Final Farm-to-Market Easements Are Secured

Final work on securing channel easements permitting letting of contracts for the 37-mile first class Farm-To-Market road north and east of Bootleg was completed Tuesday, according to J. H. Foster, county judge.

Known as FM1412, the hard-surfaced road will run 14 miles north of Bootleg from the Harrison highway, then east for a distance of 23 miles to where it connects with Highway 51.

Work on securing right-of-way for the new road was started in February, 1950 and the final agreement was just completed this week.

The state highway department set a February 9 deadline on accepting the work and condemnation proceedings were started prior to that time against the one property owner with whom an agreement had not been reached.

When contracts will be let for the work was not announced, but work authorization is expected in the not too distant future. Officials hope that the contracts will be let at the next meeting of the highway department.

No contracts could be let for the work until the easements were obtained and no easements could be located until a survey of the area was completed.

There were 91 deeds affected in securing the final easements for the work. A total of 19 easements were secured. About 180 legal instruments were required before the final approval of all easements was final. In the cases of mineral reservations or liens on the property, a total of four instruments had to be secured on each deed.

Polio Officials Are Re-Elected

All officers of the executive committee of the Deaf Smith county chapter of Infantile Paralysis were re-elected Monday afternoon at the regular annual meeting of the committee in the Red Cross office at the court house.

Paul Harvey was re-elected chairman; O. C. Acker, treasurer, and L. H. Foster, secretary. Other members of the executive board are Mrs. Dylitha Bradley, Mrs. Essie Cordwell, E. C. Eubanks, Bruce Woodell, Francis Hardwick, and Rev. S. E. Eldridge.

Harvey said the committee is proud to report that all money borrowed from the national foundation in the past has been repaid and some money is left in the treasury.

"The committee," Harvey said, "urges each person to keep the town and community clean in order that we may be as fortunate as in the past two years by not having any more cases of polio than we have had."

Donations to the March of Dimes drive will still be accepted by Chairman Harvey, Harry Collier of the First National Bank, or John Aikin, although the drive has officially ended.

"The chapter wishes thank all those who participated in making the annual drive a success," Harvey said.

Factories and Food Research Discussed

Possibilities of interesting small manufacturers in moving to Deaf Smith county and advantages of a local food research program were discussed Thursday evening at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and a group of business men.

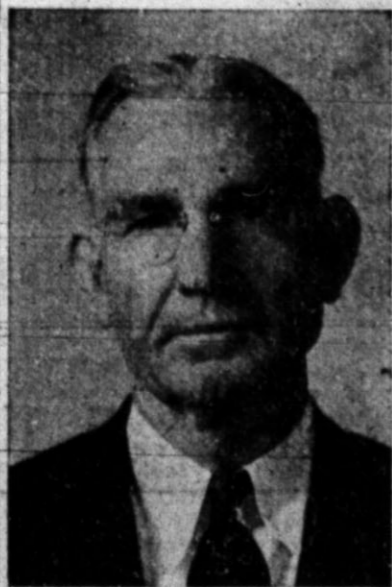

"After considerable discussion, it was agreed that we would use all the channels available, such as the Texas Manufacturers Association, the Better Business Bureau, the United States Chamber of Commerce, and the National Security Resources Board to try and interest Eastern manufacturers and aircraft companies, many of whom are moving inland under a decentralization program," Tom McFarland, Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager said.

He invited anyone having information concerning any kind of suitable small factory to give it to the Chamber of Commerce office where it will be given full consideration. Information will be appreciated by the Board of Directors McFarland said.

Dr. L. B. Barnett discussed the possibility of a food research program. He presented information to substantiate the material already collected by the Chamber of Commerce and various other interested persons in regard to the mineral content of all of the produce raised in Deaf Smith county.

Dr. Barnett, brought to light new facts on the bone-building qualities and knitting of frac-

Red Cross Now Taking Pledges for Blood Donations at Later Date

Blood donor pledges are now being taken by the Deaf Smith county chapter of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. Dyalitha Bradley, executive secretary of the local unit.

Although it may be months before a mobile unit will reach local donors, groundwork is being started by taking pledges at this time.

At least four new Red Cross regional centers were slated for opening during the fiscal year to supplement the 38 centers already established. Mobile units will cover all outlying communities and quotas will be set up at that time.

"When the armed forces first requested blood to be flown over-land August," Mrs. Bradley said, "the Red Cross responded immediately within five days, the first shipment was on its way and from then on, blood was flown on regular schedules."

"Shortly after the military request for blood," Mrs. Bradley continued, "the National Security Resources Board also asked the Red Cross to coordinate all activities connected with collecting, processing, and preparing for shipment blood and blood derivatives for civil defense. Added to these requests were the day-by-day needs of 2,300 community hospitals and clinics served by the Red Cross."

