County Hires Advisor on Events Center

BY BOE NIGH
MANAGING EDITOR
Deaf Smith County commissioners Monday agreed to employ First Southwest, Co. of Dallas as a financial advisor on the county's suggested part in a proposed special events center, and appointed County Judge Glen Nelson and Pct. 1 Commissioner Bill Bradley to a committee to continue work on the project.

Jim Conkwright, a member of the special events committee appointed by the chamber of commerce, introduced James H. Kerley, Jr. to the court. Kerley is Executive Vice President of First Southwest Co.

Kerley's firm handles about six percent of the municipal bonds sold in the U.S. annually, and has been consulted concerning the possibility of obtaining and selling bonds for the county, school district, and city for their proposed shares of constructing the events center.

The county is being asked to build an auditorium-banquet hall facility within the proposed special events complex, which would cost around $10 million. The auditorium part by the county has been preliminarily estimated to cost some $4 million.

A bond election is the best feasible way to finance the project, and the chamber's committee has asked each governmental entity to hold a bond election to finance the project. The Herford Independent School District, which has been asked to build a gymnasium-sports complex, will consider the request further at a board meeting tonight, and the Herford City Commission, which has been asked to build an Olympic-size swimming pool, will consider it at their next meeting if not before at a special called meeting according to Conkwright.

adult Probation Office as requested by Harold Wheeler, and were brought up to date on some changes in the juvenile services operation. The county will advertise for bids on insurance, and the court agreed to open those bids on Sept. 1. Representatives of Blue Cross-Blue Shield were present Monday to present their figures, which included an increase of 45 percent in premiums. According to the insurance group, county employees paid $55,809 in premiums last year, and received $66,144 in benefits from Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

Pct. 3 Commissioner Bruce Coleman proposed a resolution from the county to be sent to the Panhandle, State, and National associations of counties concerning the dissolution of the Legal Services Corporation. Coleman's resolution called for the U.S. Congress to dissolve Legal Services Corp.

Morrison New Assistant Agent

Brad Morrison, an August graduate of Texas A&M University, has accepted the position of Assistant County Extension Agent in Deaf Smith County effective Sept. 1. He will replace Robby Vann, who left July 30 to take a position with the Federal Land Bank in Waco.

Morrison had been planning to do upon graduation from college. He is looking forward to meeting the people, working with 4-H'ers, and getting involved with the stock shows.

Brad Morrison

First Southwest Co. will work on a contingency basis, meaning that they will be paid for their work only if a bond issue is approved by county voters and the bonds are actually sold. Their fee for the $4 million bond issue would amount to some $26,300 Kerley said.

Meet the Herd Event Tonight

"Meet-the-Herd Night" is scheduled at Whiteface Stadium, beginning at 7:30 p.m. today. The annual ice-cream social is conducted to introduce the members of the Herford Whiteface football team and their coaches. Athletic Director Don Cumpton announced today that the Herford High Band, twirlers, cheerleaders and drill team will participate in the program. Fans will also be treated to an "open house" of the Herd's training facilities and dressing rooms.

A new building was completed this summer to house the weight-lifting room. This addition enabled the athletic department to provide a girls' track room and to enlarge the training room facilities.

Home-made ice cream will be offered, for a small contribution, by members of the Whiteface Booster Club during the evening's program. The gridders for all high school Whiteface teams will be recognized at the meeting.

The Herd is starting its second week of drills, getting prepared for the opening game here Sept. 3 against the Pampa Harvesters. The Herd advanced all the way to the state semifinals and finished with a 13-1 won-lost record last season.

Top Parade Floats

The Mormon Church float, featuring Herford's Family of the Year (top), won Best All-Around Float honors in the Town & Country Jubilee Parade Saturday morning. The Herford State Banks' entry won the Most Expressive of Theme award. A total of 65 entries were in the parade. See more jubilee photos on pages 7 and 10. (Brand Photos).

During July

Pace of Inflation Halved

WASHINGTON (AP) — Renewed restraint in gasoline price hikes held July's consumer price increase to 7.3 percent, calculated annually, the government said today. The pace of inflation was nearly cut in half from the double-digit rates of the two preceding months.

July's moderate gain was also aided by a slowing of housing cost increases and by food prices holding dead even.

July's increase meant that, for the first seven months of the year, consumer prices have risen at an annual rate of 5.4 percent, considerably under the 8.9 percent posted for all of last year and the 12.4 percent of 1980.

For all of 1982, economists are predicting inflation of around 6 percent. Much of the moderation, at least in July, was due to reverses in the gasoline price increases registered early in the summer. Gasoline prices last month were up only 2 percent, less than half the 5.4 percent gain of June.

The early-summer increases had followed a general tightening in the worldwide oil surplus. But stocks have since risen anew. Analysts say the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries has not been entirely successful in restricting members' oil production. Reflecting that, major refiners earlier reported wholesale price drops in the last half of July and the first part of August.

Mahan Getting Involved Again

By JERRY CURTIS
Staff Writer
He's a wild bull rider and he loves his rodeo. Larry Mahan, six time All-Around Cowboy, sneaked into Herford Friday night to surprise his buddy Fern Sawyer at the unveiling of a portrait of the 1976 National Cowgirl Hall of Fame honoree.

