Around Town

There will be no fireworks display here July 4, the Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees jointly announced this week. A spokesman for the two organizations said that they could not get a supply of fireworks in time for the annual display.

Hereford produce shippers generally agree that no potatoes will be harvested in this area until around July 4. A spokesman for the shippers made that statement following a meeting at Jack Renner's Potato Shed Thursday night. He said areas further south, around Muleshoe and Lubbock will be harvested a few days earlier, however, because of the recent hailstorms.

Milton Rudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rudd of Hereford, didn't know how good a weather forecaster he was until last week. Rudd, meteorologist with the San Antonio U. S. Weather Bureau, made a forecast of thunder-showers for the Alamo City and then went on top of the weather station to look around. No sooner than he reached the top of the station than he was struck by lightning. Luckily he was not seriously injured.

The Hereford Pink Sox, local semi pro team, will meet the first place Friona team at Friona Sunday. The Sox will be out to avenge an earlier defeat at the hands of John Renner's baseballers.

A 30-minute program over KGNC-TV Sunday will feature Deaf Smith County agriculture. The program can be seen from 2:30 to 3 p. m.

Explosion Breaks Welders Leg At Poarch Brothers

An explosion at Poarch Bros. welding shop, 119 North Lee, Thursday hospitalized a workman, destroyed a newly completed gasoline tank and slightly damaged a late model pickup truck.

Injured in the blast was Johnny Haney, who was working on a tool box which was mounted on the tank when the explosion occurred. He suffered from a broken leg and slight cuts and burns. Witnesses said that a slight amount of gasoline had apparently leaked into the gas tank when the opening was tested to see if the hose fit. Haney did not realize that the tank had any gas in it and was working on the tool box with a weld torch. The rear window of the pickup, on which the tank was mounted, was shattered and the cab slightly pushed in.

Haney was reported in good condition Saturday.

Boys' Ping Pong Finals Sunday

The Boys' division finals of The Hereford Brand Table Tennis Tournament will be held Sunday at City Hall. Donald Zimmerman, pre-tourney favorite, will meet Danny Elliston in a best two of three seven-game series.

Zimmerman defeated Jeff Minton, Charles Seed and Taylor Sims to reach the finals, while Elliston stopped Ronald Zimmerman and Lynn Jones. He drew a bye in the semi-finals. Taylor Sims and Lynn Jones will have battle in a match preceding the championship fracas to decide the third place winner.

A definite date for the finals of the men's division is yet to be set. Pat Sullivan, high school principal, is favored to win. Sullivan had advanced to the semi-finals where he will meet Walter Seed. Marvin Coffey is expected to be the other finalist.

School Bond Vote Set For Tuesday

Voters of the Hereford Rural High School District will decide Tuesday whether or not $325,000 will be available for the construction of a new elementary school. A bond election for that amount of money will be voted on beginning at 8 a. m.

Polling places will be at the courthouse and at Dawn School. The polls open at 8 and close at 7. S. H. Slagle will be election judge in Hereford and Mrs. Bertha Frye at Dawn.

Any resident of the District who owns property that is taxable is eligible to vote.

A telephone campaign Tuesday morning will be conducted by the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Jaycees have arranged free transportation to and from the polls for anyone who does not have a way. A ride to the polls may be had simply by phoning 630, according to Gerald Hale, Jaycee president.

Cost of the proposed new school has been set at $300,000 and School Board members estimate that $25,000 will be needed to equip the building. The District already owns a 10 acre plot on which the school will be constructed if the issue passes.

Contrell and Co. of Pampa have been selected as architects for the proposed new school. They are the same firm that drew plans for the new high school building.

Plans call for building a 16 classroom school with a modern cafeteria that will serve as a gymnasium, cafeteria and auditorium. The cafeteria would feature tables and benches that fold into the walls, solving the problem of quick changeovers from cafeteria to gymnasium.

Floor plans drawn by Contrell show four first grade rooms, with restrooms between them, three second grade rooms, three third grade rooms, and a boys and girls rest room, all on the east wing of the "L" shaped building. The cafeteria would be in the center of the building and on the south wing would be two offices, a bookroom, clinic, two fourth grade classes, two fifth grade classes, two sixth grade classes, boys and girls restrooms, storage room and teacher's lounge. The building's floor space would be 27,100 square feet.

The election was called by District trustees on June 15 after receiving a petition bearing the names of 53 persons, asking that a bond election be held. Erection of the school was also called for last April 26 by the voluntary citizens committee, which recommended the 10 acre plot near airport road as the logical site.

The committee made a survey to find what was needed and declared that the District would need 11 additional classrooms by September.

ber of 1955 and 27 additional classrooms by 1959. The group also reported that through information furnished by the Hereford Rural High School District tax office, we found that the valuation of the property on the 1954 tax rolls of the District will allow an additional bond issue of $419,000 and still remain in the category of good bonds as far as Bond Market is concerned.

FIRE FIGHTERS -- Two volunteer firemen find the smoke coming out of this apartment building window not to their liking, but keep to their posts despite it. Americans Use Big Bats To Take Annual All-Star Game

BY BILL KNOX
The underdog Americans pushed across four insurance runs in the top of the ninth to salvage a 13-11 victory over Debbs Knox's Nationals Friday night in the annual all-star game of the Hereford Softball League.

The Americans, who led by only 9-8 going into the ninth, saved the game with the insurance allies, as the Nationals put across three runs in a desperate rally attempt in the bottom of the ninth. Don Morgan started for Nats but was not himself. He was soundly clouted and was wild. John Winkler, starter and winner for the Americans, was probably the most effective pitcher of the night. He gave up a pair of tallies on four hits and issued two free passes.

The Americans took an early lead on big Leroy Suttle's tremendous grand-slammer and led through the complete game. The Nationals were forced to play "catch-up" throughout the battle, but were meeting with some success at the last. Raymond Dement's booming bat tried in a vain attempt to salvage a win for the Nationals. After replacing Lynn Bybee in the fifth, he lashed out two doubles and a single, personally accounting for five runs batted in.

The Americans took an early lead and hung on to it. One run came across in the first on three straight singles by Bill Howard, Danny Elliston, and Timothy Corbett. Then in the second after two more runs had been scored, Suttle unleashed his tremendous blast.

Tired Fireman, But No Damage

Jim Robinson has been chasing fires for a long time as a member of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department, but Thursday was his first time to discover a fire, race to the fire department to turn in the alarm and then ride back on the fire truck to help put out the blaze.

Results: one tired fireman; no damage.

TEC Will Open Temporary Office

Texas Employment Commission of Amarillo will establish a temporary office in Hereford beginning June 29-30, it was announced today by the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber Manager, Bill Lenderman said Bill King, representative of TEC, will operate the office at Don Little's store, 108 West First those two days. He will also be in Hereford other days if the need is apparent, making announcements before his arrival.

Commissioners To Meet As Equalization Board

Deaf Smith County Commissioners meet Monday as an equalization board at 10 a. m. A spokesman for the commissioners said that everyone interested in attending the meeting is urged to do so.

Local Building Has Not Been Hurt Seriously Despite Cement Shortage

Despite the fact that "an acute cement shortage is present" in the Hereford area, local building has not been badly affected as yet, a spot check revealed this week. According to local lumbermen, the price of cement has not been influenced in any way either.

"Right now I'd say there is a very acute shortage," stated Al Yeager, spokesman for Foxworth-Gabraith Lumber Company. "Until now we haven't felt the shortage so badly, but our reserves have been depleted, and the situation is getting worse."

Lumbermen agree that the main cause for the shortage is government sponsored construction which has priority and receives the cement directly from the factory. There has been no definite sign of a black market in Hereford, but reports are that in San Antonio, Dallas, and Houston the situation is such that the black market is thriving.

Traffic Safety Week Proclaimed

Mayor Henry Sears has proclaimed the week of July 3 as Traffic Safety Week in Hereford. The proclamation was issued last week in cooperation with the Federation of Women's Clubs' telephone crusade for safe driving over the fourth of July weekend.

Sears said, "The Federation of Women's Clubs has achieved outstanding results in recent years by supporting the movement for traffic safety; and specifically have cooperated with the Texas Department of Public Safety. Therefore I call upon all our citizens to join in these worthwhile endeavors."

Work On Lions Club Kiddy Park Underway

Work on the Lions Club Kiddy Park is underway. Visible results began to be seen this week as workmen began putting up a steel fence around the park and Lions Club President Cecil Massey announced that more than $1800 in equipment has been ordered.

