SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

A joint Armed Forces manufacturers exhibit will be held June 25-30 inclusive in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth. Prime contractors of the South, Southwest, Mid-West, and Rocky Mountains will display products they are now making for the Army, Navy, and Air Force, for the inspection of manufacturers who are potential sub-contractors for such work.

Admission will be granted upon presentation of business credentials at the registration desk at the Coliseum between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. All business men who are interested are invited to attend the exhibit.

O. T. Turner, former resident of Canyon and now a newspaper man in Santa Ana, Calif., was in Hereford Saturday looking up "old-timers".

Sgt. Hicklin Harrell, Army and Air Force recruiter here, said that from June 15 to July 15, selective service registrants who have been given pre-induction examinations and who have not received induction notification may enlist in the Army or Air Force.

Donnie Fellers, twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Byrdie D. Fellers, is reported in a satisfactory condition in a Dallas hospital following surgery on his hip last Monday. The operation was performed to further correct injury Donnie received last September when struck by an automobile while on his bicycle. He will be confined to the hospital for sometime. Mrs. W. R. Scheffgen, Donnie's grandmother, accompanied him to Dallas.

Dyathia Bradley said attendance was good at the initial meeting of the standard Red Cross first aid class begun Thursday night at the junior high school. A class of 15 persons is indicated, she said. The next meeting will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the junior high school.

School Board Hears Building Problems

Future steps to enlarge Hereford's public school facilities to accommodate anticipated enrollment increases were studied by the Hereford school board at its regular meeting Thursday night.

Restrictions imposed on building by the federal government, the increased cost of building, and the unstable market for municipal bonds were all mentioned as new problems facing Hereford since the defeat of the million-dollar bond issue in March.

Under present government regulations, construction of gymnasiums are forbidden except in extreme hardship cases. The construction of auditoriums where the use of steel will be a part of that construction is also forbidden by the most recent government directive.

A. J. Schroeter, president of the board, told members that a bond-purchaser's representative was in Hereford Tuesday discussing the sale of school construction bonds at Farwell. Bonds at Farwell, which is in better condition financially than Hereford, sold for 3.447% interest.

Schroeter estimated that on a similar issue if passed today, the bonds would cost between $125,000 and $175,000 due to the rise in the interest rate. At the time of the March issue proposal, the bonds were

Auditorium, Home Ec Lab Repair Approved

Repair of the Hereford high school auditorium and remodeling of the home economics laboratory was authorized at a meeting of the school board held Thursday night.

Replacing the patched plaster ceiling of the auditorium with acoustical tile was approved by the board at its meeting as the best available solution to repairing that room.

The board members were briefed on the problems in the home economics department by Superintendent George Graham and Principal Don Martin, and after inspection of the home economics and sewing rooms, they voted to approve that job also.

The wall to the small dining room used by the home ec department in the southeast corner of the sewing room will be torn out to provide more room for the girls in the sewing room.

Worktables in the home ec lab itself will be moved where possible and replaced with a continuous cabinet on the west wall of the room. Plumbing will be moved to a place along the wall and the kitchen stoves used by the home economics students will be placed in the center of the room.

This change will be in keeping with utilizing the available space to the best advantage and also in keeping with the modern trend in arranging home ec room appliances and fixtures, Graham said.

A floor covering should also be laid in the home ec room, the board decided Thursday evening.

Judgment Filed On DWI Charge

A judgement fining D. W. Wallace $100 and costs of $28.30 for driving while intoxicated was filed June 11 in the office of the county clerk of court.

Charges were filed against Wallace on December 18, 1950. According to the judgment, Wallace pled guilty to the charge on May 1, 1951. The fine was paid by check and cash on June 11.

already contracted for at 2% for the first 10 years, 2½% for the next 10 years, and 3% for the third 10-year period.

Superintendent George Graham explained that the interest rate on bonds had increased because of the unstable condition of government bonds. The government pulled the pegs from government bonds and most of the lending agencies had their money invested in government bonds.

Since government bonds are now on the competitive market, they have dropped in par value and the insurance companies have been forced to absorb the loss. This had dried up the market for municipal bonds, Graham explained.

Several different views presented at the meeting on what would be the future courses in regards to a building program. Merits of proposals aimed at calling a bond election in the fall and holding off for a few years were discussed during the evening.

Graham told the board he was of the opinion that the delay in construction from the first proposal issued to the district in January would already increase the cost of building "three or four hundred thousand dollars."

He also told the group that it would be unsound physiologically and educationally to move high school students to a building where no gym or auditorium facilities existed. Graham was of the opinion that an auditorium and gymnasium were two important parts of a school structure for school spirit. His contention that these two meant the difference between a satisfied and dissatisfied student body was seconded by Principal Don Martin.

Suggestions on erecting classroom space alone and relieving the load with the new building at the junior high level and keeping the senior high students in the same building were also thrown into the hopper during the course of the meeting.

The board made no definite steps toward starting a drive for another bond issue, but agreed to consider in their minds all the points expounded at the meeting and continue the discussion at a future meeting.

Mrs. Max Wood of Portland, Oregon is here to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. G. A. F. Parker who is ill in Deaf Smith county hospital. She was accompanied by her small daughter, Margaret, and will be joined here later by Mr. Wood and their two older daughters, Mrs. Parker's son, Bill Parker, of Palm Beach, Florida, is also here to see his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Freeman went to Estancia, N. M., Saturday, June 9, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Paul Kuhnlev, and family. While there, Freeman's visited Santa Fe and Albuquerque. They returned to Hereford Thursday.

Plan "Seal of Approval" For All Local Products

A non-profit "seal of approval" guaranteeing the authenticity of products grown or manufactured in Deaf Smith county is being worked out to enable local producers to take advantage of nation-wide publicity given Deaf Smith county products and "The Town Without a Toothache."

Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, made this statement upon returning from Washington, D. C., and from New York City where he consulted with the Pure Food and Drug Commission and with a nationally-known advertising agency on the matter.

In Washington, McFarland and David Rogers met with the first assistant to the commissioner of the Pure Food and Drug Administration. During the 1½-hour consultation, which was arranged by Congressman Walter Rogers and Santa Fe railroad political representatives, the two Deaf Smith county men showed facts and figures explaining what was happening not only to what would be our industries, but to people all over the country exploiting our home resources and products. This being done to a very high financial advantage.

McFarland and Rogers presented the story to the Pure Food and Drug man, asking for a "seal of approval", under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce, to the effect that we know that every product marketed in the country bearing that seal be known as produced, manufactured, or milled in this county.

By so doing, they stated, local industries can be taking advantage of nation-wide publicity given Deaf Smith county on its food and water.

The Pure Food and Drug man was sympathetic to the proposition, McFarland stated, but cautioned that such a seal could not bear the inscription, "The Town Without a Toothache" because there were toothaches here.

Anything clearly labeled as manufactured or produced in Deaf Smith county, McFarland stated, would carry the implication of "The Town Without a Toothache," without having to make the claim through registry of the slogan. There again, the nation-wide publicity given this county will be of much value in the "seal of approval" campaign.

