Hereford not chosen for new state prison

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

City and county officials said this afternoon they hope to channel the energy and work done to try to obtain a prison in Deaf Smith County into efforts to try to secure new business and industry in the county.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice awarded various prisons, substance abuse and psychiatric units to 24 Texas communities. There were 47 candidates, including a site in Deaf Smith County about 4.5 miles east of Hereford.

"As they would announce each selection I would get more nervous," said County Judge Tom Simons. "I really thought we had a great shot at getting something. I was really disappointed."

Simons and Hereford Mayor Tom LeGate attended today's board meeting of the TDCJ in Austin. They had served as vice chairmen of the Hereford Prison Task Force.

City, county officials hope to channel energy into new projects in Deaf Smith area

Dalhart, Amarillo, Colorado City, Fort Stockton, Cuero and Rusk were chosen for the 1,000-bed minimum-to-medium security facilities.

"When they (the TDCJ board) were talking about these prisons, the type we were really after, they started talking about how important agriculture was for the system," said Simons. "I already felt good, then when they started talking about agriculture, I felt really good. Then, we didn't even get mentioned."

Agriculture was a big part of the incentive package offered by the Hereford Prison Task Force to the TDCJ. The package included a 300-acre site for the prison and farming; up to $150,000 for purchase of farm land; and $100,000 for a vegetable grading facility.

A TDCJ task force visited Hereford last month. Agriculture was discussed at length, with area vegetable experts meeting with TDCJ ag directors.

"I really think we can find some other way to direct all of these efforts," said Simons. "It might be realistic to look at some type of federal facility. We just need to be sure we direct all of this coming together and work and try to do something positive with it."

The selections came as part of a 25,300-bed construction program by the TDCJ. Board members had a heated discussion after an hour in executive session.

The selections came as part of a 25,300-bed construction program by the TDCJ. Board members had a heated discussion after an hour in executive session.

Six current prison facilities built by N-Group, Inc., were purchased no more than $6 million each. Board Chairman Selden Hale of Amarillo had said last week the board was leery about buying the privately-built prison facilities because some were built with air conditioning and televisions in each cell. Hale, speaking to the Panhandle Press Association last Friday, had said the board would probably pay no more than 50 cents on the dollar for the "private" prisons.

The board also voted to build new maximum security units in Wichita Falls, Karnes County and New Boston, in Bowie County. Those units will house 2,250 inmates each.

A 550-bed psychiatric prison unit in Lubbock. Lubbock had submitted bids on two sites for prisons or other facilities.

The board also approved an offer from the City of Pampa, which promised to buy a building to be used as a prison for about 300 inmates and give it to the state.

Board members authorized construction of four, 1,000-bed units that will be used for substance abuse treatment of inmates.

Those facilities were assigned to Beaumont, Edinburg, Bonham and the Bryan-College Station area.

Substance abuse treatment was a major focus of legislators who authorized the prison expansion program last year due to the high number of inmates with drug and alcohol addictions.

Board members authorized construction of 500-bed substance abuse treatment facilities in 10 communities: Breckenridge, Brownfield, Brownwood, El Paso, Hondo, Jasper, Dayton, Plainview, San Diego and Wood County.

First lottery tickets arrive

AUSTIN (AP) - The Texas Lottery is waiting on a second shipment of what officials say will total 300 million tickets for playing the state's first game.

Lottery Director Nora Linares said details of how the game will work will be announced at the end of the month, with sales planned to begin by June 1.

"We think Texans are going to be very pleased with our first game," Ms. Linares said.

The first 86 million tickets, shipped in six tractor-trailer rigs, arrived Thursday from Dittler Brothers Inc. of Atlanta, and another 64 million tickets are on the way.

Officials said the tickets were shipped in locked and sealed trailers. They will be stored at an Austin warehouse with round-the-clock guards. Company and lottery officials said security has been extremely tight surrounding the printing of the tickets to both protect the identity of winners and to make counterfeiting difficult.

"It doesn't make any sense to steal a box of unsold tickets because they can't use them."
--Nora Linares

The tickets are multicolored, foil-laminated and include computer bar codes to help thwart imitators.

Ms. Linares said she was like any lottery player in not knowing which of the 86 million tickets might be winners.

"I have no idea," she said.

The lottery director also said stealing unsold tickets won't do anyone any good, since a ticket must be validated by a retail merchant's lottery terminal before it can be redeemed for a prize.

"It doesn't make any sense for them to steal a box (of unsold tickets) because they can't use them. It's not worth any money to them," Ms. Linares said.

Lottery officials already have projected that first-day sales will total $17 million to $25 million - $1 or more for every resident of the state.

Although Ms. Linares said details of how the first game will work won't be revealed yet, she did say the lottery plans a "second-chance" game. Many states conduct a drawing among losing lottery tickets for a later prize.

She also indicated that a two-tiered prize level is being considered. In some states, many instant-win tickets offer prizes of $2, $5 or $10, while a few offer prizes that can range up to $10,000 or more.

