Around Town

They know about Deaf Smith County's "special spuds" in For dyce, Ark. Proof of that statement came in the mail this week. Maxine M. Bryan, manager of the For dyce Chamber of Commerce, wrote Bill Lenderman, manager of the Deaf Smith County C.C. praising the potatoes and saying: "I am planning to enjoy some of those delicious new potatoes for supper this evening."

Wednesday's rain was spotted, but welcomed in the county. Hereford received .25 by 9:20 a.m.

Roy Peet was among those attending the forty-second annual Texas State Florists' Convention held in Dallas recently.

Going away to school? If you are, we would like to know about it. How about sitting down a minute, jotting down your name and the name of your parents, and the college or university you plan to attend. Mail the information to Mrs. John McLean, 243 West Fifth or phone 181.

Sunday, August 7 is the date for the annual Hardeman, Foard and Wilbarger County picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barbee, Hereford, announced this week. The picnic will be held in the Mackenzie State Park, south of the swimming pool, and all accidents living in this area are urged to attend.

When's it gonna be? That's the question that has been floating Around Town all week long following the announcement that Hereford and Deaf Smith County would be featured on Humble's "Texas In Review" television program soon. We don't know, but we do know that if you scout around enough Thursday you might get your picture taken.

Hereford Lions were entertained Wednesday by a group of West Texas State students who sang a condensed version of a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta.

John H. Ross Is Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday for John H. Ross, retired farmer, who died Sunday July 24. Rev. Don Root was in charge of the services which were held in the First Christian Church. Mr. Ross was 87 years old. He was born in 1868 and married the late Clara B. Garnett in 1926. He came to Deaf Smith County in 1926 from New Mexico. Pallbearers at the funeral were John Foster, Merlin Kaul, Fred Moreman, Robert Boyd, Roy Landers, and W. G. Harris. Interment was in West Park Cemetery. Ross is survived by two sisters, Mrs. May Winn of Clearwater, Ky., and Mrs. Annie Reyner of Knoxville, Tenn.

Three Hundred Students Get Second Polio Shots

An estimated 300 Deaf Smith County first and second grade students filed through a long line Wednesday morning at Hereford High School to get their second Salk polio vaccine shots. It was a cool day, ideal for giving the shots, and Dr. R. R. Willis, county health officer, and his assistants reported that everything went off smoothly, without any difficulties. The number of students taking the second shots indicated that about three out of every five parents allowed their children to take the second inoculation. In fact, some of those students who didn't get the second shots are believed to be on vacation and the usual number of those who overslept could be expected. It was raining

Promotional Plan To Be Voted On

Wool producers will be voting on whether or not to help pay the cost of a promotional program when they cast their ballot in the wool referendum to be held June 27 through August 19. Faust Collier, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager said Wednesday. "This referendum is to be held for the purpose of determining producer approval or disapproval of a promotional agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and the American Sheep Producers Council, Inc.," Collier explained. "Eligible voters will be any individual, corporation, partnership or legal entity which had an interest as owner or partial owner in one or more sheep six months of age or older continuously for (Continued on Page 2)

County To Aid Welfare Worker

County Commissioners have agreed to pay $50 a month to help pay expenses of a district welfare officer. The Court took such action Monday after District Judge Harry Schultz had requested such aid. The decision came on a unanimous vote after almost an hour-long debate. There are six counties in the district, and only one other besides Deaf Smith County has a full-time welfare worker. Commissioners debated the merits of paying a part-time worker in addition to paying a fulltime employee. Commissioner Otto Massie made the motion, which was second by commissioner M. T. Rutter.

during some of the time the shots were given, and that, too, may have caused a smaller number of children to have received their second shots. During the first round, 315 first and second grade students were given the shots. Dr. Willis announced after the shots were given that he would give the shots at the Hereford Clinic during the rest of the week to any student who took the first shot and who failed to get the second inoculation for any reason. He also said that any student who took the first shot somewhere else, and can show proof that he did take the first shot, will be given a free inoculation at the Clinic. He suggested parents of such students write the health officer in the town they moved from for such proof. All vaccine used in the local program was made by the Eli Lilly Laboratory. There have been no known cases of polio in the county this year. Dr. Willis is still doubtful that there will be much if any vaccine available for public use during the remainder of the year. The fact that the county was allotted only 30 percent of the amount of vaccine used during the first round of inoculation apparently proves his point.

County To Get Another FM Road

A tentative decision to use Deaf Smith County's share of the Farm-Market Road funds in Precinct 2 was made at a meeting of county commissioners and the State District Engineer in Amarillo, last week. The mounds were earmarked for use in constructing a F-M road beginning six miles west of Hereford. The road would go north for approximately six miles. The plan must be approved by the State Highway Commission.

Airport Decision Must Be Made Soon, C-C Announces

Deaf Smith County will have to decide in the near future if they want government aid—totaling an estimated $100,000—to construct an airport or not. That was the word Wednesday from a Chamber of Commerce spokesman who said he had been informed by the Civil Aeronautics Administration that legislation is now being considered by Congress which, if enacted, "will in all probability provide funds that could be utilized in a project at Hereford." R. B. Allen, CAA representative, is expected to be in Hereford sometime this week to meet with local leaders. Under the federal aid Airport Program, the government will pay half of the cost of the construction of an airport. The remaining 50 percent of the cost must be paid by a public agency (either the city or county). A C-C Airport Committee headed by Lyle Blanton, has made a

Enough's Enough, Foreman Decides

Enough is enough, a local foreman at one of the packing sheds decided this week after a Latin American worker went berserk, picked up a packing needle, threatened other employees and ripped several sacks up. The foreman's decision to take action came when the man went into the rest room and began breaking up the fixtures. It was then that his boss displayed his fistie talents, loaded the trouble maker into his car and delivered him to the Sheriff's Department. Justice-of-the Peace E. W. Solomon fined the man $25 and costs of court, a total of $29.50 on a charge of assault and battery, and advised the same for disturbing the peace.

Final Rites Held For W. Sullivan

After an illness of several months, W. J. Sullivan, resident of Hereford since 1921, died Saturday in the V. C. Woolery home. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday in the Rose Chapel of the Gilliland Funeral Home with J. V. Davis, pastor of the Church of Christ, in charge. Interment was in West Park Cemetery. Pallbearers were E. A. Doxon, Otto Massey, W. C. Harris, Harry Lomas, W. P. Axe, and Elmer Patterson. Mr. Sullivan was born Sept. 18, 1875 at Sanger. He married Maudie Jane Van Horn at Sanger in 1893. He came to Hereford from Hollis, Okla., in 1921. He was a member of the Church of Christ. Mr. Sullivan is survived by one daughter, Mrs. V. C. Woolery of Hereford; one son, E. V. Sullivan of Roseburg, Ore.; one sister; one brother; nine grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ada NeCass of Pampa is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Calvert. Other recent guests in the Calvert home were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stroup and children of Amarillo.

