They were telling the story on Main St., of the man who joined a coffee shop discussion Tuesday morning which originally involved three active Republicans and one vociferous Democrat. Proferring that "I like Ike well enough to wager a large sum at two to one odds that he will carry Texas," the stranger braided the Democrat.

The gentleman of the minority part in this discussion professed that he was a poor man, but asserted that, "If you really want to bet, I think I can get enough money real quick to make it interesting."

After obtaining the Ike-man's name and address — he was registered in a local hostelry — our Democrat departed on his service mission.

"First man I met outside the coffee shop said he would like $1,000 worth at those odds and one telephone call produced another Democrat willing and able to cover 'most any amount,' the story is continued by the loquacious one.

The final outcome: The "big-money-man" hurriedly checked out of his room and when caught as he was entering his car by the amateur election bet broker had absolutely nothing to say.

Folks are reminded of the Red Cross Benefit table setting show to be staged in the ballroom of the Jim Hill Hotel on Saturday, Nov. 3, from 10:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. Sixteen clubs have registered entries in the show with the tickets now on sale at the City Drug, the Red Cross office and at the door on the day of the show. All proceeds from the project will go into the general fund of the Red Cross according to Corinne Neely, executive secretary of the Red Cross here.

Rogers Roused By Administration Of Disaster Program

Rep. Walter Rogers this week asked livestock growers for aid in documenting charges that administration of the disaster feed program has involved poor administration and the showing of preference among individuals.

"The hay and feed program was not intended to be used as a political football," said Rogers, representative in Congress of the 18th District of Texas.

Foreseeing an economic vise that could squeeze drouth-area ranchers into bankruptcy, Rogers detailed the problem and the action needed in this message:

"The disaster feed program instituted by the Department of Agriculture, under authority delegated by the Congress, was intended to provide a protective cushion against the devastation of the drouth. With cattle prices going down and feed prices going up, the rancher is caught in an economic vise that could easily squeeze him into bankruptcy. This situation is not a stranger to the cattleman, because it has happened in the past.

The recent complaints that have been coming into my office concern the price increases in feed and roughage, since the government program has gone into effect. One man writes me that before the government program began, he could buy hay at $22 per ton. Since the program started, the price has increased to $42 per ton. Cotton bales that could be purchased at $14 before the program now cost about $24. Grain was increased from $1.70 per hundred weight to $1.90 per hundred weight just about the time the program went into effect.

Those ranchers who were eligible to participate in the government program were issued certificates which had a value of $7.50 per ton on hay and cotton seed hulls.

It is obvious that the increases in price exceeded the amount of help coming from the government. This simply meant that the eligible ranchers were not the recipients of the aid.

The certificates on grain amount ed to $1 per hundred weight but have been increased to $1.50 per hundred weight. Some of the ranchers anticipate that the price of grain will be increased according to it.

Calm Voters Vex Parties' Leaders

Outcome Is Apparently Undecided

With only five days remaining until election day, Texas' qualified voters continued their apparent disinterest that is stumping the experts on the outcome of the voting. The "undecided" voters perhaps still hold the key to the election story in their hands.

The national presidential race seems to be in a "quiet before the storm" state which has the leaders of both parties worried. Each party fears that its supporters will fail to go to the polls on Tuesday for lack of interest. Television as a campaign medium has given voters an opportunity to see and hear more candidates' speeches but it has robbed the political scene of much of its colorful action. A leading national newspaper states that the candidates, even for major offices, have had difficulty in identifying themselves to voters. Politics comes up in general conversation somewhat less often than football in Hereford.

The only state race that has caused any excitement is the contest for governor with W. Lee O'Daniel, defeated in the July primary by Sen. Price Daniel, asking voters to place his name in the write-in column of the ballot. The Republicans are making a token display behind their candidates for President and Vice-President. They entered as candidate for governor, William R. Bryant. Other Republicans seeking offices on the state ballot are Leo N. Duran as attorney-general and Samuel F. Singleton as State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Governor Allan Shivers has indicated that he will not call a special election to choose a successor to Price Daniel in the Senate. After winning the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the August run-off election, Daniel submitted his resignation to Gov. Shivers to be effective Jan. 15 or such earlier date as a successor may be elected. Shivers continues to defer action on the basis that a vacancy does not yet exist in the office of senator to be vacated by Daniel.

Deaf Smith County voters next Tuesday will find a third party listing several candidates for national and state offices. The Constitution Party, an ultra conservative party with States' Rights and Constitutional Government as major platform planks, offers T. Coleman Andrews and Thomas H. Werdel for President and Vice-President.

On the ballots of 14 states, eight in the south, the Andrews party has said that it hopes to garner enough votes to keep either major party from getting an electoral majority, thus throwing the election into the House of Representatives.

Most Crops' Harvest In Final Stage

A "fantastic" lettuce price was holding strong for the 10th day on Wednesday as the Hereford area harvest entered the clean up stages for all crops except cotton and carrots.

"We're still shipping lettuce at $4 a carton — 24 heads — and finding a good reception in the market for an excellent quality crop," said one major lettuce shipper. The harvest is expected to be largely complete late next week. Much of the crop has sold at an all-time record price.

Inspectors with the U. S. Department of Agriculture's marketing service — who inspect Hereford produce at the request of brokers or shippers — estimated that they have already checked some 800 carloads of lettuce here this season.

Paul Parker who heads the local AMS office said that the potato harvest has been practically completed and that his inspectors were called to check over 1,900 carloads of spuds.

In July, when both potatoes and onions were moving at record-breaking prices of $8 per hundred and $6, respectively, the AMS had 21 inspectors working in Hereford. The office staff was down to 11 men Wednesday, with several inspectors scheduled to leave this weekend for duty in the Winter Garden area.

Meanwhile, ginning of the area's cotton crop was proceeding rapidly. A total of 4,799 bales had been ginned by noon Wednesday, compared to 3,992 bales last Saturday according to reports from the four gins. Observers estimate that this harvest is less than half complete. The two gins in the immediate Hereford area had turned out a total of 2,347 bales by Wednesday.

Maize harvest is entering its final stages, with only about 20 per cent of the crop yet to be gleaned. Production is expected to equal or exceed the 400,000,000 pound total reported in 1955.

"Hold And Hope" Price of grain sorghum on the open market is now $1.90, about 15 cents more than the government loan affords, but many growers are putting their grain in the loan program in hopes that the open market price will improve.

Carrot prices at $30 per ton were still being quoted to growers this week. About 1,000 acres of the 3,500 grown here this year are still to be harvested. Final shipments are expected to be made during the first week of December.

Appliance Firms Sponsor Event; Treasure Hunt

The electric appliance dealers of Hereford are sponsoring a treasure hunt during the month of November. Lucky number cards will be mailed to area residents and prizes may be claimed by comparing the numbers on the cards with the numbers displayed on various pieces of merchandise in each store.

Dealers sponsoring the gift event are Don Little's B. E. Goodrich, Parker Brothers, Buy-Rite Furniture, Hereford Furniture and Jerry's Appliance. A grand prize of a new electric range will be given away in a drawing to be held in front of The Hereford Brand office on Dec. 1 at 9 p.m.

School Band Wins A Superior Rating

Hereford High School's Whiteface Band received a Class I, or superior rating, for their performance in the Region XI Marching Contest at Canyon Tuesday evening. Two twirlers ensembles were awarded a I, and Ella Marie Williams and Barbara Dameron received a I for their solo twirling.

No special drills in precision marching were required this year, and each band entered had a different routine. The Hereford band performance was very similar to that of the drills that the 80 member band unit has demonstrated at football games this season.

Twirlers Judged Twirlers Joan Brown, Betty Paetzold, Clara Beth Holt, and Jeanette Rayburn received a II, or good, rating for twirling solos. The baton trio of Joan Brown, Betty Paetzold, and Jeanette Rayburn was awarded a Class I, and the trio of Barbara Dameron, Clara Beth Holt, and Ella Marie Williams received a Class II.

The Hereford Twirling Sextet, consisting of all the twirlers, received a Class I for their routine.

Noted Directors James Jacobsen, director of band at Texas Christian University, and Jack Lee, former drillmaster at Michigan University, now director of bands at University of Arizona, were the judges for the marching contest. These men are two of the most noted directors of "show" bands in the United States.

More than 30 bands from cities throughout the Panhandle entered the annual Interscholastic League Contest, and 14 received a Class I division. In the Class AAA, Hereford and Phillips high schools were the only bands to receive a I.

Concert and sightreading contests for the bands will be held in the spring.

RELATIVES VISIT Mrs. Margaret Nichols of Oakland, Calif., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Hamilton of Alta Loma, Calif., spent the past weekend here with her brother, Wm. McGehee, and family. They will also visit other relatives in Texas before returning to their homes.

Other recent guests in the McGehee home were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker of Muleshoe, former Hereford residents.

Funds Earmarked For Emergency Tillage Practice

To help meet a critical wind erosion problem existing on dryland farms and ranges in Deaf Smith County, funds from the 1957 Agriculture Conservation Program this week were earmarked for tilling and chiseling.

The ACP funds ordinarily available through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office here were depleted ahead of schedule this year due to the extensive amount of emergency plowing paid for last winter. The current funds will not be available for payment prior to June 30, 1957, a spokesman for the ACP committee said, but will be made for work accomplished now.

In view of the urgent need for emergency tilling practices to offset damage from winds, the ACP payments will be 50 cents per acre for listing 4 inches deep, or for chiseling 5 inches deep in rows 18 to 48 inches. A $1.25 per acre payment will be made for listing 8 inches deep.

Both cropland and rangeland, except cropland placed in the soil bank conservation reserve, is eligible for payment under the program when the work is accomplished according to ACP standards.

Most observers agree that listing will be the better practice to (Continued On Page 2)

STATE POLICIES WILL BE GUIDED BY VOTERS

Eight proposed amendments to the State constitution of Texas will appear on the general election ballot to be voted in the coming election of Nov. 6. In addition to the names of the party candidates, these proposals will give qualified voters an opportunity to register their views concerning state policies.

1. Due to a legality of a time lapse in the procedure of legislative action, a ninth amendment was not approved in time to appear on the general election ballot so that a special election has been called for Nov. 13.
2. Allows county commissioners courts to vary allocations of tax money without special elections. PRO: Greater flexibility would make for greater efficiency in the county financial management. CON: Commissioners courts would have too much authority.
3. Adds other colleges to the building program financed by the University of Texas Permanent Fund and authorizes investment of the fund in corporate stocks and bonds as well as in railroads. PRO: Would provide an increase in college building money without new taxes. CON: Risk involved in wider investments is not worth the possible return.
4. Increases the benefits of the teacher retirement system. PRO: Would attract more persons to the dwindling profession. CON: Would increase taxpayer obligations by $4,500,000, take a larger nick out of teachers' salaries.
5. Authorizes another $100,000,000 bond issue for veterans land buying. PRO: Program has been put in order, and additional money is needed to enable more veterans to participate. CON: Program does not merit public confidence; only about one percent of Texas veterans have benefited.
6. Provides a different oath of office form for elective and appointive officials. PRO: Would clarify present inconsistencies. CON: Clutters constitution with minor details.
7. Requires competent medical or psychiatric testimony before commitment of a person to a mental institution, and allows waiver of commitment, except in criminal cases.
8. Mentally ill person should not be "convicted" as a criminal. CON: Jury trial is a safeguard against "railroading" of persons into mental institutions.
9. Permits judge to deny bail to persons convicted of two previous felonies. PRO: Would curb habitual criminals. CON: Right of bail is one of our fundamental civil rights.
10. Authorizes the Legislature to give aid with federal assistance to citizens permanently and totally disabled by a mental or physical handicap. PRO: State has a moral obligation to these needy persons. CON: Tie-in with federal program would lead to more federal encroachment.

Legion Head Cites Need For Vets' Land Funds

Delegates to the 18th District American Legion Convention held in Childress on Oct. 28 were urged to take the message "Vote FOR Amendment 5" home to the voters in their own locales by District Commander Dow Stevens.

Amendment 5, as proposed, would authorize a $100 million bond issue so that the Veterans' Land Board will be able to purchase more land for sale to veterans under the long-range land program now in effect. Funds are running short, the delegates were told, and the new bond issue must be voted before the program can continue.

Earned $5 Million In his request, Stevens emphasized that the Veterans' Land Program has not cost the taxpayers of Texas one cent, and the new issue will not add to the tax burden. In fact, he said, the program has already earned more than $2 million for the state treasury and the program would net more than $12 million when all loans are repaid at the end of 40 years.

The first allocation of money to the veterans' program, which replaces the bonus system used in other states, was for $25 million and a short time later, a second issue added $100 million to the fund, he stated.

Bonds are issued by the state at an interest rate of 2 1/2 per cent per annum and the veterans are charged interest at the rate of 3 per cent, allowing a profit to take care of handling costs.

Few Failures Since the program was initiated, only 22 veterans have forfeited land bought, and the $2 million income for the state from the interest increase was registered despite the recent graft exposed in the Veterans' Land Board, Stevens stated.

"Vote FOR Amendment 5" is the request of veterans groups in this area to the voters of the 18th District and the State of Texas, according to the statement issued by Commander Stevens.

Camp Fire Girls To Call Saturday

Camp Fire Girls, their dads and Rotarians will be calling Saturday on Hereford housewives and businessmen for contributions to finance the youngsters' program during the coming year.

Plans were completed early this week for members of the Rotary Club to join the girls in making a house-to-house canvass. Goal of the drive is $1,500 to be used in helping meet expenses of operating the Camp Fire Hut, summer camp, trip trips and other features of the Camp Fire program.

