SUBMERGED since June 17, a section of U. S. 385 four miles north of Hereford was opened to through traffic Sunday afternoon this week. Unusually heavy rains this year left a temporary lake across the section for six weeks and two days. Repairs on the highway began immediately after the water level dropped below the highway surface. City Tentatively Accepts Offer On Airport Managing

The City of Hereford has tentatively accepted a proposal from a group to take over operation of the City Airport.

During their regular meeting Monday night, the Commissioners heard a six-point proposal from three Amarillo men to take over complete management of the airport on a year's lease at $500 per month.

- Points included in the proposal were: 1. Provide 24-hour service for gas and oil; 2. Have maintenance service for aircraft; 3. Use four qualified instructors for lessons; 4. Provide charter service; 5. Establish a dealership for one or two companies; 6. Provide an Airworthiness Inspector.

Commissioners told city manager Dudley Bayne to check out the references and, if they are satisfactory, to go ahead with the lease arrangement.

The city airport has been without a full-time manager since the lease with Bob Hill was terminated this spring.

Bayne reported that all property owners along Moreman Street from U. S. 385 west to Northwest Elementary School had paid or signed up for curb, gutter and paving costs.

Parker Brothers Construction Company of Hereford was given the paving job at a cost of $11,861.21 on a negotiation. Work started Monday. Bid price is to the intersection only and will not include the intersection, for which the county will pay, or 485 feet of paving on two sides of the school, to be shared jointly by the school district and the county. Around Town

With the Harvest Festival gone and harvest slowing down slightly, Hereford is entering the last few weeks of summer. But there isn't any lack of activity. It just isn't so concentrated as it has been during the past month.

Steve Clements got back from Lake Altus, Okla., last week about to bust his buttons. He got a plaque for having the highest sales volume in 1960 for DeKalb's North Plains and Western Oklahoma area.

Increased Hospitalization Coverage Voted For County

County Commissioners voted an expanded medical and hospitalization coverage for county employees Monday.

This was one of several actions taken by the Commission during a day-long special session.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Texas had told the court earlier that they were going to cancel out the comprehensive policy which had been in effect for many years. Cancellation is to become effective Oct. 1.

Andy Anderson of Amarillo, field representative for Blue Cross-Blue Shield, explained that the policy in force was outmoded and that the company had decided to abandon it completely.

He explained the different types of coverage which could be considered and pointed out that state law now provided counties could pay part or all the cost of hospitalization insurance for their employees.

After a long discussion the court voted to pay the cost of coverage for each county employee. The coverage will cost $5.70 per month and includes a $12 room and "Catastrophic Illness Endorsement". County employees may, at their own expense, purchase additional coverage for their spouses and dependents.

Cost will be about $300 per month for the county. During the session, the court agreed to raise the pay of Domingo Pesina, deputy sheriff at the Labor Camp, from $60 to $100 per month.

An offer of $1750 for heating and air conditioning equipment installed by the county in their temporary courthouse was accepted. Jack Wright, who owns the buildings used for about a year as quarters while the courthouse was being renovated, made the bid.

Installation of a pay telephone booth on the ground floor of the courthouse also was approved.

Commissioners accepted the

After hearing the proposal, the three agencies showed by a raising of hands that they were in favor of equalizing taxes. By mutual agreement, they set another joint meeting for 8 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Before the Aug. 16 joint meeting, the Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court will meet with officials of another county where the McMorries Company has conducted a tax equalization program.

McMorries said cost of the program could be paid out during a three-year term.

The tax consultant said the schedule of costs would be determined by property sales, reproduction costs and improvements by class.

There would be approximately 13 classes of residences, about six classes of business buildings and an undetermined number of classes in rural areas.

"Sales do not always determine the value of a property, but are an indicating factor," McMorries said. "Types of land and all improvements would also be considered in such a program."

The company would run a record of property sales for the past five years, back to Jan. 1, 1955.

"In Hereford, many buildings would need to be factored, and there are instances where houses would be factored," McMorries commented. Proximity of schools and churches also would figure in factors, he added.

He suggested that the same 100 per cent values be used by all three taxing units, applying per cents as needed. After the program were conducted, McMorries explained, the firm would meet with tax equalization boards yearly.

"This will be a good program if all governments work together," he said. "Good public relations is necessary for a tax equalization study."

Annual upkeep of the study would include keeping records of new properties, property ownership changes and the checking of well permits issued.

The meeting, held to consider the feasibility of the three local governments joining together in a tax equalization study, was held in the Rural High School District board room.

In business following the joint meeting, the school trustees passed a motion to leave the tax rate at the current $1.70 per $100 valuation. The rate includes $1.35 as local maintenance tax and $.35 for interest and bond retirements.

The trustees also made a study of the proposed school operating budget for the 1960-61 year.