Within four months, whole blood not only was being supplied to the combat areas, but additional quotas were going to 34 veterans and 22 military hospitals regularly to 36 others as requested. Stockpiling of plasma for military needs has begun through processing laboratories in Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Los Angeles.

Husband of Local Woman Awarded DFC in Korea

Capt. Frank W. Durkee, jet pilot for the 51st Fighter Interceptor Group in Korea, was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Fourth Oak Leaf cluster to his air medal simultaneously. It was announced today by Col. John W. Wellman, wing commander.

Durkee's wife, Billie, and their daughter, Connie Lynne, age 3 1-2, make their home at Route 4, Hereford.

The citation awarding the Air Force's highest honor to Durkee mentioned his aggressive-ness while on an airfield strike in the Sinunju area while leading his flight of four F-80 jet aircraft. Durkee destroyed two aircraft on the ground on that mission.

Capt. Durkee entered the service in January 1940. Since that date he has served at various Air Force bases throughout the United States. Prior to joining the 51st on Okinawa, he was stationed at March Air Force Base.

Capt. Durkee attended the University of Wisconsin in 1938-39, majoring in mechanical engineering. He is the son of Mr. M. H. Durkee, Harlingen, Texas.

The boys down at Austin got to swapping—and just about swapped Deaf Smith County out of the State of Texas. It all happened pretty fast. Railroaded, I believe, is the term—and this area wound up on the outside looking in, as usual. The thing I am moaning about is the new State of Texas Congressional District.

Without rhyme or reason, the legislators and senators took a thumb tack and hung Deaf Smith County onto a block of five counties north of the Canadian River. Oldham, too, it seems was a step-child. Our new district includes, Dallam, Moore, Sherman, Hartley, Hansford, Oldham and Deaf Smith. It looks as if they redistricted Texas and came out with two extra counties, Oldham and Deaf Smith, and not knowing what else to do just stuck us on the nearest point. As you probably know, a portion of this area now comprises the 6th Judicial District; furthermore, every citizen in the whole area has been working to get this judicial district changed for the past ten years.

In the first place, Deaf Smith has absolutely nothing in common with the labor interests and oil interests of the district north of the Canadian. In the second place, it is inaccessible from both ends. To travel from Hereford to Dalhart, or visa-versa, one must go east into Amarillo then back west to the point sought. In the second place, the counties north of the river have consistently controlled elections and politics in the judicial district, and this is more especially true since Parmer County was changed from the district. All in all, the redistricting leaves Deaf Smith and Oldham high and dry—without representation in the State Legislature.

Being without consistent representation is nothing new to us, of course. That's the only good thing about the whole deal. We are not used to having a voice in the state government. The very re-districting proves this point. However, I do understand that Morris Cobb voted against the situation and I want to say "Thanks" to Mr. Cobb for the whole area. He is doing a good job at Austin and he stuck by Deaf Smith and voted for us.

Our white-haired boy, Senator Grady Hazelwood didn't do so well, however. Grady, when called to help cure the situation said: "We have a gentlemen's agreement. We are not to bother the house bill and they are not to tamper with ours" in other words, Mr. Hazelwood got what Amarillo wanted and that was the main thing. Amarillo gets a representative all by themselves and a floatorial representative with Randall County. That's fine and if Deaf Smith gets lost in the shuffle who cares? Certainly not Mr. Hazelwood. Gentlemen's agreements are wonderful things, but it appears that the country boys in Deaf Smith county are called upon to pay the bill. It is representation of the type Mr. Hazelwood gave us—that we can expect in the future.

Why couldn't they have been reasonable? Would it have been much trouble to put Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro and Bailey in a separate district—and give Oldham their choice of either district? These counties have everything in common: agriculture, livestock, irrigation and general interests. About the only difference under the new arrangement is the fact that "We don't have representation further away than we used to not have representation nearer home." Around 50 citizens, including the Commissioners Court, sent telegrams to Austin Monday afternoon. Not one single telegram had been answered late Tuesday afternoon. They don't even care enough about us to be polite.

Deaf Smith County faces a situation of taxation without representation—all of which led to the Revolutionary War against England. Maybe we can secede from Texas and join New Mexico. Why not? We are one of the few Texas counties to ever vote Republican, and we have a lot of other common interests.

Meanwhile, things seem pretty quiet around town. The annual Rotary Junior Livestock show was a huge success. Those boys really deserve a pat on the back, too. They worked hard and everywhere I hear people expressing genuine appreciation for their project. Tom McFarland tells me that plans are in the mill for a big fair this year. They are going to make it a really big deal! April, this, too, is scheduled to be a gala occasion. Looks like 1951 will go down in history as the year this section started doing a lot of things—even without representation in Austin.