Others Are Hurt

Many who were not allowed to participate in this program, by reason of such screening process, complain vigorously that the administration of the program has not only failed to help those who were allowed to participate, but has measurably increased the burden on those who were not allowed to participate.

In other words, the non-participants were able to buy hay prior to the government program at a price much less than they are now having to pay. Since they are not allowed to participate in the government program, the entire amount of the increase must be paid out of their own pockets. It is their contention that everyone should be allowed to participate in this program if they are in a drought stricken area, or else there should be no program at all.

Market Depressed

One of the recent letters I received on the subject also points out that at the time the government started in on this program, cattle would bring about $2 per hundred more than they will sell for now.

I can also point out that the tragedy that has befallen the cattlemen and has placed him on the verge of bankruptcy does not seem to have had any effect on the price of processed meats or the profits that seem to be made by the packing companies. Washington markets are today selling round steak for $1.15 a pound, veal cutlets for $1.39 a pound, with similar prices on other cuts.

tives. They have gained enough strength in Virginia to give Republicans a fear that the split vote will represent the margin of Democratic victory there.

State candidates listed under the Constitution Party banner are John B. Anthony in the post of Associate Justice, Supreme Court, Place 2; Joseph M. Rummel, Railroad Commissioner; E. G. Brown, Comptroller of Public Accounts; Bond A. Logan, State Treasurer; Fred T. Spangler is the Constitution candidate for the office of Congressman at Large.

Regional, County Offices
Of particular interest to the voters of the 18th District and Deaf Smith County are the candidates and races of Congressman, 18th Congressional District, Walter Rogers, State Board of Education, 18th District; State Representative, Jesse Osborn; District Attorney, Frank D. McCown. On the county level candidates include: County Attorney, J. Edward Lane; Sheriff, Lowell Sharp; Tax Assessor and Collector, State Ramsey; Commissioner Precinct 1, Charles T. Quinn; Precinct 2, J. T. Quinn; Justice of the Peace C. B. Berry; Miles. None of these Democratic nominees are opposed.

The general election ballot also includes eight proposed amendments to the state constitution, giving the voters an opportunity to express their opinions on state policies.

SOME GAINS, SOME SETBACKS IN SEEKING ACCESS TO NEWS

WASHINGTON — The Freedom of Information Committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE) has scored some advances in the past year follow in the driest areas. They point out that the powdery surfaces may not provide enough eldods to prove of any benefit when chiseling is accomplished. Only one treatment will be paid for during the coming season under the program.

but has taken some setbacks too in its campaign for better access to federal, state and local government news.

Headed by Herbert Brucker, editor of the editorial page of the Hartford (Conn.) Courant, the committee this Newspaper Week notes among its gains at the federal level:

1. The number of press conferences with cabinet officials has increased.
2. Society officers have attended conferences with Secretary Wilson regarding Defense Department secrecy.
3. Initial secrecy provisions of this year's Operation Alert were modified following protests over last year's policy.

4. The Strategic Air Command has partly amended secrecy enforced on the movement of operational units.

Court Setback
An outstanding setback came in New York. The appellate court ruled that citizens do not have a right to a transcript of a judge's charge to a jury in a criminal case. The state legislature refused to pass legislation which would make such access possible.

The Colorado Supreme Court, however, authorized judges to permit the use of cameras in a court room if they think there will be no interference with order and decorum.

In Ohio, the intermediate appellate court held that a public trial of a criminal case is the right of the public as well as the accused. The Milwaukee City Council abandoned a secret pre-session caucus it had long used to settle controversial matters away from the public eye.

Although not discounting the spot gains scored by their committee, some members point to the work of the House Government Operations Sub-Committee headed by Rep. Moss (D-Calif.) as the year's outstanding contribution to freedom of information.

Know More

"Americans know more about the impairment of their right to know about the executive departments of their own government than they have ever known before, thanks to the work of the Moss sub-committee," says J. R. Wiggins, executive editor of the Washington Post and Times-Herald, a member of the Freedom of Information Committee and its chairman for three years before Brucker took that job.

"Its initial survey of government information policies, its successive hearings and its report together constitute a confirmation of the warnings which the ASNE Freedom of Information Committee has issued from time to time during the past several years."

Yet, Wiggins says, "It will be difficult, if not impossible to recover all the ground lost in the post generation as the result of the security requirements of wars and cold wars, and in consequence of the changes and growth in government itself."

Wiggins holds "there must be a new climate in government service created by a broader faith and confidence in the right judgments of an informed people."

"I believe..."

Note: Rarely in public life has there been a man of such spiritual strength, wisdom and integrity. It is interesting, at this time of election, to stop and read once more some of the things our President believes... and lives by.

"Under God, we espouse the cause of freedom and justice and peace for all peoples."

"For our country and the world, we seek the establishment of international relationships characterized by order and justice, in which reason and truth are respected, under which men can live as neighbors at peace."

"America does not prosper unless all Americans prosper."

"Every citizen owes it to himself and his country to participate individually, or through a political organization, in making certain that our country goes in the direction that conforms to his ideals and hopes for that government — for that country."

"The individual is of supreme importance."

"Our military programs must meet the needs of the day. To build less would expose the nation to aggression. To build excessively, under the influence of fear, could defeat our purposes and impair or destroy the very freedom and economic system our military defenses are designed to protect."

"... defensive forces in America are maintained to defend a way of life."

"The best foreign policy is to live our daily lives in honesty, decency and integrity — at home, making our land a more fitting habitation for free men; and, abroad, joining with those of like mind and heart, to make the world a place where all men can dwell in peace."

"The purpose of government is to serve, never to dominate."

"A fundamental belief shines forth in this Republic. We believe in the worth and dignity of the individual. We know that if we are to govern ourselves wisely — in the tradition of America — we must have the opportunity to develop our individual capacities to the utmost."

"The spirit of our people is the strength of our nation."

"... we reject Federal domination over state and community, for we seek to strengthen — not to weaken — the historic self-reliance of our people."

"To stay free we must stay strong."

"Our American heritage is threatened as much by our own indifference as it is by the most unscrupulous office seeker or by the most powerful foreign threat. The future of this Republic is in the hands of the American voter."

"To define democracy in one word, we must use the word cooperation."

"Our competitive enterprise system depends on the energy of free human beings, limited by prudent restraints in law, using free markets to plan, organize and distribute production, and spurred by the prospect of reward for successful effort."

L. A. Smiths Observe Anniversary At Family Party In Miller Home

By DELLA RUTH DOW
The children of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith honored their last Sunday on their 43rd Wedding Anniversary. It was held in the N.R. Miller home.
The cake was decorated with blue and yellow icing and candies and mums were used in the table decorations.
For entertainment, the group sang songs together. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hewitt of South Plains, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Weeter and daughter of Borger, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Poe and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller and children, and the honorees, the Smiths.
Monday evening guests of the Paul McClung were Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Durham and daughter of Whitharrel.
Attend Football Game
Bobby and Billy Lynn Miller accompanied their uncle, R. L. Johnson, to the football game in Clovis Friday night. Gail Miller also went to the game, but she was with the band.
The Dawn H. D. Club held a tea in the home of Mrs. H. S. Fuller Wednesday afternoon. The Bippos Home Demonstration Club co-hosted it, along with Dawn. Their guests were the West Hereford Club. Twelve ladies from the West Hereford community were present, six from Bippos and 12 from Dawn.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wimberley of Amarillo visited the Carl Wimberleys Sunday afternoon.
Club Will Meet
The Dawn H. D. Club will meet Friday in the home of Mrs. Margon Russell.
Mrs. Carl Wimberley, Mrs. Ray T. Stewart, and Mrs. R. L. Johnson went to Quanah Friday to the Seventh District Texas Federated Music Club Convention. Mrs. Stewart sang and Mrs. Wimberley accompanied her. Mrs. Johnson was a delegate.
On Saturday, Lucy Beth and Gail Miller accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hinds of Hereford to Quanah for the same purpose. Lucy Beth played the piano to represent the Junior Piano Club of Hereford. Gail was a delegate for the Dawn.

HEREFORD GARDEN CLUB SETS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SHOW DATE

Hereford Garden Club met with Mrs. S. S. Williams Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Hromas, president, presiding.
Study for the day had to do with the theme, "Sharing of my garden through flower shows" which stressed purposes, value, standards and types of flower shows.
Mrs. M. T. Rutter presented the Christmas flower show schedule, giving emphasis to the horticulture division which will include potted plants and the artistic corsages, Christmas arrangements, candies and door swags. Date of the annual show was set for Dec. 1.
Mrs. R. L. Wilson told "What I Can Contribute to a Flower Show," suggesting cooperation, information and the study of making the arrangements for exhibit as to attractive as possible.
After the program, Roy Peet, local florist, presented the president with a new book, "Living With Flowers," and each member a carnation in observance of National Flower Show Week.
Arrangements for the day were made by Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., who featured pink and orchid in a bedside table arrangement, and Mrs. S. S. Williams who had arrangement of yellow and orchid chrysanthemums for a desk, emphasizing a school theme.
Reminder for October was quoted: "Cut to ground peony foliage and divide if needed. Plant bulbs for spring bloom."
Members attending were Mesdames E. T. Hale, John Jacobson Sr., J. W. J. Hacker, E. Ramey M. T. Rutter, Glenn Boardman, C. C. Ferguson, Jeff Robertson, O. H. Herring, Alva Rapier, R. L. Wilson, O. G. Hill, E. W. Young, Frank Brinkman, E. E. Fridley, W. C. Hromas, Ralph McCullough and the hostess.

All Rate Annual Carnival Big Success

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Walcott's annual Halloween carnival sponsored by the P-TA was held at the school on Saturday night, Oct. 27. At 7:30 eager groups of people of every age began filling around anticipating pleasure ahead. Some children were dressed in costumes with masks which added to the color of the evening.
Soon a good crowd was present. Time to stop visiting and eat! Kitchen was the most popular spot for a short time. Here hot dogs, Cokes, pops, coffee, popcorn balls and all kinds of homemade pies were served, cafeteria style.

Lots of Money
Mrs. Glenn Burrus was chairman of the kitchen. Her helpers were Mrs. J.V. Perrin, Mrs. H.D. Buse, Mrs. Walter Neinst, Mrs. J. Rader and Mrs. Waldron Melton. Cashier who could really collect the money was Glenn Burrus. They were kept steadily busy throughout the evening.
Bingo seemed the next busiest spot for many of those a little older. Prizes of all kinds were awarded from five silver dollars to clocks and lamps, oil and anti-freeze, chicken feed, jewelry, toys, ash trays, free cleaning, dishes, etc. Right here, we wish to express our sincere thanks to the business firms of Hereford for each of the many contributions made in the form of merchandise or cash. Of course, these helped materially to make Bingo the huge success that it was.

Bingo Helpers
Jack Weaver called numbers over the loud speaker as players placed corn on their cards. Those assisting were Mrs. Jack Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stocks, Mrs. N. E. Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Hall.
Fishing in the Fish Pond was lots of fun for the little folks. "Wonder what I'll catch this time?" was heard. Mrs. Don Guseman and Mrs. Cliff Johnson were kept busy putting the "catch" on the hooks.

The Country Store was operated by Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, Mrs. Norman Minks and Mrs. Bernie Northcutt. Their stock included a collection of homemade aprons, canned goods, calendars, dog food, pot plants, etc. If business wasn't so good, plenty of ole time stopping for visits was.
Doll Given Away
Mrs. Roy Pruitt, a 4-H sponsor, crocheted a dress and put it on a doll. Chances were sold by the 4-H girls for the pretty doll. They did real well. Late in the carnival hours, the winning name of Lily Mae Leinen was drawn.
Guess Your Weight was done by Don Guseman. Dick Boyd helped him some. Things were fairly quiet around there some of the time, but then again loud laughs were heard. Did Don miss a guess those times?
Leaving the auditorium, the carnival visitor progressed down the hall and to the right he or she could Cake Walk for only a dime. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McKee and Mrs. James Wyly were in charge. Some good looking cakes surely must have tasted good, too. Cake walking seems to be a favorite of all ages for they surely were enjoying it. Some little ones carried away big cakes, I noticed.

Fun For All
Next room on to the right was full of activity. Doll Chuck drew much interest and proved fun for many, especially the men folks present. A. L. Shelton was chairman here. Gary Guseman was a steady assistant for some time, then Wayne Johnson, and later Waldron Melton.
Darts were thrown at blown-up balloons of various colors and sizes. This children liked to do, but so did some older people. Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown were alternately kept busy blowing these up and placing them on the dart board. Later they were relieved by Mrs. Virgil Bomar and Mrs. Earl Monroe.
Not So Easy
Ball Toss looked so easy, but for some reason those baseballs wouldn't stay in that muffin tin. Roy Pruitt was in charge here. Bud Morrison helped him.
Across the hall mystery and darkness seemed to hover near. It was the Spook House, fixed and operated by members of the eighth grade. This place you had to see to describe. It was fun though.
List of Visitors
We were pleased to have quite a number of guests to take part in our Halloween carnival. We hope you had fun and will start planning to come back again next year. The following persons I contacted but the rest of you were not missed on purpose!
From Hereford: Mrs. Frank Coedell and Chuck, Marsh Pittman and Mike McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Perkins, Mrs. R. H. Hunsucker, Janice, Peggy and Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robinson and Edwin Jr., Lewis Block, Karri Dameron, Larry Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Truly and children, Rosberta Campbell, her guest, Bust er and his friend, John F. Coar from Clovis, a guest of Jimmy Northcutt, both here for the weekend from Texas Tech; Cliff Combs from Westway; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hornfeld and children from B.P. Mrs. John Lewis and son of Adrian; Mrs. Minnie Miles of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pittman and children of Fritch and Lena Mae Mills of Morton.