"I didn't know if the S.O.B. was coming or not," spouted the spunky cowgirl. "Yes, we're old buddies, but I'm older."

Fighting Errupts East of Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Heavy fighting erupted today in mountains east of Beirut as the fourth contingent of PLO fighters prepared to leave the Israeli-tinged capital by sea and U.S. Marines poised to come ashore to join a peacekeeping force.

New battles were reported in Lebanon's central mountains close to the Beirut-Damascus highway, which Palestine Liberation Organization guerrillas are scheduled to take on Wednesday on their evacuation to neighboring Syria.

The Israeli military command reported in a terse statement that "heavy fighting" broke out north and east of Beirut between Syrian troops and Israeli-backed Christian militiamen. But Christian radio broadcasts in Beirut said Israeli forces were locked in heavy artillery duels with Syrian and Palestinian forces in three villages along a strip of the highway about 12 miles east of Beirut.

Mahan has pulled out of the saddle bronc and bull riding that won him big bucks in the late 1960s and early 1970s and latched onto roping. The roping is to fill in when the gentleman cowboy isn't on television announcing for ProTour U.S.A.

"I enjoy roping and getting horses ready for roping," the champ said, though he has only performed in about 10 rodeos this year. Mahan has started raising horses in Arizona and Colorado to keep his fingers in the rodeo pie. He is also heavily involved in

Feds Meeting On Pipeline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top Reagan administration officials are meeting at the White House to consider France's direct challenge of a ban on use of American equipment for building a Soviet natural gas pipeline. Secretary of State George P. Shultz and top Treasury and Commerce Department officials were meeting today after Paris ordered a French subsidiary of an American company to defy the embargo President Reagan imposed in June.

The French government told Dresser France, a subsidiary of Dresser Industries Inc., of Dallas, to load rotor parts for shipment to the Soviet Union for use in the 3,600-mile pipeline.

Meanwhile, Dresser Industries asked the U.S. District Court in Washington to block Commerce Secretary Malcolm Baldrige and others from acting against the firm if it makes the deliveries to a Soviet freighter at the French port of Le Havre. A spokesman for the parent company said Monday that it had been notified Dresser France was served with a requisition order to complete delivery of the compressors "under penalty of both civil and criminal sanctions."

In Parade, Contests

Jubilee Winners Named

While everyone was a winner at the Second Annual Herford Town & Country Jubilee last weekend, a host of contests were held in which specific honors were handed out. The Jubilee parade Saturday morning drew 65 entries. Best expressing the theme of "Our Golden Future" was the Herford State Bank float, while the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints float was judged Best All-Around Float. The Best Antique Car award went to the Pioneer Study Club, while the Best Equestrian entry was the Herford Charros Riding Club.

The Nazarene Church's float won the President's Award. At the chili cookoff at Veteran's Park Sis Wolfe of Nacona was judged tops in a large field, and qualified for the World Chile Cookoff in Tralingua, Texas as a result. Runner-up was Gary Wallace of Wichita Falls, while Leesa Penlen of Amarillo was third. Showmanship awards went to Ray Shades' "Shady Bunch" of Lubbock, while the KGNC radio group from Amarillo was second. Placing third in that category was "The Store" from Herford.

In the new beard category John Walch was the winner in the fullest beard category, with Bob Nigh second and Fred Fox third. Roger Hamilton took goatee honors, while Tom Simons' had the "neatest" facial covering, edging out Bud Thomas and Fox for that honor. Cecil Guthrie had the longest beard with Nigh second and Fox third again in that category. Wayne Sims took honorable mention in the new beard group.

Brand Claims Press Awards

The Herford Brand received four awards in the West Texas Press Association's annual newspaper contest when presentations were made Saturday in Abilene. The Brand took a first-place in photographs and earned three second-place awards for general excellence, advertising composition and columns. Publisher O.G. Nieman accepted the awards for The Brand staff.

Brand editor Bob Nigh's columns took the second-place in column writing. Photos by Mauri Montgomery and other staff members earned the first-place plaque for The Brand. In the daily newspaper competition Big Spring, Dalhart and Pecos also captured first-place plaques. Pecos had a total of five awards and The Brand earned four in the small-daily division of the contest.

Blind Student Earns Doctorate in Physics

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Ten years ago, when Henry Schreiner was a sophomore at the University of Oklahoma, some counselors tried to talk Schreiner out of majoring in physics.

Physics is a demanding field, they told him.

Now he has a doctorate from the University of Texas, and administrators say they are almost certain that Schreiner is the first blind student to earn a Ph.D. degree from the UT physics department.

"Blind people should try to do whatever they want to do," said Schreiner. "They have abilities like anyone else."

Schreiner was blinded when he was 12 by a virus that damaged his optic nerves.

Fatal Chainsaw Wound Believed Self-Inflicted

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Lubbock County sheriff's department officials say they are certain a man whose throat was slashed by a chainsaw committed suicide, but a peace justice is withholding a cause of death ruling.

The body of Randall Lynn Thompson, 30, was found about 6 p.m. Sunday in a field north of Lubbock, said sheriff's department deputy Bill Drewell.

A 16-inch, gasoline-powered chainsaw was found two feet away, still in the "on" position, Drewell said.

