Now it costs less to "talk it over by long distance"

Long distance telephone calls have always been a real bargain. Now that Congress has reduced the excise tax on those calls, it costs even less to "talk it over by long distance."

No part of the tax reduction goes to the telephone company. You get the full benefit — so most long distance calls now cost you 12% less than they did. Next time... why wonder or worry? Talk it over by long distance and be sure.

NOW... AN EVEN BIGGER BARGAIN

Around . . .

More of the "gambler's neckties" which are being used this year instead of beard-raising, are appearing on the streets every day. Chamber of Commerce manager G. E. Mullins, who spoke at the Rotary Club Monday about the various events which are scheduled during the three-day celebration, sold an even dozen after the luncheon. Profits from the sale of ties will help the Chamber defray the cost of putting on the celebration.

Hereford's Labor Camp team made a good showing when it defeated the Clovis Latin-American team 18-3 last Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Labor Camp team will meet the Floydada Latin-American team. The game will be played just west of Charlie Hutson's sheds.

At least 12 persons are expected to meet at The Brand at 8 o'clock tonight to discuss the formation of another camera club in Hereford. Kenneth Coker, one of the men behind the proposed organization, said that he hopes the group will include both novices and those with considerable background in picture taking.

Did you know that sugar is slippery? Mrs. Lee Kent didn't realize how slippery it is until she spilled some on her kitchen floor Monday and failed to clean it up because she was in a hurry. With sugar on both her shoes and the floor, it proved rather treacherous footing, and she soon found herself nursing a broken right arm. Lee didn't know about the mishap until he saw her at a church party that night. He had been out at the farm and got in after she had left the house.

Cummings And Irish Strong Man End Match Even-All Saturday

One of the hardest fought wrestling matches that has ever been seen in the Hereford arena took place Saturday night when Timmy Geohagen of Ireland, the world's strongest man, met Hereford's Bob Cummings. The match was a two out of three fall one hour time limit event. Geohagen won the first fall in 40 minutes with a full nelson and Cummings won the second fall in 10 minutes with a knee action leg binder. This match came to a draw when time ran out during the rest period. Cummings had to do some beautiful wrestling and some mighty hard thinking to out-manuever the world's strongest man. The match was good and clean and just hard wrestling all the way. The second main event was a two out of three fall one hour time limit non-title match between Con Bruno of Greece and Dory Funk, Southwestern States Junior Heavyweight champion, of Umbarger. Bruno won the first fall in 10 minutes with a top body smother. Funk won the second fall in 11 minutes with a spinning toe hold and came back to win the third and deciding fall with another spinning toe hold in three minutes.

Number Of Texans Entering, Leaving Service About Same

AUSTIN — The number of Texans going in and out of the armed forces in April was just about even, according to a report made Thursday by Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director. The report, which was sent to national Selective Service headquarters, showed that Texas Selective Service headquarters had received notice of the separation of 3,678 Texans from the armed forces in April.

During the same period, the draft and enlistment of Texans amounted to 3,743 men, 65 more than were separated. Of the total of 3,743 who entered the armed forces in April, 2,857 enlisted, the remainder being drafted. "This is the first time in several months that entries have exceeded separations," General Wakefield said. "During the first three months of 1954, a total of 3,668 Texans got in the service. During the same period, 18,300 got out." The report also showed that Selective Service in Texas sent 2,681 men for physical examinations in April, 47 percent of them being rejected by armed forces examiners. Most of the enlistments in April were in the Air Force, with the Army following a close second as a choice of service. By far the largest number of separations were from the army.

Search For . . .

(Continued from Page 1) Park failed to locate Lois, and no one there at the time had seen her. Finally, after half an hour's fruitless search, Mrs. Bosley went to the Jaycee Clubhouse and called on the members, who were assembled for their weekly luncheon meeting, to help her in the search. The Jaycees, always glad to help where they are needed, and particularly so in such a case as this, spread out through the area where Lois might be. Mrs. Bosley then went home, and found that Lois had preceded her by a short time. The child had lost her way near Shirley School, had asked directions from a student there, and had been taken on home. Though Mrs. Bosley was quite happy that Lois was safe, she still took measures to help her to remember "long put" the next time she is left some place for a while. Jaycees reported that their lunch was pretty good even after it had cooled off more than was usual.

The first game was a thriller all the way. Hotel Jim Hill scored four runs in the top of the seventh to stay in the game and go ahead. Piggly Wiggly also tied it up with three in the last of the seventh.

Winning pitcher was Blue Turpin. He took over from Karl Hutchinson at the start of the fifth and pitched the final four innings, giving up three runs, five hits, and walking none. Hutchinson gave up seven runs, eight hits, and walked three. Losing pitcher Don Morgan gave up 12 runs on 12 hits and seven walks.

Although the Hotel team's hitting was not up to par, exactly half of their hits were for extra bases. Five of these were doubles and one a triple.

At The Movies

THE HOUSE OF WAX Showing Friday and Saturday at the Star Theatre.

Starring Vincent Price, Phyllis Kirk and Frank Lovejoy. Ever walk into a wax museum and see someone who strangely resembled a friend of the past or maybe even a relative? Well, don't be surprised at anything you might see in the fascinating story of the "House Of Wax."

No doubt most of the older folks will remember this horror thriller because it was first released many years ago. The film has been in so much demand that this is the third time that it has been remade. However, this is the first time it has ever been made in color.

With the combined beauty of Phyllis Kirk and the horror of the ominous figure which lurks in dark alleys and rooms, this film is one of the most terrifying that has ever reached the screen.

