SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

Around Town

A wind-swept blaze completely consumed the four-room house owned by the Hereford Water company about 1 mile southwest of Hereford Wednesday afternoon at about 3:30. The building was completely enveloped by flames shortly after firemen arrived. When they arrived, the bottom of the roof was completely on fire and smoking profusely. The fire was too far along when firemen arrived and they were also hampered by the lack of sufficient water. The building burned to the ground in just over a half-hour. Loss was at least $3500. No one was living in the building at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Dodson and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Carmichael went to Waco Wednesday for a three-day meeting of the State Farm Bureau.

Sales of memberships to the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce have been extended until the night of the C of C banquet (January 25), according to Tom McFarland, secretary-manager. The membership drive got off to a slow start, so the extra five days were added to the drive.

Deaf Smith county's research project has been creating a lot of interest around the United States, according to mail received in the Chamber of Commerce office. Demands for Hereford water have also picked up, with requests coming here from firms in Houston, Los Angeles, Missouri and Nebraska. The questioners have asked about the possibility of shipping it in five-gallon jugs.

Anyone who thinks running a Chamber of Commerce isn't enough to drive anyone that way ought to take a lesson from the experience of Tom McFarland, who, after slightly more than a year on the job, is having carpenters build his own little cage in the C of C office. Workmen are partitioning off the C of C quarters to make a separate office for McFarland in the rear of the office and, a special office for Office Secretary Pat Loerwald.

FIREMEN and bystanders make an emergency effort of pulling the 1951 Oldsmobile belonging to D. C. Martin out of the Martin garage in an early morning fire Tuesday. Damage Exceeds $2,000 In Fire At D. C. Martin Home

A fire discovered shortly after 1:15 a. m. Tuesday in the built-on garage of the Don C. Martin home, 109 Avenue J, caused fire and smoke damage totalling at least $2,000 and very possibly quite a bit higher.

Insurance adjusters were at the Martin residence Wednesday fixing the damage to the Martin car, a 1951 Oldsmobile and the garage, which was completely gutted inside.

Truck Carrying 119 Cases Of Beer Is Halted

City and county law enforcement officers confiscated 119 cases of beer Saturday night on West First street and filed charges of transporting beer in a dry area against the driver of the truck transporting the beer.

Charged in county court with transporting beer in a dry area was John Emory Holloman of Cochran county. The beer, $406 worth, was taken from the pickup truck and horse trailer in which it was being transported to Morton and stored in the lobby of the county jail.

Holloman appeared in county court Monday and pled guilty to the charge before County Judge L. H. Foster. He was fined $25 plus costs of $28.30.

The beer is being held by the county and will be turned over to the State Liquor Control board according to Sheriff J. C. Reese.

Holloman and his two companions, neither of whom were charged, were stopped on Highway 60 by Police Chief Floyd Reeves and Patrolman E. F. Byrd who turned Holloman and the $406 worth of beer over to the county.

The blaze is believed to have started in the southwest corner of the garage, a 12x24-foot structure at the north end of the house. The Martins had a three-year-old bulldog and had built a house for him in that corner of the garage. Martin had made a heating device using an electric light bulb for the doghouse. It is assumed by Martin that the fire started in the dog's bedding from this heating device. The dog suffocated in the fire.

An unusual amount of smoke came from the blaze, which was confined to the garage. The Martins were awakened by the smoke, which by that time was so thick that it was impossible to see each other in the house, Martin said.

The Hereford Fire Department responded to the alarm, which was received at 1:20 a.m. Smoke from the fire poured through the attic of the house and streamed out the louvers at each end of the building.

Firemen and bystanders were able to pull the Martin automobile out of the garage. The car was in gear and they finally forced the vehicle out, but not before it was damaged by fire and smoke.

Martin told The Brand he is not sure whether his car can be repaired to its original state. Much canned goods kept in the garage was ruined by the fire and some of the food kept in the deep freeze in the utility room adjacent to the garage on the south was ruined also.

Martin said he had some World War II souvenirs in the garage which were also lost, but he was unable to place a monetary value on them.

Smoke damage to the interior of the house was not too great, Martin said. Fire Chief Earl Phillips said when he left the scene of the fire about 1 1/2 hours (Continued on page 2)

Judge, Two Commissioners Ask For F-M Road Change

County Judge Leonard H. Foster and two members of the Commissioners Court — M. T. Rutter and J. C. Morrison — met with the Texas Highway Department in Austin last week in an attempt to get a change in the state's Farm-to-Market road designation for 1952.

Also appearing before the highway commission was Henry Sears, who was in Austin en route to Houston at the time of the hearing.

The department has taken under consideration a request by Judge Foster and the Commissioners that the commission designate a road from the end of FM1259 in the southeast part of the county (the Wyche road) for a distance of 5.3 miles, which is this county's 1952 F-M allotment from the commission.

Estimated cost of the road is $56,000.

Company Seeks Payment Of Auto Note Principal

A suit to obtain payment of $1009.96 as unpaid balance of a note, interest, attorney's fees of 15% and court costs was filed in district court on January 15 by the Western Security Corp., a New Mexico firm, against L. H. Pickrell of Lamb county and J. M. Pickrell of Castro county.

In a petition filed in the office of the district clerk, the plaintiff charges that J. M. Pickrell, doing business as Hereford Kaiser-Frazer Sales Co. sold to his brother, L. H. Pickrell a 1950 Kaiser automobile. As part of the purchase price, L. H. Pickrell executed and delivered a note dated August 15, 1950 in the sum of $1812.60 payable to the Hereford Kaiser-Frazer Sales company due on or before December 15, 1950.

On or about Dec. 15, 1950, the date of the note, the plaintiff's petition alleges, J. M. Pickrell transferred and assigned, endorsed and delivered said note to the plaintiff. At the same time, the petition stated, L. H. Pickrell executed and delivered to Hereford Kaiser-Frazer Sales company his chattel mortgage to J. M. Pickrell. J. M. Pickrell then assigned the mortgage covering the automobile to Western Security Co.

