The first person to identify the farm will receive two free show tickets. The farmer living on the place will also receive two tickets, plus the original print of the picture if he claims them at The Brand Office. Winner last week will be found inside this issue with a re-print of Mystery Farm No. 1.

Enrollment Schedule Is Listed; Schools Will Open September 5

Shirley grade school will meet its increased enrollment with six new classrooms and an ultra-modern cafeteria, according to George L. Graham, superintendent of Hereford rural high school district.

Three of the seven sections of the first grade will meet at Shirley; the other four will meet at Central.

Punch and cookies will be served in the new cafeteria to first grade children and their mothers by the PTA during first grade enrollment from 8:30 to 10:30 Friday morning, Sept. 1.

PTA Family Night

It will be family night when the PTA meets for the first time this school year in the new cafeteria at Shirley grade school Tuesday night. Patrons and teachers are urged to bring the fathers and the children and a basket lunch, according to Mrs. Elmer Patterson, chairman.

New school teachers will be present, and it will be an opportunity for the parents to meet them," she said.

It will be open house night, too, and parents and children can look over the six new classrooms and the new cafeteria which will be put into use for the first time this fall.

The faculty of the Hereford district will meet in the high school auditorium Monday, Sept. 4, at 2 o'clock, George L. Graham, superintendent, announced.

The Hereford school district is ready for an expected enrollment of 1,650 to 1,700 students, according to George L. Graham, superintendent, who added: "This will be about 100 more than was enrolled last year. We have an improved plant, and we can take care of the increased number of students—we hope," Graham commented. "It is no easy job to keep up with the rather rapid increase in enrollment."

The seventh- and eighth-grade students will have to continue to use the Junior High racks."

The greater number of students will be handled with the help of a schedule of staggered enrollment and a carefully plotted dividing line of school patronage.

The schedule of enrollment is as follows:

Thursday, Aug. 31
High school seniors—9 a. m. to 12 noon.
High school juniors—1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Friday, Sept. 1
High school sophomores—9 a. m. to 12 noon.
High school freshman—1 p. m. to 4 p. m.

First grade—8:30 a. m. to 10:30 a. m.
Seventh grade—Both morning and afternoon, 9 a. m. to 12:15 p. m. to 4 p. m.

Grades 2 to 6 will register Tuesday, Sept. 5, when the school term begins.

The dividing line between Shirley and Central grade school areas begins at Highway 60 on Schley and runs north to Park Avenue, then west to Avenue B, north to Grand Avenue, and west to Highway 51.

All children living south and west of this line will go to Central grade school.

Those living north and east of this line will go to Shirley grade school.

If this dividing line causes undue physical hardship on any child," said Graham, "his parents should call the office of the superintendent and an adjustment will be made if possible."

The best way of determining which grade school will be attended by children riding busses is by the driver on whose route they lived last year, if they have not moved according to Graham.

Those patrons who last year lived on routes driven by Mrs. Hutson and Messrs. Benson, Groom, Beene, Thompson, Beach and Lee will send their grade-school children to Central.

Those who lived on routes driven by Messrs. Sullivan, Gant, Elliston, Smith, Garner, Cupell, Burgess and Shaw will send their grade-school children to Shirley.

Busses will run Tuesday, Graham added, and will return after a morning of registration and preparation.

The cafeteria will open Wednesday.

Around Town

SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

Congressman Ben Gull will be in Hereford Friday, Sept. 8, according to announcements today. He is scheduled to speak at the Rotary Club at noon, along with members of the Lions, Kiwanis and Jaycees, who have been invited to attend a joint meeting next week. Gull is slated to report on "Washington as I See It," and will be in Hereford all day Friday as guest of Henry Sears, former school mate. Gull will go to Childress Wednesday, Perryton Thursday and come here Friday.

Notes from Democratic Nominations Walter Rogers and from Al-tavene Clark were received this week expressing appreciation to friends and acquaintances over the district.

O. P. Cowart, chamber of commerce secretary, is definitely on edge. Pete received his "alert" from 4th Army headquarters Monday. The notice said he would be allowed 21 days to close out personal affairs before reporting for active duty in the reserves. The time allowance will begin when he receives definite orders—which he is expecting any day.

If you are going away to college, Mrs. John McLean, Brand Society editor, asks that you contact her as soon as possible. Phone 181 or write to box 287, Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Albracht this week announced purchase of the Little Diner, which they will operate in the future.