Thompson used the chainsaw to slit his jugular vein on the left side of his neck and cut his larynx, Drewell said.

"There's no doubt in our minds that the wound was self-inflicted," said sheriff's office administrator Don Stapleton. He said an inquest would be requested "because of the unusual weapon and circumstances surrounding" the death.

Justice of the Peace Earl Yarborough said he was withholding a ruling on the cause of death until he investigates the case further.

"We want to talk to (Thompson's) psychiatrist and he is out of town. It's going to be a while before this is cleared up," Yarborough said.

The psychiatrist, who officials declined to identify, was reported to be out of town until Sept. 7, officials said.

Senator Borrows Line From Brother's Speech

HOUSTON (AP) — U.S. Sen. Edward Kennedy borrowed a line from a speech his slain brother never got to deliver to illustrate the bond between Texas and the Democratic party.

The address was to have been given by President John F. Kennedy in Dallas the day he was assassinated Nov. 22, 1963.

"The historic bonds which unite

Texas and the Democratic Party are no temporary union of convenience," Kennedy read Monday. "We are united instead by a common history and heritage, a respect for the deeds of the past and the needs of the future."

"That is the kind of state Texas has always been, the kind of vision which Texas has always possessed and that is why Texas will always be basically Democrat," he read.

The Massachusetts Democratic, targeted by conservative groups for defeat in the November election, took time off from his own re-election campaign Monday to stump for Texas Democratic candidates.

He was scheduled leave Texas after attending a breakfast meeting today.

Kennedy shared the stage at a party fundraiser Monday with former U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, who was defeated in the 1970 primary by Lloyd Bentsen.

Playpen for Senators

Rarely has the majority in Congress been more arrogantly disdainful of the rest of us.

Last Christmas, while urging the rest of us to make-do on less, members of Congress voted themselves a whopping increase in pay and expensive fringes.

Now — with Congress asking us to accept higher taxes and tighter belts and less aid even for disabled Americans — Members of Congress are selectively feathering their home nests within appropriations for 267 new military facilities.

You can trace directly to Congress is voting fewer

"perks" for the rest of us because we are told, all Americans must help reduce government spending ...

While, at the same time, members of Congress ask us for $736,000 for a new playpen for themselves.

Understand, the House already has for its own exclusive use a swimming pool, basketball court, weight room, paddleball courts, steam room, sauna bath and seven attendants to massage their egos.

The Senate has its own pool, basketball court, weight room, steam room, sauna bath — plus five attendants.

Senate Office building they want a new gymnasium.

To quote Steven Dunleavy, "These are the already pampered parasites who get gourmet meals at a cut rate, free haircuts, nine thousand dollars for stamps, free paints and plants for their offices — who yell, scream and beat their chests over what is being done to poor people by what the call the "Reagan budget" — and now they want for themselves a million-dollar massage."

Some of us have defended Congressional pay scales and perks in the past. But the gall of this last batch of hilltop hustlers is unprecedented, indefensible.

Reagan Star Attraction at Dinner

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President Reagan, decked out in Western garb, rode into a Hollywood movie studio to help a fellow Republican's campaign, but he wound up touting his own record as well.

Reagan was the star attraction at a $1,000-a-plate fundraiser for senatorial candidate Pete Wilson.

Burying some recent political differences with Wilson, Reagan appeared with the candidate and urged 1,000 Republican loyalists to stand behind the San Diego mayor in his battle with California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr., for the Senate seat now held by S.I. Hayakawa.

Reagan's comments about Wilson were limited to praising him as mayor of "one of the best-run communities in the United States," and recalling his good service as a legislator.

"You send Pete Wilson to Washington," Reagan declared. "If you can't send him, don't send anybody!"

The crowd, which included movie stars from Reagan's era, roared their approval.

For the balance of his speech, Reagan defended his economic recovery program and insisted it is succeeding, despite his critics' belief otherwise. He cited a decrease in interest rates from 21 percent at the start of his administration to the current 13.5 percent.

"Some failure!" Reagan declared.

The president spoke of increased personal income, new housing starts and a rise in savings by Americans.

And he won loud applause with remarks about his "new federalism" program which he said would "give back to the states the powers that were unjustly seized by the federal government."

Mahan from page 1 County from page 1

"You have to get off on it" to make it pay.

The rodeo hassles are pretty much the same as when Mahan started out, but he says the pace is faster. He added that a lot of performers are not from western or rural backgrounds, such as Bobby Delvecchio who hails from Brooklyn, N.Y., as they were in his rookie years.

That trend was proven at a recent "rodeo school" Mahan conducted at the Arizona State Prison. He said guys were wanting to learn who had "never touched a horse and had their hats on backwards."

He loves his rodeo. In the arena. At a prison. In clothes. On television. And, meanwhile, back at the ranch.

and ask the Congress to send two-thirds of the current funding directly to counties to be used at the discretion of local officials to meet the needs of indigents.

Coleman will represent Deaf Smith County as a member of the Resolution Committee at the County Judges' and Commissioner's State Convention in Abilene

Oct. 13-15.

The county fathers also approved payment of $253 for National Association of Counties' dues for the coming year and agreed to advertise for bids for a 15-foot mower for Pct. 1.

All four commissioners and Judge Nelson were present for the meeting.

