Hereford High School's annual Western Day observance was full of fun, as usual, Friday. Students and teachers alike spiced up the schoolday routine, as depicted in these photos.

Then there was the faculty pie-eating contest, where Jessie Geron got a mouthful.

The girls turned barbers and helped the men remove the fur coating, as in the case of Debbie Ogan and Bob Gentry.

Costumes varied, and these were among the most unusual: Linda Lehr in pantaloons and Dale Smith in a western "sack" shirt.

Students Show What They Know

Some 175 exhibits in the Hereford Science Fair gave an indication of the type of knowledge going to the heads of school students here in projects ranging from a do-it-yourself skeleton to a demonstration showing the rotation of the earth. The fair, staged in the Hereford High School cafeteria, featured projects completed by public school students in the fourth grade through high school.

WINNERS of the fair will take their exhibits to the upcoming Amarillo Science Fair for competition there. See STUDENTS Page 2

Chamber Groups List Goals For New Year

Goals ranging from the desire to institute observances recognizing local industry, to work towards establishing an underpass in east Hereford drew approval of two committees of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce this week.

Although the two committees met separately, their actions had in common the planning of committee objectives for the coming year.

Citing the need for local observance of a week-long event honoring local industry was the industrial committee of the chamber.

In another meeting, the tourist and convention committee renewed its vow to work actively towards attempting to bring about the building of an underpass to facilitate traffic flow in east Hereford.

These were just two of a total of seven goals "officially approved" by the two committees.

The industrial committee goals were as follows:

1. To investigate the advantages of and mechanics needed to set up an industrial foundation and related industrial park.

2. TO EXPLORE the possibility of improving motor freight service relative to the traffic from Dallas and Fort Worth to Hereford, which now requires a one-day delay because of transfers.

3. To undertake a program recognizing local industries during

No Lies Here: Birthday Event Offers Bargains

We cannot tell a lie; there will be specials galore in Hereford Tuesday in honor of George Washington's birthday.

Merchants throughout Hereford are honoring the father of our country Tuesday by offering values throughout the stores. And in the Downtown Variety Park group, shoppers will be looking for their names in store windows, taped to a portrait of the old gentleman himself — portraits being on the currency of the land — $1 bills.

Shoppers need only to register Monday, February 21 in order to be eligible to win the free $1 bills, according to J. R. (Monk) Johnson, President of Downtown Variety Park, Inc.

Shoppers are urged to check the bargains in this paper for money saving values and to check store windows for the free portraits.

FIRST OF A SERIES

Action, Smiles Plentiful

(Editor's Note: Following is the first in a series of articles prepared by the Brand staff outlining activities and projects involving Hereford area Latin Americans, and particularly those who live at the Labor Camp.)

Take a trip over to the little Bull Barn on Thursday evenings and you're likely to see a lot of activity — and a lot of smiling youngsters.

AT FIRST glance, the interior of the building may appear to be sheltering something bordering on chaos, with youngsters wrestling here, someone bouncing around on a trampoline over there, and a bunch of boys batting a ball back and forth across the far end of the building.

But to Joe Parker — a VISTA (Volunteer In Service To America) worker at the Hereford Labor Camp — the scene is one filled with satisfaction in the knowledge that something worthwhile is being accomplished.

Parker and two other VISTA volunteers arrived in Hereford last fall at the invitation of the Hereford Migrant Ministry, to help as they can in work with area Latin Americans, and particularly those at the camp.

Ellen Pennell and Wanda Nelson direct their work to jobs requiring the woman's touch, such as conducting a sort of kindergarten for pre-schoolers and teaching women at the camp such subjects as sewing.

Joe devotes his time to projects such as the program held each week at the Labor Camp.

PARTICIPATION in the physical education program has grown each week. Last Thursday night, for example, 60 boys between the ages of four and 15 turned out for a rousing evening.

On hand to aid Parker were several Hereford citizens enlisted to lend a hand in keeping youngsters occupied.

Joe surveyed the activity with a smile, recalling that only 14 boys turned out for his first such program several weeks ago.

"THE THING that makes it all seem like we're getting somewhere is the change you can see in the boys after they get started."

THIRD STORE OPENS AT SUGARLAND MALL

Sugarland Mall Shopping Center's third unit opens Monday, as Rogers-Miller Walgreen Drug opens its doors for business. Two other stores opened previously, and several other businesses have scheduled March 2 openings in the north Hereford shopping complex. The drug store is owned and operated by Grady Rogers and Robert Miller.

Water Board Asks Regional Plan Aid

AUSTIN — The Texas Water Development Board went on record Tuesday to include this state in a proposed Federal study to augment the Western Colorado River flow to meet the needs of 11 other Western states. The regional plan could call for potential diversion into West Texas and the South Plains area if Texas is included. U. S. Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa is chairman of the House Subcommittee now holding hearings on the study bill, HR 4671.

The resolution directs the Bureau of Reclamation to report within three years on feasibility of diversion of 8.5 million acre-feet annually from the Columbia River's surplus into the Colorado basin. Gov. Connally is expected to support inclusion of Texas in the plan.

West Texans were told last week at the West Texas Water Institute in Lubbock that such a plan was the best hope of providing for irrigation water needs. WDB Executive Director Joe Moore said there will not be enough surplus water from

Jaycees Present Award Honoring Unusual Service

The Hereford Jaycees will gather at the Cason House Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of naming the Distinguished Service Award winner.

The local Jaycees have nominated seven men for this year's title, and will announce the winner at the DSA Banquet.

John Meador, president of the Jaycees, said the Distinguished Service Award is presented to the man between 21 and 36 who gives the most meritorious service to his family, his church, his community and his nation.

THE DSA is the highest award the Hereford Jaycees annually present. The honoree is entered into the U. S. Jaycees' Ten Outstanding Young Men contest in hopes that his achievements may be further recognized and honored. Among the past TOYM winners are the late John F. Kennedy, Richard Nixon, Dr. Tom Dooley, and Leonard Bernstein.

The awards ceremony recognizes and honors the winner's achievements and provides a stage for the honoree to challenge and inspire young men.

The basis for selection of a winner is the nominee's achievement or contribution of importance in his chosen field, organization, community, state and nation.

The Hereford Jaycee-ettes will aid in preparations for the banquet.

Awards were presented in 18 classes, with grand champion ribbons going to three students. Named the grand champion in the high school bracket was a botany project by Frank Nobels, a sophomore.
Nobels' project, entitled "Radioactive Phosphorous Uptake and Movement in Plants" required several months homework to complete.
IT SHOWED how phosphorous is utilized in plants by tracing its travel through plants. Used to trace the path of the radioactive isotopes, phosphorus applied at various places on the plant, were X-rays, a geiger counter, and other devices.
The grand champion winner for the junior high division, Debbie Boardman, eighth grader, compared the bone structure of a cat with that of a human by assembling a permanent skeleton of the cat and using drawings of the human bone structure.
HER PROJECT entailed the actual cleaning of a cat's bones and bonding them together for the display.
Grand champion in the elementary school division was a "hurricane chamber" constructed by Larry Diver, a sixth grader at Central Elementary.
The chamber created a miniature hurricane by combining three factors: nature uses to spawn the devastating storms — heat, cold, wind, and moisture.
SPIRALING clouds of vapor demonstrated the facts of how hurricanes develop, as outlined by Larry in numerous charts and drawings.
Following are winners of the various classes in the show:
High School Girls: Chemistry and biology — 1. Barbara Zinsler, 2. Patti Roach, 3. Deanna Fisher; Earth and space sciences — 1. Glenda Landers; High School Boys: Botany — 1. Frank Nobels, 2. Ren Lee; Chemistry and Biochemistry — 1. Tyler Thompson; Earth and Space Sciences — 1. Fred Haug; Physics — 1. Steve Knox.

Texas Industrial Week, observed on a state-wide basis during the first week of April.
Chairman of the industrial committee is Dean House. Members present at Friday's noon meeting were Dale Young, Melvin Jayroe, John Meyers, Puzant Torigan, and Jerry Fowler.

Earlier Friday, the tourist and convention committee met to set up its goals for the coming year, adopting a four-point program as follows:
1. TO INCREASE efforts to encourage conventions in Hereford, particularly in view of the recent improvements at the Bull Barn.
2. To explore with the city and the highway department the need to enclose an open ditch parallel to and immediately south of U. S. Hwy. 60 east of the Santa Fe Depot, in order to do away with the unsightly and odorous condition it causes.
3. To further pursue the proposal approved last year to work with the city and highway department to study the possibility of establishing an underpass beneath highway 60 and the railroad at the east end of the city in order to alleviate an obvious bottleneck and traffic hazard, particularly in view of the increased use of the Bull Barn and greater traffic flow to industrial areas.
4. TO WORK with and encourage the Deaf Smith County Historical Survey Committee to create a museum here.
Chairman of the tourist and convention committee is Jimmy Alford. Members present Friday morning's meeting were Elmer Patterson, Deward Robertson, Guy Lawrence, and Gene Fooks.
The above-listed goals were approved in connection with requests from the chamber's board of directors that each chamber committee specify its short- and long-range objectives.

Rogers was appointed chairman of the special subcommittee to conduct the House of Representatives' investigation of the power failures and to make recommendations.
BEFORE leaving Texas, Rogers will preside Monday afternoon and Tuesday when his Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation will hold hearings on water resources expansion legislation and on the saline water program.
Concerning his visits in Hereford, Amarillo, Pampa, Littlefield, and Dimmitt, Rogers said in a news release, "I am looking forward to discussing firsthand with residents of the 18th Congressional District the problems now facing Congress in this new session. "Of course, the Viet Nam war is of primary importance, but in addition there are a number of questions before Congress concerning agriculture and the Nation's economy generally, as well as the 1966 legislative program."

East Texas to supply the South Plains.
Board consultant Harvey Banks of San Francisco said a Texas A&M University report showed Ogallala potential in irrigated farming could grow to 10.7 million acres by 2020 — if water is available. Present acreage is 5.7 million, Banks added, and without supplemental water supplies this will drop to 2.2 million acres in 2020.
Moore said today's cost concepts would make East Texas transfers prohibitive in supply West Texas and El Paso. But he showed enthusiasm for the Colorado River plan, particularly as it might affect the 48-county Ogallala area.
Good news for West Texas board member Marvin Sherberts report that a Staked Plains aqueduct is now included in the massive North American Water and Power Alliance (NAWAPA) plan. "The latest concept of NAWAPA includes the Staked Plains project," Sherberts said. "This is added, along with a Mississippi River connection. As far as West Texas is concerned it would take care of future water needs for a century."

NAWAPA proposes a long-range $100 billion project to tap vast water resources of Alaska and Canada through a series of connecting tunnels, trenches and aqueducts that would reach into Mexico. Planners say it would take care of worth American water needs for 100 years, requiring 10 years to plan and another 30 years to complete.
From 110 million acre feet to 250 million acre feet of water could be delivered, with storage capacities near 700 million acre feet annually.
The Staked Plains aqueduct would serve the Llano Estacado by tapping the Pecos River below the proposed Pecos Reservoir in New Mexico. This would be supplemented in turn by a Colorado aqueduct. It would connect with the Colorado River and Columbia River basins through a chain of New Mexico and Arizona aqueducts.
"Canada had been reported as reluctant to take part, until its own needs were considered," Shebet said. "But the latest word is that Canada now will be ready long before the United States completes its plans."
The Staked Plains aqueduct now a part of NAWAPA could be one way to tie Texas into the 11-state study by the Bureau of Reclamation.

