FRANK STREETMAN
C. of C. Speaker

Frank Streetman, a humorist who originated in Oklahoma and whose face has since spread far and wide, will be the guest speaker for the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet at the Jih Hill hotel January 23. A man who once styled himself the "mayor of Sasakwa" and whose type of humor has been compared with that of another famous Oklahoman, Will Rogers, will be the principal speaker for the annual banquet, and is expected to provide entertainment for all who attend. Streetman, who began his career as a humorist while he worked as Purchasing agent for the Oklahoma Highway commission, will make his first appearance in Hereford at the C. of C. banquet. C. of C. Manager Tom McFarland said this week officials of the organization felt fortunate in having a speaker of Streetman's merit appear here. Although most of Streetman's addresses have been made in Oklahoma, he has spoken in almost every state in the midwest.

Meetings Are Scheduled For Each RTA Community

Beginning next Tuesday and ending on January 26, a meeting will be held in each of the communities in the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative for the purpose of discussing details for the local RTA program, announced Lloyd Lovell, office manager, yesterday. Meetings in each of the communities will be under the direction of the RTA director living in the area. Leo Forrest, local manager, or Mr. Lovell plan to attend each of the meetings. Meetings will begin at 7:30 at the following locations: Hereford, District Court Room, January 16; Dawn school house,

January 17; Dimmitt, District Court Room, January 18; Nazareth, Community Hall, January 19; Oklahoma Lane, school house, January 22; Bovina, American Legion hall, January 24; Friona, American Legion hall, January 26. Mr. Lovell explained that the $454,000 in funds recently allocated to the local cooperative compose the 90 per cent to be furnished by the government. The local RTA must put up 10 per cent in order to qualify. This means, said the office manager, that each rural subscriber will be asked to furnish $50. Many subscribers have already-deposited $5 with the RTA, which amount will apply on the $50 payment. Mr. Lovell said the RTA would like to have the money in by February 1 in order that the work may move as rapidly as possible. "An engineer is making tentative surveys and will put in orders for materials, subject to the RTA approval, in order to get on the manufacturer's schedule", he added. Johnson Wires A telegram this week from Senator Lyndon Johnson states he has met with the RTA and War Allocation Board in Washington. (Continued on Page 5)

Polio Drive Opens Monday; Big Campaign Is Planned

MAPPING STRATEGY for the all-out March of Dimes campaign to be waged here are Drive Chairman John D. Aikin and County Chairman Paul Harvey. The dread killer, polio, will be just that much less dangerous when all the groups and individuals here working on the March of Dimes complete their campaign.

In discussing plans for the polio drive which begins Monday, January 15, and ends January 31, John D. Aikin, campaign director, said, "Although no goal has been set for Deaf Smith County, if Texas is to be successful in taking care of the huge costs of polio victims and also the present deficit brought about as a result of money advanced from the national foundation, it will be necessary that the contribution average 40 cents per capita. "Deaf Smith county will come through again", he predicted, pointing to the $3,041.18 raised in the March of Dimes campaign here last year, an average of a little more than 83 cents per capita. According to the reports of polio headquarters, not over six counties in the whole state equalled the record.

Give Dimes in Change The campaign chairman urged all business men to request their employees to use dimes when possible to make change and to keep a large number of dimes on hand at all times in order to help make the public dime conscious during the drive. Aikin pointed out every civic organization in Hereford has agreed to cooperate in the drive, and the clubs and schools plan to do their share. Mayor Asks Cooperation Mayor W. E. Dameron said the city has agreed to let all dimes deposited in the parking meters during the campaign go to the March of Dimes. He urged citizens to use that means of contributing. ## Plan Organization Of Civil Air Patrol Here

Hereford may have its own Civil Air Patrol if recent plans are realized for the organization of the unit here. A group of approximately ten men here have asked for information from the Civil Air Patrol at Amarillo and are seeking to create enough interest in Hereford for a similar unit. Carl Kropff, manager of the Clover Airport here, said a group of Hereford men had met with a group of the Civil Air Patrol in Amarillo and had learned the basic purposes of organization.

The unit here would be independent of all others and would not necessarily be limited to pilots. In fact, according to information from the group at Amarillo, boys and girls from 15 years and up would be eligible for training in the organization. Although it is sponsored by the U. S. Air Force, it is not a part of that organization. The nearest headquarters for the Civil Air patrol are in Dallas. Semi-Military Unit Although not directly connected with any actual branch of the Armed Forces, the Civil Air patrol would be organized in a military manner, with a commanding officer, captains, lieutenants and cadets. Its purpose would be the training of persons here to be able to meet whatsoever emergency might arise. Such emergencies as floods, lost children, disasters in time of peace or bombings and all the other possible emergencies in time of war, would be the subjects of the training undergone by those enlisted in (Continued on Page 5)

Run It New And It'll Cost You

Better think twice or three times before running that stop sign. City police warn the fine has been hiked from $1 to $4 for persons violating the sign's order. And $4 is the minimum. It could run higher, Chief Floyd H. Reeves pointed out. The new amount for the fine will be assessed beginning Monday, Reeves announced Wednesday. Police assured citizens the department would exercise even more vigilance than in the past and all offenders would be fined.