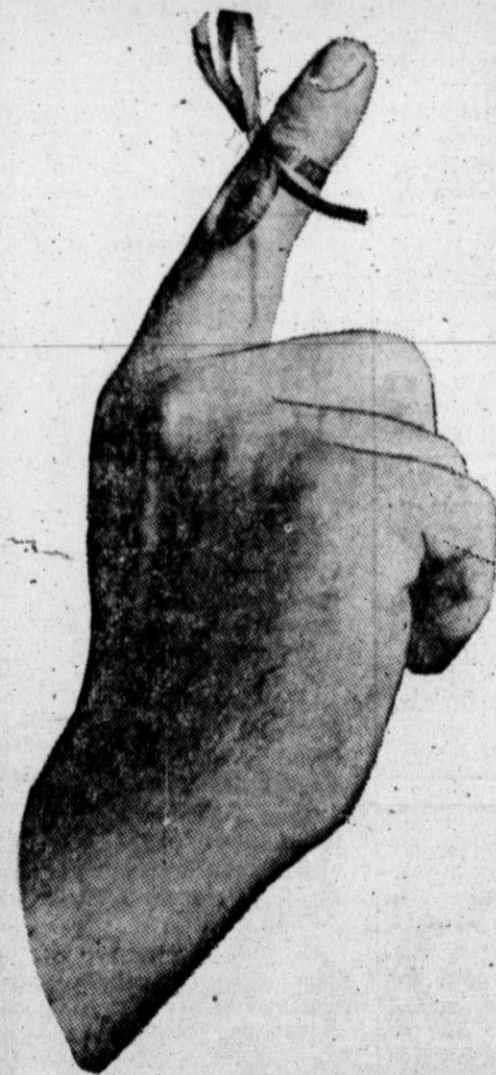

Public hearing for next year's budget will be held beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9.

Hereford Schools Superintendent Paul Stevens announced that repairs on the exterior and interior of Dawn School are nearly completed. Painting of the interior at Central School is now underway, he added.

There's No Short Cut In Sterilizing Of Jars

By ARGENT DRAPER
With all the short cuts in canning there is no short cut in sterilizing jars. Jars and cans still need to be boiled.

Our food specialists go so far as to recommend throwing away a jar that has spoiled food in it. Add some vinegar to the water that the jars are boiled in and this gives the jars a bright look.

The only bulletins that we've unpacked since we moved are the canning and pickle bulletins.

PICKLED OKRA
Soak okra overnight in a brine made of 2 teaspoons alum and 1/4 c. salt in 1/2 gallon of water. Rinse in clear water and pack into jars. Cover with a hot solution made of:
2 c. white vinegar
1 1/2 c. water
2 T. salt
2 t. mustard seed
1 t. dill seed
Hot green peppers
Seal while hot.

A new bulletin is just off the press and is entitled "Salads." We will have a supply of those in a few days. This has about 150 recipes in it, along with a lot of suggestions for good salad making. Call the office for a copy.

Here is one of the recipes in the new bulletin:

HOT COLE SLAW
2 eggs
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup vinegar
2 teaspoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon mustard
1/4 teaspoon celery seed
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 quart shredded cabbage
Beat eggs and combine all ingredients except butter or margarine and cabbage. Cook in double boiler, stirring constantly until mixture coats a metal spoon. Add butter or margarine. Pour over shredded cabbage. Serves six.

We attended the all-day singing at Bippus Sunday; they had a delicious lunch and it looked like the chocolate cakes were the favorite of most everyone. Glenda Homfeld had made a delicious sour cream cake and used the icing that they learned to make in 4-H club. I also saw a cake from the H. D. market. Have you noticed that cooking has personality?

Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry made a fresh peach cobbler; in fact, she had made two cobblers, one with sugar and the other with honey.

I've been wondering if the honey this year is better or have I forgotten how good the first honey was that was taken off last year.

Loretta Fowler says that her mother uses the deep fat fryer for preserve-making as the temperature of the fryer can be regulated with the thermostat which keeps the preserves from sticking. Too, the preserves can cook while she's away from home.

A home demonstration woman told me that she had bought $15 worth of material on sale and in remnants. She thinks that she can get 10 dresses and shirts for the children from this material.

Were getting out some recipes for summer desserts. If you are interested in a copy, call the office.

The new phone number is EM 4-3611 and don't be surprised when the secretary answers: "County Extension Agents' Office." The three Agents have the same number now.

GUARD AGAINST HEAT-STROKE
Slow down a bit on these hot summer days. Over-exposure to the sun, prolonged heat or hard physical labor in a hot or stuffy place can bring heat exhaustion quickly.

In heatstroke, body temperature rises, skin becomes hot and dry, face reddens and headache develops. Heat exhaustion works just the reverse. The patient's body becomes cool, perhaps clammy, with sweat. The best treatment for both conditions is preventative.