France has a contract to supply 21 compressors built with technology from General Electric Co.

In California, where Reagan is vacationing, White House spokesman Larry Speakes said Monday the U.S. government had a number of options in response to the French decision.

He said the group meeting at the White House, which had been scheduled to take up various international economic problems, would send recommendations to the president as quickly as possible.

Speakes did not say what steps might be taken.

Reagan has sought to block the Soviet's natural gas pipeline as a means of pressuring the Soviet Union to persuade Polish authorities to relax various martial law restrictions.

Initially, he banned the export of American equipment for the project. But on June 18, Reagan broadened his Dec. 29 order to include foreign subsidiaries of American firms and European firms that purchase

U.S.-licensed equipment.

Reagan took the second action after meeting with European leaders and against the advice of the State Department, which was concerned that relations with the allies could be ruptured.

France, West Germany, Italy and Britain are fighting the boycott. To them, the pipeline represents jobs and an alternative to Persian Gulf oil. They consider the U.S. government to be inconsistent since it is permitting extra grain sales to the Soviet Union.

The U.S. legal view is that subsidiaries of American firms and companies holding American contracts can be compelled to obey the embargo. However, there is a question whether companies that obtained American equipment before Reagan's June order are bound by it.

The pipeline is to begin carrying gas from Siberia in 1984. European leaders contend the project means thousands of industrial jobs in nations suffering the worst unemployment since the Great Depression.

Fighting from page 1

The 1,000 Palestine Liberation Organization guerrillas, made up mostly of guerrillas from the mainstream faction of Fatah, were bound for North Yemen, on the Arabian Peninsula at the southern end of the Red Sea. More than 2,100 Palestine Liberation Organization guerrillas have left the city since Sunday for Tunisia, Iraq, Jordan and South Yemen.

The American colonel, who was in a great hurry, told "Associated Press correspondent Jeffrey Ulbrich the U.S. Marines were landing at the port on Wednesday, but had no time to elaborate.

A French officer said that once the Americans had landed, the legionnaires would pull out of the port and take up new positions at Beirut's national museum crossing intersection at the Green Line that divides the capital into Christian and Moslem sectors.

In the interview with the Milan, Italy, newspaper, Corriere della Sera, PLO chief Yasser Arafat charged that Europe and the United States supported the Israeli siege of Beirut.

He said the Palestinian fighters only agreed to leave "to avoid new fatalities among civilians, women and children, in Beirut. I am a human being, I am not a terrorist."

The group that left Monday, like those on the previous days, was seen off by crowds in west Beirut cheering and firing guns and pistols into the air. The convoy to the port was delayed about an hour when a car bomb exploded a mile away and PLO security officers checked the route. No one was hurt in that blast.

The departure was delayed another hour while some guerrillas surrendered weapons not covered by the U.S.-negotiated agreement, which allows each guerrilla one pistol, rifle or machine gun.

The draft of 1,095 guerrillas that sailed Sunday aboard the Cypriot ferry Sol Phryne for Tunisia took along 21 jeeps in violation of the agreement, causing the Israelis to hold up its departure for six hours. The ship was allowed to sail after the United States gave Israel its assurances that the vehicles would be taken off en route. The Sol Phryne put into Limassol, Cyprus, Monday for the unloading, then resumed the voyage.

In Washington, the U.S. government said it was satisfied the evacuation was proceeding without any ma-major setbacks but expressed concern over reports of cease-fire violations in eastern Lebanon. Israel charges that Palestinian guerrillas who took refuge there with Syrian troops in the Bekaa Valley are shooting at Israeli troops and trying to infiltrate their lines.

The farewell gunfire for the Palestinians in west Beirut Monday was matched by celebratory Christian barges in east Beirut after the Lebanese Parliament elected 34-year-old Bashir Gemayel to succeed President Elias Sarkis on Sept. 23.

Gemayel, the only announced candidate and the commander of Lebanon's largest Christian militia, was elected despite a Moslem boycott that delayed the voting for two hours while his older brother rounded up a quorum.

Duck Wins Race With Armadillo

DEMING, N.M. (AP) — It was feathers against armor, and armor lost as a duck waddled home ahead of his armadillo opponent in an unusual race at the weekend's World Richest Duck Race here.

Lewis brought three armadillos from his hometown of San Angelo, Texas, where armadillo racing is as popular as duck racing is in Deming.

Saturday's race was to decide a long-standing controversy over which is faster — ducks or armadillos.

The contestants were ready; the starter shouted, the trumpet tooted, and they were off.

Or at least BFD Express was off, waddling down the 17-foot lane toward a wall of sound.

The armadillo stayed at the gate.

But as the duck neared the finish line, disaster appeared.

Reserves Sponsor Calf Fry

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Reserves will sponsor a calf fry at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Bull Barn.

Tickets for the all-you-can-eat meal, which includes potato salad, beans, and all the trimmings, are $4 for adults and $2 for children. They may be purchased from any reserve officer or at the door.

Call 289-5653 or 258-7587 to reserve tickets.

Theft of Go-Cart Tops Police Report

A $300 go-cart taken from a residence at 522 Irving topped the police reports for Monday. The cart is red and black.

Police received a report of a bike stolen from 326 Avenue H. The yellow girls' bike is valued at $105.