Swinging to New York City, McFarland and Rogers conferred with an advertising agency executive who promised to give help on the composition of a seal. The firm saw no reason, the C of C secretary stated, why such a "seal of approval" couldn't be used and publicize Deaf Smith county foods. Eventually, they said, through dehydration, canning, milling, and manufacturing, this locality could establish a nation-wide market for foods through thousands of health food stores springing up through the nation.

"We don't feel the trip was 100% successful," McFarland said, "but we were brought from darkness into light on how to legally proceed on something that may eventually grow into a nice industry here."

Work is now under way on the seal, which will be available to any local producer or manufacturer on a non-profit basis from the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. John Albracht went yesterday to Roswell to visit their daughters, Mrs. Harry Hill and Mrs. Bill McGuire, and to see their new grandson in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McGuire. The Albrachts plan to return today.

To Elect Highway 60 Officers Wednesday

A meeting has been called for Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in Hotel Jim Hill to elect officers for a permanent Hereford Highway 60 association, to map plans, and approve or alter the proposed constitution and by-laws.

Several interested persons laid the foundation for Wednesday's meeting Friday when they met at Hotel Jim Hill to discuss a sample constitution and by-laws which were drafted.

A. J. "Major" Schroeter, a member of the national Highway 60 association, told the group that promoting traffic over this route across the nation would give Hereford a "great source of summer revenue."

Persons traveling over Highway 60 will spend money in Hereford be it for food, lodging, auto repairs, gas, entertainment, or various other things. That money will create more business activity for local people.

The importance of promoting traffic was pointed out by Schroeter when he explained that the national Highway 60 Association spent only $1900 promoting travel over that route, while the Highway 66 association spent in the neighborhood of $25,000 for the same purpose.

Those at the meeting felt that a greater knowledge of the purposes of a Highway 60 association and its purposes would benefit people living along the entire route in some form or another.

Tom McFarland, Hereford Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, just home for a week-long trip, in the East, pointed out the need for publicizing travel through any given part of the country because "the people know nothing of our wide, open spaces here."

Four New Buses Are Ordered by School System

Four new school buses have been ordered for the local school system, according to Superintendent George L. Graham. Two of the new buses seating 36 passengers, cost $3,275 each, while the other two, which have a seating capacity of 48, were $3635 each. The buses were purchased through the State Board of Control.

Three Scouters From Hereford Honored at Camp

Three local Boy Scouts were given special recognition at the week-long camp Don Herrington which ended Saturday.

At Friday night's Indian ceremonial campfire, Larry Slaughter, a member of Explorer Post 50, was recognized as one of two honor campers from among 75 Scouts at the camp.

At the conclusion of the ceremonial campfire, Tom Woodford, a member of Explorer Post 50, and Donald Zimmerman, Troop 52, were two of seven campers chosen for the Order of Black Arrow, honorary Scout camping fraternity.

The group from Hereford returned Saturday afternoon at about 4 p.m.

Castor Beans Above Average In Fields Here

Deaf Smith county's castor bean crop is looking far above average, according to Paul Wiles, representative from the Baker Castor Bean corporation, who was here last week checking the progress of the latest crop experiment in this area. Mr. Wiles was very optimistic, saying that almost every field was up to a perfect stand, and that the beans here will probably catch up with the crops that were planted earlier in the Wellington and Vernon areas.

He also observed that chances are high that growers of the castor beans will be able to market their crop in Hereford. Anyone who is still interested in raising the castor bean is urged to do so, as planting may be done as late as the last of this month. There are still 800 to 1000 pounds of seed available. The seed may be obtained by contacting Tom McFarland, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, at Hotel Jim Hill.

Korean Vet Visits Here

Sgt. James H. Cornet, formerly of Hereford, is in town visiting friends with whom he went to school. He has been in Korea and was returned to the States on May 2.

Having fought with the 82nd Airborne division in Europe in World War II, Sgt. Cornet is now an instructor of small arms at Ft. Benning, Ga. He has been in the army for 16 years, and plans to remain in the service indefinitely.

Reeves Better

Chief of Police Floyd Reeves' condition is reported by hospital authorities to be improved. X-rays have been made, and it has been determined that there is no brain concussion, and no apparent internal injuries.

Reeves was injured last Monday night while investigating a traffic accident at the intersection of Highway 60 and Park Avenue.

Sign-Up Begins For Swim Lessons

Swimming instruction classes for all ages and all stages of instruction will be organized at the Hereford Municipal swimming pool during the coming week, according to Kenneth Vaughn, manager of the pool.

Actual beginning date for the lessons will be Monday, June 25, Vaughn stated.

Sign-ups will be held during the morning hours for the classes, which will be of six to eight weeks duration. Beginner, intermediate, and advanced classes of instruction will be given, Vaughn said.

Cost of the lessons will be 25c for children and 50c for adults. Classes will be one hour in length and will be limited, if possible, to 15 members to each class.

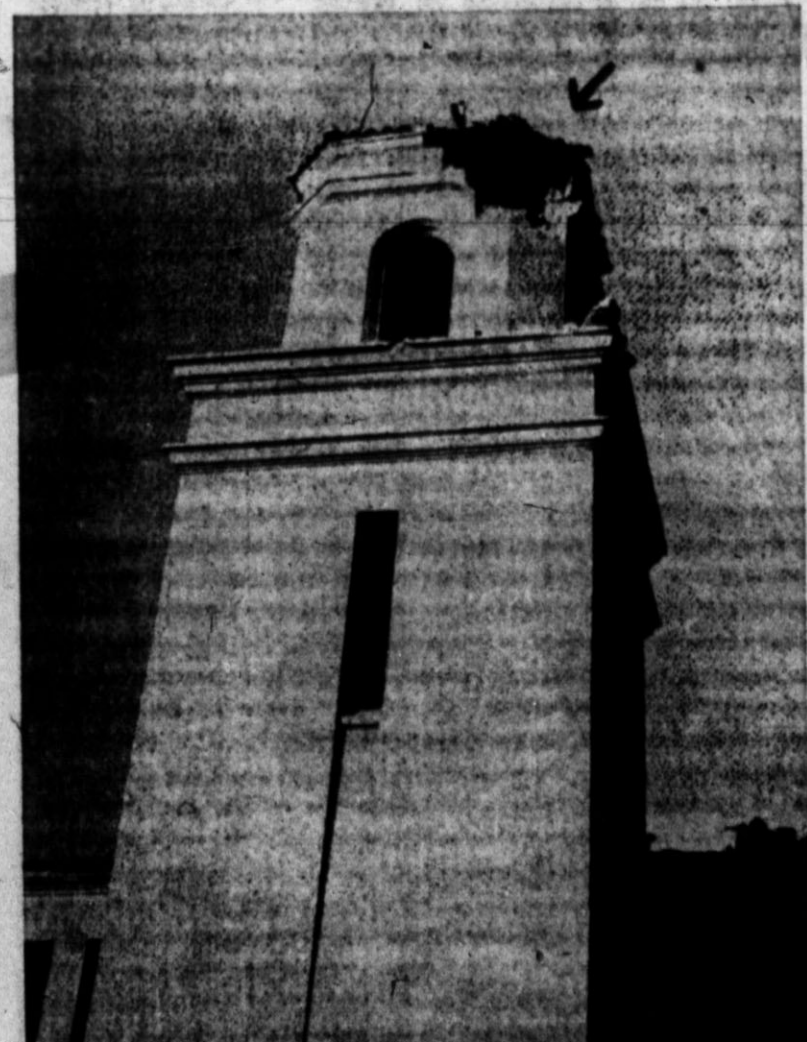

Instruction will start about 10 a.m. each morning. If necessary, each of the three stages of instruction will be further broken down into age groups.

