All of the Hereford young ladies and also Earl Lust are graduates of the Hereford high school and their record speaks well for the Hereford school. The Commencement address was delivered by the Hon. W. A Palmer of Canadian, Texas. The sermon on Sunday was delivered by Rev. A. W. Hall of Vernon.

The destruction of the building by fire in the busiest part of the session was some handicap to the school, but the loyalty of both the teachers and students was shown in the way the work was taken up while still the embers were hot. Hardly a day was lost and Canyon certainly showed its J. Ed. Peters, wife and daughter, ability to meet a critical situation in providing for the school.

More, Water Than in Thirty-Two Years.

Cal Walker, who lives down the railroad several miles east of Hereford (everybody knows where his ranch is) was in town Tuesday and reports that the big lake on the Parmer section near Dawn was fuller than it had been in 32 years. He says it will cover 25 acres and would measure not less than 25 feet deep in the center. Mr. Walker has been on the place he now occupies for 32 years, coming to this section on began work for the T-Anchor ranch, and has been connected with the cow punching business during the whole time. The big hail storm that visitkilled many of the jack rabbits, and the next day after the hail, he was able to gather up stones enough to make ice cream, where they had drifted.

Why He Did Not Pay.

Miss Marie Phlegar, Grand Pass, sends us the following good story: A preacher, at the close of his sermon, said : "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now, every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, a careworn, hungry looking individual, clothed in his last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "You are the only man not able to meet his obligations?"

"I run a newspaper," he answered, "and the brethren who stood up are my subscribers .-- "

"Let us pray," exclaimed the preacher-Higginsville Jeffersonian.

Hester-Hitchcock.

The friends of Mr. Bayless M. Hester were agreeably surprised last Saturday when he alighted from the afternoon train with his bride. The new couple had been married at Clovis on the previous day, having gone down from Amarillo with relatives and friends. Mrs. Hester was Miss Mollie Mae Hitchcock, daughter of Mrs. C. A. Hitchcock of Amarillo. The family is well known in that city and Mrs. Hester is an amiable young woman. Mr. Hester of years and is well known. They tending congratulations.

Miss Betta is to be congratulated upon the success of her work.

N EVERY SECTION of the country there are farmers who are unable to make their financial ends meet, who work early and late, think they know how to economize, follow the old ideas of handling and feeding stock, handle their crops and work the soil in the same old way, but try as they will, the milistone, in the shape of a mortgage, is always tied good and fast around their necks.

He has a farm worth from ten to twenty thousand dollars and it only nets about five hundred to one thousand dollars each year for interest and perhaps a small payment on the principal. His wife sells enough produce (eggs, butter and poultry) to keep the family going; consequently he is netting five per cent and sticks in the rut with his added labor thrown away.

How long could a merchant live on that income from the same capital invested? He would be bankrupt in a year. The merchant constantly keeps his eyes open to stop leaks and make gains. Just show him a chance to make a gain and he jumps at it. Some chances must always be taken. No gain was ever made without some risk, and why some farmers will not use the same common sense business judgment that any good merchant uses, passes comprehension.

How is it with you, brother? Are you winning? Are you perfectly satisfied? Are you failing? Going down hill each year? If the latter, will you come in and let us give you some good advise?

You say this talk sounds strange, We know it does -we intended it to be strange. Our interests and your interests should be mutual; consequently we have now adopted a new idea, a new department you might say, something in the line of aiding to develop the country, and that in time will develop ourselves.

We would like to go into partnership with you on our new plan. Come in and let us have a heart to heart talk about it; we may be able to do you some good. You know the old saying that "two heads are better than one," and we believe you will find that it will hold good in this case, We are making a strenuous effort ef late to learn how to make farming pay better and save waste, We have some new pointers to share with you and all it will cost you will be your time.