Eighth Graders Drop Final Game Thursday

Stanton Junior High School eighth grade Dogies dropped their final game to the Coronado team in Plainview Thursday, 36-32.
THE LOCALS scored only three points in the first quarter, five in the second and six in the third.
As the fourth quarter rolled around the locals were trailing by a lopsided score, but began to warm up and scored 20 points in that final stanza.
The rush of points was not enough to put the local five ahead of the Coronado team and they came out on the short end of a 36-22 score.
JACKIE MEREDITH was the high scorer in the game with 12 points and Marsh Pitman was second with eight.
Coach Ray Don King said the team played well during the fourth quarter. Their only problem was in getting started, according to the coach.

ed playing," he said.
For most of the boys, it is their first taste of "organized" recreation.
"They're learning about teamwork and the difference really shows," he said, pointing out that the first night the youngsters did little more than run frantically about the building in disorganized confusion.
The thrill not only by the response of the youthful participants, but also the cooperation he has received from Hereford residents and organizations in helping Parker, who initiated the program, said that he has been make the weekly session possible.
A CASE IN point, he said, was the fact that when he approached the county commission to ask permission to use the county-owned little Bull Barn, they not only granted the request, but also ordered to basketball goals erected in the building as well.
The extinct Hereford Athletic Club happily told Parker that their equipment could be used — this ranges from volleyballs to trampolines.
AND MORE and more every week, men from all walks of life in the community are turning out to aid Parker in supervising the program.
"The only thing that really got this thing going was a little leadership," Parker said.
"Everybody I've talked to about helping out has been glad to . . . and the girls have found the same thing in the work they are doing at the Camp."
Parker, who majored in athletics in college before becoming a VISTA volunteer, said concerning the Thursday night program:
"It takes only one and a half hours a week, but I feel it pays off more than 100 percent."
"Soils used for growing tomatoes in our area had become infested with various soil-borne diseases and generally speaking they were too heavy for tomatoes," Adamson said.

IN PRESS INTERVIEW

Sen. Yarborough Reveals His Views On Viet Nam

Washington, (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., says the only way wars are won is by "putting men on the ground and holding the territory."

Yarborough made that observation in a rare interview to elaborate, for the first time, his views on the situation in Viet Nam.

ASKED TO GIVE his views on the current and prospective situation in Viet Nam, he said:

"I do agree with those people who argue that we can't win. America has the military might and economic power to win this struggle, whatever size we determine to make it. Neither is it a question of lack of will to win it. We have the will to win whenever we determine to fight. This generation of Americans is not lacking in the bravery or patriotism of past generations.

"The question before America is what does she want to win and what price does she want to pay. If we enter a war in China, in my opinion we will win it. But we will pay higher costs in lives and men lost than were lost in either the Civil War or World War II.

"HOW MUCH do we wish to deplete our whole economy and the opportunities of young Americans for the next generation by fighting a war in Asia?"

He said some debate has centered on the question as to whether the United States could win.

"Certainly we could win a war or the war," he said. "The big question is how big do we want to make this war and how many lives are we willing to lose."

HE NOTED that the total number of American deaths and wounded in Viet Nam to date exceeds the total suffered by Americans in four conflicts — the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, and the Mexican, and the Spanish-American Wars.

"So," he said, "America's decision is not can we do something but what price do we want to pay for what part of Asia we want to occupy?"

"I think the President has wisely and prudently limited the conflict to a corner of southeast Asia rather than escalating it over vast areas as some people advocate.

"THERE ARE no easy wars. You do not win wars without taking and holding territory. The advocates of winning a war easily, by quick bombings, are talking military folly.

"You only win wars by putting men on the ground and holding the territory.

"I have supported every request of the President for support for our forces in Southeast Asia, and I shall continue to support the President's requests for support of those of our forces in Southeast Asia, but I have not forgotten the wise advice of Benjamin Franklin — There never was a good war or a bad peace."

"I DO NOT believe it is wise to attack China or engage in a long war of Attrition with China.

If we do this I think we would win, but I think we're too wise a people to fight wars just to show that we could win.

"I'm not attempting to cover in this statement all future history. The imponderables of history are not susceptible of exact foretelling. Twenty years ago I was serving in the military occupation forces in Japan, and some of our leaders wanted to fight a preventive war with Russia at that time. The present rulers of China were a little band cut in a remote province then. Now fates of history have shifted. Now some people want to start a preventive war with China.

"The fates of history might change again tomorrow, and those who waste all their substance fighting preventive wars every few years might well create more crises than they solve."

Social Security Officials Cite Medicare Rules

Representatives of the District Social Security Administration office in Amarillo will be in Hereford Thursday, March 3 at 7 p. m. to explain the new Medicare program and to answer questions that might be asked, according to Charlie Morris, Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The veterans are sponsoring the information meeting here.

ANYONE interested is invited to attend the meeting which will be held at the Rock Club House in Veteran's park. The meeting will begin at 7 p. m.

Morris urged that all persons interested in the program make plans to attend. "We've set up this meeting for the benefit of elderly people, whether they are veterans or non-veterans in order that you may learn more about the Medicare program."

"Many people who are eligible for benefits do not understand the program," he said, "and we felt that it would be worthwhile to have a social security representative here to explain the program and to answer questions."

Amusing Oratory Becomes Trademark For Senator

Washington, Feb. 3 — Not since the days of the late Sen. Tom Connally, D-Tex., has the Senate heard such amusing oratory as that provided Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N. C.

Filibusters against civil rights laws when Texas was more closely aligned with the Old South were occasions for Connally's displays of time consuming eloquence.

THE OCCASION for Ervin's performance was the talkathon against repeal of Section 14B, the law that permits states to have their own so called right-to-work laws.

Fellow senators and gallery spectators alike listened with glee as the 69-year-old Ervin, filibustering to block passage of a repeal bill, took two hours to protest the failure of the Senate Journal to carry the text to the opening payer in its account of the proceedings of the Senate.

Abetted by a few sympathetic colleagues, including Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., the North Carolinian offered an amendment to have the Journal corrected to include the prayer.

When Ervin would appear to be exhausting his subject, Tower and the others would interpose a leading question.

"THE SENATE Mhas long had association with prayer," observed the North Carolina senator. "One of the most eloquent men in the ministry was Dr. Edward Everett Hale, the gentleman who delivered the main speech at the dedication of the battlefield of Gettysburg when Lincoln gave his most famous oration.

"Edward Everett Hale was later elected chaplain of the Senate. During his service as chaplain of the Senate, he prayed some of the most eloquent and beautiful and inspiring prayers ever uttered by the lips of man.

"On one occasion the following question was put to Dr. Hale: 'Dotor, when you pray as chaplain of the Senate, do you look at the tragic condition of the country and the many problems existing in the country and then pray that the Almighty will give the Senators the wisdom to deal with those problems and to find their solutions?'

"IN REPLY to that interrogation, Dr. Hale said: 'No, I do not look at the country and pray for the senators. I look at the senators and then I pray for the country.'

Later, Sen. Ross Bass, D-Tenn a leader of the administration forces backing the repeal bill, tried to bring the discussion to an end by noting that actually the Journal had not been carrying the text of each day's opening prayer since 1922, and that he was ready for a vote on Ervin's amendment to correct the Journal.

Tower, recognized by Ervin for a question, asked:

"DOES NOT the senator from North Carolina believe that if we are, indeed, reestablishing an old precedent, which was unfortunately abandoned a few years ago, it is of sufficient import, particularly in the light of recent controversy as to whether a prayer should be introduced into any governmental activity or not; and does not the senator believe further that it is extremely important that there be considerable debate on this subject, so that members of the Senate can be well informed and can arrive at some conclusions on whether we should reestablish this very fine precedent?"

The North Carolina senator replied: "The junior senator from Texas could not possibly be more correct than he is in the implication of his question."

Ervin continued for some time on that point, and then after another lengthy question by Tower as to whether it would not be irresponsible to vote without full discussion, said:

"THE SENATO Rfrom Texas is eminently correct. The book I hold in my hand — that is, the Bible — contains 'line by line, and precept by precept, what we must do in order that we may be guided aright. It is a beautiful book with many passages on the subject of prayer."

That reminded him of famous prayers, including Kipling's "Recessional," which he recited. And, when he had finished that plea to the Almighty, he was asked by Tower if he knew that the occasion for that prayer was the commemoration of the 60th year of the reign of Queen Victoria. Ervin obviously did, though he did not reply yes. The question set him off on a detailed recital of Britain's power in the world at that time.

When a vote finally came, Ervin's proposal to amend the Journal lost by a 42-37 vote. Actually the vote was on a motion to table the Ervin amendment. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., voted with the majority, Tower with the minority.

FOUND SOFT BRICKS

HENNEPIN, Ill. — The Putnam County Courthouse is to be repaired, but there is (or was) a problem.

The old brick building dating back to the day of early Illinois pioneers was erected of a soft type brick which no longer is available.

Then Walt Urnikus, one of the employes on the job, recalled another long abandoned building built with the same brick.

The old home was a mansion with 18 rooms and fireplaces in all but one room. It was built on the original brick factory property.

Brick from the now abandoned home will be used to restore the courthouse.

HELICOPTER LIFT FOR CONSTRUCTION

NEW YORK —The construction industry predicts that commercial helicopters of the future will revolutionize the building of dams, bridges and other vast projects in hard-to-reach areas.

Even now the steel industry is using helicopters to move such materials as roofing and pipes within its own facilities because the helicopters save time and money and enables the plant to get into production faster.

Steelways, publication of American and Steel Institute, said that modified versions of the giant-size "flying crane" helicopters which are being used by the U. S. Army, are capable of moving trucks, bridge sections and even bulldozers over roadless terrain.

The publication said a commercial version of the Army's "flying crane" is several years off, although one manufacturer believes that once quantity production is achieved for the military, the price of the machine will be lowered. As a result, it will then fall within the financial reach of the building contractors or helicopter operators.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

State University Funds Take Big Steps Upward

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — While the Legislature in special session on voter registration grabbed the headlines, far-reaching developments were afoot in the field of higher education last week.

Coordinating Board for Texas Colleges and Universities recommended a whopping increase of nearly $160,000,000 in appropriations for its state institutions during the coming biennium.

THAT WOULD bring the total 1967-68 spending level to $429,100,000 for the tax-supported college-university system, including $52,800,000 for public junior colleges.

Board also concluded that "primary responsibility" for doctoral degree programs should be restricted to four schools: The University of Texas, Texas A&M University, Texas Technological College and the University of Houston.

Exceptions were allowed for North Texas State University and Texas Woman's University, Denton which will be allowed to continue higher degree programs now under way, and further study. Consideration will be given to Arlington State College's offering joint doctoral degrees in the Fort Worth-Dallas area with the two Denton institutions.

LAWSCHOOL training, said the Board, should in the future be limited to the University of Texas, University of Houston and Texas Tech, and existing medical schools should continue under UT jurisdiction.

A preliminary report on the scope of junior colleges recommended that these institutions should provide a full two-year freshman and sophomore level, plus technical, vocational, adult and continuing education programs.

Seven state schools were placed on a priority list to share $7,097,742 in federal matching funds released through the U. S. Office of Education to be used for undergraduate building projects.

Funds will go to Stephen F. Austin State College, Sam Houston State College, Southwest Texas State College, Texas Technological University, Lamar State College of Technology, Southwestern Assemblies of God College and the University of Houston.

LEGISLATURE WARMS UP Some state lawmakers warmed up for bigger battles ahead session, while others said a fond farewell to the state capitol.

Plenty of familiar faces will be found in both houses in the regular session next year, despite effects of legislative redistricting.

Forty-nine incumbent representatives have no opponents in the Democratic primary. Incumbents are running against each other in four House races. There will be new races in the House, too, for there are no incumbents running in 48 districts.

Fourteen incumbent senators face no Democratic opposition. Five sets of senators are paired off against each other, insuring a total of 19 oldtimers in the 31-member body next year.

OIL ALLOWABLE UP AGAIN Texas oil production for March may be at the highest level since May, 1959, due to an increase in the allowable for the sixth straight month.

Railroad Commission set the figure at 33.2 per cent of capacity. Market demand factor was highest granted since the percentage formula was adopted on Jan. 1, 1963.

Production ceiling for next month is 3,100,000 barrels daily. Commission set 32.7 per cent as production pattern for February.

