SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

The car in which Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hutson went to Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, to see their son, Keith, was completely destroyed by fire Saturday. The Hutsons accompanied her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Williams of Abertamy who went to see their son, Jack, Saturday just after they had picked up the boys at the field and had gone out the gate, the 1949 Frazer in which they were riding caught fire. Mr. Williams grabbed the keys and saved the bags from the trunk, but the car was completely destroyed. Trucks from the air base extinguished the flames, and patrolmen helped the Hutsons and Williams find a hotel. Mrs. Hutson said it was believed that the sediment bulb came into, causing the fire. No one was injured.

E. H. Cole, local photographer, has just been informed by Outdoor Sportsman magazine that his 700 word article has been accepted for publication. The short story tells about Cole going out to shoot a picture with his camera and having to shoot his way out with a gun instead. Seems Cole climbed a tree to get a better angle with his camera, lost his balance, and fell into a nest of rattlers.

Thomas C. Draper of Hereford, sold seven Shorthorn females recently—six to E. M. Hayworth and one to Fred Krull, both of Texhoma, Okla.

The Civil Air Patrol organizational meeting will be held Friday evening at 7:30 in the district courtroom, according to Carl Kropf. A group from the Amarillo squadron will be on hand for the meeting.

Further plans will be made at the called meeting of the organization Monday evening. Watch the Brand for developments.

Members of the Hereford Child Study Club wish to thank all those who helped make the Mother's March on Polio, which they sponsored, a success.

Possibility of Work On Paving Discussed

Two Hereford businessmen—D. C. Kinsey and E. R. Kendall—appeared before the city commission Tuesday to see what steps could be taken to pave Schley street between the Hereford Laundry and Dry Cleaners and Kinsey Motor company.

The two men discussed cost of the work and how soon it could be undertaken if approved.

Other property owners have expressed their desire to have paving jobs done near their property. The possibility of getting a contractor to do these odd jobs is being explored.

Announce Sale Of Hereford Motor Company

Dudley Green and Archie Scott today officially announced sale of Hereford Motor company and of Green and Scott tractor implement dealership to William J. Schultz of El Reno, Okla.

The transaction was completed Wednesday following a week of inventory and preliminary work. Mr. Schultz said that he will announce operation details of the new organization in the near future and that the firm will operate as Hereford Motor Company, Inc.

Green and Scott, who purchased the firm in May, 1938, said they expect to continue making their home in Hereford and will devote their time to farming and cattle interests. They plan to operate under the firm title of Green and Scott and will have their offices in one of the Green and Scott apartments, 301 West Second street.

Pioneer Day Is Planned by Local Merchants

Two big celebrations for Hereford—a pioneer day and a July Fourth event—were planned Monday night at the meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association when tentative arrangements were also made for a special monthly program for the community, Tom McFarland, Chamber of Commerce secretary, said.

The big pioneer day celebration will be held in April, McFarland said, with a well-planned program to attract old settlers and new.

Tentative arrangements were also made for a big July Fourth celebration. McFarland said the merchants are planning a monthly promotion, in addition to the regular Dollar Day, featuring some kind of special entertainment each month such as free movies or a monthly amateur contest to be staged in the ballroom of Hotel Jim Hill with prizes for the winners. At the end of the year the 12 top prize winners would be allowed to (Continued on Page 5)

West Texas Telephone Cooperative officials and representatives of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company met with Rural Electrification officials from Washington in a five-hour session at Hereford Tuesday and reached agreement on three basic points which will allow rural telephone service to be given by the cooperative in Deaf Smith, Castro, and Parmer counties.

Briefly, the three points agreed upon Tuesday are: That the Southwestern Bell Telephone company will treat the West Texas Cooperative as a connecting company; that extended area service be granted the West Texas Telephone cooperative; and that the cooperative would serve all patrons outside an approximate three-mile radius of the center of Hereford on a "feasibility" basis.

Leo Forrest, manager of the Deaf Smith district of the REA, said the agreements reached at Tuesday's meeting would allow rural telephone service to be effected in at least one rural area in slightly more than four months. One exchange unit, he explained, can be available in about that time for the area reaching its equity requirement first.

Points Explained
In detail, the three points agreed upon Tuesday are as follows:

1. As a connecting company, the West Texas Telephone cooperative will have the same status as any other telephone company in relation to rates, tolls, fees, etc.

2. Extended area service means that subscribers to the West Texas co-op will be able to call each other by merely dialing the number in their exchange. Also, any number in Hereford may be called without any toll fee. The charges for this calling will be taken care on a contract basis between Bell and the cooperative. The cost of the service to the cooperative will be decided when the cost of equipment is determined and engineers of Southwestern Bell and engineers of the cooperative meet after the system is designed.

3. Serving the areas on a "feasibility" basis was the way chosen to handle territorial barriers. Each of the parties considered its service limitations from a standpoint of feasibility. Southwestern Bell put a service limitation of approximately three miles in all directions from the center of Hereford. The cooperative representatives opined that service within a three-mile radius of the center of town would be impractical for their cooperative from an operational standpoint.

There was no binding agreement limiting services areas for either party. It was agreed that there would be no competing for service by either of the parties in any area already served.

Two of the greatest barriers of the cooperative meet after the system is designed.

Rates for the service, Forrest said, are: multi-party (8) residential, $4.25 per month; multi-party (8) business. Graded service can be obtained within a radius of each of the exchanges, he said.

The money to be loaned the West Texas Telephone Cooperative—$454,000—has already been earmarked and will be allotted here as soon as enough applications have been signed to warrant releasing the funds. The loan papers are being drawn up now according to Forrest.

REA officials said the original application was made on a basis of 1050 signers in the three-county area. There is a potential of 1350 signers in the area to be served. Between 300 and 400 applicants have already paid their $50 ($5 membership and $45 equity). There were 900 who signed up and paid their $5 when the petition was first circulated. It is up to the residents of each individual area, Forrest commented, to conduct the sign-up for the service. No paid personnel will be used to help in the sign-up, but another membership drive will be held soon.

Bruce Parr, he said, is planning to form a committee to sign new members in the vicinity of Friona, Oklahoma Lane, and Farwell. Each subscriber may indicate where he would like his central exchange service.

Forrest told The Brand Tuesday evening that he will seek the release of the money on one unit at a time as the subscribers sign up. "It looks now as if the rural telephone cooperative will be able to render service to all outside the sub-area area of Hereford," Forrest said.

By JIMMIE GILLENTE

Some people sure take things seriously. Take the Governor of Texas for instance. Gov. Shivers saw a copy of "The Brand" a while back and noticed this bull column heading. What does he do but send out a nice letter appointing me on the "Texas" ten-year Pasture Improvement Committee. I can't figure out if it is a joke or not. Everyone around the office figures that he actually read one of the bull columns and decided that it was about time I was turned out to pasture. Anyway, he says he is sending a membership card and wants me to help in making Texas pasture lands the finest in the world.

All joking aside, though, this area was accorded a real honor when Gov. Shivers named Jim Witherspoon on the Texas A. and M. Board of Regents. This is a big job and with it goes recognition and honor above most any other appointive office. Jim will help direct the policies and future operation of the school which has a nation-wide reputation for scholastic and athletic achievement.

Furthermore, I am glad to see them begin getting some Panhandle horse sense around A. and M. The old timers like Bill Davis, Alex Bateman and Hugh Clearman were pretty good jocks. Then comes a crop like Jack Gilliland, Bill Stanford and Billy Patton—and they weren't too awful bad. The final issue included J. W. Robinson, Jr., however, and it seems to me that something needs to be done. Maybe Jim Witherspoon is the man who can straighten things out. However, Regent Witherspoon is a graduate of Texas University—and I am wondering which way he will pull on the annual Texas-A. and M. football game next Thanksgiving.

Here is a clipping sent in by Sam Nunnally. Maybe he has something. Anyway it's an interesting thought:

"Had Abraham Lincoln been living today, the Rotary Club would supply him with a set of books, the Lions Club with a good reading lamp, the Cosmopolitan Club with writing equipment, the Kiwanis Club with a wooden floor for the cabin. He would have the protection of the Child Labor law and government old-age insurance. A kindly philanthropist would send him to college with a scholarship. Incidentally, a case worker would see that his father received a monthly check from the county. The OPA would reduce his rent about 50 percent. He would receive a subsidy for rail spitting; another one for raising some crop he was going to raise anyway, and still another subsidy for not raising a crop he had no intention of raising.