If you are wearing a wreath of thorns, we will try to send you home wearing a real CROWN,

At times she was rational and was so happy to see her brother, Lloyd, asked about her uncle Frank, and never tailed to tell her papa how much she loved him. She sang a part of several songs, the last one was the chorus of Haven of Rest. "I've anchored my soul in the haven of rest, I'll sail the wide seas no more, the tempest may sweep o'er the wild stormy deep, In Jesus I'm safe ever more." Ruby's friends in Texas were every one who knew her. She was always faithful in unday school as organist and a devoted member and organist in the Christian Endeavor Society, all by whom she will be sadly missed. we would have less intelligence in the resurrection than we now have, then we might fear that we would not recmise each other. This would be a and resurrection for all. We cannot suppose that the God who was loving ugh to plan for a "resurrection both of the just and of the unjust" would spoil the whole plan by such a disap-pointment as this. Those who attain heaven are to be made "partakers of the divine nature." With such powers as will be theirs no knowledge will be all over the State have been liberal beyond their reach. The changes which will come to those raised on the human plane, we understand will be gradual, so that when they come forth from the grave they will be in much the same condition as when they went down, and therefore easily recognised.

Q-In 1 John 5:18 we are informed that there are some eine that can be forgiven, and some that cannot. What are these two kinds? (P. P.)

Answer.-Death is the extreme pen alty for wilful sin. Adam's penalty, which involved his entire race, was of this kind; and only as the result of Christ's death as our ransom from the penalty of that wilful sin is any forgiveness of it or subsequent sins possible. Forgivable sins are those which result from weaknesses incurred through that one Adamic sin which Christ settles once for all. They are such as are not wilful, but are committed through ignorance or weakness es of the flesh. God stands pledged to forgive all such sins upon our repentance, in the name and merit of Christ's sacrifice. Unpardonable sins are such as are wilfully done. As the penalty of the first wilful sin was death-extinction of being-so death is the penalty of every wilful sin against full knowledge and ability to choose and to do the right. The "sin unto death," for the forgiveness of which the Apostle declares it is useless to pray, is not only a wilful sin, but a sin against clear knowledge. It is called the "sin against the holy Spirit" (Matthew 12:31, 32).

Q-What is the meaning of the phrase in Psalm 45:14, "She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needle-work?" (H. B.)

Answer.-It is now that the church is being brought to her Lord to be his queen. All through this gospel age from Pentecost till now the Lord has used the various instrumentalities to call out from the world this peculiar people and by various means He has led them from grace to grace, from knowledge to knowledge and changed them from glory to glory to prepare them for their final acceptance in the first resurrection, to where the clothing of gold will be theirs, glory, honor and immortality. It is in full accord with all of this that the Scriptures represent that all accepted of the Lord throughout this gospel age have been granted a wedding garment clean and whitepure linen which is the righteousnes of the saints" (Revelation 19:8). That robe represents justification, the covering of our blemishes; and it is a wedding garment because it constitutes a basis of our ultimate acceptance by the Lord in the end of this age when the marriage of the Lamb shall come. Our acceptance depends on our care of the robe. We must keep our garments unspotted from the world (Jac es 1.27). We must embroider them with fine needle-work. Painstakingly we must endeavor to fix and establish in our robes the glorious pattern outple of our Bridegroom, and His mouthpieces, the apostles.

Q.—In Matthew 7:21-23 we read that some who have done wonderful works and east out devils will not be recognized by the Lord. Would we understand that none who have ever east devils will be recognized by the Lord? (T. W. B.)

Answer.—Our Lord does not say that none of those who cast out devils will swer be acknowledged by Him, but rely states that there are many who will do even such great works as this and still not be of His. When Chris tions generally were in ignorance of the fact that the last twelve verses of the book of Mark are not genuine many honest souls were deeply distressed be cause they were not able to cast of ons and do other wonderful this True, the spostles and others of the early church did perform some such racies as are here described, but p here in the Bible are we inform that we will be able to do works magic, or, on the other hand, that the performing of miracles would keep us out of heaven. R. B. Humphrey of Throckmorte