TEACHERS SEEK ANOTHER RAISE Texas State Teachers Association plans to ask the next Legislature to bring the salary of teachers up to the national average.

That would mean a boost of about $556 to reach the $6,506 average mark. A $553 hike last year cost $101,000,000.

TSTA notes Texas teachers now rank 29th in the nation pay-wise. Teachers' legislative goals for 1967 also include five days a year authorized sick leave and retirement system improvement.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS Personal property, now exempt from forced sale, can be levied on, seized and sold by the tax collector for delinquent taxes, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in opinion.

Bosque County Atty. Charles H. Bolton of Meridian. In a variety of other opinions, Carr ruled that:

TWO ARTICLES of the new Code of Criminal Procedure require misdemeanor justice of peace court trials only in precinct where offenses were committed are unconstitutional.

Fees allowed peace officers under code can be assessed persons convicted of misdemeanors only where prescribed duties actually have been performed.

Residence property of Cameron Independent School District used by school superintendent and his family is not exempt from taxation.

INTEREST on time deposits or short term investments of restricted funds may be expended only for the stated purpose of the restricted funds.

A school district may legally use available surpluses from operation of cafeterias to provide lunches for needy pupils on finding of board of trustees.

State Department of Health must provide material necessary for tuberculosis examination of first and seventh grade children on request of local health officials but is not required to conduct TB examinations.

State constitution prohibits payment of short-term cancellation premium for "errors and omissions" insurance policy on county clerks or deputies.

Texas Board of Medical Examiners can pay travel expense of an out-of-state witness subpoenaed to testify.

State Comptroller may require additional bonds to secure payment of motor fuel tax.

SEARCH WARRANT may be issued to search for venison obtained by killing deer out of season.

Refund of contributions to firemen who end service prior to retirement is not payable from emergency reserve fund before pensioners are paid. Where fund is insufficient to meet all disbursements payable under Fireman's Pension Act, disbursements, including refunds, are to be proratedly reduced.

ANTI-POVERTY PROJECTS Four Community Program grants under the Economics Opportunity Act and one Volunteer in Service to America (VISTA) project won approval of Gov. John Connally.

Four CAP grants went to groups in Dallas, Brownsville and Beaumont, and to the Alabama-Coushatta Reservation Tribal Council in Livingston. They totalled $182,467.

VISTA project will be operated by Houston Council on Human Relations for 40 volunteers to work with public and private agencies in extension of services to low-income families.

NEW INSURANCE RATE HIKE DUE HIKE DUE State Board of Insurance held public hearing on new rates in some areas for fire and allied lines coverage. Effective date will be June 1.

Statewide averages indicate a 4.4 per cent increase in rates for fire, largely attributable to higher claims in 1964 and 1965. Extended coverage experience on statewide average reflects a slight reduction — 2 per cent.

HOMEOWNERS policy experience shows 2.7 per cent boost is likely.

Spokesman for an insurance group said during five years ending with 1964, insurance companies had an underwriting loss of more than $191,000,000 on homeowners business in Texas.

February call was 1,372. More than 5,500 young men actually are scheduled to take pre-induction mental and physical exams.

March quota will be filed with single and childless married men 19-25 years old.

TEXAS INCLUDED Texas Water Development has asked Congress to include this state in the proposed Federal study to use water from the Western Colorado River to meet the needs of 11 other Western states.

The regional plan would call for potential diversion of water to El Paso, West Texas and the South Plains area if Texas is included.

Resolution before Congress directs the Bureau of Reclamation to report within three years on the feasibility of diverting 8,500,000 acre-feet of water, annually from the Columbia River's surplus into the Colorado basin.

SHORT SNORTS Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston, re-elected Senate president pro-tempore for the special session, served as governor for a day Saturday (Feb. 19) during absence of Governor Connally and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith.

Texas traffic in December, 1965, was 25.5 per cent above December, 1963.

Texas Water Development Board has approved the sale of $15,000,000 in 25-year bonds to finance water supply projects, setting a tentative sale date at March 3.

SURROUNDING STATES INVITED

Texas Tourist Council Ups Out-Of-State Travel Invites

AUSTIN (AP) — Every travel agent in Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico is reading today about the glories of Texas as described by the Texas Tourist Council and the state's four regional chambers of commerce.

Thirty per cent of the tourists who spent an estimated three-quarters of a billion dollars in Texas last year came from the four states bordering Texas.

BUT MOST of the 187 travel agents in those states had skimpy informational files on Texas said Don Epperson, executive director of the privately financed Texas Tourist Council.

So the council got together with two state agencies, the Texas Tourist Development Agency and the Texas Highway Department, and worked out a plan to fatten those files.

Recently the council mailed a promotional letter to each travel agent and the highway department mailed a packet containing a 24-page magazine with color photographs, a state highway map, a calendar of events and material compiled by the chambers of commerce for the Rio Grande Valley and West, East and South Texas.

THE COUNCIL was chartered in 1961. It grew out of a group called Texans for Tourism that successfully pushed for an amendment to the Texas Constitution striking out the so-called Carpetbagger Law.

That law prohibited the spending of state money to encourage immigrants or visit or to Texas.

The council's board of directors also recently elected eight new members and approved a budget that includes money for another tour of Texas by travel writers.

The council also sponsored the creation in 1963 of the Texas Tourist Development Agency.

State associations for business that benefit most from tourism—such as hotels, motels, oil, and gas, bottlers, beer distributors, cigarette vending machine operators — are represented on the council.

Epperson said the council was reluctant to give out budget figures. The amount earmarked for the travel writers' tour was sufficient, however, to pay for the major expenses of approximately 35 writers in a swing around Texas on a chartered bus, he said.

SIMILAR tours paid for by the council were made in the spring and fall of 1964.

The council likes to support affairs of this sort Epperson said, in order to free the state agency's budget for more advertising in national magazines.

The Legislature gave the state agency a $292,000 bankroll for its first two years and increased this last year to $532,000.

Measuring the audience

The performer who is more interested in the size of the audience than in the number of curtain calls spends most of his time looking for work.

The successful performer recognizes that only effective efforts build responsive audiences. He seeks applause.

The same might be said for newspaper editors.

We must serve and satisfy the editorial needs and interests of people in our area. The validity of this circulation audience and the applause readers give us is registered by the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

ABC-audited paid circulation facts measure readers response in such terms as how much they pay to receive copies, how many copies they buy, where they live, and how their copies are delivered.

As a member of this independent circulation auditing organization, we recognize the power of reader confidence — that they have chosen to be a member of this paying audience of their own volition, and that they will continue to do so only as long as we effectively serve them.

For advertisers, the significant differences between counting the audience and measuring the applause is reader response.

Cinder Men Ready For '66 Season's First Event

Seven cagers joined the ranks of the Hereford thinclads last week as basketball season came to a close.

They were, Tony Malouf, Larry Champ, Tom Adams, Jim Childers, David Kelley, Ernie Williams and Mark Hicks.

COACH JOE BROOKS said that the men will not do any sprinting until Monday or Tuesday of this week. They will do only short exercises to stretch their muscles.

Basketball requires short muscles for running in the gym and track requires long stretched muscles, according to Brooks.

The men will work on form and will wait for the first warm day before beginning any vigorous exercise.

Brooks said he has not designated any jobs to any of the cinder men yet, but will decide by the middle of the week. He said the reason for not deciding earlier was that he did not have the members from the cage team and was not able to tell how much bigger, stronger and faster they were over last year.

SOME OF THE men have been working out since the return from the holiday vacation and of these Charlie Inman is looking good. Brooks also said that Billy Frank and Lennie Petree were shaping up well on the track.

Ricky Fangman is also doing a good job on the discus and Bill Coffin is getting the shot way out.

Gary Goodin was looking good until he pulled a muscle and has been out of action most of the week. Brooks said Goodin has gone back to work this week, but is still very sore.

Goodin was practicing the hurdles and will be back at it as soon as the soreness is gone out of his leg.

HEREFORD THINCLADS will kick off their season Saturday in Fort Stockton with their first track meet.

The following week the cindermen will travel to Brownfield and then will have a week of rest.

On the 19th of March the men will travel to Levelland where they will compete in the Levelland track meet.

The following week the team will hit the road again when they travel to Plainview where they will compete in the three-division meet at Wayland College. There will be divisions for Class A and Class B schools, Class AA and Class AAA schools and a university class for college athletes.

THE TWO FINAL meets for the Whitefaces before district will be in Amarillo and then in Hereford.

Final competition will be in Perryton where the locals will try for conference honors.

Last year the Whitefaces produced one of the best track teams in the past decade, placing in several events in the district meet.

Coach Brooks said that the team is coming along well and if the weather will cooperate with them they should be in good shape for their first meet Saturday.

Quail's Famed Bounce Tested

A smothering blanket of ice and snow accompanied by subzero weather cut bobwhite quail numbers as much as 80 percent in portions of the Texas Panhandle and lower plains, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Losing 80 percent of an abundant quail population sounds deplorable, but according to wildlife biologists, it is not catastrophic, or even extremely abnormal.

Department research has shown that 80-85 per cent of each bobwhite quail crop normally disappears in 12 months from one cause or another leaving only 20 percent of the adult population to reproduce as only quail can.

Biologists point out that winter mortality, whether occurring in four months or in two weeks, is an annual turnover characteristic and is Mother Nature's way of keeping quail out of areas where they don't belong — in areas without adequate winter habitat.

DUNKS ONE — Jimmy Carr of the Fabulous Magicians dunks the ball into the basket in one of their many comedy games over the country. The Magicians will appear in Hereford Monday evening in Whiteface Gym for a Lions Club benefit game. Proceeds from the game will be used to purchase a scoreboard for the LaPlata Junior High School.

COMICAL CAGERS Magicians Set To Play In Benefit

Comical Cage antics will be the keynote Monday evening in Whiteface Gym when the Fabulous Magicians make the scene to clash with Charlie Hoover's Hotshots in a Lions Club benefit game.

GAME TIME WILL be at 8 p. m. with four quarters of fast comical basketball on the part of the Magicians.

Proceeds from the game will be used to purchase a new scoreboard for the LaPlata Junior High School which is now under construction.

The gym will be used for all next season. The seating capacity of the gym is approximately 1,500.

Not only will the scoreboard keep account of the time and score, but it will have a listing of all the players on both teams with their numbers.

COST OF THE scoreboard will be $1,200 which will be completely paid by the local Lions Club.

School officials have agreed to place the scoreboard on one end of the gym and use school money to buy another for the other end of the gym. The board furnished by the school will cost approximately $600 and will keep account only of the score and time.

Referees will also be listed on the board along with the number of quarter and a light which comes on during a time out.

THE CONTROLS will include many new features not included Hereford High School.

Admission to the game when buying advance tickets will be 75 cents for students and $1 for adults. If the tickets are purchased at the door they will be $1 for students and $1.50 for adults.

Dogies Finish Season With Win Thursday

Seventh graders from Stanton Junior High School finished out their cage season with a win Thursday over the Coronado Junior High School in Plainview, 32-27.

Coach Ray Don King said the men on the team played an excellent game, making very few mistakes.

Willard Black played his best defensive game of the year as he grabbed 20 rebounds off the opponent's board.

Greg Chisholm led the team in scoring and Donnie McDermitt was second high man.

Hereford cagers jumped to an early lead in the game and stayed all the way.

NUMBERS REACH 22

Cagers Join Ranks Of Whiteface Baseball Team

Hereford baseball team numbers climbed to 22 last week when five cagers joined the ranks.

COACH DON DORMAN said Steve Hodges, Robby Lemons, Gene Duwall, Barry Johnson and Bill Watts came out for the first time last week to work out for the baseball team.

Dorman said he has been waiting until these men came out before designating positions for the team.

As of now only two positions have been set. They are Ed Mims and Alexander Diaz who will both man the pitchers mound for the team.

Members of the team have begun hitting this week with the warm weather, but dorman said some of the men had reported with sore arms from the cold weather.