If the weather is satisfactory, the lessons will be completed before the end of the summer.

All interested in swimming lessons, regardless of swimming proficiency, are asked to stop at the pool during the coming week and contact Vaughn.

The fish was caught on Monday, June 4. The Kerrs went to Panama City to visit their son, Clifford, who is in the Air Force there. This is the first time Norman had ever been deep-sea fishing.

A BOLT OF LIGHTNING from the heavy clouds over Hereford Friday night knocked a large hole in the belfry of the St. Anthony's church now under construction at the corner of Harrison highway and 25-Mile Avenue. The lightning struck at about 6:30, according to C. M. Hicks, who is in charge of the construction. A complete estimate of the damage was not readily available. The bolt struck just under the wooden roof of the belfry. There was no other damage reported from the storm. Nothing was visible from the air over the area to indicate heavy storm damage. Frio Home Makers Club Met June 13 in Home of Mrs. E. F. Vogler

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
The Frio Home Makers club met in the home of Mrs. E. F. Vogler on Wednesday, June 13, to hear a very interesting program on "Labels" conducted by Mrs. Harold Shearhart. Mrs. E. H. Little gave a talk also, explaining the inspection seals on some canned foods. She told about the government inspection of butter, how it is judged for uniformity of quality, and how the consumer is protected by the pure food laws. Mrs. Shearhart listed the requirements by law for information on food labels and explained about the grading of fruits and vegetables. She explained that the law requires a packing company to list the ingredients in a can in order as to quantity; for example if a can of soup contains mostly beans, then the words "beans" must be listed first with ingredients of lesser quantity following in order.

It was announced at the meeting that the International Harvester frozen-food expert, who was to give the club a demonstration at the REA building on June 27, will be unable to be there. The club voted to try at a later date to arrange for the demonstration. The June 27 meeting will be held at the Glenn Gripp home, and the program will be on "Posture" with Mesdames E. F. Vogler, Henry Andrews, and Henry Dobbs on the program. Those present were Mesdames Floyd Cole, E. H. Little, Glenn Gripp, Spicer Gripp, H. E. Lindley, Owen Andrews, H. F. Benson, W. A. Her many friends are happy to know that Mrs. Don Robbins is making a satisfactory recovery from polio, suffered several months ago. Mrs. Frank Robbins had her parents, the Fred Moremans, visiting in her home on Wednesday. Her sister, Mrs. Orville Edwards, and family visited her on Tuesday.

Veradelle Andrews heard from her school chum, Virginia Brock, who was on a tour with the Camp Fire Girls. It seems that the cool snap last week was felt up north, as well as here. Virginia stated that they were camping in tents, and that six inches of snow had fallen on Saturday night, near Salt Lake City. The girls had already been to Yellowstone Park, and were on their way home.

Buford Nichols from California spent Thursday night in the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Andrews, and family. Mr. Nichols, who moved his family this year from Idaho to California, has been to Littlefield for some time with his father, as the senior Mr. Nichols has been seriously ill.

T. L. Sparkman Sr. has been ill since Tuesday. Mrs. W. A. Springer attended the bridal shower Tuesday at the Floyd West home at Hereford, honoring Miss Naomi McGee, bride-elect of Dwain Walker.

Iowa Woman Unloads on Truman; Fulton Lewis Letter Reprinted

(Ed. Note—The following letter was taken from Fulton Lewis' newspaper column under a Washington, April 26 date-line. The letter has been reprinted hundreds and hundreds of times, but never has it been reprinted in this area. Sam Nunnally has mimeographed copies of the letter and has sent them out to his mailing list. We reprint it here as an example of how aroused public opinion can show itself in the mail of our legislators and even our President.)

"Out of the hundreds of thousands of letters and telegrams that bombarded Washington as a result of President Truman's firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, several thousand came to my office. One or two seemed to summarize all the resentment in hearts of American fathers and mothers who have youngsters fighting in Korea.

"Mrs. Walter H. Jensen, of Sioux City, Ia., unloaded her feeling on President Truman, and was kind enough to send along a copy of the telegram to me. Here it is: "Dear Mr. President: "Since you believe in firing those who do not see eye to eye with you in the way to settle the Korean situation, please fire my son Marine Pfc. W. L. Jensen 667061, FPO, San Francisco, Calif. He is one of your so-called marine policemen. He doesn't see any sense of going to Korea, maybe to die if the source of supply for the Communies is left intact. Out here in these parts we don't kill rattlesnakes by stepping on their tails. Maybe you think my loss and grief will be less if he dies in your contained war, than if he dies fighting an all-out war on the Communies.

RECALL HIM NOW "Please recall Walter at once as he doesn't believe in your Dean Acheson's method of fighting Communies. Incidentally, my son was a marine reservist in his second year of pre-law college when you called him up in October, with no delay for him to finish the semester, no tests to gain deferment. He just went in when he was called.

"If my only child dies, don't try to ease your conscience and send me any medals. Since you are an old artillery officer you know what you can do with them. And get Dean Acheson to help you."

"I send this with full knowledge that you are commander-in-chief but also a vindictive man, but go ahead and dish it out. My son is a marine and can take anything a former army artillery officer can dish out. I just read a magazine article about what a good hater you are. I am a good hater, too. I wouldn't vote for you again for an $8000 pastel blue mink coat.

"Yours, until next election. "P.S. Margaret sings here Saturday night, April 21. I thought sacrifice like charity begins at home. Why isn't she in Korea singing for the GIs? "If they don't like her long-haired singing she can carry bedpans. That doesn't require any special training. Neither does it bring in $1500 per bedpan. "Don't write me any nasty letters as I get riled up about my only kid, too, as well as all the other poor guys in Korea."

Camp Fire Girls Return From Two-Week Vacation

By Mrs. Earl Plank
The Ta-Wan-Ka Camp Fire girls returned Thursday evening from a two-week trip made in the Camp Fire girls bus.

The first stop was at Denver, where they were guests of the Denver Camp Fire Girls organization at Camp Rollandeta, a beautiful lodge in north west Denver. Visits were made to the Colo. state capital and museum, Denver Post, city park, and zoo, national history museum, Lookout Mt., and Red Rock theatre and park. On Sat. night, they were entertained by the Denver Horizon Club girls.

Leaving Denver, they followed the Lincoln highway west, camping at Old Ft. Steel on the Platt river in Wyoming the first night. The second night out from Denver was spent at Camp Creek, a dude ranch on the Hoback river, where the girls enjoyed the lovely log cabins and beautifully furnished lodge.

The next day they traveled through the Jackson Hole country and Grand Teton national park, stopping to see Jenny lake.

Entering Yellowstone park at noon they followed the Lewis river up to the Thumb which is located on the west side of Yellowstone lake. Here they viewed the Paint Pots. Continuing on around the lake, they took the side trip to see the natural bridge, back to the main hi-way and around to the Mud Volcano and the Dragon's Mouth.