The plaintiff subsequently demanded payment of the principal and interest of the note from both the defendants and they failed to do so. After said default, the plaintiff, in accordance with the terms of note and mortgage, took the auto and sold it for $750 on July 3, 1951, the petition states. This $750 was applied to the note and reduced it to $1062.60. The note was further reduced to $1009.96 by a return insurance premium.

The defendants and each of them, the plaintiff alleges, refuse to pay the balance of the indebtedness. The plaintiff has been forced to place the note in the hands of an attorney and agreed to pay 15% of principal and interest as attorney's fees and provided in the note. The plaintiff therefore is seeking the unpaid principal and interest plus 15% of that amount and court costs.

Attorneys for the plaintiff are Witherspoon, Aikin and Thomas.

Uranium Money Buys Herd Bulls In Deaf Smith

Four members of the "uranium-rich" Laguna Pueblo tribe from the Laguna Pueblo reservation at Old Laguna, N. M., were in Hereford this week buying registered herd bulls from Bob and G. T. Higgins.

Bud To Blossom Club Makes Plans For Guest Day

The Laguna Pueblo reservation is 52 miles west of Albuquerque where uranium deposits were found recently. The government is handling the processing of the uranium and pays the tribe for the uranium found. At present, the members of the tribe are trying to get the government payment direct rather than through the Indian Agency.

The four men were in Hereford last year and bought 30 bulls from Higgins. This year they bought five. All members of the party are married except Toni (Shorty) Alonzo. He's "looking for a girl" he says, because he can't "ride the range and do my own cooking too!"

Mrs. Bether of Kilgore was in Hereford this week on business. She owns property in Deaf Smith county.

 after the alarm was sounded, he could see no traces of water seepage or fire damage in the living quarters.
 If the fire had spread to the attic, Phillips said, the results might have been more disastrous. As it was, flames showed once from the north louver but they were quickly extinguished.

The Martins' son, Carroll, spent the remainder of the night with friends and Mr. and Mrs. Martin stayed up and watched the house until 5 a.m. Tuesday.

Full extent of the damage will be determined after the insurance adjusters have made their appraisal, Martin told The Brand.

And I don't blame them a bit. They're representing their people and we're glad to see them do it. But we just want to serve the most people."
 There has been no further information forthcoming from the state on the matter, Judge Foster said this week.

$6,600 Insurance Co. Suit In Dist. Court

A suit to recover payment of death benefits from life insurance policy was filed in district court on January 18.

Bess Mae Gill of Deaf Smith county and Norma Gill, Gregg County, Texas, guardian of person and estate of Martha Kaye Gill, have filed a suit seeking $5000 in death benefits, $1000 in attorney's fees, and $600 in additional payment plus all court costs of the suit from the Republic National Life Insurance Company of Dallas.

In the original petition on file in the district clerk's office, the plaintiff charges that on or about June 28, 1950, the defendant issued to Preston Gill a life insurance policy for $5000 to be paid to Bess Mae Gill and Martha Kaye Gill upon the death of the insured.

On or about October 23, 1951, the petition further charges, the defendant denied liability to pay under said policy. Proof of death of the insured was given defendant and demand for payment was made more than 30 days prior to filing of the suit, the plaintiff states.

Devise Plans For Poll Tax Sales

Plans are being made for a whirlwind wind-up in Deaf Smith county for payment of poll taxes before the January 31 deadline, according to Tax Collector J. C. Reese and plans being formulated by the Hereford Jaycees.

On Saturday, the Jaycees will have a booth at the corner of Third and Main for poll tax payments. They will also repeat this all-day service on January 31; the last day to buy poll taxes. Jaycee President T. J. Clay said other plans are "in the mill" but final approval is still to be secured. This might include a telephone campaign with the phone operators answering with "Have You Paid Your Poll Tax Yet?" instead of "Number Please?"

To date, 1857 poll taxes have been bought in the county, Reese said. In 1950, there were 2400 sold in the county. Reese expects about 3,000 sales this year, possibly more.

He also announced tentative plans to take a poll tax book to the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary club meetings and take payments there.

If conditions warrant, the tax office may even send one of the deputies to each of the banks to sell poll taxes. That was done in 1950, Reese said, and resulted in a lot of poll tax business.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCarthy and her niece and daughter of Amarillo were callers in the Jim Ricketts home Sunday afternoon.

Wheat In Vicinity Looking Good; Cultural HD Club Meets Thursday

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

The wheat in this vicinity really is looking good. None of it has been irrigated since it was planted. Several farmers ran ditches through their fields in preparation for irrigation, but moisture came and it was not necessary.

The warm weather that we have through January of this year has made the wheat grow, and make good pasture. The fields are well stocked with cattle and they all look good.

There was more wheat sowed this year in this immediate vicinity than there was last year.

More farmers would have sowed wheat but the land could not be gotten ready in time. Row crop land as a rule is not ready in time to prepare the soil for wheat sowing. However, some sowed into the maize stubble with fair results. It makes the sowing rather difficult, with stubble to interfere with drilling operations.

The Cultural club will meet Thursday with Mrs. J. T. Richardson for a business session at 10 a.m. and go at 1:30 to the R. E. A. Building, for a frozen food demonstration. Each one is to bring a paper sack lunch and eat at the Richardson home before proceeding to the demonstration.

Dinner guests in the R. C. Childers home Sunday were Mr. and

Local Implement Dealer To Show Two Color Films

Tour of the Holy Lands is featured in one of two films to be shown here in color on a program being arranged by Davis & McCracken, local Minneapolis-Moline farm implement dealer. The program will be held on January 25 in the Texas theater at 1:30 p.m.

There will be no admission charge made to the program.