For Congressman at-Large. Hon. R. B. Humpbrey of Throckmorton is a West Texas candidate for Congress to represent the whole State and the only aspirant in this section. His home people give him a strong endorsement and the press in expressing their confidence in his ability. The following endorsement from his neighbors at Throckmorton needs no comment :

Throckmorton, Tex., Mar. 31, 1914. To the Democratic Voters of Texas:

R. B. Humphrey of Throckmorton is a candidate for Congressman-at-Large, and we, the undersigned citizens of Throckmorton county, submit the following as some of the reasons why he should receive one of the Democratic nominations in the July primary:

1. Mr. Humphrey is a Christian gentleman in his everyday life and conduct.

2. His record as a Democrat is clear, he has no entangling aliance with any special interest, and he can be trusted to act in behalf of the common people.

3. As a member of the State Legislature he has shown conspicuous capacity for the public service, and we believe his legislative training particularly fits him for useful work in the National lawmaking

4. He has risen rapidly from a most humble beginning to a position of trusted prominence in the State's affairs, and we believe the further elevation of such a young man to distinguished office is in line with sound public policy, is a wise bestowal of reward for honorable ambition and an opportune method of encouraging every boy in our great State to lead an upright life and aspire to great achievements.

There are land loan and trust companies throughout this nation. They operate in this way: they will take up land notes drawing 8, 9 and 10 per cent and sell them in the East at a rate which will net the investors 5 and 6 per cent. All Approve Dodson's Liver Tone a the Safe Family Remedy for Constipation and Lazy Liver.

There are most excellent reasons for Betts & Clark standing back of Dodson's Liver Tone with an unconditional guarantee to refund purchase price (50c.) to you at one without question in event of any dissatisfaction.

Seven of America's very highest priced physicians, who were consulted regarding Dodson's Liver Tone and who analyzed this vege table liquid remedy carefully with all their skill, knowledge and experience, have all agreed on its superior merit, harmlessness and effectiveness. Dodson's takes the place of dangerous calomel in constipation, biliousness, sluggish liver, sick headache, etc.

Each of these physician's fees was heavy enough to stagger most men; but their judgment is worth all it cost, particularly if it will be the means of leading more people to refuse to run dangerous risk by taking calomel and other violent remedies.

Dodson's Liver Tone not only relieves the sufferer from constipation and kindred ills, but does it rasily and naturally, without ache, pain or gripe, with no bad after-effects, without interfering with usual duties and habits and absolutely without danger-which is one reason it can carry an iron-clad guarantee. It has proved a boon to so many that it is recommended for you to try at once. 1t

During the recent rains, it has been shown very clearly where the streets and roads of Hereford need repairing For some time, yes months, some of the citizens have urged upon the Commission the need of repairs at many and certain places, but so far little has been done. The Mayor and the Commissioners should have taken a pleasure trip by gasoline launch last Monday morning and they could have seen where the trouble lies. The Mayor seldom gets far from his beaten paths: To his office from his room, back to his room at even tide, to the court house when there's grinding, to the barber shops and occasionally to the bath rooms. He should take a day off and view the situation. Cotton and rice are the only Monday, the long stretches of water courses surging thru the main roads of the town, the back water that reminded Williams and Wilkinson of Arkansaw, the lake receiving a flood of sky water from the road as far west as Ramsey's, the fish pond at Stambo's store, the lake at Price's and Ferguson's, the river flow at Mrs. Rayzor's corner, the double lake at the Presbyterian church, the puddles and oodles of water everywhere, would certainly have brought bring tears to his eyes. The Main street at the town lake is a sight to behold. Of course, it will take some money and time, but what's time to a horse and a road machine? If the Commission would win fame and honor to themselves, let them get right busy now and make these much The farmers of Texas spend needed repairs. A competent street man will have to be in charge of the work for good results. A road like that near the Vanderburg home is a poor excuse for grading-higher in the middle than at the sides with a gully on each side. Now don't say this is knocking on the Commission; not much, but these are facts and the Commission wants only facts with which to deal. This is not a time for fiction or fables. The rains have come and are going to come some more and the streets will be needed to carry on the necessary traffic this year-have not needed them much until now-and it is surely the duty of the Commission to do. all they can to put the streets in condition-and it will.