HE SAID THE men are meeting the ball good at the plate. All of this practice is to get the men in to shape before their first game with Pala Duro High School Mar. 8.

Most of the practice last week was with the infield and more work will continue into this week, weather permitting.

Dorman said most of the men on the team are inexperienced high school ball, but the stiff competition during the first eight games of the season will give them plenty of experience.

HE ALSO SAID that if the good weather holds the team will be in good shape for its first game.

This will be Dorman's first year as head baseball coach and he will be assisted by coach Harold Sides who is also new to the staff this year.

The non conference schedule is comprised mostly of 4-A Schools with some smaller schools intermingled.

District 1-AA will see the debut of a new school this year as the Canyon Eagles will enter competition for the title for the first time.

UNTIL THIS season Hereford and Dumas were the only two schools to have teams. In past seasons the two teams have clashed on eight different occasions to determine the winner of the district crown.

This year the three teams will clash with the same district teams only three times to determine the winner of the crown.

Track activities at Stanton Junior High School got into full swing Friday afternoon as 180 boys turned out for the first work out of the season.

COACH PAT PRIVET will head the activities with coaches Ray Don King and Don Taylor assisting.

King said Friday that the activities would begin with short exercises to lengthen the boys' muscles for the running in track.

Until Thursday most of the boys had been playing on the basketball court and their muscles were not used to the type of running required by track.

SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES will include one or two meets in Hereford and meets in Levelland, Plainview and Springlake, according to King.

Track activities will be divided between the three coaches in the school.

F.F.A. To Begin Club Cage Event

Activities in the Future Farmers School Club Cage Tournament will get into full swing Monday at 4 p. m. when the D. E. Club and the Student Council team clash.

THE TOURNAMENT is sponsored by the Future Farmers organization during their F. F. A. week at Hereford High School.

Each club in the school will be participating with teams of their own. The teams are all comprised of non-athletes with members of the varsity, b-team and frosh basketball teams being eliminated.

This is the second year for the event and the Hi-Y club is the defending champion this year.

Play in the tournament will continue through the week and the championship and consolation will be decided Saturday evening.

CLUBS ENTERED in the tournament are the D. E. Club, Student Council, F. F. A., Thespians, Choir, Band, Hi-Y and Key Club.

All proceeds from the games will go to the F. F. A. fund to be used by that club.

The schedule includes games with the D. E. Club and the Student Council at 4 p. m. Monday and the F. F. A. and the Thespians at 5:30 p. m. Monday.

On Tuesday the Choir Club and the Band Club will clash at 4 p. m. and the Hi-Y will meet the Key Club at 5:30 p. m.

THURSDAY afternoon losers of the first four games will clash at 4 and 5:30 p. m.

And Saturday will be the consolation game at 6 p. m. and the championship game at 7:30 p. m.

Admission to the event will be 15 cents per person to all the preliminary games and for the playoffs the charge will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

A mixture of three parts of pitrun sand to one part of hemlock of douglas fir sawdust, with commercial fertilizers added, has produced yields of 15 pounds of fruit from each plant, instead of the usual five to seven pounds.

Decide Now What Yields You Will Get At Harvest Time!

Many farmers recognize the need to plan for maximum yields. Your MONSANTO AGRICULTURAL CENTER has the "know-how" to help you achieve these desired goals.

Crops such as potatoes, sugar beets and sorghum have special fertilizer requirements that MONSANTO can furnish.

We have all new equipment for anhydrous or dry fertilizer applications. We can also side dress dry fertilizer in your lister beds ahead of your planter.

Call us, or better still, come by our new plant for a cup of coffee and let us discuss your fertilizer program with you.

Cards Are Due For Workshop

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Pre-enrollment for the Leadership Workshop is being urged. The cards are to be returned to Mrs. J. K. Baker, 116 N. Texas, Hereford. Workshop plans are made and the workshop can be beneficial to everyone.

Workshop subjects are: Reporting Club Activities; Presiding a Business Meetings & Programs; Duties of Officers & Membership Protocol; How To Get Committees To Work for the Organization; and Planning Programs for Interest and Variety. Get your cards in soon.

add to the value could be an expensively paneled new den, an patio or lush new landscaping and garden improvements. These features might increase the sales ability of a house but no the market value.

A basic principle to remember is to make only improvements that a family really wants and needs.

If in doubt about the worth of major improvements, have a good appraiser make a report on the market value of the house to learn in advance how much work will increase the value. Only then, can a family decide whether remodeling is worth the time, expense and effort.

This may help you decide on a remodeling job.

IT SEEMED THAT the valentines this year were more philosophical than ever before. One from Martha Ann McBride reminds me that there are only 287 more shopping days 'til Christmas. Imagine!

MRS. LISTON WILSON wants some Mastodon strawberry plants. If you have some you might call her. When they were on the farm, she raised strawberries for home use.

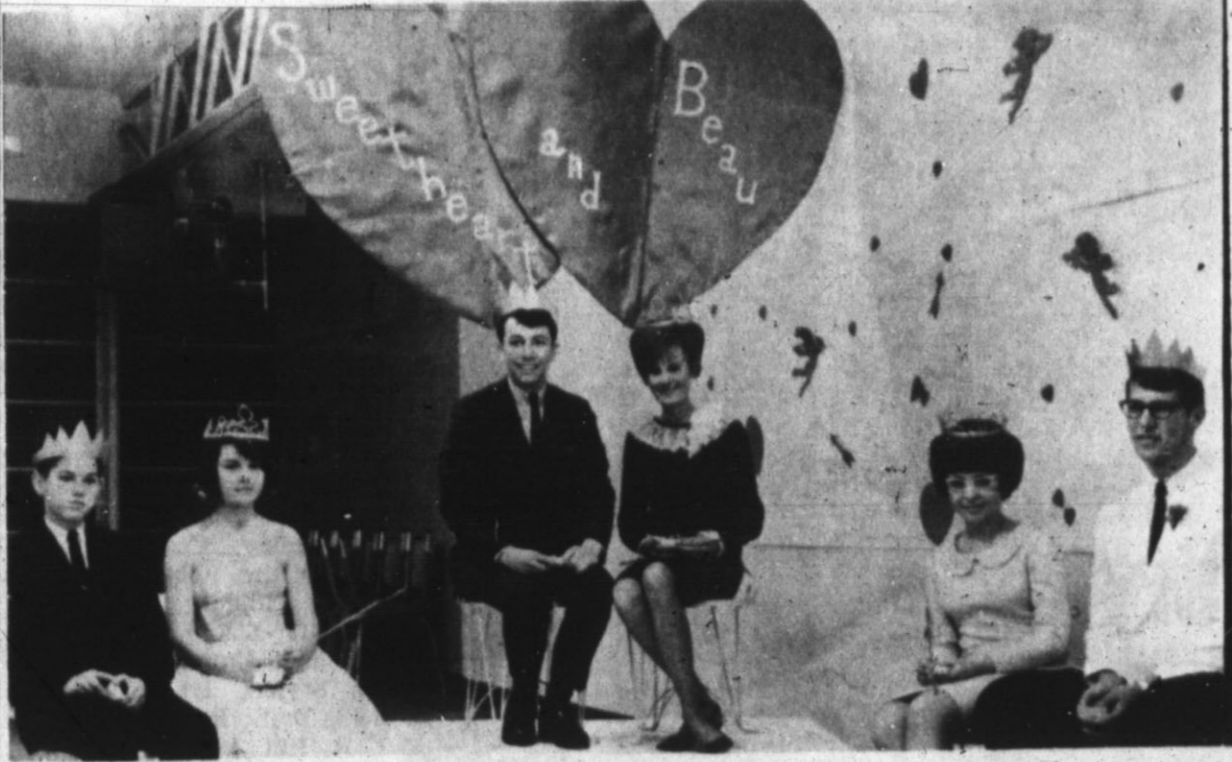

ON THE HOUSE In Texas is a series from our housing specialist. Does Remodeling Increase the Home Value?

Certain kinds of improvements and remodeling additions will indeed increase the value of a house. Others will add little or nothing to house value, may even reduce house value.

A new kitchen, a modernized or new second or third bathroom an additional bedroom, and a well designed new family room are outstanding features that may add to the value of a house. However, such improvements should be kept in economic balance with the house and the neighborhood in which it is located.

Luncheon Slated For March 3 By H.D. Club

Mrs. Otto Massie and Mrs. R. A. Fullwood were hostesses in the Clinton Massie home Thursday afternoon to North Hereford Home Demonstration Club members. Mrs. Paul Hoff presided for a business period in which a covered dish luncheon was planned for March 3 in Mrs. A. E. Hodges' home.

The program on Cleaners for Household Metals was presented by Mrs. Clinton Ward, who said that a household supply of cleaning materials should be kept simple, so that cleaners which serve more than one purpose are best. Specific cleaners for different types of metal utensils were recommended.

Mrs. F. A. Baca was a guest of the club. Other members present were Mmes. W. J. Lueb, Mary Bodkin, C. L. Whitehead, Hodges and Miss Roberta Campbell.

Hereford High-Jinks

by Randy Hopson

Another Western Day has come and gone at H. H. S. I think all will agree that it can only be termed a success. Students and teachers alike made a "hay day" of the event and turned out in all types of western rigs.

In an assembly Friday afternoon there were awards presented for several different things. The most original boy award was given to Dale Smith, the most original girl to Linda Lohr. Best dressed boy and girl were Jimmie Cooper and Charlotte Hill.

STUDENTS voted for the most outstanding or best dressed teacher. These awards went to Coach Harold Sides and Mrs. Billye Buck.

Other awards given at the rodeo style assembly were: Beard growing, Wynn Buck, beard shaving, Cynthia Leasure, peanut pushing, Billie Henderson, egg race, Donnie Welty and Virgil Barber.

In the orange passing contest a team composed of Carmen Betzen, Jimmy Young, Carol Robbins, and Dale Smith beat out two other teams made up of teachers and underclassmen.

PERHAPS the highlight of the rodeo was a pie eating contest with Coach Geron and Mrs. Painter winning. They were racing against Coach Williams and Miss Collard, and Leif Nellenman and Teresita Parba. Coach Williams and Miss Collard were a little sneaky, it seems they wouldn't leave their blind-folds on.

Anyone without western clothes was thrown into jail during the assembly, Coach Geron lucked out this year, last year he ended up in the pokiey.

Friday night the Tiaras played at a dance for the high school set at the Community Center. Then Saturday night there was a Western dance. I might mention that pictures of the dances are on display in

Luncheon Given For Club Group

Entertaining with a Mexican luncheon, Mrs. John E. Hill was hostess to all the members of Farm and Ranch Club Thursday afternoon in her home. She planned the meal to correlate with the program discussion on the south of the border country given by Mrs. Jack Weaver.

Tables were covered with gay cloths in the motif, and tiny sections of cactus plants were glued to the place cards. Enchiladas, a Mexican salad and fruit sherbet were served after Mrs. Hill had repeated a blessing in Spanish.

Mrs. Weaver touched on the history of Mexico and reviewed its present economic, social and political life.

Mrs. Phillip Miller conducted a business period, when plans were made for a dinner in the Caisson House March 4 with members' husbands as guests. Members of the club were invited to register for the Leadership Workshop to be conducted March 21-22 as a project of the County Program Building Committee.

The perfect attendance included Mmes. W. W. Thomas, Paul Rudd, W. B. Nunley, Cliff Johnson, G. V. Hall, R. W. Hairgrove, Elmer Combs and Glenn Burrus.

Plant Care Topic For Garden Club

Indoor plants, currently of interest to home decorators as well as to gardeners, were discussed by Mrs. Al Brown for the Bud to Blossom Garden Club program Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Ernest Kendall.

Choosing, propagating and caring for plants grown indoors were included as topics of her talk. A brief business period was conducted by Mrs. Sam Long, president.

Other members at the meeting were Mmes. Delmo Williams, W. H. Gentry, Calvin Edwards, Lou Orleans, Melvin May, Bill Shelley, Jack Allen, Bruce Brown, Bob Cooper and R. A. Daniel.