The film featuring the tour of the Holy Lands is entitled "Crossroads of the Cross" and shows not only places that are associated with the life of Christ but also what is taking place in surrounding countries as well. This colorful film reveals modern developments, especially in agriculture, in the country that was the birthplace of many creeds.

The other film in color to be featured on the same program is entitled "The Good Earth for a Better Life." This film stresses the importance of mineral elements in the soil and the need of conserving them. It points out how essential these are to increasing production of crops of better quality. It shows the part agricultural colleges, county agents, and farm youth organizations are playing in the program of conserving the fertility of the soil.

Special invitations were mailed out by the local dealer to farmers in this area inviting them to bring the family and friends to the program arranged especially for those interested in farming.

In announcing the showing of these films and the program arranged for the day, which is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. W. L. Davis & J. C. McCracken, owners of the local implement store, stated that the program will include other events certain to be appreciated by the entire family.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I prevent pastry from shrinking in the pie pan?

A. This will usually happen if one tries to stretch pastry to cover the pie pan; this only makes it shrink farther in the baking. If the pastry does not reach roll it out a little thinner, and then replace it in the pan.

Q. How can I remove ink spots from paper?

A. Apply a solution of muriate of tin with a soft brush. When the stain disappears, rinse and then dry the paper carefully.

Q. How can I remove old varnish from furniture before revarnishing?

A. Use three tablespoonfuls of washing soda to one quart of water, applying with a rough cloth.

Q. How can I prepare a good wall paper cleaner?

A. Mix two cups of flour and one tablespoonful of kerosene with enough water to make a stiff dough then knead thoroughly. Use like ordinary cleaner.

Q. How can I make white flannels and woollens soft and white when washing?

A. The juice of half a lemon squeezed into the last rinse water will keep the flannels and woollens soft and white.

Q. How can I treat frostbite?

A. Rub the frostbitten parts vigorously and bathe in cold water until the blood circulates freely; then rub with mutton tallow.

Q. How can I remove burnt food from a pan?

A. Shake a generous amount of soda into the pan, fill it with cold water, and let it stand on the back of the range for a while.

It can then be cleaned very easily.

Q. How can I clean paint brushes that have dried paint in them?

A. Soak the brushes in turpentine, gasoline, or hot vinegar for about an hour. Then wash thoroughly in strong soapsuds.

Q. How can I keep parsley fresh?

A. Put the parsley into a mason jar. Put the lid on securely and keep in a cool place.

Q. How can I clean white fur?

A. Put some warm, dry cornmeal into a large pan, and then rub well into the fur. Warm, dry bran will answer just as well. After the cornmeal or bran has been thoroughly worked into the fur, shake it out.

Q. How can I launder corduroy clothes easily?

A. Wash the corduroy clothes with mild soap and plenty of warm water. Rinse well, shake, and hang up to dry.

Grandstand Gropings

By Kent Snare

To me last week's pro league draft of the collegiate footballers, held a lot of interesting surmises and some of them will turn in to good misses for both concerned. . . . On the first draft, the Washington Redskins took dead aim at Baylor's Larry Isbell and got him. . . The Redskins obtained so much mileage from Slingin Sam, that it seems apparent, they think they will be fixed for a long tenure with this slicker from Texas. . . . You may recall that I mentioned Rechar of Tennessee several times in this squib. . . . The Detroiters picked him as number one, undoubtedly on the best of Paul Brown since the Clevelanders traded for him before the draft day expired. . . . Ironically, there was not a single bid for the fragile Lauricella of Tennessee, their All-American glamor guy. . . The number one choice of the whole clambake fell to the Herd luck Yanks and they picked Cal's Lew Richter, center and line-backer, but the number one cherches of the other 11 clubs were all for backs with the exception of the Rams' grab of Carey, Michigan State's outsized end and point after cinch. . . . Another heir apparent of a throwin' throne seems on the skyline when Cleveland fingered Boston U's Harry Agganis against the time when the gorgeous Graham can no longer thread the needle. . . . Agganis spent a hitch in the Gyrenes so won't graduate with his original class and says he'll play for fun next fall. . . . Looking at some of the results, it wasn't always laugh provoking work serving them up for the Bostons. . . .

The original entrance class is the marker predicating your call, to the Pro ranks so Agganis can exhaust his collegiate eligibility but, if and when he does, he'll be all Cleveland's. Another star, Don Heinrich of Washington U, sidelined with a shoulder separation all last season, was picked by the NY giants and Don says he may forego the free bumps if Stout Steve Owen's price is right. . . . Mayhap he feels, that sans the stalwart McElhenny, tapped by Frisco, play at Seattle would be something less than an outing. . . . When you're on top it seems that the lady, luck that is, rides with you. . . . The Champen Rams got the much desired "bonus" pick in a blind draw with six other clubs and forthwith and no waiting, put the eye and the grab on Vandy's Bill Wade in spite of his being also under Uncle Sam's weather eye. . . . Wade displaces 202, is a cross country marksman and rugged enough to play defense, too. . . . Waterfield and Van Brocklin outrank him now and the Rams say that Waterfield is not considering retirement. By the time Wade does his military stint he may be right in line for a try. . . . However, they don't turn a Pro T ball club over to a quarter until he has put in nubbing time. . . . Was it Halas who mused, "It takes a clipped head, one broken leg, five years' experience and good blocking to trust a neophyte as a T under man". . . . When I turned the manufactured optics on the COP-Tech game at the Whiteface banquet, I remarked (Continued on page 3)

Zimba - Murdock Lose Tag Match To Funk - Walberg

"The Return of Tarzan" (with apologies to Edgar Rice Burroughs) highlighted the wrestling card Saturday night at the Bull barn.

Tarzan Zimba, an elfin-like orthodox wrestler from Vancouver, B. C., made a return trip to Hereford after two years in a tag team match paired with the Waxahachie Sandman, Frankie Hill Murdock.

