Plan New Civic Center Drive

A second drive for funds to finance construction of a new Community Center in Hereford will be organized during the next few days.

Original efforts to raise $40,000 as the public's contribution for the building fell short and the drive bogged down completely.

Administrators of the Jim Hill Estate first offered the city $60,000 toward cost of constructing such a building.

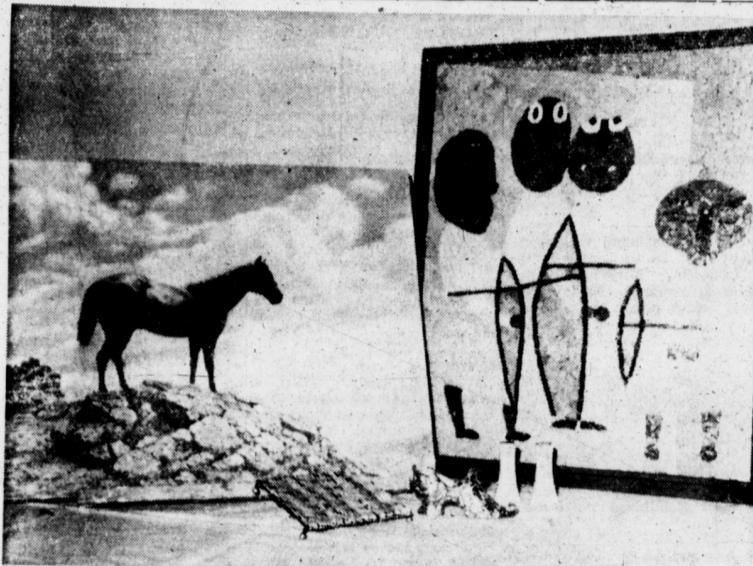

But low bid for the project was more than $133,000 and the fund drive stopped completely awaiting further developments.

Work is scheduled to begin within 10 days, but Killingsworth said plans are to begin within five days.

BUILDING SITE for the new Community Center will be swarming with workers next week as construction gets underway.

hand, seen at far right. The building should be finished about November, according to estimates.

VARIOUS works of art, such as oil paintings, weaving, ceramics and mosaic, will be the attractions at the arts and crafts show and sale to be held today through Saturday in the Henry Sears building just south of Jim Hill Hotel.

Hereford Students Sweep I-AAA Literary Contest

A delegation of 28 Hereford High School students took places in six of 16 events to win the Interscholastic League's annual spring Class I-AAA literary contests at West Texas State College in Canyon Saturday.

The local students captured places in declamation, poetry reading, oratory, extemporaneous speech, number sense and spelling.

Hereford received 127 points, edging Levelland and Phillips, which were second and third with 112 and 98 points, respectively.

In declamation events, David Larsen won the senior boys' class and Sharon Hill won the junior girls' competition.

Around Town

Spring is the time when color replaces drabness. Florence Trawek was bubbling Wednesday after seeing the new postal delivery truck that came in bright and early.

Another touch of spring that brightens the sidewalk-and-brick theme of downtown Hereford is the large lilac bush on the south side of the Post Office.

Versatility, in this age of specialization, is a fine reason for a loud round of applause. In this case it should be directed toward Milner Duvall, a Hereford High senior.

Little League Try-Outs Set

Try-outs for Little League baseball teams will be conducted on Monday, April 27, according to league director Earl Stagner.

All boys between the ages of 8 and 12 who want to play in the summer baseball program must attend the try-out sessions, which will be held on the new practice field just north of the gin in east Hereford.

Boys who played Little League baseball last summer also must attend the try-out sessions. Players are asked to bring application blanks, which were passed out in the schools.

Stagner announced that final details for the Little League program would be worked out during an organizational meeting Friday night.

Further details about the boys' baseball program, and a copy of the application blank, will appear in the Sunday Brand.

