May 1st. was really a big date in Hap Wiseman's life—it was his own wedding anniversary—and the birthday of his first granddaughter, who was born in Los Angeles to Cpl. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts. Another event of the day, Hap said, was receiving a subscription notice from The Brand, but that didn't exactly compare with the other two events.

Anyway, if it will make Hap feel any better, he has a nomination for the "youngest looking grandfather" in Hereford.

The Seniors put on an excellent play last Friday night and every member of the cast did a first rate job—but the pianist and song leader who took over when the lights went out really deserve a vote of thanks for keeping a large audience entertained and fairly quiet.

Not on the program, but good for one of the best laughs of the evening, was Jane HARRIS fall as she rushed off the stage when the lights came on.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Eubanks, who have spent the past four weeks vacationing in San Antonio and Mexico City, are back at work this week. They made the return trip by plane.

Cobb of Lockney has been teaching the course, which will be concluded tomorrow night. Rev. W. S. Armstrong, pastor of the Westway Church, assisted Rev. Cobb in taking a religious census of the community on Monday and Tuesday.

Lt. Bill Shore Prisoner of War

Lt. Bill Shore, who has been reported missing in action since taking part in a reconnaissance mission on Mar. 4, is a prisoner of the German government, according to a message received this week by his uncle, L. H. Shore of Hereford.

Lt. Shore's family lived here and had attended Hereford schools.

He was pilot of a P-38 reconnaissance plane and engaged in the dangerous mission of photographing enemy held territory. He had been in foreign service since June, 1943, and had been operating from a base in Italy.

Mr. Gass, a member of the city commission for 12 years, was re-elected in April. Mr. Paddock concluded his tenth year as mayor and Mr. Witherspoon had served six years on the commission.

Experience and Theory Battle on Prairie Dog Front as Experts Wait for Decision

Friendship is a wonderful thing—and Kelly Gray ought to know it, because Kelly doesn't even have to take up for himself when some of the local prairie dog authorities question his opinion.

No sir, Kelly has plenty of friends ready to fight his battles and this week they came forward with theories and facts to back up Kelly's opinion that prairie dogs dig to water. But just to keep the thing from being one-sided, Alex Bateman has some allies too.

Anyway, the latest dope on the prairie dog front runs something like this:

Jim Lipscomb won't exactly advance a theory, but he does ask a question—

"Why is it that when you

'drown out' a prairie dog town, there is always one hole that won't fill up?" And while Jim doesn't claim that the dogs dig to China or to an underground river, he thinks this ought to prove something.

And as to that query about the amount of work involved in the prairie dog's digging, and the amount of time consumed by poppa prairie dogs in going after drinks for the little prairie dogs, Jim contends that prairie dogs have nothing but time.

V. Skypala doesn't answer Jim's question about the prairie dog hole that won't fill up—but he does have a story that proves the point. According to "Skip", the folks out at the Jesco community, south of Friona, fought a big prairie dog town for years. The county graded up the road, and when big rains came these Jesco boys dug a ditch draining several miles of road into the big center hole of the town—and that hole never did fill up.

But despite all the respect and consideration due these prairie dog theorists, Miss Roberta Campbell can bring some real experience to bear on the problem. Seems she was teaching in a rural school in Briscoe County several years ago, and some of her pupils brought her a couple of baby prairie dogs, which she says became great pets. These

Scottish Rite Masons To Have Monthly Meet

Scottish Rite Masons of the Hereford territory are making plans for regular monthly meetings on the second. Monday night in every month, according to Jim Lipscomb, who says that the meetings will probably be held alternately in the various cafes in town.

All Scottish Rite Masons are cordially invited to the meetings Mr. Lipscomb said, adding that more complete information on the time and place of the meeting will be available later, either from him or at the office of A. R. Bateman.

School Census Shows 1,548 Scholastics

Results of the recently-concluded school census for the school year 1944-45 were announced this week by County Superintendent Fred Baird. The total registration of school age children this year is just one less than the census showed last year and the percentage of Hereford and rural students is about the same.

Total number of scholastics in the county is 1,548 with 902 registered in Hereford and 646 in the rural districts.

Running contrary to a nation trend, there seem to be 100 more boys than girls in Deaf Smith County. In both town and rural districts, there are 821 boys, as compared with 727 girls. In the city schools there are 24 more boys than girls and in the rural schools there are 70 more boys than girls.

Twelve Sign Up For Flight Training Here

Twelve persons signed up for a flight course Tuesday night when local aviation enthusiasts met with Carl C. Maurer and C. J. Dorris of Friona, who will offer the course here.

According to present plans, 12 weeks of ground instruction will be offered with classes scheduled to meet on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 8:30 o'clock with the exact place of the meetings to be announced later.

Later flight training plans are not definite; but Mr. Maurer has three training planes—two Luxoms and one Taylorcraft—which will be used in the instruction. Mr. Dorris will be in charge of both the ground school and flight training.

Nat'l. Foundation Taking Census of Paralysis Victims

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is taking a nationwide census of all paralysis victims, it was announced by Mrs. Dyathia Brady, who says that the census is needed for statistical purposes and to enable the foundation to render the widest possible public service.

Every person in Deaf Smith County who has ever had infantile paralysis—regardless of when the attack occurred, is requested to come by Mrs. Brady's office in the courthouse and fill out a card record.