Result: There would have been no Abraham Lincoln."

Yes, Sam has a point and he is partially right. However, I doubt the final statement. Some people are just naturally "doers" and you can't keep them down. Abraham Lincoln was one of these "doers". He might not have ever become President in these modern days, but he would have been an outstanding man. Remember, he wasn't the only boy who grew up under pioneer circumstances back in those days. The big difference was that he did something about it.

Had a brief note from Pete

Cowart, former C. of C. secretary, who thinks his outfit may wind up in Europe soon. Pete says he reads everything in The Brand and Sunday Brand issue—and that he sure misses Hereford. Says he passes his Brands on to about six guys who never heard of Hereford before and that they read them with interest. In this connection I might add that I am not trying to out-Winchell Winchell and that the information did not come from the letter, but the grapevine has it that the Cowarts are expecting another offspring in the family soon. I am sure a lot of Pete and Rosa's friends will be happy about the news. Their address is Ft. Hood, Texas.

Incidentally, our State Representative Morris Cobb seems to be turning in a fairly good job downstate. At least, he is trying to keep the people in the district informed. Too many of our State Representatives are just kids interested in getting through the University of Texas. I didn't see Morris when I was in Austin, but did talk with quite a few of the university students who held elective posts. Most of them are quite upset over the re-districting proposal. Not always, I fear, about the welfare of their constituents so much as perhaps the shuffle which might interfere with their schooling.

A plug is also due to the buffet dinners which the hotel is serving here each Sunday evening. These dinners are really outstanding. Comparable to similar deals in Ft. Worth and Dallas—and far superior to anything Amarillo has offered to date. They charge $2 for adults and $1 for children—and let you eat all you want. This is the same charge they make in "Little Bit of Sweden" at Dallas. The only catch is that people aren't turning out. The peculiar thing is that everywhere you go you hear people complaining because Hereford doesn't have a good place to eat. Actually, I hear some criticism on the regular hotel Sunday dinners—but their buffet deal is good and, compared with other places, it is reasonable. Furthermore, I know they can't keep on serving this way with only 12 or 16 people out each Sunday.

Paul Holland says that they start early enough for folks to eat and still attend church. He is really trying to do something worthwhile, and I think it deserves some support. Not many of us could afford this every Sunday, but once a month or six weeks, it isn't bad. Besides, there are a lot of folks who drive to Amarillo and pay more for a meal. Next time you are eating out, give it a try. If you don't like, tell Paul—not me!

"Rocky Mountain blizzards couldn't stop me!"

"The two winters I tested new Conoco Super Motor Oil—as one of a group picked to prove its winter wear-fighting ability—we had the worst weather in years. Blizzards came in on top of blizzards. The temperature went to the bottom and stayed there. BUT MY CAR ACTED LIKE IT THOUGHT IT WAS JULY! With new Conoco Super that car performed better than it ever had. At the end of the test, with proper drains and regular care, gasoline mileage was practically as good as at the beginning." After a total of 386,422 miles, logged by Mr. Seefeld and other winter test drivers, Conoco engineers found no wear of any consequence! Analysis of drains showed this great oil actually stopped the dangerous accumulation of free water and acids, chief causes of winter wear. This test proved that new Conoco Super Motor Oil, with OIL-PLATING, fights off rust, corrosion and sludge. So, change to Conoco Super, now.

Denny Beckner and His Happytime Music Slated at Hotel February 16

Denny Beckner and his Happytime Music, hailed as the finest entertainment band to come up over the horizon since Kay Kyser, will be presented at Hotel Jim Hill on Friday, February 16, sponsored by the Hereford Community Hotel Corporation.
The occasion is being held in observance of the hotel's anniversary and to secure funds to pay outstanding bills which occurred during the construction and equipping of the hotel for the opening. Tickets are now on sale at Hotel Jim Hill.
Among other places, Beckner has played holdover engagements at the Roosevelt Hotel in Washington, D. C., and the Hotel Park Central in New York. Beckner is known as one of the most popular comedy dancers of the vaudeville circuits, and his band has been rated "Or-Childs" by Walter Winchell.
Of Little "Miss Twinkletoes" Betsy Ross, dynamic singer and dancer with the band, Beckner says, "Betsy Ross has no connection with the flag... as far as I know... She can't sew, but boy, can she cut a rug!"
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nolen and baby daughter of Austin arrived Monday night for a short visit here with her parents, Mayor and Mrs. W. E. Dameron. Mr. Nolen left Tuesday on a business trip to Colorado and Mrs. Nolen will visit with her parents while he is away.
Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nelson were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Haughton of Tulsa.

trailer. Known in Germany as the "Seehund", it was one of the secret weapons the Nazis developed in their futile effort to conquer the world. The Seehund is 39 feet long, and weighs 21 tons, carrying two full torpedoes, each being 22 feet long. The submarine, having a speed of 8 knots on the surface, and 4 knots submerged, was operated by two men.

This is the only one in this country and as far as known there are only two left in the world, all the rest having been destroyed by the Germans so that the existence of this secret weapon would not be known. The U Boat is mounted on the original trailer used by the Germans to transport this submarine overland. This submarine was launched from this very same trailer along with others of the same type and kind, at desired location for attack upon our ships. They always attacked in a pack and from this method of attack came the well known expression of being attacked by a Wolf Pack.

This submarine is under test observation and study by the Navy Department.

Bill Phillips, post adviser, announced that Explorer Post 51 will have a radio program Saturday afternoon at 2:30 as its first special activity in Boy Scout Week.

Work of the past year and plans for the future will be revealed through interviews with the boys, Phillips said.

On Sunday morning the post members will attend the First Christian church and on Monday night a special Court of Awards will be held at the hut when the 1951 charter will be presented.

Officers and directors of the Lions club, which sponsors of the post, are invited as special guests.

The Explorer Post, which was organized in March, 1947, has 15 boys, 14 years and older, as active members.

On Saturday night, the troop will have a sleep-out at the Scout hut, eating supper and breakfast there. They will then attend church in a body at the First Methodist church.

At the parents' night event Tuesday, each of the four patrols in the troop presented demonstrations on what they had learned.

The Apache patrol gave a demonstration on handling an axe; the Bob White patrol gave a demonstration on first aid; the Pioneer patrol gave a first aid demonstration; and the Prairie Dog patrol gave a knife demonstration.

As a part of their blue and gold celebration, the Cub Scouts will have their annual pot luck supper Friday night at 7:30 at the First Christian church when Joe Smith will be guest speaker.

Combining the occasion with a pack meeting, several awards will be made, Mrs. Homer Brumley, publicity chairman, said.

Each cub will bring his family and enough sandwiches and cookies for his family.

Also in observance of the special Scout Week, the Cubs will put their handiwork display in Street's windows Saturday morning and will attend the First Presbyterian church in a group Sunday morning.

On Scout Sunday, a nationwide hookup will be given to a special broadcast from 3 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. to feature the observance. Included on the program will be several movie stars; the national-Boy Scout president; and the chief Scout executive.

Question OF THE Week

Do you eat spinach?
Elmer Jack Reynolds: No sir. I think I'm big enough already. I've got along without it this long; I think I can get along without it the rest of the time. I can't stand the stuff.

Earl Stagner: Yes Mam. Just when I can get it. I'm big enough—I don't know how strong I am. I like the stuff.

H. V. Stagner: Yes—at rare intervals. I like it just once in a while. No, I don't think it helps me be like Popeye a bit.

Mrs. M. J. Ebeling: I love it when it's not gritty. It supplies plenty of vitamins and minerals.

Sgt. H. M. Riddle: I surely do. I eat spinach because it's a good roughage each person should have. I eat lettuce in the summer and spinach in the winter.

Roy Smith: I like it fine.
Mrs. Harold Baize: No.
Mrs. Marian Voltz: I sure do. I just like it.

Mrs. R. E. Caddell: Sure. I like it.

Mrs. John Harberer, longtime Hereford resident, of Richmond, Calif., arrived this week for visits with relatives in Texas. She will spend the remainder of this week here and go on to Muleshoe to visit her sons.

