Hereford picked as site of new plant

Poarch Bros. to manufacture, assemble cotton stripper head

BY SPEEDY NIEMAN
Editor-Publisher
Hereford has been selected as the site for a new manufacturing and assembly plant, it was announced this morning by Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce and the Hereford Industrial Foundation.

Through the joint efforts of Poarch Bros., Inc. of Hereford and J.I. Case International, a long-term contract has been established for the manufacture and assembly of a newly-designed cotton stripper implement that will be marketed both nationally and internationally by J.I. Case.

The C of C and Industrial Foundation were involved in assisting Poarch Bros. in completing the project, said Lewis McDaniel, industrial committee chairman.

"This new industry has come about due to a local existing company, and the future growth and potential will be tremendous to our community," McDaniel said at a press conference this morning at the chamber office.

Tom LeGate, president of Hereford Industrial Foundation, said the foundation will be providing the funding for construction of a building, with the assistance of First National Bank and Hereford State Bank.

The new facility will be constructed on 7 acres of land just west of Poarch Bros. headquarters on Holly Sugar Road. The building alone will cost about $250,000 and the foundation will lease it to the company. Construction should begin in early January on the 12,500-sq. ft. building.

Ken Walsler, president of Poarch Bros., told the group how the project got started about two years ago, and how the company proceeded through its development stage in building a new stripper head to be married with the Case chassis.

He explained that Case had discontinued making cotton strippers but dealers kept after the firm to provide the implement. Case then started looking for someone to build them and Poarch Bros. name got into the picture.

Walsler said the expansion will add about 15 employees to start and production will get underway almost as soon as construction is completed on the building. He expects the firm to build about 50 units the first year and double that number the second year. Walsler said it was too early to project the dollar volume that would be involved in the new plant. Walsler also introduced Danny Miller, who will head up the new plant.

Additional manufacturing and assembly capabilities are projected in 1992 and 1993. In future years, the plant will also provide for the manufacturing of all replacement parts for these units.

Doug Josseland, C of C president, congratulated Poarch Bros. this morning and said it "is a perfect example of how local industry can expand if they have a progressive attitude." LeGate said the Foundation was "proud and pleased to be involved in the project," and he thanked both local banks for their cooperation.

Walsler expressed his appreciation to the chamber, the Foundation, the banks and all who were involved in assisting the company in the expansion plans. "The announcement is a nice Christmas present for all of us," he added. He said A.L. Black, owner of Poarch, was unable to be present but also extended his appreciation.

Mayor Wes Fisher was present at the meeting and pledged the city's help in any way it could help the firm accomplish its goals. "Poarch Brothers has always been an important industry in Hereford, and you're helping put Hereford on the map again. We congratulate you," said the mayor.

Special entertainment at the banquet was provided by Bruce Ayers, director of development at Wayland University. Ayers sang a variety of songs and imitated several country western singers.

Mrs. Tyler also surprised Brand publisher Speedy Nieman by presenting him with a replacement Centennial plate. Nieman had purchased Plate No. 2 and broke it while attempting to hang it in his office. He was also cited for helping with the plate design and publicity.

Don Tardy introduced the special entertainment; Mark Andrews worded the invocation, and Mrs. LeGate presented door prizes at the banquet.

Plant announcement made today

Poarch Bros. officials and leaders of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce and the Hereford Industrial Foundation gathered this morning to announce an agreement between Poarch and J.I. Case for a manufacturing and assembly plant here. The facility, to be located just west of Poarch Bros., will make cotton stripper head implements.

Amistad Housing sets formal opening of units here Saturday

After six years of planning and development, Amistad Housing of Hereford will celebrate its opening Saturday with a formal opening ceremony and open house activities from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Hereford Hustlers, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce ambassadors, will conduct a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 2:30 p.m.

Refreshments and music will be provided during the afternoon, and visitors are invited to view the apartments, according to Miguel and Angie Alonzo, managers. The housing project is located at 301 S.

Texas, between Higgins and Norton streets.

Amistad Housing offers 2, 3 and 4-bedroom apartments to persons of low income who have worked as farmworkers during the past 12 months. As a recipient of Farmer Home Administration grants and loans, the housing project will comply with federal regulations governing admissions, occupancy and evictions.

"With good housing for farmworkers such a rarity throughout West Texas, the Hereford community should be proud that the Amistad Housing Development Corporation persevered to complete this much-needed housing project," said Rodolfo Mares, TRLA Plainview office.

"With this new housing, any farmworker who has a question about availability of units should call Amistad Housing," added Mares.

Insurance firms vow to appeal freeze on workers' comp rates

AUSTIN (AP) - Insurance companies vowed to appeal a decision by state regulators to freeze workers' compensation rates.

Meanwhile labor representatives boycotted a commission set up to administer the new workers' comp law.

Insurance companies writing workers' comp policies in Texas voted Thursday to challenge the State Board of Insurance's Nov. 26 decision to freeze employer-paid premiums for one year.

The insurance industry wanted an 18.8 percent rate increase, but the Insurance Board said the new workers' comp law, scheduled to start Jan. 1, should cut costs in the system that compensates injured employees.

Richard Geiger, a Dallas attorney representing the National Council of Compensation Insurance, said the Insurance Board acted without looking at the facts.

In addition, Geiger said that insurance companies fear a legal challenge of the new law by the Texas AFL-CIO may kill it.