'B' and 'C' Drivers Eligible for New Tires

Eligibility for new tires has been widened to include all "B" and "C" book holders, the District Office of Price Administration announced. This change effective May 1, has been possible because of a substantial increase in civilian allocations of new passenger car tires by the Office of Rubber Director.

The announcement pointed out that the increase in quota will not be sufficient to cover all applications and that certificates will be issued to those drivers who are considered most essential eligibles.

Motorists holding the basic "A" book now become eligible for the small remaining stock of used tires, Grade III.

Officials cautioned drivers that it is as important as ever that they continue to recap worn tires, avoid excessive speeds, and get the last mile of wear out of their tires, because tire production is still inadequate to meet any but the most necessary demands.

Rain Friday Measured 1.05

A driving rain last Friday night brought 1.05 inches of moisture to Hereford and the best crop boost yet given by the weatherman this spring, as the rain was general throughout the Panhandle and amounted in all communities around Hereford to about an inch.

Despite good sub-surface moisture, wheat was beginning to show the need of rain, and crop prospects are now considered much improved.

Real spring weather followed the rain for a couple of days but temperatures took another drop Tuesday when a 40 mile wind hit the territory, and farmers and gardeners are hoping for some real "growing weather" to follow up the moisture.

Horticulturist Makes Suggestions for Fruit Growing on High Plains

The following suggestions for growing fruit in the Panhandle are from J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist, and are passed on to local fruit growers by Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, who says that though late freezes are a definite hazard to fruit growing, much of the danger can be avoided if the right fruit varieties are planted.

Trees feed out a distance twice their height, says Mr. Rosborough, pointing out that orchards should be properly spaced to insure good growth of all trees.

With regard to irrigation, the horticulturist emphasizes the importance of watering the trees well, early in the spring, before new growth is made.

When the soil gets hot (80 to 90 degrees, F.) Mr. Rosborough suggests mulching to lower the temperature—and incidentally to prevent the fruit from dropping.

Fruits suited to the high plains are rhubarb, strawberries, sour cherries, hybrid cherry-plums, grapes, currants and apples.

The general subject of "Fruit for the High Plains" was discussed by Mr. Rosborough at the recent district meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

Meat Ration Rules Lifted on Pork And Most Meat Cuts

All meats except steaks and roasts of beef became ration-free at midnight last night—but in making the move, OPA also cut down on the number of red points which will become valid periodically.

Actually, however, the move will increase the amount of rationed foods available—and in addition will put hamburger, pork and lamb on the ration-free list. Butter, margarine and cheese—in addition to the mentioned beef cuts will still be rationed.

Music Week Recital Draws Large Audience

One of the first public programs marking annual observations of National Music Week was the recital-musical given at the Methodist Church last Sunday afternoon by piano students of Mrs. G. A. F. Parker.

In keeping with the spring season the girls wore colorful formal dresses and mingled with the arriving audience, welcoming the guests, distributing programs and ushering.

Much talent and good training characterized the numbers presented which included solos, duos, trios and quartets and two-piano numbers by both beginners and advanced students. Classic, romantic and modern music was presented with the audience showing especial appreciation of the ensemble numbers.

Eighteen students took part in the program and another group will be presented at a later date.

WAC Anniversary Spurs Recruiting Drive in Theatres

Hereford Theatres will cooperate with the Women's Army Corps next week (May 11 to 17) by showing a short subject aimed at recruiting of WACs.

The occasion is the second anniversary of the founding of the Women's Army Corps and local theatres hope to aid in the recruiting drive—which takes on added significance at this time because of the need for replacements in posts at home and abroad for men being shifted to active duty on the invasion front.

America's women have always backed their fighting men. But in this war there is proof of greater obligation to participate actively—by taking over vital Army jobs behind and at the front. From all Army commands come urgent calls for more WACs—thousands more are needed; and it is the hope of the motion picture industry that the theatre recruiting drive will add some of these thousands.

Not only will the recruiting "short" be shown at all regular performances during the WAC anniversary week, but theatres will provide literature and information for any women interested in joining the Women's Army corps.

Battle With Insects Should Begin Early for Wise Victory Gardener

No matter how much you like radishes, fleabeetles like 'em better.

That is the statement of Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, county home demonstration agent, who says that the beetles can make three meals a day on radishes—from appetizer to dessert—but they are also fond of turnips, mustard, cabbage, tomatoes, spinach, beets and many other garden plants.

Fleabeetles get their name from their quick, flea-like jump. They are small, hard-shelled beetles, ranging in size from one-sixteenth to one-fourth of an inch in length. They also vary in color—some black, some brown and some black and white striped.

Victory gardeners should watch plants from the time they first appear for fleabeetle damage—characterized by small chewed holes in the leaf of the plant; and unless immediate steps are taken to combat the pest, the fleabeetle may win the garden battle.

Fleabeetles are frightened away when plants are dusted;

Stating that present prospects foresee a decided reduction in red tape involved in getting various types of farm equipment and supplies necessary to complete the wheat harvest in Deaf Smith County, A. R. Bateman, county agent, this week urged farmers to make definite, EARLY plans for harvest in order to take full advantage of the simplified set-up.

All Deaf Smith County wheat producers who have combines are urged to call at the county agent's office at their earliest convenience. "We need to have the names of each producer and whether or not he will have his own wheat to harvest," Mr. Bateman said.

"From the present outlook, there will be a need for every combine in this area to harvest" (Continued on Page 12)

South Hereford Box Supper Big Success

Stating that a large crowd attended the box supper held last Saturday night at the Club House, members of the South Hereford Home Demonstration Club announce that the supper was successful, both from a financial and from an entertainment angle.