Audit of County Books Complete

Only One Change Is On Suggestion List

Deaf Smith County Commissioners Monday accepted an audit of county records from Pector and Co. of Amarillo which praised one office and recommended a book-keeping change in another. The audit, with a price mark of $1080.65, covered only the courthouse. The hospital audit is expected to be completed soon, however. Herbert C. Pector Jr. certified public accountant, was in charge of the audit and made the report to the Court. The audit showed that all of the county's funds but one—the general fund—were operating out of the red during the year. The audit ended Dec. 31, 1954.

Pector praised County Clerk Ralph Smith's record, saying, "The records of the County Clerk were found in very good order and Mr. Smith is to be commended for the efficient operation of his office. This is the only County Clerk's office of which we have knowledge that takes in enough money to pay its own salaries." Pector recommended a book-keeping change in the Treasurer's office, however. He said, "The Treasurer's records were found to be in order as far as they go; however, these records are no longer adequate to reflect the information which should be available to the Commissioners Court for the orderly administration of the affairs of the County. It is suggested that a more modern system be installed in the Treasurer's office which would reflect the source of receipts and the nature of the disbursements in sufficient detail to readily present a usable monthly report to the Court. This would not greatly increase the work of the Treasurer and the expense involved in setting up an adequate set of records would be more than recovered through savings in future auditing fees." He also reported that, "At the direction of the Court, we did not make a detailed examination of the office of the Tax Assessor and Collector, but made such tests and checks as were deemed necessary to satisfy ourselves of the substantial propriety of the records of that office. There was sufficient money on hand in the Collector's Account at Dec. 31, 1954, to cover all outstanding obligations. The tax rolls for 1953 and 1954 were reconciled and as can be seen from the report on page 24, only minor differences were noted. The records of the Tax Assessor and Collector were found in good and workable order." Differences noted (on page 24 of the report) showed that credits short of assessed county taxes

Nine Cases Are Set For Hearings In County Court

Nine cases have been scheduled for the August term of County Court. Six of the cases involved driving while intoxicated, two possession of intoxicants in a dry area and one theft. Simon B. Gonzales is charged with DWI and possession and R. W. Scoggins, Acie Darrell Harkins, Ira L. Partain, Jesus Garcia, Ernest Robinson and W. Isaac Allen all are charged with driving while intoxicated. Arrests have not been made in the theft case and one of the possession cases. (Continued on Page 2)

MORE THAN THEIR SHARE Special Week Not Needed to Remind Deaf Smith Farmers to be Careful

Farm safety doesn't need too much publicity in Deaf Smith County despite the fact that this is National Farm Safety Week. For this county has already had more than its share of farm accidents this year—enough to make anyone accident conscious. Two deaths, attributed directly to farm accidents, two seriously injured in farm accidents and a number of other near tragedies have made farmers in Deaf Smith County realize that it can happen here.

The county's first farm accident fatality of the year occurred Feb. 16 when Frank Fortenberry was killed in a "freak" accident on his farm. Mr. Fortenberry had been plowing all night with his new self-steering tractor and was either sitting in his car watching the tractor or asleep in the car when the tractor jumped from the furrow and crashed into the car. The second fatality was recorded only the thirteenth of this month when 20-year-old Eugene Brimmage was found dead in a field with a pickup truck overturned on him. Brimmage had apparently been trying to get the pickup out of a mudhole, when it suddenly jerked forward, overturning on him. Another near tragedy closely followed the first fatality of the year when Austin Rose Jr. suffered a broken leg in still another "freak" accident. Rose was connecting a one-way plow to a tractor draw-bar. He was standing with one foot on the drawbar and one foot on the ground and was backing the tractor with a hand clutch when the tractor pinned him to the plow. His left leg was broken just below the knee. Then the tractor started running wild, almost running over him. He finally got on the tractor and rode for help.

The second accident which left a farm worker seriously injured occurred June 21 when 15-year-old Bill Melugin suffered severe injuries when the tractor he was driving was struck behind by a truck.

Seven Arrested On Felony Charges

Sheriff's Department officers have had a busy week. They have made four arrests on charges of passing worthless checks, two for forgery and one for removal of mortgaged property. W. C. Adams, Bob Adams and Shirley Adams were all arrested by officers here and sent to Abilene where they face charges of passing worthless checks. Ethel Miller, alias Mrs. Guy Clutch, was arrested in Brownfield and returned to Hereford to face similar charges. James Shivers and Fannie Jean Barrett, alias Betty Davis, both were arrested and charged with forgery.

PROOF POSITIVE—R. G. Peeler, left and County Agent Hugh Clearmen, right, show George Sanderson, who will be in charge of shooting a film story of Deaf Smith County for Humble's television program, "Texas in Review," a few facts about the county. They are using the industrial survey as a textbook. (Staff Photo)

IN SHE GOES—Glenna Gault has a somewhat disgrusted look on her face as she sits in the cold water after being dunked at the Lions Club carnival. Glenna did her part to help the Lions raise funds for the Kiddy Park, which is now under construction, by doing a hitch on the dunking booth platform. The carnival continues all this week. BUFFALO are one of a number of different kinds of animals that may be seen on a drive through Yellowstone. This old bull was very happy over the idea of people parking along the highway to watch the herd. (Staff Photo)

CUBBY BEAR doesn't have to beg his mommy for a nickel for an ice cream cone. All he has to do is stroll out to the highway through Yellowstone Park and pick up the tidbits the tourists have to offer in spite of all the warnings by those in charge not to feed bears. One old papa bear had the motorists wishing they had observed the ruling because he not only ignored the food they threw over to the roadside but he leaned against their car to keep them from moving on until he was satisfied about what they had to offer. Tour Gives Writer New Facts on Black Dusters

ROBERT A. CAMPBELL
The first time we saw the Black Hills of South Dakota we had to chuckle a little over the information passed along during the Dust Bowl Days of 1934-35. More than once we were told that the terrifying black dusters that haled in from the north had originated in the Black Hills. Actually the hills get their name from the black covering of heavy timber which stands out so obviously against the rolling prairie, but the dry years left the farmers of the northern great plains region with a desire to hold the soil of the abundant cereal-producing area.