LESLEY MOTOR CO. 345 East 1st St. Phone 600

Crowe-Gulde Cement Co. of Hereford PHONE 1722 1st & GOUGH ST

The other afternoon I started home and came across a couple of small boys. One of them was chanting a bit of old, old verse which most men will recall from their childhood days:
"Sticks and Stones may break my bones,
But dirty names will never hurt me."
I grinned to myself as I walked on across the street, thinking about the two lads—and Senator McCarthy.

No, Sir, I never worried much about what people said about me, so long as they just said it. However, when they start proving some of the statements, I generally begin to worry. Occasionally, I even prove one of them myself—and that is worse. Such is more or less what is happening with release of the current issue of The Brand.

Certain characters, including John Estes for instance, have long been insisting that The Brand "Smells." This week we had to go and prove it. However, as usual, we have an alibi. The foul odor is all the fault of the Colgate-Palmolive Company. They talked us into mixing the Cashmere Bouquet essence with the blue ink. The stuff doesn't mix so well with black ink—Thank Goodness! Two little plastic bottles cost them a flat 40 bucks, and it is the very same stuff they use to scent their soap. The worst part, though, is the fact that the odor is all over the place. We can't get rid of it. If I ever see another bar of the stuff, I will scream.

Meanwhile, I agree with John Estes. Not only the paper, but the whole darn place smells. Besides, it is misleading. Even Stanley Phillip and Jackie Allmon and the rest of the printers, smell as if they were freshly scrubbed. When guys like this cast off such an aroma, there's bound to be a catch somewhere. It reminds me of the time old Bob Higgins got that sheep—and had such a time setting rid of the odor. Understand Melvin Young had to tell his wife the whole story before she would let him in the house.

Pioneer Day is beginning to take hold. These string ties the men are wearing have a lot of people talking. John Patton says they are absolutely out of character, however. He says the pioneers would not have been caught wearing one even when engaged in picking up cow chips. He says mostly they didn't wear any ties at all, and upon dress-up occasions, the rare appearance of a tie was usually a very narrow, black bow affair. Even the "dudes" would never have been seen in the loud gadgets which the men are sporting this week.

However, I still say the ties have the whisker-growing business beat all to thunder. Anything is better than growing whiskers. Though I will never forget George Cantrell and Sank Ramey during the whisker era. Those boys sure can get the job done.

One real, sure-enough Pioneer custom will be revived in 1954, though. It is the old time badger fight. This used to be the big event around the livery stables back between 1900 and 1915. Practically every new comer to the area was initiated to the inner circle when the boys accepted him as honor guest at the badger fights. The particular Badger Fight this year is being sponsored by Mike Baird, Jim Robinson, Pat Wederbrook and Beryl Elliston, Pat and Beryl al-

Rev. Root, Others Attended Convention

Rev. Don Root, pastor of the First Christian Church, Mrs. Robert Veigel and Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersen were among the 5,140 delegates throughout Texas who attended the 67th annual Texas Convention of Christian Churches held in Fort Worth May 8-12.

The five day meeting, held on the campus of Texas Christian University, included special workshops, board and committee meetings, dedication of TCU's new Religious Center, a mass rally in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum and addresses by leading figures of the Disciples of Christ Brotherhood.

Dr. W. A. Welsh, pastor of the East Dallas Christian Church, was president of the convention. Official hosts were TCU, University Christian Church and co-operating Christian churches of Tarrant County.

ready have what they term as "the most ferocious yellow badger ever seen on the Plains." They have been working on this for two months. Now, they claim they are ready. This badger will be pitted against a Mexican Bulldog, according to current plans.

Arrangements have been made to have the big fight on the courthouse lawn Pioneer Day. The police and sheriff's department have agreed to cooperate. Any wagers will, therefore, be a side issue.

There is also high speculation as regards the women folks. Back in the old days, it seems, no woman was ever allowed to witness the Badger Fights. They were strictly "for men only." Pat and Beryl say that the women should still be barred. However, Mike and Jim are contending that times have changed and that women should be admitted. They are having quite an argument among themselves. Pat and Beryl contend that the fights are too ferocious. What if it got loose in the crowd? Time will tell, I guess. Anyway, the committee is divided on this particular point.

Just had a letter from T. E. Gray, an old timer who now lives at Toppenish, Wash. Mr. Gray says:
"You have left out the article that was the most important to me: 'I'll Never Forget' and the 'Hereford Bull.' They ought to be put together for it was all in a lifetime and I can't forget those days that are forever gone but the man down on the Johnson Grass Farm he feels like I do when the loco was so bad it got me to roam around and I got in a ditch and couldn't get out, so here I am in Washington State—and worryin' over spilt milk that the calf should have got in the first place so here is a check and if it is no good, I send you one more and if it no good, the Brand not so good either."

Thank you, Mr. Gray and, if that second check is "no good," just remember that we tried. You will have to admit that The Brand did "smell" this week. You might even "odorize" a third check and give it a chance—but please, please use some other odor besides Cashmere Bouquet.

There has been quite a furor over Dr. J. A. Hill's recent book, "One Man's Faith." Dr. Hill is indeed a gentleman and a scholar and his book contains some wonderful thoughts. However, he is not the only gentleman on the Plains. Our own Will Harris from out Goatehead Prairie way in the Summerfield Community is the fellow who dreamed up the whole deal. Will started off the drive and did much of the soliciting. He got the idea one Sunday when Dr. Hill substituted for his pastor. Will just naturally felt that everyone should have a chance to absorb some of Dr. Hill's philosophy. Will, incidentally, was one of the very early students at West Texas State and he has been a booster of Dr. Hill down through the years.