National Safety Council recommends the following precautions:
Increase salt intake to offset excessive loss of salt in the body through perspiration. Salt intake can be increased by adding more salt to food, by drinking salted water, or by taking salt tablets.

Avoid overexertion and over-exposure to direct sun rays or extreme indoor temperatures and high humidity.

Wear a hat while out-of-doors; wear light porous clothing.

Eat nutritious food, but avoid overeating. Drink water often through the day, one glass at a time.

Avoid ice water and alcohol. When heat stroke or heat exhaustion occurs, get a doctor at once and apply first aid treatment.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to express our sincere thanks to those who so kindly remembered us during our recent sorrow. Your visits, flowers, cards and every word and deed of sympathy we shall always remember and be grateful. May God bless every one of you.

WIFE HAS HER WAY
KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - Mrs. Willard Edward Lynch had her way when her husband pleaded guilty to a drunken driving charge. Before City Court Judge Charles Kelly could decide on a sentence, Lynch's wife arose and said: "Judge, I think he should be sent to the workhouse. It might learn him some sense!" "Lady, you took the words right out of my mouth," the judge declared as he fined Lynch $175 and sentenced him to 30 days.

IN THE SWIM
ST. LOUIS (AP) - Pool-hopping is catching on as a new sport among teen-agers in suburban St. Louis area. Police report they're receiving an increasing number of complaints from private residential pool owners about uninvited guests, usually late at night. The sneak swimmers usually post a lookout, but frequently everyone is caught because the lookout can't resist a swim, too.

SHAKING HANDS after the dedication service of the Migrant Ministry building at the Hereford Labor Camp are Dr. Harold Kilpatrick, executive secretary of the Texas Council of Churches in Austin, and Mrs. Earl Plank of Hereford, who started the Migrant Ministry building in Hereford. CHATting WITH CHILDREN of the Hereford Labor Camp after the dedication of the Migrant Ministry building Sunday were from left, Mrs. Wanda Vaughn of Austin, Youth Work Advisor, for the Texas Council of Churches; Miss Connie Powell of Austin, office secretary for the Texas Council of Churches; John Robertson of Lubbock, who is on the Migrant Ministry staff; and the Rev. Robert Story, adult leader of the student camp work. (Staff Photo)

AT LABOR CAMP

About 75 Attend Center's Dedication Service Sunday

About 75 attended the dedication service of the Migrant Ministry building at the Hereford Labor Camp, Sunday. Opening the dedication service was the Rev. Herschel Thurston, pastor of the Hereford First Methodist Church, who gave the invocation. Following the invocation, Vance Grune introduced V. E. Dodson, chairman of the Hereford Committee on Migrant Ministry. Dodson introduced Mrs. Wanda Vaughn, Youth Work Advisor, and Miss Connie Powell, office secretary for the Texas Council of Churches, both of Austin. Dodson also introduced John Robertson of Lubbock who is on the Migrant Ministry staff, Mrs. Earl Plank of Hereford, who started the Migrant Ministry program in Hereford, the Rev. Robert Story, adult leader of the student work camp, and Mrs. Walter London Jr., program co-ordinator of Hereford Migrant Ministry. Dodson explained to the group attending about the committee for the project and how the project got started. He also gave a statement of thanks to the merchants and other persons who contributed and helped to make the financing and construction of the building possible.

The building, built by the 12 students of the work camp, will be named the "Casa De Amigos" or the "House of Friends." "If I were going to make a speech today, I would only read the editorial published in the Sunday Brand entitled, 'Students Leave Us A Challenge,'" Dodson said. The Rev. Story introduced each of the campers to the people and explained that they would be leaving Sunday, August 7. He said they were going to put the finishing touches on the building this week. "The building isn't finished for the dedication nor will it ever be finished until it is used to its fullest extent," he said. The Rev. Gilbert Davis, pastor of the Hereford First Christian Church, introduced the speaker, Dr. Harold Kilpatrick, executive secretary of the Texas Council of Churches in Austin.