Kansas is probably the greatest of the winter wheat growing states, all through Nebraska, the Dakotas and parts of Montana combines are now moving into a bumper wheat crop while Kansas has been hard hit by dry weather and dis-

PIGGLY WIGGLY'S
WICK OF THE WEEK SAVINGS!

ease in their crop. Northern Montana and Southern Alberta, across the line in Canada, will begin harvesting their spring wheat early in September and as yet the yield is unpredictable as the young crop is only beginning to root in most fields. Every fall freeze can cause more concern for farmers in that section of the country than the late freezing that sometimes damages our wheat in the Panhandle area.

Rains the first week in July boosted the fall grass on the prairies and the young wheat, oats or barley growing in adjoining fields until one driving along the highway has to look closely to tell where the lush pasture ends and the young grain crop begins as most of the fields are unseeded. In spite of the "Garden of Eden" appearance of the country at this season, the men who operate the farms use a system to keep their soil where it was originally surveyed by stripping all their crops, in the Alberta country and across a five state area on the United States side.

To help them keep in mind what they learned during the drought, when vegetation became so scarce that horses are reported to have pawed the rocky soil until their hoofs bled — the government offers an incentive payment for the method used by farmers over the entire region.

Crops are planted on strips varying from 50 to about 100 yards in width all across the field up to a certain distance in length. If the strips become too long to avoid danger of blowing then the next strips are alternated until the whole landscape looks somewhat like a checker board that had been pulled only one way to stretch the squares into rectangles.

Sometimes wheat and other small grain crops are alternated with strips of tame mustard which is harvested for oil. Mustard houses appear along the railroad that look much like grain elevators.

One of the largest we saw was at Harvre, Mont. On the eastern side of the state, flax in full bloom made a pretty alternate for the young wheat. Flax in the Vida, Mont. neighborhood is grown for seed commercially. In the western part of the state and over in Canada, brume grass for hay or seed, and clover and alfalfa are the alternating crops with the small grain plantings.

On some of the strips which were being summer-filled for next year's wheat planting, one could observe the implements used for farming. It was interesting to note that the chisel type plow, popular in this section, was also widely used in the fields of our neighbors to the north and west.

Oneway plows were also used but six discs seemed to be the limit in width, which was probably as much load as the ordinary farm tractor could pull in the heavy type soil and about all the width that could be turned readily in the narrow strips. Apparently they plowed out the corners as they went along because the fields looked smooth without all the furrows our big oneway type plows leave when finishing a block of land.

Even rocks fail to stymie these ambitious farmers. There are whole fields of them, in fact, on either side of the Canadian border when one leaves the States at Carway near Glacier Park.

How, we wondered, could any one plow ground covered with white rocks larger than baseballs, much less get a crop to grow that didn't seem to be at all undernourished. Excavation for a sewer in one of the towns where we spent the night revealed a layer of good soil eight or ten inches thick underneath the rock-veneer and it must be here that the plants make their growth.

Rock and otherwise, we are impressed by the wonderful wheat and other crops growing in the Northern Great Plains region and at the determination of the people to live up to such slogans as "North Dakota—The Bread Basket of the World," — "Montana — The Treasure State" and to make ridiculous the theory that our dust storms could come from farther north than the dry fields of eastern Colorado and Western Kansas.

O.E.S. MEETS

A stated meeting of the Order of Eastern Star was held recently at the Masonic Hall. Reports were heard and installation rites were conducted for Mrs. Argen Draper, Ada, and Tom Deuser, sentinel. Mrs. Belle Hromas was in charge of the program for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Patton, worthy patron and matron, presided in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Roberson have returned from Garden City, Kans., where they visited former residents of Hereford, Mrs. W. E. Hicks, and Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Hicks. Mrs. W. E. Hicks who has been in a hospital there for some time, is now able to be at home again and the Robersons report her condition as improving.

Mrs. Joe Ed Mackie and daughter Brenda of Anchorage, Alaska plan to leave for her home Friday by plane. She has been visiting relatives in Hereford and Pampa for the past two weeks. The Mackies moved to Alaska from Pampa last September. He owns and operates a garage at Anchorage.

Miss Fern Carlisle of Dallas, a former teacher in Hereford High School is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lesure Jr., and three children of Amarillo were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Young Sunday. While here they celebrated Mrs. Lesure's birthday with his mother, Mrs. C. E. Lesure Sr., of the Jumbo community as a special guest.

Beauty at Home

By Lynn Carter

Q. How can I exercise for slimmer and firmer thighs?
A. Stand holding onto the back of a chair for support. Now, keeping knees straight, swing left leg and thigh as far forward as possible, then as far back as possible. Repeat with other leg.
Q. What can I do to keep my neck youthful looking?
A. The neck should be given a good massage at least once or twice a week with a rich cream, and astringent containing witch hazel, and a cream pack or mask.

If you are over thirty, you must give your neck almost twice the care you give your face.
Q. How can I remove calluses from my hands?
A. Try using cuticle remover, such as is used for the manicure. Apply it to the callus and let remain for several minutes, then rinse off and rub dry with a rough towel. Repeat if necessary.
Q. How can I insure glossy, strong, manageable hair?
A. Keep your health up to par, and use the shampoo best suited to your hair. You must brush regularly and apply tonic between shampoos. If a liquid soap shampoo does not highlight your hair, experiment with a cream shampoo — be sure always to rinse thoroughly!

Q. How should a girl with a rather long nose dress her hair?
A. Don't let the top front of your hair drop down. Sweep it high or back. Keep any bangs or fluff above the hairline. Avoid middle parts, which accentuate a large nose.
Q. How should mascara be applied to the eyelashes?
A. Brushed on from the roots of the lashes upward and outward, or downward to the tips. Curl back the upper lashes as you brush. When dry, separate the lashes with a dry brush. Never clip the lashes!
Q. My hair is a light red. What should be my dress colors?
A. Especially flattering to you are chartreuse, light brown, green and black.
Q. How can I firm and lift the corners of my mouth, which have a "droopy" appearance?
A. Give these corners a brisk patting treatment with a pad of cotton dipped into astringent lotion. Lift as you pat. Pat upwards in a straight line, then do a little whipping motion at the corners. Now pat from the chin edge, slantwise across the mouth up towards the ears. Then use a little cream and mold the mouth with your fingertips. Masks help, too.
Q. What can be done for streaky hair that has been over-dyed?
A. Outside of patience until the hair has grown back to normal color, there is probably nothing better for this than egg shampoos.
Q. How can I "bring out" a receding chin?
A. Use a lighter shade of foundation on it than on the rest of your face.

Wagon Wheels... They Keep On Rolling Along

SINCE THE P. H. GILILLANDS live a little off the road south of Harrison Highway they chose this method of directing people to their home just outside the city limits.

IN FRONT OF the W. H. Blevins farm home seven miles north on Highway 51 can be seen this sign made by their son which announces that the occupants have chosen the name "Wheel In" for their rural abode.