Social Security Representative To Answer Questions About New Law

Farmers, employers of household workers, farm laborers, and self-employed workers, all of whom came under the new social security regulation on January 1, will have the opportunity to have their questions answered next Wednesday when F. B. Ellington, field representative with the Social Security Service of Amarillo, will be at the County Court room. He is scheduled to be there at 9:30 Wednesday morning. County Agent Hugh Clearman said farmers have started asking questions regarding the new regulations and will welcome the opportunity to contact Mr. Ellington. The field representative is to be here each Wednesday following the third Tuesday of each month. Farm Workers Farm operators and their families are not covered under the new law, only farm workers. Following are several questions and answers concerning the new law which were sent to Mr. Clearman by the A&M Extension service and approved by James B. Marley of the Social (Continued on Page 5)

Beth Gross to Have Two Operations--Result of Polio

Beth Gross, age 12, who recently moved from Hereford to Port Lavaca with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gross, knows the meaning of polio and the after effects of the dreaded disease. Beth, who was a member of the sixth grade class here until just a few weeks ago, is now in the Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas where she is scheduled to undergo two operations; the result of having had polio when she was just three years old. Beth isn't badly crippled, but an effort is being made to help her walk and run normally. She is luckier than many polio victims as her only disability is the fact her right leg is shorter than her left. The operations this week are to "staple" the left leg in order to retard its growth and to cut the cord and splice it in the right leg to let it down about two inches. At the hospital, parents are allowed to visit only on Sunday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock. When Beth had polio nine years ago, her condition did not (Continued on Page 5)

Around Town

SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

O. Z. Golden, technician at the hospital, worked diligently the day after Christmas to construct a dog house for the terrier the V. O. Hennen's had presented the Golden's three-year-old son, Gordon. Golden was proud of the structure when it was completed. He decided to let the dog inspect it, but there was no dog. Whereabouts of the dog, "Rickle" were not known until on New Year's Day he returned home to his new dog house. Fred Kroil, owner and operator of the local Zesto store, has recently been appointed representative of the Zesto franchise for Texas and New Mexico. Dick Culpepper has a sure-fire remedy for removing onions from your breath. (Dick makes hot dogs). "Just eat garlic", he says.

We Are Entering Dry Cycle, Speaker Says

Pointing to weather as the most important factor in the life of Panhandle residents, Dr. O. H. Loyd, Vega physician and large scale farmer, Wednesday told members of the Hereford Lions Club that this area is now entering upon a dry cycle. The prediction, he said, how may be altered by explosion of the atom bomb at Las Alamas, N. M. "Plan to meet the dry years." (Continued on Page 5)

MR. STORK SEES DOUBLE THIS WEEK

Mr. Stork was seeing double this week at Deaf Smith County Hospital.

The birth of two sets of twins this week at Deaf Smith County Hospital brought the total number of babies born at the hospital to 13 for the first 10 days of the New Year. Sunday afternoon between 3:25 and 3:30 the first set, identical twins, were born to Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Ward, who have a little girl in addition to the new boys. The boys have been named Gary and Barry. Yesterday twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Bicknell, who were undecided last night what they will name the new arrivals who increase the size of their family to five, three boys and two girls. All four babies are reported to be normal, healthy babies. Glenn Campbell is attending the Frigidaire service school in Fort Worth this week. Ray Downey attended the meeting during the first part of the week. Mrs. Don Roberts of Plainview is a guest this week in the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray Downey.

Two Firms on Hiway Have Formal Opening

Two business firms are holding formal openings together Saturday. The Crump's Service Station is opening at the corner of first and Jackson, and the Little Diner is staging its formal opening the first door west of the station. The Little Diner, owned by Jerry Albracht, was formerly located just across the highway. Albracht says it was too hot on the south side of the highway, so he moved to the north and is now selling plenty of chili. C. J. Crump is manager of the new service station which opened in a new building. Crump has been engaged in other business here until recently.

Killer Cook Is Reported Near Friona

A report came to Highway patrolmen and was investigated by police officers from a dozen towns that William Cook, Missouri-bred desperado and suspected killer of several persons, was in or near Friona. Investigation, however, revealed no trace of the notorious convict. A man driving a car bearing Florida license plates abandoned his car at Friona and did not return for two hours. When he was stopped late for questioning, police released him immediately and permitted him to proceed. Deaf Smith county officers and City policemen from Hereford were among the officers investigating the fruitless clue at Friona.

Kiwanis Officers To Be Installed On Ladies' Night

Bob Selby, past president of the Amarillo Kiwanis club, will act as installing officer for the installation of officers for the local club at their ladies night meeting at 7:30 p. m. today. Retiring president of the Hereford Kiwanis club, Bob Wear, said Selby was an active Kiwanian and had been instrumental in the formation of the Hereford Kiwanis club. Selby is assistant superintendent of the (Continued on Page 4)

GLs Have Limited Time To Enroll In Schools, Training

Ralph Smith of the local office of the veteran's administration announced this week that veterans discharged before July 25, 1947, must start to school by July 25, 1951. If they wish to take advantage of the veteran school program. Mr. Smith said veterans must stay in school continuously after the four year period following their discharge has elapsed. The only exception made to the law is for veterans who are teaching. As long as they are teaching continuously, they may go to school each summer under the program provided they are applying the work toward a degree.

Surface Pipe Is Set on Oil Well

Monday the surface pipe was set on the oil well being drilled by Taft McGee and Henry Sears on a section of land in Oldham County, adjoining Deaf Smith County on the north. The location is section 26 in township 7, range 1 on the Malcomb Moser place. Work has started on another new well in this area. Anderson and Prichard are setting up their rig on a location in the southwest corner of Section 12 and Block 9-T in Castro County, about five miles east of Hart.

Safety Council Begins Work; Officers Chosen

Officers and a Board of Directors have been selected and work on some phases is already underway for the recently formed Hereford Safety Council. Bob Wear, who represents the Hereford Kiwanis club, was elected president at the first meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday at 2 p. m. Dr. B. M. Wiltshire, board member representing the local post of the VFW, was elected first vice-president. Don Martin, Rotary club representative and Ray Cowser, Chamber of Commerce representative, were elected second and third vice-president in that order. Ralph Smith, board member from the American Legion post here, was elected secretary of the council. Other board members are Lindal Murray of the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce and D. C. Martin, Hereford Lions club. City Ordinance The ordinance creating the safety Council was passed by the City Commission a short time ago. It calls for a board of directors composed of men from seven of Hereford's civic clubs. The council, created for the purpose of curbing accidents, violations of traffic laws, unnecessary deaths and the spread of disease, is designed to encourage citizens of the town to be safety conscious, to coordinate safety programs of various civic groups and to utilize the expert advice of county, state and city safety officers for recommendations concerning proper engineering for safety education of the public with reference to safety laws. Immediate plans include work on civil defense projects, a bicycle safety campaign waged with the cooperation of school children and affiliated with national and state safety councils. Success Necessary The efforts of the council must meet with success, directors pointed out. The lives of a large percentage of the men, women and children in the community depend on it. A set of by-laws, called for in the ordinance creating the council, are being drawn up and will be presented for acceptance at the next meeting, Bob Wear revealed. The by-laws will be drafted in a manner similar to those of the Amarillo Safety Council. The formation of the Hereford Safety Council came after Maynard Drake, past president of the council of Amarillo, spoke at a meeting of the Kiwanis club here and explained the organization and its purpose and functions. The Hereford council is constructed similar to that of Amarillo. Drake has been invited to appear at the next meeting of the council to help with organizational work. Meetings will be held regularly the first Tuesday in each month at 2 p. m. it was decided at the meeting Tuesday. Special meetings may be called at any time if need arises.