The state AFL-CIO has asked a state district judge to declare the law unconstitutional because it denies workers basic rights. A hearing on a temporary court order to delay the law's implementation is scheduled for Tuesday in Eagle Pass.

"If the trial court enjoins the implementation of (the law) then all the benefits as far as the rates are concerned are taken away," Geiger said.

Meanwhile, the new Texas Workers Compensation Commission tried to vote on some 100 rules to backup the new law, but two employee representatives on the panel walked out during a heated meeting.

Ramon Class of Canyon and O.D. Kennemore of Lake Jackson said they felt they were being railroaded into voting for rules that would hurt workers.

They said they wanted to wait until fellow labor representative Edward "Red" Hayse Jr. of Hurst, returned to the commission. Hayse is recovering from knee surgery and has been unable to attend the commission meetings.

McBride recognized as 'Realtor of Year' for 1990

Juston McBride was recognized as "Realtor of the Year," Carol Sue LeGate was installed as new president, and Marn Tyler received a special "Workhorse Award" to highlight the Hereford Board of Realtors annual installation banquet Thursday night at Hereford Country Club.

McBride was lauded for his "unselfish leadership" and a long list of honors and achievements on being presented as "Realtor of the Year" by last year's recipient, Henry Reid. McBride was also cited for involvement in community organizations and church.

Mrs. LeGate heads a new slate of officers which also includes Joel Salazar as vice president and Diane Beavers as secretary-treasurer. Board directors for 1991 include Marn Tyler, Clarence Betzen, Glenda Keenan and McBride. The new officers were installed by Bobby McQueen, Region 1 Texas Association of Realtors vice president from Lubbock.

EnCoRe slates drop-off day

Magazines have been added to the list of reusable items to be collected by EnCoRe at its next drop-off day, scheduled from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15 at St. Anthony's Church parking lot.

The Newsletter Company, a Hereford Business, invites local residents to have their used magazines, which will be used for research work. After being scanned, these periodicals will be shared with the local hospital, schools, King's Manor and Hereford clinics.

EnCoRe stresses that it is currently seeking magazines, not catalogs. Other recyclable goods to be accepted on the 15th include: plastic, glass, all metals, batteries and newsprint (bundled and tied). At this time, EnCoRe does not have a market for cardboard or styrofoam.

Individuals needing further information can contact Tonya Kleuskens, 258-7583 or Kerrie Steiert, 364-1855.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - The attorney for a profoundly retarded woman who was allegedly raped and impregnated while under state care says threats may keep former state employees from revealing critical information about the case.

David Ferleger, a Philadelphia attorney who represents Lubbock State School resident Debra Lynn Thomas, told the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal he will ask U.S. District Judge Barefoot Sanders to order that "no person be retaliated against for giving us information on Debra's pregnancy."

Cathy Sessil Robinson, a former dormitory worker at the state school who had told Ferleger that sexual activity was commonplace at the institution, received a threatening phone call on Sunday, according to a Lubbock police report.

According to the report, an unknown male called saying "You're gonna be in trouble for what you said in the paper. You're gonna get it."

Sanders, whose court is supervising Ms. Thomas' case, earlier had denied an anti-retaliation motion, saying it overlapped other state regulations.

"All employees have a right to call me to talk," said Ferleger. "He denied that motion because he felt there was no reason to worry that people would be intimidated. But somebody has been intimidated."

In other legal business, Ms. Thomas will likely not be allowed to live with her sister until DNA tests determine who fathered the baby, attorneys said.

Ms. Thomas' sister and legal guardian, Dori Wooten, wants her sister to reside permanently in the Wooten home.

But Assistant Attorney General Dona Hamilton told the Avalanche-Journal that until DNA tests conclusively identify the child's father, Ms. Thomas will likely not be allowed to move in with her sister.

Ms. Hamilton, who represents the state mental health department, said Ms. Thomas can not move in with the Wootens because Mrs. Wooten's husband, Jimmy, is one of 11 suspects.

Wooten and the other 10 men, who are Lubbock State School employees, have submitted blood samples to the state.

When the child is born, DNA tests will determine whether any of the 11 suspects fathered the child.

Ms. Thomas, who is bound to a wheelchair, will remain in University Medical Center in Lubbock until she delivers the baby, which is due next month.

The child, who risks birth defects because of the anti-seizure medicines prescribed to Ms. Thomas, is expected to be turned over to Mrs. Wooten's custody, according to Lynn Collins, an attorney for the Department of Human Services.

Ferleger, who represents hundreds of other plaintiffs in a class-action suit against the state, said he "doesn't expect any fight in court" over custody of the child.

"We are hoping that the state will agree to work out a way for the baby to come home with Debra to Dori's house," he said.

More accusations of wrongdoing were made against the school during a taping of the Phil Donahue show Tuesday. The show was scheduled to be aired Friday.

A former Lubbock State School employee, who was disguised and went by the name "Diane," said in some instances employees put hot peppers in the mouths of patients they did not like.

She also claimed a patient was allowed to lie on a day room floor for days before receiving medical attention.

Jaylon Fincannon, deputy commissioner for Texas' mental retardation services, said Thursday he had not seen the Donahue segment but was skeptical of some of the charges.

"It's just inconceivable that a person would lie on the floor ... for days and nothing would be done about it," he said.

Ma Bell cuts rates

More than five million Southwestern Bell customers in Texas will share an $87.5 million one-time credit as part of an agreement approved Nov. 28, 1990 by the Texas Public Utility Commission.

