Around Town

Bovina school children, their teachers and mothers are coming to Hereford on Friday to make a tour of the city's industries. There will be about 70 children making the trip.

Four Hereford Jaycees — Bill Howard, Harold Loerwald, Dick Barrett and John Aiken — left Friday for the state Jaycee convention at Austin. They plan to return Sunday.

Cecil Massey, Chamber of Commerce manager, is attending a C of C manager's meeting in Brownwood. He left Saturday for the three-day meeting.

Bob Wear will speak at the Parent-Teachers meeting in Vega on Monday night at 8 p. m. The meeting will be held in the school house. Wear's topic will be "Our Greatest Asset."

County Judge Leonard Foster is scheduled to return to his office on Monday. He has been released from Deaf Smith county hospital where he went for treatment of a cold and an aggravated heart condition.

The Hereford Kiwanis club will observe its second anniversary with a party Thursday night at Hotel Jim Hill.

The Les Meres Study club is sponsoring a bingo game night at the old Kerr Hardware building on May 2. Proceeds will go to the Mexican hospital at the labor camp. Mrs. Elvin Wilson is chairman in charge of the project.

Hereford athletes went to Lubbock Saturday for competition in the interscholastic regional events slated there.

Sheriff J. C. Reese and County Attorney Gib Howard returned early Saturday morning from Austin where they attended the annual crime convention. Reese said some of the nation's outstanding criminologists were on the program.

Mrs. Homer Henslee, who registered in 1927 was awarded the prize as being the oldest customer of Kester Jewelry in the firm's recent anniversary event. Mrs. W. R. Scheihagen won a set of dishes as door prize.

Howell Funeral Services Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Howell of Dimmitt were conducted Friday afternoon, April 18, at the Ford Funeral chapel in Lubbock. Dr. Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church in Lubbock and Rev. George Ray, of Dimmitt, were in charge of the services.

Burial was in the Tech Memorial cemetery in Lubbock. Mrs. Howell died in the Deaf Smith county hospital early Thursday morning.

Born January 2, 1921, she was married to Gaston Howell in February, 1951.

They moved to a farm near Dimmitt from Littlefield in February, 1952.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Big Spring, her husband and three daughters.

Ceramic Art Club Plans Hobby Show

The Hereford Ceramic Art club will hold its second annual "hobby show" on May 1 and 2 in the lobby of the Southwestern Public Service company.

More entries are expected for this year's show, according to Mrs. R. C. Childers, chairman. Guests last year attended from as far away as Plainview, Clovis and Tulia. Entries from as large an area are expected this year.

The show will be in the form of a silver tea. Donations will be used for the Deaf Smith county hospital and entrants are asked to bring an extra piece as a donation to be sold at the show.

Other committee chairmen in addition to Mrs. Childers are: Mrs. James Black, arrangements committee. Those on her committee are Mrs. Jess Gilbreath and Mrs. John Robinson.

Mrs. Vivian Majors in chairman of the table committee, her helpers are Mrs. Robert Hickman and Mrs. Franklin Miller.

Those on the advertisement committee are Mrs. R. C. Childers and Mrs. Phil Radovich.

Mrs. W. S. Fluit is chairman of the tea. Those serving as hostesses will be: Mrs. Carlos Vaughn, Mrs. V. E. Dodson, Mrs. Glen Boardman, Mrs. R. E. Lingenfelter and Mrs. Ray Hardy.

District Judge Harry Schultz will open in Hereford on April 26 for another session of district court.

Mites, Freeze Is Only Wheat Ill

Two prominent agriculturists who visited some Deaf Smith county wheatfields Saturday morning ruled out the possibility of fields being infected with wheat mosaic.

The two men who made the tour of inspection were Dr. I. M. Atkins, head of the experiment station at Denton and Fred Dines, wheat specialist with the extension service.

On their tour, the pair did not find any instances of wheat mosaic, according to County Agent Hugh Clearman.

Most of the wheat damage, he reported, was found to be from the freeze, from mites, or from a combination of the two.

Both men said they had inspected fields all over the Plains and the North Plains and found damage heaviest in Ochiltree county.

Clearman said the men explained that some of the stalks were down because the freeze damaged the wheat at the joints and weakened the stalks. Some of the frozen wheat is still up, they said.

Neither of the men knew too much about wheat mosaic, Clearman told The Brand, because it is still an elusive subject.

Throughout the county there have been reports of wheat falling and of mite damage, but there has been nothing else. When the freeze came, the combination of the two made the wheat "look bad," Clearman said.

"The rain should eliminate most of the damage from mites," the county agent commented. Since the rains, the wheat is already making a fine recovery.

There is still every reason to expect the wheat to make fair yields, Clearman said.

There were approximately 250,000 acres of wheat planted in the county.

Members of the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs voted unanimously Friday at the district convention held in Borger to hold the 1953 convention in Hereford.

Mrs. Elmer Patterson, president of the Deaf Smith County Federation, extended the invitation and Mrs. Earl DeHart, incoming president of the federation, assured a welcome from the entire city. Mrs. Ray Johnson, member of the executive board of Seventh District, read letters from the Hereford Chamber of Commerce and Hotel Jim Hill management.

Hereford got a big hand when the district convention was held here in 1933 and local clubwomen are already making plans for a greater convention in 1953.

Among those attending the three-day convention in Borger were Mesdames Patterson, DeHart, Johnson, Urlin Streu, S. St. Dodson, Rex Tynes and A. L. Manjeot.

1951 Wheat Loan Deadline Apr. 30

April 30 is the maturity for wheat loans in the county, according to the local PMA office.

Deaf Smith county has a total of $106,488.43 in loans with $98,214.04 of this in warehouse storage and $8,274.39 in farm storage.

Faust Collier, PMA secretary, said the county's farmers had $1,024,725.67 in loans on the 1951 grain sorghum crop. Deadline for paying loans or releasing the crop was March 31.

Warehouse storage for grain sorghums took care of $991,363.02 of the total and on the farm stored loans amounted to $33,626.65.

All but one of the loans were repaid, Collier stated.

Rain Causes Two Accidents

Rain and slick roads were the cause of two accidents Friday night.

The first occurred about 6:15 Friday afternoon three miles east of Dawn on Highway 60.

A 1951 Mercury driven by Joseph Martin Ramirez of Hereford skidded off the north side of the highway and hit a fence post and ended up in a field. Ramirez was traveling east at the time of the accident.

Damage to the car was estimated at $150.

The second accident was at 11:55 six miles west of Canyon on Highway 60.

A 1941 Mercury, driven by Elmer Gene Mickey of Canyon, hit some water across the road, skidded and overturned in the ditch.

Mickey, who was alone in the car, suffered minor injuries.

Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $350.

Highway Patrolman James Kirkwood investigated both accidents.

Local Rites Pend For Crash Victim

Local funeral services were still pending in Hereford Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Glen Allen, 24, of Waco, the former Betty Jane Robinson, who was killed instantly in a head-on auto crash Friday at about 1:30 p. m. in Waco. The accident occurred on a "blind" street in Waco.

Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace Robinson of Hereford.

According to information given The Brand, the accident involved the Allen car and a gravel truck. Mrs. Allen was alone in the car at the time of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were flown to Waco Friday afternoon by Lyle Blanton. They were due to return to Hereford about 6 p. m. Saturday.

Funeral services were held in Waco at 1 p. m. Saturday and the body is being shipped to Hereford for services and burial here. Final rites will be held at the First Christian church.

The body will arrive in Amarillo at 8 a. m. Sunday and will be brought here by the Gilliland Funeral home.

Mrs. Allen was employed as a surgical nurse in a Waco clinic. Her husband is a construction engineer.

J. W. Robinson Jr., brother of the victim who is stationed in Germany, was notified and requested a leave, but the leave was denied, according to the local Red Cross office.

Betty Jane Robinson was born November 9, 1927 in Hereford. She attended Hereford schools and graduated from the Hereford high school in 1945.

She received her nursing degree from the John Sealy general hospital, University of Texas, Galveston.

After her graduation, she served for six months as a polio nurse with the American Red Cross. After that, she served with the Veterans Administration in hospitals.

She was united in marriage with Glen Allen in April, 1950, at McKinney, Texas. The couple has no children.

In addition to her husband, survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Robinson of Hereford and her brother, James W. Jr. serving in Germany.

Sub-Soiling Most Popular ACP Item

A fund of $31,113.20 remains of the original $124,211.64 allocated to Deaf Smith county for use in assisting farmers in carrying out soil and water conservation practices under the 1952 Agricultural Conservation Program, according to Faust Collier, county PMA committee chairman.

The $93,098.44 has been paid out for practices carried out since January 1, 1952. Most popular of the practices by far — accounting for $54,903 of the funds released — has been subsoiling. Now that some moisture has fallen, the practice has all but stopped, Collier reported.

Next in the line of popularity with Deaf Smith county farmers has been reorganization of farm irrigation system, which embraces installation of concrete pipe for underground irrigation systems, elevated ditches, dikes, etc.

Payments for this work amounted to $10,809.31.

Levelling of irrigated farmland which has been farmed under irrigation for at least one crop accounted for $6,373.50 of the funds paid out.

Establishment or improvement of permanent pastures figured in $5,933 worth of payment, Collier pointed out. Two newly-popularized practices — construction of terraces and diversion terraces — were well represented in this year's practices also. Construction of terraces amounted to $4,540.60 and diversion terraces paid out $4,204.86.

Legumes seeded last winter figured in $3,908.69 of the total payments made thus far this year.

Collier said that the remainder of the allocation — $31,113.20 — is enough to carry the county over through the calendar year.

Approximately 50 people attended the Rotary club ladies night program at Hotel Jim Hill Friday night.

The banquet was a result of the recent attendance contest with the losing team providing the food and the winning team bringing the program.

Urlin Streu was the speaker. The subject of his speech was "The Fisherman's Lament."

Francis Hardwick introduced the speaker with a humorous talk on how people use and abuse the telephone.

D. C. McWhorter was master of ceremonies.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCauley, Pat Sullivan, Francis Young, Bob Lewis, Jay Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Clements and Dorothy Hunley.

Contributions to date for the Deaf Smith county chapter of the American Cancer Society amount to $635.26, according to J. T. Carroll, treasurer.

Goal for the county is $910. The drive lasts throughout the month of April and all are asked to contribute towards realization of the local quota.

Sunday is "Cancer Sunday" with the churches lending support to the fight against cancer.

Two Men Plead In County Court

Two men pled guilty in county court last week to charges filed against them.

Carlos Cordova pled guilty to a charge of possessing liquor for sale in a dry area. He was fined $200 and costs of $28.30 which he paid April 16.

Pete P. Veitenheimer Jr. pled guilty to a driving while intoxicated charge on April 15. He paid $100 and costs of $29.30.

Canyon Lutheran Ladies Aid Guests In Hereford Wed.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid Society of Canyon were guests of the Hereford Lutheran women at a covered dish luncheon at the church in Hereford last Wednesday.

Mrs. George Tiefert reviewed the book, "White Witch Doctor" by Louisa A. Stinnett.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Wednesday, May 21.

Community Gets .50 Inches Of Rain, Some Hail But No Damage

By Mrs. Merlin Kaul and Mrs. Elmer Combs

This community received from .50 to an inch of rain Wednesday and Thursday nights. Most irrigation wells were closed down Thursday night. The rain came slowly and will be of great benefit to early gardens, pastures, and dry-land crops. This is one of the earliest rains noted at this time of year as most of the rain in this section comes in May. Some hail was reported but it did no damage.

Mrs. Paul Rudd will attend a tea for mothers at Texas Tech in Lubbock Saturday.

Eighth graders from here who attended the banquet Friday night were Walter Kaul, Ralph Morrison, G. C. Merritt, Lillian Drager and Ross Joe Landers.

There were 110 present for Sunday school and church services here last Sunday morning. The auditorium was decorated with blooming plants and greenery and the traditional Easter lily.

Gayle Wagoner and Oma Lee

Ranspot presented Easter book markers to all attendees. Larry Kaul, Joaquin Rickman and Billy Ladd gave their birthday offerings.

Rev. R. D. Evans of Amarillo brought an inspiring message and the Evans sisters brought special numbers.

A basket dinner was served in the cafeteria after the service after which egg hunts were enjoyed by the younger children under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Rickman and Mrs. W. W. Rhodes. There was also group singing in the afternoon.

Sunday night the young people presented a short play, "The Uniform of Christ" and a short pageant, "The Wondrous Cross." Rev. Evans gave a short message to close the service.