The Hereford Mutual Concert Association announced this week that the next presentation will be Thursday night, January 25, at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium when Teresita and Emelio Osta, a young American pianist and his dancing sister "with the blood of Old Spain in their veins" will be featured. Jerry Stoltz, former news editor of the Brand assumed his duties with the Brownfield News as managing editor on Monday of this week. Stoltz has just completed a 90-day tour of duty as a second lieutenant in the Organized Reserve Corps. New residents of Hereford are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Williams and their three sons, who recently moved here from Amarillo. He is service manager for the new Buick agency. Tonight the regular monthly meeting of the Hereford Riders will be held at the City Hall at 7:30. The Board of Directors will present the names of nominees for officers for the approval of the members, announced President Joe Kendall this week. Jess Stanford is in Chicago (Continued on Page 6)

Baked Ham With Apricot Burgundy Glaze
A McCall's Magazine Fail-Proof Recipe

10-15 lb. ham
Whole cloves
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 cup apricot puree

1 cup Burgundy wine
2 sticks cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard

Because of the many types of ham on the market, we are not going to give cooking instructions. When you buy your ham, make certain the ham has the packer's cooking instructions attached. Follow them exactly.

To glaze the ham, take out of the oven 1 hour before the total baking time is over. Drain off the fat. Remove the rind and score the fat in a diamond pattern. Insert a clove in center of each diamond.

Combine brown sugar, apricot puree, wine, cinnamon, and mustard in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, 5 minutes. Pour over ham, put back in the oven and baste every 15 minutes, until ham is done.

By JIMMIE GILLENLINE

It is interesting to note reactions of people in various parts of the country. Went downstate to the Cotton Bowl game last week and ran into quite a few people who are not too worried over the war situation. Several predicted that things would quiet down and get back toward normal within six months. In other words, a lot of people—including many business leaders—feel that Russia will still back out when the chips are down. Notice where Harold Stassen, who just finished a trip around the world, says things are not so bad as they might seem. He also predicts revolution in Russia if they go to war.

Stassen, being a Republican, should carry some weight in opinion. Anyway, he is much more to be admired than those other Republicans who seem to be fighting for political prestige rather than general welfare of the country in a time of crisis. This also goes for most of the Democrats. What the people want is intelligent leadership of the type they can conscientiously follow.

Guess I have been hearing too many speeches lately. I was getting pretty well sold on the idea that we are in for a World War III, which we might even lose if we didn't get on the ball. A few thoughts begin to look pretty insignificant; things like your farm, your business—even schools and community progress. Anyway, it was refreshing to hear a little optimistic propaganda. Besides, when you boil it all down, the U. S. A. is a pretty tough outfit to lick. We may get off in a storm once in a while and we may get crossed up among ourselves, but we are a pretty good outfit to tie up with after all is said and done.

In the first place, we have more to fight for than any other people in the world. We are like a big family where the kids fight among themselves—until some outsider butts in to criticize. Then, Wham! The outsiders had better look out.

Notice, also, where Russia figures we are a bunch of slowpokes. At least, they are saying that we bought Alaska in 1867 for the sole purpose of aggression against Russia. Even Stalin would have to admit that our world aggression is a long-range program when estimated on this basis.

Here's a telegram which probably gave Congressman Walter Rogers a real chuckle shortly after he hit Washington: "On behalf of the minority, we congratulate you on your attainment. We are pulling for you and know that you will represent us well. Hope we are not on your 'so and so' list. You will be hearing from us when we want a dam." (Signed) Alex O. Thompson, Robert L. Thompson

Just received a lengthy release from Austin, pointing out that Gov. Allen Shivers and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey still plan an inauguration, minus pop and fanfare. They recalled some 3,000 invitations as a result of the President's declaration of emergency and plan to make the event a simple "swearing-in ceremony." This is the second such inauguration for Shivers, who was sworn in on his farm near Woodville in 1949 as successor to the late Gov. Beauford Jester.

Back to the football game. I thought I saw it, along with 78,000 other people, but in talking with Kent Snare, winner of The Brand contest, I am beginning to doubt if I was even there. Kent had a pair of field glasses—and I don't think he missed a single move.

"Did you notice in the third quarter when Townsend called time out, then calmly walked across the field and borrowed a chew of tobacco from the Tennessee fullback?" asked Kent. He says the fullback fumbled around in his kidney pads and produced a plug from which Townsend took a liberal chew. The only thing Kent missed was the brand of tobacco. He says he was sitting behind a post or he would have gotten that too.

A most embarrassing moment story which near tops them all is the lady with a slight cold who planned to attend a gathering of distinction and, to be on the safe side, carefully placed two handkerchiefs in the front of her evening dress. Amid activities she felt a need to wipe her nose and started frantically fumbling in her bosom for the hankies. Glancing up, she noticed a store of eyes fastened upon her and to relieve the tension, remarked: "Well, I know I had two when I came here."

More about downstaters. Folks interested in oil developments say Deaf Smith County is the "hottest play in Texas." Two different people ate me out severely for not having bought some leases.