GOING AWAY PRESENT -- Dolly Paetzold, vice-president of Chapter II of the F. H. A. Chapters, presents a check as a gift from the F.H.A. club to Jean Chapman. Jean left Friday morning for a tour of interesting points between Hereford and New York before returning to England. Next year's exchange student, Helga Home from Germany, will stay in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Newson and attend Hereford High School for a year. (Staff Photo)

City-Wide Clean Up Drive Will Be Held July 5-8; Cooperation Asked

Definite plans for Hereford's "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up" campaign were made Thursday morning at a meeting of representatives of every club in the city interested in the drive.

Meeting in the ballroom of the Jim Hill Hotel, delegates heard Jimmie Allred, chairman of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Civic Affairs committee, and Bill Lenderman, C.C. manager, give details of the four day campaign.

Delegates voted to go ahead with plans to hold the drive July 5-8. Plans call for picking up refuse in the southwest section of the city July 5, in the northwest section the sixth, in the northeast section the seventh and the southeast section the eighth.

Lions Club members will secure extra trucks and furnish extra manpower. The American Legion and V.F.W. will furnish manpower on all four days and the Business and Professional Women's Club will contact business and industrial firms asking their cooperation in a general clean-up, paint-up, fix-up and modernization of their properties.

Rotary Club members will contact property owners in the southwest section of Hereford asking them to clean up their property during the drive and Kiwanians will do the same in the northwest section, Jaycees the same in the northeast section and Toastmasters the same in the southeast section.

The following clubs were assigned sections and are to call on residential property owners asking them to cooperate: Hereford Garden Club, southwest section; Garden Beautiful Club, north-west section; Bud to Blossom Club, north-east section; and Beta Sigma Phi, southeast section of city.

Three pleas of guilty were heard Friday in County Court on liquor violation charges. The guilty pleas came following the arrest of two men and a woman last week after an investigation by Liquor Control officers and the Sheriff's Department. Melton L. Newman Goes To Germany

FORT RILEY, Kan. — Sgt. Melton L. Newman, son of Troy B. Newman, Route 4, Hereford, is scheduled to be sent to Europe in July as part of Operation Gyroscope, the Army's new unit rotation plan.

Sergeant Newman's unit, the 10th Infantry Division, is the first division to move under the Gyroscope plan. It will replace the 1st Infantry Division which will return to the U. S.

A squad leader in Battery B of the division's 43rd Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion, he entered the Army in March 1952 and completed basic training at Fort Bliss, Tex.

The 22-year-old soldier attended Hereford High School. Next time you buy hamburger, get it ready for cooking in a skillet as soon as you buy it. Make the meat into patties and layer them between squares of waxed paper, then wrap them all in another piece of the paper; refrigerate the patties and use within two days.

You can make your own silver polish by adding ammonia to whitening or powdered chalk until the consistency of a paste. To remove stains, rub the silver with the polish, then wash in warm sudsy water. Rinse well in clear hot water and rub dry with a soft cloth.

When you are making pastry, remember that coarse particles of fat give a flaky crust, while fine particles give an undesirable closely-knit texture. The fat may be cut into the flour with two knives or with a pastry fork or blender.

Want to make fish taste especially good? Roll serving-size pieces in corn meal before frying to give a delicate brown crust. Serve with lemon wedges for good flavor.

Average-size eggs, each weighing about two ounces, should be used in cake baking.

Hilt Davis scored him with a single. Hale fanned, and Albracht walked, putting two men off base. When Timberlake reached first on one of John Kenner's very infrequent errors the sacks were filled. Burdine doubled for two, and the first of three skidding hits off the bat of Raymond Demert chased two more. Taylor Sims scored another with his scratch hit in the infield.

After being blanked in the seventh, they continued their comeback in the eighth, a bit too late. The first two men were retired, but one came across on Demert's second double and a single by Bud Stengel.

Then trailing 13-8 going into the bottom of the ninth they picked up three tallies—not enough to prolong the game. With one out, Duane Albracht singled, and Timberlake doubled. Dunnam walked to load the sacks, and Burdine scored one with a single. Raymond Demert accounted for the other two with a blazing single.

Q. How can I remove the dye from a latex bathing suit and re-dye it?
A. To remove the dye it would be necessary to boil the suit with a dye remover, which would not be practicable as the boiling would probably cause the elastic to stretch out of shape.
Q. How can I soften a sponge that hardened from not being used?
A. Cover with cold water, to which has been added teaspoon of borax. Then boil for about one minute. Remove the sponge, rub dry borax into it, and then rinse in cold water.
Q. How can I prevent corn from getting tough?
A. Do not add salt to the water in which green corn is cooked, because it toughens the kernels.
Q. How can I keep candles clean?
A. Light-colored decorative candles will not soil easily if given a coat of clear shellac before using them. Wipe them with a clean camp cloth when they do get soiled.
Q. How can I prevent breaking of bottles when packing them?
A. Breakage can often be prevented if a rubber band, about a quarter inch or half inch wide, is placed around each bottle near the top, another near the bottom.
Q. How can I clean marble?
A. Take 2 parts of common soda, 1 part of pumice stone, and 1 part of powdered chalk. Sift it through a fine sieve and mix with cold water to a paste. Rub the marble thoroughly with this mixture and all stains will quickly disappear. Then rinse and wash with hot water and soap.

Tired of serving the same old salad? Then try this combination: sliced oranges, onion rings and romaine. Or serve this one: cooked fresh or canned green asparagus in pimiento rings. Both these salads benefit from a liberal dousing of a well-seasoned French dressing.

When you are broiling lean steak, brush it with olive oil and sprinkle it with lemon juice.
Curry powder is a combination of herbs and spices. Turmeric, coriander, cumin, ginger, garlic, chili and peppercorns usually go into it. It is delicious sprinkled over fish or chicken that is to be broiled.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I get rid of moths?
A. Fill several wide-mouthed jars or bottles with sea salt and saturate it with oil of cedar. Place where clothing is stored. Or, pour a little turpentine in the corners of the closets, or use blotting paper which has been soaked with turpentine.

Q. How can I remove old wall paper?
A. By using a heaping tablespoonful of saltpeter to a gallon of hot water and applying freely with a flat brush. Keep the water hot and the paper can be pulled off easily.

Q. How can I clean discolored aluminum?
A. Aluminum vessels that have become discolored can be cleaned by rubbing with a cloth dipped in lemon juice. Rinse in warm water.

Q. How can I remove the dye from a latex bathing suit and re-dye it?
A. To remove the dye it would be necessary to boil the suit with a dye remover, which would not be practicable as the boiling would probably cause the elastic to stretch out of shape.
Q. How can I soften a sponge that hardened from not being used?
A. Cover with cold water, to which has been added teaspoon of borax. Then boil for about one minute. Remove the sponge, rub dry borax into it, and then rinse in cold water.
Q. How can I prevent corn from getting tough?
A. Do not add salt to the water in which green corn is cooked, because it toughens the kernels.
Q. How can I keep candles clean?
A. Light-colored decorative candles will not soil easily if given a coat of clear shellac before using them. Wipe them with a clean camp cloth when they do get soiled.
Q. How can I prevent breaking of bottles when packing them?
A. Breakage can often be prevented if a rubber band, about a quarter inch or half inch wide, is placed around each bottle near the top, another near the bottom.
Q. How can I clean marble?
A. Take 2 parts of common soda, 1 part of pumice stone, and 1 part of powdered chalk. Sift it through a fine sieve and mix with cold water to a paste. Rub the marble thoroughly with this mixture and all stains will quickly disappear. Then rinse and wash with hot water and soap.

Meanwhile, I hope they don't run me out of town. If they do, I will head for Kearney or Grand Island, Neb. Those two towns come nearer being like the Hereford country than any place I have seen. Vern Hilton used to live there, though, and he says this country is better. I believe him. I sure do.

I guess most people like their home towns best—or they would probably live somewhere else. When it comes to Hereford, though I am maybe a little bit over-sold. Besides, the more places I go and the more towns I see, the better I like Hereford.

Between here and Galveston a few weeks back I got really worried. I just couldn't figure out how in the world anyone with average intelligence would want to live down state, when it didn't cost any more to live right here in Hereford. Since I got back I have still been pondering over the question. Finally, I decided maybe I had inhaled so much sand and dust that I just naturally liked the Panhandle Plains. In addition, quite a few Hereford merchants have been complaining because things are quiet right now and, I have to admit, our own business is a little bit slow. We got caught up Wednesday morning, so Melvin Young and I hopped into the car and took quite a jaunt around on the South Plains country.

The further we went, the more homesick I got. Dimmitt and Friona were the best areas I saw although I am sure that some folks in the other towns may disagree. To me, Brownfield was the worst. However, I will hasten to admit that this may be due to the fact that they have constructed a loop, which sort of reminds one of an E-Way.