Will's college career was almost as spasmodic as the book publication. He really came out to this country to be a cowboy—and made a good job of it, too. He was rocking along in his saddle one day when all of a sudden the idea came to him that he should go to school. He made a bee-line for the ranch and a few days later was enrolled in West Texas. This was away back in the first or second class. A lot of kids yet to leave school to become a cowboy, but Bill is the first one I ever knew who voluntarily quit the saddle for the classroom.

The big Cooking School will start at 2:30 this afternoon—promptly. Everything is set. Understand that the prizes total around $500 to $600. The Gunn Stamp center prizes are also estimated at $550. This makes a total of more than $1,000 in prizes in Hereford this weekend.

Mrs. F. G. Collier says the teachers are getting a bad break of this Cooking School—and we do owe them an apology. The school was set up for the convenience of housewives. It was purposely set in hopes that it would be over approximately at the same time school dismissed. We are truly sorry, because I know that several of the teachers would have liked to attend. Besides, it would have hardly been feasible to hold the school after 4 o'clock. I guess it is just one of the penalties of being a working gal.

Press Room Smells Mighty Clean Now

The faint aroma is that of Cashmere Bouquet and was furnished by the Colgate - Palmolive Company in co-operation with the formal opening of the stamp redemption center in Hereford. The essence is the same used in the manufacture of Cashmere Bouquet soap, although more concentrated. Approximately one-half ounce of the essence was mixed with each pound of blue ink. Actual cost of the essence in this issue was estimated at $40 — approximately eight ounces.

Stanley Phillip, Brand shop foreman, adds: "You cannot always believe your nose, but if you did, The Brand would have the cleanest pressroom and the cleanest smelling printers in the Panhandle."

THOSE SHINNING EYES tell the story of just what Carol Sue Mullins, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mullins, would like most to have from among the array of prizes which will be given away by the new Gunn Bros. Redemption Store at the drawing Saturday. Carol Sue will probably want her mother to get a registration blank from each of the participating merchants in Hereford. (Staff Photo)

A letter to City Attorney North from the state department gives the information that the city water bonds will be approved on presentation at the office of this attorney general.

The mayor has given the order for the work of lithographing the bonds and they will be ready to deliver to the purchasers at no distant day. It is planned to erect a steel reservoir with a capacity of 100,000 gallons and to place "plugs" at each block corner within the fire limits. Provisions will also be made for those who wish to use city water by tapping the mains. All the details connected with the system are being pushed as rapidly as possible, work to be begun at an early date.

M. J. Stroud of Des Moines, Iowa, was in Hereford Tuesday for the purpose of looking at his land, which he bought some three years ago. He has ridden over 4,000 miles on his wheel according to the reading of his cyclometer and he expected to make it out to his land and back to Adrian a distance of 30 miles in about four hours. From there he will cut across the country to Dalhart from which place he will return to his home.

25 Years Ago
First, Pete Engle bought a lot of unmarketable old cows. Then he bought a grinder and fed the cows ground feed, native grain and bundle stuff. The cows fattened quickly. When Engle sold them recently they brought 10 cents per pound.

What with the four or five inch rain trying to soak in to the ground, farmers are beginning to think this ought to be a rice country, and the idea of terracing to preserve moisture might seem to them rather superfluous. Nevertheless—

County Agent Dunkle, several business men and many farmers will observe this summer the results of terracing on the farm of Rem Witherspoon, about two miles south of Hereford. In April Mr. Witherspoon, with the assistance of Dunkle, terraced 100 acres of land that will be planted in row crops, kafir, maize, etc. When the first rain came last Friday night not a hat-full of water was wasted and the furrows held the water like a tank. By Saturday night the water had soaked into the ground and the furrows were ready for the big rain that came Saturday and Sunday and were lipping full of water Monday morning. The terraced land got the full benefit of the four-inch rain. No water ran off and no soil was washed away. Mr. Dunkle says the Witherspoon field with the furrows full of water is the best terracing demonstration he has ever seen and is the best argument for terracing.

ONE OF THE ANNUAL events which rolls around at the two Hereford grade schools about the end of school is the distribution of free Cokes, and there are very few backward children when the big day comes. This picture was made

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS SAYS

Giving Out Information In U.S. Causes Foreign Policy Troubles

The foreign policy troubles of this administration are not new and are not unusual. History will show that almost every administration, regardless of party, has had its foreign policy troubles. Whether the present troubles are better or worse than the ones that preceded them in other administrations is a matter of opinion and a great deal different. Whether or not we agree upon the type of the trouble, I am sure that we all agree that they can not be settled or solved without a unified approach by the American people. In order to win this international game, we must utilize the services of the best players that we have available, whether they wear the colors of the elephant or the donkey.

Dulles faced at Geneva was the fact that the position of the United States had been publicized all over the world for weeks. Russia did not need an espionage system to find out how far Dulles could go without having to return home for further instructions. The Chinese Reds were, of course, in the same position. The American people had demanded to know the position of this administration, and the administration, in all fairness, gave them the exact facts.

If this information could have been confined to the American people, it would have been fine, however, it must be remembered that when such information is given out, it immediately becomes news of worldwide interest and is spread throughout every country in the world in a matter of minutes. If we are to advertise our own strategy, we must all join together and stand behind them to present to the entire world a unified front on the part of our citizens.