Three injured in accident

Hereford volunteer firefighters and emergency medical workers attempt to free Donato Torres, 66, of Route 3, from under his 1989 Ford one-ton truck after an accident Thursday afternoon. Torres was going east down a county road when his truck collided with a Buick driven by Maria Rico, 34, of Hereford. Rico was going south on Progressive Road. Rico and her son were taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital for treatment of injuries. Torres was admitted to DSGH, suffering from possible internal injuries, lacerations and other injuries. Torres was thrown from the truck, which rolled 1 1/4 times and came to rest on top of him.

Man arrested for illegal buy of food stamps

A 63-year-old Hereford man is free on $500 bond after his arrest Thursday for illegally buying food stamps.

Earsley Colvin was arrested after a Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission officer was able to exchange $150 in food stamps for $75 cash. The transaction occurred in Colvin's apartment at Bluewater Gardens.

Tana Cook, a TABC investigator, took $520 in food stamps to the man's apartment. According to the police report, Cook was wearing a concealed microphone and transmitter. In the street outside the apartment complex, Hereford police detectives recorded the conversation alleged to have occurred between Cook, Colvin and others in the apartment.

Police allege that Cook told Colvin that she understood the man had traded 50 cents for each $1 worth of food stamps. She then showed the man the $520 worth of food stamps. Colvin allegedly told Cook to come back between 5:30 and 6 p.m. Thursday.

Cook went back to the apartment at 6 p.m. Thursday. Colvin allegedly told her he would only be able to pay her $75, and she gave him $150 worth of food stamps. Cook left the apartment, signaled to the police, who met with her and took the money and remaining food stamps. Cook went back to the apartment; when Colvin answered the door, police told him he was under arrest for food stamp fraud.

Colvin was taken to Deaf Smith County Jail. He posted $500 bond and was released Thursday night.

Richards announces plan to revamp school funding

AUSTIN (AP) - Legislative leaders appear cautious about Gov. Ann Richards' school finance reform plan, which she touts as fair and responsible.

The plan includes taking business property out of local school districts' tax bases, instead taxing it and returning the money to schools on a statewide basis. School districts would continue taxing residential property locally.

Richards - at a Thursday news conference in the schoolhouse where she once taught social studies - said her plan would get the state "out of the lawsuit business" over equitable funding and allow it to concentrate on improving education.

Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock said he appreciates Richards' work. But he said that his job is "to work with everyone toward finding a practical and equitable solution which can pass the Legislature."

"It is not my place to rubber stamp any plan until every idea is on the table and tested with full and open discussion and study," he said.

House Speaker Gib Lewis said, "I am eager to work with the governor, and I hope we can develop the necessary consensus for a solution that meets court muster."

Rep. Jim Rudd, D-Brownfield, said he is "open-minded" but opposed right now because so many school districts in his area rely on mineral wealth for their tax base. Richards' plan would tax minerals statewide.

"You've taken the rich and made them poor," said Rudd, who heads the budget-writing House Appropriations Committee.

But all said they want to solve the problem created by the Texas Supreme Court's January ruling that the current system is unconstitutional.

Richards' proposal needs a constitutional amendment, requiring approval of two-thirds of the Legislature and a vote of the people.

Richards earlier said she wants a special legislative session early in May, allowing time for lawmakers to put the proposed amendment on November's ballot.

However, she acknowledged the difficulty for officeholders seeking re-election to vote for controversial issues while being second-guessed by opponents.

"I have no interest in calling the Legislature together unless I think we can be successful... If the votes are not there, we may have to wait until after the November election," Richards told the Texas Chamber of Commerce before Thursday's news conference.

Ann's Plan for school financing

Property taxes:

- Business property and minerals would be lumped into a statewide pool, with a tax rate of $1.50 per $100 value for all businesses.
- Local district would still tax residences and agricultural land, with no caps on local rates.
- Local rates would have to be at a minimum rate to get state aid, with the local and state rates tied together.

Constitutional changes:

- Amend the state constitution to legalize the statewide business property tax.
- Add a "standard of equity" to the constitution to keep the courts out of school finance.
- Convert the Available School Fund to the Good School Fund, to reward excellence and innovation.

Pay changes:

- 70 percent of state monies would go to teacher pay.

Educational quality:

- Besides the Good School Fund, performance would be measured by graduation rates, achievement test results, lower dropout rates, college entrance exam scores and percent of students taking advanced courses.

By WENDY BENJAMINSON Associated Press Writer

Democratic presidential candidate Jerry Brown, finding himself on the receiving end of anonymous allegations of personal misconduct, denounced as "bizarre, defamatory and unsubstantiated" a report that drugs were used at parties at his Los Angeles home while he was California governor.

"I never hosted parties of any kind - drugs or non-drugs," Brown said. ABC News said Thursday it interviewed police officers who served on Brown's security detail during the 1970s. The officers, who remained anonymous, recalled closing up Brown's Los Angeles vacation home after parties.

The officers said Brown sometimes hosted the parties and at other times they took place while he was out of town. Brown dismissed any suggestion that parties would have taken place in his absence.

"After these parties, if you will, were over and we cleared the residence we could smell the odor of marijuana and we found traces of a white powdery substance which we later identified as cocaine" through police tests, one officer said.