ELM COURTS west on Highway 60 also used a wagon wheel to back up their announcement to tourists that the courts are air-cooled for their comfort.

Wagon Wheels Saved From Becoming Obsolete In Area

BY ROBERTA CAMPBELL

No doubt many a dusty, tired pioneer who crawled down over a wagon wheel to set foot on Deaf Smith County soil for the first time felt that the heavy-rimmed circle that had at last rolled to a stop was anything but a collectors item.

Now, half a century later, some of these same individuals will drive miles just to bring home one of the old-timers that has been abandoned in a fence corner or carried off to the junk heap. Wagon wheels seem to have a universal appeal as decorative materials for the grounds around the homes of both country folk and city dwellers.

A drive around Hereford will reveal some of the numerous uses found for the wagon wheels in the yards and driveways of an ever-growing number of people. A trip across the nation will show that wagon wheels have been put to similar use around the home of many along the highways.

Perhaps the ones most eager to get the old wheels to add a special touch to the landscaping remember how the wheels crunched across the prairies leaving the first lasting evidence that the white men had been that way, or how the iron rims had rattled over the rocks at creek crossings so roughly that even those fortunate enough to get the spring seat felt they were being mistreated.

All who can recall making a trip by covered wagon will remember the unhappy experience of getting a wheel back under a loaded wagon if the hub cap was not removed and the wheel greased at intervals.

Other grandmothers and grandfathers that watch the youngsters riding the hobby horse at a carnival will smile over the thought of their first merry-go-round made from a wagon wheel mounted on a post. If the children were numerous, turns were taken clinging to the spokes as they used their feet to manipulate for speed in rotating the wheel.

More recent uses of the old wheels, which are being salvaged and given a bright coat of paint, include about everything from gate posts to the "dead man" in the fence corner.

Wheels may be seen at the homes of the Grant Hannas and, and the Wiley Roberson's, who are neighbors north of town.

Farther up the highway, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blevins have set up an attractive marker that identifies their place as the "Wheel In Farm". The wagon wheel is of course the center of interest.

Just outside the city limits on Harrison highway, a neatly lettered sign with a wagon wheel as a background announces that the Gilillands live south of the road apiece. They know one can't miss them from there because the road ends in their front driveway.

Through several tourist seasons a white wagon wheel has backed up the comfort offered to travelers who wish to stop a spell by supporting a sign that says "Air Cooled", at the Elm Courts west on Highway 60. Other wheels are used about the driveways to add a great deal of eye-catching appeal to the camp court.

Operators of the Wheel Inn Cafe have also appealed to the hungry motorist through the use of the wheel.

Among a number of country homes over the county where wagon wheels or other wheels have been included in the landscaping is the ranch of the Henry Kinseys, where cultivator wheels and a pipe have been set up as an invitation to light and hitch. Wagon wheels form the bannisters for the front porch.

THE HENRY KINSEYS, 26 miles northwest of Hereford, used tow cultivator wheels and a length of pipe to make the hitching rack in front of their modern ranch style home. Wagon wheels form the bannisters for the front porch.

EVEN THE GATE at the Bonnie Martin home features a wagon wheel. There are more than a dozen of the wheels that progress outdated in use at the Martin home.

MRS. BONNIE MARTIN is pictured standing at a well, which is really a planter, in the yard of her home on Avenue A. The well is set by an old fashioned wagon wheel.

A VIEW OF the Martin back yard shows how the wagon wheels were used to make a portable picnic table, chair and a larger seat. The wheels are all painted white and have been trimmed in red. (Staff Photo)

Your Congressman Reports

Here is the picture. Under the Re-organization Act, a session of Congress terminates on July 31 of the year in which it was convened unless there is a national emergency. Since the President has declared an end to the emergency concerned with the Korean situation the question arises as to whether or not a need will exist for a formal declaration of an emergency before Congress can legally hold over after July 31.

The question was posed on the Floor of the House yesterday by Mr. Hoeven (R-Iowa) to the Majority Leader. Speaker Rayburn immediately came forward and stated that some emergency measures have not expired. He also stated that he had asked the Attorney General of the United States for an opinion on the very point. So far as I know, the Attorney General's opinion has not been made public, but you can bet your bottom dollar that if Speaker Sam Rayburn lets the House stay in session after July 31, he will know what he is doing and will be on sound, solid parliamentary ground.

The House will stay in session until several "must" measures have been passed or definitely killed. If consideration of these measures requires continuance of the session past August 1 (which seems to be certain) and a formal declaration of an emergency by the President of the United States was held to be necessary, it is my opinion that the President would declare such an emergency. The several highly controversial measures which have been declared essential by the White House include the Reserve Bill, the Housing Bill, and the Federal Highway Bill. In addition to these measures, there are a number of others that many members of both Houses want passed this session, including the highly publicized National Gas Bill, which in my humble opinion is a "must" if states' rights in this nation are to be preserved, the School Construction Bill, which will be highly controversial, the Upper Colorado Development Bill, also controversial, and many others.

The Housing Bill, which seems to be the one that is causing the logjam, is lodged in the Rules Committee. There are 13 members of the Rules Committee (8 Democrats and four Republicans). In order for a bill to clear the Rules Committee, it must receive seven votes, assuming that all members are voting. All members did vote on the Housing Bill, and the report is that (6) Democrats voted for the bill, while (2) Democrats and (4) Republicans voted against the bill. The tie results in the bill not being reported. Since this is an Eisenhower measure, it is generally felt that on reconsideration of the bill by the committee, presidential influence could garner one Republican vote to add ocrats and four Republicans voted against the bill. The tie results in the bill not being reported. Since this is an Eisenhower measure, it is generally felt that on reconsideration of the bill by the committee, presidential influence could garner one Republican vote to add

The reactions were in no regard critical of the move by this government; they were in praise of it. But the immediate questions that came in the minds of all in top level positions were, "How would such an exchange be made? Could we trust the Russians to carry out their side of such a bargain?" Perhaps the Russian minds also wondered if they could trust this country. Certainly you and I know that they could, but it is these suspicions and feelings of insecurity in what the other person is doing, or going to do, that causes the misunderstandings among men and the resulting wars. If we could work out the mechanics of an unconditional exchange of such information, it would go further in the interest of peace than anything else during our time. If carried out by both sides in the spirit in which it was offered by Eisenhower, it would provide the fuel for the moral rearmament so badly needed in this generation.

Letter From Home:
One of our preacher friends wrote the other day, and observed that in all of his church services, the cry of a baby was much sweeter music than the singing of a saint.