The "red soil" starts between Springlake and Littlefield, and it continues right on through Levelland and Brownfield. Furthermore, all three towns have a "fair stand" of oil wells. Littlefield was by far the busiest place we hit—but I will still take Hereford. We came back through Muleshoe, which is a growing place, and this was the one community which seems to have some fair stands of cotton. It really does look good. Most of the other areas have been marked with heavy rains and water is still standing in the fields. Several people told us that they have re-planted so many times that there is a shortage of cotton seed.

WE DIDN'T GO BY BOVINA. But I understand that this community is also booming. They are starting their own newspaper there with the first issue scheduled for next week. It will be known as the "Bovina Blade," and Ralph Morton will be publisher. The printing, I understand, will be handled in Farwell until other arrangements can be made.

All of these places have irrigation. The South Plains, however, seems to go in strong for sprinkler systems. You see them everywhere from Littlefield, through Levelland and around Brownfield. This, I presume, is possibly due to the texture of soil in the area. Sometimes, you see oil wells and irrigation wells within a block of each other. I couldn't help but think that perhaps the old boys were drawing heavily from underground resources when we passed such locations.

According to Jay Boston, Tom Robinson, and Louis Woodford this could be the answer to what an irrigation farmer needs in view of the Republican administration. It would be just my luck, though, for things to get fouled up and, the first thing I knew, my oil wells would be pumping water — while the irrigation wells would go dry.

WE TALKED WITH THE NEWSPAPER folks in most of these towns. Jerry Stolz, former Brand news editor, and I guess it is the difference in basic economy, but I was impressed with the fact that the smaller towns in the South Plains irrigation belt are not growing like those in our own section. Dimmitt, Bovina, Friona and Muleshoe are on the march. In contrast, Sudan, Amberst and Springlake are growing some, but I would say nothing to compare with those first mentioned.

It was nice to get around and see what our neighbors are doing — but the closer we got to Hereford, the better I liked the country. And, generally speaking, I might have as well stayed at home. I still can't figure out why anyone would want to live anywhere except Hereford. If you can furnish me with a good, simple, logical answer, it will sure be appreciated.

Beauty At Home

By LYNN CARTER

Q. How should a girl with a low forehead wear her hair?
 A. Keep the top front of the hair off the forehead. Sweep that part of the hair up. If you like bangs, wear them high, and don't let them suggest any more than a slight fringe at the hairline.
 Q. What is a good, quick beauty mask I can use at home?

egg over face and throat, and allow to remain for about 10 minutes. Then remove with warm water.
 Q. How can acne or pimples be discouraged from appearing on my face?
 A. Scrub the susceptible areas often. Try leaving a thick coating of suds on until dry, then rinse of. Calamine lotion helps, too. Drink lots of water, eat fresh fruits and vegetables, no sweets, and get extra doses of fresh air and exercise.
 Q. How can I exercise for a firmer bustline?

 A. Lie on stomach on floor. Bend elbows so that palms are flat on floor just above shoulders. Push body up with hands, knees straight, return to stomach, and repeat.
 Q. What is a hint for adding gloss to my hair?
 A. Try adding the beaten white of an egg to your regular shampoo.
 Q. How does one make a beauty mask with almond meal?
 A. For a dry skin, mix it with oil and for oily skin, mix it with an astringent. A few drops of peroxide makes it a bleach.
 Q. What can I do for my hands, which are rather veiny?
 A. Try washing them with good, pure soap and water, and applying some rich hand cream, holding the hands high in the air and stroking down toward the wrists to encourage the flow of blood away from the hands.
 Q. My hair is soft and silky. It A. Keep this type of hair short dressed. What can I do about this?
 A. Keep this type off hair short and improve its resilience by giving it at least a hundred strokes with a brush daily. This will cause the hair to thrive and remain set much longer.
 Q. Is it smart to put some rouge on the chin?

A. Only if you have a long chin. A touch of rouge at the very bottom of the chin will shorten it and counteract a jutted-out look.
 Q. What can I do about a ragged cuticle on my fingernails?
 A. Dip some gauze strips into manure oil, wrap these around the fingertips, and leave on for about 15 minutes. Then brush with warm suds and apply cuticle remover for a minute or two. Brush this off, and any dead cuticle will come with it. The new cuticle will be softer.

Household Tips

When whole-kernel corn is canned, the corn kernels are cut close to the cob. But when corn is the "creamstyle," the top of the kernels are cut off and the remaining portion is scraped from the cob. Whole-kernel corn is good in pancakes and muffins, soups and salads. Creamstyle corn is fine also for soup and in many casserole dishes. Both styles of corn are good heated and served "as is."
 Ever combine canned tomatoes with snap beans or green lima beans? Surprisingly enough, they are also delicious combined with buttered carrots.

When you are packing sandwiches for the lunchbox, be sure to wrap each one separately. If you are including a main-course sandwich, as well as a sweet one, put the latter on the bottom. Main-course sandwiches are good made from eggs, meat, cheese or fish. Sweet sandwiches may be made from peanut butter and honey, or cream cheese mixed with dates, drained crushed pineapple, chopped raisins or figs. A little grated lemon rind added to the cream-cheese mixture adds piquant flavor.

Ever dice avocado and mix it with cut-up fruit for a dessert? Dress it with a combination of orange or pineapple juice, honey and lemon juice.

Next time you prepare chili con carne, try stirring a little grated cheese into it just before serving. Accompany the chili con carne with steamed rice or cooked spaghetti or noodles.

A finely crumbled shredded wheat biscuit, mixed with melted butter or margarine, makes a fine topping for broiled tomatoes. You can season the shredded wheat crumbs with a little basil, if you like, since basil always benefits tomatoes.

add to the soup.

Here's a delicious dinner menu: soup? Brown and cook tiny ham burger balls in a little fat, then serve roast loin of pork with mashed potatoes and asparagus, and accompany with a molded salad of lemon gelatin, crushed pineapple and cucumber.

Line the kitchen wastepaper basket with clean newspaper each time it is emptied. If this is done the ice cream boxes and greasy meat papers will not spoil the basket.

Bay rum can be made by mixing one dram oil of bay, 8 ounces of alcohol, 8 ounces of water. Then filter it through Magnesia.

When roasting, if the gas burner is turned off the oven about 10 minutes before the roast is done, there will be sufficient heat to finish the roasting and it will also save considerable fuel.

Removing Odors
Dried orange peel burned on a pie pan or tin shovel, over a low gas flame or electric plate, will quickly remove a disagreeable odor from the room.

The sharpening stone will always give good service if washed after each time it is used.

Foot Comfort
One cannot expect foot comfort if several pairs of shoes are used alternately, with different height heels. The heels of all the shoes should have the same height as nearly as possible.

The Clothes Closet

Leave the clothes closet door open on a cool, airy night during the summer. It will take away the stuffy, close smell the closet gets during the hot weather.

Red Ants

Place a saucer containing a little paregoric near the haunts of red ants, and they will soon disappear.

Ross Lomenick Honored On Silver Anniversary

More than 100 relatives and friends attended an open house given to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lomenick on their silver wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at their home.

Guests for the surprise affair included the couple's three children, Mrs. Lomenick, Neal of Amarillo, Mr. Melvin Lomenick, son from Fort Ord, Calif., and a day vacation.

A blue table cloth with crocheted lace complemented an arrangement of carnations and phlox, glistening with silver, and featuring a silver "25" rising from a pedestal, set the anniversary table. The three-tiered anniversary cake was topped with silver wedding bells.

Connie Hopson and Jerry Ray served punch and NoDean Bowers and Wanda Kirksey were in charge of serving the cake. Donald Edwards presided at the guest list.

Receiving the guests with their gifts were the three children, Lomenick's sister, Miss Georjolliman of Caney, Okla., and another, Mrs. Joan Lomenick.

Rose Bridges and James Brownlow Exchange Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Val Mathes have announced the recent marriage of their daughter, Rose Mathes Bridges, to James Brownlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Brownlow.

Marriage vows were exchanged in the Clovis, N. M., Church of Christ with Minister Mennus performing the ceremony. Attendants were Glenda Robbins and Don McNece.

Mrs. Brownlow chose an orchid cotton frock for her wedding, worn with a small white hat and white accessories. The dress was fashioned in princess style with short sleeves and low neckline.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brownlow attended Hereford High School and at the time of her marriage she was assistant in the office of Dr. J. W. Barnett, dentist.

Mr. Brownlow is engaged in carpentering and contracting. They are now making their home at 211 Grand Ave.

(tend). Following the wedding they went to Hobart, Okla., returning to Caney after seven years to make their home.

They came to Hereford in 1937 and have made their home here since that time except for a few months spent in Amarillo.

