in seventh grade girls' "A" division singles.

Both teams coming off SWC losses

Texas Tech invades Longhorn territory

Two teams coming off Southwest Conference losses will battle Saturday afternoon when the Texas Longhorns host the Texas Tech Red Raiders in Austin.

Texas Tech was edged to Rice 29-27 two weeks ago, and Texas fell to SMU 44-14 last Saturday.

Texas Tech Coach Jerry Moore said the defeat to Rice was "the most disappointing loss since I've been at Tech."

"Mistakes took us out of numerous opportunities to win the game. It's really hard to understand because we do have a good football team," Moore said.

"We didn't play anywhere near what we are capable of playing. We have used the off week to regroup mentally and physically," Moore adds.

Texas leads the all-time series with Texas Tech, 28-6. In Southwest Conference games, Texas is 20-5 against the Red Raiders.

Texas has won the last four games against Texas Tech and has won 18 of 20 games played against the Red Raiders in Austin.

"They have not played at home in over a month, so I'm sure they will be excited about our game. They have played three tough games the last three weeks (Oklahoma, Arkansas, SMU), but that will just make them better," Moore said.

"As usual, they are very strong defensively and they can really hurt you with the big play offensively," Moore noted.

Texas trailed Texas Tech at halftime the last two years, but came back to defeat the Red Raiders. Last year, Texas Tech led 10-0 at halftime before losing to the Longhorns 13-10.

A 35-yard field goal by Jeff Ward with three seconds left gave Texas the victory. Texas had six turnovers in the game.

The Red Raiders go into this week's game with few injuries. Only one player, offensive guard Mike McBride, will not play, because of a broken ankle.

Texas Tech linebacker Brad Hastings leads the Southwest Conference in tackles with 113 this season, an average of 16.1 per game. The Longhorns leading defensive player is linebacker Ty Allert with 62 tackles for an average of 12.4 per game.

The Texas Tech defense leads the nation in pass defense, allowing 104 yards per game. Red Raider opponents have completed 43.7 percent of their passes, also the lowest among the top 20 teams in pass defense.

Four of the Red Raiders' games have been decided this year in the last minute and a half of play.

Stanton 8th grade falls to Amarillo Christian, 13-8

Stanton Junior High School's eighth grade football team fell behind Amarillo Christian 13-0 in the first half and suffered a 13-8 loss Thursday in a game played in Hereford.

The loss dropped Stanton's season record to 0-8. A Stanton ninth grade game against the Canyon sophomores was canceled Thursday.

Amarillo Christian scored a touchdown and extra point in the first quarter, and added a touchdown in the second quarter for a 13-0 halftime lead.

Stanton scored its touchdown in the fourth quarter when Robert Merriam rushed five yards for the score.

The touchdown was set up by a 40-yard run by Merriam. Ron Hathaway ran for the two-point conversion after Merriam scored the touchdown.

In the third quarter, Stanton drove to the Amarillo Christian eight-yard line but fumbled away the ball.

"The defense played a very good game," said Stanton Coach Pat Liles. "Amarillo Christian scored against us with a wingback reverse and a touchdown bomb.

Liles said defensive players Phillip Martin and Bubba Long had outstanding efforts in Thursday's game.

Martin is a defensive tackle, and Long plays at the noseguard position.

The 1985 football season ends next Tuesday when all three Stanton teams go against La Plata. Action begins at 4:15 p.m. at Whiteface Stadium with the seventh grade game.

The eighth grade game will be played after the seventh grade game, and then the ninth grade game will be played.

Correcting some errors in a report on the Stanton seventh grade football team in the Wednesday issue of the Brand, the Stanton seventh graders are coached by Paul Sample and have a 1-1 season record. The Brand regrets the errors.

Local Church News

WESLEY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The public is invited to a revival at the church, located at 410 Irving, beginning Nov. 8. The guest speaker is Wesley Putnam.

Services are set at 7 p.m. Nov. 8-9 at 11 a.m. Nov. 10.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

It is not too late to register for the Bill Gothard seminar to be held in Amarillo Nov. 11-16. Call the church office at 364-8303 if you would like to attend.