I can not over-stress the great need for faith and confidence in the team that we put in the field. A team without that faith and confidence of the American people would be handcuffed and shackled. One of the biggest obstacles that feet provides that a person who commits a crime in a foreign country or a country which is occupied by or under the control of the United States, if found in this country, may be taken to such foreign or occupied country and tried there under the laws applicable in that particular place. No one objects to a person being tried for a crime that he commits against society. If a citizen voluntarily goes into a foreign country, he runs the risk of being charged with a crime, just the same as a foreigner who visits the United States.

However, the law also includes GI's, many of whom are in foreign countries, not because they want to travel, but because they were drafted and sent into those foreign countries. They are soldiers of the United States who have been sent into those countries to help defend the people of those countries. In many instances, these are countries that were recently enemies of the United States.

To say that a boy could be drafted into the Army, compelled to go into a foreign country to defend that country, and after he has served his time and returned to his own country, be forcibly returned to the foreign country and subjected to the jurisdiction of the courts of that country on some charge that could easily be frivolous, to be judged by those who only a few years ago were shooting real bullets at American soldiers, just doesn't make sense to me.

The truth is the present law does not take care of this situation, and I expect to offer an amendment to it as soon as I can get it drafted. Incidentally, this attempt to amend and enlarge and expand this law was defeated by striking the enacting clause of the proposed amendment.

Another bill that was defeated resoundingly in the House was a bill designed to amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The change sought to be brought about was to change the exemption provisions in the act from $300,000.00 to $500,000.00. This simply meant that if a group were selling stock in an amount that did not exceed $500,000.00, they would not have to comply with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act. This exemption was originally $100,000.00, but was subsequently increased to $300,000.00. The House refused to chip another hole in this protective act. You will recall that before this act was passed this country was flooded with bogus stocks and bonds that were sold to an unsuspecting public as sure-fire get-rich-quick schemes. The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 put a stop to this vicious practice and gave much needed protection to the public so that they could no longer be victimized by the fast-talking gold-edge stock and bond salesman.

The Sinful (?) City of Washington

I have received a number of letters recently expressing the view that Washington must be a city of sin from the accounts the people throughout the country receive. The truth is that Washington is no more the "city of sin" than any other city of its size in the United States. The good, honest, hard-working, patriotic, law-abiding citizen of the United States has never seemed to have the news value of the corruption-laden crooks, whether they be the malicious murderer or the sly embezzler. Washington, like other cities of equal size, has its share of these crooks and thugs and criminals, but, like all other cities, it has a great majority of honest, law-abiding, patriotic citizens whose names seldom appear in headlines. It is this type of citizen that has built the United States and who will perpetuate it. Too bad he is not more newsworthy. Too bad he is not more newsworthy.

Mrs. Charles Wesley Garrett, of Panhandle, called at the office this week and we had a nice visit.

Burial Services Held For Victim Of Wreck

Party Given By Exes Honors Dr. J. A. Hill

Former West Texas State College students, most of whom had their thoughts and actions shaped by the philosophy of Dr. J. A. Hill, now WTSC president emeritus, stopped in at the B. E. Roberson home, 125 Ave. C, Thursday afternoon and Thursday evening, where Dr. Hill was holding an autograph party.

Dr. Hill was signing copies of his book, "One Man's Faith," and giving complimentary copies to former students who helped finance its publications. Proceeds from the sale will go to the ex-students association to finance publication of a history of the college.

More than 50 persons called on Dr. Hill during the afternoon and evening, and talked to ex-WTSC students who were helping with the party.

"One Man's Faith" owes its publication, primarily, to W. G. (Bill) Harris of Summerfield, who was one of the earliest students at West Texas State College. He got the idea for the book after hearing Dr. Hill speak one Sunday at his church, and suggested the publication of some of the best of Dr. Hill's writings and speeches from over the years.

In addition to suggesting the idea, Harris backed up his proposal with some of his own money, and helped to raise $1,200 from other ex-students, many of them in this area. He was rewarded with the first copy of the book to come off the press.

The night of May 8, the ex-students association held a dinner in Canyon for those who had helped finance the publication of "One Man's Faith." There, many who had helped received their complimentary copies of the book.

For the autograph party, Mrs. George Graham had charge of the decorations, while those serving on the refreshment committee were: Mrs. Owen Stagner, Miss Della Stagner, Mrs. Elmer Patterson, Mrs. Carroll Whiteside, Mrs. Jack Gilliland, Mrs. Clay Ridgway, Mrs. Roy Calvert, Mrs. Earl Springer and Mrs. Cleatice Crump.

Hostesses, each of whom were present for at least one hour, included: Mrs. P. L. Carmichael, Mrs. J. C. McCracken, Mrs. Henry Sears, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. V. E. Dodson, Mrs. Wayne Thomas, Mrs. Fred Welch, Mrs. Floyd Walton Jr., Mrs. Frank Watson and Mrs. J. J. Durham.

Mrs. Byron Durham, Mrs. Eleanor Huspeth, Mrs. Leg Forrest, Mrs. H. H. Caraway, Mrs. Caudie Ola Brown, Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Mrs. Vivian Major and Miss Sadye Riger.

The table was laid with a white drawn-work cloth. Decorations featured a plasti-foam book etched in gold, with a gold ribbon marker backed by an arrangement of Paul Scarlet Roses and white peonies in a crystal holder. Other appointments were in crystal.

Mrs. Eubanks Finds Paris Lovely, But Rather Costly

By Cecile B. Eubanks
(Editor's note: Mrs. Eubanks is on a tour of Europe and the Near East, and has said that she plans to stay until she gets tired of it all, then come home.)