Visitors present included: Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Evans and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCandless, Virgil and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Allen, Delbert Wayne, and Richard Ellwood, Ann Brown, Mrs. Mary Davis, Mrs. Clara Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ladd, Billy, Bobby, Kenneth and Josephine, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams and Norma Jean of Lubbock; Helen Jo Wilson of Falls; Mr. Carl Schroeder, Robert, Albert and Anna Mae; and Ann Reeves of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. D. Could Have More Agricultural Production: USDA

Under ideal conditions, agricultural production could be pushed up some 60 per cent or more. This is indicated by studies now under way on the capacity of American agriculture, based on present knowledge. Total agricultural production is now about 40 per cent above pre-war 1935-39 levels.

Under Secretary Clarence J. McCormick recently called attention to this potential capacity to produce in discussing the need for larger production to feed an increasing population.

"Let me point out that this potential is for ideal situations," McCormick cautioned. "It assumes top level management by every farmer on each acre. We cannot hope to realize this ideal. Yet the estimates do not seem to be too unreasonable. When you take a look around your own community, you will find that the very best farmers are producing about twice as much as the average."

"We cannot reach this goal (or larger production) by neglect. We cannot reach the goal by a take-it-for-granted attitude on the part of the general public. We cannot reach it by ignoring the fundamental problems in agriculture and the basic need of farmers."

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Boyd spent last Sunday in Clovis and Portales. They visited Mrs. Rogers' sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Sain, who underwent surgery on Tuesday. They drove to Portales and had dinner with Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. J. W. Dorsel. Miss Mattie Woodburn accompanied them to Clovis and spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Edgar Betts.

Friona Third Graders To Give Operetta Saturday, April 26

By Mrs. E. R. Day

On April 25, Miss Margie Burnett and her third grade will present an operetta "The Frog Prince." Miss Burnett stated the public is invited. The operetta will be at the school auditorium at 8 p. m. No admission.

Mrs. Casey Dunn will present her recital Tuesday evening at 8 in the Friona auditorium. It will consist of all her piano and dance students. Mrs. Dunn invites the public to come and see the local talent.

The parent-teachers association met Thursday evening at 3:30 at the school auditorium, with the president, Mrs. M. C. Osborn in charge. The third and fourth grades gave a special program, "Our Resources - Our Destiny." It was given by Mrs. Nelson Welch and Mrs. Granville McFarland.

The Friona Lions club is sponsoring Zogi, world-famous magician on Saturday night. This promises to be a good show and the Lions will benefit by it. Zogi trained under the great Houdini.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed White and family left today to visit with his mother who lives at Arcadia, Fla. Mr. White has not been back to see his mother for five years.

They will visit famous places along the route and Ed stated they would go to Key West before returning home.

Mrs. Grace Hart was in Hereford to see a dentist Tuesday. Her daughters and Mrs. Glenn Reeves went with her.

The one-act play which won first in area competition at Littlefield went to Lubbock Saturday to compete with others in regional competition. Members of the cast are Mary Joyce Renner, Jimmie Dixon, Joyce Ann Miller, and Don Lewis.

The hail that fell about 3 p. m. Thursday evening six miles northwest of Friona was very heavy in spots and some damage was reported. The rain fall in Friona totals up to now about 1 1/2 inches.

Carl Mauer and Ralph Miller were Hereford visitors Friday.

GRASS ROOTS

It has been a nice world to live in this week. It is really amazing what a good rain will do. All of the dust is washed off the houses, the trees look greener, the native pastures are taking on a definite green color, and the best part of all, the rain washed off a lot of those scowis and evil looks which were about to become characteristic of our area.

I have been doing a lot of explaining lately trying to justify recommendations I make on the seeding of irrigated grasses. I have attempted to get all this stuff in some sort of order, and pass it on in this column. First of all, the question is asked - "WHAT WILL A PERMANENT PASTURE DO FOR YOU?" There are several things a well balanced pasture will do for you. (1) They provide a cheaper source of minerals, vitamins and proteins than any other feed. A GOOD pasture provides 3-4 pounds of protein and 15-16 pounds of total digestible nutrients per hundred pounds of forage produced. This is an important factor when you consider that the average cow requires around 2 pounds of protein and from 15-20 pounds of other digestible nutrients, to produce one pound of fat. (2) Pastures provide a better balanced feed for a larger time than any other forage feed. (3) A permanent pasture requires less labor than other forage crops (this statement should set up lots of pastures). (4) A permanent pasture is more beneficial to the soil than all but green manure crops, and (5) A permanent pasture is an ideal rotation crop. Fantastic yields have been reported in grain sorghum yields following permanent pasture.

WHAT IS A PERMANENT PASTURE? - A permanent pasture is a PLANNED planting of grasses and legumes for green feed for livestock. The pasturing of livestock, and not the production of hay or seed; is its chief purpose.

WHY USE A MIXTURE? - There are many reasons for using a mixture, but some of the more important are as follows:

- 1. To lengthen the grazing season.
2. To increase forage production.
3. To provide a balanced ration.
4. To avoid bloat.

This is the opening picture of the importance of permanent pasture, and has been dealt with lightly here. There are variations in the tastes, grazing habits, digestive systems, and feeding practices for all classes of livestock, and it is important then that there be specific pastures for Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Hogs.

DO AS I SAY DO, DON'T DO AS I DO!!!! Jaynice has been on me for two weeks now, to get our lawn planted, and has at last resorted to putting it in me in a way that will force me to get started. I have been accused of being afraid to follow out my own recommendation for grass seeding, so if my lawn doesn't work out the way I claim grass seedings should work out, my excuse in advance is, that I'll be spending too much time in the field, helping others get their seedings started, and will be forced to neglect my own. What a glorious thing an unselfish attitude is! Incidentally, anyone who has any suggestions will be welcome this week end at our house. I'm thinking about Sam and Addison Hunter, E. W. Hobson, Bob Edgemond, Glenn Burrus, Raymond Childers, J. J. Durham, J. B. Noland, Bob Lewis, Don Guseman, and others who have given me considerable bad times concerning grass plantings. All help is appreciated.

April showers are a little bit unusual, but most welcome. Away back in January I started predicting a good year for this country, and things are rolling right along. Usually we get our April rains in May, but this year they are breaking even better. Besides, we are over-due. It is time for another good year. May-be not a bumper deal, but quite an improvement over the last two or three years. Hereford is so well diversified that we can weather almost anything, but another good year or two would sure make it nicer. Maybe this is it.

Notice, where President Truman says he feels that he has the power to take over the newspapers in case the occasion merits. Boy, that would really be something. Even Hitler couldn't do it in Germany. More "underground" papers started overnight than you ever saw; same story in "occupied France." He might take them over technically, but I doubt that he could ever take over the American press completely. Besides, the national debt, although hitting new high points every year, would really be something to consider. Stalin seems to have the Russian press well under control, but Stalin is not dealing with the American people in Russia. There's a difference, and we are all thankful.

If the government controlled the press, we are sure they would never permit the printing of anything like the following:

Beginning in July, the Federal Government will take in taxes a sum averaging $472 for each man, woman and child in the United States. Here's how that figure has grown:

1900	$ 3.88
1920	50.00
1930	25.00
1940	40.00
1950	256.00
1952	426.00

Did your house ever catch on fire? If so you are one of the few people who fully appreciated the announcement this week that Hereford Has the "Best Fire Record In Its Size Bracket In Texas." This is really something, folks. As a column and as a newspaper, we have had some tiffs with the Hereford Fire Department. At one time, the firemen had little use for The Brand and, maybe, vice-versa. Right now, though, we want to take off our hats and give these boys the credit they deserve. Hereford does have the best small-town fire department I ever saw in action. They are on the ball. Beside, the dollars and cents these boys are saving the community in insurance premiums, they are rendering an even greater service in offering a protection service to none in the entire state. In addition to this protection at home, the Hereford boys have likewise been instrumental in saving property in Friona and in Dimmitt.

It is hard to believe such a change possible in a scant four or five years. The fire department is probably the most valuable of all civic groups in the community — and we congratulate the state department on recognizing what we have known for the past 18 to 20 months: that Hereford is absolutely tops. It is really wonderful. Give these boys a pat on the back when you see them. They deserve every nice thing you can say. Let's show them we appreciate their ability and effort — and you certainly will if you should be faced with a fire in your own home or neighborhood.

Clarence Schults is my kind of fisherman. He backs up his boasts with fish. Understand he ran into a nice school this week and wound up by filling his creel. Anyway, he brought over six nice crappie the other night. He doesn't brag and boast much, at least not like Dale Tinnin and Dubb Reeves, but I'll bet he catches as many fish as anyone in the county during 1952. Ike Crosthwait is our neighbor on the south, and Ike is another of those "talking" fishermen. However, he is planting a nice, big garden and has promised to plant the roasting ears next to the fence. All in all, things are looking up at 406 McKinley Street. Looks like we might even have a very, very few peaches on the tree Beryl Elliston donated back around eight years ago.

Notice where McLean, Texas, men are wearing derbies. They are horrible — but still better than the whiskers.

Mrs. Hub Homer swears she met her husband by getting a pair of shoes which were too small. Hub, who now operates the Hereford Shoe Store, denies the charge, but she says it is a fact. She went back to exchange the shoes for the right size, got to talking with him — and the friendship waxed into romance. Anyway, Hub says he always fits 'em right now. It is often under peculiar circumstances which husbands and wives meet for the first time.

Who do you suppose is the best all-around neighbor in this whole area? Be thinking it over. The Brand is going to announce a big contest along this line soon — and if you have a neighbor who is really deserving, this will be your chance to nominate and repay in full some of the kindness which may have been extended you. It's a big, big order — but we are out to find that "best neighbor." Watch for details in a week or so.

Leston Clark was honored at a surprise birthday celebration at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Clark Tuesday night.

Following a supper party at the Clark home the group went to the Tower Drive-In for the show.

Those sharing in the birthday festivities were: Norman Bartlett, Emmett Brown, Wayne Walsler, Bob Brown and Richard and Leston Clark.

Pfc. Bill Steven has been home from Sheppard Air Force base on an emergency leave to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Mrs. Lewis Shirley is in McAllister, Okla. at the bedside of her father, J. W. Barnes, who is seriously ill.

Grandstand Gropings

By Kent Snare

The other day in a foreign hashhouse I saw a young chap in a predicament. There he stood with one jib in a gravy-stained paw, confronted with a mechanical type gramophone and a dilemma of 100 multi-colored purported musical selections. He was master of the situation, nonetheless, he merely dropped the mental debate and bought one of the new extant, under-sized candy bars. See where the news oozed out that Bud Wilkinson, last winter signed a 10-year coaching pact at Oklahoma U. During the spring grid grind, Kentucky's "Bear" Bryant, who labors under a like mise in the Blue Grass sector, spent some time in Norman. They may plan to put in some of the autumn periods over the decade, in butting heads. As the cards lay now, Bryant is one up and Bud is probably drawing a bead on him and his ball club. Wouldn't want you to garner the concept that this squib works in prejudicial fashion, but I'm developing an affection for the story of one of the weather observers who reports via wireless from Amarillo Air Terminal. He comes on intermittently and his bored tone and insouciant demeanor is a self-contained refresher course, particularly noticeable, over and above his constantly repeated deplorable fare and windy broadcasting augurings. Rog Hornsby's approximation, when asked what he thought of the Browns' opening day shutout of the Bengals, tends to the guffaw side. The Rajah opined, "That you had to win the first one if you intend to 'take them all'." He won't be allowed to forget that one. Briefly, one of the Browns' new aspect ball club, even considering an auspicious opening wind behind Ned Garver's flossy shut-out heaving plus two more wins over the Tigers, you have to countenance that they have a .222 hitter for 1952, Tom Wright, in the clean-up spot; no established first baseman; an aging and mayhap ex-shortstop; a rookie catcher running number one; an outfield of the same classification and an indeterminate pitching corps behind the plump Garver and the wild Mr. Byrne. There's some magic to Hornsby, though, and I think he will put some lumps on one and all of the balance of the American League contingent, in fact, I think he is planning on it. Bobo Newsom, at a ripe and uncertain baseball age, signed recently with the Washington Senators for the steenth time and pitched the final frame of the opener, striking out two Bosox and allowing a harmless single. He's been with three clubs in the National and six outfits in the American loop. Never plagued with a dearth of words, which in the past has directed at assorted and sundry parties and particularly at his own managers, the irrepressible Newsom, on the point of signing with the Nats, blantly observed, "This puts me one up on Roosevelt, F. D., that is, he's only put in four hitches in Washington." They ran longer than Bobo's however, and may have embraced fewer words. With all his conversation and tourist routine, Bobo is one of the two pitchers now in the majors who has won over 200 contests. His sole running mate is the now not-so-rapid Robert Feller of the Clevelands, who is now their number four pitcher, if the season's starting rotation indicates anything. Considering the youth of some of the slingers in the majors now, there might be another entry in the 300 winner bracket unless the armed services and financillitis intervenes. There's only been a few and old Mose Grove when he finally attained that figure immediately hung up his glove and went back to supervise Lonaconing, Md., where the word emerges that he is prospering and doing a job promoting youth assistance movements. Since the reviving rains, the Jasper which I heard on the street here will be relished more. Two brethren of the AMC, Southern branch, were discussing the situation during a protracted drouth. "You ain't been payin' the preacher," accused one. "Sho, I is," replied the second. "Fact is, he ain't been turnin' it in."