Mrs. A. O. Thompson has gone to Paris to visit her mother, Mrs. A. E. Argo.

The commission has asked for a preliminary layout to be made of the entire block including the park area.

Hamilton left Hereford Tuesday night for Amarillo for processing, then to his first assignment at Ft. Sill.

Mumps Have Run Their Course at Frio; Two Men Have Appendicitis

By Mrs. Owen Andrews

The mumps seem to have about run their course in the community, but this week two cases of appendicitis have made two of the young men its victims. Earl Glenn underwent an emergency operation on Saturday, having been stricken Friday night. He was doing all right on Monday and was sitting up some at the Daff Smith County Hospital. Leonard Schmidt was the other appendicitis case, but he was recovering without an operation, and able to return to the home of his brother, Herbert Schmidt, on the Warrick place on Tuesday morning. He had been taken to the hospital at Hereford on Sunday night. Leonard is living with his brother and family, having come here last fall from Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson went to Wellington on Monday and spent the night there with some of their folks. On Tuesday they and Mrs. Simpson's parents, the Roberts of Wellington, left for a trip to the Rio Grande valley, where they were to attend to property of the Roberts which includes an orange grove near Mission.

Spending Saturday night with the W. H. Thompsons were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Hereford and Miss Barbara Godman, who is a guest of the J. B. Thompsons. Sunday afternoon visitors of the Thompsons were the Irwins and Miss Nellie Jo Simpson.

Sunday dinner guests in the Mobley home were the Earl Coles, the Floyd Coles, the H. D. Robbins, and afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. McMahon, Sr., Mrs. Darrell Kenmore and baby all of Dimmitt and the Raymond Mobleys.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brooks report that their son-in-law Duward Taylor, of Friona, is doing fine after an operation on his nose last week. One of the grandsons, L. D. Taylor, who has the mumps, is also doing fine.

Attend Meeting

Those from Frio attending the inspirational meeting at the Happy Baptist church on Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Gladys, Oma Ruth, Tawana and Lavon Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Johnson, Karen and Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews, Vera Belle, Joe Ed and Frances Andrews, Nellie Jo Simpson, Tommy, Lesler and Veima Irwin, Henry Dobbs, Clark and James Dobbs, W. H. Andrews, Mrs. H. M. Mobley, Mrs. Lee Renfro, J. E. Andrews, Alma Andrews, Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Shannon and Miss Lavada Shannon.

They report a very good program, which included song service directed by Bob Lawrence, special music furnished by a girls' trio from Dimmitt, scripture and prayer by Truett Smith of Canyon, Sunday School work, by A. O. Thompson, Hereford, Training Union work by Miss Lola Heiskell of Hereford, and an inspirational address by Rev. R. H. Cagle of Hereford. Rev. Shannon is moderator of the Associational meetings now succeeding Rev. Lantrop of Dimmitt. Rev. Lantrop resigned recently as pastor of the Dimmitt Baptist church because of ill health. It is reported that he and Mrs. Lantrop are moving to Plainview to be near her recently widowed mother.

Clark and Glenn Andrews accompanied Henry Andrews on a trip south into Texas as he was unting a cotton pulper the first this week.

Twin Calves Born

Henry DRobbs reported a fair-unusual happening at his place when his old black cow gave birth to twin calves on Monday night. The calves, both males, are healthy. The general conversation last week was about the weather when folks gathered anywhere. Everybody practically had frozen peas and cars that were hard to start. Thermometer readings varied all the way from 13 to 23 degrees below zero on the cold morning. Even the oldtimers can't remember when it was much colder, although almost everybody can recall a week when it was colder or hotter or drier or wetter regardless of what the weather man says at us. The present generation, at least, has something to tell its grandchildren after this week.

No club meeting was held on the regular day last week due to the cold wave. The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, Feb. 14, at the home of Mrs. E. F. Vogler. The women will find it worth their time and effort to go and take part. Women in the community are cordially invited to belong to this Home Makers club. Wade Thompson passed his physical for the selective service last week, but is deferred.

Heart - - felt 'Thank You'

We also wish to introduce our successor, Mr. Wm. J. Schulte of El Reno, Oklahoma, who bought the two firms . . . and to inform you regarding our own future plans.

When we went into business in Hereford, we expected to improve the community in keeping with the expansion and progress of our business, because we recognized it as an outstanding community worthy of our confidence and efforts. Since that time our payroll has advanced from four employees to an average of 30 employees during 1950, high type men and women who we believe are an asset to any community. Our quarters have been constantly improved to the point where they are considered outstanding—and it has been our purpose to operate our other interests: cattle, farming, produce, banking, hotel, apartments, etc., along the same lines.

Furthermore, we still feel about Hereford and the surrounding territory just as we did when we came here May 15, 1938—and it is our plan to continue making our homes in this community. As you may know we are keeping our real estate in the current transaction. We will rent the two business buildings to Mr. Schulte, and they will be operated in the same locations. In addition, we will continue with our farming, ranching and other interests which, we feel, will keep us fairly busy.

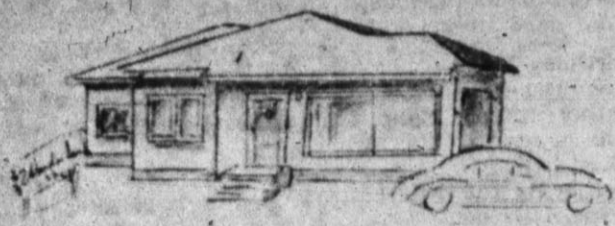

We invite you to visit us and assure you that you will always be welcome. We expect and hope to see you often—in order that we can tell you again, in person, how much we really do appreciate your patronage, your loyalty and, above all, your friendship.

Advanced Civics

By Nelda Guy Lawrence

Each student in Hereford high school is required to take advanced civics in order to graduate. It is a half-year course and is taught both semesters.

Mrs. Audine Dettman and James Garner taught the course the first semester of this year, and Mrs. Dettman and Mrs. Charlene Wilder are teaching it this semester.

Approximately 40 students are enrolled in the course, which is to help students get a better understanding of how our government developed, and some of the privileges and rights which we value so highly. It helps the students to understand foreign problems and relations which have led into the present war. It also helps the student understand the local government. Also each semester there is a thorough study of the United Nations.

Both teachers stress present day affairs through the use of current magazines and Senior-Scholastic, a special paper prepared for use in advanced civics. Only Juniors and Seniors may Hereford's basketball season is fast drawing toward the finish, the district tournament being February 15 & 17. The Herd has had its good and bad games this season.

Last week the Herd won from the Farwell Steers but lost to Tulla. All year the Whitefaces have displayed an aggressive first quarter attack but have seemed to fade some in the waning moments of the game. It definitely seems that basketball in Hereford high school is on the upswing. It won't be long till Hereford

Teacher's Who's Who

By Evelyn Tucker

A teacher that most of us have seen in the office and one that each senior is supposed to see every day during English IV is Pat Sullivan. He not only teaches English IV and works in the office but is one of the Junior class sponsors. His pet peeve is excuses. I'm sure most of you will be engaged in track. Several of the boys are strong contenders for district honors.

will understand why his pet peeve is excuses.

Before coming to HHS, Mr. Sullivan taught in Amherst, and attended Texas Tech. His opinion of HHS is "The best-organized school and the best student body that I have seen."

All sports are his hobbies. Roast, quail, fruit salad, and hot rolls are his favorite foods. To own a ranch is his secret ambition. After retirement Mr. Sullivan plans to travel although he says that he has really enjoyed living in Hereford and becoming acquainted with the people and believes that there is not a better town to be found.

To the question "Are you married?" he answered "No." "Some of his students think he should have said, "Not yet!" It seems who have plenty of help from Cupids, Mr. Sullivan, so don't give up.

Seniors Who's Who

One of the happy seniors running around HHS is Jay Lynn Sullivan. Jay Lynn made his first appearance to his happy parents on May 14, 1934 over in Portales, New Mexico. He says that his likes, hobbies, and favorite past-time is "playing pool."