Ever marinate cooked baby green limabeans in a well seasoned French dressing? When ready to serve the beans, drain them and mix in a little chopped onion; serve with cold meat.

Don't stuff that chicken until you are ready to roast it. If any of the stuffing and chicken are left over refrigerate them separately.

Household Tips

Hydrogenated fats, often called for in recipes, are made from one oil or a mixture of oils. The oils are treated so as to produce a plastic fat suitable for many cooking and baking purposes.

Like canned pimientos? Fill them with seafood or chicken salad and serve on greens. They're particularly nice this way for a company buffet.

Carrots may be baked in a moderate oven along with a meat dish. Shred the carrots and dot with butter or margarine as you put them in a baking dish with a tight cover. You'll need about three cups of the shredded carrots for four servings and they'll require about half an hour of baking.

Baby turkey may be split and broiled over coals. Brush the turkey meat with a mixture of melted butter, lemon juice and seasonings as it cooks.

Ever try adding cream to a tangy French dressing? Use two-thirds cup oil and 1/4 cup vinegar plus salt, pepper and garlic powder to taste for the dressing; then slowly beat in a third cup of light cream.

You can make your own tomato juice cocktail this way. Open a can of tomato juice; add salt, pepper, onion powder, celery seed and chopped parsley. Let stand several hours to chill and blend flavors. Strain and serve with crackers and a cheese spread.

The skin of Valencia oranges may be smooth or slightly pebbled. The shape may be round or slightly oval, and the oranges come from medium to large size. The Valencia is a juicy orange of fine flavor.

Wagon Wheels

ners of the Kinsey's front porch of their modern home.

One of the most successful collectors is Bonnie Martin who has a back yard full of wheels at his home on Avenue A. Mrs. Martin has used the wheels as a basis for an outdoor unit which includes chairs and portable table. Others have been used about the yard which has become a conversation piece for passersby. Some of the old wheels originally carried a freight wagon across the plains before the days of rail and motor freight line service. Others are just some which have been abandoned that they have been fortunate enough to fall heir to.

If the present trend for this unique decor continues the old wagon wheel which has been relieved of its original burden to become glorified may not become extinct but it will certainly be put out of circulation.

plimentary about the "H. L. Market & Gifts." They each said that the cakes which were on sale were the prettiest that they had ever seen and commented on how keen the competition must be at the County Fair. They thought that it was quite unusual that this county does not have a County Fair or some method of exhibiting the fine agricultural products raised here.

We did enjoy the visit with these club women and the exchange of ideas on club work. They think that they will open a homemakers' market in a gift shop which is located on Highway 66.

The sale of lightbulbs and the Educational Tour, seemed to impress them in our 4-H work.

Most of the calls that are coming to the office are in regard to insect control. Will on tomatoes is again being quite a nuisance over the county. When you notice the plant wilting it is too late then to do anything about that particular plant. However, this can be prevented by spraying healthy plants with five percent DDT. This wilt is caused by insect damage.

Bagworms are showing up on some ornamental plants. To control this, dust the plants with 10 percent chlordane or 10 percent toxaphene. Use sprays of chlordane or toxaphene or a lead arsenate spray. This lead arsenate spray is made by mixing one tablespoon of lead arsenate to one gallon of water. Apply insecticides chemical control is effective when the worms are full grown. Hand-

The "Messenger" which is published by the Texas Home Demonstration Association was in the mail today. It has a lot of convention news in it. There's also an interesting article on "Being A Parliamentarian." Club Parliamentarians should read this. Four-H dresses will be judged August 10. The judging will be in the County Court Room and will begin at 9 a.m. Home Economics Teachers and Home Demonstration Agents will judge the dresses.

Brock Proves That HR's Aren't Good for Average

Ken Brock

Power to spare

Raymond Lueb slumped 64 points to .545 last week but still holds an 80-point edge over Bill Callaway, his nearest contender, in the Hereford Softball League batting chase.

Lueb slumped in two close games with the Knights of Columbus and Hotel Jim Hill. But the present, spotlight shines on Ken Brock, also of Piggly Wiggly. Brock possesses a batting average of only .250, but he has

Lower Teams Get Chance at Upsets

Thursday and Friday night games in the Hereford Softball League doesn't offer any important clashes; but gives the lower teams in the league a chance to unseat some of the higher teams.

Summerfield and Coopers meet in the second game Thursday night, while Piggly Wiggly and Rutherford's are scheduled to continue a game which was called on account of rain in the second inning. The score was tied at the time, but Rutherford's may not be so fortunate next time.

Coopers, owners of only one victory, are not expected to give Summerfield much trouble. Summerfield, presently riding in fourth place one game ahead of Rutherford's, have a 7-7 record, and can be insured of keeping that spot with a victory over Coopers.

Rutherford's and Piggly Wiggly will continue a game which was postponed until later date when rain caused its abrupt stop in the second inning. At that time the score was tied. But Rutherford's may find it hard to keep up the pace which they were setting.

Friday night Piggly Wiggly has an easy game with Coopers and a chance to notch their 17th triumph against only two losses. The KC's and Summerfield should furnish a better batter in the second game, however. The KC's will be favored to win the game.

Riders are Underdog Against Dimmitt

The Hereford Riders will meet Dimmitt here Saturday night in a crucial palmetto clash. The game will knock one of the two teams from a three-way tie for first which exists. Dalhart is the other team deadlocked.

Hereford may find it rough going getting past Dimmitt. They have previously stopped them 8-5, but now they are without the services of their fine center horse. That may prove to be the turning point of the game.

Dimmitt had a rough time with Fritch last week, but reports are that Dimmitt has a new center horse. That may give them another advantage.

banged out six home runs, all mighty blasts. He has driven in 23 runs and has scored 30. Brock's tremendous power comes in handy every once in a while for Piggly Wiggly.

But Lueb still leads in everything except home runs. Lueb has clouted only two homers all year. The only division he is being pressed hard in is runs scored. There Kenny Brock is only one behind him with 30.

Raymond Dement paces the home run division with seven. However, he is being pressed hard by Brock who has six. Brock has been consistent in his clouting as of lately, while Dement is not consistent but hits in the clutch.

Lueb is not having such a rough time in runs batted in, but Raymond Dement is not allowing him to take it easy. Lueb has 39, and Dement boasts 32. The other contenders are almost all Piggly Wiggly. Tony Urbanczyk of the KC's is the only other entry. He has 26. Bud Pickens has 26, also, and Brock has 23.

Other than Lueb and Brock in runs scored Raymond Dement is also close behind with 28. Duane Albracht of the KC's and Jim Hill's Wendell Burdine are next. Both are deadlocked with a total of twenty-four.