Ford HD Club

The Ford Home Demonstration club had a demonstration on Plaids and Stripes by Mrs. Dale Coleman at their meeting Wednesday. The next meeting will be held on May 6 instead of May 7 because of a conflict in dates. The meeting will be in the home of Mrs. J. E. Dyer. Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. J. E. Dyer, Mrs. Herman Both, Mrs. David Stribling, Miss Hilda Strafauss, Miss Hilda Both, Mrs. Dale Coleman and Mrs. E. E. Bishop, hostess.

Mrs. Vernon Chambless and children of Fort Worth arrived Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cockrell.

Business Session Thursday Afternoon For Cultural Club

A called meeting in Thursday of the Cultural Home Demonstration club featured a program on "The Care of Hands" by Mrs. Pat Robinson and "Manicures" by Mrs. R. C. Childers.

This meeting was held in the home of Mrs. A. C. Hershey. During the business session, which was presided over by Mrs. Fred Wolfington, the president, Mrs. R. C. Childers was elected as a nominee to go to council and be voted on as a delegate to go to the state meeting at Kingsville, Texas, in August.

Mrs. Fred Wolfington was elected as a nominee for the Kraft Design course to be taught in Texas Tech in Lubbock in July. A report was given by the secretary, Mrs. Paul Corbett, on the profits from the farm sale which was held on the Paul Corbett place last week. She reported a profit of $50.53.

Roll call was answered by nine members. They were: Mrs. Art Lewis, Mrs. Paul Corbett, Mrs. Fred Wolfington, Mrs. Louie Olson, Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. Pat Robinson, Mrs. Grady Parsons, Mrs. R. C. Childers and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Nester Gass returned this week from Marlin where they have been vacationing for the past month.

ORTHO ISOTOX SEED TREATER

A SPECIALLY DEVELOPED FORMULATION FOR APPLICATION TO WHEAT, MILO, COTTON, AND OTHER SMALL SEEDS AT PLANTING TIME

Check these facts—
HOW ISOTOX SEED TREATER WILL GIVE YOU BETTER CROPS—BIGGER PROFITS:

ONLY PENNIES PER ACRE

ISOTOX Seed Treater costs from 5 to 25 cents per acre (depending upon crop). This treatment may be applied to milo, wheat, cotton, corn, lettuce, sugar beets, and potatoes. For others, see label.

SAVES EXPENSE AND TIME OF RE-PLANTING

Not a single case of replanting due to soil insects was reported. You can't afford not to use ISOTOX Seed Treater. It's the best insurance you can have for a high yield crop.

30 DAYS CONTROL

ISOTOX Seed Treater remains as effective control for roughly 30 days after planting, enabling the plant to establish a healthy root system.

POSITIVE RESULTS

During the past year many farmers used ISOTOX Seed Treater when planting corn and beans, and unanimously reported better stands. In check strips plant population averaged a 25% increase.

APPLY WHEN PLANTING

ISOTOX Seed Treater is easy to apply. Simply add it to the seed to be treated and thoroughly mix either in wash tubs, in planter boxes or any other seed treating device or method which will give an even distribution of the material to the seed.

COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES

ISOTOX Seed Treater may be used in combination with all generally used seed protectant fungicides.

Nearly Two Inches Of Rain In Community From Thursday Fall

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

Nearly two inches of moisture fell in this immediate vicinity, while to the north rainfall was much lighter. Quite a bit of hail fell just before the rain started. Water is over the road at a place or two in this vicinity.

Irrigation wells are getting a rest for a few days and farmers are enjoying a rest as well. Farmers are planning to start up again in a few days.

Mrs. Leona Packard attended the Panhandle Plains Dairy Show at Plainview Tuesday. That was the day the Guernsey and Jersey livestock were shown. Mrs. Packard is interested in that breed of cattle. While in Plainview she visited friends there. Mrs. Minkie, whose husband owns the Minkie Hardware there. On Wednesday, Mrs. Packard visited her sister, Mrs. L. N. Blevins who lives in Lubbock.

Mrs. Earl Dehart the new president of The Federation of Women's clubs, attended the convention of the Federation of Women's clubs of Texas in Borger Friday.

Mrs. Phil Radovich and Mrs. E. M. Cox were callers at the R. C. Childers home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. C. Childers is the chairman of the Ceramic Art Show which is to be held May 1 and 3 in the lobby of the Southwestern Public Service building on Third street.

Mrs. Hershey and Mrs. R. C. Childers were hostesses for a bridal shower for Mrs. Don Zeilner, the former Glenda Hargitt, in the Hershey home Friday afternoon.

Reports from dairymen in the vicinity are that cows are off in production and there has been a reduction in prices being paid for milk. As a result, the dairy farmers check is far short of its maximum base. This late fall of moisture will start the grass and permanent pastures growing and make the cows pick up in production.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Willier left Tuesday for Belle Fourche, S. D. They will visit in the home of Mrs. Willier's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Freeman and another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Glenn. They plan to return to Hereford in a few weeks. Then they will return to South Dakota to make their home.

"Machine-Gun" Kelly is credited with first using the term "G-men."

Wedding Vows Of Dalhart Couple Announced Here

Mrs. Ed Schied has announced the marriage of her daughter, Dottie Lou Hamilton of Dalhart, to Keith Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hayes, also of Dalhart.

The wedding took place in Clovis, N. M. at noon Saturday, April 12, in the home of the Methodist minister, Rev. W. King. A double-ring service was witnessed by close friends and relatives.

The bride wore a blue lace ballerina length frock featuring white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Her mother served as her attendant wearing a navy suit with red accessories and a corsage of red roses. Ray Hayes, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. For traveling, the bride donned a brown and beige suit with brown accessories and the wedding orchid.

Following the wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Dalhart where he is employed.

Mrs. Hayes, who has visited her mother here on many occasions, is a senior student in Dalhart high school and will continue with her class to graduate in May.

Attending the wedding from Hereford were Mr. and Mrs. Schied and Mrs. D. R. Vandiver.

Grand Official's Visit Draws Record OES Crowd

Approximately 225 persons attended the Order of Eastern Star sectional meeting held here Tuesday evening with the Hereford chapter as hosts. The occasion was the annual fraternal visit of the Worthy grand matron, Mrs. Flora Best Boone of Littlefield.

L'Allegria Club Plans Trip To Girlstown May 1

Final arrangements for the trip to Girlstown in Whiteface were made at the L'Allegria club meeting held in the home of Mrs. Francis Hill Thursday afternoon. The group has aided Girlstown as their project the past year and will go in a body to visit the girls on May 1.

Arrangements were also made for the final meeting of the year which will be in the form of a picnic on May 10.

The program for the afternoon climaxed the year's work on the study course, "Spotlight On American History," which comprise District 2, Section 3, Representatives were also present from Melrose, N. M., Aberdeen, Miss., and Miami, El Paso, Brownfield, Amarillo and Greenville, Texas.

A prelude of piano music was presented by Mrs. J. C. McCracken as the guests were gathering and the call to order was made by Mrs. Beulah Stuckler of Plainview who is deputy grand matron.

The opening drill was presented by the local chapter officers wearing their chapter dresses which were formal in the worthy matron's chosen color, orchid, and wearing her flower, the talisman rose. A rose corsage was presented to the presiding officer, Mrs. Stuckler. Those taking part in the drill were: Mesdames Effie Melton, Worthy matron, W. L. Jones, S. B. McLallen, Vern Witherspoon, Clara Shore, Troy Moore, Johnnie Sanders, Opal Roberson, Grace Thomas, Louella Durham, Jerry Jackson, Nell Culpepper, Virginia Patton and the worthy patron John Patton, Bill Jones and Horace Hershey.

For the formal opening of the chapter, the stations were filled by worthy matrons of visiting chapters, with the grand officers presiding. They included Mrs. Flora Best Boone, worthy grand matron and Pat Boone, worthy grand patron, both of Littlefield;

Mrs. Beulah Stuckler, deputy grand matron, Plainview; Mrs. Mollie Goodpasture, district deputy, District 2, Section 3; Mrs. Elsie Bills, grand examiner; Mrs. Gladys Laing, Earth; and Mrs. Belle Hromas, Hereford, chairman of credentials and appeals.

Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, program chairman, was introduced to present the program for the evening.

A tribute in song to the worthy grand matron was presented by Mrs. Grace Findley of Littlefield who sang, "May God Bless and Keep You," with Mrs. Loraine Hulfe accompanying.

Greetings were extended by Mrs. Melton and a pantomime called "Five Loveliest Ladies," was presented by the Hale Center chapter with Mrs. Suzanne Davis, worthy matron. The main address of the evening was given by the worthy grand matron on "Behold the Lamb of God," followed by a greeting given by Pat Boone, worthy grand patron. Mrs. Findley presented a vocal tribute to the men of Eastern Star, singing "Danny Boy."

Mrs. Belle Hromas and Mrs. Gladys Laing presented a gift from the chapters of the district to the grand official and Mrs. Beulah Stuckler presented her with honorary membership in each chapter. The chapter was closed with the formal concluding drill.

Social Hour The chapter room was elaborately decorated in the visiting

Complete Plans For Home Tour

Plans for the annual "Tour of Homes" sponsored by the Garden Beautiful club were completed at a meeting held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Deward Roberson, publicity chairman of the tour committee. The club has sponsored the tour project for the past three years and interest has become wide-spread with many visitors from nearby towns attending.

The tour will be conducted May 2, from 2 to 5 p. m. Proceeds from the tours have been used in the interest of the beautification of Hereford with the main interest in grounds surrounding the Deaf Smith county hospital. Manifestations of the work going on at this time is marked by the huge bulldozers used to remove the large trees. Shrubs and other plants are now beginning to show too.

Committees in charge of the tour include: general chairman, Mrs. Carroll Whiteside; housing, Mrs. D. C. Kinsey and Mrs. G. P. Owen; special arrangements, Mrs. Bernard Roberson and Mrs. E. W. Hobson; refreshments, Mrs. J. B. Harlin; tickets, Mrs. Joe Poindexter; publicity, Mrs. Deward Roberson and Mrs. Carl Perrin.

Mrs. W. Phillips Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Wayne Phillips was hostess Tuesday night for the Young Mother's Study club meeting. Roll call was answered by members naming their husband's favorite sport.

During a short business session, members voted to change the April 28 meeting place. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Bartley Dowell instead of with Mrs. Paul Harvey, and a covered dish luncheon will be held in the home of Mrs. Harvey on May 12.

Mrs. W. L. Davis Jr. and Mrs. Charles Hill were voted associate memberships for the coming year.

The president, Mrs. Charles Hill, appointed Mesdames W. L. Davis, Earl Stagner and Paul Harvey to serve on the nominating committee for next year's officers and Mrs. Bill Dameron and Mrs. Bill Stanford were welcomed as new members of the club. Mrs. H. A. Cavness, also a new member, was given a welcome.

Mrs. Don Martin was in charge of the program. She presented Kenneth Coker who spoke on "Modern Medicine." Members present were Mesdames C. E. Leasure Jr., W. L. Davis Jr., W. B. Dowell, Paul Harvey, Charles Hill, Don Martin, Pat Robinson, Earl Stagner, Steve Clements, H. A. Cavness, Bill Stanford, Bill Dameron and the hostess.

El Nino Study Club Holds Meet

El Nino Study club held a business meeting in the home of Mrs. W. J. Reeves Monday evening. Plans for next year's activities were discussed with Mrs. Paul Conaway, vice-president, in charge.

Mrs. W. J. Reeves was named chairman of the year - book committee with Mrs. O. G. Hill Jr. and Mrs. O. Z. Golden named to serve with her.

Those named to serve on the nominating committee were Mesdames Paul Conaway, Byron Durham and Jim Bookout.

