

Around Town

SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

Mrs. John Gaetz says the boy asked about in Around Town last week is Jack Miller, son of J. O. Miller of Hereford. Her brother had given him a ride near Sanford, Florida. Miller is a traveling sign painter. Mrs. Gaetz says he is "a boy we all have known for years; the school was Central school—where Miss Ruth Conkright was their teacher. The first to identify this boy were J. V. Campbell and Mrs. Bob Fullwood.

Results of the first game played in the finals of the Canasta Tournament, sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi, showed Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wooddell winners of the best two out of three games over Mr. and Mrs. Odean Nixon; however, the Nixons are not out of the tournament as the finals are held in round robin fashion. The games were very close with the Wooddells winning the first game of the evening and losing the second. In the final game, the Nixons lacked only 70 points being out at the beginning of the last hand. The Wooddells by making some naturals won the game with a score of 6860 to 5965.

E. C. Hulsey and Dallas Phillips have been named winning man's team for the Canasta Tourney, Charles Sanders and Bobby Jennings having forfeited their game to them as Jennings was out-of-town. Hulsey and Phillips are entitled to a large number of valuable prizes.

The last four man-wife teams remaining in the tourney, including the three teams in the finals, the Bruce Wooddells, Odean Nixons, and Frank Cogdells, and Mr. and Mrs. John McCleskey, who held top score except for the teams in the finals, are entitled to $5 credit at Corbett Cleaners.

Business sessions for the Panhandle County and District Clerks' Association meeting to be held Saturday at Hotel Jim Hill will begin at 3 p.m. Election of officers will also be held during the afternoon. The banquet will begin at 7:30 p.m. with Bob Wear as speaker.

Dr. Will F. Graham, local dentist, has received his orders to report for physical examination next week. Graham holds the rank of Lieutenant, junior grade in the naval reserves.

Griffin Fined For Worthless Check

Gene H. Griffin of Hereford was fined $5 and costs of $33.50 in county court Monday when he pled guilty to passing a worthless check.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hall were Mr. and Mrs. George Collier of Temple.

Engineers Will Begin Work For Rural Telephone Co-Op

Engineers are expected to arrive in Hereford the latter part of this week or early next week to conduct their final studies before preparing wire diagrams to be used by the West Texas Telephone Cooperative in constructing an estimated 500 miles of rural telephone lines in Deaf Smith and Parmer counties.

An official figure on the line mileage is contingent upon the final studies to be made by the engineers. Some of the areas originally counted on in the initial program will not be served at the present time.

Sign-ups in these areas are not progressing rapidly enough to allow the required equity to be reached by the April 1 deadline set for meeting the goal.

Negotiations for some connecting service is limited membership in the WTTC, according to Leo Forrest, manager of the Deaf Smith county REA.

Nazareth, Flagg and Dimmitt subscribers will probably be left out of the set-up for the present time because the cooperative could not reach extended area service or switching agreements with T. A. Singer, owner of West Texas Telephone Company in Dimmitt.

Subscribers in the Nazareth area have indicated that if they cannot see cooperation with Dimmitt, they will ask the board of the WTTC to withdraw from that organization and will seek to join with the Tulla cooperative.

Meanwhile, subscriptions in Bovina and Farwell have moved along fast enough that they will be included in the network to be constructed with the initial loan funds.

A request for a release of funds to proceed with construction will be made when the diagrams have been completed by the engineers, Forrest said. The full amount, with a "hold" on the funds necessary for the Castro county work, will be sought.

Although final placing of the automatic exchanges will not be determined until after the wire centers for the various areas are ascertained by the engineers, present plans seem to indicate the installation of six of these exchanges. Their approximate locations would be:

One in the Dawn area; one in the Progressive area; one between Hereford and Summerfield; one tentatively for the Friona area; and one in the Bovina and one in the Farwell areas.

Shortly after the funds are released by the REA in Washington, bids for the construction will be let, Forrest said.

Two Suffer Minor Injuries After Car Rolls Twice

Three persons escaped serious injury at 6:40 Monday night when the 1950 Pontiac in which they were riding rolled over twice after hitting a pick-up truck four miles north of Hereford on Highway 51.

Gene Griffin, 21, of Hereford, and Jack Graham, 31, of Vega were released from the Deaf Smith county hospital Tuesday morning after being treated for bruises and shock. The third man in the car was a marmon of Amarillo, who was the driver and owner of the car, was uninjured.

Millard Gregory of Route 4, Hereford, driver of the 1950 Ford pick-up was not injured.

