Around Town

The Sunday Brand will be a little late hitting the streets Saturday because it will carry election results. Polls close at 7 p.m. and Brands should be on the streets after complete election results are tabulated.

Thursday is Ground Observer Day and will be observed nationally with practice alerts, parades and special recognition to the boys and girls, who contribute their time to participating in one of the absolutely vital defense measures. Even if, fabulous as it is, is no substitute for people who man the out stations—whether they are sighting enemy planes, tornadoes or any other potential killer in the skies. So a rousing three for our own Ground Observers and a reminder that they need volunteers.

UNSUNG HEROES OF THE HIGHWAYS—A veteran of 30 years in trucking is A. L. Hall, left, Fort Worth, who recalls having hauled potatoes from Hereford "the first year you grew them." While waiting for a load of produce on Monday, he talked shop with dozens of other truckers, including Lindy Pardon of Haines City, Fla., who at 21 has four years experience in hauling vegetables over the nation's highways.

HARVEST TIME

Mr. Trucker Comes Along; He's A Businessman, Too

By GIL CARLYLE

For one million devoted, stout-hearted men drive trucks that endlessly over the highways of America. These are the independent truck drivers of the nation. They own their "rigs" and drive by day, they drive by night. Sleep is only a word to them. Their travels carry them in every state of the union. Lone is their constant companion. Driving is their job. They don't trade truck driving for their job in the world. Year after year at harvest time in the hundreds of these independent truckers make this city a busy trucking terminal. They have harvested products of Smith County to market in Illinois, Fort Worth, Dallas and on in Texas to Oklahoma, Idaho, Georgia, Florida and to California.

Another veteran trucker from Fort Worth has an incredible record in the truck driving business. He has hauled some of the potatoes ever harvested in Texas to far-away markets. "I used to haul for Howland and J. K. Baker," Hall says, "when their potato houses filled infants in the potato industry many years ago."

Over the Top Hospital Fund

The announcement that the fund now totaled $50,699. Contributions and pledges of board members and managers met with William C. Townes Monday to approve plans and specifications for the construction of a wing on Deaf Smith Hospital. The fund will be advertised in the Brand and bid letting will be held Aug. 1. Contractors have 17 days to start construction after that date, in accordance with the gift grant of $100,000 from the Jim Hill estate which was made in 1955. The fund will be paid in by Jan. 1, 1957, being the total to a little over the required amount. The board members will meet next week. Segler has complete arrangements.

Truckers refer to the cab section of their big trucks as "tractors." They call the trailer portion a "box." How much does one of the big trucks cost when it's new? They cost about a dollar a pound. The prices range from $10,000 to $25,000. A 22,500 pound "rig" costs approximately $22,500.

Another veteran trucker is Henry Schwein of Rocky Ford, Colo. He has been trucking for 28 years. Asked if he had been in all the states, Schwein replied, "Nope, just 39 of them."

A tire on one of the big "rigs" costs between $100 and $200. A trucker with a 22-wheel truck has approximately $3500 invested in tires. Surprisingly, the average trucker has two to three flats a week. Each "rig" carries a large, hydraulic jack which can easily lift a loaded truck for tire-changing.

Average life of a truck tire varies with the position on the truck. The tires on the rear end of a "box" normally last for about 100,000 miles while the tires on the "tractor" last for only 20 to 30,000 miles of grueling wear. A veteran of 15 years of truck driving is Don Murray of La Junta, Colo. Murray owns a diesel truck. "You can save about one-fourth in fuel consumption with a diesel engine," he says. "A diesel rig is more expensive," Murray states, "but it's worth it in the long run."

Like Murray, most of the truckers are presently hauling onions and potatoes from Hereford to remote marketing regions. A load of perishable products requires cooling and refrigeration while the truck is en route to a distant market. Most of the "boxes" are equipped with a bunker cooling system in which ice is used. BANK DEPOSITS SHOW DECLINE WHILE LOAN TOTALS INCREASE

Low market prices for farm products during the past year were reflected in annual statements recently issued by the two Hereford banks. Deposits dropped $345,882.94, while loans increased by $713,892.45.

Total deposits of the two banks at the close of business June 30 were $9,821,025.53, compared to $10,166,708.47 on the same day a year ago. The deposits in 1954, however, were only $9,586,910.06.

Loans increased from $3,568,744.67 to $4,282,437.12 during the year ending June 30. During the preceding year loans increased by just $156,551.38.

Undivided profits climbed to a total of $229,000.61. The total last year was $182,478.64, after recording $311,674.63 in 1955.

Total capital stock of the two banks remained at $200,000, reflecting the increase from $175,000 reported in 1955. And the two statements show a total surplus of $250,000 as they did last year.

Reports from other area banks show marked differences. While most were reporting increased deposits last year, a total decrease of $2,546,321.54 is noted in reports from six Lamb County banks.

At Farwell, the bank's mid-year financial condition summary show loans showed a decline and deposits climbed. Deposits were at $3,562,070.55, compared to $3,456,878 a year ago. Loans had dropped from $1,403,448 to $1,248,247.10.

Priona's bank deposits dropped $148,730.80, while loans dropped $334,118.80.

Officers Join In Search for Rapist

Texas Rangers were called in on Wednesday morning to aid local law enforcement officers in investigation of a reported rape by a colored man of a young white woman here early on Tuesday morning.

Chief of Police Leo Box began investigation of the case after it was reported at 3:20 a.m. by the woman who resides in the 300 block of West Second Street.

Sheriff Lowell Sharp was notified of the incident at 8 a.m., and the joint search for a "large colored man" was intensified.

The woman told police officers that she was forced at the point of a knife to submit to the man who entered her bedroom shortly after her husband left the house to begin work at a local plant.

This is the second entry of houses in the same block by a man described as a "large Negro" to occur within the past two weeks. In the first case, the woman told police she fought off the advances of the man.

Polls Open 7 to 7 For City Election

Hereford voters on Saturday will elect two new commissioners, giving the city a five-man government, a mayor and four commissioners. The election follows an earlier special election in which the voters expressed a desire to increase the number of commissioners from two to four.