Mrs. Harry Caylor also announces opening of the Hereford Ceramic House, probably next week. It will be located across from the hotel in the building formerly occupied by Engman Cafe, and will feature ceramic supplies, green ware, etc.

Tom McFarland, employment office manager, is on vacation and left a sign which has literally upset the entire courthouse. The sign on his door reads: "Gone fishing, be back Sept. 11."

Rainfall from one-half to two inches over the territory left pasture lands in excellent shape, according to livestock men. Grass, already half to knee high, soaked up recent moisture and

Bumper Grain Sorghum Yields Seen From Beneficial Rains

The faces of most farmers in this territory are wreathed in smiles following beneficial rains which fell in the area over the week-end, Monday and Tuesday. Coming at "the last minute," the rains assured a grain crop for many producers and swelled potential yields for others. Rainfall varied from one-half inch to two inches over the entire territory, running heavier to the north.

Many grain men and producers are expecting the largest grain sorghum yield in history of the area; Castro and Farmer Counties are also anticipating bumper yields. Rough estimates gave Deaf Smith a total acreage of between 135,000 and 150,000—and a possible yield of five to six million bushels.

Half Irrigation

County Agent Hugh Clearman estimated that more than half of the grain sorghum crop will come from irrigated farms, which will generally boost yields due to the fact that farmers have been able to water the crops during the past two weeks of dry weather. Around 800 wells have been in operation. Yields on irrigated lands will probably average around 50 bushels, running from small yields up to 100 bushels to the acre. Support price on grain sorghums is $1.80 a hundred, according to the PMA office in Hereford.

Grain harvest will get underway within 30 to 45 days, according to most producers, although some bundle feed may be cut within two to three weeks.

Greenbug Damage

Insect damage was reported in some sections by grain sorghum farmers. Plant life, greenbugs, and corn-ear worms have been causing most of the trouble. County Agent Clearman said that recent rains should retard some of this damage, especially the lice and worms.

"With present conditions, things can only get worse," Clearman said. "The crop looks exceptionally well at present so things that happen from now on will be bugs, hail damage and the like. However, the recent rains gave this country another chance to produce a tremendous yield of sorghums."

Rural Telephone Lines Hinge On Few More Names

Reporting "almost enough applications" have been secured to apply for rural telephone service in this area, Mr. Hollis, representative of Halse and Green, engineers, said today that 150 to 200 additional applications will be necessary before the local cooperative can apply for the loan.

"We now have approximately 850 applications from prospective users," he said. "It will be necessary to have 1,000 applications—and a few more would be better."

Rural telephone service, under the proposed plan, will be available to consumers in Deaf Smith, Farmer and Castro Counties, Mr. Hollis pointed out. He also said it would not be necessary for applicants to be REA consumers, stating that several applications have been made by users on other REA projects and by people who do not have REA service at all.

The three county area in the proposed project has already been approved, according to Deaf Smith REA officials, but loan application cannot be made until sufficient applications are secured. The loan will run more than one million dollars, estimated on a conservative basis. Persons who wish to make application for telephone service should visit the REA central office, in Hereford, sign the application and leave a $5 deposit.

"We felt that if people knew how near we were to having enough applications that they would want to reach the required number," Hollis said.

Goldsmith Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services were held at Plainview Wednesday for Claud Goldsmith, Deaf Smith County farmer. He died in the Deaf Smith County hospital Monday after an illness of about four days.

Claud Goldsmith was born at Olney, Texas, November 28, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Goldsmith. He moved to Plainview, and came to Deaf Smith County November 1, 1949.

He is survived by his son, James Claud, 12; his parents; and two sisters, Mrs. Carl McCall, Plainview, and Mrs. Wade Clark, San Angelo.

Marshall Formby Will Return Here

Marshall Formby will come back to Hereford as general manager of Radio Station KPAN, according to announcements this week. FCC has approved transfer of John Blake's interest in the local station to Formby, who in turn sold his interest in the Snyder station to Blake.

"Don Botes will continue as active station manager," Formby said, "and no staff changes are anticipated." Mr. and Mrs. Formby will return to Hereford during September to make their permanent residence.

Stores To Close Labor Day; Dollar Day Set For Tuesday

Most Hereford stores will remain closed Monday, Sept. 4, in observance of Labor Day. The announcement conforms with printed cards released through the Chamber of Commerce early in the year, and leave two more holidays to be observed this year. They include Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 23 and Christmas, Dec. 25. New Year Day, Jan. 1, is also listed as the first closing date for 1951.