A neighborhood kid is suspected in criminal mischief where a ball net was torn down.

Police arrested two persons for public intoxication and issued 10 tickets.

Defending the honor of feathered fowl everywhere was Robert Duck, owner of last year's fastest duck, BFD Express. And on hand to strike a blow against duck racing was Sam Lewis, famed armadillo racer.

Summer's End Brings Thoughts of 4-H

BY PENNY REINART
County Extension Agent
It seems 1982 began only a few days ago. I remember the day it snowed, the day the water pipes froze. Then came spring with its beauty and new life. We all knew that school would soon be out for the summer.

Then suddenly it was here—good old summertime. A time to relax and to have fun with your friends. Now, it's almost gone. School starts again in a matter of days and the fun times will once again be only a memory.

But it doesn't have to be this way, you know. As summer vacation draws to a close, there are options open to you which can help keep the spirit of summer alive all year long.

How would you like to become a part of a group which meets on a regular basis, a group which includes some of your friends, a group where you will feel needed and important?

How would you like to learn new things, with this group, plan and conduct fun activities which you want to do, go places and see things which are of interest to you?

How would you like to explore your own future, to plan ahead for your career, for your education?

How would you like to work beside a caring adult, someone who has a real interest in you and your future, to be able to talk to that person about almost anything and know that he or she respects you and would never violate any confidence?

How would you like to learn to keep records of your activities and accomplishments—records which are meaningful to you and which can serve as a reminder to you and others for years to come?

How would you like to be able to apply for one of more than 70 different college scholarships, some worth up to $6,000 to you and your family?

Oh yes, your family. How would you like for all these things to happen to you in an organization which involves all of you?

It can happen, you know. It happens every day after summer vacation for more than five million young men and women. They are part of this nation's largest youth organization—4-H.

Yes, that's right, 4-H. Did you know that there is a 4-H group near where you live? And they would love to have you come and join them.

Give 4-H a try. You will find that, even though summer has come to an end, the fun is just beginning.

To find out more about this exciting youth program, contact the county Extension office (364-3573). Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Ruland to Serve as Second Year Drum Major at McMurry

Tim Ruland, former Hereford High band member, has been selected to serve a second year as drum major for the Fighting Indian Band of McMurry College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ruland of Hereford.

The band this year will march 100 members strong. They will perform at the local half time shows and parades and will top off the year with a spring tour throughout Texas.

The band boasts the addition of two more Hereford ex-band members. Bruce Wright and Robert Parsons will join the ranks this semester. Ruland is now a second semester sophomore majoring in acting and religious drama. When asked about his plans for the future Tim says, "I hope to finish up here at McMurry staying with the band as long as possible. I hope to then continue on to a master's level acting academy in hopes of some T.V. and or movie roles. I plan to get my teaching degree so as to have something to fall back on."

Concerning his past in Hereford, he says, "It was a great place to be. I have so many people to thank for their past support and prayers. The school system, the band and drama departments, my church, and all the wonderful people of Hereford."

"I've got a tough row to hoe as far as T.V. goes. The prayers are still needed. Thanks, Hereford."

Mixers Participate In Jubilee, Street Dance

A dozen couples from the Merry Mixers Square Dance Club met Friday evening at Moorman's Feed yard parking lot to finalize plans for the float and to practice calls to be danced on the parade float and during the Town and Country Jubilee.

Bob Hammock was surprised with a birthday cake, watermelon and gag gifts.

Those helping with float preparation and volunteering to ride on the float included Bob and Betty Hammock, Carlyle and Dorothy Sargent, Benny and Joan Womble, James and Sandy Burrus, Al and Olga Harris.

Also, Ed and Angie McCreary, Truman and Sarah Hazelrigg, Whitney and Lou Ann Rounds, Cliff and Reba Allmon, Ed and Ann Line, Eugene and Norman Hendon, and Earl and Nadine Lance.

The club entertained on stage between 12 noon and 12:30 p.m. at the Jubilee Junction in Dameron Park Saturday. All interested persons were invited to join the Merry Mixers for square dance lessons beginning Sept.

23 at the Community Center. Two open lessons will be held, on Sept. 23 and Sept. 30. For more information, contact Rocky Lee or Truman Hazelrigg.

The Merry Mixers sponsored a street dance Saturday night in the parking lot of Jerry Shipman's Insurance. Roy Johnson of Amarillo was caller for seven squares and Al Harris cued the rounds.

Visitors were welcomed from Good Timers and Country Singles of Hereford, Pairs and Squares and XYL&M of Amarillo, the Dimmitt Curlicues, Boots and Lace from Walcott, and Diamonds and Denim of Canyon.

Special guests included Ed and Mary Barbee of Lubbock, vice-president of the United Square Dancers of America representing the plains states; Ed and Angie McCreary, second vice-president of the Texas Square and Round Dance Federation; and Jimmy and Veda Rickman of Amarillo, vice president of the South District Square and Round Dance Association.

Brockmans Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Friends and children of the Allan Brockmans surprised the couple with a 25th anniversary party at the Joe Schumacher's home on Saturday. The couple renewed their vows at a special outdoor Mass read by Father Boniface Reidman.

All of the Brockman's six children were present including a surprise appearance of their two older sons. Greg from New York and Don of Dallas, who flew in for the occasion.

