

Slugger's Delight Thursday Night

The sluggers had their night in Thursday's Hereford softball league play as Hereford Hardware downed Rocky's Service 19-17 in eight innings and Dawn handed the KCs their second straight defeat, 14-7.

In the first contest, 28 hits were pounded out as both sides used a pair of hurlers. Hereford Hardware, in pulling into a first-place tie with Summerfield, banded out 15 hits off the offerings of Rocky Lee and Bill Massie.

Rocky's picked up 13 safeties off the slants of Harold Leorwald and Stan Barret.

Rocky's team was limited to singles save for three two-baggers and by a homer smacked out by LeRoy Boyer.

Hereford Hardware capitalized on the inability of Rocky's pitchers in locating the plate. They garnered nine free passes through courtesy of Lee and Massie.

Rocky's opened up with four runs in the first and Hereford Hardware retaliated with five in their share of the stanza. Reuben Knox led off with a four-bagger which, followed by three more hits and two passes, topped the four added up by the Rocky nine.

Hereford Hardware added four more in the second, one each in the third and fourth. Two were tacked on in the sixth and one crossed the plate in the seventh. A five run blast in the final frame topped the 19-17 score for the leaders.

In the nightcap, Dawn handed the Knights of Columbus their second straight defeat as Dawn pulled itself to a 1-1 mark. Score of the nightcap was 14-7.

During the wild and woolly affair, Dawn banged out 11 hits to the KCs nine. The Dawners banded out three round-trippers, with Robinson hitting for the circuit twice and Reese Stewart banging out one.

Dawn took a commanding lead in the first two innings, tallying five scores in each frame, adding two in the fourth and two in the sixth.

PITCH and PUTT

Well, Old Streu's team paid off for losing the team tournament a couple of Sundays ago. It hurt but... there must be a loser in every undertaking. On the night of May 2, Streu's "has been" served a wonderful buffet lunch south of the putting green which was enjoyed by the players, their wives, and guests. After lunch our first putting tournament of the season was held, with 32 players taking part, 20 men and 12 ladies. Old Streu and Lloyd Neill made it to finals in the mens' division, but youth finally triumphed with Neill winning on the 13th hole. In the ladies division a comparative newcomer, in the person of Mrs. Doris Lindsey, stole the spotlight in the finals, before bowing out to one of the veterans, Mrs. Pauline Howard, on the 14th hole. If the winners and runners up in each division will not get too impatient they will be awarded their prizes very soon, that is, if Ray Hardy hasn't absconded with the entrance fees.

More some other time.

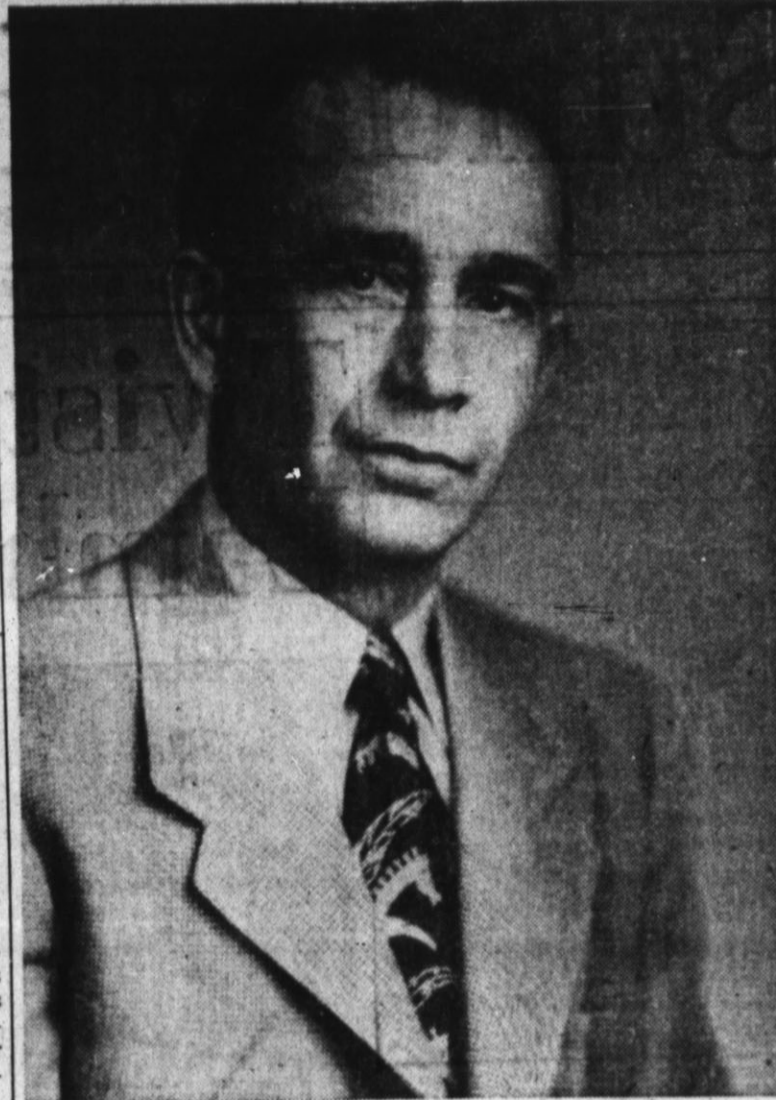

Bessie Patterson Wins Second In Writers Contest

Bessie Patterson was awarded 2nd place in the annual Panhandle Plains Historical Writers contest at a banquet in Canyon Friday night.

She received the award for her story, "From Cowtown to Capitol of a Farming Empire."

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Patterson, Byrle Elliston and Henry Sears attended the banquet.

See LUTHER PEVLEY about Real Estate Res. Phone 524-W

HENRY SEARS was elected president of the Panhandle Grain and Feed Dealers association at a meeting held in Amarillo recently. He was the only nominee for the office.

Sears had served as director for the organization for one year and had served on the program committee for a year. He has been a member of the group for 10 years.

He has been in the grain business in Hereford for about 11 years and had lived in Hereford for four years previous to going into the grain business.

Sears announced a directors meeting for the group sometime in June to form plans for the coming year. The meeting will be held either in Amarillo or Hereford.

Approximately 350 firms from the panhandle of Texas, Eastern New Mexico and eastern Oklahoma were present at the meeting.

Hennen Advanced In Rate With Navy Sub Tender

V. P. Hennen, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O. Hennen of Hereford, was one of 51 men serving aboard the submarine tender USS Sperry who was advanced in rate.

Hennen was advanced to metallmith, second class.

He attended Hereford high school and was employed by Jacobson Brothers before entering the Navy September 7, 1948. He took his recruit training at Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

Hennen is the husband of Mrs. M. J. Hennen of 4167 38th St., San Diego.

The Sperry is operating with Submarine Squadron 3 in the San Diego, Calif., area supplying and repairing submarines.

She was commissioned 10 years ago this month. The tender is named after the famous Elmer A. Sperry, inventor and pioneer in submarine construction and marine devices, the best known being the Sperry Gyro-compass.

During World War II, she refitted submarines in the South Pacific area. For three consecutive years, the Sperry was awarded the "Battle Efficiency Pennant" for outstanding performance of service, an honor highly coveted among Navy ships.

potato salad which some of the seniors took in their lunch when they left Hereford Thursday morning.

When the group arrived in Rudosa the remaining salad was put in the refrigerator and was eaten later.

A side trip to the lookout at Mon Jean was made by the group on Friday afternoon but the planned trip to White Sands was called off because of sickness.

The seniors occupied themselves with horseback riding, bowling, fishing, skating, pool, movies and horseshoe pitching during their stay in Rudosa.

Food Poisoning Hits Seniors On Annual Trip

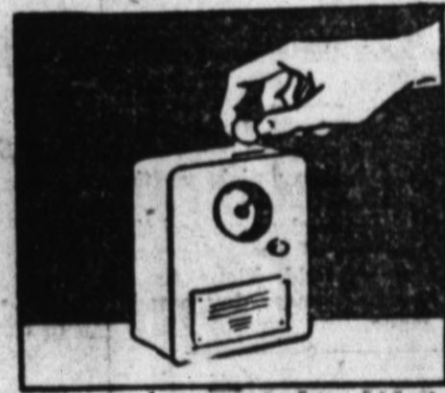

Even though about 20 students were treated for food poisoning during the annual senior trip last week end the trip will be long remembered for the good times rather than for the sickness.

Less than 20 of the 51 seniors making the trip were treated for dysentery caused from the food poisoning, according to senior sponsors. The poisoning was believed to have been caused by

HOWARD'S LAMENT

We are all having a good time spreading the word about grasses, legumes and other money makers, but we are aware of the need for top quality seeds for field crops. That is why I have put in a stock of high quality field seeds for you farmers to draw from for your seedings this spring. I won't take up space here to list them (John keeps us broke with the space he uses every week) but will say that we have them.

I figure it to be kind of like a clothing store—if you want a shirt you expect them to have the product.—H. G.

northeast. They went into the house and the twister hit. All the area went black and the house shook when it struck right between the barn and the garage. Hennington's three sons threw themselves to the floor of the house when it struck. One of the sons, investigating, looked out the back door and saw the lawnmower hit the ground after being twirled around by the tornado.

A windmill to the north of the farmhouse was hit and the buildings to the south of the house were demolished. Damage was heavy on the double garage and a side of the barn was torn off. Corral fences were torn up and a truck owned by Hennington was flipped over on its back in the opposite direction it was originally facing.

The tornado came within about 100 feet of the house. It strewn debris for 400 feet along its path.

W. L. Rogers - W. L. Rogers, who lives about two miles south of Conkright's farm on Highway 51, is getting his son from work at the Jim Bob Allison farm when he saw the tornado hit Conkright's. He and his son tried to outrun the tornado and ran into a ditch.