That night they had cabins at Canyon, where it snowed about an inch. The next morning they drove out to Artist Point where they could view the beautiful canyon and the lower falls which drops 308 ft. Driving through Dunraven Pass, the snow was higher than the bus. The girls had to get out and take pictures and throw a few snow balls.

Getting down close to Tower Junction, they saw their first bears. From there on around to Old Faithful they counted 27 bears. One mama bear had three cubs.

At Mammoth Hot Springs, they climbed up to the top of the formation from which seeps hot water at all times. Traveling around the loop they saw elk, deer, moose, buffalo, and Canadian geese. From Norris to Madison Junction and on to Old Faithful was a continuous Geyser Basin with steam rising everywhere.

Old Faithful Geyser erupted 15 minutes after they arrived. From there they back tracked along the Firehole river, through the Purple mountains to Madison Junction. That night was spent in West Yellowstone, where it snowed six inches, but was quite warm.

The next morning they crossed the corner of Montana and over into Idaho. They ate lunch at the city park in Pocatello. Camp was made that night at Bear River City in Utah.

They arrived in Salt Lake City about mid-morning and went to the Temple Square. Here they visited the museum and were conducted on a tour of interest. At 12 noon they attended an organ recital in the Mormon Tabernacle. The tabernacle organ is known the world over. That afternoon all of the girls took swim in the Great Salt Lake.

That night they camped at Lake Utah at Provo. It was an unusually beautiful evening with the sunset on the lake and the mountains which surround it.

The next day they drove to a ranch near Colbran, Colo. which is northeast of Grand Junction. Here they enjoyed horseback riding, a trip up to a mountain cabin and were entertained by the Girl Scouts of Colbran.

From Grand Junction they took the Million Dollar Hi-way to Durango and from there drove over to Mesa Verde national park. Here they visited the Cliff Dwellings and Archeological Museum. Cliff Palace, is the largest known cliff dwelling in the world.

Lunch was eaten south of Cortez, Colo. The afternoon was spent driving through the Indian country of Farmington and on to Albuquerque where they spent the night.

Leaving Albuquerque they drove to Santa Rosa where they ate lunch at the city park and visited the Blue Hole.

It was a happy bunch of girls who crossed the Texas state line that evening. They all thought it was nice to go traveling but it was nicer to come home.

Girls making the trip were: Marcella Bezner, Virginia Brock, Evelyn Wilf, Patsy Jackson, Earlene Plank, Rita Vinton, Donnie Johnson, Cieta Betzen, Dorothy Hund, Sandra Wright, Carolina Rothwell. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank.

Members attending were Mesdames Earl Dehart, C. S. Barclay, R. C. Childers, R. N. Cooke, Pat Robinson, Paul Corbett, Art Lewis, Charlie Hodges and the hostess, Mrs. Packard.

Mr. R. L. Doss, father of Mrs. J. T. Richardson, is very ill in the local hospital. All of his children are here. They are Mrs. Clyde Dellenger, from

Hereford Beats Spring Lake, 4-2

Hereford's baseball team traveled to Spring Lake Thursday night and broke a year-long jinx, handing the home-standers a neat 4-2 defeat behind the six-hit pitching of Andy Anderson.

Following the low-hit pattern of their defeat of Tulla, the local nine fashioned its victory on two hits.

Anderson kept the Spring Lake nine in check after their second inning splurge when they scored their two tallies.

Thursday night's game was a fast contest with good pitching by both hurlers.

On Tuesday night, Spring Lake returns for a rematch. Game time will be at 8:30 p.m.

HH, Dawn League Nines Take Tilts

Wednesday Games

Hereford Hardware defeated the Magnolia Oilers at Veterans Memorial park Wednesday night in an abbreviated softball tilt, 10-0 in five innings.

In the nightcap, Dawn overpowered the Knights of Columbus 16-8.

In the first game of the doubleheader, which was washed out Monday night, the Oilers were let down with one hit and one walk by Dub Hair, who commanded the mound for the winner. Hereford Hardware, meanwhile, picked up eight hits off the slants of Logan Bars, erstwhile moundsman for the losers.

Magnolia suffered through its own boos, however, kicking the ball nine times to once for the victors.

In the second game Wednesday night, Dawn used 14 safeties to fashion out their 16-8 victory, their first of the season in Hereford Softball league play.

Johnny McBroom, on the mound for the winners, held the KC's to six hits while his mates garnered 14.

Monday's schedule in the softball loop calls for Magnolia to meet Summerfield in the opener and C&R and Dawn to fight it out in the nightcap. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Nunnally Warns of Creeping Socialism

The menace of "creeping socialism" in America was the topic of a speech by Sam Nunnally Thursday noon at the Hereford Kiwanis club.

Nunnally traced the beginnings of British Socialism back to its beginning with Webb, McDonald, and Shaw in 1883 to the present day Labor party and its socialistic programs for England.

He warned of the increasing socialistic tendencies on the American scene and the "planned economy" American politicians have tried to establish here. Nunnally told of the increasing list of federal, state, and local officials, saying that one of every six men, women, and children in the US today draw some form of government compensation.

Carnival, derived from the Latin "carne vale", means "farewell meat."

YOUNG ARF IS ALLOWED NO TIME TO BROOD OVER HIS MISFORTUNES, BUT MUST COMPLETE THREE COPIES OF HIS REPORT TO KING AGUAR, EACH TO BE CARRIED BY A DIFFERENT MESSENGER. SUCH ARE THE DANGERS OF TRAVEL AT THE BEGINNING OF THE DARK AGE.

TO EGIL AND RUFUS FALLS THE TASK OF GUIDING THE MISSIONARIES ACROSS HALF THE KNOWN WORLD. LEAVING RAVENNA, THEY TAKE THE ROAD TO ROME.

CHURCHMEN, CLERKS AND SERVANTS GO ARMED AS WARRIORS. THEY WILL TEACH OF PEACE AND MERCY WHEN THEY REACH THULE, BUT FIRST THEY MUST SURVIVE THE LONG JOURNEY.

WINTER IS UPON THEM; SNOW MANTLES THE MOUNTAINS AND COLD RAINS SWEEP THE VALLEYS. A SWOLLEN RIVER BARS THE WAY AND THEY MUST CAMP UNTIL THE FLOOD SUBSIDES. RUFUS IS IMPATIENT. "LET US RIDE UPSTREAM, EGIL, PERHAPS THERE IS A CROSSING HIGHER UP."

A PATH LEADS UPWARD TOWARD MOUNT TITAN. SOON THEY CAN SEE FRESHLY TILLED SOIL, YOUNG FRUIT TREES, A VINEYARD.....

.....THEN A DEEP VOICE BRINGS THEM TO A HALT. A HUGE STONE CUTTER, HAMMER IN HAND, BARS THE WAY!

LT. J. W. ROBINSON Jr. tells his Dad good by before leaving for Camp Hood. Lt. Robinson expects to sail from New Orleans for overseas duty early in July. If plans work out as expected he will be stationed at Bremerhaven, Germany, where his Dad was stationed for 13 months during the first World War.

WHO WOULDN'T WANT a cherry-almond pie for Father's Day? The way things look J. B. Noland is having to share his Father's Day pie with small members of his family. Linda Kay-10, Jerre Bea-6, and Larry, age 2½ years, are about ready to sample a slice. (Recipe for the pie inside).

