HISD target of TRLA suit

By KIM THOGMARTIN
Staff Writer
Attorneys with Texas Rural Legal Aid in Hereford Tuesday filed a suit against the Hereford Independent School District in Federal District Court in Amarillo.

The action followed a dispute of several months duration concerning the present at-large voting district method of electing school board members.

Local spokesman Randall Marshall said, "Our clients regret that the HISD Board of Trustees have decided to take no action on single-member districting. As a result, our clients feel they are forced to seek judicial relief as we have filed an action on their behalf in Federal District Court."

Action follows school board's decision not to act on voting district proposal

The basis of the claim is that at-large voting discriminates against minority members of the school district. Marshall said the suit charges the school board with being in violation of the Voting Rights Act along with the 14th and 15th Amendments, which deal with due process and equal protection and the right to vote.

The suit, which asks for a change in voting methods, is similar to others being filed throughout Texas and the United States, according to Marshall. He said many of those suits have been successful.

School board members had met with attorneys on several occasions to discuss the possibility of a law suit and whether or not to make changes in the current voting procedure. The board voted 5-0 on Nov. 15 not to take action regarding a proposal to adopt single-member voting districts.

The dispute began on Aug. 9 when Raul Noriega, director of the Voting Rights Litigation Project by San Antonio's TRLA office, spoke at a school board meeting and announced that such action would give Hispanics a better chance of being elected to the now all-white school board.

Marshall declined to give the names of plaintiffs named on the suit. R.C. Hoeschler, whom the board has named as spokesman concerning the suit, said the move was "anticipated." He said that TRLA had not exactly threatened the school board with a suit, but had strongly advised the board to make changes in order to avoid one.

Hoeschler said the board prefers not to disclose the reason for deciding not to change the voting procedure. He only said the decision was made on the advice of their attorney, Kelly Frels of Houston.

HISD Superintendent Dr. Harrell Holder was out of town today and could not be reached for comment.

Pheasant season opens Dec. 10

The boundaries of Deaf Smith County may be bursting at the seams the weekend of Dec. 10, when at least 10,000 hunters are expected for the start of ringnecked pheasant season.

Jim Steiert, a member of the Hereford Young Farmers, which sponsors one of the organized hunts, said the Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer County area is regarded as the foremost place to hunt pheasants in the state of Texas.

"We had the first pheasant season in the state, beginning in the 1960's," he explained. Steiert added that a lot of community projects have been funded by proceeds from the hunt.

One such fundraiser is the annual pheasant hunters breakfast sponsored by the Hereford Fire Department Auxiliary. Kim Bigham,

At least 10,000 hunters expected to flock to Deaf Smith County for event, which ends Christmas Day

this year's chairman, said the breakfast will be served on opening day from 5 to 7:30 a.m. at the Hereford High School cafeteria.

Tickets are $3.75, available at the door only, for a menu that includes ham, scrambled eggs, biscuits and cream gravy, milk, orange juice and coffee.

Auxiliary members are also to sell coffee for thermos jugs, and hunting licenses will be available at the door for $8 each. As an added attraction, a 20-gauge shotgun will be given away by the firemen. Proceeds from the breakfast go to purchase fire equipment.

All hunters must possess a current Texas hunting license except those who hunt in their home county. Those are available from the county clerk, T.G.&Y., and Winn's as well as at the breakfast. Permission of the landowner to hunt is also required.

Organized hunts, sponsored by the Young Farmers, Chamber of Commerce and Easter Lion's Club, are reportedly full. Motels here are booked as well.

The season officially starts at sunrise Dec. 10 and continues through Christmas Day. The limit is two cocks per day with four in possession. Hunting from a vehicle is illegal except on private property. Dragging a field with chains is also forbidden.

Blankenship backing Brookhart

By KIM THOGMARTIN

"We are paying high-dollar rent for a crumbling facility," said the president of the Sugarland Mall Merchant's Association.

Sondra Blankenship, who owns Sondra's Craft Corral, said she feels safe in saying most of the merchants there are sympathetic toward Earl Brookhart, owner of The Brogue, who has filed suit against the owners of the mall for alleged negligence in maintaining the property.

Brookhart's action followed eviction proceedings brought against him for failure to pay rent. That case, appealed from Deaf Smith County Justice of the Peace Court and scheduled to be heard today by County Court Judge Glen Nelson, has been continued. Nelson said attorneys for both parties are trying to settle the matter out of court.

The Nov. 7 District Court suit filed in Brookhart's behalf asks for $25,000 in punitive damages and $10,000 in attorney's fees. The suit claims The Brogue has lost business because of the poor condition of the parking lot and a roof that leaks.

Blankenship said she agrees with statements in the suit which indicate mall merchants have all suffered losses as a result of the disrepair. "The people here have been overly patient with the situation," she claimed.

Other merchants, although reportedly vocal about their problems at Mall Association meetings, have declined to draw public attention to the underlying causes of the situation. Two of the merchants who have had significant problems with water seeping through the roof declined to comment on the pending litigation.

One source feels that any court battles involving the mall are negative publicity and are not good for business. Blankenship, however, disagreed.

"I feel that the people of Hereford should know we are caught in the middle of this thing. We want to be able to provide a comfortable, attractive place for people to shop, but we are just the tenants here. We have done all we know how to get the repairs made."

Blankenship said the association has gone so far as to discuss the possibility of a law suit with a local attorney. "Cost is the major reason why that has not happened before," she explained. "Many of us are independent operators, and we hate to take a chance on losing."

The mall is owned by Pak Fan Siu and Edward D.M. Wong, who live in Hong Kong, and managed by Coldwell Banker Real Estate Management Services of Dallas.

ministered by a local non-profit organization founded to help the less fortunate during the Christmas season.

The fund-raising campaign for the fund formally got underway this week, and the CSF group has asked The Hereford Brand to solicit and handle the contributions.

Donations can be mailed to the CSF, Hereford Brand, Box 673 in Hereford, or can be delivered to the newspaper office at 313 N. Lee.

All requests for help and recommendations of needy families should be taken to the courthouse, Room 101. The letters can be mailed to the Christmas Stocking Fund, Room 101, Courthouse, Hereford, Tx. 79045.

The CSF, a group of anonymous men, has received the help of welfare workers in assuring that contributions go to those who are most in need. Only monetary contributions are received, since the organization does not have the manpower to handle food, clothing or gifts.

This marks the fifth year that CSF has been sponsored in Hereford. Last year, generous citizens donated more than $8,400 to the worthwhile project. All donations are used in the program, there are no administrative expenses.

The Brand will publish a list of donations and inform the public as to the total being collected for the CST program. Names will be listed in the newspaper, and those wishing to make anonymous gifts should so indicate.

The project got underway this week with contributions totalling $660.

Breakfast slated for Thursday

The chamber's annual Christmas Fun Breakfast will be conducted Thursday morning, beginning at 6:30 a.m., with the highlight being displays of Christmas gift ideas from about 20 local merchants.

The popular breakfast will be held in the Community Center with the theme "Eat Your Heart Out, Neiman-

Cost of the breakfast is $3.50 a plate. In addition to the Christmas gift displays, the breakfast will feature the usual fun, games, prizes and community announcements. The "Golden Bull Chip" award will also be presented.

Mike Carr, executive vice president of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, also announced that special musical entertainment will be presented at the breakfast. The event is sponsored by the merchants who will be displaying gift ideas.

Carr emphasized that all interested citizens are invited to attend the breakfast. The chamber initiated the breakfast meetings more than eight years ago as a means of attracting more members to quarterly meetings.

The breakfast events were so well received that they were changed to bi-monthly sessions. Manning and Lynton Allred have served as emcees of the events for most of the time.

Library receives waste copy

The Deaf Smith County Library has received a copy of "Well Completion Reports," a detailed study of wells drilled by the U.S. Department of Energy as part of nuclear waste repository studies in the Texas Panhandle.

Prepared by Gray Federal, Inc. and Stone and Webster Engineering Corporation, the reports allegedly describe the drilling and testing performed, discuss any problems encountered and provide recommendations for further work.