The twister — or another — hit the Rogers place and upended a 24-foot-round steel granary and deposited it on top of a combine. Rogers said the twister hit the place just north of him but there wasn't too much damage.

The wheat on the Carl Strafus place was battered by hail and also on the Ralph Hastings farm and Luther Lesly place.

place was estimated at about $7,500 unofficially by the writer.

Lee Benefield - Mrs. Benefield said she didn't know there was a tornado on the place until the hired hand came to the house and told them the roof had blown off the hay barn. Mrs. Messer, who lives next door to them, saw the storm and said the tornado was high in the air and never did touch the ground. It did dip low enough to get the barn roof. It went southeast and tore down 12 utility poles along Highway 60.

Mrs. Benefield had no estimate of the damage to their place.

Francis Hill - A hard wind or twister blew off the roof of the brooder house on the Francis Hill farm three miles north and a half mile west of Hereford during the storm. They and the Walter London family were sitting in the living room to the south when the roof of the brooder house crashed in to the north wall of the house, which was a bedroom.

No one was injured. Hill estimated his damage at about $2,000. The roof of the house was buckled, also, he said. The family looked south after the storm and saw debris flying through the air.

H. L. Hershey - On the H. L. Hershey farm 11 miles northeast of Hereford, a 40 X 100 - foot Quonset barn, valued at $3,400 was a total wreck. The tornado came from the straight northwest, Hershey said.

Mrs. Hershey was in the house alone at the time, Mr. Hershey and his son, being at an FFA steak fry. Mrs. Hershey didn't see the twister coming. She did report a couple of calm spells before the crash came. The twister hit with a roar and was followed by an intense hail storm. She didn't realize what had happened until she saw the debris scattered in the wake of the tornado, and she didn't realize the danger she was in.

The barn is about 200 feet from the house, due west. Debris was scattered to within 100 feet of the house.

Hershey said the barn was a year old.

Herbert Haseloff - Storm struck the Haseloff place just north of the city limits on the Airport road about 6:15. Mrs. Haseloff was looking out a west window directly toward the barn. Off to the northwest, she saw what looked to be a big ball of dust. Just before it hit, it began to look "like a large avocado." It sounded like a deep - rumbling groan just as it approached, she reported.

The funnel hit the barn and picked up the tin and kept coming for the house when it got to the windmill which is about 50 feet from the house, it turned and went south. Tin and lumber from the barn were scattered for about 1/4 mile in a southeasterly direction from the barn.

Mrs. Haseloff said that when the tin was flying through the air it looked like a piece of Kleenex. Instead of the tin and two-by-fours drifting down slow, she said that all of a sudden they just hit the ground with a thud. There were about 400 sheep around the barn when the storm hit. They went crazy and scattered all over the place. This morning there were three sheep dead. Haseloff didn't know whether they had died during the storm or from exposure. He estimated the damage at $1500.

A twister also hit the tenant house on the Haseloff farm 12 miles northwest of Hereford at about 6:15 p. m. Just as Haseloff was leaving to come to town, he saw the house go sailing through the air.

A family of Mexican laborers were just moving in the house and had just left the farm and their belongings to come to town and eat when the storm hit. Clothes and other personal belongings were sailing all directions after the twister.

Haseloff said he saw the small house go sailing through the air after the twister hit.

W. S. Fluitt - Hail which piled up on the ground about six inches deep killed an estimated 125 newly-shorn sheep on the Fluitt place. About 160 acres of wheat was a total loss. A "terrific amount of rain" was reported. Water ran into the basement from the deluge.

Storm hit at 6:15 or 6:30. Several cattle were lost, too. There was no insurance on the livestock.

The Smith farm, north of Fluitt's, had a lot of chickens ready for frying that were killed by the hail.

The Hilton Higgins place, eight miles north, lost part of the house room from a twister.

One person who returned from a visit 35 miles northwest, said it was "as bad as it has ever been." Lots of dead stock and game was reported.

C. E. Burgess, northeast of town was hailed out.

One farmer lost 800 acres of wheat to hail.

The REA reported several circuits out on sub stations 1, 4 and 5. Service in some areas was out all night and in some cases only a few minutes. Friona was without lights all night due to a pole hit by lightning at Walcott. Three or four cross arms and three or four spans were lost at the Conkright ranch.

A house trailer on the Clint Jackson place, five miles north, was overturned and wrecked.

Conkright lost 200 acres of wheat.

Other hurried reports of losses include:

Jack Renfro, losses on buildings northwest; Ernest McGee, broke in side and blew off roof on tenant house, at farm 10 miles north, 2 east; Bob Lewis, 13 northeast, blew away 24 - foot circular granary; Jack Payne, 19 miles north, considerable roof damage and den inside house.

Taft McGee, 10 miles northeast of Hereford, lost 400 acres of wheat. Floyd McGee, whose farm is directly across the road, lost all his wheat, too.

Other damage reports will be reported in Thursday's Brand.

Outstanding HD Clubwoman Award Ready May 19

Deaf Smith county's outstanding Home Demonstration club woman will be awarded a plaque in recognition of her work during the 1951-52 year at a special ceremony Monday, May 19, at 2:30 p. m. in the Westway community house.

Presentation of the plaque, awarded by The Hereford Brand, will be made by Mrs. Jimmie Gilentine.

Also at the meeting, a report of the THDA meeting held at Pampa on May 8 will be presented by delegates who attended. Mrs. Frank S. Wilde, Mrs. B. B. Northcutt and Mrs. Robert McQuigg will make the reports.

Name of the outstanding HD clubwoman will not be announced until the actual presentation. Her selection was made by a secret committee. A score card was used in the judging and took into account council, 4-H club work, and local club work in addition to county wide events and community work.

Actual selection was made for the current year's work but work of other years was considered, according to Argen Draper, county THDA.

B. E. Driskill In Charge Of Visitation Here

Bayne E. Driskill, director of evangelism for the Christian churches of Texas, is in charge of the Evangelism Visitation program being conducted this week at the First Christian church.

A goal of 45 new members have been set for the campaign which will continue through Sunday, May 11, according to Roy Ford, pastor of the church.

Over 30 workers have been trained by Driskill to go to the homes of friends of the church to secure definite decisions for Church membership.

The workers have been organized into four divisions. Division I, teachers of children led by Mrs. Earl Phillips; Division II, youth division led by Mrs. S. O. Wilson; Division III, young adult group led by Mrs. Jim Kirby; and Division IV, adult group led by A. Petersen.

The groups meet at the church each evening at 6:30 for inspirational and instruction dinner and leave the church at 7:15 to call in the homes of prospects until around 9 o'clock. Following the visitation the group returns to the church to report on work accomplished.

Roberta Campbell Chosen Chairman Of Deaf Smith THDA

Roberta Campbell was chosen Deaf Smith county THDA, chairman at the recent meeting of the Deaf Smith county home demonstration club council. She will also be first delegate to attend the state meeting at Kingsville this summer.

Other delegates will be: Mrs. Joe Wagoner, second delegate; and Mrs. R. C. Childers, third delegate.

Mrs. V. E. Dodson was elected to attend the craft school in Lubbock July 19-26.

Announcement of the presentation of a plaque to the outstanding Home Demonstration club woman was made. The presentation will be made on May 19 at the Westway community house. All women in the county are urged to be present.

Ford, Dawn, Progressive, Cultural, North Hereford, South Hereford and Westway were represented 100 per cent at the meeting. All the other clubs in the county were represented.

Mrs. J. F. Ward Attends General Conference

Mrs. J. F. Ward returned Friday from California where she attended the Methodist General Conference being held in San Francisco. There she met people she had aided in Missionary work educators and ministers and leaders she had followed through their work for years.

While in California she also visited a daughter, Mrs. Dolly Ward Auger in Oakland, and family, a grandson, Gerald and his Japanese bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberson of Turlock. Mr. Roberson was reared by Mr. and Mrs. Ward.

"I am always proud of Texas," Mrs. Ward said in telling of the Conference, "but I was prouder than ever to wear my big Texas badge for Texas was outstanding there in everything. The pageant presented by Dallas highlighted the entire conference entertainment."

Friona Site For Fall Meeting Of Cong. Churches

FRIONA — Friona will be the site of the fall meeting of the Central Association of the Southern Conference of Congregational Christian Churches in the annual meeting of the group held in Dallas April 29 and 30 and May 1.

Cancer Drive Fund Short

Only $802.95 of the $910 quota for Deaf Smith county in the Texas Cancer Crusade had been raised by Wednesday, according to Harry Caylor, local chairman.

The Crusade has not closed, however and donations will still be accepted.

The Jaycees have agreed to contact all the rural areas who have not contributed to the Crusade in an effort to raise the needed money to reach the county quota.

Per Well Steel Allotment Upped Effective May 6

Major changes in the water well construction regulation has been announced by U. S. Department of Commerce, National Production Authority in Lubbock. Effective May 6, 1952, water well contractors may use up to 10 tons of steel per well instead of six tons. The amendment further provides that the water well contractor may use up to 10 tons of steel per well from his second quarter inventory and he may file a supplemental CMP-4C application for the additional steel. The quarter CMP-4C application for third quarter allotment must be filed by May 15. Further information and forms are available at the local NPA office, located at 263 Cotton Exchange Bldg., Lubbock.

Springtime In All Its Beauty Much In Evidence At Annual Flower Show

A flower show to delight every eye was held by the Herford Garden club in its annual Spring Flower Show Friday at Park Avenue Village. The theme was "Treasure Chest of America" and featured nature's treasures of beauty and color.

The theme was effectively carried out with a huge chest against an aqua colored wall, filled with iris of almost every color and facing the entrance. Tall floor baskets filled with iris flanked the chest.