Late Hour Auction
About 11:30 p.m. Bernie Northcutt began auctioneering the remaining prizes to the highest bidders assisted by the bingo workers. It was fun hearing bids across the room and questions as to "What you selling now?" This continued until nearly 3 a.m. before things all found an owner.
Mrs. Herschel Burrus was the general chairman for the carnival and she did an excellent job with the assistance of many helpers. To all these we are grateful.
Mrs. Burrus carefully totaled the amount of money earned from each booth. She estimates that this 1956 carnival had a total of $350 earned. This amount will go into the P-TA treasury.
Weekend Visitor
Mrs. Jim Stocks and Mrs. Jack Weaver have their mother, Mrs. Minnie Miles from Pampa, visiting in their homes this weekend.
Guests in the T. L. Collins home this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pittman, Terrell, Kathy and Sherri of Fritch and Lena Mae Mills of Morton. Mr. Pittman is Mr. Collins' nephew and Miss Mills is Mrs. Pittman's sister.
Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Shields and Travis, along with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Oldham of Friona went to Wellington Friday for the funeral of Minnie Loring, a niece of Mr. Shields.
Return from Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dufur and baby daughter, Debra Diane, returned home Thursday after a week of travel. The Texas Fair was first, then Cleburne. They next visited friends at Southwestern Junior College at Keene where Mrs. Dufur attended school. Other places to stop for visits were Denton, Marietta, Durant and Caddo, Okla.

Encouragement Aids More Than Punishing

Dear Dr. Whipple: We have two children, a daughter aged 11 1/2 years and a son aged 9 1/2 years. Our son Frank entered school when he was five and his teachers have all found him hard to manage. He is very stubborn, but up until two years ago he was quite smart in school. Now his teacher writes me that neither his behavior nor his school work have improved so far this year.
We have taken away TV and given him extra homework. We have to be very strict with him at all times.
Tonight I found his arm covered with inked cartoons he said he had done during class. He is always resorting to lies and tricks.
His music teacher says he is brilliant in music. Here he is not attentive. For his music he would go without almost anything. We have threatened to take away the music if his school work doesn't improve.
Are we right? Am we wrong? He is not a bad boy but he definitely needs something that he is not getting. ... Mrs. F. D. N.
Dear Mrs. F. D. N.: First take Frank to your doctor for a thorough check-up. Could his inattention in school be due to failure to see the blackboard clearly? Or maybe he doesn't hear as well as he should. Maybe he is tired or maybe there is some other physical reason for his lack of interest in school work.
Since there was some possibility of injury at birth with Frank, ask your doctor to arrange a consultation with a neurologist. Sometimes a brain-injured child will show aggressive, destructive and bizarre behavior.
If no physical defect can be found, the next step is an evaluation of Frank's mental capacities. Maybe he belongs in the 2nd or 3rd grade instead of the 4th. If he cannot understand what's going on in school of course he won't pay attention. He will be quite bored and will resort to all sorts of troublesome behavior to keep himself occupied. If Frank should prove to be a little slow you must ease up on your requirements of him and let him learn at his own rate.
If Frank's I. Q. is up to average then we probably have primarily an emotional problem on our hands.

How often do you compare Frank to his sister and urge him to be like her? This just confirms his feeling that you love her more than you love him. He may feel he never can succeed in doing anything that's approved of, so it's not even worth trying.
Should these be the reasons for Frank's bad behavior what that youngsters' needs is a campaign on his parents' part to make him feel loved and wanted for what he is now. As soon as he can feel sure of his parents' love he will no longer need his bad behavior and it will slowly drop away.
Under no circumstances ever take away his music. It's the one place he does have some sense of competency. Begin your campaign by admiring his music, by showing interest in what he enjoys. Do not urge him on to better and better performances. Accept him — like him and his work right here — and now. His feeling of pleasure in your approval is the real stimulus to make him want to do more and better things. When a child wants to learn we can feel he is becoming educated in the best sense of the word.
The same with other phases of his education. Stop punishing (a thing which you admit yourself is not producing the desired results), show an interest in what he can do. Let him feel you love the little boy he is right now. I am sure you DO love him, but I'm not at all sure he knows it.

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Parties For Halloween

Camp Fire Girls of the Dakotah group enjoyed a Halloween party at the Camp Fire Hut on Monday evening. The hut was decorated for the occasion and refreshments of punch, sandwiches and cookies were served.

Prizes were awarded for the following costumes: funniest, Sandra Gaught; prettiest, Thula Pugh; most original, Louise Axe.

Members present were Kathryn Cox, Sandra Gaught, Sheri Damon, Caroline Brumley, Thula Pugh, Nancy Boardman, Joyce Linder and Joann Thomas. Guests were Donita Ray Allred, Connie Kent, Jenny Hold, Jerre Bea Noe, Diana Robinson, Carolyn Brooks, Worette Weld and Gloria Hill. Mrs. Harry Linderer is the group's leader.

Girls who are members of the Camp Fire group with Mrs. Gilbreath as leader voted to name their group "Wa-wee-zup!" at a meeting held on Oct. 24. Fifteen members were served refreshments of candy apples by Donna Blythe.

Plans for a wiener roast were made when the Joyful Blue Birds met on Tuesday afternoon. The girls will have the picnic supper at their next meeting.

Three new members — Patsy Stay, Mary Frances Long and Linda Perry — were welcomed. Entertainment for the afternoon was the playing of games.

All regular members were present. Barbara Dearing served refreshments of ice cream sticks.

The Ot-yo-koa Camp Fire girls met at the Hut Tuesday-afternoon and plans were made for the Halloween party to be held Oct. 30 at Sandra Nunnally's house from 7 to 9 p.m.

The girls also discussed how they would begin their memory books and honor books.

Those present were Carolyn Avon, Katherine Nell Barnard, Kathy Boston, Gloria Damon, Janice Hagan, Ann Kirby, Sandy Nunnally, Kaynell Reeves, Cynthia Seed, Gary Lynn Wheeler and Sherrie Rose. Leaders present were Mrs. Dick Barnard and Mrs. Sam Nunnally.

The Humming Blue Birds met on Oct. 22 and made bead rings. Refreshments were served by Gail Witherspoon.

Girls present were Patti Nobles, Beverly Barrett, Fanella Williams, Linda Pulliam, Gwendell Baimun, Lynn Poarch, Lawanna Vines, Gail Witherspoon, Patsy Huckert and Charlotte Williams.

Men With Ideas Need Help In Field Of New Camera Gadgets

By IRVING DESFOR
AP Newfeatures

With hundreds of thousands of amateur photographers around the country, there are bound to be a number of inventive minds with bright new ideas about cameras and equipment. Many camera fans adapt the knowledge and experience gained in their normal fields of work to specific photographic use.

Where can these men turn to for a competent evaluation of their ideas so that the photographic industry might benefit and with assurance that the inventors are protected and eventually compensated?

The answer is nowhere. At present, pioneers who feel they have a worthwhile idea spend numberless hours and often a great deal of money building hand-tooled models before they realize they're up against a blank wall.

Major manufacturers are reluctant to discuss an outsider's ideas because of the danger of lawsuits. Most of them have research staffs where the very same ideas might be under investigation or on their pending schedule. Some manufacturers require a written release signed in advance before they will talk to an inventor or look at his idea.

Small companies are not likely to tool up for a new item — it's too expensive. Then there is the fear among inventors that small firms are much more liable to "adapt" their ideas to some degree without adequate compensation.

In many cases, the dilemma forces an inventor into the manufacturing business where the odds are greater that the venture will end in failure. Of course, if it turns out to be a success, then the rewards are proportionately higher.

One protection for inventors is that they can secure a patent from the U. S. Patent Office in Washington if their idea is original. But the process involved is time-consuming and sometimes very costly. Then, after a patent is finally granted, the invention is on public record with all construction details available. The manufacturing rights, however, are reserved for the inventor and again it is up to him to find a concern willing to put it into production.

The problem has come to my attention because two inventors have been up to see me in the past week and in the past few years at least half a dozen have written to me about their brain-children.

Dr. Eugenie Trachtman, an optometrist in Red Bank, N. J., has used his knowledge of optics to conceive and build both a camera to take pictures in a complete 360 degree circle and a projector that will show the results on a continuous circular screen.

Mr. Arthur Inclendon of Queens Village, N. Y., is a draftsman for an engineering firm. He was issued a patent on a 35mm camera that will hold two rolls of film at the same time. Each roll of film can be loaded and exposed at any time. A camera could then shoot color or black-and-white as the occasion arises.

The idea for a circular photo has been tackled and solved before with varying degrees of successful circular completeness. In movies, the Cinerama process proved a sensational innovation but it required three cameras and three separate synchronized projectors to take and show the pictures. The angle shown is far short of a circle but approximates what is normally seen by human eyes, which is 180 degrees.

Early this year I wrote about a Japanese inventor who devised a camera to take still pictures in a

Mrs. Elmer Northcutt was the program leader when the Messenger H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Ruth Coleman on Oct. 26. She led the discussion on Civil Defense.

Final plans for entertaining the North Hereford Club were made during the business session. The group voted to postpone the hat demonstration until early spring. Mrs. N. A. Brown reported on the October council meeting.

Miss Wanda Northcutt attended as a guest. Members present were Mesdames Bruce Coleman, N. A. Brown, Floyd Brown, E. M. Jack, Dixy Forkeburg, Elmer Northcutt and the hostess, Mrs. Coleman.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Dixy Forkeburg with the program on Public Relations.

Air Force Eleven Attacks In Character - - By Aerials

By FRANK PITMAN

DENVER (AP)—An old pro, Buck Shaw, is piloting the Air Force Academy football team into varsity competition for the first time this fall with an offense based—appropriately—on scoring through the air.

"Passing's the easiest way to get a touchdown," says Shaw, veteran professional and collegiate coach who took full charge of the Falcons this season. Shaw was consultant last year and was hired full-time after the trial run impressed academy athletic officials.

"We'll throw a lot, making the most possible use of flankers and spreads," he adds. Shaw was a leading exponent of the wide-open game during nine seasons as coach of the San Francisco 49ers. His pro career followed coaching assignments at North Carolina State, Nevada, Santa Clara and University of California.

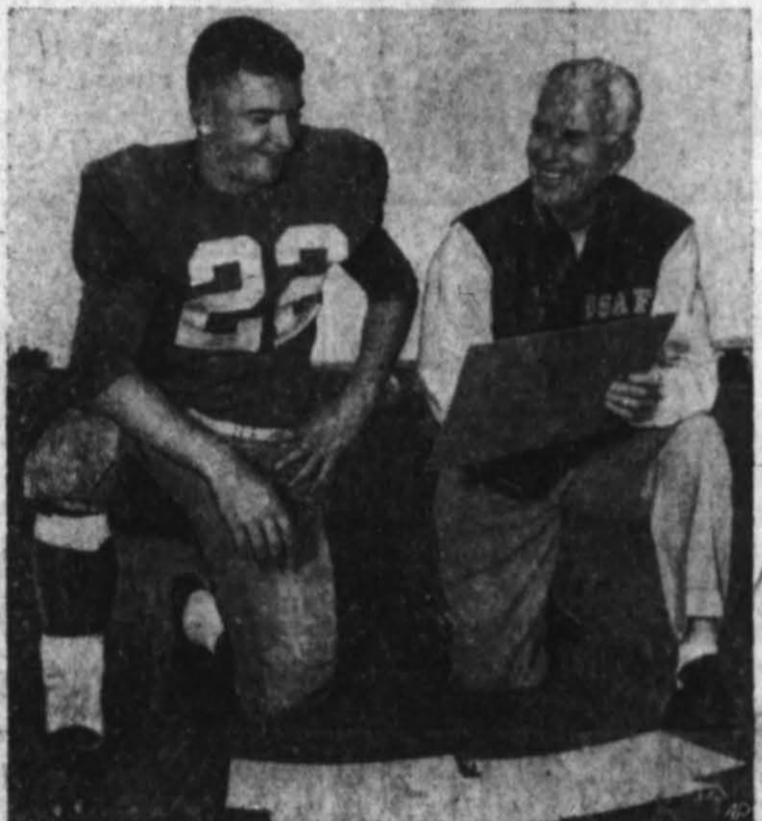

Breaking even in eight games against freshman teams last fall, the Falcons have a nine-game schedule against varsity teams. Four are with members of the Rocky Mountain Conference.

The Falcons, made up of sophomores and freshmen, will be playing teams manned mostly by juniors and seniors.

"Our sophomores have a year of valuable experience and we expect some help from the freshmen, so we should be improved over 1955," says Shaw. "I am optimistic about winning a fair share of our games."

The success of the Falcons' aerial attack depends heavily on Eddie Rosane, 167 pound 6-foot passing quarterback from Pasco, Wash. Rosane, a high school standout, suffered a broken wrist in his freshman year at the Academy.

The academy's running game is powered by Steve Galios, 6-foot 174-pound halfback from Napa, Calif., who scored 24 points and averaged 4.3 yards rushing last season, and halfback Mickey Gouyd, 158-pound 5-foot-7 speedster of Cypress, Calif.

With the academy temporarily located at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, the Falcons are playing their home games at the University of Denver Stadium. They have five games there capped by a Nov. 24 date with Brigham Young of the Skyline Conference.

Still undetermined is where the Falcons will play home games when they start meeting national football powers two years from now. Denver Stadium seats 27,000. A small stadium, probably seating 20,000, is all that's under consideration at the permanent site of the academy in Colorado Springs

'46 Whitefaces Won Seven, Lost Only 2

(Editor's Note: The following is an account of a past football season of the Herford Whitefaces taken from the Brand files.)