Both vehicles were traveling north at the time of the accident. Gregory was anticipating a turn west off the Highway at the Four-Mile Crossing. He looked in his rear-view mirror and saw the Harmon vehicle approaching and didn't try to make the turn, but went straight on down the road.

The Harmon vehicle hit the right rear fender of the pick-up and rolled over twice on the right side of the highway. The Harmon vehicle ended up 87 yards from where it first hit the Gregory vehicle, Deputy Sheriff S. B. Berry said.

Damage to the Pontiac was estimated at $1600 and the Ford sustained damage totaling about $85.

Kuykendall Fined For Hot Check

Jack Kuykendall of Hereford was fined $25 and $28.30 costs in county court Wednesday for passing a worthless $10 check at Phillips and Lawrence Service station earlier in the day.

Face Local Water Control Problem

Local control of underground water is the big problem facing landowners and property owners in the irrigation district, according to Tom McFarland, president of the Deaf Smith County Water Users Association, who has called a meeting of farmers and voters of the City of Hereford Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the county court room.

No County, Walcott School Trustee Races Indicated

Filing deadlines for the Walcott independent school district trustee and county school trustee races failed to uncover any contests in either elections.

In the Walcott district, one director is to be named for a three-year term to replace Board President Phillip Miller, who has not filed to be placed on the ticket.

The name of Julian Perrin was entered on the ticket by a petition bearing five names filed Monday at the county judge's office.

In the county school trustee election, three commissioner's precincts have election this year, and the three incumbents have been nominated to run for reelection.

In the next few weeks, the farmers, as well as the voters of the City of Hereford will be asked to vote on the proposed 21-county Panhandle-South Plains water district. Since the voters of Hereford will be asked to vote on the measure, they, as well as farmers of the area, are urged to attend the meeting, McFarland said.

If the district is voted, a bond election will be voted at the same time to finance the conservation program. Authorities contemplate a tax of 1 cent per acre on irrigated land, a total of $640 per section, would be more than adequate to provide money to carry on the work.

The proposed 21-county district would not have the power to keep a farmer from drilling a well, but the district would have the power to space the well and would have power to conserve water by such measures as draining unnecessary lakes into the underground reservoirs. The district would also have power to spend money to study the needs and best means of conserving water. John Aikin, vice-president of the local association, pointed out.

McFarland said the main purpose of the Saturday meeting is to discuss the conservation district, answer questions pertaining to it, and determine what questions need answering in regard to the situation.

The Texas legislature in 1949 approved the farmer-sponsored underground water conservation district law as an alternative to a state-control measure offered. The act provides that the districts shall protect, conserve, and re-charge the ground water supply.

Since passage of the act in 1949, two efforts have been made to pass state-control measures. Aikin states it is time for the farmers to indicate whether they want to control their own underground water or whether they want the state to control it.

Bob Wear Winner of Toastmaster Area Speech Meet at Amarillo

Bob Wear, member of the Hereford Toastmaster's club, won first place in the organization's area-wide speech contest held at Amarillo's Hotel Herring Saturday evening.

Wear's speech entitled, "Four Symbols of Our Heritage" was adjudged best out of a field of six entries who came from Amarillo, Dalhart, Borger, Plainview, Lubbock, and Hereford.

As winner of the area-wide contest, Wear will represent this section in the zone speech contest to be held in the near future, possibly at Dallas.

Members of the area at the meeting voted to bring the area contest to Hereford in 1952, Wear said.

In addition to making the winning speech, Wear also delivered the keynote address at the banquet in the hotel's Crystal ballroom.

Wear participated in the area contest by virtue of winning local contests held earlier here.

Body Found in Oklahoma May Be Brother of Friona Woman

Mrs. E. R. Day (Brand Friona Correspondent)

FRIONA—The body of a man believed to be Haskel (Hack) Hutton, brother of Mrs. Clyde London of Friona, was found Monday in an old well-house near Mangum, Okla.

Medical authorities at Mangum stated that, from the condition of the body, death had occurred about three months ago.

Grandfather of Mrs. E. H. Cole Died at Anson Tuesday

R. Y. Rogers of Anson, grandfather of Mrs. E. H. Cole of Hereford, died Tuesday at his home in Anson, Texas following a two-week illness.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Presbyterian church in Anson. Mr. and Mrs. Cole and son L. H. Wednesday for Anson to attend the rites.

Investigation is still going on as to the cause of the death and no indications have been given as to whether foul play was involved.

The Londons were notified by telephone Monday of the finding of the body. Papers found on the body identified the dead man as Hutton.