Dianna Pierson, librarian, said there is only one copy of the report and it cannot be checked out from the library.

Possible prowler seen

Hereford police report a possible prowler was spotted at 10:41 p.m. Tuesday in the 800 block of Blevins.

Stolen Tuesday were two bicycles and one wallet. A pump at Atex Oil Company 552, 1302 W. First St., was damaged to the estimated tune of $500 when Dora G. Ruiz, 104 Union, ran into it with her 1979 Chevrolet.

The only arrest made Tuesday was for public intoxication.

Manslaughter trial continues

The manslaughter trial of a Hereford man continued today in Canyon after being delayed four hours Tuesday while new jury members were called in.

Raymond Dennis Martinez, 19, was charged with involuntary manslaughter in the death of Lorlie O' Donald of Canyon, who died last February after her car collided with a pickup allegedly driven by Martinez. Both Martinez and a companion, Allen Shire of Hereford, were critically injured.

The Feb. 17 accident occurred just outside of Canyon on Highway 60 and left Martinez confined to a wheelchair with severe health problems. His injuries have caused the trial to be continued several times.

The case is being heard by 251st District Court Judge Naomi Harney. The attorney for Martinez, Patrick Abeyta, has been granted requests for several statements made by the defendant to ambulance workers be excluded as evidence. He is expected to attempt to prove that Martinez was not the driver of the truck.

If convicted, Martinez could be sentenced to two-to-10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Braniff rolls out with new colors

DALLAS (AP) — Braniff International, grounded for more than 18 months because of financial problems, has rolled out a new set of flying colors and a new route schedule with the hope of returning to the skies March 1.

As several hundred people watched Tuesday at the airline's headquarters at Love Field, Braniff rolled out a repainted Boeing 727-200 jet featuring navy blue, burgundy, silver and white colors.

The carrier plans to fly 30 jets and service Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin, Houston, Midland-Odessa, San Antonio, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, New York City, Washington, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Denver, St. Louis, Kansas City, Las Vegas, New Orleans, Miami, Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater, officials said.

William D. Slattery, who is slated to become president and chief operating officer of the new airline, said the new route schedule is tentative and will be set in a more definite form in the next six weeks.

Braniff, which filed for bankruptcy protection and ceased operations in May 1982, plans to rehire 2,000 former employees under a $70 million reorganization sponsored by the Chicago-based Hyatt Corp. The returning employees are taking significant pay cuts to help the carrier compete against low-cost carriers.

Six die in bus accident

LIVINGSTON, Texas (AP) — At least six people were killed today when a truck hit a Continental Trailways bus and pushed it down an embankment into a creek, the Department of Public Safety said.

The accident took place shortly after 5:30 a.m. CST about five miles north of this Southeast Texas town near the intersection of Loop 116 and U.S. Highway 59, said DPS dispatcher Marjorie Hodges.

State troopers at the scene reported at least six people were dead and as many as 11 others were pinned inside the wreckage, Ms. Hodges said.

The bus was pushed down an embankment into a creek and overturned after it was hit from behind by a truck, said Ms. Hodges.

The bus' route was not immediately known.

Livingston is located about 75 miles north of Houston.

PUC says Bell needs rate hike

AUSTIN (AP) — The general counsel of the Public Utility Commission says Southwestern Bell is entitled to a temporary rate hike of $645 million, although none of the money should come directly from ratepayers.

Southwestern Bell says it faces a money crunch on Jan. 1 when it becomes an independent company. It has asked the commission for a $976 interim rate hike to tide the company over until its $1.36 billion rate hike is decided.

Allen King, PUC general counsel, said in a brief filed Tuesday that the interim rate relief is needed. Without added revenue on New Year's Day, Southwestern Bell would be in "an immediate financial crisis posture," he said.

The company's interim rate request calls for $2.60 per month more from residential customers. Also included is $776 million in payments to Southwestern Bell from AT&T and other long distance companies. Under the court-ordered divestiture of the Bell System, Southwestern Bell will provide limited long distance service.

King said the interim increase to ratepayers is not needed.

Sullivan execution planned today

STARKE, Fla. (AP) — With "peace in his heart," convicted murderer Robert Sullivan today waited beside Florida's death chamber, where he faced execution despite last-minute legal maneuvers and a plea for mercy from Pope John Paul II.

Sullivan had been on death row for 10 years, longer than any other U.S. inmate. He was being held in a special cell a few steps from the room that houses the electric chair where he was scheduled to die at 10 a.m., barring a last-minute court order.

The 36-year-old inmate was condemned for the April 9, 1973, shotgun slaying of Donald Schmidt, an assistant manager at a Howard Johnson's restaurant in Homestead, south of Miami.

Underground tanks leaking gas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaky underground storage tanks are each year releasing millions of gallons of gasoline, posing a potentially serious threat to underground water supplies, an environmental official warns.

Jack E. Ravan of the Environmental Protection Agency told a congressional panel Tuesday that one gallon of gasoline a day leaking into an underground source can cause significant pollution in water supplies of 50,000 people.

Currently about 75,000 to 100,000 tanks nationwide leak 11 million gallons of gasoline annually, and the number of leaks is growing, said Ravan, the EPA's assistant administrator for water.

Heineken and chauffeur rescued

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands (AP) — Police rescued multimillionaire brewer Alfred Heineken and his chauffeur early today from a three-week kidnapping ordeal. They spent much of the time chained in concrete cells at an isolated warehouse.

Both Heineken and chauffeur Ab Doderer, seized Nov. 9 by assailants armed with machine guns, were in good condition, according to police spokesman Kees Sietsma, who headed the nationwide hunt for the two.

A ransom of an unspecified amount was paid, and some was recovered, police said. Earlier reports had said the ransom demand ranged between $8 million and $12 million. Heineken is the nation's largest brewery and the largest supplier of imported beer in the United States.

While the rescue was being carried out, police arrested 24 persons believed involved in the kidnapping during a three-city sweep.

Speaking at a news conference, Sietsma said the 5 a.m. raid on the warehouse in an isolated industrial park on the outskirts of Amsterdam, was mounted as a result of an earlier tip.

An anonymous letter received Nov. 16 by a crisis center set up at the brewery indicated that three persons, who operated a "dubious enterprise," in the industrial park, might be involved in the kidnapping, according to Sietsma.

Norman Cousins is a layman on a medical school faculty (University of California, Los Angeles) because he has learned enough to teach about the biochemistry of emotions.

"Attitudes and emotions can bring on disease—or expedite recovery—or prevent disease."

His sixteenth book on related subjects in called "The Healing Heart."

If you can't find time to read the book, at least read the introduction by Harvard's Dr. Bernard Lown.

Hippocrates, 2,500 years ago, recognized our capacity for self-healing but the enormity of scientific advances over the past half century have influenced many physicians to regard psychological factors as secondary, even irrelevant.

They are not irrelevant. Two case histories:

Mrs. S. well-preserved middle-years librarian. Her tricuspid heart valve had narrowed. Low-grade congestion. Modest edema of the ankles—but was able to maintain her job and attend efficiently to household chores.

She received digitalis and weekly injections of a mercurial diuretic and for more than a decade got along very well.

Until the clinic visit when she overheard her doctor say, "This woman has TS."

Within minutes, Mrs. S. began hyperventilating, perspiring profusely, her lungs, theretofore clear, now had moist crackles at the bases, the congestion worsened—eventuating in massive pulmonary edema and intractable heart failure.

Just before she died she traced her symptoms to that dread verdict: "This woman has TS."

Which she thought meant "terminal situation."

Which had, in fact, meant nothing more serious than "tricuspid stenosis."

She worried to death over nothing.

The case of Mister B: Massive heart attack. Critical. Blood pressure maintained only by intravenous stimulant. Lungs congested. Heart rate rapid, chaotic. Breathing labored even under oxygen. All known therapy had been exhausted.

Doctor making rounds remarked aloud that Mister B's heart had a "wholesome third-sound gallop."