4-H Member Here In Youth Program

Washington, D. C. - Lou Ann Higgins, Route 4, Hereford, 4-H Club member, has been selected to take prominent part in the unique 1960 Youth program of the 32nd annual farm business Institute of Cooperation at the University of California, Berkeley, August 7-10, when she will serve as a participant on a youth panel discussing "Preparing for Our Changing Agriculture." Theme of the three-day meeting will be "Preparing for Our Changing Agriculture." The Conference is the largest annual gathering on farm business opportunities, techniques, and problems, drawing some 3,000 leaders of farm business, credit, marketing, Agricultural, Extension, and rural education, including an expected 1,200 farm youth and young farmers who will also participate in their own discussion and tour programs. Youth delegates will engage in panel discussions on ways to make farming a successful career and on how to utilize the services of farm purchasing and will take a never-to-be forgotten tour of the Golden Gate area of California farms and processing plants to learn of practices there. They will meet heads of U. S. and Canadian rural youth groups, and young people from other foreign countries to swap personal experiences, according to Howard McClarren, A.I.C. Director of Youth Education. The Institute is chartered as a "University" in Washington, D. C. and is the educational and research organization for farm-

Golden Explains Clinic Research

O. Z. Golden, director of the Deaf Smith County Research Laboratory, spoke to Hereford Optimist Club Tuesday, Aug. 2, concerning the research carried on in the laboratory. The laboratory was started in 1958 as a non-profit organization. Additional money goes back into the laboratory for equipment and facilities. There are two permanent employees, including himself, and one part-time employee, Golden said. The laboratory is divided into four sections, which are medical research, clinical analysis, livestock research and agriculture research. In the field of medical research, the laboratory will begin a program on bone survey which will be world-wide. The clinical analysis requires special equipment, and most comes from the Hereford Clinic. They also do research for surrounding communities, he said. The laboratory is concerned with finding a preventative for wheat poison. This is the main interest now in the livestock field. The research is carried on in the spring and fall, when wheat poison kills many cattle, he explained. The laboratory is doing agriculture research on phosphate. In this area, phosphate is a problem. The soil is high in calcium and minerals which could combine with phosphate to make a hard substance which plants could not use, Golden said.

In trying to increase the efficiency of phosphate, the laboratory decided to try adding sulphuric acid to the soil. The first year it was used, the amount of phosphate in the soil increased as did the yield, he said.

Political promises are beginning to flow as our two major parties gear themselves for what will probably be the most extensive campaign seen in American history. There are many angles and new wrinkles, but one of the old reliable campaign promises is no more. This would be "Lower Federal Taxes". Neither party appears interested in even making a pretense along this line. Every indication, in fact, points toward stepped up spending programs and greater participation of the federal government in local affairs.

The situation reminds me of a little squib I read somewhere about the manner in which Eskimos kill wolves. They sharpen a knife to a fine edge, place it on the ice where it freezes, sharp edge up, then wipe the blade with whale blubber. The wolf smells the blubber, licks the knife with his tongue, which is cut on the sharp edge and begins to bleed. The wolf tastes the warm blood with relish, and continues licking faster and faster. Finally, he suffers so many lacerations that he bleeds to death. He does live it up for a brief time, though, feasting on his own resources.

Ultimately, we can expect to see more inflation as the result of greater government spending and higher taxes. This appears inevitable regardless of which party comes out on top in November.

There's not a lot of use to worry about politics, however. W. O. Shelton, C. N. McClure and R. C. McGilvary held a little "coffee caucus" the other morning and reported that they just about have things figured out. About this time Larry Summers and Mutt Wheeler joined the crowd to put on the finishing touches.

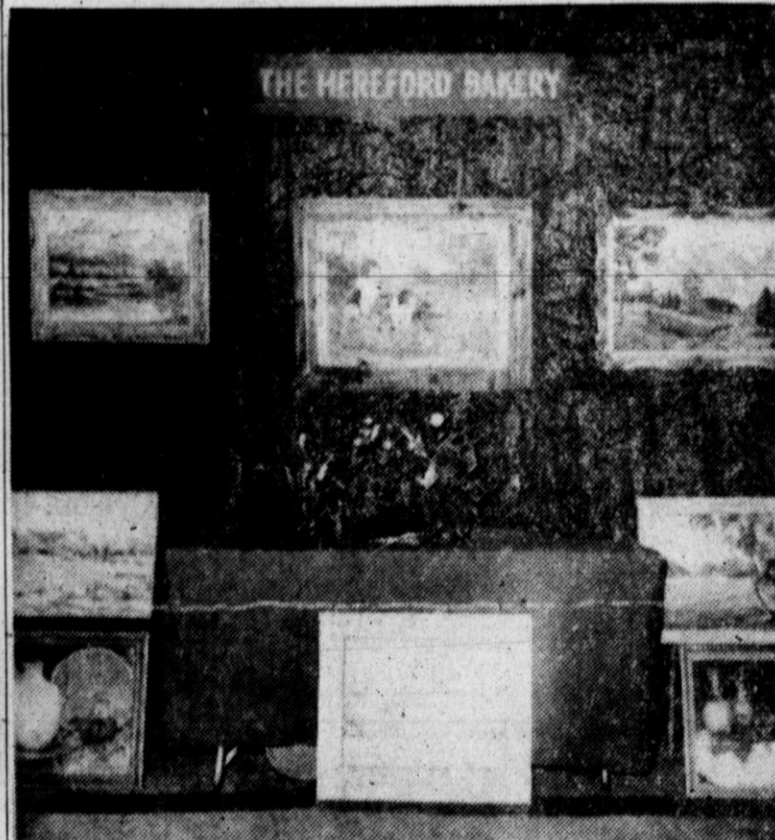

Mrs. Elmer Dameron was a thoughtful enough to send a card from Padova, Italy, where she had lunch in the famous Basilica de St. Anthony. She was en route to Florence and Rome and didn't say when she would be home, but indicated that she was becoming just a bit homesick for Hereford and friends. She says that Venice was a high point, even if Main Street was "all wet"; she thoroughly enjoyed shopping from the gondolas, which operate much like taxi cabs in this country, according to Jane.