The candidates for place three on the commission are Troy Moore and C. C. Bowman. Running for place four are Leslie Combs and Dr. R. R. Wills.

When elected they will represent the city as a whole, rather than any special district, according to the city's charter. Each voter will vote for the candidate of his choice in each race.

Election hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. The polling place is the outer office at City Hall. T. W. Alderson is election judge.

City Clerk Thelma Jersig reports that four absentee ballots were cast in the election, the first time such votes have been recorded in city elections.

Equalization Boards Set Hearing Dates

School and county tax equalization boards have been scheduled to hold hearings late this month. The county commissioners will sit as the tax board of equalization for current year adjustments at 1 p.m., July 23, the court announced Monday.

The newly appointed school tax board will hold hearings on July 24, the board of trustees announced Tuesday.

Board Vetoes Plan For De-Segregation

Paving, Insurance, Behavior, Bouts Talked By Board

The school board of trustees talked of many things - excluding sealing wax and kings - during its regular July meeting on Tuesday night. Disciplinary authority, paving at Aikman School, wrestling at the football stadium, and insurance for students and athletes, shared attention with regular business items.

The problem of desegregation was discussed and for practical purposes tabled (Story above).

And at midnight, the board members began consideration of the $600,000 school budget for the coming term. At 2 p.m., they adjourned after setting July 24 as the date of a special budget session, and Aug. 20 as the date at which the financial decisions will finally be made.

The board agreed to begin paving of 34th Street south of the new Aikman Elementary School, and of Irving Street on the east "if all (Continued on Page 4)

Blanton Dismissed From Hospital After Heart Attack

Lyle Blanton, who suffered a heart attack, July 2, while at home on his ranch near Belle Fourche, S. D., was dismissed from the hospital Sunday and told to "rest and relax" for awhile, according to reports received in Hereford this week.

The attack was termed "not too serious" but doctors plan to keep him under observation for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanton left Hereford about three weeks ago, planning to spend two or three months in South Dakota. However, the heart attack changed their plans and they will return to Hereford when the doctors give their permission for him to travel that distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Blanton left Hereford Monday for Denver, where their son, Keith, underwent surgery on Wednesday. If his recovery is satisfactory, they plan to drive on up to South Dakota and visit with his parents before returning to Hereford.

Site Location At Vet's Park Major Problem

A rush building program for the proposed new Bull Barn, a building to serve as a city-county activities center, was agreed on Monday by members of the Commission on the site location.

But the deal stalled, at least momentarily, when the commissioner's conception of a building site was compared to the plot offered for the purpose by the Veterans Park board.

The commissioners scheduled the hurry-up building program in the face of an impending tie-up of construction materials because of the nationwide steel strike. They have the assurance of a steel fabricator that trucks for the building will be stockpiled for 30 days pending their decision to build.

The modern replacement for the fire-damaged Bull Barn will be a 100 by 200 foot "coliseum" with a parking area to accommodate any crowd that a county or city fair, livestock show, sporting event or convention might attract. It will be built from funds to be obtained from sale of the old Bull Barn site, insurance collected on the building and salvage value.

The Hereford Lions Club has gained acceptance of its proposal to furnish the inside of the coliseum. Initial value of the structure is estimated at $70,000—about $45,000 to be the building cost to the county, and the remainder to consist of the Lions Club's interior furnishings.

"We sure don't want to be penned-up on a little bit of ground... with a fine building," said Commissioner J. T. Guinn as members of the court surveyed a site staked off for the structure by members of the Veterans Park board.

Less Than Nine Acres
The 600 by 600 foot site initially proposed by the board - less than nine acres - was not a site that pleased the commissioners. "Why, I wouldn't consider that for five minutes," declared Commissioner Donald Hicks.

The commissioners and County Judge Homer Henslee agreed that a 20 acre property is needed to safeguard future plans for expansion of the coliseum facilities.

At a meeting scheduled early on Tuesday morning by the park board, Commissioner Marion T. Rutter presented the courts idea of the land needed for the coliseum, "20 acres."

After a trip to the park in the company of Rutter, park board members Roy V. Smith and Ira Scott figured the plot size could be increased from the original 600 by 600 foot to about 13 acres. They proposed to gain most of the ground through extension of the site southward toward Tierra Blanca Creek.

But on Wednesday morning, Smith announced the board will propose addition to the area (for a 20 acre site) of land adjacent to the park.

The issue was to be debated further Wednesday night in a meeting of members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion with park board members Smith, Scott and L. H. Lookingbill Jr.

Shoe On Wrong Foot
On Main Street Wednesday morning, some veterans were favoring "giving the commissioners all they ask." A lively evening meeting appeared in prospect.

Uppermost in the mind of observers of the conflict of opinion on the size of the coliseum grounds were these possibilities:

1. The Veterans Park ground was given in 1947 by the county to the veterans groups for development as a park. Such development has, at best, been slow.

2. The Commissioners Court could possibly either condemn the land needed for the coliseum grounds, or revoke its grant on the basis that Veterans Park development has not proceeded at a rate commensurate with the conditions under which the land grant was made. (Neither of these possibilities was discussed by the commissioners Monday, but rep. (Continued on Page 6)

WOULD IT FIT?—The replacement for the Bull Barn, a 100 by 200 foot building with 20 feet of ceiling clearance to the steel supports of its arched roof, is shown in an artist's conception on the site adjacent to Dairy Road and just east of Veterans Park buildings. Boundaries indicate original 600 by 600 boundary lines staked out by members of the park board. Commissioners Court members have indicated a desire for a Park board members proposed on Wednesday morning a slight expansion of the site to the west and south. Veterans group members on Wednesday night were to consider the problem. (Staff Photo)

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By GIL CARLYLE

Is wrestling phony? Some people believe it is, some contend that it isn't. In 1948 twenty-four million customers paid over 36 million dollars to watch the grapplers at their sport. Of course, this figure has probably jumped up in the last few years. Wrestling promoters claim that television has increased the popularity of wrestling rather than harmed the sport.

Judging by the large crowds that wrestling events attract, there must be something to the grappling business. Several years ago in an article in Sport magazine, George Zaharias came to the defense of wrestling when the sport was being sneered at. He is the brother of Babe Zaharias who is scheduled to wrestle against Gene Le Belle in Hereford Saturday night.