Zimba and Murdock tangled with Whitey Walberg of Reynoldsburg, Ohio, and Dory Funk, owner of the "Flying Mare Ranch" at Buffalo Lake. Zimba and Murdock, for their exhibitionism, are alike as two peas in a pod. Zimba stepped in (Continued on page 3)

Herd Bounced By Canyon In Tourney

Canyon knocked Coach Wayne Stark's Whiteface cagers out of the Tulia tourney in the Herd's second game on Friday by a 50-40 score.

The Canyon five went on to win the tourney by downing Phillips by an 11-point margin, 50-39 on Saturday.

The Whitefaces won their first game of the tournament on Thursday by downing Kress 51-24 in handy fashion.

Raymond Dement, Hereford guard, was named "All-Tournament" at Tulia according to Coach Stark.

Hereford had a good chance of winning the Canyon game from the time Burrus, rangy 6'5" Canyon center went out in the second quarter with four fouls on him. The Canyon mentor kept him under wraps from then on.

The biggest enemy of the Whitefaces in the Canyon tussle was the huge Tulia plant. It was hard for the Herd to feel at home in the large gym after playing their games in the inadequate and confining quarters of the Hereford gymnasium.

The Whitefaces had difficulty with their formations because of the depth-of-the-court. Neither the guards or the forwards could work themselves into penetrating the full depth, unconsciously shifting into their changing formations as they crossed the center line — as they have to do on the local cracker box.

As it was, the Herd gave the Canyons their best — and closest — game of the tourney.

Another thing that hurt in the Canyon game was the inability of his mates to feed the ball to torrid Bob Mathers, who has been good for nearly 300 points in the last 11 games. Mathers was held to three charity tosses in the entire Canyon game.

Allen and Ray Graham were the two high scorers for the Herd in their final tournament game with 14 each. Red Ratliff, Canyon's 6'2" forward, led his mates with 19 points.

The box of the Canyon game:

Herd Cagers Are Big Loop Threat

With a jarring schedule — with tournaments — and then, the Whiteface cagers are looking forward to conference wars commencing February 1 at Floydada.

Only one more non-conference game — that with Vega there on January 29 — remains before the Herd is turned loose on loop fives for the final six games of the year.

Chances for Hereford to bring home the hunting this year in the 2-A district are the best ever in recent years. The team is oiled up and rolling and Coach Wayne Stark is optimistic of his quintet's prospects for the conference recognition, too.

The Herd's performance in the Tulia tournament is indicative of what can be expected in the last six games of the year.

Hereford lost to Canyon — the toughest cage power in the district — by the lowest spread of any team participating, 10 points. Phillips lost by 11. Were it not for a bad day by Mathers, who has been scoring from 14 to 28 points recently, the game could easily have been closer, if not a Whiteface victory.

The Canyon-Hereford difference will be shortened also when the Herd brings Canyon here February 5 on the local floor, quite smaller than the one on which Canyon beat the Starkmen at Tulia.

There's a whale of difference in playing on a puny floor like the Whitefaces are used to and what other schools have, so at home, Hereford should have Canyon on the run.

As for Tulia, the only comparison we have is their battle in the tournament they sponsored. They lost by 10 or 11 points to Dalhart. Dalhart, in turn, took it on the chin from Canyon by a lop-sided 56-30 score.

Floydada, the other quintet the Herd will have to topple to win the cage crown in the district, lost to Lockney in the consolation finals at the Tulia affair. Lockney, in turn, lost to Canyon by 15 points.

The loss of Kelly at center has hurt the Whitefaces quite a bit, but Billy Gene White, who has plenty of experience, has been doing a good job filling in that spot.

The Herd has come along fine from the beginning of the season and judging from their tournament (Continued on page 2) x—while Canyon had an official 50 points, the Whiteface score-book only listed 48.

Hereford outclassed Kress with a bang in the first game of the tournament for the Herd on Thursday, scoring 51 points against the 24 for Kress.

Bob Mathers hit for 10 points over the route, but was pulled after the first quarter when he racked up three field goals and two free throws. Coach Wayne Stark didn't want to give Canyon too much of an idea what to throw against the high-scoring Herd forward.

Tom Woodford hit the high-scoring mark for the Herd in the Kress game with 11 from his center post, Graham and Mathers were second high with 10 each.

Christesson, Kress forward, led his team with 14 while his mates added up the other 10 for the losers.

Hereford played Canyon on one of their bad nights and held them to a 10 point lead. What will happen in conference wars remains to be seen, but it looks mighty good for Hereford from this vantage point.

The Whitefaces will either cop the district basketball crown or finish one-two with Canyon.

to the ring with a full-length coat that took the life of some good leopard and Murdock came out with his usual green General

Regardless of how he appeared, the little (189 lb., 5'7") Zimba proved to be a rough character who knew how to handle himself. Murdock was his usual rugged self.

Funk and Walberg had their hands full with the long-hair duo, but came to the fore when the shouting was all over.

At the end of the match, Whitney Walberg became the only wrestler who doesn't use the "sleeper" to revive a man from a "sleeper." Murdock, after the fighting was all over, took the prostrate form of the "Flying Mare" owner and put the sleeper on him. He refused to revive Funk so Walberg did.

The match was a thriller throughout. Funk lost the first fall in 21 minutes to either Murdock or Zimba—they were both changing places near their own corner—with a give-up leg strangle.

On the first fall, Referee Billy Weidener kept Walberg from coming to Funk's aid and Funk didn't like the idea, so he prepared to let Walberg fight it out alone after the first fall.

The boss of the "Flying Mare" went into the ring for the second fall, made contact with Murdock, tagged his partner Walberg, and proceeded to sit on the apron and watch the fun. Walberg was getting the worst of it and Funk refused to tag him. Finally, he had a change of heart, though, and he and the husky Swede proceeded to polish off Messrs. Murdock and Zimba, Funk applying a step-over toe hold on the Jungle King in five quick minutes.