This didn't bother me much. At least, not any more than what I lose by not playing the stock market. However, covering the oil play for the paper is a real problem. There are thousands of rumors, but no real facts. Mostly, the sort of things promoters will release regarding the oil play are aimed at selling stock or leases. The real news is never released because it generally means a fortune to the fellow who holds the information—at least in cases where a strike is likely. Meanwhile The Brand will continue to present facts as they appear: actual drillings, lease sales, etc., but the selling and buying of leases is, we feel, an individual proposition. At the best, it is a gamble—but a lot of gamblers often get wealthy in the oil game.

Had a nice letter from Mrs. Bill Smith at Roswell. She says

Bill is still in bed and that they have an oxygen set-up to take care of his at home, she adds. He has lost some weight, but not his sense of humor, which is well. This sounds just like Bill. He is, in many ways, one of those "unforgettable characters" you meet as you travel through life. Anyway, Hereford misses the Bill Smiths and many of us are looking forward to the day when they can at least get back home for a visit. No matter where they live, Hereford will always be "home" for them.

AN OPEN LETTER
Mr. Homer Fox,
Hereford, Texas.
Dear Meathad:

What's the matter? Can't you take it anymore? A few little virus bugs and you go out of circulation. Reminds me of the way the greenbugs did the wheat last year. Anyway, a lot of folks have been asking about your column, though I can't see why, and, thank goodness, the circulation hasn't dropped one single newspaper. I think they are just a bunch of old cronies of yours trying to be nice. Besides, the boys at the store say business has been good—and they don't have near as much trouble keeping things clean while you are out.

Everything is just swell—except I miss you like the very dickens. It just doesn't seem like Main Street with you at home in bed. Remember? It's since before Christmas. Even Gaston Baer couldn't enjoy luxury so long. Besides, he is opening earlier and earlier—and you'd better get back down here. Furthermore, some of the boys are already talking about baseball season and Kelly Gray says he really did drop that string down into the prairie dog hole that time—and he is making a lot of folks believe it, too. That Abe Martin is taking over your line of "Old Times" stuff and he's telling some wild tales. You and I know you can't believe a word he says, but some of these newcomers are falling for the drive!

It's alright to get sick, but looks to me as if you are running a good thing into the ground—especially when you haven't even got one of those good looking R.N.'s to hold your hand.

Yours truly,
Jimmie P. S. When you do get back, exercise your legs as well as your mouth, walk enough to work-off that "pot" and you won't have this kind of trouble.

Central Loses Two, Wins One

The second string of Central School's 6th grade basketball team took a 6-2 win over the Junior High School Peewees last week, but the first string dropped theirs with the first string of the Junior High Seventh grade. The score was 16-6.

The Junior High eighth grade had squeezed through with a 22-19 win over the Central Schoolers several days before.

Charles Hardman was high-point man for the Sixth graders. He sank a total of 4 points. Danny Elliston accounted for the other two.

The seventh graders had the Central boys outmanned as far as height went.

The sixth and seventh grades are slated to play Vega some time in the near future—possibly next Thursday, Friday, one week from tomorrow, the cagers will go to Friona.

Security Administration:
How do farm workers become eligible for social security credit?
Farm operators should remember that a farm worker becomes eligible for social security credit only after the worker has worked a qualifying quarter for him, after which he becomes covered the following quarter under certain provisions as will be described later. If the farm worker should change employers, he must again work continuously for another qualifying quarter for the new employer before his work with the new employer begins to count for social security. There is no tax due on the qualifying quarter.
What does the above provision of the law mean to many farm operators?
It simply means that the farm operator will not have to pay social security tax for transient workers such as cotton pickers, harvest hands, etc., unless they work for him a full quarter to qualify and then work at least 60 days the next quarter and earn $50 in cash.
When do farm operators pay the social security tax and when is the work covered?
Agricultural labor or the farm worker as defined above is covered and the tax must be paid provided: Cash wages of $50 or more are paid for a calendar quarter in which agricultural labor was performed for a single employer and the worker was regularly employed by such employer.
What is meant by "Three Month Period or Quarter"?
These are the three month periods or quarters that are used: January - February - March, April - May - June, July - August - September, October - November - December.
When can the qualifying quarter begin?
The qualifying quarter may begin October 1, 1950, even though the new coverage provisions are not effective until January 1, 1951. It may also begin at the beginning of any of the above named quarters.
What should a regular farm worker do?
Make sure he has a social security card. If he has never had one, get one at the social security office. (He may get a form for obtaining the social security card from the local post office and mail it as directed.) If he has lost his original card he should ask the social security office for a copy. He should show his social security card to the farm operator by whom he is regularly employed. The farm operator must have his exact name and number as shown on the card to report his wages every three months.
What should the farm operator do if he is employing regular farm workers?
1. Obtain the full name and social security number from the worker's social security card.
2. Keep a record of the number of days work for which wages were paid.
3. Hold out 1 1/2 per cent of the cash wages paid each regular worker and match this deduction himself, then send this to the Collector of Internal Revenue.
4. Give the worker a statement showing how much he was paid, the period covered by the payment and his name and address.
5. Obtain an employer's identification number by filing Form SS-4a with the Collector of Internal Revenue.

Coffee Days Planned
Gilb Howard, Bill Warren, and Bob Roberson are working as a committee, contacting cafes to establish coffee days for the campaign and print reminders of the drive on menus. They also are scheduled to distribute containers for collection of dimes by waitresses.
The chairman of the women's committee is Mrs. Elmar Patterson, who will contact all clubs, securing full participation through use of a scroll similar to that used in the business district.
Plans have not yet been completed for the work the Kiwanis Club is to do, but Johnnie Pool, president, guaranteed the cooperation of the Kiwanians.
Finance Chairman
Harry Caylor, finance chairman, will have charge of all money collected during the campaign.
Other chairmen include Nolan Grady, chairman of postal employees; Bob Wear, chairman of the speaker's committee; Larry Leorwald, Dawn chairman; Mrs. E. K. Pinnell, Glen Rio chairman.