Included on the program were songs by Mrs. Ray Conaway, who was accompanied by Mrs. Ellis Coombes; accordion numbers by Wanda Lee Terry and readings by Mrs. Merlin Kaul. Wanda Lee Terry was judged the prettiest girl at the entertainment and she also won the prize for having the prettiest box. W. H. Gattisch won the title of "the ugliest man." Dr. C. D. Kelton won a prize for being high bidder; and several other prizes were awarded in the various games.

Members of the South Hereford Club express their thanks to Hereford merchants who donated prizes.

Wilson and Owen Buy Fox Cleaners

Mrs. Gerald Wilson and G. P. Owen this week took over management of Fox Cleaners, which they have purchased from Homer Fox.

In addition to Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Owen, personnel of the shop will include George Hinds, cleaner, and Miss Kitty Kloe Harlin, receptionist.

The new management plans to continue the policies which have proved successful in the past and will offer top quality cleaning and pressing service. In an effort to find a name for the new shop, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Owen are offering a prize of $2 in cleaning for the best name submitted in a contest, which will close a week from today.

To Our Friends and Customers

The Southwestern Public Service Company has been furnishing Hereford with electric and ice service since the fall of 1942, having acquired the electric and ice system at that time, and in order to better acquaint our friends and customers with the Company and its operating policies, we are instituting a series of statements to be published in the form of advertisements once each week for the next few weeks.

The Southwestern Public Service Company was organized in New Mexico in 1925 and, before acquiring the electric and ice facilities in Hereford, and in neighboring cities and towns, it served principally the Central Panhandle of Texas and the Pecos Valley area of New Mexico.

Soon after its organization, the Company established a general policy of operation which has been continued through the ensuing years.

This policy consists principally of the following:

- (1) The best possible service to the public with friendly and courteous handling of our customers' dealings with us.
- (2) The fair treatment of our employees, supplemented by a continuous program of training them in an eager willingness to serve the public and in good citizenship in their communities.
- (3) A program of voluntary reduction in our rates to the public, made periodically as business conditions permit.

As a result of the repeated rate reductions made during the period of our operations from 1925 until the outbreak of the war, the average rate per kilowatt hour for all lighting and power sold by the Company, in the original territory served, was reduced to less than one-third of what it was in the beginning. These reductions in rates were accompanied by large increases in electric plant and line investment, to provide adequate service at all times.

This is the program of service to the public which we bring to the people of Hereford. Although we are handicapped along with all others by war conditions, it is our purpose to put our operating policy in full effect in the years of peace ahead. These matters will be amplified in later statements, and additional information will be presented to you, in order that you might become better acquainted with the Company and the service which it renders.

If you happen to be a cigar fiend, you have our sympathy. For a week there have been no cigars in Hereford and the few along toward the last were of the two-for-a-nickel variety that sell for 18 cents each. Some folks who smoked 15 to 20 cigars a day have been literally tearing their hair. W. L. Alexander over at the City Drug is one of these cigar addicts, although I doubt the story that he has been hiding his old cigar butts and going back to them. Ox Emmons, who is the world's No. 1 cigar burner, is also getting on edge. Ox says he would be glad to even buy some cigars himself.

Lee Conklin just had a letter from his son, Merlin, who is now in India. The first thing Merlin did was to encounter Louis Wedel, also stationed there.

It looks as if this prairie dog business is going from bad to worse. Kelly Gray stuck his neck out last week and he sure got results. Alex Bateman and Homer Fox have jumped on him with all four feet. The real object of this paragraph is to let everyone know that I have nothing to do with this deal. I don't even like prairie dogs. Mary Kate Brotherton is the official Prairie Dog editor for the Brand. What she doesn't know about these little fellows, she is learning fast. However, I have to admit that I am getting interested in whether they really drink water or not. Three weeks ago, I didn't even care. I guess everyone else feels the same way, so if you know anything about them, send or bring it in let's get this thing settled for once and all.

Right now, the Chamber of Commerce directors are talking of resigning. They say they have put in many, many hours each month trying to do their job, and no one seems to care. They are even wondering if the people want a Chamber of Commerce. They are really feeling pretty blue.

What has them down is this contest they are running on "What to Do—How to Do It," in which they have offered a $100 war bond as prizes. They expected a flock of answers telling them what the people wanted for this community, along with some good, workable suggestions on how to get the job done. As yet, they have only four or five answers—and two of these are from non-residents. Naturally, they feel that they are being let down. They figure the people just don't care about the Chamber of Commerce.

Maybe they are right. I'm not sure, but I figure that a lot of folks just don't think they can write, or maybe they just won't take the time, or maybe they don't want a $100 bond. Why not jump in there and show these boys some results? They have worked hard at their job. If you have a pet peeve, air it out. If you can think of some worthwhile project, let them have it. For goodness sake, do something. Just keep it down to 2,000 words. Why don't the senior and junior classes take this over as class projects? After all, they are the ones who will most enjoy the results of any post-war activities started now.

These guys have said they won't let anyone from The Brand enter this contest, but I think someone should tell them that there is a housing shortage in the community. This should be foremost in any war-planning. I came out here in 1937 and every time any one has moved since it has been like a game of checkers—a bunch of other people had to move too. The war has made it worse, but it has been plenty bad for the past 10 years. From 10 to 15 people come into The Brand office every week hunting a house or apartment—and sometimes they can't even find a room. At least 15 houses have been bought in 1944 by people in order that they might have a place to live. The number of business houses is also inadequate. There is only one vacant building, or half-building, in Hereford today—and a lot of them house more than one business. There are three active, going firms now operating in the old Broadwell Building.