Drug stores indicated that they would observe Labor Day this year, along with other retail firms, courthouse offices, post office, banks, city and government offices. Some restaurants and most service stations indicated, however, that they would remain open during the day, but most food stores indicated they would be closed for the day.

Dollar Day, scheduled for Monday, will be held on Tuesday, September 5, according to merchants who said that a "Back-to-school" theme will be found on specials for the September Dollar Day.

PIONEER VISITOR REMEMBERS WHEN HEREFORD ORGANIZED

Mrs. Wallace Lived Here In Tent

"I never owned an inch of land in Texas and if I keep my right mind I never will!"

"That was my father's opinion, not mine," said Mrs. Ella S. Wallace, pioneer of Deaf Smith County resident who stopped in Hereford Monday to visit with old-time friends and look after land interests near Umbarger.

"I like Texas and if I were young I wouldn't live any where else, and my father liked it well enough to buy a couple of sections of land for me," she said.

Mrs. Wallace, who was then Mrs. H. S. Burham, came to Texas in '96 with her husband, daughter, Mary, and son, Will. They came for health reasons and because they had a feeling that this part of the country would be a good place to raise a family, fine cattle and horses. That feeling proved right, too, because their health improved rapidly and their business prospered. They stopped in Amarillo where they had relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. N.

Potter, who lived on the site where the Elks Home is now located. There was only one side-walk in Amarillo then, down Polk Street.

"We lived on the old 'Frying-Pan Ranch,'" she remembered.

Two years later, on a Wednesday evening they came to Deaf Smith County and rented the old U. V. Ranch a few miles west of here. They had seven tents, two cooks and several cowboys to take care of the cattle. That year the town site of Hereford was surveyed and Mrs. Wallace's father, John Swon, listened to her plea and purchased some Texas land for her. He paid $1,000 for two sections near Umbarger, part in Randall County and part in Deaf Smith. That was in 1901 and the family lived near the old Dean post office for the next ten years.

"Believe me, those were the good old days," she said. "I was so happy and so busy. I taught music and helped build the Baptist Church and helped organize the Womble School. Our neighbors were L. A. Pierce and family, A. B. Cage and family, and the John Day family."

She recalled how unhappy she was over leaving Texas: "I never would have gone back to Missouri, but the children were ready for college and it seemed the best thing to do. Now I am 80 years old and need to live near my children and I presume I'll spend the rest of my days on the old home place. You know Van Buren signed the deed to that land when he sold it to my grandfather and I live just half a mile from the brick house my grandfather built. A lot of Texas cars get up into Missouri and we never see one that we don't stop the folks and ask just what part of Texas they call home. I'm still a Texan at heart."

Mrs. Wallace remembered

Aunt Jenny Thompson and Miss Jessie Morris and wondered if Alec could be reached. When he came into the Brand office, she was indeed happy and extended an invitation to everybody in Deaf Smith County to stop on U. S. Highway 54 for a visit with her when they are in Missouri.

Mrs. Wallace was accompanied by her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Turner and son of Odessa, Mo. They were enroute home from a vacation trip through the northwest. She intends to keep her land and is quite certain that this trip to Texas will not be her last. "Of course, I knew the town had grown," she said, "but I wasn't prepared to see Hereford anything like it is today."

"I can beat that toothache story, too," she laughed. "Deaf Smith County cured my car-tarrh, my husband's asthma, and my little girl's bronchitis in three months."

Cultural Club

The Cultural Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. A. F. Hargett Friday afternoon. Roll call was answered by naming a household hint by nine members and one visitor. Mrs. Paul Corbett gave a report on the mental institutions in Texas. In her talk she told of the need in each institution. She stated that there were seven mental institutions in Texas, and that their standards were the lowest in the United States. The average patient in a Texas state hospital has one chance in 280 of seeing a doctor. There are 100 many patients for each physician. In at least one hospital the chance is one in 750. She stated that the average patient is fed on an average of 47c a day, and sometimes as little as 21c.

Mrs. Corbett stated that the hospitals have overflowed and there is not enough space to give each patient a bed, even if beds were available. Why? Because Texas has 16,000 mental patients, and by reasonable medical standards, room for half that number. There are mental hospitals at Abilene, Austin, Big Spring, Rusk, San Antonio, Terrell and Wichita Falls. She also stated that the legislature is going to try to get some aid for these needy institutions.