'Cheaper By The Dozen' On Stage By HHS Seniors

The events which take place when an efficiency expert meets a factory to the life of his family promises dozens of laughs when a cast of Hereford High School seniors presents "Cheaper By The Dozen" Monday and Tuesday nights in the high school auditorium.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. for each performance. The three-act comedy is under direction of Carroll Hickey, high school speech and dramatics teacher.

The lead role of Dad, who can "shave with only four strokes," will be played by Steve Slagle. Mom, who allows Dad to paint the solar system on the bath-

Recharge Well Test Successful

As flocculant testing operations on the recharge well near Dimmitt continue, Wayne Wyatt of Hereford, field representative for High Plains Water Conservation District, Monday said he feels experiments thus far have been successful but fears that water supply will diminish by the end of the week if the area receives no rainfall.

By the use of a flocculating process, being tried for the first time with a recharge well anywhere on the Bill Sutton farm, five miles southeast of Dimmitt, attempts are being made to settle suspended materials out of playa lake water before sending it to underground formations.

Secret of the process is a substance developed by Dow Chemical Company for settling out from 80 to 95 per cent of suspended materials. The chemical used on the Sutton farm is NP-30.

"I am already sold on the process," Wyatt told the Brand Monday. "Although no analysis

Nine Pistols Reported Stolen

A quantity of pistols, valued at more than $400, was taken by burglars at Helton Army Surplus Store, 133 N. Main, sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Start Wildcat Drilling Test North Of Dawn

Another attempt will be made to hit oil in the Palo Duro Basin of Deaf Smith County when spudding operations begin Thursday at the Muse No. 1 drilling site, 14 miles north of Dawn and three miles west of the Randall County line.

Located on the George K. Muse farm, in section 14, block 7, the wildcat rig was set up by Frankfort Oil Company of Wichita Falls last week.

Drilling supervisor at the rig site Monday told the Brand that tentative plans are to drill the test to about 8,600 feet.

No-Hitter Gives Dumas 5-1 Game

Slender right-hander Al Taylor pitched a no-hit game Tuesday in frigid weather as the Dumas Demons took a 5-1 victory from the Hereford Whitefaces here Tuesday. It was the first I-AAA game for both teams.

Taylor was in command all the way as he used a whistling fast ball and a tantalizing change of pace to chain the Hereford bats. He struck out 11, gave up five walks, hit two batters and stranded eight.

12 straight pitches to load the bases in the first, Donald Cariker doubled, pushing in Harjo and Jones. Bill Shaha's sacrifice played Taylor and Royce Williams doubled in Cariker. A walk and a hit batter loaded the bases again before the side finished.

Setting of the production is during the 1920's in a middle-sized eastern city. The show enjoyed a long run on Broadway and was made into a successful movie, starring Clifton Webb, a few years back.

The plot concerns the biography of an assembly-line family, whose foreman does not believe in wasteful motion. The family, basically, is run like a successful business or factory.

Rounding out events: Stanley Fuhrman placed first and Dudley Bayne Jr. placed third in number sense, and Nelda Barnett and Dolores Price teamed to take first in spelling.

Medals were awarded to first, second and third place winners. First place winners were certified by the judges to go to the regional meeting Saturday in Odessa. Winners from the regional meet go to the state finals which are held in Austin in May.

About 500 students and teachers gathered on the campus for the events. Competing in the District 3-AAAA contests were Amarillo High, Borger, Lubbock, Monterey, Palo Duro, Pampa, Plainview and Tascosa. Accompanying the local delegation were Carroll Hickey, Jiggs Hudson, Ed Stanley and Mrs. Billye M. Buck, all high school teachers here.

Dumas got one more run in the sixth. Mike Milligan walked, moved to third on a stolen base and a passed ball, and came in when Harjo singled.

The win gave Dumas a 4-8 record for the season, while Hereford is 2-10. Thursday Hereford is scheduled to play Childress there. Friday Nazareth will be at Hereford, with the game starting at 4 p.m.