Beginning with bills mailed today, residential customers will see a credit on their bills ranging from $9.53 to $10.11. This range includes $8.72 in credit for Southwestern Bell service, and a credit for all applicable federal, state and local fees and taxes. This will appear on the "Other Charges for Southwestern Bell" page of customers' monthly telephone bill.

Depending upon the type of service and rate structure, business customers will receive credits ranging from $2.91 per access line to more than $40 per access line in some instances.

However, most business customers (those with single line, flat-rate service) will see a credit in the range of $2.91 per access line to more than $40 per access line in some instances.

However, most business customers (those with single line, flat-rate service) will see a credit in the range of $9.80 to $10.38 per access line. These amounts also include the credit for federal, state and local fees and taxes.

Customers should receive their credits on bills received in December or early January. These credits are part of a settlement agreement that includes the largest telephone rate reductions and most ambitious modernization of telecommunications equipment ever ordered by the PUC.

The three-member commission approved the $1.2 billion consumer benefit package after months of negotiations among the PUC General Counsel, Southwestern Bell and 23 other parties.

New Realtor officers

Judge bans woman from church

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - A judge has ordered a woman who admits she is "madly in love" with a prominent minister to leave him and his family alone and to stay off the church premises.

The Rev. Buckner Fanning, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, testified at a hearing Thursday that Frances Geer, 37, and her mother have been harassing him and his family with letters and telephone calls for several years.

Miss Geer told State District Judge John Cornyn that she is in love with Fanning and acknowledged writing letters to him, but denied she harassed Fanning, who has been the church's pastor for the past 31 years.

She said she has been writing love letters to Fanning since 1981.

Fanning and his wife of 41 years, Martha, filed suit last week and obtained a temporary restraining order against the women.

At the end of Thursday's hearing, Cornyn elevated the restraining order to a temporary injunction. A date will be set later for a trial to determine if a permanent injunction will be issued.

Fanning testified that for years he and his family have been besieged with letters, telephone calls, surveillance of his home and threats of bodily harm.

Fanning testified the first letters he received were complimentary and he wrote letters responding to them. Eventually, Fanning said, Miss Geer's letters began expressing "an unnatural affection" and were of "a personal nature."

"It was a fantasy engendered in her mind," the minister said. He tried to discourage her, he said, informing her he was happily married, and suggested she receive counseling.

The preacher said he began sending her letters back to her unopened. He later read some of the letters and found they had taken on notes of hostility.

Fanning said he has received about 200 letters during the past year. He said he received so many telephone calls at his home he had to leave his phone off the hook so his family could sleep at night. He finally began using an answering machine to screen his calls.

"We've never had anything in the life of my family that has been more distressing than this," Fanning said. Fanning and his wife have been married 41 years.

"It has been frustrating beyond description," he said.

Edith Geer, Frances Geer's 71-year-old mother, testified she had been fond of Fanning for many years.

Appointment being studied

AUSTIN (AP) - An aide to Gov.-elect Ann Richards says it's too soon to say who she may appoint to replace state welfare board chairman Rob Mosbacher.

Mosbacher, a Republican appointed by Gov. Bill Clements, said Thursday that he will resign from the Department of Human Services board after Richards is sworn in.

Mosbacher was the GOP nominee for lieutenant governor this year, losing the general election to Democrat Bob Bullock.

Chuck McDonald, a spokesman for the governor-elect, said Richards "appreciates the gesture on his part. It gives her the opportunity to have some real input in the direction of that agency."

But McDonald said Richards hasn't begun screening candidates for vacancies on the six-member panel. Mosbacher said he was resigning two years early because he wants the welfare agency to be able to ask the 1991 Legislature for additional funds "free of any hint of partisanship."

The Department of Human Services has been struggling with a budget deficit for more than a year. Officials blame the shortage on increased caseloads and changes in federal laws.

Workhorse Award

Marn Tyler, left, was presented the president's "Workhorse Award" at the Hereford Board of Realtor banquet Thursday night. She was cited for work with the county Centennial Plate project. Her secretary, Connie Garcia, right, also was recognized for working with the project.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Recently I learned that my dad fathered a child by a single woman 10 years ago, during his second marriage. His current wife had children by her first husband and the youngest child was legally adopted by my dad.

My dilemma is this: The woman doesn't know where my father is and she needs his address in order to sue him for child support. We met briefly and I was shown several photographs of the child as well as the birth certificate. After our meeting, I was convinced that she was completely honest with me and that my dad did indeed father her child.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Early last summer you ran a letter from a woman who wished her family would stop nagging her to quit smoking. At first, I was furious with her selfish indifference toward her family, because I remembered how my father and I used to beg my mother to quit smoking. It hurt me to think that maybe Mom felt the same way toward us. Then, I felt strangely comforted by your reply.

It is so true, Ann, the only person who can make an addicted person quit is the addict. There is not one thing anyone can do until he or she makes that decision. Feeling guilty because someone you love is killing him or herself is not only useless, but it will drive you crazy.

My mother died of emphysema last July Fourth, after suffering for six horrible years. She was 56. I thank God that she is finally free of the pain, but she left behind a family that mourns her daily and curses her life-draining addiction.

Please keep telling your readers that if they drink to excess or smoke they should listen to their families, their doctors and their own bodies. Keep begging them to quit before it kills them. Because my mother couldn't or wouldn't listen, she is gone and my father and I must go on without her.