The report did not accuse Brown of having used drugs himself. Under California law, a person cannot be charged with a crime if he is unaware of drug use in his home.

Thus far in the campaign, Brown generally has not been subjected to the kinds of allegations of personal misconduct that have dogged front-runner Bill Clinton.

He issued a written statement after the story first aired on ABC, saying, "For ABC to put on this bizarre, defamatory and unsubstantiated story is an outrage. I categorically deny these charges."

Other than the ABC story, the campaign slowed down considerably on Thursday, in marked contrast to the crushing pace leading up to Tuesday's New York primary.

Yeltsin will soften economic reforms in compromise

MOSCOW (AP) - President Boris Yeltsin today promised to soften painful economic reforms and step down as prime minister this summer in a compromise with former Communists who dominate the Russian parliament.

The brief, impromptu speech by an obviously tired Yeltsin marked a mild concession to his critics in return for preserving his power to issue economic decrees and name Cabinet ministers without legislative approval.

Yeltsin addressed the 1,046-member Congress of People's Deputies after they passed, on first reading, a resolution that maintained those sweeping powers but urged him to relinquish the post of prime minister and nominate a successor within one month.

"I realize that the combination of the posts of president and prime minister is very hard, above all on me," said Yeltsin, whose eyes were puffy and skin ashen after a week of fending off attacks in parliament.

"In another three months, once it is clear that the reforms are irrevers-ible, undoubtedly I'll introduce proposals on a candidate for prime minister. Don't force me to do it at once," he told the lawmakers in the Kremlin.

He spoke deliberately and forcefully, without notes, and occasionally shook a clenched right fist at the lawmakers. At times, he smiled through crooked lips.

In the compromise, Yeltsin forced his opponents to give up more than they gained by threatening a national referendum, or even new parliamentary elections, if they revoked his powers.

Yeltsin last year became Russia's first popularly elected leader, while the ex-Communist lawmakers came to power before free balloting.

Yeltsin did not specify what changes he would make in his market-oriented economic program, which has sent prices skyrocketing while shortages have continued.

He has mentioned lowering taxes, increasing payments to low-income citizens and restoring some subsidies to state-owned farms and industries.

rest of the campaign, bowed out Thursday. In doing so, he urged his fellow Democrats to seize on an economic message before Republicans - or Ross Perot - took advantage of voters' desire for a new approach to politics.

Speaking of the 539 delegates he will take to the Democratic National Convention, Tsongas said, "These people believe strongly in the message. If the Democratic Party turns its back on the message, there will be a lessening of enthusiasm for the party."

He warned Democrats who ignored that message, "Do it at your own peril."

But Brown, like Clinton through much of the campaign, was forced away from his policy message Thursday and into a public review of his personal past.

Brown insisted the only parties he threw were political fund-raisers "where the public and press were there."

Interviewed on ABC-TV's "Nightline" program, Brown said the security detail was not authorized to walk through his house and clean up. He said state police officials told him no reports ever were filed alleging drug use in the governor's home.

"It didn't happen. I never saw any drugs used in my house," he said.

In a campaign appearance with Brown in New York last month, Clinton admitted having tried marijuana while at Oxford University. Brown, asked if he ever violated state, federal or overseas drug laws, said, "No, no, no, and I agree with Clinton. ... What he did 10 or 20 years ago is not relevant."

Brown canceled a rally in Norfolk, Va., Thursday night to prepare his response to the ABC story. He later flew to Washington, D.C., to appear on "Nightline" and planned campaign appearances today in Virginia to prepare for the weekend Democratic caucuses.

Reviewing a devastating third-place finish this week in New York, Brown castigated the Democratic leadership for its moves to coalesce around Clinton before all the primaries were finished.

"We know what the odds are, I read the polls, I see where Mr. Clinton is," Brown said.

Airlines may follow American lead

NEW YORK (AP) - Some travelers will find air fares sharply lower beginning next week, under a vastly simplified rate system announced by American Airlines.

But the new price structure from the industry's most influential player will deal a painful financial blow to air carriers this spring.

American is betting its strategy will encourage more people to fly, bringing bigger profits in the long run while cutting out some of the expenses associated with the current quagmire of fare setting.

Rival airlines were forced to match the cheaper fares that take effect

Monday, but some worried about the immediate impact on earnings.

"It's going to be as expensive as hell at first," said an executive at one large airline, speaking on condition he not be identified. "We've just got to hope it's going to bring enough business to be worth it."

American Chairman Robert L. Crandall acknowledged his radical move will cost American $100 million in the second quarter, but he thinks once the plan is working it will add up to $350 million a year to the bottom line.

And if it doesn't work, Crandall says, it might at least build good will among the thousands of travelers who have been angered by high fares and confused by the myriad of restrictions put in place by the airlines.

"The system, quite simply, is broke," Crandall told a news conference Thursday. "To have the future we want - for our customers, our shareholders and our employees - we must fix it."

American hopes to see additional benefits beyond higher traffic. For instance, American hopes to save $25 million a year by making its administrative work and fare bookings simpler.