Apparently primary election battles are beginning to shape throughout the district. Congressman Walter Rogers is in the Panhandle and will be in Hereford Tuesday morning for a coffee, and Archie McDonald of Dumas, candidate for District Judge was in Hereford Friday and Saturday in behalf of his candidacy.

We've also noticed a couple of the JP candidates out rounding up votes. It should be an interesting primary.

Meanwhile local merchants are more concerned about putting a few dollars in the cash register during a normally slow time of the year. To help boost traffic, the Downtown Variety Park group has come up with a plan to give away photographs of George Washington Tuesday in honor of the gentleman's birthday. The photos of course will be on $1.00 bills, in order to win however, you had better register Monday. Winners will be posted in the windows of individual stores up and down main street Tuesday.

To help entice the shoppers, local stores are running specials — some effective Monday and Tuesday, while some will be good Tuesday only. Check the ads in today's BRAND, and save.

Last seen Saturday, . . . . . Grady Rogers and Robert Miller working frantically trying to get merchandise and fixtures moved in time to open in the new Sugarland Mall Monday.

Rogers Drug Store on Main Street has been closed, and Robert will move his pharmacy from the Gibson Store, combining the two into one large store in the Sugarland Center. And they will be open for business

Monday morning. Truitt Thames, manager at Gibson's Discount Center tells us that they will have another pharmacy in that store within a short time — possibly in a couple of weeks.

As of late Saturday we had no information concerning an occupant for the downtown business location however.

Incidentally, we took the "cook's tour" of the new Penney Store Saturday in Sugarland Mall and found it to be even nicer than we had expected. The Penney Company plans to be open March 2.

Duckwall's, Montgomery-Ward and Kirby Shoes will also open March 2. Work is progressing nicely on these stores, and Duckwall's are busy now stocking. Others that could make it near that date are the Pantz Cage, Kings Candy Store, Mode-O-Day and Sugarland Fabric Care Center.

Of course, Furr Super Market and the Frontier Stamp Store are already open for business.

You can always tell a man's nationality by introducing him to a beautiful girl. An Englishman shakes the girl's hand, a Frenchman kisses her hand, an American asks for a date — and a Russian wires Moscow for instructions.

A femme comic says that if dresses get any shorter it will be necessary for her to get her body re-made as her legs don't go that high.

A group of 200 American Negroes emigrated to Liberia from Savannah, Ga., on March 18, 1895.

Minister Begins Full-Time Work With Latin Americans

A man who has worked with the Central Congregation of the Church of Christ in Hereford for the past two years as minister for the church's Spanish-speaking congregation has arrived to begin a full-time ministry.

Abel Ortiz Jr., who recently graduated the Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock, will serve as an evangelist to Spanish-speaking people in the Hereford area through the Central Church of Christ.

Ortiz, who was reared near Corpus Christi, said that his work in Hereford is the materialization of the goal he set for himself in 1966 when he became a follower of Christ.

FCC Studies Radio Station Purchase Bid

The Federal Communications Commission has accepted for filing an application submitted by Clint Fornby, owner of radio station KPAN in Hereford, and Wayne Wallace, Clovis, N. M. auto dealer, to purchase Clovis radio station KICA.

THE PURCHASE of the long-time Clovis radio station is now subject to FCC approval, Fornby said this week.

The Clovis station broadcasts at 890 KC with a power of 1,000 watts and is one of the oldest radio stations in the area.

Fornby said that he will continue to operate KPAN here and live in this community, regardless of the outcome of the pending transaction.

OLD BEAUTY IS EXPENSIVE

— Gloucester, England — Medieval abbeys though beautiful are uncomfortable, inconvenient and expensive to keep up, says the Rt. Rev. Dyfrig Rushton, Roman Catholic Abbot of Prinknash Abbey, Gloucestershire, who wants to set up a new monastery building near his existing 16th Century abbey.

Objections have been raised by preservation societies and the Abbot claims that the resulting delays already will raise the cost to the Benedictines by 25 per cent. Now a public inquiry is being held to settle the issue.

Federal School Aid Is Subject

Education and Government was the study topic for Bay View Club Thursday at a meeting in the home of Mrs. W. S. Kerr with Mrs. Dexter Lillie as program leader. She spoke of the role which the federal government has assumed in recent months in efforts to afford equal educational opportunities to all children of the nation.

The man with the fastest growing job in Washington may well be John Gardner, Commissioner of Education, she commented, adding that one of his biggest problems is school integration.

"Teaching is a big thing these days, as our children are finding more and more opportunities," the speaker noted. She spoke of teaching being extended to children from homes where basic training was lacking, saying that some of the youngsters started to school not even knowing how to eat from a table.

Two 1965 legislative acts concerning legislation were discussed in some detail by Mrs. Lillie: The Elementary and Secondary Education Act providing for distribution of funds to aid elementary and high school students, and the Higher Education Act to supply grants to needy students, and funds for facilities and buildings for colleges and universities.

A social hour followed the program, Club business was discussed with Mrs. Ansel McDowell presiding.

Attendance included Mmes. Carl Perrin, W. J. Kirby, E. J. Mrs. Clara F. Guerra, Mrs. Salazar Faustino, Feb. 17.

New Uses For Grain Sorghum Goal Of A&M Research Work

Work is underway at Texas A&M University to find new uses for grain sorghum, one of the state's major cash crops already known for its versatility.

Any additional way to utilize the grain is expected to benefit the sorghum production industry in Texas because farmers are now planting about 6 million acres each year in the crop. United States acreage is more than 20 million acres annually.

Sorghum is exceeded only by rice and wheat as a world food crop and ranks third as a grain crop behind what and corn in the U. S.

Texas grain sorghum is used mostly in livestock and poultry feeds at present. But now agricultural scientists at A&M are devoting more time to finding new ways of adapting the grain to industrial consumption, human foods in particular.

ONE OF THE researchers, Dr. Lloyd Rooney of the A&M Soil and Crop Sciences Department, said the biggest obstacle to developing new uses is the grain's wide variation in quality. The project's overall purpose is to find ways to correct the situation.

Principal grain sorghum uses now, other than for feeds, are wet milling into starch, oil and various by-products. Six to eight million bushels per year of Texas-grown grain goes this route. Rooney says sorghum starch can easily substitute for corn starch, although cost and processing techniques can be limiting factors.

In dry milling, current grain sorghum products are flour, bran and grits. The flour goes into wallboard, brewing to a limited extent, sizing in textile mills and metal casting, and oil well drilling mud.

POTENTIAL uses, Rooney says, include such food products as bread, chips, candy and syrups.

Sorghum grits hold much promise for the brewing industry, but again the limiting factor is lack of quality and uniformity, the researcher emphasized. The grits must compete with well established brewing ingredients.

Other potentials for the starch are paper, textiles, laundry starch, plastics, cosmetics and glue. Some varieties of the whole grain can be popped like popcorn.

IN ALL CASES, grain sorghum's competition is from corn, Rooney pointed out.

Rooney is now busy setting up laboratories and other facilities to study the sorghum quality puzzle.

"The first objective is to arrive at some concept of quality. Then we'll try to establish a system to predict quality and to devise methods which plant breeders can use in developing desirable varieties," he said.

Rooney added that the project is generating considerable interest among sorghum producers and other members of the overall industry who look forward to the time when the grain can match wheat and corn in worldwide usage.

Program, Choice of Award Nominee Share Interest In Ford Club

Ways of Life in Foreign Countries was the subject assigned for Ford Home Demonstration Club's meeting Wednesday afternoon, and Mrs. John A. Smith chose a report on Spain.

The program shared interest with a business session in which Mrs. A. L. Hollingsworth was nominated as the County H. D. Woman of the Year and Mrs. Smith was named a candidate for county delegate to the April convention of District I, Texas H. D. Association.

A Mexican supper to entertain husbands of members was planned for Feb. 26 in Ford Community Building, beginning at 7 p. m. Each member is to bring a dish for the supper, which will be followed by games of 42. Mrs. Hollingsworth was in charge of the business discussion.

Mrs. Smith said Spain, now a popular tourist attraction, is often called the land of the unexpected. She spoke of its poor but proud people, the generally low wages and limited education, the beauty of much of the country, the exciting festivals, bull fights and soccer games which are attended by thousands.

Soil of Spain is mostly poor, the speaker continued, and farm production low. She quoted figures, including the fact that for every 36 pounds of meat eaten in Spain 207 pounds are eaten in America; for every 34 gallon of milk consumed, 142 gallons are consumed in America.

Others present were a guest, Mrs. John Brozman, and members, Mmes. Frank Brozman, Leroy Edwards, Raymond Flores, J. C. Gossett, C. G. Heard, Brace Hicks and Troy Waller. Mrs. Hollingsworth was hostess and served refreshments after the program.

Stock Numbers Up In State, Off Elsewhere

Texas farmers and ranchers went counter to those in the nation by increasing their holdings of cattle, sheep, hogs, goats, and chickens as compared to a year ago.

Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist at Texas A&M University, said figures released by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service on February 14 revealed the increases.

CATTLE NUMBERS increased by 3 percent during 1965 to 10,546,000 head on January 1, 1966. The nation showed a decrease of 1 percent in cattle numbers, he said. Improved range forage and small grain pastures coupled with a larger calf crop and larger shipments and smaller outshipments account for the increase, Uvacek said. The state's total cattle population is valued at $1, 213 million.

Sheep numbers in Texas increased by 8 percent during the past year; hogs by 7 percent; goats 9 percent; chickens 1 percent and turkeys 66 percent. Nationally, the specialist said the report showed a 4 percent decline for all hogs and pigs on farms; 1 percent fewer lambs and sheep; 1 percent fewer chickens (excluding broilers); a 6 percent decline in number of dairy animals and a 6 percent increase in turkey numbers. These figures, he said, are all based on January 1, 1966 inventories.

BEEF COWS and heifers two years and older in Texas totaled 5,094,000 head, down 1 percent from a year ago but beef heifers 1-2 years old increased by 5 percent; calves on hand Jan. 1 increased by 9 percent and steers over 1 year old increased by 28 percent.

The 486,000 head of milk cows in Texas on January 1 was 7 percent below the previous year followed the national trend. 7 Texas sheep numbers, all sheep and lambs, on January 1 were estimated at 5,154,000 head; goats and kids numbered 4,425, 000 head; hogs numbered 752, 000 head; farm chickens — excluding broilers — totaled 15,610, 000 birds and turkeys 652,000 head.

Uvacek said the Reporting Service placed a total value of $1,361 million on the January 1 inventories of livestock and poultry in Texas, up 28 percent from a year earlier.

IN AMARILLO

US CofC Prexy Presents Program

Official representatives of the city of Hereford and the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will be among those on hand in Amarillo Wednesday for activities in connection with a visit to the Panhandle by the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Local chamber president Raymond White and City Manager Dudley Bayne will attend a noon luncheon and a "Decision Maker's Meeting" later, where Robert P. Gerholz, president of the U. S. Chamber, will speak.

THE LUNCHEON will be held at the Holiday Inn West motor hotel. Citizens from throughout the Panhandle are expected to be present.

Charles Lutz, Jr., president of the Amarillo Chamber, in making the announcement, urged non-members of the Chamber and others interested in community development, to make plans to hear Gerholz.

Gerholz will arrive in Amarillo at 10:11 a. m., and will receive the Round-Up Club's red-carpet welcome to the city. He will meet with area news media representatives at 11 a. m. on the mezzanine at the Holiday Inn West for a press conference.

THE NOON luncheon guests will include city and chamber officials from Amarillo and area communities. Gerholz will speak on the subject of community development, a subject of special interest to Amarillo, as Amarillo was one of the pilot cities used in the formation of the community-development program by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

The Citizens' Action Program (CAP), begun several years ago in Amarillo, is still being cited by the U. S. Chamber as a model of community development programs for other cities in the nation.