Those attending this meeting were, Mesdames: R. N. Cooke, Grady Parsons, Wayne Johnson, C. S. Barclay, R. C. Childers, Paul Corbett, George Parker, one visitor, Mrs. Nobles Willier, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Corbett, Sept. 8. The program will be on cosmetics. Mrs. A. F. Hargett will give a facial and compound cosmetic. This meeting is set at 2:00 instead of 2:30 as we will elect officers for the coming year, besides our regular program. Everyone should try to be there, for this is an important meeting.

KID DAY AT LIONS CLUB—Boys and girls, big and little, mostly sons and daughters of Lions Club members were special club guests at a pre-school luncheon honoring "Lions' kids" Wednesday. The meeting was held at Hotel Jim Hill and entertainment was furnished by the Blackburn-Shaw quartet of Amarillo. Favors included whistles, balloons and other toys. The quartet, winner in national competition, received a warm welcome as the kids cut loose with whistles instead of usual type of applause. Lions who failed to bring a "kid" were fined by the tallwister. H. A. Close was program chairman.

TODAY'S BIG FARM NEWS

THE MASSEY-HARRIS Self-Propelled CORN PICKER

More and more you'll be seeing these Massey-Harris Self-Propelled Corn Pickers operating in the corn belt. Why? Because it's by far the most practical and profitable way to bring in your corn. It saves time, labor, and most important, more of your corn.

Furthermore, there's no delay getting into the field with a Self-Propelled... no hard-to-manage unit to attach... no lost parts from season to season. Seated comfortably and safely high up out of the dust and dirt you see where you're going, what you're doing. You go down those rows like a hound dog holds the trail—picking up to 30 acres a day in 50 bushel corn... and every ear husked clean as a whistle.

Come in soon for complete details—we'll be looking for you.

The rains are also a forerunner of probably the greatest wheat sowing activity this area has seen in a long time. Despite the wheat failure this year, farmers are literally itching to start on the 1951 crop and will swarm into the fields as soon as they dry out. Dealers are already reporting a run on seed wheat. Most of the crop will go on summer tilled land, according to reports.

A special fireworks display will be featured at the Tower Drive-in Monday night, Sept. 4, on the occasion of Labor Day, according to Francis Hardwick, manager. The pyrotechnic display will feature a large selection of rockets, bombs, etc., and will be added to the regular program at no extra admission charge, he said.

The Hereford Garden Club will begin its new club year Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jim Black, 508 West Third. All associate, sustaining, old and new members are urged to be present.

The E.S.A. is holding a rummage sale Saturday at Fullwood's. The clothing will be sold to Mexicans from the Labor Camp. Anyone who has any old clothes he or she would like to give for this sale may contact Ellen Carter at Fullwood's, pho. No. 20. The members of this club will pick up the clothes at your house or you may drop them by. Club members will make all necessary repairs of the clothes. Any contributions will be appreciated.

The E.S.A. clubs over the United States sponsor a school for children with defective-hearing and deaf children. All money made at the Saturday rummage sale is being sent to this school. Fifty per cent will be used to help the children there from Deaf Smith County; the other fifty per cent will go to the national foundation.

MYSTERY FARM—No. 1 was settled in a hurry. Woodrow Whitaker was in early Thursday morning to identify the Frank Huckert farm. Whitaker lives one mile south of the Huckert farm. Charles Noland of Summerfield was a close second in the identification, being less than an hour behind Whitaker; both men had the identification right on the nose. The farm is reprinted above and Frank Huckert may have the original print by calling at The Brand Office.

Above, Bill McDanel, state Jaycee president, makes the speech introducing John Ben Shepard as "Mr. Jaycee." The largest bi-regional convention group any present remembered—312 people—heard McDanel's introduction. At the left, John Ben Shepard, Texas Secretary of State and secretary of the Texas Economy commission, calls for support from "the forks of the creeks" for an efficient state government. Following the introductory address in which McDanel handed a verbal bouquet to Shepard and another to the Jaycees of regions One and Two, Shepard remarked: "We all know these things about each other, Bill, but we sure do like to hear them again."

TANKERS
The United States today has many more — and larger — oil tankers than at the outset of World War II, according to the Department of Interior. On September 3, 1949, the latest figures show that there were 870 tankers in the Western hemisphere — 359 more than ten years earlier. Of these, 578 were under the U. S. flag—195 more than in 1939. There have been additional launchings in the last 12 months.

Claudia Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Lewis of Hereford, won the 87,000th visitor prize to Palo Duro Park last Sunday afternoon. She received as her prize a $25 sterling silver sandwich tray, given by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce and presented to her by their president.