Mr. and Mrs. London and Dave Mosley left immediately for Mangum to identify the body. Papers showed that Hutton had been released from the County General hospital in Los Angeles. The dead man had one leg in a cast and a pair of crutches lay nearby.

Tentative identification of the dead man as Hutton was made from dental work and hair by London and Mosley, but the man's father was unable to make a positive identification at the time.

Efforts to clarify the information listed on the note found on the body are being made by contacting the hospital in Los Angeles.

If positive identification is set at $1500 on each count.

made that the body is that of Hutton, the body will be brought to Friona where burial will be made beside the body of his mother, who died a few years ago. At the time of his mother's death, Hutton could not be located.

Hutton served in World War II.

I figure she's got something, too. If we could get Sam Spade and Mr. X and a lot of those guys working for the government, things would soon be all right.

Bruce Woodell, who looks like the West's No. 1 badman, has a most unusual growth of whiskers and, despite his awe-inspiring appearance, seems to be actually proud of them. I can't see how the president of the Chamber of Commerce could be proud of looking like a tramp, but he is mighty happy. Says to send this B. N. Nelson of Dimmitt around to see him and see if he still calls us "sis-sy".

Dale Timman and Lloyd Sharp have a contest going on this whisker business. If either shaved he has to push the other down Main Street in a wheel barrow—and the winner is allowed to have any wording on a sign which he may carry with him. This is the deal and I'm betting neither of them weakens before May 19. Dale, of course, has very few whiskers—and a decided advantage. However, he's unhappy because of their blonde color and has been touching them up with black shoe polish. His daughter, Dalene, told off on him and the boys have been giving Dale a fit.

What's the deal on the new school trustee ticket? Carl McCaslin is threatening to sue us because his name was in the paper; I guess someone must have filed him without his knowledge. Anyway, it was filed and I'm sure that he can't withdraw. It is a good deal to see several candidates out for any office, more especially that of school trustee. The school system is spending more dollars and cents each year than any other county, public or private business firm in the community. Qualified, capable trustees are highly important. Several candidates leave the voters a wider range of choice and tends to create more interest in the election.

Just back from a short tour of the Bowery district—and they are really burning about this whisker business. They are planning on turning tables and ducking everyone who does have whiskers. Odice Bulls says for every fellow who gets ducked for not having whiskers, let's duck two who do have whiskers, then he added, "If we can't find two, we'll duck one twice".

It's getting so a man can't tell what to do around here. Notice that Jim Wheelan and Harold Close each have little, fancy mustaches. Guess they figure to win in either case. It could work the other way, though. Both sides might duck them.

Ernest Medkief has the thing figured out best of anyone let, though. He is going to get a pair of bathing trunks, a bar of soap, a towel and utilize the tank for free bathing purposes. Says Ernest: "If everyone would do this, we could keep about 15 in the tank all of the time—and there wouldn't be room left to duck anyone from either side.

If you happen to be a doting parent and it appears to you that the small fry are over-emphasizing Easter egg hunting in recent years, don't be fooled. Take the case of Mrs. Joe Beyer. She still has to dye eggs for Joe each year. She fixed him some this year—and Joe is clipping near the 75-year mark. I don't know if she hid them or not. Joe is crazy about kids—and he probably gets a lot of kick out of them. Mrs. J. A. Loerwald was also delivering Easter eggs around the neighborhood. She said they liked to fix them and give them away to children they know. She said they dyed 72 eggs this year. This is a wonderful, wonderful spirit—and it does show that the old Easter Bunny has been doing a swell job down through the years.

Mrs. T. E. Seigler blew in

Tuesday to get some Brands to send to Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Barnett, who are busy touring Europe. She said they requested the Brands be sent to the Grand Hotel, Paris, France, where they will arrive this week end. She said a letter this morning and said it took three days from Switzerland. She also mailed one and said it cost 15 cents per half-ounce, air mail.

Bud was telling them just before they left about visiting with Guy Lombardo in Dallas. Barnett went into a booking agency to see about an orchestra for the Lions Convention here May 1-2, and Lombardo happened to be in the office. He told Barnett that he would here and play on his tour next year. Said he had heard of Hereford often and quoted Carmen Cavallaro, who played here for the opening, as saying that Hereford had a "Little Shamrock hotel. Anyway, Guy Lombardo wants to come to Hereford; according to Bud, he is asking for it. Considering the number of Lombardo fans in this area, it sounds logical to book him. This is the one big orchestra in the country that would probably pay for its way in Hereford.