The third fall of the event, came in a spectacular manner with all four wrestlers banging it out in the ring. Walberg finished off Zimba with a full nelson to win the match. Murdock rushed over to Funk, who was barely able to navigate for himself, and put the sleeper on Dory after the event was over. Walberg then had to wake Funk up after the Waxahachie Badman refused to do so.

Zimba and Murdock had a bad night with the crowd Saturday, but they had just as bad a night at the hands of Walberg and Funk.

In the other event of the evening, a one-hour time limit, two out of three fall event, George Overhuls and Gust Johnson traded punches in a match which saw Overhuls take the nod in an unusual manner.

The bull-like Overhuls proved himself to be fast adopting the crowd-baiting tactics used so successfully by Dizzy Davis and the more illustrious Gorgeous to the leading lady that I thought the COP's left half, Eddie Macon, had it... The Bears singled him out on the second round... Nor was Tech overlooked, the Rams hooked Jarrell Price on the sixth lap and the same club grabbed Aubrey Phillips on a later go... There was many a small college player tagged including Klosterman of Loyola by the Browns, if Aggapis lays out this year he may be shadowing this character... Renfro of North Texas went to Cleveland... Stephen F. Austin College contributed two...

The smaller Ohio institutes, Xavier, Dayton State, etc. did their bit also... Natural, the Pro ranks are stuffed with the big names from the crowded campuses—but long hence, the play for players, know there is many a gem in the thorns of the hinterland... As witness—George Musso, Tony Canadeo, Tuffy Lee-mans, Cliff Battles, Chink Campbell, and Dink Burnett... and on into the night.

George. In addition, Overhuls, a comparative newcomer to the grunt and groan effort, proved that he's plenty capable of taking care of himself—one way or another.

The former Sandie grizzer took the first fall from Johnson, who hails from Seattle, with a spinning full nelson followed by a body press. That took exactly 16 minutes.

For the second fall, Johnson came back and turned the trick with a two-legged crab with nine minutes of labor.

The third fall came in an unusual manner as the two were rocking back and forth under the effects of a leg strangle on Overhuls held by Johnson. Johnson let his back rest too long on the canvas and Ref. Billy Weidener counted him out and gave the decision to Overhuls.

James Alston is home this week-end for the mid-semester at Texas A&M.

"Out of thin air" comes the HIGHEST HORSEPOWER in Buick history

NOTE FROM YOUR BUICK DEALER:
Presented here is the story of a great new engine development, as told by the men who did the job. We reprint the story here in its entirety—as we couldn't beat it if we tried.

NO, we didn't have to build a new engine to do it. We took Buick's valve-in-head Fireball Engine—which makes the most of high compression. We drew on 12 patient years of Buick carburetion research.

And we came up with more might, more miles, from gas—right out of thin air, in more ways than one.

When you talk about "miles per gallon" you think of fuel. That's what you buy. But air's free—and for every gallon of gasoline, a busy engine can gulp more than 8,000 gallons of air.

The problem is to deliver air in the right proportions, throughout the full range of speeds at which you drive.

A carburetor—big enough to supply the air needed at full throttle—can be wasteful in stop-and-go driving.

A carburetor sized for thrift in city traffic literally smothers your engine when you really give it the gun.

So Buick engineers came up with the Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic—and here's how it works.

Loading along, two barrels are working, two stay closed. And you get a low-speed thrift and smoothness that's out of this world.

As you pick up speed, the "stand-bys" smoothly come into play—feeding not just more gas, but more air too—which means that you keep on getting maximum power from each drop of fuel.

You have 170 effortless horsepower when you need it—a tremendous reserve ready to go into instant action at the nudge of your toe.

You have the satisfaction of knowing that you get this power with a frugal use of gas. At 40 you use less gas than you formerly used at 30.

That's the story of Airpower carburetion in factory facts and figures. But statistics can't tell you the breath-taking joy of heading for new horizons in a great-powered new ROADMASTER. Better come in soon. Lots of other folks are flocking into our showroom these days to see the greatest array of new Buicks we've had in years.

Dimmitt Parents Hear Lecture On Youth's Reading

DIMMITT — The parents and teachers of this community heard a lecture Tuesday night, Jan. 15, which was a comprehensive survey of children's literature, Past and Present.

Helen White Moore, assistant professor of English at WTSC was the speaker. She reminded her audience that good taste in literature, like good taste in home decor, is chiefly a matter of knowing. Mrs. Moore said, first, a school library should be separate from the study hall and should be attractive to the eye.

The speaker warned parents not to say comic books are no fun, but to capitalize on what the child likes in comic books. If your son chooses Superman, then offer him Paul Bunyan, or Pecos Bill books.

Mrs. Moore asked her listeners to remember that just because a child can read a book, not to think that is proof that the child is ready for that book. For instance, the ninth-grade student with good reading ability may not be mature enough for adult books, even if he pronounces all the words. Too, there is sometimes a mature-minded student who has hardly more than third grade reading ability, and for him there are now books written in a language he can understand.

Reviewed briefly were such classics as Grimms and Andersens Fairy Tales and Carroll's "Alice."

Mrs. Moore closed with the plea that children be surrounded with books, and stated that if a child stumbles over books he is apt to read them... and he will find some that he will love.

Bed Room Light

A light connected to the underneath side of the bed, instead of at the head, allows you to turn the light on any time during the night without awakening your roommate or blinding yourself. This also avoids the necessity of lowering the window shades and you may walk around partly dressed, because the light shines only on the floor.

Smelling Salts

Make your own smelling salts by breaking one ounce of rock volatile into small pieces, covering with eau de cologne, and allowing to stand for a few days before using.

Grease Spots

To remove grease spots on woollens or silks use a little talcum powder. Rub over the spots, then brush off with a stiff brush after standing for a day or two.

Broken Marble

To mend broken marble, make a stiff paste by mixing Portland cement with water. Clean edges of the marble thoroughly, then put cement on both edges, press together tightly and tie together until the cement has set.