There are many, many more things which need to be done. Someone is going to get that $100 bond. Even if you don't win, you may contribute to the welfare of your community. Sit down and write your entry this week.

On Apr. 20 The Brand published an advertisement about its classified ad section, pointing out that it is the biggest classified section of any weekly newspaper in West Texas. We are proud of this for several reasons. I have always felt that a large classified section was the best possible index to a newspaper; it shows that the people are

A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN in the hands of the Nazis—that is the basis for the plot of "Paris After Dark," a stirring film of the French underground which brings George Sanders and Brenda Marshall to the top starring spots at the show at the Texas next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

MRS. SAM HUNTER

Marlene Rothwell of Dimmitt spent Thursday night with Jimmie Doris Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Andrew have recent letters from their son, Cyrus, Jr., who is in England.

Sgt. Orval Pierce is back at his base in Waco, after a course in advanced photography at reading the paper, and using it as well. When you have lots of classifieds, you have lots of readers. In addition, these little ads are actually some of the most interesting material in the whole paper. Lots of people read them just to see what is happening; they give you a good trend of conditions over the whole community. Did you ever notice that the "Long Time Ago" column frequently quotes ads along with news items?

Recent visitors in the Cyrus Andrew home were the Ben Andrews of Olton.

Attending the Junior-Senior banquet in Dimmitt last Saturday night were Helen Cason, Geneva Collins, Norma Hunter, Jim and Mary Jean Dyer, Bill Simpson, Dorothy and Raymond Mobley, Billie Wayne Carthel, Barbara Ann Hunter, C. E. Leasure, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hunter.

Virginia Simpson spent one night last week in her home here. Virginia is graduating in June from St. Anthony's School of Nursing in Amarillo.

Guests in the P. H. Dyer home last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wise of Sunnyside, Mrs. Wise, who has been ill for several months is much better. The Dyers have letters from their daughter, Pvt. Billie Dyer of the W. A. C., who is stationed in England, telling of a week's furlough which she spent in a visit to Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen of Easter were Sunday guests of the Sam Hunters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Metcalf visited in the E. M. Allen home at Easter Sunday.

Letters to the M. L. Simpsons from their son, Lt. M. L. Simpson, Jr., from somewhere in the South Pacific describe Sunday services which he recently attended aboard ship. M. L. said this was the second time since leaving Australia that he had been fortunate enough to be near a ship which had a Chaplain.

Next Sunday, May 7, quarterly Conference of the Dimmitt Methodist Circuit will be held at Jumbo. Sunday School will begin at 10 o'clock, after which the District Superintendent, the Rev. W. C. House, will preach. A basket lunch will be served at noon followed by the conference in the afternoon. It is hoped that everybody in the community will come and bring lunch.

Messenger

MRS. J. N. MESSENGER

Georgia Nell Coldiron has resigned as bus driver and is starting tomorrow morning to Florida where her husband is in school as radio man. He will finish his course next week and expects to be sent across soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Erceel Taylor have received word of the death of their son who was stationed at San Marcus. Though no details have yet been learned it is understood that the death was by drowning. The body is being sent to Clovis and funeral arrangements are indefinite, pending arrival of a brother, Ralph Taylor, who is in the Navy and stationed in California.

Mrs. Forest Gaines, who had been in a hospital at Clovis returned home and had a relapse and had to be taken back to the hospital. This community received 1 1-2 inches of rain Friday night, which makes a total of 2 inches in April. Saturday a week ago we had rain hail and snow and a high wind blew down one of the hen houses on Geo. Messenger's place. It also blew over a hen house at the Forrest Gaines place.

Wheat in this part of the county is looking fine and a few fields of Barley and oats are looking good.

The new bus driver is J. W. Duffie.

No patriotic American needs to be reminded that, in the Nation's interest and in his own, he must save his car.

He knows that no new cars have been made for more than two years . . . that the average car is now seven years old . . . that one out of every four cars now in use is ten years old or older!

Plainly, every single car must be kept rolling, because in a total war, every car and truck is a weapon of war.

To coax every last bit of usefulness from the aging engine, chassis, and tires of your car, you must have efficient maintenance service . . . the kind of distinguished service available at your Phillips 66 Service Station.

Phillips Tire-Saving Service includes checking air pressures at least once a week . . . inspecting for nail holes, cuts and bruises . . . examination of tire carcass to warn you when re-capping is advisable and still possible . . . and crisscrossing with the spare every 3,000 miles.

Phillips Car-Saving Service includes inspection of battery, air filter, and cooling system . . . regular lubrication of every friction point specified by the maker of your car . . . and seasonal or recommended every-sixty-day oil change.

Remember, it is your car, but it is America's mileage which you are guarding, when you drive in for Phillips wartime Car-Saving and Tire-Saving Service at the Orange and Black 66 Shield . . . the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

PREJUDICES die hard. And the finest of faiths and convictions tend to become affected by prejudices.

The story of the way in which well-intentioned

Experience And

prairie dogs, says Miss Campbell, drank water when it was put out for them—but she definitely doubts if they would do much digging for it because they don't work hard enough.