Zaharias, in his article in Sport, stated that if there was anything phony about wrestling, he wasn't aware of it. He has been connected with the sport for over twenty years, both as a wrestler and promoter. Zaharias said that there were a half-dozen years in the 1930's when more people witnessed wrestling matches than saw any other sport, except football and basketball.

A staunch defender of wrestling, Zaharias said that the majority of people who claim that wrestling is phony are people who have never seen a match. According to Zaharias, loyal wrestling fans never speak of the sport as being faked. He said that many people who believe that wrestling is phony, are finally coaxed into seeing a match, and later become avid spectators of the sport.

Are bouts rehearsed before being presented to the public? Zaharias said that wrestling matches are no more rehearsed than football games, golf matches and any other sport one can think of, including checkers. He said that football teams rehearse plays and formations before an actual game, golfers tread their way over unfamiliar courses before a match and checker players practice moves and strategy before a contest. This is true with wrestlers, he explained.

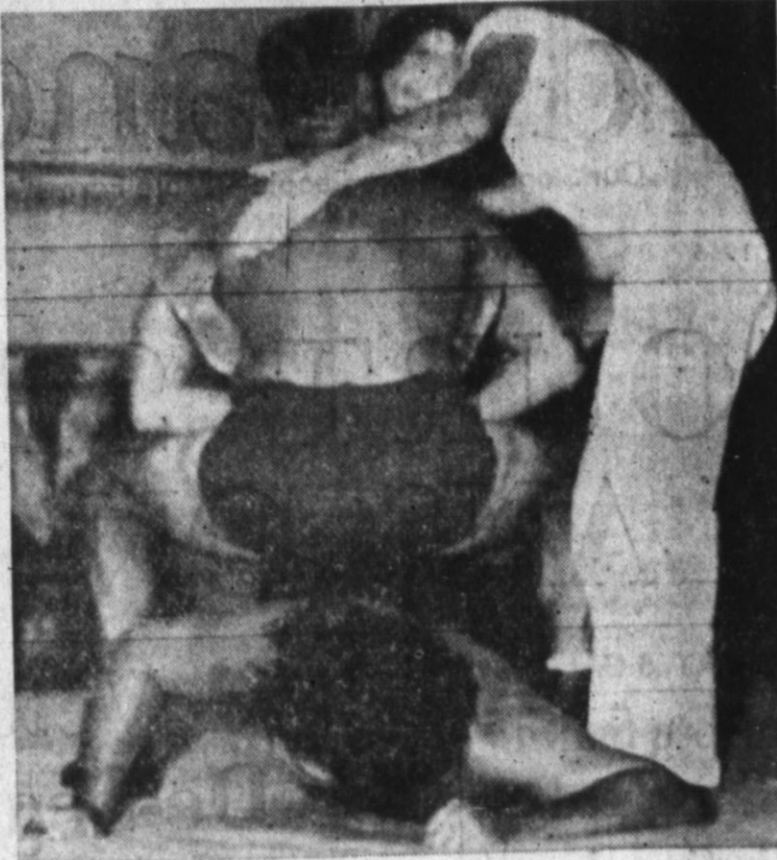

A witness of over 4000 wrestling matches, Zaharias said that people who believe that the outcome of a bout is fixed in advance, are wrong. He contends that wrestlers go to gyms only to practice holds to be employed in an upcoming match.

The following is quoted from Sport magazine concerning the first-person article by George Zaharias: "People who sneer at wrestling say every bout is rehearsed or fixed. Well, one night I was wrestling in Washington, D. C. After finishing my bout, I came out to watch the rest of the matches.

"Mike Romano was wrestling Jack Donovan, and they'd gone about 14 or 15 minutes. Donovan had Mike in a wristlock and switched it into a head scissors. Mike kicked twice, then went limp. Donovan pinned him and it was all over.

"People started to holler 'fake' and 'boo' and a lot of things like that. Donovan got up, but Mike didn't. He was lying,

MYERS, PHELPS REMATCH

Treat Scheduled For Wrestling Fans

Hereford wrestling enthusiasts have a treat deluxe in store for Saturday night, according to Harold Wester, Hereford wrestling promoter.

Scheduled on the wrestling card is a rematch between Sonny Myers and Tommy Phelps. Last week the fans were highly displeased with a last-fall decision awarded by referee George Dunn in favor of Phelps in a best two-out-of-three-falls, one-hour time limit match. Both Myers and Phelps battled gallantly during the grappling event, with each winning a fall before the final, fateful verdict by Dunn.

The third and final fall was the one which caused all the stormy gestures by over 350 spectators who were present at the Hereford Wrestling arena. Myers was counted out by the referee while Phelps was pushing on Sonny and holding on to the ropes at the same time. The upset fans appealed to Wester to right the apparent wrong but the final decision was completely out of Wester's hands.

Following the unpopular decision, Wester visited with Myers in the dressing room. Myers remarked,

"I absolutely will not return to the Hereford arena again unless I can get a rematch with Phelps to square things."

Wester immediately traveled to Lubbock Sunday and attended a Panhandle wrestling promoter's meeting at which the Hereford promoter very courteously requested a rematch between Myers and Phelps. "Doe" Sarpolis, Amarillo promoter, promptly gave the green light for the rematch after Wester fully explained the circumstances of the Saturday night match between Myers and Phelps.

Saturday night's affair between Phelps and Myers will be a winner-take-all grappling event. It should be a rough, tough and tumbling contest.

In the first main event last week, Andre Drapp won over Art Nelson in a bruising match. Drapp is a favorite of many of the Hereford fans.

On the same card with the Myers-Phelps rematch on Saturday night will be a main event between Gene Le Belle and "Babe" Zaharis. This match is supposed to be one of the best presented to local fans in recent weeks.

Hereford's Palmetto Polo team won a one-sided 15-5 victory over a strong, hard-riding Dalhart aggregation at the Hereford Riders Arena Saturday night in district competition.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Hereford riders, leaving the classy palmetto polo team undefeated so far this season. The Hereford team had previously beaten Fritch and Amarillo.