Claudia and her five other friends, Glenn Wilson, Alex Schroeter, Doris Jean McGee, Bill Forbus and Martha Thomas stopped at the admission gate to the park about 2:00 o'clock. Claudia happened to be the lucky number in the car.

Gap Closed On Hiway 60

Preliminary construction work on 7.52 miles of 34-foot, eight inch concrete surface on U. S. Highway 60 was announced this week by Harry O. Glasser, president of U. S. 69 National Highway Association.

The paving will run from the Wyandotte Indian Reservation in Oklahoma to the Missouri

State line at Seneca," Glasser said. The construction will leave 10.5 miles to be completed in the "open gap" from Seneca to the intersection with U. S. 66, and leaves only 23.5 miles of "open gap" road on U. S. 60 in Oklahoma. Glasser said the next project of the association will be surfacing of the gap at the west entrance to Pawhuska in Oklahoma.

"Our future on U. S. 60 is now assured and we can look forward to its early completion and acceptance by the traveling public," he declared, "as one of the greatest transcontinental highways of our country."

Cole photography moved about two weeks ago to the space vacated by Lamm, and the Chiropractic clinic expanded to take in the area formerly occupied by Cole photography.

Rutherford moves out of its present location, the Frigidaire agency will move in. At this time, the Brand has not learned who plans to move in when Frigidaire moves out.

PAIRINGS IN TOP FLIGHTS

Golfers Can Qualify Until Saturday In City Tourney

The city championship golf tournament got off to a slow start this week, due to rain Sunday and Monday, and to lack of entries in lower flights. Pairings had been made in the championship flight and in the first flight, but will be held up on other flights until Saturday night.

"Persons interested in entering the tournament will have until Saturday night to qualify," Jim Terry, course manager, said Tuesday. Winners will be determined on holes won and a pool has been held in connection with the tournament. Golfers in the championship and first flights can play matches Saturday and second matches Sunday, but no matches in other flights will be played before Sunday with finals slated for the Sunday following Labor Day. Pairings follow:

Championship Flight
 Jerry Stoltz 74, vs. J. W. Chaner 77.
 Edward Roberson 76, vs. J. M. Posey 76.
 Urlin Streu 74, vs. Ted Young 78.

Ladies Golf Tournament Slowed Down In Final Play

Lucille Posey and Irma Terry will meet in the championship flight finals this week in Hereford's first ladies golf tournament. First flight was still at a standstill, however.

Mrs. Posey downed Mrs. Edward Roberson 3-2, and Irma Terry won over Helen Ann Pitman 2-1, in the championship flight.

First flight play left Cora Jane Benson and Barbara Burney in a tie on score and on holes; both ladies shot a 64. Genevieve Eberle and Meredith Ireland had not played in this flight as yet.

In the second flight Pauline Howard won over Zona Evans 1-up; Jean Streu won over Marie Cogdell 2-up; Sally Kirby drew a bye in this flight.

Scotch Tournament Sunday

A Scotch Foursome tournament created wide interest at the golf course last Sunday. Players drew for partners, who took turns at shooting alternate holes.

Irma Terry and Urlin Streu won the tourney and four golf balls with a net 36 on nine holes. Mrs. Edward Roberson and J. A. Pitman ran a close second with a net 37, also winning four golf balls.

Two golf balls went to Barbara Burney and Jim Kirby with a net 38.

Other pairings included: Jean Streu and Mac Pitman, 42; Sally Kirby and J. M. Posey, 40; Genevieve Eberle and Frank Cogdell, 40; Lucille Posey and Edward Roberson, 42; Cora Jane Benson and H. M. Benson, 52; Helen Ann Pitman and John Douglas Pitman, 44; Marie Cogdell and Paul Conaway, 46.

Canyon Play-Off Series Opens Here Next Sunday

The Hereford VFW nine will meet Canyon in the first of a play-off series for league championship Sunday afternoon, according to Andy Anderson, manager. The game was rescheduled from last Sunday, when the Hereford boys were slated to meet Canyon, but had to be re-set due to heavy rain in the Canyon area. Plans call for a double header at Canyon the following Sunday, Sept. 3, 1950, wind up the play-off series.

"We will have about the same lineup and things are looking pretty good," Anderson declared. "We have high hopes of coping the pennant, but it will be a struggle."