Members attending the meeting were: Mesdames J. W. Barnett, Ivan Block, Jim Bookout, T. J. Clay, Paul Conaway, O. Z. Golden, Bob Lindsey, S. G. Nelson and the hostess.

Observes 71st Birthday Thurs.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson, native Texan and resident of the Panhandle since 1917, observed her 71st birthday anniversary Thursday with old-time friends, family and others enjoying the event.

Mrs. Johnson was born in Martin, Texas and lived in that section after her marriage to W. L. Johnson until they moved to Summerfield. They ranched near Summerfield until 1937 when they moved to Hereford. Mr. Johnson died seven years ago.

Mrs. Johnson is still active, though she is not able to carry on her church work as she once did. She attends the Baptist church regularly, however, and takes care of her flower garden and her beloved Pekinese, Scooter. Although she lives alone, she is seldom lonely, for her five children, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren live near and visit her often.

Her children include: Porter and Thurman Johnson of Friona, Clifton Johnson of the Walcott community, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Summerfield, and Mrs. F. W. Lookingbill of Hereford.

The celebration was in the form of a dinner at noon at Mrs. Johnson's home for old friends. They included: Mesdames J. A. Noland, J. F. Ward, J. L. Lookingbill, B. C. Roberson, Lee Kendall, Henry Tiesel, L. B. Lookingbill and Mrs. J. H. Lookingbill Jr. In the afternoon, all of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren called to extend congratulations and birthday wishes.

Mrs. E. L. Nagle, Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Roberta Campbell were in Amarillo Wednesday to attend the Panhandle Pantheon's association meeting.

MRS. BILL WALDREP

Two Favorite Recipes In 'Little Luncheon' Treat

A most delicious reason for friends to enjoy Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waldrep's hospitality, is Mrs. Waldrep's "Little Luncheon" or "buffet supper" meal which includes two of her favorite recipes.

Neither of the recipes is new, the stuffed lettuce she remembers her mother making along with the birthday cakes when she was a little girl. It's the never-grow-old kind of recipe and its lovely colors of yellow and green makes it a good choice for the first tastes of spring. With this salad she serves little ham-sandwiches and Chocolate Angel Pie, a concoction designed for the most discriminating palates.

Here are the recipes:

- Stuffed Chilled Lettuce
 1 firm head lettuce
 1 package cream cheese
 2 tablespoons sharp cheese (grated)
 2 tablespoons grated carrot
 2 tablespoons minced green pepper
 1/4 teaspoon salt

- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
 1 teaspoon minced or grated onion
 2 tablespoons diced fresh tomato

Wash lettuce well and remove the core. Drain well. Combine all the other ingredients and pack firmly into cavity of lettuce head. (Be sure you have removed all the core before stuffing lettuce). Wrap in clean damp (not wet) cloth and chill in refrigerator for several hours before serving. When ready to serve slice lettuce crosswise, so that each portion has a cheese center when served.

For the ham sandwiches combine minced or boiled ham with sweet pickle and serve as topping for crisp crackers or oblong wedges of toast. Tuna fish may be used instead of the ham if preferred.

- Chocolate Angel Pie
 1/4 pound marshmallows (30 or 32)
 1 cup sweet milk
 1/4 teaspoon salt

- 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup whipping cream
 2 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate, grated
 1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
 grated coconut

1 9-inch baked pie shell or 8 individual baked shells
 Add marshmallows to milk. Heat over boiling water until marshmallows are melted. Stir often. Cool and stir in salt and vanilla. Fold in whipped cream, chocolate and nuts and pour in cooled baked shell. Top with grated coconut. Chill for several hours, but not overnight. When ready to serve top each serving with a mound of whipped cream and sprinkle with shaved chocolate.

If you don't like the idea of so much whipped cream, the pie is equally good with just the coconut topping. Various types of finger dainties may be added to the plate, both for taste and attractiveness.

FRIO NEWS

Long-Time Resident Of Frio Community, Oscar Hunt, Dies

From Thursday Brand
By Mrs. Owen Andrews
The community was saddened with the news of the passing of Oscar Hunt on Friday night. Quite a number of people attended funeral services Monday at the Avenue Baptist church in Hereford.

The Hunts lived in this community until recently when Mr. Hunt quit farming and moved to town because of his health. They still own the farm on the east side of the old Prisoner of War camp. George Hunt has charge of the farm this year and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Burnett and girls are living there, where they are helping with the farming operations.

The Hunts lived here several years ago, moved away, and then returned about two years ago. They were very active in church work, Mr. Hunt being a deacon in the Frio Baptist church, and they both took part in community activities. Your correspondent extends sincerest sympathy to the family, in behalf of the community.

On Friday night, the young people sponsored by Mrs. H. M. Mohley, entertained at Frio, with a program. Popular and sacred numbers, played and sung by well-known artists, were played on records, with the local people pantomiming singing and playing musical instruments.

A large crowd attended and several visitors from Hereford were present. Footlights and broadcasting arrangements were by Dan McLellan. Those taking part had been practicing several weeks.

Those on the program were Lamerlas Burtzman, La Nellie Nobles, Frances Andrews, Velma Irwin, Nora Joe McLellan, Veralde Andrews, Sammie Lou Mc-Lellan, Dan McLellan, Clark Dobbs, Gene Dickson, James Dobbs, Glenn Andrews, Lester Irwin, Clark Andrews and Leonard Schmidt.

Present Sunday morning for Easter church services were 121 persons. Wade Thompson and Miss Betty Robbins, college students, were home for the holidays, and took part in special songs Sunday night.

George Zetche, who lives and works with the Thurman Coles, was a new member of Sunday school.

Miss Lola Robbins of Abilene spent Friday with her folks the H. D. Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Little and Miss Betty Robbins took her back to Abilene on Saturday. She was to go on a short trip with some friends during the week end.

Mrs. Elmer Gardner of Clovis and Mrs. Leon Roberts and Patricia were visiting the Simpson family over the week end. Mrs. Roberts, with the other children of the John Simpsons, Mrs. Sam Landies, Robert Simpson, and J. C. Simpson, all visited their parents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. King and Jerry of Amarillo visited the Owen Andrews Saturday night and Sunday. The Owen Andrews, W. H. Andrews and T. L. Sparkman Jr. families and Patsy and Marjorie Jones of Hereford were also with the J. E. Andrews Sunday.

Visiting the W. A. Springer Mrs. W. A. Springer attended a party at the J. E. Springer home near Hereford Saturday. The party was to announce the approaching marriage of Miss Gwendolyn Springer of Colorado Springs, daughter of the J. E. Springer, to Paul Wallace of Pontiac, Mich.

Sr. called at the Springer home early Saturday afternoon.

The Frio Home Makers club met Wednesday of last week in the home of Mrs. Henry Dobbs. A program on "Wiring and Lighting the Home" was presented. Mrs. Joe Deavenport and Mrs. Owen Andrews gave discussions on the subject. Those present were: Mesdames E. H. Little, E. B. Berryman, W. A. Springer, Joe Deavenport, Sam Lindsey, Floyd Cole, Owen Andrews and the hostess. The next meeting will be on April 23 in the home of Mrs. E. H. Little. At that meeting, Mrs. Little will demonstrate the making of nylon corsages.

Recent visitors in the Edgar Vinson home were Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Dobbins of Winters, Texas, parents of Mrs. Vinson and Robert Dobbins.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Wilson recently enjoyed a visit from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Anton, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews and Jean spent the week end visiting Mrs. Andrews' sister, Mrs. Clifford Gordon and family who live between Dallas and San Antonio.

OK Eventual TV Station For Deaf Smith County

WASHINGTON — Deaf Smith county can look forward to its own television on a new station which may be built under a plan of the Federal Communications Commission in Hereford.

The FCC plan, which has just been adopted calls for 173 new stations in Texas. Most of them will operate in the ultra - high frequency range, which is an untapped section of the radio spectrum. Use of this UHF band and expansion of the present very high frequency service should eventually permit nearly 2,000 new television stations in every section of the nation. The 108 television stations now operating in the United States are in the VHF range.

"The adoption of the UHF plan in conjunction with the expansion of VHF means the beginning of a truly nationwide television service, with visual entertainment and education brought to remote areas miles from the nearest cities," stated Dr. C. B. Jolliffe, vice president and technical director of the Radio Corporation of America, which pioneered the development of UHF television. "We are ready to build the transmitting and receiving equipment to bring about this national television service."

The FCC decision to use UHF for television is based on years of scientific research and on field tests conducted by RCA and the National Broadcasting Company at Bridgeport, Conn., where in 1949 they built the country's first UHF television station to operate on a regular basis. These field tests, Dr. Jolliffe reported, showed that UHF when properly allocated geographically and properly used, was comparable to service provided by present VHF broadcasts.

When new stations are built, home television receivers will follow quickly, judging from the experience of present television areas. Based on the national pattern, Texas can anticipate more than 1,250,000 sets a year or two after the new stations begin operation, with more than 1,500 sets in Deaf Smith County alone.

Under the FCC plan, Texas cities and towns which may obtain new stations, in addition to the six stations already in operation in Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio, are: Abilene, Alice, Alpine, Amarillo, Athens, Austin, Ballinger, Bay City, Beaumont - Port Arthur, Beeville, Big Spring, Bonham, Borger, Brady, Breckenridge, Brenham, Brownfield, Brownsville, Brownwood, Bryan, Childress, Cleburne, Coleman, College Station, Conroe, Corpus Christi, Corsicana, Crockett, Crystal City, Cuero, Dalhart, Dallas, Del Rio, Denison, Denton, Eagle Pass, Edinburg, El Campo, El Paso, Falfurrias, Floydada, Fort Stockton, Fort Worth, Gainesville, Galveston, Gonzales, Greenville, Harlingen, Hebronville, Henderson, Hereford, Hillsboro, Houston, Huntsville, Jacksonville, Jasper, Kermit, Kilgore, Kingsville, Lamesa, Lampasas, Laredo, Levelland, Littlefield, Longview, Lubbock, Lufkin, McAllen, McKinney, Marfa, Marshall, Mercedes, Mexia, Midland, Mineral Wells, Mission, Monahans, Mount Pleasant, Nacogdoches, New Braunfels, Odessa, Orange, Pampa, Paris, Pearsall, Pecos, Perryton, Plainview, Quanah, Raymondville, Rosenberg, San Angelo, San Antonio, San Benito, San Marcos, Seguin, Seymour, Sherman, Snyder, Stephenville, Sulphur Springs, Sweetwater, Taylor, Temple, Terrel, Texarkana, Tyler, Uvalde, Vernon, Victoria, Waco, Waxahachie, Weatherford and Wichita Falls.

with a half-wit mother, who is a constant care for him and Selina. Fanie has loved her long and did for always afterward.

Though they are forced to live apart from Mittee and Paul in another section of the country, their paths cross and recross and their fates are intertwined.

How the bright and gay Selina became sad and full of regrets and how Mittee grew from a simple self-centered girl to a deep feeling and compassionate woman after she met the missionary-doctor, as Paul degenerates to something less than a man and ever began to look like Janis, because of the evil within, make an unusual story and one like no other ever read by your reviewer.

The author knows well her country where the tale is set, in South Africa near Johannesburg on Cape Good Hope. The background is realistic and of another world than ours and the whole is convincing and interesting as we move along with the characters in a country so different from our own.

Daphne Rooke has spent her first 33 years in South Africa and the last four in Nelson Bay, a fishing village on the East coast of Australia. She is there now with her husband and 11-year-old

Conflict For Love Of One Man Plot Of Daphne Rooke Novel

Reviewed by Corinne Jennings
We agree with those who say that the novel, "Mittee," by Daphne Rooke, should have been titled "Selina," who is the narrator of the story of two women.

In turn Selina is loved by Janis, of her own race. But she is very afraid of him and his rough and uncouth ways and not without reason as he has seen how merciless he can be.

When Janis finds out about Selina's love for Paul, before Paul works out a scheme with Mittee to marry her off to Janis, he goes mad with hate and almost kills her.

Paul has to then kill him to save his own marriage with Mittee and from that day on, the proud Paul begins to lose face and character as he has already killed one man, unknown to others, to save his name.

Selina eventually marries Fanie, a half white and half Negro,

The story revolves around Mittee and her personal maid, Selina. They had grown up together and had been first playmates and then close friends through the years until they were more like sisters than a woman and a bonded servant. Only one was white and the other colored. To further complicate things, they both loved the same man, Paul. Or rather Mittee was engaged to him as the story opens and Selina loves him desperately and she is jealous of Mittee, without her knowing it. But Paul knows it and takes advantage of her love for him.

daughter working on another book but the family is planning an early return to Africa.