I miss my mother's support, her humor and -- just HER. My heart aches that my own son will never have the privilege of knowing his marvelous grandmother -- a woman who could have added so much to his life. -- Her Daughter in Middleburg, Fla.

DEAR DAUGHTER: Well said. Thank you. Gem of the Day: Some students drink at the fountain of knowledge. Others merely gargle. -- High School Teacher for 21 years, Paducah, Ky.

Herd falls to Sweetwater in B'field tourney

The Hereford Whitefaces suffered one of their coldest shooting nights of the year in dropping a 62-42 decision to Sweetwater in the opening round of the Brownfield Rotary Tournament.

The Herd (1-7 on the year) connected on only 17 of 65 field goal attempts (.26 average) during the game and was held to 19 points through the third quarter.

The Mustangs more than doubled the Herd's output in that time, leading 47-19 heading into the final eight minutes before Hereford posted a 23-15 edge in the fourth quarter. Sweetwater led 14-7 after the first period and 33-15 at the half.

Hereford was led by Richard Sanderson with 12 points and Leo Brown with 10. Sean Smith added six points with Eric Sims getting four, Chris Steward and Derek Mason three each and Ben Weatherly and Andrew Tijerina two apiece.

Sweetwater was led by Craig Ruffin with 18 points.

The herd was scheduled to face Spur at 1:30 p.m. today in the losers bracket.

In other Hereford games, the Herd junior varsity lost to Brownfield 65-53 in the JV division at Brownfield while the Lady Whiteface JV downed Olton 35-19 in the Sudan JV Girls Tournament.

B'field 65, Herd JV 53

Brownfield's Mark Washington scored 14 of his team-high 18 points in the first half as the Cubs led 34-16 at the intermission.

Jones seeking recognition for best professional season

HOUSTON (AP) - Houston Oilers defensive end Sean Jones is closing out his best season as a pro but he still has two goals to achieve - earning Pro Bowl recognition and getting a pat on the back from defensive coach Jim Stanley.

Jones leads the Oilers with 9½ sacks and he's averaging five unassisted tackles per game in the Oilers' 4-3 defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL.

He'll matching rushing skills Sunday in Kansas City with Chiefs linebacker Derrick Thomas, who has 17 sacks, including a league record seven in one game.

"I believe I'm having a Pro Bowl year," Jones said. "I know I'm one of the best defensive ends in the league."

Jones may find accolades more difficult to obtain from the hard-to-please Stanley.

"Before the season's over, I want to go into a meeting one day and hear Coach say, 'Hey, that's the way it should be done,'" Jones said.

Jones' previous best season was 1986 when he had 15½ sacks for the Los Angeles Raiders. He came to the Oilers in 1987 with a reputation as a pass rush specialist who couldn't play the run.

"I always played the run well when I was with the Raiders," Jones

The Cubs took a 19-8 advantage in the opening period before outscoring the Herd 15-8 in the second.

Hereford came back to outscore the Cubs in each of the final two quarters, posting a 13-10 edge in the third and cutting three more points from the deficit with a 24-21 advantage in the fourth.

Kyle Hansen led all scorers with 22 points for the Herd while Mark Kriegshauser also reached double figures with 10. Chad Sandoval added eight points with Jason Paetzold scoring four, Kevin Kelso three and Tempie Abney, Michael Kubacak and Matt Reiter two apiece.

The Herd JV was scheduled to face Seminole at 4:30 p.m. today in the second round.

Lady Whiteface JV 35, Olton 19
Hereford scored all six points put on the board in the first quarter and never trailed in the game.

Olton went on a 5-2 run in the second period to cut the lead to 8-5 at halftime, but Hereford scored as much in the third quarter as Olton would the entire second half.

Kara Sandoval led all scorers with 10 points for the Herd while Misty Dudley added seven and Claudia Ramirez and Lindsay Radford had six each. Amber Griffith scored four points and Taylor Brooks and Jill Robinson had one apiece.

Olton was paced by Rosie Cantrell's seven points.

Hereford advanced to meet Springlake-Earth in the semifinals at 6:50 p.m. today.

Kings crown Portland

By The Associated Press

The Portland Trail Blazers were acting like NBA royalty until they got a lesson from the Kings.

Portland, off to the second-quick-start in league history at 19-1, carried an eight-game winning streak to Sacramento. They left Thursday night with a 100-88 defeat against the NBA's tailenders.

"Go ahead and say it," Waymon Tisdale said after the Kings rallied from a 19-point hole. "The worst team in the NBA beat the best team in the NBA. We've been coming back on a lot of good teams lately."

"When we saw the look on their faces, we kept going. And when we saw the look in their eyes, we took it to them."

They sure did. The Kings were down 11-0 and 42-23. But Leon Wood, Anthony Bonner and Antoine Carr led them back.

"This win showed the team had a lot of character," said Bonner, a rookie in his second pro game. He scored 16 points. "We're like a family. When things get down, we stay together."

They could have folded when they opened the game by missing their first six shots. Then coach Dick Motta was ejected for arguing with the referees.

"To tell you the truth, I think he tried to get kicked out of the game in the first four minutes," Trail Blazers coach Rick Adelman said. "The refs just didn't go along with it."

In other games, it was Utah 141, Denver 126 behind the Malones; Phoenix 125, Orlando 114; New York 87, Minnesota 76; Atlanta 106, New Jersey 97; and Golden State 129, Seattle 106.