(He really must like to play pool). He also likes to read part of the time. Jay Lynn's favorite food is strawberry shortcake and his dislike is to wash dishes. (Say, girls, do you reckon he'll make a good husband when he doesn't like to wash dishes?) His ambition is to have enough money sometime to take a vacation for a year. When asked his plans for after May 25, he said "I am going to college but haven't decided which one yet." His opinion of HHS is "Best school on earth." Jay Lynn's pet peeve is "a dog named Joker," so if anyone has a dog named Joker you had better tell him to stay away from Jay Lynn or he might get hurt (and I mean the dog!).

One of our bright and smiling cheerleaders is La Juan White, and she seems to be a good choice seeing as her hobby is cheerleading. La Juan plans to attend either Tech or W. T. and her ambition is to teach school. She led her first yell on May 21, 1933 at Andrews, Texas and she has been yelling ever since. Her likes are Hereford, Hereford High School, and having lots of fun; her dislikes are snobbish people. She says that her pet peeve is people that drag their feet. La Juan, as well as Jay Lynn, likes strawberry shortcake (a-h, Juan, that's fattening). La Juan belongs to Pep Club, Tri-Hi-Y, and F.T.A. She holds the offices of cheerleader, reporter and historian of F.T.A. La Juan said that HHS was the best school she ever attended; "I'll really miss it."

Five Students to Galveston For State Band Clinic

Five members of the Hereford high school band, accompanied by the band director Purris F. Williams leave for Galveston February 6, for State Band Clinic. Purris Williams, Jr., is the only Hereford boy in the band, but Kenneth Carroll and Neil Lominick will meet in clarinet classes, and Wayne Lady and Keith Savage will meet in cornet classes where they will receive instruction and criticism by experts in their field.

In the state band, the first evening they will have rehearsal, and then the next day they will play out for positions they will play.

Members are selected entirely on past records for the state band. They are chosen by a committee of band directors from this area. Mr. Williams submitted the names of several students, but Purris Williams, Jr., was the only one eligible.

For the past four years he won solo Cornet in the Inter-scholastic League; First Solo Cornet at the Tri State Band at Enid, Oklahoma last year, also First Division in Cornet solo at Enid; and when he was a freshman, he earned the Arlon Foundation Award.

It's News To Me...

Hi there everybody! Well, I'm back. I know you were all in hopes you would have a longer rest but you can't be lucky all the time.

The annual W.M.D. Senior Banquet was held last Thursday night at the Baptist Church. The decorations showed someone had done a lot of work and the food—ummmmm.

Snow, snow and more snow. It is pretty but goodness it is cold. Looks like we're going to have something to tell our grandchildren on winter evenings (mild ones where the temperature only drops to a mere zero).

Stanley and Leonard seemed to be very popular at Ft. Worth. I heard that a whole gang of girls was following them down the street. How about that, boys?

Mr. Sullivan do you make it a habit to throw things at your students? (notice I said students?) Pardon me—I was just informed that you were just illustrating a sentence. Will you please forgive me for the terrible error?

Claudia and Patsy love to ride on elevators. When they see a button, they push it to find out what it is. It seems the one they happened to push at Ft. Worth stopped the elevator. If Stanley and Leonard had been along I could have almost understood but they were by themselves. I just can't figure it out.

Goodness gracious, if I don't shut up I'm liable to say something I shouldn't (as I usually do).

By now—see you all next week—maybe—if I don't get lazy again.

He likes to drink R. C.'s and read his favorite book "Hard Times" by Charles Dickens. He attends the Methodist church.

Colds and Flu Result From Cold Weather in Northwest Hereford

Burst water pipes and water shortage is just one of the disasters of the recent cold weather. Colds and flu have invaded the community also, due to the cold weather. Mrs. Raymond Palmer has the flu. Mrs. R. N. Cooke has had a dreadful cold, along with several others of this community.

The Raymond Palmers did not get to move this past week as was first planned, due to the weather conditions, but they plan to get moved this week, if Mrs. Palmer's health will permit.

Mrs. J. M. Malone who recently underwent surgery at the local hospital is getting along fine and is at her home now. She is the mother of Mrs. Palmer.

Mrs. C. S. Barclay was in Amarillo Monday. Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cooke and family were in Amarillo Saturday on business. They also visited in the home of Mr. Cooke's sister, Mrs. Gladys Dixon and family in Canyon.

Patricia Childers was a visitor in the Elmer Patterson home Sunday. She was visiting their teen-age daughter, Nancy.

Nancy and Patricia visited Wanda Block Sunday who has been ill with the mumps. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Block.

Mr. and Mrs. Block moved Sunday to their new home in the restricted addition on Harrison.

Hereford isn't the only place that has been cold. In a recent letter from the Hartland Caraways, Mrs. Caraway writes that it got to four degrees below zero at Hope, Ark., during that cold weather, and 14 degrees below at Fayetteville. She also said that Mr. Caraway had really been kidding the real estate boys about their mild winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Leorwald of Dawn were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hershey Sunday. Other guests in the Hershey home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Balak, Karen and Sheila.

Those attending the regular P. T. A. meeting Monday night from this vicinity were Mrs. Arnold Hershey, Mrs. Chas. Hodges, and Mrs. R. C. Childers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hershey, mother and father of Arnold Hershey, were dinner guests in their home last Sunday. Other visitors the same day were Ben Conklin and Leon Turner of Hereford.

Honors Mrs. Palmer
A luncheon honoring Mrs. Raymond Palmer was held in the home of Mrs. Floyd West Wednesday. Gifts were presented to the honoree by the guests.

The Cultural Home Demonstration Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wayne Johnson Thursday at 2:30. All club members are urged to attend.

Mrs. R. C. Childers and her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Childers' aunt, Mrs. Allie McNeill, at Wayside.

MEET MRS. MERLIN KAUL, first grade teacher at Central School, who is shown with a student, Chari Baker, who is making good use of her scissors. Mrs. Kaul has attended several colleges, including Kansas University, Emporia State Teachers, University of South California, and West Texas State.

Letter To Editor

January 30-51

Dear Jimmie:
The proposed $1,000,000.00 bond issue is too much money to spend on education by a town of about 5,000 population and only $8,000,000.00 in bank deposits. Where do you think the money is coming from?

Forty-five years ago, Graves & Elliston were giving the public with $3.50 per acre land, they got me, and this land is selling for only $70.00 to $200.00 an acre and wheat then selling for 20 cents and cattle 5 cents and now see what you get. What are you trying to do, bankrupt us land owners? This may be the will of selfish or unthinking individuals.

I have been paying school taxes for 45 years in your county, with no possible chance of getting some of it back, for educating my children.

However, I am heartily in favor of the proposed bond issue, as everyone should be. We are handing a heritage to the future generations of which we cannot be too proud of, but by giving them the best kind of education possible with properly paid educators, they may be equipped to do a better job of it.

Vote for the bond issue.
Respectfully,
Joseph F. Chmelich

Comments On WMU Banquet

By Gerry Patterson

The annual WMU banquet honoring the senior class of '51 was held February 1 at the First Baptist church. A Valentine's Day theme was carried throughout the program and decorations.

I heard two of the girls who had been serving at the banquets for about five years say that there were more at the banquet than they had ever seen at one of these banquets before.

Mrs. Sam McLallen welcomed us seniors and Bill Engman thanked her and told her how glad we were to be there.

Mr. Lake Plyant sang "Because" and played "I Love You Truly" on his trombone.

Mrs. Wayne Evans, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Evans, read a poem about a little miss Mustrol, who lived with her people in the Kleenex Village and her great, strong lover, Hadacol!

On the program it had that Mrs. Lake Plyant was going to give us some "Love Talks". Well, maybe they were love talks but to boil it right down, she said that everyone should go to college. Even though some of the boys may have to postpone their college education for a while they should definitely go. One thing Mrs. Plyant said that brightened the faces of several girls was that there are far more boys at Wayland College than girls. All the seniors who like to laugh really enjoyed Mrs. Plyant's address.

Rev. H. V. Fields gave the benediction.

MYF Hears Talk on Alcoholics Anonymous

Pete Anderson of Clovis was guest speaker Sunday afternoon at a sub-district meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship at the church, when alcoholics anonymous was the subject of discussion. Young people from Tulla and Dimmitt were visitors.

Anderson said when a person becomes a member of AA, he loses his troubles. "You only become a good member when you reach the point you know you have to have help of a higher power and are willing to distrust yourself," he said.