The two prairie dogs, both females, were entirely dissimilar types. One of them was like the smart little pig in the old nursery tale—and she might have dug to water if she had received any cooperation from her girl friend, who was the playgirl type and liked to sleep late in the morning to rest up from her strenuous night life. In fact, this social butterfly not only refused to work, but she even went so far as to try to cover up the hole where the industrious little prairie dog was digging.

Prairie dogs are good pets, declares Miss Campbell, but don't plan on their digging any wells. Theoretically a woman is supposed to have the last word in any argument, but along comes a letter from Ollie Fox, who says he is "The guy who furnished Kelly Gray the string to measure those holes at La Plata and who used to carry water to the bull snakes when the sand was blowing so hard they couldn't see their way to Kelly's horse tank." The prairie dog editor, who has thought (but not seriously) of digging to the bottom of a prairie dog hole and settling the whole thing, submits Ollie's letter in the interest of fairness to Kelly Gray, the La Plata prairie dog, and anybody else involved.

By Ollie Fox
I don't know how long Kelly Gray has been in this country, not as long, perhaps as Bob Higgins; Bob says his father brought him to this country in a covered wagon when he was a very small boy, in fact he doesn't just remember how long ago, but the sun was a little blitty thing and there wasn't any moon at all. Kelly must have come here about the same time or a little before; anyway I don't like to hear so much criticism about his opinion or knowledge of whether or not a prairie dog digs to water, or drinks water at all. Kelly has slept with rattles-snakes, tarantulas and water dogs, chased loafer wolves and coyotes and rode wild horses, but never been drunk; therefore he will not tell anything but facts. Therefore I think criticism coming from parties that came here after the hardships were over, and prairie dogs were nearly all gone is clear out of line. Anyway since W. P. A. the dogs have quit digging at all; they just wait for rain and do without water until it does rain. These new comers should not be considered by the Public as authority on habits of prairie dogs.

All Homer Fox knows is chicken fights and knows his stuff there. Charley Whitehead knows how to sharpen a razor, lay out a baseball diamond and that three strikes are out, provided you swing at the third one.

Abe Martin, give him a sharp knife and a soft piece of pine, and he can whittle out a very nice image of a prairie dog and of course this dog needs no water and I suppose that is where he gets the idea that prairie dogs do not drink. I mean water. I venture to say that neither one of them could tell you why the prairie dog wags his tail so fast when he barks.

If Kelly says the dogs dig to water, THAT'S RIGHT, he knows; of course I won't say what I think of Mr. Bateman's opinion on this subject and not knowing him so well and him being so much larger than I am makes me hesitate to express myself regarding his opinion. I do know Kelly, a fine fellow and a good scout, of course all these other fellows are good scouts, but their opinion on life and habits of the prairie dog, don't compare with Kelly's. Stay in there Kelly, I am for you as long as you have a nickel.

These city "slickers" should read up a bit before they criticize: They will find, if they do not believe Kelly—what they should know in these magazines—Esquire, Look, Life and Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound Literature.

Services Continue at Church of Christ

Revival services in progress at the Hereford Church of Christ have met with excellent response. It was announced this week by Minister L. H. Andrews, who invites the public to attend the daily worship services at 11 and 8:30 o'clock. A special Bible Class for children is being conducted by the evangelist, C. C. Morgan, each afternoon at 5:45.

THIS WEEK . . . AT THE USO

Plans have been completed for the Coronation Dance to be held at the Recreation Hall, Prisoner of War Camp, Friday night at 8:30. The Queen has named Sgt. Joe Rogers as her escort. Her attendants, Troyce Stambaugh, Agnes Abracht and Seleta Robinson, have named Sgt. Grant Hanna, Pvt. Bill McDuffie and Cpl. Harold Rae as their escorts. The crown will be placed on the queen by little Eugenia Knox. Mrs. W. L. Davis, GSO sponsor, asks that each girl call her sponsor or Mrs. Davis as soon as possible so that transportation can be arranged. Each girl is also urged to take a guest (18 years or over or a high school graduate). Please get your guest card as soon as possible. Soldier's wives are urged to attend and if they have lost their cards or have never received one will they please see Mrs. Olson.

GSO girls and soldiers' wives are reminded that according to GSO rules no girl is to leave the building where the dance is held. If she does she will not be allowed to return. Let's all cooperate in this and all have a grand time.

Red O'Brien is practicing his men every day for the big event. They have a repertoire of 30 pieces. The "big event", we thought, was the Coronation Dance but we learned that Red's wife is coming on May 5th too so maybe that is why he has been doing all this rehearsing. The group who went out to Buffalo Lake on Sunday had a big time and came back tired and dirty. Some of them almost came back minus shoes and hose.

Ask Christine Smith how it feels to sit on a cactus!

Our USO baby, Muzzy Muzzullo, has learned to walk. And does he love it!

He can outwalk all the soldiers' wives who take turns following him around to see that he doesn't fall.

Mrs. Paulauskas of Chicago is visiting her husband during her vacation. We are enjoying having her come to the USO.

Four of the men left Thursday on their furloughs. Cpl. Buddy Hinkle said that he planned to marry while on his furlough and we couldn't talk him out of it. Cpl. Art Briggs, whose father has so kindly given us those nice pinochle and euchre decks, left for a big time in New York City. He promised to send us a card from every night spot that he attended. Do you suppose we will have to get another bulletin board to put them all on?