Dr. Loyd advised farmers, "Plan your crops carefully, use more summer culture and place more of your farm in grass."
The dry cycle starts in 1951 and will continue for 11 years, according to Dr. Loyd who said that he bases his observations on actual government figures. He gave the following recapitulation covering a 77-year period.
To recapitulate:
1875 to 1885 inclusive, a wet cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 26.17.
1886 to 1896 inclusive, a dry cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 19.28.
1897 to 1907 inclusive, a wet cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 23.35.
1908 to 1918 inclusive, a dry cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 20.76.
1919 to 1929 inclusive, a wet cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 23.51.
1930 to 1940 inclusive, a dry cycle. Average rainfall for 11 years, 16.59.
1941 to 1951 inclusive, a wet cycle. Average very irregular after the first four years.
Dr. Loyd first began his observations in 1909 with homemade equipment. He has since joined the government weather department as a voluntary observer.
Regarding the atom bomb explosions, Dr. Loyd said that they tremendously changed the last four years of the wet cycle, dropping from approximately 25 inches of rainfall each year to slightly better than 17 inches. He further stated that the weather bureau failed to publicly approve his statements, but pointed to the fact that he made his prediction immediately following the explosion in New Mexico.

seem very serious, and she has been lucky in that she is perfectly normal except for the difficulty mentioned. Her mother says she has had "many many" hospital stays, including about five for polio, besides the innumerable check ups. Beth will be in the hospital at least two weeks.

ternal Revenue. These may be secured from the post office, social security office, or Collector of Internal Revenue.
6. Farmers who have "regular" employees will be required to file a report of wages paid them by the end of the month following the quarter in which the wages are paid. Forms for these quarterly reports will be supplied through the mail from the Collector of Internal Revenue to each farmer who files Form SS-4a.
7. The farm operator should send the tax due on the wages of the farm worker to the Collector of Internal Revenue along with the above named report showing how much wages should be added to farm workers' social security account.
Is the new law compulsory?
Yes, the new law is compulsory. All farm operators hiring regular farm workers must comply, or be liable to a fine or imprisonment.
Household Workers
Persons who have a regularly employed maid, laundress, cook, chauffeur, or gardener may obtain a free booklet at the post office which will answer questions concerning this type of worker. On the last page of the booklet is a form to be filled in and sent to the Collector of Internal Revenue, who will then send information about how to make the reports. "If you, or your husband or wife, are sole owner of a business or professional practice and make social security reports for other employees on Form 941, you may add your household workers to these reports instead of using the special household report, Form 942."
Self-Employed Persons
Self-employed persons come under the Social Security Act beginning January 1, 1951; however, in most cases the first report will be made at the regular tax paying time in March 1952, according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration.
Among the self-employed persons are operators of stores, filling stations, theaters, taxi cabs, advertising agencies, brokers, and certain others who classify themselves as independent contractors. The law specifically exempts farm owners, physicians, lawyers, dentists, architects, funeral directors, engineers, accountants, and a few other professions.
An individual must have self-employment income of $400.00 or more in a year to become subject to the law. Only the first $3600 income in a year is subject to the tax. The tax rate is 2 1/4 per cent from January 1, 1951 through December 1953.
Partners in a business are considered as self-employed. A professional person may have self-employment income from sole ownership or a partnership outside his profession. Both wages and self-employment may be credited up to $3600 per year. Benefits are computed from the average wage or net self-employment income, or a combination of the two.
A pamphlet explaining self-employment income, and other provisions of the amended Social Security Act may be obtained from the Amarillo Social Security Office.
Harrison county home demonstration club women last year conducted a very successful marketing demonstration. At their market, they sold fresh vegetables, fryers, sausage and home baked products.

ington and is trying to work out arrangements to allocate materials to cooperatives to go ahead with the construction program.
George W. Haggard, a Texan, who is first assistant administrator in Washington, gives the following explanation: "The allocation sets aside funds to be used for the purpose of providing telephone facilities to 1300 rural subscribers by the installation of dial-type central office equipment; construction of five fire-resistant buildings to house the equipment; construction of 737.5 miles of line; installation of 1300 dial-type telephones and related drop and station wiring; and the purchase of vehicles and other necessary work equipment. Additional funds are also provided for working capital and the purchase of materials and supplies."
Haggard listed one of the terms to meet the Rural Telephone administration regulation as follows:
"The full amount of $52,000 from 1050 signed members at $50 each has been deposited in an accredited bank in a special account, and assurance is given, satisfactory to REA, that the remaining $12,500 of required equity will be secured by the borrower from an additional 250 members during the initial construction period and also deposited, as designated above, in an accredited bank."

Lovell said those who wish may sign up at the community meetings.
Members of the Board of Directors and the area each represents are: E. C. Reinauer, president, J. C. Morrison, vice-president, both of Hereford; Alfred May, Dawn; G. H. Webb, secretary, Dimmitt; Joe Warren, Nazareth; Harold Carpenter and F. T. Schlinker, Bovina, Friona, and Oklahoma Lane.

the organization.
The unit at Amarillo has been in existence for approximately three years and is only now running at full strength. Those interested here pointed out that the organization would require time and a great amount of work.
Among those who have been planning the organization here are Lyle Blanton, S. A. Duckworth, Dr. R. E. Lingenfelter, Curtis Trawick, Jack Johnson, Kropff and Dick Lucas.
If People Interested
Those interested in the unit here have pointed out that if enough people show interest in the organization a meeting will be announced and actual work may begin. So far, no actual organizational steps have been taken.

The Civil Air patrol, a nationwide project of the Air Force, may be joined or withdrawn from at will, and has no direct connection with the military forces. Other towns in High Texas having Civil Air Patrol units are Perryton, Pampa and Clarendon. Still other towns in New Mexico have begun similar organizations.
Kropff said if enough people become interested here the group may eventually be assigned an airplane to be stationed permanently here for use in emergencies.
The cadets will include the junior and senior cadets. Regular classes and periods of instruction will be held.