Following the noon luncheon, Gerholz will meet with local and area leaders for a "Decision Maker's Meeting," during which he will discuss the need and methods of implementing community-development programs...

OUTSTANDING MEMBERS chosen in Home Demonstration Club of Deaf Smith County will be presented at the annual appreciation luncheon February 28 as candidates for the title of Deaf Smith H. D. Woman of the Year. Balloting at the luncheon will decide which receives the award and a check given each year by The Hereford Brand.

EACH CLUB IN THE COUNTY was invited to designate its woman of the year as a nominee for the county honor. A wide variety of activity in club and community, as housewife and mother, is revealed as fellow members list their nominees' qualifications.

TO BE HONORED at the luncheon in the County Bull Barn are county commissioners and other persons associated with or interested in the Home Demonstration program of this county. H. D. Club members and former members who are over 65 years of age will be introduced, and a brief sketch of early club history will be given.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE members of Deaf Smith H. D. Council are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. J. D. Gilbert Jr. is chairman and others on the committee are Mrs. E. C. Hewitt Jr., Mrs. George Turrentine, Mrs. S. N. Thweatt and Mrs. C. F. Homfeld. The program is timed for completion in the noon hour, 12 to 1 p.m.

FOR ANNUAL AWARD Eight Presented As Candidates

Commended as clubwomen, homemakers and community members, eight women have been nominated by as many Home Demonstration Clubs in the county to compete for the title, Deaf Smith H. D. Woman of the Year.

The award is to be made at the annual H. D. appreciation luncheon in the County Bull Barn Feb. 28. Last year's recipient of the honor was Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr. of West Hereford Club.

BIPPUS CLUB, in the extreme northwest corner of Deaf Smith County, nominating Mrs. Jimmie Bradley as H. D. Woman of the Year cited her perfect record of club attendance as unusual because of long distances she traveled.

Although she lives 50 miles from Hereford, she was present for every meeting of the County H. D. Council, of which she was treasurer and finance committee member. She also did not miss a meeting of her own club, which she served as president.

Mrs. Bradley attended county workshops in order to take information back to Bippus Club, and she had a part on the 1965 appreciation meeting. She has begun a 1966 term as corresponding secretary in the County Council.

In other community activities, Mrs. Bradley is secretary of Bippus Church and works on committees in the Parent-Teacher Organization at Adrian, where her children attend school. At times, she has been a substitute teacher at Walcott School. She encourages her daughter in 4-H Club work and as song leader for her church.

MEMBERS OF NORTH Hereford club present Mrs. A. E. Hodges as their nominee. In her second year as District I Director of the Texas Home Demonstration Association, she is the youngest woman ever to hold the office.

Last year she attended three state board meetings, was on program at the state convention, held a training meeting in Amarillo for THDA chairmen, agents and H. D. Council chairmen, and was in charge of the district meeting in Canyon last April. Recently she was appointed chairman of district directors' reports for the 1966 state convention.

Her club and the Deaf Smith H. D. Council have endorsed her as a candidate for state treasurer, the first member from this county to seek a state THDA office.

Mrs. Hodges came from Amarillo as a bride in 1950, knowing nothing of farm life. She joined the North Hereford Club in 1962 and has worked in various activities. She has held all club and council offices and was

Program Drafted For Workshops

Local leaders will share with specialists from the Texas Extension Service in directing workshops during two leadership training sessions under auspices of Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee March 21-22.

A complete program draft has been announced, as pre-registration for the free training continues. Persons not reached by registration announcements sent to organizations in the county, are invited to notify Mrs. J. K. Baker of their wish to register.

She is president of Hereford Business and Professional Women's Club, which is responsible for registration. Deadline for pre-registration is March 10.

With the theme, Success Depends on Capable Leadership, the workshop has as its purpose assistance to county residents in developing leadership qualities so they may serve more efficiently as officers and members at organizations to which they belong.

Sessions will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. on each of the two days, in Community Center. A general program will be followed by workshops each evening.

Each registrant is being asked to choose one workshop from the five listed, three to be conducted by local residents and two by Extension Service specialists.

The Rev. Don Davidson will be in charge of the workshop titled, How to Preside at Business Meetings and Programs. The workshop on How to Report Club Activities will be conducted by Melvin Young, newspapers, and Clint Formby, radio.

Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, will lead the session on Duties of Officers — Membership Protocol. Miss Claudia Williams, program specialist from College Station, will direct the section on How to Get Committees to Work; Larry Burleson, organization specialist, is the subject, Planning Programs for Interest and Variety.

At the first general session Mrs. Baker will give the welcome and introductions. Wayne Thomas, immediate past president of Hereford Chamber of Commerce, will make the keynote address, Meeting the Challenge to Serve Well. Miss Williams will discuss ways to get audience participation at meetings.

Wayne Thomas keynote speaker

Burleson will speak at the second general session on the topic, What Constitutes an Effective Organization. Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. will review practical parliamentary procedure.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A latent ambition of mine is to be a full-time sidewalk superintendent of construction projects. One of those people who stand for hours around the building site and watch every move of the workmen.

THERE'S A STRONG temptation to stop awhile, every time I pass even a residence a-building, and the excavation for the telephone building across the street from our office is a lure that is hard to resist.

Work watching is a form of recreation that requires time, though, and there's not enough to spare for really satisfying surveys of the activity over there.

Also, sidewalk superintending is traditionally a man's sport, but if women can skin dive and climb Alps, seems like they could crash that barrier. Anyway, it's on my list of possible hobbies after retirement, when there will be plenty of leisure to cultivate it and maybe break down another masculine monopoly.

PROWLING ABOUT second-hand stores may not sound like the proper way to entertain the wife of the Grand Master Mason of Texas, but Mrs. Lynn Kester found last weekend that her guest enjoyed it very much.

Glee and Bill Fullingim of Odessa were guests of the Kesters when he was here to officiate at La Plata School cornerstone ceremony — Mr. Kester is the Grand Master's deputy in this district.

As a good hostess should, Mrs. Kester learned that Glee is an avid antique hunter, so their free time was spent in a search that rewarded the Odessa woman with a mirror which she pronounced a real find — as soon as she has it resilvered.

Never thought about antique hunts as one of Hereford's attractions for visitors; maybe a Chamber of Commerce committee should look into it.

A HEREFORD STUDENT at WTSU, Randy Carver, had one of the supporting roles in the college speech departments fine production of Jean Anouilh's play, Becket, this weekend. He appeared as the indignant Biscounty THDA chairman two years before taking the district office.

MRS. JOHN JONES' Messenger Club's choice for woman of the year and her fellow members list her qualities as a homemaker and good neighbor with her record as a club member.

YHT Learns New Craft

A home decoration craft, making plastic grape clusters, was demonstrated for the Hereford Chapter, Young Homemakers of Texas, at a recent meeting in the high school home economics room. Mrs. Jerry Don Glover presented the program.

Mrs. Clark Andrews directed the business session in which the leadership workshop to be held here March 21-22 under auspices of the County Program Building Committee was discussed and a number of members registered to attend it.

Mrs. Lawrence Baird was a new member present and Mrs. Herbert Bruus a guest. Other members attending were Mmes. Larry Dobbs, David Brumley, James Dobbs, Howard Hunter, Layton Sawyer, George Zetsche, Jess Robinson, Kenneth DeHart, Raymond Gerik, Lewis Block and the advisers, Mrs. J. J. Durham and Mrs. Joe Bradley.

She has had 13 years in H. D. Clubs, in this and other counties, and has held all offices.

She was active in clubs of Armstrong County before moving here, and when she lived in Arkansas she helped organize a H. D. Club in her community. Her readiness to take responsibilities in the club, even on short notice, is mentioned as one of her most helpful qualities.

Her ability as a homemaker is commended in notes about her work to make her house and yard attractive, sewing for home decoration and making fancy quilts, canning and preserving food and cooking meals which are praised by visitors.

Ministry to the sick, service to her church, interest in community activity and membership in P-TO are listed, and she is a homemaker and mother of a family whom a neighbor calls "a fine example of an American family, the sort which is the basis of our community life."

She recently won the "Hi Mom" telephone call for a talk with her son, Derral Jones, with the U. S. Army in Viet Nam. Another son, Bill, now of Fort Worth, saw military service during the Korean war and escaped capture by the Communists. Her daughter is Mrs. Bob Byers of Hereford, and she has 12 grandchildren.

CULTURAL CLUB has nominated Mrs. Viola Williams, a resident of the county 37 years. Although her club membership dates back only a little more than two years, she has been a delegate to County Council the past two years, has attended district and state THDA meetings, served on club and council committees.

She attended a national THDA convention in Hawaii, then gave reports and showed slides from that trip to various clubs. Members say that she has helped in all projects of her club and is always willing to accept duties asked of her.

As a homemaker, she is the mother of two, and helps care for her three grandchildren while her daughter is employed. She maintains her yard as well as her house, growing a variety of flowers. China painting and furniture renovation are hobbies.

Active in First Baptist Church, she is now mission chairman in the Women's Missionary Union and has held Sunday School class offices. She helps take food to needy families and visits in King's Manor and Westgate.

Interested in Girlstown at Whiteface, she is its local representative and collects donations from residents here for the home. She also speaks to organizations about Girlstown and has been instrumental in getting several groups to sponsor girls there. She herself assists one of the girls to attend college, and during holidays invites girls to her home.

NOMINEE OF YOUNG Homemakers Club is Mrs. Huey Lowrie, who was its president in 1965 and is now alternate council delegate. She was a council member last year and participated in the appreciation luncheon program.

An active 4-H Club member before her marriage, she has encouraged the Young Homemakers group to assist 4-H Club work in the county; financial aid has been given to a 4-H club for three years.

Mrs. Lowrie is the mother of two children, Karen, 5, and Sharon, 3. The family lives at 137 Ranger, and since moving into this home four years ago Mrs. Lowrie has sewed for the house as well as making most of her clothing and that of her daughters. She enjoys working with her husband in the yard to make the place more attractive.

Baking and making jams and jellies for her family are other homemaking duties she likes, and she keeps a freezer stocked with vegetables and fruits.

MRS. E. C. HAMMETT, who is beginning her 18th year of Home Demonstration Club work, was selected as Progressive Club nominee. She is serving her second year as County Council chairman and is on the yearbook and recreation committees in her own club, of which she has been parliamentarian and worked on various committees.

She is secretary of the County Program Building Committee and has been secretary for District I, THDA, also a county delegate to a district meeting. She was parliamentarian for the district training meeting, and has acted as master of ceremonies for the appreciation luncheon.

Mrs. Hammett has three children and three grandchildren. All her children were 4-H Club members, and her daughter-In-law is a member of Young Homemakers H. D. Club now. A member of First Baptist Church, Mrs. Hammett attends regularly and is a group captain in her Sunday School class.

Last summer she canned 500 jars of vegetables from her home garden and froze more. She recently upholstered a chair and divan for her living room and has done similar work in home improvement in the past.

PRESIDENT OF WESTWAY Club this year, Mrs. Donald Douglas is the members' choice as woman of the year nominee. She took her present office after serving as vice president and chairman of the yearbook committee in 1965.

As club president she is a member of the County H. D. Council, on the council yearbook committee. She has worked with 4-H Clubs and three years ago taught the 4-H sewing course.

Her community service includes work in her church, Hereford Church of the Nazarene. She has taught a kindergarten class two years and is a member of the choir which is being organized now that the church has moved into a new building. She holds the office of membership chairman in the local organization of the Nazarene World Missionary Society.

CHOSEN AS THE outstanding member of Ford Club is Mrs. A. L. Hollingsworth, who is beginning her second year as its president, and is a member of the finance committee in the County H. D. Council.

Under her leadership Ford Club has done extensive work on a community building which is used for various gatherings in addition to club meetings. H. D. members have installed a kitchen range, painted interior walls, laid floor covering, made draperies, added a coat rack, bathroom mirror and door locks.