Jazz 141, Nuggets 126

Karl Malone scored 39 points and Jeff Malone added 29 as Utah won its 11th game in the last 12.

John Stockton added 18 points and 17 assists for Utah. Orlando Woolridge led Denver with 29.

The Jazz led 94-88 with 3:40 remaining in the third quarter, but the Jazz finished the quarter with a 17-10 run, including eight straight points by Stockton.

Suns 125, Magic 114

Kevin Johnson scored 26 of his season-high 38 points in the second half. Tom Chambers added 25 points, Jeff Hornacek 23 and Xavier McDaniel 16 for the Suns.

Orlando was paced by Scott Skiles' 25 points.

The Suns, trailing 81-71 in the third period, closed out the quarter with a 16-4 run. Hornacek's jumper with 32 seconds left put Phoenix ahead to stay at 87-85.

Knicks 87, Timberwolves 76

Patrick Ewing had 31 points and 15 rebounds and Charles Oakley added 22 points and 17 rebounds.

Pooh Richardson almost single-handedly rallied the Timberwolves, scoring 13 of his 22 points during a 15-2 run that cut New York's lead to 64-62 early in the final period.

Oakley then scored on a rebound and made two free throws and Ewing hit a short jumper, giving the Knicks control. The Knicks outrebounded the Timberwolves 60-38.

Hawks 106, Nets 97

Moses Malone and Sidney Moncrief came off the bench with 8 points each in the final quarter as the Hawks pulled away.

The Hawks led 79-76 when Moncrief started a 20-8 run that ended on his layup for a 99-84 lead with 4:50 to play. Malone had his 8 points and 5 rebounds during that surge.

Dominique Wilkins led the Hawks with 23 points and Kevin Willis added 18. Mookie Blaylock led the Nets with 22 points.

Warriors 129, SuperSonics 106

The Warriors had no trouble after establishing a 55-50 halftime lead. They got 11 points each from Mitch Richmond and Tim Hardaway in the third period and didn't look back.

Chris Mullin and Richmond scored 20 points each to lead the Golden State.

Dana Barros scored 21 of his 24 points for Seattle in the second half.

Bengals may miss Boomer

By BARRY WILNER

AP Sports Writer
Will Cincinnati's playoff hopes go bust without Boomer?

The Bengals, locked in a three-way tie for the Central Division lead, enter Sunday's game against the Raiders with quarterback Boomer Esiason's health a big question mark. That makes Cincinnati's playoff chances just as questionable.

"You'll probably see Erik Wilhelm," Bengals coach Sam Wyche said of the backup to Esiason who never has started an NFL game. "If Boomer's able to play, he'll play."

Esiason strained a groin muscle during the Bengals' 20-17 overtime loss to San Francisco last weekend. He is listed as questionable, but Wyche has not sounded optimistic.

Esiason has a more positive outlook.

"The doctors here are very cautious," he said. "They feel if I'm hurt in any way on Sunday, they're not going to allow me to play."

"But in my own mind most of us football players, when it comes time to play, aren't very smart. So I would imagine, being as dumb as I am, I will probably end up playing anyway."

The Raiders, 9-4 and tied with Kansas City for first place in the AFC West, are healthy. And skeptical about Esiason's potential absence.

"(When) Boomer Esiason comes on the sidelines in street clothes, then I'll say he won't play," Raiders coach Art Shell said. "But until that time, we're preparing for Boomer Esiason."

And not for starting safety Rickey Dixon and running back Craig Taylor, both out with leg injuries.

The Raiders have won two straight since losing to Kansas City 27-24, with Bo Jackson rushing for 246 yards in victories over Denver and Detroit.

The Chiefs try to keep pace with the Raiders by shutting down the run-and-shoot of the Houston Oilers, who are tied with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh at 7-6.

Also Sunday, it's Atlanta at Cleveland, Indianapolis at the New York Jets, Minnesota at Tampa Bay, Phoenix at Dallas, Pittsburgh at New Orleans, Seattle at Miami, Green Bay at Philadelphia, San Diego at Denver and Chicago at Detroit.

On Saturday, Buffalo is at the New York Giants and Washington visits New England. Monday night's game features the two-time defending champion San Francisco 49ers, with the league's best record of 12-1, at the Los Angeles Rams.

Washington will clinch an NFC wild-card slot with a win, while the Raiders and Chiefs also can secure wild cards - but they need help.

Smaller schools go bigtime with date in Astrodome

HOUSTON (AP) - During high school football playoffs, the Astrodome normally is the province of 5A and 4A teams.

Tonight, it will have its first Class 2A playoff battle, a clash between defending state champion Groveton and Schulenburg. Both have perfect 14-0 records, and the game will be a rematch of last year's semifinal game.

Schulenburg insisted on playing in the Dome, citing memories of last year's 2A semifinals, won by Groveton 27-6, at Kyle Field in College Station amid freezing temperatures, whipping winds and a minus-18 wind chill factor.

Rodney Thomas returned the opening kickoff 98 yards, and later scored two more touchdowns for Groveton. A week later, the Indians went on to beat Lorena a week later and has a Class 2A-record 30-game winning streak.

Groveton quarterback Gerald Farley, who had a 72-yard touchdown run last week as Groveton beat Alto 39-27, is encouraged by memories of last season's victory.

"That gives us a lot of confidence; it will help a lot," he said. "Last week's game will help, too. Everybody was nervous and tense playing Alto again. This week we will go in, try to play better and take control from the start."