When Herford Whitefaces footballers opened workouts in the fall of 1946, Coach H. V. Stanton rated their chances as "good-to-better." And Stanton, cagey as he was, hit it right on the nose with the last modifier. His team that year won seven games and lost two, placing second in I-A.

It was a typical section club, running off the right T with precision blocking and break away backs. The Whitefaces scored 284 points against their opposition's 89 for an offensive average of 26 points per game and 3.4 points defensively.

Herford victories were over Sunday, 27-12; White Deer, 51-0; Erickson, 25-0; Dalhart, 19-6; Dumas, 27-6; Canyon, 24-12; and Dimmitt, 41-0. Losses were to Panhandle, 19-7, and Tulla, 14-13.

The Tulla game was the final game of the year and decided the district championship. The Herford loss was a heartbreaker. The Hornets lost to you guessed it, Phillips in their bi-district battle. Worrell and Close Combe

Leading the Whitefaces that year were a pair of fleet-footed backs, Jim Worrell and Freddie Close. Worrell scored almost half the Whitefaces' points, accounting for 112 points on 17 touchdowns and 10 extra points. He was the touchdowns in the White Deer game.

Close scored 73 points on 12 touchdowns and one extra point to be second high scorer behind Worrell. Jimmy Whitaker was next with 18 points, and an end, Raymond Lueb, scored 17 points.

Starting Lineup Starting lineup consisted of Raymond Lueb, 165, and James Higgins, 150, at ends; Neely Kimbrough, 165, and Jack Simmons, 168, at tackles; Jimmie Easley, 150, and Bob Millard, 142, at guards; John Dyer, 165, at center; Johnny Rogers, 138, quarterback; Jim Worrell, 165, fullback; Jimmie Whitaker, 140, and Freddie Close, 165, at halfbacks.

Jack Simmons was the heaviest man on the team at 168. Lightest man was quarterback Johnny Rogers at 138.

1-AAA ROUNDUP

Utter Confusion Prevails, Thanks To Striking Upsets

Herford, Texas, Thursday, November 1, 1956 Section Two

SPORTS GLANCES by Bill Knox

Dumas' Demons, a formidable but unpredictable grid eleven, showed their mettle last Friday with a brilliant win over previously favored Levelland.

Flubbed Last Year The Demons last year were picked to win the 1-AAA championship by the district coaches. However, they folded, tying two games and losing one, a lopsided 33-14 defeat at the hands of the Herford Whitefaces. They wound up in a tie with Herford for second place.

This year the Demons were known to be strong but not as strong as they have now proven themselves. They have lost two games this year, both non-conference affairs. The Palo Duro Demons stopped them, 21-7, in their season opener, and the Snyder Tigers, best AAA team in the Lone Star State, handled them, 27-7. Neither of these losses was a disgrace.

Demons Top Contender Then the Demons' 7-0 upset victory over Levelland last Friday established them as a top contender for the title. They now have the inside track since every other conference team, save Herford, sports either a loss or a tie. Herford hasn't played a conference game yet.

Phillips, too, must be somewhat weaker than anticipated. Their 13-13 tie with the Littlefield Wildcats Friday was the first blemish in their record, but before the season is over there may be a few more. Chesty reserves are weak, and that may be his downfall this year.

Back Where We Started The Littlefield Wildcats have been going like a house afire. They, too, have established themselves as a contender for the crown. But what have we, anyhow? Everybody else in 1-AAA is a contender right now, and that puts us right back where we started.

ALLADIN WAS HERE ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Donald W. Wray wasn't too mad about the theft from his home of a lamp he had fashioned out of an old jug. What did make him mad, he told city police, was that $250 he kept hidden in the jug was missing, too.

Belafonte Is Ace Of Club But Prefers Theatre Jack

Harry Belafonte can best be compared to a deft sculptor. He can take an audience—night club, theatre or TV—and mold them into whatever mood he desires.

His most recent sorties into performance styled to the legitimate theatre rather than night clubs included a two-week one-man show at the Greek Theater, where he drew a capacity 5,000 at every performance; a concert at Lewisohn Stadium in New York, where he attracted a record 25,000; and a touring musical show—or show with music—called "Sing, Man, Sing."

Belafonte's next commitment is the shooting of a movie in Jamaica. Following that will be another film, "Emperor Jones."

Discussing his plans, the serious and searching thought he has given to the matter seeps through as if he were making the decision all over again. In a point-by-point explanation he said: "In the cold mechanical terms I'd rather perform in a theatre than in a night club because (1) It is more difficult to do two shows in a night club than one an evening in a theatre; (2) There is a large, appreciative, teen-age audience, but they can't stand the tariff of a night club; (3) A night club has physical limits which reduce the size of the audience and I don't want to be that hard to get to; (4) A night club is restrictive in the sense of an artist not being able to do any real costuming or using a wide range of material, and this can be harmful artistically; and finally, in a cold financial sense, there is a limit to what an establishment can pay no matter how good you are and how continually you can fill the room. I can make in two weeks in a theatre what I make in seven or eight weeks in night clubs."

District 1-AAA erupted into a state of utter confusion last week, thanks to a pair of striking upsets which might not even be called upsets.

Gene Mayfield's battling Littlefield Wildcats and John Whinnery's Dumas Demons turned the trick, Dumas nipping the confident Levelland Lobos, and Littlefield tying Chesty Walker's Phillips Blackhawks.

The Demons' 7-0 victory over Levelland and the Wildcats' 13-13 deadlock with the Hawks left things in a complicated mess. Dumas emerges in the top spot with their victory. Phillips and Littlefield are lodged in a tie for second and third. The Herford Whitefaces defeated Clovis, 31-21, last Friday but have not played a conference battle yet.

Levelland had been favored over Dumas because of their fine showing against AAA kingpin Snyder. Snyder was extended in nipping the Lobos, 2-0, and they defeated the Demons by a 27-7 count. However, Dumas didn't read the dope sheet and behind Jim Boxwell and Jim Tiner rolled to the 7-0 victory. Phillips previously unbeaten, untied, and unextended Blackhawks sported a 50-point per game average into the Littlefield contest but fell considerably short of that goal.

A small but solid favorite, the Hawks had to battle for their life, scoring 13 points in the last five minutes to manage the tie.

Only Herford of the five 1-AAA members was not in conference action. The Whitefaces stopped Clovis, 31-21, with a brilliant first quarter exhibition. They open conference play Friday when they meet the Littlefield Wildcats. Littlefield is favored.

Dumas matches talents with the Phillips Blackhawks in other conference action. After last week's results, the Demons will be favored but slightly. Only Levelland is not in conference action. The Lobos meet Anson.

Basketball season is a long way off. But the Whitefaces should have something to look forward to this year. Last year wasn't a successful one, we'll admit it, although things began to look up toward the last season.

Prospects are very good this year. But we won't go out on the limb yet, the footing is still too shaky. However, the Whitefaces will hold their own.

Invitational Tourney Athletic director Scot Russell also informs us that Herford will have another invitational tournament this year. Russell tells us that this one will be a lot better than the first invitational tournament held here, which wasn't successful. All 1-AAA teams will be participating with several more of the top teams in this area.

Just got around to looking over the account of the Herford-Portales game in the Portales paper. Was interesting to note a great misunderstanding of the spelling of several Herford players' names.

A few examples: Bobby Voegal. Gene Weights. Ed Shrader. Wayne Castra. Fred Lakingbil. So there you are, and you can't hardly get those no more!

The Whitefaces, owners of a 3-4 season record, will be a solid underdog, after the Wildcats stirring 13-13 tie with previously undefeated and untied Phillips. After their fine showing against Phillips, the Cats will be a three-touchdown favorite, according to most experts.

Littlefield is yet to be defeated but has two ties to mar its record. They were held to a stalemate by Olton, 12-12, and last week by Phillips, 13-13. They own victories over Plainview, 38-13, Brownfield 21-20, Tulla, 39-6, Canyon, 14-0, and Clovis, 33-12.

Herford has won three times. They stopped Tulla, 33-6, Portales, 46-7, and Clovis, 31-21. They have been defeated by Canyon, 46-13, Olton, 19-6, and Plainview, 57-32.

The two teams have met five common foes, and each gives Littlefield the edge. The Cats were tied by Olton, 12-12, while the Mustangs took Herford by 19-6. They defeated Plainview, 38-13, and Plainview ran roughshod over the Herd, 57-32. Their edge over Tulla was one touchdown better than Herford's. Littlefield defeated the Canyon team, 14-0, and the Eagles disposed of Herford, 46-13. Clovis fell, 33-12, to Gene Mayfield's crew. Herford stopped Clovis, 31-21.

Head coach and athletic director L. E. Russell said Monday that "Littlefield is tough. I believe that they are just as tough as any other 1-AAA member."

They are presently lodged in a tie with Phillips for second and third. Phillips meets Dumas on Friday and something must give.

A Herford victory Friday would throw them into a tie with Dumas for the district lead if the Demons stop Phillips. However, a Whiteface win coupled with a Phillips win over Dumas would put Herford in undisputed possession of first place. Dumas is favored slightly over Phillips.

Wildcats Heavier The Whitefaces will face a heavier Littlefield crew. A fine defense has stood out all year for the Wildcats, and they possess a smooth Split-T offense, guided by 126-pound quarterback Mickey Ratliff.

However, Littlefield's standout is 185-pound fullback Max Morris, also a stalwart on defensive end. Morris has been their "bread and butter" player all through the year with his pile driving line smashes and crisp defensive performances.

Anchoring the line will be 220-pound tackle Davis Williams. At the other tackle will be Joe Hoover.

Littlefield Plenty Tough, Says Coach

Herford's Whitefaces, untried in 1-AAA, opens its conference slate Friday against the powerful Littlefield Wildcats at Littlefield.

Her Underdog

er, a 190-pounder. At guards will be Wallace Lee, 194-pounds, and Lawrence Hudson, 163 pounds. Playing at center is 170-pound Roger Lower, and at ends will be Leslie Bevel, 163 pounds, and Andy Parker, 150 pounds.

The Wildcat backfield will not outweigh the Herd backfield quartet but may hold the advantage in speed. Ratliff, the smallest man on the team, will be at quarterback with Max Morris, 185, at fullback, Buddy Jones, 150, at halfback, and Mike Greer, 150, at fullback.

Same Starting Crew Russell said he would go with the same crew which started the Clovis tilt. The Whitefaces suffered no injuries in the Clovis game and should be in good physical shape.

A Herford scout who scouted the Phillips-Littlefield game told this reporter that "the Littlefield defense against Phillips was perfect except for one play. They're rugged up the middle because they have plenty of size there. We'll have to play our best game of the season to beat them."

He continued: "They don't pass a whole lot, but they've got a pretty good passing attack. They're also good on wide plays and have a good pass defense."

Phillips was forced to come from behind with 13 points in the last five minutes to gain a tie with the Wildcats last week. According to reports, the charges of Gene Mayfield suffered no injuries in the clash.

PLATTE, S. D. Oct. 29 — A lot of pheasant hunters who didn't make it this year should be feeling pretty good. . . and visa versa.

All of the Hereford delegation got their limit the first day, but it looks like the second day was a different story. At least it was for us. However, I saw Marcus Latham, Gaylord Newell and Jack Bradley this morning and they say that getting a deer in Wyoming — en route to Platte — was duck soup as compared with pheasant. It really isn't a matter of being able to shoot or not shoot this year. The trouble is a shortage of birds. All of the natives say that this area should not have been allowed an open season. . . and the hunters are beginning to agree.

Our bunch came in with 10 birds for six people (allowed a legal limit of 18) and some of the old timers were feeling pretty bad. We went down to eat supper at the cafe, however, and happened to eat along with Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and some other golf celebrities. These boys didn't even get their limit the first day — and wouldn't say how bad they did the second day. Championship golfers, of course, aren't supposed to automatically be championship pheasant hunters. For some reason, though, it made us feel pretty good to know that the "Big Shots" also pooped out on the hunting regime.

Maybe it is the shortage of birds . . . but we all have the feeling that this country is changing. It has always reminded me of the way people described Deaf Smith County back in the days when the "latch string hung outside the door." These folks are starting to pull part of it inside. People are not nearly so thoughtful and considerate of the hunters anymore. All of our bunch is beginning to predict that the big scale South Dakota pheasant hunts are coming to an end. There are a few old timers among the natives who love to have us hunt — but they are a carryover from the past generation. They are fast on the way out. In other words, pheasant hunting — like trout fishing and deer hunting — are fast becoming commercialized.

We hunted today with Bingo Johnson, an old timer, and he got to reminiscing about "the good old days." Bingo says that back during the days of meat rationing folks flew in here and carried out pheasant by the hundred, drawing fancy prices on the eastern markets. Several of the boys in our group figure, however, that they can buy pheasant around Ft. Worth and Dallas at $2.00 each, which is much cheaper than shooting them up here for "free." Bingo says the limit was 35 per person, per season back in the 40's and that folks flew in with planes and carried out 8 or 10 limits. The limit is now 15 birds. He says you could kill pheasant back then with a stick instead of a gun.

In comparison, we drove around 200 miles during the six-hour legal hunting period today and saw only 14. We got 10, which is away above the average.

The same old bunch came back this year, along with a bunch of new faces. They are reporting approximately 1,200 out-of-state hunters in the Mitchell area which covers some four counties. The Mitchell paper says that airports in all of the surrounding towns are flooded with twin motor planes. The largest number . . .

WESTWAY NEWS

Reporter Returns To Column After Belated Vacation Trip

By MRS. T. B. THOMAS

imagine.

Today is Monday — and it will tell the story. Either we get some birds today — or everyone and his dog will be leaving. They estimate 20,000 non-resident hunters in South Dakota this year. At $20 a head for a license this figures into quite a sum. Like I said, 1956 could easily be the last big influx of hunters into the Dakotas. From now on the pheasant crop may go like the prairie chicken in West Texas. Only time will tell.