Critics proclaim her as a genuine story teller and that she has "ability to hold the interest of the reader from the first page of her novels to the very last and give her credit for a strong imagination and excellent narrative power."

Your reviewer agrees with the author too in that the book has a haunting quality that clings to your memory long after you have finished the story and there is no doubt in our mind but that it is one of those "very different books" that one finds not too often in the books of today.

If you like this kind of reading you will find the book about "Mittee" in the library and have your name placed on the waiting list by Mrs. J. J. Boydston, librarian.

Immanuel Lutheran At Rhea To Present Biblical Film Tues.

By Mrs. E. R. Day Sr.

On Tuesday evening, April 22, the Immanuel Lutheran church of the Rhea community will sponsor the showing at the Regal theater of a new feature-length movie on Christian stewardship, "All That I Have." This is not an advertising movie but just an outstanding message setting forth the higher principles of Christian stewardship from the Bible. The film will be shown twice—once at 8 p. m. and again at 9 p. m. There will be no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken at the door.

As it was Easter, we had most of our young folks home from different colleges. Charles and Joe Allen Osborn from Texas A & M; Kenneth and Wayne Bainum, Kenneth attends school at East Texas Teachers at Commerce and Wayne is attending school at John Tarleton; Lunell McFarlin from SMU in Dallas; Mary Alice and Helen Neta Carr and Wanda Robason, who are in Canyon. At WTSC, Ray Nell Foster and Vera Ann Jones, who are students at Denton, Texas; Roy V. Miller, Mary Lou Miller, LoVon Rogers, Tim Magness, J. Von Fulks and Hugh Mosley of Texas Tech and Tommie Laceywell from Hardin-Simmons.

Lila Robason, who is teaching school in Eunice, N. M. was home for the Easter holidays. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Robason.

Mrs. Frank Spring and Mrs. Wesley Foster, teachers of the junior department of the Methodist church Sunday school entertained their classes with a party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Spring. There were 21 present besides the teachers. Table games were played through the evening. The boys of the class were hosts. One guest, Patty Jon Foster, was present.

The rain we received Friday and Saturday wasn't much, but very much appreciated. The farmers are all needing rain as the planting season is at hand and every little shower helps a lot.

A birthday dinner honoring

TOASTY HERB BREAD CRUMBS GIVE A GOURMET TOUCH

Bread crumbs, made from enriched bread then toasted in herb- or spice-seasoned butter give a delightful personality to any dish—meat, fish, vegetable salad— even dessert. They're really tasty tidbits, economical too.

To make soft bread crumbs, crumble a slice of bread with fingers or place two slices together at a time, cutting into tiny cubes with a sharp knife. Crusts may be left on or not, but never throw them away—use for dry bread crumbs. To make buttered crumbs melt butter in a saucepan or a small frying pan. Add soft crumbs and toss over medium heat till golden brown.

For cooking fun—eating fun too, make herb-flavored crumbs. Add curry powder to the melted butter or margarine and use crumbs for a de luxe meat loaf or to top creamed fish or chicken. Or add dill seeds or fresh dill to melted butter and toss crumbs with green salad or use to top ham loaf. Do the same with dry mustard and add a generous sprinkling to scalloped ham or vegetables. Cinnamon spiced crumbs make good fruit Betts.

Here's a recipe to make you crumb conscious and start you experimenting with your favorite herbs and recipes.

CURRY-CRUMB POTATO SALAD

6 slices bacon
1 quart diced cooked potatoes
1/4 cup minced onion
1/2 cup minced green pepper
2/3 cup mayonnaise or boiled dressing
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 cup soft enriched yeast-raised bread crumbs

Fry bacon till crisp. Drain on paper towel; then crumble. In large bowl combine crumbled bacon, potatoes, onion, green pepper, mayonnaise, salt and pepper. When ready to serve salad, blend curry powder with melted butter or margarine in small skillet. Add crumbs and toss till light brown. Sprinkle over salad and wait for the compliments. Makes 6 servings.

Mrs. C. R. Regan on her 9th birthday was given by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Collier, in their home Sunday. Those helping her celebrate were her children and friends: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Regan of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wendt of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mr. and Mrs. Hap Fairchild and Mrs. Elroy Wilson and Terry Lynn left this morning for Hot Springs, N. M. They will be joined the latter part of the week by other Friona folks. They plan to do some fishing and Mrs. Fairchild will take some of the baths. Mrs. James P. Wilson will visit it her daughter and family in Dimmit this week. She will leave Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. London and family were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Day Sr., Mrs. E. R. Day Jr. was also a guest in the Day home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Baxter and family had dinner with his brother and family Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Russel Pogue and family were in Hereford Sunday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberson. The children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt. The primaries of the Baptist church enjoyed an Easter egg hunt Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wade Camp and Lewis Dean visited her mother, Mrs. Carl Hall, and brothers Monday. Mr. Camp went to Farwell on business. The Camps now live in Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Haney Tate entertained relatives and friends with an Easter dinner Sunday. There were 28 for dinner. The afternoon was spent making pictures, talking and other recreations. Those enjoying the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Ausburn Loflin and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loflin; Gladys Wilson and Gailore Loflin of Springfield, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Curry and son of Amarillo; Miss Jo Beth Brice of Bovina; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones and Sue, Walter Haws, Miss Patsy Loflin, Mr. and Mrs. Juan Eskew and son, Gary, all of Friona; Gail Orear of Ranchville; Mr. and Mrs. Travis Tate and daughter of Clovis called in the afternoon. The Loflins lived in Friona for some time before moving to Springfield.

Rev. Jimmie Tidwell, pastor of the Methodist church, announced a very good attendance at the morning service. There were 22 children who united with the church. Four babies were given the infant baptism. They were the babies of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Rushing, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Vestel Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Neely.

On Sunday night they had a 40-minute movie, "Journey Into Faith." This picture was based on the scripture, Luke 24:13-33.

Among those from Hereford attending the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs annual convention held in Borger Thursday through Saturday were Mesdames Ray Johnson, S. S. Dodson, Rex Tynes, Elmer Patterson, Urlin Streu and A. L. Manjeot.

'Light Opera' Topic For Music Study Club

"American Light Opera" was the subject for the program given at the Music Study club meeting held in the home of Mrs. W. J. Stanford Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ellis Coombes was leader.

Composers of light opera were given consideration by the leader who told of Romberg who came to America in 1909 and began writing operas in 1919. Two of his best are "Blossom Time" and "The Desert Song." He later turned to sound pictures with his first offering, "Viennese Night."

Strauss was born in Munich and wrote in the vein of Liszt and Wagner. He wrote operas while living in Switzerland and died in 1949 at his home in Bulgaria.

Friml's operas were composed to Herbert's and his two most important are the "Firefly" and "Katinka."

Herbert was a native of Ireland who came to America in 1887. From 1894 to 1898 he was band master of the 22nd Regiment of the National Guard in New York. One of his favorites was "Natoma."

Musical selections on the program included, "Wanting You," from The New Moon (Romberg) played by Mrs. J. R. Allison; "My Hero," from The Chocolate Soldier, vocal solo sung by Mrs. C. J. Mountz with Mrs. Buford Crosthwait accompanying.

The Hymn of the Month, The "Day of Resurrection" (Tune—Rotterdam) was sung by the group in conclusion of the program. Mrs. A. J. Schroeter was accompanist.

Members present for the meeting were: Mesdames J. E. Beyer, B. F. Cain, W. T. Carmichael, Ellis, Coombes, Buford Crosthwait, W. E. Dameron, Cliff Estes, C. C. Ferguson, H. K. Fox, Jeff Gilbreath, J. C. McCracken, George McLean, C. J. Mountz, J. D. Neill, Earl Phillips, T. W. Roberson, A. J. Schroeter, Glenn Snyder, Bill Stanford, Wayne Thomas, A. O. Thompson, J. B.

Community Party Next Friday At Progressive, All Invited

By Mrs. Ira Ricketts
There will be a party at the Community house on Friday evening, April 26, at 8 o'clock. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

Kay drove to Albuquerque last Wednesday for a birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Grogan, mother of Mrs. Coffin. The dinner was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Grogan in Albuquerque and her four children, Mrs. Coffin of Hereford; Mrs. Annie Chambers, Las Vegas, N. M.; Mrs. Ake and Lon Grogan of Albuquerque were present for the occasion.

There were 21 present for the dinner including eight grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ricketts returned Friday from an 18-day vacation trip to Alhambra, Whittier, San Marino, and Taft, Calif. where they visited his two sisters and her two brothers. A reunion of the Ricketts children was held on March 30 at the home of Mrs. Maude Davidson at Taft.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thomas of San Marino, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Anderson of Borger; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ricketts of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davidson and children; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Davidson and daughter, Mrs. Herbert Small and son of Los Angeles and Raymond Davidson of Taft.

On the following Sunday all were together again in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Thomas in San Marino.

The Ricketts also visited with her brother, Frank Hughes and family, that she hasn't seen in 14 years and another brother, Aubrey and family, that she hasn't seen in 22 years. This was the Ricketts' first trip to California.

The J. D. Gilberts spent the week end in San Angelo. They returned home Tuesday.

Lloyd Parsons spent the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons. Dinner guests Easter Sunday in the H. L. Hershey home were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hershey of Lubbock; Sue Scarth of Hereford; Joe Hershey from A & M, Nelda Guy Lawrence of Hereford; Forrest Ricketts from Plainview and Homer Hershey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ricketts were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Russell Sunday.

Word from Mrs. H. B. Coffin says her mother is much improved and she expects to be home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Russell and Robert, Doris and Linda took care of the chores for the Ira Ricketts while they were away.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Weathers spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bean.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Edwards, Irene and Helen, attended church at Westway Sunday morning.

Kay Lynn Scott and Vicki Ann Weaver spent Sunday and Monday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dodson.

Jim and Forrest Ricketts were callers in the Ira Ricketts home Monday.

Raymond Bean left Wednesday for a few days outing.

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Scott for Sunday dinner were her children and families, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Lee, Amcristo; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weaver, Willie Mae and Vicki Ann, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Scott, Joe Eddy, Kay Lynn, Betty Mae and Jan, and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dodson of Hereford. The group then drove to Hereford for the baptismal service and the Easter pageant.

Mrs. Ira Ricketts spent Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ricketts. The two Mrs. Ricketts were co-hostesses for group 2 of the Christian Women's Fellowship.

Virgil Dodson and Ira Ricketts attended Christian Men's Fellowship meeting Monday evening.

Three Hereford Students In Price Concert

Three Hereford students—Bobby Dzuik, Bill Paetzold and Jim Paetzold—are members of the Price college Cardinal chorus which will present its annual "Roundup" this year on April 23 and April 27 in the Price college auditorium.

The Roundup is divided into two parts. The first is a concert by the ninety-voice chorus of male voices. The songs will range from classic Polyphony music, Palestrina's "Kyrie," to Southwestern American Folk songs, "Wagon Wheels," and "Tumbleweed," and Negro spirituals arranged by Robert Shaw.

The second part of the program is an original combination of two famous Broadway musicals, "Carousel" by Rogers and Hammerstein, and "Annie Get Your Gun" by Irving Berlin. It is called "Carousel Annie." The best music from both musicals will be used, beginning with "June Is Bustin Out All Over" from "Carousel" and ending in the grand finale, "Show Business," from "Annie Get Your Gun," especially arranged for five choruses.

Dzuik, a sophomore, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Dzuik, Box 888. Bill, a sophomore, and Jim, a freshman, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Paetzold, Route 3.

There 110 in the cast under the direction of Brother Paul F.S.C.

Mrs. Herbert Haseloff and children spent the Easter holiday in Vernon with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Thurmon Morton of Fort Worth visited in Hereford Monday. Rev. Morton is the former pastor of the First Christian church.

Mrs. Foy Dodson of Van Horn was an Easter week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Thomson, and Mrs. P. H. Gilliland.

G. P. Owen Jr., teacher in the Pecos schools, spent the Easter vacation here with his family.

Participation In Precinct Conventions Is Important

(As a public service, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has prepared a series of two articles that emphasize the importance of individual participation in party precinct conventions in a presidential election year. This is the first article—Ed Note).

In the past a very small portion of Texas voters have had any direct influence—with their individual votes—upon the election of the president and vice-president of the United States.

They have voted in primary elections, and a few of them in general elections. But they voted for Presidential Electors—not the candidates themselves.

Those candidates—the party nominees—had been selected three or four months before the general election itself.

And, even then, they had not been selected by ballots of individual voters, cast in an election.

Their nominations originated way back there in May at party precinct conventions.