Farley normally accentuates his legs with red tights, the better to let defenders see what they can't stop.

But Groveton coach Don Hill has decreed Farley will be minus tights for tonight's 8 o'clock kickoff.

"He's afraid I'll get too hot in the Astrodome wearing them," Farley said. "I'm going to try to get him to change his mind."

Groveton normally controls things on the ground, entering the game with an average of 392 yards rushing. Thomas has rushed for a 2A-record 3,197 yards, fourth-highest in Texas high school history, and 42 TDs. Farley has 934 yards and 20 TDs.

Thomas' 7,598 career yards ranks fourth overall. He could move past Billy Sims into third place on the career list with 138 yards and past Kenneth Hall of Sugar Land (3,458 in 1952) into third on the season list with 261 yards.

"I always wanted 3,000 yards," Thomas said. "Now, I want another state championship."

Hill is concerned about turnovers - the Indians have lost 32 fumbles in 14 games - and the attitude of a Schulenburg team toughened by the loss of three starters to no-pass, no-play, including quarterback Bo Adams.

Adams has been replaced at quarterback by Marc Tidwell, who started for the Shorthorns as a freshman. Since taking the starting job, he has completed 33-of-54 attempts for 551 yards and three touchdowns.

With Farley's tights down for the count, fashion will not play a role in tonight's outcome. And with the game inside, the cold weather that marred last season's game won't be a factor.

Money won't come into play, either. The Astrodome rental fee for Schulenburg and Groveton is 33 percent of gross receipts. Add the University Interscholastic League's 15 percent cut, and the teams will end up splitting 52 percent of the gate.

"We're expecting a good crowd," said Groveton principal Jim Wise, citing the 12,000-plus fans who attended last week's Groveton-Alto game.

Aldine, Lamar meet for title

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) - The pressure will be on the defenses of No. 1 Aldine and No. 2 Arlington Lamar Saturday when the two teams meet for the Class 5A small school state football championship.

Kickoff is at noon in the Astrodome.

Arlington Lamar's task will be to stop Aldine quarterback Eric Gray, a 1,000-yard passer and rusher, and Derrick Johnson, who has gained 1,566 yards this season.

The Mustangs (14-0) have outscored their opponents an average of 30.6 points per game.

Arlington Lamar, ranked No. 2 in The Associated Press Schoolboy poll, much of the season, will have 2,000-yard rusher Shawn Walters running behind an offensive line that averaged 255 pounds.

Aldine defensive coordinator Pat Patterson says Aldine must play a near perfect game.

"We're looking for the challenge of playing a good running team," Patterson said. "I think the kids enjoy playing a team that runs the football more than one that throws the football."

Walters has gained 2,202 yards on 318 carries and scored 29 touchdowns behind Lamar's offensive line that includes Michael Haney, 6-5, 295 and Jason Comer, 6-3, 280.

Walters gained 122 yards and scored three touchdowns in the Vikings' 28-7 semifinal victory over Dallas Carter. Carter had allowed 36 total rushing yards in 13 previous games before Walters outgained them all with a 53-yard touchdown run.

Aldine's defense has allowed 11.7 points per game this season.

Aldine reached the title game with a 54-21 victory over run-and-shoot Mission, returning to the 5A finals for the second straight year. They lost to Odessa Permian 28-14 in the 1989 finale in Texas Stadium.

The Mustangs sacked Mission's Koy Detmer five times and intercepted four of his passes in the semifinals although Detmer completed 40 of 74 passes for 364 yards and three touchdowns.

Lamar will offer a stiffer challenge. "You can't do anything that will let them take advantage of you," Patterson said. "You have to do things right because they have such great size. Our guys will have to use their quickness and technique to offset that."

The key to the Mustangs' season has been Gray, who has completed 49 of 129 passes for 1,099 yards and 9 touchdowns and he's rushed 1,156 yards on 205 carries and scored 24 rushing touchdowns. Johnson has rushed 1,566 yards on 183 carries, an average of 8.6 yards per carry.

"Our defense doesn't need great big kids to operation," Lamar defensive coordinator I.C. Little said. "Talent-wise we don't stack up to the defense we had last year, but (with) ... heart and all the intangibles, we're as good as any defense we've ever had here."

Aldine has equaled last year's performance when the Mustangs lost in the state title game to Odessa Permian 28-14 in a bitter cold finale in Texas Stadium.

Aldine didn't leave the Greater Houston area in reaching the finals. The Mustangs' longest trip was about 30 miles to play Sugar Land Willowridge, whom they beat 31-0.

Their first five opponents were unbeaten when they met Aldine, including District 21-5A rival Kingwood, which plays Marshall in the big school 5A semifinals. Gray's 65-yard touchdown pass to Will Skinner beat Kingwood 24-21.

Arlington Lamar reached the finals with playoff victories over Fort Worth Dunbar, Irving, El Paso Andrews and Carter. Aldine beat Beaumont Central, Kempner, Houston Washington and Mission.

Sampras edges Ivanisevic

MUNICH, Germany (AP) - Pete Sampras expects to play Goran Ivanisevic a lot in the future. He is probably hoping that it won't always be as tough as it was in the inaugural Grand Slam Cup.

Sampras, the U.S. Open champion, battled for 2 hours, 24 minutes before overcoming the tall Yugoslav 7-6, 6-7, 8-6 Thursday to reach the semifinals of the $6 million Grand Slam Cup.