Photographer Bill Patton's chagrin, at having forgotten his film has been completely and unquestionably assuaged. The news editor took the mayor and Bob Wear, Safety Council president, out to the junk yard into the teeth of a piercing north wind. The idea was a picture of the pair to go with the opening of the Safety Council story. Five times the camera was aimed and fired. Five times the bulb flashed. Five times the shutter failed to click. Then the red-faced cameraman found he had forgotten to insert the cord that gives the juice to click the shutter. There's nothing like telling ALL the news.

All that's needed to make this story complete is a new dishwasher by the name of "Whitey". Red Snyder of the Tasty Drive Inn now has a partner, Red Turpin, brother of Blue Turpin of Hereford. Red Turpin moved here last week from Alice with his wife and daughter who is in the third grade. Snyder says the new "Red" is a top-notch chef, having been connected with the best hotels in the state. Red and Red will supervise and do the cooking at the drive inn. Snyder is also owner of Red's Wheel Inn.

Hereford Cagers Defeat Dumas, Lose To Others In Tournament

Hereford High school's basketball team bowed before Dalhart and Texline, but took smooth wins over Dumas and the Dalhart B team in the Dalhart tournament last weekend.

In their first game in the Dalhart stadium—played with Dalhart—the Whitefaces went under 47 to 29, but their average improved as they became accustomed to play in the Dalhart gym.

They tied up their game with Texline, reaching the final gun with a 43-43 score. Texline slid out in front in the overtime period, and took the game when Garcia scored the winning basket with only six seconds remaining in the game. The final count was Texline 48, Hereford 46.

Whitefaces vowed they could have doubled their score against the Dalhart 'B's, but chose to try experimental plays of which they were not quite certain, but which they planned to use in later and more highly-contested games. The final score was Hereford 56, Dalhart 'B's 50.

Hereford's win over Dumas was by only five points (60-55), but the final score does not indicate their average lead throughout the game. They led by twelve points at one period in the game. The half-time score was Hereford 28, Dumas 23 and the score at the end of the third quarter was Hereford 40, Dumas 33.

McBroom waxed "hoter'n a firecracker" in the Dumas tussle, and wracked up 27 points—twelve of which he made in the final quarter. The total probably made McBroom high-point man for the tourney. Kelly, who made most points in several games, was named all-tournament.

All-in-all, fans and coaches reported Hereford improved as the tournament progressed. Dement, Kelly and Engman were pointed out as outstanding rebounders at the tourney.

Dalhart's Ashby, a six foot, five inch player, was rated as one of the best cagers in the district. He made most tries count, and getting the try came easier as a result of his height. Dalhart, Canyon and Phillips both were rated with Dalhart.

Hereford, Dumas and Perryton fell into the second strength positions, but all three teams were reported fast improving.

Canyon's strength was exhibited in their last game with Hereford, when they trimmed the Whitefaces 55-45. Another game will be played Saturday night between the two rivals.

Canyon will be the only conference team Hereford will meet until the district tournament, which will be held at Phillips in mid-February.

Aged Football Star Moves To Blessing

By Wilbur Martin
Associated Press Staff

It was a small item in the newspaper not many days ago, that said Pudge Heffelfinger was moving from Minneapolis to Blessing, Texas.

Blessing is a tiny town in Matagorda, on the Coastal Plain of Texas. When Heffelfinger takes up residence, the town's going to have quite a citizen.

"The greatest guard in football" is one of the milder descriptions of this huge fellow, now 83. He was a terror at Yale, in 1889 and 1890, and he made football news for quite a few years afterward.

"Pudge, or Heffelfinger at Yale, as he is best known, is the only football player you'll find on everybody's 'All-Time All-American, All-etc.'"

Some football record books list him as "P. W. Heffelfinger, Yale, 1888, 1889, 1890," and others as "W. W. Heffelfinger, Yale, 1889, 1890, 1891." His name is William.

Heffelfinger's strength is legend and some of the stories they tell about him are hard to believe.

One author's favorite is the time Pudge went back to Yale, put on a uniform, lined up with the scrubs and promptly tore the varsity line apart. He was 60.

He was honored on one writer's "All-Time" team for "his feats at Yale and elsewhere after 50."

"No matter how old a man gets, he ought to be in shape to play one football game a week," Heffelfinger is quoted as saying in the same story that announced his impending move to Texas.

Well, according to various sportswriters, Heffelfinger played a good deal in "one football game a week" for years after he left his imprint at Yale.

"A giant of a man who would have been equally as great today as he was in that era before the turn of the century," wrote one well known sports-writer of Heffelfinger.

That's quite a tribute to a man who played his football before the dispy-doodle was added. But Heffelfinger is quite a man. Ask anybody from Yale.

Whitefaces Meet Canyon Saturday

Hereford High school basketball men will match skill, speed and strength with those of the Canyon High School cagers at Canyon Saturday night.

Preparing to go into battle with a team which already has defeated them once this year, the Whitefaces will seek to down Canyon for the last time before the District tournament takes place in mid-February.

In their last clash with Canyon, the Hereford team limped away from a 55-45 defeat. The Eagles are rated with Dalhart and Phillips as the three leading cage squads of District 1-A.

Hereford's hopes remain high, nevertheless, and the Whitefaces are reported improving with each contest—making the outcome of the district cage very difficult to predict.

Bookkeeping

By Pat Walton

Bookkeeping in our high school is taught by Joe Smith. A commercial subject, the intent is to teach the students the fundamentals of bookkeeping and accounting. There are two classes of bookkeeping.

First, the bookkeeping cycle in its simplest form is taught to give the students bases for further and more complicated study. Next a number of time saving and labor saving devices are introduced. Then each student keeps a complete set of books for a small business for one month by using a Debn practice set. He writes the checks and carries on all the other necessary phases of business.

Bookkeeping is not necessarily a subject for professional bookkeepers, for it may be adapted to almost everyone's everyday needs. A knowledge of bookkeeping and accounting is essential to all who wish to understand our modern economic system. All types of businessmen, farmers, storemen, and professional men are required to fill out government reports, such as income tax returns or social security returns. These government reports must be based on adequate business records.