In his Lueb threatens to make a runaway of it. He has 30, and his nearest contender is Raymond Dement with 21. But Dement is being pressed hard by four men. John Winkler, Bud Pickens, Bill Callaway, and Duane Albracht all have 20.

Other than Lueb's average of .545 nobody is batting above the .500 mark. Bill Callaway, Rutherford's, is nearest with .465, and Winkler comes next with .458. Duane Albracht is hitting .447, and Marshall Wilson is hitting the ball at a .425 clip.

Out of the 26 men listed in the batting leaders Piggly Wiggly has more than half. They have 14 (Continued to page 5)

Sox Should Win Easily

The Hereford Pink Sox, surprised victors over Bovina Sunday, can cinch undisputed possession of fourth place and a playoff berth with a victory over Lazbuddie Sunday afternoon at the Lazbuddie baseball park.

Hereford smashed Bovina 16-3 in an unexpectedly easy triumph Sunday. And a victory next Sunday should come just as easy. However, Lazbuddie has just the material to pull an upset and force a tie for fourth.

Lazbuddie has previously been Hereford's only home victory. It was a decisive victory for the Sox, and judging from the Bovina game this game should prove to be an even more decisive triumph for the Bright Hose.

Hereford banged out 18 hits in registering last week's victory. Three Hereford players got three hits, and every player that played entered the hits column. Only three players got only one hit all day.

1. Ted Williams of the Red Sox hit 29 homers last year. How did he place among the home run leaders?
2. Who was captain of the Hereford football team in 1920?
3. Who was the first rookie to be voted Most Valuable Player in the American League?
4. What was the score of the Hereford - Phillips football game in 1953?
5. Who holds the record for the highest slugging percentage ever recorded in the major leagues?

- Answers
1. Williams was second to Larry Doby who hit 32 homers.
 2. Joe Elliston was captain of the 1920 team.
 3. Joe DiMaggio
 4. Phillips won the game by a whopping 60-7 score.
 5. Babe Ruth recorded the tremendous slugging percentage of .847 in 1920, and nobody except him has come close to that mark. His percentage the next year was .846.

BY BILL KNOX
Hereford's Pink Sox cinched at least a tie for fourth place by murdering Bovina here Sunday afternoon, 16-3, behind the steady pitching of lefty Terry McRight.

The sometimes erratic McRight had one of his better days as his teammates supported him with an 18-hit offensive punch which came unexpectedly to Bovina who had previously taken a 6-5 decision at Bovina.

The game started out as if it might be close and turn into a pitcher's duel. Bovina took a small lead with one in the first and one in the third, but a nine-run fourth inning for Hereford dispensed with any idea of a close game.

The game, which cinched at least a tie for fourth and a playoff berth, was hard fought, not very closely, all the way. Tempers flared with the slightest baser. In the eighth inning flustered almost developed, both teams rushing each other, before peace was restored.

Until the fourth frame, Hereford had been handcuffed very effectively by Robert Read. Only two runners had reached base until that time. But in the fourth the Sox pounded out eight hits, taking Darrell Read, winner over Hereford at Bovina, took over about midway in the inning but was also shellacked thoroughly. After the fourth the Sox chased across seven more runs off the latter Read.

After their outburst in the fourth Hereford didn't have much trouble scoring. They were blanked in the sixth and seventh but scored four in the fifth and three in the eighth. Bovina seemed to fall apart at the seams, committing nine errors, only two more than Hereford made.

After a somewhat shaky start, McRight settled down and didn't have much trouble in setting down Bovina. He struck out nine, walked three and hit one. Bovina got no runs and only two hits in the last four innings. They connected for eight hits altogether off McRight.

Every Hereford batter connected for at least one hit. Six got two or more, and three got three safe blows. However, no home runs were blasted off the bats of either team. Seven of Hereford's hits went for extra bases.

Besides turning in a fine pitching performance, McRight did his share of the hitting. He got on every time he batted except one, banging out two decisive singles, walking once and once taking advantage of a Bovina error. He was credited with three RBI's.

Duane Albracht and Taylor Sims both drove in four runs in connecting for three hits apiece. Either player drove in enough runs to turn the tide of victory to Hereford. The other Hereford player smashing out three hits was big Timothy Corbett. Corbett banged out a double and two singles and drove in two runs.

Bovina first took a small lead with a loner in the first. Martin doubled and McCormick singled to cut the side in the second but a chase in the run. McRight struck lowed Bovina their second run in the third. Darrell Read singled and came all the way around when the ball got to Bill Callaway in right field.

Bovina's last run came in fifth. Martin singled to lead off, but McCormick forced him at second with a grounder. Malcolm walked and Darrell Read did more damage with a single to drive in the run.

Hereford didn't score until the fifth but did it in a big way. Brock struck out as a lead off man, and things looked dim when Lueb missed a third strike. But Lueb was safe at first when the catcher was credited with a passed ball. Corbett and Callaway both stroked doubles, and Sam Albracht was safe on an error. Elliston, McRight, D. Albracht, Sims, and Brock all followed with successive base hits before Lueb fanned. Corbett followed with another hit before Callaway ended the inning with a strike out.

Then in the fifth they continued to pour on steam with four more runs. Sam Albracht and Elliston clouted two straight doubles to lead off. McRight walked and Duane Albracht smashed a single. Sims singled, then Brock fanned and Lueb hit into a force out. Corbett grounded out and Callaway fanned. The other three runs came in the eighth on only two hits and two errors.

A Hereford win over Lazbuddie next Sunday would give Hereford undisputed possession of fourth place. Then they would meet Friona in the first round of the playoffs.

KNOX'S KNOTHINGS

BY BILL KNOX

Thought we were going to need boxing gloves for a while Sunday afternoon.

Boxing gloves, brass knucks, mace and chain, 45 automatic, or something along that line anyway. Apparently the whole Bovina team got the wrong impression of the Hereford officiating and sportsmanship.

Had a full scale fight developed as it almost nearly did, Hereford could have been penalized by being ousted from the Central Plains League and fined. Whether the Sox were at fault or not is immaterial. The home team in always held responsible.

The whole deal started when

Bovina was behind 13-3 in the top of the eighth inning. That is probably one of the reasons for the loss of temperament. Still it can hardly be said that either team was at fault. John Winkler, Hereford manager, was quoted as saying, "Nobody was to blame. It was just one of those things that happens."

Probably the person from Bovina who was the most riled was not even a player. But he did have reason to be mad. Bovina was given the dugout most in the sunshine and it was too hot over there. At least he was pretty hot anyway. Besides he forgot his straw (Continued to page 5)

Plans Completed For State Meet To Be In Amarillo

The National Softball Congress's State Tournament has awarded to Amarillo this year, according to an announcement by state commissioner Frank Reid. Reid was a visitor in Amarillo and judged the proposed sites to be excellent for night softball play. Bob McCollum, executive director and coordinator of Kid's Incorporated of Amarillo, has been named tournament director.