That is a poor sign, means the heart muscle is straining, failing.

Months later—after a remarkable recovery—Mister B. told his physician that the one that "got him better" was when he, under an oxygen mask, overheard the doctor remark to colleagues about the "wholesome gallop" of his heart.

So he figured if his heart was that good he could get well—and did.

Because he misunderstood. Dr. Lown urges patients to "search within themselves for the powers of healing."

Mr. Cousins' book tells how.

Police investigate shots fired at Greyhound bus near Abilene

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — Police are investigating a second apparent sniper attack on a Greyhound bus in Texas.

On Tuesday, police and FBI agents reported that a gunshot struck the windshield of a Greyhound bus as it was leaving Abilene on Monday night. Last week, a striking Greyhound employee was charged in connection with a sniper attack on a bus in San Antonio.

Abilene police detective Capt. Ray Portalatin said Tuesday that a gunshot struck the lower, driver's side of the windshield of a Greyhound bus as it was leaving Abilene on Highway 351 at about 8:15 p.m. Monday night. He said the bus, which was bound for Dallas, was about 20 feet in front of an overpass on Interstate 20 when the shot occurred.

"The bullet did not penetrate the windshield," Portalatin said.

The driver of the bus, Duane Brown, was not injured, said Greyhound District Manager J.C. Moore. The bus company would not give any details of the incident or say how many passengers were on the bus, which pulled over into a motel parking lot.

Portalatin said police had not determined what caliber weapon was used.

An FBI spokesman said the federal investigating agency was called in because the bus is an interstate carrier.

There have been sporadic incidents of violence across the country stemming from a

Striking pilots face pipe bomb charges

HOUSTON (AP) — Bonds of $50,000 each have been set for two striking Continental Airlines pilots accused of carrying pipe bombs a mile from the home of a non-striking pilot.

Frances Calvin Earley, 43, and Charles Weldon Hall, 47, were arrested in San Antonio Nov. 22. Assistant U.S. Attorney Mike Stein said pictures of non-striking pilot David Gildart were found in the defendants' car.

U.S. Magistrate Ray McQuary set the bonds after the two men appeared in court here Tuesday.

"This is a very unusual case," Stein said, speaking of Hall. "We have a well-to-do professional man accused of a very serious offense. He went to the home of a Continental pilot with pipe bombs, evidently with the intent of injuring the person, his family or his house."

Stein asked McQuary to set bond at $125,000, noting that each man was "highly mobile" because of their pilot's licenses.

Stein said each of the 6-inch long, 1-inch thick pipe bombs had the destructive force of a large hand grenade.

Hall said he has a wife, two sons and a grandson living in the Houston area. "I don't think I'm going anywhere at all," Hall told McQuary.

Department of Public Safety trooper Hector Herrera said after the car was stopped, the two men gave troopers their licenses. Then, an unidentified woman drove up and gave the officer a paper sack which she said had been thrown from the car by one of the men.

Herrera opened the sack and discovered the two bombs.

Pilots and flight attendants struck Continental Oct. 1, a week after the airline asked a federal bankruptcy court for protection from creditors. Continental shut down for two days in late September and slashed salaries in half when it returned to the air.

Jewish settlers march after Palestinian protest day

By DAVID NORDELL Associated Press Writer

RAMALLAH, Occupied West Bank (AP) — About 500 Jewish settlers guarded by troops staged a protest march in the West Bank city of Nablus after a day of disturbances in Palestinian communities throughout the region.

The incidents Tuesday marked the 36th anniversary of the 1947 United Nations resolution which divided Palestine between Jews and Arabs. It is a traditional day of protest by West Bank Palestinians against Israeli rule, now in its 17th year.

The Jewish settlers' demonstration was provoked by an ax attack Monday on an Israeli from the settlement of Har Bracha near Nablus. The victim was in fair condition, Israel radio said.

Fifteen Israelis set up tents at the tomb of Old Testament patriarch Joseph in Nablus, for a protest vigil.

By Tuesday evening, the radio said, about 500 Jews had assembled there and then marched to the Nablus marketplace where the attack had occurred. The radio said they were guarded by hundreds of soldiers and police, who barricaded the marketplace to stop Arab residents from entering.

Benjamin Katzover, a Jewish settlement leader, said the settlers were demanding that the government step up security measures and impose harsher penalties on Palestinians throwing stones and firebombs at Israelis.

But Mordechai Zippori, the acting defense minister, rejected the idea of changing existing regulations, the radio said.

"The existing measures are good.... There are laws which allow us to deal with rioters, and we can apply them more forcibly and faster," he said.

The radio said the settlers' stay looked as if it might become long-term, quoting some of them as saying their main purpose was to create a permanent Jewish presence in Nablus.

It reported that Rabbi Moshe Levinger, the leader of the Jewish settlers in Hebron, said they were following the pattern set in Kiryat Arba,

Female GIs fight stereotypes

By DAN SEWELL Associated Press Writer

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada (AP) — The heavy combat was over by the time they arrived, but the more than 100 female soldiers now on duty in Grenada are fighting a different kind of battle, this time against stereotypes.

"There are still a lot of problems. There's a lot of sexual harassment. But also, a lot of the guys refuse to take you seriously, even if you outrank them. You have to prove yourself—more than once," said Spec. 4 Liz Milliken, a 20-year-old native of Santa Rosa, Calif.

She was perched in a machine gun nest on the outer wall of the Ross Point Inn, being used by U.S. diplomats as their embassy in Grenada. She cradled M-60 and M-203 heavy automatic weapons.

Placement of women in such key positions is a relatively new phenomenon for the U.S. military. The Army's combat exclusion policy prohibits women from serving in any assignment that risks involvement in direct combat.

Women have been used in civil and public affairs, as drivers and as medics in other "hot zones," but in Grenada, some have been given even greater roles.

Pentagon officials say about 110 women soldiers arrived in Grenada on Oct. 30—five days after the invasion by U.S. Army Rangers and Marines—to serve with administrative, intelligence, transportation, medical, supply and other service and support type units.

Since then, according to Lt. Col. Mike Clark, an Army spokesman at the Pentagon, "We have received no reports of women being in a direct hostile fire situation (in Grenada)."

Four military policewomen had actually arrived earlier—on Oct. 29—but were returned to Fort Bragg, N.C., because of continuing hostilities. They came back to Grenada Nov. 2.

The expanded and early use of women here surprised many soldiers. Several women interviewed said some men did double-takes the first time they saw them.

Some officers were angered, according to two military sources, who didn't want to be identified.

"Some officers look at it that when a woman comes, she's taking a place that would have been held by a man. If she can't perform the same role, then he's lost a man," explained an Army lieutenant.

Another lieutenant, 24-year-old helicopter pilot Kathryn Henderson, said she partially understood such complaints.

"Most of the women, if they were asked to go out on combat patrol, they would do it. But it's a matter of size. I weigh 120 pounds. If they put those packs on me, that would be three-fourths of my weight. That's not an efficient combat troop," said Ms. Henderson, of Winter Springs, Fla.

Pfc. Sheila Gibbons, a 19-year-old Signal Corps messenger from Lincoln Park, Mich., said she had volunteered for duty in Grenada after the invasion.

But she admitted she might not have had there been continuing heavy fighting.

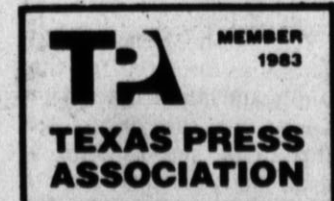

"I wouldn't want to be in a war situation at all," she said.

Maj. Douglas Frey, spokesman for the U.S. military in Grenada, said he preferred not to talk about the role of women in this operation.

"We went through all this five years ago, when women came into the Army. The ones who came here trained just like everybody else.

"We're trying to move away from talking about women soldiers. I'd rather see stories about soldiers who happen to be women, not women who happen to be soldiers," said Frey, public affairs officer for the 82nd Airborne, based at Fort Bragg, N.C.

The women interviewed agreed that while they were subject to suggestive comments from their fellow soldiers, there were no serious problems in that way.