Other family members are Paul, Lee, Walter, and Carmen of the home.

Several of the wedding attendants were also present including Betty Grubaugh, Melvin Przilas, Mary Theresa Friemel, and Richard Friemel.

Approximately 65 guests signed the register, which was displayed on a lace-covered table featuring the wedding book and a three-tier wedding cake.

A buffet garden supper was served, after which Rita Schumacher showed slides depicting highlights of the couple's 25 years together with appropriate music throughout.

Following the slide presentation, a barn dance was enjoyed by those present. Guests were in attendance from Arizona, Lubbock, Dimmitt, Vega, Dalhart, and Umbarger.

Good Timers Schedule Square Dance Lessons

Visitors from Portales, Muleshoe, Tucumcari, Amarillo, Walcott and Dimmitt were welcomed by the Good Timers Square Dance Club Friday evening for their regular dance.

Those present enjoyed the calling of James Pettus of Portales and J.D. Cole of Amarillo.

Good Timers will be sponsoring square dance lessons beginning in September. Anyone interested in being involved may call 364-2406 after 5 p.m. for more information.

Regular dances for the Good Timers in September will be the second and fourth Friday nights in order to avoid conflict with home football games.

Ann Landers

Trust Must be Earned

DEAR ANN LANDERS:
"Where did you go?"
"Who did you see?"
"What did you do?"
"Did he kiss you?"
"Did he try anything else?"
"What did you do after the show?"
"Did you go to his house?"
"Was anyone at home?"
"Did he try to talk you into anything?"
"Did he try to get you to drink alcohol?"
"How come your clothes were so wrinkled?"

Those are just a few of the things I get asked by my mom when I come home from a date. If I told you some of the other questions, you would die laughing.

I am 15 and just started to go with guys this year. The problem I am writing about is very plain to see. My mom doesn't trust me. What can I do about it? — Not Guilty Of Anything In Houston

DEAR NOT GUILTY:
Trust must be earned. If you stay out of places you aren't supposed to be in, get home when you should and behave in a responsible way—always truthful and above-board—your mother will be more relaxed about where you went, who you saw, what you did—and so on. Try it. It works.

DEAR ANN LANDERS:
Your answer to "Weeping Widow," who found love letters from another woman and gift receipts when her husband died suddenly, could have been better. Why didn't you give her the same advice you give to women whose living husbands cheat? I am referring to that famous Ann Landers question: "Ask yourself, would you be better off with him or without him?"

I, too, found out after my husband's death that he had been fooling around for years, but I didn't waste any time crying about it. Instead, I saw the positive aspects of the situation. Everyone knows that widowhood is much more acceptable, socially and financially advantageous. If I had learned of my husband's affair when he was alive, I could not have accepted it. He would have been dead to me in either case.

tioning: the hurt and disillusionment helped reduce the grief, and enabled me to get on with my life promptly. I'm signing myself—Wept, Too, But Not For Long

DEAR NOT FOR LONG: I am filled with admiration for people who, when life hands them a lemon, make lemonade. Go to the head of the class, dear. And thanks for your candor. It was refreshing.

The steam-driven turbine rotor at Talk Station, our new coal-fired plant near Muleshoe, Texas, whirls at such great speed that if it were placed on the highway, it would travel the 125 miles from Lubbock to Amarillo in about 6 minutes. Other interesting facts about the power plant, which began generating electricity in July: At the speed the main steam - which drives the turbine - travels through the pipes, it could finish the Boston Marathon (26 miles) in about 12 minutes. At maximum output the turbine produces about 728,000 horsepower. It can provide power for 5,430,000 hundred-watt light bulbs.

Jim Mathews, Generation Design & Construction Group Manager, Amarillo.

The primary fuel for Talk Station is a low-sulphur, high-heat-value coal from the Black Thunder Mine near Gillette, Wyoming. Southwestern Public Service made the decision to buy this coal because the low-sulphur rating means we can comply with certain requirements of the Clean Air Act without installing extremely complex and extremely expensive pollution-control devices.

Leo Austin, Supervising Engineer, Roswell.

We'll turn things upside down to benefit our customers. Here's an example: We use a "rotary dumper" system to unload the railroad cars which carry coal to Talk. The cars are unloaded one by one. Each is attached to a large wheel that literally turns the car upside down, pouring out the coal. The system allows us to use lighter weight coal cars. So our freight cost is lower, and so is the fuel cost adjustment our customers pay.

Jack Logan, Operations Superintendent, Muleshoe.

Takes All-Around Title

Fuchs Tops Rodeo

Jean Fuchs of Meeker, Colo., won the All-Around Cowgirl trophy saddle Sunday at the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame All Girl Rodeo. Ms. Fuchs placed first in steer undecorating and with partners Pam Wilken and Jerry Draper placed a first and third in team roping. The saddle was made by Bill Lookingbill and donated by him, Tufts and Sons, Walco, Great Plains Chemical and Hi-Pro Animal Health and Feed.

Placings in the seven events after three go-rounds are:

BAREBACKS - 1, Faith Taylor, San Leandro, Calif.; 2, Sandra Harrell, Fort Worth; and 3, Vicki Crawford, Elk Mountain, Wyo.