Paris, as everyone knows, is a city unlike any other in the world. It has lived 2,000 years. War torn years. Two thousand years in which to perfect its technique in easily, suavely and painlessly separating foos from their money. Painlessly because it is so neatly and quickly done.

bed feels like a cake of ice. And don't believe it won't! Especially in the rural districts from which I just came. My opinion is they can be used the year round if you travel at all in the north or mountainous countries.

Perhaps it would be well to mention the only case of rudeness to which I have been subjected by the French. To land from the ship one has to sign declaration of luggage. Mine was ok. Then you had to have a form stamped by men, I think employees of the government, before you could get off the ship. I took mine and it was stamped after one glance at my passport. I asked "where shall I go next?" he waved airily "Away."

All foods are high and most places charge cover charge so many (mostly French and me too sometimes) buy pastries, etc., and stand and hold the plate they are served on while they eat them.

was astonishing how much I got of the story. It was about the atom bomb we dropped in Hiroshima and the after effects on the people. Really seemed like propaganda against us.

sented. I was scared. I knew it would be a lot. I counted the 1000 franc notes that the boy gave the waiter and when I got home I figured out what that meal had cost. I don't dare say. No one would believe me. But it was much more than some families in Hereford spend in a month for food.

LYNN, Mass. (AP) — The 100-year-old Washington Street Baptist Church has put away a 100-year time capsule with a new twist. Among the items to be seen next in the year 2054 are forecasts by local bankers as to the highest interest rates that will prevail in the middle of the 21st Century.

Did I say teach? Judge for yourself. For me, traveling tourist, second class and in every way on a budget, to be separated from $10 American for shampoo, rinse and set wasn't exactly painless but it was numbing to be told afterward "The tip was not included, Madam." "400 francs, Madam." That tip was $1.15 to you. After two weeks here and surrounding countryside the smiling "Bon jour, Madam" begins to sound like "Hello, Sucker."

Cake Without Shortening Is Rich Looking, Light

Mrs. O. E. Sherman, who lives about two miles north of Hereford on the Airport Road, likes to cook and the people who visit her for a meal always come away well fed and happy.

Even the guest or the neighbor who drops in for a short visit hardly ever leaves without some sort of refreshment, because once Mrs. Sherman gets started in the kitchen the results are usually pie and cake too.

Mrs. Sherman's Rhubarb Custard pie recipe is a popular one which was printed a few years back but since the borers have destroyed the rhubarb in her garden she has some other recipes which she uses often and is kind enough to share with others.

The first is for a yellow cake made without shortening, but is light and rich looking.

Golden Cake

- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1/2 cup egg yolks.
- 1 whole egg
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 teaspoon strained orange juice
- 1/2 teaspoon lemon flavoring
- 2 cups flour (sifted three times)
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Beat the egg yolks and the whole egg together, gradually add the sugar. Beat in part of water the flavoring and orange rind and juice; then the flour sifted with the salt and baking powder and the remaining water. Pour into ungreased tube center pan and bake one hour or longer in a slow oven.

Lemon Pie

- Juice of two lemons
- 3 egg yolks
- 3 cups of sweet milk
- 1 cup flour
- 1 1/2 cups sugar

Mix flour and sugar and stir into milk. Add the beaten egg yolks and cook in double boiler until thick. Cool and add lemon juice. Pour into baked pie shell top with meringue and brown lightly. This makes a big pie.

Crystal Pickles

Twenty-five cucumbers (dill size with a little of the stem left on). Wash and put into a brine strong enough to float an egg. The brine may be made using 1 quart salt to 4 quarts of water.

Juices For Summer Drinks Are Now Popular Subject

Milk, vegetable and fruit juices which may be used in drinks have become popular subjects with housewives who will soon be called on to supply something refreshing for the youngsters home from school or the men working in the fields.

Reports from clubs meeting last week were:

West Hereford

The West Hereford Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Bessie Johnson on May 11 with nine members present.

Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr., gave a talk on milk drinks. Evelyn Bell discussed vegetable juices, and the use of fruit juices in drinks was given by Mrs. Vern Witherspoon.

The club voted to have a marketing committee.

The next meeting will be May 25 in the home of Mrs. Carlos Vaughn.

Those present were Mesdames Vern Witherspoon, E. M. Cox, Carlos Vaughn, John Jacobsen Sr., P. H. Luck, Edna Bowe, Roy Boyd and Miss Evelyn Bell. Mrs. Brink was a visitor.

In the club order of business the president always asks for a report of the demonstrators. Last week when Dawn Club met at Mrs. J. M. Carathers all those present answered with their food accomplishments.

Mrs. Zed Stewart has learned better use of the mixer. After getting the mixer out where it was easy to use, she found she used it much more. This is so true of all appliances.

Mrs. Carathers, Mrs. J. B. Caraway and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr., say they are making better pies.

Cooking School Prizes Might Have Many Advantages

So you think you wouldn't win a prize if you went to the All-Electric Cooking School at Hotel Jim Hill this afternoon?

Well, there are dozens of chances that you will. Somebody is going to get a long list of door prizes and one woman can't have them all, you know.

Besides, if you don't win your neighbor might be lucky and you would have the pleasure of seeing a friend made happy—on second thought, you might even be able to borrow the prize if she won.

Of course one would hardly think about asking for a pair of hose (not the garden variety) but a neighbor wouldn't refuse the use of a cooler on a hot day or an automatic toaster to coffee pot when company is coming.