Hereford has lost to Childress and edged by Nazareth this season. Herd diamond coach Jerry George had reason to be encouraged Tuesday by the better defensive play, as just one error was committed. This is far better than the 11 miscues chalked up during the last home appearance.

The well is perforated from 211 to 326 feet for more effectiveness in reaching points of underground water flow.

The system, which was started early in February, works entirely on the gravity flow principle. The experiment was started at the request of many farmers in the area. Since most water from playa lake water is heavily silted, the foreign matter clogs up the water-bearing sands around the casing at underground water level.

If any local farmer wishes to put in a recharge well and experiment with the flocculating process, Wyatt said he would be glad to engineer the project, but that he was not authorized by the district to invest funds toward the project. However, he advised the farmers to await reports of future tests at the Sutton farm, so that long-range effects of the project could be more fully determined.

It is impossible to determine effect of tests by field observation, Wyatt said, as the water has been discolored by vegetating humus in the water. He hopes to have reports on laboratory findings by the end of the week.

Between the lake and recharge well, there is a 100-foot long settling basin, called a sump. As water enters the sump, it is subjected to the flocculating treatment and particles form in larger units to be settled to the bottom of the basin.

Size of the units, Wyatt reported, range from pin-point to the size of fisheggs. The most ideal tests are in particle-heavy water, Wyatt said, as more "clinging action" would result. Over a period of years, he added, many particles have settled to the bottom of the playa lake on the Sutton farm, and doesn't get a chance to reach the sump.

Laboratory tests are being carried on by Tom Cullinman and Robert A. Winn, graduate students at Texas Tech, and by Wayne Clyma of Southwestern Plains Field Station at Bushland.

Purpose of the experimental project is for the conservation of water and the reclaiming of wasted land not properly drained, yet avoiding the clogging of underground levels.

Wyatt said the flocculant was actually advantageous to the land and that it could not harm it in any way. The chemical was originally developed to settle particles out of water in hydraulic mining so the water could be reused.

The 326-foot recharge well is in the Ogallala water formation.

HELEN HOVEY . . . Drives 150,000 new cars a year.

Woman Champ Test Driver

By NORMA GAUTH
DETROIT — Any man who wants to make a crack about women drivers is invited to pit his skill against that of Helen Hovey, who puts new cars through their paces at the rate of one a minute.

Mrs. Hovey, a youthful grandmother with blue eyes and auburn hair, figures she's driven a million cars in her time. Here's her average day:

She punches her card at the Plymouth auto plant, walks a couple of hundred feet, stows her purse under a shelf and climbs into a brand new car at the end of the assembly line.

Mrs. Hovey puts her foot on the brake, sees that the car is in proper gear, pumps the foot brake three times, turns the ignition key makes sure the hand brake works, presses the accelerator and shoots 85 feet. In that space she has the car up to 20 miles an hour. She slams on the brakes, and either stops dead in a wheel test fixture or swings sharply in reverse to a parking slot. Then she walks back 85 feet, climbs into the next new car and repeats the process.

That happens 60 times an hour, 450 a day. In a year Mrs. Hovey travels some 8,000 miles under one roof and handles more than 150,000 different new cars.

After 16 years on the job, Mrs. Hovey knows cars. She says: "I can make 'em talk, honey. I just feel them."

She's proud of her driving skill — almost as proud as she is of her two-year-old grandson. He'll find out some day that grandma is a hot rodder at heart.

She's been driving since she was eight. She used to sneak her brother's car out and drive over the fields in her native Edwardsport, Ind.

Mrs. Hovey, a divorcee, went to work at Plymouth in 1943, starting as a receiving department clerk. Faced with a lay-off, she put in for driving a factory jitney. She hauled parts, backed tank fronts into place for welding, had the honor of driving out the first Bofors anti aircraft gun produced at the plant. So after the war, turning to civilian driving was no problem.

As for other women drivers, Mrs. Hovey is blunt. "They're the louisiest drivers in the world," she says. "Awkward! I get disgusted."