Hollis Rainey, the city cop who hands out most of the parking meter tickets, was telling me that he has sold his house and is moving to California. Hollis says the job got his nerves quite a bit. Lots and lots of people seem to be heading for defense centers. Lots of new people are moving into Hereford, though. Every day you see people are moving into Hereford, houses, especially houses. Hereford is still growing, and will pick up materially in the next two years, maybe 1,000 to 1,500 more people if building materials are not frozen. Wait and see.

Mrs. Nunley Hostess To Club Thursday

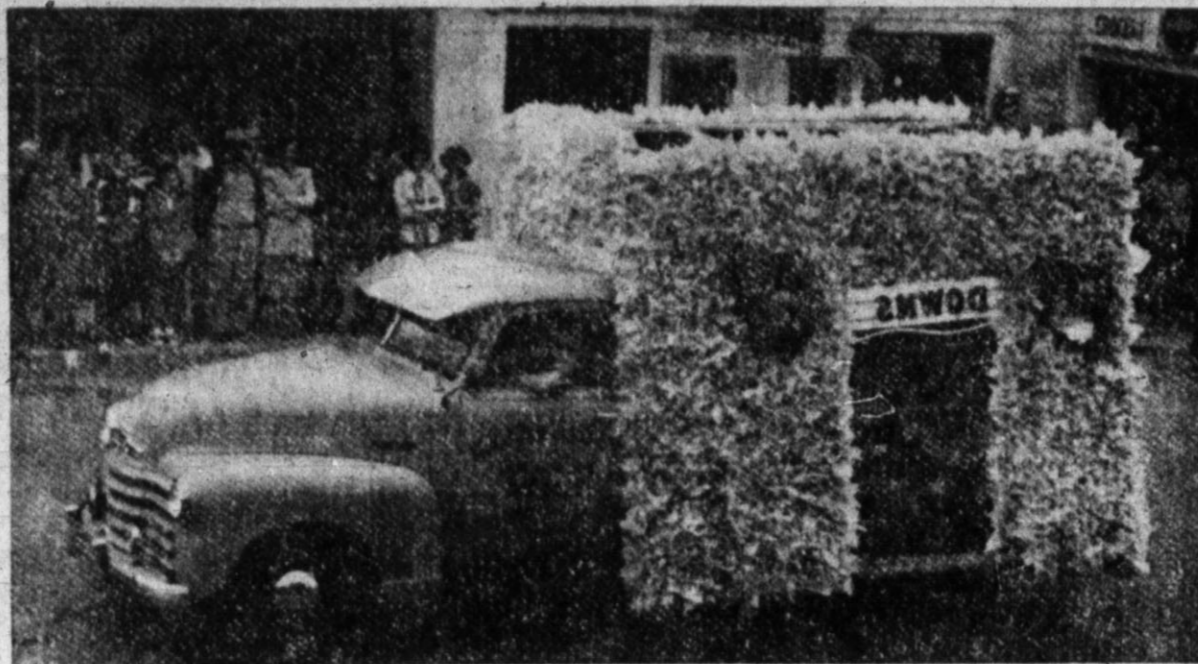

The Farm and Ranch Club met for its regular luncheon and business meeting last Thursday in the home of Mrs. Buren Sowell with Mrs. W. B. Nurdley as hostess.

Members answered roll call with a clever slogan. Mrs. Henry Melton won the floating prize.

Mrs. Buren Sowell, who had charge of the program, discussed "The Mexican in Texas." She said, "We find little is written about the Mexicans in Texas since most are wetbacks; however, most of our labor, especially around this part of the country, is done by Mexican labor." Mrs. Sowell told of one Mexican "wetback" who swam across the Rio Grande to come into Texas as a citizen. He had married on one of his previous trips and was anxious to be with his wife.

Present were Mesdames Henry Melton, Tom Colton, Jack Weaver, Ed Thomas, Hershel Burrus, Waldron Melton, Frank Rickles, G. S. Solomon, Buren Sowell, T. W. Perrin, Charlie Burk, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Jack Weaver.

NEW STUDENTS

Newest Addition to Junior Class Is Stanley Thurmon of Amarillo

By Nelda Guy Lawrence

The juniors have their first new student for the year. His name is Stanley Thurmon and he comes from Amarillo.

He, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie H. Thurmon, lives at the Fullwood Apartments here in town.

He says of HHS, "I like it pretty good. The people seem awful friendly."
 He was born in Amarillo on January 31, 1934 and like most boys, his favorite book is "Treasure Island" by Robert Louis Stevenson.

His pet peeve is stuck-up people; so kids, let's just show him his pet peeve is uncalled for in

HHS.

He likes french fries and more than likely he likes them best when they are accompanied by a great big juicy hamburger.

After going to a show starring James Stewart or Gloria DeHaven, you will find him at his favorite hangout drinking a vanilla coke and playing his favorite song, "My Heart Cries For You", on the juke box.

When he graduates he plans to attend West Texas State college and prepare to be a rancher, which is his life's ambition.

If you are mad (angry) don't go around him because he dislikes people who are angry. Unlike some boys, who seem to delight in running out of gas he dislikes it.