First, your reporter wishes to apologize for no news the past three editions. She was on vacation, the first one in 12 years!

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Thomas, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Combs, left Friday of last week for an extended trip through New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, and Montana. They visited in Roundup, Mont., with Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Thomas, Sandy and Dusty. The group got in a bit of hunting and some sight-seeing. The four Texans returned Saturday evening and were mighty glad to be back on home grounds.

Staying With Children

Mr. and Mrs. Bert O'Connor of Plainview arrived Thursday to stay in the Elmer Combs home with Bill and Eugene Combs while their parents were gone. O'Connor became ill Saturday, so Eugene took his grandparents home. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Combs and Bill went to Plainview on Saturday night and returned to Hereford on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt left Thursday of last week to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, Albert Bells. Mr. Bell was a car accident victim. His wife had been released from the hospital in Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Renfro, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Landers left Thursday for a visit in Stillwater, Okla., where the group attended a varsity football game on Friday. They visited with Larry and Walter Kaul, G.C. Merritt Jr., and Ross Joe Landers.

G. C. and Walter are members of the freshmen football team. Merritt intercepted a pass and made a touchdown for the team, and Kaul kicked some extra points.

Visiting With Daughter

Mrs. Mays of Arlington, Tex., is visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Frank.

Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Judith, and Deborah Thomas attended a birthday party Saturday afternoon in the C. C. Renfro home. The honoree was Mary Renfro.

Mrs. Jack Renfro, accompanied by Mary Lynn and Judith Morrison, Debra, Dan and Deborah Thomas, had a picnic Monday evening at the Renfro Ranch east of Hereford.

Wreck Victim

Larry Rickman had a wreck on Sunday out on Highway 51, north of Hereford. There were six occupants in the GMC pickup and when they had a blowout the pickup went out of control and overturned. Larry's parents are in Hannibal, Mo., visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Joe Paetzold and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Paetzold and children of Hereford were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Turrentine and girls.

Harvest Slowly Closing

The milo harvest is slowly drawing to a close. Some lettuce and carrots are still being harvested. The wheat in the community is really pretty now. The nice one to two inch rain was just what the farmers needed to put everything in good shape.

Mrs. Gene Roach, Wallace, and Francis of Tatum, N. M., visited several days with her mother, Mrs. Bess Werner and brother, George Turrentine and uncle, Ray Ridgeway.

Visiting In Lubbock

Mrs. R. L. Wilson, Mrs. B. B. Northcutt, were in Lubbock Tuesday of last week to visit with Mrs. Ray Haltom and boys. They also visited with Jimmy Northcutt, a student at Texas Tech.

Jimmy Northcutt spent last week end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Northcutt.

R. M. Gunn of Hereford was a Sunday visitor with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Landers.

Best Dressed On Campuses Get Ivy Look

If you are trying to qualify as best dressed on your campus don't underestimate the new Ivy League look. It's more than a fad. It's catching on like wildfire. Even conservative types are wearing skirt waist dresses with full skirts in dark ivy-league stripes, ideal for football games too. Tartan stripes in tartan plaid colors are popular also. Blouses are striped, with button-down collar and a button at the back of the collar, worn with bermuda shorts. Girls have gone cap mad, and sometimes these match a beau's jaunty striped cap with visor. If you'd be really top rung on the Ivy League fashion circuit, though, you'll wear lots of buckles—at the back of shorts, slacks, shirts and even your visor-cap.

Yuki Nason, young New York Japanese designer, showed me an interesting scarf trick that could really Houdinize school books. It's done with a large handkerchief-scarf. Japanese call it a Fuoroshiki.

Smooth the scarf out on a flat surface. Place books or other paraphernalia in the center of it. Wrap up the entire package tightly across the handkerchief. Tie the two leftover ends with a knot and you have made a handle in which to insert your arm. Make it look neat by wrapping it tightly and tucking the end piece in before you tie the knots. Nail biters would be better off mending their ways instead of their nails says one high school senior. She wasn't getting very many dates so she decided her nails looked too chewed up to intrigue a boy to hand holding.

She tried various methods to improve her nails, and finally hit on the false kind. She liked them so well she decided to wear them long, a big departure from the regular appearance of her nails. Everything was fine until a dinner date and then that moment of moments, the embarrassing one:

She scooped up a spoonful of soup and there was one of her nails floating in it. Now she's made the pledge: Nail biting isn't worth it. Youthful hairdos will be a hodgepodge this year, say hair-dressers—pony tail, bun-back, page boy are three styles that may be adopted to the scheme of the moment. The point is you can do all three hairstyles with the same length hair, and it makes no difference whether your hair is straight or not. The pony tail may be worn to classes, page boy for informal dates, chignon hair style for more sophisticated dates.

Hook Up Your Christmas Gift

CROCHETED CUTIES—The tassel cap at left and the baby cap at right are crocheted of the furry white angora yarn, ideal Christmas gifts for every young girl on your list.

Now is the time to put your knitting needles and crochet hooks to work on that Christmas gift list. Nothing is more appreciated than a hand-made gift, planned especially for someone you like. Needlework departments are full of suggestions for small, quick and easy accessories that you can make in a few hours, and make somebody happy on Christmas morning.

Any young girl would love one of the new crocheted caps or hoods so popular just now. They come in various versions, are prettiest done in furry white angora yarn, and can be completed in a couple of hours if you are handy with your crochet hooks. Especially beguiling are two new styles: a headhugging cap with a long knotted tassel of jumbo yarn hanging down the back; and a crocheted baby cap with a hole in back for a pony tail, tied under the chin with narrow black velvet ribbon.

For free directions for making both caps plus a charming little white angora knitted shoulder stole, send stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Ann Bucilla, 230 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

W. E. Hicks of Hereford emphasizes the fact that the demand this fall for calves and young stock was extraordinary. Buyers went right after them, and paid the price. "Think of it," said Mr. Hicks, who marketed six carloads of cows yesterday, "selling calves at $20 each. The old time cowmen who hear of such prices will drop dead. The old timers will remember when the best three-year-old steers on the Plains could have been had for that price. Of course we are raising a very high class of cattle, but the price is out of sight. It pays to raise calves on the Plains when they sell that way."

J. L. Johnson has invented an improved jack for operating two or four wells at one time, each well being equipped with double acting cylinders. In deep wells this would effect the saving of power from one-third to one-half.

A few days ago the old wooden awning in front of the building occupied by Hoefner's Candy Store took a tumble and fell without warning to the sidewalk. Fortunately no one was under the dead-fall or some serious accident might have occurred. Other awnings of the same kind may take a notion to fall.

25 Years Ago

A calf with eight legs, two tails, two bodies, and one head was brought to Hereford today by J. T. Cunningham from his ranch 10 miles south of town. The bull calf, born of a normal Jersey cow Wednesday night, has one perfect body, but shares the single head with its twin brother who grew through the center of its body. The headless calf has perfect forefeet growing from the back of his normal brother, and well proportioned hind quarters hanging between the legs of the normal calf. "He" or "they" was (were) dead at birth.

Ralph McCullough and H. E. Miller won first and second prize, respectively, in a truck driving contest held Saturday at the Buch-

Mystery Drama Nets $200 For Jr. Class

By JUDY PINNELL

Members of the Junior Class play cast were honored by several of their mothers Thursday night when a delicious meal of roast, gravy, with potatoes and carrots on the side, fruit salad and pie-a-la-mode were laid before them in a delicious array in the school lunch room.

The meal was served cafeteria style and the cast was seated on long tables decorated with pumpkins and fall flowers. The mothers greatly enjoyed the dress rehearsal which followed the meal.

Those honored were Davis Brown, John Henry Grubkey, Don Morgan, Edd Pinnell, Carl Heaton, Jerry Heaton, Phillip Pinnell, Glenda Taylor, Mary Jean Jackson, Betty Johnson, Peggy Leslie, and their sponsor, Mrs. Clyde Williams.

Mothers honoring the members were Mesdames Irene Brown, D. W. Morgan, Bud Heaton, Loyd Heaton, Percy Grubkey, Bill Leslie, and R. L. Pinnell.

The following night, the play "Mystery at Midnight" kept all those attending on the edges of their chairs and the juniors netted a neat profit of $220. "Many thanks," say the Juniors, "to all who helped make it such a success!"

Moved To Santa Rosa

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Loveless and family moved Friday to Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Callender and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Al Goodin and family at Hart this weekend.

Wednesday Mrs. Norman Jacobson and Mrs. Johnnie Williams attended a District meeting of the W.S.C.S. at Stratford, Dr. E. D. Landreth delivered the main address on his subject, "Prayer."

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jacobson left for Denver this week where they will visit with a sister, Mrs. Jerry Horze. They will return this weekend.

Very Good Crop

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kromer returned from Morton, where they have been gathering their cotton anar-Rosson Implement Company, McCullough drove an International truck 4.85 miles on one quart of gasoline.

The low wheat market that has afflicted the Panhandle crop since the first of this year received its worst shock this week when local elevators put the price at 45 cents a bushel, nearly 100 per cent over the price at harvest time. Estimates of between 300,000 and 400,000 bushels in storage on Deaf Smith County farms make the outlook more optimistic, while considerable quantities of local wheat is being held in terminal elevators awaiting the raise in price.

Row crop grain prices soared as well, local buyers paying 50 cents a hundred pounds today, as compared with 30 about one week ago.

crop these past three weeks. They report that the crop is very good. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creitz and daughter, Henrietta of Amarillo, left Tuesday on a trip to Ludell, Kan., where they visited with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher. They returned Saturday.

Hunting Bear

Tommy Weaver and P. N. Johnson went with Mr. Johnson of Tucumcari to hunt bear at Mora, N. M., Friday. They planned to return Sunday.

Robert Jacobson is due to arrive in Adrian this weekend. He has been discharged from the Army. Robert was stationed at Hensley Field at Grand Prairie. He spent the weekend in Lubbock and planned to come to Adrian Sunday to see his parents, the Norman Jacobsons.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baucum have just returned from a three-week vacation in which they covered over 3,000 miles. They visited in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, and southern Texas. They visited with their daughter and family of Houston; their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Baucum in Lubbock; and Mr. Baucum's relatives in Tennessee.

J. T. Thornton of Hollister, Okla., has been relieving Baucum during his absence from the Rock Island Depot Station.

Home From Hospital

Mrs. Fred Taylor has returned from Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo where she has been recovering from pneumonia. She is reported to be doing "fine" and visiting with her Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Jobe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill James and Rev. Bill Lewis.

Mrs. Raymond Shelton was taken to St. Anthony's hospital Wednesday night.

A party was given in the home of Mrs. Earl Kroff this Thursday. Everyone participated in games and some were lucky enough to win prizes. Punch and cookies were served to Mesdames E. E. Allen, John Skaggs, Pappy Griggs, Jesse Loveless, B. L. Kinsey, D. P. Doherty, Leland Burns, Manuel Loveless, Frankie Shaw, and Henry Kinsey.

Cooking For Cowhands

Mrs. Earl Brown and Mrs. Ray Brown have been cooking for the cowhands at the Matador during the illness of Mrs. Raymond Shelton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson and Douglas of Hereford visited in the Bob Caldwell home Friday night after they attended the Junior play. Watson and Mrs. Caldwell are sister and brother.

Pot Luck Supper Held

Pot-Luck supper was held Thursday at the Baptist Annex. After the meal, the group assembled for a work clinic for church secretaries. Those attending were Perry Grubkey, Madeline Weidner, Ninette Pounds, Gail Brown, Mrs. E. B. Pounds, Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Elmer Weidner, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Stringer, Debra and Mike, Mrs. R. M. Grubkey, Horace Betts, Alford Jobe, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Caldwell and Rev. and Mrs. Bill Lewis and Kelley.

Mrs. Lillie Raynolds was honored with a surprise party Sunday evening after church in the Baptist Annex. The congregation left the main building early and as Mrs. Raynolds entered joyful voices sang out "Happy Birthday." She was 75 years young Sunday.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Betts announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Darla Pearl, to Gene Hammit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hammit of Lockney. The marriage will take place in the First Baptist Church in Lockney at 4 p.m. Nov. 11, with Rev. Henry Eason performing the ceremony. Everyone is invited, and a reception will follow in the church parlor.

The past weekend seemed to be old home week for many faces, were seen: Marylene Allan and June Leslie of Amarillo, Glenda Williams of McMurray, Jim Proctor of A. C. Minor Pounds, Mary Grubkey, Barbara Pinnell, the Jimmy Browns, the Billy Browns, of W. T. Darla Betts and Gene Hammit of Wayland, Ester Bobby and Lee Banks of Amarillo, and Wayne Pinnell of Clovis.

JUST DONKEY FEED

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—James B. Wilson reported something new in the line of political campaign expenses: $2.14 for donkey feed.

The donkey, Woodrow, was his mascot during his successful campaign for Congress in the Seattle district.

Tex Says He's No Expert But He Believes Ike Is

The other night a bunch of us were sitting around in the drug store after the football game, drinking coffee and talking. You know how it is after a game in a small town, especially after the home team loses. Nearly every man in the crowd had a theory as to why we didn't win the game. Most of them, of course, blamed the coach. I couldn't help remembering that before we consolidated the county schools we didn't even have enough boys to make up a football team. And these same football experts who were saying what Rockne or Bud Wilkinson would have done, up until a few years ago they didn't know a football from a watermelon.

But that's the way it is in a small town (and in big ones, too, I understand): I guess there's no real harm done, although sometimes it's pretty rough on the coach. I guess we have a right, in this free country, to be self-appointed experts in any line we want to pick out. It seems to me that most people choose either football or politics.