Spilled Water

If water is spilled on the sick bed, it can be quickly dried by slipping a hot-water bag between the bed covers over the wet spot and leaving it there for a while.

Polished Wood

When paper has become stuck to a polished wood surface, put a few drops of sweet oil on the paper and then rub with a soft cloth. Finish with a good furniture polish.

Iron Rust

To remove iron rust from a garment cut a thick slice of lemon, place it directly on the fabric over the rust marks, and then hold the material over the steaming spout of a tea kettle until the marks disappear.

Chocolate Frosting

Add a tablespoon of cornstarch or flour to each cup of sugar used in the chocolate cake frosting, which will give it a creamy, smooth appearance; nor will it crumble when the cake is cut.

China Cement

To mend broken china use a cement made by mixing plaster of Paris with the white of an egg until it is creamy. Apply as you would any prepared cement.

Avoid Strong Wind

Try to avoid hanging starched clothes in a strong wind; the wind will blow the starch out of the clothes.

Dyeing

When dyeing red over yellow, the final shade will be orange; blue over red will be purple; green over blue gives a blue-green. Light colors may be dyed darker, but dark colors can not be dyed a lighter shade unless a dye remover is used. Always remember that the original color plus the dye used equals the final shade.

Cracks in Laundry Tubs

For repairing cracks in laundry tubs, use litharge-glycerine paste. This paste is made by mixing enough glycerine with a quantity of litharge so that it can be applied as a plastic cement.

Flattened Nap

If the nap of the rug has been flattened from furniture, dampen a chomis, fold it several times and place over the mark. Allow to remain for several hours and the mark will disappear.

Candles

Where a candle is too small or too large for a candlestick, dip it into hot water to soften the wax, and then push into the candlestick. If it is too small, the candle can be squeezed in; if too large, the soft wax will spread and hold the candle upright.

Blankets

Blankets, pillows, and mattresses will last longer and be more sanitary if they are placed in the sun one day each week. It gives them a fresh, sweet odor that is very pleasant on retiring.

Chimney Fires

A chimney fire can often be put out by throwing a few handfuls of common salt into the furnace. Close all doors and windows first.

Scratched Wall Paper

For wall paper that has been scratched, moisten a scrap of the paper which has been saved and carefully scrape off the coloring with a thin knife-blade. Apply this to the scratch and when dry, the mark will not be noticeable.

Scalp Ventilation

See that the hair is ventilated occasionally to keep the scalp healthy. A sun-bath is important and this should be done at least once or twice a week to keep the hair in good condition.

To Frost Glass

One method for frosting glass is to apply a solution of six ounces of magnesium sulphate, two ounces of dextrin, in twenty ounces of water.

Ferns

A fern that is growing fast and needs more dirt around it should not be kept in a small pot. Re-plant the whole thing in a larger pot, or separate it into two plants.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Solomon of Hereford attended a reunion of the J. R. Mitchell family in Memphis last week.

Otis Hall and Vern Hilton have just returned from a trip to Chicago. They attended a furniture market.

Mrs. Bess B. Moore and Ettie Mathis were in Dallas and Fort Worth last week-end attending a market.

Why Should I Join the V.F.W.?

FOR ALL OVERSEAS VETERANS IN THIS AREA

ELIGIBILITY to membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars is a priceless privilege. This distinction must be earned by overseas military service. It can never be purchased with gold or favors.

To the eligible veteran, the Veterans of Foreign Wars offers an opportunity for patriotic service to community, state and nation—plus the chance to help protect the benefits to which he is entitled under the law.

The membership dues in the average Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars seldom exceed the nominal sum of $5.00 per year. This is an insignificant investment for the eligible veteran who appreciates the opportunity to help preserve and protect certain government benefits to which he, or his loved ones, may be presently entitled—and other benefits for which he, or his dependents, may be qualified under future emergencies.

Compare this small investment of $5.00 per year to an insurance premium amounting to at least $200 annually, which non-veterans would be required to pay in exchange for equal benefits.

Every benefit being granted to veterans by the federal government can be credited to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. From the day this organization was founded in 1899, the V.F.W. has fostered the basic veteran welfare principles upon which all veteran legislation is established today.

Every eligible veteran owes it to himself, and to his dependents, to subscribe to the one form of "insurance protection"—membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars—that will help safeguard and preserve the government benefits to which he is entitled.

TO HELP PROTECT THESE GOVERNMENT BENEFITS

1. Free hospitalization, for service-connected disabilities, in government hospitals, including necessary medical or surgical treatment. Free hospitalization and medical treatment, for non-service-connected disabilities, optional in discretion of Veterans Administration.
2. Out-patient and dental treatment, and prosthetic appliances.
3. Vocational rehabilitation, including formal education or on-the-job training, for service-disabled war veterans.
4. Domiciliary care in V.A. Homes or State Soldiers Homes for veterans unable to earn a livelihood due to permanent physical disabilities or ailments due to accidents or old age.
5. Compensation ranging from $15 to $360 monthly for war veterans with 10 per cent or more service-connected disabilities.
6. Compensation ranging from $12 to $288 monthly for peacetime veterans with 10 per cent or more service-connected disabilities.
7. Dependency allowances for dependents of veterans who are service-disabled 50 per cent or more.
8. Pensions ranging from $60 to $120 monthly for war veterans (90 days or more of honorable service) with permanent and total non-service-connected disabilities.
9. Pensions for widows and dependent children of service-deceased veterans starting at $75 per month for a widow, plus allowances for children.
10. Pensions for widows and dependent children of deceased World War I veterans starting at $42 per month for widows, plus extra allowances for children. Same pension provision applies to widows and dependent children of deceased World War II veterans where said veterans had some degree of service-connected disability at time of death.
11. Pensions for Spanish-American War veterans, from $60 to $120 monthly.
12. Payment by the Veterans Administration of up to $10,000 on a specially constructed home on behalf of any veteran who has lost the use of his two lower limbs in service.
13. Payment by the Veterans Administration up to $1,600 on an automobile for a veteran of WW II or service after June 26, 1950, when the veteran has lost the use of one or both feet or hands or is substantially blind, such disability having been incurred in service.
14. Aid to World War II veterans on home and business loans.
15. Burial allowance of $150 for all veterans, regardless of the size of estate left to the next of kin.
16. Free burial rights in any National Cemetery for all veterans.
17. Flag for nearest of kin when any veteran dies.
18. Special preference for veterans in Civil Service employment.
19. Free access to the help of U. S. Employment Service and Veterans Placement Service in every state.