In the main, it was an iris show with 65 named iris specimens shown. There were 34 artistic arrangements made according to the scheduled theme. There were 29 entries in the small flower division.

The 13 flowering and foliage plants were of special interest. Mrs. J. H. Lomas entered a tree cactus that attracted attention. The ten dish gardens made by adults were of unusual interest. For the plant material, colored mosses and unique rocks and stones.

The Junior division was outstanding. One Bluebird group displayed 18 dish gardens, many of them in their own designs. The Junior group showed 26 flower arrangements.

The educational division pictured two cities. One well planned with flower beds, trees, and shrubs cultivated and sprayed to protect from insects, and the other covered with trash cans, papers and no flowers visible. The cities were placarded with "Texas Needs Better Manners."

Every type of container from upturned straw hats to horse-drawn carriages were featured and almost every type of arrangement suitable for the stately iris.

Sweepstakes winner with 9 blue ribbons in the horticulture division and the blue ribbon in the artistic division was Mrs. A. O. Thompson.

Other blue ribbon winners in the horticulture division were: Mesdames A. L. Manjeot, John Jacobson, F. M. Kester, O. G. Hill, Jeff Gilbreath, W. S. Fluhitt, E. W. Young, Otto Massie, J. P. Slaton and R. S. Howton.

Mrs. R. S. Howton and Mrs. R. A. Frye of Dawn won blue ribbons with potted plants. Mrs. Jeff Gilbreath won a blue ribbon on her dish garden with colored moss, and blue ribbons were won on arrangements by Mesdames Otto Massie, E. Ramey, A. G. Manjeot, Jim Black, A. O. Thompson and R. S. Howton.

Red ribbon winners were: Mesdames W. S. Fluhitt, F. M. Kester, J. W. Spradley, Jim Black, Phillip Barkley, O. H. Herring, Dalton Criswell, John Jacobson, O. G. Hill, Jeff Gilbreath, Harry Lomas, J. P. Slaton, Jack Robertson and A. O. Thompson.

Thirteen Called For Physicals

There were 13 men called for physical examination from the local draft board in the second physical call for the month, according to Mrs. A. Petersen, clerk.

The men will take their physical examinations on May 23. Those included on the list are: Francisco Rodriguez, Lubbock; Travis Ray Watson, Princeton; John P. Tinsley, Junction; David Fred Smith, Gata; Pete Ernest Fischfeather, Canyon; Eugene Joe Frische, Canyon; Richard Gomez Esquivel, Hereford; Barney Albert Scheller, Muleshoe; Tom Jay Willis Prince, Dimmitt; James Andrew Ashley, Wildorado; Lupe Ortiz Fajardo, Amarillo; Carl Ben Frische, Canyon; Lloyd Franklin Hollis.

People are still talking politics. Seems like the clerk situation has attracted more interest than even the exceptional catches of crappie at Buffalo Lake this year. The past two years saw reasonably small takes, but fishermen are really making up for lost time this spring.

Now days a fellow isn't considered much of an angler if he doesn't snare at least 56 crappie every time he goes out. Some of the dyed-in-the-woolers are also beginning to come in with nice channel cats. Oscar Altman was up last week end with a 15-pounder. Most of the channel cat are caught on cut-bait while boats are allowed to drift. However, the catfish boys say it is really hard to get around the crappie schools.

Remember the trouble we had with lake concessionaires a month or so ago. Well, we take off our hat to the boys in 1952. They are OK. You seldom hear a complaint about the service — even the 4:00 a. m. fishermen are taken care of in a big way. This is wonderful. Mr. Childers and his crew are doing a good job. That's what we needed all of the time.

Running a concession like Buffalo Lake is tough and you boys who fish out there have a chance to show your appreciation to Mr. Childers by being as considerate and helpful as possible. After all, the lake belongs to the people. Taking care of the facilities is another way of taking care of your own property. Let's meet this new studio — on the premises. He gave them such a nice tour that one of party offered him a $10 tip. Seeing his opportunity the writer replied sweetly: "Thanks very much, but I am well paid as a messenger boy. Look—here's one of my checks—$1,000 a week."

Bob Wilson is really upset regarding the Boy Scout sustaining deal. He figures the home town Scout leaders are doing most of the work while the $50-an-hour executives aren't coming through with enough time. Bob is also associated with the Campfire Girls and notes that this group only takes $50 a year from the community — and the Campfire Girls in Hereford are just as active as the Boy Scouts in Hereford. Main Street merchants mostly finance the $2,300.00 in Amarillo Scouting money each year. It seems to me that for a few more dollars a full-time Scout executive could be employed to spend all of his time in Hereford. Anyway we agree with Bob. It seems that we need a lot more time spent here by the Amarillo boys — or that our quota could stand a substantial reduction.

Two of the Scout laws I can recall at random: "A Scout is Thrifty" and "A Scout is Hospitable." I don't mean to imply that anyone in the organization is dishonest. However, it does seem to me that it is only fair to give us a voluntary reduction in view of the small amount of time spent here.

Bill Wallace maybe has something on these new concrete irrigation ditches. Understand he Girl elevator operator, alone in car with sailor: "Going up... anybody else going up? Please, will somebody else go up?"

Henry Sears is always coming up with a surprise. He popped up and got elected president of the Panhandle Grain Dealers the other day. Seems like I have a lot of arguments with Henry and we disagree a lot, but he is still a mighty fine old boy and a good citizen — and we are all proud of him and of the honor which being president of the association brings to the community. Another thing I like about Henry is the fact that he is always with you when the going gets rough. Congratulations, Henry. We know you will make a hand and a good record for the association in 1952.

When you stop to think about it, Hereford has a truly outstanding bunch of elevator operators. They are solid gold, all the way. Every single one of them is willing to do his part — and a little bit more.

Of utmost importance is the fact that the Democratic party in Deaf Smith County this year omitted the party pledge at precinct and county conventions. The pledge to support the party nominees, come hell or high water, may have made the Democratic Party strong in the South — but was it always in the interest of true democracy? Anyway, it was omitted here this year. In a lot of other places, too. This, I think, is the real, sure enough reason the "Loyal" Democrats are bucking the rest of the party. It could completely revolutionize the party system as we know it.

I would like to thank everyone who was so nice to me during my stay in the hospital. I would also like to thank everyone for the cards and flowers. Especially would I like to thank the nurses at the hospital for being so nice to me.

PRESENTING!