The boys who took the trip through Texas and into Louisiana last week really had their eyes opened concerning the beauties of Texas. Pfc. Joe Yanonis was telling us all about the beauties of Ft. Worth. I think he meant the scenery—not the girls. One never can tell though.

A Word of APPRECIATION

In announcing the sale of my Cleaning shop to Mrs. Gerald Wilson and G. P. Owen, I want to take this means of expressing my appreciation to all you folks who have patronized this shop down through the years.

I have had several chances to sell the shop before, but had not done so due to the fact that I wanted to see it in the best possible hands. These are local people and they have a good staff of skilled, experienced people and I feel like they will give you good work and the best possible service.

I sure hate to let the shop go, but due to the difficulty in maintaining service under present conditions, it seems best.

Again, I want to say

Thanks

for the many courtesies you have shown us!

Mrs. J. E. Kirby Is Chosen As Club President

Election of officers were held by various women's organizations of Hereford last week.

In the business meeting of the Calliopean Club held at the home of Mary Kate Brotherton Thursday evening, Mrs. J. E. Kirby was elected president.

Other officers chosen for another year were Mrs. O. J. Beene, vice-president; Miss Eloyse Pittman, recording secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Womble, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Jack Gilliland, treasurer.

Mrs. Jack Gilliland was in charge of the program for the evening and gave a review of "Roughly Speaking" by Louise Randall Pierson. She described the book as the autobiography of a woman who was born in the era of the self made man and set out to be the self made woman. "Her fists were ready and they never stopped swinging." Aptly titled, "Roughly Speaking" is the account of a woman's travels up the peaks and down the valleys of life. It is the story of a woman who learned to take the bitter with the sweet, the reviewer said.

Members present were Mesdames Wayne Evans, W. L. Davis, Alton Fraser, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., Jack Gilliland, Jimmie Gilentine, J. E. Kirby, D. C. Laird Jr., and Misses Brotherton and Katherine Kirby.

LaPLATA CLUB PLANS FOR FINAL MEETING

Plans were discussed for the final meeting of the year which will be in the form of a dinner at 8 o'clock on May 16, at the home of Mrs. Ray Barber. Members are asked to call Mrs. Gaylord Newell by Friday, May 12, if unable to attend.

Mrs. N. E. Milburn was leader of the program for the evening and discussed "Why We Americans Are Different", bringing out the thought that while Americans differ as to likes and dislikes and characteristics, any true American will fight for his country at the drop of the hat.

Mrs. Liston Wilson discussed an article in a recent issue of Reader's Digest entitled "I Shopped the Black Market," in which she told of millions of dollars being wasted on black markets today, as reported by a woman who toured the nation in search of black markets.

Mrs. Wilson also gave a report on the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Convention held recently in Plainview.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames James Aiken, L. B. Barnett, Homer Brumley,

GUEST SPEAKER TALKS ON WORLD TRADE FOR B & PW MEETING

Miss Kathryn Easter discussed "World Trade" at the Monday night meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club and in her talk emphasized the necessity of free interchange of goods to achieve a stable world economy and a peaceful relation between nations.

CONGRATULATIONS Winners of the BAND CONTEST!

Prince Hereford

Hello there, everybody! I've just been wondering whether or not you have ever noticed what beautiful blonde hair Betty June Euler has. I know you have, though, because it shines just like a light in the darkness.

Mrs. Beene has taught in her typing classes that it is a grave mistake to misspell a person's name in a letter. In that case, I bet I couldn't write Ethel Urbanczyk a letter, for I could not spell her name.

I finally asked who that tall, dark-headed boy is who ticks my whiskers each time he passes by the show case, and I found out that he is Harold Rudd.

I had no trouble at all discovering those students who went to Buffalo Lake last Sunday. I didn't even have to ask Homer. Every time I saw a shining red face coming down the hall Monday, I thought to myself, "Hm-m-m, someone else went to Buffalo Lake." Doris Hooker and Rose Marie Grimes are good examples of what I mean.

Say, you boys, are you up on your A B C's? The C's are especially interesting with Wanda Crawford and Claudine Czermer coming in that group.

By the way, have you heard any comments from Herman Buse or Dorothy Williams on the senior play? Confidentally, I heard they started out for the school and never did arrive! Could it have been the fault of the storm?

You never in your life saw Hereford High School kids working harder than they were Monday morning—that is, some of them, band students, namely. They reminded me of a bunch of hard-working ants as the band carried chairs and instruments from Miss Rigler's room to the auditorium.

I know you have been missing Marie Stephens since she left school last week because of illness. Marie plans to rest this summer and return to school next semester.

Each afternoon I see Jo Ella Hussey standing in front of the building as if she were waiting for someone. Now who could it be?

How many of you have entered the essay contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce? I hope you are working hard to tell what recreation you need and how it should be accomplished.

O, M L E, what X T C
I always feel when U I C
I used to rave of L N's eyes,
4 L C I gave countless sighs,
4 K T, and L N R
I was a keen competitor.
But each name's a non-N T T,
4 U XL them all, U C.

Los Viajeros Makes "Whoopee" on Picnic

Los Viajeros met at 7:15 on Wednesday, April 26, in front of the high school building. Several students brought cars and some thirty students, together with lunches and jackets, piled into them.

Upon arriving at the park, the students scattered into every direction. For sometime there seemed to be a contest to determine who could come down Devil's Hill the most gracefully. Of course Bobby Carnahan got first place.