Rivals were keenly interested in the move from American. United, Delta, USAir, Northwest, Continental, Alaska Airlines and America West quickly said they would match the plan either completely or partially.

The plan includes other changes: -Corporations and other groups that have in the past been able to cut deals with airlines by purchasing tickets in volume will find they must now pay the same price as everyone else.

-People who change their reservations or want a refund for full-fare tickets will pay a $25 surcharge. In the past, costs for handling those changes were shared by all passengers, American said.

-Passengers who use 7-day or 21-day discount advance purchase tickets will be able to use them at a later date if they cancel their plans, but they must pay a $25 charge.

American said the plan includes first-class fares that are 20 percent to 50 percent lower, with unrestricted coach fares that are at least 38 percent cheaper than those now available.

For example, the price of a New York-Chicago flight in coach would drop from $427 to $250 each way. The price of a Dallas to Boston flight would drop from $655 to $380 each way.

Most discount ticket prices will go down, but some will rise, Crandall said.

ST. THOMAS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week in the Christian calendar. Father Charles A. Wilson will lead the final session in the Lenten Study "The Cost of Discipleship" at 9:30 a.m. in the parish hall. At 11 a.m., the Holy Eucharist will be preceded by the Procession of Palms which re-enacts Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Father Wilson's sermon is entitled "The Lord Has Need of It."

At 7 p.m. Wednesday, the Service of Tenebrae (meaning "darkness" or "shadows") will be observed. The service consists of a series of scripture readings and recitation of Psalms by the congregation, accompanied by the gradual extinguishing of candles. The significance of this service is that it represents the gathering gloom of the impending death of the Savior.

On Maundy Thursday, the 7 p.m. foot-washing and celebration of the Holy Communion, followed by the stripping of the altar and setting up of the Altar of Repose, will begin the Triduum (three days), the time of crucifixion and entombment of the Lord. Members of the congregation will keep watch before the Altar of Repose from 8 p.m. until 7 a.m. on Good Friday. The Good Friday Liturgy begins at 7 p.m. and will include communion from the Reserved Sacrament.

The Great Vigil of Easter begins at 7 p.m. Saturday with the Lighting of the New Fire. Readings from scripture will tell the story of God's work among his people and finally the Good News of Jesus' resurrection. The celebration of the First Eucharist of Easter will conclude the vigil.

Breakfast will be held Easter Sunday at 9 a.m. in the parish hall, following which the Episcopal Young Churchmen will conduct an auction of sugar Easter eggs which they have elaborately decorated for the children's Easter egg hunt. The Festival Eucharist of Easter will be celebrated at 11 a.m.

Plainview rains on frosh's parade

Hereford's freshman baseball team played chicken with a severe thunderstorm warning Thursday and won. They lost, however, to Plainview, 6-2.

The dark cloud that covered the Hereford area in the late afternoon let some rain fall on Whiteface Field during the second inning, but it wasn't enough to stop the game.

Plainview scored three runs in the top of the first and never trailed. Hereford starter Jason Tatarevich walked three batters, and two errors behind him didn't help.

Hereford got two runs back in the second in a rally sparked by Jacob Lopez' leadoff double. Lopez went to third on a wild pitch, then after Isaac Moreno walked, he scored on a passed ball.

Moreno got picked off second by the pitcher, but that was his most accurate throw for some time. He walked the next four batters he faced: Jeremy Brock, Gregg Kalka, Marc Haney and Tatarevich. The fourth walk drove home Brock. Michael Marquez grounded sharply to third, and the third baseman threw home to force Kalka out. Chris Castro struck out to end the inning.

That was all Hereford would get. They only had three more base-runners in the last five innings. Lopez and Richard Wilbanks each had singles, and Tatarevich drew another walk--all in different innings.

Tatarevich gave way to Kalka on the mound after the third. Kalka gave up single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth. In the fifth, the leadoff batter doubled to the left field gap. After a couple of walks moved him to third, Plainview executed a one-out squeeze bunt that was so nice, it went for a base hit.

Hereford got out of the jam with an interesting double play: A Plainview batter struck out on a pitch in the dirt. He started running to first even though with first base occupied, he was already out. The throw went down to first--needlessly--but the situation apparently confused the runner on first. He strayed off and was tagged for the third out of the inning. Just your standard K-2-3 double play.

No girls' AD hired

The Hereford Independent School District has not hired a girls' athletic director, boys' AD Danny Haney said.

Haney said two weeks ago that he hoped to have a girls' AD hired by April 8, which was Wednesday. He now hopes to have one hired by Monday, he said.

Haney announced that an athletic director in charge of girls' athletics would be hired to fill the void created when Dickie Faught resigned. Faught served as assistant athletic director and as girls' basketball coach.

Timberlake picked for Greenbelt Bowl

Hereford senior Monroe Timberlake has been chosen to play in the Greenbelt Bowl, an all-star football game featuring seniors from the Texas Panhandle and western Oklahoma.

"I'm happy to get a chance to play one more time before college," said Timberlake, who'll be at Eastern New Mexico University in the fall. "It'll help me for spring drills."