"Doc" Easterwood

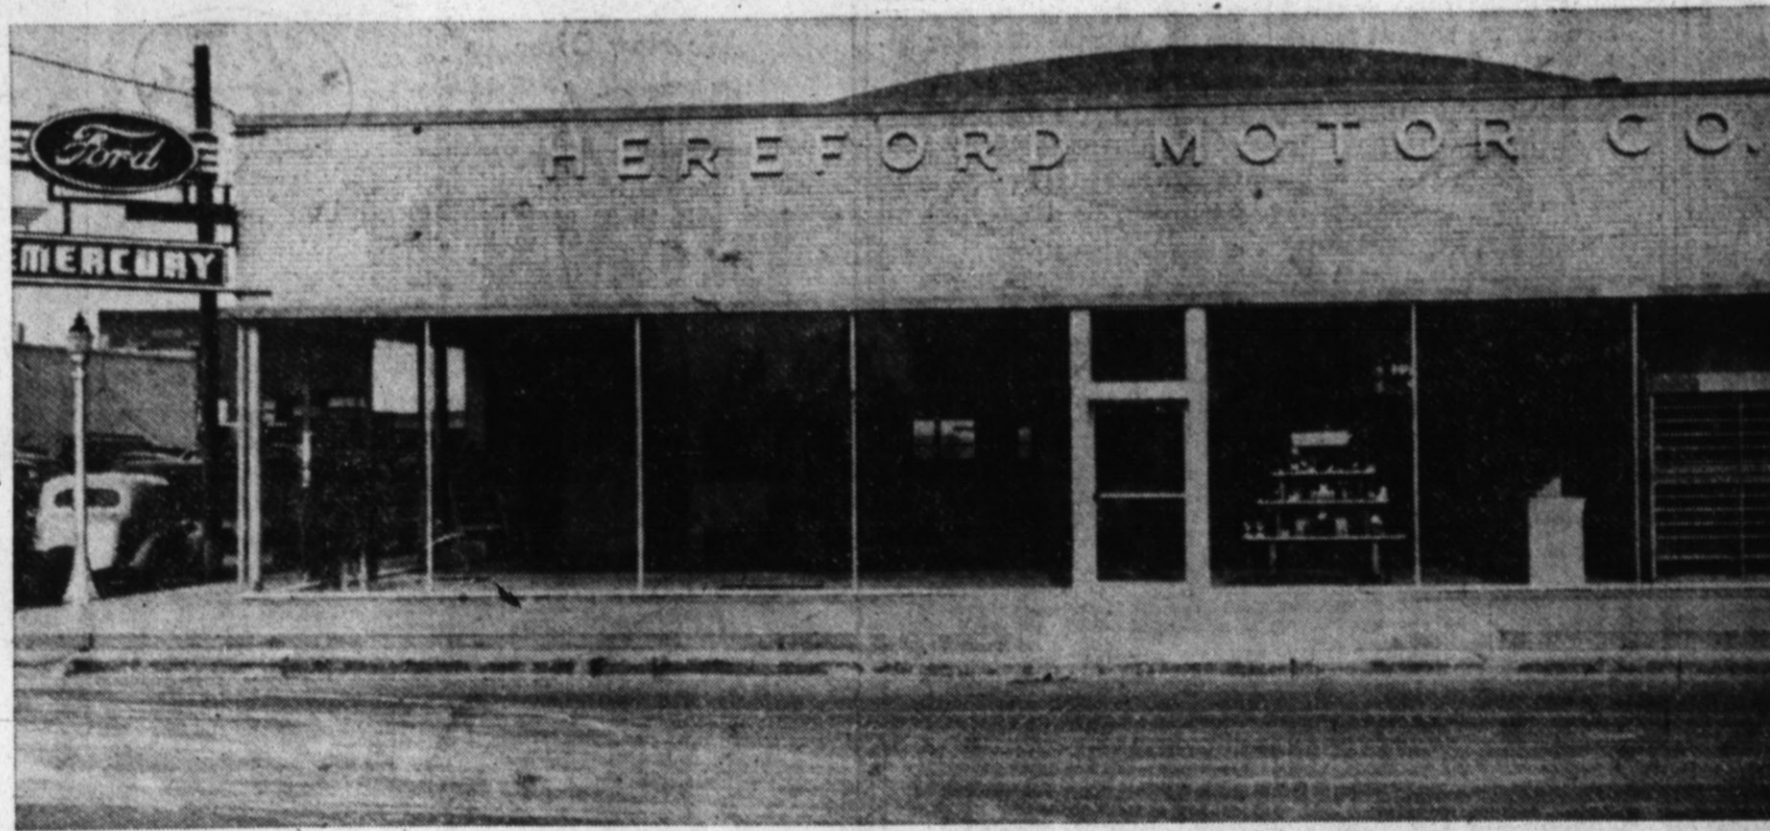

"Doc" Easterwood needs no introduction to the people of Hereford but we would like to say a few words about "Doc" anyway. "Doc" is in charge of our Body Shop and we think he's one of the best dog-goned body men in these parts. We're mighty proud to have "Doc" with us, and if you've dented a fender, rubbed off a little paint or just plain wrecked the old hoopie, just drive in and let "Doc" give you an estimate. When "Doc" gets through with the car you'll think you're out test driving a brand spanking new one. And speaking of Test-Driving, just drop around anytime and take one of our Big, New 1952 Fords for a spin. Just a spin around the block and you'll be convinced that Ford is the car for you.

LAE Club Held Installation Rites Tuesday

L. A. E. Club's final session of the year was in the form of a luncheon held in the home of Mrs. Sandford Smith Tuesday at one o'clock.

Installation rites for new officers were conducted by Mrs. George Suggs. New officers include: Mrs. Altus Higgins, president; Mrs. Phil Radovich, vice-president; Mrs. Jim Whelan, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bill Jones, parliamentarian; Mrs. B. A. Reddell, council delegate and Mrs. Sandford Smith, reporter.

The luncheon was served from a buffet table laid with a blue damask cloth with bouquets of iris as the floral decor. Quartet tables were centered with small mounds of sweet sylvium.

Special guest at the luncheon was Mrs. Wilma Davis of Memphis.

Members attending were Mesdames: Altus Higgins, Bill Jones, Boyd Knox, Jim Lovins, Phil Radovich, T. W. Roberson, George Suggs, Jim Whelan, B. A. Reddell, Bob Higgins and the hostess.

Miss Swisher To Present Recital

Miss Mattie Mae Swisher will present two groups of Voco Club students in a recital program Monday evening, May 12 at 7:30 o'clock in Ward Hall.

The program will be presented in two parts with part one being given by the primary and elementary division. Those participating will be: Janice Higgins, La Ann Higgins, Lynda Carole Tinsley, Sharon Francis, Terry Lee Caywood, Marcus Jacobson and Judon Fambrough.

Part II of the program will be presented by the junior high division. Those singing will be: Irene Witherspoon, Piuma Medcalf, Carroll Willoughby, Mary Oswald, Glenda Robbins, Sue Nell Sumner and Cojeita Shelton.

Songs from the classics, art songs, church music and some songs for fun will make up the program. Mrs. Cliff Estes will be accompanist. The public is invited.

Sorority Hears Guest Speaker

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Jewell Malone for a short business session and program.

George Tiefel was guest speaker on the subject "Development of Architecture." He traced the history of architectural developments from ancient times and explained how styles of architecture follow the trends of history, even as the poetry, music and art of the world have developed out of certain eras. He pointed out that ways of life make demands upon construction of buildings to the extent of establishment of what we now call modern architecture.

Members attending were Mesdames Gene Prickett, O. L. Amery, Hollis Puckett, Johnny Pool, Pete Guinn, J. R. Cramer and the hostess, Mrs. Jas. W. Witherspoon, sponsor of the group, also attended.

Patsy Wiltshire

Patsy Wiltshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wiltshire, was one of 20 girls at Texas Technological college to be initiated into D. F. D., social club, on April 19.

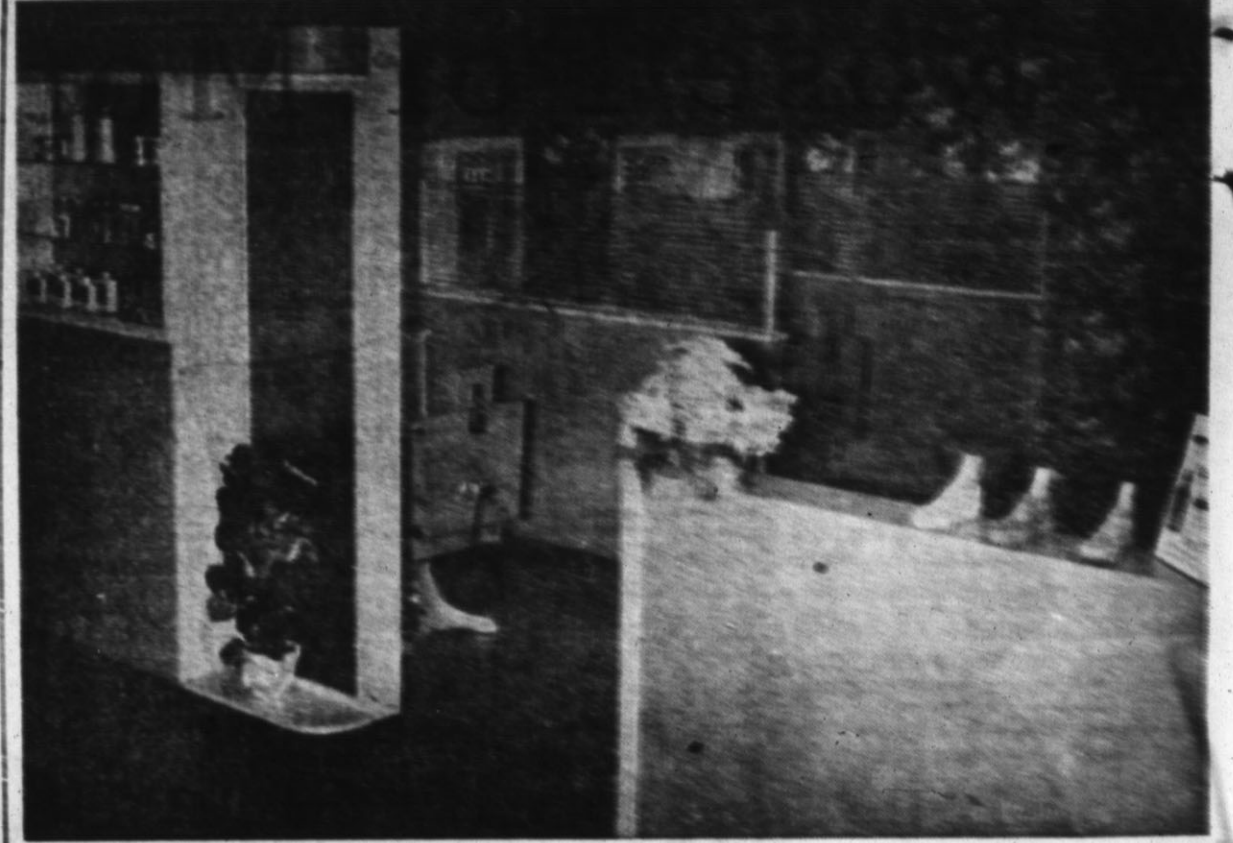

Patsy, a freshman at the Lubbock college, had Bill Forbus, a Hereford student at Hardin-Simmons university, as her escort to the formal ceremony and was presented by him. The initiation rites were featured at the annual formal spring dance.

June 1 Wedding Date Set For Miss Mary Jo Mathies

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Jo Mathies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathies of Amarillo, formerly of Hereford, to James M. Bowen of Amarillo, was announced Sunday, May 4, at a tea given in the home of the bride-elect's parents.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowen of Malleshoe.

The refreshment table was laid with an imported linen cloth centered with double wedding bells linked by a silver wedding band. Encircling the arrangement was a wreath of yellow iris and yellow roses, carrying out the bride's chosen colors, yellow and white. Garlands of lace revealed the names "Mary Jo and James" and the date June 1.

Twenty guests registered and receiving the callers with the honoree and her mother were the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. J. W. Bowen, and Mrs. Billie Cope, who will serve as matron of honor for the bride. Assisting were Mesdames B. B. Dixon and Bess Jennings.

The wedding will take place at 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon June 1, in the chapel of Park Street Methodist church in Amarillo.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Hereford high school and made her home here until moving to Amarillo recently. Mr. Bowen is employed with the Southwestern Investment company in Amarillo.

MISS MARY JO MATHIES

Brucie Rose Named President Of B&PW Club For Coming Year Mon.

Officers for the 1952 year in the Business and Professional club were announced at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Zula Gilliam Monday evening at 6:30 p. m.

Brucie Rose was chosen president for the new year. Estime Walton, first vice-president, Cecil Williams, second vice-president; Sadie Righter, recording secretary; Jaynice Estes, corresponding secretary; and Eunice Peterson, treasurer.