Mary DeLozier, Gene Smith Repeat Vows in Home Ceremony

Miss Mary DeLozier and Gene Smith were united in marriage Sunday, June 10, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert DeLozier, Route 2, Hereford. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery V. Smith.

MRS. GENE SMITH

The informal candlelight service was held before an improvised altar arrangement of graduated candelabra, bouquets of pink gladioli and a background of greenery. The Reverend Earl Landtroop, former pastor of the Dimmitt Baptist church, officiated.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Pat Youts who also accompanied Don Nelson, who sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Miss Maurine Smithson attended the bride as bridesmaid. She was dressed in white linen with white accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage. Robert Smith, the bridegroom's brother of San Jacinto, California, served as best man. Cand-

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white organza frock designed with fitted bodice with small collar attached and bouffant skirt featuring a scalloped hemline. She carried a white Bible topped with pink rosebuds cascaded with stephanotis and white satin streamers.

After the ceremony guests were served refreshments from a lace laid table where the bride's colors of pink and white were accented in the table centerpiece of larkspur and baby's breath. Appointments were in crystal. Pat DeLozier and Lanelle Clowdus served punch and Mrs. George DeLozier served the wedding cake.

The couple will make their home on a farm near Dimmitt. Mrs. Smith graduated from Dimmitt high school this year and was manager of the Dimmitt Bobbies, Dimmitt high school's winning basket ball team.

Mr. Smith is a graduate of Domona, Calif. high school. He came to Texas in January 1951, and established a farm seven miles north of Dimmitt.

WILL ATTEND CALIF. SCHOOL

Jacqueline Newell left Wednesday for Los Angeles where she will enroll at Los Angeles State college for a six-weeks course in special art study. While there she will visit in the home of an uncle, Kenneth Rayzor.

Miss Newell is a senior art student at West Texas State college and will return in time for the opening of the fall session. She will receive her degree next June. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell.

Lovely Shower-Tea Honors Mary Ellen Henslee Tues.

A lovely tea and shower was given Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. O. Newell to compliment Miss Mary Ellen Henslee bride-elect of Lt. Geo. L. Mager of Amarillo.

The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were carried out in the decorative motif with arrangements of Canterbury Bells in the receiving rooms and blue and white larkspur centering the refreshment table. Blue tapers flanked the flower arrangement with a double appearance created by the large wall mirror in the background. Cake squares were topped with dainty blue flowers and appointments were in crystal. Mrs. Charles Hill and Mrs. Warren Hitchings presided.

Mrs. Newell greeted the guests at the door and the receiving line was made up of the honoree, her mother, Mrs. H. E. Henslee, her sister, Mrs. Garret Fox of Lubbock, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Henslee.

Other hostesses besides Mrs. Newell were: Mesdames C. O. Wilkins, E. S. Ireland, A. Petersen, Henry Hastings, Chas. Hill, John Winkler, L. H. Lookingbill, Lyle Blanton and Donald Henslee. Hostess duties were assumed by members of the house-party. Those signing the register were: Mesdames Boyd London, J. H. Lomas, B. R. Dixon of Amarillo, F. L. Terrell, Tom Alderson, Claude McGowen Jr., W. E. Dunlap, Woodrow Ireland, Elizabeth Bonesio, Don Little, Douglas Groom, Frank Gyles,

4-H Work Draws 116,713 Texas Youths into Clubs

Midway of the century, 116,713 Texas rural boys and girls were enrolled in 4-H demonstration work in agriculture and home economics. This great army of youths organized into 4,793 clubs "to make the best better," represented by one out of every seven rural boys and girls of admissible age in the state. By groups they numbered 94,063 white and 24,174 negro boys and girls.

The supreme value of this practical educational work conducted by the A&M College Extension Service is its formative influence upon youth. It touches all phases of agriculture and homemaking in the form of demonstrations. Doing it themselves not only removes prejudices against methods, but teaches that advanced practices in the business of farming and ranching are economical and profitable. In learning by doing, club members averaged 1.87 demonstrations in 1950 and 73 percent completed them. As a consequence, youth demonstration work reached 67,782 farm and ranch homes and 21,140 others.

The most popular demonstration on the basis of the number participating was swine, with poultry (including turkeys), beef cattle, home gardens, dairy cattle and sheep next in order. Clothing topped the list with home economics demonstrations, while foods, home furnishings and room improvement, home gardens and food preservation followed. It is worth noting, however, that girls did not overlook opportunities to demonstrate their versatility in agricultural demonstrations popular with boys. In 1950, they conducted demonstrations with poultry, dairy and beef cattle, sheep, swine, and horses and mules. All demonstrations were supervised by county Extension agents.

According to the state leaders, obtaining and training adult and junior volunteer leaders was a major problem. Notwithstanding, 9,963 such leaders were available to work with the clubs largely as a result of 2,754 leader training meetings during the year. Meanwhile, the Texas 4-H council and 418 community 4-H clubs were organized.

Other activities included holding 15 district laboratories, and 15 district 4-H camps attended by 3,750 boys and girls. Seven of the camps were conducted jointly. A total of 1,200 boys and girls and 250 adult leaders from over the state were present at the annual state 4-H Round-up, while 33 Texas delegates attended the National 4H Congress at Chicago. Five of these were sectional and national award winners. A total of 3,824 club members were awarded medals in county award programs, while recognition awards were presented to persons, other than adult leaders, who had contributed to the promotion of 4-H work. Eight county, two district and two statewide recipients were thus honored.

A progressive four-phase program sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation in cooperation with the extension Service, attracted large participation by 4-H club members in 1950. The foundation furnished original and replacement breeding stock for swine in 161 counties; dairying in 54; poultry in 44; and sheep in six. A state 4-H club leader is responsible for the operational portion of the program, while county agricultural agents supervise carrying it out.

Club demonstrators with livestock exhibited freely at state and national stock shows and in many cases placed highly in class judging. But the major trend is toward the production of a good type of commercial beef animal.

George Pace Jr. and family of Amarillo visited in the home of his father, George Pace Sr., Wednesday afternoon. The younger Pace recently moved to Amarillo and is employed by the Wholesale Grocers. He was formerly employed by Plains Creamery in Hereford.

Wedding Of Interest Here

Of interest here to the many friends of the W. B. Little family of Littlefield, is the marriage of their daughter, Billy Ruth to Fuston McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McCarty of Muleshoe.

The ceremony took place in the Methodist church of Littlefield on Friday, June 8, with Rev. Craft, pastor of the Methodist church of Haskell, officiating.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Little home.

Mrs. McCarthy is a graduate of Littlefield high school and a senior at Texas Technological college, Lubbock. Mr. McCarty is a senior at Texas A&M college. The couple will reside on a farm in Muleshoe for the summer but will go to college Station in the fall where he will resume his studies.

Those from Hereford attending the wedding and the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Mrs. P. L.

Dishman, Mrs. J. L. Mauk, and Mrs. Forrest Minton.

O. E. S. Holds Stated Meet

Hereford chapter of the Order of Eastern Star held a stated June meeting at the Masonic Hall Tuesday night. Mrs. W. S. Fluitt and Mrs. Jack Brown served as hostesses for the social hour.