He has been a farmer most of his life and they now operate a farm in south Hereford. Both are interested in making things grow. His interest lies in grains and seeds and here in flowers. They always have a vegetable garden, but her iris beds come first and she raises hundreds of them, almost in every color. Both are television fans and like to share their television enjoyment with friends and neighbors.

She is a member of the Baptist Church and is active in Rebekah Lodge activities.

Among those present Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beckham of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Beckham and children of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Allright of Clovis, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick and children of Geotobo, Okla., Miss Georgia Holliman of Caney, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Back Yard Given Emphasis In Veigel Landscape Plans

Time was when there were no back yard gardens, except a plot where vegetables were grown and a space for wash tubs on wall space to hang them.

Today the back yard can be beautiful and attractive as well as useful, and "The Yard of the Month" series being sponsored by the Hereford Garden Club, calls attention to the many beautiful yards now in existence all over Hereford and the magic of trees, shrubs and grass and other plants in creating landscape designs as a symbol of good and gracious living.

There is an old adage, "A good gardener makes a good neighbor," which might be interpreted to mean that if you love flowers and plants you also love people. Members of the Hereford Garden Club committee who make the selection of the yard each month, say that they find people becoming more and more conscious that a definite landscape design can work wonders in the general appearance of the home premise.

Choice of the yard each month emphasizes the overall plan, rather than individual plantings, although they may be very beautiful in themselves. The committee considers three factors; that the front yard of a home belongs to traffic, as does the street, and should feature surrounding trees and shrubs, the service area, and the living area, perhaps in the rear of the home grounds, and this should allow for privacy, comfort and enjoyment of whatever family and friends may desire.

The May Yard of the Month gave an example of what the love of gardening over a period of years can accomplish. The June yard was selected as an example of what the same love of gardening can do for the new home owner.

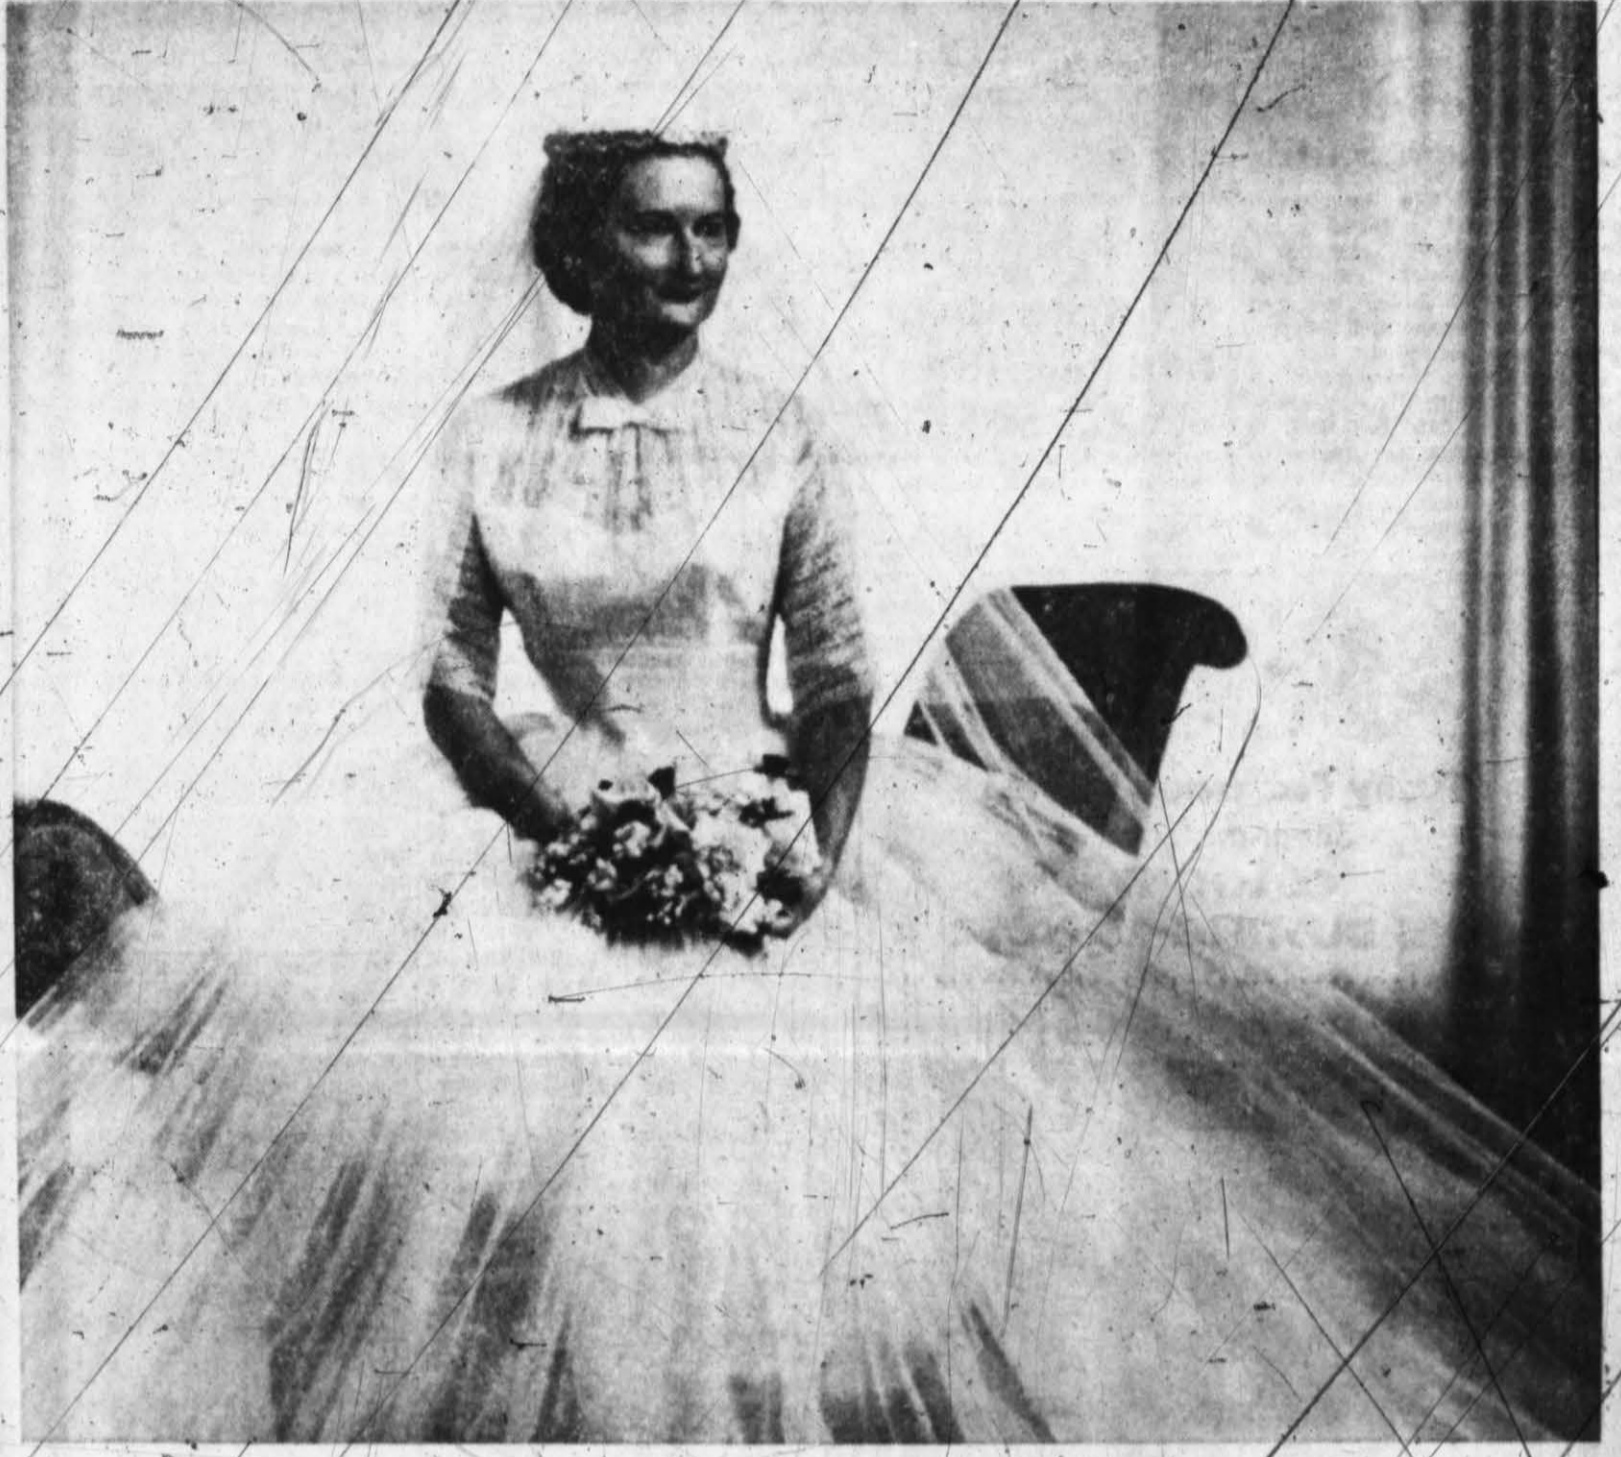

The Robert Veigel home was chosen to represent the June yard of the Month. The home shows good landscape design, in that the public area is most attractive, its service area adequate and the living area has been planned as a place the family can share.