Members discussed the Deaf Smith County Research Foundation program and decided to contribute $300 to the program. Plans were made for members to serve in the registration booths during Hereford's Pioneer Day celebration.

It was reported that the club has sent 12 boxes of books to the Old Folks Home in San Antonio. These have been collected by Corinne Jennings.

Three new members—Marie Radcliff, Pat Loeberwald and Kathleen Ogilvie, were welcomed.

Those at the meeting were: Chas. Adair, C. Ora Cockrell, Louise Coxworth, Lee Hall, Alma Hill-ton, Velma Hodges, Pauline How-

LaPlata Club Meets In Home Of Mrs. Kester

The regular meeting of the LaPlata Study club was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lynn Kester at the completion of the progressive musical program presented by the club in four homes of the city.

The annual musical festival featured programs in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cowart, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill and the Kester home. Hostesses at the homes who are members of the club included: Mesdames N. D. Bartlett Jr., Elmer Patterson, A. J. Schroeter and Urlin Strea.

Entertainers at the various homes were: Dick Wilson, piano; Carolyn and Kathryn Kester, accordion; Sharon Doe Moore, reading with accompaniment by Virginia Sigle; and songs by the high school octet. Singers were: Joan Yancy, Wanda Kirksey, Dixie Young, Helen Alston, Ann Dyer, Royda Boyd, Marcella Beemer, Norma Cummings and Gwendolyn Jesko, accompanist.

During the business session at the regular meeting plans were completed for the closing session which will be held in the home of the president, Mrs. Morris Thompson on May 20.

Standing committees for the coming year were appointed and further plans for another year were made.

Those attending were: Mesdames Milton Adams, Leroy Aven, N. D. Bartlett Jr., Harry Bennett, W. B. Boston, Homer Brunley, Les Combs, Dalton Criswell, Emil Dietman, S. S. Finance Committee Report For HD Club

The finance committee of the Cultural Home Demonstration club has accomplished a number of things in the last year and a half. For instance the committee has sponsored the selling of lunches at farm sales, the ladies donating the pies and sandwiches. The sales for 1951 brought in approximately $250 and so far the 1952 sales have brought in $80. The members are good about sending or bringing their pies and sandwiches. Since so much is donated for the sales we clear a nice profit.

The committee recommends the club to pay all THDA dues, pay for club year books and send donations to different drives.

It also recommends girls 4-H sponsors and helps finance the girls at any time they need help.

This committee we feel is a

"The Devil In the Desert" Is Story Of Texas 100 Years Ago

Reviewed By Corinne Jennings

"The Devil In the Desert" by Paul Horgan derives its name from a part of the story which seems to be allegorical wherein the snake represents all evil in the world and the missionary priests whom he has bitten twice have a talk about his (the devil's) place in the world.

The author is a New Yorker but has lived in the west. In fact he attended New Mexico Military Institute and grew to love New Mexico and this part of the country, so that most of his writing is of the southwest.

The above novel takes place in Texas with the starting point at Brownsville about 100 years ago when missionary priests played such an important part in the beginning of our history and civilization.

Father Louis Bellefontaine prepared to make his yearly pilgrimage into the wild lands of the country with only a map in his head which he had been following for years, first the lowlands, following the river and then across the wild rough rugged country where few people lived, but those few needed him.

He performed weddings, delayed funeral rites, and baptisms for babies and gave counsel for those who needed it.

This year his younger Father Pierre who was the pastor and Father Louis was his assistant, knew he should tell him he must not go. But in spite of his desire to tell him he was getting too old for such journeys, he could not tell him so because of Father Louis' joy in going.

Even as he started to ask him not to go he was sent to find Father Louis' green glasses for the desert part of the trip.

It was a hard journey and one of danger, but the missionary rode on visiting with those on the way and taking to them the word and his own conclusions of life to help them to live better.

As he rode through the solitude he mused and one particular fancy was that a great triangle existed between him, God and to the ranch which he rode. "As he drew nearer his goal the points changed until the great hypotenuse between himself and God grew shorter and until at last when he arrived, there was a straight line with all in achieved communion."

The idea pleased him and he told others who liked it too as they nodded, consulted one another, approved and marveled, enjoying the notion with him.

One particularly hot and lonely day he was crossing the very worst stretch of country and becoming tired got down from the pony to rest awhile under a bush. He fell asleep and it was there that the snake found him, also seeking shade in which to avoid the hot glare of the sun.

And it was the snake which influenced the outcome of the journey. The story of the long hard trip could have happened to any of the early day missionaries and probably did. So realistic is it and so well written that it has been recommended for high school reading and others who like stories with historical backgrounds of our own country.

Other writings by Paul Horgan to be found in your county library, according to the librarian are "A Lamp of the Plains" and "No Quarter Given".

Luscious Pound Cake For Mother's Day Menu

A luscious home-made cake has always symbolized perfection in baking and has given its maker a feeling of accomplishment. In grandmother's day time spent in the kitchen was not counted as lost and some wonderful recipes have come out of that era.

Packaged cake mixes have come to the rescue to those who seem to have little time available. But there isn't a cake in the world as good as one Mom mixes in her kitchen.

So, for Mother's Day menus we go back to the turn of the century and revive the "pound cake," which is so especially suited to summer meals when served with ice cream.

Mrs. Leo Forrest makes both the yellow and the white pound cake by old-fashioned recipes taken from her treasured files. Both cakes keep well when stored in refrigerator or deep freeze. Here are her recipes:

White Pound Cake

1 1/2 cups Crisco
2 1/2 cups sugar
4 cups flour (sifted)
12 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon soda
juice of one lemon

Sift flour and soda four times. Beat Crisco to a cream and add lemon juice and flour gradually, beating until very smooth. Beat egg whites stiff, but not dry, and add sugar gradually. Combine egg and Crisco mixtures and mix thoroughly, but gently. Pour into two greased and paper-lined loaf pans.

Place oven shelf on fourth guide from bottom and bake both cakes on one shelf. Bake at 350-F for about one hour and ten minutes. Serves 20.

Yellow Pound Cake

1 3/4 cups butter
2 cups sugar
8 eggs
1 teaspoon lemon extract
1/8 teaspoon salt
3 3/4 cups flour (sifted)
1 teaspoon baking powder

Place oven shelf on fourth guide from bottom and place both cakes on one shelf. Bake at 350-F for about one hour and ten minutes. Serves 20.

Cream butter and sugar, add eggs one at a time without separating, beating well after each addition and add extract. Sift dry ingredients together and add gradually to butter mixture and blend well. Turn into two greased and paper-lined loaf pans.

Place oven shelf on fourth guide from bottom and bake both cakes on one shelf. Bake at 350-F for about one hour and ten minutes. Serves 20.

Courtesy Tea Is Given For Grand Officer

A Sunday afternoon courtesy from 3 to 5 was held in the Masonic hall when members of the Order of Eastern Star complimented Mrs. Belle Thomas, chairman of grievances and appeal of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of Texas.

The hall was decorated throughout with bays in various colors and tall baskets of iris and orange peonies.

Greeting the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas, Mrs. Henry Melton, worthy matron of the local chapter; Mrs. Ollie Bradley, charter member; Mrs. O. E. Sanders, mother advisor; and Mr. Sanders.

Refreshments were served from a large table laid with a white imported linen cloth. At one end of the table stood the emblem star done in knotted ribbon in the five star colors. Tall white tapers behind the star gave illumination. Tea dainties and appointments regaled the colors. Mesdames C. C. Ferguson and A. O. Thompson presided at the punch bowl.

A musical program was presented during the calling hours with Verita Sanders, Barbara Rogers, Kit Sanders, Ramon Childers, Sylvia McCracken, Fatsy Jackson, Virginia Sibley, Betty and Frankie Dee Culppeper, Marlene Alfred and Mrs. Nell Culppeper presenting piano, vocal and accordion selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Robinson and Jimmie Alfred spent the past week at their cabin near South Fork, Colo. They were doing some repair and remodeling of the cabin in readiness for the coming vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolfe and children left Friday for Woodward, Okla. Mrs. Wolfe will return next week to make arrangements to move to his new location. He is employed by the Magnolia Petroleum Company.

Re. R. H. Cagle Featured In Baptist Review

REV. CAGLE

(Ed. Note—Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hereford, Texas, was featured in the "Personality of the Month" in the April, 1952, issue of The Baptist Review. The thumbnail sketch of Rev. Cagle is reprinted below.)

Were the orthodoxy of R. H. Cagle, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hereford, Texas, not absolutely above suspicion, the recital of the facts of his early life might make him suspect among Baptists. He was converted in a meeting conducted by a R. M. A. preacher, he preached his first sermon in a Methodist church, immediately following he was invited to preach for them each fifth Sunday, and married a girl who had been reared a Methodist. All these matters were rectified by later events. He went thirteen miles away, to Wellington, Texas, to join a convention church, the Methodist church, and his preaching to the Methodists may be regarded somewhat as a missionary enterprise! His popularity with the Methodists on the occasion of his first sermon may stem from the fact that it was only eight minutes long. "Or maybe they thought I needed practice!" comments Cagle, many years after the occasion.

Richard Harmon Cagle—better known as Dick—comes from an unusual family. The father, H. I. Cagle, eighty-six years old and his wife, seventy-two, are still living and active. The father, though he rents out his farm, still does the daily chores, and on occasion, goes out in the field and picks cotton. There were eight children in the family—four boys and four girls, and all are living. Seven of the eight children received college education, though the family was poor. Each helped the other. The oldest brother, Dr. A. P. Cagle, is teacher of political science in Baylor University. A sister married a Baptist preacher, Rev. R. C. Tennison, pastor of Hamilton.