What Are YOU Doir

Down through the ages the Church has been the civilizer of men and nations. The men and women who support the Church are the best people of every community. The Church has always been, and is today, the living exponent of decency and good government.

The Church is the power-house of religion. God is the power, just as electricity is the power of the physical world. That is what Saint Paul meant when he said "The Church is the fullness of Him that filleth all in all."

In either case, however, the power must be brought down and harnessed to the machinery of everyday life. As over the electric power-house you see it's commercial message, "Light, Heat, Power," so above the Church you read it's gospel message, "Faith! Hope! Love!"

The force of electricity performes a wonderful service for mankind. But it compels constant human effort to assist it, to convert it into such form that it will be usable. So also does the Church require human co-operation before it can put forth it's wonderful power for good. Each individual can, and should, help to extend this power of religion.

What are you doing for this power-house of religion?

Not, mind you, what is it doing for you? That question is easy to answer. The Church is making your business or work possible, making your city tolerable, and making your home safe. And every banker and baker and candlestick maker among you knows this is true.

Credit is generally said to be 90 per cent of business. And what is credit but Faith in your fellowmen? What is it that keeps the heart of your city beating true but Hope? What is it that consecrates your home but Love?

Faith, Hope, Love-these three come from the power-house of religion, which is the church. Think, then, how all-important the Church is to your everyday life. You live by the Church. You could not be induced to live elsewhere And so long as you remain in civilization you cannot escape the good fruits of the

What are YOU doing for the Church?

Are you just keeping it in sight, as seabirds keep a ship in sight, waiting for something to be thrown to you? Are you content that the Church should solemnize your marriage, baptise your children, visit your sickbed, and hand you, when you leave this world, into the arms of God? Are you content to accept all this and still not show your appreciation by attendance upon the services of the church?

Are you fair to shift the Church responsibility entirely to others? Would you, in any other walk of life, accept the benefits of any other organization year in and year out and still refuse to assist it in any way?

How cas you help the Church?

First and foremost by your attendance.

Begin at once. Your presence in the power-house of religion will increase its power.

If he had charged 5 cents per line, as he should, the bill would have been $28.80, and why didn't he. The reason Editor Watson gives in his own language:

While The Reporter opposes Judge homas L. "Poor as a Church Mouse."

This expression is as old as memory, but nobody seems to have known how it started. Likely it came into use from the fact the collections were so scarce that even the mice that inhabited the building were poor in flesh. There were no crumbs that fell from the table and hence the poor mice. And the preachers and the missionary work faired little better, and to have said : "Poor as a missionary preacher," would have The Brand wants to buy a pair of been equally as true. DEFECTS?

For Sale by BETTS-CLARK DRUGGISTS

"If you will sell it to me as cheap as I can order it, I'll buy from you."

The argument of the mailorder customer; but what are we approaching when a business man uses the same sort of talk when he orders his stationery from Dallas or Kansas City? "We can save 50 cents by ordering it ourselves and we thought during these strenuous times we would make every edge cut," is a parallel to "I can save several dollars by ordering a stove from Rareback & Mut Gumery and I think these ticklish times justify me in doing it."

Don't "jar" yourself hoarse about folks buying from the mail order houses, when you spring the same thing on the job printing offices in your own town. The local office gives something more than the paper and printing on it, when it does a job for the local merchant. The newspaper, if it does it's duty, is everlastingly on the boost for the town, (and this means every werchant and professional man in it,) whether they ever give the local job department a cent's worth of printing or not.

If the local newspaper man should use the same "argiment" when buying hardware, groceries, drygoods or racket goods, what would the local business man do to him?

In selling job printing, the local job office is often compelled to meet the competition of the large printing houses in order to get the jobs; but the man who works in that same print shop, dare not threaten his prospective customer with the mail order house.

A "fair deal" and a "square deal" is all that anyone in business should want.