Monk Ford, the Canyon pitcher, who has been setting some records, is recovered and will be back in the play-off series, according to Anderson. Canyon has been setting a pretty fast pace the latter part of the season, and lost in both contests with Hereford after hard fought battles. Scores were 9-2, and 11-5.

The series will be decided in a two-out-of-three play-off with the double header at Canyon depending upon a tie after the first two games.

Stan Barrett, 78, vs. R. E. Lingenfelter 77.

First Flight:

J. A. Pitman 79, vs. Frank Cogdell 78.

Bill Davis, Jr. 80, vs. T. P. Howard 82.

Bill Howard 79, vs. Don Martin 81.

Preach Edelman 83, vs. Wayne Phillips 82.

Other players who have qualified, but have not been paired in flights, follow: Harold Loerwald 100, Wendell Burdine 91, Pank Gilbreath 86, Jim Kirby 92, John Douglas Pitman 85, Homer Lee Owen 93, Pat Corbett 93, Pat Kerr 93, Joe Kerr 83, Oscar Lange 85, Owen Seamands 83, Henry Lewis 83, Ed Young 93.

Tournament prizes are now on display at the club house and include a wide assortment of golf equipment, clothing and shoes.

LIONS CLUB MAKES ARENA IMPROVEMENTS

Fall Wrestling Season To Open Saturday

The Lions Club wrestling matches will be resumed at the Bull Barn in Hereford Saturday, Sept. 2, according to Guy Lawrence, manager and Marlin Gilliland, wrestling commissioner, today.