Richard Harmon Cagle was born Jan. 3, 1905, at Flat, Okla. The family moved to West Texas in Cagle's early life. He graduated in 1927. He taught school for a period of three years, then entered the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, in Fort Worth, in 1930 and graduated from that institution in 1933.

Converted at the early age of thirteen he very soon felt the call to preach. There were no preachers in his immediate family, but the influence of a Christian home, and his own desire to be of the highest possible service to humanity led him, through struggle and the sacrifice of other ambitions, to become a minister.

While in Baylor University he met the girl who was to become his wife, Nancy King, of Lovington, N. M. The Cagles have two children, Nancy Ann, eighteen, a sophomore in Rudin - Simmons University, and Bert, thirteen years old.

During college and seminary days Brother Cagle pastored small churches. In the interim between college and seminary, and while teaching school, he was called to his old home church, where he had been converted, at Quail. His first full-time pastorate after graduating from the seminary was at Leonard, Texas, where he served from August, 1933 to December, 1935. He then went to Diamond Hill, Fort Worth, where he was pastor of the Ervey St. Church, Dallas, and was here until 1945.

Since 1945 Brother Cagle has been pastor of the first church, Hereford. Under his ministry the church has reached a membership of nearly 1,400 and the annual budget is $52,000. During this time a mission organized by the church has become a church with a membership of 380. Hereford

First Church Baptists have erected a beautiful and commodious sanctuary and education plant that ranks with the larger churches of the state. Recently lots have been purchased for further expansion.

Brother Cagle is a member of the executive board of Texas Baptist General Convention; a member of the board of trustees of Wayland College; member and chairman of the board of District 9; moderator of Tierra Blanco Association two years; and in 1950 preached the annual state convention sermon when it met at Fort Worth.

In 1947 Brother Cagle was given a trip to Hawaii by his church. On this mission he had opportunity to preach in every Baptist church on the island. He regards one service on this trip, when he preached at Olive Church, Honolulu, as the greatest day of his ministry. This was when there were thirty-five professions of faith in response to his appeal, with a total of fifty-eight additions. Harking back to his first pastorate at Leonard, he regards a meeting held there in his first full-time pastorate as the greatest in his life. In a little town of 1,100 there were 110 additions, eighty-two by baptism, in a meeting conducted by Clyde Hankins. The success of that meeting was due in much measure to the foundation the young pastor had laid in advance of the coming of the evangelist. Both events are tokens of the deeply evangelistic and spiritual ministry of Dick Cagle.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. What type of shampoo should one choose for one's hair?

A. This depends. There are shampoos made expressly for dry oily or normal hair. Choose by experiment the one that does the most for your hair. A good grade of Castile soap is a standard and satisfactory shampoo. You can use it in liquid form or buy the bar and melt and dilute it for a liquid shampoo.

Q. How can I give my eyebrows and lashes special care?

A. Brush them morning and night with an appropriate cream to supply needed lubrication. You can either buy this cream at a cosmetic store, or mix your own odorless castor oil with good olive oil, half and half.

Q. How can I quickly repair a fingernail that has split?

A. With some nail cement and face tissue, or sheer linen from an old handkerchief.

Q. What can I do to "bring out" my eyes a little more?

A. Eye shadow is supposed to do this. To add to the luminous effect and brilliance created by the eye shadow, or as a substitute for shadow during the day, smooth a tiny dot of eye cream or Vaseline petroleum jelly on the upper lid.

Q. What is a good exercise for the new mother to firm her abdomen?

A. Lie on the floor, put a pillow under the hips, and prop the feet up on a chair. Begin by massaging the stomach and abdomen with firm strokes, and then slap it briskly.

Q. When one has a dry skin and wishes to avoid soap and water as much as possible, what is a good substitute cleanser?

A. A fine cleanser for removing old makeup from the skin is mineral oil of any kind.

Q. What are some useful hints to remember when wearing jewelry?

A. Jewelry should be small and dainty for the little woman, large and dramatic for the tall or large woman. Don't overdo the use of matching sets; you may wisely wear any three matching pieces—earrings, ring and bracelet, for example—but don't add to these the matching pin or necklace. Wear a few pieces of jewelry in good taste, instead of a number of cheap, trashy pieces. Vary jewelry for the occasion. Wear silver, leather, copper, or wood pieces for sports; gold and pearls for dress.

Q. How can I make a broad, short nose appear longer and narrower?

A. By drawing a line of light foundation base from bridge to tip, and blending this into a darker shade of foundation at the sides.

Q. How can I whiten my complexion, and keep it soft and smooth?

A. After the soap-and-water washing, wash the face again in warm buttermilk. Wipe it lightly with a soft towel.

Second Physical Call In Month Announced Soon

The Deaf Smith county local draft board will have another call for physical examinations during the month of May, according to Mrs. A. Petersen, clerk.

Scheduled for later in the month, the second call for the month will be for re-classification of those previously listed as 4-F or unfit for duty.

State draft boards will be called on in June for only 380 men, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, announced today.

Quotas to local boards for this call, smallest received by the state since July, 1951, will be figured and placed in the mail on or about May 7. The June state quota of 384 is Texas' share of a national quota of 10,000.

General Wakefield predicted that calls on Texas will increase greatly, beginning July. He pointed out that the first draftees inducted after invasion of South Korea will be eligible for release late this summer and early this fall.

He said everything points toward heavier calls the remainder of this year and the first four or five months of 1953.

The June induction call probably can be filled with examined and acceptable men 21 years old and older. Latest available information from local boards shows state draft boards have around 500 men of this category.

The boards are authorized to induct men 20 years old, if necessary, but can go no lower unless a man is a delinquent or a volunteer.

General Wakefield indicated that the state will have a physical examination schedule of around 3,000 men a month during the summer, beginning in June. He said such intention is subject to revision month-by-month.

have taken the regular physical and mental examinations and 37,427 have been inducted since the beginning of the conflict in Korea.

Letter To The Editor

To The Brand: The editorial appearing in last Sunday's Brand, "Lose With Teft Slogan for Republicans," just about expresses the sentiments of a great majority of the American people of both political parties, as I verily believe.

Never before in the history of this nation has the need been so great for unity, and unity we have if we hope to meet with our full strength, the threat to our freedom, and the freedom of all free peoples, for it is conceivable that, if the bitter controversies that have been raging for months and months, is allowed to continue until the November election, it could leave us in such a disorganized state, months and perhaps years would pass before wounds would heal.

What we need right now more than anything else is a leader, a man who is honest, capable and above politics, who enjoys the confidence and respect of all, who could rally the nation to put up a united front before the world. I believe just such a man has appeared, upon the political scene, Dwight D. Eisenhower. He has proven his leadership, has never wavered in the mire of partisan politics, and as yet, is not a controversial figure, although he is being and will be attacked by those who are more interested in politics apparently than the good of the nation.

Although General Eisenhower has announced that in politics he leans to the Republican party, I hope to see him nominated by the Democratic National Convention as its CANDIDATE, showing thereby that the party can rise above petty politics when the good of our COUNTRY IS AT STAKE. It makes little difference to what party he adheres if he is honest, politically or otherwise, for we can rely on such a man doing what he is convinced is to the best interest of all.

It would be interesting to know just what percent of Texas Democrats would favor his nomination by the Democratic Party, in view of the present tense political situation. Poll-takers might uncover the startling fact that most Democrats might favor that. E. S. Ireland

PART OF TAFT MCGEE'S concrete irrigation system is shown in the top photo. The object on the right side of the channel is the metal turnout. The bottom photo shows part of the patented machine which slides through the precision ditches, depositing the thin layer of concrete as it slides along. The angle of side slope remains constant although sliding sides on the machine shown below regulate the bottom and top widths of the irrigation ways. Staff Photo

Deaf Smith county farmers are scoring another "first" in new methods with the installation of concrete irrigation ditches on several local farms.

These concrete waterways are the first in the state of Texas, save for some around El Paso.

The process itself is new — five years old — and has come to local installers from the Salt River Valley of Arizona.

Installation of 3,000 feet of concrete waterway is currently being made on the Taft McGee farm, 11 miles northeast of Hereford.

There will be more to follow in Deaf Smith county, with schedules on four other farms calling for a total of 12,800 feet of this type of ditching.

Most substantial advantage to this type of ditch and waterway installation is the savings in seepage, evaporation, washing and also in construction over underground systems.

Bill Wallace, who is installing the McGee system, estimated that water will last about 20 per cent longer in a concrete ditch and seepage and evaporation will be reduced from 10-30 per cent.

In contrast to seepage-proof underground systems, the concrete waterway saves from 20 per cent to 50 per cent in construction costs, depending upon the size of installation.

Cost of the system depends upon the depth waterway desired. They come in everything from 16 inches in depth to 30 inches. The sides are on a 1-1 slope. In the 16" deep installation — the type on the McGee farm — the width of the bottom of the canal is 12 inches while the top width is 44 inches.

Student Summer Working Regulations Are Outlined

With vacation coming up, many students in their teens are looking forward to summer employment. Many employers, likewise, are preparing themselves for this invasion by students desiring light employment for the next three months.

In the hiring of students, governmental regulations are to be followed so as not to violate Federal labor laws.

The U. S. Department of Labor just released some vital information on what can and what can't be done in the line of child employment.

This information will be helpful to housewives, businessmen as well as to our farmers with crops to be cared for and harvested.

Summer-time employment by youngsters in school is desirable for the character-building it affords.

Here are a few things that prospective employers of children should know:

Teen-agers—and employers—should know the jobs children may legally do under existing government labor laws. Those laws which regulate the using of children are: (1) the Fair Labor Standards Act and (2) the Walsh-Healy Public Contracts Act.

Both laws restrict the employment of child labor—the first in interstate commerce and the second on work connected with U. S. government contracts.