Long Time Ago

25 YEARS AGO

On February 5th, James Joseph Ward, affectionately called Uncle Joe, passed to his reward. He was able to be up and attend to his duties as County Treasurer of Deaf Smith county until about ten days before his death. Uncle Joe came to Deaf Smith county in 1902.

E. Hooks, trouble shooter for Southwestern Belt, will be here three weeks to help improve the lines and service. He will also encourage new business in this territory, as a number of the local communities are almost without telephone service at the present time. Mr. Hooks will cooperate with the local

Chamber of Commerce in helping to solve the telephone problem in the rural districts of Deaf Smith county.

A disastrous fire broke out in Dimmitt last Monday night about 9:30 o'clock. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but seemed to come between the buildings occupied by the Dimmitt Mercantile and the West Texas Feed & Seed Store. Both buildings were totally destroyed, as well as the adjoining buildings occupied by the Post Office and City Cafe. The loss is a staggering one for Dimmitt, but with the usual aggressiveness of her citizens Dimmitt is already planning bigger and better stores for the future.

The Hereford Fire chemical engine made the run to Dimmitt in record time and a score or more of Hereford men hurried to the assistance of the stricken neighbor.

Terracing Plains land may soon become a popular project in Deaf Smith county within the near future, is the belief of County Agent R. O. Dunkle. Andrew Gilliam, living seven miles southeast of Hereford has just finished terracing approximately 100 acres of land, which is the first of its kind in Deaf Smith county. The object of terracing the plains land is to keep the water on the soil in case of heavy rains. In most cases it increases crop yields from two to three bushels per acre.

J. Walter Hendrix of Abilene, Texas, chiropractor, has opened an office over the First National Bank and announces himself ready for the practice of

High honor roll for high school: Lucille Hughes, W. C. Morgan, and Lorene Wherry.

45 YEARS AGO

Hereford has been full of home-seekers the entire week.

Few people in other sections of this state and in other states realize that cotton is being grown in the Panhandle on a very extensive scale, but such is true, nevertheless.

Among the large land deals made in the Panhandle this year, that consummated through the local real estate firm of Connell & Stanford this week by which 35,000 acres of the XIT lands, situated northwest of Hereford in Deaf Smith county, were sold to E. W. Whinery of Iowa, is easily classed with the largest. This is only a beginning of the disposition of the largest ranch in the world, and means much for the future of Hereford and Deaf Smith county.

One of the largest land trades which has been made in this part of the Panhandle for a number of years was closed this week when Col. S. T. Howard disposed of a three-fourths interest in his ranch northwest of town. This is the largest individual ranch in the county, consisting of 32 sections. The purchasers of the three-fourths interest are C. G. Witherspoon, Jno. E. Ferguson, L. Gough, C. C. Ferguson, and Otis Truelove. The deal above carries with it a total consideration ranging well towards the $80,000 mark and was consummated by Jno. E. Ferguson.

Black Club Has Valentine Social

A Valentine social was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alta Presley for members of the Black Study and Social Club.

After the answering of roll call by each member discussing a chosen topic, Mrs. Helen Fangman gave an interesting talk on Southwestern and Modern Architecture.

Refreshments were served to 10 members and one guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Arden and family of Amarillo spent Sunday here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ruland and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Melver. Mrs. Ruland, Mrs. McIver, and Mrs. Arden are sisters.

Grass Seed Production During 1950 Heavy Throughout District, State

Many farmers in the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District harvested grass seed or legume seed during 1950.

A. E. Marnell, B. E. Roberson, H. A. Arnold, Chas. E. Hood and others produced over 20,000 pounds of Hubam Clover seed. Hood also harvested some Alfalfa and Hairy Vetch seed.

About 2,300 pounds of Sand Lovegrass seed were harvested by D. R. Inman and Mac Noland. Inman also harvested some Side oats grama. Ed Dziuk harvested 450 pounds of Switch grass, while E. P. Kistler garnered 450 pounds of Weeping Lovegrass. All of these were produced on small trial seeding plots.

Grass-man's best tool for anchoring soil against erosion was given a sound vote of confidence during 1950 by Texas farmers and ranchers.

Increased respect for this weapon against soil and water waste is reflected by last year's seed harvest, which shows 746,599 pounds of native grass seed harvested by Texas farmers and ranchers. It was pointed out today by Louis P. Merrill, Soil Conservation Service regional director here.

Leading the native grass seed harvest parade in Texas were little bluestem (400,325 pounds), and blue grama (202,410 pounds), both warm season forage plants.

The 1950 seed harvest figures, Merrill said, also reflect widely increased use of King Ranch bluestem by conservation-wise farmers and ranchers. It is a deep-rooted introduced perennial grass known for its erosion-resisting and forage qualities and its adaptation to wide extremes of rainfall.

Throughout Texas, a total of 506,537 pounds of King Ranch bluestem seed was harvested, easily a new record seed take for the popular drought and cold-resistant grass, the regional director said.

Of the KR seed harvested in

Texas last year, 463,082 pounds or about 91 per cent of the state-wide harvest were taken from the farms and ranches of soil conservation district co-operators, Merrill said. An additional 8,430 pounds of KR seed were harvested from the Soil Conservation Service nursery at San Antonio and U. S. land utilization project areas.

From Texas' more than 4 1/2 million acres in close-growing, soil-conserving legumes, a total of 25,216,000 pounds of legume seed was harvested during 1950, Merrill announced.

Leading in the Texas legume seed harvest was Hubam sweet-clover (11,258,947 pounds), a versatile conservation crop respected for its ability to overcome cotton root rot, decrease soil loss and runoff and improve soil productivity. Second was hairy vetch (10,819,087 pounds), a winter cover crop known as a veritable store-house of soil nutrients.

The harvest of native and introduced grass seed and legume seed in Texas last year totaled more than 30 million pounds, the regional director said.

The 1950 seed harvest is a clear indicator that the Texas farmer and rancher is paying increased attention to the use of grasses and legumes as his best weapons in improving the soil and water waste," Merrill commented.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell went to Canyon Saturday to bring their daughter, Jacqueline, a student at West Texas State, home for the week end.

Garden Beautiful Club Starts Project

Mrs. Mary Seigler entertained members of the Garden Beautiful Club at her home Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Adams, vice-president, presiding.

During the business meeting reports were heard and Mrs. George Graham, chairman of the project committee, reported that the City Commission had begun work on the beautification of the Deaf Smith County Hospital grounds and were now ready for the club's donation. Members of the club voted to place $100 in the hands of the commission to carry out the project plans.

Mrs. O. M. Dickey was in charge of the program and conducted a round table discussion on everblooming hedges or walls with members giving suggestions and naming plants and shrubs which would keep the hedge in bloom.

Refreshments were served after the program to Mesdames E. L. Adams, O. M. Dickey, George Graham, Frances Houston, F. P. Lyons, Ernest Medtner, F. R. Overstreet, Helen Pipkin, E. W. Solomon, J. W. Thomas, Gerald Wilson, G. P. Owen, Mincheln, J. B. Harlin and the hostess.

LET REDDY'S ELECTRIC RANGE BE THE HEART OF YOUR KITCHEN

... and Valentine's Day will be every day, all day. Reddy and his electric range takes the cook (that's you) right out of cooking... keeps you fresh looking no matter how many meals you prepare. You see, there's no unwanted heat escaping from an electric range. All heat created by the high speed electric elements is transmitted directly to the pots and pans by three scientific means of heat transfer. The food alone cooks when you cook electrically... you stay cool and fresh... always at your best. If you're not now cooking electrically, start now, like so many Panhandle-Plains, Pecos Valley women already have done.

Resident 59 Years Tells Of Early Days on Plains

GEORGE L. MUSE

Although George L. Muse has held positions on Main Street in Hereford for the past 34 years, he has not forgot how to "batch" on a ranch where his specialty was sour dough biscuits.

"Imagine I've made enough sour dough biscuits to fill this room", Mr. Muse said, pointing to a rather large room in the offices of the National Farm Loan Association of which he was secretary until recently.

When asked how to make sour dough biscuits, he explained, "Get your jar, mix water and flour to a thick solution, set aside until it bubbles on top, keep adding to the mixture as you take from it." This mixture takes the place of sour milk and is used with soda in making biscuits by an ordinary recipe.