Michael Chang beat Henri Leconte 7-6, 6-3 to also advance to the semifinals, assuring himself, like Sampras, of at least $450,000.

In today's two remaining quarterfinals, Brad Gilbert plays Aaron Krickstein and Ivan Lendl, the top seed left in the 16-player tournament, faces David Wheaton.

Sampras and Ivanisevic, both 19, thrilled the crowd with their hard-hitting, big-serving games that also produced delicate volleys and sizzling passing shots. They were given a standing ovation by about 8,000 fans in Munich's Olympic Hall after their memorable duel.

Big East seeks grid alliance

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) - The Big East Conference is rounding up major college independents and forming them into an all-football league for next fall.

The conference announced Thursday its four members that play Division I-A football had agreed to form a football-only league and that four more eastern schools have been invited to join them. Talks with those potential new members have been scheduled for next month.

The Big East says those schools - Rutgers, Temple, Virginia Tech and West Virginia - will not be invited to participate in the 17 other sports played by the conference.

But it's clear that there's still pressure to form an entirely new, all-sports conference.

Athletic directors and administrators at the four football powers the Big East is courting said they had hoped for more.

West Virginia president Neil Buckley said he believes "it will be a premier conference for football purposes." But, he added: "If there's any sense that's contrary to that, I had hoped these deliberations over the last 18 months would have resulted in an all-sports conference."

Virginia Tech athletic director Dave Braine expressed similar sentiments to the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch.

"I just wish it were an all-sports conference because that's what we really wanted," he said. "But you have to take what you can take when you get it, and we'll take the football conference first and continue to work on the other."

In a statement announcing the football league, the Big East pointedly said it planned meetings next month with the four independents "to discuss potential membership in the Big East only in the sport of football."

Conference commissioner Michael Tranghese said he was confident the league would be able to work out agreements.

The Big East needs only two of the four for an NCAA-regulation conference. Tranghese, who said he had "absolutely no intention of going out and searching" for other schools, expected to land at least two.

The Big East's current four Division I-A football schools - Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Boston College and new member Miami - agreed in an eight-hour meeting Wednesday to establish a football affiliation separate from the conference's other sports.

Virginia Tech president James McComas said his school looked forward to next month's talks.

"The Big East is well known for nationally recognized institutions with which we have much in common, and we look forward to exploring with them this exciting possibility," he said.

Temple athletic director Charles Theokas said it was significant that the Big East was limiting its talks to just four schools.

"I believe that it is going to work out," he said. "It will enhance our program, enhance our revenues, enhance our exposure, enhance our credibility and thus make our football program even stronger than it is today."

Thursday's announcement ends a swirl of rumors about the Big East's football intentions.

Without a Big East football conference, there was talk that Boston College, Pittsburgh and Syracuse would look for a conference of their own. The addition of Miami - three-time national champion in the past decade - for the 1991 season accelerated the league's interest in football and also made it more likely to land a major television contract.

Play in a postseason bowl will be an important item on the agenda, Tranghese said.

Kitchen is center of family

Americans spend more of their time at home nowadays, and the kitchen has become the central part of the house. Instead of investing money in building a new family room or a den, as families tended to do in the 60s and 70s, the family of the 90s is more likely to spend redecorating funds on a magnificent kitchen.

That can mean a restaurant quality freezer; granite countertops; sleek cabinets, or an elegant work island. Or it can mean a beautiful new black glass-ceramic smoothtop range.

In fact, one of the fastest growing kitchen appliances is the smoothtop electric range. All the rage in Europe, where over 50 percent of the new electric ranges being sold are smoothtop units, these appliances are being found in an increasing number of American kitchens.

The sleek-looking surface eliminates hard-to-clean and unsightly coils and drip pans found on other kinds of electric stoves.

These high-performance ranges are both beautiful and durable. The elegant simplicity of a smoothtop range complements a wide variety of decors, from sleek, high-tech kitchens to country and southwestern looks.

CERAN cooktops are available in many configurations-as build-ins, part of a work island or as freestanding ranges.

The cooktops are available decorated in a wide choice of distinctive surface patterns in different colors. And nearly every American range manufacturer offers a smoothtop version. Look in any good appliance or kitchen store.

Key to the beauty and performance of smoothtop ranges is the CERAN glass-ceramic panel. CERAN is supplied by Schott America, Yonkers, N.Y., to the appliance manufacturers.

Schott set out to find to optimal cooking system-a cooktop that heats up quickly, is easy to clean, and looks beautiful. This led to the development of the CERAN-TOP-SYSTEM that is composed of black glass-ceramic panel with its surface decoration, the heating elements equipped with temperature limiters, burner controls and "hot surface" indicator lights and low profile steel frame with a metallic or enamelled finish.

Schott share this know-how with appliance manufacturers and, to date, more than 12 million CERAN smoothtop ranges have been sold worldwide.

The red glow of the heating elements is visible through the translucent, black CERAN glass-ceramic panel, and the "hot surface" indicator light remains on until the surface is cool.

The heat of the burner does not spread to the rest of the range surface, which provides for more work space. These new rangetop units feature both radiant and halogen heating elements, which heat up quickly.

These sleek and beautiful smoothtops are very easy to clean as well as durable, and require no special cookware. As with any cooking surface-conventional coil, solid disk or glass-ceramic-the ideal cookware has diameters matching the cooking zones, slightly concave or nearly flat bottoms, and thick, steel or a stainless steel-clad construction.