Argen Draper, Home Demonstration agent, brought by a copy of the Texas Co-Op, and featured a picture of Mrs. H. L. Hershey, selected as outstanding Home Demonstration Club Woman of the county for 1960; also Janice and Lou Ann Higgins' demonstration on power use, and board members of the Deaf Smith unit.

The building project across south from Temple Baptist Church on Ave. K will house a community-type grocery store, according to current rumors. The store will be opened as soon as construction is completed, probably a month or so.

GREETED BY VICE-PRESIDENT Richard M. Nixon is Jack Bradley of Hereford, right, at the 1960 Republican Convention which opened in Chicago last week. Bradley was a Texas delegate to the convention. He was greeted by Nixon in the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel in Chicago.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Growth Of Civil Rights Issue

To the people of the 18th District:

In the past few weeks the American people have heard and read a great deal more about the platforms of the two major political parties of this nation than probably any other previous time in our history. The reasons being: (1) the splendid nationwide television coverage of both the Democratic and the Republican Conventions; (2) the increasing interest of the American people in political affairs; and (3) the highly controversial issue of "civil rights", which served to focus the attention of the entire nation on the political platforms.

The civil rights issue has in recent years been an explosive issue at Democratic conventions, but has been more or less run-of-the-mill at Republican counterparts. However, this year it was by far the most controversial issue at both conventions, and will unquestionably be a hotly debated issue in the coming election campaigns.

The tremendous growth of the issue in recent years caused me to wonder why both parties had waited so long in the history of this country to worry about individual rights. I had always been taught that this country was founded for the protection of the rights of the individual and that those rights were guaranteed and protected by the provisions of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

I suspected that all of the recent oratory and loudly proclaimed efforts concerning the protection of the "civil rights" of the citizens of this country must have found its source in a desire on the part of certain political groups to try to obtain some bloc voting, by so-called minority groups.

Hence, I made it a point to do a little research on previous platforms of the two major parties. The findings were most interesting.

Prior to 1932, there was very little reference directly or indirectly on the subject, so we will begin with the 1932 platform. That was the year that the Democrats nominated Franklin Delano Roosevelt for president and John N. Garner for vice president.

The Democratic platform that year contained one sentence that could probably be construed as having to do with the civil rights issue. It was the last sentence in the platform and read as follows:

"Equal rights to all; special privileges to none."

The Republicans that year nominated Herbert Hoover for president and Charles Curtis for vice president, and their platform contained the following section on the subject:

"NEGRO

For seventy years the Republican Party has been the friend of the American Negro. Vindication of the right of the Negro citizen to enjoy the full benefits of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is traditional in the

Chief Quanah Parker Defeated Near Borger

In 1874, Chief Quanah Parker, son of the famous Cynthia Ann Parker, led some 700 picked Comanche, Cheyenne, and Kiowa warriors in battle against 28 brave frontiersmen and buffalo hunters in the Texas Panhandle.

He was defeated in this attempted "Alamo" style massacre by the small band of men that included the famous Bat Masterson and Bermuda Charlie.

This "Battleground of Adobe Walls" now rests peacefully just thirty miles north of Borger.

There are no dinosaurs in Texas, but we do have proof that the prehistoric monsters were here at one time.

Just travel twenty miles west of Cleburne to the town of Glen Rose, and you can see for yourself.

There you will find fossilized dinosaur tracks along the beautiful Paluxy River.

You'll enjoy staying in Glen Rose, as it is a well-known vacation and health resort. . . famous for its mineral water.

At Texarkana, Tex., one of the major gateways into the Lone Star State, stands an impressive statue of James Bowie, one of the great men in Texas history.

On the monument are the words, "They never fail who die in a just cause."

Jim Bowie, for whom the Bowie Knife is named, was one of the most famous of the valiant defenders of the Alamo who fought to make Texas free.

LaFitte's Grove is just 8 miles west of Galveston, Texas.

Established in 1817, this fort was the headquarters of the freebooter Jean LaFitte while he was pirating ships in the Gulf of Mexico.