The meeting was opened by old officers who will retire when new officers are installed.

A past-matrons pin was presented to the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Ada Higgins, by Mrs. Vivian Major for the chapter. Mrs. Bessie Jones presented the officers gift to the retiring worthy matron and Bill Jones presented the chapter gift to the retiring worthy matron, G. T. Higgins.

In conclusion Mrs. Higgins presented gifts to her corps of officers serving during her term.

HAIL DAMAGE HIGH

The Canyon News reports many damages inflicted by the recent hail storm there. Among them are the following: hundreds of residences badly damaged; windows in public buildings smashed; trees stripped of their foliage; livestock injured and bruised by hailstones as big as golf balls; and damages to automobiles up to $350. Even a hoe that was hanging on the side of a barn got half of its handle chewed up.

MIGHTY LOW

According to The County Wide News, Littlefield's paper, citizens of Sudan awoke one morning to find that a score of their dogs had been poisoned overnight. Officials promise heavy prosecution for the culprit as soon as he can be identified. Most of the unlucky dogs were described as pets, none of which were vicious or harmful.

—pp—

MORE WOE FROM THE WEATHER

In Wheeler county, a flash flood ruined more crops, washed out roads, and damaged or washed out earthen dams Tuesday, June 5. The damage was stated to be "millions of dollars worth" in The Wheeler Times. Fish were washed high and dry and many men and boys enjoyed "fishing by hand." Some bass that were picked up were reported to weigh as much as five pounds.

RACE RIOT

Lawrence Banks down at Levelland, states The Hockley County Herald, was watching his car take a surprising lead in a stock car race and became so excited that he jumped up in his seat in the grandstand to cheer the auto on. His car won, and without a scratch, but Mr. Banks, in his frenzied support, unfortunately broke his left ankle, and it was not known whether or not he saw the finish.

IRISH ALL THE WAY

The secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce in Shamrock is just the man for the job. The Shamrock Texan says that besides being patriotic enough to have an Irish name to fit the town's name, Patrick Ryan's parents were obliging enough to see to it that he was born on St. Patrick's Day.

—pp—

DOLLAR DAY DEAL

Also in Shamrock, a six-foot bullsnake was found lying dead in the middle of the shopping district. Some sources say that the snake was investigating the Dollar Day specials and was trampled in the rush.

—pp—

GOOD IDEA

You can't say that Dalhart isn't interested in their football team. According to The Dalhart Texan, 30 men and eight boys turned out Wednesday evening with ready hoes to clear the weeds and grass burrs from the football field. From all indications they intend to keep it up, too, until the field is clean.

BIRD FARM

The State Line Tribune in Farwell relates that a new enterprise will soon be in existence. A program to raise Northwester pheasant-chicken hybrids will be located in the Farwell-Texico area, the first shipment to be over 3000 of the white-meated birds. John Getz, manager of Farmers Supply in Texico, says that 1000 of the birds will be released to local growers, and that the rest will be fed out and sold commercially. The Bell Packing company of Lubbock has already contracted for the fowls.

'Tater Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

Flag Day brought quite a display of Old Glory along Main street Thursday and it's a comfort to know that politics haven't completely engulfed patriotism.

Since we had a sister in the tornado area in Amarillo a few years ago we can understand to a degree at least what our neighbor, Mrs. O. C. Williams' concern must have been for her four children and their families who live at White Deer until word came through later that night that all had escaped injury or loss in the storm.

Mrs. Horace Williams and her three children who are vitin' in the Williams home feel pretty fortunate to have a home left in the neighborhood where damage was heavy.

On the golf course John Patton no doubt beams over a low score but he is equally pleased over the recognition his company has given him for 25 years continuous service with one insurance company—The Home Insurance Company.

That he also has a nice sense of humor is evident by the newspaper clippings' under glass on his desk.

Buster, our pug-nosed youngster gave us a chuckle the other day with a brand new angle on the dashund, the dog he always remembers as bein' a dog and a half long and a half a dog high.

His observation is that if one of these dogs with the low-built chassis were to start across our field after a rabbit he would likely hit a clod and get stuck on high center.

The BOOTLEG —Philosopher

MacArthur Flouts Orders

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm near Bootleg, has joined the defense effort, in his own peculiar fashion, his letter this week reveals.

I was readin in a paper this afternoon which I'd been carryin around in my pocket several days, never have believed in gettin in a hurry, if you haven't heard it before, news is fresh whether you run into it thirty minutes or thirty days after it happens, although this ain't always true of gossip, where Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson has called on the nation to put off all "postponeable" projects for the duration of the defense emergency, so materials and energies can be channelled into the defense effort.

Now he didn't give a detailed list of the projects which ought to be postponed, but I have a good many out here which I have been postponin for several years and I would like for the Defense Director to know I will fall in line with his program and continue postponin them and as a patriotic gesture run in a lot of new ones. This country ain't gonna be unprepared on my account.

I read somewhere one time where Mark Twain said he always put off answerin his mail for six months and it would surprise you how few letters then needed answerin, and I have found the same thing to be true out here on my farm. For example I postponed choppin my cotton last year and it's certainly true it don't need choppin now. I never did get around to breakin my garden early this spring, and it certainly wouldn't do any good to do it now. On cold wet winter nights last year I occasionally stayed inside the house and postponed milkin my cow, and a man who thinks he can go back and make up for them postponements now just ain't familiar with milk cows.

However, in spite of the postponements, the cow seems to be doin all right, gives a full two quarts at every milkin, don't seem to be holdin a grudge against me, and I figure my garden will produce about as much this year as any other.

If I postpone sendin in any money to renew my subscription to your paper, just keep sendin it, postpone stoppin it. After all, if I'm gonna do my part by postponin for defense, you ought to do yours.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION

Truman, Mac, Ike, Johnson, Taft Seen as Leading Vote-Getters

If a presidential election were to be held today, who do you think would be the top vote-getter for the Democratic party? For the Republican party? What reasons prompt your beliefs?

BILL HEMBREE—Robert Taft, in my opinion, would be elected on the Republican ticket. He's smart, works hard, and I think the people would favor him. The Democratic party would probably put up President Truman again—I don't believe they have anyone else.

MRS. IRVING ALEXANDER—I believe that the general feeling of dissatisfaction toward the government today would turn the votes toward the Republican party and General Eisenhower. We need someone who would be honest and frank with the people. Truman would probably run again for the Democratic party.

MRS. PAUL HARVEY—Due to the fact that I don't think the American people are in favor of a change now, I believe that President Truman would draw more votes for the Democratic party. General MacArthur, because of his recent popularity, would more than likely be best on the Republican ticket.

BILL KNOX—Governor Earl Warren of California seems to me to be the best bet for the Republican party. For the Democrats, Sen. Lyndon Johnson would probably make a good showing.

ELMER COMBS—I believe that General Eisenhower would win on either ticket. Sen. Taft might stand a good chance running for the Republicans.

MRS. JACK BROWN—In both parties, I think the candidate will be someone who is not prominent in today's affairs—an "unknown."

Business Success Due To Pleasing Buying Public

Another benefit of the American system of free enterprise was pointed out rather dramatically through a recent press service story stating that membership in the "billion dollar club" had risen to 58 American business empires.