Take this presidential election coming up next Tuesday. During the last few weeks I have heard so many different political experts that I nearly get confused sometimes. I have to stop and think that the fellow who is talking probably doesn't know any more about it than I do, and that helps me keep straightened out.

In fact, I guess I have had my mind made up all along. To make no bones about it, I like Ike. He's a man you can always look up to and respect—the kind of man you'd be proud to point out to any person, from any country on the face of the globe, and say: "That's our President!"

About Adlai, now, I'm not so sure. Of course, if he was elected, he would be my President, too, and I would hope he'd do a lot better than most people around here seem to think he would. This is something I don't think we need to worry about, because from all I can hear and read, Ike is going to win it again.

It seems to me that if Adlai ever had a chance around here, he threw it away when he came out with that H-bomb business. Now, the folks in our town don't know much about H-bombs, except that they don't want any personal dealings with them. Our scientific knowledge of H-bombs is about on a par with our football knowledge, I reckon. But we do know one thing: We don't want some misguided, inexperienced fellow fooling around with our national defense. When it comes to trusting what Bulganin says or what Eisenhower says, I'll take Ike. So will the rest of the country, if I don't miss my guess.

Just before we broke up the other night Doc Brown came into the drug store, and somebody asked him: "Hey, Doc, how's Ike doin'?" (Doc's a big Eisenhower man.) Doc said: "Well, it's a busy campaign for the medical profession. Last week Ike went and got his heart examined; and I understand that this week Adlai is going to get his head examined."

Yours truly,
Tex

(Pol. adv. paid for by Texas Democrats for Eisenhower, Wilson Hart, Director.)

Carpet Traffic Paths Removed

Do you have a traffic path? It's that beat down section of carpet that has received the heaviest wear.

To preserve the "new all over" look, those traffic paths must be eliminated, so apply Blue Lustre carpet cleaner with an easy to use long handle brush. The colors will spring out fresh and bright with the nap open and fluffy to blend with the unsoiled sections of your carpet.

One-half gallon of Blue Lustre cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

POLICEMAN GETS RENT FREE MANSION RIGHT ON OWN BEAT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A $75-a-week Park policeman has moved into a 14-room mansion overlooking the Schuylkill River which he gets rent free.

William P. O'Toole, Fairmount Park guard, his wife Doris and their two-year-old daughter moved from a second-floor apartment in a South Philadelphia row house. The 100-year-old mansion is owned ed by the Park Commission which allows its employees to have certain park residences rent free. O'Toole's name was at the top of the applicant list when "Lemon Hill" was added to the occupancy rolls.

Originally Robert Morris, famous financier of the Revolutionary War, occupied a 300-acre estate on Lemon Hill. After Morris' imprisonment for debt, the estate was sold in 1799 to Henry Pratt who built the present mansion.

In 1845 the land was taken over by the city and made a public park. For almost 30 years Lemon Hill was the residence of Fiske Kimball, director of the Philadelphia art museum. After his death the mansion became vacant last year. The Park Commission thought for a time of converting the home into an official residence for Philadelphia mayors. When it was found remodeling would cost $100,000, this project was deferred if not dropped.

The O'Tooles don't get the entire mansion, just the first floor which includes the living room, two bedrooms, kitchen, bath and laundry. They must maintain their quarters and be prepared to move if the commission decides to make other use of the mansion.

The six-foot-four O'Toole can walk out his front door, admire the view and be at work. His beat includes Lemon Hill.

Technicians take no chances in observing radioactive uranium. They use 20-foot tongs to lift the "hot" uranium slugs, from under water, then examine them through long periscope.

STRETCHING A POINT
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Miss Corrie Smith, retiring after 46 years of teaching kindergarten, said this to say in a departing letter:
If parents wanted to do just one thing to make kindergarten teachers happy, they'd buy galoshes big enough for their children to put on and take off by themselves.

Home Repair Notes

By ANDREW C. LANG ROOF GUTTERS

AP Newsfeatures
DO... know that when water pours over the sides of a roof gutter, the cause is either debris in the channel or an improperly slanting gutter.
DO... when an examination shows no debris, get the gutter to slant toward the downspout by a readjustment of the brackets that hold the gutter to the house.
DO... fix a tiny leak in a metal gutter by scraping away the rust (if any) with a wire brush, coating with a preservative paint and spreading asbestos roof cement over the area.
DO... fix a larger leak in a metal gutter by pushing a piece of heavy roofing felt or aluminum foil into the wet roofing cement, then adding a little more cement to cover the edges of the felt or foil.
DO... close holes in a wooden gutter with wood putty or plastic wood, but when there is a split along the grain of the wood, fill the crack with a caulking compound.
DON'T... forget that, after making a readjustment of the gutter brackets, the slant should be immediately tested by pouring a can or bottle of water into the gutter and seeing whether it flows freely toward the downspout.

DON'T... try to repair a wooden gutter that has rotted, or a metal gutter that has rusted out in several places; a replacement of a section of the gutter is then necessary.
DON'T... fail to replace a section of a metal gutter with one of the same kind, as different types of metal sometimes produce unfavorable chemical reactions.
DON'T... neglect periodic inspections of the gutter... usually in the spring and the fall... as a pinhole which is easy to repair can turn into a major job a few months later.

Writer Of Truisms Thinks Better Working At Her Kitchen Cabinet

The writing of poetry . . . or prose—is an ambitious project for the average person to undertake but nevertheless, it is one which many people dream of trying. These ambitious dreamers seldom have the courage to put down on paper their thoughts for all the world to see. . . . or in other cases, the time to set down for posterity the myriad thoughts which run constantly through their minds.

Such a person is Mrs. Gladys Miller who, for many years, had a great desire to be a writer. . . . a writer of all types of literature. But the rearing of her five children came first always and she never took time to write down even a word because such would have been a luxury. . . . time needed by her growing family.

Then one day, about four years ago, Mrs. Miller picked up a magazine with an article about amateur writers which contained the advice, "If you really want to write, start today. . . . this very minute." She went at once to her kitchen cabinet, picked up her household notebook and began to write down her thoughts. Before the day was over, the book was full and her writing career had begun. And she continues to think and write better as she works at her kitchen cabinet.

The clubs for the sayings are based on every situation in life with such subjects as religion, the rearing of children, relationships with friends and the very human topic of gossip included.

In telling about her collection of sayings on the topic of "gossip," Mrs. Miller said that her family's reaction to the first one was laughter, to the second one "That's pretty good!" The third one drew a reaction of "You're getting in a rut," but now her sayings on gossip number more than 70.

Mrs. Miller has been a resident of Hereford for the past nine years, moving here on Dec. 26, 1947, from Dawn. Her family includes Joe Jed Miller, a mathematics instructor at Texas Tech and a graduate student; Mrs. Wilma Jean Jacobs, whose husband is superintendent of schools at LeFlore; Hershel Miller Jr., of Hereford; Mrs. Joy Domes of Sacramento Calif., and Robert Miller, stationed with the Army in Korea.

"To appreciate a terse saying, never try reading more than one or two at a time. They are intended for meditation. They give us warning and they also reprimand us. They bring us laughter and tears." These statements sum up Mrs. Miller's feelings about her writings and the way she wants her readers to use them.

For example:

When your neighbor drops in early in the morning, try to be happy and cheerful, for secretly that may be what she came to borrow.—Gladys Miller.

STEEL PLANES COMING

NEW YORK (AP)—Tooling engineers in the aircraft industry are dreaming up new ways to shape and fabricate steel to build an all steel plane capable of breaking the thermal barrier where aircraft must encounter extremely high temperatures.

"Steelways," official publication of the American Iron and Steel Institute, said that at speeds of 2,000 miles per hour, many designers are convinced that steel is the only material known that can withstand the scorching 600 degrees that weakens the structural parts holding the wings stiff and the fuselage together.

The magazine said that it is almost a certainty that future commercial airliners, capable of flying from New York to Los Angeles in 90 minutes, will be all steel.

Council Prepares Yearbooks--

Encouraged by all of her family, Mrs. Miller has compiled a collection of more than 400 brief "true-to-life" sayings with real people as the characters behind each thought. Before any new thought goes into her notebook, it is read and re-read to members of her family for reaction and criticism. When one of the truisms passes this acid test, it goes into the neatly typed pages of her notebook.

An example of these true-to-life characterizations follows:

Just remember, when you see a queer old man that he was once some mother's darling.—Gladys Miller.

With the cooler days of November, H. D. Club women of Deaf Smith County will be winding up the yearbook program of 1956 and will be looking forward to the courses of study outlined in the new yearbooks for the 1957 club year. The yearbook committee of the county H. D. Council is working out the last minute details of the new yearbooks which will soon be in the hands of the printer for early distribution to all clubs.

During the month of November the clubs will have two programs of special interest, one concerning public relations and the other on the intriguing subject of Texas.

asked to bring one of the following bits of information to the meeting: Something interesting about a Texas hero; A historical date and why it is important to Texans; A peculiar law of Texas.

Last minute activities for the month of October have included guest teas with the 11 clubs exchanging visits and program ideas.

The Dawn H. D. Club entertained members of the West Hereford H. D. Club with a guest tea

How Can I?

Q. How can I attach labels to tin and make them adhere?

A. First, brush over lightly with a cut onion, or melted paraffin, and the label will stick tightly; or, a little brown sugar added to paste has the same effect. Adhesive tape makes grand labels for tins.

Q. How can I prevent the breakage of bottles when packing them?

A. Place a heavy rubber band about a quarter inch or half inch wide, around each bottle near the top, and another near the bottom.

Q. How can I renew dry shoe polish?

A. If the shoe polish has become dry, due to leaving the lid off, moisten it with a few drops of kerosene.

Carriers Join Celebration

The Post Office Department's rural service today serves more Americans than ever before in history. Six rural carriers work out of the Hereford post office, serving more than 1,000 families every day, according to Postmaster J. R. Lipscomb.

With the month of October, the department observed the 60th birthday of rural service which is called to the nation's attention by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

Rural Civil Defense Spurred By Council

A five-point program to spur a nationwide rural civil defense program has been recommended to the Federal Civil Defense Administration by the 25-member National Advisory Council on Civil Defense.

The Council proposes research on such specific matters as available rural water supplies, the effects of radioactive fallout on livestock, crops and soils, and the spread and means of control of foreign diseases affecting livestock and plants.

Rural Neighbors Contest Deadline Set For Dec. 31

What is your community like? Is it the sort of place where families enjoy living? Are school, church, health and recreation facilities adequate? Or, do you often hear people say, "Our community is dying. . . . if something could only be done about it?"

In 1956 more than 900 Texas communities "did something about it." One hundred and eighty-seven of these were enrolled in the Rural Neighborhood Progress contests sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service and the Farmer Stockman Magazine. Deadline for enrollment in the contest for '57 is Dec. 31.

Good Luck Ranch Dinner

YOU CAN BE SURE your luck is clicking when you serve this "Good Luck Ranch Dinner." It is made by baking cut-up broiler-fryer chicken until almost done, then adding oven-ready biscuits and cling peach halves and baking until the biscuits are as brown as desired. Serve with gravy prepared from the pan drippings, flour, evaporated milk, and water. Tiny horseshoe souvenirs placed on napkins suggest to family and guests that this is their lucky meal. The "Good Luck Ranch Dinner" provides delicious proof.

Bountiful Feast Easy With Foods On November List

A bountiful Thanksgiving feast can easily be prepared from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's November plentiful foods list.

Supplies of turkeys, pork and potatoes are so large that USDA is urging the food trader to give extra emphasis to them.

Other meats, in addition to the Thanksgiving turkey, include beef, broilers and fryers as well as lamb and frozen mutton and ocean perch fillets.

Also on the plentiful list are eggs, milk and other dairy products, rice and peanut butter.

Fruits and vegetables include such holiday favorites as cranberries, pears, dates, potatoes, cauliflower, cabbage and pinto beans.

The plentiful foods list is based on a USDA survey of actual supplies available in the major trade areas of the state.

QUITE A DEAL—Jim Manning, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Manning, traded a doodle-bug motor scooter for his pet, the raccoon. He has had the raccoon for three months and plans to keep him as a pet. Typical of most raccoons, he likes to dig in every hole he can find, reports Jim. (Staff Photo)

Green Tomato Mincemeat Is One Use For Surplus Fruit

By ARGEN DRAPER

Sure hated to miss the Anniversary party on Sunday, Oct. 28. The Vern Witherspoons celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary and the Earl Nippers celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary. Congratulations to both these couples and our best wishes for many more happy years ahead.

Also, hated to miss the birthday party Sunday for Mrs. J. P. Slator. This was a busy day in Hereford.

Pauline Loving, who works at the Farm-Bureau Office reminds me that it is time for green tomato preservation. She called the office for a recipe for Green Tomato Mincemeat. Here's the recipe that is good. Mrs. W. H. Goetsch says Mrs. J. E. Newell has quite a reputation for her delicious Green Tomato Mincemeat pie. You might get her recipe when you see her.

TOMATO MINCEMEAT

1 1/2 pints chopped tart apples
1 pint chopped green tomatoes
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon each salt, allspice and cloves
3 cups sugar
1 pound raisins
4 cup vinegar
1 cup suet

USDA Announces '57 Referendum

College Station — The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced the 1957 state acreage allotments for upland cotton; the national allotment for extra long staple cotton and set Dec. 11 as the date for a referendum on marketing quotas for the 1957 cotton crop.

The total allotments available for distribution in the states were set by the USDA at 17,585,463 acres. The total allotment for Texas was set at 7,547,563 acres which includes 10,974 acres as Texas' share of the national reserve. The Agricultural Act of 1956 provides that a national acreage reserve of 100,000 acres be apportioned among States on the basis of the estimated needs of each state for additional acreage to establish minimum farm allotments under the act.