You will find him attending the Methodist church every Sunday.

"NEWS CORNER"

Tryouts Planned Soon For Drama Contest Play

Can You Imagine?

Byrl Fish being a dainty little boy?

Johnnie McBroom not being called Joonie McSweeper?

Mr. Sullivan putting a tack in Nell Witherspoon's chair "To get even"?

Carolyn Walker being quiet?

Lee McNeese not being excited over a letter from Wichita Falls.

(Bob) Tommy Culpepper as chilli-pepper.

Bedford without Wanda? Miss Dale misspelling a word?

It's News to Me

Hi there kids! I got so busy last week I didn't have time to stop and eavesdrop so I didn't have anything to write.

By keeping one ear tuned to a certain conversation last week I heard that Barbara K. has been getting some rather interesting "love notes". They never did say who the notes were from, Barbara, so would you tell all of us so we won't die of curiosity?

While I was hearing about B. K.'s "love notes" with one ear, I had the other ear turned toward another conversation. They were discussing the fact that they say "Patrick Fortescue O'Sullivan and a certain Beverly B. coming out of a jewelry store the other day. How about that, Fortescue? Are you keeping something from us?"

Having only two ears (like most people) I missed out on a conversation that (judging by the gestures) was very interesting.

Judging by all the couples I see standing around looking starry-eyed, I would say that Spring is here, in spite of the weather. Some of these happy looking couples are Raymond C. and Yvonne C., Joe H. and Evelyne B., Juane S. and Richard P., and Dorothy V. and Aubrey S. Girls! Have you noticed all the cute new beaus that are gracing HHS halls? There are all ages and heights so you ought to find at least one you can sink your hooks into.

Well, I gotta go now — Bye.

Senior Who's Who

One of the senior girls who is always smiling with a friendly "hello" is Melba Wall. On September 21, 1932 in Wellington, Texas, Melba made her first appearance to her proud parents. Melba likes football games, fried chicken, and HHS. But she has one dislike, conceited people. Her pet peeve is waiting for something (ESPECIALLY SENIOR RINGS).

She likes to eat fried chicken or cherry pie. To be a private secretary is her ambition and for her training she wants to attend Daughon's Business college. Of HHS Melba said, "A real wonderful place, I can't imagine going anywhere else and liking it."

The other senior personality for this week is Billy Robinson. He likes friendly people, good food, math, and good music. He dislikes cold weather, history, and unfriendly people. His pet peeve is being late to a meeting. He likes to eat fried chicken. Billy first made his appearance on July 2, 1934, in Hereford. His ambition is to be a good pianist and he plans to attend West Texas. He is a member of De Molay. Billy thinks HHS "is a very good school with a very Well, here we are again—another week gone by. Just think, seniors, it won't be long now! Thank goodness! On Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 13 and 14, the seniors measured for their caps and gowns. The seniors should be here soon. The seniors are going to start selling cards and stationery pretty soon to help them get some money for their trip. How about helping them out by buying some.

It seems as though Mr. Sullivan's English classes have been studying quite a bit lately. The kids say that they really did enjoy Miss Stevenson while Mr. Sullivan taking Mr. Martin's place.

Try-outs for the Dramatics Contest should be getting underway before long. Also try-outs for the Senior Class play.

On February 13, the dramatics club had their regular meeting. The program was on Make-up. Gene and Rayburn, we wonder if you really got all the make-up off???

So long kids—

good administration."

About so many years ago, on November 5, 1933, in Hedley, Texas, a little bouncing boy came into this world. He was Reece Whittington. Now his pet peeve is 'having my name spelled with an 's' instead of 'c'. He likes friendly people and he dislikes cabbage and stuck-up people. Reece is a member of Hi-Y and De Molay. He is vice-president of Hi-Y and secretary-treasurer of De Molay. He seems to like fried chicken and strawberry shortcake. After finishing HHS he plans to attend W.T. and there he wants to train to be an accountant. Reece said when he was asked his opinion of HHS, "The best school there is in Texas, none other like it."

Joan Orr, DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION STUDENT in her Senior year of Hereford High School. Joan is doing her work-training under the supervision of Mr. Close and his experienced staff at the 'Close Drug Co. Joan is interested in the sale of Toiletries and Notions which she is studying in school to tie-in with her work-training program with the Close Drug.

TEACHER'S WHO'S WHO

Joed Cupell, WTSC Alumnus, is Hereford High's Math Instructor

One of the x-y-z teachers is Joed Cupell. Algebra 1 one is not the only subject he teaches although it is his favorite subject. Physics and general math classes also have Mr. Cupell for an instructor.

Students in these classes should be careful to always have paper, pencil, and book when they come to class as Mr. Cupell's pet peeve is a student who does not have them.