Child labor provisions in the Fair Labor Standards Act apply to any employer who employs any minor in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for commerce—and to any producer, manufacturer, or dealer who ships goods or delivers goods for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce. Generally the minimum age for such employment is 16 years; however, there are 10 so-called hazardous types of jobs for which a minimum age of 18 years has been set.

The Walsh-Healy Public Contracts Act applies to manufacturers or dealers contracting to make or supply materials valued in excess of $10,000 for the U. S. government. On such work, the minimum age for boys is 16 years and the minimum age for girls is 18 years.

For employers who wish to protect themselves from unintentional violation of the child labor provisions of these Federal laws will require boys and girls to obtain age certificates before they start to work.

Such age certificates are needed for minors under 18 in general employment and by those who are 18 and 19 if they work in occupations declared to be hazardous. Minor girls of 18 and 19 will need such certificates if they work on government contracts.

In Texas, such certificates of age are issued as a public service by any of the 82 offices of the Texas Employment Service. Finally, young workers are advised to find out about the legal minimum ages and other conditions for employment which are set by the state child labor laws of the state in which they work. Some state laws have higher ages for employment than the two Federal laws, and whichever sets the higher standard prevails.

Further information about the legal minimum ages for employment under Federal laws may be obtained from the Wage-Hour Division, U. S. Department of Labor, Fort Worth, Texas.

An all-inclusive chart covering all types of business activity and the ages and other conditions for compliance are:

MINIMUM AGES FOR EMPLOYMENT UNDER FEDERAL LAWS

I'll Never Forget

It was in 1893 when we first came through Hereford. My brother and myself was down at Santa Anna. We thought we had to work awhile to get some money to do us a while.

We took a job grubbing out mesquite. This was in the spring of 1893. There was a lot of trees in that place and some of them were pretty good sized.

There were two others in the camp besides by brother and I and we were sitting around one night playing dominoes when we heard an awful noise. We went outside to see what it was and it was a cyclone and it looked like it was headed right for our camp.

There was a little drainage ditch running down by our camp with a lot of mesquite in it. We decided that would be the best protection we could get so we got in the ditch. Just before the cyclone got to our camp however it turned and hit a camp down the draw. It blew away trees and that camp. Just a little way from the house was a pot that was used to boil clothes in and it was setting on some brickbats. That storm never even touched that pot—didn't even turn it over but it blew the house away.

Saturday we went back to Santa Anna to get supplies and we ran across where another cyclone had hit. There was a rock fence running along there. The storm had blown things right through it.

Three contracts were awarded on water and sewer extensions for Panhandle at a meeting of the city council recently. Contracts totalled $42,896.91.

TRACTOR CONTEST

The 4-H club tractor maintenance school and operator's contest was held Saturday in Levelland. The boys will be divided into two groups and will compete for the award of the best tractor driver.

LAMB COUNTY RANCHER

Charles Jones became the outstanding farmer of Lamb county for 1951 at the agriculture-business forum luncheon recently.

PERRYTON DRIVE-IN

Construction has started on the new drive-in theatre just east of the Perryton city limits. The theatre will have a capacity of 310 cars.

MOTLEY LIVESTOCK SHOW

The 10th annual Motley county livestock show was held in Matador recently. More than $380 in prize money was given during the show.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION

Readers List Democracy's Best Selling Point As Only System

What one thing, more than any other, could America as a free nation, point to as a good recommendation for a democracy?

CORRINE JENNINGS—You know since listening to Miss Curtis speak I think that more exchange teachers would do more good than anything even the Marshall plan, which we have spent millions of dollars on each year.

EARL WOOD—The voting system is the best thing that we have. I think it would be the best recommendation.

VELMA HODGES—If people would be more humble and follow the old saying "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" and be less selfish it would be better.

GLADYS PECK—Freedom to worship God according to the dictates of one's own conscience.

T. E. SEIGLER—I think these present conventions that we are having even with all the squabbling is a pretty good sign that the people still have things under control.

BYRLE ELLISTON—I imagine the fact that we get up and fight to get people elected to some office and then when the election is over everyone pulls together again.

TED FORD—I think that the one thing is the progress that this country has made in almost all phases of health, industry, etc. during its short existence compared to the thousands of years the other nations have trailed along behind us.

GEORGE TURRENTINE

There were two cyclones that night within just a few miles of each other.

After we got the grubbing off hand we decided to come to the plains. People around that part of the country began to think about land when a large pasture there sold.

My cousin had been to the plains and it was his influence that caused us to come to the plains.

We got up two or three blankets and we had a little cart that was used a lot then instead of buggies. We got in that cart and headed for the plains. We came by Coke county. I remember that because the grass looked so nice and green in the county.

We came on and hit the first big town. It was Colorado City. A lot of the plains was getting supplies from there. Amarillo had just been started.

The next good sized town was Big Spring. There was some very red land right in a draw. At that time a lot of fellows were settling in there. There were lots of dugouts.

We stopped at one of the dugouts and went in—there was nobody at home but we looked around anyway. There was nearly a half inch of big coarse sand on the floor that had blown in since the wind was blowing so hard.

We stayed all night with a fellow in a dugout. You could only get one section of land at a time.

We passed by the Santa Fe ranch. It was mighty well improved. We drove up the fish ranch. The people were glad to see anybody stop because there were so few people.

After we left the fish ranch the woman invited us to get cattle.

We went on down to Lubbock. It had just built the courthouse that year.

While we were at Big Spring my brother had traded his pistol off for a 22. He thought that he could kill some ducks (Continued on page five)

By Roberta Campbell

The idea of a Good Neighbor contest is fine but what is a person going to do when she lives in a whole community of good neighbors as we do and most every one of them has befriended us at one time or another. Then there are others who used to live in our neighborhood and any number of people who live around Hereford that have been especially nice to us.

Maybe we should just designate a special Good Neighbor Day for all those we shall be forever grateful for.

On the subject of wills—we made ours several years ago at the kindly suggestion of the late Carl Gilliland.

Even though it may seem like a simple procedure his advice was to always have a will drawn up by an attorney who will understand all the legal angles.

We had never fully appreciated Uncle Remus story of the "Tar Baby" until we laid some asphalt tile on our bathroom floor.

Bill Bradley looked innocent enough when he showed us the samples at McCoslin's but if he knew he could have warned us what we were getting into before he handed our order over to Wayne Phillips.

You'll have to hear it first hand to get the details but Mrs. W. Blevins has a "good fix it yourself" story.

She and Mr. Blevins were hardly on speaking terms after a bout with some floor covering out at their new home north of town recently.

WOMEN WHO modeled suits in the Home Demonstration revue Tuesday are shown above. These suits were made as part of the tailoring course earlier in the year. They are from left: Mrs. W. T. had a chance to get away. The foreman told him we had been doing honest work and for him to pay us off. We gave him our time and he paid us and we headed for Texas. We picked cotton all fall. We had left our camp in care of a Mr. Bledsoe. We decided that it was too dry so we wrote to him to sell everything that we had left there. We didn't come back. We farmed for five years in Ellis county. The first year cotton was only worth 4c a pound. The ground was so dry that it had cracks in it big enough to put a fence rail in. When it rained it drove the cotton in these cracks and we never could get it out. My brother's health got bad so he came up to Bledsoe. When we arrived my brother was so sick that he had to have a bed in the back of the wagon. By fall he looked real good and was far as could be. We decided to move to the plains. We loaded into an emigrant car and came that fall. We got off at Canyon. We had heard about the Hereford country so we decided to run down her one Sunday. We looked it over and decided that Hereford was growing so fast it was the place for us so we moved down here. At that time there were lots of antelope between here and Canyon. We built a house here right on the lots where I live now. A cousin who was a carpenter built our house for us but he didn't know much about building for this country. He built a two story house. The first time the wind got up the house leaned. We had to get poles to prop it up and then we got jackscrews and put the house up straight. It never did creak any more. We bought a well drilling outfit and we boys went to drilling wells. My brother, Joe, thought he was a pretty good climber. We had a tower setting beside the holes, we were going to put the legs in and Joe was up in the tower. One of the legs fell in the hole. We thought that the tower was going on over and Joe was up on top. That pretty well cured his climbing. We contracted with the Star ranch people. Contracted to drill 22 wells scattered about over the 10,000 acres. We finished up there in the fall. The fellow built a road as straight from Bovina as it would run and built a big 10-room house with a big dance floor. We left the family and moved down near Lubbock. That was our only chance to get rich quick and we were too dumb to know it. A fellow bought all the feed we could raise after we got it stacked. We made over 200 tons of feed and he bought it for $4 a ton. Later he sold that feed to his neighbors for $8 a ton and never moved it. We came back here in 1904 but it was so dry we couldn't raise anything. We boys put the feed we made in the barn and left it with my brother and his wife, Dr. Turrentine and Bess. We went to Arizona. The last well work we did in this part of the country was on the E. B. Black place.