The marketing quota for the 1957 crop upland cotton was announced on Aug. 31 as 11,014,493 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. The marketing quota for extra long staple cotton, just announced, is 76,565 bales, and the national acreage allotment was set at 89,357 acres for the 1957 crop.

At least two-thirds of the cotton producers voting in the Dec. 11 referendum must favor the marketing quotas if they are to be effective on the 1957 crops. Whether quotas are approved or disapproved, 1957 cotton acreage allotments will remain in effect as a condition of eligibility for price support.

The USDA announcement said that the state acreage allotments would be apportioned among counties and the county allotments among farms according to provisions of the law and regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture. Individual farm acreage allotments will be mailed to operators of cotton farms prior to the referendum.

Look For Better Fertilizers For Farms In Future

Fertilizers are a lot better than they used to be, but more improved fertilizer materials can be expected in the future, reports M.K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

Higher analysis fertilizers containing more nutrients and less bulky inert matter, and soluble or liquid fertilizers — all now on the market — have reduced weight and bulk and made both storage and application of fertilizer materials cheaper and easier for farmers and home gardeners.

Industrial and State-Federal research how being carried out will undoubtedly lead to further improvements, says Thornton.

One of these improvements will be the development of slower acting or less soluble forms of chemical fertilizer that will not leach out of the soil so rapidly. This will mean that enough fertilizer can be applied in one operation to meet the demands of a long-season crop, thus eliminating the need for repeated applications throughout the season. It will reduce present heavy losses of nitrogen through leaching. It will also prevent excessive potash consumption, now a problem in alfalfa and certain other crops in many parts of the country.

Other improvements will change the physical makeup of fertilizer materials, making them easier to store and to apply. A start in this direction has been made with the development of some granular products that have less tendency than older materials to cake and harden during storage and that distribute more easily and uniformly in the field.

UNUSUAL PACKING PLANT

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—One of the least known and most unusual seafood packing plants in California is operated here by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The small cannery purchases tuna and albacore from the San Diego fishing fleet. The canned product is distributed chiefly to members of the Mormon church.

None of the cannery workers receive compensation.

GARLANDS FOR GARLAND—Judy Garland receives a bouquet of flowers from her New York fans who have stormed the Palace doors to see the dynamic entertainer.

Judy Reigns Over Palace As Queen Of All New York

New York (AP)—The queen reigns supreme in her palace. Judy Garland, conqueror of the entertainment world (movies, radio, television, records) has earned a special throne for herself at New York's Palace theater. For, here at the Palace, onetime headquarters for top vaudeville performers of America in the days before talking pictures, Judy rules in regal style. Back in February, 1952, Garland took the Palace by storm with a 19-week run. On her final night, the audience sang to Judy. It was "Auld Lang Syne." They cried "Come back soon Judy."

In September of this year Judy made good her promise. And her fans were there waiting. In the Garland audience on opening night were such longtime fans as the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Mayor Robert Wagner, David Sarnoff, Jack Benny, Jackie Gleason, Phil Silvers, Gloria Vanderbilt, Billy Rose and Samuel Goldwyn. Veteran critics of the klieg lights as well as Judy-fans agreed that the Garland-gal never sounded better. She was called back for encore after encore. No other entertainer in the long history of the Palace ever capti-

Household Scrapbook

Sizing Rugs
Clean and dry the rug thoroughly. Place it on the floor upside down, stretch to its correct size, and tack on all four sides, using plenty of tacks. Dissolve powdered glue in one quart of lukewarm water. Apply this to underside of rug with a whitewash brush and leave tacked down until dry. Above solution is sufficient for a 9 by 12 rug.

The Dog
Have the water lukewarm for washing the dog. After drying, play with him until he is thoroughly dry before letting him lie down to rest. This will prevent his contracting rheumatism.

Darker Shoes
Brown shoes can be darkened by rubbing with milk, to which a few drops of household ammonia have been added. Polish with a dry cloth as soon as dry.

Swollen Feet
When the feet are hot and swollen, try bathing them in warm water, in which a few grains of permanganate of potash has been dissolved, just enough of the potash to make the water a bright pink. Then massage with rubbing alcohol, or mentholated spirit, and finally dust the feet with boric acid powder.

Cream Substitute
As a cream substitute for coffee, beat up the yolk of one egg, to which has been added one teaspoon of sugar, and a very small amount of water. Divide this among the cups before pouring in the hot coffee.

Shiny Material
When black material becomes shiny, try rubbing the spots thoroughly with slices of raw potato and the shine will usually disappear.

ated an audience in such a manner. None ever held such attendance records. Who knows if anyone ever will?

Fireproof Clothing

Four one-ounce of sal ammoniac or alum in the last rinsing water for fluslin or cotton goods, and the goods will not burn, or will burn without flame. This is an excellent treatment for children's clothing to make it fireproof.

Peach-Ade

To make peach-ade, use 1 cup of peach honey, 1 cup of water, 1/2 cup of sugar, and the juice of 1 lemon. Mix these ingredients, and when ready to serve, add one quart of water and sugar to taste.

Steel

A good way to clean steel is to rub it with a paste made of emery powder and oil, mixed to the proper consistency.

Nailing in Plaster

To prevent the plaster in a wall from chipping when driving a nail into it, first heat the nail and it will go through smoothly.

NON-STOP ALARM

WOODRUFF, S. C. — Raymond Harrington, who works at a mill here, didn't like alarm clocks waking him for work. So he trained a parakeet to do the job.

Jo-Jo flies from his perch to Harrington's bed at the right time every day, pecks at his owner until he gets up.

The only trouble is, Jo-Jo can't distinguish Sundays from weekdays.

Ann Royal Comes Home for Weekend Visit With Folks

By MRS. J. TOWNSEND

Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins returned home Wednesday after an extended vacation trip. They attended the State Fair in Dallas on Saturday, and also the TCU and A&M football game at College Station. They returned by way of Odessa where they visited with relatives.

James Franklin, small son of the Higgins, stayed with his grandparents, the B. F. Markhams of Friona, while his parents were away.

Sandra Townsend attended a Sunday School party in the L. B. Worthan home at Dimmitt Thursday night.

Visiting With Mother

Mrs. C. A. Allison is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. Williams of Eastland.

George Springer of Hereford was a recent visitor in the A. B. Higgins home.

Roy Walker and A. Walker of Gruver called on Johnnie Townsend Tuesday.

Clifton Roberson of Tahoka visited recently with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Royal.

Home Over Weekend

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Royal and Gary went to Amarillo on Friday to meet the Royal's daughter, Ann, who flew in from Denver, Colo., to spend the weekend with her family. Ann attends Colorado Women's College at Denver.

Maryloh Martin of Hereford was a Tuesday night guest with Sandra Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davis of Hereford visited in the home of their daughter, the A. B. Higgins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd West and Tommy of Hereford visited in the Lewis West home Sunday night.

Carolyn Brumley visited with Janis Higgins Sunday.

Staying With Grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd and children spent Saturday night in the Lewis West home. The Lloyds are moving from Knox City to Brownfield, and their small daughter, Vickie Lynn is staying with her grandparents, the L. Wests, for a few days.

Sunday guests of the Johnnie Townsends were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Townsend and La Man of Hereford and Karen Johnson of Westway.

Mrs. Lewis West and Vickie Lloyd visited in the Jay Clabarr home in Friona recently.

Mrs. A. B. Higgins, Lu Ann, Janis, Robert, and Mike and Mrs. A. H. Davis of Hereford were shopping in Amarillo on Saturday. While there, they visited in the home of Mrs. Higgins' sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Acton.

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER FOR 1957

Here's the glamorous, low-priced 1957 Chrysler Windsor V-8

Announcing the most glamorous car in a generation!

You never looked or felt as good in anything before!

Other cars have changed models... this one changes motoring. Look at its rich, racy lines... at the long, low silhouette... at the dramatic upsweep of the rear fenders that plumb back from the waist like the wake of a hydroplane. It's a streak of a car with the elegance of the boulevard and the spirit of the speedway.

Get into this car, drive it into traffic or out on the open highway and you enter a new domain of travel. In the 1957 Chrysler, with its new Torsion-Aire Ride, motion has a new "feel". And wait till you toe the throttle. A new Pushbutton TorqueFlite Transmission teams with a mighty airplane-type V-8 engine, developing up to 325 horsepower, to give you a new high-velocity getaway, matchless passing power when you need it. Come in this week and visit our showrooms. See and drive the most completely new car of the year!

Torsion-Aire Ride

new... the road under you!

Try Chrysler's new Torsion-Aire Ride and you'll think some of the laws of gravity, motion and inertia have been suspended in your favor. No more rack and roll. No more pitch when you stop. Chrysler's new torsion rod suspension and lower center of gravity give you a brand new ground-shaking "feel" of the road. The wheels ride the contours... but you don't. The road just pours under you.

Simple Rules Are Followed On Grid Date

BY VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

One of the fun-times of the year is football time. It calls for a good day of fun, a date to eat with the crowd at a restaurant or at a house party. It's a season that can make or break you socially with your group, because it demands consideration, good taste, and good looks. It may make you belle of your group or you may be frozen out by your own crowd. You should:

1. Accept the football invitation promptly. Even though you've been popular up until now, you'll lose prestige if you wait until the last moment to okay a date. The boy will get wise that you are an opportunist. Then watch the word spread. Students can't risk buying that extra football ticket until they are sure.
2. When you attend the game act interested in it. Don't put on that "let's get on to the party" attitude. If you don't like football, don't deprive someone else of the chance. If you do like it, act the part.
3. If you enjoy football but do not understand all the facets of the game, don't be afraid to question your male companion. A man rather likes nothing better than to expound on a subject he likes. But don't make the mistake of questioning him in the middle of an exciting episode such as a touchdown run or the fourth down, half yard from the goal try.
4. A little knowledge may be dangerous, particularly in the hands of a showoff. You are liable to trip yourself up if you aren't sure. So know what you are talking about or keep quiet. One loquacious type did very well masticating the football game audibly until Team B refused to accept the penalty. She said wistfully: "See what gentlemen they are!"
5. Try to wear the kind of football clothes that go for the party later. If the dance is formal you'll change of course, but if it isn't you can get by very nicely in a good wool dress and highheeled pumps. Carry extra accessories in your purse if you want to jazz up the costume for a dance. Glitzy necklace, bracelet or pin can do it.

6. If you are away at a college game weekend, abide by all the rules set up by your chaperones and the authorities who planned the girls' accommodations.

7. If you have the football crowd at your house after the game, be sure to have the party fare organized before you go off to the game. You don't want the crowd to come back starving and have to wait for hours until they are served food. It's a good idea to have snacks to keep them busy while you prepare more substantial food.

8. If you can avoid looking eager when the souvenirs are passed at the game, your friend will probably love you for it. He may just have enough to get by for the date and that extra 50 cents or dollar may make a hobo out of him.

9. Try to look healthy for your role as a football spectator. Save the big make-up job for the evening date. Ditto the spiked heels, veiled hat, dress with the plunging neckline.

10. If he gives you a corsage wear it. Don't say, "Well, I don't think it goes with this dress, coat or hat." If it doesn't, he'll probably be the first to notice and suggest that you remove it or save it for the dance.

ECONOMY WAVE
FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. — Arizona State College students staged a stunt to show the local businessmen what their spending means to the area's economy. They went on a picnic to Grand Canyon, about 150 miles away, with $10,000 in silver dollars in their pockets — and spent the money along the way.

IN THE ARMY NOW—Pvt. Fred D. Ruland joined the Army on Sept. 12 1956, and is now stationed with the 4th Armored Division at Fort Hood, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ruland who live at 409 Ave. K here in Hereford.

JUDGE JUDGES HIMSELF
DEARBORN, Mich. — Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams tried himself on charges of failing to pay for three parking tickets.

He convicted himself on two of the tickets and paid the fine of $10. But he argued on the third ticket: "This one is for parking in a municipal court lot. I've got a right to do that." Then he upheld his argument.

VA Outlines Law On Release From Loan Obligation

Release of a veteran from GI Loan liability to the Government does not automatically restore his GI home loan entitlement. Scott B. Harrington, manager of the Dallas Veterans Administration regional office, said today. Many veterans seemingly think different.

Such a release, provided in an omnibus GI home loan law signed by the President recently, does not change the fact that VA continues to be liable on the guaranty, Harrington explained.

The VA restores GI home loan entitlement only where it is no longer liable to the lender on that guaranty and the veteran is otherwise eligible for restoration of entitlement.

Harrington said veterans who have used their GI loan privilege may have another GI loan if their property:

1. Was taken by a governmental agency for public use;
2. Was destroyed by a natural hazard; or
3. Was otherwise disposed of for compelling reasons such as health, employment transfer, or other specified reasons without fault of the veteran.

A veteran in military service who disposes of his home because of a transfer under military orders may have his GI home loan entitlement restored.

In all cases where GI loan entitlement is to be restored, the Veterans Administration must be relieved from liability on the old guaranty, Harrington emphasized. This is generally done by paying off the old loan in full.

Both World War II and Korean Conflict Period veterans have until Jan. 31, 1965 to use their restored GI home loan entitlement.

Under the new liability law, Harrington said, a veteran may be released from liability to the Government under certain conditions if he sells his property and allows the purchaser to assume the GI loan rather than having it paid off in full.

These conditions are:

1. The purchaser must obligate himself by contract to purchase the property and assume the veteran's liability;
2. The loan must be current;
3. The purchaser must satisfy VA that he is a good credit risk.