Cards Edge Giants; Dodgers Felled By Yanks

Redbirds Rally To Come From Behind And Win, 9-8

Perched precariously on the brink of defeat for three innings, the off-and-on Cardinals of Reuben Knox rallied for six runs in the fourth inning to squeeze past the Giants Monday night, 9-8. Trailing all the way, the Redbirds twice loaded the bases in previous frames but failed to produce.

Blue Turpin's Giants jumped into an early three-run lead in the first inning on the strength of a home run, blasted by Eugene Jennings with two on base. Ronnie Duncan was issued a free pass to start the initial canto. Larry Hair cautiously viewed four balls to walk and Tommy Powell grounded pitcher to first for the first Giant out. Then Jennings romped to the plate and banged his three-run four-bagger over the left field fence. With two away Mike Kelly struck out to end the Giant scoring escapade.

Randy Dowell, starting hurler for the Dodgers, made quick work of four batters in the Cardinal half of the first stanza. Dowell looked sharp in walking one and whiffing three Card batsmen.

Finding difficulty with his control, Redbird starter Jackie Nichols walked the first four Giant batters to open the top of the second inning. Lefty Warren Sparks came on for the Cardinals to relieve Nichols and finally managed to work his way out of the bases-loaded jam, allowing the Giants three more runs and a 7-0 lead in the contest.

Ronnie Wetly slashed a single to open the Card second frame and Dick Coombs followed with a walk to put runners on first and second for the Redbirds. Tommy Coffman came up and lined a single, sending Wetly home but the Card first baseman was out at the plate on a perfect outfield throw from Giant left fielder Ken Loerwald. Warren Sparks walked, filling the bases. Frank Cain then walked, forcing in Coombs with the first Card marker. With the sacks still jammed, John Willoughby crashed a one-bagger to score Coffman. With one away, Bill Nelson received a free trip to fill the bases again. The runners died on base as Royce Turner watched a third strike go past and Joe Mack Hale fled out to Giant third baseman Eugene Jennings.

In the top of the third inning, Card pitcher Warren Sparks hurled his southpaw slants at only three Giant batters, striking out two while Giant center fielder Tommy Powell singled but was caught stealing to end the Giant half of the third inning.

Leading off in the third for the Cardinals, Ronnie Wetly singled but was put out while attempting to pilfer second base. Coombs followed with a walk and Coffman fled out to shortstop for the second Redbird out. Card Manager Reuben Knox called in Jimmy Bridges to pinch hit for Frank Cain and Bridges, struck with a drive, single to load the bases. The Card

Bombers Shell Bums, 13-3, For Eighth Straight Win

A determined bid by the Dodgers to halt the winning streak of the Yankees failed Tuesday night as the Bombers reaped a resounding 13-3 victory over the Bums. The Dodgers enjoyed a temporary three-run lead for two innings before the booming bats of the Yankees began to sound.

The Bums gained a two run lead in the first stanza when alert base-running paid off. Barry Gabbert led off for the Dodgers in the first inning and was safe at first base on a Yankee miscue. Lee McMurray struck out but Lynton Allred reached first on an error to put two runners on base for the Bums. Gabbert and Allred scored on a passed ball by Yankee starter Drew Kershner. Dennis Rickman fled to first base for the second Dodger out and Charles Calloway went down swinging to end the Bum first frame.

After a shaky start, Dodger pitcher David Gray settled down in the bottom of the first, setting the Yankees down with no runs and no hits. John Buck was safe at first on a Bomber fielding mishap and Jay Boynton walked to place runners on first and second for the Yankees.

Gray calmly worked his way out of the jam, getting Ron Greenway on a strikeout, Danny McDowell on a lofty fly to shortstop and Bill Overall on a ground ball to second base.

In the Dodger half of the second, Yankee hurler Drew Kershner faced only three Bum batsmen, striking out Jimmy Haney and David Gray and retiring Barry Gabbert Ronnie McMurray walked to load the bases. Dennis Rickman hit a ground ball, forcing McMurray out at second base while Allred raced home with the third Dodger run.

Charles Calloway was issued a free pass to fill the sacks again. Yankee hurler Kershner pitched cautiously to Jimmy Haney, getting the Dodger center fielder to ground out to first base to end the Dodger threat.

Rocky's Down Pigs To Even Season's Record at 2-2

Rocky's bounded over Piggly Wiggly Tuesday night in softball action at the Veteran's Memorial Park stadium, 2-2. The loss was the second straight for the second-place Pigs. The crushing win brought Rocky's season record up to two wins and two setbacks.

The Piggly Wiggly team employed several pitchers in an effort to halt the onslaught of Rocky's. Buddy Pickens started on the mound for Piggly Wiggly.

Darrel Baldwin started for Rocky's and was relieved by T. B. Cox in the fourth stanza. The game was called at the end of five innings because Rocky's was ahead more than 10 runs.

The board adopted a recommen-

Who knows whether wrestling is phony or not? This writer guesses that only the promoters and wrestlers themselves know the only true answer. Living in Hereford, a person has a real opportunity to view some of the finest wrestling staged anywhere in the nation. Every Saturday night in the Hereford Wrestling Arena, some of the top wrestlers in the country perform at bar-bain prices.

This writer dares you to go see just one wrestling match and then remain away without ever witnessing another one in your lifetime.

From the Associated Press comes this story of goings-on in Hereford, England, that ought to be a particularly interesting to Hereford, Texas:

HEREFORD, England (AP)—The edge, Dr. Cyril Francis, studied 11 pairs of trim ankles that twinkled beneath a theater curtain in a ankle-judging contest.

"That's the prettiest pair," he nally announced, "ring up the curtain, and let's see who owns 'em."

The curtain went all the way p revealing 24 smiling females angling upward in age from 19, he winning pair of ankles belong- g to Mrs. Gertrude Pritchard— ge 81.

undefeated Yankees tallied 10 big runs in their half of the third can- to. Dodger pitcher David Gray weakened, walking Yankees Drew Kershner, John Buck and Jay Boynton to begin the third inning. With the bases filled, Ron Greenway sent a towering fly into center field, sacrificing home Drew Kershner with the first Yankee run.