Cranberry is topic of club's program

Members of Hereford Garden Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Clinton Jackson with Mrs. Carl Kleuskens serving as co-hostess.

During the business session, plans for the Place Home Flower Show, with the theme "Yuletide," was finalized. It is scheduled at 2 p.m. Dec. 9 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell, southeast of Hereford. General chairman is Mrs. Ray Johnson assisted by Mrs. O.G. Hill, Sr.

Mrs. Jack Wilcox furnished an interesting fall floral arrangement during the meeting and Mrs. Alfred Smith gave a report from the National Gardner.

Mrs. Jackson reported on Thanksgiving using cranberries as the main topic. She said that cranberries are North America's only native berry and they are not grown commercially anywhere else in the world.

She also mentioned that today they are grown in eastern Massachusetts, southern New Jersey, Wisconsin, along the Pacific coast region of Oregon and Washington and in Canada. There are over 100 different varieties of cranberries.

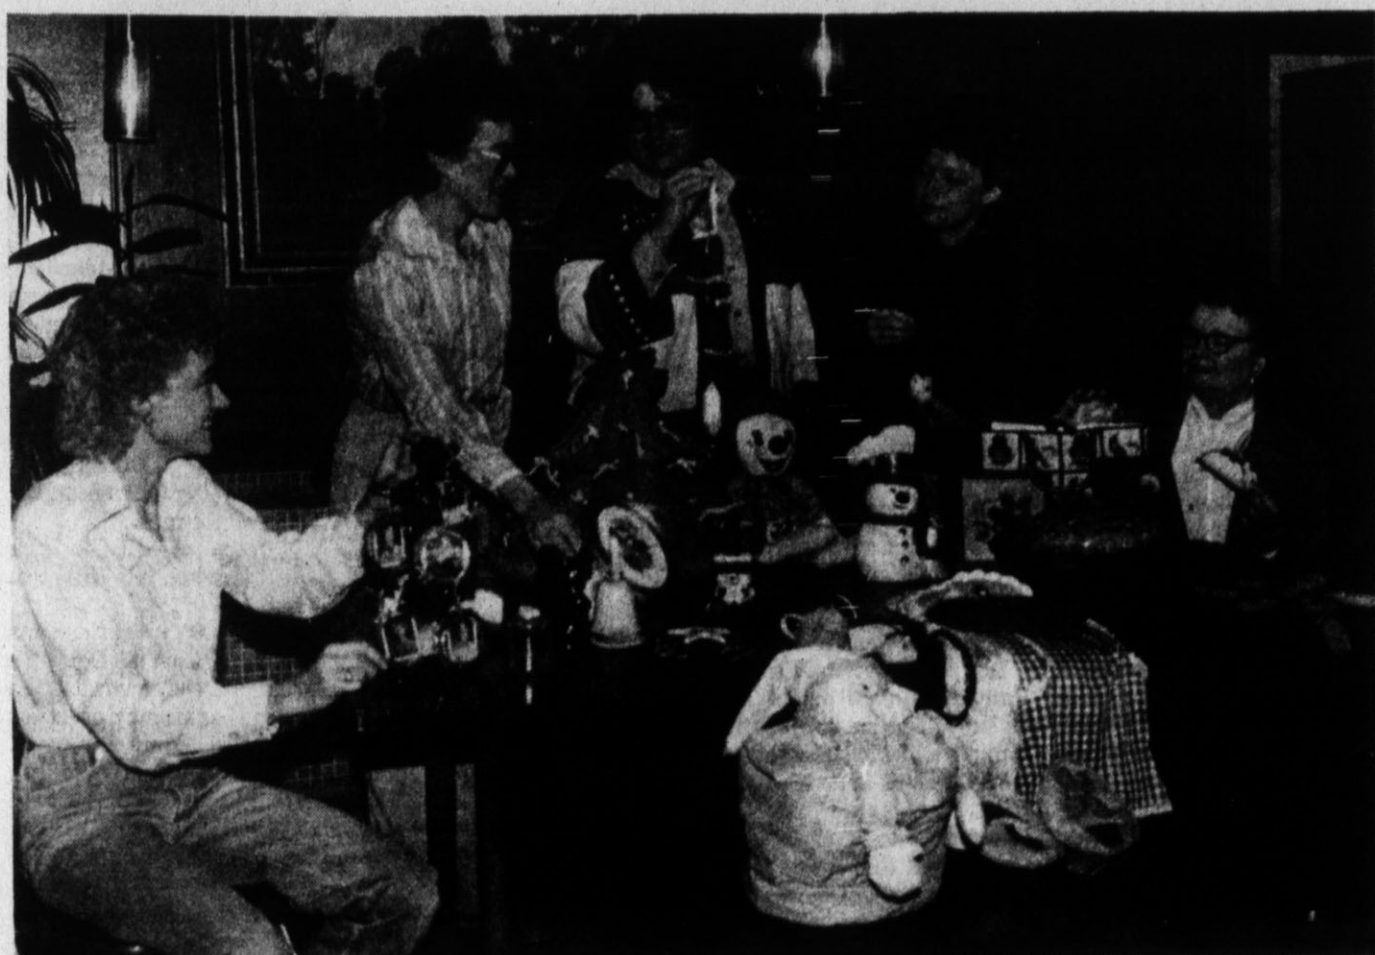

The speaker added that Indians had many uses for the cranberries which they found growing wild. One dish they relished was pemmican. It was a mixture of dried venison, fat and cranberries pounded to a pulp, patted into cakes and placed on rocks to bake in the sun.

Cranberry poultice was a remedy commonly used for treating wounds inflicted by poisoned arrows and the juice added cranberry color to their rugs and blankets.

The Indians also presented the Pilgrims with cranberries. It is believed that the berries were present at the first Thanksgiving in 1621. Refreshments of cranberry pie, cranberry cake and cranberry tea were served to members present. They included Mmes. Hill, Art Stoy, R.W. Mitchell, Jack Wilcox, H.R. Coconougher, Smith, R.L. Wilson, Campbell, John Jacobsen Jr., Ben Childers, R.L. Ethridge and Ed Lemons. Recognized as a guest was Candice Campbell.

Palo Duro takes 58-54 decision

Girls lose district opener

By REED PARSELL
Hereford High School's girls could not hold onto an eight-point lead late in Tuesday's third quarter and fell 58-54 to visiting Amarillo-Palo Duro.

The tilt was the first in District 3-5A for both clubs. Hereford fell to 0-3 overall while Palo Duro improved to 4-1. In the other district contests Tuesday, Amarillo mauled Lubbock-Coronado 53-34 while Lubbock-Monterey slipped by Amarillo-Tascosa 60-54.

Ahead 37-29 with 5:15 elapsed since halftime, HHS was outscored 20-2 in the next four and a half minutes. That allowed the Lady Dons to enjoy a 49-39 advantage with 6:00 showing on the game clock. The closest the Whitefaces could come was the final margin of four points.

Vanesa Wells paced the Palo Duro comeback, netting 14 points in the fourth quarter on five field goals and a 4-for-4 performance from the free-throw stripe. Eleven of Hereford's 15 fourth-stanza points came from Cathy Bartels, a 5-foot-10 senior.

"At some point in the second half we got ourselves out of our offense," HHS coach Larry Sowers said. "We quit rebounding for a while."

Katrin Hardy erupted for six points late in the third quarter to help pull the Lady Dons even at 39-39 heading into the game's final eight minutes. Several turnovers allowed Palo Duro to gain its 10-point lead, repeated again at 53-43.

The contest began slowly, with both teams committing several errors en route to a 12-6 Palo Duro advantage. Hereford roared out for the second quarter, scoring the first nine points and, with about 10 seconds left in the half, going ahead 29-24 after junior Kelly Mumau hit a 10-foot jump shot from the left baseline.

"The second quarter was the best we have played so far this year," Sowers thought. "The offense played more the way they're capable of playing."