Here is how it works: The precinct convention names delegates to the party's county convention.

The county convention selects delegates to the state convention.

The state convention selects delegates to the national convention.

The national convention nominates the presidential and vice-presidential candidates of the party.

It is, therefore, necessary that the individual voter take part in the precinct convention to most effectively make his own vote count in election of the President and Vice-President.

Because such a relatively few voters usually attend Precinct conventions, the vast majority have had little moral right to complain about any administration's policies.

Here are some questions and answers to point up fundamental facts about the Presidential Precinct Convention:

Q. When will it be held?
A. On Saturday, May 3.

Q. At what hour?
A. The law requires that it be held between 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. outside the largest cities, it usually is opened at 2 p. m. The county chairman of the party is required by law to file a list of times and places with the county clerk at least ten days before the convention day. This list must be posted on the court house bulletin board.

Who can take part in the Precinct Convention?

A. All qualified voters who live within the voting precinct.

Q. Must each person show proof of his right to vote in the Precinct Convention?

A. Yes. He must bring with him to the convention, his poll tax receipt or his exemption certificate.

Final Study Program Of Year Presented For LaPlata Club

Mrs. J. M. Thomson presented the program for the LaPlata club session held in the home of Mrs. Ray Downey Tuesday evening.

The program on "International Personalities" completed the study course for the year, which will end with a luncheon meeting on May 20.

Mrs. Thomson's subject was "Aga Kahn" and she gave a two part discourse. The first discussion had to do with Aga Kahn's religious heritage, tracing history to the time of Mohammed. She said that Aga Kahn, Imam, was a camel driver who became a religious leader and for three years had only 14 followers. His beliefs are based on five main points: 1—One God; 2—Prayer five times a day; 3—Paying of poor tax; 4—One month of fasting; and five—Pilgrimage to Mecca at least once during lifetime.

The second part of the program was devoted to Aga Kahn, the person. "Wealthy leader of Islam and the Mohammed religion, he traces his ancestry back 1300 years and although he sometimes makes his money in questionable enterprise, he puts most of it in his religious work. He has had four wives and will be followed as a ruler by his son, Aly Kahn, whose marriage to Rita Rayworth almost caused an international situation," Mrs. Thomson concluded.

The business portion of the program was directed by Mrs.

Democrats Try to Form Ranks As Ike Wins Jersey Election

ANOTHER hectic week on the political calendar has bustled by the boards. A primary election in New Jersey, a state which takes its politics seriously every day of every year, and Gov. Adlai Stevenson's withdrawal from the list of Democratic presidential possibilities provided highlights.

Earlier this month, the Illinois governor said he had no ambitions nationally and reported he was a candidate for "governor of Illinois and that is all."

Talk of Stevenson as a strong presidential possibility grew into wide speculation after he visited President Truman recently. There followed persistent reports that the President urged Stevenson to become a candidate.

New Jersey Implications

Gov. Dwight D. Eisenhower's smashing New Jersey primary victory appears to have convinced some of his backers he won't have to campaign vigorously for the GOP presidential nomination.

They argue that campaigning such as Sen. Robert A. Taft has done across the land would only involve Eisenhower in detailed domestic issues which he otherwise could treat with broad brush strokes.

Primary tests in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Oregon and in several state conventions will shed more light on this theory before Eisenhower's return.

New York Meeting

A Thursday night dinner party in New York officially marked the annual get-together of the New York State Democratic Committee. It turned into a Democratic beauty contest, however.

On the guest roster were such politically significant names as W. Averell Harriman, boss of the Government's foreign aid program; Sen. E. B. Rusk, of Tennessee; Sen. Robert S. Kerr, of Oklahoma; Vice

THE GENERAL WAVES TO ADMIRERS
Another hectic week bustles by the boards...

President Alben W. Barkley; Sen. Brien McMahon, of Connecticut, and Gov. Stevenson.

Stevenson, drummed by some Democrats as a prominent presidential possibility—since last fall, had rejected the pleas of party leaders that he be a candidate the day before.

Harriman Availability

Harriman has made it plain he is willing to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

He said last week he would "consider it an honor" if the delegation from his home state of New York were to back him as a "favorite son" at the national convention.

When asked if he was willing to accept political support for the Democratic presidential nomination Harriman replied:

"Well, I want to say that I am in complete agreement with Paul Fitzpatrick, New York Democratic state chairman. He said the other day, the New York state delegation to the national convention—and I am a member of that delegation—will be called upon to play an important part in choosing a candidate to preserve the gains of the New Deal under Franklin Roosevelt and the Fair Deal under Harry Truman, both in the national fields."

"I want to add that I think this is the moment when the Democrats throughout the nation should put aside all interests and considerations other than national interests in obtaining a candidate best suited to carry forward these programs."

Harriman is known to be highly regarded by the President.

Dispute In Steel

RUMBLINGS on Capitol Hill this week indicated Government seizure of the steel mills may become a top political campaign issue.

The Senate Banking Committee thought witnesses should be called to show whether President Truman was right when he said steel plants made "outrageous" demands for higher prices to finance wage boosts.

Inquiry Suggested

Two members of the Banking Committee, Sen. Caphart (R-Ind) and Moody (D-Mich), called for an investigation of the entire steel wage dispute. Moody said such a study might show whether the Government's excess profits tax, designed to drain off higher-than-peace-time profits, was high enough.

A group of Senate Republicans, accusing the President of illegal seizure of the steel mills, called for an investigation of his action.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn), looking askance at the Republicans' move, said he would ask his subcommittee on labor-management problems to consider whether new legislation is needed to deal with major industrial disputes.

Economic Issue

Sen. Murray (D-Mont), moved ahead with plans to offer a bill specifically authorizing the President to seize any major industrial plant as a spur to stalemated industry-union talks.

Meanwhile, two of the nation's most powerful business organizations, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers, held a mass meeting in Washington of 170 industrial and business leaders from all over the country to study the President's seizure of the mills.

The Government, while in possession of the steel plants, was in a position to sign a contract on labor's terms.

Government Negotiates

After negotiations between steel owners and labor collapsed Tuesday, the Government prepared to go over the head of the seized steel industry and give a wage boost to Philip Murray's CIO steelworkers.

The Government however shied away from giving Murray the contested union shop arrangement—a clause requiring all steel workers to belong to Murray's union.

Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer, as operator of the steel mills, issued a statement after the negotiations broke down saying he would "proceed promptly but not precipitately" to negotiate the wage dispute directly with the union.

The immediate implication was that the Government would grant the 12½-cent-an-hour wage boost that the Wage Stabilization Board had recommended be made retroactive to Jan. 1.

Quotes

NEBRASKA FAMILY PRAYS AS MISSOURI RIVER THREATENS HOME
Surrender had come days earlier...

THE Missouri River went on the most ravaging flood rampage in history this week.

In one Iowa city in the path of the raging river 45,000 people abandoned their homes and fled to higher ground.

The record-breaking flood crest came only as insult atop injury. Surrender had come days earlier and inundation had been a creeping, progressive thing. Town after town along the maddened river was either prostrate or abandoned. Omaha and Council Bluffs, twin cities on opposite banks of the Missouri, whose combined metropolitan area takes in 366,000 persons, fought it out bolstering levees.

Guards on Patrol

Soldiers, police and civil guards patrolled areas evacuated by home owners. Not even the persons who lived there were permitted to enter.

The flood area extended all the way from lower South Dakota, along the Iowa-Nebraska reaches and into Kansas and Missouri.

Other states and other rivers also figured in the grim midwest flood picture.

The Mississippi hit a record high and kept climbing at St. Paul, Minn., and the Minnesota River, a tributary,

The Red River Of The North was rampaging around Fargo, N. D., and in Montana, the Milk River threatened towns like Nashua, Havre, Chino, Harlan, Malta, Dodson and Wagner.

Missouri Most Damaging

It all added up to one of the worst combinations of Midwest floods in modern times.

The Missouri took the lead in the damage. Army engineers reported acres of some of the richest farmland in Middle America under water along the Missouri and its tributaries.

The drama was perhaps greatest at Omaha and Council Bluffs. Water in huge volume strained against dikes protecting the cities. Citizens there worked frantically to be ready for the crest, which, when it came, was nearly five feet over the crest that levees and flood walls were designed to handle.

Federal Aid

At least three Midwest governors, C. Elmer Anderson of Minnesota, Sigurd Anderson of South Dakota and William S. Beardsley of Iowa appealed directly to President Truman for help. The President allocated Federal funds to aid sufferers in the disastrous floods.

The President also met with seven Midwest governors during a flying visit to Omaha Wednesday to discuss measures for dealing with the flood emergency.

The flood came from the rapid melt of snow on some 80,000 square miles in the upper Missouri Valley. The snow had fallen on a virtual icecap beneath which the ground was frozen. That caused a rapid run-off, but at the same time prevented a big landwash which contributes to heavy river silt and results in massive cleanup jobs after floods pass.

KOREA: POW Issue Key to Future

THE current draft of the Korean armistice document runs about 35 typewritten pages and contains some 63 numbered paragraphs, not counting alphabetic breakdown of many items.

Much of the optimism exhibited recently both in Washington and Panmunjom, apparently stemmed from the fact that there were only some nine paragraphs in the armistice waiting to be agreed on.

Three of the nine dealt with exchange of prisoners. A fourth dealt with airfields, another with remaining observations, the sixth with recommendations to governments concerned and the seventh, eighth and ninth with "miscellaneous."

Prisoner Obstacle

Talks on the major obstacle—prisoner exchange—were suspended two weeks ago after ten secret meetings. After that it was generally believed that grounds for agreement had been worked out, but that the United Nations side needed time to revise the list of prisoners it held.

Earlier this week, the Communists said they were ready to get together and talk about prisoners again. The Allies held off for awhile, awaiting their activities on the POW issue in secret.

Outside the foggy tent at Panmunjom the feeling persisted that agreement on a method of exchanging prisoners held the possibility of resolving the remaining issues in such abrupt fashion as to bring a whirling finish to the talks which have dragged out for more than nine months.

At one truce meeting this week a record for brevity was set. Delegates met only 15 seconds, including time for translation.

The Peiping Radio, meanwhile, fired another propaganda headline of charges that the United Nations had violated the Geneva Convention in a proposal for the voluntary release and treatment of captives in prison stockades.

New Hope in Polio Fight

A vital new polio discovery will be tested on children this summer in hopes of preventing infantile paralysis.

Dr. David Bodian, of Johns Hopkins University and Dr. Dorothy M. Hutchinson of Yale this week reported the discovery that the polio virus apparently gets into the bloodstream before it enters nerves and destroys them. While the virus is still in the blood, it can be killed by giving antibiotics.

This kind of prevention of polio has worked on monkeys and chimpanzees. Children threatened by an epidemic will be given the antibiotics to kill the virus before it makes them sick.

The antibiotics will come from human blood. Most people have had polio, without knowing it. They made their own antibodies to destroy the virus. One substance in the blood carries the antibodies.

There now is a much brighter hope for a vaccine against polio. The vaccine would mean giving an actual shot of the virus, allowed so that it doesn't cause sickness, but still stimulates the body's output of antibodies. The new discovery shows that the vaccine could be a very weak one because so few antibodies are needed and still work against polio.

In Short

Signed: by President Truman, the Japanese Peace Treaty making peace with Japan effective April 28.

Reached: an informal agreement between President Truman and Canada's Secretary for External Affairs Lester B. Pearson, permitting the first step toward sole construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway project by Canada.

Staged: by Yugoslavs in Belgrade, protest demonstrations against Italy and the conference in London on the future administration of Zone A of the Free Territory of Trieste, now managed by Britain and the U. S.

Refused: by the United Nations Security Council, a motion calling for consideration of an Asian-African complaint against France's treatment of Tunisia.

Revealed: by the U. S. Government, that the recently-discovered uranium deposits in South Dakota and Wyoming "point to a whole new area that is favorable for uranium prospecting."

Convened: in Bonn, a meeting of the Allied High Commissioners for Germany and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to put finishing touches on a peace contract binding Germany to the West.

Sidelights

- In Los Angeles, a 100-pound chimpanzee escaped from the local zoo. During a three-hour romp before he was recaptured he: Bit a policeman's finger. Stole a woman golfer's putter. Floored three men with roundhouse rights. Knocked dents in two automobiles. Climbed numerous trees. Got punched in the nose by a pedestrian he tried to annoy.
- In London, an 84-year-old Scottish millionaire revealed how for 30 years he has worn suits with all outside pockets sewn shut. He claimed it was a matter of neatness, not economy.