with it but come to find out it was leaded and wasn't worth anything. There was a man offered to trade us a lot in Plainview for the rifle. We traded with him and he gave us a deed to the lot but we never did go see about the lot. It might have been a good one. It may have been right in the main town but we never did go see. The courthouse at Plainview was new too. It had either been built that year or the year before. We drove on to Canyon. We had heard about Deaf Smith county. When we got to Canyon we turned and headed for Deaf Smith county. We wanted to see the county seat. We got to LaPlata that night and were looking for a place to stay that night. A man said that they would let us bed down in the courthouse. Next morning after a good night's sleep we started back across Deaf Smith county, headed for Dimmitt. On the way we saw a lot of antelope. There were no fences so we just cut across. We crossed the Tierra Blanca creek at the Jewell camp. "Con" was playing the fiddle. They were putting up prairie hay. We got our directions there and headed for Dimmitt—we thought. We missed the directions however and didn't get to Dimmitt. We topped a rise and saw a white house about two miles off so we headed for it. When we got there no one was at home. We got down and went in and looked for something to eat. There was plenty of eggs, flour, oatmeal, etc. They had a dugout so we went down in there and found some fresh antelope meat. We had a good supper. Just as we were spreading our blankets and quilts on the ground we looked up and saw two men in a two horse buggy driving in. They were late too. One of them was Judge Hill—who was later first judge of the district. We told him to get down and go hunt something to eat and he said that was housebreaking. We told him it was the custom of the country but they wouldn't eat. We shared our blankets with them because they just had their overcoats. However we all slept cold. The next morning he never said a word about housebreaking he was just thinking about some breakfast. We didn't know who lived there at the time. We never did get to Dimmitt that time. We went back to Plainview and talked with an old fellow down there by the name of Moppit. He said that he knew of some twin sections close by that we could file on. He took us and showed them to us. We hired a surveyor to survey those two sections. At that time you could live on the land by just having it surveyed. We went to Amarillo to get supplies. We had to buy another horse to hitch to the wagon so we looked at some and since my brother had worked in a livery stable he thought that he could drive anything. We gave him $25 for a horse and when we got him hooked up he began to buck and kick. We went back to the man and told him we would have to have a different horse. He traded us one that was an old work-horse. He was nice and gentle. He was about 25 years old but he pulled every pound that he could. We stayed all summer on the two sections. We built a 20 foot dugout across the line of the two sections. We made brick to put around the windows above the ground and that really made it nice. By July 4 it hadn't rained enough to wet a man's shirt. We heard that there was some haying over in Oklahoma. The people were selling hay to the government for their horses. We crossed the Red River right at Old Charley and went up into the Fort Sill country. We found good haying there. They were building a government school and my brother and I got work making bricks for them. We stayed there until fall. The fellow who had contracted the building was a city fellow and he had hired a man to take charge of the work. He was supposed to come down and pay us off but we kept waiting for him. We were really on nettles because we were going to pick some cotton when we left there. We told the store keeper that the first time he came in to let us know. He did. We walked up the stairs to his room and walked in on him before he

Streu's Diary

May 9, 1952
DEAR DIARY:
Americans are a peculiar race of people—amid all the furor of national and international politics and wars and rumors of wars—amid all the petty strife and struggle for local political powers—amid all of these things the American people take time out for such sentimental things as Mother's Day.
Several score customers will testify that Streu's buyers did an outstanding job of selecting lovely and useful gifts—and that the sales people were really helpful in helping choose gifts that were outstanding—not to mention beautifully gift wrapped. We congratulate those who receive gifts from Streu's.
And now comes graduation. And once again, we feel that our buyers have done a good job of buying for this important event. In our stock, you will find dozens and dozens of unusual and interesting gifts for the boy or girl graduate. Rather than list these items, we extend to you an invitation to stop in and look over our displays.
Presently will come Father's Day, and we have really gone all out in selecting gifts for the 'Old Man', be he twenty-odd or eighty-odd. But more on that when the time comes.

The fish are biting—and at Streu's one can find the finest in fishing gear—and camping equipment—as well as picnic and outing accessories. We have just about everything for the sportsman. For the stay-at-home we have croquet sets, table tennis sets, and ice cream freezers—both electric and hand powered.
Much as I dislike mentioning anything pertaining to work, I feel it my duty to note that Streu's has everything the home gardener and lawn enthusiast may need to ease the labor of such pursuits.
May I suggest to the many young fellows who hunt birds in town with air rifles—that it is much more fun to hunt them with a pair of field glasses—and it's a lot better to find out just what kind of bird you are shooting before you pull the trigger—there are many birds locally that look like sparrows—in fact they are of the sparrow family—but they are beneficial and songbirds where the English sparrow is neither. Besides which, I sometimes get a bit raw when kids stalk through my yard in armed hands—sometimes at night with flashlights—guess I'll have to put up "NO HUNTING" signs.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. What can I do when mahogany furniture has acquired a blue, smeary look and is difficult to polish satisfactorily?
A. Sponge it first with a cloth dipped in a solution of hot water and vinegar, and then with a cloth dipped in a pint of warm water to which one teaspoon each of linseed oil and turpentine has been added. Polish with a dry, soft cloth, and the smeary look will have disappeared.

Q. How can I fatten thin hands?
A. Wash the hands in hot water, dry, and then rub a little olive oil into them. Make this application before retiring, so that the oil can remain on as long as possible.

Q. How can I launder flannels to make them soft?
A. Half a teaspoonful of powdered borax to a quart of rinsing water used for flannels will make them delightfully soft.

Q. How can I care for patent leather shoes?
A. Rub a little Vaseline jelly on the patent leather shoes before taking them off. Leave on until the shoes are ready to be worn again; then remove the excess jelly with a cloth, otherwise it will collect dust.

Q. How can I brighten discolored aluminum?
A. The discolored aluminum will brighten beautifully by rubbing it with a cloth dipped in lemon juice and then rinsing in warm water.

Q. How can I distinguish steel from iron?
A. Take a very clean file and file over the flame of an alcohol lamp. If the filed piece is made of steel, little burning and crackling sparks will be seen. If the piece consists of iron, the sparks will not crackle.

Q. How can I mend a tear in delicate material more easily?
A. Place the torn part, with a new piece beneath it, in an embroidery hoop. The hoop holds all firmly and makes the delicate darning of the tear much easier.

Q. How can I remove scratches from the surface of a painted wall?
A. Rub over these marks with the cut surface of a lemon.

Q. How can I relieve a burn?
A. When one has been burned, apply a cloth wet with equal parts of sweet oil and lime water. It will bring great relief.

Q. How can I get the yellow accumulation off the surface of my refrigerator?
A. Most stains on porcelain will submit to one of the following remedies: The first resort, of course, should be ordinary scouring powder. If that doesn't work, try wetting the stains with kerosene, and then wash the surface with hot water and strong soap after the kerosene has had a couple of hours to work. As a last resort, try drawing the stains with a poultice. Dampen the surface with ammonia or laundry bleach, cover it generously with scouring bleach (full strength), put a damp cloth over the whole thing, and let it stay overnight. In the morning, scour with the powder that's still left.

Southern Baptist Convention President On Broadcast May 11

Dr. J. D. Grey, president of the Southern Baptist Convention and pastor of the First Baptist Church, New Orleans, will be the speaker on the Columbia Church of the Air broadcast May 11, according to Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor First Baptist church.

His message on this Mother's Day program will come just before the opening of the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami, May 14. The broadcast will be carried by the CBS radio network, and will be heard at 1 a. m. EST. Dr. Grey will also be speaking on the Baptist Hour during July, August and September. These programs are heard each week over some 30 stations all over the country.

Driver Fined

Mrs. Dolores Farago of California was fined for passing and cutting in, following an accident Tuesday afternoon between Umbarger and Canyon.

Mrs. Farago, who was driving a 1947 Pontiac, cut back to the right side of the road too soon after passing a 1940 Chevrolet, driven by Lula Strong King.

Damage to the Pontiac was estimated at $25 and to the Chevrolet at $15.

Hmm--IS THERE A WHITE GODDESS, I WONDER?

LOOK--THE BIG ONE BLEEDS!

THEY ARE ONLY HUMANS--FROM THE OUTSIDE!
BUT ONE IS A WIZARD. WE MUST WAIT OUR CHANCE. BE NOT ANGRY, WHITE GODDESS.
YOU SHALL HAVE THEIR LIVES.

FEATURING HIS PAL
ROSCO SWEENEY
By ROY CRANE

FIFI JONES, CELEBRATED NEW YORK MODEL, VISITS HER SISTER NEAR DRIPWATER, FLORIDA.

HEAVENS! WHAT A DUMP!

I SUPPOSE MY LETTERS DID SOUND TOO GLAMOROUS

I HOPE YOU DIDN'T OVER-GLAMORIZE ALL THOSE PALM BEACH MILLIONAIRES.

WELL, ER, OF COURSE MOST OF THEM HAVE LEFT FOR THE SEASON, FIFI. BUT WE GOT YOU A DATE WITH ROSCO SWEENEY.

GOOD OLD SWEENEY! HE HAS A HEART OF GOLD.

HOW ABOUT HIS POCKETS?

WELL...ER... TO SEE HIM, YOU WOULDN'T THINK HE HAD A DIME.

HERE COMES SWEENEY NOW.

GOOD HEAVENS! WITH A FACE LIKE THAT, HE'D HAVE TO BE RICH.

FIFI, THIS IS ROSCO SWEENEY!

I CAN JUST TELL YOU'RE FROM PALM BEACH, MR. SWEENEY.

NO, MA'AM, I'M A FARMER.

A FARMER! OH, HA, HA! ISN'T HE THE DROLLEST THING! I'M SIMPLY DYING TO HAVE YOU SHOW ME PALM BEACH!

CERTAINLY... IF YOU DON'T MIND RIDING IN MY TRUCK.

HOW QUANT— RIDING DOWN WORTH AVENUE IN A TRUCK! AND WHAT DO YOU DO IN PALM BEACH FOR EXCITEMENT, ROSCO?

WELL, WE COULD GO TO A DRIVE-IN MOVIE.

LATER!

... AND WE ATE POPCORN! BOY, WHAT A DATE! IS HE NOVEL! IS HE DIFFERENT!

DO YOU LIKE HIM, FIFI?

LIKE HIM? I LOVE HIM! THAT BIG, SIMPLE FARMER IS MY DREAM BOY. I'M ALREADY PLANNING HOW I'LL SPEND HIS MILLIONS.

OH, DEAR! WHAT SHALL I DO?