His secret ambition is to obtain a master's degree in the field of mathematics and some specialized fields of engineering. His hobbies are working with tools of both carpentry and mechanical.

After teaching in Pyron, Hartley, Plemons, Dalhart, and Odessa, he thinks HHS has a most co-operative student body and faculty and the best school spirit this year he has ever seen. And Mr. Cupell is no exception to the rule. His alma mater is West Texas State college.

Jo Ann and Albert, his two children, and Mrs. Cupell are often seen with Mr. Cupell. He plans to retire to a small farm and do as little as possible. Another activity will be eating pineapple up-side-down cake and strawberry ice cream.

FACTS ABOUT MONEY!

OUTWITTING THE "CHEATS"

With the introduction of coinage in the early days came the problem of preventing cheats from debasing coins by clipping or shaving tiny amounts of the precious metals. A milled edge was added to the coins making the clippings of coins immediately apparent. This edging is common on our coins to this day.

EARL SULLIVAN, truck driver for Robert Wagner of Hereford, was the victim of an unusual situation Friday evening. Sullivan, who was driving a 2 1/2-ton semi stock truck loaded with 14 little heifers and 20 calves, stopped the vehicle on the shoulder of the road at the corner of Bradley street and 25 Mile avenue. He left the truck for a few minutes to tell his wife that he was going to Canadian with the stock. When Sullivan returned, he found the right rear wheel mired axle-deep in mud on the shoulder. While attempting to free the truck, the load broke an axle, Sullivan said. The above photo was taken shortly after 7 p.m. Friday. The accident occurred at about 5 p.m. —Brand Staff Photo.

Industrial Water Survey Will Be Made in County

A study of potential industrial development, population growth, and requirements for municipal and industrial water supplies in the Panhandle-Plains area has been initiated by the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas.

Announcement of the study was made Saturday in Amarillo by H. E. Robbins, regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

The survey, Director Robbins said, will be conducted in 44 counties in Texas to include the trade areas of major cities in the Region. The survey area includes all counties in the north and south Panhandle-Plains Region; Motley, Dickens, and Kent counties to the southeast, and Borden, Dawson, and Gaines counties to the south.

University of Texas research crews, under the direction of Dan C. Hill, Jr., will interview many persons in each of the 44 counties comprising the survey area. Among those to be contacted are heads of business concerns, including petroleum refining plants, smelters chemical and food processing plants, which now use water for industrial purposes; city officials and commanding officers of defense installations. The area's oil, gas, and agricultural resources also will be included in the survey, which is slated for completion next December.

Looking to the future industrial development and water supply requirements in the area, the survey will provide estimates of potential municipal and industrial water use trends in 1960, 1980, and 2000.

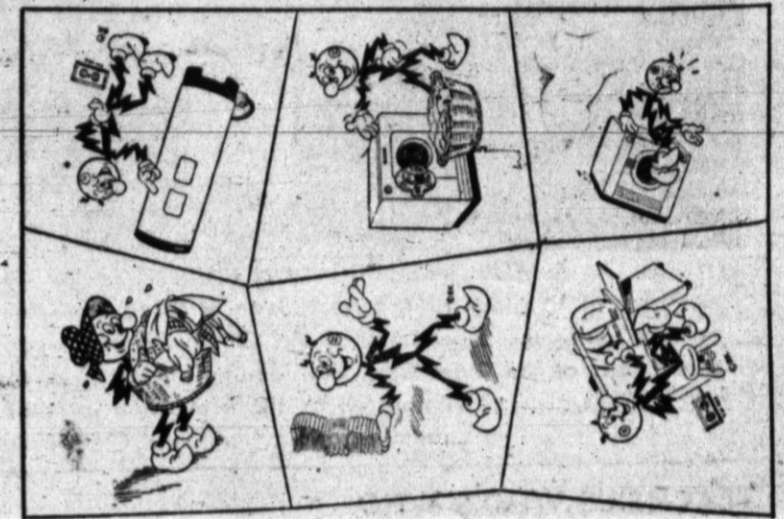

The University's detailed analysis of the many factors that influence industrial expansion and population growth, and which result in increased water requirements, Director Robbins explained, will facilitate planning operations by the Bureau of Reclamation when funds are provided by Congress for construction of the Canadian River Project.

The bill authorizing construction of the $5-million dollar family, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Scott.

Several from this community attended the parade and stock show held in Hereford Saturday afternoon.

Canadian River Project to supply water for 11 cities in the Panhandle-Plains area became law last December when it was signed by President Truman. However, the Congress has not provided funds for construction of the dam on the Canadian River or an aqueduct to transport water to the 11 project cities.

James W. Witherspoon Takes Office as Regent

James W. Witherspoon, Hereford attorney, signed his "oath of office" last week, becoming a regent of Texas A and M College, to which position he was appointed recently by Gov. Allen Shivers.