Wells was the night's high scorer, netting 20 for the Lady Dons. Teammate Hardy added 17. For Hereford, Bartels finished with 13 while junior Darla Alford had 11 and junior Stacie High nine.

HHS was an unofficial 12-for-22 from the line, where Palo Duro converted 16 of its 23 tosses.

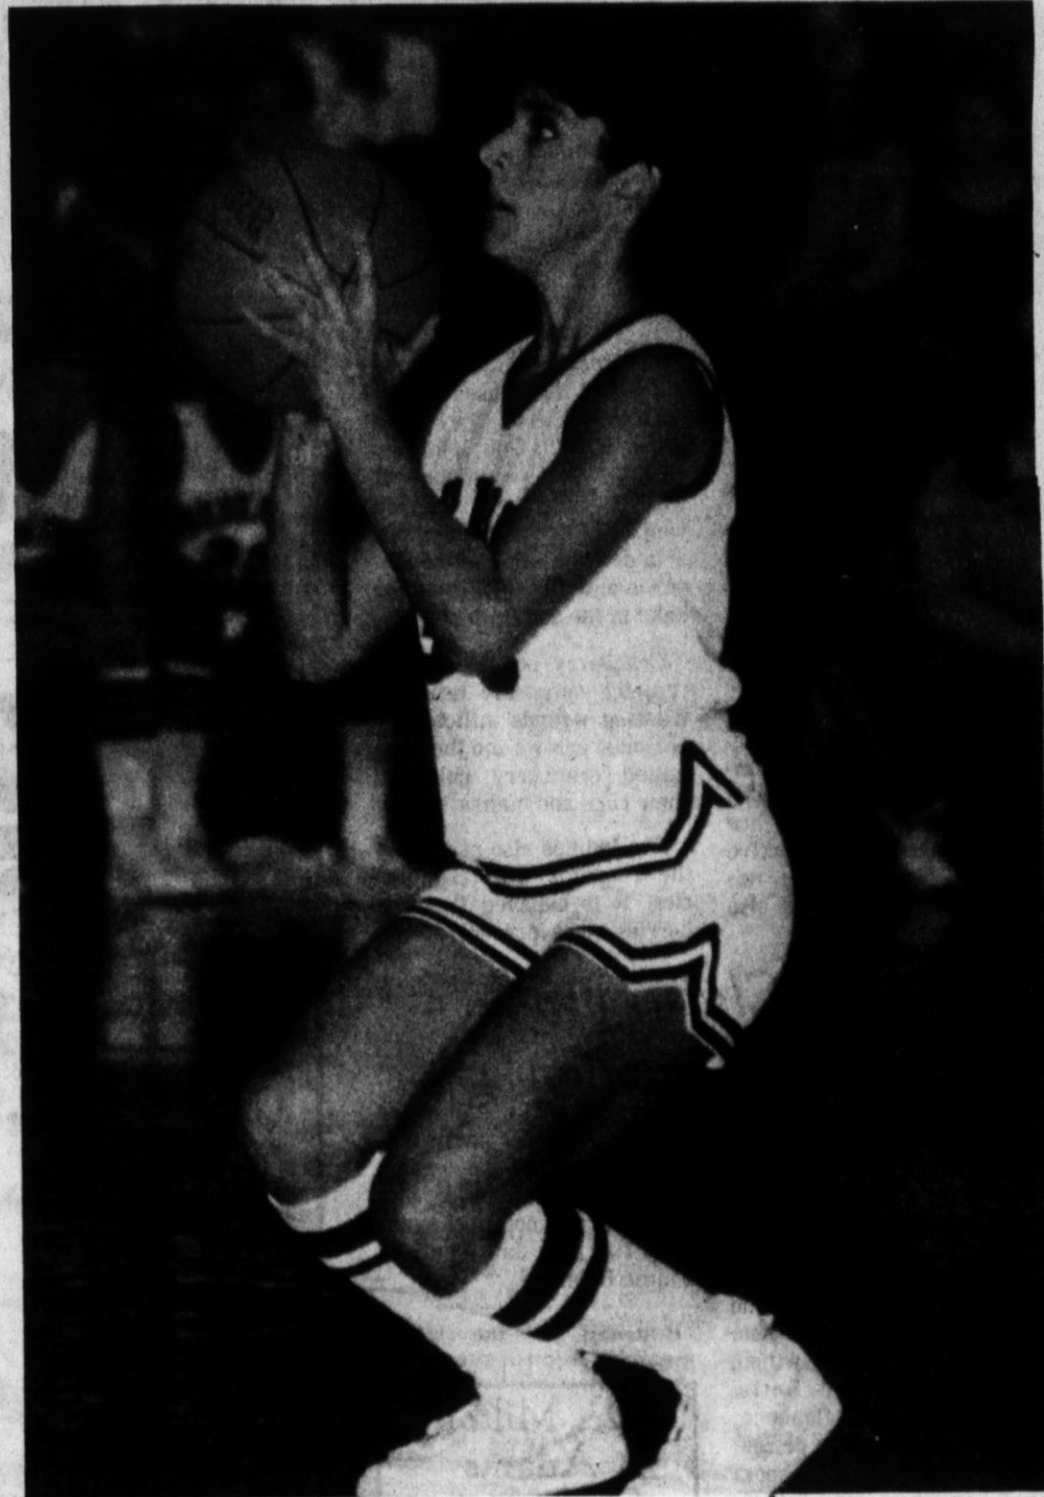

Amarillo-Caprock is scheduled to host the Whitefaces Tuesday at 6 p.m. "They've got several players back from last year," Sowers said. "They're not big. This will be the first time we'll be playing against a team not bigger than us. But they have some pretty good little shooters from outside."

Jr. high hoop results listed

Both the boys and girls La Plata Junior High School basketball teams won one and dropped two Monday against Plainview Red.

In seventh grade action, La Plata's girls lost 19-15 while the boys were defeated by five points. In eighth grade action, the girls score was 28-17 Plainview, which captured the boys contest 28-23.

Both local ninth grade squads were victorious, the girls 47-33 and the boys 65-36. Arthur Valdez paced the boys with 20 points. He was reportedly 6-for-6 from the foul line.

Perfect On The Night

Hereford High School senior Teresa Phibbs was an unblemished 4-for-4 Tuesday night from the free-throw line in a 58-54 loss to Amarillo-Palo Duro. The forward-guard finished with four points.

On Seattle, not 'Skins

Landry: players focus

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry hopes his team plays the Seattle Seahawks Sunday without thinking about the Washington Redskins. He admits it's a tall order.

The big showdown for the National Conference Eastern Division title occurs Dec. 11 in Texas Stadium between the Cowboys and Redskins.

Both teams are 11-2 with the Cowboys at Seattle Sunday and the Redskins hosting Atlanta.

"Our players can't help but look forward to Washington to some extent but to win the division we must beat Seattle and Washington," said Landry.

"I believe our team will recognize the challenge is there."

Landry said the Seahawks, who beat Kansas City 51-48 Sunday, were potent.

"Seattle is very good," said Landry. "The Seahawks have beaten some good teams including the (Los Angeles) Raiders twice."

Landry praised Seattle Coach Chuck Knox, saying "I give him a lot of credit. He's done an excellent job."

He said rookie tailback Curt Warner was a game-breaker and that quarterback

Dave Krieg was very accurate.

"I don't know Krieg well but I do know he throws extremely accurate," Landry said.

"Warner is an excellent runner and we must stop him to win the game," Landry said.

The Cowboys are 14-1 on games after Thanksgiving and will go into the third meeting in history between the two teams with 10 days of rest. Dallas is 2-0 all-time against Seattle.

Landry used the Cowboys' weekend off to reevaluate his offense and defense.

"In our 10-day evaluation we found improvement in a lot of areas, pass defense and just our overall performance," Landry said.

"We played the kind of game against the Cardinals that we must play to beat good teams."

Dallas defeated

Washington 31-30 in the first game of the season.

Whitefaces enter Roswell Tourney Thursday

Pampa hands Herd first loss

The Hereford Whiteface basketball team tasted defeat for the first time this season, and it came in a double dose as the Pampa Harvesters rolled to a convincing 90-56 win over the Herd Tuesday night at Pampa.