I have been wondering about A. W. Erickson's statement that by spraying greenbugs, cutworms, etc., we are killing off all of the friendly bugs—and are creating a most serious problem. Provided he is correct, and it does sound logical, what about the human race and these anti-biotics we are taking? Won't the same situation hold true? If we take enough sulfas and penicillins and anti-histamines, won't we sooner or later follow the same trend as have resulted from bug spraying? Won't our resistances be weakened to an alarming point? Is this possible?

Notice where Argentina claims a "cut-rate" atom bomb. I doubt this very much, but it is possible. I was fuming and frothing at the mouth about this situation Sunday and yelled out, "Don't the U. S. have any spies? It seems like Russia keeps plenty over here." "Sure we have," calmly replied my wife, "but they're all on the

Hereford School Race Widens to Eight Men

Voters in the Hereford Rural High School District will have eight candidates to choose from on April 7, when they select three men to serve as trustees on the board of education for terms of three years' duration.

The latest person to be entered in the race is Jack Higgins. A petition nominating Higgins was filed with Tax Collector Fred Baird on Monday. Tuesday night was deadline for filing nominations.

Previous filings were made for the three incumbent trustees:

A. J. Schroeter, S. H. Slagle, and W. T. Kelly. The names of Stuart Condon Jr., B. M. Wiltshire, Carl G. McCaslin, and Robert Wagoner were filed last week.

Candidates for the trustee vacancies filed Anti-Communist affidavits to have their name entered as a candidate for the race.

The affidavit, which was authorized by the Texas legislature at its last session, was first required at last year's elections.

Construction Material Allotment For Local REA Begins on April 1

Effective April 1, the use of copper and aluminum conductors for construction and expansion will be allotted to Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, according to Leo Forrest, manager.

The local cooperative has been under voluntary allotment for the past two months, Forrest said. The program allotting use of these critical items has been administered by the Rural Electrification Administration engineering division.

Forrest said that there is at the present time a difference of opinion between the National Rural Electric Cooperatives Association in the handling of critical items used in construction. The NRECA is trying to get the Secretary of Interior and the head of the DEPA to allot a fair share of critical items to all cooperatives throughout the nation. The NRECA advocates the REA in Washington handling the program allotting material to each individual cooperative, because they have the personnel and know what each cooperative needs.

LESS TAXES FOR RANCHERS

The U. S. Court of Appeals at New Orleans recently announced that all gains from sale of breeding animals held more than six months are taxable as capital gain. Heretofore the government contended that the sale of cows and bulls culled from a breeding herd could be considered capital gain only when the sales were aimed at reducing the herd. The Treasury Department claimed sales which did not reduce the herd were taxable as ordinary income.

Bobbies Take Edge in Texas-Iowa Cage Rivalry, Beat Hansell 38-30

The Dimmitt Bobbies, Texas McKamie league state girls basketball champions, trounced the Iowa state champs, the Hansell Queens, by a score of 38 to 30 in the fifth annual meeting of the two top teams last Saturday night at the Drake fieldhouse in Des Moines.

This is the second straight year the Bobbies have mastered their counterparts from the Tall Corn state, having dumped Slater, the Iowa 1950 titlist, at Waco last year by a 47-20 score. Texas now leads in the series with three victories as against two losses. Texas leads in total points for the five contests, 176-156.

The Bobbies took a commanding 12-1 lead in the early minutes of the first quarter and were never headed by the Iowa champs. At the end of the first quarter, the score was 16-3. At the half, the Texas titleholders were leading by a 26-9 margin, and at the end of the third quarter, Hansell had closed the gap slightly, but the Bobbies were ahead 34-21.

Offensively, Lometa Odum, all-state junior forward for Dimmitt took the honors for the night with 10 field goals, scoring 20 of the winners' 38 points. Forward Mary Nelson took second high-scoring honors for the out-of-staters with 14 points. Johnny Godfrey sank two baskets for the victors. Dimmitt's scoring was done by these forwards.

On defense, the brightest performance of the game by far was the masterful guarding displayed by Maurine Smithson, Dimmitt's all-state guard, who held the Queens' top-scorer Alberta Van Dyke, to only eight points.

Hansell's star had previously made an average of 35 points per game.

All of Hansell's scoring was made by three casters, as was the case with the Texans. Hansell Star Mary Harper scored 16 points for the losers. Hansell's fastest forward, Shirley Thompson, was held to six points. Miss Thompson made 20 field goals in a county tournament this year.