In addition to the honor of being named to the Board of Directors of Texas A and M, Witherspoon has been listed in Marquis' publication of famous people, "Who's Who in the South and Southwest."

Included in the listing are scientists, educators, newspapermen, lawyers, doctors, etc., from all over the south, who have been screened by appropriate selective standards. Mr. Witherspoon is the only man in Hereford to receive listing in this publication of the A. N. Marquis Co., of Chicago, Ill.

In January, he was notified by Governor Shivers that he had been nominated to serve on the Board of Directors of Texas A and M for a six-year term beginning immediately. Also appointed were H. L. Winfield, Ft. Stockton rancher, banker, and former State Senator, and Bob Allen, Raymondville vegetable grower and shipper.

This is one more honor to be added to those already received, and it is this record that won him the acknowledgement in "Who's Who," where he shares honors with such famous southerners as John Snyder, Tom Clark, Will Clayton, and Clarence Streit.

James Winfred Witherspoon was born in Indianola, Oklahoma, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Witherspoon. He grew up in Bellview, New Mexico, and his ambition, ever since childhood was to be a lawyer. After graduation from high school he attended Montezuma college near Las Vegas, New Mexico, where he received his A. B. degree and then he studied at the law schools of the University of Texas and the University of Oklahoma, being graduated from O. U. with an LL.B. degree in 1929. He had always been especially interested in civil law, and after graduation moved to Hereford where he rented a law office with Judge Carl Gilliland.

He liked Hereford, and his interest in the town increased tremendously when he met Miss Margaret Gilliland, who had just returned from Randolph Macon college. The couple were married and now have two children, Jerry, a sophomore at Hereford high school and Irene, who is in the seventh grade at junior high.

Witherspoon's record in Hereford is a continual one of civic interest, participation and achievement. He has served here, in a legal capacity, first as City Attorney, later as District Attorney of the 69th Judicial District, in 1932, and as district judge from 1940 until 1944. He was the youngest district attorney and the youngest district judge in the history of this area. In 1944 he resigned to re-enter private practice.

He is a member of the Baptist church, a mason and a shiner and holds membership in Phi Alpha Delta, and Sigma Mu Sigma. He belongs to the Odd Fellows Lodge and the Elks.

But in other ways, too, he has been a part of a growing and progressive town. He was a member of the first board of directors of the Hotel Jim Hill and was instrumental in getting the hotel erected. He has served on the board of Deaf Smith County Hospital, is a sustaining member of the Camp Fire Girls, the Boy Scouts, a member of the Hereford Riders and of the Hereford Golf association. He is an active member of the Chamber of Commerce and was one of the influential men from the region who worked so tirelessly to secure the paving of Harrison highway.

This year he is serving as president of the Rotary club which carried out the myriad arrangements necessary to insure the successful Live Stock and Poultry Show which the Rotary club sponsors in Deaf Smith County each year.

But his activities have not been limited to local organizations. He is president of the Ex-students Association of Montezuma college, a member of the Texas Bar and the American Bar Association, a director of the Panhandle Plains Museum, a member of the Will Rogers Range Riders, of Amarillo Businessmen Club and of the Knife and Fork Club.

His interests, as typified by the organizations to which he belongs are varied. His hobbies include particularly his art collection and his personal library. The art collection consists of originals and reproductions in western scenes.

In his personal library are some 7,000 volumes of biography, psychology fiction, history, Bible and reference books.

His legal library, in his office on Main street, is one of the most complete legal libraries this side of Fort Worth, containing about 8,000 volumes of legal encyclopedias, cross references, citations, and special works, and all seven sets of West's Reporter Systems.

The law firm now includes J. W. Witherspoon and John Alken, who came to Hereford in 1946 from his graduation at the law school of the University of Texas. On March 1, Wayne Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zerril Thomas of the Adrian community, who is being graduated this semester from the University of Texas, will join the firm.