Timberlake, a defensive tackle, made first-team all-district in 1990 and 1991.

The Greenbelt Bowl will be played June 6 in Childress.

Amazing feats launch Wadkins, Sluman into tie for Masters lead

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) - Lanny Wadkins' three consecutive birdies in Amen Corner were merely rare. Jeff Sluman's ace on No. 4 was historic.

The neat feats at an uncommonly tame Augusta National helped Wadkins and Sluman take a share of the first-round lead Thursday in the Masters.

Wadkins deftly negotiated the old course's most famous stretch, holes 11 through 13, on his way to a 7-under-par 65. Sluman matched that total and needed just one stroke at the 213-yard fourth hole.

Branding a 4-iron, Sluman's tee shot landed about 20 feet from the cup, crossed a ridge and rolled in. "Like a 1-foot putt," he said.

Through 55 previous Masters, No. 4 had never yielded an ace. That covers an estimated 11,000 drives.

Sluman and Wadkins held a three-shot lead going into today's second round. Tied at 68 were former PGA champion Wayne Grady, Players Championship winner Davis Love III, Mike Hulbert and Ted Schulz.

Leading money winner Fred Couples, six-time Masters champion Jack Nicklaus, defending champion Woosnam and 49-year-old Ray Floyd were among 12 players shooting 69. Two-time champion Nick Faldo and Augusta rookie Long John Daly were in a group at 71.

Eighteen golfers broke 70, and 35 bettered par. Both figures were tournament records for the first round, as was the average score of 72.052 by the field of 83.

Augusta National was made inviting by a light wind and relatively slow greens softened by rain early in the week.

"The opportunity was there to shoot a good score if you put it in the right place," Sluman said.

Like in the hole off the tee. After his ace, Sluman pulled the ball out of the cup and handed it to his mother, who was in the gallery.

Wadkins gave away little. He said he hit just two bad shots, both off the tee, and each time he saved par.

He flew through the historic southwest corner of the course, making birdie putts of 12 feet on No. 11, 15 feet on No. 12 and 6 feet from No. 13.

The scorecard read 3-2-4. "I feel like Amen Corner has kicked my butt so many times over the years, it probably owes me a little bit," Wadkins said.

Sluman and Wadkins rose to the top of the leader board while much of the gallery was focused on a couple of other Americans, rising stars Daly and Couples.

The crowd cheered each monstrous drive by Daly, including a 320-yard blast on the first hole, but three bogeys kept him back in the pack.

Couples birdied three par-5s but played the rest of the course at even par. The tour's hottest player, long regarded as an underachiever, is seeking his first major title.

"I didn't feel any extra pressure today," Couples said. "Pressure comes when you are not playing well."

Falling into that category were Spaniards Jose Maria Olazabal and Seve Ballesteros. Olazabal, last year's runnerup, shot 76; two-time Masters champion Ballesteros had 75.

Clippers edge TrailBlazers; appear headed to playoffs

By The Associated Press
The long wait to make the playoffs appears to be over for the Los Angeles Clippers.

The Clippers took advantage of the absence of Clyde Drexler on Thursday night to beat Portland 106-100, giving them a two-game lead over Houston and a 2 1/2-game margin over the crosstown rival Lakers in the race for two Western Conference playoff spots.

Danny Manning scored 34 points and Ron Harper 26 for the Clippers, who have never made the playoffs. The franchise's last postseason appearance was in 1976 when it was located in Buffalo.

"We won, and whoever they put out on the court are pretty good players," coach Larry Brown said. "No one can make up for the loss of Clyde Drexler, but I'm not taking anything away from our guys."

Drexler sprained his right knee and did not dress for the game. But the Trail Blazers, who have the best record in the conference, rallied from an 81-65 fourth-quarter deficit to tie the game 100-100 with 38 seconds remaining as Terry Porter scored 15 of his 30 points in the period.

"It was a tough game, but I am very happy that we played well," Harper said. "Even without Clyde, they still come after you."

Manning's hook shot snapped the 100-100 tie with 26 seconds left for the Clippers, who have five games remaining, including three at home against some of the worst teams in the conference - Denver, Sacramento and Minnesota.

"This win helps us develop a lot of confidence," said Charles Smith, who had 14 points and 12 rebounds.

Portland scored 15 consecutive points in the third quarter to trail just 65-63, but Manning scored nine of his 12 third-quarter points in a 16-2 spurt that rebuilt the margin to 16 going into the final 12 minutes.

Spurs 102, Lakers 94
San Antonio won at the Forum as Sean Elliott scored a season-high 33 points and Terry Cummings had 22 points and 12 rebounds. Terry Teagle finished as the Lakers' leading scorer with 18 points.

Elliott made 14 of 19 shots two days after a 1-for-10 performance in a loss to Houston.

Rockets 117, Timberwolves 102
Hakeem Olajuwon scored 26 points and Houston won at Minnesota with the help of a 23-9 fourth-quarter run.

Otis Thorpe had 24 points and 13 rebounds for the Rockets, who have climbed into eighth place in the Western Conference with four straight victories.