In taking the decisive win from the Iowa champions, Dimmitt made 62 per cent of their baskets while the hosts made only 29 per cent of their shots.

The terrific defensive play of Guard Maurine Smithson in guarding Hansell's fireball Alberta Van Dyke ended her chances for breaking a total of 1000 points in games this season. The Queen came into the game with a season total of 984 and was limited to a mere eight points by Miss Smithson's stellar performance.

Dimmitt came into the game which is recognized nationally as the top interscholastic contest of the year—with a record of 32 won two-lost. Hansell claimed a 29-5 record in making its way to the top of Iowa girls' basketball play.

In state tourney play, Hansell had compiled a point total of $244, while the Bobbies had a total of 189. The Queens' opponents ran up 244 points and the Bobbies has 107 points scored against them.

The game was played under Texas rules. A crowd of 5,000 persons witnessed the event.

CONGRESSMAN ROGERS REPORTS

House Warns Bureaus of Cuts in Appropriations; Air Contracts

Government Economy: The uprising in the House of Representatives this past week is a mere mild reminder of what is to come. The appropriations committee and sub-committees are working day and night to cut every possible dollar off of the non-defense appropriations. Last week the full house decided that the committees had not reduced appropriations enough and pared them further. Congressman Gene Cox of Georgia told the House that this action was notice to the bureaucrats that the "honeymoon" was over. To fully appreciate what these cuts mean, we must understand that they were reductions in the appropriations for basic departments of the government—treasury, post office, and so forth. This action of cutting these basic departments is a good indication that the many departments that have been established in the last few years can get ready for a good trimming when the appropriations bills get to the floor. One of the sub-committees is doing an excellent job of cutting down the expenses of the military, and I can assure that the military is not going to get all they are asking for. They had better get their shop in order to see that every dollar spent shows a full dollar's return. This is not a temporary situation. It is a definite recognition of the need for reduced government expenditures on a permanent basis. The moving force is the solid bloc of Southern and Southwestern Jeffersonian Democrats. Our weight is beginning to be felt. We are getting up a full head of steam and you can expect some drastic results.

Defense Contract Discrepancies: The Congress is already uncovering some bad, if not dishonest, practices in carrying out construction work under defense contracts. There could be a repetition of many things that happened during World War II. For example, on a New York project it was discovered that one man on the payroll was shown to have worked ten hours a day straight for four days, 23 hours and a half each day for the next three days, and then ten hours a day for the following days. The 23 and a half hour days are time and a half and double-time days. Anyone knows that it would be physically impossible for a human being to do this, and this Congress is going to stop that sort of dishonesty, regardless of whose head has to fall. This is just one example and there are a number of others. This sordid type of treasury robbing is being fully investigated and will be fully aired.

Senate Crime Investigation Committee: Lots of publicity—no prosecutions. If this crime investigation is going to be successfully carried out, there must be some prosecutions and some deportations, and these must come before the investigations of the committee have been forgotten.

It is reliably rumored that some of those on the Government payroll who are conducting and helping conduct these investigations are planning on using the material gathered to write a book. This material has all been gathered at a tremendous expense to the taxpayers and if it is used by any of these Government people for personal gain purposes, the profits should all go to the Government to help repay the taxpayers for the expense. If this information is used for private gain by the investigators, those investigators should be investigated.

Ceiling Prices: The city-born and bred officials of the OPS appear dead set on fixing controls on raw cotton and livestock on the hoof. If they carry out these threats, they are going to find that such procedure will amount to production control, rather than price control. What this country needs is a few good sound level-headed farmers and ranchers in some of those official positions.

Personal: Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn appointed me as Speaker Pro Tempore during a part of one of the recent sessions. Needless to say, I was quite overwhelmed by the honor. It would be impossible to express in words the deep emotional feeling and the sense of responsibility one has in presiding over the greatest representative body in the history of the world.

Referee Has Lively Night In Saturday Wrestling Card

There was action aplenty at the Bull barn last Saturday night in the double main-event wrestling card sponsored by the Hereford Lions club.

The referee for the bout saw almost as much action as the combatants as Jack Papenheim and Ivan Kalmikoff, in their separate bouts, tried to take their irritation out on the referee. Both lost their respective bouts, too, for their extra-curricular fistfuffs.

About the only one who didn't take his indignation out on the third man in the ring last Saturday was the 385-pound wrestling alligator which was pinned by Tuffy Truesdell in about 4 minutes.

Now for a blow-by-blow of Saturday night's engagements: In the first bout, a two-out-of-three-falls affair between Jack Papenheim of Troutdale, Ore., and Gust Johnson of Seattle, the first fall went to Papenheim after 16 minutes with a double crab.