Braves Warming Up Once More

By MIKE EMBRY AP Sports Writer

Watch out Dodgers, Padres and Giants. Those up-and-down Atlanta Braves are on the upswing again.

The Braves won their fifth straight game Monday night, nipping the Philadelphia Phillies 4-3 on Chris Chambliss' run-scoring double with one out in the bottom of the ninth inning. Theresa Hart, Venus; 2, Harrison; and 3, Angi Averhoff, Saginaw.

BULL RIDING - 1, Amy Campbell, Hartsell, Colo.; 2, Jane Kruse, Cochise, Ariz.; and Donna Jones, Center.

Dave Evans of Wilson won a drawing from the advance rodeo ticket sales and received a western painting by Jayne Simmons Williams of Clovis, N.M.

The Hereford Brand Sports

Lions Sponsoring Benefit Contest

The Hereford Lions Club, in association with the other 66 Lions Clubs of District 2-T1, have announced the sponsorship of the First Annual Lions Charity Game. Set for Sunday, Sept. 26 at 2 pm, at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium in Canyon, the game features the West Texas State University Junior Varsity playing the Panhandle State University Junior Varsity.

All proceeds will benefit Girlstown U.S.A., the Hi-Plains Eye Bank, Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp in Kerrville, as well as local club projects.

According to John David Bryant, chairman of the project, members are currently seeking advertisers for the game program and selling tickets for the game. Ticket price is $2 per person, and is tax deductible.

"Through the cooperation of W.T.S.U., we have an excellent opportunity to help three very worthwhile organizations through support of this game," Bryant said.

Girlstown U.S.A., operating campuses in Borger, Austin, Lubbock, and Whiteface provides home and group living for 140 deserving girls throughout the county from infancy to maturity.

The Hi-Plains Eye Bank is an organization formed to collect human eyes and distribute them to hospitals and doctors for grafting, transplant, or research. The Eye Bank does free glaucoma screenings, conducts enucleation courses, maintains donor card files, and gives educational programs to area clubs and organizations on eye conservation.

The Crippled Children's Camp in Kerrville provides educational rehabilitative services to handicapped children and blind adults. During calendar year 1982, a total of 3,350 people have been helped through the camp. Texas Lions provide 80 percent of all funds for this camp's operation.

For further information concerning Lions Club work or Charity game ticket or advertising information, see any Lions Club member.

Perry Ejected After Throwing Illegal Pitch

By WILLIAM R. BARNARD AP Sports Writer

It took 21 years and countless accusations by frustrated batters before an umpire finally ejected Gaylord Perry for throwing an illegal pitch.

The veteran Seattle right-hander with 304 victories and a book entitled "Me and the Spitter" to his credit, had never been ejected for doctoring a baseball until Monday night.

The Boston Red Sox were leading 1-0 in the seventh inning — in a game they eventually won 4-3 to cut their deficit in the AL East to five games behind Milwaukee — when umpire Dave Phillips thumbed Perry, 43.

"In my judgment, it was definitely an illegal pitch," said Phillips, who said he had warned Perry numerous times in past years without ejecting him. "The ball came in and the bottom fell out."

"It was just something that sank," Perry said.

"He just wanted to stick it to us and that's what he did," said Perry, who also called Phillips "a crusader. He just wants to make a scene. He's going to clean up the world."

Red Sox Manager Ralph Houk said Perry had been throwing a greaseball so much during the game that "it was getting to be a farce. I'm a fan of Gaylord's, but he didn't use it that much in the past."

In other American League games, California edged Boston 6-5, Detroit tripped Oakland 5-1, Texas defeated Kansas City 5-2, New York nipped Toronto 4-3 and Cleveland trimmed Chicago 5-4.

After Perry threw a called strike to Boston's Rick Miller, Phillips, the plate umpire, demanded to see the ball although Seattle catcher Jim Essian already had made his return delivery to Perry on the mound.

Phillips, who had warned Perry against doctoring the ball in the fifth inning, then ejected Perry without looking at the ball. His only previous ejection came early in his career when he was thumbed for bench jockeying.

Although the ejection was Perry's first for throwing an illegal pitch, opposing managers have claimed for most of his career that he has "loaded" his pitches with illegal substances.

Perry admitted in his book that he used illegal pitches to find success in the major leagues, but he said he had quit.

After the ejection, Seattle rebounded from a 2-0 deficit with three runs in the seventh on Manny Castillo's sacrifice fly and a two-run homer by Al Cowens.

But the Red Sox came back in the eighth on Reid Nichols' two-run homer that provided the margin of victory and handed Seattle its sixth straight loss.

Nichols socked an 8-2 pitch from Mariners reliever Bill Caudill, 10-5, into the left field seats after Dave Stapleton walked. Mark Clear, 10-7, got credit for the victory although he surrendered Cowens' homer.

Rangers 5, Royals 2

Dave Schmidt scattered 10 hits in 8 1/3 innings for his first major league win as a starter and Buddy Bell knocked in three runs as Texas defeated Kansas City and knocked the Royals two games behind California in the West.