The committee found excellent selection of materials with the old and tried materials sharp, space with the very newest in the horticultural world.

First the lawn was planted in well prepared soil, with care taken to select good seed. Then the plant material was chosen for adaptability, size, growth habits and color.

On the southeast exposure (the front yard) the lovely blending of reds derived from the barberry against the red brick, accented with a wide variety of pansies which present a gorgeous array when in full bloom, with evergreens tying house and grounds together. This makes a wonderful view from the windows of the den and living room.

Very noticeable is the fact that the grounds have not been overplanted. It is very easy to overplant. (Continued on Page 2)

MRS. JAMES LACKEY

Patricia Hardwick, James Lackey United In Marriage

One of the prettiest of June weddings was that held yesterday evening in the First Presbyterian Church when Miss Patricia Hardwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Hardwick, became the bride of James Lackey, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lackey of Lubbock.

Rev. Russell Winger, pastor, read the double ring ceremony at 5 p.m. as the couple and their attendants stood before the altar arranged with background of emerald and jade trees, bouquets of white gladioli and large white daisies. The seven-branched candelabra at either side held flame-tipped wedding tapers to reflect the colorful costumes of the bride's attendants in silhouette. A flower-decked screen backed the nuptial space.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Clay Ridgway, organist, and Mrs. M. L. Simpson, Jr., vocalist. Mrs. Ridgway played a concert of nuptial melodies as the guests were arriving and accompanied Mrs. Simpson who sang "Because (D'Hardelot) and Greig's 'I Love Thee'." The organist also played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

Mrs. Oliver Streu, now of San Diego, Calif., was her sister's matron of honor, and the bride's niece, little Marsha Lynn Hardwick, served as flower girl. Mrs. Streu wore a dress identical to that worn by the bride in ice blue featuring ballerina length. She wore a matching lace hat trimmed in pearls and sequin and carried a nose-gav type bouquet of yellow daisies.

The flower girl's dress matched the honor matron's and she wore a band of flowers in her hair. Her blue net petal basket was filled with daisy and delphinium blossoms.

Bride Wears White Lace-net
The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of imported French lace and nylon net over taffeta. The lace bodice was designed with petal collar finished with a small bow in front, and three-quarter length sleeves. Wide bands of lace accentuated the tiered voluminous skirt that drifted to a cathedral train in the back. For sentimental reasons she carried a face handkerchief, a gift from her mother, and ear rings from Japan, given to her by her sister. Her finger tip veil of illusion, extended longer in the back to match the sweep of the train, was attached to a lace and net cap with open crown, encrusted with seed pearls and sequin. The bridal bouquet was a nosegay of white bridal roses and stephanotis.

Bob Bowers of Lubbock served as best man and groomsmen and ushers were Bill Hardwick, Ted Hardwick of Rowell, N. M., Oliver Streu of San Diego, Calif., Howard Langford of Lubbock and Ellis Earle of Claude.

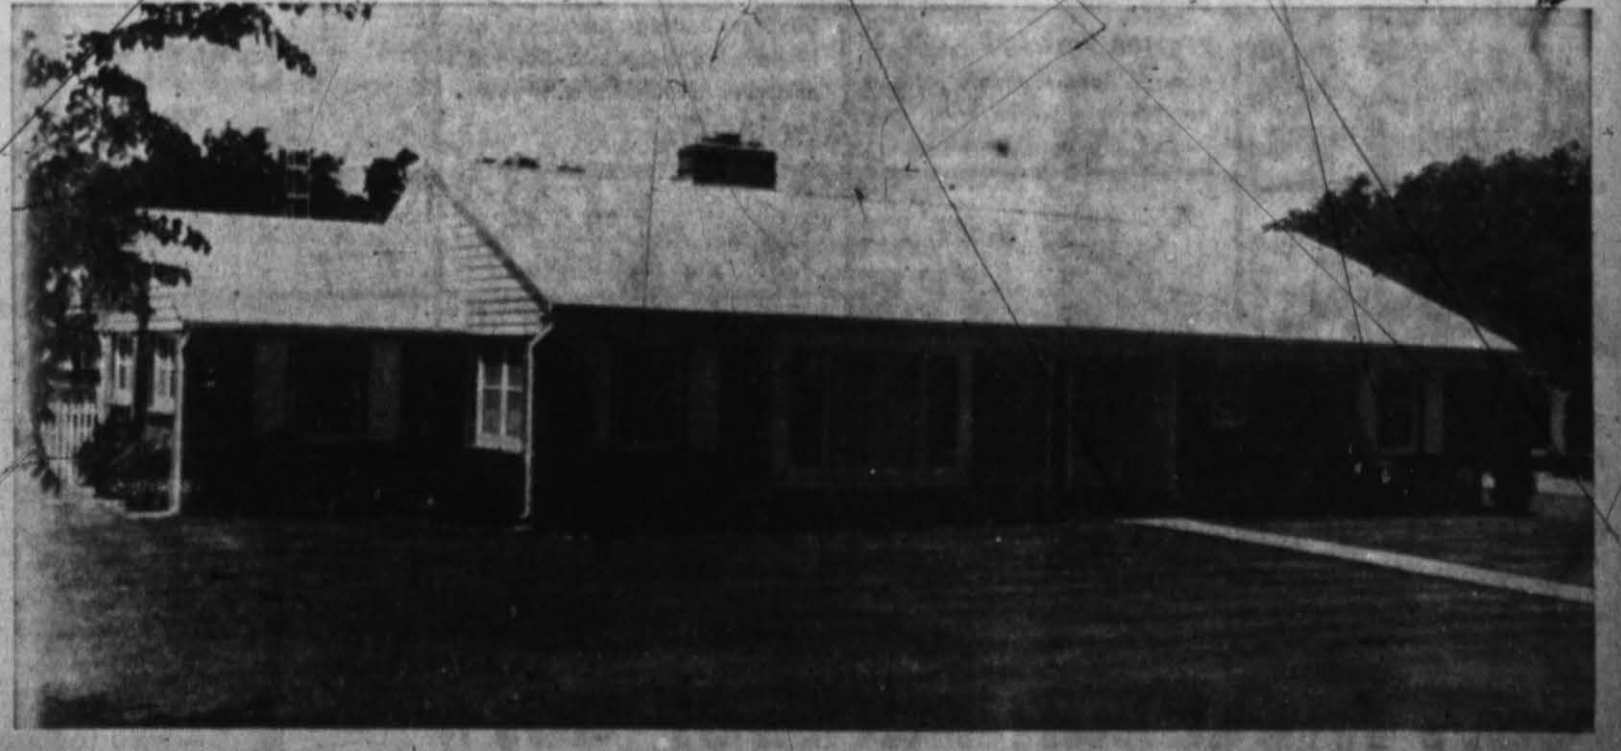

The bride's mother wore a gray cotton sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Reception in Garden
Following the wedding the bride's parents were hosts at a reception held in the garden at the Hardwick home. The lovely flower garden and yard were enhanced with cut flowers and the bride's table was laid in white organdy over blue featuring arrangements of daisies, roses and delphinium. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with dainty wedding bells and decorated with sugar spun flowerlets in ice blue. Mrs. Bill Hardwick and Mrs. Ted Hardwick of Rowell, N. M., presided.

The parent's table was laid with an organdy cloth in white and gray. Ice-blue flowers formed the centerpiece. Serving coffee and sandwiches were Mrs. Wilbur Johnson and Miss Jean Arnot of Clovis, and Mrs. Bob Bowers of Lubbock. Miss Gustena Johnson of Clovis, cousin of the bride, secured names for the bride's book. (Continued on Page 2)

BACK YARD PRIVACY -- Here in the Veigel back yard a found privacy and comfort for family and friends. Tall shrubs at the back provide shade and background and vigorous climbing roses give a bright welcome to all who pass this way. Dorothy the Veigel's 19-year-old daughter measures by height to the tallest rose.