George L. Muse, who was born on Dec. 4, 1875 in Louisiana, came to Texas as an infant. The family settled near Hillsboro and moved to this area when George was only 17 years of age. The trip from Hillsboro took three weeks. This county at that time was "just wide open pastures", he explained.

Muse came with his mother and step-father, J. P. Connell, who was hunting a new country in which to live. They settled at LaPlata, the old county seat, which consisted of four or five families located on section 89, Block k-7, 20 miles northwest of Hereford. Connell became the second county judge of Deaf Smith county, succeeding Judge Dean.

"Strip Country" In 1897 the "four section act" was passed, permitting individuals to file on four sections of land, which George L. Muse did, 17 miles northeast of Hereford. The entire area of Hereford and vicinity was then known as the "strip country" and was "open land" where the ranchers all let their cattle graze together, rounding them up every few months to count them and brand the new calves. The strip was bounded on the north by the LS ranch, on the east by the

Beautiful Women of Distinction the world over use EX-CEL-CIS Cosmetics of Distinction and Purity HAILE DRUG and leading eos. counters

Fryin Pan's and T Anchor's and on the west by the Cattle Syndicate Company, making a strip 25 miles by 40 miles.

Muse described ranching of those days when neighbor helped neighbor with the branding and round-up. When a storm hit, the cows drifted to the creek and ranchers had to get them and feed them. The only fence inside the strip was a drift fence about four or five miles south of the present location of Hereford. "Winters used to be a lot worse", Muse said, adding that blizzards and a foot of snow on the ground complicated the ranching picture.

When the railroad was built in 1898, the county seat was moved to its present location and the little town was called "Bluewater" before being changed to Hereford, the latter name being designated because of register-ed Hereford cattle shipped in by Lewis Brady and Rat Jowell.

The old court house at LaPlata was wrecked and brought to Hereford and erected in the position where the court house now stands. Muse, who served as county commissioner for 10 years, was in office when the present court house building was started in 1908. The old building was moved across the street and a jail was added to it. Later the building was sold to the Catholics who remodelled it and made it into a church building. Part of the old court house building is still in use.

Cow Chips for Fuel In describing his ranching days which began in the 1890's, Muse told of using cow chips for fuel, hauling them in by the wagon load and stacking a supply for winter fuel. The best source of cow chips was from bedding grounds of herds moving from Mexico to Amarillo.

All the supplies, building materials as well as groceries, had to come from Amarillo. Each family made as many trips as necessary each year, usually numbering from two to four, depending on the amount of money each had to spend. The trips were made by wagon with the driver going over one day and returning the next.

Beef was the main food, however, some people but not many at antelope which roamed the prairies in bunches as large as 100. Mr. Muse said he kept his horse saddled to run them out of his feed. They were wild and when the automobile came in, the antelope went out.

Through the years, Mr. Muse has sold and bought land many times, and has always had some in his possession. "If I had thought it ever would have had any value, I could have had plenty of it", he commented.

"We thought it wasn't worth anything except to raise cattle."

Plenty of people came to the plains, but many of them started out and went back east. Passers-by could tell which direction a wagon was travelling by the camp that was left. If people were coming west, tin cans were left by the deserted camp fire; if they were going back east, bones from their meat were left—sometimes rabbit, sometimes bones from cattle.

Syndicate Beef

Ranchers in the "strip" certainly respected each others property, and it was never necessary to lock a door when going away regardless of how long. Strangers were welcome to enter the ranch house and fix themselves a meal whether or not the owner was home. The "nesters" wouldn't think of eating a cow that belonged to a neighbor, but stray cattle, belonging to the Syndicate were "anybody's meat" so far as the nesters were concerned.

"You couldn't beat the class of people who settled up this country," Muse said.

Doctors weren't often needed, he said, adding that the good health of the people was probably due to the outdoor activity, good fires, and houses not over heated. The closest doctor most of the time was Amarillo, so "you had to stay well."

A bachelor until 1913, Muse did his own washing on a rub board in addition to doing his own cooking. He often had a hired hand for whom he had to cook, but there were no complaints. The standing rule of the West was "Complainers had to cook". In addition to the sour dough biscuits, the ranchers ate lots of beef, beans, black-eyed peas, frioles, and pumpkins and watermelons in season.

Among the discomforts of the frontier life were the water dogs which often infested the dug-outs of the ranchers. "They were harmless, but they were awful cold if they crawled in the bed with you", Muse said.

Most of the time the ranchers wrapped their feet in tow sacks tied with twine to serve as overshoes.

"We didn't have many bad teeth", Muse observed. "We didn't have decayed teeth, most people who lost their teeth lost them because of pyorrhea. The cure for a toothache

Marine Corps Opens Officer Candidate School Enlistments

The Marine Corps announced Sunday its first Officer Candidate Course since World War II, whereby college graduates with no military experience may become officers.

Qualified graduates, or seniors in accredited colleges who will receive a baccalaureate degree this spring, other than in medicine, dentistry, or theology, and who will be less than 27 years of age on July 1, may write to the Commandant of the Marine Corps, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, Washington 25, D. C. for information.

Accepted candidates will be enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve and sent to an intensive 10 week training course at Parris Island, S. C. this spring and summer. Successful graduates will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve and sent to the Marine Corps school, Quantico, Virginia for a comprehensive five months basic officers' course.

Successful graduates will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve and sent to the Marine Corps school, Quantico, Virginia for a comprehensive five months basic officers' course.

Principal entertainment for the ranchers was dances. They often went 25 miles on horseback or in buggies to attend a dance which started before night and ended after daylight.

Pray for Rain

On one occasion the people met at a school house, located about where the Click place is now, to pray for rain. Muse recalled, W. S. Higgins, after going outside to look at the weather, returned and said, "Not a bit of use, fellows. The wind is still in the southwest."

In 1913, George L. Muse and Miss Allie Oglesby, who came to Hereford from Kentucky, were married. They have one son, George Kellar Muse, who operates the Muse ranch now, and two grandchildren, Marjorie Sue and George L. II.

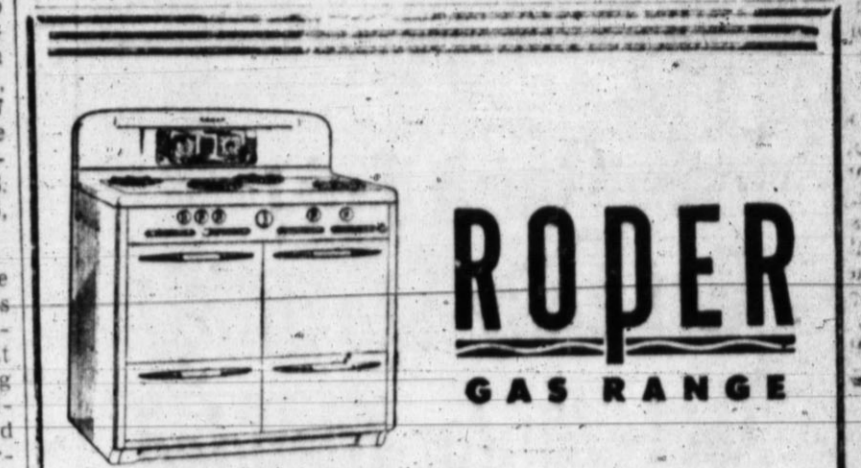

Mr. and Mrs. Muse moved to town in 1917 and he became the fourth president of the First National Bank which position he held until 1937 when he became secretary-manager of the National Farm Loan Association.

for a commission will be given the option of discharge from the Marine Corps reserve or assignment to active duty in enlisted status.

A limited number of the graduates of this Officer Candidate Course may be offered commissions as career Marines.

Long Time Ago

25 YEARS AGO

On February 5th, James Joseph Ward, affectionately called Uncle Joe, passed to his reward. He was able to be up and attend to his duties as County Treasurer of Deaf Smith county until about ten days before his death. Uncle Joe came to Deaf Smith county in 1902.

E. Hooks, trouble shooter for Southwestern Bell, will be here three weeks to help improve the lines and service. He will also encourage new business in this territory, as a number of the local communities are almost without telephone service at the present time. Mr. Hooks will cooperate with the local

Chamber of Commerce in helping to solve the telephone problem in the rural districts of Deaf Smith county.