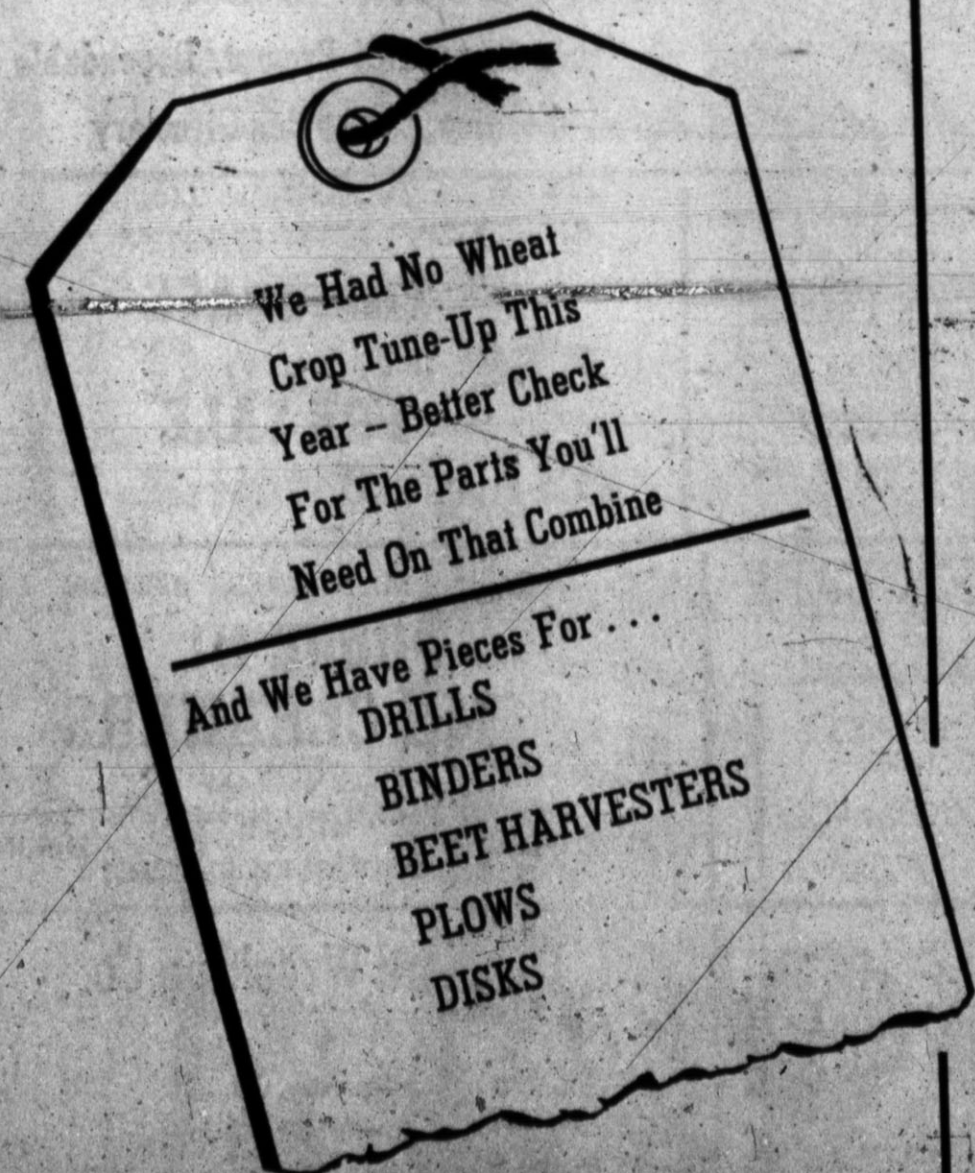

Opening matches of the fall season will feature a two-bout card, Lawrence said. Billy San-don of Toledo, Ohio, will meet George Drake of Milwaukee in the preliminary bout. Main bout for the opening will see Frank Craig, billed as the "Tulsa Blacksmith" pitted against Dory Funk of Boy's Ranch. Referee will be Vick Webber.

"The boys in this main bout need no introduction to the people of this section," Lawrence said. "They are two of the top-notch wrestlers we expect to present during the fall season. Both matches will be two out of three falls" with one hour time limits. (Continued on Page 4)

Cubs Fei Parade Slated For Oct. 5

Cub leaders round table meeting was held at the home of cub-commissioner John Hicks Monday night. Plans were completed for the regular pack meeting which will be held at the hut Friday night at 7:30. Theme for the meeting will be back yard camping.

Plans were discussed for the annual round up in September and the day for the annual Pei Parade was set for Friday, October 5.

It was decided to hold another training course for cub leaders, including committeemen, and the cub commissioner announced that a date for the training course would be slated soon.

Members voted to meet on the third Monday in the month instead of the fourth Monday as scheduled heretofore, and the next session was announced for September 18 in the home of Mrs. E. M. Cox.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames: E. M. Cox, W. D. Jones, Archie Scott and Homer Brumley; also Bruce Miller, Coy Patton and John Hicks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bonesio and son, Mickie, left Tuesday for Pringle where she will teach in the Pringle Public Schools.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO SAVE A PAIR OF EYES?

LESS THAN 2¢ A NIGHT That's right! A 150-watt bulb, burning for four hours, uses less than two cents' worth of electricity... provides light for sight that cannot be replaced at any price... once it's gone.

Now that fall is approaching... shorter, duller days... home-work for the young folks... be sure your home is properly lighted. Fill up those empty sockets; add another floor or table lamp... or maybe just re-arrange the lamps you already have. But, however you do it, remember that eyes are priceless... light is cheap—through dependable, low-cost Electric Service.

is glad to see that corn is coming to the Texas Panhandle. Deaf Smith County has over 4,000 acres of corn this year.

As to the ear worm and insects that have caused trouble this year, the same thing is happening in the corn belt, he said. It is believed that the mild winter had much to do with it. On the whole, all corn in Texas is looking good, he declared.

While in Illinois, he also visited with brothers who live in Farmersville.

Quality Baking Wheat Advised By State Leaders

COLLEGE STATION— Good baking quality, as well as good yield, is important in the selection of a variety of wheat for planting, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A&M College.

Most of the wheat produced goes into the flour trade, and about 85 per cent of the flour is used by commercial bakeries. The bakeries require a quality of flour with which they can bake the kind of bread that their customers demand.

Miller says that Texas formerly had a reputation for producing fine quality wheat which was in demand because it was nearly all produced from good baking varieties. This reputation has been temporarily lost because new wheat varieties with poor baking qualities have been brought in from other states.

However, Miller reports that recent surveys by the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Program reveal that Texas is now regaining its reputation. The surveys show that there has been a 30 per cent, or approximately 1,500,000 acres, increase in the acreage of good wheat varieties planted in Texas from 1947 to 1950.

New improved varieties developed by Experiment Stations and private plant breeders are not only good yielders, but also have good baking quality. Since the new varieties are good yielders, Miller says that there is no longer any need for planting varieties with poor baking quality.

As recommended varieties for the main wheat area of Texas, he lists Comanche and Westar for baker's flour and Wichita and Triumph for family trade flour. Tenmarq and Turkey produce excellent quality baking flour, but do not give as high yields as Comanche and Westar. Miller points out that the varieties of demand is for the varieties of high quality baker's flour and that producers should keep this in mind when selecting their wheat varieties.