Johnson countered, taking the second fall after eight minutes with a surfboard. Johnson was awarded the third fall and the bout after Papenheim was disqualified for roughness. Papenheim didn't take too well with the referee's decision and turned his belligerence to where the referee got the most of it, and lost the bout on account of it.

The rough and tough Russian, Ivan Kalmikoff from Rostov, won the first fall of his two-out-of-three bout from Billy Weidener after 15 minutes with a Sherry toe-hold.

Weidener took the second fall in 17 minutes with a short arm scissors.

Kalmikoff didn't take to this treatment too well, got angry, and started a fight in earnest. Both Weidener and Kalmikoff ended up out of the ring and the Russian knocked Weidener out. He got Billy's head under the underpinnings of the rope and started choking him. The referee pulled the Russian from Rostov off and awarded the bout to Weidener.

In the special feature match, Tuffy Truesdell of Canada gave a performance wrestling a 385-pound alligator. He also gave a talk on the alligator.

John Tarleton at Stevensville, were home for the week end.

Tommy Laceywell, student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Laceywell, Saturday and Sunday.

USDA Urges Construction of More On-Farm Grain Storage

The Department of Agriculture is asking farmers to increase their farm grain storage facilities, according to word received from the USDA this week by Faust Collier, Deaf Smith County Production and Marketing Association chairman.

Purpose of the USDA's stressing increased facilities is to help ease the pressure on scarce box-cars during the coming grain season.

The Commodity Credit Corporation's 85 per cent of cost loan program for building additional storage facilities is aimed at meeting this request for more storage, Collier said.

This loan program, whereby 85 per cent of the construction cost is loaned by the CCC, will expire on June 30, 1951.

Since its beginning in the summer of 1949, the program has aided in constructing storage facilities of 1,371,251 bushels of grain. A total of $245,734.77 has been loaned through this program, a five-year, four per cent loan. Of this amount, $88,000 was loaned in 1950.

Eighty-five construction loans were made during the entire life of the program in Deaf Smith county, Collier said.

Total estimated storage capacity in Deaf Smith county is about 5,500,000 bushels.

Farm storage facility loans are available through the CCC directly, to many tenant, land

Second Annual Junior Hi Track Meet Is Tomorrow

It's News to Me

Hi there everyone! Yep, it's me again.

Before you continue reading this piece—stop and think—have you finished all your lessons? If you have you may continue otherwise—"Crack" those books.

I suppose all of you have gotten over the Easter holidays. Anyway you should have by now.

I have heard that a bunch of HHS students were at Lawton for the Easter services. Can you imagine any HHS student getting up that early?

The "itty bitty" Seniors had an Easter egg hunt last Thursday night after play practice. Looked like they were enjoying it even if it was dark or maybe that was the reason they were enjoying it so much.

This may be a little late but I would like to congratulate (or should it be felicitate) our track team for the fine job they did at the 5-way meet a week or so ago. Keep it up!

Anytime you hear any howling or crying around the halls don't try to find someone who is in pain; it is merely the seniors having to give until it hurts. Senior pictures this time, you know!

Say kids, don't you think that you could help the looks of HHS halls if you would close your locker doors. It wouldn't take very much effort and you'll have to admit that it would make the place look nicer.

We are certainly proud of our girls' volley ball team and the grand work they've been doing. Keep up the good work, girls, HHS is behind you all the way.

The Juniors you see running around whispering behind their hands aren't revealing the secret of the A-bomb; they are merely discussing plans for the dilly of a Jr.-Sr. Banquet they are going to put on in the near future.

Well, that's about all the dirt I've picked up this week but I'll be back with more next week.

The second annual Junior High school track meet will be held here Friday afternoon beginning at 1:45 with five teams participating. H. V. Stanton, Junior High principal, announced this week. Canyon, Tutia, Farwell, and Vega have accepted invitations to compete.

The Hereford Junior High school, hosts at the meet, will present two trophies — one to the winning team and one to the runner-up.

Ribbons will be given the first four places in each event, Stanton said. With 12 events planned for the afternoon, the meet probably will end about 4 or 4:30.

I. L. Whitfield is coaching the Hereford Junior Hi team, having replaced Kenneth Mays, who coached the boys about a week before resigning to move to Fort Worth.

Events scheduled include 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 70-yard low hurdle, 440-yard relay, 880-yard relay, 800 yard run; chinning bar, broad jump, high jump, 8 pound shot put, discus, and football throw. The shot put and discus were added this year for the first time.