Then the group was called to order (?) for a business meeting. The main point of interest was the party which is to be held on May 5, 1944. It was decided that it would be held in the gym at high school. The business meeting was adjourned after which members of the club enjoyed sack lunches. Then followed a brief period of play and the picnic was over. Every member of Los Viajeros who was absent, missed a treat.

Glee Club Keeps Busy Learning New Songs

The Glee Club has just about adjusted itself to another new teacher, Mrs. Jones. With Mrs. Jones' arrival, the club immediately started working on songs for baccalaureate and commencement. Some of the songs they are learning are "Land of Hope and Glory," "Praise Ye the Father," "Me and My Little Banjo," "Will You Remember?" besides numerous throat exercises. The Glee Club has accomplished much these weeks since Mrs. Jones has been the director.

Marian Borden—"What is the cure for love at first sight?"
Mary Beth Scott—"Second sight."

Senior Personalities

Another prominent character of the senior class this year is Mary Sue Whitaker (better known as "Sary Mue" and "Susie.") She was born in Newport, Texas on March 8, 1926.

Mary Sue has attended school here since the first grade. She is 5'4" tall and has black hair and brown eyes.

A favorite pastime of hers is keeping scrapbooks, dancing, and collecting pictures are also favorites. She says she just loves chocolate pie and ice cream (who doesn't?) and she just hates spinach, macaroni and Frank Sinatra because the women swoon over him! Like most other people, Mary Sue's ambition is to travel all the world.

She has belonged to the Staff and Student Council. During her Freshman year, she was vice president of the class and candidate for football queen.

After graduation, she plans to go to Fort Worth to work in a stationery office.

For the benefit of those who do not know her, just listen for someone who is always saying, "Dadburn it" and it will probably be Mary Sue.

"Deep in the Heart of Texas" and "Pistol Packin' Mama" are the two songs that Mary dislikes. Although Mary Louise Pace was born at Countyline, Okla., on July 23, 1927, she has done all her schooling in the Hereford schools. It seems very strange that she wouldn't like these two Texas songs.

As a hobby, Mary collects odds and ends and has several other likes and favorites. Her favorite food is ice cream. Her favorite sport is football, her favorite song is "Sunday, Monday, or Always" and her favorite subject is geometry. To graduate is Mary's ambition and if her ambition comes true, she plans to attend Port Arthur Business College.

On February 27, 1927, in Cooke County, Texas, was born a girl who Hereford High will regret seeing pass through its corridors for the last time as a student on May 26 — graduation night. This girl is none other than Ruth Tucker, who has been a very diligent and successful student in Hereford High. Ruth is respected and admired by one and all.

"Pee Wee" is a brunette who has brown eyes. She is five feet, seven inches tall and weighs 125 pounds.

Ruth has been active in school clubs. She has belonged to the Honor Society for the past three years and has been secretary of that organization; she has belonged to the Tri-Hi-Y for two years and is now president of this club. Los Viajeros, the Spanish Club has her for its present president. Ruth has been on the staff for two years and is now editor of the "Whiteface Round-Up". She was treasurer for her class during her junior year and is now vice president of the senior class. Ruth has also worked in the office for one year. This year, Ruth had the great honor of being elected D. A. R. representative. For receiving the highest number of honor points last year, Ruth's name was put on the Honor Shield in the principal's office.

Keeping scrapbooks is Ruth's hobby and her favorite pastime is reading. Some more of her favorites are: animals—dogs and horses; food: fried potatoes; color: yellow; song: "Memories"; sport: baseball; flower: tulip; and subject: physical education.

Ruth intends to major in the field of journalism if she goes to college.

Brumley Elected PHSPA Secretary

At a meeting of the Panhandle High School Press Association, held in Amarillo, Naomi Brumley, assistant-editor of the "Whiteface Round-Up," was chosen secretary. Other officers are: Phyllis Shuman, White Deer; President: Jean La Roe, Happy, vice-president; and Ellen Sanders, Canyon, Treasurer.

Comments from Matinee Show "Tish" Was Enjoyed by Central

A novel idea this year was to have a matinee for the central pupils who wanted to attend the Senior play, "Tish." Pupils from the third to the eighth grade came. This was an opportunity for them to see a good performance, and (just between us) it gave the cast a chance for a second dress rehearsal. After the play, two roving reporter's interviewed some of those present. Here's what they said:

- Lawrence Owen — "Really good."
- Homer Bridges — "Boy it was good."
- Tommy Culpepper — "It was good."
- Timmy Corbett — "It was swell."
- Lee Ford — "Good."
- Elmer Mitchell — "All right."
- Sandra Bateman — "It was really good."
- Miss Womble — "Grand."
- Louis LeGrand — "Swell."
- Bobby Hamilton — "Super."
- Bobby Owen — "Swell."
- Wayne Stagner — "Good."
- Jessie Click — "Oh! It was good."
- Jack Ramey — "O. K."
- Darrel Barnes — "It was really good."
- Buddy Corbett — "It's good."
- Mrs. Ford — "It was darling."
- Mrs. Bridges — "It was swell."
- Dorothy Bridges — "Oh! It was good."
- Mae Nell Bridges — "Best I've ever seen."
- Gene Walker — "I liked it."
- James Thomas — "It was good."
- Steve Goldston — "I thought it was good."
- Elaine Cox — "It sure was good."
- Frances Walker — "Oh! I liked it."
- Nannie Mae Malm — "Swell play."