Miller says that, as soon as more seed is available, the new Quannah wheat variety will probably become popular in the Rolling Plains area and in North and Central Texas, where it is well adapted.

HARVESTING LOVE GRASS—Grant Hanna may be seen above on his tractor as he harvests a Love Grass crop eight miles north of town. He conservatively estimates 50 pounds of seed per acre, plus three months of top quality pasture for his 20 dairy cows—and from a 20-acre tract

Pasture Plus Cash Crop Provided By Love Grass

Love grass is an ideal crop in this area for the dairy farmer, according to Grant Hanna, who recently finished combining 20 acres for seed, which is now spread out on the floor of his granary to dry.

"I have no actual measure on the seed yield," he said, but made a conservative estimate at 50 pounds per acre. He plans to sell the seed by the pound and says that the market price is around $1 a pound.

Hanna bought the seeded acreage from E. P. Kistler, who planted it in the spring. During the past one and a half months, he has pastured 20 head of dairy cows on the tract prior to the harvest. He also estimates that the tract will continue to pasture the 20 head of cattle for the remainder of the summer. He reported the grass as being 40 inches high and said that it was cut 12 inches from the ground in the process of combining.

Hugh Cleaman, county agent, also expressed interest in the tract, and believes that Love Grass may afford excellent opportunities for the dairy farmer and even the cattlemen of this section.

AMES, Iowa — Two boys from Hereford are among those who received degrees from Iowa State College Saturday, August 26, in graduation exercises which marked the end of the summer quarter of studies.

Those from Hereford are: Cyrus A. Galley, son of Mrs. Fleeda Galley of Hereford, received the master of science degree in vocational education. He accepted a position at the Moline Public Schools at Moline, Illinois.

Charles D. Story, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Story of 904 McKinley, received the master of science degree in animal production. He will continue graduate work at Iowa State College.

Lloyd Manjeot and Roger Corbett, Jr. have gone to Dallas to attend a football game between the Detroit Tigers and Washington Redskins in the Cotton Bowl on Wednesday night. They will also attend commencement exercises held at S.M.U. while in Dallas.

Miss Mary Lou Roberson, teacher in the Lubbock public schools has been visiting with relatives in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harlin have gone to Kansas City, Mo., to visit in the home of a son, Harold Harlin.

EMPLOYMENT

The national employment figure for July stood at 61,214,000 or slightly less than June, but the total was still close to the record high of 61,800,000. Unemployment was down to 3,213,000, compared with 3,384,000 in June.

DOLLAR BILLS

Because the supply is getting dangerously low, largely because of wear and tear in circulation, the Bureau of Engraving has asked Congress for $2,800,000 to enable it to print 240,000,000 new dollar bills so that it may take some of the worn currency out of circulation.

Mr. Nunn pointed out that Congress, in adopting the Fair Labor Standards Amendments of 1949, paid particular attention to the child-labor provisions. The concern of Congress for the health and welfare of our children is clearly demonstrated by the language by which the child-labor provisions of the law were strengthened.

The intended curb on the employment of our youth at an age before they are ready to participate as members of our working force was made effective by directly prohibiting the employment of oppressive child-labor—generally boys and girls under 16 years of age—an interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce.

In agriculture, it is now unlawful to employ children less than 16 years of age during school hours.

"That means," Mr. Nunn said, "that if the school for the district where such children currently live is in session, the children should be in school, and not in the fields."

There are only four exemptions from the child-labor provisions of the Federal law, he said. These four exemptions permit: (1) employment of children in agriculture outside of school hours for the school district where they live while so employed; (2) employment of children engaged in the delivery of newspapers to the consumer; (3) employment of children as actors or performers in motion pictures or in theatrical, radio, or television productions; (4) employment by a parent, or a person standing in place of a parent, of his own child or a child in his custody under 16 years of age in any occupation other than manufacturing, mining, or one found by the Secretary to be particularly hazardous or detrimental to the health or well-being of children between 16 and 18.

The farmer is made responsible for knowing the correct age of the young workers he employs. Mr. Nunn pointed out that the Federal law does not forbid children working in agriculture on their parent's own farm. But he emphasized that most states have school attendance laws and that the law which sets the higher standard, whether state or Federal, is the one which governs in any particular case.

He also emphasized that the Federal law with reference to child-labor in agriculture applies equally to local resident children and to migratory children.

"When school is in session, all children belong in school—and we are going to do our best to see that they are not illegally employed and so kept out of school," he declared.