Jazz 113, Mavericks 90
Utah clinched the Midwest Division with a rout of Dallas as Karl Malone scored 28 points in 28 minutes and Jeff Malone had 26 points.

The 50th victory of the season for the Jazz left them five games ahead of San Antonio with five games to play. Utah won the season series 3-1 over the Spurs, who edged the Jazz for the division title on the final day the last two seasons.

SuperSonics 119, Suns 104
Nate McMillan had 14 points, 12 assists and six steals as Seattle beat Phoenix for its fifth straight victory.

The Sonics led 90-72 after three quarters and opened the fourth quarter with a 16-4 spurt for a 106-76 advantage with 6:58 left. Shawn Kemp had 17 points and 14 rebounds for Seattle.

Cavaliers 141, Hornets 134
Cleveland clinched homecourt advantage through two rounds of the playoffs by defeating Charlotte. Larry Nance had 26 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high 14 assists, his first triple-double for the Cavaliers.

Magic 96, Hawks 94
Scott Skiles' 17-foot jumper with 1:30 remaining put Orlando in front, and the Magic held visiting Atlanta scoreless the rest of the game.

Stacey Augmon scored 22 points and Kevin Willis had 21 points and 15 rebounds for the Hawks.

Kings 124, Nuggets 107
Lionel Simmons had 32 points and 12 rebounds, and Sacramento handed Denver its ninth straight loss.

Trailing 79-77, the Kings used a 11-0 run spanning the end of the third quarter and the start of the fourth period for an 88-79 cushion with 10:57 left.

Shutouts continue in new Baltimore park

By DICK BRINSTER
AP Sports Writer

The new ballpark in Baltimore has a very long name. Perhaps they should shorten it to something more appropriate - like Shutout Stadium.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards has known nothing but in the first three days of its existence. The latest blanking was by Ben McDonald, who pitched a two-hitter Thursday night as the Orioles beat the Cleveland Indians 2-0.

McDonald (1-0) struck out nine in his fifth complete game in the majors, permitting only one runner to reach third base.

On opening day, Baltimore's Rick Sutcliffe threw a five-hit shutout. On Wednesday, Dave Otto and Rod Nichols combined to blank the Orioles. Then came McDonald's gem, in which he retired the final 13 Indians and 18 of the last 19.

It's far too early to judge, but maybe the roomy power-alleys (it's 410 feet to deepest left-center) could give the park a reputation as a pitcher's paradise.

But McDonald isn't so sure. "The balls carried pretty well last night and tonight," he said. "It looks to me that it could be a hitter's ballpark, especially when it warms up."

McDonald said the lack of production probably is a sign of spring.

In three games at Camden Yards, the teams combined for just 27 hits.

McDonald outdueled Jack Armstrong (0-1), who allowed two runs and six hits in six-plus innings. One of those hits was a solo homer by Mike Devereaux, the first Oriole to connect in the new ballpark.

Brady Anderson, hitless in his first series against Detroit. Guzman allowed three hits in seven innings and walked four. Duane Ward pitched a perfect ninth for his second save.

Walt Terrell allowed all three runs and six hits in 8 1-3 innings. Twins 3, Brewers 1

Minnesota's Pedro Munoz, starting in place of bearded Shane Mack, hit a tiebreaking, two-out single in the eighth inning at Milwaukee.

Luis Quinones singled to start the eighth off Jaime Navarro (0-1). Kirby Puckett grounded out and Chili Davis followed with a single. After Randy Bush fouled out, Munoz singled to left-center for a 2-1 lead.

Former Brewer Bill Krueger (1-0) went seven innings, giving up four hits.

Athletics 5, Royals 2

Ron Darling pitched well as the Athletics defeated Kansas City to sweep their three-game series at Oakland.

Hot-hitting Mark McGwire had a solo homer and a run-scoring double, and Mike Bordick drove in two runs for Oakland.

Darling allowed six hits in 8 1-3 innings.

Mark Gubicza (0-1) took the loss.

Rich Monteleone got the victory with 2 1-3 innings of hitless relief.

Joe Grahe (0-1) was the loser.

White Sox 7, Angels 6

George Bell had three hits, including his first homer, for the White Sox and Kirk McCaskill survived a shaky return to Anaheim Stadium.

McCaskill (0-1) went five innings on his 31st birthday.

Joe Grahe (0-1) was the loser.

Yankees 3, Red Sox 2

Frank Viola, breezing into the sixth inning with a two-hit shutout, gave up an RBI double to Robert Kelly and a two-run double to Danny Tartabull as New York swept the two-game series.

Former Brewer Bill Krueger (1-0) went seven innings, giving up four hits.

Athletics 5, Royals 2

Ron Darling pitched well as the Athletics defeated Kansas City to innings later. Both players are listed as day-to-day.

Anthony Young (1-0) pitched a six-hitter. Juan Agosto (0-1) replaced Osborne to start the third inning and promptly gave up five runs.

Expos 8, Pirates 3

Darrin Fletcher and Delino DeShields each got three of Montreal's 14 hits as the Expos averted a season-opening, three-game sweep in Pittsburgh.