This also was the site of the "Battle of Three Trees" between LaFitte's men and the fierce Karankawa Indians.

One of the world's largest meteorites lies about 170 miles west and six miles south of Odessa, in the far western portion of Texas.

The great meteor, a mass of iron, nickel and various other metals, rests 170 feet deep in a 10-acre pit.

This great visitor from outer space is estimated to have fallen to earth thousands of years ago.

Interested in architecture or fine homes?

Across from the Courthouse in the town of Corsicana stands the Victorian Mansion of the great evangelist, Abe Mulkey.

This well known show place amazes all its viewers with its preserved youthful appearance.

Corsicana is a famous oil center and is located approximately 50 miles south of Dallas, Texas.

Texas has been the home of many great and courageous men. A few words describing their feats often can imply the magnitude of their character.

Such are the words on a marker on the highway southwest of Llano, in Central Texas, which reads: "Enchanted Rock. From its summit, in the fall of 1841, Captain John C. Hays, while surrounded by Comanche Indians who cut him off from his ranging company, repulsed the whole band and inflicted upon them such heavy losses that they fled."

Sam Houston was converted and baptised in Rocky Creek in 1854, 18 years before they built the Old Baptist Church that now stands at Independence, in Central Texas.

A monument stone on the bell tower by the church reads, "She sleeps within its sound." Reference is to Mrs. Nancy Lea, mother of Houston's wife. She donated her silver service to be melted into the bell.

The tower was erected with stones from the ruins of the original Baylor building. Judge Baylor's hearthstone is said to be included in the tower.

Historic old Fort Bliss, established in 1848, was rebuilt by the city and county of El Paso in 1948. They built it as an exact reproduction of the original fort, but on a miniature scale.

This miniature fort now is on permanent display at the new Fort Bliss in El Paso.

We all knew Texas was big but we didn't know it was so old until the discovery of the Midland Skull in 1954.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

State Agencies Presenting Requests For New Budget

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — About a dozen state agencies thus far have presented their budget requests for the 1961-63 biennium.

As yet, none has failed to ask for more money than it's presently getting.

Many agencies cite Texas' growing population as justification for expansion. They say, in effect, that they are in the same position as the housewife who has to put another potato in the pot to set another place at the table.

Others seek to woo state funds with a "bread east upon the waters" approach. They contend that money spent on developing the state's resources will come back multiplied in the form of increased state revenue.

Most all emphasize the difficulties of luring and holding highly trained personnel at present state salaries. Some say, too, that they've been working with a too-short stick for years and need some "keep up with the times" improvements.

Budget proposals are presently being studied by the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's budget staff. Each will make recommendations, and the final decision will be made next year by the Legislature.

With a money-short, tax-fighting session ahead, it won't be easy for anyone.

These budget requests have been added to those already under study:

An investment in state parks is an investment in the Texas tourist industry and a potentially rich source of additional funds for the state treasury.

This is the theme of the State Parks Board in asking for a $2,000,000 appropriation for the next two years. This is almost double the present spending level.

Of this million-dollar-a-year appropriation, the Board proposes to use $700,000 a year for improvements, $300,000 a year for administration.

Texas, says parks director Bill Collins, spends less on its state parks than Rhode Island. He cited figures showing that Texas would get $81,000,000 a year more in tax revenue if each out-of-state visitor stayed in the state one more day.

A bigger budget is asked by the General Land Office and Veterans Land Board to assure the state's realizing full value from the resources of state-owned lands.

A two-year budget of $3,042,339 is asked.

Land Office noted the state now has clear title to 8,000 square miles of tidelands. It wants to employ three oil scouts and a geological director to explore the development of the tidelands' mineral resources.

Altogether, 29 new land office employees are being asked.

Land Office claims that for every dollar it has spent in the past 22 years, $90.18 has been returned to the state treasury in revenue.

Complexities of increasingly scientific farming put greater demands on the State Department of Agriculture, says Commissioner John C. White.

His "sink or swim" budget request is for $3,061,421 for the coming two-year period. This compares with a $1,930,966 appropriation for the present period.

White said the "chemical revolution" in agriculture today puts heavy responsibilities on his department. He also asked for more equipment and more salaries for personnel to check weights and measures.

State Highway Department is asking for a two-year allocation of $698,600,000.

Of this, $348,300,000 would be for the 1961-62 period; $350,300,000 for the 1962-63 period. This compares with $337,000,000 spent by the Highway Department in 1959.

Most of the highway revenue comes from special earmarked sources, such as the gasoline tax, license fees, etc. Department is asking $600,000 from the general revenue fund to be used for tourist advertising.

Reading Conference At Canyon Attracts Hereford Teachers

The annual Reading Conference held on the campus of West Texas State College recently was attended by a number of Hereford teachers.

