BIG BANQUET SERVED AT NIGHT

Chamber of Commerce Entertain Visitors and Farmers From Nearby Points with Practical Talks by Hog and Poultry Men. Between 300 and 400 Diners

The Panhandle Swine Breeders association opened their eleventh annual convention in the Star Theatre Tuesday morning with a fair representation of members and visitors. President Boer and secretary Lewis presided at the table. Rev. J. R. Sharp delivered the invocation. Judge L. Gough the address of welcome, and the response on behalf of the association was voiced by C. E. Alexander of Childress.

In the forenoon, A. L. Ward, secretary of the Texas Swine Breeders Association, discussed the swine trade outlook with Mexico. Tom Frazier, hog salesman of Fort Worth, talked about the hog market outlook, and D. L. McDonald of Hereford spoke on the desirability of pure bred hogs for pork production.

Mr. Ward, one of the best posted hog men in the south, recalled the recent special live stock train sent into Mexico by the Dallas and Waco Falls, the Texas Swine Breeders, and the Extension Service of the A. & M. College and said that the trip resolved itself in his mind into these questions: (1) does Mexico need hogs, (2) can Mexico raise hogs, (3) what type of hog does Mexico want, (4) where will Mexico buy them. He said that Mexico is today practically a nation without meat, owing to long revolution and disturbance, although it is a nation of meat eaters and in the past produced much meat, principally beef. In the past the type of cattle raised was poor, but now they are demanding something good and the Mexicans themselves say they want livestock of good quality. Meat is too high there now and they cannot afford to waste time by restocking with common cattle, sheep or hogs.

He said that the leaders of agricultural thought are men of ability and that they will give themselves over to the task of re-stocking the country with good, dependable live stock. The speaker declared that while there is considerable of direct import of pure bred daisy cattle from European countries that a great deal of interest is being shown by the Mexican government in the live stock of Texas and the United States. Mr. Ward said that in the future that hogs will show a great increase in Mexico and that cattle by comparison will show a decrease. He called attention to the fact that the Mexican people will insist on hogs giving the most rapid possible development for the feed consumed; that they want a hog with a larger lard production than is demanded by our American people. He said that Texas breeders are going to have a good share of this business. With reference to the question as to whether Mexico can raise hogs, Mr. Ward said that Mexico grows in greatest abundance many of the leguminous crops and immense yields of corn and other feeds needed for hogs which answers the question as to whether Mexico can grow them. But in this connection, he called attention to the fact that the southern republic is quite susceptible to hog cholera and to offset this fact he urged that breeders making sales in Mexico should sell only immunized stock. They should also inform the purchasers as to where treatment against hog cholera may be secured and how it is scientifically administered. With reference to where the Mexicans will buy hogs, Mr. Ward said that purchases will be made from Texas breeders, provided they are treated honestly and convinced that they are being given a square deal. In the estimation of Mr. Ward, Texas is destined to share richly in the business of supplying seed stock.

Tom Frazier, of Fort Worth, speaking on the future of the hog market, said that the outlook for the market hog grower is very much brighter than it has been for the past two years. With special reference to the buying campaign conducted in the Panhandle and Plains of Texas for the benefit of the California market, Mr. Frazier said that the hogs from this section of the southwest possessed qualities generally believed to be superior to those grown in other portions of the country. He advised the use of pure bred hogs for every farm and gave as his reason the well known fact of the quicker growth and the more desirable quality of the meat.

D. L. McDonald, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, speaking on the desirability of pure bred hogs for pork production, said that there should be but one hog used on every farm in all this country and that to be a pure bred. He spoke of the persistent and well sustained propaganda of the breeders of pure bred live stock and some of the difficulties that have to be met and overcome. In the course of his address, Mr. McDonald referred to the fact that a number of years ago the razor-back hog was supposed to be more nearly immune against attacks of cholera than pure or better bred hogs. The A. & M. College of Wisconsin, however, made numerous tests with reference to the susceptibility of the two strains of hogs to cholera and their response in terms of gains to feeds resulted in a complete demonstration of the superiority of the better breeds. Touching on the most desirable breeds of hogs for the farmer, Mr. McDonald said that the best breed is the most money in the least feed in the shortest possible time. He said that there is no argument in favor of a poorly bred hog. In closing, Mr. McDonald said the farmers are more interested in type than in breed and in more form than in pedigree, for the pork barrel is the end. This farmer's ideal is approved by the packers and is generally accepted by the consumer. The supply of this type is the end of all breeding.