The tournament plans were discussed at a meeting between McCollum and Reid at Electra recently. The meet, open to 12 teams in Texas, will last for 11 days beginning August 12.

Reid stated, "This is a great step taken by Amarillo. This state tournament will be the largest held in West Texas as far as entries are concerned."

The only Hereford team presently entered is Piggly Wiggly. Winner of the state tournament will have the opportunity to take part in the world tournament to be held in Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 3-11. (Continued to page 5)

Hereford Romps Past Amarillo

The Hereford Palmetto Polo team knocked the conference lead into a three-way tie by knocking off the improving Will Rogers Range Riders team 13-3 Saturday night at the Riders' Arena.

The game was closer than the score may indicate. The Amarillo team was inexperienced, and the Hereford Riders may even find it hard to defeat them again if the opportunity presents itself. However, if it had not been for the absence of Floyd Welton's fine center horse the score might have been worse.

Hereford led throughout the contest. They were again paced by the fine Harold Beauchamp. Beauchamp has proved himself to be one of the better all-around players in this conference. He is high scorer in the district.

Beauchamp got Hereford off to a good start. He tallied three points in the first chucker. Swift of Amarillo pushed in one to give Amarillo their only point in the initial quarter or chucker.

Then Curt Barclay really got things rolling in the second chucker. Barclay chased in four tallies to make the Hereford total seven. Maggart scored one in the same chucker for Amarillo to make the score 7-2.

Amarillo's last point was scored in the third quarter by Maggart. But Beauchamp matched him plus one to make the score 9-3. Beauchamp continued his scoring ways with four more in the final chucker to wind up the final score of 13-3.

Jack France, who only plays sometimes, did a very fine job on the defense for Hereford. Curt Barclay, also making his first start, did a very fine job in the number one slot. Maggart was the outstanding player for the Amarillo group.

QUITE A FISH—This three-pound bass caught by young Mickey Bonasio at Buffalo Lake Friday afternoon was caught by mistake. He was fishing for carp with the unusual bait of a whale. When the bass was landed, "At first it felt like a whole, but I didn't have much trouble bringing him in," said Bonasio. (Staff Photo)

KC's Knock Off Hotel To Gain Second Place

The KC's jumped into second place Monday night with a surprising 6-2 victory over Hotel Jim Hill, while the Popular Store extended Summerfield in losing a rugged 8-6 battle.

Behind the two-hit pitching of Ken Walterscheid, the KC's didn't need many runs to win. Blue Turpin had his troubles from beginning to finish. He was pounded for only eight hits, however, in giving up the six runs. Turpin walked only one man, and Walterscheid issued three passes.

Turpin had only one really troublesome inning. But that was enough to beat him. The KC's scored five of their runs in one ining, while Jim Hill scored one in each of two innings.

Jim Hill's only two hits were garnered by Dick Ross. One was a triple to right; the other was a single to right. Hotel batters struck out nine times, thanks to the smooth Walterscheid. Turpin failed to strike out a single batter. Three errors made by the KC's helped Jim Hill toward their two runs.

It was obvious from the beginning that Walterscheid was having one of his better nights. Walterscheid got by some of the most feared power in the league without considerable damage. Jim Hill made five errors which didn't help things any.

The KC's went down in order in the top of the first, but Jim Hill threatened mildly scoring one run. Ross was safe on Urbanczyk's error, going all the way to third. Timberlake popped out, but Howard walked. Ross took home when the KC's tried to get Howard stealing second. They got neither one.

But from then on it was strictly the Knights' game. Hotel Jim Hill didn't score again until the fifth inning, and the KC's opened up a comfortable lead.

Their first taste of runs was in the second. They chased across five markers to make the score

5-1. Duane Albracht was safe on Renner's error to lead off. Stengel flied to left, but Urbanczyk drove in Albracht with a double. Walterscheid grounded out. Urbanczyk going to third. Koelzer double across Urbanczyk and scored himself on Fangman's hit. Peters singled, and Billy Albracht walked, and two runs came in on Bill Stengel's double.

The KC's added one in the fourth and Jim Hill scored one in the fifth to make the final score 6-2. The Popular Store surprised everybody when they extended Summerfield with a 8-6. At one time in the sixth inning the game was all tied up.

 What most players called the basis of the argument was that one Hereford player accused a Bovina player of running at big Tim Corbett, Hereford first baseman. We don't think that anybody would be that dumb. Even if they did have that in mind, we're sure they would back out after getting close enough to get a good look at Corbett.
 At any rate the whole deal turned out to be nothing. Everybody shook hands after the game (almost everybody), and everybody was just about cooled off by that time. Mainly because the sun had just gone behind a tree.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT, THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS, AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THAT TO SECURE THESE RIGHTS GOVERNMENTS ARE INSTITUTED AMONG MEN. WE SOLEMNLY PUBLISH AND DECLARE, THAT THESE COLONIES ARE AND OF RIGHT OUGHT TO BE FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES AND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION, WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY PLEDGE OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES AND OUR SACRED HONOR.

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country! It's Independence Day! The Spirit of 1776 still lives. The right to freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth of July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The Eagle for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed on our coin to show our exclusive right. All this reminds us that a Free People had to learn to be a united people. Out of the many came one nation... E Pluribus Unum.

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence, was adopted on that memorable day. This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country "certain inalienable rights... Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness." We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. This is Independence Day!

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

AUSTIN -- Bascom Giles' own story finally was told last week in the Veteran's Land Program furor.

In an expected, but unannounced move, the former and commissioner took the witness stand in the 98th District Court trial. He is charged with stealing or aiding the stealing of $6,890 from the veteran program he administered.

Giles previously had been tight lipped to reporters and investigators. He plead his constitutional immunity against testifying in the Senate inquiry.

Firmly and emphatically, Giles denied he ever stole or helped anyone steal the $6,890.

He placed equal responsibility on the Governor and the Attorney General with himself for administering the program citing they were all members of the Land Board by constitution and by statute.

He denied there were any inaccuracies "to his knowledge" in board minutes as both the Governor and Attorney General have

MUST GIVE UP PET -- Rosa Lea Goates, 8-year-old Corpus Christi girl, is a sad little Miss after finding out that she must part with Brownie, her pet coyote. The Texas laws prohibit keeping coyotes as pets, so Brownie will be turned over to the game warden. Rosa Lea's parents found Brownie and seven other baby coyotes near the outskirts of town. (AP WIREPHOTO) took the motion under advisement. Trial is set for Sept. 6 in Austin.