They included Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Durham, Mrs. Eloise McDougal, Mrs. V. P. Walker, Miss Gladys Setliff, Mrs. James Elmonson, Mrs. Jim Wiman, Miss Bea Barrett, Miss Madeline Bell, Mrs. Kent Snare, Miss Della Stagner, Miss Mary Bradley, Mrs. Hazel Wells, Mrs. W. C. Beene, Mrs. Fred Mulkey, Mrs. H. V. Crawford and Mrs. Caudie Ola Brown.

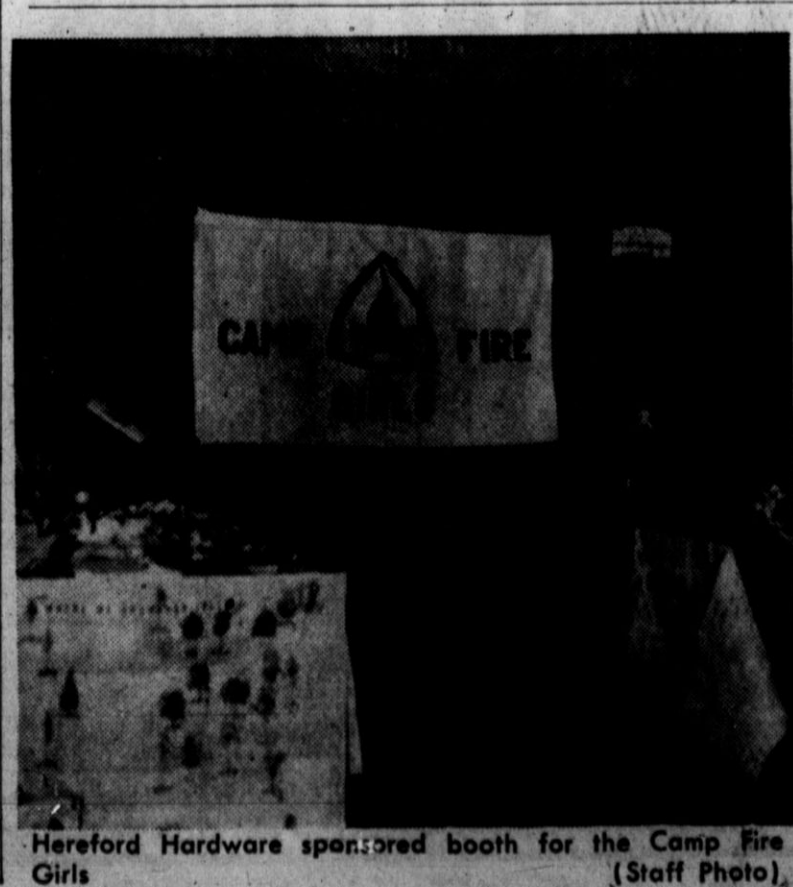

The conference was sponsored by the Texas Association for the Improvement of Reading. West Texas State College sought to bring outstanding speakers, writers, librarians and teachers to the campus to share with all interested teachers the current trends, best practices, and latest materials in the field of reading.

Hereford Teacher Attends Convention

Miss Gladys Setliff, a sixth grade teacher at Northwest Elementary School in Hereford, has recently returned from the National Convention of the Classroom Teachers' Association held in Hawaii.

The two week convention included many sightseeing trips to points of interest on the island, and many lectures by University faculty members on the culture, lore, history and political facets of the islands.

Miss Setliff spent one year in England as an exchange teacher before coming to Hereford.

Game and Fish Commission is asking for what it calls a "status quo" budget, except for salary raises for some of its top technical personnel.

Commission is asking for $12,034,945 for the coming two-year period compared to $11,593,651 for the present biennium.

Executive Director Howard Dodgen declared the commission's top echelon employees are "grossly underpaid" for highly trained persons, some with master's degrees.

Three colleges, East Texas State, Stephen F. Austin State and Sam Houston State Teachers College, have told the Commission on Higher Education they need more money.

Expected enrollment increases, need for higher faculty salaries and need to lower the student-teacher ratio were cited as reasons for the requests.

East Texas is asking $2,446,555 for the first year, $2,547,125 for the second year of the 1961-63 period. This compares with a present annual budget of $1,676,424.

Stephen F. Austin asks $2,063,719 the first year, $2,048,603 the second, compared to the present $1,244,370 a year.

Sam Houston wants $2,970,261 the first year, $2,992,190 the second. Present annual spending is $2,040,677.

These requests, along with all those from state-supported colleges and universities, will be studied and screened by the Higher Education Commission before a recommendation is presented to legislative and executive budget officials.

With new spending requests piling up, the search for new money-making plans is ranging far and wide.

Four broad-based tax plans are being considered by tax hunting sub-committee of the Governor's State Finance Advisory Commission.