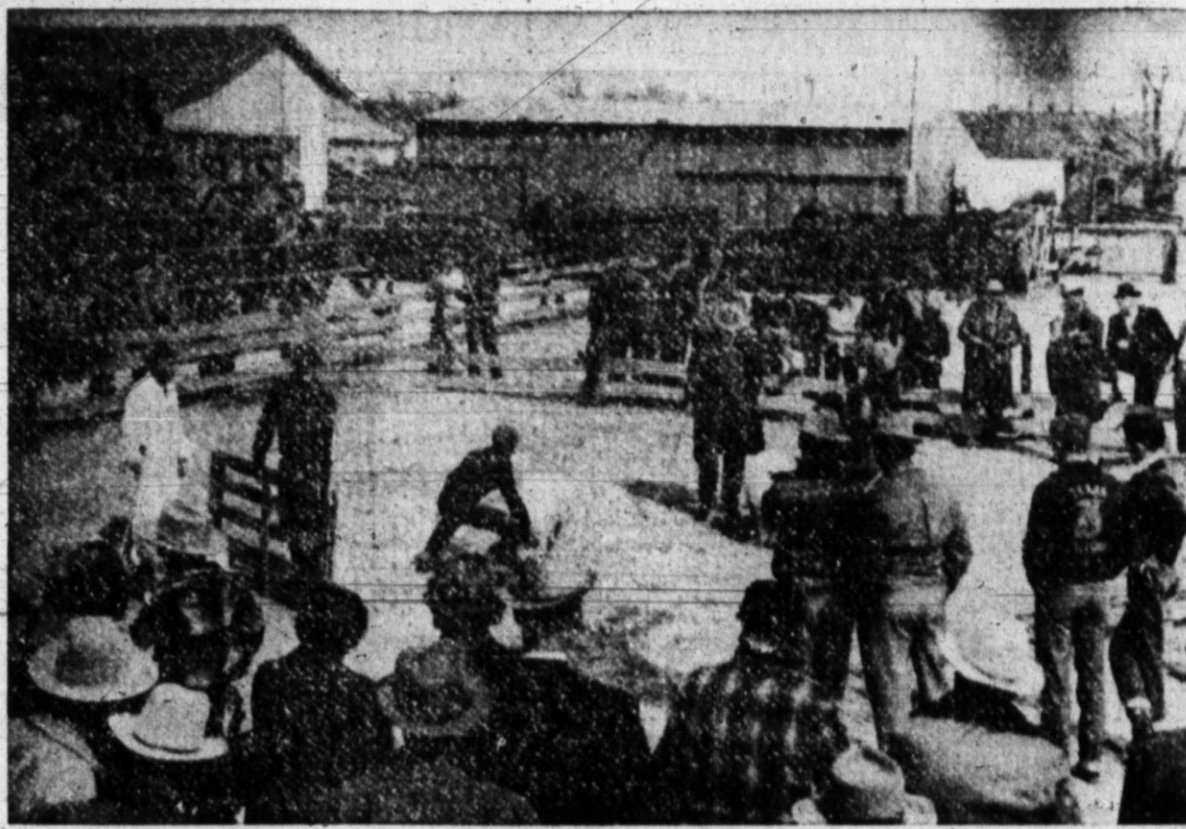

Tommy Frank Pope of Amarillo spent the weekend visiting his cousins, David and Caroline Brumley.

Accident Sunday At Intersection Of Union, Ave. D

Approximately $150 in damage was done to two automobiles involved in a collision Sunday evening at about 6:15 p. m. at the intersection of avenue D and Union street.

Bob Blount of Hereford was driving south on Avenue D and collided with a westbound vehicle being driven by Mrs. Frances Neff, also of Hereford.

Estimates of damage to the front of the Blount car was $50 and about $100 damage to the right rear of the Neff vehicle. Patrolmen Leland Alderson and Ab Ballentine investigated the accident.

Party Honors Sandra Brumley on Birthday

Mrs. Roger Brumley entertained Friday afternoon with a birthday party honoring her daughter, Sandra, on her eighth birthday. Mrs. Brumley was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Joe Marshall.

Refreshments and favors were served to Pam Clay, Colleen Reeyes, Karen Sue Daniel, Anita Turner, Marjorie Sue Muse, Linda Edwards, Mary Lois Coker, Rosie and Carolyn Thomas, Cheri Baker, Caroline Brumley, Sally Whiteside, Jani Sue and Sandra Brumley.

Red Cross Ready If War Comes, Workers Are Told

Protest of Local Men to Road Bill Given to House

The rural road fund bill, which County Commissioners J. C. Morrison, Marian Rutter and C. G. Richardson and Chamber of Commerce Secretary Tom McFarland went to Austin to protest, was killed by the house committee last week. Wednesday the House voted to send it to the Senate Affairs Committee.

Wednesday the House voted to send it to the Senate Affairs Committee of which Rep. Callan Graham, author of the bill measure, is chairman. Graham said he had no further plans at present—"just let it simmer a while."

McFarland said all the gallery and floor were filled Tuesday night with county delegations protesting the bill, which would discontinue distribution of the 1c gas tax refund to counties for road construction.

Acting County Judge A. J. Schroeter said Deaf Smith county has received $100,424.22 from the fund, which was begun in 1940. Last year the total received was $25,000. This fund in Deaf Smith county is used for purchase of right of way for county roads, maintenance, and purchase of road equipment. One local project which benefitted from the fund was the Harrison Highway, Schroeter said.

This bill would eliminate taking 15 million dollars a year from the state's general fund for rural roads. The counties objected on the grounds they had no assurance of each county benefitting from the state handling of the funds.

Yearly Activity Report Of County Court Given

Forty-six indictments for felony were returned in Deaf Smith county during the two-year period from September 1, 1948 to August 31, 1950.

Twenty-one convictions were obtained, resulting in seven suspended sentences and a total of 44 years in prison sentences.