The Bombers marked up three more runs on singles by Danny McDowell and S. D. Baize. With one on base, Gray walked two more Yankees to fill the bases again. Lynton Allred came on to relieve Gray with one away in the third.

Allred finally retired the Bomber side but not before the league leaders had jumped into a 10-3 commanding lead.

The Dodgers were able to get two runners on base in the top of the fourth but Drew Kershner, Yankee hurler, quelled the threat before any damage was done.

In the Yankee half of the fourth, the bats of the Bombers sounded again. S. D. Baize singled to open the fourth frame followed by Van Smith who walked.

The next two Yankee batters struck out. With two away and runners on second and third, second baseman John Buck walked to jam the bases. Then Jay Boynton reached first on a Yankee error, scoring Baize and Smith. Ron Greenway bounced a grounder that scored Buck just ahead of Jay Boynton who was nipped at the plate for the third Yankee out. The game was called at the end of four complete innings because the Yankees were leading by 10 runs.

age" type rotary fan keeps the cooled air from the ice circulating throughout the loaded trailer. The average trailer can be cooled to between 40 and 54 degrees by this method.

Never Get Conditioned
"No matter how long you drive," Murray says, "you never get conditioned to it. After a 12 or 15 hour drive, you're plenty tired." Some of the trucks have sleeping compartments just back of the cab. The ideal setup is to have two drivers per truck, one sleeping and one driving.

Very little independent peddling of loads is attempted today. Nearly all the truckers work through brokers, both at the purchasing place and selling point. Truck drivers average spending $75 to $100 a month for telephone calls to check with their brokers, keeping contact to know just when to load and depart for an assigned market place.

A hard-working trucker makes an above-average income, usually from $100 to $150 a week. A trucker spends about $50 a week while on the road. A majority of the drivers emphasize that a trucker "can not lay down on the job, but must always be on the go" in order to make a good net profit.

Cost of Upkeep

The average truck consumes 20,000 gallons of fuel annually. Most of the rigs run five miles to a gallon. The huge vehicles usually need overhauling every 300,000 miles. An overhaul job cost between $2000 and $3000. Average life span of a good rig is five years of grinding travel.

The average trucker passes over 100,000 miles of highway a year. If driving around the world, a trucker would make four complete trips a year. No person is more dedicated to a job than a trucker is to his. Safety is his foremost concern. Where ever he goes, he is never a stranger. He lives a varied, romantic life, colored by the excitement of dangerous living, softened by the hugs and kisses when he's home again.

placing runners on first and second. David Dowell reached first via a Giant error as Sheppard came home with the eighth Giant tally. With two teammates on base, Randy Dowell went down swinging to end the Giant scoring.

Cardinal fireworks exploded in the last of the fourth as 11 Redbird hitters treked to the batters box, six of them scoring to overcome a five-run deficit and provide a winning margin of one run. Giant manager Blue Turpin called on David Dowell and Ken Loerwald for relief pitching in an effort to halt the Card uprising. But the tide had turned and time ran out on the desperate Giants as the game was called by plate umpire Dick Ross in accordance with the Little League 9:30 p.m. curfew ruling.

Experiences Here Demonstrate Effectiveness Of Salk Vaccine

At the peak polio season approaches, the effectiveness of Salk vaccine can be demonstrated locally by the fact that only one case of polio has been found in Deaf Smith County residents this season, and that was an unvaccinated child.

That victim was Kerrie Womble, 18-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Womble who was taken April 4. Kerrie, then 17 months old, was scheduled to get polio shots on a Monday, but was left for Corpus Christi. Two days later, Kerrie, an RH baby, anyway, was stricken. At that time she could only move her head side to side. At Memorial Hospital they gave her oxygen, her with a tube, gave her hot packs and treatments. She improved enough to be moved to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo by the first of June. Flown to the Panhandle by an army plane, in order that they might keep her under oxygen, she was treated there for a month, but was able to be returned to her home near Dawn, on June 30.

Is Improving
Now, her mother says she is improving rapidly. Still she shows signs of the paralysis. Her hands are most affected. She is just now regaining her strength and consequently isn't active, but her reflexes are good. She is, of course, getting therapy at home, and has resumed her water therapy baths.

"We have hopes, of course, that she will be all right, or at least that her handicaps will be minimal," her mother said this week.

Another daughter of the Wombles, who is three years old, is currently getting her series of polio shots.

3400 Injections

According to County Health officer Dr. R. R. Wills, some 3400 injections of Salk Vaccine have been given to Deaf Smith County people. He estimated that approximately 700 people had received the series of three shots, many others have had two injections and a few, of course, have just started the series.

"We have not had a single case of polio in any one injected with vaccine," he reported, "and, we now have available an adequate supply of the serum for children and adults if they want it."

He particularly urged children under the age of 21 years and pregnant women to get their polio shots.

Effectiveness Demonstrated
"We believe the effectiveness of polio vaccine has been completely illustrated and we believe it is at least 75 percent effective in preventing paralytic polio," the health officer declared.

Although for a while, the supply of vaccine in the United States was limited, a recent letter from Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the national foundation of Infantile Paralysis, indicates that polio vaccine supplies in the U.S. now exceed current demand.

Recent studies also indicate that there is no more danger of giving polio shots during what is usually considered "polio season" than there is during the rest of the year. Dr. Riper emphasizes that the vaccine is safe for use now and through the summer. On a national scale, some 30 million children have been inoculated for polio since May 7, 1955, and reports from 23 areas, mostly states, indicate that it is at least 75 percent effective in preventing paralytic polio.

Dr. Van Riper's Letter

Dear Doctor:

Poliomyelitis vaccine supply in the United States as a whole now exceeds current demand.

You should now — or very soon — be able to get all the vaccine you need through whatever distribution system is established in your state.

May I personally urge you to obtain just as much vaccine as you need and inject it without delay in as many of your patients as are eligible to receive vaccine in your community?

The U. S. Public Health Service, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Medical Association, the American Public Health Association and other medical organizations concur that it is both safe and desirable to vaccinate with poliomyelitis vaccine now and throughout the summer.