GOOD TASTE--The charm of this carefully landscaped home suggests comfort and good taste on the inside. Note the well balanced shrubs and flower beds that tie the structure to the ground. (Staff Photo)

Local Firm Loser In Damage Suit

A Bristow, Okla., man was awarded $27,000 in damages last week by a Federal Court jury in Amarillo. The jury's verdict, read by Judge Joe B. Dooley, was rendered against Sharp and Edwards Motor Co., of Hereford.

Damages were ordered paid to Brice C. Coleman, who had claimed $108,000 in damages resulting from an accident last August involving a Sharp and Edwards motor convoy truck. The accident in which Coleman's 19 year-old wife, Clara, received fatal injuries occurred on Highway 98 west of Albuquerque.

The car in which the Colemans were traveling crashed into the rear of the truck. Coleman was also injured.

Rebekahs Hold Initiation Rite

Initiation ceremonies for Mrs. Ada Vaigha were conducted by the Rebekah Lodge at a meeting held at the IOOF Hall Tuesday night.

Those making up the initiation team were Mesdames Ursale Jacobson, Leo's Turner, Glessie Shelton, Lucile Olson, Alta Davis, Lydia Hopson, Cora Lee Loving, Mildred Renfro, Leta Kaul, Charlotte Calvert, Robert Combs, Edna Draper, Ethel Fridley, Earline Manning, Verne Sowell, Catherine Sheppard, Irene Merritt, and Bobby Meacham.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee including Mesdames Charlotte Calvert, Cora Lee Loving, Ruby Smith and Catherine Sheppard.

Back Yard....

plant in a desire to make a quick showing.

The much needed rain and the gardener seem to have teamed up to make the June yard a thing of beauty. The green thumb has been worked overtime to bring a wealth of bloom in roses, peonies, pansies, larkspur and iris. In the Veigel back yard a great abundance of bloom is found. The beauty of the blossoms is enhanced by the lush green lawn and background of attractive fences.

The back yard is the kind of place where you want to be after a long day's work. The three year old Peace climbing rose reached a new peak of loveliness, topping the picket fence this spring. Vogue, Ma Perkins, Marinda, Chrysler, Imperial, Crimson Glory and Fashion roses present an array of sheer beauty, and share their fragrance with all who enter the garden.

Mrs. Veigel is interested in many things beside her yard and flower garden. She is president of the Garden Beautiful Club, a past president of the Woman's Council of the First Christian Church and works in many departments of the church. She is also active in civic affairs and does some ceramic art work.

"Pride in my home place is probably the big reason for my gardening efforts, but I love to make beautiful things and make beautiful flowers grow. To me gardening is a wonderful hobby," Mrs. Veigel commented.

At The Movies

"BRIGADOON"

"Brigadoon," the enchanting story of a Scottish village rising out of the Highland mists one day in each century one of the all-time favorites of the American musical stage, has been transferred to the CinemaScope screen by M-G-M following two-and-a-half years of "the most painstaking preparation ever to precede a Hollywood musical film." Starring Gene Kelly, Van Johnson and Cyd Charisse, it shows Wednesday and Thursday at the Star Theatre.

"HIGH AND THE MIGHTY"

"The High and the Mighty" in CinemaScope and Warner-Color, which shows Sunday and Monday at the Tower Drive-In, stars John Wayne at the head of the 22-star name-cast in the Wayne-Fellows production. The other members of the cast include Doc Avedon, Claire Trevor, Araine Day, Robert Stack, Jan Sterling, Paul Harris,

Robert Newton and David Brian and many more. The dramatic story takes place within a period of 12 hours. The crew and passengers are introduced as they prepare to board a plane in Honolulu. Halfway through the flight, an emergency arises which unmarks the emotions and true character of the passengers and the crew.

"APACHE"

The violent and turbulent drama, the sweep of adventure and the primitive, passionate love of an Indian girl for her warrior beloved, show in the Technicolor production of "Apache". Showing on Wednesday and Thursday at the Tower Drive In, "Apache" brings us the long-forgotten saga of Massia, last of the Apaches and as fierce and savage as the wild western mountains which begot him. With catlike grace and flame-like fury, Burt Lancaster reincarnates the brave who single-handed kept a whole United States Army at bay. Twice captured and claimed, he escaped on both occasions and took to the mountains, his only ally being the pretty, fanatically devoted Indian maiden, Nallie, portrayed by Jean Peters.

Jimmy Pingleton, Don Hill, and Dennis Carman were guests in the Burke Inman home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hampton were visitors in the R. E. Hargis home over the weekend.

Piggly Wiggly Downs KC's To Regain Half Game Lead

By BILL KNOX
Piggly Wiggly regained their one game lead by lengthening the rights of Columbus' loss streak in a 9-2 triumph over the KC's Sunday night. Summerfield owed no mercy on murdering Cooper's Market 23-3 to lengthen their fourth-place lead to one full in the other game of the night. The game started out to be a close affair, and it looked as if the KC's might have returned to their old form. But the three-hit pitching of Don Morgan throttled the Knights, as he Pigs scored consistently in every inning but the first. Two of the three hits off Morgan came in the first. One was a run-producing double by Bud Stengel, the other a wasted single off the bat of Ronny Kersien. A line single into left field by Arnold Fangman in the top of the second was the last taste of a hit by the failed to finish in his last two starts, went the distance for the Knights. Kenny Walterscheid, who had KC's. He gave up only three free passes in the complete game, not equivalent to the total given up in the first inning of his last previous start. However, Morgan was even more effective. He gave walking papers to only one man during his entire seven-inning stint. The base on balls was issued to Duane Albracht. Morgan whiffed nine KC's in picking up his sixth victory of the season compared to two losses. Walterscheid's record now stands at 5-3, the three losses being in his last three starts. He won five before being charged with a loss. The Knights put together their only runs of the game in the first. Albracht's smash was off Morgan's glove to lead off the game, and Bud Stengel scored him with a double after Fangman and Peters had fanned. When Bud Stengel received life on yep, Peters' error, brother Bud raced in with a tally. But the KC's didn't scratch again. After Fangman's hit in the second they never did even threaten mildly. Twice Morgan retired the side on strikeouts alone, and three times he picked up a duo of whiffs.

Piggly Wiggly patiently spread their runs out over six innings. Their marker in the second came on a triple by big Tim Corbett and a sacrifice fly by Marshall Wil-a double by pitcher Don Morgan following Wilson's fly were wasted. Then the Pigs tied the count in the third on dependable Taylor Sims' double and a clutch single by Raymond Lueb. Tim Corbett's second triple of the game and another sacrifice fly by Marshall Wilson put Piggly Wiggly out in front to stay in the contest.

But the Pigs weren't satisfied with their small and precarious one-run lead. They chased four more runs in the fifth. Tim Corbett accounted for all by continuing his personal batting war with Leading 7-2 Piggly Wiggly addition.

Leading 7-2 Piggly Wiggly added two more insurance markers by the last of the sixth. Back to back doubles by Don McNeese and Taylor Sims sent one across, and Sims scored in on Raymond Dement's single.

Grandma Hasn't A Leg To Stand On

A few days ago a California grandmother filed suit for $150,000 against her 4-year-old grandson, nicknamed "The Terror" because of the zest with which he portrays Superman, Dick Tracy and - or Davy Crockett. The mother of the youngster points out, however, that there are no hard feelings involved, since the case is covered by insurance.

The case, all in all, brings several points to the average mind. What are grandparents for, anyway, if they can't put up with the kids they help to coddle and spoil? The grandmother was probably the first one who ever gave the little angel a comic book; she probably told him stories of how his own father used to climb the big cottonwood tree back in Illinois and said, "Isn't he cute," when the boy kicked someone else. She probably protested the loudest when father started to paddle the "sweet child" or if mother let his little halo get a bit out of line.

Looking Back At 45th Legislature

Texas Attorney General John Ben Sheppard, speaking before the Texas Press Association convention in Galveston Friday, gave a capsule report on the work of the recently adjourned 54th Legislature, and came up with this general observation:

"All in all, we've got to hand it to the members of the Legislature. We expect those men and women to come to Austin and pass laws for 8 1/2 million Texans, most of whom can be mighty cantankerous, if they don't like the laws that are passed.

"Our lawmakers have to take more criticism than the weatherman, resist more pressure than a judge at a beauty contest, and face greater temptations than a surgeon operating on his own mother-in-law. They carry heavy responsibilities and endure a work load that would send an elephant to a rest home.

"To be a GOOD legislator you've got to have the patience of Job and the courage of David, and if you make one mistake a thousand critics will stand up and say you've got a rock in your head, like Goliath."