Every individual operates a business. His personal income and expenses are his business affairs. When he operates them in a businesslike manner he learns to budget his income for savings and personal advancement.

Book Review

Linda Betzen

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the book I wish to tell you about this week. Why have so many students looked at this book and then decided not to read it? This is the book that historians say was the final cause of the Civil War but students seem to be afraid of any book that is mentioned in their school work. If that is the way you feel you are cheating yourself out of a great deal of enjoyment.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is fictional and highly exaggerated but written in a way to make you feel that you are there with the characters, doing what they are doing, seeing what they are seeing, and suffering as they are suffering.

As the story goes Uncle Tom acts as spiritual advisor to the other slaves before he is sold "down the river". At first he is lucky and has a master who treats his slaves very well and a little mistress, Eva, who loves everyone she meets. But fate takes both the kind master and his sweet daughter away and leaves the slaves in the hands of the masters pampered and cruel wife who sells Uncle Tom to an even more cruel master, Simon Legree, who later pays for his cruelty to Uncle Tom at the hands of the young man who came too late in fulfilling the promise to redeem Uncle Tom.

You will probably enjoy this book as much or more than any book you have ever read because there are characters that demand your sympathy as well as your respect. It is an ideal book for anyone.

Seniors Who's Who

A few years ago, well quite a few, a bouncing baby boy was born to proud parents and they finally decided upon the name of Wayne for him. Yes, the boy of the week is Wayne Stagner. Wayne likes food, swimming, cars, girls, etc. (he says!) He dislikes grammar, and family reunions. His pet peeve is snobbish people. Naturally, like most people, Wayne has a favorite food, apple pie. Wayne is planning to enter Hardin-Simmons University and then he plans to work in some field of engineering. He is a member of De Molay. Wayne says, "I think H.H.S. is a grand school."

Earlene Nipper seems to dislike having people mispell her name. This happens to be her pet peeve. She also dislikes unfriendly people and lemon pie. Earlene joined this big old world on April 17, 1933 at Wellington, Texas. She has a great ambition; to be successful in life. Earlene likes having fun, her dog "Dusty Rajah." It seems that Earlene almost has a favorite meal, pumpkin pie, chicken and dressing. She plans to attend Draughtons Business College in Amarillo. Earlene's opinion of H.H.S. is, "It is the best school I have ever attended and also the most friendly school."

About 17 years ago on July 22 in Daugherty, Texas, it seems that Emma Lee McNeese made her first appearance. She later became known as Lee and that is the way we know her now. Lee likes most everything, friendly people, friendly teachers, and being a senior. But she dislikes squash, snobbish people, and civics. Her pet peeve is people who talk too much. Lee's favorite food is chicken and cherry pie. Lee has a very much practiced hobby, being mean. Her ambition is to be successful. Lee's opinion of H.H.S. is, "I think it is the most wonderful school yet. Everyone is so friendly."

Junanne Smith entered this big old world on October 25, 1933 in Clovis, New Mexico, Junanne

"Through blizzard after blizzard my car performed better!"

"I was one of those selected to test new Conoco Super Motor Oil in my own car before it was put on the market. Through blizzard after blizzard, I travelled in Northern Colorado and Wyoming. BUT THOSE WERE THE TWO BEST WINTERS I EVER HAD ON THE ROAD! New Conoco Super improved the operation of my car. And at the end of the test, with proper drains and regular care, gasoline mileage was virtually as good as at the beginning."

After a total of 386,422 miles, logged by Mr. Hubbard and other winter test drivers, Conoco engineers found no wear of any consequence! Analysis of crankcase drains showed that this great new oil actually stopped the dangerous accumulation of free water and acids, chief causes of winter wear. This test proved that new Conoco Super Motor Oil, with OIL-PLATING, fights off rust, corrosion and sludge. So, change to winter-grade Conoco Super Motor Oil.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 14.

The Golden Text is: "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it" (Matthew 26:26, 27).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If all who ever partook of the sacrament had really commemorated the suffering of Jesus and drunk of his cup, they would have revolutionized the world" (page 34).

Elder Moore said, "Pray that God's will may be done in our lives through this New Year. Day by Day Jesus gave Himself anew to his Father, reconsecrated himself in prayer to do his Father's will. The Key to our lives must be prayer—and our success in our Christian experience will be to how much time we spend with God in prayer. We must have a private Gethsemane for ourselves."

In closing, Elder Moore read the beautiful poem, "Your Name is Engraved on the Palms of Jesus Hands" by Margaret Locke.

DO YOU KNOW what "community property" is in Texas?

This is the designation given to the joint property of the husband and wife. It includes all the property acquired by them after marriage, except that property given specifically to one, that property received by one as part of an inheritance, and that property exchanged for separate property belonging to one. Both husband and wife have an equal interest in the community property, and all property belonging to them is presumed to be community property unless the contrary is clearly shown. Upon dissolution of the marriage contract by divorce the wife is entitled to one-half of the community property, and the husband is entitled to one-half of the community property. Even though the parties should separate and not live together, so long as the marriage contract exists all the property acquired by them, subject to the above exceptions, continues to be presumed to be community property. Upon the death of either par-

"Blind" Man's Stay Short

CONNERSVILLE, Ind. — A "blind man" turned in his tin cup, after a stay of only one day in this town, and got a shove in the direction of Indianapolis. A police detective reported that John McNeely, 41, Indianapolis, didn't show any signs of blindness in playing cards in the Fayette county jail over the week-end. Retrieving a $1 fine for vagrancy out of McNeely's tin cup, police turned the rest of his $28.27 day's receipts to the local March of Dimes fund.

The big mystery seems to be who is Mr. and Miss Hereford High and Personality King and Queen? Couldn't you even give us one little bit of hint, Mrs. Thompson?

Goodness, but all the seniors have been in a big "fizz". It seems they found out about a week ago that the annual W. M. U. Senior Banquet is scheduled for January 26. The girls have all been praying that the boys would find the courage to ask them for dates before then. The Ag. boys have all been praying that the banquet will be put off since their annual trip to the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show is also scheduled for that week end.