Schmidt, 4-4, left the game with one out in the ninth after giving up an RBI single to John Wathan, but Danny Darwin came in to retire Willie Wilson on a game-ending double-play.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

A fearful food allergy

DEAR DR. LAMB - Many years ago I was advised by a medical doctor that I was allergic to iodine because when I ate crustacean food, such as shrimp, lobster, turtle, I became very sick for many hours. Recently I underwent an IVP and cystoscopy without complications and the urologist then told me he didn't believe that I was allergic to iodine. I can eat tuna, oysters and other seafood which contain much more iodine than crustaceans without getting sick. Do you believe in allergy to internal iodine? If not, why do I get sick from devouring crustacean food? I've eaten shrimp and crab several times without knowing it and got very sick, so it definitely is not my imagination. DEAR READER - The reason the urologist thinks you are not allergic to iodine is probably because he used a dye containing iodine to do the studies of your kidney and bladder. Since you didn't have a reaction he believes iodine is not your problem. If he is correct, what is your problem? It is the type of protein present in crustaceans, not their iodine content. It is perfectly logical that if you are allergic to shrimp and lobster that you might not be allergic to oysters or other seafoods. Food allergies can just cause hives or they can cause asthma attacks or severe gastrointestinal reactions and even circulatory collapse that can be serious or fatal. Anyone who has severe reactions to a food on an allergic basis should avoid that food entirely. Ingesting it can be dangerous. What means you should never eat shrimp, lobster or the other foods that you know you are allergic to. You might want to consult with an allergist. He may wish to do some tests but I suspect he would be cautious about exposing you to shellfish. Read The Health Letter 19-12, Food Allergies, which I am sending you. Others can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. DEAR DR. LAMB - Could you please tell me what "bronzing" is, what causes it and what can be done about it? DEAR READER - I'll assume you are not referring to the cosmetic practice of using bronzers to make the skin look tanned. You probably refer to the pigment changes in the skin that lead to a darker color. The skin color is dependent upon the production of melanin, a pigment from specialized cells in the skin called melanocytes. There are several conditions that stimulate them to overproduction of pigment. Often these are endocrine problems. A person with adrenal insufficiency may become bronzed because the pituitary gland under the brain increases its activity to stimulate a failing adrenal gland. The pituitary gland also stimulates the melanocytes at the same time. Then there is a condition called bronze diabetes, caused by the body's excess retention of iron. The iron in the liver causes changes in liver function and diabetes. Some medicines may also cause discoloration of the skin. Obviously, what should be done depends entirely on the cause. When adrenal insufficiency is the cause, hormone treatments to replace the adrenal hormone may stop the change. DEAR DR. LAMB - I been having a problem with hyperventilation. That is what my doctor says is causing my symptoms. It is very frightening and causes me to have rather deep depression for several days after it happens. My doctor has given me mild tranquilizers and has told me to try and watch or control my breathing. Present conditions in my home are very upsetting at times, and very difficult to deal with. Is this type of thing life threatening? Just how serious is it? I would appreciate any information you have and so would others who have experienced this same thing. DEAR READER - The reaction you have, assuming your doctor's diagnosis is correct, is from either breathing too fast or too deeply or both. This causes you to blow off too much carbon dioxide through your lungs. The carbon dioxide comes from carbonic acid (water and carbon dioxide combined). The loss of acid upsets the acid base balance of your body causing what doctors call respiratory alkalosis - meaning too much alkali for the amount of acid in your body chemistry. THE HEREFORD BRAND requests all classified advertising that will cost less than $10.00 be paid in advance. Your cooperation will be appreciated. HEREFORD BRAND, 364-2030. 10-55-tfc

BY ERMA BOMBECK

I love gray. It's a hangover from my college days when I did a month's laundry in one load. (Sometimes when I sat on my bed to dress, I blended so well I had to smile so people would know I was there.) About six years ago, I picked up a magazine that had a fashion horoscope in it. Now I don't usually put too much stock in natal signs because everyone else gets the neat ones. Scorpios always get the "Flutter kicks in your pool will change your life" and the Aquarius people are told, "Shop now for pearls that will enhance your naturally sensuous looks." Mine said, "Extra sleep is beneficial. Prop up your feet whenever you can. Invest in something gray. You will be years ahead of your time." If I had known how many years ahead of my time I would be, I'd never invested $154 in a gray wool suit quite that early. So forget that I couldn't find a pair of shoes to match it or a purse or hose or scarf. Just forget that wherever I wore it, someone said, "That's gray, isn't it? I wish it would come back." The point is, that gray suit hung in my closet for six solid years and generated all the excitement of a pregnant moth in a fur storage. Every year when I had my hair cut, I'd thumb through the high-fashion magazines to see if this was the year of MY suit. Oh, occasionally I saw gray coveralls being worn by an Orkin Man spraying bugs on television or a gray fur coat for 19,000, but a gray fashion glut never happened. Until this year. I walked through a shopping center the other day and every window was splashed with gray. Gray suits, gray shoes, gray accessories, gray coats. Gray dresses. Gray slacks. Gray blouses. Every fashion horoscope is touting gray as the color whose time has come. Little children are wearing it with white starched collars. Airline attendants are switching to gray. Cars, furniture and accessories are gray. This fall, you will not be able to walk down the street without a gray person crossing your path. Gray dogs will become chic. Gray hair will be in. Gray TV and gray skies will prevail. Trust me. This is gray's year. You want to know how I know? Four weeks ago, I gave my gray suit to the Salvation Army.