The Harvesters jumped to a 25-10 lead over the cold-shooting Herd in the first period and held a commanding 26-point advantage (44-18) at halftime.

Hereford Coach Bobby Decker praised his team for battling back in the second half. "We couldn't hit any shots in the first half, but we played better in the second half. Pampa has a strong-looking team; we just couldn't match their firepower."

After tallying only 18 points in the first half, Hereford came back to score 23 points in the third quarter. Jeff Streun and Lee Brockman led Hereford's scoring with 15 points each, and Eric Walterscheid added 10. Johnny Adame hit 6 points and Daniel King and Mike Scott added 4 each.

Big Coyle Winborn led Pampa with 19 points and Galen Faggins tallied 16. Pampa is 2-1 on the season and the loss left Hereford with the same record. Hereford hit 18 of 39 free throws, but the 'Faces were only 19 of 46 from the field.

The Whitefaces will be in the Farwell Tournament this weekend. The Herd meets the host Roswell team at 8 p.m. Thursday in the first round of the tourney.

The Herd JV also lost as Pampa Tuesday night, bowing in a high-scoring 71-66 contest. Chet Bunch and Johnny Pena led the junior varsity scoring with 20 and 16 points, respectively. The JV is entered in a tourney this weekend, also. The JV plays in the Canyon Tourney at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Holmes retiring

NEW YORK (AP) — Larry Holmes got a smile from his wife when the undefeated World Boxing Council heavyweight champion told her again that he is through fighting.

"It's not definite I will announce it next week, but if not it will be in the very near future," the champion said in a telephone interview from his Easton, Pa., home Tuesday night.

If he goes through with his retirement plans, Holmes will become the second heavyweight champion to retire undefeated. The other was Rocky Marciano, who quit after 49 victories, while Holmes is 45-0.

"I told my wife in the ring (after his one-round knockout of Marvis Frazier last Friday) that I was through," said the 34-year-old champion. "I told her again tonight and she smiled."

Drew nets 10 in home stretch of Utah's triumph

By WILLIAM R. BARNARD
AP Sports Writer

John Drew was Utah's ace in the hole at Las Vegas.

Drew, who comes off the bench for the Jazz despite a 21-point scoring average, scored 10 of his 20 points in the final eight minutes Tuesday night to lift the Jazz to a 114-110 National Basketball Association victory over the Phoenix Suns. It was the second of 11 "home" games for the Jazz at Las Vegas.

The 6-foot-6 Drew started his hot streak with an 18-footer with 8:11 remaining to put the Jazz in front for good at 95-93 after Phoenix took its only lead of the night at 93-91 when Alvan Adams connected on a layup.

In other NBA games, it was Los Angeles 111, Golden State 105; Seattle 119, San Diego 114; Houston 116, Chicago 110; Philadelphia 98, Indiana 96; Denver 105, Atlanta 96; Detroit 103, Cleveland 93; Milwaukee 94, Washington 88 and New York 118, San Antonio 106.

Utah's victory gave the Jazz, who were 30-52 last season, an 8-9 record, while the Suns are 5-11 after they won 53 games a year ago.

Rockets 116, Bulls 110
At Houston, the Rockets got 28 points from Allen Leavell and 25 from Ralph Sampson to outlast Chicago. Sampson had eight points and Leavell seven in the third quarter as the Rockets took the lead for good in the period. The Bulls, who got 25 points from Orlando Woolridge, cut an 11-point deficit to two with a 9-0 run in the fourth quarter, but Leavell's free-throw shooting kept Houston ahead.

Lakers 111, Warriors 105
Los Angeles rallied from 17 points down in the first quarter, finally catching up in the fourth quarter against Golden State at Oakland.

Earvin "Magic" Johnson scored eight of his 15 points in the final period, including a three-point play that put the Lakers ahead to stay with three minutes left. Johnson also had 16 assists to help counter the season-high 33 points by Purvis Short of the Warriors.

76ers 98, Pacers 96
Moses Malone hit six straight free throws down the stretch and finished with 28 points as Philadelphia came back from a seven-point deficit with 4:31 left to register a road victory against Indiana.

Malone's second pair of free throws, with 1:34 remaining, gave the 76ers the lead for good at 93-92.

Herb Williams scored 22 of his 27 points in the first half to help the Pacers build a 53-40 halftime lead.

Nuggets 105, Hawks 96

Denver handed Atlanta its first road loss after eight straight victories as Kiki Vandeweghe scored 12 of his 22 points in the fourth period.

The Nuggets overcame a career-high 38 points by Dominique Wilkins and a fourth-quarter rally by the Hawks that saw them cut a 10-point deficit to one.

Alex English led Denver with 26 points, while Dan Roundfield had 24 points and 22 rebounds for Atlanta.

Knicks 118, Spurs 106

New York kept San Antonio winless on the road as Ray Williams scored 10 of his 20 points in the final period.

The Spurs, behind 30 points from George Gervin, cut a 17-point first-half deficit to four early in the fourth quarter, but a 12-3 streak by the Knicks built their lead back to 102-89 and San Antonio, 0-8 on the road, never got close again.

Sonics 119, Clippers 114

Seattle also won at home to keep San Diego's loss streak intact at 11, as Gus Williams sparked the Sonics' 44-point third quarter with 16 of his total of 20.

The Clippers led 57-52 at halftime and increased their edge to seven early in the third quarter before Seattle got rolling.

Tom Chambers led all scorers with 27 points for the Sonics, while Ricky Pierce paced San Diego with 20.

Bucks 94, Bullets 88

Marques Johnson scored 28 points, four of them during an 11-0 streak in the fourth quarter that boosted Milwaukee past Washington at Landover, Md.

The Bucks trailed by as many as 11 points in the third quarter before rallying.

Pistons 103, Cavaliers 93

John Long scored 23 points as Detroit won at home against Cleveland.

The Pistons used an 11-2 spurt to turn an 85-84 deficit into a 95-87 lead late in the game and they held on to beat the Cavaliers, who got a game-high 26 points from Cliff Robinson.

Freshmen spark Indiana to win

By The Associated Press

Two freshmen unaccustomed to losing made sure Indiana got back to its winning ways.

Marty Simmons scored eight points during a 20-4 streak early in the second half and Steve Alford added some key free throws as the Hoosiers overcame a nine-point deficit Tuesday night and stormed past visiting Notre Dame 80-72.

Simmons, a 6-foot-5 forward whose Illinois high school team won 68 straight games, finished with 22 points while Alford, who was Indiana's top high school scorer last season, had 14.

Indiana had been upset by Miami of Ohio in its season opener, and Hoosier Coach Bobby Knight was upset when his team fell behind Notre Dame.

"The coach talked to us at halftime and said it would be the same as last Saturday if we didn't come out the first five minutes and put things together," Alford said. "We've been real tight. In the second half, we were really relaxed and for the first time, I think, we really had fun playing the game."

Alford, the nation's high school career free throw percentage record holder, hit eight straight foul shots in the second half.

Notre Dame led by as many 12 points in the first 20 minutes and was ahead 32-25 at halftime. Then, after scoring the first two points of the second half, the roof fell in on the Irish.

"I thought we played two completely different halves of basketball," said Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps. "I think we're both struggling for consistency, and we have to learn to play 40 minutes of basketball."

Notre Dame, 2-1, started four sophomores and a freshman. Tom Sluby led the Irish with 18 points, while Uwe Blab had 15 for Indiana.

Only two Top Twenty teams played Tuesday — No. 17 Fresno State coasted past Abilene Christian 74-55 and 18th-ranked Wichita State beat Colorado State 64-54.

Forward Bernard Thompson scored 18 points and Fresno State's other starting forward, Ron Anderson, added 16 for the Bulldogs, the National Invitation Tournament champions last season. Fresno State, 2-1, scored 16 straight points to take control of the game midway through the first half and led by 36 points in the second half.