New "Fish" Enters School

So, we see a new, yet very familiar, face once again! It is that of Betty Jane Carl, who is back here to stay (she hopes). The previous semester she attended Central Jr. High in Amarillo and John Muir Jr. High in Los Angeles, California. Betty Jane, better known as "Trixie," has light brown hair, brown eyes and long eyelashes. She is five feet and weighs (censored). She has made new acquaintances here in Hereford High and we, too, hope she will be able to stay.

Hereford is "OK," Says Student from Amherst

The new Freshman boy from Amherst, Texas is Johnny Cockerham. Johnny has blue eyes and brown hair and is about five feet five inches tall. His special dislike is studying English. He thinks that Hereford is "O. K." We would like to welcome Johnny to Hereford High and we hope that he continues to like it.

Airplane Instrument Panel Is Sent To H. H. S. for Students

Maybe you have noticed the little cardboard instrument panels in the library. This panel was sent to the school by the United States Office of Education. It is to be used in classes that are teaching aeronautics. Mr. Ford said that Miss Hall is going to use it in her plane geometry classes.

Reporters Review Sr. Performance

On Friday afternoon, April 28 the senior play cast made their first public appearance of Alice Chadwick's famous play, "Tish." The matinee, given for the benefit of central school youngsters was more or less a "feeler" to see how the performance would appeal to the evening audience. Pronounced a success by the first audience, this gave the cast new initiative for the night's performance.

At 8:30 o'clock on Friday evening, the auditorium was filled to capacity with enthusiastic critics. The tall, dark, and handsome Charlie Sands, played by Johnny Dowell, always appeared just in time to get his adventurous Aunt Tish, Mary Ruth Russell to you, out of trouble, caused principally by her over confidence in her driving and flying ability. He also carried on a love affair with the cute little red-head, Christine Smith, who played the part of Ellen, the inn keeper.

Tish's life proved to be too thrilling for her two feeble companions Lizzie and Aggie, portrayed by Fern Pitman and Ruth Tucker.

The villain, Orville Calhoun, didn't last very long when he tried to match his wits with those of Tish. And believe it or not, Katherine Acker, the Mexican servant, can really talk. She just wasn't in the mood Friday night.

If someone needs a love affair patched up, Ellen Posey or Bob Jennings may be able to give a que on how it's done, for everything turned out rosie for them. One should take care not to ask G. P. Owen about it though, for he gets neither his man nor his lady.

The climax was reached when Tish caught the robber, Edward Young and his accomplice Norma Harmon, and turned them over to the sheriff.

Besides the comedy of the evening, a bit of entertainment was provided by Margaret Barber and Wanda Lee Terry, who played the piano and led singing while the lights were off. The play has been pronounced a great success, and the proceeds will be used to pay expenses for the year and to buy a gift for Hereford High School.

A young city girl was vacationing in the country and became friendly with a farmer boy. One evening as they were

'Little Sisters' Are Special Guests at Tri-Hi-Y Meeting

An impressive service was presented by the Tri-Hi-Y Club to their "Little Sisters," as the club observed the annual "Little Sister Night," Tuesday April 25, 1944. The room was lighted in candle light. At the front of the room was a white cross which was placed among greenery. Above the cross was a picture which was emphasized by the lighting. A small Tri-Hi-Y emblem was on the piano with red and white candles on each side of the emblem.

On a table were four candles which represented the four-fold development for which the club stands. These are mental, physical, social and spiritual. Kathryn Davis, accompanied by Margaret Barber, played the violin. Following this, Marcella Blue led the group as they read in unison, scriptures from the bible. The group sang "In the Garden" after which the club continued reading in unison. Following this Ruth Tucker led in prayer. Mary Ruth Russell gave a talk on the subject of "Religion and Community Life." Arline Millard then presented a talk on "The Purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y Club" and brought out that the Tri-Hi-Y was a service club rather than a social organization. The program was concluded by the girl's forming a friendship circle and singing "Bless Be the Tie" followed by the Tri-Hi-Y benediction then entertained their "Little Sisters" with games. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served. The "Little Sisters" present were Elaine Thompson, Mary Jo Mathies, Doris Jean Hastings, Betty Jo Carnahan, Ruth Moreman, Mary Beth Scott, June Reynolds, Marian Longbottom, Marian Borden, Irene Jones, Christine Smith, Immonell Edwards, Lyla Robbins, Kathryn Davis, Juanita Beauford, Dorothy Dishman, Nina Hartman, Lottie Bell Edwards, Paula Mathers, Mary Louise Grady, Mary Helen McGilvary, Patsy Ann Slagle, Jacqueline Newell and Jeareen Sowell.

strolling across a pasture, they saw a cow and calf rubbing noses in the accepted bovine fashion.

"Ah," said the farmer boy, "that sight makes me want to do the same."

"Well, go ahead," said the girl, "it's your cow."

Some telephone wires were damaged and part of the southwest part of town without phone service until repairs could be made.

"Topper Comes Home" sounds like another title in that Thorne Smith series; but actually it's just the facts in the case of Topper Jett, black cocker spaniel belonging to Mrs. Edna Jett and her daughter, Joan.

For Topper disappeared from his home on B street early in December and yesterday he came back—very sleek and fat and evidently well-cared for. He had a little trouble at first, since his mistress had moved to the house next door to her old residence since Topper went away; but he was really happy to be home—after he found the right house.

Florence Wilkins spent several days last week in Fort Worth, where she attended gift market for Streu Hardware. While in Fort Worth she visited her daughter, Mrs. William F. Smith.