At the 105th Annual Meeting of the American Medical Association in Chicago on June 11, Surgeon General Leonard Scheele of the U.S. Public Health Service said: "The immediate order of business in the polio fight is to use every drop of vaccine available in the wisest possible way. . . . Vaccine given in July and August will prevent paralytic cases and even deaths in August and September."

May I suggest that you give reassurance that the present Salk vaccine is safe and effective to patients, parents and others in your community who still needlessly doubt it? The scientific documentation of the vaccine's safety and effectiveness is overwhelming. Over 30 million children in the United States alone have been inoculated without mishap since May 7, 1955. Experience in 1955, now reported from 23 areas (mostly states) shows that the vaccine is at least 75% effective in preventing paralytic poliomyelitis. I will gladly send you further information on these points.

I know that there are many physicians now in practice who rarely see a case of paralytic poliomyelitis. Quite naturally I have seen many. That is why I am so thankful personally that we have a vaccine that can prevent a very high percentage of them. Won't you take leadership in your community and among your patients to see that they get this safe, highly effective vaccine now?

Sincerely yours,
Hart E. Van Riper

Beauty At Home

Q. How can I stiffen the floppy brim of my straw hat?

A. Try washing it with a solution of gum arabic.

Q. Is it necessary to shampoo the hair before having a permanent wave?

A. Not if your hair is clean and only moderately oily. The natural oil sometimes helps create a softer wave. Of course, dirty or very oily hair should be washed first. If you have any foreign material on your hair, such as lacquer, spray dressing or rinses, shampoo and rinse the soap out thoroughly. Any of these materials, if left on, will retard the action of the permanent solution.

Q. What is the recommended makeup for the girl with a very tiny nose?

A. Powder the tiny nose a shade lighter than the rest of the face, and apply the rouge close to the nose.

Q. How does fingernail polish affect the apparent length of the nails?

A. To make a nail look longer, paint its entire surface covering both moon and tip. To shorten a nail that is long and narrow, leave the moon and tips unpainted. Here, too, the oval is considered the ideal shape, and much can be done to add grace to your fingers by using polish to lend an oval illusion to your nails.

Q. How can I exercise to help slim my hips and thighs?

A. The standing - squatting exercise is one of the best. Merely stand erect, then squat to a seating position, keeping the spine erect. Rise to a standing position, and keep repeating in rapid rhythm at least 30 times.

Q. Will you please suggest a good, harmless, homemade hair-curling fluid?

A. Very good is the white of an egg, beaten with an equal quantity of water.

Q. What is the most flattering shape of eyeglasses for the round-faced girl?

A. She should avoid by all means the conspicuously round frames. Because of the fullness and roundness of the lower face, she must create an illusion of slenderness by wearing frames slightly wider than the widest point of the face outline. The bridge should be as wide as possible, and slightly arched, and there should be a noticeable upswing to the lower part of the frame.

Q. Can you suggest a quick way to purify one's breath?

A. Try sucking a lemon, following with a drink of cold water.

Q. I have a very dry skin and wish to avoid the use of soap and water as much as possible. What is a good substitute skin cleanser?

A. Mineral oil is excellent for removing old makeup from the skin.

Q. Can you suggest a good sun-tanning lotion I can make at home?

A. Here's a very good one: One-fourth cider vinegar (for its tan-nic acid); two ounces caron oil (for its burn-healing properties); 1½ ounce iodine (for color, although if you're allergic to iodine, this will have to be omitted); ½ ounce baby oil and four ounces of your favorite cologne.

Q. How can I, with my makeup, minimize the freckles on my face?

A. A darker shade of face powder, blended with the freckles, helps quite a bit.

Q. Is there any way to prevent insect bites, in general?

A. A little vinegar and water, rubbed on the skin, or oil of cloves, is a good preventive.

Potato Harvest, Unique in Concept, Provides Plenty of Excitement Here

By MRS. T. B. THOMAS

Anyone interested in excitement would be interested to witness an average morning of potato harvest.

The alarm goes on at 4 o'clock and things begin to buzz; within 30 minutes the caravan starts for their prospective field. The evening before, tractors and machinery are serviced and greased for the early take off, and lined up in the order that they will work.

At a given signal the string of vehicles take off, this particular morning there were seven tractors, two vine beaters and five diggers, 15 trucks and a host of cars carrying some 150 people.

The success of this operation is teamwork and cooperation without which things would never progress beyond the beginning. It is amazing to be able to be in the fields to watch these people and to be with them year after year.

Some of these workers have been coming up to Hereford for five and six years. One gets to know and understand their problems. Some out of state persons have been coming out to watch this harvesting being done. No where else in the United States is the harvest done as it is in the state of Texas.

An average day's work begins at five and lasts until noon and then if the weather is too hot it doesn't continue until 4 or 5 in the afternoon, and then it lasts until it's too dark to see. Some of the trucks aren't loaded out until 11 at night.

Hot Weather Doesn't Slow Down Entertainment Pace Around Here

By CAROL INMAN

Although July may be the hottest month of the year, and the time when most folks prefer to sit at home under the cool, cool air conditioner, and drink that tall, tall glass of iced tea or lemonade, others find the energy to have get-togethers with their friends and families.

Several couples were in Odessa last week at the sand hills for a picnic. They were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Byers and son Ricky Glen, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cargo and son Ray Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Messenger and daughter Melody, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jackson, Andy Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bellar, Fred Grey Jr., and Bobby and Ronnie Byers.

They report a very good time and that it wasn't too bad to be away from the air conditioner for a few hours.

Then on Wednesday night, the Charles Greshams held an ice cream party in their back yard. After everyone had filled up on ice cream, card games were played by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jackson, Andy Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bellar, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cargo, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Byers, and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Van Horn and children Gloria and Elton Jr., will be living in Hawaii for two years. Van Horn will be stationed at the Naval Base in Pearl Harbor as a third class metalsmith, and Mrs. Van Horn and the children will remain in California for a short time until he secures lodging for them in Pearl Harbor.

The Van Horns visited over the Fourth of July holidays with the H. L. Higgins family. Mrs. Higgins' mother, Mrs. Maud Van Horn of Hollis, Okla., returned to California with the Van Horn family and plans to visit with Elmer Van Horn of Orland, Calif., for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Botsford and son Thomas Jr., and Billy preparation for the harvest to begin this week.