No 'Special Favors' In Covering Court Charges

Many people feel that newspapers should print the news, good or bad. It is one of the tenets of democracy, they will tell you, and everything is wonderful until there happens to be some bad news about themselves.

For this reason many small town newspapers, along with a few of those in larger towns, have adopted policies of omitting most police and crime news. This action is chiefly upon the grounds that innocent families and relatives are made to suffer.

Around 1946, however, DWI charges became numerous in this area; at least two innocent people were killed by drunken drivers. The situation became so bad that The Brand felt and assumed a public duty in publishing DWI charges in the newspaper. The average individual who faces charges of drunkenness damages chiefly himself and his family, but seldom does he inflict widespread damage to innocent individuals. That some person, when he takes the wheel of an automobile, becomes a potential killer, more dangerous in many instances than if he held in his hand a loaded gun.

Highway accidents as the result of drunkenness rank high in the death tolls along the highways of the nation, and especially in the Southwest. Almost always, the killer is filled with remorse—but the victims are just as dead as if the crime had been committed with malice. Often the fines mean little to a person faced with a DWI charge, whereas the publicity is a sizeable punishment.

The Brand, like other citizens, has little sympathy for persons who drive while intoxicated. Families and close friends of these persons, however, are another thing, and often these individuals become outraged because a news item is published about "their" kin. Instead of becoming angry with the fellow who committed the crime, they become angry with the newspaper or with the officer who is merely doing his duty, often for the protection of the wives and children of the very people who complain the most.

To our knowledge, we have not omitted a DWI charge in Deaf Smith County since 1946. We do not think it fair or equitable to publish some and omit others. It is, and should be, all or none. The person who asks for a special favor is asking for corrupt government and for a prejudiced press, the two factors which would contribute most toward the failure of the American democracy.

The public agrees with this policy by an overwhelming majority. Therefore, we ask those involved to think twice before asking for special favors which we cannot possibly grant. Then, think it over again—and place the blame where it really belongs. —J. M. G.

Growth Will Help Change Fire Key Rate Favorably

Thursday's issue of The Brand carried a story giving the record of the Hereford fire department and how the department's good record has contributed towards giving Hereford a favorable premium rate for fire insurance.

We should all be agreed that the volunteers who man the department deserve all the good things we can say about them and should be thought of highly by all.

There are other things, however, which can aid in giving Hereford a more favorable base in the purchase of fire insurance. Some of them can be straightened out—it will take time, however—and some of the inequities will have to be legislated.

The fire department and the home-owners of Hereford can do a lot in preserving a good fire record credit for insurance in Hereford. The way that has been done in the past few years was outlined Thursday.

The second way in which Hereford can bring its fire insurance premium structure into a more favorable sphere is by working on the "key rate" which is determined by the physical phases of fire prevention, etc.

Some of the remedial methods have been suggested for Hereford—a zoning ordinance and building laws which will eventually give the community a more favorable "key rate."

How is Hereford's "key rate" of 23c computed? Here is a list of the CHARGES made against Hereford for fire insurance i. e., things which, if remedied, could bring about a smaller "key rate."

Waterworks pumping unit in duplicate—electric power, 3c charge. This would be abolished if the city had an auxiliary pump using a different type of power in case of emergency;

Power other than steam or water, 1c charge;

Fire department deficiency 80% in number of full-time paid firemen, 4c charge. A town should have one paid fireman for each 1,000 population. Hereford has one man for 5,000, and should have five by this rule, so is 80% deficient;

Fire apparatus—no hook and ladder, 2c charge (this is the inequity smaller communities are trying to have adjusted as there is no need for such equipment in a small town);

Fire alarm system—none—but electric siren in service, 4c charge;

Building laws, 77% deficient, 6c charge;

Conflagration hazards: (a) overhead wires in mercantile district, 1c charge; frame ranges in mercantile district, 2c charge; (b) over 75% of roofs in mercantile district wooden shingle, 4c charge.

Total charges add up to 27c. From this is deducted the following credits:

Auto pumps (1-750-gallon capacity), 2% credit;

Chemical engines (two combination trucks with 200-gallon booster tanks), 1% credit;

Night watch service properly maintained, 5% credit;

Methods of fire prevention and principles of fire insurance taught in all public schools, 3% credit;

Arson reward maintained, 2% credit;

Firemen's drill school course competed, 3% credit.

Total credits are 16%, or 4c total off, the 27c charge, leaving the 23c net.

This key rate became effective October 1, 1951.

From the above, it can be seen that there will be places where money can be saved in the future as the city grows and as the city is permitted to adopt more of its own ordinances.

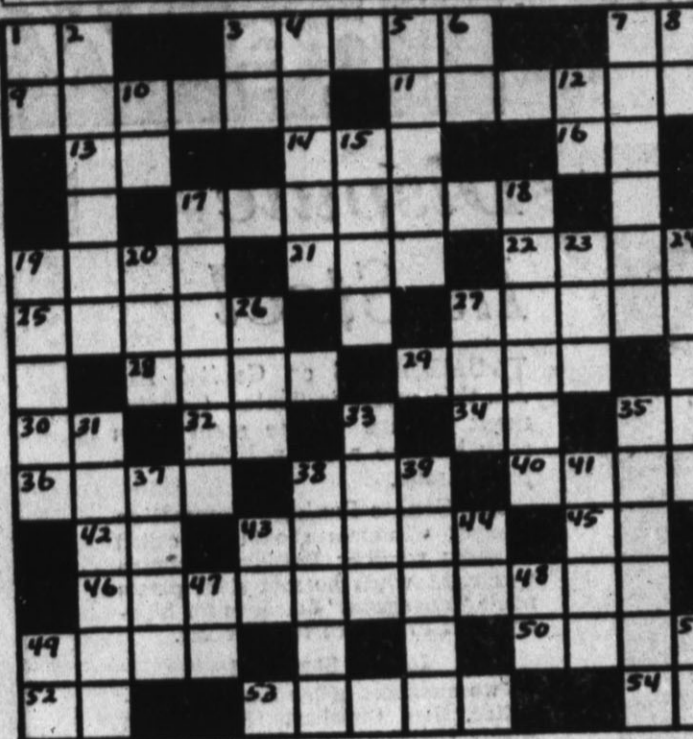

Some of the examples listed above provide good argument for what is going to be presented to the city's voters—the home rule amendment.

Hereford should have a zoning ordinance and substantial building regulations. Not only will this aid in the fire insurance "key rate," it will make for a more solid community.

There are other instances listed above where, as the community grows, the city's key rate can be lowered. The expense of changing some of the "charge" items would not be justified, in several cases, by the small extra amount of fire insurance that must be paid.

The list is, however, something to keep in mind and to work on as Hereford "grows up" under a home rule form of government where we can adjust our own zoning, regulations, and other vistas of control.—W. W. K.

I'll Never Forget

I came to this country in 1909. I had just finished high school in Missouri. The country was beautiful. I've never seen it more beautiful since then. The grass was green, the lakes were full of blue water and the sky was blue, antelope bounded over the horizon. Fresh from the hills of Missouri, I fell in love with the country and have never ceased to think it was wonderful. We lived 10 miles northeast of Hereford on what has been known in later years as the El Toro section. We lived out there for about four years. Each year was dryer than the year before so we finally dried out. My people moved back to Missouri but I married Dr. D. E. Turrentine, the dentist in Hereford at that time and one of the old settlers here, and stayed. During the first summer I came I started teaching the Askren school, which was very small. We had it during the summer. It was three months long. We had about 13 pupils.

BESS WERNER
I taught for three terms at the Berve school—later changed to Progressive. It was a good sized school. There were about 30 pupils. The building was very small—about 20 by 25 feet. We had big Christmas trees and all kinds of big entertainments there. I taught all the grades and some of those pupils are very solid citizens now. Among the ones in the school were Orin Russell, the Cocaboughers, the Parks and the Brubakers. I didn't teach for a while after I married, but Dr. Turrentine's health failed and we went to El Paso. I taught a year while he was in a sanitarium in El Paso. We came back to Hereford and to help make the living I was bookkeeper in my brother-in-law's elevator—Harrison's elevator—for 4 1/2 years. The elevator drew trade from as far as Belview and the south part of Castro county and north to Wildorado and Vega and east to Umbarger. I knew and talked to all those farmers. In those days all the hauling was done by wagon and team. The elevator had a camp house for the use of the haulers. When the trucks came in I bought the camp house and I live in it now. I made a point of knowing how many acres of the various kinds of crops the farmers planted and I could always ask (Continued on page 3)

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION

Reader Sentiment Mostly With Reservists In Flying Dispute

Do you think reserve Air Force pilots should be ordered to fly against their will or be court-martialed as in the now-famous Randolph Field controversy?

GLENN WILLIAMS—I think that the reserve pilots that were called back from civilian life definitely shouldn't have been called back. They should be released from the court martial too. Most of the men have families that they would like to raise and the government sure won't do that for them.

BOBBY OWEN—No, I don't think they ought to be forced to fly against their will.

CLYDE CAVE—I think they ought to fly—if they are in the army they do what they're told—the other branches of the service doesn't have any choice of what they are going to do regardless.

DUB REEVES—No, I don't think they should. We are not in an official war. Either make it official or not.

CARROL KREIG—No, I think they shouldn't have to if they don't want to. I think they ought to let some of the regulars and instructors that have never been in combat go over there and get a taste of it. Let the ones that have already done their part stay at home.

MARIE DUPNICK—I don't think they should be court-martialed though. Most of them have been forced to leave. They've been through the second war and now they feel like they are fighting a third one and I think there are plenty of younger ones that can take their place.

'Tater Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

We feel just like Mr. Williamson, custodian at the Courthouse who says that he doesn't mind sweepin' out the dirt that's tracked in—it's the dirt that blows in that worries him.

These April showers may bring May flowers but they also brought new life to that part of our little wheat patch which we didn't reach by irrigation and was just about to gasp its last when the weather man came up with a resuscitator.

We had to learn to milk a cow after we moved out here and never thought too much of the idea because it came so regular but the way Clifford Throckmorton, of Whitharrel, gets along with his Guernseys maybe it isn't so bad after all.

Clifford who is a consistent winner had the grand champion female at the Plainview Dairy Show last week and his wife who was Mildren Pittner has a part in the success of their entries.

If any of you have as little space as we have you might use an idea we had of fastenin' a plastic shoe bag to the closet door with a pair of our young hopeful's socks in each pocket. Sure saves a lot of wear and tear on our nervous system and eliminates what always seems to be a drawer full of nothin' but odd socks.

For somethin' really scrumptious it's about time to put some fresh strawberries and some fresh rhubarb (or a frozen package of each) together with water, sugar, butter and plenty of crust for an old-fashioned cobbler and better make it a big one.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his farm near Bootleg has a sound idea this week, whether he gets anywhere with it or not.

I read the other day where for 4 billion dollars scientists can establish a man-made satellite a thousand miles out in space, and while I hadn't realized there was a satellite shortage, I'm willin' to go along with the idea, the same as I am with plans for makin a hydrogen bomb, newer type atom bombs, etc.

But it seems to me scientists are scatterin their fire. They're movin on to new jobs before they finish the old ones.

Take the common house fly. One of the worst afflictions man has, but there ain't a fly less today than there was twenty-five years ago. Or take ants. Or mosquitos.

It seems to me there's a screw loose somewhere when a deep-thinkin scientist about to unlock the secret of nuclear energy or figure out how to conquer space has to stop in the middle of a calculation that may be it to swat a fly.

If the brains of science was brought to bear on the fly problem with the same degree of white heat used on splittin atoms, the fly nuisance could be eliminated for all time.

Like it is now, science is just half-hearted about it. It perfects a sure death for flies, like DDT, and everybody buys a spray gun and cities lay down clouds of the stuff and it works for a while, until the fly catches on and develops an immunity to it.

I got confidence in scientists, they got the brains to outsmart the fly, if we could keep em on the problem long enough to finish it. As it is now, with the brainiest men, the best laboratories, and nearly all the money there is, the scientific mind today can figure out no really better way to kill a fly than to hit him with a fly swatter. With radar, intercepter planes, radioactive waves, etc. to throw against a human invader, all we've got against the fly is screen wire.

The same thing applies to mosquitos, chiggers, greenbugs, potato bugs, bollweevils, corn borers, etc. I would like to see Congress appoint a commission to draw up a list of common every-day pests which ought to be eliminated before we go any deeper into nuclear energy or outward into space. Just draw up the list, hand it to the scientists, and tell them they can't play with atoms any more until they clean up these loose ends. There ain't nothin more ridiculous than a man about to fire a rocket load of explorers out into space havin to stop and scratch a chigger bite.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What should the woman keep in mind regarding her gloves?