The mother of three children, July, 14, Dale, 11 and Kent, 9, she gives much time to their activities. She is an FHA Chapter parent, a teacher in the primary department of the Church of Christ here and an assistant with the high school age group, and a member of Lubbock Christian College Associates.

Cooking and sewing are her favorite household tasks. She makes all her daughter's clothes and has recently learned to knit on a machine.

Miss Loerwald Is Bride Of St. Louis Resident

Miss Patricia Elaine Loerwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Loerwald, exchanged wedding vows with Albert Simnacher of St. Louis in a mid-afternoon ceremony Saturday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simnacher Jr. of Pep.

White tapers lighted the main altar, where greenery was banked on either side. Bouquets of white stock and pompon mums completed church decorations and white satin bows marked pews.

The Rev. Angelus Delahunt, S. A., officiated for the double ring service in which her parents gave the bride in marriage.

As a musical prelude, Mrs. Elbert Vance sang Ave Maria, O Perfect Love, and Mother at Thy Feet. The bride's sister, Mrs. Don Dolle of Lordsburg, N. M., was the organist.

Another sister, Miss Cynthia Jane Loerwald, attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Simnacher of Anaheim, Calif., and Miss Claudia Loerwald. Monica Brorman was the flower girl and Mark Brorman ring bearer; they are the small niece and the nephew of the bride.

Ralph Simnacher acted as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Frank Brorman of Vega and Don Dolle; ushers, Wayne Green of Pep, Daniel Loerwald, Ralph Loerwald and Jim Loerwald.

Gowned in white velvet, Miss Loerwald wore a seed pearl and sequin tiara which had been a part of her sisters' wedding costumes, to hold an elbow length illusion veil to her hair.

Her dress, of traditional styling, had a long-sleeved fitted bodice, and skirt straight to the floor in front but given fullness by wide soft pleats at side back.

The chapel train of satin was fastened at the waistline with a bow of the material. A design of tufted rose appliques on the bodice front was repeated across the edge of the train.

She carried a sunburst of roses surrounding an orchid which was detached for the corsage of her traveling ensemble.

Her attendants and the flower girl were dressed in velvet and satin empire-line gowns in shades of blue. Bows of blue satin with brief maline veils were their headpieces and each carried a single white rose.

A buffet reception in St. Anthony's auditorium followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Frank Brorman, sister of the bride, Mrs. Ralph Simnacher and Miss Mary Simnacher in the house party. Decor of the bride's table centered around the wedding cake, ornamented in blue.

Leaving on a trip to St. Louis and Michigan, Mrs. Simnacher was wearing a royal blue knit suit. The couple will end the trip at a home at 232 East Glendale Rd., Webster Groves, Mo.

The bride has been stationed at Selfridge Air Force Base, Mt. Clemens, Mich., a second lieutenant in the USAF Nurse Corps.

She is a graduate of St. Anthony's School of Nursing in Amarillo. After graduation from Hereford High School she attended Mt. St. Scholastica College at Atchison, Kan. and then began training at St. Anthony's. Now in the products control department of Ralston Purina Company at St. Louis, the bridegroom holds bachelor and masters degrees from Texas Tech, where he enrolled after graduation from Pep High School.

AT OPTIMIST CLUB

City Development Cited By Manager

City Manager Dudley Bayne outlined current city government developments in a talk to the Hereford Optimist Club Thursday.

The city manager, who was featured speaker for the program of the Optimists at Floyd's Restaurant, outlined the city's current financial condition and detailed some of the projects now in the mill and others recently completed.

CONCERNING the incenerator recently put into operation, he pointed out, "One million pounds of trash per month are put into the cone-shaped incenerator."

He added that the city no longer has to bury the remains of the trash at the city dump ground. Instead, the debris — which is mostly reduced to ashes and clumps of molten metal — is sold to an El Paso firm, which hauls it away about twice weekly. The company pays the city $5 per load for the refuse.

Also brought up at the meeting was Hereford's water rate.

Bayne pointed out that while Hereford citizens pay no more than 25 cents per thousand gallons of water, Amarillo has a rate of 47 cents per thousand and Borger has rates up to 65 cents per thousand. Both of these municipalities will receive water from the Canadian River dam.

IN REGARD to the proposed bond issue now being considered by the city commission in the amount of $610,000, Bayne outlined the need for the passage of the measure and how the money would be spent.

Also mentioned was a petition currently being circulated to annex an addition 20 to 30 acres of land to the city in South Hereford.

Commissioners have already agreed to furnish water and sewer to previously-annexed portions of South Hereford, and the proposed additional area would add to the need for passage of the bond issue.

The bond issue would also provide funds for other needed water and sewer system improvements in other portions of the city.

Soybean Growth To Be Increased On High Plains

Dr. Earl Collister, Director of the High Plains Research Foundation, predicted today that soybean production in the High Plains of Texas will be increased substantially this year due to the recent ruling by the U.S. D.A. permitting the substitution of soybeans for feed grains.

This change was made as a major factor in the food and space program.

FARMERS CAN plant soybeans on allowable grain sorghum acres this year and receive price support payments, just as if feed had been planted. Of 20 acres, plant 30 acres to gram, producers who divert at least 20% of their base feed grain acreage will receive price support payments of 53 cents per hundred weight.

The same price support payment will be received when soybeans are substituted for grain sorghum.

For instance, on 100 acres, a farmer can divert the minimum of 20 acres, plant 30 acres to soybeans and 50 acres in feed.

HE CAN divert 30 acres and plant 50 acres to soybeans or divert 20 acres and plant 80 acres to soybeans.

The major soybean varieties planted in the area are the Lee, Hill, and Hinn. The new short-season Patterson soybean, just released by the High Plains Research Foundation, will be especially attractive to those who produce certified seed.

THE HINN, released last year is also in demand by some certified seed growers. The higher price received for all certified soybean seed is sure to increase planting of Foundation seed under the new program.

A COOK BOOK FOR MEN AND WOMEN

While we waited for Gladys Taber's "Stillmeadow Cook Book," we found a dividend by Martha Eastlake.

"Rattlesnake Under Glass," though catchy in title, is a bit misleading and we nearly passed it by. Reptiles are not one of our favorite subjects for discussion.

THE NARRATIVE which blends the recipes into an interesting cookbook will appeal to both men and women, we believe. This, and the western names given the recipes, we read first. Then we back-tracked and read all the recipes.

Her writing shows research, interest in southwestern cookery, and the historical influence of the Spanish, Indians and the cattlemen. She collected ideas and adapted them, along with complete recipes, from all these sources and from her many friends, far and near. She has written of them with originality and wit.

Mrs. Eastlake met and married her husband-rancher in New York and came to northwestern New Mexico to live on a ranch. This is the reason for her interest in western fare and how to cook it.

Since she was educated in France, her adapted recipes show this influence in the use of wine. This may amuse the true westerner who knows that most of them buy stronger stuff and do not use it in cooking.

SOME OF her recipes seem a little "dudified" compared to some of our Texas recipes. One in particular is the Son-of-a-gun Stew.

In spite of these things, we made up our mind we must own this cook book, as there are too many recipes which we liked, to copy them all for our files.

Other than the standard beef and beans of the west there are special recipes for fish, lamb, rabbit, dove, elk, deer and other game in season. Even one for rattlesnake.

Few of us in the southwest ever had food served to us under glass, much less rattlesnake. She expresses her feeling about this too, when she suggests it might be garnished with loco, when served.

There are many excellent cook books written in old and new styles in our library shelves. So don't fail to ask the librarians, Mrs. Newman and Mrs. London to show them to you. They make interesting reading whether or not you want to cook by them!

Kiwanis See Insight To Viet Nam War

Members of the Hereford Kiwanis Club were given an insight as to why the United States is involved in the Viet Nam War, Thursday in a program presented by Andy Shoval.

THE FILM began by giving some history of the beginning of World War II when Hitler decided to take Czechoslovakia prior to the War.

At that time the British Empire ruled the small country and Prime Minister Chamberlain promised the people of that small country that the British would protect them, but later backed down to Hitler in order to obtain peace.

As everyone knows this appeasement did not satisfy Hitler's urge for world power. The film pointed out that in previous instances, such as Korea, the United States had protected the peoples' right to remain free.

BUT THE film also pointed out that the Viet Nam War was much different than any other war ever fought by the United States.

America first got involved in the war in 1954 when what was then Indo China was divided at the 17th parallel with the Communists dominating the North and the South was a free and independent nation.

The south prospered and began to become self dependent with the help of the United States. But soon the Communists of the North invaded the south and began terrorism campaigns and the south Vietnamese were forced to fight.

At first the American soldiers were in Viet Nam only as advisors and remained in this position until 1964 when the need for soldiers was expressed by the north government.

In August of 1964 the first bombing raids were ordered by President Johnson to try to slow down the Communists by blocking off important roads and knocking vital military installations.

President Johnson and his administration have stated over and over again their desire to talk peace with the governments of both north Viet Nam and Red China, but have had no response.

they met in Mrs. Ralph Paul's home Thursday afternoon included dish towels which they embroidered for the hostess. Several members brought quilts they had made and quilted.

Refreshments were served to a guest, Mrs. Roberta Blackburn, and Mmes. Mary R. Flowers, A. T. Jones, W. T. Gunstenson, Annie Springer, Corda Batley, Nancy Robbins, A. H. Cook, H. H. Benson, C. N. McClure, W. H. Autry Sr., L. J. Jones Sr. and J. L. Shirley.

HOLDING BACK ENORMOUS CROWD — NEW YORK (AP) — Pope Paul's visit to New York produced a record-breaking number of block ads.

The Police Department reports that a record 10,000 barriers, gray-painted wooden structures, were placed at strategic locations for the Pope's historic visit Oct. 4.

Haggard, vice president; and Mrs. Dennis Richardson, treasurer.

Jobs for the Jobless

with Rural Electricity

Although fewer than one-third of this nation's population lives in rural areas, more than half the nation's poor lives there. Consumer-owned rural electric systems such as ours have helped to create new industries across the country which have already resulted in more than 125,000 new jobs for rural people.

Volunteering in the war on poverty, we hope to do more in the months and years to come to help develop this community.

Rogers Seeks Approval of FCC Restraint

Congressman Walter Rogers Thursday introduced legislation to give the Federal Communications Commission broad authority to regulate any control over the reception of broadcast signals or communications.

Congressman Rogers is chairman of the Subcommittee on Communications and Power of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. The subcommittee exercises intra-House jurisdiction over broadcast legislation.

THE EFFECT OF THE ROGERS bill would be to deny to the Federal Communications Commission authority to control or regulate what is received by anyone owning and operating a broadcast reception device such as a radio or television set.

The Congressman said the bill was being introduced because of recent decisions by the FCC. He pointed out that the FCC "in undertaking an overall regulation and control of all community antenna television systems is also undertaking to expand its jurisdiction to cover the reception of matter broadcast into the airwaves and received by anyone."

Congressman Rogers said, "If this proposed expansion of power is allowed to stand, it would create the possibility in this country of a situation of censorship. The Communications Act presently prohibits censorship but expressly provides against indecent language and associated matters."

THE LEGISLATIVE HISTORY of the Communications Act evidences the expressed intention of the Congress that the Federal Communications Commission has jurisdiction over the transmission of broadcast signals — not the reception signals. However, the FCC is wholly disregarding the legislative history and is seeking to expand its jurisdiction without the approval of the Congress of the United States.

"It is absolutely repugnant to the American system of free broadcasting for a Federal agency to exercise any control or regulation whatsoever over broadcast reception," Congressman Rogers said.

Congressman Rogers said it is his hope that early hearings can be held on the bill by the Subcommittee on Communications and Power.

Students, Guest To Present Songs

A short concert by a guest soloist, Ray Johnson of Amarillo, will follow a workshop program by vocal students of Mrs. D. W. Palmer in her home, 128 Liveoak, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. A. D. Pitman will present Mrs. Johnson, who will sing arias from three operas, a traditional Italian melody and selections from two popular musicals.