A disastrous fire broke out in Dimmitt last Monday night about 9:30 o'clock. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but seemed to come between the buildings occupied by the Dimmitt Mercantile and the West Texas Feed & Seed Store. Both buildings were totally destroyed, as well as the adjoining buildings occupied by the Post Office and City Cafe. The loss is a staggering one for Dimmitt, but with the usual progressiveness of her citizens Dimmitt is already planning bigger and better stores for the future.

The Hereford fire, chemical engine made the run to Dimmitt in record time and a score or more of Hereford men hurried to the assistance of the stricken neighbor.

Terracing Plains land may soon become a popular project in Deaf Smith county within the near future, is the belief of County Agent R. O. Dunkle. Andrew Gilliam, living seven miles southeast of Hereford has just finished terracing approximately 100 acres of land, which is the first of its kind in Deaf Smith county. The object of terracing the plains land is to keep the water on the soil in case of heavy rains. In most cases it increases crop yields from two to three bushels per acre.

J. Walter Hendrix of Abilene, Texas, chiropractor, has opened an office over the First National Bank and announces himself ready for the practice of

High honor roll for high school: Lucille Hughes, W. C. Morgan, and Lorene Wherry.

45 YEARS AGO

Hereford has been full of home-seekers the entire week.

Few people in other sections of this state and in other states realize that cotton is being grown in the Panhandle on a very extensive scale, but such is true, nevertheless.

Among the large land deals made in the Panhandle this year, that consummated through the local real estate firm of Connell & Stanford this week by which 35,000 acres of the XIT lands, situated northwest of Hereford in Deaf Smith county, were sold to E. W. Whinery of Iowa is easily classed with the largest. This is only a beginning of the disposition of the largest ranch in the world, and means much for the future of Hereford and Deaf Smith county.

One of the largest land trades which has been made in this part of the Panhandle for a number of years was closed this week when Col. S. T. Howard disposed of a three-fourths interest in his ranch northwest of town. This is the largest individual ranch in the county, consisting of 32 sections. The purchasers of the three-fourths interest are C. G. Witherspoon, Jno. E. Ferguson, L. Gough, C. C. Ferguson, and Otis Truelove. The deal above carries with it a total consideration ranging well towards the $80,000 mark and was consummated by Jno. E. Ferguson.

Black Club Has Valentine Social

A Valentine social was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alta Presley for members of the Black Study and Social Club.

After the answering of roll call by each member discussing a chosen topic, Mrs. Helen Fangman gave an interesting talk on Southwestern and Modern Architecture.

Refreshments were served to 10 members and one guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Arden and family of Amarillo spent Sunday here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ruland and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIver. Mrs. Ruland, Mrs. McIver, and Mrs. Arden are sisters.

Grass Seed Production During 1950 Heavy Throughout District, State

Many farmers in the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District harvested grass seed of legume seed during 1950.

A. E. Marnell, B. E. Roberson, H. A. Arnold, Chas. E. Hood and others produced over 20,000 pounds of Hubam Clover seed. Hood also harvested some Alfalfa and Hairy Vetch seed.

About 2,300 pounds of Sand Lovegrass seed were harvested by D. R. Inman and Mac Noland. Inman also harvested some Side oats grama. Ed Dziuk harvested 450 pounds of Switch grass, while E. P. Kistler garnered 450 pounds of Weeping Lovegrass. All of these were produced on small trial seeding plots.

Grass-man's best tool for anchoring soil against erosion was given a sound vote of confidence during 1950 by Texas farmers and ranchers.

Increased respect for this weapon against soil and water waste is reflected by last year's seed harvest, which shows 746,599 pounds of native grass seed harvested by Texas farmers and ranchers. It was pointed out today by Louis P. Merrill, Soil Conservation Service regional director here.

Leading the native grass seed harvest parade in Texas were little bluestem (406,326 pounds) and blue grama (202,410 pounds), both warm season forage plants.

The 1950 seed harvest figures, Merrill said, also reflect widely increased use of King Ranch bluestem by conservation-wise farmers and ranchers. It is a deep-rooted introduced perennial grass known for its erosion-resisting and forage qualities and its adaptation to wide extremes of rainfall.

Throughout Texas, a total of 506,537 pounds of King Ranch bluestem seed was harvested, easily a new record seed take for the popular drought and cold-resistant grass, the regional director said.

Of the KR seed harvested in

Texas last year, 463,082 pounds or about 91 per cent of the state-wide harvest were taken from the farms and ranches of soil conservation district co-operators, Merrill said. An additional 8,430 pounds of KR seed were harvested from the Soil Conservation Service nursery at San Antonio and U. S. land utilization project areas.

From Texas' more than 4 1/2 million acres in close-growing, soil-conserving legumes, a total of 25,216,000 pounds of legume seed was harvested during 1950, Merrill announced.

Leading in the Texas legume seed harvest was Hubam sweet-clover (11,258,947 pounds), a versatile conservation crop respected for its ability to overcome cotton root rot, decrease soil loss and runoff and improve soil productivity. Second was hairy vetch (10,819,087 pounds), a winter cover crop known as a veritable store-house of soil nutrients.

The harvest of native and introduced grass seed and legume seed in Texas last year totaled more than 30 million pounds, the regional director said.

"The 1950 seed harvest is a clear indicator that the Texas farmer and rancher is paying increased attention to the use of grasses and legumes as his best weapons in improving the soil and water waste," Merrill commented.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell went to Canyon Saturday to bring their daughter, Jacqueline, a student at West Texas State, home for the week end.

Garden Beautiful Club Starts Project

Mrs. Mary Seigler entertained members of the Garden Beautiful Club at her home Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Adams, vice-president, presiding.

During the business meeting reports were heard and Mrs. George Graham, chairman of the project committee, reported that the City Commission had begun work on the beautification of the Deaf Smith County Hospital grounds and were now ready for the club's donation. Members of the club voted to place $400 in the hands of the commission to carry out the project plans.

Mrs. O. M. Dickey was in charge of the program and conducted a round table discussion on overblooming hedges or walls with members giving suggestions and naming plants and shrubs which would keep the hedge in bloom.

Refreshments were served after the program to Mesdames E. L. Adams, O. M. Dickey, George Graham, Frances Houston, F. P. Lyons, Ernest Medkief, J. R. Overstreet, Helen Pipkin, E. W. Solomon, J. W. Thomas, Gerald Wilson, G. E. Owen, Mincheln, J. B. Harlin and the hostess.

"You couldn't beat the class of people who settled up this country," Muse said. Doctors weren't often needed, he said, adding that the good health of the people was probably due to the outdoor activity, good fires, and houses not over heated. The closest doctor most of the time was Amarillo, so "you had to stay well."

A bachelor until 1913, Muse did his own washing on a rub board in addition to doing his own cooking. He often had a hired hand for whom he had to cook, but there were no complaints. The standing rule of the West was "Complainers had to cook". In addition to the sour dough biscuits, the ranchers ate lots of beef, beans, black-eyed peas, frioles, and pumpkins and watermelons in season.

Among the discomforts of the frontier life were the water dogs which often infested the dugouts of the ranchers. They were harmless, but they were awful cold if they crawled in the bed with you", Muse said.

Most of the time the ranchers wrapped their feet in tow sacks tied with twine to serve as overshoes. "We didn't have many bad teeth", Muse observed, "We didn't have decayed teeth, most people who lost their teeth lost them because of pyorrhea. The cure for a toothache

The Marine Corps announced Sunday, its first Officer Candidate Course since World War II, whereby college graduates with no military experience may become officers. Qualified graduates, or seniors in accredited colleges who will receive a baccalaureate degree this spring other than in medicine, dentistry, or theology, and who will be less than 27 years of age on July 1, may write to the Commandant of the Marine Corps, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, Washington 25, D. C., for information.

Accepted candidates will be enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve and sent to an intensive 10 week training course at Parris Island, S. C., this spring and summer. Successful graduates will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve and sent to the Marine Corps school, Quantico, Virginia for a comprehensive five months basic officers' course.

Candidates who fail to qualify was to get the pliers and pull the tooth out."