Morrow Showdown Expected -- Wright Morrow's party status was to be determined by the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin on Tuesday.

Gov. Allan Shivers recently indicated he thought the Texas national committee should resign to promote party unity. Morrow has been unacceptable to national party leaders since his support of Eisenhower in 1952.

Committee members also were to lay plans for control of 1956 precinct, county and state conventions.

Opposing plans for convention control were made by the Loyalist wing of the party at an earlier meeting in San Antonio.

Oil Allowable Unchanged -- Texas crude oil allowable for August will be on the same pattern as for July.

At a statewide production hearing last week the Railroad Commission ordered the present 15-day production schedule continued.

Under that formula, permissive flow on July 16 was 3,028,324 barrels daily. Some August increase would result from allowable grants for new discoveries.

Segregation Ruling Studied -- Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd last week withheld comment on an El Paso district judge's ruling that Texas school segregation laws are unconstitutional.

He would have to make a detailed study of the decision first, Shepperd said.

Judgment resulted from a Negro girl's suit for entrance to Texas Western College. University of Texas regents had two weeks previously voted to admit Negroes there.

Board of Regents Chairman Thomas said he thought the judge's ruling was moot. However, he said he believed any effort by Negro undergraduates to enroll immediately in the main University could and would be successfully resisted.

Integration Impact Felt -- Desegregation has rubbed out growth plans for at least one Texas Negro College.

Prospect of competition with the University of Texas had that impact last week on Huston-Tillotson College in Austin.

"A first class small college" of 500 to 600 students, rather than an increase to 1000 to 1200 students, is the current goal, the president announced.

Crop Acreage Drops -- Total acreage of Texas crops has dropped five percent, or 1200,000 acres, from last year, according to the US Department of Agriculture.

Allotment restrictions on wheat, cotton and rice plus abandonment of planted wheat acreage account for the decrease.

Partially offsetting this is the record sorghum acreage.

Patrol Extends Deadline -- Deadline for highway patrol job applications has been extended from July 25 to Aug. 1.

One hundred new officers are to be hired by the patrol. Funds were provided by the last legislature by raising drivers license taxes.

SHORT SNORTS -- John Sealy Hospital at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston previously claimed.

He denied ever seeing in a hotel room the state's witness who claimed to be present at a hotel-room conversation in which Giles allegedly discussed making a $250,000 profit on a veterans land deal with Brady land dealer B. R. Sheffield.

State Auditor's Report -- State Auditor C. H. Cavness suggested last week that Texas use part of its oil and gas income from public lands for current school expenses.

Freeing this money, Cavness said, could ease the strain on the state's general fund, even possibly reduce taxes.

Royalties and lease payments from state lands now are deposited in permanent funds of the public schools and the University of Texas. Only income earned by investment of the funds is available for spending.

Under Cavness' plan only 27 1/2 percent of royalties would go into the permanent funds, now totaling more than a half billion dollars.

Copies of the proposal went to the governor and Legislature. Execution of the plan would require both a constitutional amendment and revision of statutes.

Criticism came promptly from University President Logan Wilson who compared the plan to "eating seed corn."

It conflicts, he said, with the present plan to increase University income by easing restrictions on investment of the permanent fund.

A constitutional amendment, approved by the recent Legislature and awaiting vote of the people, would allow University officials to invest up to 50 percent of the fund in corporate stocks. At present all investment must be in low-interest bearing government bonds.

Highway Bids Taken -- Low bids totaling $14,197,575 on road and bridge projects were tabulated by the State Highway Department last week.

Two major highway improvements on US 80 east of Big Spring and on US 83 north of Brownsville were included in the 402 miles of road work.

A contract was let to build a bridge in Dallas across the Trinity River. It will eventually connect with the Dallas-Fort Worth toll road.

Parr Documents Sought -- Attorneys for George Parr have asked to inspect 89 checks and other documents the government will use in its income tax evasion case against the South Texas political boss.

Prosecuting attorneys protested, arguing that the defense was trying to find out what specific evidence the government would introduce.

Federal Judge Pen H. Rice Jr.

QUEEN OF CONVENTION -- Mrs. J. R. Jameson, Jr., of Lubbock, is crowned by Louis B. Orill of Dallas, after being selected queen of the Convention of the Texas Association of the Deaf held in Amarillo. Orill is president of the association. (AP Wirephoto) will begin Sept. 1 charging 13 a day for indigent patients, $150 more per day for private patients. Cause was laid to low legislative appropriations.

Scrubbing Brushes -- To make scrubbing brushes last longer, wash them occasionally in strong salt water. Allow them to dry in the open air and they will be nice and sweet.

Marshmallows -- Spread butter on the knife and marshmallows will not stick to it.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago

The erection of the largest tabernacle ever built in Hereford was completed today by the workmen. It measures 80 x 100 ft. and will seat 1200 people. A choir platform 24 x 60 feet occupies one side of the structure. Seats have been built and provision made to take care of the large crowds to hear the famous divine Rev. Jno. B. Andrews of Arkansas. Prof. R. E. Huston, a noted singer and chorus leader, will have charge of the song service. A chorus of 100 voices will be called in.

F. M. Oberthier of this city, who owns a large ranch in Castro, an adjoining county, sold yesterday to W. E. Hilsell of Kansas City, 1000 bushels of seed wheat. This wheat will be sent into the Spring Lake Community in the Hilsell ranch for the use of farmers to whom Mr. Hilsell is furnishing for seeding purposes. The wheat is Turkey Red variety, and weighs 52 pounds to the bushel, and grades No. 2, hard. The price is about $1.05 per bushel.

25 Years Ago

Going to the polls with the strongest voting aggregation ever assembled on election day in Deaf Smith County, the Democratic party gave an almost complete endorsement Saturday of the present local administration to returning to office, where nominative results were definite and final, all seeking re-election with one exception.

The new bus line to Dimmitt, Tulla and Silvertown was started this week with one daily trip each way. Hereford headquarters for the "Red Byrd" line is at the Corner Drug Store. The bus leaves here in the morning, reaching Silvertown close to noon, and returning from the east it arrives in Hereford around four o'clock. The terracing school held last week on the W. R. Scheihagen farm a fair attendance of interested landowners to learn something about conserving moisture from M. R. Bentry, engineer from A. M. College, and A. K. Short, expert soil conservationist.

Cookies -- Bake the cookies on the bottom of an inverted pie plate if you have no cookie tins. They will not burn so readily when baked in the pan.

Casseroles -- When baking food in a casserole, do not take it out of the refrigerator or put it at once in a hot oven to heat together and there will be no breakage.