A. Gloves should match or harmonize with costume and should always be kept immaculate. Create interesting effects with colored gloves, but key them to the costume. Shortie or wrist-length gloves for day wear are good for the short and medium-sized woman; the large woman should wear wrist-length or gauntlet styles for day wear.

Q. What can I do about white spots appearing on my fingernails?

A. Nothing. They can only be covered with colored polish. Good general health, foods high in calcium — milk, eggs, meat — will help your nails become sturdy and lovely.

Q. How can I make my eyes seem larger than they really are?
A. You can achieve this effect by deepening your eyeshadow in the center of your eyelids, blending out to the outer end of the eyes.

Q. What special care can I take of the skin on my arms and elbows?

A. In your bath use a brush to keep arms and elbows soft and clean. After drying thoroughly, massage well with cream or lotion. Go after elbows that are rough, stained or callused with a cuticle-softening preparation and then rub with pumice stone. Bleach elbows with cream or lemon juice, and keep them well rubbed with hand cream or lotion.

Q. How can I make a low forehead appear higher?

A. By drawing the hair severely back for an inch or two and holding it with clips or a band.

... Here's How To Do It ...

—from SMALL HOMES GUIDE—

Make Your Own Batten Door

The Batten door is an easy and interesting project for the home workshop. The original shown here is built of 2-inch tongue-and-grooved redwood planks. The cleats and X-braces are secured with flat-head wood screws, countersunk 1/4 inch and plugged with boat-builder's dowels, in which the grain runs crossways and can be shaved off flush with a chisel. All contacting surfaces should be spread with glue and clamped. Excess glue should be removed immediately. Cleats should be temporarily nailed while screw holes are drilled and counterbored. The bottom cleat is up from the sill to permit fitting weatherstrip. A natural finish is recommended for the door.

Construction Tips for Home Builders

PRESERVATIVE—Lumber framing members to be placed in contact with foundation walls can be treated on the job by dipping or brushing with chlorinated phenol or other preservative compounds, according to Small Homes Guide.

WALLS BREATHE—Vapor barriers should be only on the warm side of a wall, never on the outside, according to Small Homes Guide. Building paper between sheathing and finish siding should be the "breather" type, allowing vapor within the wall to pass through to the atmosphere.

Brush a halo of curls up above this to form a frame for the face.

Q. Is there a way I can mix my own toilet powder at home?
A. Yes; two parts boric acid with eight parts of starch.

Q. What is a good facial mask for oily skin?

A. Mix one egg white with the juice of one lemon and add almond meal or powdered oatmeal to make a thin paste. Leave paste on face until it dries, then remove with warm water to which the juice of one lemon has been added. Then pat on cold water.

Q. How can I exercise to reduce the buttocks?

A. Kneel on floor with hands on hips. Then drop on one side of your buttocks, clasping your hands over your chest with elbows pointed out. Shift back to kneeling position and repeat on left side.

Q. What precautions can I take to help prevent wrinkles around my eyes?

A. You can massage a little mineral oil around the closed eyes each night before retiring. And you can be sure that your eyes aren't suffering from strain, and that you don't need glasses.

Congregationalists At Friona To Name Parley Delegates

A meeting of the Congregational church membership will be held following the morning worship hour of the church on April 20. Purpose of the meeting is to name three official delegates of the church to the fifth annual meeting of the Central South Conference of the Congregational Christian Churches to be held in the Central Congregational church at Dallas on April 29 and 30 and May 1.

Principal speaker for the conference is to be Dr. Truman B. Douglass, Executive Vice-President of the Missions Council of the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches. Dr. Douglass comes from the headquarters office in New York City. Friona Congregationalists have a special interest in Dr. Douglass in that his first pastorate was in the Friona church which he served as a summer student several years ago. Dr. Douglass is the author of a book entitled, "Our Mission to America."

Rev. George E. Meyer of Friona has charge of the worship service of the conference on Tuesday evening preceding Dr. Douglass' address.

The local Congregationalists are to be represented by three official delegates and the pastor. Important business of the Conference will be the selection of its representatives on the General Council of the denomination and delegates to the meeting of the General Council to be held in Claremont, Calif. on June 18-25.

them how their crops were when they came in.

Some of the big ranchers then were John L. Wilson, Charlie Donald, and Henry Hastings. The elevators supplied all of them with seed and feed, etc.

In 1919, after my first daughter was born, I quit the elevator and we moved out on the farm in 1921. We had been living in the northwest edge of town.

One time the things we raised on this place were—as one of the small sons said—red hogs, white chickens and black cats. We still raise them too along with some Jersey cows.

During those years, Westway was born and flourished and was our community center while the children were in school and for many a year.

Then after Dr. Turrentine's death in 1928 the children and I carried on the farming—after I failed to get a county office.

Our farming was not scientific in those days and we used summer fallowing instead of so much commercial fertilizer.

One place on summer fallowed land they raised 40 bushels of wheat per acre on dry land.

My grandparents lived on a wheat farm near Wildorado and I went and visited them a lot. I've always milked the cows. I've been Sunday school teacher, served as trustee and also as a director of this creamery down here when it was a co-op.

I didn't begin to do all the work. The children farmed and many others helped me.

There's been a lot of change. It was a long way to town those 4 1/2 miles when the roads were rough. Now we live right in town.

When I first came to the country we rode in "surreys with a fringe on top" pulled by a team of western ponies. We could cover a lot of miles and did with it.

There were just a few cars in the country—we hitched our horses along Main street in Hereford.

It wasn't paved either—it was dusty in the summer except when it rained—which it seldom did—and then it was mud-holes.

We had more time for visiting in those days and everyone went to town on Saturday afternoon.

We used to have a runaway team or horse once in a while but we had no smashups like we do now with cars.

The most difficult years to live through were the dusty years.

I remember one Thanksgiving Day we had just started to sit down to dinner when a duster hit from the north. In a few minutes you couldn't even see your hand in front of your face in the house. Naturally the dinner was peppered. We probably just blew the dirt off and ate it anyway. We were tougher in those days.

We didn't raise many crops in those years but we raised a little feed for the cows and the cows always saw us through.

Our neighbors in those years were the Pierces, the Ira Cochells, the Pink Gillilands, the Corbetts. There weren't any houses at all hardly but since that time the whole thing is settled up.

I remember when we had the big fire that burned out the west part of the county. Everyone went to fight it. There was a raging wind and it really burned off a lot of grass.

Streu's Diary

April 18, 1952

DEAR DIARY:

Spring is here at last! Robins are bouncing around on the lawns, the flickers are busily searching bark of trees for bugs, the doves are arriving in pairs, and yesterday I heard a white-crowned sparrow in song. Of course the English sparrows have been frantically placing feathers and grass in every available cranny for several weeks while the meadow larks and red-wing black birds talk things up from atop posts and high trees. Yes, it is spring — when a young man's thoughts turn to love and marriage — and an older man's thoughts turn to golf and fishing and in a few isolated cases — gardening.

Of course, the thoughts of the ladies — both old and young — naturally turn toward spring wardrobes and flower beds — hubby to furnish money for the first and the labor for the latter — I might just suggest that, since the labor is inescapable, you men might perchance find some labor-saving devices at Streu's. Such as handcars, wheelbarrows, gasoline and electric powered Reo Mowers and hoes and rakes and forks guaranteed to fit the hands.

Just in case you should get caught up with your yard work, Walter has a complete assortment of all kinds of fishing equipment — from seines to sinkers and from bottled minnows to boat seats and cushions. And for the younger fellows we have baseball and softball stuff — and tennis balls and rackets — and croquet sets. And for the very old — dominoes and checkers.

Another favorite spring activity is the painting of old furniture and woodwork — we have the new DuPont Flowcoat wall paint. Any DuPont paint is easy to work, covers beautifully and lasts almost forever.

Gotta close for now, since the deadline is here and Gillentine just won't wait.

Wood Dents
If a dent is accidentally put into wood with which one is working it can be removed as follows: Place a dampened cloth or blotter over the dent and steam with a hot iron. The steam releases the pressure on the bent wood fibers, and they come back into place. Then sand lightly over the spot with a fine grade of sandpaper.

Furniture Polish
Make your own furniture polish by mixing equal parts turpentine, spirits of wine, vinegar, and linseed oil. Shake well, and do not use much at a time.

Boiled Fish
A tablespoon of vinegar added to the water in which fish is boiled renders it more firm and whitens the meat.

Clean Flowers
If the artificial flower on your coat or dress has become soiled and you are intending to discard it, put it into a jar of cleaning fluid, seal, and shake well, and you will find all soil will disappear, and you are saved the expense of a new flower.

Sogginess
When making fruit pies that are inclined to be juicy, it is sometimes wise to bake the shell for about five minutes before putting in the fruit. This prevents the lower crust from becoming soggy.

Chiffon
Use a pure soap solution when washing chiffon. Rubbing is not required, just rinsing up and down in water that is not too hot.

Scorched Cotton
Try dipping the scorched article into cold water and hanging it dripping wet in the sunshine. When dry, wet it again and repeat the process. It may take about two or three days, but it is a cure that will not injure the wearing qualities of the material.

Plaster of Paris
To clean plaster of Paris figures use toilet soapuds and a shaving brush. Rinse well. Dip them into a strong solution of alum water to give them the appearance of alabaster.

Syrup left over from spiced fruits makes an excellent basting for ham, pork, veal, roast, and steaks.

Winter Quilts
Winter quilts can be rolled up along with camphor flakes, placed inside the paper bag in which clothes come from the cleaners. Tie securely, and the comfort is ready for storing.

ATTEND O. E. S. SCHOOL
Members and officers of the local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star who attended an O. E. S. School held in Plainview Wednesday were Mrs. Effie Melton, worthy matron; who served as conductress for the school, Mrs. Belle Hromas, grand officer, Mrs. Myrtle Witherspoon, secretary;

3 Bedrooms, Minimum Space

Here is a small home design that really gives you much for your money—three bedrooms, dining area off the kitchen, full bathroom, plenty of closets, spacious living room with a fireplace. Open planning, a feature of many contemporary home designs, is in evidence in the kitchen-dining-living room arrangement. This gives each room a feeling of additional spaciousness, at the same time cuts construction costs to the bone.

How Can I?

By Arne Ashley

- Q. How can I produce holes in thin panes of thin or weak glass?
A. Provide the places to be perforated with a ring of moist loam, whose center leaves free a portion of glass exactly the size of the hole desired. Pour molten lead into the ring, and the glass and lead will fall through at once.
- Q. How can I raise the nap of a rug that has become flattened from heavy articles of furniture?
A. Dampen a chamois, fold it several times, and place it over the mark. After the chamois has been there for several hours, the mark will have disappeared.
- Q. How can I remove a grease spot from the wall paper?
A. Pat some fuller's earth, French chalk, or plain talcum powder on the spot and allow to remain for several days. Then brush off.
- Q. How can I stiffen the brushes of a carpet sweeper?
A. Take the brushes out of the sweeper and dip them several times into hot water, to which a little common baking soda has been added. Then let the brushes to dry in the sun.
- Q. How can I revive wilted parsley?
A. Place the wilted parsley in ice water for one hour. Then
- Q. How can I bleach white linens?
A. Cover the white linens with lemon juice and lay them in the sun for a day. Wash out in warm water and soap suds.
- Q. How can I easily wash painted walls?
A. Use two pails of lukewarm water. Wet a cloth and sprinkle sparingly with baking soda. Wash a convenient space, rinse with clear water, and wipe dry. All grease and dirt disappears with very little rubbing.
- Q. How can I polish faucets?
A. Nothing is better for this purpose than half a lemon after the juice has been squeezed out. After scouring, wash and polish with a soft, dry cloth. It will shine like new.
- Q. How can I remove varnish stains from fabric?
A. Rub the spot with turpentine or benzine. Then wash the fabric thoroughly.
- Q. How can I remedy jam that has become hard and sugary?
A. The jam that has become hard and sugary will be almost as good as new by placing it in the oven until the sugar melts. Then take out and put aside to cool.

KEEPING IT "HOT"-For You!

When you want to repair an electric appliance in your home, or a motor at your business, you just disconnect it and get to work. But we can't always disconnect our transmission or distribution system when we want to work on it — because that would inconvenience you.

That's when the "hot stick" crew gets to work, making repairs while the circuit is "hot" —while it is serving you. The circuit these men are working on is carrying 66,000 volts while they do their job.

Your electric service is efficient, dependable and economical because the "hot stick" crew keeps it "hot" for you.