Afternoon Session

Joe Haaga, secretary of the National Duroc Jersey Record of Peoria, Ill., opened the afternoon session with some practical observations on success in the swine industry. He talked straight from the shoulder about practical breeding and believed that at least fifty percent of all herds should be sent to the packers, instead of selling so many as breeders.

Ludwig Irlbeck, of Happy, gave one of his amusing and inimicable talks on practical hog raising, which was enjoyed by the audience. G. W. Warren

Santa Fe Asked To Run Special Trains for Sale

The directors of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce have asked the Santa Fe railroad to run two special trains from Amarillo to Hereford and back in the near future, owing to present inadequate passenger service.

Two registered cattle sales are scheduled for Hereford in the immediate future, the first being the Jones & Dameron Sale on January 25, and the other the local Breeders Association Sale about February 21. In both instances, owing to present rail connection with Amarillo, the cattlemen are unable to reach this point conveniently and as a result the sales will lose custom tremendously, unless the railroad will agree to assist.

At Monday's luncheon the directors held an executive session and appointed W. E. Dameron, secretary of the local association, to take up the matter with the proper officials and see if an arrangement cannot be made to run the two stubs for these two special occasions.

of the A. & M. College, talked on hog feeding experiments conducted at the college under the same conditions and different feeds. He answered many interested questions from the farmers present. Dr. Flaherty of the state Livestock Sanitary Commission, talked on sanitation and control of contagious diseases common to the Panhandle. Will P. Jones, banker of Childress, substituting for W. E. Alexander, of the same place, discussed selection of material for the breeding herd. His discussion was from a practical standpoint and following it the meeting was thrown open to round table discussion. J. I. Hammonds, of Floydada, handled the subject of development of the herd boar and H. C. Roffey, of Canyon, handled the breeding sow.

Tuesday night was set for the banquet tendered the visitors and farmers by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce. Wednesday morning the next place of meeting will be decided and officers for another year selected.

The Poultry Show

Hereford's first effort at an exclusive show for poultry literally paralyzed the committee in charge with the overwhelming interest displayed and the number of entries. A total of 616 birds by actual count arrived Monday and Tuesday. The spacious Farmer building, believed to be ample and then some for the accommodation of the show, proved to be entirely inadequate. The middle tier of three double rows of coops was hurriedly double-decked Monday night, when the chickens continued to pour in. Judge H. W. Duke of Amarillo, assisted by E. J. Curry of Amarillo, started the judging early Tuesday morning and hammered away at it all day, badly hampered by surging streams of humanity that packed the aisles the live long day and fought for a chance to see the splendid birds on display. Mr. Duke said the show was a dandy and this sentiment was that generally expressed by all. Birds and visitors from all over the Panhandle arrived Tuesday.

The show should probably have been held in the basement of the courthouse or in the sale pavilion, but it would have taken a prophet of Israel to have

Here's a Johnson Grass Puzzle to Answer—Next!

The Brand acknowledges receipt of the following communication:

"Dear Editor:

"While we have so much talent here attending the Hog Show I wish you would ascertain the value of Johnson Grass and roots as hog pasture. We have many fields with much Johnson grass growing thereon, and it seems to me we can graze the fields with hogs, thereby utilizing the Johnson grass and ridding our fields of the grass at the same time.

"Another thing: Can we kill out Johnson grass by sowing the fields to Sudan grass. Will the grasses mix to such an extent that the Johnson grass will lose its rooting characteristic and thus die out?"

S. E. Lewis, of Childress, attending the hog convention, says that he has turned hogs loose in a wheat field spotted with Johnson grass and that the hogs would root up the Johnson grass in preference to the wheat right along. He doubts that they would kill out the Johnson roots entirely, unless left on it indefinitely, as they hardly go deep enough. He also stated that a neighbor, in a dry year, turned cattle into a Johnson grass field and turned up the grass roots with a lister. The cattle ate them eagerly and would follow the lister to the field bellowing in delight, just like they will learn to follow a cake wagon.

The second question by Mr. Oberthier remains unanswered so far. Who can handle the subject?

"OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE" CALLED BY A. & M. COLLEGE

An "Older Boys Conference" has been called to meet at the A. & M. College of Texas January 27-28-29. The call has been issued by the state Y. M. C. A., Boys Division, and the subject discussed will be "Our Task." Several nationally known speakers are on the program. Rev. J. R. Sharp, local Scout Master, has received an invitation to send any delegates from the Scouts or other boys' organizations in this county.

foretold the unprecedented interest. The committee in charge bought up all the ribbon in town for the winners. This committee, by the way, assisted by volunteers, worked like dogs all day Monday, half the night, and all day Tuesday, and had another day and night ahead of them. Special mention, perhaps, should be made of the devoted work of E. J. Newell, who assumed the task of feeding and watering those 616 birds and kept at it steadily. Thirty varieties are represented in the show with many out-of-town breeders, among them Frank Milford and E. J. Curry of Amarillo, Pierce Youngblood of Pampa, A. L. King of Texico, Ludwig Irlbeck of Happy, Maud Ripper, Harry Cone and Fred H. Galle of Dimmitt, Mrs. J. I. Phipps of Spring Lake, C. E. Walker of Canyon, J. Lillard of Friona.

The show will continue through Wednesday and winners will be announced at the close.

How Much Longer Are Grafters To Work Here?

"I wonder how much longer the open-hearted people of this community are going to allow themselves to be fleeced by every grafter that hits town?" remarked a prominent business man last Saturday, following a visit here by a woman claiming to be a widow and the mother of four destitute children.

This woman registered at a local hotel under one name and used another in soliciting funds and clothing throughout the residential and business sections. She was dressed in rags and was an artist at her trade. Her pitiful appearance and story won out in nearly every instance. Finally, after getting all she could by personal solicitation, she visited the Chamber of Commerce and asked for $48 to pay the way of herself and tribe to some distant town.

The Charity Committee, consisting of Rev. J. R. Sharp and Sheriff Purcell, was called in and questioned the woman. She had told a dozen different stories around town, gave various amounts of money she had on hand to various questioners, and tripped herself up badly on every hand. She said the ticket agent at Dawn had told her it would require $48 to get to her destination, when the world knows that there is no railroad agent at Dawn. She said she had been picking cotton all summer and when asked where, replied ten miles south of Canyon! Finally, when confronted with her list of fabrications, she broke down, cried and departed from the committee hearing. She carried off a lot of hard cash and a generous allowance of good clothing.

Next morning she went west instead of east, and left here becomingly dressed in the latest fashion and without a trace of her rags and misery of the day before.

Here's the point: the Chamber of Commerce has a committee to investigate all advertising grafters, strangers with persuasive schemes, charity patients. If the people of Hereford will send these people to this committee first for investigation it will save Hereford hundreds of dollars wasted foolishly annually. Some people seem to like to be worked, even in these hard times.

Business Men In Snappy Pre-Convention Luncheon

A most rousing good meeting of the local business men and visitors to the number of thirty-five was held at the Stockmen's Cafe last Monday at noon. President McCracken, of the Panhandle Wheat Growers Association, Earl Lewis, secretary of the Panhandle Swine Breeders Association and brother, S. E. Lewis, both of Childress, and Messrs. Ford and Durnion of the North American Saving & Loan Co., of Dallas, were among the visitors. All made short talks.

Reports on the status of the coming swine breeders convention and sale and the Hereford-Poultry Show were made, showing "all ready" for the opening bell. C. H. Dyer and E. W. Harrison were appointed on a committee to investigate a proposal to have an expert hog man tour the country in the interest of proper feeding, etc. Mr. Ripple of the Panhandle Lumber Co., of Amarillo, made a short address, explaining the interest of his company in poultry and hog work.

It was a rousing good "get together" and manifests the growing determination of the business men to cooperate during the coming year.

Next Monday at the City Cafe—YOU are invited!

POTTS TALKS ABOUT TAXATION MATTER

LOCAL RATES COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH OTHER TOWNS

THE RENDITIONS

Are Main Trouble, Thinks Member Board of City Equalization

This is no apology, nor is it given in the hope of soothing the hurt places of some people who are forced to pay taxes, but a statement of a few facts in the hope that they may tone down the epithets some are wont to spread broadcast against the Tax Assessor and the Board of Equalization.

The writer was one of three serving on the Board for the year 1921, putting in three days of as hard work as he could, getting about half enough pay for it to pay one fine to the City of Hereford for running over an empty fire hose.

Prior to the work on this Board I went to twelve representative business men of this city, placing in each of their hands a map showing all subdivisions in Hereford and asked them to give their idea of values of this property in figures, which statements were reduced to an average and used as a basis of values. I knew of no fairer way and I know I did not have it in my mind to rob anyone, especially when I was not getting the money, nor do I think any statement made like this by any tax payer is made seriously when they know my colleagues on this Board, Taxes are high. No one would undertake to refute that—everything is high. Not all the citizens of this town are complaining, but one of these howlers reminds me of the coyote wolf when he is alone and begins to howl. You would think there were a dozen in the pack. To do your duty by the community, under your oath, you may make your neighbor sore. Not to do it, the community cannot function and suffers.