Coming Events

Axtell by Prince Domino Mischievous and out of Prima Dona 2nd by Prince Imperial, the bull that Mrs. Braddock paid $21,000 for back in 1919, is expected to be quite an addition to Mrs. Bradley's herd.

Mrs. Bradley has probably the oldest registered Hereford herd in the Southwest. She and her husband started in the registered cattle business before 1900, and have been improving their Herefords by the line breeding method since that time. Practically every good herd in Deaf Smith county today, got a part of its foundation stock from the Bradley her. The City of Hereford received its name from the first registered herd of Herefords that L. H. Bradley and Pat Jowell brought to the southwest.

A cat and four kittens have been adopted by a childless man at the L. F. Borden home. The warmth from the hen's body attracted the blind kittens and they nosed under her. She accepted the responsibility and then decided to take in the old cat too. The mother cat was as far under the hen as she could get with her head sticking out on one side and her tail on the other.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
Three good rains is the Panhandle record for this week.

This has been the banner year in the entire history of our public schools, 430 pupils having enrolled to date against 350 pupils last year. With the present outlook, we can safely count on an enrollment of 550 next session.

No incorporation — The election which was held in this city on Tuesday of this week for the purpose of incorporating Hereford resulted in the measure's being defeated by a vote of 56 to 77. This means that Hereford will not be permitted to put on city airs for some time to come but since the majority have thus decided, the minority must good-naturedly resign themselves to the situation and await patiently for the time when their fond hopes may be realized.

We this week had occasion to visit the Hereford Nursery which is not kept by irrigation, but by cultivation. Just as the farmer plows, harrows and then harrows again the lands which he intends to plant to wheat or oats, likewise does Mr. Landrum in the routine work of caring for his orchards. It is a noticeable fact that his trees live better and make a more rapid growth without a drop of irrigation than similar trees elsewhere in the town and country which have an abundance of irrigation but little or no cultivation.

Hereford will present the appearance of an altogether different town if the brick buildings which are now being planned are erected. The Brand has always had the utmost confidence in Hereford's finally becoming one of the best towns in Texas west of Ft. Worth, and we are still of this opinion. The town has sufficient agricultural lands tributary, when developed, to sustain a city of 10,000 to 15,000 people.

25 Years Ago
Word has just been received from the owners of the Hereford Gin Company that the local gin will be overhauled and placed in first class condition during the summer months so that it will be in shape to handle the large acreage of cotton which is expected to be planted in this vicinity.

The local Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the cotton industry in Deaf Smith county and will do everything possible to encourage the farmers to plant around twenty-five per cent of their land in cotton.

One of the greatest snows that ever fell in the Panhandle country, considered from the standpoint of quality and timeliness, began falling about seven o'clock last Monday morning and continued almost steadily throughout Monday and Tuesday. Back yards were almost impassable and the sidewalks in Hereford were piled high with snow-banks. The moisture obtained from the rain and the snow has simply solved the problem for 1926 and means a tremendous wheat crop as well as a gorgeous season in the ground for other crops and for grass. There is a wide smile on the faces of the people of the Plains.

Contract was let this week for 40 blocks of paving for Hereford cracking good trade for city and property owners was put through by city commissioners, Mayor E. S. Ireland, C. H. Dyer and J. O. Newell.

Grain Figure Shows In Wood Veneer

Mass-produced furniture with a "personalized" appearance for each piece is being made by using carefully selected hardwood face veneers.

Although two pieces are alike in design, each displays a different wood grain figure. For example, the top of one table might be of hardwood veneer with a narrow stripe grain, and a similar table might have a top in which the wood grain runs in curly, wavy lines.

KEEPING DUST DOWN

Here is a way to keep the dirt floor of a garage free of dust. Sprinkle calcium chloride over the floor surface. Absorbing moisture from the air, the chemical will keep the dirt damp.

R. E. DICKSON
"He Made Water Walk"

On the rolling plains of West Texas, where an annual average rainfall of 20 inches creates the most serious problem for agriculture, Ray E. Dickson will be long remembered as "the man who made water walk." In his 36 years as superintendent of the Texas Experiment Substation at Spur, this Texas A. and M. researcher led the way to full use of the country's precious rainfall through development of sycuan terraces. He learned and then preached that the rainfall of the plains country was sufficient, if properly conserved. He proved that water conservation is the quickest way to soil saving. On the basis of his pioneering much of the work of the national Soil Conservation Service was established.