Somehow, we agree with Sheppard that most Texans simply take the work of their legislators with a grain of salt, condemn it, and try to forget it. Now, it can be pointed out that the 54th will not go down in history as the greatest Texas has had—in fact, most observers are calling it only "fair to average." Here are some statistics about the Legislature, as passed on by the Attorney General:

In most respects the 54th was "statistically average." It lasted 148 days—the average session lasts 146. The average number of bills passed is 521; this one passed 551. In an average session, 1,429 bills are introduced; in 1955 there were 1,432 introduced.

The Houston Chronicle recently pointed out that as a whole, the Legislature did a favorable job. A taxation problem was temporarily worked out—but it will crop up again at the next session. And the water problem wasn't even touched. It may take a special session for this one—and if so most Texans would endorse it because water is certainly the number one problem in the Lone Star State.

Most Grandmothers (who freely hand out 25-cent pieces to their grandchildren are the same mothers who made their daughters sweep the kitchen, wipe the dishes and gather garden produce before the kids got even a thin dime. Some of them will tell you they like to spoil the kids, chiefly because someone else has to straighten them out when they get back home.

We hope the insurance company has to pay off the $150,000, though, because any company with little enough sense to insure a kid against a situation of this type shouldn't be in business in the first place, and a nice size claim might teach them a valuable lesson.

It reminds me of what dad used to say when I came back from grandmother's house:

"This hurts me more than it does you—but it's something we both have to face."

'Kiddie Park' Is Wonderful Idea

One of the best ideas we have heard recently is the proposed "kiddie park", sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club as an improvement to Hereford's city operated Dameron Park.

Plans call for a complete midget-scale recreation center designed to handle children up to six years of age. In addition to the usual sand boxes and grounds, the "kiddie park" will also include midget swings, slides, and other special playground equipment. Even a miniature water fountain will be installed, and the area will be separated by a special fence from other portions of the park.

The improvement seems especially timely in view of the fact that most parents generally use the children as an excuse to visit the park, following much the same line as their excuse for going to the circus. Yet, most communities plan their parks and playgrounds for the older children and for the adults.

As we have often pointed out, Hereford is indeed fortunate in the location and expanse of Dameron Park. It features improvements and accessibility seldom found in cities of less than 100,000 population. Making the park more attractive is well worthwhile and making it more attractive to the small-fry can easily place it in the position of being the outstanding community park of the Panhandle.

The Lions Club, despite its frequent and did itself on this project. Accomplishments sometimes deserved criticism, really outdid itself on this project. Accomplishments of this type are the basic functions which really make a civic club worthwhile to a community. The idea is a wonderful one, to begin with; the push and ability to execute the idea is far above the average. All in all, it is such accomplishments which have made the Hereford Lions club an outstanding club in the district and international organization.

Clean-Up Drive Is Slated July 5-8

There is no substitute for cleanliness. Currently, a city-wide clean-up drive is scheduled for July 5-8, inclusive. It is a good thing for the community and, even more important, it is a super colossal deal for the individual.

During the past two months there has been a general hue and cry for available service to haul away excess trash, tree limbs and other debris too large for the garbage barrels. People who would willingly pay for the service have encountered trouble in locating interested truckers. The situation became so acute, in fact, that the Chamber of Commerce sponsored a meeting of club representatives and mapped out plans for the clean-up drive.

The result is that persons who will take the trouble to clean their premises and stick their trash neatly in the alley will not only get it hauled -- but will receive the service without charge.

In addition to average pride in appearance, add the protection from flies, polio, and other diseases -- and the average citizen has a deal that cannot be beat. For this reason, citizens should view the annual clean-up drive as an opportunity, and definitely should take advantage of the chance to help themselves.

"Busy day tomorrow — don't want anything to delay me."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Citizens Feel Bond Issue Should Pass; Vote Urged

Qualified voters of the Hereford Rural High School District go to the polls Tuesday to vote on a $325,000 elementary bond issue. Are you in favor of or opposed to the issue?

DR. H. A. CAVNESS

I am definitely in favor of the bond issue and believe it should be taken care of as soon as possible. Also I believe everyone should go to the polls to vote.

HARRY CAYLER

I am in favor of it as we need more room and facilities to educate the children. I believe it is the most important thing since well educated children make a good nation.

MRS. GEORGE S. HEARD

Since our grade schools are crowded already and will become more so, I believe we should take steps to take care of the need as it will increase as the town grows.

ROGER R. CORBETT

Besides helping the children, it will also help the town, since one of the first things people ask about when they plan to move is the schools. I believe we need it because of the crowded condition in the schools now.

MRS. JACK NICHOLS

We should be proud that we need to build more school room because that shows how Hereford is growing.

LESTER GALLEY

Even though I have no children in school, I believe we really need it since it is so important to the children.

MRS. C. F. MOORE

I am in favor of it as our town is growing and needs more school facilities. I also believe that everybody should go to the polls and vote the way they believe.

MRS. ED JESKO

I believe Hereford really needs the school space and everybody should be willing to help pay for it as it is necessary to have it.

'Tater Peelin's' by Roberta Campbell

No such good luck folks. Just because we sold a little acreage doesn't mean you are going to be fortunate enough to get rid of us. We like Hereford better than any place we know and 60 acres is still enough for us to find all the work we are able to do by the time we get it all watered and weeded. We still like farming but we don't want to get foun'ered on it. As long as we could grow one crop it wasn't a great deal of trouble to keep the weeds down but with only 26 acres of wheat and nine acres of cotton it is hardly worth hitching up the tractor for. A 10 foot oneway gets pretty frustrated trying to turn around in a patch like that.

There has been one advantage however, because it has given Buster a chance to learn to grow different things without making a very big job of any of it. Now he can plow from the end of Tennessee Ernie Ford time to noon. Then after noon he can work without interruption until the Rin Tin Tin show. When he gets into something that requires a hard day's work maybe they will have tractors equipped with color television and something you can steer without looking down the row ahead.

Well, we gave the bees away but not before we got sting. We will be so glad to see them go that we are not going to be one to hold a grudge. Already we are wondering what it will be like when we are able to go back into our kitchen and cook a meal without being buzzed or with the uneasy feeling that a bee is about to make a hidden attack on us.

Community Builders

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

Banking has played a big part in the rapid growth of Hereford, and E. B. Hedrick, president of the First National Bank, has played a big part in Hereford banking.

Hedrick, who came to Hereford in 1938 after gaining control of the First National Bank, has seen both the bank and Hereford take many steps forward. He has seen the banking institution's deposits double and Deaf Smith County become one of the richest agricultural sections in the nation.

Through the years Hedrick has been a friend to the farmer. He recalls that during the pre-irrigation days, area farmers were in continual need for financial assistance. "We helped the farmer and the farmer helped us," he recalled.

Born in Lone Jack, Mo., Hedrick moved to the Texas Panhandle in 1905. After living in Amarillo many years, he moved to Hereford in 1938.

A member of the Rotary Club, the bank president is past president of the organization, of which he was a charter member. He has also held almost every office in the club.

A recent honor received by Hedrick was being named a member of the advisory committee of the Texas Bankers Association. The appointment was made by Jack Garrett, president of the TBA, who praised Hedrick's long years of banking service. He is also a member of the advisory council of the Southwestern Medical Foundation at Dallas.

Our Community Builder was married to the former Miss Mattie Jameson in Palestine Dec. 22, 1919.

To Hedrick, Hereford's future looks bright. He remarked that "things are a lot different now than they were when I came here."

"I can't see anything to halt the city's growth now," he said. "We have grown gradually and soundly and with the resources this area has, there is no reason why we should not continue to go so."

Why the growth? Hedrick credits "the soil and plenty of water." Asked what he believed the city was in need of now to make it a better place to live, the banker replied, "more paving and more schools."

PAPER FINDS REPORTER

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—The Danbury News-Times said editorially that there may be something to the idea of year-around schools.

Seventh grader Carol Gallo, who disagreed, quietly went into action, and with some friends, circulated a questionnaire among fellow pupils, teachers and parents.

In a long letter to the editor, Carol said that 37 of 46 parents interviewed opposed year-around school, 8 of 13 teachers interviewed opposed it and all 123 pupils interviewed were against it.

BOY GETS DOG

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP) Bobby Lawson, 7, of Center Line, Mich., has his pet, Sniffles, back now. But for 10 months the black and white mongrel dog lived here. Sniffles got lost while Bobby and his parents were vacationing. Bobby's mother wrote a pleading letter to the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News, enclosing a picture of Sniffles.

Many people saw sniffles, but none could catch him. He ate with an anticraft battalion or with the workmen at the coal docks.