TO AVAIL YOURSELF OF THESE V.F.W. BENEFITS

1. Free assistance from Service Officer, Employment Officer and Welfare Officer in every V.F.W. Post.
2. Free access to the help of V.F.W. National Rehabilitation Service in each Regional Office of the Veterans Administration.
3. Representation before Service Department Boards in Washington, D. C., as to retirement and correction of service records.
4. Deposit of copies of service records with Post Service Officers so as to insure prompt action in establishing entitlement to hospitalization or to establish eligibility to benefits for widows and orphans in event of veteran's death.
5. Protection of existing veteran welfare benefits, and the enactment of new legislation favoring veterans, through representation by the V.F.W. National Legislative Service.
6. Admission without cost to the V.F.W. National Home for the widows and orphans of deceased V.F.W. members.
7. The opportunity to participate in V.F.W. social activities and facilities on the Post level.
8. The right to wear the emblem of membership in the only veterans organization that is composed exclusively of overseas veterans.

This Week's Calendar at Your Hereford Churches

Pointing the way

That critical hour when every woman and every man must have counsel will surely come. How important then to have made a path to the Church and to your pastor. Our ministers are serious and their counsel good. They are as near as your telephone. The minister knows how to help women and men know themselves. But better still, he knows the way of access to God. There is no comfort like that which comes from Heaven. Why not visit your church and let your pastor show you the way, in the light and will and gracious assistance of God. Heaven is not far away for the seeking soul. Jesus said, "Seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you."

CONG. ROGERS SAYS

Attempt Still Being Made To Repeal Farmers' ICC Exemption

PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL: Prime Minister Churchill has just concluded his address to Congress. The floor was crowded with all of the dignitaries of this country and representatives of foreign countries. The galleries were packed. He was welcomed by a standing ovation and appeared deeply touched. He fully lived up to his reputation as the tempt to soft-pedal the great responsibilities that are faced on the European continent and in the Far East.

In my opinion, his words reflected full recognition that this country is expecting value received for additional foreign expenditures; that the American people are not going to pour out funds for foreign aid unless they retain the reins of control on the expenditures.

I also feel that his speech was intended as a clear warning that the English speaking people must remain united if they are to meet the full requirements that will be required by the aggressive communism that now plagues the world. The full import of his remarks will be made more clear by the demands that will be made upon Congress within the next few months.

As I stood in the chamber during the ceremonies, the terrible thought occurred to me that if Russia should drop an atomic bomb at that particular instant, practically the entire officialdom of the United States, the head of the British Government, and prominent officials from the other governments of the world would be wiped out in one fell swoop. At this thought I immediately began to search the chamber for representatives of the Russian Embassy and was unable to locate any.

FARMERS AND RANCHERS: In a prior newsletter I called attention to the attempt by certain groups in this country to do indirectly what the Congress would not do directly. That is, extend the coverage of interstate commerce to all segments of American business. Such procedure would place many of the small businesses under regulatory measures to which they are not subject unless they are engaged in interstate commerce. Until recent years a business man, farmer or rancher could decide for himself whether he would engage in interstate commerce, but under the late decisions and administrative rulings, this right of election has been practically lost. The farmer and rancher is at present under interstate commerce regulations. This means that he is subject to regulation by all federal laws, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, which is the act that provides, among other things, minimum wages and maximum hours. The only reason that the farmers and ranchers are not subjected to the minimum wages and maximum hours provisions of the Act is because of an express exemption contained in the Act. Should this express exemption be repealed, either directly or by inference, the farmer and rancher would be required to comply with the minimum wages and maximum hour provisions, including the provision for time and a half and double time. The farm and ranch organizations should keep this matter primarily in their thoughts as it is most important to all. A repeal of that express exemption could do untold damage to the farmer and rancher, especially those in our section of the country. The forces that advocate such repeal are still at work, but most of us here who are interested in agriculture are on the alert concerning this, and want you to be the same.

THE TIDELANDS: You can expect the Tidelands issue to be pressed hard within the next few weeks in the Senate. The vote on the bill will be a pretty good indicator of its chances to pass over the almost certain presidential veto.

VISITORS: Washington was honored this week by some mighty good Panhandle folks. Marshall Formby, who does such a wonderful job in the radio stations at Hereford and Floydada, was by the office, and I enjoyed a most pleasant visit and lunch with him. I wish it could have been longer. Pampa was well represented by Frank and Pebble Carter. They were fresh from a trip to New York, and spent two days with us. Jumping right into the Washington whirl, they covered a lot of ground and saw a lot of things in two days. Tried to get them to stay over, but the call of the Panhandle was too strong. Had a most pleasant lunch with Joseph F. Jones, former mayor of Clarendon, who is stationed at Bolling Field doing some special work. Colonel Robert Bell, formerly of Hereford, Texas, was in. He has been stationed here but is leaving the Pentagon for another assignment. Also had a visit from Mr. L. P. Hunter of Stratford, Texas, who is located at Vienna, Virginia, for the present.

GMC DIESEL TRUCKS

Your key to greater hauling profits

GMC PRESENTS THE FIRST 2 1/2-TON DIESEL

At last—Diesel economy and hill-leveling performance come to thousands of truckers who have never had any choice but gasoline power in the past!