Ray Rains of Amarillo, filled the Baptist pulpit Sunday and was Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt.

To Roaring Springs

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sauley went to Roaring Springs Saturday to take Teddy Alsop down for a celebration for the boys who were leaving for the Navy on Monday. The picnic was held at the Springs and over one hundred people came to enjoy the day. Teddy Alsop is the nephew of Mrs. Sauley and Lester Mullins is her grandson. The boys will take their boot training at San Diego.

Mrs. Robert Boyd and grandchildren of Hereford visited Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Morrison and girls.

They have to get back in time for Mickey's first birthday on July 24.

Miss Mattie Mae Swisher left Monday for Grafton, W. Va. to visit with her sister, Blanche, and her brother, W. F. (Fred) at her former home. Other relatives live in that part of the country too. She will return Sept. 1. Miss Swisher visited in Dimmitt before her departure and was honored with a tea given by her hostess, Mrs. R. A. Axtell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniels and Dorothy Faye were in Plainview recently, visiting a life-long friend, Mrs. Kelly Harrison.

En route home after a month's vacation in the northwest and the west, Mr. and Mrs. William Conkright and sons Bill and Jim visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colby Conkright. They arrived here last Monday and left Thursday to return to Winchester, Ky., where he has been superintendent of schools for 20 years.

This was their first visit to Hereford in three years, and they were really amazed at how it had grown.

Home from the Amarillo Osteopathic Hospital Monday... Mrs. R. W. Sparks. She had surgery last Thursday morning and is doing fine now.

More fun-filled days for the Wolcott children... Phillip, Marlin, O. Lindco, M/Sgt. and Mrs. Lloyd O. Wolcott were assigned to go to France July 1, from New York, but their orders were changed to July 18. After spending two weeks with his mother in South Dakota, the family returned to Hereford until the end of this week, rather than stay in New York until time to ship out. So... Phillip and Marlin are once again swimming, playing ball, and having American-style fun until time to go to France.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Newman, Alan, Pat and Sharon, returned on Saturday night from Creed, Colo., where they spent a week's vacation fishing and camping out... and getting blistered! But it was lots of fun and provided memories to look back upon until next year. Newman is back at the State Highway Department, his wife is again at the County Library, and Alan is back at the Brand.

Jimmie Chambers and wife and children Ginger and Kenneth left yesterday for Chickasha, Okla., where they will spend several days with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Neel and Lilith and Rev. and Mrs. V. W.

Marcontell, and sons David and Donnie are to be supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Crist and daughters in Progressive Community Friday night.

And the W. H. Craigs have been busy people. Last weekend their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Allen, Danny and Helen, all of Los Angeles, Calif., and Dan's niece, Evelyn Allen, daughter of the Frank Allens of Dimmitt. The Allens, who are cousins of Mr. Craig were en route home after visiting in Oklahoma and Texas, and are taking Evelyn back home for a short visit. They are former Dimmitt residents, incidentally. On Monday, the Walter Tices, former Hereford residents, were guests of the Craigs. They now live in Sacramento, and are going home from a Texas visit the long way, through Old Mexico.

Hereford Will Celebrate Hot Dog Days Buying Fourteen Miles Of Wieners

NOTHING TASTES BETTER
Lee McMurry and a hot dog

Call it a "frank," a "hot dog," "Coney Island," or "Red hot," it's still a wiener served in a bun and it's a $380,000,000 industry in the United States.

July, officially proclaimed "Hot Dog Month," is probably when the sales of frankfurters hit their peak in this country stretching yearly sales on the casing stuffed tidbits to the eight and a half billion mark.

In Hereford, 35,000 Unless you think that's stretching the truth, stop to consider that a check of eight Hereford grocery stores, reveal that they sell IN ONE WEEK, approximately 35,000 wieners—enough to stretch THREE AND ONE-HALF MILES! That's FOURTEEN MILES of wieners this month.

Sounds startling—but remember that wieners are good budget foods good picnic foods, good foods for the family to prepare if mother's out at committee meetings or playing bridge.

And furthermore, next to ice cream, it's America's favorite food. It's not only a meal in itself, it's a favorite between meal snack and man's-best-friend at ball parks and fight clubs, horse races and county fairs. Besides, it pairs up with beans, potato salad or sauerkraut for a dinner time feast.

For One Small Dime

Wieners are big business in Hereford. One businessman, L. C. Culpepper has specialized in selling hot dogs since 1938. At that time, his coney islands—frankfurter, mustard, onions and chili sauce, sold for a nickel. When the war came along, and meat was rationed, they went up to a dime, and have sold for a dime ever since.

He knows they are a favorite food. One Pioneer Day, for example, he sold 960 hot dogs—his top number, but frequently his sales have topped the 400-per-day mark.

Teen-agers, he says, are his best customers. Many eat four, five or six at a sitting. Top customer, so far, was a wheat harvest hand who, after a hard day in the fields, bet his buddy he could eat 20 of Mr. Culpepper's hot dogs. He stopped at 15.

The kids think up their own names for their favorite food—and they have requested "stogie pups," "heated canines," "hound-dogs." They always get the same—half a wiener smeared with mustard, soaked in chili, doused with onions, and popped into a bun.

Many cafe owners report that wieners on the luncheon menu don't sell particularly well, main reason, they figured was, "People eat so many wieners at home; when they go out to eat, they want something special."

All Dressed Up

But even wieners can be special. At the Waldorf Astoria, baked beans and franks are part of the menu; at the Stork Club they serve kosher franks with potato salad; the Ambassador's Pump Room features baby hot dogs snuggled in tiny rolls for canapes. And at Howard Johnsons, hot dogs in specially shaped rolls are served encased in little boxes. Even New York's 21 makes one concession to the lowly frank—they serve it sliced and floating atop black bean soup.

Has Long History

Although hot dogs probably didn't really come of age in the United States until 1938 when Franklin Delano Roosevelt served them at a picnic honoring the King of England, this type of food actually was commonplace 1000 years before the birth of Christ.