Fletcher, Montreal's sixth different opening day catcher in the last eight years, put the Expos in front for good at 3-1 with a two-run double in the sixth inning off Bob Walk (0-1).

Chris Nabholz (1-0) pitched five innings for the victory.

Wendell Tooley, the semi-retired publisher of the Tulia Herald, has discovered a great lure for catching fish at Lake Tawakoni, east of Dallas. His secret: the old reliable silver blade Mepp's spinner with a black and orange spotted body. Funny how the old favorite lures can still out-catch those computer-designed marvels. Best of all, and inline spinner costs about $2 while those gee-whiz lures cost more than $6 and will self-destruct on the first available rock.

Spring Turkey season is here. Early reports indicate some great hunting and lots of love-struck Toms.

Tip-of-the-Week: Comes from fishing professional Zell Rowland of Montgomery. Zell's favorite topwater bait is a buzzbait that is modified to catch more bass when the water temperature reaches the 60's. The blades on a buzzbait can be bent easily to increase the cup. The more cup, the slower a buzzbait will run. Some days Mr. Bigbass prefers a slow retrieve, but some days he wants a fast running lure, so just decrease the amount of blade cup. Zell reminds us to keep experimenting until the fish start biting. This 33-year-old topwater expert calls it "listening to the fish," and it must work because Zell finishes in the money in more than 50 percent of the tournaments he enters.

Just fished a two-day bass tournament on Lake Stamford with the Mini Boat Bass Club, and I caught the second-best tournament total of my life: 22.86 pounds. That's the good news, because those guys in those little boats are great fishermen and I finished in 7th place!

Jerry Graves of Claude won with 34.65 pounds. One-hundredth of a pound separated Canyon's Steve Johnson, in second place with 30.80 pounds, and Randy Abbott, who totaled 30.79 pounds. Big bass love black and white salt craws.

It was a great tournament, and if you like fishing in little boats, this club has members from six different towns all across the Panhandle. For more information, call Lew Tversky at 655-1981 in Canyon.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department explains that the new bowhunters' proposal will give more freedom to archers except while they are hunting. Current rules allow archers to carry only shotguns with No. 4 shot in the camp or in the field, but bowhunters may have any legal firearms in their camp.

Speaking of rules, Playa Pete suggests that the annual Hunting and Fishing Guides, as published by TPWD, should either highlight new rules or perhaps include a one-page summary of relevant changes. It is these annual revisions in the rules that cause problems for the honest hunters and anglers.

Mel Phillips is an avid hunter, a tournament fisherman and host of a Wednesday evening talk show on KGNC-radio (710 AM). He is also an award-winning member of the Texas Outdoor Writers Association.

Al's Big Roles

NEW YORK (AP) - Al Gionfriddo of the Brooklyn Dodgers is remembered by baseball historians for his great catch against Joe DiMaggio in the sixth game of the 1947 world series.

But Al also was a major player in the 3-2 victory for the Dodgers over the Yanks in the fourth game, the near no-hitter for Floyd Bevens.

It was Gionfriddo, acting as a pinch-runner, who made a key steal of second base with two out to set up an intentional walk to Pete Reiser and Cookie Lavagetto's historic game-winning double.

Hungry Aussies

MELBOURNE (AP) - The fans are hungry and thirsty when they turn out for the $2 million Melbourne Cup, Australia's greatest horse race.

It is run annually on the first Tuesday in November. Catering for the 1991 running was a massive job. There were 1,500 people dishing out food and drinks on Cup Day and here's a rundown on what they served: 200,000 cans of beer, 30,000 bottles of champagne, 5,000 bottles of assorted liquors, 75,000 soft drinks, 5,000 hard-boiled eggs, 10,000 hot dogs, dim sums, scones, loaves of bread and pies.

Unique Work

EDINBURG, Texas (AP) - Eloy Moran, the men's soccer coach at the University of Texas, Pan American, worked his way through both undergraduate and graduate school in unique fashion.

One of the jobs Moran had to help pay his way was stitching together boxes for cantaloupes in Pecos, Texas.

He was paid two cents a box. Moran was so efficient that eventually he was making $100 a day for an 11-hour stint.

Queen Elizabeth I was a frequent visitor to race meetings in England.

JETHRO'S FORESIGHT!

WHEN JETHRO, MOSES' FATHER-IN-LAW, WAS VISITING THE CAMP OF THE ISRAELITES HE CAUTIONED MOSES WITH A BIT OF ADVICE. AND BECAUSE OF HIS ADVICE PEOPLE EVEN TODAY DELEGATE AUTHORITY IN A LIKE MANNER. WHAT JETHRO SAW, THAT CAUSED HIM CONCERN, WAS THE FACT THAT MOSES SPENT FROM MORNING TILL NIGHT LISTENING TO THE TROUBLES OF HIS FOLLOWERS AND STRAIGHTENING OUT SQUABBLES AMONG FAMILIES, ETC., TO THE EXTENT THAT MORE IMPORTANT NEEDS WERE NEGLECTED. HE RECOMMENDED ASSIGNING MEN TO SPECIFIC DUTIES TO RELIEVE MOSES OF PETTY DETAILS. "...MEN OF TRUTH...TO BE RULERS OF THOUSANDS, AND RULERS OF HUNDREDS, RULERS OF FIFTIES, AND RULERS OF TENS; AND LET THEM JUDGE THE PEOPLE AT ALL SEASONS..." (EXODUS 18:21,22) AND TO THIS DAY JETHRO'S ADVICE IS POTENTLY PRACTICAL!