A country Christmas bazaar is planned in the church gym Nov. 22. Each family needs to donate at least one item such as a craft, or jellies, jams, etc. The bazaar is sponsored by the children's ministries in cooperation with the Prime Timers. For further information call Jeff Love, Carol Haile or Sue Curtis.

A revival is currently being held each evening until Sunday at the Valleyview Church of the Nazarene located at 7601 S. Western in Amarillo. Services begin at 7:30 p.m.

Gary Haines, former renowned nightclub singer and entertainer in Detroit, will be the guest speaker.

Jim Williams, a missionary to Taiwan, will be at morning worship services Sunday. He and his wife, Kay, have served in Taiwan since 1976 and have completed study courses in Mandarin Chinese and have started churches in different areas.

Saturday, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon, the gym will be open for children from first through sixth grades.

All men of the church are invited to attend a work day on Saturday, Nov. 9. Meet at 7 a.m. at Savage's and then come to the church to work.

The church annual Thanksgiving dinner is set Wednesday, Nov. 20, at the Bull Barn. This Sunday you can sign up in the foyer to bring your favorite food.

ST. THOMAS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A community Thanksgiving service is planned at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 24, at First Baptist Church.

Stewardship chairman Bob Denning has announced that Nov. 17 will be the date for Stewardship Sunday at the church.

A workshop on the New Hymnal will be conducted at St. Andrews Nov. 23 from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Linda Gilbert and The Rev. Charles R. Threewit plan to attend and would welcome others to come along.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Pre-registration for the Women's Retreat will begin Sunday and conclude Sunday, Nov. 10. The retreat will be held on Nov. 10-17.

The speaker will be Ruby Cline. She will speak on "A Walk by Faith." The cost of the retreat is $30 which includes a banquet, room charges, and a love offering for the speaker. A $10 deposit is required at the time of pre-registration.

Eubank CWF will have a Bible study on Wednesday, Nov. 6, at 9:30 a.m. in the church friendship court.

A group from Kanakut-Kanakomo Camp will be in Hereford on Thursday, Nov. 7. They will be having a meeting at the Hereford State Bank at 7 p.m. and will show films and discuss drug and alcohol abuse in youth. All youth, ages 8 through 18, are encouraged to attend.

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Mary McLeod of Hillsboro, Tx. will speak at the church at 11:45 a.m. Saturday. The church is located at 1508 Whittier Road.

GRACE GOSPEL CHURCH

Rev. Evelyn Tallant, pastor, invites the public to hear Mary McLeod of Hillsboro, Tx., who will speak at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday at the church.

The church is located at 13th St. and Ave. K.

McLeod has served as a wife, mother, registered nurse, a student of the opera, a high school English teacher and instructor of voice and Bible at Christ for the Nations Institute in Dallas.

At the present time, McLeod is traveling in ministry to women's groups, retreats and churches throughout the United States.

She will also speak at 10 a.m. Monday in the Flame Fellowship Room of Quality Inn located at I-40 East in Amarillo.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Everyone is invited to "Praise Sing" at 4 p.m. Sunday in the church fellowship hall. Bring favorite salads and desserts.

A fall retreat for youth is planned Nov. 15-16 at High Plains Baptist Assembly. A progressive Thanksgiving feast is set for Saturday, Nov. 16.

An all youth lock-in is scheduled from 10:30 p.m. until 6:30 a.m. Nov. 8. It will feature an evangelism game called "Puttin' On The Gospel Hits." Kanakut-Kanakomo Camp is sponsoring a seminar on peer pressure and drugs. Joe White and camp counselors will be moderators of the program.

All youth, ages 8-18, are encouraged to attend the meeting beginning at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7, at Hereford State Bank's friendship room.

The third grade Sunday school class will meet in the Sunday school room to have breakfast at McDonald's at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

Lynn Gurney and Marjorie Stephens groups will meet for a Bible study at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 6, in Kinsey Parlor.

The Baptist Women will have a salad supper at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7, in the church fellowship hall.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A delegation from First United Methodist Church, including about 20 members of the sanctuary choir, will go to Amarillo Sunday evening for the Annual Conference of Amarillo District churches. It will be held in St. Stephen Church.