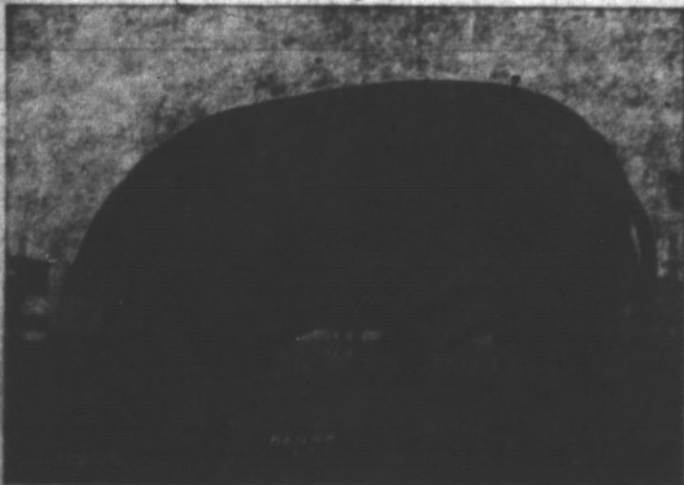

In justice to Hereford, I want to say that in the past thirty days it has been my privilege to investigate taxes in surrounding cities. Amarillo, with her paving in every direction, is enormously higher. Plainview, with no more paving than Hereford, has a rate for City Taxes just exactly twice as high. Hereford is 75c; Plainview is $1.50. Their County rate is 20c higher and their school rate is 30c per cent higher. These figures can be verified, also as to their property valuations, which is higher than Hereford—just about their cash value.

The Reason

On January 1, 1921, there was almost one million dollars on deposit with the three banks in Hereford, and of this amount less than $5,000.00 was rendered for tax payment. These people should not escape, but they do. Moreover the number of men in this city who fail or refuse to render notes they have in their cases—that is property (Continued on Last Page)

DOMINO 2D by Domino

TOM STANWAY by Bright Stanway; Dam by Domino.

BEAU RANDOLPH 4TH by Beau Randolph; Dam by Paladin.

As a special attraction we are offering two of the above herd bulls—Beau Randolph 3d and Tom Stanway

THE BULL OFFERING
 All of our bull offering is of the herd-header variety. The list is headed by two of our own outstanding herd bulls, BEAU RANDOLPH 3D and TOM STANWAY, both tried sires of established merit. PETER STANWAY by Bright Stanway from a Beau Donor dam is also a bull bred in the purple. BEAU PRESIDENT JR. by Beau Paladin from Blanche 48th by Beau President is a great young sire. DOMINO 4TH by Domino 2d is out of Donna Ann 30th by Paladin, which was also the dam of Domino Jr., Beau Donabain, etc. PRINCE RANDOLPH by Beau Randolph 3d is a double Beau Randolph-bred bull and a good one. BEAU DOMINO and MODEL DOMINO are both good sons of Domino 2d from Beau Randolph and Superior Mischief dams respectively and are choice bulls in the sale. Every bull has been selected; every bull a line-bred, 100 percent Anxiety 4th-bred bull—and the kind you will like.

THE FEMALE OFFERING
 The list includes 35 bred cows and heifers and 8 open heifers. Among these are GWENDOLINE 37TH by Beau Modest with a Superior Anxiety bull calf at side and rebred to Bright Stanway Jr.; DOLLIE 18TH by Militant with a heifer calf by Tom Stanway; GLYCERINE 4TH by Beau Mischief with good heifer calf by Beau President Jr.; MISS PERT by Domino Jr., with a Beau Randolph

A REAL OPPORTUNITY
 Now is undoubtedly the time to buy cattle at prices which may not recur for years. To make sure of the present high values, cattle should be purchased to the limit of the breeders' ability to pay for them. And judged from all angles there probably will never be so good an opportunity as will be offered in the coming Jones & Dameron sale to buy the best in pedigree and individuality. A breeder must have a bull of superior potency and quality if he would succeed in the breeding business. It is essential that a herd sire should have a dam of proper breeding, form and quality as well as that he should have a great sire. The Jones & Dameron herd fills the requirements necessary to produce the right type of herd sire and such a bull may be obtained from among the eight richly bred herd headers included in this sale.
 Females of the choicest bloodlines and bred to the breed's leading sires will offer opportunities at this sale that otherwise would be available only through extensive traveling. Note their breeding described in this and previous advertisements in the Hereford Journal. The Jones & Dameron annual sale of Anxiety 4th Herefords has come to be recognized by Hereford breeders as an important event in Hereford affairs. Appreciating this Hereford breeders should make it a point to attend this sale since the bloodlines are the same and the quality is even better than they have offered in their previous sales. Surely this will be the time and place to strengthen herds at low cost for a sire or foundation females of superior Anxiety 4th breeding.—HARRY E. ALLEN.