JETHRO WATCHES AND LISTENS WITH GREAT INTEREST.

BUT IT IS ONLY A BEGINNING! SOON, A LONG LINE OF MEN HAS FORMED ALL SEEKING JUDGEMENTS! WHO IS THE RIGHTFUL OWNER OF A JAR OF WILD HONEY? THE OWNER OF THE JAR—OR THE MAN WHO GATHERED THE HONEY? TO WHOM DOES A CERTAIN GOAT BELONG? WHICH MAN INHERITS HIS FATHER'S GOODS? IT IS OBVIOUS THAT THIS IS A DAILY DUTY FOR MOSES!

AND JETHRO'S SAGE ADVICE CHANGES ALL THIS FOREVER!

JOHN LEHTI

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified advertising rates are based on 15 cents a word for first insertion ($3.00 minimum), and 11 cents for second publication and thereafter. Rates below are based on consecutive issues, no copy change, straight word ads.

TIMES	RATE	MIN
1 day per word	.15	3.00
2 days per word	.28	5.20
3 days per word	.37	7.40
4 days per word	.48	9.60
5 days per word	.55	11.00

If you run ads in five consecutive issues with NO changes, you get the same ad in the Reach 4 More free. The regular charge for that ad would be $4.00.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Classified display rates apply to all other ads not set in solid word lines: those with captions, bold or larger type, special paragraphing; all capital letters. Rates are $4.15 per column inch; $3.45 an inch for consecutive additional insertions.

LEGAL

Ad rates for legal notices are same as for classified display.

ERRORS

Every effort is made to avoid errors in word ads and legal notices. Advertisers should call attention to any errors immediately after the first insertion. We will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. In case of errors by the publishers, an additional insertion will be published.

...are worth more than just a quick glance.

Have you taken a good look at our Classified pages lately? You'll be surprised at just how many ads we publish. When it comes to Classifieds, "the more the merrier" is true! More potential buyers... more sellers! More people advertising things "for sale"... and somehow, we get more people looking! That's the way it works! It takes both buyers and sellers... and we've got them by the thousands! Buying or selling, the first place to look is in our Classifieds! To place an ad, call!

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) - Arsenio Hall issued a dare to students when he received an honorary degree from Central State University.

"I dare you to dream and chase those dreams and make them come true," the talk show host told the audience of about 1,000 on Wednesday.

He received an honorary doctorate of humane letters.

Committee recognized

The finance and budget committee was among five Women's Division committees presented with special certificates recently at the organization's quarterly meeting. Serving on this committee are, from left, Ruth Newsom and Chairman Vicki McMorries. Not pictured is Marilyn Culpepper.

The longest living President was John Adams, who died at the age of 90 years and eight months in 1826.

If the air conditioning was turned off in the Houston Astrodome, the entrance of warm humid air could cause it to rain in the stadium.

NOTICE TO AT&T CUSTOMERS IN TEXAS

BUSY LINE VERIFICATION AND BUSY LINE INTERRUPTION

This notice is to advise of the introduction of new operator services offerings by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. Effective April 19, 1992, AT&T will provide Busy Line Verification and Busy Line Interruption. A description of these services are as follows:

BUSY LINE VERIFICATION provides for operator assistance in determining if there is conversation in progress on a called number. The proposed rate is $3.00 per attempt.

BUSY LINE INTERRUPTION provides for operator interruption of a conversation in progress on a called number. Busy Line Verification charges will not be incurred on calls in which a Busy Line Interruption charge is imposed. A Busy Line Verification must be made prior to this service. The proposed rate is $4.00 per attempt.

OPERATOR DIALED 0-

This notice is to advise of the introduction by AT&T Communications of the Southwest, Inc. of an operator service surcharge of $.50 per call, effective April 24, 1992, on calls utilizing AT&T's Operator Dialed 0- service. At the same time, AT&T will reduce Customer Dialed/Automated and Customer Dialed-Operator Must Assist Calling Card service charges from $1.05 to $.93 per call. OPERATOR DIALED 0- service denotes those situations where the Customer dials the operator and requests the operator to dial the called number. A function of this surcharge will be to recover new costs now imposed on AT&T by local telephone companies involved in processing these calls.

These revisions will affect customers who utilize AT&T's Operator Dialed 0- Customer Dialed/Automated and Customer Dialed Operator Must Assist Calling Card services. The positive net revenue impact to AT&T of these two changes is less than $225,000 annually, which is .03% of AT&T's annual intrastate revenues.

Any person who wishes to comment on these applications, or who would like further information, should mail a request as soon as possible to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221 (teletypewriter for the deaf).