The Lawsons made a 350 mile trip, but Sniffles chose that weekend to be absent. They came a few weeks later to find Sniffles living in an abandoned house. He fled when the grown-ups walked in. Then Bobby tried it alone. Sniffles got the scent and bounded into Bobby's arms.

BAKED WATCH

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A woman who wanted her watch fixed, explained to Jeweler Frank Holube what had happened to it:

"I got it wet, so I put it in the oven at 350 degrees. Then I went over to a neighbor's house and didn't remember about it until a half hour later."

LITTLEFIELD SCHOOL TO GO

The Old Central school building on the Littlefield school grounds is finally going to be torn down and with it, the memories of more than 30 years of classes and school children who attended classes in the old red brick building. The Board of Trustees voted Monday night to ask for bids for tearing down old Central, to be opened June 27. The building is to be sold "as is, where is" condition. With the new central and primary school construction expected to be completed in the next month or two, the board voted to demolish old Central as a building hazard, and to have the location levelled off and sodded in grass by the time school starts in September.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's Note: The Bootleg Philosopher discusses a well-known farmer this week, while he probably should have been working his crops.

Dear editor:

I read in a copy of a newspaper which I borrowed out of my neighbor's mail box yesterday morning before he got there, like a lot of foreign countries, I believe in the good neighbor policy, that is, I believe in having neighbors who are good at loaning things to me, where Pres. Eisenhower has warned the American people not to peck too much out of the coming Big Four Conference for this summer.

What this proves is that Eisenhower's farm, which lot of people have criticized him for visiting too much is standing him in good stead.

Anybody who has ever fooled with a farm soap can't expect too much.

I don't know what all the President is raising on his farm any more than he knows what I'm raising on -- but whatever it is, I know by now he has discovered it grows nearly as much as he expected it would, and I think it's a fine thing he's learning from it and carrying his knowledge over into international affairs. Contending with a farm is ideal training for contending with a country like Russia.

I have been using this system out here on my farm for years, and it saves me from a lot of disappointment. When a candidate for example shows up out here during a campaign and promises to double farm prices, I know how to react. I figure prices will be about the same or maybe a little less.

Russia suddenly decides to change her course and announces she is in favor of world peace, we and Eisenhower recall how our crops turned out last year and keep our bearings.

Everybody ought to have a farm, it's educational, it's instructive, it's fun, but I can tell you it's probably more fun if you've got a President's salary coming in on the side.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Stampeding With the Putter
By BILL KNOX

We know our luck couldn't last forever. After going through the complete first round without missing a prediction, which is very unusual indeed, an upset occurred in the second round. This will probably open the door to a future series of upsets, and two unknowns which were both supposed to be eliminated long before will probably meet in the finals.

But it all goes to show you that table tennis can be just as exciting as any other sport. Sometimes more exciting and just as unpredictable. And when the entrants are as closely matched as they are in this tourney anything can happen and probably will.

The upset before mentioned was the Johnny Winkler-Marvin Coffey match. Coffey upended Winkler 4-2 to advance to the quarterfinals where he will collide with Virgil Moore. Coffey definitely had Winkler bumfuzzled with his questionable serve. However, Winkler soundly trounced him in the first game. Then his troubles began.

Pat Sullivan has now reached the semi-finals in his quest for the championship. His latest victim is Harold Dunnam. He had previously eliminated Leo Box and Gerald Hale, certainly no slouches. He will now take on Walter Seed in probably his roughest match thus far. The winner of the Sullivan-Seed match will advance to the finals where the dope bucket has Marvin Coffey tagged as the other finalist. But Coffey may find it rough going getting past Moore.

The many golfers in Hereford should be interested in the coming appearance of THE GREAT YOGI, trick golf artist and exhibitionist here July 21. He is known all over the world for his great skill and accuracy with anything concerning the game of golf.

Hereford's semi-pro team will have battle with the first-place Friona team today at Friona. Friona has lost only one game, an extra-inning fracas, and will be rough to handle. They may find it pretty rugged to get past Hereford, however. Despite their unimpressive record, the Hereford team has defeated Rati's Blackhaws of Amarillo, who lead the Caprock League. Their only loss is to Hereford.

Hotel Downs KC's To Gain Tie For First With Pigs

By BILL KNOX

Hotel Jim Hill jumped into a first-place tie with the Pigs of Piggly Wiggly by clobbering the KC's 22-6 Tuesday night. Summerfield took undisputed possession of fourth place with an easy 21-5 victory, over winless Popular Store in the afterpiece.

Jim Hill had no mercy with the Knights, who started strong at the first of the season and are now in a sudden tailspin. They scored every inning except the fourth and allowed the KC's to score in only three. Johnny Winkler pitched the distance to take the win, while Kenneth Walterscheid, KC starter, was dubbed with the loss.

Kenny Walterscheid, who has won five and lost one this year, walked the first three men in the initial frame and was hit for Bill Stengel. Stengel was never effective, but his control did not bother him as Walterscheid's did. Winkler had his troubles with his control in the first also, but settled down to pitch steady ball up the latter innings.

Jim Hill started the ball rolling with five big tallies in the top of the first. Burdine, Ross, and Timberlake all walked to lead off the inning, and after Howard had popped out, Renner also walked to force in a run. Leroy Suttle pasted a broken-but double over third base, and both Hale and Winkler drew bases on balls. Carroll popped out to end the inning.

The Knights counted strongly in their half of the first with four runs of their own. Two straight hits by Peters and Fangman led off the inning, and Albracht and Bill Stengel walked to force in a tally. Tony Urbanczyk drove one more in with a long fly, and Bud Stengel doubled in the final runs of the inning.

Hotel slacked off a bit in the run. Doug Timberlake's single scored Burdine after the latter had drawn a base on balls to make the score 6-4, but the KC's again drew within one run with one more in the last of the second. Kershen singled, and was forced around by the base on balls route.

Then Jim Hill began their steady downpour of runs in the top of the third. They scored four in third, two in the fourth, eight in the sixth, and two in the seventh. The only other run plated by the Knights past that point was a lone tally in the fourth.

Summerfield clouted four home runs to demolish the Popular Store 21-5 in the nightcap. They are one half game ahead of Ruthfords who were idle Tuesday night.

For top Grasshopper Kill at lowest cost per acre

YOU MUST USE aldrin

Exactly Why:

Just two ounces of aldrin per acre give more than 90% kill within one day - - - for even the worst infestation. And aldrin keeps killing hoppers that arrive up to five days after aldrin-izing. No other insecticide gives such fast control at such low cost.

Since even a light infestation—6 hoppers per sq. yard—can reduce range grass by 50%, aldrin's hopper-killing power is essential to maximum beef production on range.

Make sure you get aldrin... America's No. 1 grasshopper killer.

From what we hear, we were lucky because other places received hard rain and hail which damaged the crops.

In talking and seeing some of our college boys, including Calvin Ivie, Clyde Hays and H. V. Rocky, it looks like farm life is pretty tough on these tender skinned boys. They are blistering and peeling from too much wind and sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coke and Mrs. S. M. Coke and Carolyn, from Washington, have been visiting in the Jimmy Buckley home. The Louis Cokes are Mrs. Buckley's parents and Mrs. S. M. Coke is her aunt.

ford Hospital for two days.

The Black Study Club received a $50 check from the Parmer County Community Hospital for winning first place in the "Out of Town" contest they put on last year. We are proud of our small community.

Look 4 Doors and no center posts!

It's the new kind of hardtop - The 4-Door Riviera!

You drop the side windows down on this airy beauty of a Buick with the solid steel roof—and it's as wide open as a Convertible, with no center posts to mar your view.

That's what makes it a hardtop. But what makes it a very special kind of hardtop is the fact that it has four doors instead of two.

Cheers? Brother!—they're really rolling out for Buick's 4-Door Riviera! Now, you see, you can have the tremendously popular styling of a true hardtop combined with the room, comfort and full convenience of a 4-door Sedan.

And it took a completely new kind of body design to come up with this marvel—a new kind of body built to wholly new structural principles.

So it looks like Buick's done it again—because the 4-Door Riviera is a sweeping sensation across the nation. It's rolling off the assembly lines in volume numbers to meet the demand—in the high-powered CENTURY Series, and in the bedrock-priced SPECIAL Series, illustrated here. And each one is all Buick—with record-high V8 power, the level steadiness of all-coil-springing, the extra roominess of a full-size Buick

Sedan—and, most certainly, with the instantaneous getaway response and bettered gas mileage of Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* Come in for a look at the brand-new kind of hardtop—the 4-Door Riviera. You'll find it priced at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model—and a buy too thrilling to pass up.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