Fifty-six dismissals were granted during the two-year period. During the first part of 1950, Judge Foster cleaned the docket of "dead" cases where the defendant was unknown, where evidence to obtain a conviction was lacking, and for various other reasons which made it impossible to prosecute. Some of the cases were as old as 10 years.

The average cost of contested civil court cases tried in the Deaf Smith county court during 1950 was $15, a report of judicial statistics for the entire year reveals.

Average cost of each uncontested case was $6.

This annual report, on file in the office of the district clerk, shows that 22 divorce cases were pending at the first of the year, 48 were filed during the year and 23 were disposed of during the year, leaving a total of 11 pending at the end of the year.

Thirty-six divorces were granted during the year.

A total of 23 other civil cases were pending at the beginning of 1950 and 56 more were filed during the year. Fifty-six were disposed of during the year, leaving 23 pending at the end of 1950.

Ninety civil suits were disposed of during the year without a jury. Two civil suits were appealed during the year.

Twelve criminal cases were pending at the beginning of the year. Twenty-four were added during the year, and 14 were tried during the year without a jury, one without jury. Twenty-one criminal cases were pending at the end of 1950 and one was appealed during the year.

Only nine civil cases were on the docket at the end of the year without a trial. Two of these were divorces. Four cases were on the docket more than two years without being tried. County Judge Foster spent approximately 24 days during the year in actual court work.

The report stated, January 12 and certified by District Clerk R. L. Thompson.

Treasury Department Clarifies Series 'E' Bond Extension Plan

Clarification on a proposed interest-bearing extension period of 10 years for Series E Savings Bonds was given this week by the U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department.

Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder recently asked Congress to enact enabling legislation so that the treasury could put into effect a plan for handling maturing Series E bonds beginning May 1, 1951. Under this plan, the holder of Series E bonds would have a choice, upon maturity of the bond, of:

Accepting cash as these bonds are cashable at any time; Continuing to hold his present bond, with an automatic interest-bearing extension. Owners who exercise this extension privilege will receive 2 1/2 per cent simple interest for all or any part of the next 7 1/2 years. Interest during the final 2 1/2 years of the extension will bring the total interest to 2.9 per cent department.

Exchanging this matured bond for a current income savings bond of series G.

The House has already passed this legislation and the Senate is expected to approve it in its regular order of business.

The plan will apply to Series E bonds only, including both those sold during the past and those to be sold in the future. The interest-bearing extension is for 10 years only. The plan, if made into law, will go into effect May 1, 1951, which is the 10th anniversary of Series E bonds.

Two important points in connection with the proposal were emphasized by the treasury department.

(1) Holders of matured bonds may cash them in at any time; and

(2) The holder of maturing Series E bonds has the privilege of retaining them for all or any part of another 10 years, but he is under no obligation to do so.

James Wilson of Lubbock was a weekend guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rogers.

U. S. Army Balloon and Instruments Found Here

Charlie Hoover found a U. S. Army balloon and instruments early Saturday morning about 19 miles northwest of Hereford when he was on his way to Hereford from his ranch. This is the second set of instruments found here in recent weeks; however this set was much smaller than the nuclear research equipment found earlier.

Hoover, who was on his way to Littlefield, turned the equipment over to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lawhon and asked them to call The Brand as there was no return address given on the instruments.

The huge rubber balloon was estimated to measure nearly 12 feet in diameter before Hoover released the helium from it in order to bring it to town. As soon as the helium was released, the balloon split. Attached to the balloon by long cotton cords were a foil kite and a plastic and metal box of instruments about 6 inches square. Also attached to the kite was a light bulb, about the size of a marble, with batteries. The bulb was still burning when discovered. Hoover said the instrument box had caught on the barbed wire fence.

Observers were guessing yesterday as to the reason for the instrument some believed it was weather equipment, while others said it had something to do with measuring cosmic rays, as the nuclear research equipment found earlier. There was nothing on the equipment which would indicate the origin of the trip across country. Printed on the instrument box was "Signal Corps, U. S. Army; Radiosonde Modulator; ML-310, G-AMT-1, Order No. 1902-Phila. 50-7, Johnson Service Company, Serial No. 101801. "April 1950" was stamped on the box with a rubber stamp. The instruments appeared to be in very good condition after their flight.

JIMMIE LAWHON, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lawhon, 111 Lake Street, displays Signal Corps equipment found by Charlie Hoover Saturday morning. The instrument box which Jimmie holds in his right hand was attached to the foil kite and the soft rubber balloon, a portion of which may be seen draped over the clothesline. —Brand Staff Photo.

WASHINGTON

Indeed, in troubled times like these, our great heroes of the early days take on new significance and their deeds in behalf of democracy lives on in their memory.

Deeds not words . . . was George Washington's credo. In his memory continues the eternal vigilance for freedom and democracy for which he was so giving of his faith and action.