Guests of Mrs. Pitman and Mrs. Palmer for the concert will include families of the latter's students; Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. J. L. McCormick of Amarillo; Mrs. Elvina Jorlie of Newark, Calif., and Mrs. Howard Grow of Hudson, Iowa.

The students' recital will begin with solos by Mrs. Edwin Axe, Caro nio (BenGiordina) and Into the Night (Edwards). Other numbers will be Care Selve by Handel and Cecilia by Kounitz, sung by Bill Benfield; a Handel selection and a Chopin composition, The Maiden's Wish, by Linda Brooks.

Mr. Johnson are Vision Figures from Massenet's Hierodiade Avant de quitter ces lieux from Faust by Gounod and Eci to from Verdi's Un Ballo in Maschera. He will present Come Back to Surrento (Curtis), Old Man River from Kearns' musical comedy, Show Boat, and Surrey With the Fringe on Top, one of the Richard Rodgers tunes from Oklahoma.

A well known Pathhandle musician, Johnson is a native of Amarillo and after attending school there received the BA degree with majors in music and German from the University of Arizona.

Later he spent four years in language schools in New York and Los Angeles, studying German, Italian, French and Russian.

While he was in New York he attended Columbia University's opera workshop and studied more than two years with Giovanni Martinelli, famed tenor whose stellar career with the Metropolitan opera spanned 34 years. He studied another two years with Alta Turk Everett in Los Angeles.

His professional experience includes television appearances on the West Coast and a season in Starline Opera at Dallas. He has been a guest soloist with the Amarillo Symphony and sung in numerous programs there.

JUNIOR BIRDMEN

MILWAUKEE @ — A tiny open cockpit bi-plane — built by industrial arts students as a class project at Milwaukee Bay View High School — had a successful test flight recently.

The pilot, Col. Paul Poberozny, put the plane through its paces for 20 minutes and told the boys who had gathered at the airport: "You've done a wonderful job. She handled tremendously."

Poberozny is president of the Experimental Aircraft Association, a world wide group of build-it-yourself airplane enthusiasts.

Bay View Principal Arthur L. Showers commented: "We're through with those little projects like bookcases and end tables."

THE FRONTIER REAPPEARS

Land that hasn't been for sale for perhaps a hundred years was suddenly opened for public purchase this month.

Galaxie Land Corporation, with headquarters in Kingsland, has secured thousands of acres of what was formerly individually-owned giant ranches from the heirs of the original landowners.

This natural wonderland is called Royal Oaks and is located above Kingsland, where the Llano and mighty Colorado rivers join and pour into picturesque constant-level Lake Lyndon B. Johnson, formerly named Lake Granite Shoals.

The land is now being subdivided into tracts of all sizes, with sensible restrictions. Purchasers may choose from a waterfront lot to a Ranchette of 3 acres or more. Every lot or Ranchette has access to full lake facilities, including boat ramp and launching privileges.

O. E. Ainsworth, long-time Kingsland developer and president of Galaxie Land Corporation, pointed out that the land currently being developed was not available for generations.

"Indians used to roam these blue-bonnet covered hills," Mr. Ainsworth said. "And when the white man drove the last of the Indians away he established huge ranches numbering thousands of acres each. This became great cattle country.

"But after several generations, the heirs of the original owners live in other cities. It is difficult to work a ranch from a distance, and not profitable. We have obtained this acreage from these landowners and now are making it available for the first time.

"We call it the Reappearing Frontier," he continued. "It vanished once, long ago, when the white man built his fences. For awhile now, it is reappearing—but only as long as the land is available.

"Soon it will begin vanishing again as new property owners pick up their deeds. And with it will vanish the opportunity—for many people—to own a part of it. We urge every interested potential property owner to contact us immediately."

Don't Dream Of Para

LAKE LBJ MOTEL—This newest addition to the Kingsland area is fully equipped with electric kitchenettes, swimming pool and TV. Boat launching facilities, water skiing and horseback riding are also available. Conveniently located on FM 1431, the motel will furnish overnight accommodations for prospective purchasers of land in Royal Oak Estates.

Lake Granite Shoals Named for President

The Lower Colorado River Authority recently changed the name of the most famous of the Highland Lakes—Granite Shoals—to the name of its most famous "visitor"—Lyndon B. Johnson.

But President Johnson is more than a casual visitor to this constant-level lake alive with fish. He has a cabin on the lake and spends several weekends there every year.

Recently he took Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara boating on the lake. Many other of the President's famous visitors have enjoyed the blue water.

A letter from the Authority's board of directors to the President read, "Insofar as the men and women of LCRA are concerned, you have been our friend for many years and have made many contributions to the development of this organization and its accomplishments in serving the people of Central Texas with flood control, the conservation of water for useful purposes, and low cost electricity.

The letter noted that the Alvin J. Wirtz dam, which created the lake, was dedicated by Mr. Johnson.

A resolution adopted by the authority's directors recalled Mr. Johnson said when he was a U.S. Senator, "Of all endeavors on which I have worked in public life, I am proudest of the accomplishments in developing the Lower Colorado River," where the lake is located.

The lake is 50 miles from the LBJ Ranch.

Lake Lyndon B. Johnson has 6,300 surface acres and is 22 miles long. Wirtz Dam is 100 feet tall and 4,816 feet long.

On the lake's northern extremity is located a federal fish hatchery which constantly provides new stocks for the Highland Lakes. As it winds its way 20 miles through canyons of the Hill Country it is broken by numerous coves and outstanding "bass holes."

Because it is constant-level, it is an ideal lake for summer cottages or permanent homesites.

Proposed Club Will Feature Marina, Golf, Tennis, Rifle

A club with full recreational facilities — including an 18-hole PGA golf course — has been proposed for a portion of Royal Oaks Estates.

It will be built on a portion of the old Haywood Ranch. Directly across the lake — on another portion of the Haywood Ranch — is the house and grounds used by President Lyndon Johnson when he is at the lake.

Plans call for the club to include not only the golf course, but a club house and an Olympic size swimming pool.

A marina will also be included, as well as several Little League ball fields. A rifle and skeet range are proposed, plus a tennis and volley ball court area and a riding stable.

Financing of the club is to be accomplished by a Government loan which has already been tentatively approved by the Farmers Home Administration for Rural Recreational Areas.

The Club will be named Highland Lakes Recreational Club, Inc.

It is quite possible that club members may find themselves one day watching the President of the United States across the lake as he motors in and out in his boat, chats with his lake visitors or climbs into an Amphicar (combination land-water vehicle) which he sometimes enjoys driving.

There Will Always Be More Cars And TVs... But Never More Land

When land rises in value, it is responding to the law of supply and demand. There will always be more cars . . . more homes . . . more television sets — but there will never be more land.

A booming population must utilize the land that is available.

Theodore Roosevelt said about land: "Every person who invests in well selected real estate in a growing section of a prosperous community adopts the surest and safest method of becoming independent, for Real Estate is the basis of all wealth."

DEATH BENEFIT IS OFFERED TO OWNERS

Galaxie Land Corporation has created a special benefit for purchasers of new tracts of land in the Highland Lakes area.

They have termed it a "Death Benefit Feature." It is not an insurance policy, but it does provide that in the event of the death of the purchaser, no further payments will be required of the family. The property will automatically be deeded to the family at no further cost.

The only qualifying factor necessary to obtain this unique feature is that the purchaser shall have paid in at least 30% of the purchase price of the land.

Town Has Changed— Fish, Water Same

NEW BANK AT KINGSLAND—This beautiful new Highland Lakes National Bank is already a landmark at Kingsland. Its colorful mural depicts the stairstepped water wonderland of this central Texas area.

Shopping Center Ribbons Are Cut

A $200,000 Highland Lakes shopping center at Kingsland serving a 20-mile area is being completed, according to President W. F. McCasland.

McCasland is also chief executive of the Highland Lakes National Bank of Kingsland.

Shopping center chairman is C. A. Barnett. M. F. Wright and O. E. Ainsworth are vice presidents and Austin attorney John B. Selman is secretary.

The 25-acre center has eight tenants including Western Auto, Kingsland department store and a postoffice.

If you wanted to go fishing at Kingsland fifty years ago you had to go about it the hard way . . . and thousands of people did.

You first went to a town that had a railroad depot from which you could catch a train to Kingsland. The ride was rough and tiring. When you finally arrived, you would stay at the Antlers Hotel without many of today's modern conveniences . . . and fish in the beautiful clear waters. The waters, in fact, are about the only thing that hasn't changed much at Kingsland.

No more trains go to Kingsland.

But automobiles do . . . by spots for weekend cottages."

The magazine describes the drive from Marble Falls as beautiful, and explains how visitors and natives alike enjoy pausing at the roadside park for a long look at Kingsland and the lake spread out below, with history-rich Packsaddle Mountain in the distance. Viewers look out across one of President Lyndon B. Johnson's ranches which extends down to the shore, just across from town.

The magazine continues, "Couples who have traveled and lived all over the world say they have found that 'just right' spot at Kingsland. There are oak and mesquite

Magazine Lauds Lake Area

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is an excerpt from a story which appeared in a recent issue of the statewide edition of Texas Co-Op Power Magazine.)

"Placid lagoons, craggy cliffs, fascinating wildlife, and lazy pastoral scenes in the Highland Lakes appear with every bend of the crazily-winding series of reservoirs.

"Dams along the Colorado River in Central Texas have created Buchanan, Inks, Granite Shoals, Marble Falls, Travis, Austin and Town

Lakes — stairstepping them through the Hill Country for more than 150 miles.

"A virtual water wonderland with miles and miles of waterfront has resulted. With only partial commercial development of the lakes finished, visitors can enjoy full facilities for boating, swimming, fishing and camping, or the family can just pick a spot and rough it.

"There are, of course, public boat ramps, swimming areas, fishing and camping grounds as well—most in and near Austin.

"First of the series of lakes is Buchanan, which is 32 miles long and 8 miles wide, with 23,000 surface acres. This lake, surrounded by granite mountains, was completed in 1938 and has more than 79 resorts, with boat docks, air strips, restaurants, clubs and camps.

"Below Lake Buchanan, running three miles long and a mile wide is Inks Lake. This is a constant level lake with excellent facilities for boating and skiing. Featured attraction on the lake is Inks State Park, with 200 acres of hills, lagoons, and beaches.

"Next in line is Lake Granite Shoals, (recently renamed Lake Lyndon B. Johnson), 22 miles of water meandering through the canyons of Burnet and Llano counties. A federal fish hatchery, which continually restocks the lake, makes this lake a 'good fishin' hole.'

"One of the most popular of the Highland Lakes is Lake Marble Falls, held in by the 90-foot high Max Starcke Dam."

Bluebonnet Country Lures the Tourists

The Land along the Llano is known as Bluebonnet Country. Each year millions of the blue flowers with white tips spring from the earth to form a carpet that blends with the blue sky, interspersed with Indian Paintbrushes and wildflowers of every color of the rainbow.

And each year the Highland Lakes Tourist Association sponsors the Bluebonnet Trail, which draws thousands of sightseers into the Highland Lakes country.

VIEW FROM THE TOP—Lake Lyndon B. Johnson is known as the President's Lake. It's easy to see why the nation's busy Chief Executive would enjoy this magnificent countryside and call it home.

the thousands. Many of them are pulling boats. Every car is loaded with people excited about what they will soon do at Kingsland. It has become, according to Texas Parade Magazine, "probably the 'boomiest' community in the Lone Star State."

Kingsland's growth has been phenomenal. Says the magazine, "It's fairly bursting with newcomers from far and near—a breed of water-loving, recreation-minded folks looking for ideal retirement groves and hillsides of wild flowers that run the cycle from bluebonnets to blendings of yellows and reds. Whether these people live on lots or the little 'ranchettes' that are become increasingly popular, they see an abundance of deer, wild turkey, dove and quail. There's no "off-season" for Kingslanders, for this is a part of the Texas Hill Country considered to be among the most healthful climates found anywhere in the vast Southwest."