3d bull calf at side and rebred to Bright Stanway, Jr.; LASSIE 2D and heifer calf by Beau Randolph 4th; GWENDOLINE 3D will calve before sale date to service of Tom Stanway; DONNA ANNA 32D will have a Bright Stanway Jr. calf before sale; VALENTINE by Beau Randolph from the Lady Stanway family of cows will calve about sale time to the service of Bright Stanway Jr.
 WE ARE OFFERING a half dozen GUDGELL & SIMPSON-BRED COWS as well as a string of younger cows and heifers from these Gudgell & Simpson-bred cows. In addition to the above we are offering bred females by SUPERIOR MISCHIEF, BEAU PICTURE, BEAU CHIEF, BEAU PALADIN, BEAU RANDOLPH 1ST, BEAU RANDOLPH 4TH, D. BEAU CARLOS, GLASCO and others of equal merit.
 8 OPEN HEIFERS—Most of these are by the $12,000 BEAU AGITATOR by Domino and from a Beau President dam. These heifers are not in extremely high flesh but are in good breeding condition. We believe it is detrimental to either bulls or cows to put extreme condition on them as they seldom breed satisfactorily. We are selling breeding cattle and we do not want to impair their breeding qualities.
 We cannot give you all the details in this space, but will be glad to MAIL YOU-CATALOGUE ON REQUEST.

and is subject to taxation just the same as a brick building on Main Street—the man with this building cannot escape. Men will tell the Assessor they have some notes, but they owe some money which about offsets. There are few buildings in this town and farms in the country that do not have more or less encumbrances. Does the Assessor deduct that amount from its value? Taxes are high, and if you could see the financial statements made by some of these people to the banks, as a credit for loans, and then compare this with their tax rendition, you would see why the taxes are high on what is rendered. There is much property in Deaf Smith County that escapes just taxation, which brings the City managers to the point where they are forced to make that rendered pay a larger proportionate rate. This is not discrimination, but doing with what is at hand, the best possible. Right here, would like to digress long enough to say: One of the most active tax payers in spreading "poison" has some Main Street property that he could not hide and on which a value was placed by the Board at half the price placed on this same property by the owner. His excuse for not paying is the property bears no revenue. If that were an offset, we would collect no taxes in Deaf Smith County for the year 1921. That is not all, the records will show some notes held by this party, but his tax list don't show it—he could not hide the Main Street property. The problem for every citizen is to see there is a full rendition and if you are one that does not disclose your property in full, don't howl about how high the taxes are, but congratulate yourself on your cleverness.

The fellow I really feel sorry for, has only a small home and that with a cow to help feed the children, constitutes his worldly possessions, and under the conditions above outlined, the board is forced to place this at a high figure in line with his neighbor, but in any meritorious case, where there has been an error in this valuation, as compared by neighbors, or the rate charged, the Commission will gladly hear this on having same called to their attention. No set of three men, be they ever so good, honest and efficient, can do the work required on this Board of Equalization in three days time—they should spend at least one week. This is volunteer work, and I am informed by the Mayor he has now opened the roster for the names of such who will offer their services for the consideration of the Commission.

Remedy
There are several. We could stop the school, close the City office, shut down the water plant and carry out water from the creek (just south of town) as many people have done "back yander," stop all improvements. But the sensible thing to do is to see there is full rendition, encourage it and brand the fellow who don't. Elect men who will do this and back them up. Cut out all the expense possible. Demand publicity on all items of expense, then if you can't get the taxes where you want them, sell everything you have in Deaf Smith County for what you can get—desires once more to call attention to VIM-O-GEN Yeast Tablets, and to repeat and emphasize the money-back guarantee behind this remarkable product.

Bear in mind that it contains all three of the precious vitamins. Authorities state that a day's treatment (six little tablets) is the equivalent of three cakes of baker's yeast. Besides, VIM-O-GEN Yeast contains iron and other body-building and tonic properties.
It is an accepted scientific fact that the vitamins are essential to human life, health and strength; that they are the food elements, generally lost through staleness and cooking, which make you weigh what you should, give you a clear skin and rosy complexion, and furnish the strength and vitality and vigor which mean perfect health.
Give VIM-O-GEN Yeast Tablets a trial. It will do what it claims. Your money back if it doesn't.