Athletic Banquet Honor Lettermen

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL
The outstanding annual event most looked forward to by the Adrian schools, the Athletic Banquet, was held Friday night. For weeks the P-TA officials have been working hard on preparations for the banquet.

The gymnasium was decorated with maroon and white, lit by tall tapers in maroon-based hurricane lamps. Large and small collapsible basketballs were strung overhead in school colors.

The main table was a huge "T" where all speakers, honored officials and players were seated. The patrons sat on smaller tables adjacent to the main table in easy hearing distance. The players' place cards were made of small plastic platforms with short sticks in the back which bore a maroon basketball goal and a banner bearing each player's name.

On either end of the head table were tall silvered trees bearing the players' letters and patches. Programs were made by Mrs. Hazel Chilton's seventh and eighth grade art class. Earl Brown led the group in reading the school song.

James Sessions served as master of ceremonies. Jake Fortenberry delivered the invocation; P-TA president Mrs. Earl Brown gave the welcome, and Betty Cavitt and Oscar Bronniman gave the response. Coaches Kennedy and Cullender presided over the presentation of awards and the benediction was given by Lorin Creitz.

Receiving recognition from the girls' Junior High team were Marlene Williams, Madeline Weidner, Cathy Kromer, Phyllis Peters, Coralie Fortenberry, Paula Creitz and Linda Pinnell.

The Junior High boys' team who won six of the nine games played are Sam Brown, Jerry Homfeld, Joe Tafoya, Perry Gruhkey, Harvey Bronniman, Freddy Taylor, Joe Chambers, Terry Williams, Paul Jackson, Jerry Blassengame and Gary James.

Senior teams receiving letters were Betty Cavitt, Wanda Pinnell, Cynthia Kromer, Alma Mosteller, Ninette Pounds, Melanie Weidner, Sandra Heaton, Roberta Larsen, Gail Brown, Linda Gruhkey, Twilla Story, Glenda Homfeld and manager Sue Johnson.

Proposed Bill For Pistol Toting Law

BEAUMONT — Texas laws on pistol-toting are relics from the frontier days and should be tightened to help cut down crime, Dist. Atty., Ramie Griffin says.

And Griffin chairman of the legislative committee of the state association of district and county attorneys, believes something may be done about it this year.

A proposed bill would make it mandatory for a person to first obtain a permit to buy and possess a pistol.

Griffin believes this would eliminate the many exceptions that a pistol-toter can now hide behind if he is caught carrying one of the weapons. The bill would allow only persons of good character and reputation to get a permit.

The decision whether a person is of good character or reputation should not be decided by public officials, Griffin says, but by a committee of citizens to eliminate politics.

Griffin says the present situation would be simplified if possession of a pistol without a permit would be a violation of the law.

Actually there is a law on the books, apparently little known and not strictly enforced, Griffin says, which makes it unlawful to sell a pistol to a person unless he has received a certificate of "good character" from a justice of peace or a county or district judge. But Griffin points out the law has "no teeth in it" since it does not set forth any punishment for violation.

Traditionally the western states have been more liberal when it comes to the possession of weapons, Griffin says.

The law now makes it a misdemeanor offense for anyone to carry "on or about the person, saddle, or in saddle bags, portfolio or purse a pistol, dirk, dagger, slingshot, blackjack, hand-chain, night stick, sword cane, spear, metal knuckels, bowie knife, or any other knife manufactured or sold for offense or defense."

There are exceptions to this law, including peace officers or persons serving as "militiamen."

A person may keep a pistol at his home or place of business. A person may not keep a pistol in his car unless he is traveling from one country to another.

Violations of the law carry a fine of from $100 to $500 and a jail term of three to 12 months.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

The Brand has maintained at no little expense a war bulletin this week for the benefit of the anxious public. These are placed on large sheets in the show window and crowds have stood around day and night to catch the first reports of the situation in Mexico. These bulletins are in advance from 2 to 12 hours of any information from the daily papers and some 24 hours in advance of any information worth dailies. The first reliable information to be received at Hereford in the form of detail newspaper report is in the Daily News of Amarillo. This paper is snapped up quickly each morning when the train arrives here, and its service is appreciated by its Hereford patrons. The Brand is under no obligation to the editor and manager of the Daily News in the matter of furnishing advance bulletins.