Everyone I've talked to is pretty proud of the West Texas Buffaloes and their 14-13 win over the Cincinnati Bearcats.

25 YEARS AGO
Hereford's mammoth hatchery, owned by H. H. Hawkins, will start operation February 1 and will run continuously throughout the breeding season.

Louie and Ray Smith, living south of Hereford, made a fair record during the past year with pop corn, and the results may cause this crop to be raised in larger quantities in this section. These boys planted three acres in pop corn last year... yielding around 5000 pounds of pop corn, and the local market price of this product is eight cents per pound. This would give these farmers some $400 from their three acres, or a little better than $130 per acre.

Rat Jowel, the man who brought the foundation herd of Anxiety 4th Herefords to the southwest, an dwho is considered a national authority on Hereford cattle, has been secured by E. B. Black as manager of the Anxiety 4th Hereford sale which Black will hold in April.

Louie LeGrand was passing around the cigars at the City Drug Store last Monday. "Grandpa" Dr. LeGrand was a smiling assistant. Louie became the proud parent of a fine baby boy Sunday.

D. L. McDonald of Hereford has just completed the big well for the City of Floydada. The well will be able to furnish 300,000 gallons of water per day, according to the contract.

45 YEARS AGO
Owing to the inclement weather on last Sunday evening, Rev. Wm. G. Keiry did not preach at the Presbyterian Church, but instead delivered a discourse to the guests of the Ritchey House, there being a goodly number of traveling men present in addition to the regular boarders.

Among the recent occurrences which go to make history in Deaf Smith and Castro county was the shipment of a full car load of Deaf Smith and Castro county raised cotton from Hereford last week. There had been numerous shipments from this point prior to this, but not in full car load lots.

George W. Dale is the proudest man in town of late, the change being brought about by his recent acquisition of what is said to be the most expensive and best constructed Winchester shot gun ever brought to this city. The gun is a "daisy" to look at and cost $65. Sam Dyer remains firm in his declaration that Mr. Dale has been swindled out of his money and that his gun is one of the cheap kind.

The Panhandle physicians mixed medicines in Amarillo Tuesday and Wednesday in the mid-winter meeting of the Association.

G. W. Roberson and R. N. Mounts are in Kansas City this week, each marketing two cars of fat steers which they have been feeding for some time.

E. F. Connell has opened a real estate office in the front rooms over the Hay building and means to locate some good farmers in this county this year. Mr. Connell has been selected as the representative for the XIT people at this point and we may expect him to sell his part of the famous ranch this year.

The gin at this point to date has ginned 45 bales of cotton and still the fleecy staple continues to roll in. A safe estimate of this year's crop places it at from 65 to 75 bales. Next year it should and doubtless will be 750 bales.

Work has begun on the Methodist parsonage this week and if the weather continues at all favorable, it is only a matter of three or four weeks when the pastor of that church will be permitted to live at home.

Mrs. George L. Smith of Damascus, Ark., is here visiting her mother, Mrs. F. E. Riggs.

Rat For Every Human Being

LUBBOCK, Tex.—(AP)—There's one rat for every person in the South Plains, and that's 300,000 rats. Each rat eats about $2 worth of property a year.

The figures are from E. G. Pope of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife office here. His office concerns itself chiefly with rodent and predatory animal control.

Pope estimated rat damage in the South Plains during 1950 amounted to $500,000.

"Rats have been on the increase during the past year and our control measures fell behind the last couple of months," Pope said.

Large quantities of grain sorghum stored and stacked on farms will provide good diets for rats this winter, he added.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Kimmey and baby daughter of Grand Junction, Colo., were guests of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tackett, Sr., Friday.

Mrs. Walser Reviews Book for Study Club

Mrs. Guy Walser was hostess and Mrs. Ray Johnson, co-hostess, Friday afternoon at the meeting of the Summerfield Study Club in the Walser home.

Plans were made to send a box to Greece. Members of the club are requested to take items for the box to Mrs. Ray Johnson or Mrs. Earl Lance.

The hostess reviewed the book, "Talking Through My Hat" by Lillie Dache, commenting, "The story of the real Lilly, who dreamed of an American wonderland from the days of her childhood in Southern France, is more human and appealing than any of the fables that have grown up around her name.

"It is a story of a young French girl, who through sheer spunk and wit managed to make her American dream come true. With no capital but her talent, she arrived in New York with $13 in borrowed money, and a few years later was the most famous milliner in New York.

"But the story of Lilly Dache is not a mere tale of business success, it is a love story, too, for first she fell in love with

Dalhart Ranchers Seek To Preserve Quail, Wild Game

DALHART, Tex., (AP)—Farmers around here are trying to prevent hunters from killing their pet quail.

Jake Kinard, president of the Rita Blanca Outdoor Sportsmen Club of Dalhart, said several farms and ranches in Dalhart county have been invaded while residents were away and the flocks of pet quail virtually wiped out.

The club has offered $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons killing the quail, killing pheasants or illegally hunting on posted land.

One rancher said he was feeding 67 quail which were staying in piles of wire, lumber and other shelter near his yard. He returned home one day to find them all gone except three. Two of these had broken legs. He found 75 shotgun shells nearby.

Kinard said pet quail are particularly important because they always survive violent weather or food shortages which might wipe out the wild birds.

New York, and then she fell in love with Jean Despres. Her life today is divided into two parts. In one role she is head of the world's largest millinery business, directing 150 milliners. In the other she is a happy and devoted wife and a week end farmer. Few women have managed such complete success in two separate careers," she concluded.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames L. L. Cannon, Lee Curry, B. E. Roberson, W. W. Niell, Earl Gunter, C. R. Walser, L. H. Lookingbill, Charlie Noland, J. M. Wright, Earl Lance, and the hostess.

Tobacco was the first money in use in Virginia and in 1642 was proclaimed the only legal currency. Since anyone could grow "money" production of tobacco was so great that it became practically valueless, and after a few years its use as currency became unpopular and later was discontinued.