Schott recommends that shoppers look for ranges that have a variety of different sizes of heating elements of cooking zones, one of which should be nine inches in diameter. That's because matching the diameters of the cooking zone and the cookware has the greatest effect on cooking times.

Whether you're completely renovating your kitchen or simply upgrading and modernizing, a smooth, black glass-ceramic cooktop can give you beauty, top performance, and easy cleaning all in one package. Ask your kitchen designer or appliance dealer about the selection of smooth cooktops that would suit your needs.

The only American author to win the Pulitzer Prize four times was poet Robert Frost.

DAWN BAPTIST CHURCH

During the 11 a.m. worship service, Pastor Jim Hickman will preach on the seventh letter to the churches of Asia Minor. The message, entitled "The Church That Fooled Itself", is part of a series of the book of Revelations.

"An Old Fashioned Christmas" is the theme of the Sunday evening opportunities. The activities begin as church members will take a caroling tour of the Dawn community, visiting the homes of senior citizens, shut-ins, and newcomers. Returning to the church between 6:45-7 p.m., members and visitors will enjoy singing, special music, and the sharing of Christmas memories.

If you would like the carolers to visit someone in the Dawn vicinity, call 258-7330 with their name and location.

Hints from Heloise

Q. I just purchased a cast-iron skillet which is quite old and I don't know how to season it or care for it. Would you kindly tell me how to do this? — Helene Manley, Staten Island, N.Y.

A. To season cast iron, first wash it in hot, sudsy water, rinse and dry immediately.

Next, cover the inside of the skillet with cooking oil and place in a 300 F oven for about two hours.

When removing the skillet from the oven, be very careful because it will be hot. Wipe out any excess oil with paper toweling.

Every so often, you'll need to reseason it.

Never let the cast iron soak in water nor let it sit with food in it.

In between, take good care of it by washing the skillet in hot, sudsy water using a nylon net scrubber for tough food stains (never steel wool), rinsing and drying quickly after each use.

Also, wipe a little oil on it with a paper towel to help prevent rust. — Heloise

SHOPPING LISTS

Dear Heloise: Compiling an accurate shopping list has always been a chore for me. With the use of our home computer, I have made this task much easier. I made a list of every conceivable item my family might need and grouped the items so they would match the aisle-by-aisle setup of the grocery store we use.

After saving the list, I printed a copy to hang on the refrigerator door. When something is needed or runs out, the item is highlighted on the list.

This method also makes it easy for Dad and kids when they're responsible for keeping the house stocked with food and supplies. — Betsy Ruiz, Colorado Springs, Colo.

MUSHROOMS

Dear Heloise: I use fresh mushrooms in several recipes and have found that an egg slicer can be used for slicing them.

After washing them, cut the stems off level with the mushroom cap and then place each mushroom in the egg slicer stem side up. This is a quick and easy way to achieve uniform slices of equal thickness. — Janice Casey, Little Rock, Ark.

ALUMINUM FOIL

Dear Heloise: When I bake cookies, I get double duty from a sheet of aluminum foil. I line the cookie sheets with foil so I don't have to wash the cookie sheets and when I'm through baking, I use the same piece of foil to cover up the plate of cookies. — Bonnie

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

HOW THE BIBLE HELPED WIN A WORLD WAR I CAMPAIGN!

THE TURKS, UNDER GERMAN HIGH COMMAND, WERE A CONSTANT THREAT TO THE BRITISH-HELD SUEZ CANAL, ENGLAND'S LIFE LINE TO HER COLONIES DURING WORLD WAR I! IT FELL TO GENERAL SIR EDWARD ALLENBY TO SQUASH THIS THREAT! IN A SERIES OF BRILLIANTLY EXECUTED BATTLES, ALLENBY SUCCEEDED! IN PLANNING HIS BATTLE ENGAGEMENTS, HE AND HIS STAFF STUDIED, ALONG WITH THEIR TACTICAL MAPS, ALL THE RECORDED BATTLES IN THE BIBLE AND, IN SOME INSTANCES, FOLLOWED THE SAME TACTICS THE ANCIENT JEWS HAD EMPLOYED....

ONE SUCH EXAMPLE OCCURS IN THE BATTLE FOR THE PASSES OF MEGIDDO, INTO THE PLAIN OF ESDRAELON, DURING SEPTEMBER OF 1918. TAKING A TIP FROM SUCH ANCIENT GENERALS AS JOSHUA, KING DAVID, AND KING OMRI, ALLENBY ATTACKED ON A BROAD FRONT BUT MASSES HIS CAVALRY AT ONE POINT TO BREAK THROUGH THE TURKISH LINE--THIS DONE, THE CAVALRY RACED HARD DUE NORTH, TO CUT OFF THE TURKS' ONLY MEANS OF RETREAT AT THE PASSES OF EL AFFULE AND BEISAN, THUS ENTRAPPING THE ENTIRE ARMY SO THE ADVANCING INFANTRY COULD FINISH THEM OFF!

ALLENBY'S STAFF PLACED MUCH CREDIT FOR THE SUCCESS ON CONSTANT STUDY OF THE ANCIENT TACTICS IN THE BIBLE AND AS ONE BRITISH 'TOMMY' PUT IT... 'HIF TH' BLOOMIN' TURKS AD STUDIED OUR BIBLE TH WAY WE DID, THEY MIGHT AVE MADE HIT A LOT FLIPPIN' ROUGHER FOR US!'