In no other country could free enterprise flourish so well. Bigness is not badness under the American Constitution, as long as that bigness doesn't infringe on the rights of other Americans.

Billion-dollar enterprises came to be billion-dollar enterprises because of only one thing: they gave the American buyer what he wanted for his dollar. Their success was not achieved through any magic formula or any other hokus-pokus.

A system of free enterprise, where ingenuity reaps its own reward in growth and continued prosperity, cannot be topped by anything any other country in the world has to offer.

Free enterprise must pay a huge amount of its earnings in taxes. It's paying its own way and is not living off the lifeblood of the American citizen.

Through a system of free enterprise, each merchant up and down the street may harbor in the recesses of his mind the dream that some day he, too, may enjoy such an overabundance of success in his chosen field that he will grow larger and larger.

The knowledge that we are not limited by our government in the amount of growth spurs on man's imagination and creativeness in this democracy to explore new worlds and reach for new horizons.

Go down through the list of American firms now in the "billion dollar club." How many do you find that started with assets as great as they now have? Not one. Their size is the result of hard work, good investments, intelligent planning, and pleasing the public, which after all, is responsible for that growth.

Increased government regulations make it a hard row to hoe for American business. But as long as control of that business stays in the hands of individuals in all walks of life, our system of free enterprise will not be snuffed out.

Democracy and a free enterprise system—even in its worst form—is far better than a system of confiscation and socialization. We should be diligent in our fight against such a fate for America.—W.W.K.

Aims of United Nations Organization are Worthy

During its short but stormy life, the United Nations organization has been faced with many problems. The solutions found for many of these problems have invoked varied comment from diplomatic and lay circles.

Many have felt the UN, as a deterrent to irresponsible aggression, has been a failure. Many feel that too much fuming oration has been allowed and not enough determination of purpose has been displayed by that body.

We may not all agree with the methods being used by the United Nations in trying to avert further world-wide conflicts, but we cannot argue with the avowed purpose of the UN.

We can never have a successful organization unless all parties in that organization are willing to abide by majority decisions of its members.

Some feel the UN is showing a weakness by not making a more determined stand against Communism in Korea. That may be true. Certainly the UN members could supply more troops to that fighting area so the U. S. load would be less.

A world governing body, such as the UN is intended to be, or such as the League of Nations was to have been, cannot survive without the whole-hearted cooperation of all involved. America must answer its call to leadership, to do all she can to make the UN work, and to call the hand of Russia or any other nation which seeks to sacrifice the freedom of mankind for party gain.

When the UN gets over its "growing pains" and the pressure of public opinion and collective economic and military sanctions bear fruit, we should find ourselves with a peaceful way of settling international disputes over the conference table rather than on the battlefield.—W. W. K.

Health and welfare officials in Hereford have been overly-diligent in their efforts to bring to this community a sound health program which will assure the greatest amount of good for the majority of people.

The recent approval—for the third consecutive year—of a visiting nursing program for the labor camp is a good indication of this. Several citizens took it upon themselves to urge such a nursing program for the migrant laborers coming into the community.

Our city officials and officials at the labor camp have been far-sighted enough to cooperate in the sponsorship of this added health facility.

Only by taking such preventative measures can we assure ourselves of ever trying to achieve a healthy community.—W.W.K.

Highway Death Toll Passes War

Last week President Truman appealed to the nation on behalf of highway safety, citing figures showing our own carelessness on the highway was our greatest enemy as far as fatalities are concerned.

His words were pathetically true. And there's only one way to remedy the situation. We must do it ourselves through more careful and considerate handling of our vehicles on the road.

If our highway death were tabulated as war fatalities, we would rise up in indignation to ban war for all time. Yet we pass it off when such massacre occurs on the highway.

We are all potential killers when we slide behind the wheel of a car and head for the open highway.

The only thing that keeps us from accidents which might prove fatal to us or our loved ones is the use of highway courtesy and extreme caution combined with good horse sense.—W. W. K.

Livestock Slaughterers Warned by DiSalle on Overbidding on Stock

Price Stabilization Michael V. DiSalle today cautioned livestock slaughterers against overbidding for live cattle.

He warned that some slaughterers may be headed toward violations of the Office of Price Stabilization's ceilings at the end of June accounting period.

Unless these slaughterers stop overbidding the price of cattle, he added, they may find themselves out of compliance with regulation and subject to its penalty provisions, including civil and criminal actions as well as reductions in their July slaughter quotas.

"I want to go on record right now while this program is just getting started that violations of cattle price ceilings will not be condoned any more than the violation of any other price regulation," Mr. DiSalle said.

"Live cattle prices have been under ceilings only since June 4, but from the reports we are receiving some slaughterers may find it rough going when they try to 'even out' during the remainder of the June accounting period.

"I want to caution them now to get back in line and to cooperate with this program." Mr. DiSalle said some slaughterers appeared to be paying $1 to $1.50 a hundred pounds above ceilings. To average out in compliance with the ceilings they will have to buy cattle later in the month at less than ceiling prices.

The regulation does not set ceiling prices on individual cattle, but it establishes a "maximum permissible price" which slaughterers on the average, can pay for animals. A slaughterer is in compliance so long as his average price paid for all cattle is at or below the ceiling at the end of each accounting period. (General, a month).

Slaughterers who are now paying above maximum prices are gambling on the chance of getting cattle below the maximum later in the accounting period. OPS Enforcement Director Edward P. Morgan has instructed his agents to keep a close check on cattle sales at various markets, both large and small, and to send daily reports to the National Office in Washington. Agents at such markets are sending in reports on the names of purchasers, disposition made of cattle and whether slaughterers of cattle purchased, either directly or through brokers, paid more than the maximum price.

If there are violations at the end of the accounting period, Mr. Morgan said the "penalties provided by the law will be invoked."

He joined Mr. DiSalle in urging slaughterers who are overbidding for cattle to get in line so it will not be necessary to take such action.

Garden Beautiful Club Leader Aims for Community Welfare

(Ed. Note: This is another in a series of articles being written about the presidents of various clubs of the city.) "We want to contribute something to the community we live in," says Mrs. George Graham, who came to Hereford in 1946 when Mr. Graham became superintendent of Hereford schools.

MRS. GEORGE GRAHAM

Mrs. Graham, recently elected president of the Garden Beautiful club, seems to have this conviction as one of her outstanding characteristics, for in Dalhart their former home, she was active in participation in the community life.

She was born in Plainview and attended Plainview schools. Later attending West Texas State college, Canyon. She has been a member of the Baptist church since childhood and went right to work in the church when the family moved to Hereford. Her main interest in the church work now is the young people and anyone knowing Mrs. Graham would believe that she would be good in that work. She gives the impression that of all her likes, her main interest is in people.

Believing that club work would be more effective if limited to the few organizations considered most beneficial, she attempts to keep from spreading her activities too thin. She devotes her time between one club, The Garden Beautiful, the church and P-TA.

In her own case, this has paid off even though there are many other interests she would like to be a part of. She was president of the W.M.U. at Dalhart for one year and has served as W.M.U. president here for two years. She helps with Bible school, and many phases of the church work.