Principal entertainment for the ranchers was dances. They often went 25 miles on horseback or in buggies to attend a dance which started before night and ended after daylight.

Pray for Rain On one occasion the people met at a school house, located about where the Click place is now, to pray for rain. Muse recalled, W. S. Higgins, after going outside to look at the weather, returned and said, "Not a bit of use, fellows. The wind is still in the southwest."

In 1913, George L. Muse and Miss Allie Oglesby, who came to Hereford from Kentucky, were married. They have one son, George Kellar Muse, who operates the Muse ranch now, and two grandchildren, Marjorie Sue and George L. II.

Mr. and Mrs. Muse moved to town in 1917 and he became the fourth president of the First National Bank which position he held until 1937 when he became secretary-manager of the National Farm Loan Association.

for a commission will be given the option of discharge from the Marine Corps reserve or assignment to active duty in enlisted status. A limited number of the graduates of this Officer Candidate Course may be offered commissions as career Marines.

MORRIS G. COBB REPORTS

Increased Talk at Capitol Favoring Four-Year Terms for Officials

By MORRIS G. COBB

The much publicized Communist Control Bill was reported favorably out of the Committee on State Affairs with two minor amendments on Monday night, Jan. 29. The author, Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio, and Col. Homer Garrison of the Texas Department of Public Safety, appeared to testify in behalf of the bill. Personal appearances were made by Todd Lowrey, Texas University Law School graduate, and Fred Estes of Houston to oppose the measure.

After a two and one-half hour public hearing the bill was unanimously reported to the floor of the House with the recommendation that it be passed. Consequently, on February 1, the bill appeared on the floor of the House of Representatives and was passed by that body.

The Judiciary committee approved House Bill 136, which would do away with the required separate acknowledgment for a married woman, and would substitute therefor the customary single acknowledgment currently used by men and unmarried women.

A bill introduced early in the session amending the present election laws was scheduled to be aired publicly at 2:30 P. M. Wednesday. The bill would change the dates for the holding of the first and second Democratic primary elections from the fourth Saturdays in July and August to the fourth Saturdays in April and May respectively. This procedure, if made into law, would become effective in the election year of 1952 and would apply every two years thereafter. There are many arguments for and against this proposed change and from all indications the Wednesday afternoon session will be a heated one.

ney general, treasurer, comptroller, land commissioners, commissioner of agriculture, and state representatives; & change from four years to six the terms of state senators. Congressmen still would be elected for two-year terms under the present provisions, and United States senators for six years.

Concurrent with this trend in thinking is the further provision for four-year terms for elective county officials. Even under this change primaries would be held every two years, with specified offices being filled at each election. The terms of county commissioners, for example, would be staggered so that two commissioners would be elected every two years for four-year terms.

A comparatively new possible addition to the state budget this year will be an appropriation for a State Civil Defense program. A well organized program of civil defense has been worked out through the Executive Department of our State, and the principal drawback is a need for funds with which to set it in motion. This program has been voluntarily given a high priority on the lists of most of the members of the Legislature. The program is designed for service both during wartime and peacetime disasters.

The Highways and Roads

Committee will listen to arguments concerning House Bill 105. The bill is designed to require the erection and maintenance of signs on state highways, showing the maximum lawful speed for commercial motor vehicles. This hearing is scheduled for 7:30 P. M. Tuesday, February 6th.

Two joint resolutions providing for a vote of the people of Texas on a constitutional amendment, increasing the compensation of State legislators, have been introduced and are now in the Committee on Constitutional Amendments for consideration. The Committee hearing at 2:30 P. M. on February 7th will be the first testing ground for these two resolutions.

The Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence, which already has the major task of revising and recodifying our criminal laws, will take time Tuesday evening, February 6th, to discuss a bill prescribing the liability of owners of dogs to persons, lawfully upon the premises, bit by the owner's dog. The small carriers of our State are particularly interested in this bill and are giving it their group support.

The Canadian River Dam Compact was passed favorably out of the Committee on Interstate Cooperation and will appear on the floor of the House of Representatives about February 7th for a vote and passage.

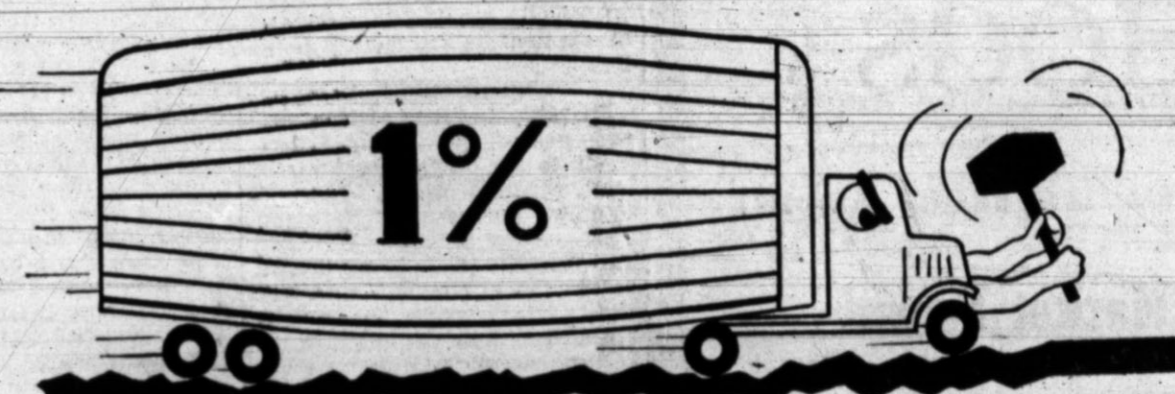

The final report of the Texas Water Code Committee has been completed and printed. Anyone interested in securing a copy of this 52-page instrument may do so by writing Rep. Morris G.

Cobb, Box 23, House of Representatives, State Capitol, Austin, Texas. He will be happy to mail a copy of this report to all interested parties upon their request.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clay spent the week end in Lubbock, visiting relatives.

Mrs. John Hampton and daughter, Regina, of Slaton arrived here Sunday to spend a month with Regina's grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. D. R. Vandiver & Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vaughn. Mr. and Mrs. Vandiver and Mrs. Vaughn and children went to Slaton for them Sunday.

The More He BREAKS The More He MAKES

Texas motorists, Texas highways and Texas taxpayers should be protected against the ONE PER CENTERS.

ONE PER CENTERS are truck combinations weighing, loaded, 20,000 pounds or more. Only one of every 100 vehicles registered in Texas pays a license fee for 20,000 pounds or more. FEWER than three out of every 1,000 are registered for more than 40,000 pounds.*

Our highways should be SAFE for ALL the people - individuals, commercial users and the military alike.

Texas highway tax dollars should be conserved and used wisely. This can be done

- (1) by limiting the weight (gross load and axle load) that may be transported legally by the ONE PER CENTERS and
(2) by enforcing the law against those who persist in overloading.

Texas highways are paid for by and belong to ALL THE PEOPLE. Highways adequate for 99% of Texas users - individual and commercial - can be constructed and maintained for about ONE-THIRD of the cost made necessary by the weight of the ONE PER CENTERS.*

This is your problem. Send for your copy of the booklet, "THE CASE OF THE ONE PER CENTERS," which tells you, among other things, why

The declaration that God is Spirit and governs man made in His image and likeness is the high point of the Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, next Sunday.

The Golden Text emphasizes the point. It reads, "I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God" (Ezekiel 39:29). From the Bible citations is this statement: "Ye are my witness, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me" (Isiah 43:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is but one Spirit. Man is never God, but spiritual man, made in God's likeness, reflects God" (page 70).

Christian Science Services are held each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the Star Theatre. Visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Lent, the 46 days before Easter, is being set aside by Immanuel Lutheran Church for the special consideration of the Savior's passion in six Sunday evening services, during which "The Price of our Redemption" will be studied. The first of these special services will be held next Sunday evening at 7:00 at which time Rev. A. W. Lichtsinn will speak on "The Price of Humility." Preceding each of these services there will be 15 minutes of quiet devotional organ music.

The Sunday morning schedule remains the same: Sunday school and Bible class at 10:30 A. M., the worship service at 11:30 A. M.

A new class for the training of Sunday School teachers will be organized on Wednesday night, February 14. The group will study the booklet, "Directing the Learner."