They are: (1) a payroll tax, paid half by employers, half by employees, (2) a utilities customers tax adding a percentage to all utility bills, (3) a business activities tax which would combine some of the features of payroll, gross receipts and corporate income taxes and (4) a transfer which would be similar to a sales tax.

Other ideas suggested to the panel include higher taxes on liquor and beer, sales tax on soft drinks and restaurant meals and a tax on sporting events.

Rep. Walter

nated Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard Nixon. Their platform contained a section on civil rights which consisted of six short paragraphs.

In 1956 the Democrats nominated Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver, and although the platform consisted of some forty-four pages, the civil rights issue was confined to six medium-size paragraphs.

The Republicans in 1956 again nominated Dwight Eisenhower and Richard Nixon and expressed their sentiments on civil rights in nine short paragraphs.

Between 1932 and 1956 the issue had grown in the Democratic platform from one short sentence to six paragraphs. It had grown from one paragraph in the 1932 Republican platform to nine paragraphs in 1956. But this was only the beginning.

In the 1960 platforms the Democrats used twenty-four paragraphs or four times the number in 1956 on this issue. The Republicans increased their interest in the matter from 9 paragraphs in 1956 to thirty paragraphs in 1960.

A reading of all these paragraphs in all platforms would indicate that my suspicions were correct in the first place. The entire tenor of the words, the phrases and the paragraphs as they grew, are an appeal to minority groups, each party trying to outdo the other.

The entire matter could have been summed up in every platform by simply stating that the parties subscribe to the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, and would see to it that the Attorney General enforces the law.

If this philosophy was followed, the rights of all would be protected as was intended by the framers of the Constitution.

Safeway Chuck Roast

 See for yourself why you get so much more!

1 Note the large proportion of lean meat to fat and bone. We never "rob" a chuck roast of lean meat (as some do) to be sold as boneless beef at a higher price.

2 There's bone, of course, but it's carefully trimmed. Grandma tells us that the juices which flow through the meat from the bone help give pot roasts their perfect flavor.

3 Just enough fat is left on a Safeway chuck roast to make sure it will cook tender, flavorful and juicy and have that rich brown color you want in your pot roasts.

4 It's cut from USDA Choice Beef. Only beef judged by expert U.S.-government graders to be of fine-eating quality is awarded this high grade.

5 Like all steaks and roasts at Safeway, this chuck roast has been carefully aged to peak of tenderness and flavor.

There they are... our tracks. And there he is following in them. Daddy, every step you take leaves its mark. And eager young minds see them so clearly, and follow them so well. Why not take some steps toward church! Your son and your daughter will follow.

His first impulse is to do just what you do... to walk in daddy's tracks. Notice how many farmers' boys farm, how many bankers' boys go into banking and how many preachers' sons enter the ministry. They are following you, daddy, even to the tone of your voice. If you want them to help build a good society, to know God... then take them to church and sit with them in the place of worship.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

This NEW low profile GATES Tire Gives 25% Bonus in Mileage

—Longest tire test this side of Hades! Six days a week, month after month, year after year, the Gates Test Fleet travels sixteen hours a day at maximum legal speeds in searing heat as it makes the 900-mile round trip from Phoenix to Tucson.

Gates new low profile nylon tire, tested extensively on Gates Arizona Test Fleet, proved its long tread life by giving 25% longer mileage than conventional tires.

Test fleet, driving 900 miles per day in desert heat, proves you get thousands more miles from this tire!

Revolutionary low profile shape increases tire mileage! A conventional tire running on the road, bulges, flattens, scuffs the tread, generates heat in tire body to shorten life. But Gates new low profile tire is built in a revolutionary new shape—actually the running shape of a tire! Reduces flexing that causes heat build-up and tread scuffing. Gives you fully 25% more mileage!

Grips the road silently! Deep cold rubber tread has more than 8,000 gripping edges; new design increases area of contact with road. This combination reduces slippage—gives you superb, silent, safe traction.

Gives you more miles per gallon! Actually saves gas, because low profile tire has less slippage; rolls more freely. So—you really go farther on every cup of gas; an extra saving you'll notice in the long run!

Unconditional Road-Hazard GUARANTEE
against BLOWOUTS, BRUISES, RIM-CUTS, etc., no time or mileage limit. Made with more than 2 miles of tempered nylon cord, this tire is so tough it is virtually blow-out proof! Guaranteed against any failure for full tread life. Should tire fail, you get a new tire, with full credit for unused mileage, based on Gates standard adjustment schedule.

Special DEMONSTRATOR price!

To introduce this extra long-wearing tire to more people we are offering it at a demonstrator price for a limited time on pairs and sets only. This means you can now get this 1st line low profile NYLON tire at the same price you would pay for ordinary new car rayon tires! Other sizes, tubeless and whitewalls similarly low.