The choir group will join a massed choir from churches over the district, to present a Hymn Festival at the service beginning at 7 p.m. The subject will be God's Self Revealed, and the massed choir will be directed by Reginald Brown, minister of music in First Christian Church of Amarillo.

A registration period will begin at 4:30 p.m. and a business session will be held before dinner at 6 p.m. Dr. Weldon Butler, pastor; Margaret Bell, charge lay leader, and a number of others from the church staff and membership will go from Hereford, as well as the singers.

A personal visit with every member of First UMC is the goal of workers in a Circuit Rider Commitment Program now underway, which will close with a Pledge Sunday service and a kickoff banquet Nov. 10. Shirley Garrison, stewardship chairman in the church, is director.

The program is being led by Circuit Leaders, Mark Landrum, Eddie Derr, Julius Bodner, Johnny Trotter, Ike Stevens and Corky Lockmiller. Marjorie Mims is serving as secretary.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

An attendance of over 2,000 was recorded on Sunday, Oct. 27, at the Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Civic Center in Amarillo.

John Powers, local minister of Jehovah's Witnesses said "The Assembly carried the theme, "Doing Our Part In Glorifying God", and one highlight was when 26 were baptized in symbol of their dedication to God."

Robert L. Hartman, assembly overseer, delivered the principal address "Global Peace - From What Source?" He pointed out that there is an urgent need for peace on a global scale. People everywhere are alarmed at international terrorism, universal preparations for war, and now leaders even talk of 'star wars'.

It is evident that global peace is not attainable through human efforts. Even the United Nations, originally hailed as the last hope for peace, has failed to bring peace, just as did its predecessor, the League of Nations.

Yet, global peace is assured by the great God of all the universe, Jehovah, and soon. God's Kingdom Rule, now in the hands of Christ Jesus, has already brought hundreds of thousands of Jehovah's Witnesses into a peaceful state. This is a sample of the paradise conditions and global peace that lies ahead for all the earth and all those who love God and truly serve Him.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The scripture lesson for the Rev. Bruce Kochsmeier's sermon Sunday morning is Galatians 5:1-15. The sermon's title is "A Passage to Freedom."

The Women's Association will meet for a luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. Bring a covered dish.

The deacons will sponsor a potluck dinner immediately following the worship service on Nov. 10. Please bring a dish and join in the fellowship.

The youth fellowship will meet Sunday evening at the church. Both groups will have supper at 7 p.m. The junior high meets from 5:30-7 p.m. and the senior high meets after supper from 7:30-9 p.m. The subject under discussion will be "The Date of a Lifetime."

LIFE INSURANCE ENHANCED

NEW YORK (AP) — A new benefit to enhance employees' group life insurance coverage is gaining acceptance by U.S. companies, according to Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

The firm says its "Total Control Account" program gives an employee's beneficiary the choice of having life insurance proceeds paid into options that guarantee competitive interest rates. These include a guaranteed money market account with free checking, interest certificates and tax-advantaged arrangements.

Met Life says that "Since August 1984, more than 300 major companies have added the new benefit to the group coverage of more than 3.5 million employees."

 Classified advertising rates are based on a minimum of 20 words. One day is 13 cents per word or $2.60 minimum. Rates below are for consecutive issues, no copy change, and apply to solid ad lines only.

TIMES	RATES	MIN.
1 day per word:	13	2.60
2 days per word:	22	4.40
3 days per word:	31	6.20
4 days per word:	40	8.00

5th day FREE.
 Add 9 cents per word for additional days: 10 days (2 free) is 15.20; minimum; 15 days (3 free) is 22.40; month 75.00.

Classified display rates apply for special captions, paragraphing, bold type or larger type, and ads not set with full lines. $2.60 per column inch, $2 a column inch for additional insertions, or $1.75 a column inch per month.

LEGALIS
 Advertising rates for legal notices are $3.50 per column inch for the first insertion and $3 per column inch for consecutive insertions.

Deadlines for classified ads are 3 p.m. daily for the next day's edition; 3 p.m. Friday for Sunday's edition.
 Cash is required on advertisements under $10.

ERRORS
 Every effort is made to avoid errors in Classified Ads and legal notices. We will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Advertisers should call attention to any errors immediately after the first insertion. In case of errors not the fault of the advertiser, an additional insertion will be given.