Shower honors new bride

A bridal shower was given for Mrs. Sam Finley, the former Barbara Hobbs, recently in the home of Mrs. Charlie Brown.

Cake and punch featuring the bride's chosen colors of orchid and purple were served from a table covered with a white lace cloth over orchid.

The table was centered with an arrangement of dark and light purple silk day lilies in a crystal vase. A crystal punch bowl and crystal dishes for nuts and mints were used.

Refreshments were served by Sandra Finley, sister of the groom, and Debbie Koonz, both of Lubbock.

Crystal Finley, sister of the groom, registered guests.

Special guests were the bride's mother, Mary Lou Williams; the groom's mother, Shirin Finley; and the groom's grandmothers, Dee Wiseman and Evelyn Finley, all of Hereford.

White daisy corsages with orchid backgrounds were presented to the honoree and the mothers and grandmothers.

Hostesses included Wanda Brown; Nita Lea, Cindy Norvell, Elvis Shields, Desiree Bookout, Evelyn Crofford, Rachael Williams, Mary Hamby, and Kia Pool of Canyon.

Abundant Life

By BOB WEAR

As we move along through a lifetime, there are many adjustments to be made. Of course, we are thankful for the enduring values and principles upon which we can establish justified convictions and hold fast to them. This constancy in one's life is the best available help in making the essential adjustments, but even this constancy is not a rigidity which causes us to break in pieces against the changing scenes of life. If correctly formed, it is a cushion to absorb the hurt and sadness and disappointment caused by some of the changes to which adjustments must be made.

We must "adjust quickly," when such action is indicated. This is accomplished by rearranging our thoughts and our lives to fit or to coincide with the changes. We have great capacity for adapting ourselves to the changing scenes of life. As we make these justified adaptations, the harmony produced is the adjustment that is needed.

"A person who does not learn to bend unbroken before a wind, and to adapt readily to changing conditions, cannot possibly be happy in a world where disaster can fall at any time with great rapidity and where the things we hold valuable one day cease to exist the next." - Dr. H. Schindler.

In general, we know beforehand what changes to expect. With this knowledge, we can condition our minds in preparation for the required adjustment. This will enable us to "adjust quickly." "The more readily a person is able to adjust, the more effective and meaningful one's own private world becomes." - R.G. Allman.

While we are continuing to adjust to the changing scenes of life, let us be thankful for the unchanging and enduring qualities of life and use them for the stability we need.

Sir Winston Churchill was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature in 1953.

Ann Landers

Caved in without fight

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Here's a man's view of the wife who says, "NO DIVORCE." Frequently she is viewed as a martyr because she closed her eyes and ears to the gossip and kept the family together.

It's difficult to know exactly what goes on in the heart and head of the husband who is victimized by such a determined woman. I can tell you because I have walked in that man's shoes. I gave up a life with a wonderful woman because I was afraid to become involved in a knock-down-drag-out fight. My wife threatened to haul my name through the mud and take me for every last dime. "I helped you make it and I'll be damned if I'll let you off the hook to enjoy a new life with a younger woman." Those were her exact words. I am ashamed to admit I caved in without a fight.

Things appear to be patched up between us but our marriage is an empty shell, phony as a three-dollar bill. I miss my true love desperately and regret that I didn't do things differently. But it's too late now. Her life has gone in another direction and I have lost her forever. Just sign me—The Real Martyr

DEAR R.M.: A martyr, according to Webster's Third Unabridged, is a person who sacrifices his life, station, or something of great value for the sake of a principle or to sustain a cause. I don't see you anywhere in this definition. What I do see is a man who passed up an opportunity for what may have been a happier life because he was afraid to face the wrath of a vindictive and punishing woman.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Since you are the mother of an only child, I can think of no one better qualified to advise me.

We are the parents of a wonderful little boy. My husband and I have decided he is enough "family" and we don't wish to have any more children. We are encountering unbelievable pressure from my in-laws and my own parents, as well as well-meaning friends.

They tell us, "Joey needs a brother or sister," and it is "unhealthy to raise a single child." I am beginning to feel both angry and guilty.

What should I say to get these people off my back?—Full Nest In Santa Rosa

DEAR FULL: Why do you allow those oafs to put you on the defensive? Remain silent when the subject is raised. You owe them neither an explanation nor an apology. I can think of no topic that is less the business of others.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Recently a woman wrote about her dislike for nicknames. Her husband's name was Robert and she hated it when people called him Bob. My name is also Robert and I feel the same way. Some people call me Bobby, Bob-o and Bob-Bob. One friend has started to call me Bobcat.

I was born in England and raised in Germany. Will you forgive me if I say America is the most informal country in the world, and possibly the crudest?—N.Y. Observer

DEAR N.Y.: And will you forgive me if I remind you that American is also the most generous?

Jaycee Women plan art sale

The 11th annual artist sale sponsored by Lubbock Jaycee Women is scheduled Saturday and Sunday at the South Park Inn A-Frame, 3201 South Loop 289 in Lubbock.

Proceeds from the event go back into the community, either by donation or by Jaycee Women sponsored projects for charitable organizations.

In prior years, the proceeds have gone to the South Plains Chapter of Multiple Sclerosis, Foster Parents Association (Lubbock Child Abuse Center), Family Services Inc., Texas Jaycee Campus (College for paraplegics and quadruplegics), March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon and Mother's March, and Children's Christmas shopping tour for Lubbock Children's Home and Texas Boy's Ranch.

When the time is right, most likely it will be displayed on someone else's watch.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Buttermilk makes soup easy

DEAR POLLY — Some time ago, a lady wrote in saying she made cold soups from buttermilk and vegetables such as cucumbers. My husband and I love buttermilk. Do you have a recipe for such a soup? — MRS. C.T.

DEAR MRS. C.T.: You may vary the vegetables and the seasonings in this Chilled Cucumber Soup to suit your taste. Into a medium saucepan, place approximately two cups coarsely chopped cucumbers, one-fourth cup diced onion and two cups chicken broth. Bring broth to boil, turn down the heat and simmer for five to 10 minutes, or until the vegetables are soft. Pour the entire contents of the saucepan into a blender or food processor and puree until the mixture is smooth. Season with a dash of salt and a pinch of pepper according to your taste and add one teaspoon dried or fresh dillweed. Add two cups buttermilk and blend until well combined. Pour into a serving bowl or pitcher, chill thoroughly and serve. Other seasonings to try are curry powder, fresh minced basil, parsley, minced garlic. Other vegetables (cooking time may have to be increased for these vegetables; just cook until the vegetable is tender): broccoli, cauliflower, leeks. Enjoy! — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I use my electric knife to cut corn off the cob. I stand the ear of corn on the center tube of an angel-food cake pan, then slice off the kernels quickly and cleanly. The kernels drop off into the pan. There's no mess and I'm done in no time. — LEONA

NBC's 'A-Team' top program while CBS, ABC wage battle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — NBC's "The A-Team," the third-place network's only hit, ran off with first place in the Nielsen ratings for the week ended Nov. 27 while CBS and ABC were locked in battle for the network standings.

CBS regained first place in the weekly network averages after losing the week before to ABC's highly rated movie about a nuclear holocaust, "The Day After." ABC came in second for the week.

CBS got a boost from a powerhouse package of regular series, including "60 Minutes," which came in second, and "Dallas," which was third.

The third and final chapter of NBC's "Kennedy," a miniseries about the presidential years of John F. Kennedy, was fourth in the Top 10, and the second chapter was sixth. The opening episode fell before the ratings power of ABC's "The Day After."

The ABC theatrical movie "Stripes," in which Bill Murray battles the Army, came in fifth for the week. "Dynasty," ABC's prime-time soap opera rival to "Dallas," was seventh. In eighth place was the spillover into prime time of CBS' regional NFL-football games. CBS' "Falcon Crest" was ninth and "Simon & Simon" was tenth.

CBS won the A.C. Nielsen Co. survey with a network average of 17.1. ABC was second with 16.8 and NBC was third with 16.4. The networks say this means that in an average prime-time minute 17.1 percent of the nation's TV households were tuned to CBS.