The hot dog, as we know it now, evolved as a collaboration of the Butchers Guild in Frankfurt-am-Main, Germany, and was introduced in the U.S. in 1893. (Although it's a national dish like ice cream and apple pie, we really didn't invent it—in spite of recent Russian declarations that the U.S. could be credited with only two inventions—the hot dog and the electric chair.)

Served Naked

In 1904 at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in Saint Louis the frankfurter was served nude—and hot. Consequently people were given white gloves to wear while eating them. However, so many souvenir hunters made off with the white gloves that the profits dropped right out of the enterprise.

Then a man named Anton Ludwig Feuchtwanger thought of cuddling them in a white bun—instead of a white glove—and the hot dog was born.

First Ball Game

Then, if we are to believe Jimmy Cannon, sportswriter for the New York Post, they really got started on the road to popularity one cold pre-World-War I day when, at the Polo Grounds in New York City, the baseball crowd quit buying soda pop and peanuts. Mr. Stevens, the well known caterer decided they wanted some hot food, remembered Feuchtwanger's sandwich suggestion, and started hot dogs on the road to riches.

But even with its length history, the hot dog still manages to keep the title in a pickle.

The Hot Dog and the Atom

This is because of its unprecedented popularity. For instance, the American Meat Institute Foundation laboratory at the University of Chicago had a bacteriologist and physicist at work stuffing franks into cobalt-60 furnace to study the effect of gamma radiation. Their aim is to perfect atomic sterilization to the point where franks maintain their color and develop no side flavors or odors.

Science has already laid its heavy hand on the hot dog—with effective results. For example, the franks are now smoked to an internal temperature of 155 degrees Fahrenheit for two hours in conditions marked by the most delicate control of smoke density, gas velocity, temperature and humidity. Nothing about the frank is left to chance.

Even Gets College Fellowship

Why, the hot dog was once the indirect recipient of a college fellowship.

Such a trust was set up at Pittsburgh's Mellon Institute to devise an edible synthetic substitute to the casing then being used, which were casings from sheep, and hogs of China, Russia and Australia.

For 10 years scientists studied, trying gelatin, casein plastics, agar, algin, starches and cellulose. They finally settled on the latter and discovered that the casing could be made pliable, if it was made practically thinner than thin. Thus the so called skinless frankfurter was born.

Today science still ponders the hot dog. Now, with super markets increasing the sale, and with intensive artificial light glaring down on all meat counters, research is trying to determine the effect of light on meat pigmentation, and trying to eliminate the non-toxic, but also non-saleable green mold which develops from the organisms which attack the surface of franks.

Even Nutritious

Wieners were always so tasty, few people ever bothered about whether they were nutritious or not. Finally a team of biochemists from the University of Chicago took the matter in hand. Swooping down on Chicago retail stores they scooped up franks, took them home and gave them the works—chemically speaking. They discovered that they were adequate in 18 essential amino acids plus containing thiamin, riboflavin, niacin and iron—the same as fresh beef and pork.

But, nutritious or not, people will go on eating them. Whenever it's harvest time in Hereford, the crews will stow away hot dogs; whenever there's a picnic in Jaycee Park, wieners will be grilled; whenever a grocery store plans a big celebration, free hot dogs will be distributed (one store recently gave away 2000 to willing, and hungry customers) and whenever there's a Cub Scout picnic, a backyard party or just a hungry kid, there will be a hot dog handy.

Household Tips

Want that packaged vanilla pudding to taste special? Fold whipped cream into the pudding when it has cooled to room temperature.

Use high quality eggs for poaching, frying and cooking in the shell; other grades may be used for general cooking and baking.

Nutritious cold beverage: bottled prune juice mixed with homogenized milk. Add a dash of nutmeg or allspice, or both, just for an extra flavor twist.

Sprinkle sesame seeds over the yeast rolls after they have been shaped and their tops have been moistened with water. Let rise and bake.

Pep up mayonnaise for a salad by adding onion juice, lemon juice, crushed garlic and chili powder.

Canada's province of Ontario has about 250,000 lakes.

IN MOTOR TRANSPORT GMC LEADS THE WAY Your key to Blue Chip value

Now-GMC gives you a bonus of up to 3 gallons in every tankful!

Talk about low-cost GMC ownership! With its new high-ratio cushioning axle, a Blue Chip GMC pickup... you up to 17.8% better gas mileage. That's 3 gallons' worth of bonus miles in every filling! And you get far better road speeds, too, from an easy-stroking, unstrained engine. In short, from a mere $10.50 axle option, GMC now gives you the advantages of a $125 overdrive. Add this new gas-stretching ability to the super-efficiency of a GMC 180 hp V8 engine - to the moneysaving advantages of Hydra-Matic Drive - and an important fact is clear: The operation and maintenance savings of Blue Chip features can bring the over-all cost of a half-ton GMC down to the level of - or below - the cheapest stripped-model truck on the market. Of course, you'd always have preferred a Blue Chip GMC to any other truck. But now - with cost so strongly in its favor - there's no need to step down. Come in and tell us what colors you want on your GMC. *Optional at moderate extra cost.

Hereford Accepts, Uses Innovation In Telephone Engineering, Design

Colored telephones are taking over the town—well, at least the residential areas.

According to Bill Leavy, Hereford manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, between 200 and 300 colored telephones have been installed in Hereford, in both desk and wall-type designs.

Most of them are in residences, where the color of the phone was matched to the decor of the room. Most popular shades are green, beige and ivory, although they come in numerous colors ranging from the standard black to a screaming scarlet.

But colored telephones are not the only innovations in engineering and design here. Leavy says there are three installations, telephones with illuminated dials are popular and one motor company is about to install an "executive set," a fine device that works on the microphone principal and requires no hands to operate.

During the past year, most of the new telephones or replaced telephones which have been installed carry a dial movement. This, according to Leavy, is to facilitate transition when the dial cover is made.

Southwestern Bell Telephone, planning construction of a new building here, hopes to have their plans for the building completed next month, and would like to start construction sometime in the fall.

"AIN'T" AIN'T SO BAD
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—It's too bad the word "ain't" isn't an approved word in the English language, says Prof. Thomas Dunn, head of the Drake University English department.

"Am I not" is a very awkward phrase," the professor says. "Ain't" would be much better."