Then there is the sealer and all that packaging equipment for home freezing—really two women living so close together should be able to share a set like that without working a hard-ship on the owner.

That costume jewelry—it might match a new dress — too bad they didn't leave it unwrapped.

By-the-way, Jane would surely share the foam rubber cushions with you since you always go to the football games together and you might borrow the electric clock in case of an emergency like giving a dose of medicine or getting off early on a vacation, especially since your old wind-up ticker has refused to try for a record like Grandfather's famous old time piece.

Well, anyway what if you don't win. There's the lessons by the girls and a lot of good recipes for summertime cooking and if your husband gets the idea you've been wasting your time because you don't bring home the electric range then you can quote him a few of the economy hints and cook him up one of the new dishes for supper.

Sure you'll have time to wash the dishes after lunch—The Cooking School doesn't begin until 2:30 o'clock.

He checked back with the sender and was surprised to learn that his great grandfather had ordered a set of dishes and the family working on them had just gotten them finished.

Patsy and Sandra Townsend, Lila Gail Rickman, Florene McIntosh and Mrs. Wilson the leader.

The next meeting was set for Wednesday with Oma Lee Ranspot.

Walcott

Walcott 4-H Club met in a call meeting May 6 in the Walcott School. The meeting was called to order by Donna Sue Guseman president. Janell Weaver led the group in singing. Roll was called by Merry Kay Pruitt secretary.

A demonstration on taking measurements and pattern types was given by Mrs. Lumpkin, the leader.

Set Of China Arrives As Gift From Japan

Mrs. W. H. Russell has just received a 95 piece set of china from Japan, a Mother's Day gift from her son Artis, and his wife who now live in California.

One might ask "Why so many dishes after the family is gone?", but when a woman has reared a large family it isn't often that much of the china survives the growing-up of a bunch of youngsters, and when all the children, their wives and their children come home for a visit the weather-beaten plates and the cups without handles hardly do justice to a good home-cooked meal served from a big table.

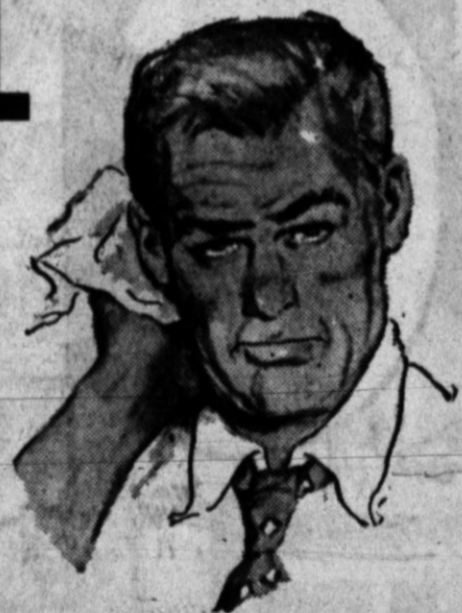

Mrs. Russell is very happy over the service for 12 in the Maple Autumn Leaf pattern.

China from the Orient has a beautiful translucent texture that has been hard to copy by other nations. For centuries the process of making porcelain was guarded by the Chinese and Japanese pottery has been strongly influenced by China.

As early as the 13th century potters in Japan were able to make reproductions of the famous Nanking blue and white porcelain. Each century has had its outstanding potteries, both state and private, and a story that illustrates the time put into the earlier process of making chinaware is told about a man who received a set of fine china from across the Pacific one day and was completely mystified, as he hadn't bought

 The crusts are flakier and more tender and the meringue doesn't shrink nor weep since they've learned a few tricks.

The right proportion for meringue is 2 tablespoons of sugar to one egg white.

Baking bread is popular with these club members. Mrs. Walter Galley has taught several people to make cinnamon rolls. Mrs. H. S. Fuller has improved her bread-making by getting Mrs. Galley's suggestions and recipes. Mrs. Fuller says she has bought only two loaves of bread this month. Frozen bread is good management and is good, too, according to Mrs. A. E. Harder, who has been making bread a long time. Mrs. Marion Russell is having to relearn to make bread since Mr. Russell has quit his work in a bakery.

Mrs. Orval Galley has now perfected cottage cheese making and her family is quite pleased with the results.

Why fine car buyers are swinging to Ford

Worth more when you buy it... Worth more when you sell it!

A small price tag buys them one of America's truly fine cars. And here's how:

In the new '54 Ford, you get the same modern type of overhead-valve engine... the same road-hugging ride... the careful interior decorating... the same quality construction... and the same optional* power assists you'd expect to find in cars costing hundreds of dollars more. So why pay more? This is the question smart car buyers are asking themselves. And that is why you'll often find two Fords proudly parked in driveways where there used to be but one costly car!

Take power:

Only Ford, among all low-priced cars, offers you a Y-block V-8 engine. Only Ford, in its field, offers an I-block Six. And both of these new deep-block engines are the most modern in the industry... with overhead valves, low-friction design, high-turbulence combustion chambers, and deep-block construction.

Take ride:

Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension is the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years. Your Ford not only steers easier, but will keep that "new car feel" for longer. And so many points of wear have been eliminated you have only 4 lubrication points in the entire front suspension system.

Take power assists*:

Fordomatic Drive is the only "automatic" in its field to combine the smoothness of a fluid torque converter and the "Go" of an automatic intermediate gear. And you can have Ford Master-Guide Power Steering, Swift Sure Power Brakes, power lifts on all four side windows and a 4-Way Power Seat.