Film Tells Veneer Story

"Faces and Figures" an educational sound-color film portraying the romantic operations of a growing industry, is available without charge to service clubs, veterans' organizations, civic and other groups, and to universities, colleges and high schools.

A camera crew, traveling more than 10,000 miles, spent six months in photographing the story of hardwood veneer and plywood and its important role in modern living.

Brought to the screen in full color is Nature's priceless beauty—caught by the camera's eye in the forests of distant lands, and in the rich, handsome natural wood figures revealed in hardwood veneer. Complete in every detail, the picture traces the progress of a tree felled in some distant forest through hardwood plywood and veneer mills to the finished product, possibly the cabinet of the television set in your living room.

The film illustrates methods of processing wood veneers and matching faces to obtain the unusual designs which can be produced only in plywood construction. Shown also are the countless and varied uses of hardwood veneer and plywood in high quality furniture, radio and television cabinets, pianos, wall paneling and other architectural applications.

A print of "Faces and Figures" may be obtained from the Veneer Association, 600 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago 5, Ill., co-sponsor of the picture with the Hardwood Plywood Institute. The 16 millimeter film is presented in 28 minutes.

a NEIGHBOR doesn't have to live next door

There are more than five and one-half million families joined together in The Equitable Society, families from every state in the union. In a real sense, they are all neighbors—close neighbors.

They've banded together in a mutual society to achieve a mutual aim—security. The cooperation of that huge group has created protection and peace of mind for every individual family.

Mutual cooperation, the cornerstone of neighborliness, enables these families to enjoy financial security at an expenditure so low it is readily available to almost everyone—a cost made insignificant thanks to cooperative association.

Yes, the nearly six million neighbors in The Equitable Society come from all corners of the United States. Actively practicing the friendly code of true neighborliness, they are helping each other to enjoy economic worry-free years, fuller, happier lives.

Draft Head Lists Changes In Status To Be Reported

Austin — Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, last week reminded all men registered with local draft boards that the law requires them to report any change in personal status to their respective boards.

The state director pointed to the following things which would be regarded as a change of personal status:

- 1. Change of address. This is a change in the address at which a man expects to receive his mail.
2. Change in marital status. If a man marries, he should advise the local board of the name of the person he marries, the place and date of marriage, and the name of county in which the marriage is recorded. If he has children, date and place of birth should be recorded. If he becomes separated, divorced, or his wife dies, this should be reported.
3. Change of job. The local board should be advised only if this is a permanent change.
4. Change in physical status. If a man has had a serious injury or has otherwise acquired a physical defect, it should be reported. It should be reported whether it is permanent or temporary.
5. Students. If a man becomes a student in a school, college, or university, this fact should be reported.
6. Members of armed forces reserves or National Guard. If a man enters any of these, he should advise the local board, giving date of entry and name of organization.
7. Rejections by the armed forces. If a man has attempted to volunteer for the army, navy, air force, or any other branch of the armed services and has been rejected, he should advise the local board.

Much of this information is vital in determining proper classification of any man. The law requires men to keep local boards advised about such matters. All such information, if submitted by letter or card, must be signed by the man himself.

MORRIS G. COBB REPORTS

Slot Machines and Appropriation Bill Are Before State Lawmakers

The primary concern of the Legislature has resolved itself into the consideration of the voluminous general Appropriation Bill. On March 20 the Senate approved its Appropriation Bill calling for $165,000,000 for the operation of the state during the next two years.

The major part of the work in the House Appropriation Bill is scheduled to be done during the week of March 28. After the House has completed its revision of the measure, the Bill will go to a Conference Committee for a final determination. Following the completion of the Appropriations Bill the Committee on Revenue and Taxation will be charged with the responsibility of recommending such tax measures as will be required to carry on the program of the State, during the fiscal years of 1952 and 1953.

The current legislation outlawing the possession, ownership, transportation, or storing of all forms of slot machines has been approved in both the Senate and the House Committees on Criminal Jurisprudence. Law enforcement officers all over the State have taken an active interest in the passage of this legislation. It has been pointed out that organized crime and crime syndicates are principally financed through slot machine revenue.

On the morning of March 19 Governor Allan Shivers signed, in the presence of the authors, of the High Plains area. During the past week the Senate and the House Committees on State Affairs approved recommended increases in the salaries of our District Court Judges, Courts of Civil Appeals Judges, Courts of Criminal Appeals Judges, and Justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

The largest piece ever coined was a Swedish ten-daler piece. This cumbersome coin, dated 1685, is of solid copper and weighs about 45 lbs.