Further information on release of GI loan liability or restoration of entitlement may be obtained by writing or visiting the Regional VA Office located at Dallas.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR EISENHOWER

W. R. BOB SMITH, CHAIRMAN

You are a free Texan... You can vote any way you like. Regardless of what you may have heard, it is perfectly legal to split your ticket if you want to, just as it is legal to vote the Democratic ticket straight, or the Republican ticket straight. The purpose of the ballot is to determine what the people want. And if you want to vote for Eisenhower and Nixon—then cast the rest of your ballot for the Democratic nominees—that is your privilege. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise! BY LAW YOUR VOTE MUST BE COUNTED.

Step into the wonderful world of AUTODYNAMICS

A low-slung beauty with Flight-Sweep style: Sweep-Wing '57 Dodge Custom Royal Lancer 2-Door.

It unleashes a hurricane of power
It breaks through the vibration barrier
It is swept-wing mastery of motion.

SWEPT-WING '57 Dodge

How do you describe a car so daring in concept, so revolutionary in features and advances, so rewarding in beauty and performance? How do you explain its newness when everything about it is new? On display today is just such a car—the Sweep-Wing '57 Dodge—your ticket into the wonderful world of Autodynamics.

What is this wonderful world of Autodynamics? It's a world where everything is new from road to roof to achieve absolute mastery of motion.

Here's what it does in the Sweep-Wing Dodge:

- It unleashes a hurricane of power from a thundering new aircraft-type Super Red Ram V-8 engine that's a spitfire in action!
- It tames a tornado of torque with a new TorqueFite Push-Button Drive for the greatest get-away on the road!
- It breaks through the vibration barrier with a revolutionary new rubber-mounted suspension system—Dodge Torsion-Aire—that features race car torsion-bars. You ride in a "Realm of Silence," isolated from vibration, noise and road shock.
- It is swept-wing mastery of motion in a sleek, low-slung beauty barely 4 1/4 feet high that has no equal in the way it corners, handles and rides.

You have never seen, felt or owned any car that compared with this new Sweep-Wing Dodge. See and drive it today... now at your Dodge dealer's!

it takes so little faith

IF you had faith as a grain of mustard seed... That's not much faith. But just look what God said you could do with so little. The mustard seed is the tiniest of seeds. Here the huge microscope enlarges it many times... yet, one can scarcely see it. The Lord said, If you have that much faith you can do anything! You can say to a mountain, "move over" and it will be done. You can endure anything... you can become anything—IF, you have a wee bit of faith. Faith is the root of all blessing. The man who is without it is dead as a cinder. The Pilgrims had faith. Martin Luther and John Wesley had faith. Jesus was supremely a man of faith and waits to share his blessings on men who can be trusted... men of faith. How much faith do you have? Is your faith as big as the mustard seed?

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding the religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Knit A Glamor Gift Beauty At Home

SANTA TAKES UP KNITTING—This flattering little stole is easy to knit in soft white angora yarn, and will delight every girl on the Christmas list. It's warm enough to wear as a light wrap with date dresses and dance frocks, summer or winter. For free directions send stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Ann Bucilla, 230 Fifth Ave., New York 1.

HE WHO GETS CLIPPED

KALAMAZOO, Mich. — A man came into Eugene Scott's barber shop and announced: "Give me a good haircut or I'll hit you." After getting the clipping, the unidentified customer clipped Scott on the nose, saying: "I've paid a lot of barbers in the same way for giving me a bum haircut. With that, he stalked out leaving Scott clutching his nose — and the bag.

COURTEOUS CALAMITY

NORFOLK, Va. — A Norfolk man returned to a downtown parking lot to find the fender of his car badly dented and this unsigned note stuck behind the windshield wiper blade: "I creased your fender."

Q. What is the best way to dry fresh polish on the fingernails quickly?

A. Don't make the common mistake of breathing on your nails to quicken the drying process; your breath is moist and can very well spoil the polish. Instead, hold your hands around a lighted electric light bulb for a quick job of drying the polish.

Q. Is it all right to use a razor or removing superfluous hair on the face?

A. Not unless you want the hair to grow more thickly and more stubby! Facial hair can be removed safely with the wax treatment, once you have mastered its technique. The best of all treatments, though, and the only permanent one, is electrolysis — performed, of course, by a medical expert.

Q. I have a pronounced "cupid's bow" mouth. How should I apply my lipstick?

A. Avoid accentuating the points of your mouth too sharply with your lipstick. Otherwise, your mouth will appear to be pursed and pinched. Strive for gentle curves.

Q. My face is broad — too wide between the cheekbones. How do you think I should wear my hair?

A. Wear the hair flat at the sides, and if your forehead is also broad (from temple to temple), keep your hair flat at the temples, too. But if your face narrows above the cheekbones, then you can let your hair widen out at the temples to give a good oval contour to the head. Wear long hair brushed back at the sides, if your cheekbones are set wide apart. A long part is good, too. Center it, and carry it to the crown or beyond. Or start the part at the side and slant it toward the crown to lengthen it.

Q. What ornaments will help to flatter the short, broad type of hand?

A. The solid type of bracelet, pushed up on the arm, and rings with elongated settings. Light nail polish is good, too, for this type of hand.

Q. What treatment will whiten, soften, and smooth the complexion?

A. After a soap-and-water washing, wash the face again with some warm buttermilk. Wipe this off lightly with a soft towel.

Q. Do you think the use of water every day to dress and arrange the hair is harmful to the hair?

A. Some experts think this way. Water may dry hair that has a tendency to dryness, thinness or falling. But water could never actually cause these hair conditions if other causes were not also present.

Q. How can I mix myself a good hand lotion?

A. One good one is made of equal parts of glycerin and spirits of camphor. The glycerin softens, and the camphor whiteners.

Q. Is it all right to squeeze black heads from the skin?

A. When other means fail, this is sometimes necessary. First just wash face and hands painstakingly with soap and water. Then hold a face cloth wet with very warm water over the spot for a minute to soften the impaction. Cover your fingertips with paper tissues, and press out the contents of the pore. Bathe the skin with warm water and soap afterwards, then touch the spot with an antiseptic or an astringent lotion.

Q. What treatment will smooth lips that are chapped and rough?

A. A application of warm olive oil on the lips overnight.

IS SHE KITTEN?

MEMPHIS — A woman called Radio Station WHBQ and commended the station for broadcasting the Southern Assn. baseball playoff games.

"You understand," she explained to announcer Charlie Sullivan, "I don't like to listen to baseball myself but my cat does."

BUT WHERE IN TEXAS

OKLAHOMA CITY — Mike Sabouri of Teheran, Iran has decided that he can't be classified as a foreign student at Oklahoma City University.

Introduced to another OCU student, his new acquaintance asked where he was from.

"Iran," replied Mike.

"Oh," said the other student, "and what part of Texas is that in?"

DOG'S REVENGE

DALLAS, Tex. — Elton Anyett leaned against a dog catcher's truck to chat with the dog warden. A dog reached through the wire door and bit him, he told police.

Time For Hearty Fall Dishes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor
That time-tested combination of sauerkraut and apples, is one that is good to remember for a hearty cool-weather supper. Our favorite quick way of preparing the sauerkraut and apples is to put them in a big skillet with onion and brown sugar. If you use an attractive-looking skillet, you can bring it right to the table.

HEARTY AUTUMN MEAL—Broiled ham steak with currant jelly, sauerkraut with apples.

Choose apples that do not easily "fall apart" during cooking if you want to serve firm apple slices with the sauerkraut. If you don't mind the apples getting "mushy," choose such a variety as McIntosh. In a way having the apples fall apart is all to the good because the good fruit flavor reaches every strand of the cabbage!

Pork chops and pork roast are fine with the sauerkraut and apple team. But equally delicious, is broiled ham with currant jelly.

SKILLET KRAUT AND APPLES
Ingredients: 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion (finely chopped), 3 tablespoons light or dark brown sugar, 1 can (1-pound) sauerkraut, salt and pepper, 2 medium-sized red unpeeled apples (cored and cut in eighths).

Method: Melt butter in a medium-sized skillet (about 10 inches) over moderately low heat. Add onion and cook, stirring often, until wilted and yellowed (or until lightly browned if you prefer). Mix in brown sugar and sauerkraut; add salt and pepper to taste. Bury apple slices in sauerkraut. Cover and cook slowly, stirring a few times, until apples are tender—about 10 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

BROILED HAM WITH CURRANT JELLY

Whether you use a slice of cook-before-eating or a slice of fully-cooked ham for broiling, it's a good idea to notch the fat around the outside of the meat in a number of places to keep the slice from curling. Use a knife or your kitchen scissors for this slashing.

A cook-before-eating slice of ham that is about 3/4-inch thick will need to be placed on your broiler rack so that the top of the meat is several inches below the heat unit. The ham will need about 6 minutes broiling on each side. A ready-to-eat ham slice that is the same thickness may be arranged the same way under the broiler, but it will need only about 3 minutes on each side. These timings are approximate and for use in broilers that have been preheated about 10 minutes.

For a delightful sauce for the ham, melt currant jelly with a little butter and pour over the broiled ham slice. For a 3/4-inch thick ham steak, you can use 1/3 cup currant jelly and 1 or 2 tablespoons of butter; if you like a lot of sauce, just double these amounts.

Barbara Brown Is Party Honoree On Birthday Sunday

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT

These early morning clouds look good to the farmers, but they would feel much better if it would rain. What little wheat that is up really needs water. Some of the farmers are having to list up their land to keep it from blowing away. They say it's so hard and dry that they're tearing up their plows.

The county barn site is improving every day. Before long, people will see what a nice little community we have at Bootleg.

They have moved in a building for a shop, and a water well has been dug. Monday, cement for the big barn and well house was poured. Everyone is waiting and watching for the dwelling to be finished, and the ones who will live in it.

Mrs. J. E. Rouse is down near Dallas caring for a sister, who broke her arm recently.

Attends Funeral
The Howards attended Mrs. Bob Howard's grandfather's funeral in Clovis Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pinkerton of Woodward, Okla., and Mrs. G. E. Pinkerton of Elk City were visitors of Mrs. Ruth Coleman from Tuesday until Thursday.

Mrs. G. E. Pinkerton had to have an eye check-up. It's improving and she will begin to use it some.

Mrs. Jim Cloud, Tommie, and Rita, sister of Mr. Thweatt, were Sunday visitors in the Thweatt home.

Reports From Crest Butte
Mrs. Ruth Coleman had a letter from her son, J. R. Coleman of Crest Butte. He's working in the mines and said it had been down to 25 degrees there, and they now have snow on the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Pulliam and Mrs. N. A. Brown were dinner guests in the Ernest Brown home Sunday.

Barbara Brown enjoyed her fifth birthday Sunday. She's the daughter of the Ernest Browns. In the afternoon, she served her little cousins Tommie, Rodger, and Earl Brown and her brother David, ice cream and cake. The cake was a bassinet cake with a doll, made by her two aunts, Maxine and Billy Brown.

Pink and Blue Shower
A pink and blue shower was given Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Cliff Johnson, honoring Mrs. Fred Northcutt.

Mrs. C. W. King of Rosedale visited her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Brown, Sunday.

Anderson Avows Her Belief In A Guiding 'Higher Being'

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—"We have known how to bear suffering which other people don't have to bear," Marian Anderson said to me.

"We also know that whenever we are in competition with whites, in the arts or in any other fields, we have to be twice as good as you are or people won't think we are any good at all. To do as well as you, we have to do better."

The great Negro contralto has a quiet, velvety speaking voice. Perhaps because she is more used to the concert than the operatic stage, she hasn't the florid gestures that usually emphasize the remarks made by the stars from the opera houses.

She had been telling about some of the exciting things which have happened to her, like her rise from poverty, and her appearance at the Metropolitan Opera, and the recent publication (Viking) of her autobiography, when I interrupted with a question:

Some of us whites are quick to claim white superiority, I said, but there aren't some respects in which there is a Negro superiority, too? Don't you have some advantages that we lack?

Yes, she thought there were some, like their habit of suffering, and the challenge of American society which does not allow the ambitious Negro to stop at well enough, but drives him on to do his best and better than his best.

But her first response was to claim for her people a unique advantage due to their unshakable belief in a higher power:

"My parents and my other relatives have a belief in a Higher Being. I too feel that in moments of extremity when everything else fails He succors me.

"There have been times when the way I have been treated, or the way I have been spoken to, embarrassed me beyond words. There is nothing to gain by reacting like the kind of person you are accused of being. The saving thing is to know that you have inside you this precious thing that cannot be destroyed.

"I think God in His wisdom made no mistakes. He has not meant for anyone to be down-trodden. He takes care of His own."

Racial tensions, she thinks, are relaxing, though she is not sure how aware of discrimination in its extreme she has ever been, since she occupies a privileged position which has in some ways served to shield her from the worst experiences. But while community stresses are relaxing, she longs for understanding on a larger scale, as among nations:

"Lack of understanding can be dangerous; the bigger the problem, the more dangerous."

It was just a season ago that Miss Anderson became the first of her race to sing a major role of the Metropolitan Opera, and she is still so full of that stirring experience that she can give a blow-by-blow, minute-by-minute account of general manager Rudolf Bing saying this; her own manager Sol Hurok saying that and maestro Dimitri Mitropoulos saying the other, all adding up to her engagement.

Did she feel nervous? "I certainly did. I shall always think it is bad not to have butterflies, it shows a loss of some of the necessary excitement. But the whole affair was ter-rifi-cal-ly thrilling."

"Welcome home," said a backstage employee in shirt sleeves as she went behind scenes at the Met for the press conference announcing her debut. A few days after she sang, a cab driver turned and gave her a sharp look and said:

"Say, aren't you Marian Anderson of the Met?"