Take a Test Drive... and you'll want to drive it home!

By Bud Posey

Bob Lindsey won the first flight of the Ruidoso, N. M., spring golf tournament by beating Frank Cogdell of Hereford 3 and 1 in the final Sunday. It was an all-Hereford final. Bob received a large trophy for his efforts and Frank a medium trophy. Other Hereford golfers who participated were J. M. Posey and John Renner. (Note: all four men carried their wives along too and a big time was had by all.)

The first putting tournament of the season will be held Friday night starting at 8 o'clock. It will be a 36 hole medal play affair with a men's bracket, ladies' bracket, girls (under 18) bracket, and boys (under 16) bracket. Entry fee will be 50 cents with golf balls being awarded as prizes. Come on out and make it a big success. The course is being put back in top shape after the recent rains and headrise and will be ready for the Pioneer Day Tournament May 29 and 30.

Entries for the tournament must be in by 6 o'clock the night of May 28 so that pairings can be made. Turn in your score (9 hole score) and entry fee by 6 o'clock May 28. Entry fee is $4, including green fees. The oldest pioneer entering the tournament will receive half a dozen golf balls. A special ladies' flight will be had with trophies being awarded winner, runner up and consolation winner. Sixteen players will form each flight. Stan Barrett is defending champion.

DETAILS OF TOURNAMENT:
May 28—turn in 9 hole qualifying score by 6 o'clock that night; May 29—9 o'clock that morning—first round matches in all flights (nine holes); May 29—2 o'clock that afternoon—second round matches in all flights (9 holes) and first round consolation matches (9 holes); May 30—9 o'clock that morning—semi-final matches in all flights and consolation flights; 2 o'clock that afternoon—final matches in all flights and consolation flights; May 29—5 o'clock that afternoon—presentation of prizes.

PRIZE LIST:
Winner of each flight—bag boy caddy cart; runner up of each flight—one dozen golf balls; consolation winner of each flight—set of head covers for wood clubs.

The annual City Tournament will be held from May 31 through June 20. Entry fee will be $7.50 (including green fees) with eight players to each flight. Stan Barrett is defending champion. One week will be allowed for each match.

DETAILS OF TOURNAMENT:
May 31 through June 5—qualifying rounds (18 holes); June 5, all day—qualifying for medalist honors; night of June 5, 7:30 o'clock at the Jaycee Clubhouse—dinner for all contestants and wives; June 6 through June 12—first round matches in all flights; June 13 through June 19—second round matches in all flights and first round consolation matches in all flights; June 20—final matches in all flights and consolation flights and presentation of prizes.

PRIZE LIST:
Medalist—Wilson (free for all) Jacket; winner of each flight—bag boy caddy cart and small trophy; runner up of each flight—one dozen golf balls; consolation winner of each flight—shag bag for practice balls.

The Hereford Ladies Golf Association journeyed to Muleshoe Wednesday at the invitation of the Muleshoe Ladies Golf Association to participate in a luncheon and ladies day meet at the Muleshoe Club. Approximately 18 women made the trip.

Starting Sunday a Sunday Ball sweepstakes will be held each Sunday that no tournaments are being held. Entry fee will be 50 cents with golf balls prizes awarded as to the number of participants. One ball will be given to the lowest gross score each Sunday and other ball prizes to the lowest net scores (gross scoreless handicaps). Please post each 9 holes you shoot good or bad on the handicap sheet in the Pro Shop in order that correct handicaps can be established for each golfer.

Also, please repair the ball divots on the greens where your ball hits. If they are not repaired immediately it makes the greens rough. Some of our players are very negligent about repairing their ball divots.

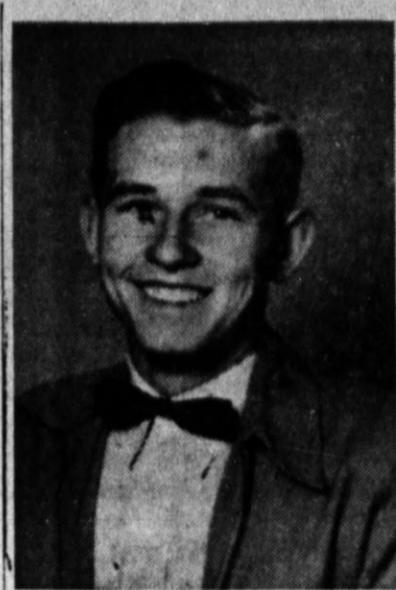

Installation Dinner Closes El Nino Season

An installation dinner at the Ivan Block home closed the season's activities for the El Nino Study Club recently. The tables were decorated with red roses and bouquets of roses were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

Mrs. Darrell Blanton, retiring president, conducted a candle lighting service for new officers. Those who will serve for the coming year are Mrs. Ben Childers, president; Mrs. Jim Bookout, vice president; Mrs. Bill Waldrep, recording secretary; Mrs. T. J. Clay, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Darrell Blanton, parliamentarian; Mrs. Berry Green, historian; and Mrs. Bill Decker, reporter.

A short discussion of next year's work concluded the program for the day.

Those present were Mesdames J. W. Barnett, Darrell Blanton, Doyal Young, Jim Bookout, Ben Childers, T. J. Clay, R. A. Daniel, Bill Decker, O. Z. Golden, Bill Waldrep, John Jacobsen Jr., Ro-

"Son, when you take over, this General Electric motor will still be driving our pump!"