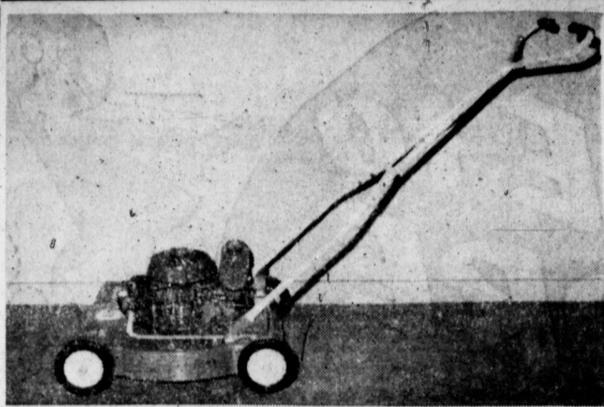

25 Years Ago

No definite word as to road work that will be done in Deaf Smith county under the emergency relief program of road building has been received. It is practically certain, however that Highway 33 will be included.

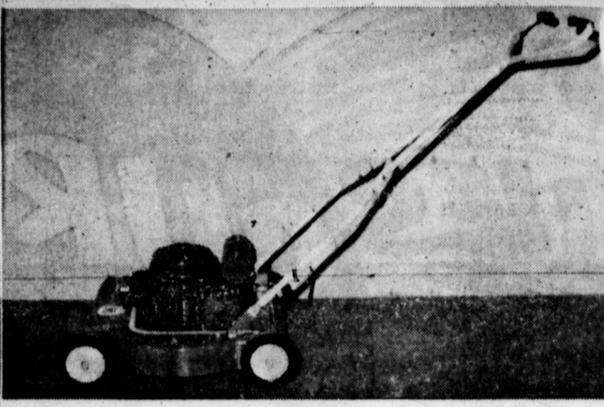

Prospects for having 25-mile Avenue designed as a state highway were considerably improved this week. W.W. Chilton said after a conference with Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, in Amarillo Monday. The Avenue will have to be designed officially if it is to be improved under this program since the funds are for state highways only.

RECORD FOR GUERIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Richie Guerin, a three-year veteran with the New York Knickerbockers, set a National Basketball Assn. record when he assisted 21 times against the St. Louis Hawks. The former record was 20 assists set by Rochester's Bob Davies against Boston in 1955.

Why Gamble?

Yes, why gamble... when there's no chance of winning? That's the kind of gambling you're involved in when you drive your car beyond the recommended period without having the oil changed. Although you may use the very best motor oil, such as Phillips 66 Trop-Artic, there comes a time when the accumulation of impurities in the oil reduces its efficiency. That's why lubrication experts say: the best motor protection is to use the best motor oil, and change it every 1,000 miles under average around-town driving conditions. Be sure to let your Phillips 66 Dealer change oil for you on schedule.

MONOTONY

All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again..." sang the poet about the monotony of life. How much alike are our days, weeks and months! Even the job, the office force is the same. But Brother, the difference is not in the river, nor the job, nor the office force. It is in the quality of personality we offer. No matter how tame the world may be. Clear distinction between good and evil, poise and good judgment, a refusal to depend upon external things, these will give satisfaction...relieve monotony. We are masters of our fate. Then let the rivers run to the sea. We will love and labor and build our house.

Lest We Forget: To Christ alone we are to look, both as our Advocate and our Head. He has all fullness committed to Him for us; and we are to receive out of that fullness, according to our wants. All must rely on Him, from the least unto the greatest. All of us must live by faith in the Son of God. Let us ever look to Him and we have nothing to fear, for He is able to supply our every want.