As president of the Garden Beautiful club she will lead the group in civic beautification, which has long been one of her deepest concerns. Each year the club adopts some form of civic improvement as its project and members of the club work as a unit to further that project. For several years the club sponsored an annual tour of new homes as an aid to the project and last year was able to turn over $400 to Howard Gault, president of the Deaf Smith County Hospital Board, for beautification of hospital grounds. Committees have been appointed and members will decide on a 1951-52 project in civic improvement when the club re-assembles in September.

Some people might think that all these activities would leave little or no time for home interests. But not so for Mrs. Graham. Homemaking has always been first in importance to her. Making a wholesome and happy homelife for her daughter, Peggy June, age 11, and son Ray, a senior in high school, is her big desire. She likes to cook and caters to her families' favorite foods.

She has started a collection of hand painted china and hopes to add many more pieces as the years go by. Her interest in people has provided her with a collection of friendships which will likely be prized through the years.

She will enjoy her term as president of the Garden Beautiful club probably as much as the members will enjoy the leadership of some one who enjoys every phase of the work.

The Stars and Stripes has flown over West Point continuously since the academy was built.

Cherry-Almond Pie Will Please Any Father, Young or Old

All over the country cherry trees are yielding their harvest, which promises to be large and bountiful in the Panhandle. On Father's Day, there'll be gifts of all kinds for the man of the house, and probably none that he would enjoy more than a cherry-almond pie, homemade for this special occasion.

The basic cherry pie can have a dozen different touches which will add to its flavor and festivity, but one of the most delicious combinations we know about is cherries and almonds.

Mrs. J. B. Noland is an expert when it comes to making pies and when she discovered the affinity between cherries and almonds the pie became one of her favorites. Actually the season for such a dessert is year-round, for the canned variety may be used with equal success, but June's ripe fruit makes the Father's Day choice ideal. Here is the recipe Mrs. Noland used when she made Mr. Noland's Father's Day pie.

Here is the recipe Mrs. Noland used when she made Mr. Noland's Father's Day pie.

Cherry Almond Pie

- 3/4 cup sugar (more may be added if needed).
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
 - 3 cups red pitted cherries
 - 1 tablespoon butter
 - 1/4 teaspoon almond flavoring
 - 1/4 cup chopped toasted almonds.
- Preparation: Combine sugar, cornstarch and cherries, a pinch of salt may be added, in sauce pan. Add the cherry juice to mixture and cook slowly until thickened—about 10 minutes. Add butter, almond extract, a teaspoon vanilla too, if you like, and the almonds.

Never Fail Pie Crust

- 3 tablespoons shortening
 - 1 tablespoon sugar
 - 1 cup flour
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Mix all together and add 3 to 4 tablespoons cold water. Mix into a smooth dough and divide into two parts. Roll half of dough on floured board to fit a nine inch pie plate. Fill the shell with cherry mixture and cover with remaining dough. Press edges with fork and use pastry brush to cover top of dough (lightly) with top milk. Sprinkle with sugar and bake in 350-F oven 40 to 50 minutes.

Mrs. Helen Fangman, retiring president, received a shower of gifts from the club members for her services to the club during the past year.

Mrs. Eleanor Prewett was welcomed into the club as a new member. Mrs. Tatum was a guest.

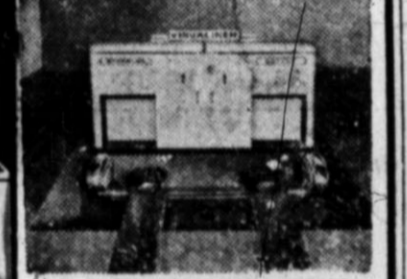

Several piano selections were rendered by Miss Zelma Allmon.

The club will resume activities in September.

He Isn't Homesick

David Brumley gave his mother, Mrs. Homer Brumley, a surprise telephone call recently from Branson, Mo., where he is visiting his grandmother. When Mrs. Brumley inquired if he is getting homesick, he replied "Certainly I am not homesick—I just wondered if you and Dad wouldn't like to come for awhile. Plans had been made in advance for David to make the return trip by bus and Mrs. Brumley won't be surprised if he is a bus passenger any day now."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stewart and son Alton of San Antonio arrived Tuesday for a visit here with their daughter, Mrs. Geo. McLean.

Rain, Hail, Winds Reported in Summerfield; Also Small Twister

By Bobbie Walsler
Some rain and hail accompanied by strong winds were received Monday and Wednesday in the Summerfield community. No damage was reported, although a small twister dipped out of the sky about three times near the Perry McMinn home. It didn't harm anyone or do any property damage, fortunately.

The vacation Bible school attendance has averaged 70 to 76 attending each day. There are now 76 enrollees. The revival has also had a large attendance, even though it has been bad weather.

Mrs. George Sumner of Hereford, formerly of this community, spent Monday visiting with old friends here.

Miss Carolyn Holland of Greenville, returned one day this week with her grandfather to visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Sumner.

Attending Sunday school on Sunday morning were 84 persons. One hundred and ten attended the preaching service. Fifty-three attended BTU Sunday night with more attending the service. Several visitors came from Dimmitt where Brother Earl Lantroop used to preach.

Mrs. P. W. Rainey and daughter, Janice, of Sweetwater, Okla., spent Friday and Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rainey. Mr. and Mrs. Zealand Rainey and daughter, Theresa, of Dumas, spent Sunday in the Rainey home.

Reese Dawson is home on a 10-day leave after which he will leave for North Carolina. Mrs. Dawson plans to accompany her husband.

Janice Billestrong of Lubbock spent last week in the home of J. M. Dawson visiting with Pat Dawson, her cousin.

Miss Mary DeLozier, formerly of this community, now of Dimmitt, became the bride of Gene Smith of Dimmitt on Sunday, June 10. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeLozier. She is a 1951 graduate of Dimmitt high school.

Those attending the wedding from here were: Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. George DeLozier and family, and Brother Earl Lantroop. Brother Lantroop performed the wedding ceremony. On behalf of the entire community, this reporter wishes them happiness and good wishes.

Miss Martha Loan of Hereford is spending the week in the home of J. M. Dawson, where she is visiting her cousin, Pat Dawson.

Mrs. John Patton of Hereford spent Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curry.

THE STORY

Romantic adventure story of Fort Worth's early struggle to exist as a community in gun-slinging pioneer days.

Ned Britt (Randolph Scott) is a crusading newspaper editor, once a feared gun fighter, who buckles on his guns again to protect law and order in the Texas cattle country.

Blair Lunsford (David Brian) an old friend of Britt's, and Lunsford's fiancée, Flora Talbot (Phyllis Thaxter), urge Britt to settle in Fort Worth, where he discovers that Lunsford is actually involved very deeply in a desperate conspiracy to rule the town for himself.

The arrival of lovely Amy Brooks (Helena Carter), once romantically involved with both Britt and Lunsford, further complicates matters.

Knife intended for Britt finds target in adversary's back during fight. A shot starts a cattle stampede, one of the exciting action sequences in Warner Bros.' new adventure story of Fort Worth's rise as one of the great cities of Texas.

Six guns roar in the thrilling climax when Lunsford, unmasked, and Britt meet in final battle. A shot, fired by a gunman and meant for Britt, kills Lunsford.

Flora, disillusioned in Lunsford, finds happiness in the arms of Britt. With the end of the reign of violence, Fort Worth faces a secure future.