CBS thus maintained its lead in the season-to-date averages and in the November sweeps.

NBC's "First Camera" was the lowest-rated show of the week, and once again the five lowest shows were all on NBC.

Here are the week's top 20 programs:

1. "The A-Team," NBC, a rating of 27.1 or 22.7 million households.
2. "60 Minutes," CBS, 26.4 or 22.1 million.
3. "Dallas," CBS, 25.3 or 21.2 million.
4. Miniseries—"Kennedy," Part III, NBC, 24.3 or 20.4 million.
5. Movie—"Stripes," ABC,

6. Miniseries—"Kennedy," Part II, NBC, 22.3 or 18.7 million.
7. "Dynasty," ABC, 21.3 or 17.8 million.
8. CBS NFL Football, CBS, 21.2 or 17.7 million.
9. "Falcon Crest," CBS, 21.1 or 17.6 million.
10. "Simon & Simon," CBS, 20.8 or 17.4 million.
11. "Hotel," ABC, 19.9 or 16.7 million.
12. "The Love Boat," ABC, 19.6 or 16.4 million.
13. "AfterMASH," CBS,

14. Movie—"Fort Apache, The Bronx," NBC, 19.3 or 16.2 million.
15. "Three's Company," ABC, 19.2 or 16.1 million.
16. "Knots Landing," CBS, 18.9 or 15.8 million.
17. "Dukes of Hazzard," CBS, 18.7 or 15.7 million.
18. "Newhart," CBS, 18.6 or 15.6 million.
19. "Magnum, P.I.," CBS, 18.2 or 15.2 million.
20. "That's Incredible," ABC, 17.9 or 15.0 million.

'An Uncommon Love' on CBS this evening

NEW YORK (AP) — In tonight's CBS movie, "An Uncommon Love," a marine biology professor falls in love with a student who does more in bed than curl up with a good textbook.

"You're a prostitute?" says the prof, played by Barry Bostwick, in the heat of revelation. She nods affirmatively. "You have sex with men?" She answers yes. "Every day?" She squirms a bit. "Four days a week," she says.

Despite the short workweek, this working girl's life is filled with mental torment and excessive violence. That's what comes with the job for Cynthia Malcolm (Kathryn Harrold), a hooker with a brain who's torn between respectability by day and vulnerability by night.

Television has come a semilong way from the days when it stripped every hooker and found a heart of gold. Earlier this season, NBC had Veronica Hamel in "Sessions," offering a well-intentioned but lifeless psychological profile of a top-dollar prostitute.

"An Uncommon Love," although flawed by standard dialogue, is a sometimes in-

'Too little, too late,' says Hightower

Drought relief plan signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Agriculture is expected to announce within several days procedures for making available millions of bushels of government-owned corn at reduced prices to ranchers suffering from this year's drought.

A provision requiring the drought relief program was contained in dairy and tobacco price support legislation signed into law on Tuesday by President Reagan.

Gene Hemphill, a department spokesman, said the program would be administered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service and that details on its implementation would be announced in two or three days.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, who had sponsored the drought relief provision, said he was pleased by Reagan's action.

But Bentsen said that "now we have to make sure the Department of Agriculture gets off the dime and quickly offers this grain to drought-stricken ranchers and farmers, something they should have done months ago."

Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower, who had lobbied for the relief, said he would announce details of a state program today to get the feed to the ranchers needing it.

"This is too little, too late for some of them, but for the ranchers that have survived this far... this is going to be a big help," Hightower said.

Under the program, Agriculture Secretary John R. Block will be required to sell at reduced prices the government's stores of the three lowest grades of corn—grades 4, 5, and sample.

Officials have estimated that 83 million bushels of such corn are in storage in 27 states, the majority of it in Texas, Iowa and Minnesota.

Eligible to buy the corn will be livestock growers in counties throughout the country that have suffered from drought and related disasters and been declared disaster areas by the department.

The corn will be made available to assist in maintaining breeding herds of livestock and poultry and their offspring.

The corn will be sold at 75 percent of the government's floor price for corn. That price will vary from county to county, but in Lubbock County, Texas, for example, ranchers could buy corn at about $2.04 per bushel compared with a market price of about $3.15, according to Bentsen's office.

However, livestock growers will be required to pay the cost of transporting the grain to their farms and ranches.

The drought relief provision had been strongly supported by officials from Texas, the western part of which has been particularly hard hit by this year's drought. About 21 million bushels of the corn are stored in the Texas Panhandle.

"This is wonderful news for West Texas," said Rep. Tom Loeffler, R-Texas, who had co-sponsored similar legislation in the House.

The Department of Agriculture had generally opposed the drought relief program in Congress, saying it would be too costly if applied uniformly nationwide.

Texas is nation's top farm state in most listed categories

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's top farm state? Depends how it's measured.

If the number of farms is the standard, Texas is first with 184,000 out of 2.4 million in the country in 1983. Followed by: Missouri, 117,000; Iowa, 115,000; Kentucky and Minnesota, each with 103,000; Illinois, 101,000; Tennessee, 95,000; and Ohio, 92,000.

But that's only one of a dozen categories listed Tuesday in a new issue of Farmlife, a magazine published by the Agriculture Department's Economic Research Service.

The agency ranked the top eight states in each category. Texas was first in four of the 12 categories; California and Iowa, each with three; and Arizona, two.

Here's how they stacked up, in order of listing: Land in farms, 1983, U.S. total, 1.04 billion acres — Texas, 138.3 million acres; Montana, 62.1 million; Kansas, 48.5 million; Nebraska, 47.6 million; New Mexico, 47 million; South Dakota, 44.5 million; North Dakota, 41.7 million; and Arizona, 38.9 million.

Number of cattle and calves on farms, 1983, U.S. total, 115 million — Texas, 15 million head; Nebraska, 7.2 million; Iowa, 6.5 million; Kansas, 5.8 million; Missouri, 5.5 million; Oklahoma, 5.4 million; California, 4.9 million; and Wisconsin, 4.4 million.

Number of hogs and pigs on farms, 1983, U.S. total, 57 million — Iowa, 15.2 million head; Illinois, 6 million; Indiana, 4.6 million; Minnesota, 4.5 million; Nebraska, 4 million; Missouri, 3.8 million; North Carolina, 2.2 million; and Ohio, 1.9 million.

Cash receipts from crop marketings, 1982, U.S. total, $74.4 billion — California, $9.94 billion; Illinois, $5.06 billion; Iowa, $4.33 billion; Texas, $4.25 billion; Florida, $3.31 billion; Minnesota, $3.13 billion; Nebraska, $2.86 billion; and Indiana, $2.82 billion.

Options told on buying or leasing farm equipment

COLLEGE STATION — When a farmer or rancher needs new equipment or machinery, is leasing or buying the best option?

Dr. Ashley Lovell of Stephenville, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, has analyzed these options for some alternative data obtained from several farm equipment dealers.

Total net cash flow after taxes indicated a negligible difference between leasing or buying, Dr. Lovell said. However, after annual net cash flows were converted or discounted to present dollar values, buying was estimated to be $383 less expensive than leasing for one set of data which was analyzed.

"However, one should not mistakenly conclude that buying is always less expensive than leasing," Dr. Lovell cautioned. "Different assumptions about discount rates and income tax factors can significantly affect costs of the options."

Results of an analysis several years ago by Dr. John Hopkin, professor of agricultural economics at Texas A&M University, indicated that the cash purchase choice was best at a low opportunity cost of capital, Dr. Lovell said. Dr. Hopkin also found that credit purchases were optimum over medium discount ranges and leasing was the most profitable method at high opportunity rates of return.

Dr. Lovell's study reveals that cost differences between various dealers representing various brands of equipment ranged as widely as differences between buying and leasing.

"In the 1980s, many producers may decide that leasing rather than traditional owning of equipment is the best alternative," Dr. Lovell said. "They need to identify advantages and shortcomings of financial leases. Just as in financing equipment purchases, read and study the lease contract."