Because it is a 2-cycle Diesel, it is a fast-starting, quick-accelerating, highly responsive truck with plenty of snap in traffic—a truck that will maintain a steady "on time" schedule even on hilly runs.

Fuel economy is automatic thanks to GMC's famous Fuel Modulator. Regardless of throttle pressure this engine never gets more fuel than it needs and makes the most of what it gets. Smooth driving is assured by "easy-turn" recirculating ball-bearing steering—even electric shifting on two-speed axle models.

Nationwide Service

Equally important to the thousands of truckers who can now enjoy the benefits of Diesel power for the first time, this new GMC D450-37 is backed by the nation's largest network of Diesel service stations.

Before you buy another truck, you owe it to yourself to investigate these new GMC welterweight Diesels if you want to cut costs! We will be glad to give you facts and figures that will open your eyes. Why not come in today!

More Miles per Gallon

Because it is Diesel-powered, this new GMC Model D450-37 will cost you far less to run per mile, far less to maintain per year than any other 2 1/2-tonner you've ever owned. All Diesel experience proves that.

120th District

The 51th Legislature, recognizing a definite need in this state for an agency to assist the Legislature and its individual members in obtaining accurate and reliable information on specific legislative problems and matters affecting the general welfare of the state, and to assist the members in drafting proposed legislation, established and Legislative Council.

As most people know, the Legislature meets in regular session every two years and passes bills to meet the problems of the state. The regular sessions of the Legislature usually last about five months.

At the last regular session of the Legislature, ending June 9, 1951, 2,283 bills, resolutions and constitutional amendments were considered by the Legislature. Approximately 450 bills were actually passed by the Legislature and became the law of this state.

The membership of the Legislature actually feels a need for some method to obtain accurate information in reference to these various bills. It is not difficult to find someone in Austin to advise members of the Legislature on how to vote on a proposed law, but it is difficult to be able to know whether or not the advice that you get is accurate and unbiased. The Legislative Council is comprised of five state senators, appointed by the Lt. Governor, and 10 state representatives, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Lt. Governor is chairman of the Legislative Council and the Speaker of the House of Representatives is vice-chairman. The council meets during the time the Legislature is not in session and studies problems that are likely to be presented before the next Legislature.

The present Legislative Council was appointed about July 15, 1951. They have a staff of four people with offices in Austin, who compile information and assist the council in the studies made by the Council.

The problems of the state to be studied by the Legislative Council are submitted to the council by the high officials of the State, members of the Legislature themselves and citizens of the State of Texas. From the list of subjects submitted to the council, the council decides which subjects will be investigated.

The council has a Subject Matter Committee that recommends to the council what problems will be studied out of those submitted to the council. The chairman of the Subject Matter Committee is Rep. Harold M. LaFont, of the 120th district. His committee is comprised of five members of the council.

Twenty-two subjects have been submitted to the council for study and they are as follows:

- (1) Tax Structure of the State;
- (2) Urban Local Governmental Units;
- (3) State and Local Highway Construction;
- (4) Uniform Commercial Code;
- (5) State Law Enforcement Agency;
- (6) Distribution of Judicial Work;
- (7) Juvenile Delinquency Laws;
- (8) Texas Constitution;
- (9) Study of Reorganization of State Government;
- (10) Public Health Laws;
- (11) Texas State Library System;
- (12) Higher Education;
- (13) State Agencies Project;
- (14) Texas Southern University;
- (15) Housing Facilities for Texas Education Agencies;
- (16) Public Utilities Commission;
- (17) Teachers' Certification;
- (18) Analysis 1950 Census Data;
- (19) Procedure of Statutory Revision;
- (20) Court Decisions Manifesting Legislative Problems;
- (21) Surface Water;

and (22) Study of Gilmer-Aiken Bill.

From the list of 22 subjects, the Subject Matter Committee has recommended six subjects for the council to begin immediate study on. They are:

- (1) Study of the State Tax Structure to eliminate inequities;
- (2) Study of Urban Local Governmental Units, to study opportunities for economy through organization of urban governmental units and state and local governmental relationships;
- (3) The State and Local Highway Construction and Maintenance problems of the State of Texas;
- (4) The study of the recommended Uniform Commercial Code, to determine whether or not this code should be adopted and become a part of the Texas law;
- (5) The study of the law affecting surface water; and

(6) Study of the Gilmer-Aiken Law.

When the council has completed the study of these six matters, they will begin work on others from the list as recommended by the Subject Matter Committee.

This is the first time the Panhandle of Texas has been represented on the Legislative Council of Texas. Rep. LaFont would like to have the advice and suggestions of the people of this area who are interested in the problems of the State.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Next attached you will find a statement of policy, which I would like very much to have you run as a news item in the next issue of your paper. Many people from various counties in this district have been pressing me for a statement, and it is my hope that this will satisfy them for the time being.

Thanking you very much for your courtesies and cooperation in the past, and best wishes.—Ruthelle Bacon, Republic Chairman 18th Cong. District.

The question has been put, "whom do you, as Republican Chairman of the Eighteenth Congressional District, favor for the Republican Presidential nominee—Eisenhower, Stassen, Taft or Warren?"

Right now I feel like the circus rider atop four good horses—all dark horses for the present time. This is not yet the time for a choice.

Within two or three months, the American public, will give Republican leaders their ideas after they have heard the policies expressed by our four very fine candidates.

The will of the people is paramount. This not "just another election". The Republican party faces the biggest responsibility that any party has ever faced in the history of our country.

We MUST nominate a winner and we MUST find the genius who can lead us out of this trackless maze which is leading us into moer socialism, graft and chaos.

The time has come for action, not just as Republicans, but as free Americans, outraged citizens re-seeking our heritage in the Constitution of the United States.

More important than the candidates and more important than the Republican party are these questions: Are we ready to vote; have we paid our poll tax?

Thinking citizens all over the Eighteenth District are saying, "A Change is Due in Fifty-Two".