"You see, son, General Electric built this motor to last longer. Look at that cast-iron construction—rain, sleet, or dust can't hurt this motor! We don't have to worry about steel bands rusting away. And no extra protection like a shed is necessary because this motor is fully protected against all kinds of weather."

"Another thing I like about G-E motors is that you don't have to lubricate them for a long time. When you do, there are only two places to take care of—one at the top and one at the bottom—both easy to get at."

"Notice that G-E control—protected against the weather just like the motor. It protects our motor against overloads, undervoltages, and short circuits. And I don't have to worry about you getting hurt because you can't open the panel while the power is on."

"General Electric knows our irrigation problems, and they have the engineering experience to give us the motor and control team that will do the best job. Yes, son, when you take over, profit by my experience. Insist on G-E motors and controls!"

Be sure to ask your local pump dealer for G-E motors and control for your irrigation pumps.

SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM

"SHAKE, Neighbor!"

THERE is virtue in being a good neighbor. The grasp of my extended hand is my contact with my neighbor. My uplifted hand is my contact with God. OUTSIDE THE EXTENDED HAND AND THE UPLIFTED HAND... LIFE HAS NO MEANING. The greatest thing your hands can do is to build a church, and to open the Word, and to clasp them in prayer. When you build a church invite your neighbor, when you open the Word ask him to hear, and when you clasp them in prayer, pray for him.

Eleven persons were killed in highway accidents in the Amarillo district during the first four months of 1954, according to information received from Captain J. W. Blackwell of the Texas Highway Patrol. One hundred and ninety-nine were injured and property damage for April was $57,485.

During April 63 accidents occurred on state and federal highways, nine occurred on farm to market roads and eight on county roads. Principal violations as causative factors in the accidents were speeding, driving while drinking, failure to grant the right-of-way, driving on the wrong side of the road—not in passing, and following too closely. Six Deaths In April Six persons were killed during April of 1953, 53 were injured and $58,400 property damage was done. In March of this year, two persons were killed, 53 were injured and $61,529 property damage was done. Principal violations causing accidents in March were speeding, driving while drinking, driving on the wrong side—not in passing, careless or reckless driving and failure to grant the right-of-way. In carrying out their basic duties, the 28 patrolmen of the Amarillo district, composed of 26 Panhandle counties, investigated 80 accidents, made 412 traffic arrests, 223 speeding arrests and 35 DWI arrests. They gave 1,295 warnings for hazardous violations. These patrolmen worked 3,819 hours in the day time and 2,319 hours at night, and traveled a distance of 68,852 miles, according to Capt. Blackwell.

Boy Scouts Top 300 In County

Scout registrations in the Deaf Smith District have gone over 300 for the first time, and had reached 303 on April 1, it was reported at the monthly District Committee meeting held in Hotel Jim Hill. Included in the total are 172 Cub Scouts, 117 Boy Scouts and 14 Explorer Scouts, according to Bruce L. Miller, organization and extension chairman. Both Cubs and Scouts were busy, with many of them receiving awards. There were 36 Cub awards made, as well as Scout awards which included four Second Class, two First Class, four Star, one Life, one Gold Palm, one Explorer Emergency Service, one Explorer Apprentice, 22 one-year service stars, nine Tenderfoot badges, and 44 merit badges. Leadership training chairman Earnest Langley said that a Scoutmaster's basic training course on Troop and Patrol Hiking was held on April 15, and a Cub Leaders' basic training course is scheduled for May 13. Members of troops 50, 51, 52 and 56 all participated in the recent council field day. All troops in the district made A in compass, camping, cooking and first aid, W. M. Teague, district Scout executive reported for Bert Boomer, camping and activities chairman. However, the area Scouts lost out because of their lack of practice on such tricks as flap-jack flipping. There are still three vacancies in the summer base canoe trip, which will take the boys up into Canada, district Scout executive W. J. Hiatt reported. Dr. A. T. Mims will probably be one of the men who will accompany the boys. Scouters who would like to combine a nice week's vacation with some Scout work can do so by attending a training course at Philmont Ranch, and can even take their families along. Earnest Langley said in a special report to the committee. Cost to Scouters is $3 a day, including room and board, while charges for wives and children are smaller. Further details on the course, and costs of staying at Philmont, can be obtained either from Langley or from Dr. Milton Adams, district commissioner.

Illinois produced 44 million tons of coal in 1953. Although world food production has increased faster than population in recent years, some areas still have less food than before World War II and other areas have been curtailing production because of food surpluses says the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization. Scientists say that death from natural causes is relatively new in an evolutionary sense, the more primitive animals which reproduce by dividing their bodies being immortal except when killed by outside causes.

World's First!

Phillips 66 presents the first All-Weather Motor Oil which has proved it meets the most exacting standard ever established for automobile lubrication...
Mil-0-2104, Supplement 1 level.

The toughest standard ever set up for automobile lubrication is the Mil-0-2104 Supplement 1 test. New Trop-Artic is the first all-weather motor oil to meet the requirements of this test. It is an oil which will serve you winter and summer... an oil so good it can double the life of an automobile engine!

TROP-ARTIC is truly an all-weather oil... S.A.E. 10W through S.A.E. 30. Therefore it flows instantly for easy starting at sub-zero temperatures, and yet it retains the film strength necessary to prevent engine wear under high temperature driving conditions. It isn't just heavy duty. It's double duty.

Any car, in any climate, at any time of the year will perform better with Phillips 66 Trop-Artic. It is a worthy companion product to Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL, the new high performance gasoline recently introduced by Phillips. It pays to stop at the station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.
